Methodist Home Bright For Christmas

Traditional Christmas decorations at the Methodist Home include a magnificent Christmas Village in the lounge. The display features four Christmas trees, one in the very center of the display being lighted entirely in blue while the others have multicolored lights. Illuminated miniature houses and an illuminated church and parsonage; barns and other farm buildings; barnyard animals and fowls are all included in the display which has been accumulated through the past several years.

Charles Maass and Charles Thomas, residents at the Home, did the work of constructing the buildings and add something new almost every year.

The display, which covers an entire corner of the lounge, has a miniature roadway complete with automobiles and wagons. The miniature homes have tiny figures of dogs on the doorsteps and the parsonage has 20 little figures representing angel carolers going up the steps.

The church building is three feet long and two feet high, exclusive of the steeple. Other buildings are scaled accordingly.

It takes as much as seven or eight hours of concentrated effort to get the display in place. Mrs. Mildred Cheever, deaconess, assisted by Miss Ethel Morrow, Mr. Maass, Mrs. Maude Barker and Mrs. Edna Ross worked on the project this year, Mr. Maass putting up the rail fence which encloses the display.

Another Christmas display is set up in the solarium at the Home. This includes a six-foot Christmas tree; an electrically lighted fireplace; an illuminated miniature church from which issues the strains of the Christmas hymn, "Silent Night"; a figure of Santa Claus going down a chimney; and figures of three carolers singing "Ave Maria."

Outdoor decorations at the Home include the customary Nativity scene under the brilliantly lighted tree near the Home Chapel. This outdoor scene has been an attraction for passersby who often drive through the Home grounds for a closer look.

A Christmas party for all members of the Home family will be held at 7 o'clock in the evening of Christmas day.

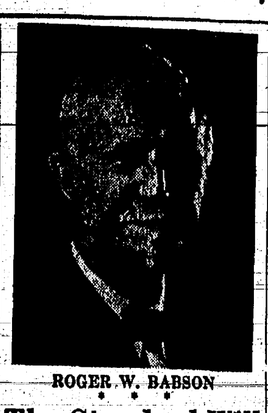

A program of carols and other features is being arranged.

Fred Sager is now a patient at Colonial Manor Nursing Home.

Edwin Beutler, with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jedele and family, of Saline, were guests at a family Christmas dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fink at Rives.

St. Barnabas Lists Full Calendar of Christmas Activity

Christmas at St. Barnabas' Episcopal church, the "little red schoolhouse" church on Old US-12, began with the Advent season, four Sundays before Christmas.

Preparation for Christmas means a gradual process of telling the significance of Christ's coming, first as an infant child and when he comes again as judge, the Second Advent. Thus St. Barnabus uses certain symbols and traditions to help relate the "dual advents" of Christ symbolized in Christmas.

First, on Advent Sunday, Dec. 1, an Advent wreath, a custom from the German church, was hung horizontally in the sanctuary of the church with four candles attached to the large, suspended wreath. Each Sunday an additional candle is lit by one of the young people of the church symbolizing a gradual increase of light in the world as it is realized what God has given to the world, His Son—"the Light that overcame the darkness."

In addition to the Advent wreath, an Advent Calendar, also a European Christmas tradition, was given each family of the church. This calendar has 24 little windows, one for each day in Advent, the 24 days of December prior to Christmas day. Each family opens up another window each day, and was given suggested passages or prayers to read as a daily Advent devotional practice.

Then Sunday, Dec. 15, the "White Gift Offering" is presented by the whole church, from both the children and adults, who wrap a toy or some clothing in white and offer it up along with their money at the offertory in the service. These large baskets full of clothing, food and toys are then given to the Chelsea Social Service for distribution to the community at Christmastide. This Sunday service is a good reminder to the church that we can only understand the real significance Christ has made in our lives, the gift that God offers us, when we first present part of ourselves to our fellowmen. The 'giving' of Christmas must overcome the 'receiving,' just as God has overcome the world by His gift to us in spite of our tendency to get along without God.

St. Barnabas' women have held their Annual Bazaar and Green Sale. This one, annual undertaking to offer a creative, colorful and seasonal event to the people of Chelsea was again well received by the community as well as by the church family. This

Scouts Plan Week-End Camping Trip

Saturday, Dec. 28, from 2 until 4:30 p.m. at Bruin Lake Scout Reservation, "Operation Zero" will take place. This is described as the highlight event of a year of emphasis on the Patrol method.

Afternoon adventures will center around the survival experiences of a party of Air Force men stationed in Alaska. The Second and First Class skills of judging, mensuring, woodslore, morse signalling, compass, fire building, knots, and first aid will be included.

The patrols will find that a sled like those used by the old "sourdoughs" will be very helpful in transporting gear. Scouts may bring the materials and put the sled together at camp.

Bring as many natural patrols as your troop wants to—any number (2 to 8) boys to a patrol. Each patrol will follow the Operation Zero course outlined for them, stopping at each Alaskan city to build fires; give first aid, rescue one of the men, send an emergency message, etc. Detailed instructions will be given that day.

—Patrol Equipment Needed: first aid kit; Scout neckerchief; 6-foot length of rope for each Scout; waterproofed matches; axe and knife; one No. 2½ tin can; materials for sled; one blanket, two signal flags; compass; canteen filled with water; two handbooks for boys; paper and pencil; firewood.

Troops and Posts are encouraged to arrive Friday afternoon and stay in tents through Sunday noon. Scouts may, however, come for Operation Zero only.

Limited cabin facilities by reservation in advance at Scout office.

Registration fee is 25 cents per person for Operation Zero. Also 25 cents per night for each person who stays overnight in cabins. Charge for gas in cabins, 10 cents per night for each person staying in tents.

Those who plan to camp from Friday until Sunday are being advised to bring sleeping bags with blankets or four heavy blankets to equal about 16 pounds.

Scout leaders have listed things to wear for such a camping trip and those who plan to participate should contact their leaders.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wyssonbach of Wichita, Kans., arrived Monday afternoon to spend the holidays at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Francis G. Smysor, and Mr. Smysor and children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beach are entertaining at a Beach family dinner at their home Christmas day. Present are to be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and children of San Angelo, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Beach and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bradbury, Homer Beach, Miss Margaret Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wing and family.

The program was announced by Robert Riemenschneider.

Sharon Smysor was the accompanist for the choir which is directed by Mrs. S. D. Kinde.

U-M Plans Growth To Meet Doubled Future Enrollment

Ann Arbor—If current trends continue, the University of Michigan may be called upon to double its present enrollment to 40,000 or 50,000 students if it is to continue to carry its share of the state's educational burden.

Harold M. Dorr, U-M dean of state-wide education, notes that within 15 or 20 years the number of college-age (18-24) persons in Michigan is expected to double. Both private and public educational institutions will be required to pull the additional load, he says.

"Despite growth in physical facilities, the U-M cannot meet its obligations to the state if confined entirely to the Ann Arbor community," Dorr states. This is the reason the U-M already has moved part of its operations beyond Ann Arbor to Flint and soon will open a branch at Dearborn.

"The branch college idea is not new. It is in the pattern of the U-M's growth during the last 100 years, a pattern set 50 years ago by the Extension Service which now has offices in nine cities of Michigan," he adds.

Decentralization has two advantages to the student, Dorr points out. It reduces cost of education for those who can live with their families and hold part-time jobs in their hometown. It also provides greater educational opportunity for housewives and others who would never take college courses if they had to go out of town for them.

"Distribution of work relieves the overload on the Ann Arbor campus, and enhances research inducements and motivations. The University faces the future confident that it can do its share both quantitatively and qualitatively in providing for the coming tidal wave of students," he concludes.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil DePuy of Tecumseh, were Saturday guests of Mrs. DePuy's mother, Mrs. Joseph Wright.

Christmas dinner guests expected at the home of Mrs. John Oesterle and Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Oesterle are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Oesterle and daughters, Donna Jean and Dowaine, of Brighton, the Rev. and Mrs. Maynard Oesterle and son, John, of Shelby, O., and Mrs. Alfred Faulkner.

August Ramp Exhibits Top Mink at Michigan-Ohio Show

August Ramp of the Clear Lake Mink Ranch, won the Allen Hitchcock Memorial Trophy for his "best of show" grand champion mink at the Michigan-Ohio Mink Show at Grand Rapids. A total of 500 mink from all parts of the country were exhibited. The top mink is a Winterblu male in a pale ice blue color. "Winterblu" is a name coined by Ramp for the breed which he and a Minnesota breeder developed for the beautiful shade of fur.

Ramp exhibited 88 mink at the Grand Rapids show and got a total of 37 ribbons and four champion trophies. The latter were grand champion in the platinum female class; grand champion Blue Pearl; and champion Beige Pearl, in addition to the grand champion Winterblu which won him the best of show trophy.

