Assistants Needed for Blood Clinic

90 Per Cent of Blood Contributed
Stays in Chelsea

Volunteer workers who will be available to help at the Chelsea Blood Bank clinic, Tuesday, Nov. 16, are urged to call Mrs. Dudley Holmes, Blood Bank chairman, as soon as possible. She said yesterday that she needs to know who will be helping so she can arrange the schedule.

Workers needed at the clinic are one hostess, four registrars, six nurses, two registered nurses and a chairman for the day. Those who can help in any of these categories should call Mrs. Holmes immediately.

This year, Mrs. Holmes pointed out, 90 per cent of all blood donated will be earmarked for local use with only 10 per cent going to the Red Cross for plasma and serum use. The former percentage was on a 50-50 basis with Chelsea's share last year being 50 per cent. Of this amount 60 per cent has been used by the first of this month.

According to the Chelsea Blood Bank plan in operation, each resident or worker in the Chelsea community is entitled to six pints of blood per year, if needed. People who require the Blood Bank services should contact Mrs. Holmes or her co-chairman, Malcolm Bruce.

The Blood Bank clinic will be set up in the Congregational church basement, with Red Cross personnel in charge. Hours will be from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. and from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m.

The eight-bed unit is equipped to handle 10 donors every 15 minutes and appointments will be made to eliminate long waits for workers who come during working hours.

Others may come in at any time during the clinic and be assured a minimum of waiting time. Requirements for giving blood are that the donor must be between the ages of 18 and 50 with the provision that single persons between 18 and 20 years of age must have the written permit of parents or guardians. Donors must weigh at least 110 pounds.

Prepare Your Auto For Winter Now Before Storms Hit

Chief of Police George W. Doe, who dislikes gambling on general principles, warned yesterday that probably hundreds of persons in Chelsea are big time gamblers without realizing it.

"They're the motorists who gamble their lives on a guess that maybe it won't snow or freeze until next week," Chief Doe said.

"They put off getting their cars ready for winter until after the snow is on the ground. That can be a fatal mistake—just one."

November snowstorms, the chief added, can be more hazardous to motorists than January blizzards, because they come unexpectedly and find many motorists unprepared, both mechanically and psychologically.

"If you want to gamble that it won't snow," the chief said, "there is no way against it. But it snowed last winter and the winter before that, and it looks to me like a poor bet."

He urged every motorist in Chelsea to observe the following safety rules:

1. Don't blame accidents on the weather; be ready for bad weather.
2. When snow comes, get the "feel" of the road before starting out.
3. Keep the windshield clear of fog and frost, and be sure headlights, windshield wiper blades, and defrosters are working.
4. On snow and ice, use tire chains. They cut stopping distance in half, and give four to seven times greater traction.
5. When you have to stop, don't brake on the brakes. "Pump" your brakes to avoid skids.
6. Follow other cars at a safe distance. Give yourself room in which to stop, if the other fellow does.

Asked if tire chains are necessary if a car has "winterized" tires, Chief Doe said that the report of the National Safety Council's committee on winter driving hazards has found that tires with special treads cannot approach tire chains for safety.

"About 'inertia' or gyro-type anti-skid devices, Chief Doe said they have been puffed up too much. These pipe-like gadgets were widely sold and installed under the rear frame or luggage trunk of automobiles last year, and the theory that they prevent wheel skids, National Safety Council said, the chief said, show these so-called stabilizing devices are of no help whatever on snow or ice, and are dangerous in that they give the user a false sense of security.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Titus and daughter, Mary Ann, spent Sunday at the home of their niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Whitaker and children of near Pontiac.

VETERANS DAY

Today, we pause reverently to honor the memory of all those who have given to our country's cause "the last full measure of devotion."

CHS Students Take Part in County Govt.

Twenty-four students of Chelsea High school were to be in Ann Arbor Wednesday, Nov. 10, to participate in Washtenaw County Government Day, a project sponsored jointly by the American Legion groups of the county and county officials.

Approximately 350 students and teachers were present for the all-day program during which they visited county offices and were present for a legal session of Circuit Court, held at Tappan Junior High school. The court session included selection of a jury and other regular court procedure.

The program for the day began with an introductory session in Tappan Auditorium during which an explanation was given of the proposed activities. The group then was taken by bus to the American Legion Home for lunch before attending the Circuit Court session.

