Next Year's Budget OK'd For Schools

Tax Levy Raised To Retire Debt At Earlier Date

The budget for the school year 1955-56 was adopted by the board of education at its meeting July 19. The millage for operation of the schools will be the same as last year, 8.75 mills, but the board has decided to raise the millage to 10.75 mills to the schools entirely within the district, which is almost wholly within Washtenaw County. The levy is limited to 8.75 mills, although Washtenaw county allocated 10.75 mills to the schools entirely within the district.

The board of education approved an increase in the millage levy of the South Elementary Bond issue from 2.5 mills levied this past year to 3.5 mills to be levied for the next two years. The outstanding bonds on this issue amount to $181,000.00. Interest on these bonds amount to $12,976.00 provided no bonds are recalled previous to maturity. The levy of 3.5 mills for the next two years plus the reserve fund of $25,000.00 will pay off the South Elementary Bond issue April 1, 1957. The interest saved by the district by the above procedure amounts to approximately $12,000.00.

The board of education approved the increased millage on the South Elementary school so that the outstanding indebtedness of the district would be a comparatively small amount at the time of the submission to the electors of the new high school bond issue. With a lesser amount of indebtedness on the district the interest rates on the high school bond issue should be less.

The total increase in the taxes for the school year 1955-56 will be 14 mills on the State Equalized valuation or approximately $5.00 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. The total school tax which includes the levy for operation, the levy on the South Elementary Bond issue and the levy on the North Elementary bond issues will be approximately $30.50 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation as compared with $25.50 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation the past year.

The board of education believes that it is sound financing to increase the tax levy $5.00 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for the next two years to save the school district $12,000.00 in interest on the outstanding bonds of the South Elementary school.

Dexter Youth Is Killed in Plane Crash

Charles Quinn, 23, of Dexter, was killed shortly after 8 p.m. Monday when the one-engine plane in which he was a rider, crashed in a field near the intersection of Webster township after the engine failed.

The pilot, Robert MacVicar, 50, of 540 Jackson road, Ann Arbor, and Robert McLeod, 25, also of Dexter, suffered multiple lacerations and possible internal injuries, according to Sheriff's department reports.

The plane was owned by Wilbert Jozeman of Chelsea, who had closed the deal for its purchase earlier in the day.

Baseball Teams Lose to Stockbridge

Stockbridge won both games played by the Recreation Council teams last week. The juniors lost 8-7, while the midgets went down, 12-9.

In the junior game the local team collected 13 hits but dropped the game as a result of their own misplays.

George Mayer, with four hits in four trips, and Frank Frederick, with three for four, led the juniors at the plate.

In the midget game Chelsea scored all their runs in the second inning. Singles by Jerry Ring and Scheram and Guy Devine, plus a bases-loaded triple by Dan Mayor provided the runs.

Last night Chelsea players were to go to Dexter and next Wednesday the juniors will play at Michigan Center. Here at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow the high school team will play Stockbridge here at 6 p.m.

The series included seven lessons and covered such items as prenatal care and early care of the baby, with the final lesson centered on the baby's first year and his place in the family.

Her father, driver of the pick-up truck in which they were riding, was not injured.

The injured women were taken to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, Joyce remaining there overnight.

The front of the Eiseman pickup was considerably damaged in the mishap which occurred as a car ahead stopped suddenly to avoid striking pedestrians in the road and the Eiseman vehicle skidded as the brakes were applied.

County Board of Supervisors Name Administrative Officer

The Board of Supervisors, at their regular monthly meeting, July 12, approved the appointment of Carl G. Johnson to the newly-created position of Washtenaw county administrative officer.

The appointment is in the nature of a preliminary step toward eventual approval of a county comptroller, a position which would abolish the present County Board of Auditors.

Procedure for obtaining a comptroller for the county calls for approval by the Legislature, the supervisors and a vote of the people.

In the meantime, the newly-appointed administrator is becoming familiar with the county set-up and studying changes in organization in preparation for serving as comptroller in the event the comptroller system is eventually adopted.

Duties of the new administrator have been outlined as personnel director for the county, assisting certain elected officers in carrying out the duties of their offices, such as the county clerk, register, deacons, sheriff and others; working out a modern budgetary plan; and generally working closely with the supervisors and providing them with many proposed reports and recommendations.