The trophy honors the memory of Allan Hitchcock, who for a number of years before his death in 1950, was president of the Michigan Fur Breeders Association.

Methodists Give To Provide Gift For German Youth

Members of the Chelsea Methodist church have sent a Christmas gift to Wolfhelm Hammar, eight-year-old son of a Methodist minister and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. W. Hammar of Berlin, Germany. The gift was cash amounting to $18.50 and represented a dime contributed by each person at a worship service several weeks ago. Parents of the boy were asked to buy a gift for him on behalf of the local congregation.

This is the second year the Chelsea church has sent a gift to the German boy, the project being instituted after the Rev. E. J. Weiss, now superintendent of the Methodist Home, made the suggestion to it following his return from a European trip.

The Rev. Weiss had called on Methodist ministers in all German communities he visited and because he learned they were having difficulty providing extras for their families on the pay they received, he felt the friendly assistance of churches here would be welcomed at Christmas time.

Methodist churches of the entire Ann Arbor area co-operated in the project last year and the Chelsea church decided to repeat it this year.

The annual audit report of the Community Chest books was submitted by Icerman, Johnson and Hoffman of Ann Arbor.

Harold Jones, Community Chest president, reported on the Michigan United Fund Victory dinner which he attended in East Lansing, Dec. 16. He stated that at the dinner the Michigan United Fund presented an award for Mrs. W. R. Daniels, chairman of the Chelsea campaign, in "appreciation for outstanding service to the people of Michigan by her efforts to promote greater efficiency and economy in health and welfare fund raising."

Wednesday's meeting was held in the workroom at the Chelsea Public Library. The board of directors approved a delay of one week in the next board of directors meeting in order that the meeting may be combined with the annual membership meeting Wednesday, Jan. 22.

Planet Venus May Have Been Christmas Star

Ann Arbor—Which star in the heavens today was the Christmas Star?

A University of Michigan astronomer answers this yearly question:

"It is during December that popular interest in astronomy reaches its peak, with the accompanying mystery of the Christmas Star," Prof. Hazel Losh notes. "As we watch this month's rising sky, our attention is invariably turned to an interpretation of this historical phenomenon."

But identity of the Star of Bethlehem will remain a mystery, she says. Because of the limited description of the star and uncertainties of the early calendars, any exact astronomical explanation is out of the question.

If you're looking for a symbol of the season, however, then the planet Venus fits the bill, and is most often pointed out as possibly being the Christmas Star, she relates.

"This particular Christmas season it is located in a very favored position. A striking light in the southwest for about three hours after sunset, this planet is steadily growing brighter each evening, and will reach its greatest brilliancy two nights before Christmas. On the night of Dec. 23, this object will b practically as bright as it ever can be, a striking symbol of the season."

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Craven and Mrs. Florence Howlett will spend Christmas day in Detroit as guests of Mrs. Eleanor Bischoff. Early Thursday, the Cravens will leave to spend the winter at Leesburg, Fla.

Ralph Owings is spending a Christmas furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Owings, and will leave after the holiday to return to Camp Pendleton,

Farm Bureau Will Build on Farm Council Property

At a special meeting of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau Wednesday evening, Dec. 18, it was decided to locate the proposed Farm Bureau building on the County Farm Council property.

Ultimate decision as to details of the building program are to be decided by the Farm Council board of directors and the Farm Bureau, it was announced.

Wednesday's meeting was held at Superior Town Hall.

Grade Children Present Outstanding Christmas Program for Parents

Parents who attended the Christmas program for fifth and sixth grades at South Elementary school Friday afternoon described the skit given by Mrs. William Valentine's sixth graders as outstanding.

Carrying out the Santa Claus workshop theme, each child represented a certain toy, with a "grandfather clock" as narrator.

Props, costumes, make-up and everything pertaining to the production was the work of the teacher.

XXXMAS KISSES

Mistletoe Bestows Good Fortune

VERY few people don't know what a sprig of mistletoe means at Christmas time—especially when there's a pretty girl standing beneath it! But few people realize that this very pleasant custom has its root in age-old superstitions.

The lore of primitive days contains many references to mistletoe.

According to an ancient Norse legend, the sun god was slain by an arrow fashioned from the mistletoe plant. He was resurrected by his mother's tears, which falling upon the plant, were crystallized into pearly berries. Because of this magical healing, it was ordained that mistletoe should grow neither on heaven nor earth, but suspended between. That is the reason, runs the legend, that mistletoe is found growing on trees.

Mistletoe was of special significance to the Druids, ancient pagan priests of England, who cut it off trees with a golden knife used only for that purpose. They believed it possessed wonderful powers of healing and acted as a protection from witchcraft. During the December religious rites, it was bestowed upon individuals as a special mark of honor.

Because of its supposed salutary properties, mistletoe was often hung over the doors of primitive houses as a sign of good-will. Belief in magic has disappeared, but this custom still remains. And a kiss under the mistletoe still has beneficent effects. Try it and see for yourself!

The University of Michigan Bureau of Appointmnts and Occupational Information handled more than 30,000 requests for personnel in 1956-57.

Nearly 200 presidents, deans and faculty members of Michigan colleges attended the University of Michigan's 11th annual Conference on Higher Education.

YEAR END TAX TIPS NUMBER 2

How To Plan Federal Income Tax Deductions

This is one of a series of four articles on federal income taxes. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants

By waiting until after the first of the year to decide whether to itemize your deductions or take the standard 10-per cent deduction, you run the risk of losing your greatest tax-saving opportunity.

When you are forced to take the standard deduction because your deductible expenses are less than 10-per cent of your adjusted gross income, you literally "waste" your expense deductions, for tax purposes. Don't let this happen to you every year. Plan your expense outlays so that you go over the optional 10-per cent deduction occasionally. This can be done by pyramiding two years of actual expenses into one.

For example, assume that you expect to have an adjusted gross income of $7,000 for this year and actual deductible expenses of about $600—or $100 less than what you would be entitled to deduct if you took the standard 10-per cent deduction. Not included in your actual expense estimate, however, is $250 in state taxes and $100 in home-loan interest charges that will have to be paid in 1958 but which can be paid in advance.

Beat the Standard Deduction

If you act quickly and pay these expenses before December 31, you can bring your total allowable deductions for 1957 up to $950. By itemizing deductions this year and taking the standard deduction next year—when your actual expenses should be somewhat less because of what you have prepaid—your total deductions for both years will be approximately $1,650. Had you taken the standard 10-per cent deduction in both years, the total would be only about $1,400.

A salaried worker who has difficulty finding enough deductions to make itemization worthwhile might consider carrying the pyramid plan one step further. He could set up a system of "lending" and "borrowing" year-end items that would make it possible for him to throw three years of deductible expenses into one.

Timing Deductions

You can begin your own three-year pyramid by postponing payment on as much 1957 deductible expense as possible and planning to take the standard deduction on this year's return. The expenses you have postponed—or "loaned"—will increase your 1958 deductions, and in the final months of 1958 you can "borrow" from 1959 by speeding up the payment of deductible items.

As a result of your pyramiding, you maximize your expenses for 1958 (when you should be able to beat the standard deduction by itemizing), and minimize your deductible items for 1957 and 1959 (when you will take the standard deduction and waste your actual expenses). The general rule to follow when you are trying to make the most of your actual expenses is: keep outlays as low as possible in the years in which you take the standard deduction and pyramid them as much as possible in the years in which you itemize expenses.

Pyramid Medical Expenses

Most taxpayers need look no further than their family medical bills to find a deductible expense that can be pyramided to gain a welcomed tax advantage. The section of the tax law governing the deductibility of medical expenses states that unless you or your wife will be 65 years old by January 1, 1958, you may deduct only those medical expenses for 1957 in excess of 3 per cent of your gross income.

If you find that you are near or over the 3 per cent minimum and you are going to itemize deductions this year, you should pay as many of your medical bills as possible before December 31. And since medical expenses can be deducted only in the year paid (but cannot be prepaid), you might even consider speeding up and paying for the dental work, eye examinations and general physical check-ups your family will otherwise be having in the early part of 1958.

Taxpayers who had low medical expenses for 1957 should reverse this procedure, postponing the payment of their year-end medical bills until after the first of the year. In this way, they may be able to exceed the minimum requirement in 1958 and to gain a benefit from a payment that would otherwise be lost on their 1957 return.

Plan Premium Payments

The premiums you pay on your health, accident and hospital insurance policies can be deducted as a medical expense—so plan your payments accordingly. To give you greater flexibility in the shifting of medical deductions from one year to the next, you might arrange to have these premiums fall due in January.

