

Surfacing of M-92 To Territorial Road Possible This Year

Grading Contracts
May Be Awarded
Early in Spring

Construction of 5.3 miles of highway from the North Main street bridge, northwesterly to Territorial road, is a possibility this year, according to information from sources generally considered to be reliable.

The preliminary plans include designation of the necessary property for right-of-way and the customary procedure for purchase of the right-of-way property in order that bids on the job may be advertised for.

Contracts cannot be let until all right-of-way property is secured; thus, the construction date hinges on the securing of the right-of-way property. Delay in securing the property would necessarily result in a delay in letting the contract by the State Highway Department.

According to present information it might be possible to complete the preliminary plans soon and if this can be accomplished the contracts may be let early this year.

The first contract will be for grading (which will undoubtedly be somewhat heavy) and for stabilized gravel base. When this is completed and satisfactorily compacted, the bituminous surface will be advertised under another contract.

If grading and stabilized base could be completed even by late summer the State Highway Department would reportedly try to place the bituminous surface in the fall of 1955. If not, the bituminous surface would probably be delayed until June or July of 1956, since good weather conditions are needed for applying the surfacing.

When the gravel base is completed, however, the road will be opened and traffic will have "a very much better road to travel on" than the present road.

The 5.3-mile proposed road construction on M-92 would close the gap in bituminous surface road from Chelsea to Stockbridge.

Lyndon township residents who have been pushing for improvement of Waterloo road from M-92 to the Jackson county line are urging that the Washtenaw County Road Commission take advantage of the opportunity to have the Waterloo road blacktopped while the equipment is in the vicinity for the state job.

The Waterloo road project is slated for completion "by 1957" on the county's long-range road improvement plan and Lyndon township residents have claimed the road should be blacktopped immediately, citing excessive winter end traffic to state-owned recreation areas and heavy truck traffic to state-owned Cassidy Lake as factors in causing breakdown of the roadbed and creating a dust nuisance.

A committee representing the township has tried to enlist the help of the State Conservation Department in getting the desired blacktopping.

Letting of the proposed M-92 state road project, they are renewing their efforts to get Waterloo road blacktopping in the hope it may be done this year.

52 Degrees Below Reported by Local Couple with Army

Daylight for two hours and 42 minutes of the 24 hours and a temperature of 52 degrees below zero were experienced Dec. 28, by former Chelsea residents, now living at Fairbanks, Alaska, according to word received by relatives here the past week.

Mrs. Charles E. Rogers, the former Barbara Joseph, writing to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Joseph, said the weatherman has promised four additional minutes of daylight during January and six additional minutes during February. Temperatures will remain about the same.

Her husband, master sergeant in Company E, 4th Infantry Regiment, had been stationed in Alaska before receiving a day's furlough last October. When their youngest child, Charles E., Jr., born Oct. 28, was just two weeks old the family flew to Alaska and will remain there as long as Sergeant Rogers is stationed at Fairbanks. Also with them is their 2 1/2-year-old daughter, Jeanie Lee.

Dr. and Mrs. Merle Wood of Hart, were in Chelsea Sunday to attend the funeral of their uncle, Harold Luick.

Sunday afternoon visitors of Edw. Butler were his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sedole and children, of near Saline.

Mrs. Ren Hutzel Gives Recording To Gov. Williams

Mrs. Ren Hutzel, department of Michigan VFW Auxiliary president, was in Lansing last Friday at 3:45 p.m., to officially present a recording of the VFW Auxiliary historical radio series "The Man and the Moment" to Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

The first recording tells of a little-known moment in the life of General George Washington which might have changed the course of American history.

The recordings are made under the sponsorship of the National VFW Auxiliary and each state president is presenting her own state governor with a copy. The recordings will be released for broadcasting beginning Feb. 1.

In Michigan the broadcasts will be made from stations in Saginaw and East Lansing.

Later, local Auxiliaries will be encouraged to purchase the recorded series for use in schools of their communities.

