Plans Underway for Community 125th Anniversary Party

All Organizations Requested To Take Active Part

Plans for a community-wide celebration of the 125th anniversary of the founding of Chelsea were announced by Rolf and Spaulding at the January meeting of the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday evening.

Spaulding explained that the co-operation of every Chelsea organization is being invited, and that active participation of everyone in the community is the aim, rather than participation as "paying spectators."

An independent non-profit organization has been formed, in compliance with state law, to "start the ball rolling" on plans for the celebration. All groups will be given opportunity to participate, thus contributing to the overall success of the affair as a community project and not a project of any single organization.

The newly-formed non-profit organization has been designated "Chelsea 125th Anniversary Civic Celebration, Inc." The organization has already contracted for the services of the John B. Rogers Co., said to be the country's outstanding producer for celebrations of this type during the past 50 years.

The celebration is expected to be not only self-sustaining financially, but to actually produce a profit which will be designated for some worthy local project, Spaulding stated.

During the actual preparation period (the five weeks immediately preceding the celebration), a professional celebration producer will be in the community to advise and work with all committees.

Every local group will be asked to work with the committee in planning events and programs which the local groups would like and want rather than what someone else would like to include, Spaulding explained.

According to present plans, Spaulding said, the celebration would include special programs each day for a full week. Spaulding suggested that local organizations interested in the celebration contact him. A general meeting will be scheduled soon and a representative of the John B. Rogers Co. will be present to explain details of the entire project.

During the business session at the Chamber of Commerce meeting, held in the basement of the Congregational church, announcement was made that color brochures ordered by the Chamber of Commerce have been delayed but should be ready sometime in the spring, probably in connection with the community birthday celebration.

Fox Hunt Scheduled Next Sunday

Sunday morning at 8 o'clock hunters from Detroit, Jackson and other points, as well as from Chelsea and vicinity, will meet at the corner of US-12 and M-92 for the fifth annual fox hunt in this area, sponsored by Chelsea Rod and Gun club and four other clubs.

In addition to Chelsea Rod and Gun club, the sponsoring clubs are Detroit Outdoorsmen's club; Jackson County Outdoor club; Munnich Rod and Gun club; and Crooked River Sportsman's club.

The hunt, itself, will start at 8:30 a.m. at Grass Lake road and M-92.

Wilbur Werner, Chelsea Rod and Gun club president, said a large number of fox hunters are expected to take part in Sunday's outing.

Werner also mentioned another annual project of the Chelsea Rod and Gun club—the Ladies' Night dinner and program to be held at St. Paul's church hall, Tuesday, Feb. 3, at 7 p.m. He said members may secure night tickets from Carl Mayer, F. W. Merkel or Thomas Bust.

U-M J-Hop May Be Cancelled After This Year

According to announcements this week by Murray Jewell, chairman of the University of Michigan J-Hop-Central Committee, the J-Hop will probably be cancelled after this year.

The 1959 dance is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 7.

Customarily scheduled for weekday dates, the dance this year was changed to a weekend night where a sale of 500 tickets would assure the committee a sufficient amount of proceeds to break even. Only 300 tickets have been sold to date.

Wallace Wood Honored Among Top Ten Agents For Insurance Company

Wallace Wood has been named as one of State Mutual Insurance Company's top ten agents for 1958 according to the company's president, Holley K. Fisk.

Wood, who has been in the "top 10" since 1954, has been through his outstanding sales record for the year. His sales efforts also won him a $100 U. S. savings bond.

Post Office Drivers Cited For Traffic Safety Record

Chelsea post office vehicle drivers were singled out for outstanding performance in safety during 1958 by the Chicago Regional Operations Director Robert J. Hatus, it was announced today by Postmaster Carl Mayer.

Chelsea's carrier drivers during 1958 included Cecil Cobb, Mark McKernan and Richard Schaefer, regular carriers, and Robert DeFanti, Charles Curtis and Donald Blummann, substitute carriers.

The citation is an annual award presented to postal installations with improved accident experience ratings compared to the average regional rate of vehicle accidents occurring in each 100,000 miles of travel on official business.