Johnson, who is 35 years old, is now personnel director for Oakfield and county position he has held the past two and one-half years. He is scheduled to leave that job July 29 and is expected to take up his duties here by Sept. 1.

He formerly was employed as a personnel worker in the Wayne county Civil Service Commission for several years.

Johnson is to be introduced at the August meeting of the Board of Supervisors and it was announced that Supervisor Donald M. Silkworth of Ypsilanti, chairman of the comptroller's committee, will outline the exact duties of the comptroller at that time.

Chuck Koengeter is attending Boy Scout camp at Brim Lake this week. Linda will leave Sunday for Girl Scout camp at Cedar Lake. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Koengeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Warren and children spent Thursday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Warren, of Capac.

Council OK's Subdivision Plat Plans

Cash Deposit Made For Installation of Water, Sewer Mains

The plat of the Chelsea Development Co., in the newly-annexed subdivision at the southwest edge of the village, was approved at Monday's meeting of the Chelsea Village Council. The company is constructing 70 homes on the property.

This is the first time such a project has been taken into the village and paid all costs of improvements. The firm made a cash deposit of $25,000 for the cost of installing sewers and water mains.

In addition, the sum of 150 percent of the estimated cost of additional improvements, such as streets, sidewalks, curbs and gutters, will be paid for each home when it is completed. The amount will be paid upon issuance of a certificate of occupancy after routine city inspection has been made of the home.

It was pointed out that the new subdivision thus will not cost the taxpayers of the village a single penny in additional taxes.

Other business at the meeting Monday included a discussion of the responsibility for street repairs following installation or other work on gas mains. A representative of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. was present for the discussion.

Social Will Buy Uniforms For Band

Two concerts by the Chelsea High school band under the direction of Eugene Shroyer, will highlight the annual ice cream social tomorrow night at the Floyd Fowler farm on Sibley road.

The social is being sponsored by the Chelsea Band Boosters club, formerly known as Chelsea Band Parents club. Proceeds will be earmarked for band uniforms for new band members expected to be added this fall.

Eugene Shroyer said yesterday that the first band concert will be played from 8 until 8:30 p.m. and the second after a 30-minute intermission.

Some of the numbers being prepared for the concerts are "Sweethearts of Sigma Chi," "Two Modest Overtures," by Grundman; a march, "Homage to You," by Olivetti; "Waves of the Danube Waltz" by Ivanovic; and the popular songs, "Slender" by Reed, and "S.S. Boom" by Keyes.

The band will play on the lawn. Chairs will be provided for the audience and programs will be distributed, Shroyer said.

Other entertainment features will be an archery booth and a Dave Crockett wishing well.

Mrs. Hugh Sorensen, president of the Chelsea Band Boosters club, and the executive board have acted as the committee in charge of arrangements for the social.

CHILDREN'S READING PROGRAM—Phyllis and Cynthia Klingler, at left above, with Janet Hafner and David Wood, were checking on their progress in the Dave Crockett "Follow the Sun" summer reading program at the Chelsea Public Library when their picture was taken. Cynthia and Phyllis are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Klingler of Washington street. Janet's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hafner of Lincoln street, and David is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood of Orchard street. The Dave Crockett poster has the readers' choice of the figure of a "bar" or "coon" attached for each five books that are read. The third group of five brings the "bar" or "coon" to the third and final "trading post" on the poster. Each child registers on a brightly colored card which is given to him or her for keeping track of the books read. The reading course, with a different project planned each summer, is sponsored annually by the library.

Vice Squad Chief Speaks At Kiwanis

Sheriff Edwin L. Klager and Lieutenant Melvin Fuller, chief of the vice squad of the Sheriff's department, were guest speakers at the Kiwanis club meeting Monday evening.

Sheriff Klager, introduced by the program chairman, Paul F. Niehaus, gave an informative, interesting resume of his duties and responsibilities as sheriff of Washtenaw county and then introduced Lieutenant Fuller.

Fuller mentioned the various phases of the vice squad's work in combating gambling, base ball pools, numbers, rackets, lotteries, etc.

He also gave a detailed account of the work of the vice squad in regard to controlling the narcotics traffic.