School-Board Votes To Change Annual Meeting Date

Chelsea Agricultural Schools Board of Education, at its meeting Tuesday evening, passed a resolution changing the date of the annual meeting of the school district from the second Monday in July to the second Monday in June. The change is to become effective this year.

In other action, the board approved attendance of Miss Martha Smith at the North Central Music Educators' Conference in Cleveland, Ohio, March 5 through 8. Miss Smith is vocal music instructor in the local schools.

VILLAGE PRESIDENT REPORTS:

Similarities Noted Between Local Government, Business

Taxpayers of Chelsea have a vested interest in the fifth-largest business in our community—The Village of Chelsea. The net worth of this business which expends one-quarter of a million dollars annually in maintaining the services required in community of 3,000 people is $350,000.

Although each citizen has no certificate of ownership as the stockholder would have in a private corporation, his title is just as real and his ownership responsibilities are just as heavy as the voluntary investor in any profit-making venture. Furthermore, the citizen's method of control and what he expects of his municipal business is very similar to that of any operation based on good business principles.

The citizens elect their representatives—the village president and six trustees—to operate this service performing business as the stockholders elect their representatives to operate the profit-making enterprise they own. In either case officials are accountable to the people who elected them. If no profits are forthcoming, the quality of the corporate officers are re-examined and replacements are considered. If a municipality, the services furnished such as streets, sidewalks, sanitation, police and fire protection, lighting and so on, are not made readily available at a fair cost, changes in the office holders are quickly made.

This comparison of our municipality with the private business in the community is fair. Each citizen has a right to expect, and a responsibility to insist, that services furnished by their village are done so as economically as possible. The same economic considerations which guide a businessman in making his decisions should be a part of the municipal executive's thinking.

Specifically, examples of municipal economic consideration are, the best streets possible at the lowest cost; as water mains are extended, a proper consideration of population growth must be declared obsolete in a few years due to lack of capacity; the electrical distribution plant must be kept to that degree of maintenance which will assure continued good service at a cost no greater than revenue; personnel employed by the Village should be properly screened to determine ability to perform a full day's work and supervision furnished to insist on it.

There is a point, however, where this analogy between private and public business ceases. The executives in a corporation are permitted to develop the organizational structure they think will be the most effective. In our Village

Boy Scout Council Fellowship Dinner Scheduled Jan. 23

The annual meeting and fellowship dinner of Portage Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, is this year being held in the Michigan Union, at Ann Arbor. The event is scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 23, from 5 until 9 p.m.

The annual business meeting is to take place from 5 until 6:15 p.m., with a special program planned for the entertainment of the ladies during this time.

The banquet, for which reservations must be made in advance, is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. and will be followed, from 7:30 until 9 p.m., with a program during which unit leaders will receive recognition, Silver Beaver awards will be made and officers will be installed.

Scheduled as guest speaker is Dr. Gunnar H. Berg, director of professional training and director of Schiff Scout Reservation in New Jersey. He is to be in charge of the national training conference for all professional Scouters, which will be held in Ann Arbor Sept. 2 through 9.

Library Asks Support for Building, Site

The Chelsea Public Library's building and site fund, started in 1951 with a contribution from the Woman's Club of Chelsea, has now reached a total of $2,950 and efforts are being made to interest people of the community in contributing to the fund by means of individual contributions of $10 or more and by memorial gifts and bequests.

Promoters of the project, which has for its goal the construction of a library building at ground level, have stated "Your contribution will be an investment in the future of Chelsea and in the position that freedom demands vigilance. There are no free public libraries, as we know them, in Russia."

According to library records, there are not 7,980 books housed on the second floor of the Municipal building, ranging in subject from nursery rhymes to nuclear fission, from carpentry to points of law, from romance to philosophy. Also included is a varied collection of recordings, both modern and classical, and a fine console record player for the use of patrons.

Citing the large number of volumes loaned by the library annually and the unrestricted access to knowledge and information the library represents, it was pointed out that the project to further increase its efficiency by means of locating it in a building of its own, "deserves the unhesitating support of everyone in the community."

Anyone wishing information regarding contributions, bequests or memorial gifts may contact the librarian.