VETS BONUSES.

Between 1946 and 1955, the forty eight states spent $3,129,000,000 on veterans' programs and of this, $2,444,000,000 was for bonuses, according to the Tax Foundation, Inc. The Federal Government, in the same period, spent $23,000,000,000 on programs aimed at rehabilitating and readjusting veterans. It also guaranteed veterans' loans of $31,000,000,000 for homes, farms and businesses.

CHRISTMAS SYMBOL . . . The light of the deathless spirit of the Yule burns steadily in every mind at this season of the year, but nowhere is it more beautifully typified than in the delighted, wide-eyed look of a child experiencing the shimmering delights of his first Christmas.

a Christmas Prayer...
May the true meaning of Christmas be with us now as on the night of the Christ Child's birth. May the Christmas story live anew in every heart. May all of us keep Christmas as He would have us do, with good will toward men. And may all the blessings of Christmas be yours.

A Letter To Virginia...

DEAR EDITOR:

I AM EIGHT YEARS OLD. SOME OF MY LITTLE FRIENDS SAY THERE IS NO SANTA CLAUS. PLEASE TELL ME THE TRUTH.

VIRGINIA O'HANLON.

This letter was written to the New York Sun more than a half century ago. The newspaperman who was told to answer Virginia's letter scorned the assignment given him. But later when he started his reply he realized that this represented a real opportunity, and wrote the following editorial which has since warmed the hearts of millions. It has been quoted thousands of times, translated into a score of languages, and become a real classic in the field of Christmas literature.

Dear Virginia:

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect in intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! How dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary if there were no Virginias. There would be no child-like faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not to believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see.

You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view the supernal beauty beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus? Thank God he lives, and lives forever! A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

Funds from Christmas Seal Sale Provide Valuable and Needed Services

Did you know that tuberculosis last year caused 14,000 deaths in the United States?

Did you know that 70,000 new cases of previously unknown tuberculosis were discovered in this country last year?

These are just two of the many reasons why we urge those who can to buy T.B. Christmas Seals, as people have been doing for more than 50 years now.

For these many years the money derived from the sale of Christmas Seals has been used to discover new cases of tuberculosis through X-ray examination, to develop new and better methods of treatment, and to provide services for patients.

The cost of Christmas Seals has not been affected by the inflationary trend which has affected practically everything else in recent years. They still sell at only $1.00 per sheet of 100 stamps, the same as they did 50 years ago.

Because science has not yet found a specific vaccine to protect against tuberculosis, and because efforts to educate through our schools, to discover new cases of T.B., and to help finance research to provide a cure, are all of vital importance to everyone, money is still needed to carry on the work of the Washtenaw County T.B. Association, as well as the national groups.

The current Christmas T.B. Seal sale will continue through the Christmas season. We urge you to send your contribution to the Washtenaw County T.B. Association, Ann Arbor, if your have not already done so.

A totalitarian state is one where everything is compulsory that is not forbidden.

★ Ticket to Bethlehem

Paul and Chris Lynn were delivering eggs to their customers on the Saturday after Sputnik I leaped into the sky—and into the headlines. At one house, a grandfather who has dim eyes but a keen mind joined the conversation with the comment: "Awesome, ain't it?"

There was some discussion of the wonder of it all, and then the old gentleman groped for his cane, stood erect, and started back to the kitchen. After a few steps he stopped and turned and remarked, "Not so awesome as God."

"That," says Paul Lynn, "put it in the right perspective for me."

Our national reaction to Sputnik was compounded of many elements, but there was too much injured pride in it to suit me. We hate to admit that there is any field in which we are not supreme. We hate to "knuckle under" to anybody.

Psychologists tell us that a little boy who makes a great effort to be a bully—or a little man who tries hard to be a big shot—does it because he feels little and insecure. They tell us that a mother who wants her child to be perfect may be doing it because she has doubts about her own achievements. Don't you suppose the same thing may be true of nations?

The trouble with pride is that it centers attention on ourselves, and thus blinds us to the basic fact of the universe: the awesomeness of God. And it is pride that keeps us from seeing that the awesomeness of God is not revealed in cataclysmic explosions or supersonic speeds, but in the birth of a baby in Bethlehem.

And how can we get to Bethlehem?

We are told that wise men bought expensive camels and spent valuable time and asked searching questions and kept on looking until they found the secret they sought: the price of a ticket to Bethlehem is to be willing to kneel.

We who hate to "knuckle under" find it distasteful to kneel—especially in front of a manger. We hate to admit that there are occasions when we are powerless. We have a feeling that if we could just find the right "How To" book, we could take care of ourselves.

We're quite clever, but God is wiser.

We're rather generous, but God is kinder.

We are almost masters of our fate (if it weren't for the Russians) but God is our real Master.

If we are wise men, we too may learn that the way to get to Bethlehem is on your knees.

Man of Bethlehem

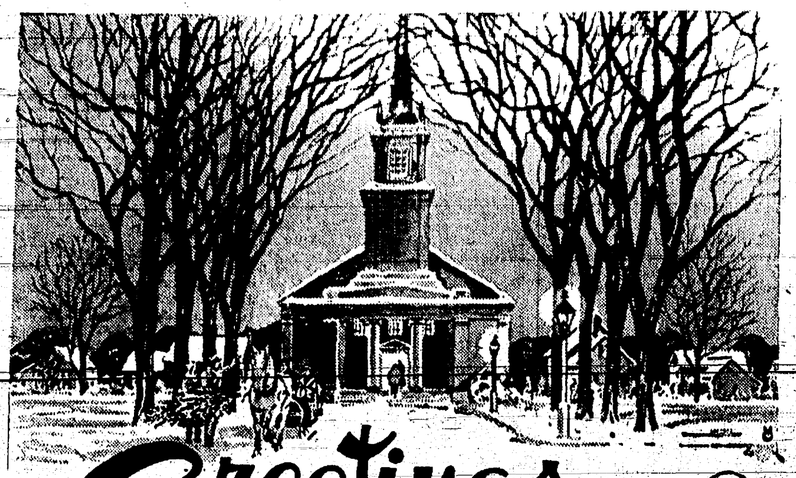

Jesus Christ is a God whom we can approach without pride, and before whom we may abase ourselves without despair.—Pascal.

As the print of the seal on the wax is the express image of the seal itself, so Christ is the express image—the perfect representation of God.—Ambrose.

The devotion to the person of Christ that steers clear of the doctrines and precepts of Christ, is but sentimental rhapsody. — Herrick Johnson.

This is part of the glory of Christ as compared with the chiefest of His servants that He alone stands at the absolute center of humanity, the one completely harmonious man, unfolding all which was in humanity, equally and full on all sides, the only one in whom the real and ideal met and were absolutely one. He is the absolute and perfect truth, the highest that humanity can reach; at once its perfect image and supreme Lord.—French.

Older workers may be better suited for many jobs in automated plants, a recent University of Michigan Press publication declares.

Greetings...

May the spirit of Christmas live in your heart and bring to you and your family enduring spiritual happiness. That is our wish for all our many friends for now and always.

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

This year Michigan is getting an early start with a special week May 4-10 to count its blessings. Previously, the promotion period came later in May.

The chesty robin will be joined by the symbol of the new Mackinac Straits Bridge as signs of the state's 1958 Michigan Week.

Water and education will be the dual themes of the 1958 celebration and the theme, "It's Great to Live in Michigan" will be retained.

Dwight Stocker of Kalamazoo said the education side of the theme will be emphasized inside the state and the water attractions of Michigan will be stressed beyond its borders.

"Education appeals to everyone living in Michigan and water appeals to residents of other states where that resource is not so plentiful," he said.

Edward J. Hekman of Grand Rapids has been named general chairman of the 1958 event which will picture Michigan as a state of business and industry, a playground and "a good place to live."

Chicago is the "villian" in a court drama with six states demanding that the city return the water it drains from Lake Michigan for sanitation purposes.

Involved are Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York—all protesting the loss of lake levels which threaten to damage hopes for the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Chicago started taking water out of Lake Michigan more than 50 years ago for two purposes.

The city used 1,500 feet per second for the Chicago Sanitary and Ship Canal to make it navigable. That has been the restriction since 1930.

Unlimited pumpage also has been used to run through the city's sanitation system. After it is used, the water goes into the Mississippi river through the canal.

Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh said the loss of the water to Chicago also threatens to reduce the value of resort property in bordering states, and hurt the development of electric power.

In addition, the states are asking that other cities bordering the Great Lakes, including Milwaukee and Toronto, be required to return the water they use for sanitation.

Justices of Michigan's Surpeme Court are taking long strides in exercising their discretionary control over lower courts.

