Sylvan Board Plans Vote on Zoning

Education Campaign Will Familiarize Voters with Issues

Sylvan Township Board members and Sylvan Township Zoning Board members met after the regular township board meeting Wednesday evening to discuss tentative plans for a zoning ordinance referendum. All were in accord in the opinion that the referendum should be set for a special election date rather than to wait for the regular biennial township election in the spring of 1955.

The possibility of setting the date to coincide with the annual village election in the spring of 1955 was given some consideration. However, Harold Spaulding and Dr. P. E. Sharrad, township trustees, were appointed by Supervisor Elba Gage to study the possibilities for an election date as well as for a proposed educational program which would serve to familiarize people of the township with all phases of the zoning ordinance prior to the date of the election.

Supervisor Gage stated that although the township zoning ordinance does not apply to the village, Chelsea electors have the right to vote on the question, according to present township voting regulations.

In line with the proposed educational program, the Chelsea Public Library has been requested to secure material from college extension services related to zoning and the material has been sent for and will be available to anyone interested, as soon as it arrives, according to Mrs. George Walworth, librarian.

Granges, Farm Bureau groups and Western Washington Farmers' club originally petitioned the Sylvan Township Board to take steps toward providing a zoning ordinance and a five-man zoning board was set up to prepare the ordinance for approval.

Following its publication in The Standard, Aug. 13, 1953, it would have become effective in 30 days in the event no one petitioned for a referendum. Such a petition, however, was presented at the August 26 township board meeting by Harrison West, of Sylvan Center. Requirements that the petition must bear signatures of one-eighth the number of electors who voted in the last governor election, were complied with and the petition was filed.

The proposed zoning ordinance, as published, was the work of the zoning board under the chairmanship of Floyd Rowe. Originally appointed to a one-year term, he was re-appointed this year to a full term.

Rowe was succeeded as chairman by Beuben Leaser. Don Whitaker is vice-chairman and Harold Glazier is secretary-treasurer. The fifth member is George Brett Schneider.

Referendum Asked on Lima Ordinance

The Lima township zoning ordinance will not go into effect for the time being since a petition for a referendum was presented to Ralph Stoffer, township clerk, on Oct. 1, by William A. Thomas.

The petition will be presented to the Lima Township Board for action at the next meeting of that body.

Kiwanis Club Plans To Hold Annual Halloween Party

A regular meeting of the Kiwanis club was held in the social center of the Methodist church Monday evening. Guests included Erwin Klager, Don Mills, David Wolfe and R. Arneson, of Ann Arbor; Rev. S. D. Kinde, and Everett Rich, formerly of Lansing, and now employed at Chrysler Proving Ground, who is transferring his membership to the Chelsea club.

George Doe, chairman of the National Kids Day project of selling peanuts Sept. 26, reported that proceeds are $77.03.

Mal Bruce was named general chairman of the annual Halloween party for children of the community to be held Saturday, Oct. 31.

Others appointed as chairmen of the various committees are Paul Niehaus, program; Paul Mann, parade; Louis Burghardt, refreshments; Charles Lancaster, noise makers; H. T. Moore, bonfire; James Hough, publicity; John Albers, house; and George Doe, police.

The Chelsea club is planning to send 25 local Kiwanians and their wives to the Charter Night program of the Howell Kiwanis club Thursday evening, Oct. 15.

The program period at Monday's meeting was in charge of Don Albers, who introduced an interesting talk on the economic situation in England where he visited the past summer. He also showed a few slide pictures of English scenes.

U. of M. Extension Official To Address Woman's Club

Michael P. Church, supervisor of special projects with the Extension Service of the University of Michigan, will be the guest speaker at the Woman's Club meeting Tuesday, Oct. 13. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock and will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Fisher. Members are inviting guests to be present.

Mr. Church will speak on the topic, "How To Look At A Painting," and will show a film to illustrate the subject.

He is a member of the Michigan Academy of Fine Arts, Michigan Art Association, Michigan School of Art, and Michigan Historical Society and is a member of the board of directors of the Ann Arbor Art Association.

