

FAIR PROGRAM DETAILS ANNOUNCED

New School Finance Plan Is Explained

Proposed Building Program Would Add 1.5 Mills in Tax

In planning the financial needs for a proposed new school building containing eight classrooms, it has been pointed out by the School Board that increase in the tax rate for the individual taxpayer would be approximately $1.50 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Payments on the $258,000 bond issue for the elementary school completed last winter are being made at a rate which will see the reserve fund must remain as such until the last year when it may be used for the final payment.

Annexation of several districts to the Chelsea district this year and increased valuation of the Chrysler property are factors in increasing the assessed valuation of the district to approximately $6,500,000.

A bond issue of $198,000, the amount believed necessary for the proposed new school construction and site, would probably call for approval by voters of a tax limitation of 3 or 4 mills in order to satisfy bonding companies, but a levy at that rate would not be made except in the event taxes were unpaid in amounts which would fail to raise the required $20,000 for payment on the indebtedness.

The 1951 bond issue provided for a millage increase of 7 mills for 20 years and a pledge to levy $27,700 each year until all bonds are retired. As already mentioned, the levy last year was 3.5 mills with this year's expected to be approximately 3.33.

A bond issue of $198,000 as proposed for an additional school, would probably require a pledge to levy $20,000 each year until the bonds were retired. The valuation in the district increases, the millage rate required decreases accordingly. The point is, according to the School Board, that approximately $20,000 would be the amount to be raised each year and the larger the valuation the less millage it would take to raise that amount.

Negotiations for acquiring options on the Henry Minkel property as a site for a proposed additional elementary school were still pending this week and a special meeting of members of the School Board and owners of the property was scheduled to be held at Chelsea High school last night.

Local Antique Car Enthusiasts Plan To Attend Festival

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Daniels in their 1911 Buick, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Balmer in their 1908 Ann Arbor car, plan to participate in the third annual Old Car Festival at Greenfield Village, Saturday, Sept. 19.

Members of the Veteran Motor Car Club of America, they will join with other members of the club and nearly 400 participants in this year's revival of the historic Glidden Tour when it arrives at Greenfield Village for the all-day program.

The 1953 Glidden Tour, led by singer James Melton, has been scheduled to coincide with the Old Car Festival in the village.

At the turn of the century, the tour was named after Charles J. Glidden, wealthy industrialist who sponsored the trip. They were conducted to demonstrate the "reliability" of the "horseless carriage" and the return of many automotive names which figured prominently in the earlier tours.

During the morning program, the entire caravan of more than 400 cars will be paraded past the judges' stand, grouped by years, and judged for authenticity of restoration. Prizes will be awarded for first, second and third prize. At the end of the day's activities, winners in each category will be reviewed for selection of an overall grand prize winner and the presentation of a gold cup.

Highlight of the day's program, however, will be the afternoon contest beginning at 4 p.m., which will include such arduous gymnastics as cranking, top-raising, tire-changing, and back-seat and slow driving competitions.

Such distinguished and once-popular makes as Simplex, Peerless, Winton, Kissel, Mercer, Franklin, Pierce-Arrow, and Marmon, and rare birds like the Glider, Temple, Moyer, Demos, Penn, and Gals will form a veritable parade of automotive evolution both on the Tour and at the Festival.

School Maintenance Includes New Floor in Gymnasium

Extensive renovation in the high school and old elementary school building during the summer vacation period gave the interiors a fresh appearance for the opening of school Tuesday morning. The newly painted walls in both buildings and Miss Fox's and Mr. Magiera's rooms. In addition, floors were re-finished in the old elementary building and the junior high locker room in the building.

A new maple floor has been laid in the gymnasium and is now in excellent condition.

Partitions which were installed to provide for extra sections in the first grade have been removed and the enlarged room will be used for art and mechanical drawing classes.

The old kindergarten room will be put to use by the chorus; one room has been set aside for a visual aids room and two of the rooms will be used for classrooms. This makes it possible for the super-grade pupils to be under the supervision of one teacher more of the time.