They have scheduled a series of meetings with the judges of circuit courts to provide closer coordination of the state's judicial system.

The first meeting, at Saginaw, brought a blast from Justice Eugene F. Black, who charged that the Wayne county judges are taking excessive vacations and allowing their cases to backlog.

It started a furor, with judges denying their schedules of vacations are reducing the effectiveness of the bench.

The second meeting, with Upper Peninsula judges at Marquette, brought only a criticism of the state parole board whose policies, it was charged, keep state prisons overcrowded.

Observers stated that the Marquette meeting was less spectacular because Justice John Voelker, who presides, held a closed meeting with the jurists before letting the public listen.

He defended the move as "the right of the judges to get together."

Educators at the University of Michigan are ready to accept the challenge of Russian scientific advances with a special institute to carry the fight into the public school system.

The proposal, by a science advisory committee to Dr. Harlan Hatcher, of the U-M, was accepted by the Board of Regents.

The 1958 legislature will be asked for $2,870,000 as the first-year budget for the institute.

Dr. Hatcher said the institute would combine the talents of scientists in varied fields to concentrate their knowledge and training on education of youngsters in science.

The Kelly Greens, St. Mary's 1924 basketball team, will break the ice for the current season tomorrow night when they go to Jackson for the opening game of the season with St. John's Reserves. The line-up will be Hoffman, left forward; Wheeler, captain, right forward; Eisele, center; Conk, right guard; Eder, left guard; Robert Howe and John Keusch, substitutes.

Favored by the weatherman with an ideal program of snow and cold, Christmas day was quiet in Chelsea. Foremost in celebration of the Yuletide spirit were the churches which carried out the program of giving and receiving in both song and verse. During programs at the Congregational church and at St. Paul's church, the pastors, the Rev. E. L. Sutherland and the Rev. P. H. Grabowski, were presented with purses of money as gifts. At the Methodist church, the pastor, the Rev. C. S. Risley, was presented with an elegant dressed turkey and the implements for taking care of same—an elaborate carving set.

True Christmas Spirit Is Found in Sharing

FOR a really satisfying and meaningful Christmas, share yours with the old and feeble, the ill and shut-in, the bereaved whose sorrows you might lighten.

Unfortunately, all the flurry and preparation associated with Christmas are apt to make parents as well as children overlook the real significance of the coming birthday of Christ.

Merry Christmas

In the true Christmas spirit of joy and good will, we are happy to greet all our friends and wish everyone a glorious Holiday Season.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank everyone who remembered me with cards, flowers and good wishes for the holidays since I have been confined to my home by illness. Everything is deeply appreciated.
Mrs. Lula Scripter.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all those who sent cards, get-well messages, and those who came to call while I was in the VA hospital, Ann Arbor. All were greatly appreciated.
Robert Amstutz

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks and gratitude to the friends, relatives and neighbors who expressed sympathy by means of cards, plants, flowers and many acts of kindness during our recent bereavement; also, St. Mary Altar Society for their remembrance and the Chelsea Blood Bank, the Knights of Columbus and all who had contributed blood during the past six years. We deeply appreciate the thoughtfulness which prompted these kindnesses.
Family of Mrs. Fred P. Girard.

Christmas Tree Production

Long before your Christmas tree brightens your home it requires plenty of attention and care, including pruning to provide the proper shape. Growing and harvesting of these trees is a $5,000,000 industry. Michigan residents use an estimated 1,500,000 Christmas trees annually, of which about a million are grown in the state.

Merit Rating For Teachers Is Possible, If . . .

Ann Arbor—Seven basic conditions must be fulfilled before merit rating for teachers will work.

So says Howard R. Jones, professor of educational administration at the University of Michigan. The conditions:

1. "There must be a basic salary schedule available to all teachers continuing in service which is at a professional level and which takes into consideration today's living standards and high costs.
2. "There must be a willingness on the part of the instructional staff to assist in formulating the policies under which merit rating shall be initiated and a willingness to try a merit rating plan on an experimental basis.
3. "The factors of competencies which are to be appraised must be clearly stipulated and understood by all parties, together with the procedures to be followed.
4. "There must be an opportunity for all to qualify for higher salaries with no percentage restriction limiting increased salaries to a certain percentage of the teaching force.
5. "Merit rating for salary purposes must be part of a larger plan for instructional improvements. The focus must be kept on the education of children and young people. The school system must have a comprehensive plan fostering in-service growth.
6. "Administrators must set apart more time for working with teachers in improving the curriculum and in determining ways of appraising the outcomes of instruction.
7. "There must be definite provision for the periodic appraisal of the merit rating plan, its effectiveness and the attitudes it engenders."

Cattle bloat costs American farmers an estimated 40 million dollars a year. Keep a close watch on your cattle when they are first turned on pasture such as young alfalfa or Ladino clover.

Robert Mitchum's most important competition these days is his handsome 16-year-old son, Jim, who plays his dad's brother in "The Whippoorwill," a story about Southern moonshiners. Jim is so much like Bob, he could pass for his twin, except he's even taller.

Marlene Dietrich has signed a three-year contract for two appearances yearly at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas, for $600,000.

Molly Bee, the young singer who made such a hit with Tennessee Ernie on his daytime television show last year, has signed a contract at Universal-International. Molly, who is only 18, will receive a starting salary of $1,500 a week.

Mike Todd is loading his young wife Liz Taylor with diamonds. His most recent gift is a huge pair of diamond earrings Liz had admired on the Duchess of Kent. She was having them copied in rhinestone—not knowing her loving hubby was having them done in diamonds.

As soon as "Maybe Smith," is in the can, MacDonald Carey heads for New York to meet Bob Whitehead where they will discuss a deal for the male lead in "Goldilocks," a Broadway musical. You may remember that Carey was with Gertrude Lawrence in "Lady In the Dark" some years back.

When Jerry Lewis' sponsors asked him what would make him happy when he signed his TV contract, he said he'd like a new car for each member of his staff. He got it—13 brand new cars, with the stipulation that they are to get a new one each year for five years—when his contract runs out.

In order to get into the Oscar race, Metro may rush "Brothers Karamazov" into the theaters before the end of this year. Those who saw the preview say it is just about the best thing MGM has done in a long time.

Brian Keith will co-star with Richard Denning in Robert Stabler's production "Desert Hell," for Twentieth Century-Fox.

Hungry Holiday

ON Christmas Eve, Nancy hurried breathlessly into her rooming house. Surely the package from home would be there! But Mrs. Groggins, the ugly little landlady, shook her head.

"Nothing," she said. "The mailman went right by this afternoon."

Up in her room Nancy spent a lonesome Christmas Eve. She read awhile to forget her hunger, then went to bed. Next morning it was the destitute Mrs. Wilson who awakened her.

"Merry Christmas, Miss Bell!" she shouted, walking into the room uninvited. Nancy was irritated, momentarily, by this highly painted, shallow creature. But she quickly regained her composure. It was Christmas, after all!

"It was swell of you, dearie, to [illegible] a week's rent in advance last night," Mrs. Wilson said, settling herself into the most comfortable chair. "I don't know what would have happened, because I'm caught a bit short just now and couldn't pay!"

Nancy thought fast.

Nancy said it was all right, that she had been glad to do it, but then she felt hungry and remembered there had been no dinner—and now no breakfast. All because of Mrs. Wilson!

"I was just about to drop out for a bite to eat," her visitor explained, "and seeing you're all alone, I thought you might like to come along."

Nancy remembered the lone 25-cent piece in her purse. "Thank you so kindly, Mrs. Wilson," she answered quickly. "But I'm—I'm not feeling so well this morning. I'll just have a cup of coffee in my room!"

About noon she dressed, for Jim was calling for her at one o'clock. What a ravenous appetite she would have.

But one o'clock passed, and no Jim. Nor at 2 or 3, and Nancy's spirits began to give way. Had he, too, chosen to punish her on Christmas?

Downstairs she heard Mr. and Mrs. Groggins welcoming their guests for the day, and she took a vicarious pleasure from it. She heard the dinner bell, the clatter of dishes as they dined, and then the shuffling of chairs as the well-fed guests retired to the living room. By that time it was five o'clock and Nancy sat by her window, figuratively biting her fingernails. She was almost hysterical with fear, and she began to worry.

At six o'clock she put on her coat and dashed down the stairs, headed she knew not where. Perhaps to find Jim, perhaps merely to escape her room. She reached the entrance, turned the knob and pulled open the door—and there was Jim, just arriving!

Tearfully she threw herself into his arms, shivering from fright. "Oh, Jim!" she cried. "Where have you been?"

