His six-year-old daughter, Kathy, although uninjured, was also kept overnight for observation because of a heart condition.

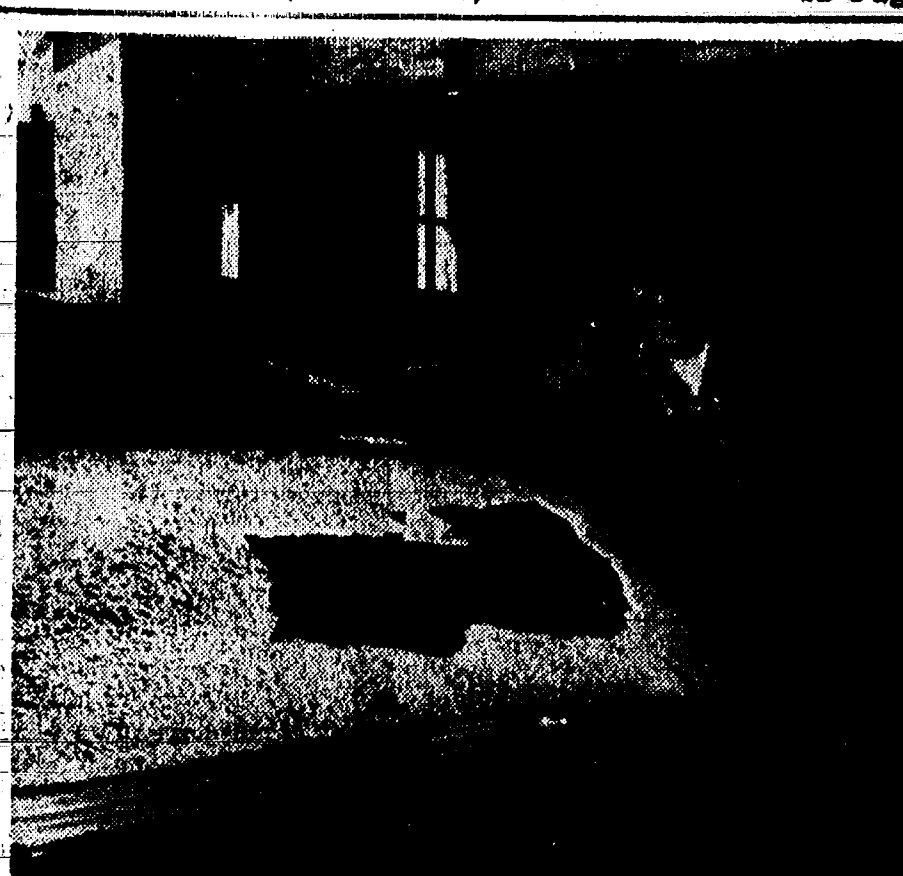

Mrs. Eder and another daughter, Elaine, 8 1/2 years old, and son, John, 1 1/2 years old, were released after examination at the hospital.

SHATTERED AUTO WINDOWS—While the big cities may think they have a monopoly on such things as "pockmarked" and shattered windshields, this picture is sufficient to show that we are not to be denied some of the same. Warren Eisenbeiser is shown here as he dismally surveyed the rear glass in his 1953 Chevrolet last week after it decided to shatter for no apparent reason. As can be seen in the photo, there was scarcely a piece left in the entire glass that measured one-fourth of an inch.

CHS Baseball Team Loses to Flat Rock, Roosevelt

Last Wednesday the Chelsea Bulldogs traveled to Flat Rock and the Rams scored six runs, in the last of the seventh to snatch away what looked like a victory. Phil Bareis was on the mound for Chelsea but his wildness caused him to be continually in trouble as Flat Rock had men on base in every inning except the sixth. Phil struck out 12 batters and hit two.

In their big inning, Flat Rock batted around, three hits, three walks, a hit batsman, and two errors gave Flat Rock the runs they needed to win.

Chelsea had taken a five-run lead in a big fifth inning. Bruce Hoffman started it off on a base on balls and then stole second. Rogers Stevens also walked. Both runners moved up on a passed ball. Glenn Weir was safe on an error, with Hoffman scoring. Bob White reached first on a fielder's choice, Stevens being thrown out at the plate.

Lloyd Grau then drew a walk and Ralph Owens preceded to blast Chelsea's only hit of the game, a double which scored Weir and White. Phil Bareis grounded to short but the ball was thrown over first and Grau and Owens scored. Duane Satterthwaite then grounded out to end the big inning.

But it all went for naught as Flat Rock rallied for their six runs in the seventh.

CHS dropped their second decision of the current baseball season Tuesday afternoon on their home field in a loosely-played game marked by errors and numerous walks on the part of both teams. Roosevelt made the fewest mistakes to win, 8-6.

The Bulldogs grabbed a short 1-0 lead in the first inning as Lloyd Grau collected the first of his three hits and scored on Phil Bareis' single.

Roosevelt went into the lead

Health Officer Explains Stand on Polio Vaccine Test

The Elementary PTA, at its regular meeting Wednesday evening, April 21, heard Dr. Otto K. Engelke, Washtenaw county health officer, explain the reasons for his stand on the Salk Polio vaccine test.

