Oct. 11—Chelsea plays football at Saline. Kick-off at 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 14—No school because of MEA meeting.

Oct. 15—Report cards issued.

Oct. 17—Chelsea JV plays Dexter JV at Chelsea, 4:00 p.m.

Latin club is off to a good start this year. They have elected as president, Danny Mayer, vice-president, Peter Flintoff, secretary and treasurer, Kay Runkman.

They have decided to have a Roman Banquet.

The Future Homemakers of America met Oct. 2 with Betty Fletcher substituting as president because the elected president, Nancy Irwin, was absent. The only topic brought up was the Record. Hop they are planning to hold Oct. 16.

GAA girls enjoyed their first "Fun Night" of the season on Tuesday, Oct. 1. The festivities began with a pot-luck supper at 6:00 p.m. The menu included meat loaf, baked beans, french fries, tossed salad, and pie a-la-mode. Food vanished quickly from the plates of the several dozen girls.

The rest of the evening was devoted to games. Basketball, volleyball, Indian dodgeball, and dancing provided so much fun and merriment that everyone was reluctant to leave when 9 o'clock came.

Freshmen girls were responsible for clean-up afterward as initiation to the organization.

Journalism students are planning an all-high dance on Saturday, Oct. 19, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Refreshments will be sold under the direction of chairman, Peggy Miller, Karen Munro, Donna Moore, Mary Ann Steger, Judy Martin, David Lixey and Matt Murphy. Clean-up will be done by chairman Mary Ann Sorensen, Jill Barkley, Veretta Greenwood and Pat Kramer.

Subscriptions for the "Bulldog Barks" are now being sold by any journalism club member.

The Future Nurses of America met Friday, Sept. 27. Diane Gary was appointed librarian. Barbara Williams was appointed reporter. The activity committee, consisting of Barbara Palmer, Diane Gary, Donna Sherman and planned various activities for the coming year.

The first three weeks of driver training was devoted to theory. After the three weeks the students went out in the car, looked over the instrument panel, and learned how to start the car properly.

The next week they learned to shift and drive farther and better. The drivers will soon perfect their driving with practice.

Art I and II classes are doing portraits and sketches of the class members.

The first-year home economics classes have been divided into two sections. One half have been making their school projects. The other half have been planning proper meals and table manners.

Home economics II has also been planning meals, such as the proper use of the kitchen.

The seventh grade class has been working on party foods.

For the first two weeks shop II boys were being taught about the acetylene torch and the metal lathe. More recently the boys have been working on projects. Jim Collins and Willie David Minick, Ed Daniels, and Larry Schrader are turning bowls. Other boys are making chairs and water skis and some are making plastic designs.

The girls' physical education class has finished its unit on soccer and has started basketball and volleyball. The girls plan to organize a volleyball team and play the junior high (who is exceptionally good at this sport), and possibly play out-of-town teams.

To Biology students the end of the last week marks the period means biology projects. Kay Runkman's project is the variable factors of grass growing. Kathy Salsburg is making a report on Aristotle, the father of biology. Darlene Mepians is making a report on ecology, the study of things and their relations with their environment.

The Varsity cheerleaders are planning a campaign to take two buses to the Saline game. They have already sent for their sweaters which are expected to be here for the last two games.

The first meeting of the Future Teachers of America was held Sept. 20, under the leadership of Mr. Sanborn. Plans were made for the forthcoming year. Officers will be elected at the next meeting.

This year our school library has acquired much new material. Fiction, reference, and poetry. These include Sandburg's "Poems of the Midwest," "A Book of Robert Frost" and the classic "John Brown's Body" by Stephen Vincent Benet, and epic poem dealing with the Civil War.

One of the leading novels is "The Man Who Lived Twice" by Eric Willentcott Barnes.

There is also a quantity of reference material such as a book on juvenile delinquency, and one on gambling in the United States.

After many weeks of waiting, the Junior Varsity cheerleaders' sweaters were finally finished. The sweaters are navy blue with gold letters. Saturday, Sept. 29, the cheerleaders had a bake sale to earn money for their uniforms. The cheerleaders wore their sweaters for the first time Wednesday, Oct. 2 when the Junior Varsity team played Manchester.