Each of the 24 local students was assigned a special "office" for the day with Mary Ann Klink as Circuit Court judge, Shirley Barth as coroner and Tom Elise, drain commissioner.

Other elective "officials" were Anne Koselka, probate judge; Duane Downer, registrar of deeds; Robert Keizer, sheriff; Rosalie Dowdy, supervisor; Neil Buehler, surveyor; and Audrey Haab, treasurer.

Appointive offices were assumed for the day by the following: Larry Chapman, auditor; William Hopp, county agent; Richard Stark, county agricultural agent; Diette Hibbs, friend of the court; Rose Ann Harker, juvenile director; Paul Hopkins, Planning Commission director; Conrad Hafner, probation officer; Charles Miller, Road Commission manager; Philip Barrels, sealer of weights and measures; Betty Leggett, superintendent of schools; and Shirley Brayson, county physician and welfare agent.

Legionnaires assigned by Post Commander William Blaess to accompany the group included Paul C. Maroney, Leon Fox, Carl Chandler and Harrison Cooper.

John Griffin, high school principal, and Miss Mabel Fox, high school teacher, also accompanied the group.

Trio Return from California Trip

Mrs. Kathleen Hatt returned Oct. 30 by train and Miss Joyce Jensen returned Oct. 31 by bus from a trip to the west coast. Mrs. Hatt and Miss Jensen, with Mrs. Agnes Wilson of Ann Arbor, started the trip west-together, going by automobile to Los Angeles by way of Salt Lake City, Utah, Reno, Nev., and San Francisco. They left here Oct. 16.

The three ladies separated at Los Angeles, Miss Jensen going to visit friends in Hollywood and Mrs. Hatt spending some time with the John Ferling family of Los Angeles, formerly of Chelsea.

Mrs. Hatt then visited at Albuquerque, N. Mex., and Hot Springs before returning home.

Mrs. Wilson, the third member of the party left California soon after arrival and went to Colorado Springs to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Cpl. and Mrs. E. E. Whipple and their new baby. Cpl. Whipple is stationed with the Army at Camp Carson, near Colorado Springs. He is a grandson of Mrs. Christina Nicolai.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avery left Saturday for a two-week vacation with relatives in Virginia.

Road Commission Employees Cited For Safety Records

Safe Driver Awards were presented to 61 equipment operators of the Washtenaw County Road Commission at a banquet at the Dixboro church, Oct. 29.

From Oct. 1, 1953 to Oct. 1, 1954, all Washtenaw county road employees were involved in 16 accidents. Of these five were considered "at fault" accidents. This is a record to be proud of when one considers that the equipment operators are operating in all kinds of weather and must operate under the most hazardous conditions.

There were 12 operators with a record of no "at fault" accidents for 10 years, three with 13 years, two with 12 years and four with 10 years. These operators all received pins with a small diamond from an insurance company in recognition of their outstanding records. Thirty operators received pins for no "at fault" accidents for years varying from one to nine.

The evening program was completed with the safety film "The Gamblers" which dramatized safe practices on heavy equipment. The equipment operators from the Chelsea yard who were honored and their length of service with no "at fault" accidents are as follows:

16 years—Ray Schumacher and L. Satterthwaite.
13 years—Fred Houk.
10 years—William Buehler (deceased).
9 years—John Klink.
8 years—Hazen Luman and V. Satterthwaite.
3 years—Oliver Walker.

U. of M. Freshmen Meet with Former High School Teachers

Chelsea High School Principal John Griffin and Carl Chandler, English and French instructor, attended a workshop meeting of the annual principal-freshmen conference at the University of Michigan Nov. 3. Theme of the session was "Counseling the Student."

Chandler spent last Thursday at the conference to interview University freshmen who graduated from Chelsea High school in June, 1954. These include Jane Smith, Beverly Smith and James Bauer.

The conference is planned to evaluate students' preparation for the University. The students discuss their orientation and adjustment to the campus and how their high school training helped them in their present studies.

Following the student interviews, an open house allowed the high school and junior college representatives time to discuss informally with the University counselors any new problems which have arisen. The exchange of ideas encourages better service, preparation, and adjustment for the student.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Vogel of Columbus, Ohio, with their sons Bill and John, were overnight guests Saturday at the home of the former's brother, Clarence Vogel and family, and on Sunday visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Vogel. They had been called to Jackson by the illness of Mrs. Karl Vogel's mother, Mrs. W. J. Ollett, who is a hospital patient there.

