Flash Fire
Hits Chelsea
Spring PlantBlaze Originates
in Paint Room
Drying Oven

Fifty firemen fought and brought under control at the Chelsea Spring plant Friday evening, a fire that could easily have repeated the recent disaster at the General Motors Livonia plant. The fire, which seriously damaged the one-story paint shop at the northwest corner of the plant, was the same type of flash fire that started the General Motors blaze.

Lowell Davidson, Chelsea Spring company plant manager, said later that one of the chief factors in confining the fire damage to the one department where it started was the Chelsea Fire department's quick response to the alarm and the men's fast and efficient work immediately on arrival. This quick action so soon after the blaze was discovered and before other help could get here, Davidson said, made the difference that prevented complete destruction of the plant.

Minutes after Chelsea's three trucks arrived, the Cassidy-Lake truck with 15 firemen reached the spot and then two trucks from Dexter got here with another 15 men.

The three departments, with some help from the Stockbridge apparatus, brought the blaze under control.

In the meantime, responding to Chelsea Fire Chief Ted Butner's requests, three Manchester fire trucks and one each from Jackson, Ann Arbor and the Chrysler Proving Ground stood by in case they were needed. Jackson's fire chief came along with the truck and three men and offered his help, also.

Local firemen remained on the scene until 4 a.m. and went back the next day to clean up.

Davidson said Saturday that it will probably never be known what caused the blaze.

Staff of Experts
Survey Village
for School Needs

Fritz Lehman, of the University School of Education, and Professor Larson, of the School of Architecture and Design, were in Chelsea Friday afternoon at the invitation of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools Board of Education to inspect possible sites for a proposed new elementary school. They also made a survey of the community and present school facilities. The men are now making a study of the facts they learned here and their findings will be made known to the Board as soon as the study is completed.

The recommendations they make, together with those of educators from the State Department of Public Instruction, will be considered at a special meeting of the School Board some time this week. It is expected the result of their survey of the community will be an aid to School Board members in making a decision regarding the school facilities needed. Plans can then be formulated for submitting a proposed bond issue to electors of the district.

Sites under consideration at this time, in addition to the Henry Merkel farm, are the property of Mrs. Howard Holmes on the west side of McKinley road, north of the Elm street intersection, and the Stalfan property on the south side of M-92 between North Main street and Sibley road.

The Holmes property has been favorably mentioned as a possible site because of the lay of the land as well as the availability of all utilities, according to Dr. J. V. Fisher, president of the School Board.

Football Team
Loses Opening
Game to Dexter

Last Friday evening the local gridirers started the current pigskin season by losing to Dexter with the final score ending 31-21.

Dexter won the toss and chose to receive. Chelsea's co-captains, Don Proctor and Bob Bertke, chose to defend the south goal.

After Dexter received the kickoff, they were forced to punt on the fourth down. Chelsea took the ball on their own seven, but couldn't start rolling. Dave Elkin's kick was short and as the Dexter safety man came up fast to catch the ball, he collided with an official. The Dexter man had touched the pigskin, therefore it was a free ball. Chelsea covered the ball.

This proved to be a lucky break for Chelsea as they drove on to score with Elkin going over for the touchdown. The extra point was made when Halback Don Proctor dashed around left end. The score was 7-0, Chelsea leading. Chelsea went on to score again, early in the first half, when Quarter back Bud Ringe went back to pass from the five, but was rushed. Seeing he was going to be trapped, he ran around right end to score. Fullback Dave Elkin crashed through the middle to score the extra point.

With Chelsea leading 14-0, near the end of the first half, Dexter found a weak spot in Chelsea's right side. With Bob Long doing most of the damage, Dexter scored just before the whistle sounded to end the half. Although Long did end the half, Chelsea covered the ball.