Band Day, an event which band members look forward to all year, took place Saturday, Oct. 5, at 11:00 a.m. at the University of Michigan. At this event were 12,000 band members, 192 bands, 800 drums and 1,200 trombones. The drum majors and majorettes gave a baton twirling exhibition never before given at band day.

The band played at the Dexter-Chelsea game, Sept. 20, at the University of Michigan game, and also at the Saline-Chelsea game.

The Junior High Band is going to play at one varsity and about two Junior Varsity football games, and perhaps a Junior High game.

Mr. Grove, the band director, chose Duane Weiss to be drum major.

Movies shown this week include "Culling Sheep," "Saving More Lambs," and "Early Start," seen by Mr. P. Smith's agriculture classes. "Make Mine Freedom," "Age of Discovery," and "Our Inheritance from Ancient Greece," in Mr. Marshall's eighth grade history class. Mr. Marshall's English and French classes saw "Age of Discovery," Mr. Conklin's class saw "Cell Structure, Unit of Life," "Date Etiquette" was seen by Mr. A. Smith's class.

Mrs. Cornell's third grade is studying space. They have studied Pluto, Jupiter, Saturn, and now making pictures of fruit. They are studying Mars. In art they are doing arithmetic every day and a story almost every day.

The eighth grade had a class meeting to decide and plan details for the party they are planning. No one is allowed to bring guests and everyone is to dress up. Each committee is to have a written report each week.

The Freshmen elected as their officers Tom Dunlap, president; Daniel Mayer, vice-president; Jerry Ring, secretary, and Carol Cameron, treasurer. Mary Ann Steger, Tom Dunlap and Caroline Hoffman were chosen as student council representatives.

In Biology, students are learning about the food and energy chain and many other different types of cycles.

In English, students are reading stories from their literature books and from Readers Digest.

Algebra students are adding and subtracting monomial and polynomial, also coefficients and exponents.

Math in Life students are adding, subtracting, multiplying, dividing and writing decimals.

The money-making committee met Oct. 2 to discuss different way in which the class could make money.

The play committee has also met, and have written for five plays from which to choose their class play.

Roger Herman, sophomore class president, called to order a meeting to discuss money making projects of the class. Jane McLaughlin suggested a car wash for 2 weeks from Saturday, Oct. 5. The motion was defeated. It was decided that the class give a pancake supper. There was no date set.

The class also discussed a merit system, but nothing was decided. Mrs. Benedict suggested that the students who had not participated in any of the class projects be fined at the end of the year.

There was also quite a "heated discussion" on why the boys hadn't been in favor of a car wash. The girls said it was because the boys didn't want to work. The boys returned the compliment!

JOIN FORCES

London—Two sets of three robbers chose the same time of the same night to break into the same store and haul away the same safe. When one of the gangs arrived, they found the other in the act of removing the safe from its moorings. They joined forces and tugged the half-ton safe into a truck to divide the spoils later.

Meanwhile, police had been notified and they rounded up the coalition before they could divide the $280 in the safe.

Cold Weather Always Brings Many Disastrous Fires in Homes and Woods

With cold weather approaching, it is well to think for a moment about the fact that this is the time of year when fires destroy homes and property much more frequently than during the summer months.

The loss of life and property from fires in the United States is still a staggering one, and most of us would be surprised to know how many people who suffer disaster from fire do not have insurance to protect them from loss.

Speaking of rural citizens, it is often difficult to get adequate insurance for the farm home at the same reasonable rates that apply to city property with municipal fire protection, and therefore, many rural homes are very inadequately insured against fire. And, in rural areas there is more danger of the fire making added headway before fire-fighting equipment can arrive.

Many fires are started by cigarettes. If you are a smoker, keep this in mind in the coming months.

Another major cause of fires consists of faulty chimneys, flues and stoves. Faulty electrical wiring is also the cause of many fires.

The most important thing to remember, in seeking to avoid a costly fire, is that one should be careful with electricity, matches, stoves, etc. A few thoughts about this matter may prevent a domestic tragedy.

