

VOTE ON SCHOOL BONDS WEDNESDAY

Information has seeped down through channels that Governor G. Mennen Williams has taken the first step to shortstop any loss to small businesses in war contracts. Larry Farrell recently made a hurried trip to Washington to investigate what can be done to help the smaller plants during the conversion period and to seek aid in limiting any temporary unemployment crisis. The results of Farrell's mission thus far have not been divulged, nor has the governor made quite clear just what measures can be taken.

● Republicans are confident of passing a two-cent gasoline tax. Williams has said he will veto such a levy if it is considered before general budget measures. Rep. Robert M. Montgomery (R-Lansing) says the governor's veto, despite the shortage of G.O.P. seats, A two-thirds vote is required.

● Michigan's defense orders have soared past the $2,000,000,000 mark. Bulk of the contracts were issued from the army ordnance (tank-automotive) center.

● Michigan's draft boards are feeling the pressure again. With 4,218 men demanded for service in March, the boards are groping for eligible men while Washington officials reiterate that our army can't be kept up to strength by present draft methods.

● School teachers will get short deferments in the selective service system. This would apply to those instructors who are "momentarily irreplaceable." With the present teacher shortage that applies to most of the occupation.

● Michigan's governor now has a house. He bought it himself. Despite action again this year to provide state living quarters to the first citizen, Williams settled on a home near the capitol. His former residence had been listed for sale. It had rented for $275 per month.

● The long-discussed Mackinac Straits bridge may be dropped again. Legislators, most of whom already are pessimistic about the project, now are dragging possible material shortages out on the bag to kill the issue. And they all gasp at the cost.

● Michigan has 82,162 persons on federal civilian payrolls. It may be frightening to realize so many are supported here by taxes, but California has almost as many federal employees. In Michigan, the post office leads the pack with 15,100 employees listed.

● The conservation department again will ask for discretionary power over Michigan's deer herd. Efforts in the past have failed. Will the legislature give up its authority over the department this year?

● Michigan is receiving recognition for pioneering with its mobile hearing trailer units. Health workers of 15 other states as well as the federal security administration and the United Nations health headquarters are asking for copies of the plans.

● Due to increased volume of sales tax collections, now shared with schools and municipalities, Michigan public school teacher salaries have advanced from ninth to fourth place in the nation.

● But Dr. Lee M. Thurston, superintendent of public instruction, fears that trend toward increasing reliance of localities upon state collected funds for schools support is lessening the local sense of responsibility and, consequently, the sense of responsibility toward the community institutions.

● The superintendent also advocates more community colleges to bring at least junior college level in reach of students living in areas remote from the existing colleges and universities.

● This year is expected to be a good one for all-out farm production. (Continued on page ten)

County Plans Group Sees Need for Action on Sylvan Zoning

Fear Hanna Project May Bring About Boom-Type Growth

The Washtenaw county Planning Commission, under the leadership of its chairman, Earl H. Cress, of Ann Arbor, is definitely taking the lead in a movement looking toward being prepared for anything which the Sylvan township "mystery project" might turn out to be. Cress said this week that because of the need for immediate action to prevent undesirable conditions from developing, not only in Sylvan township but in Chelsea and surrounding townships, there is an imperative need for stringent controls regarding housing in the area.

Because of the necessity for quick action, he said, the County Planning Commission was getting in touch by telephone, with Senator Homer Ferguson and Representative George Meader, in Washington, and asking their assistance in learning or substantiating "certain facts" which now lead members of the Commission to believe that the area surrounding the project should be declared a "critical defense housing zone."

The possibility of Kaiser-Frazer expansion and the possibility of vast industrial construction in the Sylvan "mystery project" are both a matter of concern for all residents of the county as well as for members of the Planning Commission, George D. Hurrell, director of the Commission said yesterday. He believes both areas should be classified "critical defense housing zones" thus assuring the channeling here of critical materials for building.

Cress and Hurrell both believe that if they can find out soon about the ultimate use of the Sylvan area, there will be more of a possibility that a mushroom-like growth of interior housing may be prevented.