BLOOD BANK CLINIC—With whole-hearted cooperation from all elements of the community last week's Blood Bank Clinic was highly successful. The top photo shows Max Sweet, comptroller of Chelsea Spring, in the act of contributing blood, while Malcolm Bruce, personnel director of Chelsea Spring, Jolly Gullet, president of UAW-CIO Amalgamated Local 437, and Mrs. Duane Crouch, office secretary, at the Gudeman Company plant, are waiting their turn. Performing the technical aspect of the work is Miss Patricia Milnar, R.N., of the Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross. The lower photo shows E. P. Anderson and D. E. Lusk, Chrysler Corp. employees, and Paul Mann, cashier of the Chelsea State Bank, pausing at the canteen table for refreshments, where they are being served by Mrs. James Daniels, R.N. Looking on, from left, are Mrs. Leigh Palmer, Chelsea's chairman of the Red Cross, Mrs. Walter C. Pomeroy, chairman of the Washtenaw County Blood program, Margaret Geleman, R.N., of Detroit, Deputy Chief Nurse of Detroit Regional Blood Center, and Mrs. Dudley Holmes, chairman of the Chelsea Blood Bank program.

185 Pints of Blood Given
Here in Community Project

Mrs. Dudley Holmes, Chelsea Blood Bank chairman, said the clinic was a success. The top photo shows Max Sweet, comptroller of Chelsea Spring, in the act of contributing blood, while Malcolm Bruce, personnel director of Chelsea Spring, Jolly Gullet, president of UAW-CIO Amalgamated Local 437, and Mrs. Duane Crouch, office secretary, at the Gudeman Company plant, are waiting their turn. Performing the technical aspect of the work is Miss Patricia Milnar, R.N., of the Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross. The lower photo shows E. P. Anderson and D. E. Pomeroy, chairman of the Washtenaw County Blood program, Margaret Geleman, R.N., of Detroit, Deputy Chief Nurse of Detroit Regional Blood Center, and Mrs. Dudley Holmes, chairman of the Chelsea Blood Bank program.

Rejection here were considered less than the average, the ratio usually being one of every three volunteer donors.

Mrs. Holmes said also that it was gratifying that many volunteer workers called her and offered their services in response to her request in The Standard for help at the two-day clinic. She said it helped greatly in planning the work and also helped relieve her of much time-consuming telephone work.

The Congregational church was commended by Mrs. Holmes for permitting the clinic to be held there and this cooperation together with that of everyone who contributed time or effort or who gave blood is the teamwork that made the clinic such a success, Mrs. Holmes stated.

The Detroit unit of the American Red Cross was in charge of the clinic with its own doctor and eight nurses.

Volunteer nurses and others who helped at the clinic included Mrs. Vincent-Burg, Mrs. Hans-Grossman, Gertrude Young, Mrs. Ralph Osterlie, Mrs. Armin Schneider, Mrs. Alfred Mayer, Mrs. Donley Rover, Mrs. James Houch, Mrs. Robert Wagner, Mrs. Hugh Sorenson, Mrs. William Geddes, Mrs. Leigh Palmer, who is Chelsea Red Cross chairman, Mrs. Mabel Werner, Mrs. Warren Daniels, Mrs. P. Annual 4-Day Event
Begins Wednesday
with Full Program

Chelsea's Community Fair opens today on the fair grounds at Old US-12 and Old Manchester road at the south edge of the village. The huge tents in which exhibits are being housed this year, have been in place for several days.

All exhibits, with the exception of cut flowers, were to be in place at noon Wednesday. Cut flowers are to be brought in before 9 a.m. Thursday. Judging will begin at 10 a.m.

The complete program for the four-day fair, which ends Saturday night, is printed in this issue of The Standard.

Professional grandstand acts have been secured and include elephants, clowns, wire walkers, balloon exhibitions and other features on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Wednesday night's featured attractions are the tug-of-war between farmers and Chelsea residents, a concert by the Chelsea High school band under the direction of Gene Shroyer, and a public wedding.

All grandstand entertainment will be free.

Admission to the fairgrounds is 25 cents and there is also a 25-cent charge for parking on the fairgrounds. Children, through high school age, will be admitted free.

The annual parade at 2 p.m. Saturday is the big attraction of the last day of the fair.

George Atkinson, chairman of the parade committee, again reminded those who are entering floats in the parade to contact him immediately. The committee must know the number and kind of parade entries in order to assign places in the line-up for the march to the fairgrounds.