Turning our attention for a moment to the forests and wooded areas of the nation, the monetary loss incurred from forest fires is tremendous each year. These fires are sometimes started by lightning, as we all know, but more often they are started by the same thing responsible for most fires—carelessness.

So, whether you are in your own home or in the woods this fall and winter, exercise great care and save your home, someone's life, or perhaps millions of dollars in natural resources.

Taxes May Be Classified Good or Bad

As far as we have been able to observe, there are two kinds of taxes: good taxes and bad taxes. Good taxes are those that are levied upon other people, and bad taxes are those we must pay.

Likewise, there is wise expenditure of public funds and foolish expenditure of such money. Wise expenditures promote our idea of public necessity (and may afford us an opportunity for a little profit on the side), and foolish expenditures are those which, so far as we can judge, do not directly put cash, or benefits into our pockets.

If you will thoroughly understand the distinction that we make in regard to taxes and expenditures, you will be able to understand a great deal of the grumbling you hear from time to time about taxes.

The Season Is Now Open

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Highway Safety Experts are digging deeper for reasons why people die in automobile accidents. They will present new ideas to the 1958 session of the legislature in the latest of a series of bills that has changed the nature of motoring in Michigan in the past three years.

Laws now limit the speed of automobiles, exact severe penalties for drunk driving and reckless driving, send bad drivers to special schools.

Highways are designed with the safety factor in the blue-prints—divided super-roads with median strips, banked curves and fewer entry points.

Automobile manufacturers have stopped advertising speed to stress the deep dish steering wheel and safety features.

Now, the experts are tackling the remaining factor—the driver. Drunk driving has for years been a serious crime behind the wheel. But police records show now that while a driver often cannot be considered intoxicated under legal standards, his reactions after several drinks are slowed. He is a poorer driver.

The State Safety Commission is making a study of the problem of drinking drivers at the request of Secretary of State James M. Hare, its chairman. Hare's alarm at the potential hazard of the drinking driver was stirred by a one-man field study—in a tavern. Hare told the commission he slipped, soft drinks in the tavern for several hours, keeping tabs on how much alcohol motorists took on before getting into their cars outside. He said the number was between three and eight cocktails.

What's to be proposed to meet the problem? Hare figures there might be some way for bars and taverns to stop serving a driver before his driving skill is impaired. He also suggests there might be a concentrated proportional campaign to "shame" drivers into holding down their drinks before getting behind the wheel.

There are now several violations for which a driver can lose his license in Michigan. The State Bar of Michigan may propose that a police officer immediately take away a driver's license after an arrest. In exchange, the driver would get a temporary permit, retaining his permanent license only after court action.

This plan is expected to be proposed to the legislature, but critics already are complaining that it is unconstitutional to deprive a person of property without due process.

A number of other safety bills, ranging from tougher laws on speed to speeders expected in the 1958 session.

Democrats have developed a habit of refusing to commit themselves on anything until the last moment. The public attention is well-focused.

Gov. Williams makes it a point to file his nominating petitions on the last day. One year, he remained silent until he could prepare a state-wide television show. Then, he said he felt he had to run for re-election because his Michigan was "unfinished." This year is no exception and the trend has extended to Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, the governor's protégé now in his second term.

Political seems say that Williams will seek his sixth term, waiting until later to make his bid on the

Washington Report

By Senator Charles F. Potter
 The latest news from Washington of special interest to Michigan.

CASH REGISTERS single loudly across the land, and Michigan is no exception. While rolls soar in other states, Michigan counts her slow business pulse and worries over rising unemployment figures. The slump—now several years old—has been blamed on everything from auto layoffs to the weather, with most of the guilt resting squarely on a State administration which casts business in the role of whipping boy.

HERE IN WASHINGTON several of us have worked ceaselessly on the problem. Whatever the reasons behind the slump, more defense contracts, we believe, would be just what the doctor ordered for Michigan. We've set up what we hope will be a massive hype for Michigan, business, an ambitious three-day "Business Opportunities Exhibit," opening in Port Huron this week. Uncle Sam's buying bosses will meet face-to-face with Michigan contractors, large and small, in an effort to direct a share of defense spending into the State. Right now Michigan is getting only 2 per cent of the Defense budget, compared, for example, with Ohio's 5.5 per cent.

