CHS Baseball Team Loses Third GamePostpone Milan Game Because of Cold Weather

Coch. Al Conklin's Bulldogs dropped their third straight game, to Saline, 6-2, last Thursday on Saline's diamond.

Saline jumped off to an early lead in the first, a base on balls, an error, a base hit and a wild pitch giving them two runs.

Chelsea threatened in the second as they loaded the bases on a walk and two errors with no one out. But two strike-outs and a pop-up got Saline out of trouble.

The Bulldogs tied it up in the sixth as Ralph Owings reached second when the Saline shortstop threw high over first base. Bob White then delivered Chelsea's first and only hit, a sharp single to left, scoring Owings. White then stole second, Hugh Weinberg tapped the ball to the pitcher who threw low to first and Bob White scored all the way from second on some heads-up base running. Another strike-out ended the rally.

However, Saline came back to tie the game in their half of the sixth. A single, two walks, plus two strike-outs loaded the bases to bring up Wally Larson, the Saline pitcher. He doubled to right center, scoring three runs. Larson took third on the play at the plate. He later took advantage of a napping Bulldog defense to steal home, giving Saline a 6-2 lead.

Bruce Hoffman was on the mound for Chelsea. Bruce pitched well, giving up only five hits while striking out seven. But five walks, followed by clutch hits for Saline, cost him the ball game. He was relieved in the sixth by Phil Barels.

Of course, Chelsea's inability to hit hurt the cause, even more as they collected only one hit off Larson, while 12 Bulldogs went down on strikes.

The Milan game scheduled here for Tuesday was postponed to May 21 because of cold weather. Chelsea traveled to Lincoln Wednesday.

Local Fruit Crop Believed Damaged by Cold Weather

The unseasonable weather of the past few days, together with snow on the ground Tuesday morning brought forth reminiscences of older residents of the community another "winter" weather in May.

E. M. Elsemann, who has a good memory regarding weather-matters, mentioned that on May 10, 1902, six inches of snow fell here in a period of about two hours. Fruit trees and lilacs were in bloom and the heavy snow bent branches to the ground.

Others mentioned a heavy snow during "corn-planting time" but they could not remember the exact date. Some thought it occurred May 10 or 12, 1910. Men on the Max Pierce farm, south of Chelsea, who were planting corn were forced to stop work and wait for better weather.

In recent years snow fell on May 7 and 8 in 1947 and again on May 3, 1951.

This week's snow began to fall about 2 a.m. Tuesday and the ground was well covered by daylight. Temperature in this area was listed at 29 degrees. Snow flurries continued throughout the day but melted almost as soon as it fell.

Five and six inches of snow was reported from various points in the Upper Peninsula.

Don Johnson, an Ashtenaw county agricultural agent, said yesterday that he was receiving reports of extensive damage to sour cherry blossoms by Monday night's cold weather and snow.

In the Dexter area one grower reported that approximately half of the blossoms were killed by the frost. Pollination of remaining blossoms is doubtful since the snow and cold prevented bees from working in the trees.

Peaches also suffered severe damage. Johnson said full extent of the damage cannot be estimated until blossoms are observed for several days. Strawberries were not believed to be damaged since the snow covering the vines helped protect the buds.

Apple blossoms generally are not far enough advanced to have suffered damage, Johnson believes. A US-12 gardener reported that his early sweet corn was leveled and the entire crop will need to be replanted.

Johnson said cloudy weather Tuesday night helped keep damage at a minimum although it had been predicted the weather would clear and be much colder.

Township Trustee

At the regular monthly meeting of the Sylvan Township Board Saturday evening, Reuben Lesser was appointed township trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Harold Spaulding.

WILLIAM F. STOREY

Local Directors Named Monday for Civilian Defense

Natural and man-made disasters were discussed at the Civil Defense meeting of Zone VI held in the Municipal building Thursday evening, and names of the directors of the four townships and the Village of Chelsea were announced. Because one of the directors was absent, a zone director was not elected at the meeting, as planned. The election will take place as soon as a meeting of all the directors can be arranged.

