Community Chest Campaign Launched With $13,311 Goal

Solicitors Hope To Complete Calls During Next Two Weeks

The 1957-58 Chelsea Community Chest fund-raising campaign was officially launched Monday at the annual kick-off luncheon held in the dining room of the Congregational church and attended by 65 solicitors, board members and guests.

The Rev. Richard Cockrell, vicar of St. Barnabas Episcopal church, read an invocation to open the meeting and offered prayer prior to the meal.

Following lunch, Harold Jones, Community Chest chairman, addressed the group, outlining the 1958 budget as adopted by the board of directors in September. He indicated that the $13,311.00 total represents a 21 per cent increase over last year's allocation; however, the figure is approximately equal to the amount donated during the 1956-57 campaign.

Jones expressed confidence that the charitable spirit of the Chelsea community and its acceptance of the "give-ounce-for-all" plan would insure another successful drive. He concluded by introducing Mrs. Warren Daniels, campaign chairman, who presided during the remainder of the session.

Mrs. Daniels called upon each committee chairman for comments and final instructions to the solicitors. Those responding included Mrs. Norbert Merkel, in charge of residential solicitors; Miss Gertrude Young, business; Mrs. Albert Woods, rural; Lowell Davidson, industrial; and Robert Taylor, publicity.

Mrs. Daniels expressed her appreciation for the co-operative spirit in which much assistance was given by members and friends of the Community Chest in laying the ground work for the campaign. She also thanked the large group of solicitors on behalf of the board of directors for their "generous gift of time and talent" and wished them success in their efforts to complete their work toward reaching the goal of the campaign during the next two weeks. Her enthusiasm and faith in the city (Continued on page 12)

Bulldogs Trim Saline Last Friday

BULLETIN

Friday night's contest with Dundee on the Chelsea field has been cancelled, according to a report late Wednesday by School Superintendent Charles Cameron.

The cancellation, along with action to close all Chelsea schools for the remainder of the week was caused by the extremely high absenteeism resulting from flu and bad colds.

Last Friday night Chelsea High graders traveled to Saline and dumped the Hornets, 25-7.

The Bulldogs jumped off to an early lead as Chelsea kicked to Saline to open the game and when Saline couldn't move, and tried to punt, End Willie Heligh partially blocked the ball and Chelsea took over on the Saline 40.

Loren Keezer picked up three on a slant off-tackle and then the Bulldogs were off-side on the next play. Quarterback Denny Schumm then dropped back and hit Oss Richardson with a 13-yard pass.

On the next play Richardson broke through a hole opened by Don Woods and Doug Collier, and although hemmed in by three Saline defenders, managed to squirm away and go all the way in to score. The Bulldogs were off-side on the extra-point attempt.

Chelsea scored again in the first period, and again a punt proved tricky to the Hornets. Richardson picked up the ball on his own 37 and swung to his right, picked up his blockers and rammed 63 yards to score. Quarterback Schumm scored the extra point on an option play.

On the following kick-off Saline came to life and ran the ball back 65 yards where safety man John Eisenbeiser nailed the Saline ball carrier on the 25.

Later on in the second period Saline drove deep into Chelsea territory. But the Bulldog forward wall dug in and took over the ball of their own two.

Schumm sailed for two sneaks before time ran out at the half.

Following the half-time intermission came the most exciting play of the night. Saline kicked off to Willie Heligh on Chelsea's 15. Heligh returned to his own 40 where he was partially tackled.

However, before hitting the ground he lateraled off to Richardson and the little speedster tore down the sideline untouched.

Following this score the Hornets came back to score their only TD of the game. A sustained drive carried from midfield to the Chelsea 10 where Duke Lehetonen scored. Lehetonen also booted the extra point.

The Bulldogs came right back as Richardson ran back the kick-off 62 yards, being aided by a fine block by Jim Mahan. Richardson was tackled on the Saline 35. Two plays later Denny Schumm launched a perfect pass to Willie Heligh for what appeared to be a TD, but the Bulldogs were off-side and the play was nullified.

The Bulldogs scored their final TD early in the fourth period. Two fine runs on bootleg plays by Schumm, who was faking beautifully, plus a 15-yard pass to Heligh, placed the ball on the Saline four where Loren Keezer scampered around and for the score.

