Mothers March Tonight Will Aid March of Dimes

Marchers Will Stop
Only Where Porch
Light Is Turned On

Township Chairmen
Near Completion in Polio Fund Canvass

Tonight, from 7 until 8 p.m., Chelsea Child Study club members will conduct their "Mothers March" for the March of Dimes campaign. Marchers will stop at every home where a porch light is turned on as an indication that the occupants wish to contribute to the polio fund.

Mrs. Charles Lancaster and Mrs. Roland White, Child Study club co-chairmen for the event, said yesterday, "Please don't forget to turn on your porch light. Our marchers will stop only where the light is on and if you forget to leave it on, you will be missed."

Six area directors were appointed by Mrs. Lancaster and Mrs. White, including Mrs. Charles Lancaster, Mrs. Charles Lancaster, Mrs. Charles Lancaster, Mrs. Charles Lancaster, Mrs. Charles Lancaster, Mrs. Charles Lancaster.

District II, in charge of Mrs. Malcolm Bruce, is the area including the north side of Park street north to Jackson street.

Mrs. Richard Kern will be responsible for the northeast section of the village, beginning with Railroad street and including McKinley street and Dexter road which comprises District III.

Mrs. William Blease, in charge of District IV, will have her workers canvass both sides of West Middle street and both sides of Chandler and Wilkinson streets, while Mrs. John Arthur, District V chairman, will call at the homes on the south side of Summit street, the west side of Main street from Summit to and including the north side of Lincoln and both sides of Grant street.

Mrs. Edwin Sutter and Mrs. Richard Riemschneider have been assigned as co-directors of the area in the northwest section including North Main street, Hayes street and Main street, which is District VI.

Each director is to appoint her own workers and the conclusion of the "Mothers March" will go to the home of Mrs. Hugh Sorensen, Chelsea March of Dimes chairman, to turn in their contributions.

Each of the workers will be identified by carrying a jar or envelope properly marked for the March of Dimes.

Approximately $440 was contributed during the "Mothers March" last year and committees are hoping to better that figure tonight.

All proceeds will be added to Chelsea's quota for the month-long March of Dimes drive which ends Monday.

Mrs. Sorensen said yesterday that anyone who is accidentally missed during the Mothers March or who forgets to leave the porch light on but wishes to make a contribution may call GR 5-3580 and someone will be sent to pick it up.

Louis Heim Home
Destroyed by Fire
Sunday Afternoon

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the entire top floor of the Louis Heim residence on North Lima center road, one-half mile south of Dexter road, late Sunday afternoon.

Chelsea Fire Chief Ted Balmor said the Dexter Fire department also responded and both crews fought the fire. The call for help was received here at 5:10 p.m.

The Chelsea firefighters used approximately 3,000 gallons of water on the blaze, using Chelsea's pump, which re-filled at a nearby creek.

Firemen in the neighborhood also called to the aid of firemen by hauling water in milk cans. The downstairs rooms of the house suffered severe water and smoke damage.

Bulldogs Win Over Lincoln Friday Night

Will Meet Dundee
Tomorrow Evening
On Home Floor

Chelsea Bulldogs chalked up their seventh straight win of the present basketball season when they defeated the Lincoln team at Ypsilanti Friday night, the score being 84-75.

During an exceptionally exciting first half, both teams were hitting well with Chelsea leading at the close of the half, 39-33.

At the beginning of the third quarter, Chelsea hit for 17 straight points, holding Lincoln scoreless and breaking the game wide open.

After about five minutes of play in the third quarter, Coach Ray Glasser pulled the regulars out of play and the reserves finished the game.

This was another of the games where Chelsea's scoring was well balanced.

Varsity players scored as follows: Bruce Hoffman and Bob White, 18 points each; Neil Bucher, 17 points; and Don Smith and Bob DeFaut, each 9 points.

Chelsea's win Friday keeps the local team still tied with Saline for first place in the league.

Advantages Seen in City Government

By Maxwell G Sweet
Village President

In Michigan there are only two basic primary governmental units—cities and townships. These governments furnish both the legally required duties required by the state and the local services.

