Kite Flying Contest Set For Saturday

Cub Scouts of Chelsea will participate in a kite contest to be held on the Darwin Downer farm on Freer road Saturday afternoon. In case of inclement weather the contest will be postponed until Saturday, April 12.

Sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, the contest offers cash prizes for the best constructed kite and for the kite that goes up the highest and flies the longest.

The first category prizes of $1.00 and $1.00 will be awarded for first, second and third place winners, respectively, and 50 cents each for two honorable mention awards.

To determine the winner of the highest-flying kite, the contest will be divided into three groups. Winner of first place in each of the three groups will compete for first, second and third prize awards of $2.00, $1.50 and $1.00.

The contest will begin at 1:30 p.m.

This is the first kite contest sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary under youth activities chairman, Mrs. Wayne Harvey. Assisting her are Mrs. Eric Brady of the Auxiliary, and Mac Packard, yard manager for Chelsea's Post 4076, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Each of the Cub Scouts who enters the contest must have made his own kite. The kite-making project has been underway for several weeks in preparation for Saturday's contest.

Grass Fires Keep Firemen On the Run

Grass fires have kept Chelsea firemen busy the past week, according to reports by Fire Chief Ted Balmer.

Beginning at 4:15 p.m. last Thursday, they responded to six calls for grass fires over the week-end.

The Thursday call was to the nearby field across from the Cavendish Lake store.

At 12:00 p.m. Saturday they responded when fire started on the David Haas property on Ivey road burned over grass on the Haas property and the neighboring Robert Moore and Allen Foster places.

Sunday at 1:45 p.m. they were called to the Raul E. Haas home at 13711 Old US-12 when a fire spread to the vicinity of a gas storage tank; at 2:30 p.m. to the D. A. Riker farm where grass caught fire when a cottage at the lake was burning leaves, and at 2 o'clock to the Tom Merkel property at 20080, US-12 West.

Monday at 8:30 p.m. firemen responded to the sixth call because of grass fires when conservation land appeared threatened by fire on the Wilbert Trinkle property on Chelsea-Dexter road.

Monday at 7:48 p.m. the department was made a run to the Harold Schauer home at 15892 Cotton road because of a chimney fire.

Learn Best Way To Report Fire Before It's Needed

One thing we can clean up during Chelsea's Spring Clean-Up campaign is any misunderstanding about the best way to report a fire in your home, says Fire Chief Ted Balmer.

"Reporting a fire properly and quickly very often means the difference between life and death, or between little damage and complete loss," he pointed out.

The rules he urges everyone to study and remember are these:

First and foremost, get everyone out of the house the instant you discover or suspect a fire.

Then report the fire—fast!

Make certain you know how to reach the fire department by phone. The number is GR 5-3451.

When you report a fire, remember to give (1) the street and number; (2) name of city or town; (3) what's burning; (4) your own name and phone number.

Don't assume someone else will report the fire—do it yourself.

Chief Balmer's final reminder is this: Be sure any baby sitters you leave in charge of children thoroughly understand these rules and have this information too.

Carr Named To Head PTA Another Year

The March meeting of the Chelsea PTA was well attended by an enthusiastic audience who heard an enlightening discussion of guidance and testing programs in the school.

Several announcements and decisions of importance were made in the business meeting conducted by the president, Gerald Carr.

There will be no PTA meeting in April. The elementary school's parent's night is scheduled for April 14.

The PTA will not sponsor a money-making project due to the fact that there is enough carry-over from last year's budget to finance this year's activities.

It was voted to sponsor the safety patrol boys to a ball game in Detroit and the safety patrol girls to a swimming party.

The nominating committee presented a slate of officers for the next term. The slate was unanimously accepted by those present.

Elected officers are Gerald Carr, who will serve his second term as president; Jack Good, vice-president; Mrs. Philip Rusten, secretary; and Mrs. W. J. Hayes, treasurer.

The timely discussion on testing and guidance drew great interest as evidenced by the extended question and answer period.

James Johnson, consultant and guidance counselor with the Salina area school, showed the value of a planned testing program and how the results of such a testing program are used to help the teacher and parent evaluate the pupil.

An informative bulletin, prepared by Johnson, was passed to each person. It is entitled "Four Ways to Improve Your Child's Ability in School" and lists ways as improving the emotional "climate" of the home; stimulating the child's mental ability to a maximum; improving the child's cultural life; and having the child's physical condition checked.

A happy, pleasant, contented home life; interest of parents in the child's work, with good books and magazines in the home; visits to museums, libraries and historical sites as a family group; and general health measures to benefit the child are the ways in which the four-way improvement program may be carried out.

Grant Schooley Suffers Heart Attack in Florida

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where Congressman Carroll Kearns of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to put the Star Spangled Banner in the key of A flat so folks won't stumble over them high notes near the end.

I'm in favor of anything that'll help the Star Spangled Banner get back in good standing in this country. We got kids in school today that can sing all five verses of Elvis Presley's "Hound Dog" that ain't never heard of the Star Spangled Banner.