Later on Keezer intercepted a pass and ran it back 55 yards only to have it recalled because of a clipping penalty.

Keezer saw action throughout the fourth period and pulled off a fine goal-line stand of their own. The Saline regulars had a first down on the eight but couldn't push over the TD.

The Bulldogs were without the lead in the final minutes of the game. (Continued on page 12)

CHICKEN BARBECUE—Fine fall weather prevailed Sunday for Chelsea's color tours which brought many visitors from other parts of the state to this area and Chelsea Jaycees did a thriving business at their chicken barbecue held at Pierce park from 12 noon until 3 p.m. The barbecue was held in connection with the Chamber of Commerce sponsored color tour project to help provide food for the influx of visitors as well as for local patrons. The method of barbecuing large quantities of halved chickens over charcoal in the specially set up barbecue pits is shown in the lower photograph. In the upper picture Jaycee Gerald Lehman is shown acting as "barker" at the park entrance to attract passing motorists. Robert Vanderkelen, general chairman of the barbecue project for the Jaycees, reported that approximately 800 dinners were sold.

Meader Cites Civil Rights Bill as Major Legislation

The Hon. George C. Meader, who is serving his fourth term in Congress as representative from this district, was the guest speaker at the Kiwanis club meeting Monday evening. He was introduced by M. W. McClure, program chairman for the meeting which was held in the social center of the Methodist church.

Speaking on the topic, "Accomplishments and Shortcomings of the 84th Congress," Meader specifically mentioned four of the important issues before the Congress, two of which were passed and two on which the body failed to act.

Success in its economy drive resulted in cutting by five billion dollars the record $76 billion federal budget, Meader stated.

Also listed as positive action by the Congress was the passage of the Civil Rights bill, the first piece of legislation since Reconstruction days designed to enforce the 15th Amendment.

Failure to pass a federal aid to education bill and on the bill to exempt natural gas producers from federal regulations, were among the shortcomings mentioned by the speaker.

During the business session at Monday's meeting it was announced that an inter-club meeting of the Kiwanis and the Rotary would be held at the hotel.

James Gaken was elected president of St. Mary School Association at the meeting held Tuesday evening at the school.

Also elected were Joseph Deering, vice-president; Mrs. John Pilkington, secretary; and Clarence Wood, treasurer.

Plans were made for the Association's observance of Catholic Youth Sunday, Oct. 21. Following the 8 o'clock Mass, breakfast will be served to all students in grades 7 through 12 at the school hall. A program will be given after the breakfast.

Nearly Half of Pupils Absent Wednesday With Flu, Bad Colds

Chelsea schools closed yesterday afternoon because of the high incidence of a flu-type illness which had affected 33 high school students, 183 elementary pupils and eight teachers.

The absenteeism was 42 per cent of the high school enrollment of 557 in grades 7 through 12 and 20 per cent of the elementary enrollment of 945 pupils, grades kindergarten through 6.

The football game scheduled to be played with Dundee on the local field Friday night has been cancelled, according to an announcement by School Superintendent Charles Cameron yesterday afternoon.

When students were notified that schools were being closed, Superintendent Cameron advised them to take every precaution to avoid illness but if they do contract the flu they should stay home and rest. Under no circumstances should they return to school until they are completely recovered.

MODERN-DAY ROBIN HOOD—Their sixth year of bow-and-arrow deer hunting finally paid off for Lawrence McCready and his brother-in-law, Calvin L. Markham of Warren, when they returned from Lacine, in the Alpena State Forest area with two deer. Also in the hunting party were Markham's brothers, George and Richard, of Detroit. They left Saturday and Calvin Markham got his deer, a 60-pounder, on Monday, late in the afternoon. McCready hit his, a 120-pounder, late Wednesday afternoon. The animal darted into the woods and the men tracked it unsuccessfully until late in the evening. Returning to the woods the next morning they discovered they had been within 20 feet of the spot where it had fallen. McCready is employed as serviceman at Frigid Products here.

