Community Chest Allots Cancer Fund For Patient Care

At the regular monthly meeting of the Chelsea Community Chest officers and directors Wednesday evening, March 16, disposition was made of the $500 originally allocated for the American Cancer Society. The $500 was not accepted by the Society because of national policy which provides that the group must conduct its own campaign for funds and not participate in any Community Chest project.

At that time the local Chest offered to refund to contributors, on a percentage basis, the amount of their contribution which would have gone to the Cancer Society and the money remaining of the $500 would then be contributed to some other cancer project.

Since no requests for refunds were received, the entire $500 will go to the University of Michigan Cancer Fund. This fund helps provide treatment for cancer patients who might not otherwise be able to have it.

Mrs. John Chaplin, local Cancer Society chairman, attended Wednesday's meeting and informed the group that she was obligated to carry on the annual spring Cancer campaign here.

Also at the meeting was Mrs. Maxwell G. Sweet who recommended locally-sponsored assistance for the county nurse in order that additional visiting nurse service might be available. She pointed out that the county nurse, in her work, covers four townships, including the schools.

Named at Wednesday's meeting was the budget committee headed by E. W. Eaton as chairman. Others on the committee are Harold Jones, Dr. J. V. Fisher, Maxwell G. Sweet, Mrs. W. R. Daniels and Paul Mann.

Agricultural Council Tells Schedule for Lime Tests

Believing that the most important single contribution that can be made to farming in this county is wiser use of lime, the Washtenaw Agricultural Council plans to make a major effort to encourage its use.

Crop removal and leaching cause tremendous loss of calcium compounds from the farm soils of Washtenaw county each year. Too little of this is replaced by the application of limestone. In many cases, land owners who have seen the benefits of liming are apt to apply lime on their farms without determining first if it is needed, or how much is needed. Many farmers periodically apply two tons of lime per acre of land without realizing that in some areas absolutely none is needed—and over-use may well be harmful. On the other hand, two tons of lime per acre may be only half enough and like too little water at a fire it may not do the trick.

When needed, proper use of lime usually spells the difference between success and failure of our most important hay and pasture crops. Legumes, especially, must have sufficient lime. In many cases, expensive clover or alfalfa seed is wasted if needed lime is not applied to the soil. Over-lim-

'Kissing' Bunny On Display in Downtown Window

A real, live "kissing bunny," on display this week in the window of Foster's Mens Wear store, is attracting considerable attention from young and old, alike.

The property of General Mills, the display has been seen in a number of communities. The rabbit has learned that he must "kiss" the plastic rabbit in the cage with him, if he wishes to eat, since the "kiss" trips a feeding device. The rabbit was trained by an animal psychologist, Keller Bredland, of Hot Springs, Ark., who recently appeared as a guest performer on a national television show.

The display is sponsored here by the Blaess Elevator Co. and the downtown location was decided upon to give everyone an opportunity to see the novelty.

SACRED LILY OF INDIA—Mrs. Paul F. Niehaus is shown above with her Sacred Lily of India, an oddity in this vicinity since it grows and blossoms as a houseplant without benefit of soil or water. The bulb produces no leaves until after the blossom has withered and the bulb has been set into the ground outdoors for the summer. An Ann Arbor man who came from India when shown the plant, told Mrs. Niehaus the lilies grow wild in the water in their native state. The blossom is seven inches across and 20 inches from the stem to the tip. The color is a deep maroon, including the stamens. For approximately three days after the blossom is fully open it gives off a strong, unpleasant odor but this passes and the blossom remains for about two weeks before beginning to wilt. The plant, as shown, is 49 inches tall, with the stalk and outside of the blossom spotted with green and pink.

Michigan voters will be asked April 4 to install in the state constitution a plan to help local school districts finance new buildings with a $100,000,000 bond issue.

It was written by educators who know the potential problems and enacted by legislators who were convinced it existed.

Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction, called schoolmen together last fall for a try at solving the crisis on a statewide basis and the proposal is the result, Taylor said.

"The legislature is to be complimented for putting the proposal on the ballot. If approved by the voters, it will help the most seriously distressed school districts and help education."

Taylor painted a picture frightening to lawmakers. The state will need 2,000 more classrooms a year for the next five years to handle an increased enrollment of 70,000 new students annually.

School financing in Michigan has always been a local problem, with a lift from the state sales tax division, and legislators feared any further involvement would jeopardize local control.

But, they heard of the school districts on the fringes of metropolitan areas where new subdivisions will quadruple enrollments in some districts next year and engulf local financing plans.

They were told of half-day sessions in crowded schools, the overload of students on teachers.

After several conferences, the proposal, drafted first in Oakland county, was shipped into the legislature under the sponsorship of Senator William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak).