★ Always True

I like the story about the ancient emperor who commanded the wise men of his kingdom to state a universal truth—something that would apply without exception to every fact of nature and every human situation.

After long thought, the sages produced the statement, "This too will change."

An interesting starter for dinner table conversation is to feel that one can suggest one thing to which that sentence does not apply.

And the sages' saying is a great antidote for pride in times of triumph and an encouragement when things go wrong.

Another truth that's well-nigh universal was stated by Gordon Hagle on a recent afternoon. As I was admiring the new milk house with bulk storage tank that he built to care for the milk from his high-producing herd of Holsteins, Gordon said, "It took a little longer than I expected, and it cost more than I thought it would."

That certainly is true of almost any construction project, whether it be papering the living room or building a battleship. It always costs more than you count on.

As the young parents of a tiny baby girl gaze into her frilly bassinet, no thought of finance enters their minds, except perhaps the fact that now they are entitled to another income tax exemption.

Little do they consider that they will have to pay for hundreds of jars of baby food, followed by lollipops, hamburgers, and milk shakes—dozens of pairs of stockings, and date-books, injections, vaccinations, and dislocation, diapers, and jeans, and formal-haircuts, and bobby pins, and permanent-class rings, earrings, and telephone rings—birthday parties, skating parties, and slumber parties.

And it's a good thing they don't count on all those expenses, for if they did they might deny them selves the priceless proceeds of parenthood: the rapture of her first smile—her first triumphant walk across the rugged terrain of the living room rug in response to the plaintive plea, "Come to Daddy!"—her exclamation, "Daddy!"—her exclamation, "Daddy!"—her exclamation, "Daddy!"

But when Democrats gathered in Toledo for a regional rally recently, Hart was again asked which he would prefer—a campaign for governor or senator.

He answered, "I don't know, except possibly Hart, of the members the exact words of the answer, but whatever they were, they gave no more details than everyone knew before."

Fletcher graduated as second lieutenant from the Army Air Forces Advanced Flying School at Yuma, Ariz.; Donald Parsons stationed at Rome Army Air Base, N. Y.; Chief Petty Officer H. G. McManus at Camp Perry, Va.

In the 24 Years Ago column (Oct. 2, 1919): The Rev. A. Schoen, pastor at St. Paul's church for 19 years, tendered his resignation last Sunday. During his pastorate here membership has increased from 125 to 325.

Classmates of Allen Ray Krantz had a farewell party Friday afternoon for him as he is moving out west. They presented him with a pen. The committee of eighth graders in charge of the party included Helen Hochrein, Ruth Fox, Dorothy Grob and Opal O'Dell.

factually useless cuff links she gives you on your birthday, your first basketball basket, and first piano solo and first communion and first long dress.

Yes, whatever you start, either good or bad, is going to cost more than you think it will. You'd be wise to pick a project that promises to pay something worthwhile in the way of profits, too.

24 Years Ago...

Thursday, Oct. 12, 1933—

"Railroad Jack," who began a year as itinerant history expert in 1930, was found dead at the rear of an oil station at Coldwater, Friday morning, the victim of a heart ailment. He had been a speaker at local schools on various occasions, expressed wish that the Rev. Thomas H. Carey of St. Thomas church, Ann Arbor, "take care of him" after he was gone, the Ann Arbor priest made arrangements at his own expense for burial in the new section of St. Thomas cemetery.

The 40th anniversary of Orla Chapter No. 108, OES, was celebrated Wednesday evening. Program numbers included solos by Katharine Fletcher, a history of the chapter by Carrie Matney, and a reading, "The Owl Cries," by Jane Beiser.

In the 24 Years Ago column (Oct. 14, 1909): The first snow storm of the season reached this vicinity Oct. 11, an inch of snow being reported in Lyndon township and at North Lake; however, Chelsea itself had none visible.