Chelsea High students were deeply impressed by Elliott James, who presented an assembly on "liquid air" demonstrations on Oct. 8. The assembly proved to be entertaining, enjoyable, and educational. Mr. James pointed out that air could be condensed at 312 degrees F. below zero. By placing a container of the liquid mercury into liquid air, the mercury became hard enough to pound a nail with. Mr. James placed a container of kerosene with a candlewick in it into liquid air, removed the kerosene which had become solid, and burned it as a candle. He also showed that by freezing a lead ball, it could be made to sound like a steel ball. By putting liquid air into the gasoline tank of a model airplane, and tightly closing the container, the force created by the liquid air caused the plane to fly. The students learned a great deal from Mr. James' visit.

Future Homemakers are planning an all-high dance for Oct. 28. Student prices are 25 cents and 50 cents. Refreshments will be served.

The Athletic Board treasurer reported that the Board was still in debt, though they had taken in more money on the home games.

than had been expected. Several bills were submitted to the board, which were approved and ordered paid.

The first 1957-1958 issue of the school paper, "The Bulldog Bark," was presented this morning. It was the first copy ever devoted entirely to high school matters.

Student Council president, Earl Heller announced that by arrangement with the Village Council and the local police force, the curfew for Friday nights for school events is 12:00 midnight. Special permission will be needed from the police force for Saturday events.

Presidents of the Junior and Senior classes were warned that their organizations must collect money at the noon dances or the privilege would be granted to other organizations instead. Failure to collect will not excuse the organization from the payment to the Council of the $1.00 fee for use of the juke box.

The high school chorus is planning a dance for Dec. 14. The theme will be "Jack Frost's Ball." Although only one formal dance is allowed per year (the Junior-Senior prom) the chorus is hoping that the Student Council and the Board of Education will make an exception this year and allow the Jack Frost Ball to be formal. Committees have been chosen, and have already started their planning.

New officers are president, Shirley Dyer, vice-president, Zoa Niles, secretary, Elena Romero, and treasurer, Marilyn Pojot. Dues have been set at $1 per year.

Future Teachers of America are now organized under the leadership of president, Ruth Prentice; vice-president, Sandra Buehler; secretary, Delores Scripser, and treasurer, Ellen Kausch. Song leader is Shirley Dyer, historian is Peggy Miller, and parliamentarian is Mary Ann Steger. Committee appointments are expected soon.

Margie Bauer, president, Gary Carr, vice-president, Irene Sutfin, secretary, and Bill Allan, treasurer, are the officers of the seventh grade library club. Other members of the club are: Robert Gieske, Larry Bentley, Timothy Whitesell, Barbara Wenk, Jackie Taylor, Claude Snyder, Barbara Powers, Lynne Adams, Judy Herman, Tom Eisenhauer, Donald Joseph, and Harold De Mint. Library Club is divided into three sections. There are seventh and eighth grade sections, and then the regular high school librarians.

The Junior Varsity football team has established a three-win and no-loss record. They picked up their first victory by defeating Milan's Junior Varsity by a score of 18-13, Oct. 10. Chelsea took an early 12-0 lead in the first quarter with touchdown runs by George Wilson and John Meehan, but Milan scored two quick touchdowns in the second quarter and was leading 12-12 at half time. Chelsea's defense withstood the Milan attack in the second half and went on to defeat Milan. Philip McDaniels scored the game-winning touchdown on a ten-yard run.

Members of the Latin club, under the leadership of president

Danny Mayer, vice-president Peter Flintoff, and secretary-treasurer Kay Runciman, are planning to conduct a taffy sale in the very near future. Selling to parents, friends, relatives and neighbors will begin quite soon. Each salesman will pledge himself to sell a certain number of pound boxes. The proceeds will be used to finance club activities.

A club charter made up by the officers was turned over to Student Council for approval. Dues for the year are not announced, but are payable to Kay Runciman. Anyone interested in joining the Latin club is asked to see Mr. Alfred Smith or one of the officers at once.

Attending U. of M. Band day proved most exciting to members of the local organization. Bright and early, they left at 7:15. The 190 participating bands practiced their numbers in the morning and presented them during half time. Chelsea folks reached home about 5 p.m., tired but grateful for the opportunity to participate.