"But didn't you get my message?" he asked, "I had to work in the laboratory this afternoon, and telephoned Mrs. Groggins at 12:30!" His brow was furrowed.

Just then there was a voice behind them. "Miss Bell!" It was Mrs. Groggins. "A message for you. It came just before dinner, but then our guests arrived and I didn't get around to bringing it up."

Nancy took the slip from her hand, wiping away a tear. She heard Jim cursing.

"Let's get out of here, honey," he said, quietly.

A short time later they were dining by candlelight while a string ensemble played soft Christmas music in the background. Jim looked up from his coffee and smiled, then reached into his pocket.

"There was a big package on your desk at the office," he said. "It came today. From your folks, I guess. Too big to carry with me, but maybe this will take its place."

He reached for her left hand, then for the second finger, and at its tip he poised a diamond ring. Then he looked at her, asking assent.

"Yes, darling," she said softly. "It's the merriest Christmas ever!"

Egyptians Made Elaborate Dolls For Children

No one knows for sure who made the first doll, but it can be assumed the earliest figures were sacred—gods and ancestor images. These doll-like forms were not toys for the delight of children, but solemn religious figures that preserved the tribe from harm.

Then, somehow, somewhere, a change took place. Dolls became a toy for girls and the most popular Christmas toy of them all.

Dolls have been discovered in Egyptian tombs and ruins, some even had real hair; some were ivory, carved by craftsmen for a king's daughter; others were made of straw by an overworked mother in a peasant's hut.

In ancient Greece dolls were played with and cherished by little girls until they were ready to be married. Then (their dolls were taken to the shrine of a favorite goddess) and, often with tears, presented to her. The Roman children played with dolls, too, but after the fall of the Empire there came a long period in which there is no record of dolls.

Not until the thirteenth century when dolls were made in Nuremberg and dressed in the fashions of the times did little girls again play with dolls. They were here to stay.

By and by in Europe, the French fashion dolls became all the rage, not for children to play with but as models from which fine ladies could pattern their own modish costumes.

In America, the Indian children had dolls of their own made of rawhide and feathers and wood. Pioneer children had dolls much like these, and some were made of braided cornhusks, or nuts, or corncobs, or rags, and were dearly loved in spite of their plainness.

Much later, lifelike dolls were imported from Germany, where the doll industry had reached enormous proportions. These dolls had fine china heads with carefully painted faces and kid bodies that were jointed at the arms and legs. Later there came the Japanese-made dolls, which were inexpensive enough for almost any child to own. Then the American-made dolls began to appear—the special dolls, the kewpies, billikens, Buster Browns, teddy bears, Patsy dolls and Shirley Temples and phonograph dolls, with all the host of others that have followed and which are still to come. For dolls always will be part of childhood and part of Christmases as long as there are little girls and boys to play with them, and parents and fond kinfolk to buy.

Burial Place of Santa Said to Be in Italy

SANTA CLAUS, otherwise St. Nicholas, otherwise the one-time bishop of Myra in Asia Minor, is buried in Bari, Italy. His body was stolen from its original tomb in Myra and swiftly borne to Bari by Italian sailors, who thought back in 1087 that a saint's body brought prosperity and good luck to your town.

St. Nicholas, who was tortured and imprisoned for his faith during the reign of Emperor Diocletian, found no rest in his first tomb at Myra. Always some expedition was attempting to remove his remains.

However, once buried again in Bari, the saint's body was credited with curing 30 people of distemper and performing other miracles. So Bari became a place of pilgrimage, and the legends about St. Nicholas multiplied apace.

We owe our notion of Santa Claus as a secret dispenser of gifts to a story that St. Nicholas once saved three girls from a life of prostitution by throwing purses of gold through a window in Patara, thus permitting a poverty stricken nobleman to give his daughters suitable dowries as custom demanded.

In addition, St. Nicholas was credited with restoring life to some boys who had been slain and dismembered by a wicked innkeeper of Myra—hence the occasional stained glass windows in which the saint is shown beside three lads in a tub.

TIME OUT . . . Santa Claus pauses in his Christmas Eve visits sometimes to pick up a hot dog and ice cream cone at an all-night hamburger stand.

Only persons who have been dead for ten years can qualify for election to the Hall of Fame.

The pleasure is all ours when it comes to thanking our many kind friends and patrons and wishing them the best of everything throughout the holiday season!

LITTLE FAULTS

It's generally a chain of circumstances that shows up the weak link in a man's character.

SANTA VISITS GOODWILL WORKSHOP—Geraldine Pensler, four years old, of Detroit, was one of 260 children of Goodwill Industries workers who met Santa Claus on his early visit to the Goodwill plant. Santa, host at an open house for the handicapped employees and their families, had gifts for everyone. He promised a return trip to the homes of all handicapped employees on Christmas day, but intimated that this might be dependent on the good will of the public to Goodwill Industries. Leaving an open letter to the public, he said: "A seasonal drop in the collection of discards has endangered steady employment at Goodwill, and unless there is a decided increase in the collection of clothing the jobs of the handicapped are endangered." He promised a spiritual reward for any practical help given Goodwill employees in the form of usable discards so that they may continue to help themselves.

PNG CLUB

Mrs. Donovan Sweeny and Mrs. Gale Gilson were hostesses for the Christmas party of the Past Noble Grands club of Rebekah Lodge. Held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Sweeny there were 21 members present.

"Secret Pills" of the past year were revealed in an exchange of Christmas gifts. Those who had anonymously remembered the club members whose names they had received in a secret drawing last year, with birthday, anniversary and other gifts include their names in the final gift—the Christmas remembrance — before drawing names for the coming year.

Mrs. Sweeny and Mrs. Gilson served a dessert supper at Wednesday's party.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Hoffman with Mrs. Evelyn Rowe as co-hostess.

One-third of the requests for teachers handled by the University of Michigan mentioned salaries of less than $5,500 per year during 1956-57.

CENTRAL CIRCLE

Central Circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church combined a regular meeting with the annual Christmas party Wednesday, Dec. 18, at the home of Mrs. Watson Hart. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the decorations including a Christmas tree.

Following a brief business session conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Helen Kilmer, a Christmas program was presented by Mrs. Harry Litteral and Mrs. Charles Finkbeiner.

An exchange of Christmas gifts and the serving of refreshments concluded the meeting.

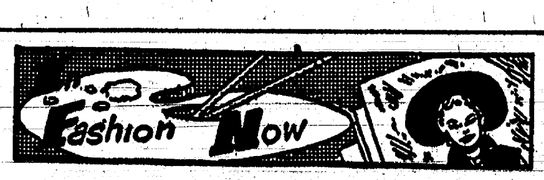

Look for Underwriters Seal of Approval When Buying Home Appliance

Lansing—Look for the seal of approval before buying appliances or other merchandise operated by electricity or gas, the Michigan Department of Health recommended today.

Electrical equipment bearing the Underwriters' Laboratories seal of approval can be used with safety, the department said. The seal indicates there is no danger of electrical shock in normal use.

Cooking stoves, space heaters and other gas devices which carry the approval of the American Gas Association can be used with safety, the department added.

The seals of both the Underwriters' Laboratories and the American Association indicate, the health department said, that the item approved has been rigorously examined by an independent testing laboratory and has been found safe.

The keynote of fashion today is not just how smart-looking or becoming a certain style trend is but equally important is comfort and ease.

The jersey dress, tweed suit, and coat that goes-with-everything are important factors in every woman's fashion picture.

The crepe shirtwaist dress has come back and is one of the popular casuals of the season. It often has its own huge-knit, great-sweater of the same color.

Softly pleated skirts of wool plaid are popular campus fare. They are seen as part of a suit or as the skirt style of a shirtwaist dress.

The dress with a jacket is favored by a great many women, who feel they can't wear suits. Contrasting material is new, such as a jersey dress with a tweed jacket.

A short checked reefer or one made of flannel makes a wonderful car coat. These coats have a young look but are as good on grandmother as on a teen-ager.

St. Paul's Junior Choir Entertained at Dinner

Members of the Junior Choir at St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church were entertained at a dinner in the church hall Thursday evening. Hostess for the dinner was Eleanor Schmidt, choir director, assisted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schmidt.

SYLVAN EXTENSION CLUB

Friday, Dec. 20, in the gaily decorated home of Mrs. Douglas Hoppe, members of Sylvan Extension club held their Christmas party.

"Mystery sisters" were identified in a gift exchange.

Mrs. A. Penhallegon was welcomed into the group as a new member.

Seasonal refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will take place Thursday, Jan. 16, at the home of Mrs. Leon Sanderson, 2517 Notten road.

ROGERS CORNERS FARM BUREAU

Rogers Corners Farm Bureau group held a Christmas party and supper Saturday, Dec. 14, at Pleasant Lake school. There were 75 present.

