H. Schneider Succumbs in California

Community Leader Stricken Suddenly at Daughter's Home

Henry Charles Schneider, prominent in church, civic and industrial circles of Chelsea since coming here in 1936, died Friday afternoon in Huntington Memorial hospital, Pasadena, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider had left Chelsea Dec. 12, planning to spend the winter with their daughter and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. Horace R. Goetz of Altadena, Calif. Mr. Schneider had been ill the past week and suffered a relapse two weeks ago. He entered the hospital the Saturday preceding his death.

Memorial services for Mr. Schneider will be held in the Congregational church Sunday, Feb. 15, at 2 p.m.

Cremation took place in Pasadena. Mr. Schneider was secretary-treasurer of Central Fibre Products and had been affiliated with the company since 1936. Prior to that time he had lived at Beloit, Wis., and at Fort Worth, Tex. In Beloit he was a member of the race tracks. (With the parimutuel betting system anything less than a dollar is considered breakage and the winner is paid to the nearest dollar. State formerly got one-halt of this. Sen. Blondy would take it all.)

Others would be the proposed tax on mineral rights and the usual loophole-pluggers. Governor Williams' corporations profits tax also will come under the heading since it isn't a part of any overall plan.

Just what the recommendations of the Citizens Tax Study Commission will be is a highly guarded secret. The commission has been meeting for two years. It is composed of 53 men from representative walks of life, and, therefore, is torn with a bit of turmoil from within. Just recently the Michigan Municipal League, the Michigan Education Association and the League of Women Voters hauled their representatives out of the meetings on the grounds that the entire program is being dictated by industry.

But Senator Higgins claims the commission does have a program, and that bills carrying that program's recommendations all will be introduced by Feb. 10.

One of these bills is sure to include a tax on unincorporated business and partnerships.

And now for the compromise measures. It long has been recognized that both Democrats and Republicans are aware of the seriousness of the state's empty pockets. They will have to get together sooner or later.

And so Gov. Williams has been meeting with tax and financial leaders of both chambers. They have met behind locked doors. Everyone is keeping tensely quiet. And so what progress they have made is not known.

However, one Republican announced that he is getting leery of the whole business. "Williams won't commit himself," he growled. "We try to work something out and he wants to be a politician."

Williams has said that he hasn't plumped for his corporations tax—that that is all.

The $95,000,000 advance payment on the corporation franchise duties will give the state a quick shot in the arm. But what happens when the reckoning comes and the state has to give the corporations actual credit due for the money?

Unless, of course, by that time the franchise tariff has been increased and the state doesn't owe the money any more.

Now from all these sources the state surely can find enough wherewithal to stem the tide of red ink, at least temporarily. Currently the house of representatives has announced it won't act on any tax bills until the entire tax program of the senate is known. This should be within the next two weeks.

Good many of these proposals will go by the boards. The Democrats still hold a couple of hole cards if they don't like any of the measures. The GOP can't get a two-thirds majority in the house to give any bills immediate effect—and the tax bills aren't much use now if they don't get that treatment—and Gov. Williams still holds the veto hammer in the front office.

But Republicans are confident—and don't forget, the legislature can do anything.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams would have been a mighty fine Santa Claus this year, but the Michigan senate still is undecided in a move involving a possible split in GOP ranks as well as "politics as usual."

The governor had dropped very few appointments in the dockings of John J. Kozaren, Hamtramck Democrat, had been reappointed to the liquor control commission, Smith, Detroit Negro attorney, had been named to the workmen's compensation commission. Neither appointment had been approved by the senate.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wiseman of Detroit, and Mrs. M. J. Baxter were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wacker.

Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Monzel and family are moving this week-end to Bridgewater where they will live in the house directly past of the Klager Hatchery while the paragonage is being remodelled.

Juvenile Court Director Addresses Kiwanis Club

The Feb. 2 meeting of the Kiwanis club was highlighted with a talk concerning the Washtenaw county Juvenile Court, its history and its aims, given by Harold Nielsen, director of the court.

He cited its beginning—in 1866, in assuming the present identification in 1878.

Renewal of statutes governing its operation were enacted in 1903, 1909 and, most beneficially, in 1944, with adoption that year of the Juvenile Code.