Bulldogs Lose To Dundee In League Tilt

Will Close Season
Friday Night with Stockbridge Game

The Chelsea High Bulldogs traveled to Dundee last Friday night to absorb a 40-7 loss from the Vikings. In winning, Dundee clinched its second consecutive Huron League championship.

The loss to Dundee, the third against four wins in league play, dropped the Bulldogs into a third place tie with Flat Rock and Roomovelt.

Dundee took the opening kick-off and marched 80 yards for a touchdown with O'Love going wide from the six to score. The extra point attempt was missed.

On the first play following the kick-off the Bulldogs fumbled and Dundee recovered on Chelsea's 36. In six plays Dundee had scored again with LaMonde going the final yard. Pickens scored the extra point.

In the second quarter Dundee scored again on a long pass from O'Love to LaMonde in the end zone. O'Love carried for the extra point.

Following this touchdown the Bulldogs came to life. After Jim McLaughlin picked up three yards on a cross buck, Hugh Weinberg threw to Phil Barrels for a 12-yard gain. Quarterback Bud Ringe then passed to Don Mshar who lateraled to Butch Downer who sped to the Dundee 25. Ringe passed again, this time to Barrels who lateraled to Mshar who reached the four. Ringe then took a pitch-out from Weinberg to score the TD. Butch Downer cracked through a hole opened by Red Keizer. Gary Packard, Joe Bauer and Jay Ferguson for the extra point.

The Bulldogs threatened again in the second quarter as a pass from Ringe to Weinberg carried to the Dundee 30. On the next play the Bulldogs fumbled to end their last-scoring threat.

On the play Butch Downer suffered a twisted ankle and didn't return to the game. The loss of Downer together with Big Ted Nelson who didn't play at all left the Bulldogs with no offensive threat except Ringe's passing. This was not enough as the Vikings rolled to three more touchdowns in the second half while Chelsea couldn't get a sustained drive going.

The Bulldogs close the season this Friday by entertaining Stockbridge at the local athletic field. Game time is 7:30.

This will be the last high school game for seniors Bob Keizer and Phil Barrels, co-captains, Gary Packard, Ron Satterthwaite, Bud Ringe, Butch Downer, Paul Hopkins and Howard Moore. A victory over Stockbridge will give the Bulldogs a 6-3 record, the best in the last three years.

Economy Run Winners To Be Feted By Manchester Club

The Manchester Exchange club has completed plans for entertaining winners of the Oct. 24 Economy Run, and their coaches, at the regular dinner meeting of the club at 6:45 p.m. Monday, Nov. 8.

At that time James McLaughlin of Chelsea, first place winner in the heavyweight division, and Kent Ingraham of Brooklyn, first place winner in the middleweight group, will be presented with their award trophies.

McLaughlin, driving a 1954 Cadillac, got a total of 61,604 ton-miles and 24,611 road miles per gallon of gasoline for the 111-mile course.

Other Chelsea winners who will be attending the dinner with Ray Glasser, their driver training instructor, are Alan LeVan, who placed second in the heavyweight division, and George McConaughy and Conrad Hafner, in first and second place in the middleweight class.

The other winners are from Manchester, Brooklyn, Tecumseh and Clinton.

CIVIL DEFENSE, 1898 STYLE—Chelsea's civil defense unit during the Spanish-American War in 1898 was the above company of soldiers called the "Chelsea Rifles." In full military uniform, which each man paid for himself, the home-guard company assembled for weekly drills on what was then open field at Park and Madison streets where the home of Miss Cora Feldkamp and other houses now stand. Although they called the outfit "Chelsea Rifles," each soldier was equipped with only an old-style musket. Fred Fuller was the drummer for the outfit, beating out the marching cadence. When the company disbanded at the close of the war in 1900, approximately half of them joined the Chelsea Volunteer Fire Department, one of their number, Howard Brooks (second from left, standing), later became fire chief and served actively for more than 50 years. Members of the company are: standing (from left): A. Hilsinger, H. Brooks, M. Lighthall, U. Paine, B. Haab, W. Oesterle, G. Sumner, F. Broesamle, A. Fallon, G. Clark, K. Kalmbach, M. Alexander and G. Wackenhut; second row kneeling: O. Riemenschneider, E. Foster, G. Barth, F. Tomlinson, F. Bauer, W. Boyd, A. Cashun and M. Bauer; front row (seated): D. Alber, J. Bauer, F. Fuller (drummer), E. Alexander, W. Hepburn, C. Schneider and G. VanHusen. This photo was loaned to The Standard by George Clark.