A Christmas program was given those participating included Leonard Stark of Ypsilanti who sang two solos, accompanied on the piano by his wife.

The supper committee included Mrs. Alton Grau, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huehl and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buss.

Christmas Tree May Become Fire Hazard If Not Handled Properly

Lansing—A Christmas tree can be a serious fire hazard to your home if not handled properly, the state health department reminded Michigan residents today.

The department said at least three things can be done to reduce the danger of indoors Christmas tree fires:

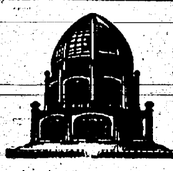

1—Set the tree in a container of water and keep the container filled. This will keep the tree from drying out. A dry tree burns with explosive suddenness.

2—Keep open flames, such as from candles, away from the tree. Also make sure that lights and electrical devices used in decorating the tree are in good repair and aren't shorting or overheating.

3—Spray the tree with one of the new chemical fire retardants now on the market. The spray will not make the tree completely fireproof, but it will make it fire resistant.

St. Barnabas . . .

project is another way that St. Barnabas prepares for Christmas.

On Thursday, Dec. 19, at the church, the Women's Guild and the church school provided the setting for the annual children's Christmas party. It started at 7 p.m. with carols, and included games, a cake symbolizing Christ's birthdate, refreshments and a present for the children. All of the church family was invited and the adults had as much fun as the children.

On. Dec. 23, the young people of the church exchanged gifts at Dorothy Brown's house on new US-12. The Christmas party began at 7:30 p.m.

On Christmas eve, in order to keep the family together at their annual Christmas Holy Communion, there will be two Eucharists offered this year. One will start at 7:15 with carols, the Communion beginning at 7:30 and the second service will start at 10:45 p.m. with the Communion starting at 11:00 p.m. The Reverend Stanley D. Dodge, Saint Andrew's Church, Ann Arbor, will be the celebrant and will preach. He will be assisted by the vicar. Families with young children will probably attend the 7:30 p.m. service and adults without young children will probably attend the later service. The junior choir, will sing an offertory at the first service and the young people's choir will sing the offertory at the 'midnight' service.

Christmas day St. Barnabas will have a Morning Prayer service at 9:30 a.m. This begins the Christmastide and will continue through until Jan. 6, the Feast of the Epiphany, when the 12 days of Christmas end and the season of the Manifestation to the Gentiles begins.

JOLLY SIXTEEN CLUB

Gifts were exchanged by the members and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Prizewinners were Mrs. Henry Niehaus and William Stark, high; and Mrs. Paul Feldkamp and Wilbert Koengeter, consolation.

Christmas of Grandpa's Day

Christmas and toys always have meant joyful children. That was as true with yesterday's children as today. Above, Don Dickerson and Ann Corwell, both 9, recapture a happy Christmas day of the late nineteenth century in the Henry Ford Museum's annual holiday exhibit. But while children, Christmas tree, toys and living room are still the essential features, time has brought changes to all. The old-time tree decorations are candles, strings of popcorn and cranberries, hand-blown glass ornaments and decorated cookies. The toys, many of them wood, are largely hand-made. Main feature of the Victorian living room is the high, wooden fireplace with its ornate knick-knacks and of course the children's stockings. Naturally, the children's clothes also have changed. The Ford Museum exhibit, showing toys and dolls of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, continues through the holidays.

U-M Freshman Sought Straw Tick As Christmas Gift

Ann Arbor—All I want for Christmas is a nice straw bed.

That's the substance of a letter written by Hugh Byron Alexander, of Geneva, Ill., who entered the University of Michigan as a freshman in the fall of 1865. His correspondence is preserved in the University's Michigan Historical Collections.

Hugh wrote to his mother on Dec. 16, 1866: "My mattress is not the softest in the world. I think a straw bed added to it would be a little better. If you want to make me a Christmas present you can do it up in a bed tick and send it per express and I shall be sure to get it. A blanket would not come amiss either these cold nights.

This is followed up by a somewhat more familiar request: "I have spent so murh of late that I have not $10 to my name. A slight lift of a $50 bill would be very thankfully received. Robinson (his roommate, later president of the Mexico Central Railway Co.) says it costs us less than $2 a week for provisions, lights and wood so that my whole expenses, leaving out books and clothes can't be over $3 a week."

Hugh's mother, evidently a stern disciplinarian, sent the $50 and the blanket but had some admonitions to offer on the subject of sleeping soft. She wrote: "Now I suppose you will live high but I guess you won't sleep very soft. Pity you didn't take your little feather bed and get a cot made. Well, you may comfort yourself with the thought that Napoleon and Wellington both preferred hard beds, at least used them, and it is said the Duke's was so narrow that he couldn't 'turn over' but had to 'turn out.'"

Maybe not so hard-hearted after all, mother included the usual food offerings. In 1869 Hugh received the degrees of civil engineer and mining engineer from the U-M.

Mr. and Mrs. Armin Schneider, Mrs. Henry Schneider and Mrs. D. R. Hoppe planned to spend Christmas in Ypsilanti with the Foster-Fletcher family.

Margaret Boehm of Saginaw, arrived Monday to spend the holidays with her mother and aunt, Mrs. Peter Boehm and Miss Grace Ward.

Aliens Must Report Address in January

Walter A. Sahli of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service stated that the period within which aliens must report their address is almost at hand.

The month of January has been set for the address reporting period. All aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, must report their address to the Government during that period.

Sahli said that forms with which to make the report will be available to all post offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January.

Christmas is expected to be a happy occasion at the J. V. Burg home when their seven children and their families, including the 27 grandchildren, will be present for the day. The family includes the Dudley Fosters, Duane Rowes, Henry Ortbrings, Rolland Spauldings and J. V. Burgs, II, all of Chelsea, and the Colin Lannings of Cleveland, O., and Thomas Guileys of Berkley.

So the Holy Book tells us of shepherds who watched by night,

Description of District:

This district is composed of rural residential areas in the Township without urban services, some of which are adjacent to lakes and streams, where low density single-family residential development has occurred or appears likely to occur. The regulations for this district are designed to protect and stabilize the essential characteristics of these areas and to promote and encourage a suitable and safe environment for family life. To these ends, development is restricted to low density residential settlement consistent with limited, rural type public facilities and services and public health and safety considerations. Land uses involving higher population densities and requiring higher levels of public services and facilities such as multiple dwellings and trailer parks are deemed to be in conflict with the characteristics and purposes of this district and are excluded.

Certain land uses, because of their particular characteristics, requires detailed consideration in order to determine whether or not they may be detrimental to the public welfare and to adjacent property. Because of the special characteristics of such uses the proposed conditions of operation, design, size and intensity of use, traffic volume and access, population density, processes and equipment employed, amount of public facilities and services required and other factors must be considered in relation to the intent and purposes of this Ordinance. Such uses are therefore designated as conditional uses.

SECTION 10.01—AUTHORITY

SECTION 10.03—DATA REQUIRED IN APPLICATION

An application for a conditional use permit shall contain the applicant's name in full; a statement that the applicant is the owner of the property involved or is acting on the owner's behalf; the appli-

If the facts in the case establish that the required findings cannot be made and will not be applicable to the proposed use, the Zoning Board shall not grant a conditional use permit. If the facts in the case establish that the required findings can be made and will be applicable to the proposed use, the Zoning Board shall grant a conditional use permit. In the granting of any conditional use permit the Zoning Board shall impose such conditions of use as it deems necessary to protect the best interest of the Township and the surrounding property and to achieve the objectives of this Ordinance, and the breach of any such condition shall automatically invalidate the permit therefor.

SECTION 10.7—
REAPPLICATION

No application for a conditional use permit which has been denied wholly or in part by the Zoning Board shall be resubmitted for a period of one (1) year from such denial, except on grounds of new evidence or proof of changed conditions found by the Zoning Board to be valid.

B. That such variance is necessary for the preservation of a substantial property right belonging to other property in the same district.

C. That the granting of such variance will not be materially detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to the property or improvements in the vicinity or in the district in which the property of the applicant is located.

OPERATING BEFORE SPUTNIK:

MSU Science, Mathematics Teaching Center Encourages Scientific Pursuits

East Lansing—Michigan State University's Science and Mathematics Teaching Center, organized in the pre-Sputnik days of April 1957, is planning a series of programs aimed at helping to close the gap in science education in Michigan.

For the first time a two-week conference for selected high school sophomores and juniors, which will permit them to observe scientists and mathematicians at work, is being planned for next summer.

A summer institute for community-junior college science and mathematics teachers is scheduled for the summer months.

A series of school-and-industry science fairs is being planned in several Michigan counties.