Probate Judge Jay H. Payne's heretofore unannounced proposal for better facilities in Washtenaw county were disclosed by Nielsen. Present juvenile detention accommodations, he said, are not humane and do not reflect the philosophy of the court which has for its aim the treatment of erring children as young wards of the state and not necessarily as criminals.

Kiwanians were again reminded of the amateur show to be held Feb. 14 and the annual Farmers' Night meeting Feb. 23.

Each Kiwanian will be host to three Washtenaw county farmers for dinner and entertainment.

Harold Goodman of East Ann Arbor, lieutenant-governor of Kiwanis District VI of Michigan, was guest-at-the-meeting which was held in the social center of the Methodist church.

Bulldogs Win U. High Tilt Last Friday

Chelesa won a 56-54 victory from University High last Friday. A last-quarter scoring spurt saw U. High almost close a 20-point gap, only to have time run short.

The first three quarters of the contest—longest to Chelsea—were tied, the entire game. However, many patrons were worried as the seemingly "safe" lead seemed to disappear toward the end of the final quarter.

Neil Buehler led Chelsea's opening attack with six points, while Dave Hollis sank four for U. High. Chelsea led at the end of the quarter, 10-6.

The second quarter saw Chelsea add 25 points while U. High managed to sink 14. Dave Hollis led the scoring parade for Chelsea with 14 points, while Wilson led the Cubs with seven points. The half ended at 25-22.

U. High sank 13 points during the third period, while Chelsea took 12. Dave Hollis led U. High with 11 and Bob White led Chelsea with five. The third quarter ended with the score standing at 50-36.

The fourth period of the game proved to be very exciting. At one point Chelsea led by 20 points, then a determined U. High closed the gap to within two points. Dave Hollis scored eight points while Bob Bertke made three for Chelsea, who played the same five men all evening.

Dave Hollis was U. High's spark plug as he racked up 26 points, while Bob White led Chelsea with 15, with Neil Buehler and Dave Hollis following closely with 14 each. The final score was 56-54.

The Bulldogs won their second game of the season as they defeated U. High's second squad, 31-26. Harold Stott led the Bulldogs with 12 points, while Tony Norman sank eight and Sam DeCamp and Alan Hooper sank seven and six, respectively, for the Cubs.

U. High's girls' team defeated the local girls by a score of 33-31. Chelsea led until the last minute when U. High sank a lucky shot.

Ellen Ward earned 16 points for U. High, while Helen Eisemann made 14 for Chelsea.

Tomorrow night Chelsea will play at Saline. Game time is 8:45.

William H. Joseph, A/2c in the Air Force, has just returned to active duty at Kimpoo in Korea, after his release from a hospital in Japan where he had been treated for battle fatigue and concussion. He is in charge of a laundry which employs 15 Korean girls and six army privates. A son of Corbin Joseph, he attended grade school in Jackson. He enlisted in June, 1951, and received his training at Sampson Air Force Base, near Geneva, N. Y. He was home for Christmas, 1951, on his last furlough before going overseas. He is expected to be at home again some time next month.

Friends who wish to make memorial contributions may send them to the Chelsea Friends of the Library.

Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Monzel and family are moving this week-end to Bridgewater where they will live in the house directly past of the Klager Hatchery while the paragonage is being remodelled.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wiseman of Detroit, and Mrs. M. J. Baxter were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wacker.

TOPS IN COUNTY—Mrs. Robert McNamara (from left), Washtenaw county chairman for the 1953 March of Dimes campaign, Donald Bacon, president of Central Fibre Products company, Blane McClanahan, plant chairman of the Central Fibre division of UAW-CIO Local 437, Mrs. Herbert Sanborn, Chelsea March of Dimes chairman, and Mrs. Carl Reutler, who was in charge of organizational and industrial solicitation in the present drive, were present Friday when Central Fibre's employee-management contribution of $598.50 was turned over to the local March of Dimes committee. The amount represents 100 per cent employee participation, individual contributions ranging from $1 to $10. Dorothy Mackinder and Blane McClanahan contacted each of the 105 employees in the shop, and with the office contributions added, raised a total of $298.25. As with the cancer campaign the last several years, the management matched the amount, making the total of $598.50, the largest single contribution from any industrial plant in the entire county, according to Mrs. McNamara. McClanahan said later that he would like to see all industries in the county follow the plan set up at Central Fibre. Mrs. McNamara commended the employees and management for their whole-hearted effort on behalf of the present March of Dimes campaign. Mr. Bacon said he was pleased with the great interest shown by the employees, not only in the March of Dimes campaign, but in other worthy causes. He said it shows a healthy community and group spirit when a hundred people who work side by side are willing to cooperate in a common project to benefit someone in addition to themselves.