In 1951, Mr. Church was a delegate to the White House conference on child and youth. He is a member of the Michigan Youth Commission. Among his varied activities was his serving as a puppeteer with the Detroit Recreation department and, for one summer, serving as a member of the staff at the national music camp at Interlochen.

His art training includes study at the Wicker School of Fine Arts, Detroit, and Cranbrook Academy, Bloomfield Hills, as well as study with Nicholas Marcino, of New York, the summer of 1951.

Needlework Guild Seeks Members for Charitable Work

It is in the spirit of service that the Needlework Guild of America, through its national headquarters in Philadelphia, Pa., has announced the week of Oct. 4 to 10 as National Membership Week. During that week in the approximately 500 cities and towns across the country where this charitable organization carries on its work, Needlework Guild branches will endeavor to interest more people to become members.

Without Needlework Guild's assistance, many hospitals, orphanages, schools, visiting nurses, missions, Red Cross chapters, and social service workers could not provide for their needs.

The Needlework Guild is the only charitable organization affiliated with the Red Cross, with which it has cooperated in many emergencies and disasters. It also has close ties with the Campfire Girls, Girl Scouts, General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Guild is non-sectarian; its members represent all races, creeds and colors. Membership consists of a donation of two articles of clothing or a donation of money once a year at the ingathering.

All of the garments collected by the Guild in Chelsea will be distributed locally unless there should be an oversupply, which is not likely.

Anyone wishing to become a member may do so by contacting the membership chairman, Mrs. Elton Wusbach, or any member of the Woman's Club.

Garments donated by members range from baby's clothing to household linens. There is no set price on which the garments are based. The only requirement is that they must be new. A girl's dress or a boy's pair of pants will count as two garments.

There is a need for baby's clothing for children of pre-school age. The ingathering this year will be held Oct. 16.

Marriage Counselor Office To Be Retained

The office of marriage counselor, established on a two-year experimental basis in January, 1952, under a $12,000 grant from the James Foster Foundation of Ann Arbor, is to be continued as a permanent county position, following action by the Washtenaw county board of Supervisors last week.

Judge James R. Breaker, Jr., appeared before the board and recommended that the position be continued, saying that the project had been very successful.

Dr. Katherine B. Greene, who had served as counselor since the position was created in January, 1952, resigned in August to accept a similar office in Wayne county.

Lyndon Group Meets with State Official

Conservation Head Agrees To Study Road Situation

Orson Beeman, Lyndon township supervisor, and Howard G. Minier, Washtenaw county Road Commission manager, agreed that their meeting with Gerald Eddy, director of the Department of Conservation, at Lansing, Tuesday was another step in favor of possible early improvement of a four-mile stretch of Waterloo road.

As Minier had predicted, however, the Conservation Department, while sympathetic to Lyndon township residents' demands for blacktopping of the stretch of highway immediately in the same financial predicament regarding assistance on the project as the County Road Commission is in regard to doing the work at this time—no money for the work.

On the Washtenaw County Road Commission's eight-year plan of road improvement, approved by the Board of Supervisors, Waterloo road is scheduled for completion Jan. 1, 1958.

Minier, at meetings with Lyndon township residents and at other conferences has stated that Waterloo road really is a problem but that it definitely is not the only road in the county in the same category. He named several others that are considered just as important to residents of the area through which they run and just as badly in need of improvement.

Minier has also repeatedly said that he'd "be happy if we could blacktop all the roads" and then cites lack of money as the only reason the jobs cannot be done at this time.

The meeting with Conservation Department officials was arranged in order to try for financial support from the state for the road improvement since Lyndon residents have stated that they feel the state should assume such obligation because of the large acreage of state-owned land in the township. They claim the state's advertising of the Waterloo Road reclamation Area brings large numbers of people to the area on week-ends and this is a factor in causing wear and tear on the gravel road.

In addition to Beeman and Minier, three others of the four-man road improvement committee attended the Lansing meeting. They are Bert Conway, L. D. Guinan and Leigh Beeman. Sam Markey, the fourth member of the committee, was called out of town and could not be present.