Cage Squad Squeaks Past U. High Team

League-Leading
Saline To Invade
Home Court Friday

Friday night, Chelsea's cage squad came home with a hard-won victory wrestled from University High school, the final score being 76-62.

The first three quarters of the game saw the lead change hands so often that it was impossible to form any opinion on the eventual outcome.

At half-time Chelsea led, 38-35, but at the beginning of the third quarter U. High scored and took a lead of four points and it was not until half way through the fourth quarter that Chelsea regained the lead and proceeded to break the game wide open.

This was Chelsea's fifth win in six tries, having lost the one game to Dundee.

Coach Ray Glasser told members of the team after the game that if they expect to measure up to Saline their game with them tomorrow night on the home floor they will have "to play better ball" than they did against University High. This will be a contest for first place in the league.

He said the Ann Arbor team gave Chelsea much more trouble than the local team had anticipated. Bruce Hoffman led the scoring in last week's game with 22 points. Next high were Bob White, 18 points, and Bud Ringe and Bob DeFaut, with 10 points each.

Ringe and Neil Buehler turned in outstanding floor games, according to Coach Glasser.

Chelsea reserves won from University reserves by a score of 47-20.

Tomorrow night's game here with Saline begins at 8:45 p.m. for the reserves and 8 p.m. for the varsity squad.

Anti-Rabies Clinic Dates Set for County

"Washtenaw County's residents will be given a chance to have their dogs vaccinated in rabies clinics again this year," says Dr. Otto K. Engelke, Director of the Washtenaw county Health Department, beginning next Tuesday Jan. 18.

Clinics sponsored jointly by the Health Department and the Washtenaw county Veterinary Medical Association will be held in various locations throughout the county, to enable people to get their dogs vaccinated before the Feb. 28 deadline for purchasing license without paying a penalty for late licensing.

Since the enactment by the Board of Supervisors, in 1948, of a law requiring all dogs be vaccinated before a license is issued, there have been only two known cases of rabies in native dogs of Washtenaw county. Previous to this, there were 30 to 40 cases of rabies in dogs each year, with several humans reported bitten by rabid or mad dogs.

As in previous years, a reduced fee of $1.50 will be charged at the clinics for each dog vaccinated. This vaccination will enable the dog owners to secure a license, and local officials will be on hand, at the clinics to issue a license to anyone wishing to purchase one after the vaccination.

The schedule of the dates, hours, and location is as follows:
Chelsea, Thursday, Jan. 27, 7-9 p.m., Sylvan Town Hall.
Lyndon township, Friday, Jan. 28, 7-8:30 p.m., Lyndon Town Hall.

All Community Chest Contributors Urged To Attend Election of Board

The first annual meeting of the Chelsea Community Chest is to take place Monday, Jan. 31, at 8 p.m. on the third floor of the Municipal building and all contributors to the Chest funds are urged to attend.

Membership in the Community Chest is composed of all people and organizations who made any contribution to the 1954 campaign. At the time the date for the meeting was set, Stuart R. Booker, who served as president of the Community Chest for the first fund drive, made the following statement: "Everyone in the community who made a contribution to the Community Chest should attend and take part in any matters which may be brought up at the annual meeting and to participate in naming those who are to act as officials. Only in this way can the Community Chest be a truly representative community affair."

Booker will be out of town at the time of the annual meeting and Harold Jones, vice-president of the board of directors of the Community Chest, will preside.

Dr. J. V. Fisher is chairman of the nominating committee to present a slate of 21 candidates for office as directors. Of these, seven will be for one-year terms, seven for two-year terms and seven for three-year terms.

Nominations may also be made from the floor and any contributor to the Chest may vote at the meeting.

Working with Dr. Fisher on the nominating committee are Ishmael Pickelsimer, Malcolm Bruce, Mrs. Warren Danells and William Rademacher.

It is hoped the 21-member board of directors will include representatives of various organizations not now listed as beneficiaries as well as representatives of the beneficiary groups.

Also to be acted upon at the annual meeting are certain technical amendments to the by-laws which are already on file.