The capping ceremonies took place in St. John the Evangelist church on East Grand Boulevard.

Rev. Edmond Fournier of Sacred Heart Seminary, delivered the address. After these nursing students have completed their studies they will be rotated for their clinical experience to Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor; Leila hospital, Battle Creek, or St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Detroit.

Famed Racing Driver Killed in Plane Crash After Chelsea Visit

Wilbur Shaw, killed in an air-plane crash near Decatur, Ind., Saturday, Oct. 31, had spent the afternoon at the Chrysler Proving Ground here, according to reports of his untimely death. At the proving ground he had tested the new 1955 Chrysler Imperial car to get material for a magazine article he was planning.

Shaw was a three-time winner of the 500-mile Indianapolis Memorial Day race and was highly regarded in automobile industrial, as well as racing circles.

Killed with Shaw were Ray Grimes, test pilot, and Ernest Roese, an old friend. It was believed the pilot may have been trying for an emergency landing during the snowstorm which struck the area Saturday afternoon. The plane had taken off from Ann Arbor at 4 p.m.

Funeral services for Shaw took place Tuesday, Nov. 2, at Vernon Hill.

Toledo Couple Buys Sylvan Hotel, Bowling Alley

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Apel of Toledo, have purchased the Sylvan Recreation and Hotel, at 114 North Main street. The Apels assumed ownership Monday, Nov. 8.

They plan to move to Chelsea in a few weeks and will reside at the hotel. Their son, Gary Berger, is now enrolled as a student at St. Mary's school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Morrison will continue to be employed at the hotel and bowling alley.

Hunters Urged To Report Deer Kills in Area

Lansing—Deer hunters who kill their buck near Chelsea or elsewhere in southern Michigan during the November 15-30 season are urged to phone the Rose Lake wildlife experiment station near Lansing.

The Chelsea hunter can call the conservation department station collect at Lansing, FE 9-8638. A game biologist will go to the hunter's residence or locker plant, weigh the deer, measure its antlers and determine its age.

Even if the deer has been cut up before the biologist arrives, he can still obtain valuable information from the head alone.

"Last hunting season we checked 145 deer taken mostly within 50 miles of Lansing," Dr. C. T. Black, Rose Lake station chief, said. "Credit for this remarkable job must go first of all to the wholehearted cooperation of the hunters who reported it."

These statistics have been made since the fall of 1951. Hunters have learned that they can expect southern Michigan deer to weigh more and have larger antlers on the average than northern deer of the same age. Well-fed yearling bucks from southern Michigan farmland weigh 90 pounds more and average about twice as many antler points as yearlings from northern Michigan poor food areas.

State Legion Head Will Give Radio Talk Thursday Eve

William Blaess, commander of Herbert J. McKee Post No. 31, has announced that Kent Lundgren, state American Legion commander, will be interviewed over a statewide 24-station radio network between 9:30 and 10 o'clock tonight (Thursday). Blaess said the state commander's message will be of interest not only to American Legion members but to all other listeners as well.

Commander Lundgren's radio appearance is part of a ceremony honoring the twin cities of Marquette, Wis., and Menominee, Mich., during the break between the second and third periods of the Red Wing hockey game.

In this area the broadcast may be heard over WRRW, Ann Arbor; WJLS, Detroit; or WJLM, Jackson. Blaess pointed out.

New Telephone Directories Issued

If your name appears in the new telephone directory, it is repeated 2,928 times because that's how many Chelsea directories were printed this year, 113 more than last.

The 1954 editions of the book were delivered last week for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. They are buff colored. A page in the front of each directory is reserved again this year for filling in police and fire telephone numbers and "Better fill the numbers in, too," suggests N. J. Prakkien, Michigan Bell manager here.

Manchester listings are included in the new books.