Eddy told the committee Tuesday that a man from the department will be sent here within the next week to investigate the situation and advised Beeman, in the meantime, to check on the exact amount of frontage of state lands in the township.

This action will probably lead to approaching the state representative of this district regarding the possibility of a state appropriation. Such an appropriation, together with other possible funds, might expedite the project on the county's program, the committee was told.

NEW STEEL STREET MARKERS—Otto Schanz and Lero Buehler of Chelsea's public works department, finished installing the last of 63 new all-steel street sign posts Tuesday of last week.

Schanz, at the left in the above picture, recalled that he had helped put up the former signs about 15 years ago, he estimates. He has been employed by the village since March 20, 1930, when Paul Maroney was president of the village and Ben Lawrence was street commissioner. He says he has "done all kind of jobs" during that time. All village public works are now in charge of Homer Nixon, superintendent of the Electric Light and Water and Public Works departments. Schanz said they ran out of posts and will have to wait for the three more they need on West Middle street before their job can be completed.

Contract Awarded Dearborn Firm for Court House Job

The Washtenaw county Board of Supervisors, at its meeting Tuesday, Sept. 29, accepted the bid of the A. W. Kutsche company of Dearborn, for construction of the new county Court House. The firm's bid was for $2,682,000.

The award of the contract to the Dearborn firm cleared the way for signing of the contract and starting work on the U-shaped structure, designed by R. S. Gerganoff, assistant architect. The contract was to be signed this week, official signers to be County Clerk Lucella M. Smith and Board of Supervisors Chairman, Theophil Sanford of York township.

Washtenaw county voters approved a $3,250,000 bond issue for the new Court House last fall. The amount is to cover cost of construction as well as $141,175 for furnishings, $108,000 for architects' fees, $60,000 for interest on the bonds and $6,000 for legal fees. The remaining $266,000 is a contingency fund to take care of possible unforeseen expenses.

Plans call for an exterior finish of limestone with Indiana granite around the windows.

Fluorescent lighting, flush with the ceilings, and air conditioning in the two circuit court rooms, juvenile and probate court rooms and the supervisors' room are features of the planned construction.

The contract will also include a 100-car parking lot behind the new building and removal of the present Court House building when the new one is completed.

Other base bids submitted were as follows: Jeffers-Dyer, Inc., of Ann Arbor, $2,696,916; G. W. Burke company, of Detroit, $2,697,000; Sorrenson Gross Construction company of Flint, $2,714,737; Henry W. Lukoning Construction company, of Ann Arbor, $2,744,629; and George W. Lathrop & Sons, of Toledo, Ohio, $2,754,831.

Plan Open House at Newly-Remodeled Bethel Parsonage

Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Menzel will hold open house Sunday afternoon and evening beginning at 3 o'clock in the newly-remodeled parsonage of Bethel Evangelical and Reformed church, 10425 Bethel Church road.

Rev. and Mrs. Menzel and family recently returned to the parsonage after living for seven months at Bridgewater while the house was almost completely changed on the inside. The outside of the house, which is 100 years old, remains the same across the front and sides. The only change noticeable from the outside is that the former narrow windows have been replaced with picture windows.

Members of the congregation donated all the lumber for floors, doors and trim. This is of high grade oak taken from the farm woods in Freedom township. Much of the labor was also contributed by church members.

Inside partitions were moved in the process of creating a modern atmosphere, with large archways giving a spacious effect.

The downstairs rooms include living room, dining room, kitchen, study, bedroom and bath while the second floor has three bedrooms and bath and storage space.

Bethel church is one of the oldest congregations in Washtenaw county and was founded in 1840 by Rev. Friedrich Schmid, a German missionary preacher who came to Michigan in 1838. Services had been held in a school house, later known as the Kuebler district school, for several years prior to the official organization date.

Band Parents Net $262 from Fair Booths

The Chelsea Band Parents club realized $164 from the archery booth at the Chelsea Community Fair, according to Mrs. Floyd Fowler, club president.

A baked goods and apron sale held at the fair, also, netted the club $98.

The $262 has been added to the band uniform fund, Mrs. Fowler said.