He had samples of various narcotics, as well as marijuana, the latter, he said, having been obtained in the Chelsea area. He mentioned that the marijuana, when processed for use in cigarettes and sold through illicit channels, brings as much as $160 per pound. He said quantities of one ounce of marijuana have been destroyed by the sheriff's department and other law-enforcement agencies.

Guests at Monday's meeting, held in the social center of the Methodist church, were William Freeman, Charles R. Henderson of Ann Arbor, and Preston Grossman, who was brought to the meeting in observance of his birthday. He was the guest of his father, Waldemar Grossman.

It was announced that Aug. 20 is the date for the Chelsea Community Fair parade and there was some discussion on entering a Kiwanis club float.

Announcement was also made that the club has been invited to hold its Aug. 1 meeting at Cissidy Lake Technical school.

Independents Battle Sunday For League Supremacy

Doubleheader Scheduled For Two Leading Teams

Chelsea Independents picked the right time to drop their first league game of the season, since Fowlerville, tied with them for first place, also lost their first game of the year the same day.

Fowlerville comes to Chelsea Sunday to try to break the tie, the battle for first place scheduled to start on the local field at 1:30 p.m.

The game will be a doubleheader and Chelsea will have available all of its pitchers, in case they are needed. This will be the big game of the year for the Independents and they look for a good crowd of rooters.

At Lansing last Sunday, Chelsea won the first game, 6-3 and lost the second, 4-2.

The first game was delayed for more than an hour for lack of bases and umpires.

Dave Crockett pitched the first game and Marty Tobin the second. Jerry Lehman got five hits.

Only Four Weeks Remain Before Annual Fair Opens

Just four weeks from today Chelsea's annual Community Fair will be in full swing. Fair dates are Aug. 17, 18, 19 and 20.

The parade which culminates four days of entertainment and exhibits and is a highlight of the annual event, is scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 20, at 2 p.m. Don Alber, parade chairman, said yesterday that he is hoping to interest every factory and organization in the community in entering a float for the parade.

Substantial prizes for the winning floats are again being offered but prizes are not the only item to be considered, he said, since it is the aim of every year's parade committee to have "the biggest and best ever" parade.

Alber said that it would help greatly in planning the parade if everyone who plans to enter a float will notify him as soon as possible.

Agricultural and livestock exhibitors should plan to list their entries early and may contact Philip Smith here or Richard Larson in Dexter for the agricultural exhibitors.

Bangs Disease Test To Start Next Monday

Bangs testing for brucellosis in dairy and beef cattle, announced last week by the Washtenaw county agricultural extension office at Ann Arbor, will probably begin July 25. Bill Dexter, assistant county agricultural agent, said yesterday.

He explained that he has learned that the mobile laboratory testing unit is to be stationed at Saline and will work from there. He said the customary milk ring test which is a preliminary procedure, will be accepted as satisfactory over the county and he is unable to tell just when the testing will be done in the Chelsea area.

The testing program is carried out under the cooperative efforts of the Michigan Department of Agriculture and the USDA.

Testing operations in Washtenaw county are under the direction of Dr. James Moser of Saline, who is a state veterinarian. He will be assisted by local practicing veterinarians and the mobile state department laboratory.

ABR milk tests will be conducted on all milking herds, with follow-up individual blood tests on all ABR suspicious and breeding beef herds. Permanent identification by branding will be made on all reacting animals, with indemnity payments and calf vaccination being optional in all reacting herds.

The testing procedure was explained at an area meeting held in the Municipal building here Tuesday evening with George Parson and Dr. Glen Reed of Michigan State University present to answer questions.

Other meetings were held last night at Pittsfield Grange hall and Monday evening at Saline Township hall.

The final meeting of the series will be held tonight at Superior Township hall, corner of Cherry Hill and Prospect roads. Anyone who found it impossible to attend the meeting in his own community is welcome to attend the meeting tonight, it was pointed out.

Beef breeding as well as dairy herds come under the testing program.

Miss Florence Kelsey is spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Cameron and family.

Uneasy peace reigns over Gov. Williams' office and the domain of Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler. But both are keeping their powder dry.

Williams has been heckling Ziegler since last year over Michigan's road system.

It was a shambles and Ziegler was slapping on patches rather than building new roads, according to Williams. This session the legislature added 1½ cents to the gasoline tax.