William F. Storey has been named Chelsea director, with W. J. Grossman, as Chelsea Chief of Auxiliary Police. Grossman will also serve as Chief of Sylvan township. Auxiliary Police, with Police Chief George Doe as township director.

Eugene Fisher is Lima township Civil Defense director, with Grant Schooley as Chief of Auxiliary Police.

In Lyndon township Spencer Boyer is director and Lawrence Shanahan, Police Chief, while in Dexter township Rha Arnold has the post of director with Walter French, Jr., as Chief of the Police unit.

Thomas A. Fitzgerald, Washtenaw county director of Civil Defense, said after Thursday's meeting that the four-township zone with Chelsea as its center, is now well organized.

Naming of the zone director will complete the set-up here, he said.

Kiwanis Club Members To Visit Children's Ward

At Monday's Kiwanis club meeting President Don Alber announced that following the May 10 meeting here, the club will convene at the U. of M. children's ward in Ann Arbor.

President Alber also exhibited the Blue Division first honorable mention achievement award presented to the local club at the spring divisional meeting at Howell.

The program at Monday's meeting, presented by John Griffin, was a film showing the YMCA Camp Manitowish in northern Wisconsin. Local Kiwanians sponsored a day for a two-week period at the camp last year.

At the close of the program club members were assigned to trucks for a rummage sale pick-up from 7 until 9 o'clock.

Guests at the meeting included John Ballard and William Hartvig of East Ann Arbor, David McLaughlin, David Collins and Chelsea High school seniors, David Luick, Lorraine Paxton, Doris Rothman and Clyde Myers.

GRADE SCHOOL BUILDING REPORTED ON SCHEDULE

Installation of plumbing is proceeding on schedule and all indications are that the building will be completed for occupancy when school opens in September.

Post Office Department Sets May 17-22 as 'Rural Mail Box Improvement Week'

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has announced the week beginning May 17 as "Mail Box Improvement Week." This will be the 16th consecutive campaign to tidy up the official mail receptacles.

Postmaster Carly Mayer, of Chelsea, is requesting rural patrons in this area to repair and beautify their mail-box equipment and to approach to help lend brightness to the scenic beauty of the highways, roads and drives.

Sewage Needs of New School Being StudiedCouncil Requests Free Discussion on Special Assessments

Harold Strout of the Toledo engineering firm of Finkbeiner, Pettis and Strout, was at the May 3 meeting of the Village Council and was authorized to make a survey of the local storm sewer system with a view to giving a report on the approximate cost of a practical method of solving the problems connected with the system at present. He will begin his survey within the next two weeks.

Also at the Council meeting Monday evening were members of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools Board of Education who requested that the Council consider the possibility of extending the sanitary sewer system to accommodate the new North Elementary school on McKinley road.

Because of the topography of the land, a hydraulic lift would be necessary to handle the school sewage, it has been pointed out, and members of the school board proposed that the board pay to the village an amount equal to the cost of construction of an adequate septic tank; the money to be used toward the expense of installing the necessary hydraulic equipment in order that the school sewage could be handled by the village sanitary sewer system.

Because of the present plan of financing all improvements out of the general fund, it will take several years to provide present needed improvements in the village, and the Council is concerned with the problem of finding ways and means of providing the extra funds which would be needed for such hydraulic installation as proposed by the Council's consideration.

Installation of the hydraulic equipment would provide for the school sewage only and could not be expected to handle residential or other developments in the area without the alternative of a special assessment.

The special assessment "plan" would make it possible to bring about needed improvements in the village more quickly and therefore stimulate more residential expansion, it is believed.

Village President Maxwell G. Sweet, in speaking of the matter Tuesday, stated it is an urgent problem to urge people of the community to express their opinions to him and to members of the Village Council regarding the matter.

Pre-Kindergarten Children To Visit School May 21

Friday, May 21, has been set as the date for the annual pre-kindergarten children and mothers' visit to the school in preparation for their entering in the fall.