The parade will form at Chelsea High school and people are asked not to drive in the vicinity after 1:30 p.m. All floats are to be in place at 1:30.

In case of showers the parade will be held up until there is a break in the rain.

Atkinson said yesterday that seven groups have already notified him that they are entering floats in the parade. These are American Legion Post, American Legion Auxiliary, Kiwanis club, Chelsea Fire Department, and the senior, very road.

Rev. and Mrs. M. W. Brueckner

Hunter of St. Clair, Mr. and Mrs. Moritz Brueckner of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren, of Temperance, and Mrs. Herbert Schaefer. The latter's husband, Rev. Schaefer, could not be present because he is filling speaking engagements in churches in the Cleveland, Dayton and Akron, Ohio area and will be away until Oct. 3.

Others from away are Mrs. Moritz Brueckner's mother and sister, Mrs. Martha Olsen and daughter, Amelia Rose, from Nebraska.

The Ladies' Aid of the church took charge of serving refreshments at the reception where decorations included two large bouquets of ruby-colored gladioli.

Mrs. Brueckner wore a corsage of gold-colored chrysanthemums and Mrs. Beckman and Miss Haarer were presented with corsages of white carnations.

Mrs. Brueckner is the former Martha Buehler of Toledo. Following their marriage, Rev. and Mrs. Brueckner lived in Alpena where Rev. Brueckner served as pastor at St. Paul's church until coming to Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners 27 years ago last May.

Rev. and Mrs. Brueckner received numerous gifts, at both the Friday dinner and Sunday's reception.

Mrs. William Davidson

Mrs. W. Davidson
Honored Saturday
on 90th Birthday

Mrs. William Davidson, a lifelong resident of this vicinity, observed her 90th birthday Saturday by accompanying her son-in-law and daughter to Mason to spend the day with her invalid sister, Mrs. Hattie Fletcher.

Mrs. Davidson was a school teacher before her marriage which took place Dec. 18, 1888, at the home of her parents, Dennis and Elizabeth Updike Spaulding, pioneers in this area. About 70 years ago she taught in the old Red School which was recently moved from Manchester road and Pritchard road, to the Chelsea Community Fairgrounds where it is to be used as an office building. The school was purchased by the Fair Association after the Red School district was annexed to the Chelsea Agricultural schools district.

One of her star pupils about 70 years ago, she said, was Edward Weber, now court officer in the Washtenaw County Circuit court. She also taught in the rural school known as Stokes school and in the Everett school in Sharon township.

Mrs. Davidson is the oldest member of the Chelsea Congregational church which she calls her home.

Part. Claude R. Desertrick, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Desertrick, R. 2, Chelsea, has completed Army basic training at Ft. Rucker, Ala. He was discharged by the 3rd Armored Division at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., on May 1, 1953. He was home for his last day last week, returning to Fort Monmouth on May 4. He enrolls in an eight-week course in Training school there.

ators were directed at the national association which made the ruling. Management was expected that the school committee had not dealt so harshly and with a lack of understanding. Six of the boys from Hastings had accepted the challenge and the boys from Edinboro boys had received a bye. The tournament was a local one.

The same law which the committee had enforced also provided that appeal can be made to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Dr. Clair T. Taylor, who held that position, agreed to hold a week to hold such a hearing.

Mr. Taylor said that the book mentioned in his now book "Mighty Americans" About 5,500 letters had not been planted in northern states as part of a "Convention attempt to teach 'Common Law' when and where to deal with facts of a natural number, and make a better game plan.

Electric shocks were used to carry out the plan. Training was carried on at the Ocean City Hotel under the direction of the Psychological Research Association, Inc.

How to Tailor a Suit will be a special lesson for home demonstrators next month.

Mr. Majors, chairman of the special committee on Michigan, has been selected to represent the college in the special meeting on Friday, Sept. 25, at 1:30 p. m., in the University church basement, Van Arman street.

Those who expect to attend the following workers should be present at the meeting. Mrs. Brown, home demonstration agent, announced this week.

Anyone interested in hearing the discussion on women's leaders is welcome to come to this preliminary meeting.