As usual, they referred the Kearns bill to a congressional committee. That means it'll cost the taxpayers about $10,000, whether we get it settled in A flat or F sharp. The committee will ask a handful of government clerks to make a report on the matter. The report will run about 200 pages and cost about $10,000, which is about par for the congressional report course.

FFA Team Places Fifth in State Contest

Chelsea High school's FFA parliamentary procedure team placed fifth in the state contest held Monday at Michigan State University, East Lansing, in connection with the annual FFA convention.

The Chelsea team and the sixth and seventh place winners, Pellston and Felch teams, received bronze awards.

Gold awards for first and second place winners went to FFA teams from Chesaning and Woodland, and silver awards for third and fourth place went to Midland and Belding High school teams.

Chelsea team members who participated are James Grau as president; James Heydlauff as secretary; Earl Heller, Bill Sorenson, David Rowe, John Eisenbeiser, and an alternate, Jerry Satterthwaite, acting for Norman Loeffler who became ill with the measles and was forced to remain at home.

Topic assigned for the business to be acted upon by the team was introducing members to occupations related to farming but not actual farming, such as elevator operation, field representatives, teaching and research.

Delegates to the state FFA convention from the Chelsea FFA Chapter were Norman Hiltz and Paul Frisinger.

When the group returned to Chelsea Tuesday night, following the two-day convention, it was announced that James Grau, president of the FFA parliamentary procedure team had received the coveted State Farmer Award.

The Chelsea boys were present for the convention banquet held in Shaw Hall on the MSU campus Monday night. A total of 200 schools were represented by the 875 FFA members who attended the banquet. Others at the banquet brought the total number attending to 1,006.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams was the speaker at the banquet.

Farm Council OK's Sale to Farm Bureau

At the Farm Council meeting held last Thursday evening in the County Building, Ann Arbor, it was voted to sell to the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau one acre of the Council's land, as a site for the proposed construction of a Farm Bureau office building; however, the land being offered is not in the originally planned location adjacent to the 4-H buildings already located at the site but at the southwest corner of the area, fronting on Saline—Ann Arbor road.

The Farm Bureau has not yet accepted the offer. Price of the acre was fixed at $1,500.

3 1/2-Year-Old Killed When Hit by Auto

Robert D. Henry, 3 1/2-year-old son of Mrs. and Mr. William Henry of 16400 Farnsworth road, was killed instantly Saturday evening when he ran into the path of a car driven by Miss Mabel Fox.

The accident occurred on M-02, north of Cassidy Lake road and near the residence of the youngster's uncle, Albert Henry, where he was visiting.

According to reports of the mishap, the child ran into the path of the car unnoticed by older boys with whom he had been playing.

In a statement to sheriff's deputies Miss Fox said she was moving south on M-02 and did not see the boy run into the road. She said she heard a bump as if an object had struck the front of her vehicle and found the child after stopping her car to investigate.

The car was a 1957 Ford.

The body of the child was taken to the county morgue for autopsy.

The funeral will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the home of the family.

Burial will be in the Chelsea cemetery.

The family requests that friends refrain from calling or writing.

SEVENTH GRADE Junior High basketball players were described as "an excellent team" this year. One of their number, Robert Riemenschneider, was named guard on the all-star team at the close of the invitational tournament at Manchester, March 1, and received a trophy. All-star team players were from seventh grade teams of Tecumseh, South Lyon, Stockbridge, Manchester and Chelsea schools. The seventh grade team has a 3-3 record for the season. Riemenschneider was high-point man on the Chelsea team for the season, scoring 11 points in the Feb. 14 game with Lincoln. Dudley Holmes was second high, with 8 points in the same game. Members of the seventh grade team, shown above, are, rear row, from left: Roger Lehman, Donald Wilson, Donald Joseph, Joey Horste, Eric Knisely, Jackie Owens and Coach Alfred Smith. In the front row are Robert Riemenschneider, Dudley Holmes, Roger Pritchard and Glen Schiller. Roger Herman, who does not appear in this picture, was assistant coach for the team.

EIGHTH GRADE BASKETBALL PLAYERS had an exceptionally good record this year. Only team to defeat them was Manchester. High scorers for the season were Andy Fletcher, 16, and David McLaughlin, 15. ## Blaess Elevator Opening Bulk Fertilizer Warehouse

In line with the trend toward more efficiency in farm operations, Blaess Elevator is establishing a new bulk plant food service for farm customers at Chelsea.

Use of plant food in bulk provides both cash savings and labor savings to farmers, according to Bill and Julius Blaess.

"The cost per ton of bulk at the warehouse is substantially less than bagged plant food of the same grade since the Agricultural Chemical Division of Swift & Company, our supplier, can eliminate both bag costs and bag filling costs," they declared.

"The labor savings involved in bulk plant food application are obvious, since our bulk spreading service does all the work," they pointed out. They went on to say that customers can make further savings, however, by hauling their own plant food requirements from the new storage facilities.