In the 34 Years Ago column (Oct. 12, 1893): The Rev. Koelling, pastor of St. Paul's church, has moved here from Dexter; also Tracy Towner, secretary of the superintendents of the poor, has just completed his annual report to the board of supervisors showing the care of tramps and other outsiders had cost the taxpayers $1,020.17 and that the number of inmates of the county house was 76.

34 Years Ago...

Thursday, Oct. 11, 1923—

The new paper currency will soon be out with dollar bills to carry the portrait of George Washington; five dollar bills the picture of Lincoln; and the ten dollar bill, a new design for the two dollar bill is not included since it is planned to discontinue its printing.

Richard Whallan, 76, a veteran of three years' service in the Seventh Michigan Cavalry, known as the Quarter Brigade and captured by the Confederates, May 11, 1864, and confined in Andersonville prison four months after he had participated in 42 battles, was killed at the Main street crossing of the Michigan Central railroad Saturday afternoon. He came to Lyndon township from Connecticut in 1865 and for many years had made his home on the farm he purchased on the east shore of North Lake, in Dexter township.

Lenore Kaimbach and Norman Schmidt were married Saturday, Oct. 6, in St. Paul's parsonage with the Rev. P. H. Grabowski officiating. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walz.

CAR PRICES GOING UP—NEXT YEAR?

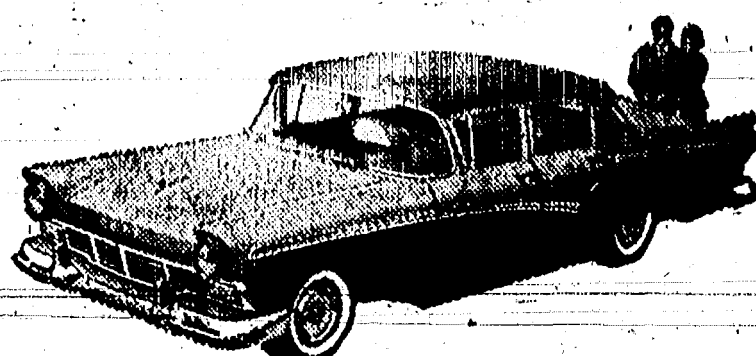

HOW MUCH WILL MY OLD CAR DROP IN VALUE?

WOULD I BE AHEAD TO BUY NOW—OR WAIT?

Now's the time to buy your '57 FORD

● Dollar-wise shoppers know that right now is the bargain time of the year to buy a new '57 Ford. This has been one of our biggest sales years and we're winding it up by offering you savings that will make you whistle.

And another point in your favor... we need used cars, and to get them we're offering king-sized trade-in allowances. Your present car is decreasing in value every week you keep it—it will never be worth more than right now! What's more, rising production costs are sure to raise the price of '58 models... another reason why it'll pay you to buy now! Hurry in and see us today!

The Custom 300 Ford (above) is just one of Ford's 21 models... each soundly built to be worth more when you buy it, and when you sell it, too!