J. R. Meadows, chairman of a Planning Commission committee, named to study the needs for possible defense housing in the two

Anti-Rabies Dog Clinics Scheduled

The County Veterinary Medical Association joined the County Health Department today in announcing the annual series of dog vaccination clinics for the control of rabies in Washtenaw County. The County Health Department attributes the practical disappearance of rabies in this county to the Board of Supervisors' Resolution of 1943, which requires that all dogs must be vaccinated for rabies within the year before they are licensed. Cooperation of the citizens in the enforcement of this resolution, along with the activities of the Dog Control Officer attached to the Sheriff's Department, have, in the opinion of the local health authorities, practically ruled out the possibility of a rabies epidemic in dogs in this area.

The license deadline date is March 1. The County Veterinary Medical Association and the Health Department believe that the clinics will offer those who have delayed taking their dogs to their own veterinarians for immunization a chance to secure this protection against rabies without penalty.

In many of the clinics the proper officials will be on hand to sell licenses at the time the vaccination is given. Clinics have been scheduled as follows:

Chelsea, Sylvan Town Hall, Tues. and Wed., Feb. 6 and 7, 7-8:30 p.m. Dr. P. E. Sharrard.

Ann Arbor, Armory, Thurs., Feb. 1, 7-9 p.m. Dr. Paul Hanawalt.

Dr. Harry Shipman, Dr. Harold Wright.

Dexter, Fire Station, Sat., Feb. 3, 2-4 p.m. Dr. Paul Hanawalt.

Whitmore Lake, Fire Station, Sat., Feb. 3, 6-9 p.m. Dr. Harold Wright.

Salmon, Fire Station, Sat., Feb. 3, 1-4 p.m. Dr. James Ritchie.

Ypsilanti, Fieldhouse, Michigan State Normal College, Mon., Feb. 5, 7-8:30 p.m. Dr. Charles Wolf.

Dr. Richard Elliott.

Willow Village, Fire Station, Mon. and Fri., Feb. 5 and 9, 2-5 p.m. Dr. Chauncey LaBar.

Superior Township, Superior Town Hall (corner of Prospect and Cherry Hill Roads) Tues., Feb. 6, 2-4 p.m. Dr. Chauncey LaBar.

county areas had recommended at the Planning Commission meeting last week. Wednesday that the committee's report be named a recommendation to be submitted to the Board of Supervisors at its next meeting. The committee adopted a resolution directing the Planning Commission to take action toward having the Kaiser-Frazer and Sylvan areas declared critical defense areas. However, this week Meadows conferred with Cress on the possibility of immediate action of some kind, because waiting for the next regular supervisors' meeting would mean a delay of two weeks or more.

Hurrell said it is his opinion that it would be advisable for Lima, Dexter, Sylvan and Sharon (and possibly, Lyndon) townships to "team up" with the village of Chelsea in taking the initiative in town-wide zoning or in a request for county zoning.

Hanna's Bid on Red School Is Rejected

Friday afternoon, members of the school board of District No. 7, Sylvan township, and a committee appointed at a previous meeting met with John Hanna, "mystery project" owner, in regard to plans for moving the schoolhouse from its present location so Hanna may acquire the site. The meeting was held at the home of Albert Hinderer, of the school board. The majority of the school board and the committee were not in favor of accepting an offer made by Hanna for the removal of the school building and decided to leave the school where it is.

Two previous meetings had been held since Hanna contacted board members in his efforts to acquire the site which is located at the corner of Pritchard and Manchester roads on the east edge of the project. The first meeting took place on December 12 at the Arthur Gram home and the second one at the Norman-Hinderer home, December 19.

At the first meeting a committee of three was appointed to study the proposal to move the school building. The committee included Mrs. Sylvester Weber, Mrs. Alfred Faulkner and Norman Hinderer.

At the December 19 meeting the committee gave its report, stating that J. W. Price, public health engineer from Ann Arbor, had been consulted about the proposed move and that he had advised them of necessary steps to be taken in regard to the proposed relocation of the school. At that meeting also, Hanna reportedly agreed to turn over for the school site, the northeast corner of Manchester and Sager roads which is a part of the former Joe Merkel farm.

Estimates of the cost of moving the school were submitted at last Tuesday's meeting and the decision to leave the building in its present location resulted when Hanna's offer was rejected by a majority of the school board members and the committee of three residents of the district.

Cagers Defeat Flat Rock, Univ. High

By DWIGHT GADD
Chelsea High's record-setting, rambling court squad rang up victories 11 and 12 during the past week as they edged a big, hopped-up U. High outfit, 60-56, last Friday night, and a scrappy Flat Rock five, 25-15 on Tuesday night.

Both games were on the opponents' floors and the double-win pulled Chelsea into a tie for first place with Milan on a 4-0 league record.