Rural children who will be entering kindergarten in the fall of 1954 are to come to school with their mothers in the morning, those in town are to be present in the afternoon.

Children who are now in kindergarten will not attend school that day, according to Arthur Schmunk, elementary school principal.

Mr. Schmunk announced yesterday that the elementary school parent-teacher conferences have been completed with an average of 80 per cent to 90 per cent participation.

He said parents and teachers have reported that they appreciate the opportunity to meet and talk over the pupils' progress. The plan, he said, promotes better understanding between the home and school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Widmayer and their guests Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carr were in Jackson last Thursday afternoon.

HISTORY OF CHELSEA—At a combined meeting of the Washtenaw Historical Society and the Friends of the Chelsea Public Library Monday evening, Miss Nina Belle Wurster read a history of early days in Chelsea which she had prepared especially for the occasion. In it she traced the early settlers, building activity and industries. Howell Taylor, left, president of the Historical Society, is shown above congratulating Miss Wurster following the meeting.

At this time there are at least 10,000 live trees on the project in various stages of growth. The project will hold approximately 50,000 more trees which will be planted as finances permit. Three thousand dollars have already been spent by the club for land and trees. Club members have called attention to the fact that no individual or group has profited one cent from this undertaking.

The Boy Scouts gave timely and valuable assistance in this last planting. Counting the Boy Scouts and members, 38 persons participated.

The outstanding event of the day was the setting aside of one high point, approximately in the center of the project, as a memorial section for deceased members. The following names have been recorded as being deceased members: Edward Burton, M. J. Baxter, George W. Hart, Roy Harris, Harvey Murphy, Elmer Pierce, George Sidwell, Harold Spaulding, George P. Exchange of City Officials Brings Ludington Visitor

Village President Maxwell G. Sweet and Mrs. Sweet who had been expected to be in Ludington Monday for observance of Exchange of Mayors Day went there yesterday. The official date for the state-wide event, when the Ludington committee decided to hold the event on that day, after all. It had been announced last week that the Ludington observance was to take place Monday and President and Mrs. Sweet were planning to be back in Chelsea to participate in the welcome extended to Ludington City Assessor E. A. Miller and his wife who represented the Ludington mayor here.

Highlights of the Chelsea official's stay in Ludington were a visit to the city's installations and introductions to city officials in their offices. Mayor Dan R. Rathack and City Manager George Collins were hosts to Chelsea's President Sweet.

Exchange of Mayors Day began for the Sweets at a breakfast in the Stearns hotel where Ludington officials and their wives met them.

Meanwhile, in Chelsea, City Assessor Miller, with Dr. Glen Haas, chairman of the welcome committee and official host for the out-of-town guests, visited the village facilities, schools and the Municipal building during the morning and then was guest of honor at a noon luncheon held in the Knights of Columbus hall.

During the afternoon a tour of Chelsea industries began at Chrysler Friction Group and included visits to Chelsea Milling Co., Federal Screw Works, Chelsea Products, Central Fibre Products, Chelsea Spring company, and the local newspaper office, The Chelsea Standard.

Mrs. Miller was entertained at a luncheon at the Haas home on Washington street. Guest neighbors of Mrs. Haas and included Mrs. Eugene Fisher, a former Ludington resident and former neighbor of Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Lawton Steger assisted Mrs. Haas with the luncheon. A businessmen's dinner was held at the Legion Home at Cavanaugh Lake at 7 o'clock last night as a conclusion to the day's activities.

At Dexter, there was a last-minute change in plans. Originally scheduled to exchange with from River, in the Upper Peninsula, the exchange was made, instead, with Parma, because of the travel distance involved. Robert Gren, Parma village president, came to Dexter while Dexter's president was entertained at Parma.

Exchange of Mayors Day, in which approximately 400 cities of Michigan participated, proved to be the most popular of all the activities planned as an observance of Michigan Week.

Michigan Week, May 2-8, is sponsored by Greater Michigan, Inc., in cooperation with the Michigan Economic Development Commission and other state agencies.