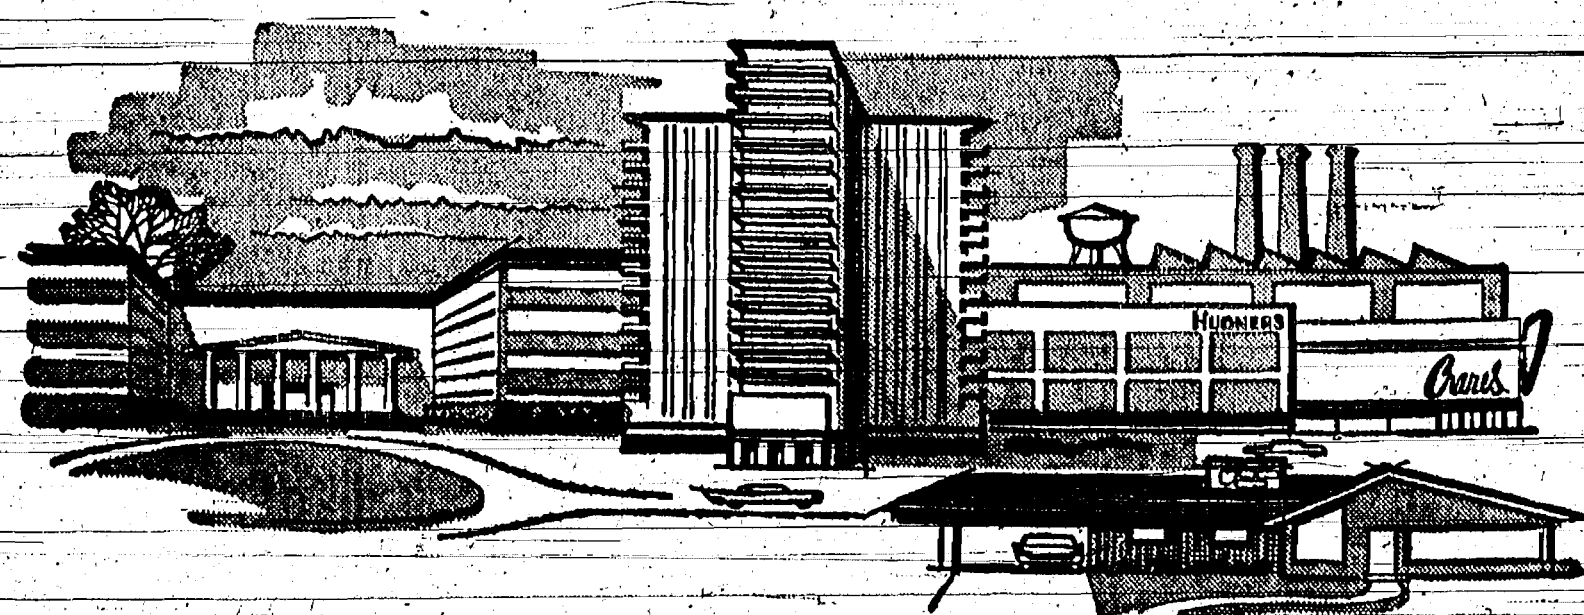

NOBODY OUT-TRADES A FORD DEALER!

The whole town's switching to GAS HEAT!

for HOMES • APARTMENT BUILDINGS • FACTORIES
 STORES • SCHOOLS • HOSPITALS • INSTITUTIONS

From small home furnaces to gigantic industrial boilers, the switch to Gas heat is on! Here's why you, too, can benefit from changing to automatic, economical Gas heat!

GAS COSTS LESS. Save up to 1/3 of present fuel costs in either business, home, or industrial applications. You pay for Gas heat after you've used it!

GAS IS CLEAN. Natural Gas burns cleanly, evenly, completely. There's no smoke, no odor, no residue; no soot or stain. You save on cleaning, decorating, and maintenance bills.

GAS SAVES WORK. Gas heat is your only truly automatic heat—just set a thermostat and forget it. Since Gas is delivered underground, you are assured of dependable service always. No worries about fuel deliveries, fuel shortages, rationing.

NOW'S THE TIME TO CHANGE. Right now, the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has a limited number of Gas heating permits available. If you act now, you can enjoy the comfort, convenience, and economy of Gas heat all winter long! Remember, each day's delay increases your chances of having to wait for money-saving Gas heat. Call or visit your nearest Michigan Consolidated Gas Company office, or mail the coupon below and your approved application will be mailed to you.

CARD OF THANKS

The patients of the Colonial Manor wish to express their appreciation for the flowers that are often brought to the home for their pleasure and enjoyment.

Colonial Manor Hospital, Nellie Flood.

IN MEMORY

In Loving Memory of William Buehler who passed away three years ago, Oct. 15, 1954.

He went away without farewell And said goodbye to none, For Heaven's gate was opened wide And a loving voice said "Come". The shock and pain were both severe.

Little we knew that death was near, Our hearts ache with sadness, Our eyes shed many tears, We miss him so very much As ends the third sad and lonely year.

Sadly missed by his wife, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank my relatives, neighbors and friends for their flowers, plants, cards and calls during my stay at the hospital and since my return home; also, the Eastern Star Chapter for the beautiful plant and the Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Davis for their calls at the hospital and at my home. Everything is deeply appreciated.