Needlework Articles To Be On Display

From Wednesday, Nov. 17, through Saturday, Nov. 20, clothing and household linens contributed this year to the Chelsea Chapter of the Needlework Guild are to be on display in a downtown store window, Mrs. H. T. Moore, president of the chapter, has announced.

She explained that there is still time for people to make contributions if they care to. Anyone who contributes two articles of clothing or two pieces of household linens automatically becomes a member of the Needlework Guild for the year. There are no dues or other obligations.

Money members are also welcomed for the purchase of shoes and boots which must be fitted to the child for whom they are intended.

All contributions remain in Chelsea for distribution to those who are in need for any reason.

It has been pointed out that blue jeans or corduroy overalls, underwear and T-shirts for boys four to seven years of age, and dresses, slips and underwear for girls of that age are most desperately needed.

The annual ingathering for Chelsea groups of the Needlework Guild was held the last two weeks in October. The director of each of the groups entertained the members at her home at her own convenience during the two weeks.

An itemized list of the contributions made here this year is presently being compiled and all the articles will be included in the display when it is set up in the downtown show window.

VFW Members Tour Eaton Rapids National Home

Nine members of the Chelsea VFW Auxiliary and three members of VFW Post No. 4076, visited the National VFW Home at Eaton Rapids Sunday and attended the Sixth District Rally held in the community center on the grounds in the afternoon. Approximately 100 delegates and members were present.

The Chelsea people were served their dinner at noon in the guest lodge and then participated in a conducted tour of the property. This included the hospital, nursery, farm buildings and four new cottages now under construction. They also inspected the new fire engine provided by the Detroit-Wayne County VFW Council.

Members of the Chelsea Auxiliary who attended the rally included Mrs. Alpha Sanders of Charlotte, Mrs. Mac Packard, Mrs. Ida Garty, Miss Aida Juergens, Mrs. Fred Klink, Mrs. Mary Kniss, Mrs. Clara Hutzler, Mrs. Henry Heim and Mrs. Wayne Harvey.

Post members who attended ate Fremont Boyer, Mac Packard and Ren Hutzler.

Wayne Harvey and children accompanied Mrs. Harvey and toured the grounds while the group attended the afternoon meeting.

Road Commission Engineer Retires

Ernest J. Ailmeinder, who joined the Washtenaw county Road Commission staff Jan. 22, 1921, has retired as county highway engineer, it was announced last week.

He will reportedly be working with the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority under Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, former Washtenaw county Road Commission manager, who has been director of the Authority since 1951.

Chest Fund Total Nearing $9,000 Goal

Campaign Extended
This Week To Give
Workers More Time

Saturday night tabulation of Community Chest contributions showed a total of $6,900 had been turned in during the week. Monday night the total amount of contributions to date was listed at $7,300.

Because a number of workers found it impossible to complete their canvases last week, the campaign was extended through this week.

Alfred Mayer and Lowell Davisson, co-chairman of this first Chelsea Community Chest campaign said they are hopeful the $9,000 goal will be reached when the drive officially closes Saturday night.

An expedite completion of the campaign they suggested that people who might have been overlooked by canvassers, or who did not happen to be at home when canvassers called, stop in at campaign headquarters in Foster's Mens Wear store and leave their contribution.

Foreign Student Speaks at World Community Service

Miss Suhaina Niaz, of Baghdad, Iraq, speaking at the World Community Day service Friday afternoon, told Chelsea women about the educational system in her native country and the many recent changes in customs there. Miss Niaz is studying at the University of Michigan on a scholarship provided by her country's government to prepare native teachers for the schools of Iraq. She will be returning to Iraq as an English teacher when she completes her studies in February.

She said the agreement under which the scholarship is awarded requires that she teach in Iraq for the same number of years as she attended school here.

In an informal question and answer period, Miss Niaz gave many interesting insights on the customs of her homeland.

Approximately 60 women of the community attended the service which was sponsored by St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church and the Congregational and Methodist churches. The service was held in the Methodist church, with Mrs. William Storey as program leader.

Also participating in the service were Mrs. Vernon Parks and Mrs. James Daniels.

Shahers were Mrs. Calvin Summers, Mrs. W. J. Grossman and Mrs. John Fischer.

Mrs. P. M. Broesamle acted as organist and played the accompaniment for the hymns as well as the regular prelude, offertory and postlude.

An offering received at the service amounted to $33.62 and is designated as a contribution for world-wide aid to children.