For weeks, Williams and his aides needed Ziegler to get started. Ziegler, one of two remaining Republicans on the State Administrative Board, said the money wasn't yet available, but he would see what could be done.

Then came the strategy. Ziegler popped up with a $1,200,000,000 highway program, complete with a priority schedule to give the state 1,440 miles of major highways and 400 miles of routes in metropolitan areas.

It will be completed in 10 years, Ziegler said.

Slightly abashed at the sudden show of progress, Williams called off his running battle with Ziegler.

"He has developed a reasonable plan," Williams said.

It has been a long haul since last October when Williams and the Democrats made the highway issue a major plank in the party campaign for election.

GOP party leaders plainly were unhappy that Ziegler declined to come up with answers to toss back at Williams.

Through the legislative session of 1955, Ziegler was a storm center. At one point, there was talk of turning over the new highway program to a separate agency.

So now Ziegler comes up with a long-range plan of highways—an impressive presentation showing it must have been in preparation long before the tax bill for $30 million was passed.

Where does that leave politicians next year at the time for vote-gathering?

Republicans can point to Ziegler and take credit for the highway program. Williams will say it wouldn't have been achieved without prodding from Democrats.

The way the motoring public will pay the tax, ride on new roads and accept any explanation they want—if they want one.

Farmers are getting another service from the state and Michigan State University.

The state agricultural commission approved a program creating a swine herd inspection system, complete with certification of herds.

And the commission also gave a boost to the promotion of Michigan agricultural products by granting funds to four major organizations for the purpose.

They are the American Farm Economics Association $480, the Benton Harbor Market Board $10,000, the Michigan Bean Shippers Association $1,300, the Michigan Beekeepers Association $240.

Clark J. Adams, a Pontiac attorney, should feel right at home in public life again.

He was appointed by Gov. Williams as the new fourth circuit judge in Oakland county. He will take office Jan. 1, 1956 and be required to face his first election test the next November.

During his career, Adams has served in all three branches of state government, legislative, administrative and judicial.

First, he served three terms as a member of the House from the second-Oakland-county district; he was Williams' first legal advisor and was later appointed to the Michigan Supreme Court.

Defeated in his try for reelection in 1953, Adams returned to private law practice in Pontiac. He was appointed in the spring to the Michigan Corrections Commission.

He will serve on the commission until he takes the bench as circuit judge next Jan. 1.

"Adams has always done a good job wherever he served," said one executive office aide. "He will make a lot of friends for himself and do the public a great service."

Legislators are organizing a 15-member committee to work out the future of higher education in Michigan.

There will be five members from each chamber and another five, composed of businessmen, industrial executives and possibly an educator.

Already a difference of opinion has developed.

Senator Don Vander Werp (R-Fremont) is anxious to aid junior and community colleges while Senator Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) goes more for building up four-year colleges.

The committee will hold hearings in the capital and around the state during the summer and come up with recommendations for the 1956 legislative session.

"We've got to find the answers," Vander Werp said. "This is a $150 million problem."

Original Deed To Courthouse Square Uncovered

In the scramble of preparing documents to be moved to the new courthouse, the original deed to the courthouse square has turned up, according to Register of Deeds Patricia Newkirk Hardy.

The first deed, dated Jan. 3, 1828, gave the county title to the wrong block.

Through an error in description, the first deed was for the block which now contains the jail, the Municipal building, the bus station and the space occupied by the "late" Whitney Theater.

A second deed, with the correct description, was written Jan. 20, 1844, sixteen years later.

The property was deeded by John and Ann I. Allen "to the supervisors and their successors . . . to bargain, sell, and convey . . . for the purpose of erecting thereon a courthouse and other necessary public buildings for the benefit of said county." The deed, handwritten in faded ink on heavy, age-yellowed paper, is close to illegible, Mrs. Hardy said.

While documents of historic interest are normally given to the State Historical Society, Mrs. Hardy prefers in this case to keep both deeds with the abstract in her office.

About 10 pounds of a live 240-pound "porker" end up as center-cut pork chops; about 29 pounds are ham. All in all about 115 pounds of meat and 35 pounds of lard from the original pig are what's left for sale over the meat counter.

Erect TV Antenna Where It Cannot Fall on Power Line

Television sets need electricity to operate—but not the kind they get when the TV antenna falls across a high voltage line.