The warehouse is equipped with large storage bins and power loading equipment to handle the Swift high-analysis grades of plant foods needed for crops in this area. Initially, the following Red Steer brand grades are available: 12-12-12, 8-24-12, 5-20-20, and 0-25-25.

K. Wagonseller, Manager of Swift's Plant Food factory at Hammond, Ind., recently visited the new facilities. He pointed out that in Swift's Flu-Fusion manufacturing process, combining both liquid and solid raw materials that nutrients are fused together and cannot separate during the bulk plant food hauling and spreading operations. "Because of this important quality factor, we expect good acceptance of our bulk plant food in this area," Wagonseller said.

Mrs. M. J. Dunkel returned by plane Saturday from Phoenix, Ariz. She had been away nine weeks, visiting first for a week with relatives at Tucson and spending the remainder of the time with her sister, Miss Hilda Appleton, at Phoenix.

The organization was founded at Lansing by a group of graduate landscape architects "in order to advance education and skill in landscape design and construction."

Members hope to gain recognition and increase the prestige of the landscape architecture profession by informing the public of the services rendered by qualified men and also better to co-operate with state and other agencies in the field.

Elected president of the newly-formed organization was Mrs. Jane Smith of Smith Tree Service, Inc., of Lansing. Other officers in addition to Runciman are Lawrence Smith of Birmingham, vice-president; and Donald VanderVeen, of Mason, secretary.

Brown of Birmingham; and C. A. Boyer, chief of the plant industry division of the Michigan Department of Agriculture (honorary), Lansing.

Plans were made for a summer meeting of the organization to be held at Kellogg Center, Michigan State University, on Aug. 12 and 13.

Officers, Committee Chairmen from Four Counties To Meet Here

Three meetings of regional and state importance to PTA membership, to be held for this area in the next few weeks, include the Spring Leadership Training meeting for District III, which is to be held in Chelsea, April 2.

PTA officers, committee chairmen and room chairmen of Lenawee, Monroe, Jackson and Washtenaw county organizations will attend the sessions.

This will be an all-day meeting to be held at St. Paul's church.

The workshop has been planned to give all PTA officers, committee chairmen and room chairmen, information, inspiration and assistance in all phases of PTA work.

Several state officers and chairmen will be at the Chelsea meeting, with questions and problems PTAers would like to have discussed.

The day and evening sessions are planned to accommodate officers and chairmen who work during the day, and especially for the many men who are serving as officers. This will give everyone an opportunity to attend.

The other two meetings scheduled are a problem clinic for PTA members, being held at Brodie Hall at Michigan State University, today, and the meeting of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held April 22 and 23 at Muskegon.

Topics to be discussed at the problem clinic at Brodie Hall today include such items as "Reporting Pupils Progress to Parents," "Science in the School Program," and "How Much Participation in Youth Clubs and Organizations?" "The Board of Education Works with the PTA" is another of the topics. Registration was from 9 to 10 a.m. with adjournment scheduled for 3:30 p.m.

The April 2 program here begins with registration and a coffee hour from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m. The opening session is to be at 10 a.m. and will include a panel discussion from 10:15 until 11:30 a.m. on the topic, "The Council's Structure and Services."

Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock noon and reservations must be made in advance. Locally, Mrs. George Frisinger may be called for information regarding the luncheon, as well as all three of the scheduled PTA spring meetings.

The afternoon meeting at St. Paul's church April 2 is set up as separate workshop conferences for each group of PTA officers, committee members and room chairmen. These conferences will begin at 1:15 p.m. and will be concluded at 3:40 p.m.

For those who remain for the evening session there will be a "film festival" from 4 p.m. until 5 p.m., dinner at 5:30 p.m. (no reservations necessary) and at 9 p.m. a "burn" session on all phases of PTA work; a question and answer period with state officers presiding; and a class in parliamentary procedure. Adjournment is set for 9 p.m.

Chelsea PTA officers are urging 100 per cent attendance at this workshop meeting.

Fluoride Dental Program Deadline Set for Friday

Children in the second, fifth and eighth grades who are to be included in the fluoride dental preventive program during the coming summer should be registered for the treatment by tomorrow, March 23, it was announced this week.

Letters have been sent home with children in the three age groups and parents are to turn in the registrations this week.

The PTA has sponsored the fluoride treatment program for several years. Chairman of the project for the PTA this year is John Thomson.

It was also stated by authoritative sources that a series of four applications as has been done under the fluoride program here, reduces dental decay by as much as 40 per cent.

It is recommended in community studies as Chelsea, where there is no water fluoridation program, it is considered a good supplementary program to regular dental hygiene and not a substitute for customary dental care.

Arthur Schmunk Attends National Principals Meeting

Arthur Schmunk, elementary school principal was to return last night from Philadelphia where he attended a national principals convention. He left for the convention last Saturday.