MSC Specialists Urge Heavy Stand of Corn for Highest Yields

Don't be stingy with your seed when you're planting corn if you want the best yields.

Michigan State College farm cropmen suggest growing 16,000 plants per acre if you have good corn land. That's in contrast to what farmers on good corn ground usually plant—about 10,000 plants per acre. On lighter or less productive soil, however, your planter should be adjusted to put out less seeds per acre.

How do you know you're getting approximately 16,000 seeds planted per acre? Layton V. Nelson, MSC extension farm crops specialist, says you can estimate the rate roughly this way: If your planter is using a bushel of medium flat seed corn in five acres, you are planting about 16,000 seeds per acre. If you are using 38- to 40-inch rows, the seeds will be about ten inches apart; if it's 42-inch rows, the seeds will be about nine inches apart. To be reasonably accurate means careful selection of planter plates and slower-than-normal planting speed, Nelson indicates.

In nearly every experiment by MSC last year, increased plant populations boosted yields substantially; and 1953 was a dry year in many parts of Michigan. In no case was there a decrease in yield.

On top soils in southern Michigan, 16,000 plants per acre gave an increase in yield of 11½ per cent over plots which averaged 10,600 plants per acre. In Kent county, 16,000 plants per acre yielded 36 per cent over plots that contained 7,800 plants per acre. In another experiment on lighter soils the yield increased three per cent when 16,000 plants were used instead of 6,800 in the control plot. Nelson believes the right planting rate on lighter soils is between 10,000 and 12,000 plants per acre.

Thicker plantings usually result in smaller ears of corn. But Michigan research shows that the best yields are obtained when ears average about a half pound. Large ears often weigh three-fourths of a pound.

STRIETER'S MEN'S WEAR

INSIDE THE CAPITOL
By Owen J. "Pat" Cleary
Secretary of State

One of the functions of the Department of State with which many people are unfamiliar is the Building and Loan division.

Since 1887, the State has chartered Building and Loan and Savings and Loan Associations. Their importance is reflected in the fact that the total assets of state chartered associations have reflected a consistent annual increase and have currently reached an all-time high of $221,568,832. In 1953 the increase of $35,000,000 set a new annual increase record. The tremendous inflow of savings capital enabled the associations to extend the largest annual volume of home mortgage credits ever recorded in the 66 year history of the savings and loan business in Michigan. More than 12,000 home financing loans were granted in 1953.

The 60 savings and loan association offices are performing an increasingly important function to the public in providing thrift savings facilities for the savings investor and home financing service for the average family seeking its own home. Cleary stated that the governing statute requires these associations to build a strong reserve position out of earnings and that the financial standing attained by the Michigan savings and loan business is commendable. It is in a favorable position to continue to render essential services to the communities in the promotion of thrift and debt-free home ownership.

The slogan of the savings and loan business - "The American Home Safeguard of American Liberties" - is profound in its implications.

MORE Farmers Have Planted
DEKALB
than ANY OTHER Seed Corn

This year—because of acreage restrictions—RESULTS will count most. Every acre MUST produce MORE. The BEST GUIDE in choosing your seed, is to plant the Corn that is PERFORMANCE PROVED. Last year, in DeKalb's Selected 5-Acre Corn Growing Contest, 5038 farmers averaged 101.18 bushels of DEKALB per acre. In 15 years of the Contest, 52,306 farmers have averaged 99.04 bushels per acre. These yields were made right on the farmers' own land—under many different soils and weather. They offer conclusive evidence of DEKALB's yielding ability—its outstanding adaptability—its year in and year out Dependability. This Spring—every Spring—make sure of the seed you plant. DRIVER HOSPITALIZED FOLLOWING US-12 CRASH
Ethelyn Nelson of Battle Creek, was taken to Foote hospital, Jackson, suffering abrasions of the knee and face and complaining of pain in her side following an automobile collision at the intersection of US-12 and Kalmbach road at 4:45 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Nelson was driving east on US-12 when the collision occurred.