Contract Awarded for Pleasant Lake Road Improvement
Pleasant Lake road, from Fletcher road to Chelsea-Manchester road, is on this year's quota of the long-range road improvement plan of the Washtenaw county Road Commission and contracts were let during the past week for preliminary work on the three-mile stretch.

Awarded the contract for applying a 12-inch layer of sand-gravel lift directly over the old blacktop base, the Gerritt Posthumus company of Wayne, is to complete that part of the job by May 1, according to contract terms.

The contract for 5,000 yards of processed gravel layer to go over the sand-gravel lift was awarded to the Whitehead contracting company of Ypsilanti. Contract terms call for completion by June 1.

In the meantime, bids will be taken on the job of applying the new blacktop finish coat, according to Howard G. Miner, Road Commission manager. He said it was the department's aim to complete the project before next fall.

The blacktop along this three-mile stretch has become a body ache for residents. Replacing the existing surface and applying the new blacktop will make for a durable pavement.

During the improvement program, the road will be realigned at the spot known as the Uphaus curve. The relocation will take the roadway behind the barns on the Uphaus farm. At present, the road runs between the farmhouse and the barns.

Local Branch of Road Commission Has Office Building
Wilbert Breitenwischer, Chelsea yard foreman for the Washtenaw county Road Commission, and his crew of nine men, now have a heated office building and rest room facilities at the local yards since they completed renovation of the 20-foot by 20-foot building on the property adjoining the yards which the Road Commission acquired last fall.

The local crew painted the inside of the building in a willow green shade. The walls and ceiling have been paneled and an asphalt tile floor has been installed. The room is heated by means of a fuel oil heater equipped with a fan circulator.

The building and yards are located on West Middle street.

Breitenwischer and his crew do not have too much time to enjoy the newly-renovated building because they are busy every day, even though there is no ice and snow. This time of year, Breitenwischer said, his men are cutting brush and trees along the roads.

Substitute Pastor
Rev. Thomas Toy was stricken with the flu the past week-end and was unable to conduct church services at the Congregational church, Monday, Mrs. Toy also became ill. Both are reportedly much improved now.

Rev. Nathaniel Skidmore of Jackson, who served as interim pastor here until Rev. Toy took up his duties the first of the year, preached at the local church Sunday.

Wash. Democrats Name Two Delegates to State Convention
William Rademacher and William Schauls were named delegate and alternate delegate, respectively, to the state Democratic convention in Grand Rapids, Saturday, when the Washtenaw county Democrats met in convention last Thursday in the Washtenaw county court house in Ann Arbor. Rademacher and Schauls represent Dexton, Lima, Lyndon, Sharon and Sylvan townships.

Nineteen delegates and the same number of alternates were named from the entire county. Talbot Smith, Ann Arbor attorney, was endorsed by the convention as a candidate for the Michigan Supreme Court.

Two state supreme court justices are to be elected at the April 6 election. Candidates for the posts are named at the respective major party conventions although they will run on a non-partisan ticket.

Enforcement of Gambling Laws Asked

The following self-explanatory statement has been received from the office of the Washtenaw county prosecuting attorney. It was directed to the Washtenaw county sheriff's department.

It has come to the attention of this office that one of the organizations in the county is proceeding with plans for the raffle of an automobile. Apparently a number of organizations are unaware of the Michigan criminal laws prohibiting the running of lotteries or raffles. These are definitely declared to be illegal gambling enterprises under the criminal statutes of the state of Michigan.

Further, the selling or mere possession of lottery or raffle tickets is a misdemeanor. It is, of course, the duty of all officers of the county to enforce these statutes as the legislature has written them. Respect for law and law enforcement is bound to diminish if some openly infinge the same gambling laws, the violation of which sends others to jail or compels them to pay substantial fines.

Therefore, disregard of the state laws prohibiting the holding of lotteries, raffles, and other gambling enterprises cannot be tolerated.