A village is not a basic primary government, since it furnishes only municipal service. The village remains part of the township and the township government continues to provide in the village the legally required duties. The village taxpayers support both their village and township governments.

The municipal services mentioned above are: fire protection, police protection, water supply, zoning, public health and so on. The legally required duties mentioned above are:

1. Assessing property as a basis for county and school taxes.

2. Collecting taxes for the county and schools.

3. Conducting county, state and national elections.

4. Furnishing a district for sending supervisors to the County Board of Supervisors.

5. Providing a primary or justice court system.

Both in cities and townships, outside of villages, all local government activity—both legal duties and local services—is unified in one government. In townships outside villages, the township government alone provides all these services. Only in villages are the governmental activities divided between two governments. Village residents, therefore, are the only persons in Michigan living under and supporting two local units of government, the village and the township.

Village residents have the inconvenience of dealing with the village clerk on some matters and a township clerk on others; they pay village taxes to their own township treasurer; they have a village council taxing for certain governmental services and a township board taxing for others; and they must vote at a township caucus in addition to the village caucus. It may not be a major problem to deal with two local governments, but it is an unnecessary inconvenience, annoyance, expense and waste of time. As a city, all local offices would be managed by a government consisting only of citizens of the municipality and responsible only to them.

The power to make the change from a village to a city resides with the citizens of Chelsea. Presently this village operates under town law. It has no charter, but derives all its powers directly from specific acts of legislature. By the simple expedient of deciding to go so, village citizens may elect nine citizens of Chelsea to write a charter specifically designed to give the City of Chelsea the kind of government needed in this community.

Building Pledges
Near $40,000 Goal

Annual Meeting
To Be Held Next
Monday Evening

Approximately $30,000 of the estimated $40,000 cost of construction of a 32x60-foot annex for the Congregational church was pledged Sunday afternoon when 30 canvassers visited members of the congregation. The campaign is to be concluded by next Sunday and workers are confident their report to the congregation at the morning service will show the entire $40,000 pledged.

The building committee, under the chairmanship of Lawrence Wacker, has been instructed to proceed with securing bids on the construction job.

The fund-raising committee, with the 30 canvassers, met at the church at 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon for a coffee hour and to give reports on their afternoon's work. Merle Barr, Jr., is chairman of the committee.

The entire group of canvassers was commissioned by the pastor, Rev. Thomas Toy, at an impressive ceremony during the morning worship service.

The annex to be added at the north of the present church building is to provide needed Sunday school rooms for a unified, integrated Sunday school period and worship service, held at the same hour.

The church building, itself, is also to undergo renovation and redecoration under the $40,000 program.

Ag. Students
Honored at FFA Banquet

Approximately 140 people, including parents of FFA members, members of the school board and big scramble sponsors, were guests of the Chelsea Chapter of Future Farmers of America at a game banquet in the Chelsea High school gymnasium Tuesday evening.

Also present were High school Principal John Griffin and Mrs. Griffin and School Superintendent and Mrs. Charles Cameron.

Game served at the banquet had been secured by FFA students during a hunting contest which was won by James Grau, Reggie Blough, Alan LeVan and Jim Dault. The four were given their contest awards at the banquet by Billy Hoppe.

A committee of mothers of FFA members, headed by Mrs. Doris Whitaker, prepared the meal which included 10 pheasants, 7 rabbits, 20 squirrels, 20 chickens and one raccoon.

Assisting Mrs. Whitaker were Mrs. Max Hoppe, Mrs. Lyle Walz, Mrs. Frank Dault, Mrs. Fred Klink, Mrs. William LeVan and Mrs. William H. Johnson.

Ten girls of the Chelsea Future Homemakers group served the dinner. The girls are Willard Guntz, Lett, Rosemary Scherdt, Pat Blaznek, Jackie Hibbs, Mickie Talbot, Nerissa Klingler, Ruth Ann Stapish, Shirley Bair and Betty Plante.

The after-dinner program included a talk by Philip Smith, agriculture teacher, in which he described last summer's FFA trip to the Amish country in Pennsylvania.