School Board Takes Option on McKinley Road for Building

Report Savings of $8,000 over Other Possible Locations

Members of the School Board voted unanimously at a special meeting Tuesday evening to take an option on the Holmes property as the site for a proposed new elementary school.

The action followed several weeks of investigation and study of three possible sites, the Henry Merkel property, northeast of the Elm and Taylor Lane intersection, the Hoffman property on M-62 north of the village limits, and the Hoffman property.

The Hoffman property comprises 4.84 acres on the west side of McKinley road, a short distance north of Elm street.

Considering the total cost of each of the sites, which includes price of utilities, the Holmes site will cost at least $8,000 less than either of the other two.

Selection of the site clears the way for early submission of plans to the State Department of Public Instruction for approval. This approval must be secured before the proposed bond issue for the school site and construction can be presented for the approval of electors of the district.

School Board members have stated that it is urgent that the matter be brought to a vote as soon as possible since approval of the bond issue must be secured at an early date if badly needed additional school facilities are to be provided by the time school opens in the fall of 1954.

The date for the election depends upon how rapidly the technicalities of the bond issue can be cleared through the bonding attorney.

The option on the property is for three months with provision for renewal, if necessary.

In its planning for additional school facilities the School Board has set $198,000 as the amount of the bond issue required for construction costs and site. This amount would provide for an eight-room school, tentative architectural drawings for such a building having been examined during the planning meetings of the past few weeks.

Civil engineers and educational authorities from the University of Michigan have been consulted in regard to site selection and school needs and these experts' opinions have guided the local board in its decision regarding the number of additional rooms needed and selection of a suitable site at the lowest possible cost.

Assessed valuation of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools district is approximately $6,500,000 at the present time. According to the figure, the proposed bond issue would require a tax levy of 2 mills ($2.00 per $1,000 of assessed valuation) if the bond issue term is 15 years; or a levy of 1 1/2 mills ($1.50 per $1,000), if the issue is to run for a term of 20 years.

The boys were accompanied by Nevels Pearson, assistant 4-H leader and coach of the team.

They were expected to return home last night.

Early yesterday Lloyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grau, learned that the team placed sixth in the contest. Thirty-three teams participated in the dairy judging events.

This is the second year in succession that a Chelsea area boy has won a place on the state team. Donald Proctor, a last year's winner in the state contest, was a member of the team that won the national championship at Waterloo, Iowa, and won a trip to England to compete in the international contests.

KOREAN REUNION—A letter recently received by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Burg from their son, Pvt. Jerome Burg, who is stationed with the 47th Surgical Hospital 60 miles northeast of Seoul, Korea, at Chunchon, related a fortunate coincidence of a meeting with Lt. Jack Merkel, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Merkel. Jerome was given a pass to take a trip to Seoul and relates that he had a feeling he would meet Jack while there. Jack, who is stationed about 60 miles north of Seoul, made the trip into Seoul on that same day, also having a feeling he would bump into Jerome. Fortunately they met in the Post Exchange. They spent the day together, taking in the sights of the Korean capital, which they say was at one time a beautiful city, and relating their different experiences. The picture shown above was taken that day in the "PX," showing the two Chelsea buddies in a far-away land.

Chelsea Band Takes Part in U. of M. Band Day

Forty-three Chelsea High school band members took part in the massed bands day at the U. of M. stadium Saturday afternoon when 106 of the 107 bands invited appeared on the field during halftime ceremonies.

The massed bands were directed by William D. Revelli, conductor of University of Michigan bands, who said it was the largest group ever to play together as a unit. There were 6450 band members present and they played five numbers.

Chelsea's band was the first one on the field in its proud position at 8 a.m. for practice at Ferry Field. Players had on their new uniforms and wore for the first time the new gold plumes on their hats.

Marilyn Honbaum, Shirley Bair, and Lorraine Paxton, baton twirlers, wore new uniforms of white wool and blue taffeta, trimmed with gold braid. Betty Leggett, drum majorette, wore a borrowed uniform of blue corduroy.

The Chelsea band was accompanied by the director, Gene Shroyer, and by Superintendent Charles Cameron, Principal John Griffin, Mrs. Clair Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fowler and by two bus drivers, Russell Ahlstaetter and Frank Reed.