THE FORWARD LOOK

"These 9 top aircraft designers salute
Chrysler Corporation's all-new 1955 styling."

L. L. Calvert, President

THESE nine world-famous authorities in aircraft design recently attended a special preview of Chrysler Corporation's all newly designed automobiles for 1955: THE FORWARD LOOK.

What they saw was new-styled engineering . . . entirely new design from frame to roof, from headlight to tail-lamp—design created to match the mood of today's car owner.

They saw long, low lines—with a reason for every line. They felt a sense of forward motion even when the cars were standing still.

They found many features the public has been seeking . . . features new to motor cars and right up an air-minded man's alley.

They were right at home with the New-Horizon windshields—fully swept back and fully wrapped around—new windshields that provide visibility equalled only by an airplane pilot's. They admired the bold sweep of glass as they sat in the driver's seat.

They experienced the convenience of the PowerFlite Range Selector in a surprisingly new and logical place—a place an aircraft designer might well have chosen himself.

THE FORWARD LOOK intrigued these men as it is bound to intrigue you, too. It is a design concept that brings together the things you have been asking for—in looks, in taste, in luxury, in comfort, in performance.

We believe this new design concept will bring you fresh pride of ownership every time you step into your 1955 Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto, Chrysler or Imperial. This is THE FORWARD LOOK—See it at your dealer's soon.

Money left over after all the bills have been paid is usually diverted into a pet project of the state agency involved.

Legend has it that one department, finding itself with $3,000 in the kitty at the end of the year, carpeted the floor of a storeroom rather than admit it couldn't spend all its money.

That's why it was refreshing when the Mackinac Straits Bridge Authority turned back $24,057 from funds it received to pay for plans and specifications for the span between the Upper and Lower Peninsulas.

Highway safety begins behind the wheel, a new point of attack in Michigan.

Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary is dedicated to the idea and his new Driver License Services Division is weeding out bad drivers by the thousands.

First offenders go through the normal court process, pay a fine and get back on the highway—but it all goes into the precise records kept by Cleary's new division. The second time, the offender gets a stiff warning and a letter from Cleary—a last chance letter.

With Cleary, it's three times and out.

Third offenders get a hearing before an examiner and the license is suspended or revoked, depending on the seriousness of the case.

Michigan's Insurance department has been the unwilling target of what Democrats call politics and Republicans label "a desire to protect the industry and policyholders."

For weeks, Auditor General John B. Martin and Insurance Commissioner Joseph A. Navarre have been in a tussle, the result of which is still in doubt.

It all started when Martin, a Republican, said Navarre, a Democrat, was permitting unlicensed firms from other states to sell high risk and mail order policies in Michigan.

Navarre decided to be patient, objective and courteous about the whole thing. First he agreed with Martin that unlicensed firms operate in Michigan—but are permitted to do so by state laws. He said high risk policies—like a policy paying off if it doesn't rain tomorrow—are seldom written by Michigan firms.

Lloyds of London, among others, sell them—anywhere, including Michigan.

The only requirement is that no out-of-state company can operate here until Navarre's department has an affidavit that the policies cannot be placed with Michigan firms.

"Navarre has made no real effort to get the affidavits," said Martin.

"We can't keep track of every agent," said Navarre.

INSIDE THE CAPITOL

By Frank G. Millard
Attorney General

Legal aspects of a new phase in state government came to light recently. The State Health Department, in its stepped up program of research in recent years, came up with the discovery of a new antibiotic named synnematin.

Several years of research and more recent clinical tests have indicated the drug to be very effective in the treatment of typhoid fever and perhaps other diseases.

The Attorney General has served as chairman of the Synnematin committee of the State Administrative Board to negotiate contracts for the further development of the drug. When clinical tests were completed recently and it became necessary to consider contracts for the manufacture and distribution of the new drug, it was apparent to the Attorney General, after examination of the existing law, that the State of Michigan was embarking on a somewhat new field of endeavor and did not have sufficient existing legal authority to contract regarding this new drug.

It was therefore necessary for him to recommend that the Governor include in his call at the special session of the legislature a request that a law be passed providing for authority to the Administrative Board to enter into contracts relating to matters of this kind.

The committee is now in the process of negotiating contracts for the manufacture and sale of this new drug which could very well be a boon to mankind.