37 Attend First Grade PTA Meeting Wednesday Evening

School faculty members were introduced by Supt. Charles Cameron at the first Elementary PTA meeting Wednesday evening, Sept. 24. The meeting, previously announced to be held in the kindergarten room of the new school, was held, instead, in the Home Ec. room at Chelsea High school. Because of crowded conditions at the new school where classes are being held in the all-purpose room, all meetings are to be held in the Home Ec. room, it was announced.

Of the 97 people who attended this first meeting, 49 signed membership cards.

Superintendent Cameron spoke at the meeting telling parents that although crowded conditions prevail at the new school because of increased enrollment, children are receiving a maximum of attention with the addition of two teachers in lower grades. He also explained plans for a proposed new elementary school north of the railroad tracks.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Howard Elfinoff, Mrs. Hugh Sorenson and Mrs. R. W. Riemschneider.

Local Kiwanis Club Entertains Wives, Faculty Members

Kiwanians and their wives and members of the faculty of Chelsea High school and the elementary school and their wives and husbands were introduced at the regular Kiwanis club meeting in the social center of the Methodist church Monday evening. Rev. and Mrs. Kinde were also guests at the meeting.

Kiwanis members introduced their wives and, in the absence of Superintendent Charles Cameron, John Griffin, high school principal, introduced the teachers present.

The evening's entertainment feature was provided by Rev. Thomas Toy who showed slide pictures of his summer's trip to England.

Rev. Toy was introduced by Don Alber.

The club voted to accept the invitation of the Junior-Senior High school to attend a pot-luck supper at the school Monday, Sept. 28, and be present for a special talk by Dr. Howard McCusky, of the University of Michigan.

Originally there were four months between presidential elections and the inauguration to allow for slow methods of communication and transportation.

VFW Auxiliary Is Hostess Group for District Rally

The Chelsea VFW Auxiliary's first attempt since its organization as hostess group for the annual Fall Rally of Posts and Auxiliaries of District VI was crowned with success when Mrs. Dorothy Mann, a past department president, told the 200 people present that the noon dinner was the best prepared meal she had eaten in her 20 years of rally attendance.

Mrs. Mac Packard, president of the local Auxiliary, said her statement seemed like an accolade to the comparatively small Chelsea Auxiliary who had never, as a group, served a meal of such proportions.

The attendance was also exceptionally large, the local group having expected approximately 150 people, which is considered average. Sunday's attendance of over 200 was the largest since the Sixth District was reorganized as such ten years ago.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Howard Elfinoff, Mrs. Hugh Sorenson and Mrs. R. W. Riemschneider.

A joint session of Post and Auxiliary members at 1:15 p.m. and the Rally proper, at 2:15 p.m., with Post and Auxiliary members in their respective positions were the principal activities of the day.

During the Rally session, the Chelsea Auxiliary presented the district with a memorial altar cloth.

Dedication of a district banner also took place with Mrs. Emma Applegate, another past department president, in charge.

Mrs. Edith Gage, Sixth District president, presided at the meeting. The rally was held at Camp Norcom, east of Chelsea, the new VFW camp for children.

For many of those present Sunday, it was the first visit to the camp and they were so enthused they voted a number of improvements the district will sponsor.

At Monday night's Auxiliary meeting it was voted to present a life membership in the National Home at Eaton Rapids to Albert Kasper, commander of the VFW Post here the past year.

A membership party was planned for Oct. 5 and announcement was made that Post and Auxiliary members will be guests of Graf-O'Hara Post, Ann Arbor, at a supper Thursday evening, Sept. 24.

U.S. Must Build Civil Defense

RURAL AMERICA HAS IMPORTANT PART IN PROTECTING HOME FRONT

(This is the second of a series of articles on civil defense, based on the booklet "This Is Civil Defense," prepared by the Federal Civil Defense Administration. It may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., for ten cents.)

By MILLARD CALDWELL
Federal Civil Defense Administrator

Even if forewarned of war, our armed forces cannot prevent attack, for there is no sure way of keeping enemy planes from getting through our defenses. The enemy's first objective would be to upset the war efforts of the civilian population, as well as to destroy property and to kill and injure people. His aim would be to make you quit, leave your jobs, desert your homes and start panic among you. Panic can take a tremendous toll of lives. It also can bring production to a standstill.