The police of the county are in full accord with this policy, which was established some years ago, and are reminding organizations in the jurisdiction of it. We do not believe that such organizations, so advised, will desire to disregard the gambling laws and expect that they will cooperate with the law enforcement agencies of the county.

Otherwise, the police will proceed to obtain any available evidence concerning car raffles, or other lotteries, as well as all other gambling violations and will secure warrants for the arrest of the violators concerned with a view to criminal prosecution as provided by law.

John L. Osborn, Washtenaw county sheriff, directs the police departments in the county by the statement: "The foregoing is for your information and guidance. I trust that you will guide yourself according to the law as set up in this statement."

County Polio Fund Total Tops $45,000 as Campaign Closes

Mothers March Nets Nearly $600 Last Thursday

The Mothers March, sponsored here last Thursday evening by members of the Chelsea Child Study club, netted the March of Dimes fund a total of $553.10, committee reported.

Approximately $15,000 was contributed in the Mothers March drive that evening in the entire county.

During the hour from 7 until 8 o'clock, while the marchers stopped for contributions wherever the light was turned on, a group of Chelsea school band members circled the streets, playing selections Shroyer. The truck was furnished under the direction of Eugene by George Erke, south of Chelsea, and was driven by Floyd Fowler. Ted Balmer fitted the truck with special wiring to provide lighting.

Members of the band who participated are Bob Balmer, Byron Peterson, Karl Riemenschneider, Bill Sorensen, George Stanfin, Bill Geddes, Arlene Paxton, Sandra Gimney, Monica Smith, Brian Fowler, Cynthia Paul, David Deaton, Evelyn Moore, Douglas Collier and Neil Fahner.

The 14-degree temperature of the day, caused some of the instruments to freeze.

Honored as the first contributor in the Mothers March was Roland Waltrous of Jerusalem road, who contacted a member of the committee as soon as he read of the project in last week's Chelsea Standard.

John Stoffer Hurt Saturday Morning in Cranking Motor

John Stoffer, an employee of the Washtenaw county Road Commission, with the Chelsea yards, suffered a gash over his left eye Saturday forenoon when the crank he was using to start the motor of a gravel loader slipped and struck him. He was at work in the McCabe gravel pit, in Dexter township.

He was brought to the office of a local physician by William Buehler, who was waiting to load his truck when the accident occurred.

It required four stitches to close the gash on Stoffer's forehead. He was back at work Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lindauer and daughter, Loretta, were in Paw Paw Sunday to visit their grandchildren, Sarah and Tina, at the home of their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Oas.

Fibre Plant Tops County Industrial Contributions

With a number of contributions still to come in, Chelsea's total amount contributed, to date, in the March of Dimes campaign, is $3,220. Mrs. Herbert Sanborn, Chelsea chairman of the drive, reported yesterday.

A detailed report of the various divisions of the campaign is not yet available but Central Fibre Products company's employee-management contribution of $598.50 still remains the highest single contribution from any industrial plant in the entire county.

Mrs. Robert McNamara, Washtenaw county March of Dimes chairman, visited the local plant last Friday when the check was turned over to the local committee. She said she wished to add her own personal congratulations to employees and management for the spirit in which the outstanding contribution was made.

Total contributions listed to date from all organizations and industries in the Chelsea area amount to $1,196.73. Mrs. Carl Reutler was in charge of this division of the campaign.

Canisters accounted for $318.48 of the present total listed.

Mrs. Sanborn said a general increase in all contributions in the community was the rule this year. The county, as a whole, seemed to indicate the same trend with $45,000 already accounted for and more still to come in. The total raised in the county last year was $38,815.

Mrs. Sanborn said there has been no expense to the campaign here this year as an anonymous person in the community has assumed whatever expense there might be.

Included in the total amount, as tabulated, is the $551.10 raised in the Mothers March, sponsored by the Chelsea Child Study club.

The county total from Mothers March projects in nine towns was $16,753.

It is believed Chelsea is assured of third place in the county again this year, being topped only by Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

Cash contributed in the Mothers March was left in the care of Chelsea police for safekeeping overnight, Mrs. Sanborn said.