He re-affirmed his published statement in which he said that in his opinion "this community would be better served were the program here postponed until a time when it might be concluded with a sufficient safety margin between the completion of the vaccinations and the closing of the schools as well as the anticipated seasonal onset of infantile paralysis."

Miss Belle McKinney, Washtenaw county health nurse, also spoke at the meeting, taking for her subject general health problems.

At the business session it was voted to spend $100 for new playground equipment at the school, and also to provide a treat for the safety patrol boys who have "done an excellent job this year."

Mrs. P. E. Sharrard and Mrs. S. D. Kinde served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Yesterday, Elementary PTA officers announced that the PTA Penny Carnival, held Friday evening in Chelsea High school gymnasium, had proved to be a great success, both as to enjoyment as well as financial proceeds.

Indications are that net proceeds will substantially exceed last year's total of $438.66.

'77' Days Bargain Festival To Be Held Friday, Saturday

'Pockmarked' Auto Windshields Are Reported Here

"Pockmarks" on windshields of automobiles, reported during the past two weeks from all over the country, appeared in this vicinity during the past week according to reports of several automobile owners.

Saturday, April 24, about 9 p.m. Warren Eisenbeiser's car reportedly developed the mysterious marks as his son, William, was driving east on US-12 near Chelsea. Three other persons were in the car at the time. The car had been driven to Detroit during the day.

Experts from leading glass companies of the country have reportedly blamed flying sand, cinders, gravel, or materials used to de-ice snow-covered roads for the holes.

Some of the damaged windshields from the west coast were sent to research laboratories of eastern glass companies for analysis.

Some scientists and police officers have said "mass hysteria" has caused the flood of reports of damaged windshields. Others have stated that the H-bomb tests in the Pacific might be responsible because of minute particles of radioactive ash carried by the winds from the west.

During the last few days the reports have become less frequent.

Mrs. William Reule Named Extension District Officer

Mrs. Mary Clark of London Extension club was elected junior district IV representative at the annual spring party and business meeting held Wednesday, April 21, in St. Andrew's church hall at Dexter.

Mrs. Reule was also named district camp chairman. With other district chairmen, she will plan for the Extension Women's August camping period.

Approximately 116 women were present for the party which, according to long-standing custom, is held each year in April. Each of the eleven clubs in the district participated in the day's activities with Sylvan club members in charge of the "mixer" period before the luncheon and Jerusalem club presiding during a short "stretch" period preceding the business session.

Mrs. Anna Brown, Home Demonstration agent for Washtenaw county, attended the party and addressed the group briefly.

A highlight of the afternoon was a talk given by Mrs. Alvin March of Delhi, in which she gave an interesting account of her duties as Washtenaw county representative on the State Home Demonstration Council and district chairman of all Home Demonstration groups in the seven-county area which includes Washtenaw, Lenawee, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, Wayne and Livingston counties.

Official OK's Enrollment Records Here

Ben VandenBelt, superintendent of Lincoln Consolidated Schools district, appointed by Washtenaw county Superintendent of Schools Julius Haab to check school enrollment records of secondary schools of the county, was in Chelsea Tuesday.

According to a report of his inspection given at the meeting of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools school board Tuesday evening he found the records to be accurate.

He spot-checked the second, fifth, eighth and tenth grades, it was reported.

Records show that a total of 901 children, from kindergarten through the twelfth grade, were enrolled on Oct. 2, 1953. State aid to schools is based on the child accounting audit of enrollment four weeks after the opening of school.

At the meeting Tuesday the board approved a 1954-55 budget of $302,065 to be submitted to the Washtenaw county Allocation Board.

Representatives of the Village of Chelsea, Sylvan Township Board, and the Washtenaw County Road Commission were at the meeting to discuss possible replacement of the McKinley street bridge near the new north elementary school site. No decision was reached on the matter.

Theresa Harker was her sister's maid of honor and Mary and Rose Ann Harker, also sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. Each of their gowns was identically styled with a pale blue silk bodice in strapless effect with cape straps over the shoulders and extending down the back. The skirt was fashioned of nylon tulle over taffeta and was finished with a peplum giving an apron effect. They wore hats of matching net. The bridesmaids carried pale pink carnations and baby's breath. The bride carried a bouquet of carnations in the bouquet carried by the maid of honor of a deeper pink.

Paul Emmett Harker, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Donald Harker of Gregory, and Ronald Ducey.

A reception was held, after the ceremony, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, with Mrs. J. P. Cook cutting the bride's cake and Mrs. Erwin Young, the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Ren Hutzler poured punch and Mrs. Mac Packard served ice cream. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Clarence Ulrich.

The bridegroom's mother wore for the wedding and reception a pink and grey suit with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pale pink carnations.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Clara Hutzler, wore a pink and grey nylon dress. Her corsage was also of pale pink carnations.

Following their return from a five-day trip through northern Michigan, the couple will be at home at 237 Railroad street.

For going away the bride wore a light blue suit with navy hat, gloves, shoes and purse. She is a graduate of Chelsea High school.