Slide pictures of the trip were shown by Edson Whitaker, Dean Fowler and Tom and Jim Klobuchar.

Paul G. Schaible, president of Chelsea State Bank, presented the bank trophy to Alan LeVan for having the heaviest litter of pigs at 56 days old, from a pig taught in the Community Fair pig scramble. His 11 pigs weighed 375 pounds.

Other awards were presented at the banquet as follows: Bronze medals for 500 to 750 points earned for scholarship and outstanding (Continued on page two)

Arrangements for next Monday's first annual Community Chest meeting were completed at a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday evening, Jan. 19.

Dr. J. V. Fisher, chairman of the nominating committee, reported that he and his committee are prepared to present a list of candidates for election as directors. Seven directors must be elected in each of the three groups for terms of one, two and three years, respectively. They will comprise the first permanent board of directors, since those serving for the 1954 Community Chest drive were named as a temporary board. Nominations may also be made from the floor.

Everyone in the community who made a contribution to the 1954 Community Chest is eligible to vote for their choice of directors and on other matters to be brought up at the annual meeting. The voting will be done by written ballot, it was decided at Wednesday's meeting.

Officers for the coming year will be elected from the group of 21 directors when the board meets to organize after the election.

Certain technical amendments to the Community Chest by-laws, already on file, are to be acted upon Monday, also. Among these are a clarification of the provisions for the number of directors; their terms of office, and the duties of the nominating committee in regard to the three, two, and one-year terms of office.

Another of the amendments would give members of the board of directors some leeway in using their own discretion in deciding on the matter of possible receiving beneficiaries in certain cases. Present rigid requirements for participating in the Community Chest as member beneficiaries do not permit this discretionary action.

Monday's meeting will be held on the third floor of the Municipal building with Community Chest Vice-President Harold Jones presiding. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. President Stuart R. Book will be out of town at the time of the meeting but joined other officers in urging everyone in the community to attend the meeting and participate in naming the people who will be administering the affairs of the organization for the next one to three years.

Cars Damaged in Collision Saturday

Cars driven by James Hafner, 184 West Middle street, and Walter Scott of Cedar Lake, were involved in a collision at 8:30 a.m. Saturday on Cavanaugh Lake road at the entrance to Cedar Lake. Both cars were badly damaged but no one was seriously hurt.

Hafner was treated by a local physician for a forehead cut.

As reported by sheriff's deputies, Scott was emerging from the Cedar Lake roadway and had stopped to permit Hafner's west-bound car to pass when the mishap occurred.

Yearling Buck Deer Injured by Rifle Shot Monday Night

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer, with the help of a local veterinarian, has been trying hard to save a yearling deer that had been shot below the left eye with a .22 rifle.

The shot put the eye out and injured the left nasal passage but Boyer said he believed the animal would live unless infection set in.

The animal, a buck, was caught in a trap at the home of a river-wings and at last reports was drinking and eating although it staggered when it tried to walk.

Boyer said he was hopeful the animal would gradually adjust itself to the loss of the eye but if it should turn entirely blind it would have to be shot.

The shooting took place Monday in the southwest section of Sylvan township and Boyer said an investigation was being made in an effort to learn identity of the person who did the shooting.

Boyer said five deer had been killed by cars on US-12, west of Chelsea, in the past four weeks. All but one were struck at night as they dashed across the highway. Motorists are warned to be on the look-out, not only to prevent killing the deer but as a safety measure for themselves. Several of the cars were so badly damaged by the impact of striking the deer that they had to be towed to garages for repair.

ROUTES TO FLORIDA—A good variety of routes to Florida are outlined by the Automobile Club of Michigan. The heavy lines indicate the routes preferred by most motorists. They are the picturesque Eastern route, which winds through 100 miles of mountainous country; and the longer Western route, suggested for families hauling trailers and those disliking mountainous driving. The Western route, while 125 miles longer, requires about the same amount of driving time.