It first called for a $200,000,000 bond issue, but educators agreed that half that amount would be enough for emergency money.

Here's how it will work: School districts facing a classroom crisis will be forced to levy up to 13 mills in school taxes for buildings. If the need is greater, the system begins to work.

Districts will certify their needs to the state and get approval to go on building. Anything that cannot be covered by the local 13-mill tax will be picked up by the state.

The state fund will be used to make annual payments of principal and interest on the local school bonds. The proposal also would pledge the full faith and credit of the state behind the local bond issues to obtain lower interest rates.

School districts also would be permitted to use the state funds to refinance existing bond issues, cutting interest rates on which they are now paying.

To get the state's money back, the districts would be required to continue the 13-mill levy after their needs drop below that point, using the excess over a 30-year period to repay the state, Taylor said. "We want to educate our children, a right they have by being Americans. That we hope, is one of the answers to the problem."

He said the $100,000,000 "probably" would not be all used and that the first year's lending program would affect 146 districts, most of the southeastern section of the state, and the first year's loans would approximate $3,000,000.

Democrats in the Senate finally got a home of their own.

It is the first-floor office in the capitol building formerly occupied by Grand Army of the Republic records and one secretary. The office has been moved to other quarters.

For years, Senate Democrats have complained that a third-floor caucus room is a little snug for two desks, two secretaries, a filing cabinet, an electric heater and 11 Democrats.

Last year, Lt. Gov. Clarence A. Reid, a Republican, invited the minority party to use his office, a spacious, carpeted room on the second floor.

Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, a Democrat new this year, issued the same invitation, just to be bipartisan.

But when the GAR office was moved, the Democrats were waiting. The room now is brilliantly lighted, has a tile floor, three desks and plenty of room for Democrats and a few visitors, occasionally.

There's only one complaint now: There is no way to install a loud-speaker from the Senate like other rooms have and the secretaries must rely on telephones for information from the Senate.

"This is better than nothing, though, and almost better than anything," said Senator Charles Blomdy (D-Detroit), minority floor leader.

Captain had his day in the legislature with a bill to cut the waiting period between obtaining a marriage license and the wedding from five to three days.

Senator Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) sponsored the bill. "Young people have problems, too," he said.

Michigan Potatoes Are Popular with State's Housewives

The lower price of Michigan potatoes appeals to enough city homemakers to put those spuds on the tables of 77 per cent of the urban families in the state.

A sample of the 250 urban families returning food records for January to Michigan State College farm economists, showed that over three-fourths of the spuds bought were from Michigan farmers.

The only state to sell more than three per cent of the spuds in Michigan was Idaho, and that state's sales only reached 12 per cent.

The families in the survey reported spending almost 25 cents per person for fresh potatoes during the four-week period, says J. D. Shaffer, MSC farm economist. Of this quarter, 16 cents went to buy spuds from Michigan.

The average price paid for Michigan potatoes was 3.3 cents a pound compared with 6.7 cents for Idaho, 5.1 cents for Maine and 6.0 cents for potatoes grown in other states, like California.

During the average week in January, about a third of the families bought potatoes. A few of these urban families bought potatoes from bulk displays, and so didn't know the origin of them.

The Grau Jersey herd was inspected by members who arrived well before the noon pot-luck dinner. The afternoon program included movies shown by Don Johnson, Washtenaw county agricultural agent, and a general discussion period.

In addition to the members from this vicinity, members were present from Ypsilanti and Webster township. Also guests at the meeting were Frank Gendron, Washtenaw county 4-H club agent and Paul Chaffee, of Steimbach road, dairy herd tester.

"We need never feel alone"

Mrs. Hrabovsky and Michael John.

The five operators who worked to locate Mr. Hrabovsky: Shirley Petersen, Katherine Linderman, Theda Walter, Genevieve Jacobs, Marlene Chase.

These words appeared in a letter Michigan Bell received recently from Mrs. Michael Hrabovsky: "We need never feel alone as long as you have women on duty who are kind and helpful."

Here's why she wrote the letter: One day last summer as Mrs. Hrabovsky worked in the kitchen she heard her 6-year-old son, Michael John, scream in pain outside. He had caught his hand in the belt of the electric pump.

While a neighbor telephoned to alert the doctor and hospital, she sped Michael John to Greenville, where his badly injured hand was successfully treated.

Later, at home, Mrs. Hrabovsky placed a person-to-person Long Distance call to her husband. She thought Mr. Hrabovsky was working that day in St. Paul, Minnesota.

He had left there, but the operator was told he might be in another Minnesota city. But he was not there either. And so it went until, thanks to the persistence and patience of five operators, who called 12 different places to locate him, Mrs. Hrabovsky finally heard her husband's reassuring voice from Wells, Minnesota. The cost to the Hrabovskys? Just $2.42.