In Friday night's game at U. High the Bulldogs displayed what is usually called the mark of a champion as they rallied after a slow start to beat a very tall team that was keyed to fever pitch for an upset.

U. High's Cubs lowered the boom with a bang as they blitzed the Bulldogs 10-0 before the first quarter was half over, and with their definite height advantage, it looked rough for the Bulldogs. Crocker finally broke the ice for Chelsea as he dunked two charity tosses and then the Bulldogs began to roll and to score on their fast break game to pull up to 10-18 at the end of the quarter. And the gratifying thing was that no no-good shot was taken. The Bulldogs lost their composure—they were far calmer and less worried than most of their well-wishers.

Chelsea, after loosening up and finding the range in the last of the first period, really turned it on in the second quarter to show one and all that their 10 straight record was no fluke. In a wild scoring spurt, Crocker hooked one in, Bette one-handed one from the foul circle, and after U. High's Twining hit on a long one, Crocker sank two foul tries, Knickerbocker drove in for a lay-up, and Lehman tied it up on a tip-in to bring the Chelsea delegation up-screaming.

U. High's Weiner put the Cubs ahead again 22-20 on a long push shot, but Crocker got it back on a beautiful jump shot, and then "Knicker" hit a long one header, foul shot, and a lay-up on which he stole the ball and drove the length of the court to score a lay-up, to put Chelsea on top 27-22. The Bulldogs maintained that edge and led 33-28 at the half.

The third quarter was an even nip-and-tuck affair with Chelsea outscoring the Cubs 16-14 for a 49-42 third quarter margin, but the last quarter was an exciting, crowd-pleaser finish with our coach John Magiera, voicing a loud protest over an out-of-bounds ball and a requested time out for Chelsea.

U. High came to life and pulled to within 2 points of Chelsea, 54-56, with a minute and 27 seconds to go, the time of Magiera's protest, and the game was played under protest from that point on by Chelsea. Tobin and Crocker collaborated then to put it out of the Cubs' reach and nullify the protest. Marty drove in for a jump shot to make it 56-54 and then Crocker stole the ball as the Cubs passed in, faked perfectly, passed to Tobin under the bucket and his lay-up made it 60-54 with just seconds to go. Weiner's goal made it 60-56 and that's the way it ended.

According to those who had seen the Cubs before this season, it was the best ball game by far. As the Chelsea, while they played and won a tough game, we don't think (Continued on page two)

Board Told They 'Can't Do Too Much Too Fast' on Schools

Chelsea Agricultural Schools school district electors are to vote again on the $258,000 bond issue which was defeated by only one vote at the Jan. 23 election. Following receipt of petitions presented to the Board of Education it was deemed as the board meeting Tuesday night to set the date for the election on the issue for Wednesday, Feb. 7.

Because only the bond issue will be voted on this time, all electors who vote must individually or jointly own property which is assessed for school taxes in the district. The millage issue was passed at the previous election.

The petitions presented to the Board of Education, requested an immediate vote on the bond issue because of the close election results last week. The petitions bore 80 signatures, including those of persons prominent in the affairs of the community.

The election will be held in the High school gymnasium from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. next Wednesday. In spite of the outcome of the election, last week, school officials said, the board was still obligated to find a solution of some kind to the problem of providing a place for the youngsters of the district to attend classes as crowded conditions increase.

Following last week's disclosure that the Washtenaw county Planning Commission advocated having the "mystery project" declared a "critical defense area," school officials consulted George D. Hurrell, director of the Planning Commission in an effort to learn what effect might be expected in regard to the school situation. Hurrell's advice, cryptically given, was that he believed school officials "couldn't do too much too fast" in order to be ready for what he believes will be a very great increase in demands for housing and schools when the nature of the "mystery project" is finally announced.

If information he claims to have obtained proves as accurate as he believes it will, Hurrell said, the taxable valuation of the "mystery project" will be "millions of dollars."

As a sizable share of the project area is in the Chelsea district, such a vast valuation would greatly reduce the length of time for which taxes need be levied for the retirement of the proposed $258,000 bond issue for construction of an elementary school here, school officials pointed out.

