Oct. 17—Flat Rock plays the varsity, here.

Oct. 21—Junior Varsity plays at Saline.

Oct. 22—Report cards will be issued.

Oct. 24—Varsity plays at University High School.

Oct. 29—Junior Varsity plays Manchester JV, here.

Oct. 31—Varsity plays Roosevelt, there.

On Oct. 7, the faculty and Student Council officers met. They adopted the following rules covering dress at school. Much discussion was given to extreme hair cuts, and the very heavy shoes some boys wear. These topics may be taken up at future meetings. For the present, the following rules will be enforced. Disobedience may result in expulsion.

Boys: 1. Shirts are to be worn with no more than the top button open. 2. Shirt collars are to be worn folded down. 3. Shirt sleeves are not to be rolled up and tucked in at the shoulders. 4. Trousers are to be worn with belt or suspenders attached. 5. Trousers must be worn above the hips (they don't look well at half-mast.)

Girls: No Bermudas, shorts, or slacks are to be worn at school. 2. There is to be no grooming in class.

It is already Christmas time for the Chorus members. They are beginning extraordinarily early to work on songs, and a cantata for the yuletide season.

Also on the agenda is another lightly modern musical, "Bellini for Americans" by John LaTouche. Mr. Sanborn now has the group beginning on this selection, the story of our country in cantata form. It is a possibility for the spring concert program.

Along with all this singing comes hope—hope that somehow the groups may purchase choir robes for the Christmas concert. It has also been suggested that night chorus meet one day a week for the regular chorus club meetings.

Home Economics students are very busy this year. First-year students are studying nutrition values and the application of these values to foods. Second-year girls are sewing, using wool and corduroy for suits, coats, and jumpers. Third-year girls are discussing marriage and family problems and adjustments. Miss Barto will be making home visitations soon to talk with the girls and their parents.

Latin students who still wish to join the club may do so by signing up with Kathryn Kinde. Dues of 75 cents must be paid before the end of the six-week period. The next meeting of the Latin club will be on Oct. 22.

Future Teachers of America set up two committees—social and planning. On the first are Carolyn Miller, Ellen Keusch, Ruth Prentice, and Barbara Berke. On the planning committee are Kathryn Kinde, Angie Mengo, Marketa Young, George Wilson, Nadine Lentz, David Lissy, Roger Elman, Carol Danforth, and Elaine Walker. A field trip to Eastern Michigan college was discussed, as well as the cost of attending that college. Mr. Sanborn read a letter pertaining to a work shop there which many members wish to attend.

The Chelsea High Marching Band, directed by a ten-minute marching show during the Milan-Chelsea homecoming game. The show varied in having a "Hi" salute to each side, several formations and an interesting dance routine. The band is very happy to have approximately 70 pieces in it this year, which is the largest enrollment to date. The band will also march at the Flat Rock game.

Pot-luck dinner for members of the Journalism club and class was held at Carole Barr's house Tuesday, Oct. 14.

Driver Education students had a most interesting experience on Oct. 5 when they visited the Chrysler Proving Grounds as guests of Quentin Smith's father. They visited many of the departments, saw the "oo cars," and learned a great deal about the work there. It is most sincerely hoped that this may become an annual event.

The French club is planning a social evening of Oct. 27, at which time they hope to have as a guest an exchange student from the University of Michigan who will tell the members about the country whose language they study. They look forward to this source of information.

The Student Council is sponsoring a contest for the naming of the new Athletic League which will replace the old Huron League. The contest will last from Oct. 8 through 31. Polly Willis, Jane McLaughlin, and Alice Klink are in charge of publicity. Roger Hagerman was appointed to get two judges from the citizens of Chelsea. Jane McLaughlin is to test a judge from the Athletic Board. They will make their report at the next meeting.

A motion was passed stating that any organization failing to use the guest book at a school dance would be fined five dollars.

The library reports that 891 books were circulated in 8 days last week in grades 7 through 12. In that time students from ten of the government classes have been using the library frequently and steadily, hunting for magazine articles, books, government documents, and pamphlets on the topics of their term papers.

Mrs. Finch the Phys. Ed teacher has been putting the girls through some drills to improve their skill in a Volleyball game. Practicing passing the ball from girl to girl, and serving the ball in different ways is all in a Phys. Ed. hours work. Work is right, it isn't as easy as you think. But they say, "Practice makes Perfect."