In the fringe reception areas especially, where the TV towers reach like countless fingers to the earth, a closer look will show that many of them are within falling reach of power lines.

While it is true that the antennas supported by pipe are erected three or four ways, and that the self-supporting type of tower is supposed to withstand seven miles an hour winds, who can tell what stress they will take a few years after corrosion and decay have begun?

When a TV antenna falls on a power line, exactly what will happen is anybody's guess—the results are bound to be far from good! The TV set will probably be ruined, fire may break out, people may be electrocuted.

Many local codes prohibit the erection of antenna towers within falling reach of power lines. Other codes require an additional guy opposite the power line.

To protect life and property, select a safe location for your TV antenna. Warn tower erectors of been overlooked and the installation is already completed with your antenna in falling reach of a power line, better consider having it moved to a safer location. Otherwise a sudden summer storm may suddenly interrupt a good TV program—and at the same time, interrupt your life in a dangerous and costly way!

Homemakers have a break in meal planning year-around. Thirty years ago the variety of groceries was largely limited by the seasons. Now with modern storage and processing methods the supply is almost unlimited all year.

Yellow undercoating is one of the things to look for in buying cantaloup. Says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, this means the melon has ripened on the vine. But, they caution, beware of soft spots which may indicate rough handling, over-ripeness and spoilage.

MRS. FRANKLIN RECK, center, of Manchester, met recently with homemaker editors of Farm Journal and Town Journal Magazines in Philadelphia to plan special service articles to be published in the next six months.

Manchester Woman Confers with Editors Of National Magazine

Philadelphia — Mrs. Franklin Reck, center, of Manchester, was one of eight town and farm homemakers from all parts of the U. S. who conferred recently with homemaker editors of Farm Journal and Town Journal magazines in Philadelphia.

She is shown here with Mrs. Loyd Bell, of Meredithville, Va., left, another of the homemaker group, and with Mrs. Virginia Brown-Garwood, right, who as "Mary Sheldon" directs the reader test group service of the two magazines.

Mrs. Reck is the mother of two daughters, one attending the University of Michigan, and the other at home. She is active in a wide range of community activities. Mr. Reck is a nationally-known writer and editor.

The homemaker editors' conference is a semi-annual event at which the women editors of Farm Journal and Town Journal, with the counsel of their own readers, plan the service articles that will be published in the next six months.

Register of Deeds Resorts to Production Line Methods To Keep Pace with Work

Register of Deeds Patricia Newkirk Hardy stated this week that because of the unprecedented increase of records and business the office staff of six, including herself, now find it necessary to work several hours during the evening in order to keep up with the volume of work. She emphasized, however, that the office is not open for business evenings.

This year our planning and budget look into consideration the possibility of an average business increase—but nothing like this!

Mrs. Hardy said, "The buying and building boom has swamped us," she concluded.

The evening work is necessary in order that the day's registrations may be completed from the signatures of parties, as the papers are brought in, through the micro-filming of the documents.

It has been the practice for one of the office girls to complete the entire transaction herself but Mrs. Hardy explained that production-line processing is now the rule, with each girl responsible for completing one phase of the registration.

A comparison of business handled at the Ann Arbor office shows an increase of 21 per cent for the first six months of 1955 as compared to the same period in 1954.

In the first six months of 1954 a total of 2,561 deeds were registered, while from January through June, 1955, the figure is 3,145.

Chelsea figures on real estate registrations have increased 50 per cent, Mrs. Hardy said, the figures being 40 and 60.

Mortgage registrations in Sylvan township show no increase but Lyndon township went from 27 in 1954 to 54 in 1955; Lima township from 13 to 22; and Sharon from 13 to 14.

Freedom township and Dexter township showed decreases in mortgage registrations, Freedom's figures being 21 and 18 and Dexter's 77 and 68, respectively.

For the entire county real estate mortgages increased from 1,701 in the first six months of 1954 to 2,200 in 1955; with chattel mortgages increasing from 5,187 to 7,043.

Approximately 75 per cent of this increase is in the Ypsilanti area and in Ypsilanti township.

SHARON TOWER FARM BUREAU

Sharon Tower Farm Bureau held a family picnic Sunday at Portage Lake, ten families being present.

A pot-luck dinner was served and a short business session and discussion followed.

The next regular meeting will be held Aug. 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruestle.