CORN-GROWING CHAMP

Donald Murray (above) of Milan was recently proclaimed county corn growing champion at a banquet held at East Lansing in honor of Michigan corn growing champions. His yield of 113.31 bushels per acre was the top yield in Washtenaw county in the 1957 National Selected Five-Acre DeKalb Corn Growing Contest. Unable to attend the banquet was Theodore Host, also of Milan, who placed second with a yield of 110.00 bushels per acre, third place winner Edward L. March 27-28—Junior class play, "Ten O'Clock Scholar."
April 1—Assembly by the U. S. Marines representative.
April 7-11—Spring vacation.

The home economic class I has been reading out of the text book about the different cuts of meat, and recently visited a meat market to see how the meat was cut.

Members of this class also cooked their lunches.
The other section has been finishing blueprints.
The second- and third-year classes have been sewing. Most of them are making one- or two-piece dresses.

The seventh graders held their return party for the eighth graders March 21. Games were played and refreshments were served.
The class appreciates the help of their sponsors, Mrs. Papar, Mr. Sandborn and Mr. Prinzing, for helping to make the party a success.

the class has been paying their dues of 50 cents. About 75 per cent of the class has paid.

The freshmen biologists are studying insects in their biology classes.

In English they are reviewing adverbs and adjectives and reading from their literature books. Book reports are due March 28.

Algebra students are doing story problems and are starting graphs.

Math in Life students have been studying graphs.

The committees for the Freshmen return party have all met and are busy carrying through their plans for the dance which will be held April 28. The theme of the dance will be "April Showers."

The girls in physical education finished bowling last week. Now they are starting on softball and field track.

On Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays the girls tumble. All the girls are required to learn certain tumbling techniques, such as the forward roll, backward roll, the kip, and the back somersault. They will be graded on them.

The final team standing for bowling follows: Team three 880.0; Team seven, 852.8; team two 839.4; team one 832.4; team four 816.4; team six 806.2; team five 631.6.

Team three, whose members are Captain Geri Hiner, Sue Grossman, Lois Nelson, Tesse Matthews, Diane Selton, and Beverly Brown, will receive a trophy engraved with their names to be displayed in the showcase.

The people with the top ten scores are Nina Hatt, 144; Violet Coppock, 144; Lois Nelson, 127; Lynn McMannis, 127; Rita Schramm, 127; Sue Grossman, 125; Judy Speer, 124; Kay Runciman, 123; Lois Nelson, 120; Lynn McMannis, 120.

The Juniors have begun the great task of getting all the necessary committees for the Junior-Senior prom. Such committees will be advertising, banquet, decoration, entertainment, and a few others to make their prom more successful. The date for the prom has still not yet been decided upon.

The art class is doing three-dimensional work, also "toothpick" sculpturing. Their mobile projects are now being graded.

Seventh grade shop is working on a new section of identifying woodworking tools. They are also working on cold metal, sheetmetal, and woodworking projects. Shop II boys are building model garages, working on the oxyacetylene welder, and doing internal carving in plastics. Ed McDaniels is building a cedar chest. Shop I boys are busy engaged in various woodworking projects and in building AC electrical motors.

It has been a busy week for the Juniors. Last preparations for the play, "The Ten O'Clock Scholar" are in full swing. The confusion of dress rehearsals, "line" rehearsals and make-up rehearsals has been keeping the entire cast working at break-neck speed.

The latest news from Washington of special interest to Michigan.

HOW'RE YA GONNA keep 'em down on the farm? Don't even try. These days farmers get around, keep informed, and know the score.

This was proven again last week when 47 men and one woman, all working farmers from Michigan, blanketed Washington to advise their government the once-over.

Led by Dr. Arthur Mauch, agricultural economics specialist at Michigan State University, the group represented two dozen rural communities, from Cassopolis and Deford to Paw-Paw and Ubly.

They hit a fast pace during the four-day public affairs workshop set up by Dr. Mauch, stopping at the Belleville Center for briefings on dairy cattle breeding and milk solids research, visiting the Labor Department for talking manpower and economic trends, and picking the brains of Agriculture Department officials on farm credit, rural electrification and cooperatives.

I had a great time showing the group around the Capitol and the Lapeer County farm boy on his toes. As we circled the Senate lobby, the Vice-President and Indian Ambassador joined us and were introduced all around. They agreed that so long as vigorous, alert Americans are running Michigan's agriculture, the nation's agriculture is in good hands.

CHRISTIAN HERTER, distinguished Under Secretary of State, spent an hour with me reviewing special Michigan problems as part of a series of meetings with top Administration officials I have set up in an effort to boost industrial activity and increase jobs in our State. So far, have talked with Governor General Arthur S. Merfield, Secretary of Labor

CIVIL SERVICE BIRTHDAY

The Civil Service Commission recently marked its seventy-fifth birthday with an employee awards ceremony.

The Civil Service system came into being under a law signed on January 16, 1883, by President Chester A. Arthur.

At first the law covered only a handful of Federal employees—ten per cent of the total. Today 86 per cent of all Federal employees, or about 2,000,000 are covered.