Last week the class finished up with a test over "soccer kick ball." That too involved a great deal of practice every day. Although the girls didn't actually play a game of Soccer, they enjoyed the drills. Especially when Mrs. Finch got hit on the head several times with the ball.

The Homecoming pep rally was held at the High school gymnasium at 8:15 on Friday night, Oct. 10. The snake dance went down west Middle street to Washington to the Athletic Field. A large number of students and interested people participated, and still more watched. The dance following the game was well attended, and it is hoped that the same amount of interest may be generated in other games, both home and away.

The Future Homemakers of America held its formal initiation Oct. 8. The formal initiation was followed by having all the new members clean the Home Ec. room thoroughly from top to bottom. Regular night meetings will be held once a month, on the second Wednesday.

The Future Nurses of America held their first meeting, and elected officers: president, Linda Fisher; vice-president, Diane Gary; secretary, Helen Staphish. Mrs. Baker, a nurse from Ann Arbor, will be at the next meeting to help the girls plan out their schedule for the year. At present the club consists of only six members and anyone who would like to become a member should join. See Mrs. Geske.

The boys of the Future Farmers of America have just held election of officers. They chose president, Norman Loeffler; vice-president, Earl Heller; secretary, Paul Frisinger; treasurer, Paul Rothfuss; reporter, Jerry Satterthwaite; sentinel, John Klink. Monday, Oct. 13.

The ceremonies were held initiating the "green hands."

The Rev. Phillip Rustin, pastor of the Congregational church, gave an interesting talk to the third-year homemaking class on the subject of "marriage," on Friday, Oct. 8.

Eighteen students in the public speaking class, under the direction of Mrs. Finch, have been studying the proper construction of a speech, which includes outlining, vocabulary, gesturing, and posture. Speech class plans to do a one-act play and learn the art of acting. They also plan to play make-up. They also plan to entertain the 810 men's tarry schools with interpretive readings.

Tommy Dunlap returned to school early last week after recovering from an injury received during football practice. Everyone is happy to have him back.

Chorus has selected a special vocal group which has named itself "8 plus 1" and includes S. Slane, M. Forner as first sopranos, K. Dorer, B. Hoffman, M. Bauer as second sopranos, M. Horning, P. Kramer as first altos, and C. Cameron, L. Stark as second altos. The nine meet for practice every Friday during second hour. They plan to take on special assignments, as well as to sing just for the fun of singing.

Art students feel they are making very good progress so far this year. Each student has been given a list of projects from which he selects those most interesting to him. Many first projects are finished and second ones are underway. Students think Miss Hardin, their teacher, most helpful when they encounter difficulties.

Hens Eating Up YOUR PROFITS?

Feed Economical
NEW Larro

SURELAY

(FORMERLY LARRO EGG MASH)

You may THINK you're saving money by buying a cheap feed. But you're probably really losing potential PROFITS. A better feed that produces just one extra egg per bird every month is worth $1.12 MORE per bag.

A Lighthouse hen eats about 40 lbs. of Larro Surelay a year, so 50 hens will eat about a ton. An extra egg each month from 50 hens is 600 eggs or 50 dozen each year. Fifty dozen eggs at 45 cents a dozen is $22.50 EXTRA PROFIT for each ton of Larro Surelay fed.

Just one EXTRA EGG from each bird every month makes LARRO Surelay worth $22.50 more per ton of $1.12 more per bag. And you'll probably find that your hens will produce an extra 2, 3 or even more eggs each month when you feed them LARRO Surelay.

MYSTERY FARM NO. 25 was one of the "Centennial Farms" in this area when Martin Merkel, the present owner, purchased it several years ago from the Alvin and Vivian Baldwin estate. It is located on Chelsea-Dexter road east of Chelsea. Because one of the barns does not appear in the photograph and because extensive exterior remodeling of house, the farm proved to be one of the more difficult ones of the current series to identify.

Extensive Exterior Remodeling Makes Martin Merkel Home Difficult To Identify

Mystery Farm No. 25 was correctly identified as the Martin Merkel home on Chelsea-Dexter road although comparatively few people recognized it as such. The outward appearance of the front of the house has been changed considerably by the removal of the porch. A fireplace chimney was added where the porch formerly was located. The Merkels also have done extensive remodeling and modernizing of the interior and while tearing out part of the walls came across a notation made by Alvin Baldwin that a portion of the house was built in 1908.