The terrific heat Saturday caused a number of band players to collapse and they were taken to the first aid station set up on the field. None of the Chelsea group was seriously affected by the heat but four were given first aid when they began to show signs of fatigue.

The weather, while unseasonably warm, remained fair until the bands had finished playing and players had taken their seats. The rain later, necessitated sending all of Chelsea's uniforms to the cleaners this week.

Pheasant Meat Is Still Very High Priced

MICHIGAN MIRROR

ered the pre-primary plan at a re-confab and voted not to put it into effect. They agreed to keep the subject under study. Mr. Love who presented his ideas at the meeting was somewhat disappointed that they were not adopted and somewhat dismayed by what he considered to be "lack of understanding of the basic principles involved." The Detroit attorney says he will continue promoting his plan at state level and attempt to sell it to as many precinct or county organizations as he can.

●Biggest gain from a party standpoint is that a "pre-convention" agreement would establish party responsibility for candidates. From the public's standpoint, Mr. Love believes that higher caliber candidates could be attracted into campaigns and that better qualified candidates would be party-endorsed. He explains: "An inferior candidate could too easily be rejected at the polls."

●Need for improvement of the present primary system has been felt for many years. The idea has been supported at intervals for the past 30 years.

●Fate of a pre-primary system may depend a good deal upon the outcome of the next gubernatorial election. If the Republicans win under the present method, it is certain there will be less agitation to change systems than if they lose. And if a sharp fight develops between primary candidates during the campaign, Harold Love's plan would receive some keen re-examination.

●Much improvement exists for hard feeling in the coming race. With five prominent Republicans mentioned again and again as candidates, and with no means to select the one to meet the Democrat candidate except a full scale primary campaign, few will be surprised if hard feelings between the contestants and their supporters develop.

Former Chelsea Couple Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lowry

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lowry of 120 Virginia avenue, Ann Arbor, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary at an open-house reception at their home Sunday, Oct. 11, from 2 until 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Lowrys were formerly Chelsea residents, the family home for many years being on Jerusalem road just east of the Vermont cemetery. They moved to Ann Arbor 30 years ago.

Mrs. Lowry is the former Clara Heller and is a sister of Mrs. Lydia Zahn of near Rogers Corners, and Rudolph Heller, now of Orofino, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowry were married Oct. 14, 1903, at the home of Mrs. Lowry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heller in Lima township, by the late Rev. A. A. Schoen, who was pastor of St. Paul's church at that time.

They have one daughter, Mrs. Norman J. Wenk of Plymouth, Ann Arbor; a son, Robert J. Lowry, an associate professor and instructor in botany at the University of Michigan; and three

The schedule calls for a return to Ann Arbor at 3:30 p.m.

Former Chelseaites Meet at Hospital Job Near Orofino, Idaho

The old saying, "It's a small world" received confirmation again within the last week or two when two Chelsea area men met while at their respective jobs at a hospital near Orofino, Idaho.

Rudolph Heller, who has lived in Orofino since leaving Chelsea 23 years ago, has been a subscriber to The Chelsea Standard through the years.

Recently he met a young man named Donald Burke, who he learned, was from the North Lake area, near Chelsea.

Old friends of Heller here will remember that he always liked a joke and will understand how he enjoyed confounding Burke by telling him that he knew what Burke's mother had been doing on certain dates—dates gleaned from the information from the North Lake column of The Standard.

Burke is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Burke, of North Lake, who moved to this vicinity about four years ago. He and his wife are employed at the hospital where Heller has been doing carpenter work for the past year.

Heller's sister, Mrs. Lydia Zahn, of Rogers Corners, and friends of the Burke family at North Lake, upon learning of the incident, said the home newspaper had proved its worth as a practical medium for saying "Hello" to their relatives and friends far away from home.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to take this way to thank all my friends, relatives and neighbors for the many lovely cards, letters, fruit, candies, flowers and calls while at Foote hospital and since my return home. We especially want to thank our friends, relatives and neighbors for harvesting our 10 acres of beans and the work on fitting a field for wheat. May you all find such happiness in the time of need. May God bless you all.