Cpl. Leroy May Is Wounded in Korean Ambush

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. May were notified officially last Saturday that their son, Cpl. Leroy M. May, received slight wounds on January 12 while in action in Korea. The official notification came from Major Edward Wispell, from Washington. The Mays had received a letter from their son prior to receipt of the official notification. He wrote that he received a flesh wound near the right elbow while on patrol duty with a company of men north of Tejon. The company was ambushed at the return trip through a valley. Twenty-three men out of the group of 30 were wounded. Cpl. May stated he was in a hospital at Taegu and was comfortable there. His arm was improving, according to his letter to his parents.

Motorists Urged To Fix Defective Lights

Motorists driving at night are being cautioned by police to check all lights before starting out in their cars. Defective headlights and tail lights have been called to the attention of drivers by police who report that the number of such infractions of the law has been increasing recently.

Any driver of a car with headlights or tail lights missing or with other lighting defects places himself liable to receive a summons calling for a fine. Police said yesterday excuses for defective lights will no longer be accepted.

F. Bureau Woman's Committee Meets at North Lake Church

The Washtenaw Farm Bureau Woman's Committee meeting held last Thursday at the North Lake Methodist church was attended by 50 members and guests. The afternoon meeting was preceded by a pot-luck lunch.

Mrs. Walter Wolfgang, county chairman, presided at the meeting and introduced Frank Trull, of the soil conservation department, a Grass Lake resident. He explained that soil conservationists aim to cooperate with the farmers rather than dictate to them. He told the farm women in his audience that he likened to stewards of the land they work and that if they prove to be good stewards they will pass it on to the next generation at least as good as it was when they came into possession of it and preferably in better condition than it was.

Mary Jane Pidd, of Dexter, who attended the Junior Farm Bureau convention at Dallas, Texas, recently, gave a report of her trip and other highlights of the afternoon were a report by the cancer committee and a discussion of the Woman's Committee's efforts to have more stop signs erected at certain points and also to have road names posted. The cancer committee's report stated that a plan is being arranged in Washtenaw county whereby cancer detection examinations may be had for a set fee.

The next Woman's Committee meeting will be held April 26, the place to be selected by the ladies of the northeast quarter of the county who will be hostesses.

BASKETBALL

It was their best for they were off a trifle in their shooting, but it was a great performance.

Tuesday's game at Flat Rock was another scoring derby for Dave Crocker, who got 33 this time, plus a lax defensive exhibition by the whole squad. Perhaps the letdown was to be expected after the all-out game with U. High and the defense will be back to par tomorrow night.

The report on the Flat Rock game is second-handed this week because the party who was to pick us up didn't know where the intersection of US-23 and Packard road was—and that's just where we were. Anyway, it's straight from the coach and players on that one.

As has been their habit in many games, the Bulldogs came to life very slowly Tuesday night, trailing all of the first half and then gaining the decision in the last period.

Flat Rock led 14-11 at the quarter and 27-24 at the half as the aforementioned defense sagged, and the scoring also suffered. Crocker netted 15 of the 24 first-half points, 11 of them coming in the second quarter, to almost singlehandedly carry the scoring load.

The Bulldogs made their bid in the third quarter as they outscored the Rams 19-11 to take a five-point lead, 43-38, and despite a Ram scoring spurt in the last quarter, Chelsea outscored them 19-17 for their seven-point win.

In the third quarter scoring, Crocker netted nine, Knickerbocker five, Tobin 4, and Lehman one, for the 19 points and the lead they kept thereafter.

The "Pups" weren't so fortunate in these last two games, as they lost a heart-breaker in overtime to the Little Cubs, 40-38, and a close decision to the "Ramlets," 42-39. Joe Greenwood led the local scorers on both nights with 14 and 16 points respectively.

Tomorrow night Chelsea meets Saline in what might be a close game for after a slow start the Hornets have begun to roll and will be here with one big desire only—to upset the high-flying local cagers. And, just a side-note tomorrow night U. High takes on Milan, and after seeing both teams play last week-end we're picking U. High to upset the Big Reds—if they play the way they did last week. A Bulldog win could put them on top all alone, if we're right.

See you at game time!

PRAYER FOR PEACE CAMPAIGN INSTIGATED

A nation-wide movement for a 30-second silent prayer for peace at all civic and public gatherings has been instituted by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and Chelsea Aerie No. 2636, local Eagle unit, has pledged its wholehearted support and cooperation.

In Chelsea, the Eagles plan to invite other local organizations in the community to join together at all civic and public gatherings in a 30-second silent, universal, and personal prayer for peace.