Can any words better describe the value of your telephone than:

"We need never feel alone..."

Mrs. Marshall Richards, in her role as program chairman at the afternoon Philathea Circle meeting Wednesday, March 19, spoke on the subject of home and foreign mission work of the Methodist Church. She mentioned particularly three hospitals sponsored by the WSCS of the Methodist Church, located in Seward and Nome, Alaska, and Brewster hospital in Jacksonville, Fla. The hospital at Nome, she said, is now being rebuilt after being destroyed by fire in 1948.

Mrs. Walter Mohrlock presented the opening devotional service and read parts from the Bible pertaining to Jesus and his disciples.

Wednesday's meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Kalmback with Mrs. Guy Barton and Mrs. W. G. Price as co-hostesses. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock to the 17 members and one guest present. The guest is Mrs. Marcus Yager of West Unity, Ohio, who attended with her daughter, Mrs. Lawton Steger.

Mrs. Calvin Summers, chairman of the group, announced that all afternoon Philathea meetings are to be turned in at the April 6 WSCS meeting.

Mrs. Summers also announced the appointment of Mrs. M. J. Betz, Mrs. Walter Harper and Mrs. Lee Weiss as a nominating committee.

Mrs. W. G. Price reported that during a recent week-end visit in Saginaw, she attended services at the church of which Rev. Orville Morrow is pastor. Rev. Morrow, former pastor of the Chelsea Methodist Church, and Mrs. Morrow, asked Mrs. Price to extend greetings to all Philathea members here.

The next regular Afternoon Philathea meeting is scheduled for April 20 at the home of Mrs. Marshall Richards.

Spring Is Welcomed By Howling Blizzard

Spring is here, ushered in by a blizzard Tuesday and high winds Monday night and Tuesday which caused considerable damage to TV aerials, blew down tree branches and generally resulted in many instances of minor damage here.

Throughout the county the wind estimated to be blowing more than 60 miles per hour, felled trees and power lines, twisted traffic signals out of position and blew down or moved from foundations numerous garages and other small buildings.

The storm followed reports in this vicinity that crocuses had been blossoming in some sheltered areas and some trees were beginning to bud.

Big Potential Seen In New School Milk Program

Michigan people may be losing a good thing if they don't encourage their schools to take part in the new government special milk program.

That's the opinion of Agricultural Economist Gerald G. Quackenbush of Michigan State College. He points out that the program reimburses schools 3 to 4 cents per half pint of milk they serve. That means, says Quackenbush, there are 1 1/2 million children who have the best opportunity ever to get plenty of milk. And if milk consumption can be doubled in schools, the increase would be about one per cent of total production.

That's nearly one-third of last year's milk surplus. But now only about one-third of Michigan's schools are taking advantage of this government help. Most of those schools serve milk at a charge of one to two cents to the children under the special milk program.

In the past, says Quackenbush, one of the important reasons schools didn't participate in the school lunch program was that the cost of milk was too high for children. He found that in a survey of 883 schools.

Only items schools need for the milk program now, he points out, are someone to keep a few records, a milkman to deliver, and a refrigerator. Information on the program may be obtained from the county superintendent's office.

Michigan State College home economists give a few simple rules for handling salad greens: have greens clean, crisp and dry; mix just prior to serving; coat each piece with dressing; have each piece large enough to identify.

U. S. Department of Agriculture researchers have come up with a fat-free, pillow-shaped, puffed potato tidbit that can be flavored and have a crunchy texture and toasted color. It's good for out-of-hand eating, in soups and stuffings.

Regional White House Conference on Education Will Be Held in Ann Arbor

Dr. Arnold W. Brown, chairman of the Regional White House Conference on Education, has announced the appointment of Julius W. Haab, Washtenaw county superintendent of schools, to serve on the Regional Conference committee.

The Regional White House Conference on Education will be held in Ann Arbor at Tappan Junior High school on Saturday, March 26. Invitations are being sent to citizens living in Washtenaw, Jackson, Hillsdale, Lenawee and Monroe counties.

Activities of the one-day conference, which is the first of its kind, will be dedicated to a complete study of conditions facing schools, and to recommendation of measures to meet the present emergency in education.

The following 10 major discussion areas have been selected by the planning committee:

1. Problems for and Problems of Youth in Our Community.

2. Shortage of Classrooms and Other School Facilities.

3. Staffing Classrooms with Sufficient Well-Qualified Teachers.

4. Securing the Necessary Finances.

5. The Organization of Adequate School Districts.

6. Citizens Participation and Public Relations.

7. Community Education Program.

8. Meeting the Needs of Mentally and Physically Handicapped.

9. Issues Concerning the Roles of Michigan Colleges and Universities.

10. Adult Education.

The White House Conference on Education is operated on funds appropriated by the 83rd Congress. The findings of the Regional Conference will be presented to a state-wide conference to be held in Lansing, March 18, and the reports from this conference will in turn be given to the White House Conference scheduled to take place in Washington, D. C. from Nov. 28 through Dec. 1. Delegates to the White House Conference on Education will be selected by the regional group in attendance at the State White House Conference.