Officers of the Community Chest will later be named from the group of 21 directors to be elected at the Jan. 31 meeting.

The board of directors and officers will be the first permanent ones since those who were in charge of the first campaign, served as temporary officers only.

Contributions Slow Early in Polio Drive

Mrs. Hugh Sorensen, Chelsea March of Dimes Campaign chairman, reports that returns from dime cards the first week of the present drive have netted a total of $111.50. Only other contributions to date are $4.48 for dime cards sent in since the August emergency campaign and a contribution of $5 in the organizational drive.

The campaign began Monday, Jan. 3 and continues through Jan. 31.

No goal was set for Chelsea but the county as a whole is aiming for a total of $65,000.

Estimated total cost of patient care, with some of the 1954 cases still hospitalized is expected to reach $50,000, it was pointed out.

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Hayes Meyers, Rural Chairman for the March of Dimes, that there may have been some duplication in the addressing of the Dime Cards mailed out to the residents of the township. Persons who receive two envelopes are asked to mail their contributions in the envelopes addressed to the chairman of the township in which they live. This will assure their contributions being credited to their own township.

Mrs. Meyers also announced this week that she has appointed Mrs. Floyd Fowler as Sylvan township March of Dimes chairman.

Mrs. Fowler learned yesterday that through an error, Sylvan township residents, outside the village of Chelsea, had not received dime cards in the mail. Since there are no more of the cards available to send out, she is planning to have workers canvass the township to pick up contributions residents may wish to make.

Christmas Seal Sale Nets $863 from Village To Top 1953

According to an announcement made by the Washtenaw county Tuberculosis Association the Jan. 7 total of contributions for the annual Christmas Seal Sale for 1954 was $863.25. Contributions may still be turned in.

Last year's total for Chelsea was $842.89.

The Jaycee Creed

We believe:
That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws rather than of men;
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;
And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

Vanderkelen, second vice-president; Ray Knickerbocker, treasurer; John Winans, secretary; Roy Guenther, George Knickerbocker, Rohn Miller and Jack Wellnitz, directors.

Charter members of the Chelsea group, in addition to the officers, are William Adams, Robert Adams, Lyle Christwell, Mike Green, Alton Guenther, John Jenkins, Merle Leach, Gerald Lehmann, James Miller, Arden Musbach, Richard O'Hara, Henry Ortring, Arthur Paul, Charles Popovich, John Popovich, Robert Shears, Judd Small, William Storey and Robert Tobin.

Bruce Maslin, extension chairman and a past president of the Ann Arbor JCC, presented Dr. Pilkington with a president's pin during the after-dinner ceremonies.

Rev. Fr. Lee Laige gave the opening invocation and the program closed with remarks by the toastmaster.

Approximately 200 people were present for the dinner and the dance which followed.

Committee chairmen in charge of arrangements for the Charter night observance were Jerome Burg, general chairman; William Storey, program; James Miller, decorations; and Jack Wellnitz, tickets.

Table decorations were made by pupils of the Chelsea elementary grades under the direction of the art teacher, Mrs. Joyce Halbrook.

Members of Olive Chapter No. 108, Order of Eastern Star, served the dinner.

In presenting the state charter, the state JCC president, Pete Baldwin, briefly stated the objectives of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at local, state, national and international levels. He said 55 countries are now represented in the international organization, with 2,050 local organizations in the states and territories of the United States representing a total membership of more than 150,000.

It was explained that the Junior Chamber of Commerce had its origin in a local group formed in October, 1915, in St. Louis, Mo., by Henry Gieseler, Jr. The movement grew so rapidly that a national organization was formed in 1920. National offices are now maintained at Tulsa, Okla.

Objectives of the JCC are briefly stated to be "to make the community a better place in which to live" and "to develop leadership among its members."

This is the second year that Mrs. Dean and the restaurant employees have made this contribution to the March of Dimes.

LIBRARY

The main purpose of our school library is to provide a good supply of books, and to maintain the circulation of them. If students do not bring back overdue books, other students cannot have them for use.

The library now is carrying two new magazines that the fellows will really go for. They are "Sports Illustrated" and "Motor Trends."