Provision has also been made for one-half day of physical education classes for boys and the same for girls each week.

Sidewalks and curbs have been built at the new elementary school and the rooms have all been cleaned and the floors waxed.

All doors in the building, inside and out, have been varnished.

Garage buses have been at garage for thorough inspection and any necessary repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wacker and Mrs. M. J. Baxter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wiseman at their home in Detroit.

Weather Changes from Torrid to Chilly

The "cold front from Canada" awaited for almost a week after announcement by meteorologists that it was on the way, finally brought relief from the 90-plus degree temperatures Friday afternoon.

Thermometers in this vicinity had registered as high as 90 and 100 degrees at times during the past week.

Friday morning, after climbing to the middle 80's from Thursday night's 71.5 degrees, the temperature fell steadily to a chilly 65 to 60 degrees Friday night.

Temperatures of 92 degrees and higher had prevailed here for 10 days before the break came Friday.

County To Be Free Soon from Hessian Fly

Sept. 18 has been announced as the date when Washtenaw county will be free of the Hessian fly which is the cause of much wheat damage on crops planted too early in the fall.

What planted after Sept. 18, under normal weather conditions, should be fairly certain to escape the fly, which may make appointments by calling Mrs. Holmes.

The clinic will be operated by the Detroit unit of the American Red Cross which is bringing an eight-bed unit that is expected to facilitate the work so that no one will be required to wait more than a few minutes.

The Chelsea Blood Bank, now a permanent organization, has been operating as a temporary unit since December 1952. Its services

County Youth Win Numerous Honors at State 4-H Show

Robert Heller set a new state record in tractor operating at the State 4-H Show, contest in East Lansing last week, according to information from the Washtenaw county Agricultural Extension office.

The complicated course for the contest calls for intricate maneuvers of the tractor and all farm implements. Winning points take into consideration doing the jobs in a minimum length of time with a maximum of safety.

Announcement of official time and other information regarding the tractor operating contest, as well as winners of other honors at the State Show must come through state channels, the Washtenaw county office states. These will probably not be available immediately.

Lloyd Grau of Chelsea, and Arnold Girbach of Saline, represent Washtenaw county on the championship dairy judging team and will go to the National Dairy Congress in Waterloo, Ia., to compete for national honors.

This marks the second consecutive year that two Washtenaw county club members have won places on the team. Last year's team went on to win national honors and then went to England to compete in international contests. Donald Proctor of Chelsea, was one of that championship team.

Among others from this vicinity who won honors at the State Show, according to the Washtenaw county Agricultural Extension office, are Billy Stoffer, second, and Doris Haist, third place in sheep showmanship, and Donald Proctor, third in showmanship in dairy Holsteins.

Washtenaw county had champion county herd of Holsteins, the animals being chosen from three different individual exhibits.

Football Hopfuls Swelter Through Opening Practice

Last week, in spite of the intense heat, 46 hopeful football candidates met at the athletic field on Monday morning to start football practice. Now the number has dwindled to 35.

According to Coach Alan Conklin, who is starting his second year at the helm of the local pigskin dynasty, says more boys don't show up for practice, there is a definite possibility that the "B" team schedule may be dropped.

Under the broiling sun of last week the candidates worked hard at two practices each day.

These acclimation sessions gave the team a good opportunity to break in the new equipment obtained this year. Included in the list of new items are 11 helmets, 15 pairs of practice pants, 15 pairs of thigh pads, and six blocking dummies.

Dexter will be the opponent in the curtain raiser this fall when the Bulldogs will trot out on the field this Friday evening at 7:30 for the local fans' first view of the 1953 edition of the varsity football team.

Fire in Peat Marsh

Chelsea Fire Department men spent from 7 until 9 p.m. Friday putting out a fire in the peat marsh. This was the second time a call was received last week because of fire in the marsh.

