Robert Vogel
Meets Death
in Auto Crash*Strike Utility Pole
in Rounding Curve
Near Pleasant Lake

Robert Lewis Vogel, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vogel, was killed late Saturday night when he fell out of a car driven by Robert Oakley of Stockbridge.

The accident occurred on Pleasant road, near Pleasant Lake, in Jackson county. According to reports of the mishap, the two boys were in the front seat of the car which sideswiped a utility pole shearing off the right door handle. As the car was passing the pole, the door opened and Robert fell out onto the pavement. He died almost instantly of a fractured skull.

In the car at the time of the accident, in addition to the 17-year-old driver, were Ann Harr and Nancy Musbach, both of Munith.

The car belongs to Vogel's father. The youth had driven it to Pleasant Lake, accompanied by Arden Musbach and Stanley Knickerbocker, who were still at the lake when they learned of the accident.

Robert was active in football, basketball and baseball while attending Chelsea High school. In June, 1949, Robert was a delegate to Wolverine Boys' State on the Michigan State College campus at East Lansing. He was sponsored by Herbert J. McKune, Post No. 31 American Legion. He graduated in June, 1950, and has since been associated with his father in the food market on M-92.

Born here November 25, 1931, his parents are Clarence and Beatrice Vogel. He was the second oldest of their five children. He was a member of the Congregational church.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a brother, Douglas, three sisters, Phyllis, Sally and Kay; the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Vogel, of Chelsea, and Mrs. Mina Trolz, of Manchester, and a number of aunts and uncles and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at the Congregational church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The body was at the residence on M-92 until noon and lay in state at the church until the time of the service. Burial was in Oak Grove cemetery. Rev. Skentelbury officiated at the services.

Palmer School
Modernized in Clean-Up Program

The Palmer school on Clear Lake road near Maute road, has been undergoing extensive clean-up operations in preparation for re-opening this fall after a four-year period during which no school was held there. Tuesday of this week more than twenty interested residents of the district held a clean-up "bee" at the 66-year-old school building. The school district itself dates back to 1836, according to papers in the possession of school officials. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Vastu served dinner for those who worked on the project.

Everything is to be repainted and a new oil heating system is being installed. Electric lights are being put in, also. The building had never had any lighting facilities.

Isaac L. Hibbs, school director, said Jackson county road crews were cooperating in getting the brush and weeds cleared away and are trimming trees in front of the schoolhouse. Hibbs said all the work is being done by volunteers so the expense of renovating will cost the district very little.

The school census this year shows there are 21 children of school age in the district. Four of these are high school pupils and three prefer to go to Chelsea High school and the other two to Grass Lake.

A teacher has not yet been hired but arrangements are in progress to procure someone to school can open at the beginning of the fall term.

Other members of the school board are Dillman Wahl, treasurer, and William Henry Lehman, moderator.

Maryellen Moore has been spending several days at Devil's Lake with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Elden, of Sylvania, Ohio, who are at the lake for the summer.

No License Needed
for Farm Youths
To Drive Tractors

E. G. Van Riper, as a minute-man of the Sylvan Farm Bureau, announced this week that the Farm Bureau group had received a letter from Stanley Powell, of Lansing, legislative counsel of the Farm Bureau, clarifying the question of whether farm workers under 16 years of age are required to be licensed motor vehicle drivers if they drive farm tractors on the highways. The question was brought up here when boys under 16 were bringing wheat to market on tractor-drawn wagons.

Quoting Act 300 as amended in 1949, the Lansing attorney's letter stated: "According to Chapter 3, Section 302, the following persons are exempt from license

"Paragraph 2 of that section lists any person while driving or operating a road roller, snow motor, road machinery or any farm tractor or implement of husbandry temporarily drawn, moved or propelled on the highway. In other words, anyone moving grain to market is not required to have an operator's or chauffeur's license."

Williamston 11, Lansing 1. Saline-Chelsea, postponed.

Bell Oak-Fowlerville barely sneaked by Bell Oak 15-14 in 11 innings to maintain its half game lead over the Williamston Bills. It was a see-saw battle throughout the game with the winning run coming on Gene Liddick's triple and a perfect squeeze play in the top of the 11th. With two important games next week, Webberville at Williamston and Chelsea at Fowlerville, the league race should tighten quite a bit.

Edward Yonca, of Maranc, spent the week-end here with the Donovans Sweeney family.

OPENING THE DOORFire Prevented by Chance Discovery of Short Circuit

The timely discovery of a shorted electric wire prevented what might have been a disastrous fire at the Spencer Boyce home Monday night. Boyce went out to the barn about nine o'clock and noticed a small glow of fire which had burned a hole into the wood. He immediately called neighbors to come to his assistance and Edmund Cooper, Sam Whitman, Austin Bott and George Beeman responded.

Investigation uncovered the wire which had been shocked by an east-trough dropping wire. The men helped remove the east-trough which was causing the trouble.

The timely discovery of the shorted wire was credited to the fact that Mr. Boyce and his sister, Mrs. Mary Clark, had called during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schulze had spent the evening there and it was when they were leaving that the discovery was made.