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOC.

Marie Munden was appointed chairman of the food committee which is to plan a dinner to serve to the Dexter girls basketball team after their game here.

Plans were discussed for going swimming at the YWCA, but no definite date was decided upon.

The girls are looking forward to practicing basketball and having other after-school activities in the gym at the South Elementary school now that the equipment is being installed.

DEBATE

The debate team held a post-poned debate at Bloomfield Hills on Tuesday, Dec. 14. This is the first time that Chelsea has debated this school. Both Chelsea teams lost.

Another series of debates was held in Chelsea on Jan. 6, this time against Morenci. Again both local squads lost. Only two members of the local debate squads have had experience previous to this season—seniors Bill Eisenbeiser and Connie Steinbach. All other members of the squad are freshmen. They are doing very well, and if they stay with debating, show promise of developing.

Movies...

The following movies were seen by classes at Chelsea High school since Jan. 3. Mrs. Conklin's home-making classes saw parts of the "Social Sex Attitudes," "How Do You Know It's Love," "Free Prices," "Who's Boss," "Flower Arrangement," "Meet Romance," "Baby Sitter," and "The Meaning of Engagements." Mrs. Halbrook's art class saw "Loom Weaving," "Perspective Drawing," and "Drawing with a Pencil."

Livestock Prices Seen Lower in '55

Michigan livestock raisers may look for a slight downturn in their profits during 1955, according to the annual outlook released by Michigan State College agricultural economists.

Careful management will be essential, they say, and often the deciding factor between profit and loss. Here is the capsule run-down on various livestock enterprises:

HOGS: Profits will not be as good in 1955 as in 1954. Supplies will be 7 to 8 per cent larger than last year. Prices will be well below the high levels of early 1954, but not much below prices this past fall. Feeder pigs prices are expected to be lower relative to market hog prices than they were in spring of 1954. Watch for good buys in feeder pigs, the economists advise. Feeding hogs to heavy weights probably will not pay in 1955.

CATTLE: Lower profits are expected in 1955. Prices of the higher grades of cattle will remain about the same as in 1954. Prices of cows and feeders and stockers will probably decline some.

LAMBS AND WOOL: Profits from lamb feeding will be smaller in 1955. Lamb feeding was profitable in 1954 and feeder lamb prices have been bid up, narrowing the spread. To encourage and increase

Conservation Dept. Offers Free Seedlings To Improve Wildlife

Want to improve your farm for wildlife?

You can get food and cover producing trees and shrubs you need free from the Michigan Conservation Department, according to Don Johnson, Washtenaw county agricultural agent.

The department is offering these plants, without charge: pines, spruces, multiflora rose, bush honeysuckle, coralberry. Other tree seedlings also are included in the list.

If you request it, a fieldman from the conservation department will inspect your farm. He can determine what can be planted to improve the land and at the same time make conditions better for wildlife.

Johnson points out that the planter's recommendations generally mean good soil and water conservation practices.

Trees and shrubs can be planted on eroded hillside, in gullies, along pond and marsh borders or along edges of woodlots. Evergreen trees also can be planted as windbreaks or for Christmas trees.

Farmers living south of M-20 are eligible to receive the trees and shrubs. You can get more information from the county extension office at Ann Arbor, from directors of local soil conservation districts, or by writing to the Game Division, Michigan Conservation Department, Lansing 26, Michigan.

Contrary to many notions, it is not harmful to cook foods in aluminum utensils, say MSC Home Economists.

Children are not born with specific fears and hates. As they grow, they do have unpleasant experiences that cause fear and pleasant experiences with people that cause feelings of love.

Educators have started an 11-month campaign to learn more about Michigan school problems. The program is designed to prepare 27 state delegates with information to take to the 1955 White House Conference on Education next November.

President Eisenhower has asked for the nation-wide conference to determine what role the Federal government must play to keep America the most enlightened nation in the world.

The state has been divided into 14 regions, each of which will hold its own conference and pick delegates to a state meeting.