The band is now practicing for half-time show at Saline. Mr. Prinzing's Camera Club is just now organizing. Members are trying to write a Constitution, and are planning to open the club to members of both junior and senior high schools. They have several flash cameras, a slide projector, and a movie projector, all of which they will study and may possibly learn to operate. Students must furnish their own film.

Freshmen activities are limited to individual parties and class an-tiipation for permission to hold a meeting to plan a class party. Sophomores have started to plan for their Pancake Supper which will be held in the near future. Seniors will be having their senior pictures taken Oct. 24-25 by Powell's Studio from Toledo, O. They have also decided upon their play, "My Three Angels," which will be directed by the class sponsor, Mrs. Bald.

They are considering several money-making projects for the rest of the school year. One of the projects may very well be the sale of Halloween candy.

Benjamin Franklin designed a dollar made of silver, brass and pewter, bearing the motto, "Mind Your Own Business," and minted in 1776.

Fish must have oxygen to live. When a body of water doesn't produce enough oxygen, fish suffocate. This sometimes occurs on snow-covered lakes during winter months.

Start Early, Avoid Football Tragedy

Many who read this editorial will be planning trips to football games in the near future. Many have already made several trips this fall to see football games during the just beginning season.

This is a reminder that careless driving, or driving after drinking, is a practice too widely followed in the United States. It is bad enough when one person drinks and then drives, but the crowd going or coming from a football game contains many who have, unfortunately, had too many drinks.

Since the highways are crowded and fans are in a hurry, accidents are almost certain to occur before or after important football games.

It is sobering to think that a number of football fans will be dead three months from now as a result of an accident involving a football trip. You might be one of them.

We suggest that you do a little thinking on this subject and resolve to start early enough to get to the game before the last-minute rush is on, abstain from any alcoholic drink during the game, and be patient and careful in returning home after the game.

This trite sounding advice may save your life—if you heed it.

Billy Graham New York Crusade Ends

The Billy Graham Crusade in New York City has now come to an end. Looking back over the effects of this crusade, one cannot help but be impressed with the figures, both from the standpoint of attendance and dedications.

There are those, of course, who look upon the Billy Graham type of religious meeting as something of a circus and more of a show than a religious meeting. But, for many people in this world, that type of meeting is just what is needed to bring out their religious interest and stir them to the point where they will dedicate their lives to the Christian goals.

Though many of us may feel that we do not need this sort of treatment, and look down upon it in away—it is nevertheless true that the Billy Graham Crusade in New York made many thousands of people think about Christ, the Bible and the Christian way of life, and it no doubt persuaded many to dedicate their lives to the Christian concept when nothing else had even interested them.

Anything that creates such a result is on the credit side of the ledger. And consequently, we must admit that the money and effort expended in the Billy Graham Crusade must be considered very worthwhile.

★ Memory and Hope

One day Mrs. Ida McPhee showed me the German Bible she brought with her when she came from the "old country" some 70 years before.

My German pronunciation is marked by a decided Middle Western accent, but I read some of the 40th chapter of Isaiah, and asked Mrs. McPhee if she could understand me.

"Oh, sure," she said, "I learned that by heart when I was a girl in Germany."
 So I went on reading, "Alles Fleisch ist Gras"—all flesh is grass—"Das Gras verdorrt, die Blume verwelkt"—the grass withers, the flower fades—"aber das Wort unseres Gottes bleibt ewiglich"—but the word of our God will stand for ever.

She told me how her father had brought his family to Michigan long ago. How he decided nobody could make a living here, and started back to Europe. How her older sister had hid Ida, so he couldn't take her back with him. How she had earned her keep by working for neighbors from house to house when she was 14.

She talked of her children, who had grown up to become useful citizens; of her grandchildren, who were so good to her; of the great grandchildren that were beginning to come along.

In her long lifetime there were many joys and many sorrows—sickness and health, poverty and plenty—hope that looks forward, memory that looks back, and an ever-abiding faith that looks up to our heavenly Father.

So I finished the chapter: "Aber die auf den Herrn harren, kriegen neue Kraft"—but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

What greater wealth could one desire than to have the assurance, based on memory and filled with hope, that "the word of our God will stand for ever?"

Still Blowing

Washington Report

By Senator Charles F. Potter
 The latest news from Washington of special interest to Michigan.