The opening ceremony of all subordinate units of the Eagles now includes a silent prayer to God for peace for all peoples.

Mrs. Chester Notten and daughter, Mildred, attended a shower Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Stella Hokes in Jackson.

Boy Scouts Observe 41st Anniversary

President Truman will greet twelve outstanding Boy Scouts in the White House at noon Tuesday, Feb. 6 and most Governors will receive Scouts at state capitols to mark Boy Scout Week when more than 2,750,000 members will celebrate the organization's 41st birthday.

The twelve scouts will present a "Report to the Nation" to President Truman in the White House, summing up the service projects undertaken by Scout Units throughout America last year.

Nearly 100 leaders representing the Cabinet, the Senate, the House of Representatives and national organizations will attend a breakfast in Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, Feb. 7, with the twelve Scouts. Following sightseeing and visits with members at the state capitols, the Scouts will go to New York to take part in other Boy Scout Week observances.

Observed in every city and town and most villages and hamlets by more than 75,000 units, Boy Scout Week (Feb. 6 to 12), is the largest single birthday observance by young Americans.

On Thursday, Feb. 8, the day that the Boy Scouts of America was incorporated at Washington, D.C., the entire membership will observe the anniversary of the Scout Oath or Promise at 8:15 p.m., in the four time zones.

"Strengthen Liberty" is the anniversary theme. The organization has completed two years of a program known as "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty" which already has made it possible for four hundred thousand additional boys to enter Scouting's ranks. There are now 831 Scout Councils and a total of 288,545 acres valued at more than eleven million dollars in land and eighteen million dollars in facilities and equipment.

The largest single encampment ever held in the Western Hemisphere was the National Jamboree last summer when 47,163 Scouts and leaders camped at historic Valley Forge, Pa. President Truman opened the Jamboree and General Eisenhower, a member of the Boy Scouts' National Executive Board, spoke at a great Fourth of July celebration. During Boy Scout Week the jamboree campers will hold reunions, show their films, pictures and mementos and relive their experiences.

There are now approximately 30 Boy Scouts active in Troop 25, Chelsea. Under the leadership of Acting Scoutmaster Mac Packard, they have arranged an exhibit to be on display in Merkel's Hardware store window during Boy Scout week.

During the entire week all Boy Scouts will wear their uniforms and Sunday, Feb. 11, all will attend church in uniform.

The fee this year, as in previous years, will be $1.50 per dog vaccinated, in spite of rising costs of vaccine.

Only one dog and one cow have years, according to the local Health Department. Before the dog vaccination program was started, it was quite common to have 40 or 50 mad dogs reported in one year. Rabies was also prevalent in livestock and was occasionally reported in skunks and other wild animals. Many people bitten by, or otherwise exposed to, these animals were required to take long and painful Pasteur treatment for the prevention of rabies.

The County Health Department, joining the Veterinary Medical Association in requesting the vaccination of all dogs, to continue the control of rabies.

County Commission Makes Inspection of Local Roads

Raymond Koch, the new member of the Board of County Road Commissioners and Supt.-Mgr. Kenneth L. Hallenbeck were in this area a week ago touring various roads including Werkner, Stoffer, M-92 and Waterloo road. Because they happened to be in the vicinity they also drove over the Sugar Loaf Lake road which has become a bone of contention between residents of the south end of the lake and the Chelsea Agricultural Schools Board of Education because of the discontinuance of school bus route there. When asked his opinion of the roads in the Sugar Loaf Lake area, Mr. Packard said the so-called private stretch of road leading to the county road seemed to be in fairly good condition and that the county road itself has been maintained as well as finances permit. He said he felt it was unfortunate that the subdivision had been laid out as it was but that it was probably considered perfectly satisfactory at the time it was done in 1921. At that time he said it was probably intended only for summer residences and the road question therefore was not as important as it is now when people live at the lake the entire year.

Hallenbeck said a field survey of the area was made some time ago in the Sugar Loaf Lake area and several possible routes were mapped out for new road construction if and when this should become possible. The "if and when," he said, depends on whether finances are provided.

His suggestion for a solution to the road problem in the area is that the land owners, residents and township get together in an effort to obtain the money needed for a road improvement program.

From E. L. Evans of Farmington, Me.: I remember when our mothers worked far into the night, spinning yarn and knitting mittens and stockings for the whole family and leggings that came above the knee (fastened with loops to buttons) for the men-folk. They also made yarn toys for the little tots.