These events, together with the continued backing and promotion of the Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS), organized at MSU in 1950, represents a concentrated effort to stimulate interest and participation in science scholarship throughout Michigan trated effort to stimulate interest

"We got off the ground before Sputnik and are not a part of any 'crash program' idea," stressed Dr. Frederic B. Dutton.

Dr. Dutton, professor of chemistry at MSU, is head of the science center which was established in April 1957 under a co-operative agreement between the College of Science and Arts and the College of Education.

"The science center is serving as a communications link between resources at Michigan State University and teachers of science and mathematics in the schools," he explained.

Dr. Dutton hopes to obtain from industry scholarship funds for high school students who could not otherwise take part in the summer program, which will be conducted without benefit of National Science Foundation funds.

A grant of $47,000 from the National Science Foundation will finance the national institute for community-junior college science and mathematics teachers which is planned to coincide with the regular six-week MSU summer session of 1958.

"Experiences of high school sophomores and juniors in observing and actually taking part in what MSU scientists and mathematicians are doing would not only interest students in science but would help them in making their vocational decisions," Dr. Dutton declared.

"They either would find science and mathematics exciting and intriguing and want to learn more, or they would know these fields are not for them. It is necessary for young people to find this out early enough to take the right preparatory science and mathematics courses."

Dr. Dutton emphasized the point-of-view that there should be no effort to "shanghai" all of the bright students into science and mathematics—that it is necessary and important to maintain a balance between non-scientific and scientific learning.

He does not believe the "crash program" method is the right approach in educating young people and advocates instead a "sustained effort" in learning over a long period of time.

"We know so little of the capacity of the gifted youngster," he noted. "A youngster should be identified with science at the seventh or eighth grade level, if not before, following through with science and mathematics courses in junior college and senior college.

Dr. Dutton said mathematics curriculums are now undergoing careful examination in schools throughout the country.

"The emphasis on manipulative skills is being replaced by an effort to challenge the youngster with an idea of the power of mathematics in solving problems," he said: "Mathematics no longer is taught simply as a pre-requisite to science but as a foundation for the biological and social sciences.

"Many youngsters do not understand and learn their arithmetic because the elementary teachers are insecure in it and cannot teach it with enthusiasm. They transfer their own dislike to their students."

To encourage and promote better science teaching in Michigan, to assist in recruiting science and mathematics teachers and to correlate, encourage and sponsor science fairs, scholarship competition, science clubs and other activities related to the science teaching programs of Michigan schools are just a few of the functions of the MSU science center.

A typical science club is an organization called Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS), organized by MSU in 1950. The JETS are doing in engineering what 4-H and FFA clubs have done in agriculture. The program now includes 183 clubs in 30 states and two foreign countries and has an active membership of more than 6,000 boys and girls.

Interest in an "Industry-Science Fair" is gathering momentum in Berrien county, where George Cornwell, New Troy science teacher, is promoting the event to display science projects of high school students in Southwestern Michigan.

Cornwell, an MSU graduate, attended the National Science Foundation Institute on the campus last summer. He says that teachers at more than 50 per cent of Berrien county's high schools have expressed interest in the proposed fair, and two major Berrien county industries, and possibly a third, have also indicated they would participate. Industrial science exhibits will be welcome, according to Mr. Cornwell.

The Science and Mathematics Teaching Center is located in the new library building on the MSU campus.

"We want to serve the teachers of Michigan in any way we can, and we urge them to write, telephone or—best of all—come and talke to us personally," Dr. Dutton said.

"Here at the center we are attempting to assemble a collection of materials which we hope is large and diversified enough so that any teacher can find something new. We have available an assortment of 'experts' in many fields on the campus, with whom we can consult on science and education."

OFFICER SHORTAGE.

The Army is facing a shortage of qualified young officers due to the high resignation rate particularly among West Pointers, according to a top manpower officer. Lieut. Gen. Donald P. Booth, the Army's Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, listed higher "material rewards" in civilian life as a main reason why junior officers and some higher brass are leaving the Army.

WHAT DO YOU SEE AT CHRISTMAS?

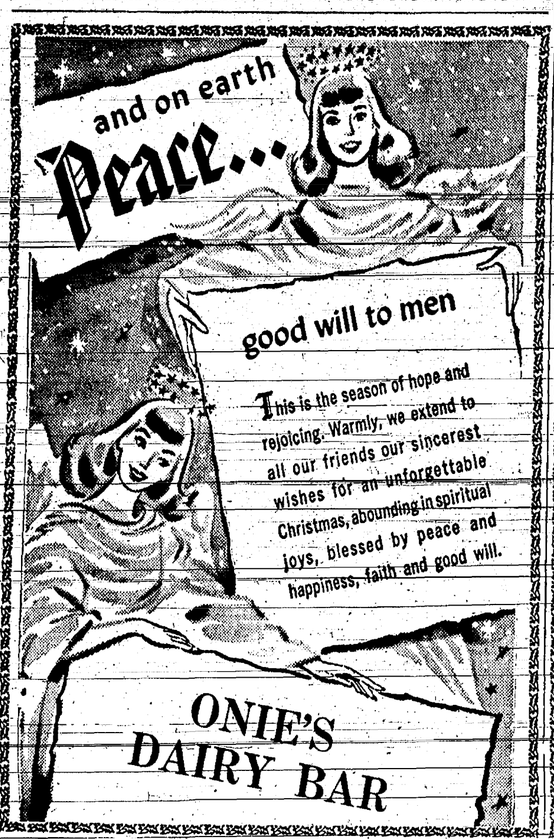

There are a lot of things about Christmas that everybody sees. The colored lights. The Christmas trees. The store decorations. The counters filled with dazzling gifts. Homes decorated, streets decorated.

Everybody sees Christmas cards, bells, and street corner Santas. There are carol singers, mistletoe, holly and evergreen wreaths. We see hurrying crowds of shoppers, enlarged toy departments in stores, overloaded mail trucks, express packages piled high beside the trains.

We see fires in the hearth, stockings hung with care, tables laden with good things to eat. And they are all a part of Christmas.

But all of these things are often too easy for us to see. Perhaps this year we should look extra hard for the "Spirit of Christmas." Let's look for the great amount of good in all people; it shines best at Christmas time. Let's look at the faces of little children for the real happiness of Christmas. Let's look out for the needs of less fortunate people, the shut-ins, the lonely, the unfortunate.

And this year, let's try once again to see the real meaning of Christmas—its religious significance. Its message of peace and hope for the world. Let's really see Christmas this year.

BROWN'S WELDING

The Mystery of God's Firmament

THE "STAR" which signaled "the First Christmas" may be interpreted in many ways. In all such interpretations we must put ourselves as nearly as possible into the social and psychological frame of mind of those whom we try to understand. The astronomer knows that through the ages the word "star" has been used to indicate almost any celestial phenomenon. We still speak of "falling stars" or "shooting stars" which we know quite well are not stars at all. In more ancient times the comet was called a "hairy star" and was derived from the Latin word coma, meaning hair. The planets were the "wandering stars" as opposed to the "fixed stars," and from the Greek word for wanderer we derive our word "planets."

The Star of Bethlehem could have been any of these. It could even have been a "new star" or nova which suddenly burst forth with a many-thousand-fold increase in brilliance, due to some great stellar catastrophe. These are all explanations of what the "star" could have been. Had it been any of the above, it would have been seen by many peoples, and in literature would have been found references to the appearance of the object which attracted attention. But nowhere in the literature or in the folklore of any of the peoples noted as astute observers of celestial phenomena do these references exist.

From this we are forced to conclude the appearance of the star was a sight given only to the Wise Men to see.

Sewing Basket Can Be Source for Gift Wrapping Ideas

Your sewing basket can be a treasure chest for Christmas gift-wrapping ideas, says Jane Graff, home furnishings extension specialist at Michigan State University. You can use yarn, buttons and even hooks and eyes to make your gifts extra special this year.

Yarn is wonderfully versatile. Miss Graff suggests making a Christmas tree oitline with green yarn or using a cluster of yarn pompoms instead of a bow on your package. Colors are almost limitless and you can let your imagination run wild. A little glue holds them in place.

Buttons are nice for a gift of clothing for the man in your house. String rows of them together with yarn, use large one for a border or make a design that's all your own out of them. Children enjoy yarn dolls with button eyes. You might try making some for your children and attaching them to the bow on a package.

On a narrow gift package for the "gal" members of the family, you may like to run a single strip of ribbon down the center of the package and glue large hooks and eyes across it.

If you don't want to spend a lot of money for ribbon this year, try using strips of material cut out of calico with pinking shears. Remember to choose a small pattern because a large one will be too large in scale for most packages.