It is the task of the civil defense to organize and train millions of Americans so that each one will be prepared to render the best protective service at the moment it is needed.

Your aim should be to accept that training so that you will know how to rescue the trapped and injured, know how to work with volunteer fire-fighting units, know how to prevent panic and know how to perform any of the specific duties of civil defense, particularly those you have indicated, in your training, that you are best qualified to do.

There are ways to save thousands of people from the effects of blast, radioactivity and heat from the atomic bomb. There are ways to take shelter, to rescue the trapped and injured, and ways to cut fire losses to a minimum. Organized civil defense can do these things.

The atomic bomb is too expensive to use purposely on a farm community. However, this relative freedom from attack adds to the responsibility of the people who live in such areas. Civilians away from the target area will be better able, mentally and physically, to cope with situations of disaster.

Mrs. Mann, who is now with the Office of Civilian Defense, at Lansing, stayed over and acted as inspection officer at Monday night's regular VFW Auxiliary meeting.

A joint session of Post and Auxiliary members at 1:15 p.m. and the Rally proper, at 2:15 p.m., with Post and Auxiliary members in their respective positions were the principal activities of the day.

During the Rally session, the Chelsea Auxiliary presented the district with a memorial altar cloth.

Dedication of a district banner also took place with Mrs. Emma Applegate, another past department president, in charge.

Mrs. Edith Gage, Sixth District president, presided at the meeting. The rally was held at Camp Norcom, east of Chelsea, the new VFW camp for children.

Miss Huddle will join them for the remainder of the tour which will take them to Vienna and to points in Italy, Switzerland and France. They will return Nov. 17 on the French liner, Liberte.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hinderer took their daughter, Donna, to East Lansing Sunday to enroll at Michigan State College and then called on Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Plankell and daughter, Janet, at their home there. The daughter had been brought home Wednesday from a Grayling hospital where she had been a patient since the Labor Day week-end when she was seriously injured in an automobile accident at Higgins Lake. Miss Plankell had planned to enter the University of Michigan for the opening of the fall term but will now be unable to do so until February. The Plankells were formerly Chelsea residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Arnett

Kathleen Eschelbach, Claude Arnett Wed Saturday Afternoon

Kathleen Ann Eschelbach became the bride of Claude Arnett Saturday in St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, the double ceremony having been performed by Rev. E. H. Grabowski in the presence of 135 guests. The candlelight service took place at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli decorated the altar for the rites. Before the service, Mrs. John Osterle sang "Because," and during the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Carl Mayer, who also played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eschelbach, was given in marriage by her father.

Her wedding gown, of candlelight satin, featured a portrait neckline and the traditional long sleeves ending in points at the wrists. White satin soutache braid was used to trim the gown. The skirt was waist length and she wore matching satin shoes. Matching satin was also used to form a pleated cloak which held her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion and she wore a single strand of pearls which was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white prayer book and a lace handkerchief that her mother and her maternal grandmother had carried when they were married.

Mrs. Roy Bradley, of Ann Arbor, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Her waist-length dress in semi-bouffant style was of forest green velvet. The bodice had a boat-shaped neckline broken with a cut-out V at the center front. Her shoes matched her dress as did the half-hat she wore. Variegated leaves accented the bouquet of yellow Fuji chrysanthemums she carried.

Gerald Wenk was best man and Roy Guenther and Richard Kaimbach acted as the groomsmen.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a dress of of Lucerne blue crepe with which she used black accessories. Her corsage was a golden cymbidium orchid. At the reception which took place immediately after the ceremony in the church hall, Mrs. Rankin Patterson, of Jackson, and Shirley Rihimaki poured while Mrs. Julius Elise, aunt and godmother of the bride, cut the cake. She was assisted by Mrs. John Pierson, a cousin of the bride. Mrs. Howard Baker, of Ann Arbor, was in charge of the guest book.