Opening Day of Local Schools Sees Record Enrollment

A total of 863 pupils attended school in the Chelsea-Agricultural Schools district on the opening day, Tuesday, Sept. 8, according to school figures. These figures will be increased when all children have been enrolled, especially in the lower grades.

This figure represents an increase of 79 over last year's opening day, and will probably reach a total of 100 when enrollment is completed.

Figures for the various grades, with last year's in parentheses, are as follows: kindergarten, 82 (103); first, 94 (82); second, 71 (62); third, 64 (52); fourth, 66 (50); fifth, 61 (50); sixth, 51 (40); seventh, 44 (56); eighth, 56 (38); ninth, 72 (77); tenth, 73 (64); eleventh, 59 (55); twelfth, 63 (60).

In addition to these numbers there are 18 children attending school in the North Lake school in grades kindergarten through third.

A total of 506 children attended school in the elementary grades and 357 in the high school grades the first day.

DAIRY JUDGING CHAMPIONS—Michigan's champions in dairy judging are shown after their selection in contests at the 38th annual State 4-H Club Show held at Michigan State College last week. Members of the 1953 Michigan 4-H Dairy Judging team are, left to right, Arnold Girbach, 16, of Ann Arbor, Lloyd Grau, 17, Chelsea, both of Washtenaw county; Nevels Pearson, assistant state 4-H club leader and coach; John Welsler, 17, of St. Clair, St. Clair county; and Jon Frasen, 20, of Conklin, Ottawa county. Last year's team won the national championship and competed in international competition in England. Donald Proctor was a member of that team. This team will leave Oct. 2 to attend the National Dairy Congress matches at Waterloo, Ia.

Blood Donor Clinic Will Be Held Here in Congl. Church, Friday, Saturday

Mrs. Dudley Holmes, Chelsea Blood Bank chairman, said yesterday that while the response to her call for volunteers for the blood donor clinic next week has been gratifying, she is still in need of one registered nurse and a few helpers.

The clinic will be held in the Congregational church, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 17 and 18.

"Hours for the clinic are as follows: Thursday, Sept. 17, 10-12 a.m. and 1-4 p.m.; Friday, Sept. 18, 11:30 a.m.-2 p.m. and 3-5:30 p.m.

Workers in Chelsea industries are signing pledge cards and will be given appointments so they will need to spend as little time as possible away from their work.

Other people in the community may come in at any time convenient for them during the clinic hours or they may make appointments by calling Mrs. Holmes.

The clinic will be operated by the Detroit unit of the American Red Cross which is bringing an eight-bed unit that is expected to facilitate the work so that no one will be required to wait more than a few minutes.

The Chelsea Blood Bank, now a permanent organization, has been operating as a temporary unit since December 1952. Its services are for everyone working or living in the community.

Of every 10 pints of blood donated here, five remain in Chelsea, two go to the armed services, two are for the state blood plasma program and one is for insurance against breakage or short pints.

At the December 1952 clinic 191 pints were contributed. Of the 96 pints which remained as Chelsea's share, 68 pints or approximately two-thirds had been used by Aug. 15.

To be eligible as blood donors one must be between 18 and 59 years of age, must weigh at least 110 pounds, and at least eight weeks must have elapsed since a previous blood contribution.

Young people 18, 19 and 20 years old must have written permission of parents or guardians and a statement of overseas service must have been returned to this country a full year before they may contribute blood.

Under the broiling sun of last week the candidates worked hard at two practices each day.

These acclimation sessions gave the team a good opportunity to break in the new equipment obtained this year. Included in the list of new items are 11 helmets, 15 pairs of practice pants, 15 pairs of thigh pads, and six blocking dummies.

All rural schools in this area, he said, are among those opening on that day.

Annual Fall Event To Open Sept. 23 at Local Fairgrounds

'Peace Pilgrim' Entertained at Pielemeier Home

A young woman, calling herself only "Peace Pilgrim," who is traveling on foot from Los Angeles, Calif., to New York and Washington, D. C., in the interests of world peace, was a supper guest Thursday at the Pielemeier home.