The farm had been owned for some years by Nathan Pierce, an uncle of Alvin Baldwin, before he came into possession of the property. The Baldwins had a son, Ivan, and a daughter, Mrs. Alice Knickerbocker. Both are deceased. Merkel has finished ditching the big marsh on the farm and has seeded it for the first time this fall. This will provide plenty of pasture for his cattle-feeding. In the summer he keeps well over 200 cattle on the 380-acre farm. He also does general farming.

Merkel was married to the former Ann Heller of Dexter a year and a half ago.

Mrs. Merkel said the difficulty in recognizing the place was probably due to the fact that one of the barns does not appear in the picture; also, the driveway past the side of the house gives the appearance of a road and probably led people to mistake the side of the house for the front.

Those who correctly identified the farm are Allen Brosamle,

Mrs. Norman Wacker, Mrs. Walter Beutler, William Bates, Mrs. Don Forath, Ellen Wiggins, Dale Kool, Harold Wahl, David Pastor and Mrs. Martin Merkel.

Like all '59 Chevrolets, the Impala Sport Sedan has Safety Plate Glass all around.

'59 CHEVROLET

It's shaped to the new American taste with a lean, clean silhouette; crisp new contours, beautifully restrained accents. It brings you more spaciousness and comfort with a new Body by Fisher. It has a bright new sheen—a new kind of finish that keeps its luster without waxing for up to three years. New bigger brakes. Vast new areas of visibility. New Hi-Thrift 6. New handling ease and road steadiness. It's new right down to the tires!

Never before has an automobile manufacturer made such sweeping changes two years in a row. Chevrolet says new like nobody else with a fresh Slimline design that brings entirely new poise and proportion to automobile styling. Inside the new and roomier Body by Fisher you'll find truly tasteful elegance. And you'll have clear seeing from every seat. The new Vista-Panoramic windshield curves overhead—and there are new bigger windows, too. When you take the wheel, you find Chevy's newness goes down deep. A new steering ratio makes handling easier. New suspension engineering gives you a more stable ride. There's a new Hi-Thrift 6 that goes on a gallon. V8's. New and bigger brakes. Even tougher, safer Tyrex cord tires.

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan shows Chevy's new Slimline design.

ALL NEW ALL OVER AGAIN!

GAS naturally

GAS IS SILENT—so perfectly so! Take refrigeration—it's just one example! When you refrigerate with gas, there's no motor-hum because there's no motor. The clean gas flame works silently, circulating the refrigerant which absorbs heat—and without the noise and vibration that go with unnecessary moving parts. And that silence means more good news—with so few moving parts, there's less to go wrong. Costly upkeep is out. For home heating, cooking, water heating, incineration, refrigeration or air-conditioning—gas is silent, naturally!

Mary Lou Sexton, David Fenn Speak Wedding Vows

Mary Lou Sexton and David R. Fenn exchanged wedding vows in a ceremony performed at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in St. John's United Church of Christ (Evangelical and Reformed), at Francisco. The Rev. E. O. Davis officiated at the double-ring ceremony after the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aretus Sexton of Cavanaugh Lake.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Fenn of Belleville.

Chauncey Schweigert, soloist for the wedding, sang "I Believe" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Paul Schiltgenhelm.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white hand clipped Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, featuring a scalloped scoop neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt was also fashioned of the Chantilly lace and tulle. A tiara of seed pearls and iridescent sequins held her fingertip-length veil. She carried a white satin Bible with a white orchid and streamers of stephanotis and ivy.

Janice Schrock of Whitaker, was maid of honor and wore a ballerina-length gown of orchid crystal over taffeta. The scoop neckline formed a V at the back. A matching cummerbund and cap of taffeta and a bouquet of bronze mums surrounded by yellow mums completed her ensemble.

Ruth Ann Sexton, sister of the bride, and Doris Woods were bridesmaids. Their gowns were styled like that of the maid of honor except that a lighter shade of orchid was used under the crystal. Their bouquets were of yellow mums encircled with bronze mums.

Marsha Johnson, for her role as flower girl, wore orchid crystal over white taffeta with a pink cummerbund. Matching pink flowers formed the headband she wore. She carried a basket of rose petals which she scattered along the aisle as she preceded the bride.

Robert Bahner of Ypsilanti, served as best man and guests were seated by Richard Seitz of Ypsilanti, and John Kennedy of Willis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sexton wore a gown of green silk crepe with mauve accessories and a cascade of bronze mums.