The other car involved was being driven north across the highway by Stanton H. Davis, Jr., of Grand Rapids. He told officers he had stopped and waited for a truck to pass and failed to see the Nelson car.

Both drivers attempted unsuccessfully to avert the crash around each other. The right front of the Davis car and the left front of the Nelson car were damaged in the collision which spun both vehicles around on the highway.

Miss Nell Congdon of Adrian, spent the past week here as the guest of the Misses Nina Belle Wurster and Nina Crowell.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

 they were cancelled because it was considered they might jeopardize a Communist conspiracy trial in progress in Detroit.
 The hearings were then scheduled for Feb. 9 but had to be postponed because Rep. Clardy postponed a physical collapse. Cause of the difficulty was first thought to be a heart attack. However, the Congressman said that cardiac examination showed he had suffered a severe case of virus pneumonia.

 Rep. Clardy, whose flowing white hair makes him look debonair, claims to feel as fit as a fiddle now and ready to assume his strenuous tasks as a presiding officer at the sub-committee hearings.
 Strange mayors were contemplated more than 400 Michigan cities and villages Wednesday, May 5.
 The number one citizen of these municipalities agreed to swap places with each other as a feature of Michigan Week, which lasts from May 2 to 8. The "Exchange of Mayors Day" soon proved to be the best publicity angle to the week-long promotion.

 Who would change with whom was determined by a "legal" lottery held at Michigan State College. Nearly 800 people who have been working on Michigan Week were present to watch Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Lt. Gov. Clardy and A. Reid and Speaker of the House Wade Van Valkenberg draw names.

 The results made good news. In some instances, very small localities must exchange with very large ones. Detroit and Britton, a village of 500, provided an excellent example.

 She discussed the business, the buildings, the churches, the topography, some of the personalities of the period.
 Altogether, it was a paper of which any author might well be proud.
 In closing the meeting, Mr. Taylor urged people to be careful of old materials in their possession, illustrating his plea by relating a history of a Civil War flag presented to a Saline militia company of which his grandfather was a member. Admiral Farragut made the presentation at Mobile Bay, from the flag chest of his flagship, the USS Hartford. The flag was kept in Saline until 1932, by members of his family, then sent to Annapolis to be displayed in the historic flag museum. He suggested that many persons may have in their possession things which are of inestimable value, and begged them to investigate carefully before destroying such items.

Ever See around a Corner?

THE stunning new windshield you find in every 1954 Buick does a lot more than merely keynote the most modern beauty of the times.

Just take the driver's seat in any one of these tomorrow-styled cars and you'll feel positively eagle-eyed.

That spectacular sweep of glass broadens your point of view to the right and to the left.

It puts more safety in your seeing. It lets you see more of what's coming from the sides—and quicker and easier, too—because the corner posts are pulled way back.

This, you realize, is true panoramic visibility—and makes anything else seem as outdated as long skirts.

But you ought to look into what else goes with the dream-car styling of these great new Buicks.

You ought to look into the whip-like performance of true high-compression V8 engines that reach new horsepower highs. You ought to look into the silky new ride, the new handling ease, the utter smoothness and instant response of Twin-Turbine Dynaflo.*

Most of all, you ought to look into the sensational new Buick CENTURY that's taking the country by storm—the great new Buick performer that gives you more horsepower per dollar than any other car in America.

We cordially invite you to come in today or the first thing tomorrow—to see and drive one of these great new Buicks—and judge for yourself that here is the beauty and the buy of the year, by far.

Urge Potato Growers

Michigan potato growers who increase their acreage this year can't expect help from the government's surplus purchase program. That's the word from George N. Motts, Michigan State College marketing specialist.

The purchases are made under what the government calls "Section 32 funds," and the produce goes mostly for use by welfare agencies, school lunch programs and eligible institutions.

The purchase plan is not a direct price support program. The "Section 32" funds are very limited and are used only to soften the consequences of seasonal market gluts. The U. S. Department of Agriculture's acreage and marketing guide for Michigan suggests that growers in this state should not increase their potato acreage over that of 1953 in order to help avoid surpluses.