Fire Destroys Tool Shed Tuesday at O. Beeman Farm

A tool shed, 36-feet square and 18-feet high, together with two new tractors, numerous small farm tools, 50 chickens and a few new-born pigs were destroyed by fire Tuesday evening on the Orson Beeman farm, 9015 Beeman road.

Beeman suffered burns on his face and hands in an unsuccessful attempt to save one of the tractors.

The fire, of undetermined origin, was discovered at 7:30 p.m. when the milking was in progress in the second barn nearby. The fire had gained considerable headway by the time it was discovered.

Fire departments from Chelsea, Cassidy Lake and Lima township responded to the alarm and kept the fire confined to the one building. Nothing but the brick foundation walls remained.

Firemen Hold Annual Dinner Saturday Evening

The Chelsea Fire department's annual dinner and ladies' night was held Saturday evening in the social center of the Methodist church. Guests, in addition to wives of the firemen, were members of the Village Council and their wives, Sylvan township Supervisor Elba Gage and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. William Strickland of Ann Arbor.

The after-dinner program was opened with a short talk by Fire Chief Ted Balmer, who introduced George Atkinson as master of ceremonies.

Village President Anton Nielsen and Supervisor Gage spoke briefly and community singing was led by George Atkinson. The latter also sang two selections, "The Sunshine of Your Smile," and "Bells of the Sea." He was accompanied on the piano by his daughter, Nancy.

Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white roses, gladiolus and ivy.

Mrs. Daniels was gowned in blue tulle and worn over a redingote of white net bound in blue. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations and gladiolus, with ivy, and wore matching flowers in her hair.

CATCH MORE FISH IN '53!

A lot of fishermen are impatiently awaiting the coming of the spring and summer months, resolving that this year they're going to catch more and bigger fish than last. Most of them go along with the theory that the one big factor in fishing success is luck. A little analysis of the situation would prove this an unworthy alibi, and while there may well be times when fish go berserk and bite on anything from a pocket handkerchief to a red rubber band, don't count on being around when it happens.

Look at your own fishing friends. Aren't there a certain number of them who always seem to be "lucky"? Every week end they'll come back from the lake with all the fish they want. Meanwhile you may have been fishing in the same lake, but you just haven't been "lucky". Even when this happens day after day most of us are reluctant to admit that those friends might know a little more about the art and what they know you could know too, with just a little application.

Twenty Million Fishermen

Scattered throughout this great nation of 48 states are more than twenty million fishermen. About one out of ten buckles down to the job of learning enough about fishing to deliver a feeling of self-satisfaction. If you're one of these "students" of the art you're going to catch more fish than the other fellows—and even on days when everything falls you'll come home with the feeling that at least you gave it the old college try, and you'll be satisfied with the knowledge that the law of averages will take care of you next time!

Get Smart—Now!

So, during these winter months in Michigan, study fishing while you're waiting for spring. How? Well, you know what lakes you'll be fishing, ask the Conservation Department if they have made a map showing weed beds, deep holes, reefs and other contours which would be helpful in locating natural fishing grounds. These maps are very inexpensive—yet very valuable to a fishing "student". And how about your accuracy with a bait-casting or fly rod? It's easy to "put a fish down" by making too many casts in an effort to get your lure in just the right place. Learn to hit the spot the first time. Most communities have winter sessions in bait and fly casting, school gymnasiums or large halls. Join the class! Or get one started in your town. Then learn more about the fish you're after—their feeding habits, favorite foods at various times of the year, and its feeding temperament.

When the season opens put all this knowledge in one boat and watch what happens! You'll find yourself up in that "lucky" ten percent wherever you go in Michigan Outdoors!

Upheld in Northville

Northville—An attempt by the Township Improvement Association to stop circulation of petitions which would place the city-village question on the ballot was defeated Monday night by the Village Commission.

The Association had submitted a petition of its own, asking the Commission to order the city-village question to stop. The Commission refused the request, telling the Association that it has no right to stop any group from circulating petitions, that it only has a right to act on petitions after they have been submitted.—Northville Record.

Children's Clinic in Desperate Need for More Funds

Critical needs of this area's child guidance clinic occupied the full attention of the January meeting of its Board of Directors at the Huron Valley Children's Clinic, 310 South Huron street, Ypsilanti.

The clinic, supported by both state and local funds, is faced with imminent reduction of staff personnel, due to its acute budgetary restrictions.