The linen-covered table was centered with a three-tiered, square wedding cake which was topped with miniature figures of a bridal couple standing under a wedding bell. For going away the bride wore a brown herringbone tweed cashmere suit and brown and mauve pink accessories. Pinned to the jacket of her suit was the orchid she had carried on her prayer book.

When they return from an automobile trip through the Dakotas and Colorado, the new Mr. and Mrs. Arnett will be at home, after Oct. 1, at 233 Jefferson street.

The bride, who is employed in the office of the Federal Screw Works, is a graduate of Chelsea High school.

The bridegroom, a son of Mort Arnett, of David, Ky., and the late Mrs. Arnett, is also employed at Federal Screw Works.

Antiques Displayed at Party Given by Miss Wackenhut

Miss Lillie Wackenhut entertained at a party for friends and relatives at her home Saturday afternoon. Out of town guests were her sister, Mrs. Adolph Eisen, and daughter, Marguerite Eisen, of Detroit.

Reminiscing was in order during the afternoon as the guests viewed a display of mementoes, antiques and keepsakes Miss Wackenhut had on display.

Among the items was what Miss Wackenhut says is the first doll with real hair that was brought to Chelsea. A young child at the time, she said, she was so fascinated by the doll that she walked to the Louis Wines drugstore every day to look at it in its place in the display window. Wines, noticing her delight and desire for the doll, gave it to her as a Christmas gift. Miss Wackenhut said.

Also on display was a christening gown, a yard and one-half long, with matching petticoats. The outfit is more than 70 years old and is trimmed with rows of handmade tucks. Miss Wackenhut and her sister were both christened in it.

A child's set of china dishes, a three-piece bread and milk set composed of individual plate, bowl and pitcher, autograph albums, old-time dresses, a program of the Chelsea High school class of 1895 commencement exercises (the forerunner of present-day programs), old-time pictures, including the first St. Paul's church, and many other interesting items were in the display.

Piano selections by Mrs. Adolph Eisen and accordion numbers played by Mrs. H. G. Gage were enjoyed and Miss Wackenhut served refreshments.

PAST MATRONS

The Past Matrons of the OES met Thursday with Mrs. Henry Leggett for a noon dinner and social afternoon. Eight members were present.

in the Dependable Class!

BE SURE TO SEE THE PONTIAC EXHIBIT AT THE CHELSEA COMMUNITY FAIR—SEPTEMBER 23 THRU SEPTEMBER 26

If there were an annual fair for automobiles, here's one car that would win blue ribbons. Pontiac would surely take top honors for dependability.

Pontiac is built to deliver top performance—day after day, year after year—with only the most routine service attention. You can count on Pontiac to lead a long carefree life—and count the difference, over the years, in green bills if not in blue ribbons, and that's important to you!

It takes years of "pleasant association" to realize fully why, dollar for dollar, you can't beat a dependable Pontiac. But a look and a ride can be mighty convincing proof of enjoyable driving ahead. So be sure to see our Pontiac exhibit at the fair—or in our showroom soon.

New word for GETAWAY "TT" DYNAFLOW!

The 1953 Buick Super Riviera. Wire wheel covers, illustrated, optional at extra cost.

We'll get right to the point. The comments we've been getting from many new Buick owners about the new Twin-Turbine Dynaflo are terrific. And the reason is—this fully automatic transmission is, in itself, terrific. It has a new, firm, solid "take-hold"—gives you instant getaway response. It has new quiet—you can barely hear the acceleration build-up. It has unique and utter simplicity of operation. You just move your Selector into Drive range, press the pedal, and go. That's all. But the sweetest thing of all about TT Dynaflo is its smoothness.

You move from standstill to your legal speed in one progressive build-up of power delivery. You feel a constant "carry" of forward motion, unbroken in any way—because here no gearshifting takes place, either manually or automatically. Even your deceleration is infinitely smooth and gradual, with the cushioned control of flowing oil slowing down. Wouldn't you like to sample this wonderful new getaway and pleasant quiet and immaculate smoothness? We'll be glad to seat you at the wheel of a new 1953 Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflo—and let the thrills come where they may. Drop in soon, won't you?