Kenneth Livingston Spears 31-inch Pike On Cavanaugh Lake

Spearing through a hole in the ice on Cavanaugh Lake at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Kenneth Livingston came up with a 31-inch pike weighing exactly seven pounds. Fishing for bluegills, he suddenly noticed the "big one" glide by. Quickly lowering a dead decoy and moving it up and down, he lured the big fish back.

While fishing on the lake last year Livingston saw a big pike several times but it always got away. He believes the one he got Sunday might be the same one.

Need Pointed Out for Ground Observer Unit In Chelsea Area

Approximately 100 Extension club leaders and Farm Bureau representatives attended a special leaders' training meeting in Botham church, Ann Arbor, Friday and heard Daniel Sturt, of Michigan State College, Mrs. Joseph Marm of the Michigan office of Civil Defense, and Thomas Fitzgerald, Washtenaw county Civil Defense director, emphasize the imperative need for a Ground Observer Corps unit in the Chelsea area.

Sturt, an extension specialist, in a talk before the group at the morning session, compared Civil Defense work to property insurance, saying, "We all buy insurance, hoping we never will need to apply for restitution in case of fire or other disaster. Civil Defense, he explained, is a form of insurance in case of enemy attack by air. Hoping the vast Ground Observer system will never need to function because of such attack, workers trained to operate at a moment's notice are the "insurance" against loss from surprise attack.

In case of attack the Ground Observer Corps of Civil Defense would prove as important as Army troops and equipment since radar is ineffective at altitudes under 5,000 feet and cannot penetrate into valleys or through hills or other barriers, it was pointed out. Plans have previously reached the stage where it seemed almost certain a Ground Observer station would become a reality for Chelsea, it was explained, but each time the project failed to materialize, principally for lack of volunteers.

Home Extension and Farm Bureau leaders were told at the meeting that the county unit would conduct the observation post and provide the director in charge of 100 people of the community would volunteer for a minimum of two hours of duty per week.

Fitzgerald, in his talk, stated that his office has literature of all kinds, regarding Civil Defense work, which will be sent to anyone requesting it.

He said Civil Defense cannot protect the individual. He must protect himself. We can only show him how to protect himself and work with him.

Leaders will present Civil Defense programs at their group meetings in an effort to interest volunteers in the project.

Gerald Carr Markets Device To Convert Level to Inclinator

Gerald Carr, maintenance superintendent at Cassidy Lake Technical school, has applied for a patent, registering his application with Jackson patent attorneys and with two brothers-in-law, has formed a partnership to begin manufacture of an attachment for any common level which converts the level into an inclinometer.

The gadget, described as a gradient attachment for level, made to sell at a moderate price, will permit a layman to convert any level he has so it may be used in place of expensive engineers' levels or transits.

Specifically, an inclinometer is used for measuring grades or pitches as a regular level is used for measuring on straight surfaces. The attachment is three inches high, 1 1/2 inches wide and 1 1/2 inches deep, is made of 16-gauge steel and is nickel-plated to resist corrosion.

Clore Manufacturing company, of Ionia, will manufacture the attachment for Carr and his partners, Ray Lower of Ionia and Robert Herrick of Saranac.

Also in on the project on a royalty basis is Eylee Quist who assisted Carr in setting up the model for the invention.

The gradient attachment is calibrated specifically for three-foot and four-foot levels, each space representing one-eighth inch in ten feet for that length level. A thumb screw dial has four marks at 90-degree angles with a specific mark for zero setting.

Eight complete turns will set the slide at the one-inch mark which means a grade drop of one inch in ten feet for a four-foot level. Likewise four complete turns will indicate a grade drop of one inch in ten feet for a two-foot level; two complete turns for a one-foot level, etc.

Calculations can readily be made in a matter of seconds for all conventional lengths of levels up to five and six feet.

The gradient attachments will be made by punch presses using dies which Carr and his partners have had made.

They are to be on the market in about three weeks, Carr said. In searching patent records Carr found that an attempt had been made to construct a gradient level in the 1880's but it was cumbersome and impractical and did not prove successful.

National Magazine Features Article on Life with U. of M. Professor's Family

Doctor and Mrs. Merle Lawrence of Ann Arbor, take the spotlight in the February Ladies Home Journal this month, proving that even in a next-to-the-top income bracket, family economic life can be difficult.