State meeting, in turn, will coordinate all the problems and send them with the delegates to the Washington conference next year. "The time has now arrived, I believe, when the people are ready to do something, more about the schools," said Dr. Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction.

Main problem in Michigan now is finding money to build the 2,000 new classrooms needed to handle enrollment increases in the next few years—and teachers to preside over them.

Dr. Taylor stated succinctly that these questions will be asked of every community in the next 11 months: "Where are we? How did we get here? Where are we going? How are we going to get there?"

Importance of education in estimation of officials jockeying the United States in the cold war with Russia was stressed by Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State College.

Dr. Hannah recently returned from an 18-month tour of duty as assistant Secretary of Defense, said: "We know that Russia is training engineers and scientists faster than we are, and good ones, too. We must do something quickly if we are going to keep pace with them."

Michigan's 1955 Senate will have a number of new members, but the leadership will be the same that charted the chamber's Republican course for the past two years.

Senator Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek) again will be Republican caucus chairman. Senator Harry F. Little (R-Lansing) will be president pro tempore and Senator Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) Republican floor leader.

Coleman led a group of younger members into power in the Senate two years ago when Republicans had 24 votes to 8 for the Democrats. During 1955, the majority will be shaved to 23 to 11.

"We may have a more difficult time this year with more seats and more united now," he said.

Major issues facing the 1955 session in both the Senate and House include what to do about taxes when the Business Activities tax, worth $30,000,000 this year, expires in spring; how to finance education; a fresh look at social legislation.

Reports persist that Gov. Williams is looking for a spot on the 1956 national ticket, and his fellow Democrats are doing nothing to dispel the thought. CIO meetings in Detroit have flatly said they would support Williams in the 1956 convention. Williams has remained silent on his plans, but attentive.

Democrats and Republicans alike predict that Williams will spend the next two years and do a lot more traveling around the country.

Said one Republican: "We should get behind him, too, for anything he wants to get in the way of political prominence—nationally."

State Welfare officials would like to have more power over campaigns for charitable purposes—to protect the public and the legitimate fund-raising organizations.

W. J. Maxey, state welfare director, said his office licenses charities which conduct campaigns across state and county lines, but has no power to enforce regulations.

He said the state welfare commission would ask the legislature for power to take a charity into court and seek to prevent further collections if they didn't obey the laws.

Another major item sought will be discretionary power to limit the amount of the collections that the charities can use for expenses and administration. "Most of the charities in Michigan are fine and worthwhile," Maxey said. "These provisions would enable us to protect them and the public."

Republicans are clearing away the shambles of defeat in the November election and making ready to live with Democrats in control of the state administration. Bitterness has been replaced by a determined move in the House to outshine the Democrats.

House Speaker Wade Van Valkenberg (R-Kalamazoo) is the chief sounding board of the new theory. Following a caucus of Republicans, he said: "We've got to stop being anti-Democratic and be more pro-public. We're interested in developing a better program."

Signs multiplied as legislators gathered for the 1955 session that Republican majority leaders would take a close look at Gov. Williams' recommendations, then draft their own goals.

Already, one Republican senator is working up a highway bond issue proposal, grabbing the ball back after Williams intercepted it during the 1954 campaign.

Senator Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) has sponsored a proposed constitutional amendment for a $600,000,000 bond issue for highway construction.

The controversy started last year when Senator Joseph A. Cloon (D-Wakefield) sponsored the idea. After it was kicked around, Williams pleaded for its passage on the last day of the session.

Republicans ignored him to await a complete survey of Michigan's highway needs, the first since 1947, Williams made it a campaign issue on a "do-it-now" platform and the issue remains.

Republicans are still determined to wait for the survey now being made by the Automotive Safety Foundation. Williams still wants immediate action.

Senator Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek), majority caucus chairman, said immediate action is impossible and insists on a detailed plan to finance the bond issue.

"Without a financing plan, it's a fraud on the public," he said. Food for the needy in Michigan has been flowing into the state from Federal surplus commodity warehouses for the past five months. Official figures show the market value of the free food has reached $2,185,161.

"The food goes to the people who need it most—those on the relief rolls," said a state official.