"When delay of mail service is caused by an accident, our efficiency of operation is affected," Hatus stated. "Your employees have definitely contributed to good service by preventing accidents to mail vehicles. To maintain our objective of 'Moving Today's Mail Today' cognizance is being given to the fact that 'Safety is Everybody's Business' by Chelsea employees of the Post Office."

Since the Post Office Department began its campaign for General Arthur E. Summerfield has been presented the coveted National Safety Council award for "outstanding contributions in the Nation's traffic safety effort." It is the first time that one organizational group has been given this honor four years in a row.

Chelsea drivers are a part of the huge postal fleet which travels more than 884 million miles per year. About one-fifth of its half-million employees use vehicles on official business. Each of the nation's 37,000 post offices is a contributing factor in establishing improved safety on the roads throughout America and its possessions, wherever U. S. mail is delivered.

Failure of Heating System Forces Church To Cancel Services

The Church of Christ which holds its worship services at the 1009 Hall on M-92, was forced to cancel its service last Sunday morning because of failure of the heating system, a church spokesman said.

The service was held there as usual next Sunday.

Bulldogs Lose To Flat Rock Friday Night

Dexter Dreadnaughts To Play Here Tuesday In New Gymnasium

Traveling to Flat Rock last Friday, Chelsea lost to the Rams, 58-48. Chelsea trailed 18-11 at the end of the first quarter. They bounced back in the second quarter to trail 20-24 at half-time. Flat Rock pulled away to lead at the end of three quarters, 42-34, and again outscored the Bulldogs in the fourth quarter to win, 58-48.

Chelsea's main difficulty was their inability to put the ball through the hoop—as they hit only 25 per cent of their shots. Frank Fredrick was high for Chelsea with 11 points, followed by Bob Weiss and Loren Keizer with 10 and 8 points, respectively.

The JV's won, 42-20, over the Little Rams. Jerry Ringe and Gary Keizer were high for Chelsea with 12 each.

Chelsea will travel to Ann Arbor tomorrow to play U-High. The JV game will start at 6:45 p.m.

Next Tuesday, Jan. 27, the Dexter team will be in Chelsea for a game in the new Chelsea High school gymnasium.

Anti-Rabies Clinics Being Held in Area

Dr. P. E. Sharrard and Dr. W. C. Lane, Chelsea veterinarians, vaccinated 64 dogs at the rabies vaccination clinic at Lyndon Town Hall Thursday evening.

Saturday afternoon they were in Dexter where 300 dogs received shots. The clinic was held in the Dexter Fire Hall from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

The two Chelsea veterinarians will also be in charge of the clinic scheduled to be held in Sylvan Town Hall next week, Thursday, Jan. 29, from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m.

Wednesday, Jan. 28, from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m., a clinic is scheduled at the Road Commission garage at Manchester with Manchester area veterinarians in charge.

The rabies vaccination clinics are sponsored throughout the Chelsea area by the Western Michigan Veterinary Medical Society and the Washtenaw County Health Department.

Dr. George Bowler, public health veterinarian on the staff of the Health Department, is assisting the clinics, stated a veterinarian are voluntarily staffing the clinics and offering a reduced rate of $1.50 for vaccination administered at the clinics.

These clinics are conducted to facilitate compliance with ordinance requiring all dogs to be vaccinated for rabies before issuance of a dog license. This required vaccination has virtually eliminated rabies as a threat in Washtenaw county, according to Dr. Otto K. Engell, Washtenaw County Health Officer.

Licenses must be purchased before March 1 to avoid paying the late registration charge. License fees before March 1 are $2.00 for males and $3.00 for females. On and after March 1 the fees are increased to $5.00 and $8.00, respectively.

Mrs. Letha Beach, Sylvan township treasurer, will be at the town hall to issue dog licenses to those wishing to purchase them at that time.

Harlem All-Stars To Play Here

The Kiwanis club of Chelsea has made arrangements for an exhibition basketball game in the new high school gymnasium Thursday, Feb. 26, featuring the Harlem All-Stars.

It is expected the event will set a record in attendance.

Announcement that arrangements for the game were completed was made by Charles Lantieri, chairman of the project, at the regular Kiwanis club meeting in the social center of the Methodist church Monday evening.