"Broke but Happy on $11,200 a Year" is the title of the 15-page illustrated article about the University of Michigan professor, his American Beauty wife and their three attractive children, appearing in the February Ladies Home Journal.

"My husband has a gross yearly income of $11,200, and we cannot have a cent," Bobbie Lawrence wrote to the magazine's editors a few months ago. "In fact, we just barely manage to squeeze through each month. For the life of me I cannot figure out how other couples with children can live so inexpensively."

Doctor Lawrence, head of the physiological-acoustics research laboratory for the Institute of Industrial Health and associate professor in the University of Michigan Medical School, is a research scientist utterly devoted to his work; the article reports, "He does not feel that he is underpaid."

A true scientist, if it were not for the conventional demands of family life, he would happily work nothing and he often does work obliviously content, far into the night. Mrs. Lawrence handles the outgo of family funds, but her husband does not blame her that they go out so completely. "She keeps a meticulous checkbook, and balances it correctly every month—nothing to nothing."

Certain special features have a bearing on the Lawrence's economic plight. One is that they live in a region where the cost of living is probably higher than in any other place in the nation according to 1954 consumer price indexes, the article points out.

Another is "the big squeeze that came when we moved and ran into a housing shortage. Forced to buy hastily a year and a half ago, the Lawrence purchased a small new ranch house for $13,350, and further depleted their savings by building a garage, buying a car and home furnishings. "Then the rains came," they relate. "Water seeped up through the concrete-slab foundation. The composition floorings squished when we walked on it. The hot air ducts filled with water and billowed steam. Interior paint began to peel off. The front door warped bowed-shaped. Nails worked out of the dry-wall construction. Pictures fell off the walls."

"These things all have been repaired at considerable expense to us," says Bobbie Lawrence, "but new repairs crop up constantly."

We will be lucky if the house is still standing in 20 years, let alone paid for."

It's the incidental and unexpected expenses that undermine their budget, the Lawrence's agree. "So many things are important. And they all cost more than you expect. We never have simply 10 or 12 standard monthly expenditures in our budget. Yet such extras as dancing, music and riding lessons for their daughters mean a great deal to Doctor and Mrs. Lawrence, for 'you give confidence when you give accomplishments.'"

"If dollars are wealth, we are as poor as church mice. Don't ask me why. We just live," says Mrs. Lawrence. Her husband, Merle, sums it up this way: "We're not accumulative people, I guess. Living counts for more than saving," and all the Lawrence's emphasized that third word in the title, "Broke but Happy on $11,200 a year!"

County-Wide Sheep Meet Scheduled At Saline School

A county-wide sheep meeting will be held at Saline High school Monday, Jan. 27, at 8 a. m., and all people interested in the sheep business are invited to attend, according to Donald R. Johnson, Washtenaw county agricultural agent.

The meeting is sponsored by the Saline Ewe and Lamb club in cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service.

Local Club Marks 40th Birthday of Kiwanis Founding

The 40th anniversary of the founding of Kiwanis International was observed at Monday's Kiwanis club dinner meeting here. Ralph C. Keyes, of Ann Arbor, a past governor of Kiwanis Michigan District, was the anniversary speaker.

Paul F. Niehaus was program chairman for the evening and called on Alfred Mayer for an opening prayer.

Eugene Shroyer played two trumpet solos, "Mazetta's Waltz" and "Sounds of the Hudson River." He was accompanied on the piano by Connie Steinbach.

Lowell Davidson read the anniversary message of the president of Kiwanis International, Don E. Engdahl and the anniversary program was concluded with a rededication ceremony directed to Village President Maxwell G. Sweet.

on behalf of the people of Chelsea, club meeting at Pinckney, and four It was announced that 12 Kiwanians planned to attend an inter-Tuesday evening.

Bitter echoes of 1937 are resounding in the Michigan Senate.

Now as then, victorious Democrats are trying to strengthen their hand in the legislature.

Republicans, who hold majority on the Committee on Committee, deftly sidestepped the maneuver.