BOYS AND GIRLS orphaned by war soon will be arriving in the United States from every corner of the world. Thousands of new American parents will rush to take the homeless waifs to their hearts. Yesterday these children were hungry, wandering, alien, today they are safe, warm, and loved.

NO GREATER personal satisfaction could come to any Senator than the knowledge that he helped achieve this. Last January I introduced a bill to amend the immigration laws to lift quotas on children from Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, and other European countries.

Chelona was the season's first football game by defeating Lincoln Consolidated on the local field Friday by a score of 20-18.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barbour and children, David and Sandra, are leaving tomorrow for Norfolk, Va., where they will make their home and where they will operate a general store.

Today the Department of Justice is hastily dotting final "i's" and crossing final "e's" on regulations for administering the new law.

During the long months of work on the bill, hundreds of letters from wonderful Michigan folks, starved for the sight and sound of children in their homes, poured into my office. The mail came from big towns like Detroit, Lansing, and Jackson, and from the smaller communities of Ravenna, Clarkston, Addison, Mt. Clemens, and others. All told a compelling human story of great love and the need to share it. Here is one, received last spring, that inspired me to keep working on the bill:

"Dear Senator Potter—We have been married for 10 years and long to have children with all our hearts. For more than three years we have been trying through every possible agency to adopt a child, boy or girl, from the age of infancy to four years. We both work and in our spare time built our own home. We love it very much, but we also long to hear a child playing around and coming to us with his or her troubles and everything that goes with parenthood."

"Isn't it possible in some way to allow European homeless and parentless children to come to this country for adoption? It wouldn't cost the country money and they could be raised to become good American citizens."

"There are many homeless ones. Please, can't you help us? If you can't, I don't know where else to turn. If God is willing, we want so much to have a child."

FOR a great-hearted Michigan people and for thousands of others like them across the nation, happiness is in store. For the tots to whom the United States has opened its doors it means the love and discipline of parents to which every child is entitled. For America it is a reaffirmation of her great humanitarian tradition. And for those of us who worked to bring this about, it is a source of profound and moving personal pride.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prudden, who for 28 years have resided on the Pierce farm, just south of Chelsea, are making arrangements to move to their home on Washington street.

In the 34 years Ago column (Oct. 14, 1923): A 10-cent New England supper will be held at the Congregational church; also, Peter Kaimbach who had resided in this area since 1880, died Wednesday evening. He was the father of Henry Kaimbach, Mrs. Peter Young and Mrs. John Bender.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Daniel Beutler who passed away Oct. 14, 1927. Gone, but not forgotten.
 The Family.

THANK YOU

Many thanks to my friends, relatives and neighbors for their cards, flowers, gifts, fruit and visits while I was in the hospital and a special thanks to the Rev. S. D. Kinde for his kindly hospital visits and Mrs. Dudley Holmes, chairman of the Community Blood Bank. My family also wishes to express their appreciation for the goodies brought in to them while I was in the hospital and since my return home. People are so loving and kind. Mrs. L. E. Memenschnieder.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish in this way to extend my wholehearted thanks to all my neighbors, relatives and friends who remembered me with cards, flowers and visits during my stay in the hospital and after my return home. Surely made life more cheerful for me. My family also joins me in expressing sincere thanks to the Rev. Fr. Lee Laige for his comforting words following our recent bereavement in the loss of my husband and their father and to the many friends who sent Mass cards and flowers; not forgetting, either, our dear neighbors who helped in the home in so many ways. Your kindness will never be forgotten. Mrs. Bert Taylor and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish by this means to extend our thanks and appreciation for the kindnesses shown our mother during her long illness and for the sympathy expressed by many thoughtful acts following her death. We shall always remember with gratitude the kindly acts extended at a time when it meant so much to us.
 Family of Mrs. Fred Young.

Sunday guests of the Rev. and Mrs. S. D. Kinde were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weeks of Iron Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weeks, II, and son Tom, of Vicksburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wessel and daughter, Linda, of Saginaw.

Mary LaRoche is the only female member of the cast of "Run Silent, Run Deep," a drama of submarine warfare in the Pacific during World War II. She will appear as the wife of Clark Gable.