Principal support from community resources for 1952 was 10 per cent less than the minimum requested to maintain the clinic's current level of operation. State funds allocated for professional clinical staff salaries remain limited.

As a result, the Board of Directors of the clinic is faced with the urgent need of obtaining additional funds for the immediate present, and of planning to augment the staff in the future.

The necessity for increasing the professional staff is immediately apparent in its waiting list of more than 60 children, and their parents, who urgently desire the clinic's assistance.

Local members of the Board of Directors are Ernest Chapelle, superintendent of schools, Ypsilanti; Arthur N. Paine, Ypsilanti; Judge Jay H. Payne, Ypsilanti; Judge Ann Arbor; Henry Hicks, Board of Supervisors, Ypsilanti; Mrs. Frederick Collier, Ann Arbor; Mrs. Theophile Raphael, Ann Arbor; Nicholas Schreiber, principal, Ann Arbor High, Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trinkle visited Sunday afternoon at the home of the latter's cousin, Mrs. Caroline Thaler near Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Titus and Norma Jean Dull visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Phelps in Stockbridge, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Piper of Royal Oak spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grant.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

And so, when the lawmakers went back Dec. 18, to authorize Michigan's new law governing the state's schools, they turned both men out in the cold, throwing a wet blanket on any hot rumors that the olive branch would fly over the capitol.

Williams has assumed his third term as governor apparently determined to cooperate with Republicans as far as humanly possible. The governor's career timetable long has been a question, but it most certainly includes a crack at Ferguson's senate seat in 1954.

It follows that Williams will lean over backwards to promote harmony between his office and the legislature to set his house in order in Michigan before taking a go at the senate. Just before the special session he made it official when he asked the CIO-PAC to keep its criticism constructive.

But the Republicans apparently are not about to accept the sprig of olive the Democrats are offering. Says one, just after the governor's latest appointments had been turned down: "This is one way we can hurt Williams." This may sound a bit shortsighted, but the Republicans don't want Williams in Washington any more than they wanted him to be governor.

However, the vote on Kozaren verified what capitol observers have suspected for some time—that the vote in the new GOP ranks, Republicans hold a 25 to 7 majority in the upper chamber. But the vote to confirm Kozaren was 14 to 14. Some place along the line seven Republicans jumped the political fence.

Cause: The younger Republicans have been trying to take over the senate reins. Under the leadership of Senators Creighton Coleman (Marshall) and Carlton Morris (Kalamazoo), the "young Turks" have been edging out some of the old timers. And the oldsters don't take too kindly to this treatment.

Wise in the ways of political maneuvering the older heads are sure to come up with something to counteract the so-called coup of the youngsters.

In the usual over senate control, Governor Williams may be able to sneak through some of his appointments and perhaps a bit of legislation.

He isn't counting on it. From here it looks as though the old battle is still on.

Michigan schools, now in the greatest expansion period in history, can expect a 37 per cent increase in enrollment in the next five years. Dr. John F. Thaden, MSC sociologist, predicts a 1954 registration of 1,465,000 pupils as compared to 1,067,000 in the spring of 1951. The increase will require 19,000 more classrooms and an equal number of additional teachers, he warns.

Lieut. Gov. William C. Vandenberg is still bitter over his defeat for the gubernatorial nomination in the August primaries. The Holland man who conducted his campaign through the dry interests and from the pulpits of the state, says: "Government has nothing I want—nor does the Republican party."

Look for demands upon the Michigan Legislature to revise the laws which whack up the cost of railroad grade separation. Typical is a Detroit case where 12 such grade-separations are proposed. The five railroads involved would be assessed a total of $2.94 million compared to the public's cost of $16.66 million.

The Detroit Times put the argument in a nutshell: "The taxpayer can't understand why he should pay huge amounts to keep out of the train's way. It would seem more logical that the railroads pay the cost of keeping out of the taxpayers' way."

A Michigan survey shows that the average allowance for high school youngsters is $2 to $3 per week. It also shows that inflation-day values for baby sitting and other teen-age chores bring an average income of almost $10.

Michigan's younger cooks are already trying new recipes for cherry pies. Formal announcement of the annual state cherry pie baking contest isn't necessary to stir interest in this event which annually draws more and more young women between the ages of 15 and 20. Prizes this year will be more valuable than ever before.