Local Conservation Officer 'Rescues' Captive Bear Cub

In downtown Chelsea Thursday afternoon, Conservation Officer Donley Boyer was exhibiting a black bear cub about four months old which he was taking to the University of Michigan zoological museum at Ann Arbor.

The bear cub had been brought back from the Upper Peninsula by Harold Van Etten who had intended to keep it as a pet at his home south of Manchester. He had trapped the cub on Tuesday.

Although it was open season for bear, he found when he returned home that Michigan law prohibits keeping bear in captivity so the cub was turned over to Boyer.

After he had brought the cub home, Van Etten had chained it in the yard. When he went out later, the animal had become entangled in the chain and appeared to have choked to death. The chain was removed from the supposedly dead bear which later revived and traveled approximately eight miles before being picked up in Lenawee county and brought back to Van Etten.

University officials will contact the Detroit Zoo, Boyer said, to find out if the cub can be used there.

To transport the bear to Ann Arbor, Boyer had confined it in a wooden crate in the trunk of his car. The cub gave evidence of potential viciousness in its anger at being confined and didn't appear to be the kind of an animal anyone would want for a pet.

To cultivate kindness is a part of the business of life.

ELEPHANTS AT FAIR—These dainty misuses of a few thousand pounds each are appearing at the Chelsea Community Fair for two days, starting on Friday, Sept. 25. The act is called Miller's Elephants and is considered one of the finest animal acts in show business today.

4-H CLUB NEWS

WATERLOO 4-H CLUB

(Last week's items)
The regular 4-H meeting was held recently in the Waterloo Town Hall. As each member's name was called he had to tell how he made out at the Jackson County Fair. Everyone did very well.

Some of the 4-H members who have horses are going horseback riding Sunday, Sept. 20, at 11 a.m. All members are to meet at Hess's riding stables.

The 4-H club is having a hayride Saturday, Sept. 19 at 8 p.m. All members and the guests they bring are to meet at the Waterloo Garage. There will be a wiener roast afterward. Freddy Klink and Orson Beaman are to make all necessary arrangements.

It was decided to have the regular 4-H meeting on Thursday nights instead of Fridays because of Chelsea High school's football games and other activities.

All people who wish to join the club must be at the Waterloo Town Hall to be enrolled Thursday, Oct. 1. All old members who want to carry winter projects must be present, also.

The club is planning to have a party in November. The committee, chosen by president Llewellyn Lehman, are to report on how they are progressing with the plans. On the committee are Mary Ann Klink, chairman, Donna Walz, and Alan LeVan.

Yvonne LeVan is recovering from an appendectomy performed Tuesday, Sept. 8, at Foote hospital.

Everyone had a very enjoyable time on the hayride Saturday, Sept. 19. Fred Klink, Sr., and Orson Beaman, Sr., were the drivers for the hayride.

Many of the members of the club are exhibiting their livestock and other projects at the Chelsea Community Fair.

Some of the members and our leader, Welton Bohne, went on a horseback riding trip to Syreider Hill Sunday, Sept. 20. They had a picnic, also.

—Mary Ann Klink, reporter.

The NEW JOHN DEERE
No. 227
CORN

Come in and see this great new corn saver that's entirely new from gatherers to wagon elevator.

The No. 227's tremendous capacity sets a new standard for handling today's heavy hybrid corn yields. With four rubber husking rolls per row, it has the husking ability to meet the worst picking conditions and come through with flying colors. The snapping rolls are adjustable from the tractor seat while on the go by means of handy levers, reducing plugging and shelling. Higher lift of the picker makes possible shorter turns at row ends. Mounting or dismounting is a simple, fast, easy one-man job with no heavy lifting required. Rugged strength and simple construction mean steady picking, shorter harvests, and lower upkeep costs.

You've got to see this new picker to fully appreciate how outstanding it is. Come in and look it over.

The light that didn't fail

It was 1 o'clock in the morning. To George Stevens, dial telephone switchman, the light on the panel meant that somewhere a telephone was off the hook. An improperly replaced receiver perhaps, or one dislodged by a frisky cat. On the other hand this might be a distress signal. That's what George Stevens thought as he plugged in on the line.