From Mrs. Edna Senne of Cincinnati, O.: I remember when Mother churned the old-fashioned way and I helped her and we had the old-fashioned coffee grinder. She'd make me sit down and put the grinder in my lap and I would grind the coffee. It was Arbuckle's coffee, as I recall. We'd save the wrappers and get beautiful pictures from them.

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chicago: Here are some more old-time song-titles I remember: "In the Pearly Gate Ahead," "Just as the Sun Went Down," "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" "Tell Mother I'll Be There," "Hello Central, Give Me Heaven," "When the Lusitania Went Down" and "I'm a Morris Chair—You'd Be Surprised!"

Report from Washington

By Congressman George Meader

Washington, D.C., Jan. 26.—Last week the House of Representatives adopted three important measures, all unanimously: the Renegotiation Bill, Insurance for Members of the Armed Services, and Reorganization of the Air Forces. On two of these measures there was a roll call vote. The Renegotiation Bill was adopted by a vote of 377 to 0, and the Armed Services Insurance Bill 390 to 0. Reorganization of the Air Forces was adopted on a voice vote.

This means that five important measures now have been passed by the House of Representatives unanimously. In fact, the only controversy in the House thus far in the 82nd Congress was that over the 21-Day Rule, which I discussed in my first report.

It would seem to be an auspicious beginning for unity on programs of national importance, and an indication of cooperation by the minority on non-controversial measures.

From my point of view, probably the most significant measure was the Renegotiation Bill. It was in connection with that bill that I made my first remarks on the floor of the House of Representatives since assuming office.

The Renegotiation Bill provides that certain classes of defense contracts will be exempt from renegotiation. For example, all prime contracts under $100,000; all subcontracts under $25,000 in any one year; and contracts for minerals or agricultural products in their raw stage are exempted. In addition, the act vests discretion in the renegotiation board to exempt certain additional classes of contracts.

I acquired some familiarity with the operation of renegotiation of war contracts during World War II through my work as counsel for the Senate War Investigating Committee. My recollection of some of the testimony before that committee and some of the recommendations of renegotiation officers during out of their experience during the last war induced me to examine somewhat critically the provisions of the new renegotiation Bill.

When I noticed that discretionary exemptions from renegotiation were contained in the bill before the House, I raised the question informally with the ranking minority member, other members, and the minority clerk of the Ways and Means Committee. I inquired whether or not any consideration had been given to these permissive exemptions in the drafting of the bill. I was assured that the costs against the contract that is not exempted and make all of his profits on the one which is."

The position I took on this matter is supported by the unanimous recommendations of the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board in the last war, and also by the Special Committee Investigating the National Defense Program, in its report filed with the Senate February 20, 1948.

After some brief discussion in which the majority members of the Ways and Means Committee of the House urged that my amendment be defeated; the House, by a voice vote, voted down the amendment. The permissive exemptions remain in the bill as passed by the House.

My best information is that the administrative burden would not be increased substantially if the permissive exemptions and most of the mandatory exemptions were eliminated. In my judgment, the advantage of preventing discrimination or favoritism among war contractors and protecting the renegotiation board from political pressures far outweighs any possible slight disadvantage which might result from an increased volume of work for renegotiation officers.

Long-term Investment that pays daily dividends

THESE days thoughtful people turn their minds to the durability of things they purchase.

But it's rare when doing your duty turns out to be the best way to satisfy your heart's desire.

That's what's so marvelous about this '51 Buick. If you picked a car just for the lift it gives you—your pride in its power—or its generous comfort—you couldn't make a better choice.

But make note of this:

That gleaming new push-bar forefront, which greets your eye with flashing beauty, contains 25 grille bars made of stamped steel, individually mounted to "give" and come back unharmed. Combined with a massive, wrap-around bumper, fortified by two stalwart "bumper bombs" and two added uprights, it gives unsurpassed protection.

Springs of stout spiraled steel on all four wheels let your wheels curtsy over bumps, while you ride level as a lance. But they also need no servicing, and breakage is virtually unknown.

Buick's great-powered engine is a Fireball, wondrously lively and eager at the mere touch of your toe—but it also wrings extra power from every drop of fuel, and has the mechanical perfection that comes only from years of experience with this basic design.

Dynaflo Drive gives you effortless smoothness of control—but it also eliminates clutch repair bills, saves tires, eases strain on the whole driving mechanism, from engine to differential.

