New prison riots can be ex pected at Jackson unless the legis-lature acts immediately to appro-priate $13,000,000 for new prison

This was the dramatic report voiced by Austin H. MacCormick, national penal authority, before the Michigan Legislature.

The compelling circumstances of the state deficit are already exerting terrific pressure on legislators to impose new taxes. Senator George N. Higgins suggested that public schools bring suit against the state for some $35 million back payments. This move, he hopes, would force Democrats to drop their insistence for a corporate