Only Democrat on the committee, Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, asked for proportionate representation for Democrats on all standing committees.

"In all fairness to everybody concerned."

In the past, Democrats have been given membership on each of the committees which must approve all legislation before it goes to the floor for a bill Senate vote.

Republicans flatly rejected the request of Hart and reminded him that Democrats were less inclined to share committee assignments when they wielded the political whip.

Senator Coleman (R-Battle Creek), Republican caucus chairman, came up with the statistics.

In 1937 when Democrats held the Senate, 18 to 15, Republican members were given 87 of the 210 committee seats.

"The formula was accepted there and I think it would be fair to use it in the Senate," he said.

Republicans retorted that Democrats would get a fair share of committee seats, but not as many as Hart proposed in his request.

Senator Edward Hutchinson (R-Pennville) tossed in a new element in the proposal.

Suspicious of the short shrift from the state, he said, "Hart's formula would have given Democrats 40 per cent of the committee memberships, but the Democrats have only 33 per cent of the Senators."

Social legislation will play a major role in the new laws of the 1955 session.

The aged who depend on welfare checks for a subsistence living will be the first to be considered in a bill sponsored by Senator Harry F. Hitt.

Little's idea is to increase old age assistance monthly checks from a maximum $40 to $50 and benefits for those requiring medical treatment from $30 to $50.

"Some of the people trying to make out a living on the present maximums are really against the welfare director."

The latest increase from $40 to $50 a month came in 1952, but Maxey said that the costs of rental housing, medical treatment and clothing have risen to a point creating a crisis for the aged.

He said that about 25 per cent of the aged now receiving old age assistance checks would receive the extra maximum under the bill and about 15 per cent the maximum.

With others crowding the political arena to battle over highway funds, the state's official most concerned person for the moment has overlooked highway commissioner Charles M. Ziegler.

Michigan a clue why the highway dollar is not buying the roads it was intended to provide.

"Even with the 1951 gasoline tax bonus," Ziegler said, "the cost of building highways has increased 115 per cent, an almost impossible obstacle," he said.

Some slight gains have been made in the past two years when more federal money became available.

But he estimated that it would cost $5,000,000,000 to bring the state's highways up to modern standards.

How to finance it?

Ziegler said he sees no alternative to raising the state gasoline tax another two cents, raising the total on each gallon of gas motorists buy to 6 1/2 cents.

Gov. Williams says the job can be done without more taxes and Republicans are skeptical.

One observer summed it up: "We'll probably have a bond issue on the April ballot for highway construction. We'll probably have an increase in the gasoline tax. Whatever happens, we need the roads—and now."

Some people go years without much attention to health. Others may need the Doctor on hand to start the day—every day. Between these two extremes are great numbers of thinking people caring for their health in an orderly manner.

They see their Doctor at regular intervals for guidance. They take the medicine he prescribes according to direction. They report unusual symptoms promptly. All these are common sense precautions and intelligent steps in health care, as is the practice of bringing your Doctor's prescriptions to this fine pharmacy.

There's a new zip to Dynaflow*

— and better gas mileage to boot!

This is something you really ought to try. Even though you may be familiar with earlier versions of Dynaflow Drive—either from personal experience or from hearsay—you owe it to yourself to press the pedal of a 1955 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow. Just as simple as ever to operate—easier, in fact, with the new positioning of the lever. Just as smooth as ever, with nary a lag, halt or hesitation throughout the speed range.

But brother!—hang on to your hat when you call for action! Because that's what you got, instantly.

Because twenty power blades inside the very heart of this wondrous automatic transmission switch their pitch for getaway performance—much like the airplane's propeller is angled for take-off.

It's as simple as that—but far more thrilling than words can tell.

And it's a big boon to your gasoline money, too. For, just as the plane's propeller changes pitch aloft for greater fuel efficiency in cruising, so the Dynaflow "propellers" change pitch to deliver a lot more miles per gallon in normal driving and cruising.

Come in and try it—this week. You'll find it harnessed to the highest V-8 horsepower in Buick history—and housed in the bold new styling that says Buick and nothing but.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.