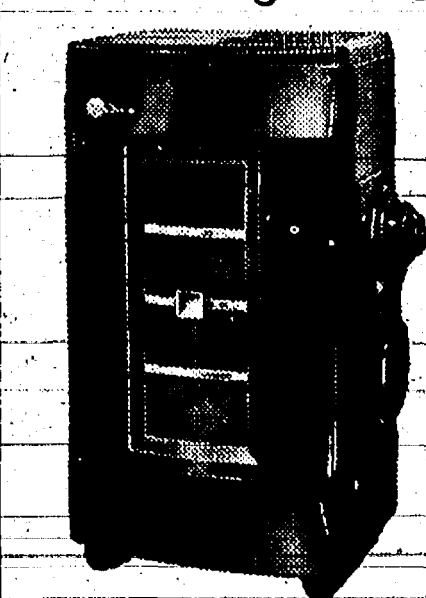

Steve Hadley.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our grateful appreciation to friends, neighbors and relatives for the cards, candy, fruit, and to the men who did the milking, and for the many other kindnesses shown us during my accident and stay in the hospital. Both Mrs. Horning and I wish to thank all of you.

Edwin Horning.

Harvest Open House Observed at Methodist Home

The Harvest Open House, sponsored by the Chelsea Home Friends of the Methodist Church, was held at the Methodist Home Friday afternoon. The open house is an annual affair under the direction of Mrs. Paul Kepler of Detroit, president of the Chelsea Home Friends.

The group does many things throughout the year for the pleasure and benefit of residents of the Home, including participation in the birthday parties given each month. The Harvest group regularly provides gifts for all residents' birthdays and special treats for the birthday dinners.

A musical program was presented by Mrs. Thelma Von Eisenauer and Mrs. Pauline Higgins, who are members of the quartet who sing regularly in the Metropolitan Methodist church, of Detroit.

Mrs. Warren Daniels and Mrs. S. D. Kinde of the Chelsea Methodist church, assisted during the tea, held in the Home dining room under the chairmanship of Mrs. S. Fathers of Detroit.

Residents of the Home who served as hostesses during the afternoon are Mrs. Nora Marsh, Mrs. Mary Narring, and the Misses Ethel Morrow, Mabel Kerr and Ethel Jardine.

Among the guests who attended from many churches in the eastern part of Michigan, which, with the Upper Peninsula, comprises the Detroit Conference, are: Mrs. M. Wilber and Ora Kimball, of Hillsdale, Bishop and Mrs. Marshall Reid of Detroit; Dr. Frank Fitch, Ann Arbor District superintendent, and Dr. Benjamin Holme, Detroit District superintendent, and their wives; Rev. John Farish of Detroit, who is president of the board of managers of the Home, and his wife; Rev. Clyde Donald of Ypsilanti, and Rev. S. D. Kinde of Chelsea, members of the board of managers; Donald Carpenter, chaplain of the Methodist Church's Children's Village, near Detroit; Mrs. E. H. Staley of Saginaw Conference president of the Women's Society for Christian Service; and Mrs. C. A. Rydmark, a national WSCS officer.

Many of those who attended brought individual contributions of supplies for the Home and a number of groups brought quantities of gifts contributed by their home churches.

County Red Cross Secretary Named

The appointment of Mrs. Lois Hopkins as new Executive Secretary of the Washtenaw County Tuberculosis Association was announced last week by Frederick N. McOmber, president of the association. A meeting of the entire Board of Directors was held Sept. 24 in Ann Arbor, to introduce Mrs. Hopkins to the group which consists of 20 representatives from Washtenaw county communities. The Washtenaw County Tuberculosis Association carries on a year-round program directed toward the prevention and control of tuberculosis. Mrs. Warren Daniels is Chelsea's representative on the Board of the association.