The road-steady gait of a Buick assures relaxed security—and is also evidence that you have a durable, deep-silled, X-braced frame beneath you. However you check it, you'll discover this: The things that make you yearn for a Buick on first acquaintance, are the very same things that make Buick such a smart long-time buy.

Better see your Buick dealer—soon.

New vaccine cuts spread of Bang's disease 50%

A new Bang's vaccine called Brucella M. is showing outstanding results in tests made by Michigan State College research and extension veterinarians in co-operation with the State Veterinarian. Some 400 herds with more than 5,000 cattle were checked. In herds not vaccinated, indications of the disease accounted for more than 7 per cent. In herds vaccinated with Brucella M., only 3.6 per cent showed indications. Abortion in cattle practically ceased after Brucella M. was used. The vaccine developed at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station is available through veterinarians specially licensed by the State Department of Agriculture. For more information, call, write or visit your County Agricultural Agent.

New telephone wire means fewer poles

The stronger the telephone wire, the farther apart poles can be set. Michigan Bell is now using a new high-tensile steel telephone wire so strong it can span as much as 600 feet between poles. That means fewer holes to dig, fewer poles to set, fewer crossarms to put up, greater efficiency in rural telephone construction. It is another thing we are doing to bring more and better service to you at low cost.

the Railroads RESPECT...

the Labor Unions seek to REPUDIATE this agreement!

What is the TRUTH?

At various states in the present dispute with the brotherhoods of railroad operating employees... the railroads agreed to arbitrate. The union leaders refused. ... the railroads accepted the recommendations of President Truman's Emergency Board. The union leaders refused. ... the railroads accepted the White House proposal of August 19, 1950. The union leaders refused. Finally an Agreement was signed at the White House on December 21, 1950. Now the union leaders seek to repudiate the Agreement. The railroads stand ready to put the terms of this Agreement into effect immediately, with back pay at the rates and date indicated. The Agreement is given in full below:

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

Washington, D. C.
December 21, 1950

1. Establish 40 hour week for yardmen with increase of 23 cents effective October 1, 1950, and additional 2 cents effective January 1, 1951.
2. Set aside 40 hour week agreement until January 1, 1952, and establish 6 day work week for yardmen. Effective with the first pay roll period after 30 days from the date of execution of the formal agreement, yardmen required by the carrier to work on the 7th day to be men required by the carrier to work on the 7th day to be paid overtime rates except engineers who shall receive straight time rates for the 7th day. This does not create guarantees where they do not now exist. On given of desire October 1, 1951, three months' notice to be given of desire to go on 40 hour week. Provide for consideration of availability of manpower and 4 cents per hour if and when the 40 hour week actually becomes effective.
3. Settle rules for 40-hour week and 6 day week.
4. Grant yard conductors and brakemen other rules such as daily earnings minimum, car retarder operators and footboard yardmasters as recommended by Emergency Board No. 81.
5. Settle following rules:
Initial Terminal Delay (Conductors and Trainmen)
Interdivisional Runs
Pooling Caboose (Conductors and Trainmen)
Reporting for Duty
More than One Class of Service
Switching Limits
Air Hose (Conductors and Trainmen)
Western Differential and Double Header and Tonnage Limitation (Conductors and Trainmen, all Territories)
6. Road men to receive 5 cents per hour increase effective October 1, 1950 and additional 5 cents per hour increase effective January 1, 1951.
7. Quarterly adjustment of wages on basis of cost of living index (1 point to equal 1¢ per hour. First adjustment April 1, 1951. Base to be 176).

8. Agreement embodying principles applicable to yardmasters to be entered into for benefit of yardmasters.

9. Effective October 1, 1950, the basic hours of dining car stewards shall be reduced from 225 to 205 hours per month; no penalty overtime to accrue until 240 hours have been worked, the hours between 205 and 240 to be paid at the pro rata rate.

Effective February 1, 1951, overtime at time and one-half shall accrue after 220 hours have been worked. The basic monthly salary to be paid for the 205-hour month shall be the same as that now paid for the 225-hour month. Except that four dollars and ten cents ($4.10) shall be added to the present monthly rate effective January 1, 1951.