It is expected that approximately 500 people will attend the five-county regional conference. This is a grass roots conference largely predominated by lay people.

Supt. Haab is primarily a liaison director between the Regional Planning committee and the approximately 170 participants coming within the Washtenaw county quota whom he enlists for the conference on a county-wide basis.

Persons interested in attending the regional conference in Ann Arbor should write to Julius W. Haab, County Superintendent of Schools, County Building, Ann Arbor, Mich. It will be appreciated if interested people will send in their applications at a very early date.

Serving with Dr. Brown on the Regional Conference are Prof. Donald Katz, Ann Arbor city chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Otto, PTA representative and Jackson county co-chairman; George Cantrick, Monroe, secretary. Also serving on the committee in addition to County Superintendent Haab, will be County Superintendents L. Keith Cheney of Hillsdale county, Milton G. Porter of Lenawee county, Isaac Grove of Monroe county, and Lyle A. Torrant of Jackson county.

E. J. Soop, Director of University of Michigan Extension Service, will serve as conference director.

Michigan's resorts on the lake shores and northern playlands are big business.

From the dunes and beaches in the west to the lakes and resorts up both sides of the state and through the upper peninsula, the industry is keeping a steady grip on Michigan's economy.

State officials came upon proof in a new set of sales tax figures: Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council compared January to July sales tax revenue from northern counties to show the impact of the vacation.

"Some show increases of nearly 300 per cent and others well over 200 per cent in the July over January comparison," he said.

The figures also dramatized the up and down economy of northern counties.

During January last year total sales tax receipts for the 50 counties deemed to be northern were $1,832,398 while the same counties turned in $2,212,478 during July.

"When certain vacation-favorite counties are studied individually, the percentage increases are phenomenal," he said.

Senator Elmer R. Porter (R-Blairstown), chairman of the Senate appropriations committee, is a farmer and proud of it. He has turned over some time-consuming duties to younger hands now and devotes most of his time to keeping the state's budget as near a balance as possible. But, the Senator knows more about safe driving than a gladioli farmer of more than a little talent.

Last year, he said he discovered a new kind of tomato with a shape something like a football. It grows large and lush and contains less acid than others. He said: "It doesn't seem like much to do, but I just want to keep busy."

Highways, which everyone from the experts to the motorist believes could stand some improvement, are the thorny issue of the major issues of the 1955 legislative session.

What to do about them—a job estimated to cost anywhere from $500,000,000 to $7,000,000,000—is the key to the controversy.

Opposing camps are taking shape over the pay-as-you-drive proposals and the bond issue plans, which call for long-range borrowing of the money and repaying it from increased taxes.

Rep. Emil Peltz (R-Rogers City) has sponsored a pay-as-you-drive plan with a 2-cent increase in the gasoline tax to go against a $500,000,000 bond issue with a 2-cent increase sponsored in the Senate.

Gov. Williams moved in with the package last week, reversing his stand on the new taxes. He proposed a half-cent gasoline tax increase and an additional 25 per cent weight tax (license plates) boost on all commercial vehicles.

Truckers are up in arms over the heavy load Williams is asking them to carry in taxes but the plan has been placed in the hoppers of both the House and Senate.

Meanwhile, the legislature still is holding back to wait for the Automotive Safety Foundation report of the needs in Michigan. Latest reports indicate it will be ready in November.

Host bot: Voters will have an issue on the ballot April 2 with a tax increase of some sort tagged on to pay for highway improvements.

Technically, bingo is illegal in Michigan. Voters at the last election turned down a proposal which would have empowered the legislature to legalize bingo and other games of chance for charitable purposes. But, bingo still is being played in Michigan though the attitude of law enforcement officers varies.

Detroit is unbending in its pursuit of the technical violators and police officials were quoted as saying, "Bingo will have to take its chance with the other games we raid."

Grand Rapids turned up a $1,000,000 a year bingo business, but officials there said they considered it no more criminal than leaving your car beside an expired parking meter.

Despite public sanction to crack down, there has been little police action since November.

Sheriff's Records Show 11 Per Cent Fail Driver's Test

Sheriff Erwin L. Klager today announced the results of the first 30-day operation of the new license examination for beginning drivers.

"According to our records," he said, "277 persons took the examination of which 25, or 11 per cent failed. Most of the persons taking the examination were young drivers who had never had a driver's license before, 35 out of the total of 277."