The program at Monday's meeting was presented by Mrs. Lee Johnston of Battle Creek, who attended a special course in jet-age education at the University of Michigan last summer. She related her experiences in an exceptionally entertaining manner.

Mrs. Johnston is the former Anne Rogers, daughter of Dorris Rogers and niece of Chandler Rogers who introduced her at the meeting Monday.

Mrs. Mike Misallides has been confined to bed at her home because of shoulder and hip injuries suffered in a fall on the ice near her home last Thursday.

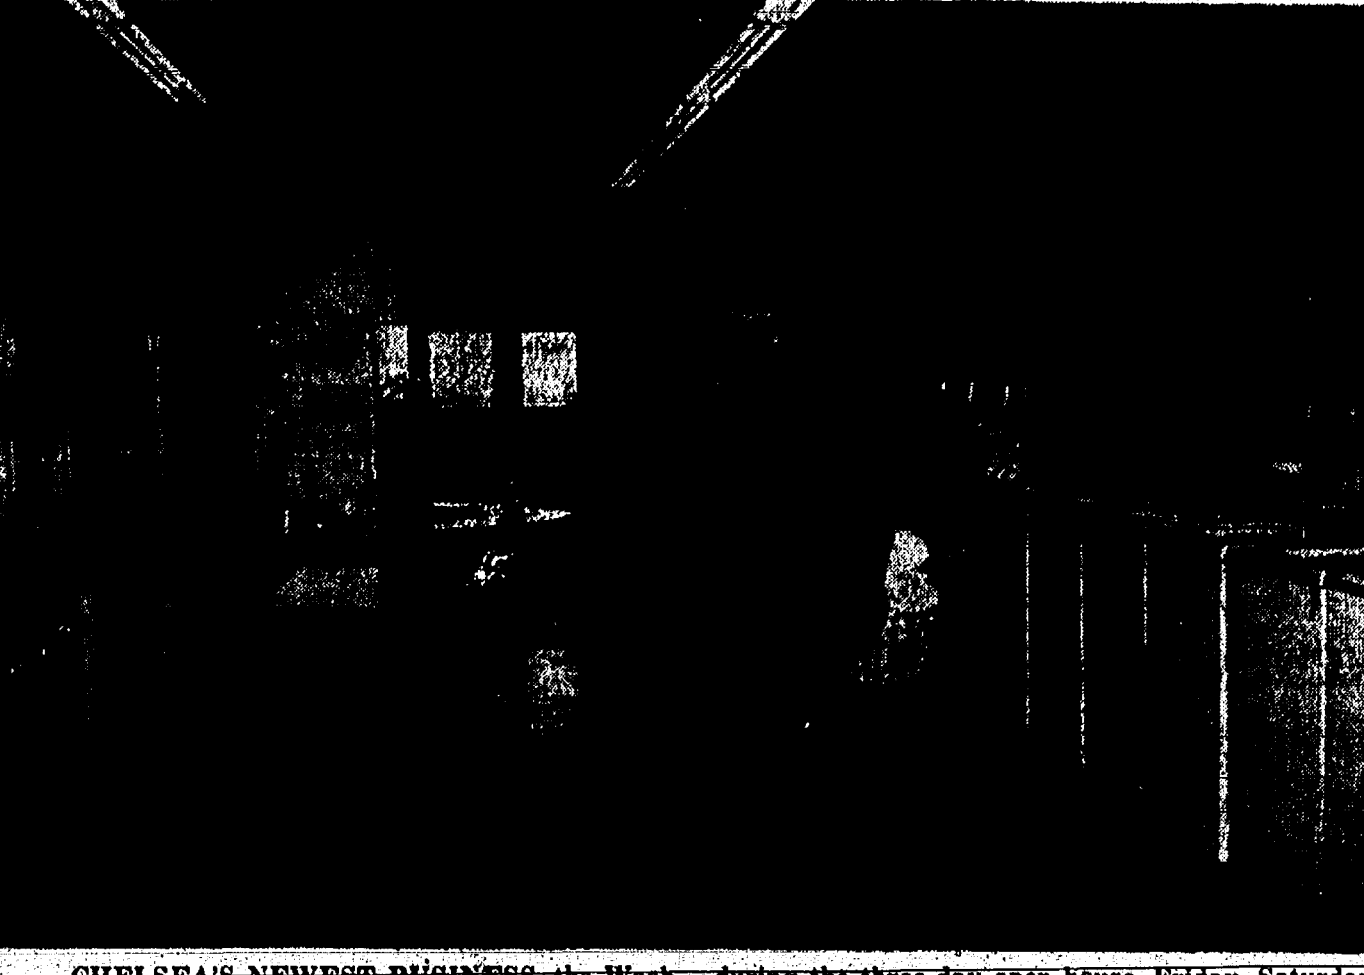

Future Teachers Club Members Present Skit at Teachers Meeting

Chelsea Future Teachers club, David G. Sanborn directing, Sunday presented a skit, "St. Peter's Gate," before the combined Michigan State Teachers Club and the Southeastern Michigan Associated Teachers Club at Ann Arbor High school. The skit showed five teachers applying to St. Peter for admittance to heaven. The interview that followed, and the reason why each teacher was or wasn't admitted. The decision was based on activities above and beyond the call of duty.

Participating were Roger Harman, Carol Danforth, Alice Webb, Ellen Kauch, George Wilson, Charles Koenigster, Marketta Young.

The skit was effectively presented and well received. Miss Lillian Cogan, Michigan representative on the National Education Association's board of directors said "I'd like to take those kids on a bus trip from here to Mackinaw, stopping at every town for a performance."

The skit was a small but distinguished production which included the current and two past presidents of the Michigan Education Association; three past presidents of the Michigan Department of Chelsea people who attended the Veterans of Foreign Wars Sixth District meeting at Carleton, Sunday, included Mr. and Mrs. Ren Hutzler, Fremont Boyer, Mrs. Ida Curry, Mrs. Fred Klink, Mrs. Wayne Harvey, Miss Alda Juergens and Mrs. Ray Franklin.

The VFW Auxiliary's department president, Mrs. Mildred Meuth of Roseville, was present for her official visit to the district.

Stressed at the district meeting was the theme for the year: "Hospital work and cancer research."

Clayton Hollis and Eugene and Robert Turner are announcing the grand opening of their newly completed Wash in Dry self-serve laundry at 114 West Middle street.