The bridegroom's mother, in a plum-colored silk crepe jacket dress with black accessories, had a cascade of white mums.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. The table centerpiece was an arrangement including the bride's cake and a memory candle.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Shirley Straub of Belleville, sister of the bridegroom, who had baked and decorated the cake she served; Mrs. Maxine Howard, another sister of the bridegroom, who poured coffee; Mrs. Thelma Knapper of Saline, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, who had charge of the guest book; and Marilyn Church of Ann Arbor, in charge of the gift book. Also assisting was Mrs. John Chaplin who served punch.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida, the bride was wearing a blue two-piece dress with black and white accessories and a white veil she carried on her Bible for the wedding.

When they return, the couple will make their home at 50155 Bemis road, Belleville, where the bridegroom farms with his father. He is a 1954 graduate of Lincoln Consolidated High school, Ypsilanti.

The bride has been employed at the University of Michigan since her graduation in 1957 from Chelsea High school.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride included showers given by Mrs. C. J. Friedwald of Ann Arbor; Doris Woods, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Albert Woods; Janice Schrock of Whitaker; and the Women's Society of Christian Service of Salem Grove Methodist church.

The rehearsal dinner, with 20 present was given Friday evening at Schumm's restaurant with the bridegroom's parents as hosts.

Chest Campaign

be presented this coming Christmas. Girl Scouts of America—Huron Valley Council, Allocation $1,400.00. Chelsea Neighborhood of the Huron Valley Council is made up of about 110 girls and adult leaders in 11 troops, with nearly 10,000 active throughout the Council. Each year, the Community Chest is asked to contribute funds to cover the Chelsea Neighborhood portion of the Girl Scout Council budget. Last year, local units benefited through the expenditure of more than $1,500.00 for Brownie Day Camps, Senior Scout camping trips, adult leader training, and many other activities. As part of their community service program, the Girl Scouts have provided seasonal trays of favors and gifts for the Chelsea Methodist Home, Colonial Manor Nursing Home, U. of M. Hospital, Children's Ward as well as caring during the Christmas season for the local institutions.

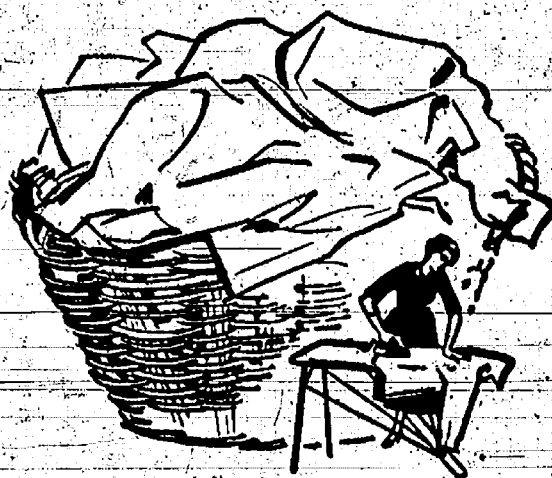

Salvation Army—Washtenaw County. Allocation $850.00. The Salvation Army is a very worthy and commendable agency which stands ready to lend assistance to area families, individuals and institutions in time of trouble or need. During 1958, Chelsea Community Chest funds helped make it possible for the Salvation Army to get relief to 10 Chelsea area families at Christmas and throughout the year. They distributed locally a number of food boxes and orders and many articles of clothing to needy people. Part of the Chest funds also go to support the Salvation Army Home and Hospital Service in Detroit. Several Washtenaw county girls were admitted there during the past year.

Michigan United Fund. Allocation $1,907.00. While the Chelsea Community brings together agencies generally seeking funds in our own area, the Michigan United Fund brings together state and national agencies. Thus, the MUF is an extension of our own Community Chest. The funds allocated to the MUF represent Chelsea's fair share of the total state and national budget. The MUF supports 82 different agencies. In this way, the Chelsea Community Chest and the Michigan United Fund, in effect, work as partners in raising funds for some 40 charitable agencies operating throughout the world. This serves to eliminate the annoyance of many separate appeals, it assures justification of the amounts requested and wise spending of funds; and it provides opportunity to give systematically and intelligently to an all-around program of services.

The local drive toward a goal of $13,182.00 is now in progress. Each contributor is urged to make his fair-share pledge this week. Every one's full support is needed to push the drive over the top. Give once for all—now.