Lina Whitaker.

Weighing only about 12 ounces, the female green-wing teal is the smallest of North American ducks.

PERSONAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hennon spent from Thursday until Monday visiting relatives and friends in Roanoke City and Traverse City.

A Friday evening visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boylan was the former's cousin, Mrs. Janet Ivory of Ann Arbor.

O. L. Turner of Atlanta, Ga., spent the past week here as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Turner, and on Saturday attended the Georgia-Michigan football game at Ann Arbor. He left Sunday morning to return to Atlanta.

Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Paul spent Sunday and Monday at Lowell, Ind., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bear, who had moved to their new home there last week. The Bears formerly lived at Lansing, Ill.

Mrs. Bertilla Forner was at Michigan Center Friday evening to attend the confirmation of a granddaughter, Diane Forner, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forner. The Robert Forners were guests later at the home of Mrs. Forner here. Also here for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. James Yoxall and family, of Detroit. Mrs. Bertilla Forner and granddaughter, Diane, accompanied them when they returned to Detroit and spent the week-end there.

Dr. L. J. Paul was in Grand Rapids from Tuesday until Thursday of last week to attend the annual post-graduate sessions of the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons. The meetings were held at the Pantlind hotel.

MICHIGAN BELL

LIKE PULLING TEETH, isn't it, to get a letter out of that boy or girl away at college? It's always been like that and we guess it always will be. So why fight it? The easiest, surest way to keep in touch is by telephone. Rates are especially low after 6 p.m. and on Sunday. Why not arrange a special time, maybe once a week, for your youngsters to call you? Have them reverse the charges if you like. You'll enjoy the chance to talk as much as they will.

ENTERTAINMENT for your group or club is no problem with one of Michigan Bell's free movies or lecture programs. You can choose from quite a list. They vary from 10 to 60 minutes long. For example, the recent Bell Telephone TV films, "Our Mr. Sun" and "Hemo the Magnificent," are available. One of the most popular lecture-demonstrations, "Color Comes Calling," shows how to blend, contrast and harmonize colors for skillfully decorating your home. If you need a movie projector to show a Michigan Bell film, arrangements can usually be made for that, too, at no charge. For details, just call our business office.

HELPING YOU is her business. She's a typical Service Representative in the telephone company's business office—one of the girls you'll talk with when you call up or drop in to discuss your telephone service. You've noticed how courteously and quickly she handles your business. That's because she enjoys helping others, and because she had special training before she ever talked with a customer. That training continues to keep her posted on practically everything the customer might want to know about his telephone service. She's one of the people who make your telephone service good.

Band Works On Show for Saline Game

Members of the Chelsea High Bulldog Marching Band traveled to Ann Arbor last Saturday to take part in the ninth annual Band Day at the University of Michigan and University of Georgia football game. The weather co-operated perfectly so a wonderful time was enjoyed. Chaperons for the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schrader Jr., and Mrs. Margaret Sorenson. Arthur Barth and George Breetschneider were the bus drivers. Richard Fowler furnished the truck which carried the instruments. He also furnished lemonade for the band members later in the afternoon during the first half.

Mrs. Ray Slusser and Mrs. Arnold Fahrner were in charge of uniform distribution before and after last week's game with University High.

Richard Foster and James Shepherd created a cardboard eye for Old MacDonald's Horse in the half-time show for last week's game and Jon Harris put together a huge sledge hammer for the Anvil Chorus act.

Members of the marching band are busy preparing for their trip to Saline this week where they will present a half-time show with the fine Saline High marching band. Each band will be allotted seven minutes to present its show.

Each band will combine before the game to play the "Star Spangled Banner."

Linda Leggett, Virginia LeVan, Loretta Wahl, and Ellen Fisher were selected as the new Junior Band baton twirlers in tryouts last week. Linda will be captain of the twirlers. All the girls play woodwinds in the junior band.

DEATHS

Miss Evelyn S. Miller
Had Been Stenographer in Detroit for Many Years

Evelyn Sarah Miller, formerly of Chelsea, died Thursday morning at her home, 13229 Northlawn, Detroit. She had been in failing health for some time but had been seriously ill for only a short time before her death.