There was no mistaking the weak but urgent voice he heard—a woman calling for help. Quickly Stevens traced the connection to get the telephone number. Then he called another switchman to get the woman's address. Within minutes Stevens had notified the police who sped to the home of the stricken woman in Dearborn. They found an elderly woman helpless on the floor. Later at the hospital she told what had happened. A widow, living alone, she had suffered a severe heart attack that night. Though partially paralyzed, she managed to upset the table on which the telephone stood to summon help.

Police say that Stevens' prompt action "beyond a doubt" saved her life. Michigan Bell awarded him a Vail citation, a tribute to telephone people for outstanding service in emergencies.

ENROLLMENT DATA

There are so many additional pupils in the Elementary school this year that three groups are meeting in the all-purpose room. This seems to be working out satisfactorily for the present.

The number of pupils in each grade follows: kindergarten, 91; first, 103; second, 74; third, 66; fourth, 66; fifth, 63; and sixth, 66. Seventeen are enrolled at North Lake school. This makes a total of 536 students in the first six grades. This is an increase of 102 over last year's figure.

The kindergarten is divided into four sections, as is the first grade. Second grade has three sections.

and the remainder of the grades, two each.

High school has enrolled 46 in the seventh grade, 55 in eighth grade, 73 freshmen, 76 sophomores, 62 juniors, and 48 seniors, making a total of 360, an increase of only eight over last year.

"Once-in-a-lifetime!" SAYS FAMOUS EDUCATOR

The American International Encyclopedia has been heralded by well-known educators as a wonderfully effective home education course. "Essential for Children!" "The equivalent of a college degree!"

Famous Central Engines Star at "Progress in Power" Show

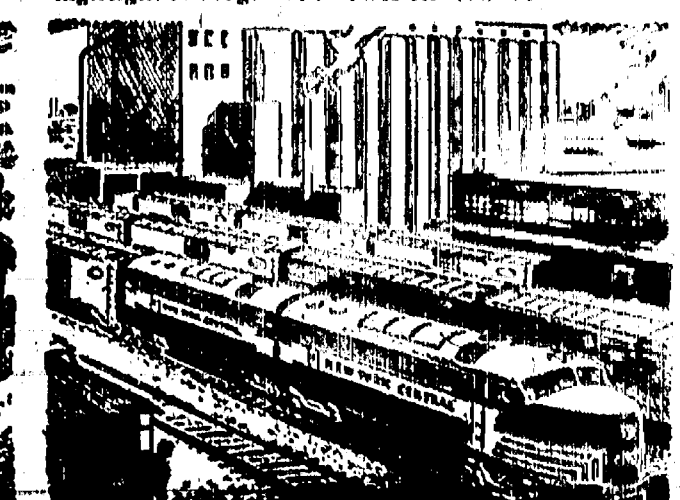

1. NUMBER 1 ATTRACTION for visitors to the "Progress in Power" exhibit this month at New York's Grand Central Terminal is the historic DeWitt Clinton. The little engine, rebuilt exactly as it was in 1831, hauled the first train on the Mohawk & Hudson, first link in Central's 11,000-mile system.

2. HISTORIC "999" also stars at the show. This is the famous locomotive that, on May 10, 1893, pulled The Empire State Express 112 1/4 miles an hour—the world's speed record for many years. With race horses and 86-inch drivers, 999 marks another high light of Progress in Power on New York Central.

3. MIGHTY MODERNS on display are Central's 4,700 horsepower steam Hudson and streamlined diesel-electric locomotive. Progress from the DeWitt Clinton to the super-efficient power of today has helped cut rail freight charges from 8¢ per ton per mile in 1893 to an average of only 1 1/4¢ per ton per mile now.

4. NEW EFFICIENCY continues to cut the real cost of rail freight. Shipping a carload of wheat from Chicago to New York cost the price of 127 bushels in 1940. Last year, 99 bushels would pay the freight, saving 28 bushels in real cost. Yes, finer service at lowest possible rates is always the CENTRAL IDEA.

Mr. Conklin introduced the speaker and gave some interesting pointers to help students understand and enjoy football games more thoroughly. A short talk was given by Mr. Magiera and the assembly ended with the singing of the school song and a cheer.