She does not give her own name, saying that she is making the pilgrimage not for personal recognition but for the cause of peace.

She carries with her three petitions which she distributes to people who request them, but she makes no effort to force her own opinions on others.

To those who ask what she hopes to accomplish by her pilgrimage she says, "It is an opportunity to talk with my fellow human beings about the way to peace."

She says she belongs to no organizations and is sponsored by

INSIDE THE CAPITOL

By D. Hale Brake
State Treasurer

While the firing of Director of Agriculture Figy is fresh in our minds, the story of how he was fired and the historical background connected therewith may be worth repeating.

Nearly everyone will remember that background through the thirties when he changed not only governor but parties in this state regularly, and as each new governor came in he brought in with him a new Commissioner of Agriculture as the governor then had the power to appoint the Commissioner of Agriculture who served at his pleasure.

Most of these Commissioners were competent men but they lasted just two years each. The organized farmers of the state did not think this was giving them the continuity of service they ought to have in their Department of Agriculture and they set about correcting the situation. After some years of effort by the Farm Bureau, Grange and others, they were able to get through the legislature a bill providing for a Commission of Agriculture with long, staggered terms. The obvious purpose was to obtain more continuity and to prevent political upheaval in the department every time we chose a new governor. That this was accomplished, is a matter of record. Figy stayed ten years.

Few knew the story of how Figy was hired originally. In 1942 Harry Kelly was running for governor. He was a city man, not too familiar with farm problems, so when the time came that he had to give a speech on the subject of agriculture, he called on Richard Pucak of Hubbard, Ohio, Charles Ferradino of Girard, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Berg and sons, of Port Wayne, Ind.

Robert Stricker, who spent the summer here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stricker, left Tuesday for St. Clair Shores where he is a teacher in the Lakeview High school this year.

That's a good question, and we have the answer. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company strives to insure only careful drivers. Careful drivers have fewer accidents. You pay the selling cost only once—that's the kind of insurance State Farm is famous for. So it costs State Farm less to do business, and because State Farm is a mutual company, the policyholders get the savings. If you don't have this low cost dependable car insurance, call 5761 and let your State Farm agent show you how you can get complete protection—at low cost!

Kelly was elected. After his election, he called Vern Brown in and said to him in effect: "Now look, you helped write the speech on agriculture; now where's this man I am going to appoint?" Brown said, "I don't know." Then Kelly said, "Get in here the leaders of the Farm Bureau and the Grange, and the other farm leaders and let's see if we can find the kind of a fellow we want."

That was done and at first they didn't know, and finally a representative of the Farm Bureau said, "I think I know where there's the right kind of a man." The result was that a committee was sent to interview Charlie Figy and to investigate him. As a result he was appointed.

He did not ask for the job. No political pressure was exerted to get him appointed. The job went and got him. That was the way Charlie Figy was originally hired as Director of Agriculture.

The strange thing about it is that now some of the people dissatisfied with Figy's firing are talking about accepting the Little Hoover Commission's report and going back to the type of thing we had in the thirties where a Commissioner is appointed directly by the governor and serves at the governor's pleasure. Under this system, commissioners survive two years each. Under the '45 act Figy survived ten years. Some of our jump reformers would do well to think twice or count to ten.

Some Idled Workers May Be Eligible for Social Security

Thousands of dollars in Social Security insurance benefits are being lost yearly according to Raymond C. Backus, manager of the Jackson Social Security office.

To workers who are now age 65 or over, there is an additional danger of this occurring because of the possibility of temporary layoffs in local plants due to the recent General Motors fire. Most workers will expect to return to their former jobs and will not bother to file an application for social security benefits, even though they could draw these benefits, while they also draw unemployment compensation.

Backus stressed that, from past experience, he has found that many workers think that both benefits cannot be drawn at the same time. While most workers are limited to earnings of not over $75 per month when drawing benefits, workers age 75 and over, or workers in non-social security employment may get benefits regardless of their earnings.