A gift wrapping is most successful if it has only one center of interest. For this reason, cluttering a package with many little items makes it messy rather than interesting. Choose one item such as the buttons. Make it look important by stringing them on a brilliant colored yarn and then placing the string on a strip of bright paper that contrasts with the package, suggests Miss Graff.

The Santa Legend Should Be Explained, Psychologist Says

"CHILDREN enjoy Santa Claus more when they know what he really is," Duke University psychologist Dr. Gelolo McHugh says.

"No one enjoys finding out that he has been kept in the dark," says the specialist in child psychology, "and children are no exception." The real meaning of Santa Claus is the joy of giving to make others happy, says Dr. McHugh, and no child should be deprived of this privilege.

Later parents have the difficult job of explaining that there is no jolly old Christmas man, Dr. McHugh points out. When the truth comes out the parent has placed himself in the position of being responsible for Santa's disappearance.

Santa should be a part of Christmas, however, Dr. McHugh believes, but from the very beginning, he should be treated as a wonderful pretend game. This method has proved successful with many children, the specialist says, including his own two young boys.

Children, who love to make-believe, are perfectly capable of enjoying Santa, reindeer, chimneys and all, while knowing in their hearts, when they stop to ask themselves, that he is a pretend person, he says.

The child who takes part in the Santa game doesn't have to wonder on Christmas morning why Santa didn't like him well enough to bring the expensive toys that were ordered from the North Pole, the psychologist points out.

The young Indianapolis mother who recently wrote a Christmas letter for her 5-year old son just before her death in an airplane crash, had wonderful understanding, Dr. McHugh says. She ended her letter by telling her little son that "anyone who loves and gives is real Santa."

CHRISTMAS EVE IN OLDTIME FINLAND

The Christmas Eve bath was quite a tradition in Finland before the advent of modern plumbing.

The oldtime Finnish bath-room was usually a three-room hut; one room was used for steaming and scrubbing, one for rubbing, and one for dressing.

The hut was warmed by a stone oven, heated for hours before the scheduled bath, and the "bath-room" was really steaming. After bathing came the rub-down and the switching of the body with birch twigs to increase the circulation, topped off by a roll in the snow, supposedly to whet the appetite for Christmas Eve supper.

For supper there was usually stockfish and prune tarts to be enjoyed, plus the traditional barley porridge in which cream and sugar and almonds were mixed.

After supper the boys and men matched their strength: while the girls—garbed in the men's work clothes—blackened their faces and stole away to visit other homes incognito and "see Christmas." The girls never spoke nor accepted food, but went from house to house merely to watch the festivities.

And when the evening's festivities were over, the smaller children made their beds in the clean straw spread on the floor in commemoration of the Christ Child.

Indestructible Mistletoe

The flame-thrower and atomic energy — lethal instruments borrowed from modern warfare—are out to kill that ancient symbol of peacemaking and love, the Christmas mistletoe.

The unusual battle front is Australia where too many valuable trees each year have been receiving the kiss of death from the harmless looking shrub. Despite mistletoe's popular reputation as the Yuletide promoter of romance, it is a public-enemy-parasite in the woodlands, killing off the trees that play it host.

Australian foresters have finally resorted to the flame-thrower as a quick executioner for the plant and are using radio-active tracers, furnished by the U.S. atomic energy commission, to study how the mistletoe sips the water and mineral salts from the trees, starving them to death.

History of Christmas Seals

When you see the Christmas seal do you ever wonder how it started?

It was born in Denmark, home of the fairy tales of Hans Christian Anderson.

Einar Holboell, a Copenhagen postal clerk, was sorting mail one snowy afternoon before Christmas, 1903, when he thought of the idea of a penny stamp to swell a fund for children's hospitals.

Authorized by King Christian, the first Christian seals were sold in Copenhagen in 1904.

Holboell's scheme outgrew his wildest imaginings, for before his death in 1927, he lived to see it spread to 45 countries.

The seals found their way to America on letters and packages and first attracted the attention of Jacob Riis who wrote an article about them. Few people, however, were interested in the idea.

Then, in the autumn of 1907, Emily Bissell, a public health worker, concerned about the fate of a small sanatorium, recalled the article and sat down to sketch America's first Christmas seal, a wreath of holly encircling the words "Merry Christmas."

With 50,000 stamps printed and nowhere to sell them, Miss Bissell at last enlisted the aid of a columnist on a Philadelphia newspaper. The idea caught and within a few weeks $3,000 was collected.

The first nation-wide sale was held the following year and was backed by newspapers all over the country, religious and civic groups, and sponsored by the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis association.

Seen any automobile accidents lately? If not, the reason probably lies in the fact that "driver ed." students are learning to prevent them and to drive safely. The past fornight has been devoted to parking, referred to in the course as the "Waterloo of driving." When school resumes in January, students will go driving only once more. This jaunt will be a two-hour drive to Ann Arbor. All hope by then to have polished their driving techniques to perfection.

Are you getting the most out of your freezer? There is a great deal to learn about the art of freezing foods properly.

Take freezing pies for example; pies should be frozen before they are baked. They should then be baked before they are defrosted. This prevents the undercrust from becoming soggy. Make your deep-dish pies for freezing with no undercrust. Do not cut vent holes in the top of a pie until you are ready to bake.

Custard pies do not freeze well so you had best skip them. Meringue has a tendency to shrink during freezing.

Cakes on the other hand, take to freezing very well, either before or after baking. However, if a baked cake is left in the freezer too long, it will become dry.

Angel and sponge cakes should be frozen only after baking.

Cake frostings made from powdered sugar and butter freeze very well. Seven-minute frostings become frothy and spongy when frozen.

Freezing fresh fruits and vegetables in season can be a money, as well as a time, saver. You can buy when the crop is plentiful and buy in quantity to cut cost. The important thing to remember is to buy only those foods recommended for freezing.

Freeze only perfect fruits and vegetables. The others will not be worth your time or money. The best are barely mature and fresh from the garden.

Get your foods into the freezer within two hours after picking, if possible.

Wrap and seal carefully. Try not to trap any air inside. Use freezer tape or freezer rubber bands. The label should name the food—and give the date of packaging.

If sold for the value of its chemical elements, the human body would be worth about 98 cents.

Simple Dessert Party Enjoyed by Guests At Holiday Time

The Christmas holidays provide many occasions for delightful entertaining and hospitality. Chances are you've already started thinking about all the friends you would like to have over during the Christmas season.

Keep your party plans simple, advises Anita Dean, extension specialist in foods at Michigan State University.

A dessert party is especially easy to plan and serve. Remember your guests have already eaten their dinner at home so keep servings of rich desserts small. Better still, let them cut a serving to match their appetite. Many people appreciate this opportunity.

Make your favorite cake, pie or torte. If possible choose a dessert which can be made ahead of time. Frozen, ice box and gelatin desserts are good choices. This gives you more time to visit with your friends. After all that's the real reason for having a party.

Appetites are apt to dwindle as the Christmas season progresses and too many rich foods have been served. You may decide to serve an attractive fruit salad with finger sandwiches or a fruit and cheese plate.

Whichever type of dessert you choose, plan its preparation and service ahead of time. You'll find that you'll be enjoying your own party.

WORLD CROP OUTLOOK.

The world will set production records this year for hogs, soybeans and sugar beets, and a near record for corn. Below-record crops were indicated for cotton, cotton seed, wheat, barley and oats. The United States is in front in hog production, with an estimate of 84,000,000 head, compared with 18,700,000 for Western Germany, which is second.

CONSTRUCTION

The construction industry will score dollar volume records of about $47.5 billion this year and $49 billion next year, it is predicted. An increase of about 80,000 housing starts over the 1,000,000 for 1957 is seen as possible. Other private construction is expected to hold its own while public construction will continue to boom, with the only weakness being in military building.

To keep your Christmas a truly merry one, keep these don'ts in mind:

DON'T give children dangerous toys, or toys with sharp points. If they operate with electricity, be sure you supervise their use.

DON'T decorate the tree with lighted candles unless it's absolutely unavoidable.

DON'T place the tree near a stove or fireplace.

DON'T leave lighted tree unguarded at any time.

DON'T use a rickety, unsafe ladder in decorating the tree.

DON'T place Christmas candles near the tree, curtains, paper wreaths or other decorations.

DON'T overlook the opportunity to make your tree fire-resistant.

DON'T leave toys exposed where people can trip on them.

DON'T allow steps and sidewalks to become icy in cold weather.

DON'T drive recklessly.

The joy in wishing you a Merry Christmas can only be equaled in the pleasure of voicing our hope for your happiness and good health during the coming new year.

We Will Be Closed All Day Christmas.