"The high percentage of failures, on the first try," the sheriff continued, "is due to the fact that the State of Michigan is now demanding that applicants for a license know more about safe driving than was previously required and the examination is therefore much more thorough. Undoubtedly, most of those who failed on the first try will pass on the second try if they study more and practice driving more."

Sheriff Klager pointed out that as good as the new examination is, it only measures the fact that those who pass do know how to drive safely—it does not measure the attitude of the driver nor prove that he will drive safely if he passes the examination. Those who do pass and then fail to drive as safely as they know how, face the thorny issue of apprehension for traffic violations by the law enforcement agencies; penalization by the court of those found guilty and ultimate suspension or revocation of their licenses by the Department of State.

In conclusion, Sheriff Klager stated, "By firmer examinations, re-examinations, more severe court penalties, warning letters and suspensions or revocations by the Department of State the traffic safety authorities are determined to award the license only as a privilege to drive safely and not a right to drive which anyone is entitled to. The license cannot be permitted to be a right to drive unsafely, to violate the law, to cause an accident—or the license to kill. As long as almost one driver in ten is involved in an accident, the tragic fact in Michigan last year, traffic safety authorities have no alternative but to tighten up all along the line on issuing licenses and taking them away."

County Teachers' Institute Meets Friday in Dexter

The Annual Washtenaw County Teachers' Institute will be held at Dexter High school Friday, March 25, starting at 9 a.m.

The educational conference will be attended by approximately 312 teachers and administrators as well as about 18 outside people who will act in a resource capacity.

The principal address will be delivered by Dr. Cleo Dawson, educator, author and lecturer. Her topic will be "For Every Problem There Is An Answer."

Theme of the conference is "Better Schools Make Better Communities."

There will be a panel discussion to define the community school concept. The panel will consist of Dr. Edgar L. Grim, Deputy Superintendent of the Department of Public Instruction, who will serve as moderator, Mrs. Meredith Bixby, parent and civic leader, Saline, Franklin M. Reck, author and former president of the Manchester Board of Education, Lauritz Drevdahl, Superintendent of Milan Rural Agricultural schools, and Howard C. Thayer, Washtenaw County Deputy Superintendent of Schools.

Subsequent to the panel discussion the assembly will divide into 10 small discussion groups headed by a chairman, recorder and several resource people.

County Superintendent Julius W. Haab is the general chairman of the Educational Conference and Fred M. Atkinson, Superintendent of the Manchester Public Schools, will act as co-chairman.

Milk Picture Seems Brighter, Higher Prices Are Ahead

The milk price picture is looking brighter for Michigan dairymen. Dale E. Butz, agricultural economist at Michigan State College, bases that optimistic statement on the increased milk consumption and leveling off of production.

The U. S. Crop Reporting Service announced that January production was down 2 per cent and production per cow and cow numbers were also lower. Nationally, milk products during 1955 are expected to be about 124 billion pounds, the same as last year. This is a change from the last several years when production has increased rapidly.

Butz points out that producers prices in the Detroit area for January were only slightly below those paid a year ago. For example, the base price was $4.09 compared with $4.13 last year. The blend price was only two cents below last year.

According to Butz, prices will not drop as sharply this year as last when price supports were lowered from 90 to 75 per cent. The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that the supports will remain the same for the next year.

For 1955, Butz believes that milk prices may average 15-20 cents or more, higher than those paid producers last year.

Since the costs of production will remain about the same, the price increase can mean a boost in income for dairy farmers.

Seed treatment boosts yields at low cost, point out MSC specialists.

PANEL THAT BASEMENT ROOM

Fastening nailing or "furring" strips to concrete or cinderblock walls as the framework for wood paneling is made possible by use of cut nails, blunt-pointed and case-hardened. These nails are available from hardware and building supply dealers.

The drawing below shows how the 2x4 studs are fastened to the wall and to the overhead joists. The nailing strips may be fastened to the studs with ordinary wire nails. The paneling at right is fastened with finishing nails with heads sunk and filled.

In selecting the proper wood for your basement, consult your local lumber dealer.

Tests Prove Oats To Be Good Dairy Cow Feed

If you have only oats to feed your dairy cows, you probably won't have to worry about buying other cereal grains.

In an extensive test by a Michigan State dairyman in the Upper Peninsula, cows produced more milk from oats than from a mixture of other grains.

Dairymen Charles J. Little said that cows fed oats for four 21-day periods received 22 pounds less grain and produced 438 pounds more milk than similar cows fed a mixture of oats, wheat and corn.

To give your carpet that "new" look, try shampooing it with dry suds. To make this from soap, dissolve 1 cup mild soap flakes in 3 cups hot water. Let stand until it forms a jelly. Then beat about 1/2 cup of the jelly at a time in a mixing bowl. When stiff, apply to the rug or carpet.