"The best advice," he states, "is for any worker over 65 to contact his local social security office and get information." Then we can take whatever steps are necessary to protect the person's interest.

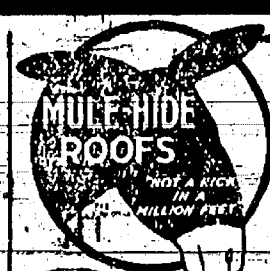

Other types of benefits that can be lost are widow's or children's when the worker's death. Any inquiries about benefits should be addressed to the Social Security Administration, County Building, Jackson.

Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Grabowski and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lancaster and sons were in Pontiac Saturday to attend a family gathering in honor of Mrs. Walter Grabowski and daughter, Lynn, of Iowa City, Ia., who was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Helmkamp.

Saline Pastor Addresses St. Paul's Women's Guild
Rev. Alvin Siemsen, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, Saline, was the speaker at the meeting of the Women's Guild of St. Paul's church here at the September meeting in the church hall Friday afternoon. He gave an impressive resume of the Guild's program for the month, "The Bible Speaks To Us Today About Civic Responsibility," and tried to help his listeners see the Christian's obligation toward others and understand the principles that underlie their moral codes.

He stressed the fact that far too many responsible Christian citizens are too busy to carry on their civic responsibilities, thus allowing unreliable people to take over. He warned that people cannot neglect their interests in local, state and national government without grave peril to themselves and to others.

Christian people need to be interested not only in the activities of their communities, but must also be concerned with the welfare of people in distant lands, Rev. Siemsen said. When three-quarters of the world's population is underfed, Christian people cannot sit back uninterested. They do have a civic responsibility to work for a better community, a better nation and a better world.

Rev. Siemsen was introduced by Mrs. Wilbur Hinderer, who, with Mrs. Arthur Schaefer, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Otto Lucht was the devotional service leader.

During the business session which followed, Mrs. Alfred Lindauer and Mrs. Norman Schmidt were appointed as a nominating committee.

Announcement was made that the annual Mission Festival at St. Paul's church will be held Sept. 20, with a morning and evening service.

It was also announced that the sectional synodical meeting of all church representatives will be held at Bethel church, Freedom township Sept. 20, and that the fall workshop meeting is to be held at Saline, Oct. 20.

The October meeting of the Women's Guild will be preceded by a pot-luck evening meal. Program and devotional leaders scheduled for the evening are Mrs. Howard Flintoft, Mrs. Eugene Fisher and Mrs. Wilbert Breitenwischer.

At the close of Friday's meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. P. J. Sutter, Mrs. Earl Whitney, Mrs. Ann Swikrath and Mrs. Walter Trinkle.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

● Buck passing on bingo and other forms of "charitable" gambling is responsible for one of the dizziest political situations in years. Every government agency finds it wise or necessary to point its finger in another direction. Result: Any one trying to fix responsibility gets groggy running a circle from office to office.

● Banned down, the situation can be simply described. Banning of bingo depends on the prosecutor and sheriff in each county. These officials can order arrests. If they prove their cases, courts have little choice, must find defendants guilty. State law and legal precedence are plain. Bingo and raffles are unlawful according to Supreme Court interpretations.

● "Outs" exist for just about everyone. The governor, whose office permits him to remove a local official for not performing his duty, refuses to become involved. "It's strictly a local issue," he says. The attorney general cannot yield to requests that he permit "charitable" bingo games. He explains, he "can only interpret the laws as they are written."

State Police have a long-standing policy of taking part in local law enforcement only when requested by local officials or when ordered by the governor. It is natural that they should maintain this practice with bingo. And they do.

● Ducking out from behind the eight ball are local police officials and prosecutors. Cussed if they do and cussed if they don't, they face the dilemma of angering part of the local population no matter what they do. Since they are elected officials, their job may depend on the keeness with which they analyze hometown sentiment.