10. In consideration of above, this agreement to be effective until October 1, 1953, and thereafter until Moratorium on proposals for changes in wages or rules until October 1, 1953, as follows:

No proposals for changes in rates of pay, rules or working conditions will be initiated or progressed by the employees against any carrier or by any carrier against its employees, parties hereto, within a period of three years from October 1, 1950, except conditions which may have been initiated prior to June 1, 1950. Provided, however, that if as the result of government wage stabilization policy, workers' general improvement increases, the parties may meet to discuss whether or not further wage adjustments for employees covered by this agreement are justified in addition to increases received under the cost of living formula. At the request of either party for a meeting Doctor Steelman shall fix the time and place for such meeting. Doctor Steelman and the parties may secure information from the wage stabilization authorities or other government agencies. If the parties are unable to agree at such conferences whether or not further wage adjustments are justified they shall ask the President of the United States to appoint a referee who shall sit with them and consider all pertinent information, and decide promptly whether further wage increases are justified and, if so, what such increases should be, and the effective date thereof. The carrier representatives shall have one vote, the employee representatives shall have one vote and the referee shall have one vote.

11. If the parties cannot agree on details of agreement or rules they shall be submitted to John R. Steelman for final decision.

The usual protections for arbitrators, miscellaneous rates, special allowances, and existing money differentials above existing standard daily rates will be included in the formal agreement.

12. The foregoing will not debar management and committees on individual railroads from mutually agreeing upon changes in rates, rules and working conditions of employees covered by this agreement.

This man leads three lives!

At first glance, you may think of your pharmacist as a business man. True, he is... and a good one, too. For his store is bright, clean, and attractive... stocked with a variety of merchandise to meet many of your daily needs... especially your needs in times of sickness.

As you take a closer look, you realize that your pharmacist is more than just a man behind a counter. There's a difference—and a mighty important difference, too—which you sense as you watch him and listen to him. In this "close-up" view you see him as a professional man... a man of long scientific training whose broad knowledge of drugs qualifies him to serve you—and your doctor—when illness strikes.

As you get to know him better, you also find that he is a good citizen with the welfare of his community at heart. You see this in his cooperation with health authorities in the fight against cancer or polio or heart disease. You see it, too, in his readiness to participate in other activities for the benefit of his community.

Get better acquainted with your pharmacist—business man, professional man, good citizen. A man you can rely on.

Nothing Better Than Good Food, Says Ohio Man

If a man isn't able to eat the foods he likes he's in mighty sorry shape—imagine going through life without being able to enjoy a fine big platter of bacon and eggs. That is the way Joseph N. Damillot, 3414 E. 5th Street, Dayton, Ohio, used to be, but since he has been taking HADACOL he feels just fine and is able to enjoy lots and lots of fine foods. Mr. Damillot, 50 years old, that taking HADACOL helped his system overcome a deficiency of Vitamins B, B<sub>12</sub>, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mr. Damillot's statement: "My first bottle of HADACOL convinced me that HADACOL was what I needed for the gas on my stomach at night. I could not keep food on my stomach. After the first bottle I was going great. Now I eat bacon and eggs, and other foods that never would stay with me. I also can sleep well at night. Thanks to HADACOL, I will never be without it, and can recommend it to all who suffer with the above ailments that I had. I know because I have suffered for quite some time."

tion. Even with ceilings, prices will be high, economists say, and farmers can expect a good net income.

• But farm labor will be scarce. Military drafts and high wages in war plants will drain labor resources in agriculture.

• The army has asked for 183 nurses from Michigan by February. The state already has a shortage of nurses just as does every other state. Solution? Make the pay sufficient to attract women to a long, arduous training. Trainees now must pay much of the cost for their own medical education.

• The surge of shoppers into the stores this month has sent merchants happily back to reordering after a few weeks of gloomy predictions following Christmas. But in reordering they may find some vouchers returned unfilled. Restrictions are beginning to cramp just a bit on metal products.

• The trend toward chain store supermarkets is costing Michigan $300,000 a year. Now there are but 738 stores—in 1937 there were 2,018 stores in the chains. The vanished stores all were in the top revenue bracket ($250 per license yearly) losing the state $306,250.

• A national survey of elementary and secondary public schools throughout the nation placed Michigan tied with New Jersey for third place in average of teachers' salaries, 1950-51. New York led with $4,030; California second with $3,900 and Michigan and New Jersey tied with $3,700. Michigan led all Middle Western states including Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. (Survey sponsored by New York Times.)

• Michigan excels in high industrial wages, educational opportunities and diversity of outdoor sports such as hunting and fishing. That is why Southern workers are again flocking to our industrial centers as they did during World War II.