Until recently, Las Vegas entertainers were night club veterans. Like Sophie Tucker, Joe E. Lewis, Ted Lewis, etc. and also movie stars like Van Johnson, Jeff Chandler, Marlene Dietrich, etc. Now, it's television stars who are drawing the crowds. Vivian Blaine and Dick Shawn head a starring cast at the Tropicana. Victor Borge is presenting his off-beat comedy at the Sahara. Jan Pearce headlines the show at the Desert Inn, while Milton Berle is the center of attraction at El Rancho, to mention only a few.

The life story of Joseph Pulitzer noted American newspaper publisher who died in 1911, is being planned for production as a motion picture by Jose Ferrer and Edward Duffell. Mr. Pulitzer, a Hungarian immigrant, came to this country in 1847, fought for the Union Army in 1864, married the cousin of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy, founded the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in 1878 and also guided the New York World to position of leadership. His will made provisions that resulted in establishing the Graduate School of Journalism at Columbia University, and Journalism's highest annual award, the Pulitzer Prize.

Pretty, perky Peggy Lee's new album, "The Man I Love," with Frank Sinatra directing the orchestra, is really smooth listening. Frankie is a man of varied talents.

It seems that the life story of P. T. Barnum, hurly-burly showman, is destined to be made into two movies. Frank Tashlin, writer and director, and William C. Thomas, independent producer, are teaming to produce "The Great Showman," the story of the life of the famous showman, which they hope to obtain the services of Bob Hope to star as Barnum. The second movie, tentatively called "The World's Greatest Showman," also depicting Barnum's career, is being planned by the new independent firm of J. J. Sheppard Production.

Another film biography in the planning stage is "The Eagle Flies Alone," the story of Frank J. J. Reilly, former Polish Air Force lieutenant who escaped to the West in 1953, which is to be filmed by Norman Retchin, writer-producer.

Native copper was mined by prehistoric man in Michigan, but copper mining as an industry did not actually begin until 1845. Evidence of early mining in the state is preserved in the old "Indian Pits" scattered through the Isle Royale region and the Keweenaw peninsula.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Girl Scouts of Troop 49 held their meeting Wednesday, Oct. 9, at South Elementary School. On the program, we drew what we thought would be a good idea for a troop flag. We let the leaders judge them. We also picked out troop crests. We decided on the daffodil for our crests.

TROOP 71
Girl Scout Troop No. 71 has organized with 20 girls. We have three patrols. Patrol No. 1 is called the Stars, and their leader is Denise Foster. Patrol No. 2 is called the Redwings. Their leader is Rebecca Birch. Patrol No. 3 is called the Sunshines. Their leader is Jane Moore. Our treasurer is Penny Murphy. Our scribe is Jane Faust and her assistant is Nancy Johnson. We have had a hike to Zoe Riemenschneider's home.

COMMENT on SPORTS

By Pete Fritchie

★ Football ...

Washington—Notre Dame seems to be on the road back after a fearful year in 1956, which reminded one of the New York Yankees finishing last in the American League—a rare and sorry splendor thing.

But the big test for the Irish, who always play a whopping schedule, will come a little later in the season. That will be when they run into Michigan State and Oklahoma on two successive weekends. On November 9th the Irish have the pleasure of taking on mighty Michigan State.

And however badly the Spartans beat them—if they do—the Sooners will be trying to out-do them the following Saturday. It will be recalled that last year the Spartans mowed the Irish down by more than thirty points.

The Irish should not be so weak this year, even though they aren't expected to win either of these games. Nevertheless, after they had played two contests this year they had won as many as they won all last year.

The importance of this looms very large to coach Terry Brennan who started the season on very slippery ice. Another car-nage for the team, like that in 1956, would have finished Brennan's tenure as head football coach at South Bend, although it has never been put that bluntly.

The Irish play a tough schedule and always have. They might lose a few games—a habit they are not yet accustomed to, and their critics say they are not yet accustomed to. But they can't lose half a dozen games and be an easy mark for the likes of Oklahoma and Michigan State.

That's why some improvement had to come this year or else. The Irish have plenty of good material and they get their pick from boys all over the country. With every-one knowing this, the coach at South Bend must produce results.