Nation's Railroads Need Help

A Senate Commerce sub-committee has begun hearings on a matter of vital importance to the national economy. It is the crisis which confronts the railroads today as reflected in declining car loadings and passenger traffic, coupled with rising costs and obsolete methods.

There seems to be no denying the fact that the regulations contained in the Transportation Act of 1920 were inaugurated when the railroads were the dominating giant in the transportation field. Today that picture has changed considerably.

Today the railroads need to have less regulation, be permitted to merge in many cases to obtain greater efficiency and co-ordination and revenue, and increase the use of joint facilities. They should also be allowed to eliminate service where it is not profitable, in some cases, and perhaps, to raise fares in others.

Most observers say also that the railroads are guilty of not having kept pace with the times. Their ticket-selling procedures, their passenger and car diagramming, etc., is usually much the same as it was in the 1920's.

We think the railroad industry is vital to the United States and its welfare, and that it is still the finest form of transportation for many purposes. We want to see the American railroads remain strong. Congress should relax certain restrictions to enable the railroads to improve their competitive position.

The Man Who Sold Hot Dogs

There was a man who lived by the side of the road and sold hot dogs.

He was hard of hearing so he had no radio.

He had trouble with his eyes so he read no newspapers.

But he sold good hot dogs.

He put up signs on the highway telling how good they were.

He stood on the side of the road and cried: "Buy a hot dog, Mister!"

And people bought.

He increased his meat and bun orders.

He bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade.

He finally got his son home from college to help him out.

But then something happened.

His son said: "Father, haven't you been listening to the radio?"

Haven't you been reading the newspapers?

There's a big depression.

The European situation is terrible.

The domestic situation is worse."

Whereupon the father thought, "Well, my son's been to college, he reads the papers and he listens to the radio, and he ought to know."

So the father cut down on his meat and bun orders, took down his advertising signs, and no longer bothered to stand out on the highway to sell his hot dogs.

And his hot dog sales fell almost overnight.

"You're right, son," the father said to the boy,

"We certainly are in the middle of a great depression."

THINK IT OVER!

Rocket Report

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Stormy winds of the economic climate have toppled thrones and crushed empires.

Historians report that Herbert Hoover was a good president but a victim of the times. The possible application to Michigan politics and government is as haunting as Black Friday in 1929.

Universities and colleges have critical need for more money to meet the need for their services. Prisons, mental health institutions, public welfare, elementary schools and other functions the public has come to consider a responsibility of government are all crying for help.

"The only answer is increased taxes or fewer services. It is as plain as that," said a leading Democrat.

"We must live within our income," said Senator Clyde H. Gerding (R-Holland), Senate tax committee chairman.

The impact on partisan politics, always a factor of some sort over the past decade, will be more severe in 1936 as Democrats seek to control the legislature.

Even some Republicans in the executive side of state government.

The voter—and the taxpayer—will give Michigan the final answer next November.

Republicans, realizing that a tax increase when more than 250,000 are jobless in the state will hurt more than help, are fighting to hold the line and cut government spending.

One proposal in the House to cut the number of state employees already is in committee.

Even some Republicans in both the House and Senate are certain the budget cannot be cut from current spending. There are tax bills waiting for action.

The only major proposal is Gov. Williams' $20,000,000 intangibles tax increase. Republicans claim this will hit the small depositor and those with fixed incomes from securities; but the governor holds that the tax will hit only the holder of many assets.

Republicans are fighting for re-captured funds to help chop down the extra expense to a "manageable deficit," less than $15,000,000, to wait for the results of a revenue study next year.

The main bill has been a plan to delay payment for liquor purchased by the state's monopoly for 90 days. This procedure may or may not be practical.

Optimistic estimates were that this would bring an extra $20,000,000, but delays in enacting the proposal have dropped the estimate to $8,000,000 at the end of May.

The bill was passed by both houses and Williams said there "will be no delay" in putting the delayed payment plan into operation from this point.

The political impact? When the voter goes to the polls in November he will, in effect, be making his decision whether Williams and the Democrats or the Republicans were right.

Does he want more government or more economy?

The answer will decide who inhabits the capitol for the next two years.

Economy threats and maneuvers have made a difference in Lansing. Six weeks ago, Senator Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield) estimated that coffee breaks, late breakfasts and extra-time off costs the state up to $15,000,000 a year in employee time.

Administration executives, noting the economic recession, claim that workers have become more conscientious—especially since Jan. 1.

Porter's attack on the coffee break has had its impact, too. "I understand abuses have been reduced since then," he said.

Michigan has another Fitzgerald waiting in the wings for his try at politics.

First there was John W. Fitzgerald, the member of the House who held office. Then came Frank D. Fitzgerald, his son, who was the state's Republican governor in the 1930s.

Now comes the second John W. Fitzgerald, the son of the former governor, who has announced his candidacy for the State Senate in the 15th district.

He will run in the primary against two political veterans, Jay Terbusch, Shiawassee county prosecutor, and Rep. Adrian de Boom, a House member for several years. Both are from Owosso.