The program was started as a means to prevent spoilage and deterioration of Federal surpluses and to improve the diet of those getting public assistance anyway.

In the shipments of the first five months, the state has received 835,200 pounds of print butter; 455,585 pounds of bulk butter; 540,000 cans of beef and gravy; 540,000 pounds of process cheese and 206,386 pounds of natural cheese.

Welfare officials are jubilant about the program, which improves their services to the needy without additional loads on the taxpayer.

The taxpayer? He's happy, too, to know that surpluses from the farm price support program are not going to waste.

Another boon for welfare clients is in the making as the legislature meets for the 1955 session. Already drafted is a bill which would increase the maximum Old Age Assistance checks from $70 to $80 a month, the first increase since a $10 boost in 1952.

"Some of these people just can't live on $70 a month," said Welfare Director W. J. Maxey.

The maximum goes to those over 65 years old who have no other income and, Maxey said, the increasing costs of rent and medical care make the increase "only close to adequate."

In addition, the increase for old age recipients is a forerunner of a general increase for those receiving aid to the blind and aid to the disabled.

The cost to the state is expected to reach $2,500,000 a year. The Federal government contributes the first $35 to $55 of the present $70 a month maximum grant.

It happens at least once every year, the flag flies over the Capitol upside down. It's never planned that way, though. Some sleepy custodian makes a mistake and all sorts of bad jokes are made—because the upside down flag is an international signal of distress. Ask any sailor. It happened again, just two days after the Nov. 2 election.

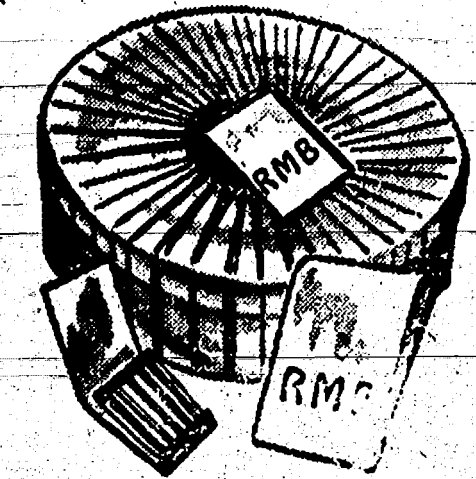

Maybe the Republicans were in distress, but it was still a mistake," said one Capitol employee.

Pinckney Kiwanis Club Launched By Local Group

At the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis club Monday evening, Dr. P. E. Sharrard reported that the organization of the Pinckney Kiwanis club has been completed, and with the assistance of some of the Chelsea Kiwanis members would hold their first meeting Tuesday, Jan. 11. Anton Nielsen was to provide their first program.

Donald Alber introduced Wallace Wood, President of the Chelsea Community Fair, who asked for an opinion of the members regarding the establishment of a Washtenaw County Fair, centrally located in the county, where all the communities could participate. The Kiwanis football trophy which was provided by the Milan and Chelsea Kiwanis clubs, and won by Chelsea this year, was exhibited by Donald Alber. This trophy is passed to the winning team in a game played by these two towns each year.

John Griffin, Chelsea High school principal, discussed the school's Adult Education program, explaining that if ten or more people are interested in a particular subject, a class would be organized.

Those who attended the Kiwanis Michigan District conference at Jackson Sunday and Monday were the Chelsea club president, Charles S. Cameron; also, Paul Mann, first vice-president, John Alber, second vice-president, Donald Alber, immediate past president, Rev. Thomas Toy, Paul F. Niehaus, H. T. Moore, M. J. Anderson, Anton Nielsen, Karl Koenigster and Alfred D. Mayer, outgoing lieutenant-governor of Division VI.

Another Chelsea club member, Rev. Thomas Toy, was installed on the state committee known as "Support of Churches and Their Spiritual Aims."

Paul F. Niehaus of the local club, who is treasurer of the Forney Clement Foundation attended an officers' luncheon at noon Sunday at the Hotel Hayes.