To earn $3,000 to $4,000 annually, the professional rodeo performer, cowboy must place among the first three in events at 30 to 40 rodeos a year.

Citizens already paying new taxes and obeying new laws are being bombarded from all sides by legislators seeking to make political hay out of the record.

Republicans claim they control the legislature and have given Michigan a handful of wonderful new laws. Democrats say the Republicans would not have rolled up their 1955 record had there not been minority party members there with a club, forcing them to act.

"The majority must be just as responsible for the things that were not accomplished," snapped Senator Patrick H. Doyle (D-Dearborn).

Senator Creighton R. Coleman
(R-Battle Creek), majority caucus chairman, issued his annual record-of-accomplishment statement as the legislature waited to adjourn.

He said the legislature was responsible for:

1. A $35,000,000 highway construction program which will concentrate on four-lane divided highways in the arterial road system. It is financed with a 1½ cent increase in the gasoline tax.

2. A $28,000,000 budget-balancing tax program which will increase the load on business but not directly on consumers. It is an increase in the $30,000,000
Business Activities Tax.

3. Lifetime incomes for workers totally and permanently disabled on the job and increases in the maximum unemployment compensation benefits of from $42 to $54 for men with families. The $30 weekly maximum for single workers idled remains unchanged.

4. A new Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) to bar discrimination in employment by reason of race, creed, color, national origin or ancestry.

Increased budgets for mental health, public health, more Michigan State Police, additional probation and parole officers—all were part of the legislative record.

Gov. Williams praised the legislature on the last night of the session, saying they had done a good job but had fallen below his hopes.

"Perhaps I'm a perfectionist," he said.

Williams had asked for more money for mental health and once held a special meeting to pressure the legislature. The increases granted, he said, will handle only part of the natural expansion.

While refusing to kill or cripple the controversial Michigan Turnpike Authority, the Senate dealt it a blow when it ousted William E.
Slaughter, Jr., as its chairman.

The move leaves the five-member authority with two vacancies
(one member, R. M. McConnell, of Detroit, died recently), and a third,
Highway Commissioner Charles M.
Ziegler, who has exhibited reluctance to interest in turnpikes.

Insiders said it was the death knell of turnpikes in Michigan, at least temporarily. Bond houses and other financiers are reticent about dealing with authorities with two vacancies, and which have stirred up controversy.

Motorists have been hit by two gasoline price increases

4-H'ers Eliminate "Accident Havens"

How many hazards can you find?

SAFETY, a crop to be harvested on every farm and in every home, is receiving special attention from more than one-half million 4-H Club members taking part in the 1955-National 4-H Safety Program. As a part of their 4-H Club work, members in all 48 states are correcting hazards such as those seen in the above drawing. They are attempting to reduce the Nation's annual farm toll of 14,500 lives, 1,250,000 injuries, and an economic loss of about a billion dollars.

4-H'ers, working as individuals or in groups through their local clubs, conduct surveys to locate hazards, then correct the unsafe conditions.

They give demonstrations on hundreds of topics pertaining to farm, home and highway safety. Members present talks before group meetings and over radio and television; put displays in store windows; and build booths at fairs.

To assist the Cooperative Extension Service in conducting the 4-H Safety Program, General Motors has just published a new "4-H Safety Handbook for Local Leaders," which provides how-to-do-it ideas for carrying out successful safety programs. Copies of the manual will be distributed to volunteer 4-H leaders through County Extension Offices.

In addition, GM provides incentives in the National 4-H Safety Awards program which is arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. Medals are made available to four county winners; an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago is given to the state winner; and $300 college scholarships are presented to eight national winners.

In the drawing, there are more than 45 accident hazards or unsafe practices shown. Don't let them occur on your farm or in your home.