The University of Michigan is encouraging students from small cities and rural areas to enroll in its medical school on the theory that those reared in small communities are likely to return to their own or similar areas to practice after graduation and that is where the state is shortest of physicians.

Seventy-six hundred tons of wild meat went on Michigan tables in

'51. Its value was more than $10 million (augurbasta in '51 totaled $7 million) and it would provide food for a whole year for over 21,000 families of four persons each.

INSIDE THE CAPITOL

by John B. Martin, Jr., Auditor General

The attention of everyone inside the Capitol now and for the next several weeks will be fixed on the solution of the state's financial problem. My view from the start has been that a solution will be found and I have tried to work closely with the legislature, the schools and the veterans toward an answer.

The problem is that we must do several things at once. We must get the sales tax diversion amendment onto a current basis so that the future and at the same time guarantee to the schools a sufficient sum to assure them that they will continue to operate. In accomplishing this we have also had to find a way to make available as much money as possible in the immediate future. A suggestion which has met with favor among the veterans would enable us to guarantee to them in the Constitution the amount of income now available from trust fund investments. This would make it possible to fully safeguard veterans' needs and would make it unnecessary to maintain the 50 million dollars now held as a sort of bond for performance.

These two steps if approved by the people at the spring election will have to be coupled with further action by the legislature to raise some additional continuing revenue necessary to fill the present gap between income and outgo and to dispose of the accumulated deficit. I do not know at this writing what form of revenue measure the legislature may adopt, but I expect that this will be a combination of several present proposals. It goes without saying that every effort should first be devoted to making further economies wherever these can be made. It is then the part of sound pay-as-you-go government to fill the remainder of the gap between income and outgo with the necessary revenue. I feel certain that this will be done and that the year will be marked by real progress and a return to a sound financial condition of the state.

Our Neighbors

Saline—Delores Ann Faust, 7, of Milan was injured slightly when she ran in front of an auto driven by Elwood Owen, of 3 Owen Place, Saline, at 5:30 p.m. Monday. The child suffered contusions of the nose, face and knees.—Saline Observer.

South Lyon—The latest rumor on who purchased several hundred acres of the 1400 acre Cesar Farms, is that the City of Detroit bought the land for a huge airport.—South Lyon Herald.

Manchester—Four prayers written by the Rev. Karl H. A. Best, pastor of the Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church of Manchester, are included in the Funeral Encyclopedia, published by Harper and Brothers.—Manchester Enterprise.

Buchanan—Buchanan police officers saw a man driving west on East Front street at 11:30 p.m. Saturday. He was weaving from side to side of the street. When he turned north at Oak street he was stopped and found to be in a very drunken condition. When the police went to book him they found a previous warrant that had been issued for him by Justice Batchelor on Oct. 18, 1951, on the charge of leaving the scene of an accident.—Berrien County Record.

Standish—S/Sgt. Mary Barbara Biel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biel of Alger near here, was one of the United States Women Marines who took part Tuesday in the Inaugural Parade at Washington, D.C., for President Eisenhower.—Arenas County Independent.

Rochester—Residents of North Hill Gardens Subdivision, a tract of platted land just north of the northeast corner of the village, came to the Village Council meeting Monday seeking to annex to the village to get a water supply.—Rochester Clarion.

Frankfort—Perch fishing has been fair in Saginaw Bay, where ice is safe for pedestrians but not automobiles. Glen Lake, Leelanau county and Round Lake, Benzie county, also had fair perch fishing. Crystal, Torch and Big Glen Lakes remain open, though recent cold temperatures give promise these might be available to ice fishermen soon.

Pike and pandashing have been generally good throughout the northern lower peninsula during recent days, the conservation department reports.—Benzie County Patriot.

Scottsville—By a vote of 14-7, the Mason county board of supervisors Wednesday approved the location in Scottville of the proposed $210,000 county convalescent home.

This action, however, may not be the end of a bickering two-day debate held by the supervisors about whether the proposed home should be located in Scottville or Ludington.

Ludington City Attorney Eugene Christman threatened that Ludington will fight the supervisors' action in the courts. When the people of the county voted in favor of a new convalescent home last November, he declared, the entire proposal was illegal because on the ballot it was not specified where the home would be located.—Mason County Press.