Use only a few pictures in a room, suggest MSC home economists. A living room needs only one main picture and this should be in the most suitable and prominent wall space in the room. Too many pictures give the room a spotted appearance.

Seed Treatment Advice Is Offered

Here are the recommendations for treating table beet and spinach seeds to prevent damping off. Donald J. deZeeuw of the botany and plant pathology department says his trials show this to be a good recommendation: Phygon (60 per cent active) or Arasan (75 per cent active) at 8 ounces per 100 pounds of seed, with dry or as a slurry. These chemicals, he indicates, are satisfactory for beets and spinach seed. But yellow cup-ricide at the same rate is better for treating spinach seed.

During the winter weather, acid fumes in smoky air can cause damage to marquisette curtains. Prevent this by reversing top and bottom curtains, changing curtains from one window to another and by keeping them clean.

Spring Wheat Not Advisable in Michigan

If you didn't get your winter wheat allotment planted last fall, don't fill in with spring wheat—select some other cash crop. That's advice from Milton Erdman, extension farm crops specialist at Michigan State College. And he reminds wheat acreage allotments were based on acreages of 1952 and 1953. So there's no worry on that score.

Erdman cited 18 years of tests in Michigan which showed that spring wheat yielded more than 14 bushels less than winter wheat. And spring wheat in Michigan is used as feed because of our humid climate.

Another cash crop would be more profitable than spring wheat, Erdman believes.

Story of Farm, Home Mechanization To Be Told in Pageant, Display at MSC

The story of farm and home mechanization in the past 100 years will be told next summer in a blaze of pageantry and in the most complete assembly of farm and home equipment ever made in this country.

The story will be revealed on the Michigan State College campus from Aug. 15 through 20. The college is expecting a quarter of a million people to see the pageant, demonstrations and exhibits that industry is helping the institution to assemble.

Sixty acres of outdoor exhibits near Mt. Hope Road and Farm Lane on the college farm will be filled with exhibits from more than 300 exhibitors. Four large indoor exhibits will be housed in the auditorium, stadium, demonstration hall, the agricultural engineering buildings.

This will be a part of Michigan State's year-long Centennial celebration. The college — first to teach agriculture as a science — was established in 1855.

MSC's agricultural engineering department, headed by Arthur W. Fairall, has taken the lead with the help of many other groups interested in home economies and agriculture.

The setting will be professionally designed. But scientists, technicians, extension specialists and educators will help in telling the story of engineering in agriculture.

Taking on the atmosphere of a world's fair, the large outdoor exhibit area will have machines of the past to compare with the modern and those the public will see for the first time. And foreign machines will also be in the display.

Combines, cotton pickers, trenching and earth moving machines, spray equipment, advanced type engines and power transmitting equipment are a few of the items to be demonstrated.

Then there will be special buildings—grain, hay, fruit storages, machine-sheds, farm shops, dairy barns and silos of the latest design. Along with these will be materials handling equipment and building materials of all descriptions.

Appliances and other electric equipment of many kinds—lighting, heating, and labor saving units—will be shown.

A complete range of irrigation sprinkler equipment and all kinds of irrigation pumps, drainage pumps and drainage tile will be on hand.

Of great interest to women will be the home equipment exhibit in the auditorium which will show the development of kitchens, sewing machines, vacuum cleaners, home lighting and other home equipment.

To make the story of farm mechanization complete, the equipment companies, historical associations and museums will furnish tools, machines and items that trace the advance of labor saving ideas up to the present. The pageant will be a one and one-half hour show each day to dramatize this historical achievement. Among the themes the pageant will develop: tillage of soil from the crooked stick plow to modern

Four Cities To Have 4-H Club Agents

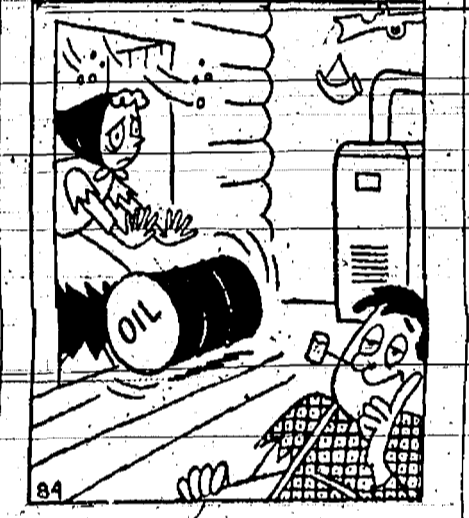

City 4-H club agents will be assigned in Detroit, Flint, Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo, as a result of a $100,000 grant made to Michigan State College by the Michigan 4-H Foundation.