* Tug of War

A friend of mine was making conversation with a New York clergyman one day, and asked him, "Do you believe there really is a Devil?"

"Well," replied the eminent ecclesiastic, "I don't actually know whether there's a Devil or not, but whatever it is, it acts like one."

One time at a meeting in Chicago I happened to sit down beside the Rev. U. L. Brewer of Eldsto Island, S. C. He seemed to be a quiet kindly man, and told me how he had moved to that island, which had never had a church, with the intention of seeing whether he could start a Christian church for the people there.

I remember he told me about calling on one crusty old man who had never gone to church in his life, but had found his "spiritual refreshment" at other shrines. "You're wastin' yore time talkin' to me, Preacher Man," said the old fellow, "I hain't never gone to church yet, and I reckon his too late to be makin' a start now."

"Now don't get me wrong, said the parson, "I believe in fair play. It just wouldn't be fair to the man you've been working for all these years if I took you away from him now. You have one foot in the grave, old man, and the other's slipping. You've been working for the Devil all your life, and the Devil needs you."

You and I are in great demand. Both the Democrats and the Republicans would like to have us on their side, and the Communists wish we were working for them. The banks wish we would deposit our money, and the merchants wish we'd spent it. Radio and TV, movies and magazines—all are competing for our spare time.

But the greatest contest for our loyalty might be spoken of as a tug of war between God and the Devil. The Devil needs you, for unless he has you or somebody else working for him in your community, his work just won't get done. And God needs you too, for as Annie Johnson, Flint, puts it, "He has no hands but our hands to do his work today."

Makes you feel kind of important, doesn't it, to think that the forces of good and evil in the universe are waiting to see in which way you are going to pull in the tug of war of temptation.

Brother Brewer said when the old codger realized which direction he had been throwing his influence, he switched sides and started coming to church. Mighty unfair to organized devilry, I'd say.

Thursday, April 1, 1934—

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Anderson of Bay City have purchased Glick's Department Store and took possession Friday.

Approximately six inches of snow fell here Monday, giving indication that March would "go out like a lion" in addition to having come in the same way. Predictions that most of the winter weather would occur here in March were proved correct.

Chelsea High school senior Bob Berke was chosen "most valuable player" for the second successive year and Bruce Hoffman, a junior, was named "most improved player" during the recent season in which the Bulldogs shared the Huron League championship with Dundee.

Each team lost only one game. Karl Koenigster was elected chairman of the Chelsea Recreation Council.

Earle E. Schumacher, chief metallurgist of Bell Telephone Laboratories, Murray Hill, N. J., has been appointed metallurgical director of a new department of metallurgical research at the laboratories. A native of Chelsea, Schumacher is the son of Henry Schumacher.

Students for the fourth quarter at Chelsea High school, grades 9 through 12, are Rogers, Helen Satterthwaite, Helen Hoffmeister, Donald Osterlie, Barbara Bleeker, Bud Gulde, Paul Rogers, Jean Irwin, Mildred Beeman, Gladys Adon, Ruth Faist and Jim Panaridge.

Listed in the Hi-Light as All-A students for the fourth quarter at Chelsea High school, grades 9 through 12, are Rogers, Helen Satterthwaite, Helen Hoffmeister, Donald Osterlie, Barbara Bleeker, Bud Gulde, Paul Rogers, Jean Irwin, Mildred Beeman, Gladys Adon, Ruth Faist and Jim Panaridge.

In the 24 Years Ago column (March 31, 1910): Dr. Andrew Guide, who has been associated with Dr. G. W. Palmer for the past seven years, will open a suite of offices in the Durand-Hatch block, April 15; also 100 dozen eggs were sent to St. Vincent's Asylum, Detroit, by members of St. Mary's church as an Easter offering; and Velma Richards, teacher in the Palmer school, Waterloo, was severely burned about the hands and arms when she saved the life of one of her pupils whose dress caught fire from a bonfire.

24 Years Ago...

Thursday, March 29, 1914—

A fire which it is believed was caused by an overheated incubator, completely destroyed the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gracey at Lima Center early Saturday. The Graceys moved here eight months ago from Ann Arbor.

Second graders have been composing poems about snowflakes and six were selected for print.

ing in the Hi-Light. The six were Joyce Foster, Virginia Spaulding, Esther Riemenschneider, Philip Vogel and Doris Collins.

Seniors taking part in the senior play, "The Whole Town's Talking," are Roger Hinderer, Arlene Satterthwaite, Helen Hoffmeister, Donald Osterlie, Barbara Bleeker, Bud Gulde, Paul Rogers, Jean Irwin, Mildred Beeman, Gladys Adon, Ruth Faist and Jim Panaridge.

Listed in the Hi-Light as All-A students for the fourth quarter at Chelsea High school, grades 9 through 12, are Rogers, Helen Satterthwaite, Helen Hoffmeister, Donald Osterlie, Barbara Bleeker, Bud Gulde, Paul Rogers, Jean Irwin, Mildred Beeman, Gladys Adon, Ruth Faist and Jim Panaridge.