JOHN W. ENGLISH

Inkster School Superintendent Will Head MEA

John W. English, superintendent of schools of Inkster, assumes the presidency of the 42,000-member Michigan Education Association tomorrow, according to an announcement from the M.E.A. headquarters in Lansing.
English, succeeding Ellen Solomonson, classroom teacher at Sault Ste. Marie, will serve for a term of one year beginning July 1, 1955. He was elected April, 1954, at the annual representative assembly of the M.E.A., Michigan's largest professional organization.
Active in M.E.A. affairs as president of the Flint Teachers club in 1940-42, and as a member of the Association's professional problems commission in recent years, English has risen steadily in the education profession. He began his career in Flint in 1933 where he successfully taught junior and senior high school until 1943. After taking a position as assistant principal of the Senior High School, Oil City, Pa., for two years, he returned to Flint public schools in 1945 as director of research, later becoming administrative assistant in charge of personnel. In 1954 he accepted an appointment as superintendent of the Inkster public schools.
English graduated from the Flint Central high school and Junior College and took his master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Michigan.
Active in civic affairs, he is past president of the Flint Council of Churches, the Inter-Club Council, and the Donald M. Whaley Foundation. He is a member of the Flint Elks Club and the newly-formed Inkster Lions Club.
English, 42, and his wife, Ruth, and three children, Clifford, 17, Philip, 12, and David, 10, live at 26720 North River Park Drive, Inkster.
Commenting on the growing unity within the profession, English pledged himself to continue the good work the M.E.A. has been doing for Michigan's children and teachers.

Tourists are returning to Michigan this summer to bring the industry back to its $500,000,000 a year heritage.

Dollar volume slipped eight percent last year when other states developed elaborate programs to compete more strongly for the vacationer's dollar.

Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council, is seeking additional funds to advertise the state as costs continue an upward spiral.

But it's encouraging, the number of out-of-state people have inquired through our office about facilities here," he said. Each inquiry gets back pamphlets extolling the vacation spots in Michigan, developed co-operatively by the four regional tourist associations. Furlong said the inquiries have increased over last year, a harbinger of a dollar volume comeback, because a large percentage of those who take the trouble to check Michigan come here for their vacations.

Another item that will help in the new legislative act which contains an out-of-state car buyer to pick up his new car here and drive it back home without paying Michigan sales and use taxes.

A special 30-day license is sold the buyer, with lawmakers figuring he will spend part of the extra time in the state.

Republicans, young and old, are making plans for 1956 as the end of the legislative session ends.

A group of younger House members are working for a fresh revival of the party following near-disastrous defeats in 1954 and the 1955 spring election.

Rep. Richard Smith of Bay City, and Rep. Tom Burns of Saginaw, are key figures in the group.

PLAN STATE FAIR—George Merriman, postmaster of Manchester, and veteran member of the Michigan State Fair Board of Managers, is busy assisting in the management of this year's State Fair to be held in Detroit, Sept. 2-11. Merriman has charge of the sheep department as a member of the Premium Exhibits Committee which has jurisdiction over all agricultural and livestock activities, junior show activities, women's activities and farm machinery. Merriman said plans are underway to accommodate close to a million people at the fair this year.

They already sounded out Rep. Gerald R. Ford, of Grand Rapids, as a possibility to leave Congress and run for governor as a standard-bearer against Gov. Williams or his successor Democrat.

Ford, remembering the primary fights which split the party in the past, is reluctant to mix it up. He said he would get into the state picture if the party would unite behind one man.

Those are conditions that may tell the story in 1956.

Others are taking a close look at Rep. Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso, the young millionaire congressman, whose popularity and financial independence are attractive to some. His injury from guns of fanatics in the Capitol attack makes him even better known.

A third group is reviving the campaign to get Detroit's Mayor Cobo as the Republican candidate.

They know him as a top-flight organizer and a man who gets things done, but they're wondering about his pull at the polls after years of non-partisan municipal leadership.

"Success in a city election doesn't always mean success in a state-wide election," said one Republican Senator.

Republicans in the legislature are pulling in different directions though the splits appear to be minor at present.

In the Senate, there have been a number of defeats on the floor for the leadership of Senator Creighton R. Coleman of Battle Creek, and his lieutenants, Senators Carlton H. Morris of Kalamazoo and Edward Hutchinson, of Farmington.

The 11-member Democratic delegation sits quietly, feeding whatever dissent that may arise. When it looks like a wide enough split, the Democrats toss their votes, where they will do the most good.

The Coleman group lost on a fight to raise the salary of Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, from $12,500 to only $13,500 a year. After a fight, the figure was fixed at $15,000.

Whether the accumulation of minor setbacks means new leadership in the future will have to wait until next year, but it appears that Coleman's group has lost important majority votes.

Labor leaders were shocked when Republican party bellwethers de-