The agents will become a part of the regular extension service program but will work only in urban areas. The Foundation's first installment was $20,000 to finance salaries for a year, starting July 1.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Finally Talked Herself Out

A certain talkative young lady almost spent a night locked in "Doc" White's drugstore.

She entered Doc's store about 11 PM, going directly to the pay phone. At eleven-thirty Doc went home—not having seen a customer for a half hour. Around midnight he got a call from the store. She had finally run out of conversation (and money) and found the front door locked tight.

Doc vowed he'd leave her there to teach her a lesson. But Mrs. W. spoke up: "Now you go turn her loose. It's hard to cut a good conversation short—something only a woman understands!"

From where I sit, however, plenty of men are as hard to pry away from a telephone as any female. Some people are just naturally long-winded, while others are the silent type—just as some of us like coffee and others prefer a glass of beer. The important thing is to be considerate... before friends start giving us the "busy signal."

Looks like Buick's Biggest Year

It's been happening week after week.

More people coming in every day to see, sit in, sample and select the '55 Buick of their choice. More people than ever before in our history.

That's why you see so many new Buicks on the road today. And that's why—to meet this unprecedented popularity—Buick production has been boosted to the highest levels of all time.

Buick Sales Are Soaring

The simple measure of it all is this: Buick is so "hot" an automobile that it now outsells all other cars in the United States except two of the best-known smaller cars. And for reasons sound, substantial and thrilling.

Buick styling, you see, was never so crisp, clean, distinctive. Buick horsepower was never so high—Buick interiors never so rich—Buick's great ride never so satin-smooth and steady.

But there's something else, too—something vastly different and exciting.

Never before was there any motoring thrill like the thrill you get from Buick's spectacular new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.

It lets you do what a pilot does—switch the pitch of your driving propellers—one way for gas saving in cruising—another way for instantaneous acceleration and getaway.

Your propellers are inside the Dynaflo unit, spinning in oil. You change their pitch merely by pressure on the gas pedal. You get action that was never in any earth-bound vehicle before.

No wonder we're writing up orders and selling Buicks at a rate that's making this the biggest year in Buick history.

And no wonder—when you see our price tags—that more and more people can afford the price of a new Buick.

For all the way up the line—from the budget-priced SPECIAL to the custom-built ROADMASTER—each Buick is a stand-out buy in its field.

Why not come in for a visit this week and get a down-to-earth look at the hottest Buick in history?

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Thrill of the year is Buick

GORDON R. SCHLUBATIS

Branch County Ag. Agent Returns From Indian Job

Gordon R. Schlubatis, one of Michigan's most successful county agricultural agents, has returned to his job in Branch county after a two-year Point Four assignment in India.

He concentrated on teaching leaders on the practical side of Indian farming. He showed groups the finer points of plowing, for example, by making the field his classroom.

The results of this teaching and his leadership in bringing the self help and community spirit philosophy to India is evident there today. His wife was helpful in stimulating 4-H club work among youths in the community where the Schlubatises served.

Revered in Branch county for his leadership, Schlubatis calls one of his most successful pieces of work the organization of a rural youth group in 1933. This was the organization that drew youths between the 4-H club age and that of mature farm men and women.

Schlubatis graduated from MSC in 1924 and received his master's degree in agriculture from the same institution in 1928.

He was awarded a citation for superior service by the National Association of County Agricultural Agents in 1949.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlubatis have three children.

Michigan State College home economists explain that rubbers, galoshes and raincoats should be kept in a cool, dark place when not in use. Remove oil, grease and tar immediately because rubber is harmed by heat, light, oil and grease.

The USDA estimates that fertilizer supplies for 1954-55 will be about five per cent higher than last year.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

4-H Colt, Horse Project Proves To Be Popular

Michigan has one of the largest enrollments of any state in the 4-H horse and horse 4-H club projects and Washington county is one of the more than 60 counties in the state which have such projects.

4-H Club Agent Frank Gendron points out that this project is appealing to both suburban and rural boys and girls.

Through trail rides and overnight camps, the colt project is a means of promoting a spirit of comradeship that is unexcelled, assures Gendron. Colt training and handling, he adds, develops confidence and character in the boy or girl. In this project there is not the money return that 4-H's gain from other projects.

The member should own his animal except where two children in the family share the fun and responsibility. Each 4-H horse club member must show his animal at a local or county show.

Agent Gendron makes this point clear: It isn't advisable for a boy or girl to join a horse club if he doesn't have the proper housing and at least part of the required feed.

At a session of said Court, held on March 16, 1955.

Present: Honorable Jay H. Payne, Judge of Probate.

The greatest trouble with this modern living is to keep our ambitions pinned down to our salaries. It's time wasted to whitewash a character that couldn't be saved even with a heavy coat of enamel.