● Sufficient pressure is brought to bear, local officials forbid such lotteries; otherwise, they tend to overlook them.

● So lottery is permitted in one part of the state; forbidden in others. Detroit firemen, who hold an annual raffle of automobiles at a field day, were warned by Detroit Police Commissioner Donald Leonard that they would be arrested if they sold tickets this year. They countered by securing an injunction from a Detroit Circuit Judge preventing enforcement of the gambling law in their case. Copies of the injunction were served upon Detroit and State Police Commissioners, prosecutors and the Attorney General. Legal mills grind sufficiently slowly so that tickets were sold and the raffle held before anything could be done... if anyone had wanted to do anything!

● Only solution, says the Attorney General's office, is for the Legislature to make new laws which would permit such "charitable" gambling; make practical definitions about the other forms of lotteries and games of chance.

● Feeling runs high on both sides of this argument. In the minds of some legislators, the harm done is more theoretical than practical. For these reasons, no one should be surprised if the legislature is "too busy with more pressing matters" to consider the question at all.

● "About 70,000 more children are starting school this year than last September," says Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of Michigan Department of Public Instruction. Youngsters in school relieve mothers of worries during class hours, but the vastly increased number of them add up to a man-sized headache for school administrators in crowded areas.

Most difficulties are encountered in lower grades of schools in metropolitan districts, those areas ad-

Extinguish Grass Fire Wednesday Noon

A grass fire at the Old US-12 East, was threatening a nearby cornfield and had started burning a pile of old lumber when Chelsea firemen were called at 11:07 a.m. Wednesday.

Chrysler Worker Kills Fox with Rock

Harold White of North Main street, Ann Arbor, employed nights at the Chrysler Proving Ground, killed a red fox on his way home from work recently.

Killing a fox in this vicinity, in itself, is not such an unusual feat; however, White's method was very unusual.

When he spotted the fox running along the fence, he stopped his car, picked up a rock and was ready to heave it at the fox, all in the short time it took for the fox to decide which way to run.

The fox decided on the wrong way to try for a get-away when he dashed across the road in front of White. The stone White threw struck the fox squarely behind the ear, killing him instantly.

In St. Mary's Catholic church here, at 10 a.m. Saturday, Esther Marie Klobuchar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klobuchar, and Richard A. Cobb exchanged their wedding vows with Rev. Fr. Lee Laige as the officiating clergyman.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The fitted, bodice of the lace was fashioned with long sleeves and a tiny, stand-up collar. An overskirt of lace reached the hemline of the full, tulle skirt.

She wore the corsage later, pinned to the shoulder of her going-away dress of light blue tulle, with which she used white accessories.

Mary Klobuchar was her sister's maid of honor, while Mary Ann Wheeler was bridesmaid and Donna Klink, junior bridesmaid. Their dresses were styled alike, of double layers of net over tulle. The bridesmaids' matching jacket were of lace and similar lace extended down the front of the skirt, giving an apron effect. Semi-circles of gathered net formed the headpieces they wore. Their flowers were chrysanthemums arranged in colonial bouquets.

State's Judges Hit Prison System in Annual Convention

The Michigan Judges Association, of which Judge James R. Breakey, Jr., was president the past year, held its 26th annual meeting at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor last week, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Officials, other than judges, who attended the annual dinner Thursday in the ballroom at the Union, included Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Senator Homer Ferguson and Congressman George Meader.

U. S. Deputy Attorney General William P. Rogers was the principal speaker at the banquet. He was introduced by Senator Ferguson. In his address he praised the Eisenhower administration for riding "misfits and incompetents and replacing them with outstanding lawyers."

Speaking of the Department of Justice's war against gangsters and subversives he mentioned the tightening of the deportation program which, he said, "has alarmed the underworld more than anything that has happened for many years."

Michigan Chief Justice John R. Dethmers was the speaker at Thursday's luncheon meeting and Judge Edward T. Kane of Algonac, and Judge Donald E. Holbrook of Clare, criticized state prisons in Wednesday's sessions.