Neighbors Help
as Combine Mishap
Mangles Hand

Robert Burgett, who suffered extensive injuries to his left hand a week ago last Monday while operating his combine, is still a patient at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor. Three of his fingers were badly mangled and surgeons have operated to graft flesh on the injured members. Burgett's hand was drawn into a pulley on the combine when he took hold of a belt which he believed had slipped and stopped. Instead the belt was revolving rapidly. Barring the development of infection, Burgett has been assured by physicians that the hand will heal satisfactorily.

Since he has been confined in the hospital, neighbors have held a harvest "bee" and harvested a field of oats for him. Three combines and ten men worked Sunday to get the oats harvested in good condition.

Mrs. Douglas Weese, Mrs. Don Herret and Mrs. William Bahmiller served dinner to the men.

Joseph Labon Injured; Two
Killed on 12

Joseph Labon, local barber, and Harry M. Gibber, of 101 Liberty street, Peoria, Ill., were hospitalized Friday with injuries received when their cars collided at US-12 and M-92 early Friday evening. Labon suffered head injuries and was kept under observation at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, for possible skull fracture.

Gipper sustained back injuries when he was thrown to the pavement after the cars collided. He was also taken to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital.

According to police reports, Labon was driving north on M-92 and Gipper was traveling east on US-12. Gipper's car reportedly skidded sideways for 80 feet before the crash.

Later, the same night, a Detroit couple met instant death when their west-bound motorcycle collided head-on with an automobile coming from the west which had started to make a left turn at the Clear Lake road intersection with US-12.

The Detroiters killed were Earl P. Mullins, 29, and his wife, Betty T. Mullins, who was 19415 Omira street.

The car involved in the collision was driven by Jerry Bishop, of 4800 Clear Lake. He suffered cuts on the head and right leg and was taken to Foote hospital, Jackson.

in Fall Under Wagon Wheels

Douglas Trinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Trinkle, 9970 Trinkle road, returned home Friday from St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, where he had been under observation since Tuesday. The little fellow, who will be three years old in November, received only superficial bruises when he fell from a tractor-drawn wagon at the Trinkle farm Tuesday, although when he fell two of the rubber-tired wheels of the wagon ran over him. He had been riding on the edge of the wagon on which bales suddenly tipped over and he was thrown to the ground.

His mother said yesterday that the hospital reports stated there were no broken bones and no apparent injuries except the superficial bruises.

TOOTH DECAY PREVENTION—The picture above was taken last week while the dental fluorine treatment for tooth decay prevention was being administered to children of the community. Shown (from left) are Mrs. Clinton Collyer and Mrs. R. W. Wagner, volunteer assistants, Robert Marrow, U. of M. dental student, who administered the treatments, and the following children (front to back): Sandra Hopper, Glenn Rentschler, Barry Lund, and Linda Fisher. Other ladies not shown in the picture who assisted during the two weeks the program was in progress are, Mrs. Howard Flintoff, Mrs. Walter Gage, Mrs. Albert Johnson, Mrs. Edwin Dickelman, Mrs. Gerald Luck, Mrs. James Daniels, Mrs. Eugene Fisher, Mrs. Vernon Parks, Mrs. Parker Sharrard, Mrs. Donald Fogg, Mrs. Alfred Mayer and Mrs. Russell McLaughlin. Seventy-two children received the fluorine treatment here. According to the program previously laid out by the state, it was expected the cost would be higher than it later proved to be, thus making it necessary to charge $4.00 per child. At the close of the program it was found that approximately $125 remained in the treasury. This has been earmarked for next year's dental project to make possible the treatment at a lower rate per child. The local health council plans for next year include beginning preparations much earlier in the year and getting youngsters registered for the program before school closes for vacation.

The Christian's Use of Money and Goods
Lesson for August 12: Matthew 23: 14-15, 19-20
Memory Selection: Matthew 7:12

IN THE PARABLE OF THE talents, Jesus tells of the householder who delivered his goods to certain stewards and took his journey into a far country.

The man who received five talents made five talents more; likewise the man who had received two talents made other two. But the man who was given one talent hid it in the earth and brought it to his lord when he returned from the far country. The plain teaching is that to every man are entrusted certain things which he is required to develop and use to the best of his ability in the service of God and his fellow men. When certain things are entrusted to a man, certain things commensurate with the gift are expected and required.

He who hid his lord's money was not condemned because he had only one talent—but because he did not develop and use what he had. And, while the man who received five talents and the man who had received two grew in their ability to serve, the man of one talent lost all ability and opportunity to serve as the one talent was taken from him and given to another.

God commits unto us all that we have and are, to be developed and used for him. Life is a stewardship. Let us strive to be good stewards of our money, our talents, and our time because we are good stewards of ourselves, of the lives God has given us.

THE WEEK IN Washington

THE WEEK in Washington has been a memorable one, seldom if ever equalled in the annals of congress, with the lower house out of all control of its leaders and clearly under control of lobbyists from the special interests. Chief among these are the cattlemen's association, the meat industry, the National Association of Manufacturers, and the national association of real estate boards.