Top-Dressed Oats Give High Yields

Which brings the better results for oat yields—putting on nitrogen before plowing down cornstalks or applying it as a top dressing? In three years of tests on sandy loam and loam soils by Michigan State College Researchers, top-dressed oats gave the better yield. And, nitrogen applied as a spray was no more effective than that put on as a dry fertilizer. Twenty pounds of actual nitrogen per acre was almost as effective as the larger quantities—40 and 80 pounds. The top dressing was made six weeks after planting. In another experiment, nitrogen top dressings increased oat yields by 46 bushels per acre when there was plenty of potassium and phosphorus already in the soil. But the nitrogen did little good without enough of the other two fertilizer materials. On the average, oat yields were increased eight bushels per acre in the three years of crop rotation experiments by top dressing with 20 pounds of nitrogen.

Ripe bananas will keep their good flavor several days if stored in the refrigerator. However, Michigan State home economists say green or greenish bananas will not ripen at cool temperatures, but will turn black and not develop a full flavor.

Marines Clarify Recall Status Of Reservists

Chicago—A recent directive from Marine Corps Headquarters, Washington, D. C., has clarified the status of Marine Reservists in relation to emergency recall to active military service.

General Lemuel C. Shepherd, Jr., Commandant of the Marine Corps, stated in a directive released last week to the field: "Many reservists erroneously believe that membership in an Organized Marine Corps Reserve unit will increase their liability for call to active duty in time of a national emergency."

Liability for call to active duty, the Commandant explained, is determined by the "mobilization liability category" established by Congressional law for all military reserve branches, namely, "ready" or "stand-by" reserve. Liability is not determined by "organized" or "volunteer" status.

As a general rule, a reservist with obligated service ahead of him (up to the eight years required under the Armed Forces Reserve Act of 1952) is placed in the "ready reserve." Those who perform a total of five years in any combination of active duty or accredited training as a reservist will be transferred to the "stand-by reserve." Basically, accredited training as a Marine reservist means membership in an Organized Marine Corps Reserve unit.

In view of current regulations, it is highly advantageous for "ready reservists" to perform the total of five years active or Organized Reserve unit duty, thereby earning transfer to the "stand-by reserve" category. The "ready reserve" can be called to active duty by the president whenever he proclaims a state of national emergency; Korea was such an emergency. The "stand-by reserve" can be called only when Congress declares war or proclaims a national emergency. As members of the "stand-by reserve," reservists are less liable for future mobilization than members of the "ready reserve."

Membership in an Organized Marine Corps Reserve unit does not affect the liability of a member. The recall of an Organized Marine Reservist depends entirely on his "ready" or "stand-by" status. The directive was released by Marine Corps Headquarters to relieve the hesitancy of some ex-servicemen toward serving with an Organized Marine Corps Reserve unit.

The first pest act was enacted in Michigan in 1875. It guarded against bringing insects and diseases into the state on new plants.

Automatically your best buy!

Ford's five power assists combine to give you more added convenience and extra driving ease than you can get in any other car in Ford's field!

It's great fun to step into a Ford's rich, colorful Luxury Lounge interior... to touch the gas pedal and feel the might of Trigger-Torque power responding instantly to your every wish. It's fun, too, to bask in the admiration aroused by Ford's Thunderbird-inspired styling.

But, for the ultimate in driving fun and ease, try a Ford with Ford's optional power assists: new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic, power steering, brakes, windows and seat. Ford's power assists combine to do the most for you automatically... so you get the most out of driving!

Automatic Driving at Its Best

Speed-Trigger Fordomatic Drive has a new, automatic low gear which lets you start in low, shift to intermediate, and then into high—all automatically—all while the drive selector lever is in drive position. It's the only "automatic" in its field that combines the smoothness of a fluid torque converter with the versatility of three automatic forward gears.

Power to Steer For You

Master-Guide Power Steering does up to 75% of the steering work for you on turns... yet you retain the natural feel of the wheel on straightaways. It's a great help when parking—makes all driving easier and more relaxing.

Power to Apply Your Brakes

Swift Sure Power Brakes do up to one-third of the stopping work for you. And there's built-in safety. With power off, you stop your car as easily as though your Ford were equipped with the standard braking system.

Power to Adjust Your Seat

Ford's 4-Way Power Seat is the only power seat in Ford's field that adjusts "up and down" as well as "forward and back" for most comfortable driving position. A touch of the conveniently located single seat control does it!

Power to Lift Your Windows

With Power-Lift Windows you don't need to stop in order to open or close all side windows. Driver can operate all four windows from the master control. And each passenger has a separate control switch for his own window.

And there's Trigger-Torque power to give you more "Go"