Miss Miller was a graduate of Chelsea High school with the class of 1909 and was employed as a stenographer for many years. From 1919 until 1924 she lived in Mishawaka, Ind. She lived in Ann Arbor for a year and then moved to Detroit where she had resided the past 32 years.

A daughter of Jacob P. and Sarah Jane Stapah Miller, she was born in Chelsea, Oct. 11, 1893.

In Detroit she was a member of St. Agnes Catholic church, the Rosary Altar Society of the church and the Detroit Court of the Catholic Daughters of America.

The body was brought to the Staffan Funeral Home here. The Rosary was recited there at 8 o'clock Sunday evening and funeral services took place in St. Mary's Catholic church at 9:30 a.m. Monday. Burial followed in Mt. Olivet cemetery. The Rev. Fr. Lee Laige officiated.

Survivors of Miss Miller are two sisters, Mrs. Blanche Brenner of Litchfield, and Miss Helen Miller of Detroit, and several nieces and nephews.

Fear Outbreak of Asian Flu at Willow Run School

A limited outbreak of an influenza-type infection involving children at the Willow Run school has been reported to the County Health Department according to Otto J. Engelke, M.D., County Health Officer. This is the only outbreak so far reported to the Health Department.

Dr. Engelke, who visited the school, said that even though the children displayed signs of the flu it could not be definitely diagnosed as Asian flu without laboratory confirmation. It was felt, however, that since neighboring areas have been experiencing outbreaks of the Type A flu, this would prove to be the same virus.

Signs of the disease are sudden onset of high fever, exhaustion, chills or chills, headache, muscle pains, cough, stomach ache and frequently a sore throat. Nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea are not frequently found.

Care for the person who becomes infected is limited to treatment to relieve immediate pain, rest and plenty of fluids.

Recovery is usually within 24 to 72 hours and the attacks are mild as a rule. A phone call to the patient's physician is in order when the attack occurs, but if the symptoms last beyond 72 hours the patient should see a doctor immediately.

Vaccine is still in very short supply and since it requires about two weeks to build up immunity, it is unlikely that enough will be available in time to be of too much help in reducing drastically the number of cases.

Asian influenza is only another type of influenza caused by the Type A virus, said Dr. Engelke, and within the past ten years there have been two other outbreaks of the Type A virus infection, neither of which have been very serious. It is very likely that this outbreak will not be unusually severe either.

Representatives of the hospitals, medical society and health departments have agreed at a meeting held in Health Department offices early in September that because of the usually mild nature of the attack on those cases developing complications would be hospitalized.

National Fire Prevention Week Set To Commemorate Chicago Fire of 1871

This week, Oct. 8-14 marks the 66th anniversary of the great Chicago fire—and the 35th anniversary of the special week which commemorates the terrible destruction by fire of one of the world's great cities.

This is Fire Prevention Week, so proclaimed by President Eisenhower in the United States and by Governor General Massey in Canada. By tradition, both countries officially observe Fire Prevention Week each year during that calendar week which includes Oct. 9, designated as the anniversary date of the great Chicago fire of 1871.

Fire Prevention Week actually started as a special day dedicated to "bringing before the public the much-needed lesson of fire prevention." Fire Prevention Day as it was known, was first observed Oct. 9, 1911. It's original sponsor was the Fire Marshals Association of North America which is now a section of the National Fire Protection Association.

It was in 1920 that President Wilson issued the first National Fire Prevention Day Proclamation. And, finally, in 1922 the entire week, including Oct. 9, was officially proclaimed Fire Prevention Week by President Harding.

Guiding spirit behind Chelsea's observance of this special week, past and present, is the fire department. But, in addition, other organizations in many communities have faithfully supported and participated in the annual fire safety drive: (chambers of commerce, industry, schools, youth groups, civic and social groups, etc.)

Is fire prevention still "the much-needed lesson" the fire marshals thought it to be nearly a century ago? Last year's fire losses—the people killed and property destroyed—provide the tragic answer: fire in North America in 1936 cost the lives of 11,100 persons and $1,385,000,000 in property.