In the 24 Years Ago column (March 31, 1910): Dr. Andrew Guide, who has been associated with Dr. G. W. Palmer for the past seven years, will open a suite of offices in the Durand-Hatch block, April 15; also 100 dozen eggs were sent to St. Vincent's Asylum, Detroit, by members of St. Mary's church as an Easter offering; and Velma Richards, teacher in the Palmer school, Waterloo, was severely burned about the hands and arms when she saved the life of one of her pupils whose dress caught fire from a bonfire.

34 Years Ago...

Thursday, April 3, 1904—

The Junior play, Friday and Saturday night at Sylvan Town Hall, had an all-star cast—Helen Lambert as a Honolulu lady; Lucille Cox, who as an eloping bride did a lot of convincing crying; Glens Gage as an heiress; Jay Weinberg who took a dual part as a farmer and a lawyer, changing his voice to fit the parts; George Atkinson who acted the part of the villain so well that he now is afraid of himself; and Ralph Kinney, Clayton White, Oleta Hutzler, Florence Schmidt, John Hamp, Doris Foster and Lucien Bros. same, who took the leading part of Ted. Title of the play was "And Home Came Red."

With W. S. McLaren and several others from Jackson in attendance, along with 37 Chelsea men, the newly-organized Chelsea Kiwanis club got away to a good start in their initial meeting at Schnebalt's hall Monday evening.

Rev. Steensma, pastor of the Jackson Congregational church, was the principal speaker.

E. G. Willemijn, who has served the state highway department as district engineer in this area for several years and was appointed resident road engineer in the re-organized district system, has resigned and George C. Brown, former assistant in this district, will succeed him.

The Washington Atmosphere

Old timers say that one has to go back 25 years to find such a widespread feeling of panic in Washington as there is today. Apparently there are three main reasons for this.

First is the stream of unfavorable business news. The quarter during the past few days included:

1. Unemployment in mid-February was 6.2 million as compared with 4.5 million a month earlier. The 700,000 increase was much greater than normal for this time of year—in fact it is not unusual for February to mark the beginning of a spring upturn and no amount of rationalization can make the increase other than disturbing.

2. Business plans for investment in plant and equipment have been scaled sharply downward. The peak of such investment was in the third quarter of last year. That was at an annual rate of $37.75 billion. The amount declined slightly in the fourth quarter. In the first quarter of this year it dropped to $35.5 billion. The latest survey reveals that the plans for this year now amount to only $32 billion.

3. Consumer expectations, as measured by a University of Michigan survey, have taken a turn toward pessimism. These surveys, made each year, are highly regarded. When they show that an increasing proportion of consumers is planning less spending for durable goods, such as automobiles and other big item appliances, it should not be ignored. This is especially true at the moment because consumer purchases have been, for many months, the strongest point in the economy.

4. Personal income in February, according to the Department of Commerce, suffered another decline. On an annual basis it was $341.8 billion, compared to the peak last August of $347.5 billion.

5. Private housing starts declined in February to an annual rate of 890,000. In January a comparable figure was 1,030,000. Some of this decline resulted from extraordinarily bad weather in the first half of February.

6. Exports again showed a decline in January. The total was 10 percent below a year earlier, and this followed a December which was off 8 percent.

Those were some of the unfavorable business items. Of course there also was some encouraging news, but on balance it appeared quite clear that we still are on the decline.

Second of the factors creating a feeling of panic in Washington is the political tug-of-war going on between the two parties. This probably was inevitable, and has been pushed with surprising vigor. The New-Fair Dealers, who operate through the Democratic Party, are determined to place the blame for the current down turn on Conservatives, who operate mainly through the Republican Party.

Needless to say the Conservatives, whether Republican or Democrats, do not appreciate this effort to make them responsible in the public mind, and they have been fighting back in every way possible. At the moment, the immediate maneuver is concerned primarily with development of an anti-recession program and doing it in a manner which will yield credit to themselves. The economy.

SHIPS GET NEW EYES
Halifax, Nova Scotia.—A new chain of radio navigation aids to North Atlantic shipping went into operation recently.

Its sponsors said it would open new sea lanes and make existing ones safer. It could help avert such disasters as the Andrea Doria-Stockholm collision.

The network embracing ground transmitter stations in Newfoundland and Nova Scotia covers the North Atlantic approaches to the United States, including the St. Lawrence seaway.

The National Federation of Day Nurseries was founded in 1898.

NEWS & HOLLYWOOD

Gene Kelly knows Brigitte Bardot quite well and will go to Paris to try to tie her up for "Grand Tour," which he'll make on the continent, and in which he'll have a American, English, Italian, and French girl. This film sounds like it might have quite an international flavor — a miniature League of Nations in fact.

Sheree North is taking over the Gwen Verdon role in "New Girl in Town" on Broadway.