Judge Holbrook said it is "lamentable that the state is annually spending less than one million dollars on parole and probation while spending ten million on prisons."

"Probation Recovery" camps, authorized in 1935 but never built, were the subject of a resolution passed by the association. The camps, as units separate from regular prison camps, are intended for young prisoners, 17 to 23 years of age who had never been sent to prison before.

Judge Breakey said such camps would probably be the means of setting these young prisoners straight so they never would be sentenced to prison. The resolution, as passed, calls for establishment of the camps.

Judges' wives were entertained at luncheons and teas and were taken on tours of the campus and other points of interest while the meetings were in progress.

Officers of the association for the coming year were elected during the closing business session Friday.

Judge Archie D. McDonald, of Hastings, succeeds Judge Breakey as president, and Joseph A. Moynihan, of Detroit, was returned for his 12th one-year term as presiding Circuit Court Judge of Michigan.

Other officers elected are Judge Chester P. O'Hara, Detroit; first vice-president, Judge Louis F. Gosh, Lansing; second vice-president, Judge Lucien F. Sweet of Kalamazoo; secretary, Miss Ann V. Cramer was returned as assistant secretary and treasurer.

Serious Accidents Averted Here over Holiday Week-End

Cars driven by Mark E. McClear of Gregory, and Opel Slane, 433 East Middle street, collided on Main street at 2:15 p.m. Friday. The accident occurred as McClear pulled away from the curb on the east side of the street just north of East Middle street. The cars were brought to a stop in front of the Sylvan hotel.

Both cars were slightly damaged but, no one was hurt.

Saturday afternoon James Fowler, of 1284 Columbus avenue, Benton Harbor, was given a ticket for reckless driving after his car struck one driven by Hugh Farrington of 23227 Joy road, St. Clair Shores.

According to sheriff's deputies, the driver of the car behind Farrington said Farrington had signalled for a left turn onto Old US-12 from new US-12, west of Chelsea. As he started the turn the car driven by Fowler passed and pulled off the left side of the highway in an effort to avoid the collision. The cars came together off the highway. Both cars were damaged.

While sheriff's deputies were on the scene another collision occurred at the corner.

Robert Shears, driving a pickup truck loaded with water pipes, started a left turn after signalling properly when the truck was hit from behind by a car driven by Elmo Coleman, 1564 Brewster, Detroit.

Coleman told deputies he had just noticed that cars were slowing up and had cut down his own speed just before hitting the truck. Pipe was thrown off the truck by the impact but no serious damage resulted.

Red School Being Fitted for Fair Use

Work on the Red School building, recently purchased by the Community Fair Association and moved to the fairgrounds, is proceeding satisfactorily. It was announced by Fair officials. The building was placed on the foundation the past week.

Factories of the community have cooperated with the committee in charge of readying the building before fair time by sending men out from the shops to help with the work.

Foremen at Chelsea Spring plant have been helping Sunday mornings and have also gone out for several hours work evenings after they have finished their shop work.

Other volunteers have also been on the job for varying periods and the committee in charge has said that it would have been impossible to get the building ready for the Fair without this volunteer help.

Kiwanians Report on Convention Activities at Monday Meeting

At the Kiwanis club meeting Tuesday evening, the general order of business was a series of reports on the Michigan District convention at Ann Arbor last week.

Paul F. Niehaus gave an overall report of the program and business sessions and Dr. P. E. Sharpe told Kiwanians about the Chelsea-Dexter clubs' joint welcome wagon. He said a number of outstate members stopped at the trailer on their way to the convention.

Charles Lancaster, chairman of the golf group, reported that he and James Daniels, John Keusch, Robert Foster and Karl Koenigster participated in the golf tournament at the convention and Daniels and Foster finished with low scores.

It was announced that a board meeting will be held Sept. 16 at 8 p.m. at the home of Don Alber.