Mrs. Hopkins is a native of Ann Arbor and has had wide experience in different social agencies. She received her master's degree in Medical Social Work from the University of Michigan in 1951 and since that time has been employed in Medical Social Service Department at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Hopkins is familiar with the problems of tuberculosis having worked in the tuberculosis wards at the University Hospital and having had experience as the Executive Secretary of the Chesterfield County Tuberculosis Association in South Carolina in 1949-44. In 1949-50 Mrs. Hopkins was employed as a case worker in the Washtenaw County Department of Social Welfare covering the southern half of Washtenaw county.

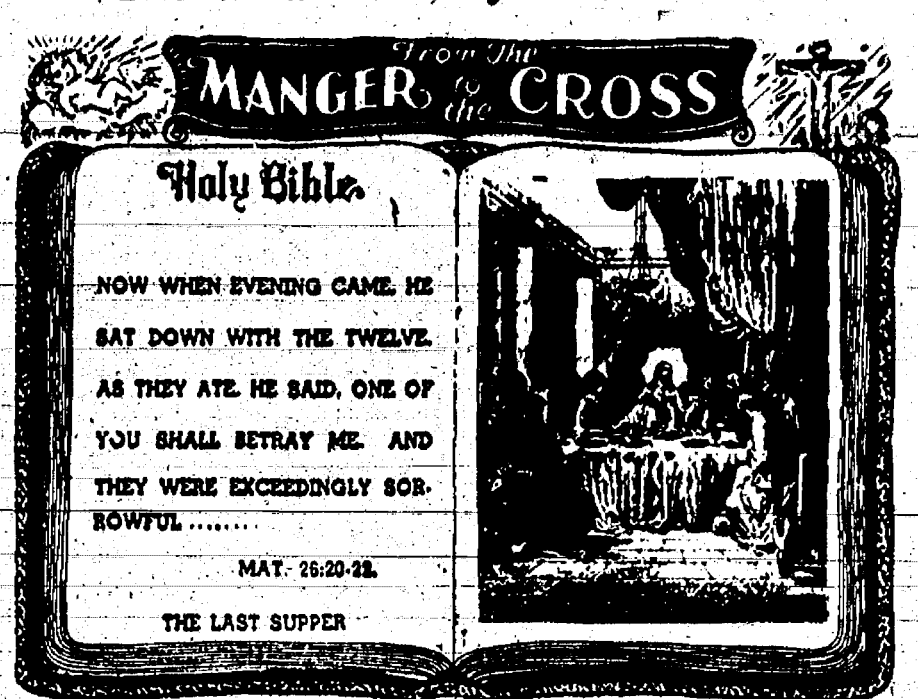

Suffers Eye Injury

Edwin Horning is suffering serious impairment of the vision in his right eye following an injury sustained Sept. 18 while at work on his farm. The eyeball was pierced by a twig, which apparently was snapped from a tree as he was operating a corn picker. He was taken to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, where he remained until Saturday, Sept. 26, for treatment of the injury.

Our Good Health...

... and common sense living is an excellent guide to follow. The functions of medicine and surgery are most often used to help nature overcome the results of our own abuses and neglect.

By normal care, by regular living, and with the aid of frequent examination by your Doctor, you can maintain better health. An important part of this care is the use of highest quality drugs and medicines, such as those of Parke, Davis & Company—which are regularly stocked at this pharmacy.

Why pass up the room and power and comfort and niceties of big-car travel — when you can buy a big, new Buick SPECIAL for just little more than the price of smaller cars?

We show our price here to prove our point — to prove that you can buy this Buick SPECIAL for just a few dollars more than you have to pay for one of the so-called "low-price three."

Figure what that means — Just a few dollars more for a lot bigger hoodful of power — Fireball 8 power — the highest horsepower ever placed in a Buick SPECIAL. Just a few dollars more for big and spacious 6-passenger roominess — and the solid, steady comfort of Buick's famed Million Dollar Ride.

Just a few dollars more for Buick styling, Buick handling, Buick luxury, Buick fun. But do you know what else those few extra dollars get you in this big, broad, beautiful Buick?