Ginger Rogers is lined up for a busy summer, with a new picture. Next fall she would like to play on Broadway. Ginger reports that she was thought an oddity in Las Vegas. After her show she retired, and never went near a gambling table.

Bob Fella and Bob Bles will co-produce "The Man Down," by William Pearson, with Anita Ekberg starred. Personally, we'd rather hunt Anita!

Mariss Allasio's trip to America paid dividends. She has landed the lead opposite Bob Mitchum in "The Angry Hills," to be made in Italy.

Bob Stevens, who directed four TV shows which are up for Emmy awards is trying to find time to direct the picture "Village of the Damned," for Milo Frank.

Charles Chaplin isn't among 1,500 names to be embedded in bronze stars on the sidewalks of Hollywood boulevard. He is immortalizing host of stars in the paving of a "Walk of Fame" in an improvement project planned by moviegoing merchants.

Asked why his name was omitted, Harry M. Sugarman, head of the improvement association, replied that Chaplin's name could be added later. Said Mr. Sugarman "Opinion on him was divided." Chaplin, it will be remembered, went to Europe after being accused in this country of Communist sympathies.

Poor Shelley Winters had to put on 22 pounds for a role as mother in "Diary of Anne Frank." During the picture she'll have to take off 25. It's a good thing Shelley has a rugged constitution!

David Niven starred in "Eighty Days Around the World" without seeing much of it, so he's taking his wife on a world trip.

Dennis Day, searching for an Amazon to carry him on stage for his new act in Las Vegas, has struck pay dirt. He has found Shirley House, more than 6 feet tall and built to scale.

Luis Shurt has signed Miss Austria of 1957 and hopes to sell her as an actress.

Mary Pickford and Maurice Chevalier are old friends of long standing, so on his arrival in Hollywood he'll house-guest with Mary and Buddy Rogers at Pickfair.

There's a pretty little starlet who has a big, bad crush on John Wayne. Seems she followed him around so much that John asked his Mrs. to help straighten out the lassie.

When Eddie gifted Debbie with a pair of diamond earrings, the first thing Debbie did was to have her ears pierced so that she would not lose the precious baubles.

People who fly into a rage always make a bad landing.

National Outlook

servatives are tending to move cautiously although New-Pair Dealers introduce bills almost every day, almost everyone of which would assure a larger deficit in federal finances.

The third factor helping to create a feeling of panic is worry over the Russian situation. This is not as strong as when the Sputniks were first put into orbit, but a lot of persons still are uncertain that we are as well off, either militarily or economically, as they have been in the past.

It is, of course, unfortunate that these three things had to impinge upon us simultaneously. Therefore, too much must not be read into them. They do not mean that we are headed into a major depression. There is no such indication. And there is nothing in the economic system which should lead to that type of readjustment. Rather, this is, according to all statistics available, nothing more than a recession. It may be a bit more severe than the set-back in 1949 or that of 1953-54, and it may last longer, but there is no reason for assuming and planning for a real economic shake-out.

OCEAN TO OCEAN ACROSS SOUTH AMERICA—AND BACK—IN 41 HOURS!

CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES!

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust V8, the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission, the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world — the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires — no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began — across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 2 1/2 miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,572 feet — but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slackened its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 30 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes — and the engine was never turned off!

Washtenaw County Named To Share in Bond Campaign

Washtenaw county has been designated by the U. S. Treasury Department as one of 250 areas in which "Share-in-America" Savings Bonds campaigns will be staged this year. Labor will be represented on the local "Share-in-America" Committee by Kenneth Beer, president, Washtenaw county AFL-CIO Council.

"Labor always has given solid support to the Savings Bonds Program," Beer said, in accepting the appointment. "During this 'Share-in-America' drive we intend to redouble our efforts. The objective of this campaign is to get every wage earner to join the Payroll Savings Plan for buying Savings Bonds where he works."

We expect to work through all local unions to inform every union member in Washtenaw County about Savings Bonds and the Payroll Savings Plan for regular and automatic savings."

Pointing out that all international unions have pledged their full support to the Share-in-America drives, Beer continued:

"We must support the Savings Bonds program because it's the patriotic thing to do—in the critical times that face our nation today, the least any American can do to express his patriotism is to buy Savings Bonds regularly."

"Besides being a patriotic investment, Savings Bonds offer a sure way to save. They are a safe and certain investment with a guaranteed return. This is what the average wage earner, who can't afford to speculate with his savings, is looking for. And, the Payroll Savings Plan for regular, automatic savings is the answer."

A guest from Saturday until Monday at the home of Mrs. Adam Albar was her son, Clarence P. Gilbert, of Pontiac. Saturday visitors were Mrs. Viola Geyer and her niece of Jackson, and Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curley and a friend, of Detroit.

to the top question in every wage earner's mind "How Can I Save?" All local unions in Washtenaw county will be asked to canvass their memberships during the "Share-in-America" campaign, and acquaint them with the Savings Bonds Program, according to Beer.