As the amendment ridden controls act left the house and went to a conference committee it was a meaningless hodgepodge, one amendment conflicting with another and another nullifying that one and so on. It contained amendments which Michael D. Salle, price boss, and Eric Johnston, controls administrator, said would add billions of dollars to living costs of consumers.

While the house was in session as a committee of the whole, lobbyists stood outside the doors in the corridors, sending amendment after amendment in to their friends on the floor. The lobbyists for the cattlemen's association were conspicuous in their ten-gallon hats, so outstanding that they finally removed them. But many wore their cattlemen's boots, and these they kept on.

Administration leaders were hopeful that the conference would come out of session with a workable bill, but the make-up of the committee itself indicated that the controls act, however workable, would be a much-watered down article from the defense production act of 1950.

In the meantime, the National Grange, through its master, Herschel D. Newsom of Indiana has gone on record as favoring President Truman's $10-billion dollar tax plan, which as of now the senate committee has boiled down to about $7,200,000,000. Newsom told the committee the tax boost is justified to put the defense program on a pay-as-we-go basis and supported the treasury's appeal for a four percentage point hike in each tax bracket.

The senate has passed the Interior department appropriation bill.

after restoring most of the funds slashed from the measure by the house. The senate bill carried $538,000,000 where the house had allowed $466,000,000.

A measure proposed as a supplement to the Kern rider tagged onto an appropriation bill has been unanimously approved by the senate foreign affairs committee which deals military and economic aid to countries sending war material to Russia or any of her satellites. The Kern emergency rider would have denied any trade with a Russia satellite or the Soviet Union itself.

The senate banking and currency committee has reported without recommendation a measure to abolish the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The report summarized arguments pro and con against the big lending agency, but said the committee had failed to reach any conclusion. This means, likely, there will be no action on the measure.

Indications are that congress is so divided on what action to take, there may be no action at all on a postal rate increase. Most all agree that certain postal rates should be increased and the chances are said to be about 50-50 on passage of any increase. The senate bill approved carries an increase of about $300,000,000 while a house bill approved earlier carries an increase of about $138,400,000 yearly after the third year.

Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer has replied to a query from Senator Douglas of Illinois on the question of ethics in government by opposition to any government commission set up for this purpose. "I am not one of those who believe that the solution of every problem in government lies in the organization of another alphabetical agency," Secretary Sawyer said.

"It is clear that the ethical standards of a public official will be determined primarily by his own instincts as to what is and is not proper. If he does not know that it is improper for him to accept a gift, no finding or supervision by a commission will educate him.

Beat the Heat by installing an automatic gas water heater that will give you a continuous supply of hot water for restful and refreshing baths. Now is the time to replace your old-fashioned water heater—you'll save all those basement trips to light the heater and turn it off again. You'll save time waiting for water to heat. You'll save gas, too, because the heater automatically turns itself off when the tank is full of hot water.

Frigid Temperature Alloys
Progress has been made in engineering by specifying the use of 84 per cent nickel steel for service at liquid air temperatures and several pressure vessels have been made and installed in commercial plants. The prospect of increased use of commercial oxygen in large volumes in the metallurgical and petrochemical industries indicates a continuing demand for this steel which gives such high strength and great toughness at these frigid temperatures.

SURE, a trim new Buick makes a mighty pretty picture when you see it in your driveway, or watch it wheel by.

But if you could get a mechanic's-eye view of this big, broad beauty as it sits on a lift, you'd see an impressive picture of rugged brawn that makes good-to-look-at Buicks give such a good account of themselves on the road.

You'd see the full-length torque-tube drive that firms the whole power relay system, and steadies your going like a giant hand beneath you.

You'd see big sturdy wheels with really wide rims that provide surer footing, give better car control, make tires last longer.

You'd see all four wheels cushioned by stout coil springs that are completely service-free, practically breakproof—and a principal reason for the ever-level Buick ride.

But mainly, you'd see the massive foundation that backbones every Buick—

FAST, ACCURATE TELEPHONE SERVICE IS VITAL TO CIVIL DEFENSE

Warnings of approaching planes, coming from air raid spotters or military radar screens, are flashed over networks of Long Distance and local telephone lines to Filter Centers.

Telephone reports are quickly charted on Filter Center maps. Then waiting Air Force interceptor planes are alerted.

To help speed your Long Distance call, please give the operator the out-of-town telephone number. • Telephone lines are busy with national defense.

This is but one type of the many special telephone networks serving government and military forces to help protect our nation.

This great and growing telephone system was built to serve America in peace. But it is just as ready to serve in any emergency.

The value of this nationwide telephone network was never greater—than it is today.

It must be kept strong. It is vital to a strong America.

Road Repair Firm Moving to Illinois

The Mid-American Engineering Corporation which has had its plant set up west of the Methodist Home adjacent to the New York Central railroad tracks since last April is now in the process of moving the plant to Illinois. The equipment was set up here to supply the asphalt mix for the resurfacing of US-12 from the Jackson county line to Lima Center.

When the US-12 job was nearly completed the company was awarded the contract for blacktopping the Chelsea-Manchester road from Waldo road to Pleasant Lake road, a distance of almost four miles.