Atomic Energy Impact Discussed in Library Lecture

Dr. Henry J. Gomberg, associate director of the Phoenix Project, University of Michigan, declared to an audience gathered at the Chelsea Public Library Tuesday evening that it was most unfortunate that the world had met atomic energy through its most unpleasant aspect—destructive powers. Atomic energy, he declared, is simply another form of energy or power; there is just more of it, and it is more concentrated. A body of uranium 235 the size of a man's clenched fist, he stated, could release as much energy as 400 freight cars of coal. Further, the world's known supplies of coal could be exhausted in another 150 years but the world's supply of atomic energy would not be exhausted in 3,000 years.

That form of atomic energy produced by fission can be controlled and utilized but that form produced by fusion is unfortunately less controllable at present.

It is a new form of energy; it emits rays which can't be felt, (as heat can be felt) or seen (as x-rays can be seen), or tasted; hence it is extremely dangerous.

New and valuable uses of controlled atomic energy are to create changes in systems (as when cancer is treated by radiation); to promote new type chemical reactions (as when food is preserved for long periods of time by radiation); to detect movement of chemicals within a plant or animal body (tracer chemicals); to destroy disease-producing organisms (as in treatment of trichinosis); to detect structures of metallic crystals, etc.

He demonstrated that some conclusions drawn earlier have been proved false, but gave enough clues the type of work being done at the Phoenix Project so that his audience was convinced of its usefulness.

Robert J. Harris

Robert J. Harris, of 117 North street, died suddenly at 8:30 yesterday morning while at work at the Hoover Ball & Bearing Company, Ann Arbor. Death was attributed to a heart attack. Mr. Harris was 68 years old.

Born January 11, 1885, in Vergennes, Vt., he was the son of Joseph and Cora Harris. He had lived in Chelsea since 1910. December 17, 1912, in Ann Arbor, he was married to Margaret Ellen Poor. Mrs. Harris died suddenly April 19, 1952. Mr. Harris had been employed at the Hoover plant since 1904 and at the time of his death was working in the heat treatment department. Conservation Dept. To Conduct Study on Portage Lake

The Fish division of the Michigan Department of Conservation will conduct a study on Big Portage Lake, Jackson county, this fall beginning on or about Oct. 5, to determine the number of fish present in the lake. The study will be carried out by the Institute for Fisheries Research from Ann Arbor.

Similar population counts were made on Sugar Lake during the past five years and on White Lake this past spring. Both lakes are in Washtenaw county.

The study assigned to the project will set six to eight trap nets at various points on the lake for approximately 30 days. The nets will fish overnight and each day the captured fish will be marked and released.

The investigation is part of a long-range plan to gain a better understanding of fish populations and the changes that occur year to year in these populations. The population count on Big Portage will also help to evaluate the special fishing regulations which were in effect during 1946-1950 and other regulations which will be in effect during the next five years. The public is requested to avoid disturbing the nets. They will be flagged buoys and should not interfere with anyone's fishing. Coarse fish will not be removed from the lake as it is necessary to the study that all fish caught be returned to the lake to maintain a population balance throughout the period of netting.

There Is No Other Television Quite Like G-E Ultra-Vision

It Is The Ultimate In Television Picture Perfection

Ultra-Vision by General Electric offers a new high standard of television viewing. In side-by-side tests in Buffalo, Syracuse, New York, Bangor, and other cities viewers prefer GE Ultra-Vision 7 to 1 over leading competitive brands.

In a scientific test by the United States Testing Co. in January, 1953; GE Ultra-Vision gave 580% more picture contrast under all light conditions than the average of 9 other receivers tested. Thus, General Electric Ultra-Vision has set a new high standard of picture quality for the industry.

Remember... Seeing is Believing... side-by-side comparison convinces even the most skeptical customers.

● GE has a powerful new 22-tube chassis, plus 4 rectifiers that doubles previous sensitivity.

● Black tinted safety glass cuts unwanted room light from dark picture areas to give blacker blacks.

● GE aluminized tube increases brightness up to 100% by use of an aluminized screen on the back of the picture tube face that acts as a mirror to reflect light toward the face of the tube.

● Glarejector... the 4-degree inclined safety glass and 4-degree inclined cylindrical picture tube deflects light reflections downward.

Enjoy all the thrills and none of the chills of the big-time football games every week... from the comfort of your own living room... via TV!