Following Alfred Mayer's designation as immediate past lieutenant-governor of Division VI, William Myers of Milan, was installed to the office of lieutenant-governor for 1955 at the Sunday evening ceremonies.

Guest of Jack Meekel at Monday's club meeting here was George Palmer who recently returned from army service.

Chelsea seniors who attended as guests of the club are Mary Ann Klink and Nerissa Klingler.

Small and medium eggs give more pounds per dollar than large and extra large eggs. Department of Agriculture poultrymen give us a good yardstick to help us buy. If medium eggs can be bought for one-eighth and small eggs for one-fourth less than the price of large eggs, they are a better value.

Thirteen Michigan counties have been designated "emergency loan areas" by the State and S.C. officials. The decision makes it easier for farmers in these counties to obtain loans. This is the result of late fall rains that seriously damaged crops.

Farmers' Week Will Feature Fight On Bang's Disease

Farmers visiting the Centennial Farmers' Week at Michigan State College, Feb. 7 to 11, will get the latest word from the men carrying on the fight against brucellosis, or Bang's disease, in Michigan.

The animal husbandry, dairy, and veterinary departments at MSC are presenting a three-day program, "Bang's Facts For You," Tuesday through Thursday during Farmers' Week.

The morning-long program, duplicated each day, will begin with a movie, showing the "Triple Threat of Brucellosis." Assistant State Veterinarian George P. Whitehead, along with U. S. Department of Agriculture and college officials, will demonstrate the tests for the disease and the methods of prevention and control.

Monday, Feb. 7, the first day of Farmers' Week, will again be Dairy Day. All major individual breed meetings will be held during the day on Monday. Then, in the evening, the all-breeds banquet will bring the individual groups together for dinner and discussion.

For the first time, the dairymen will have some competition for interest on the opening day. Monday will also be Horse Day with meetings of the horse breeders and dynamometer associations.

These events, along with the various departmental meetings will be highlighted throughout the week. As usual, the exhibits are expected to be well-attended affairs, along with the address by Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra T. Benson, on Thursday afternoon in the general session.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilbert were called to Mackinaw City this week by the serious illness of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Liebeck.

New Income Tax Bulletin Available Now from MSC

Farmers can get the latest information on changes in the income tax law from a new bulletin just off the press.

Put out by Michigan State College, "Farmers' 1954 Income Tax" can be picked up free at the county agricultural agent's office. Or it is available by writing the Bulletin Office at Michigan State, East Lansing.

MSC's farm income tax specialist, E. M. Elwood, points out that farmers should especially remember these changes in the income tax law:

They have one month longer to prepare their final statement and they will have to pay about 10 per cent less tax this year. The deadline for the final return now is April 15 instead of March 15.

Children under 19 can earn more than $200 and still be claimed as dependents if their parents provide more than half their support. The same holds true if the children are 19 or over and full-time students for a least five months of the year.

Other important changes are discussed in the new bulletin.

When you want to Go - You're gonna Go!

the Dynaflow unit itself can change the angle—like the propeller of the airplane can change its pitch from take-off position to cruising position. And what this brings to you—at the wheel of a 1935 Buick—is the nearest thing to flight on wheels. Far better gas mileage in your normal driving and cruising. Spectacular new response when you want it for extra quick getaway or emergency acceleration.

Thrill of the year is Buick

W. R. DANIELS
Cheesee, Michigan
208 Railroad Street

No its, and or but about it. When you give the gun to a 1935 Buick with Dynaflow Drive, you move. In the instant you push down the pedal, you get the action you've called for—immediate getaway from a standing start, or immediate safety-surge out of a tight spot on the highway. It's not magic, this thrilling and pulse quickening response—though it feels like the closest thing to it. It's a principle of the modern airplane, brought for the first time to an automotive transmission. Twenty "variable pitch propellers" inside

But all this, mind you, with the absolute smoothness that is constant in Dynaflow Drive. Surely, a demonstration of Variable Pitch Dynaflow is a Buick must this year. We'll make here, Drop in this week, won't you? In the doing, what a while of a buy you, happy to do the honors—and show you, make here, Drop in this week, won't you?

"Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Buicks."