As a special feature of the three-day grand opening, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, they are offering free washing and drying privileges to those who wish to avail themselves of their offer.

There are 20 Frigidair automatic washers and five commercial size dryers for use of patrons.

Extra soft water is provided and patrons may bring their own soap or detergent, or may purchase what they need from vending machines at the laundry.

The owners state the laundry will be open 24 hours a day and 365 days of the year.

Patrons may use one or as many available machines as they wish to do their laundry in the shortest possible time.

Hollis formerly lived in Stockholm and the Turner brothers originally came from Lansing; however, for a number of years they were in the food business, operating a retail grocery in Ann Arbor.

Pinckney Recreation Area Offers Near Ideal Conditions for Skiing

The winter sports area in the Pinckney Recreation Area, is now operating week-ends from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The "Area" offers two ski slopes with rope tows, two cross-country trails, and a sled toboggan hill, separate from the ski hill.

A warming shelter has been added this year but no refreshments are being sold.

The winter sports area may be reached by going west from Pinckney on M-88 three miles to Kelly road, then north 1 mile to the entrance road.

Snow this week has made the condition of the slopes and cross-country trails near perfect.

Moving Operation To New High School Set for Next Week

Michigan Bell Tax Adds Huge Sum for Schools

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. announced its payment to the state primary school fund in 1958 was the largest in the company's history.

Amounting to $12,498,000, the payment again placed Michigan Bell as the top contributor to the fund.

Nicholas J. Frakken, manager here for the company, reported that $10,869 of the total tax payment was allocated to the public school system of Chelsea.

Schools throughout Washtenaw county received from Michigan Bell's payment a total of $250,043. Payments were based on the county census of 34,983, and the local school census of 1,728.

The tax payment amounted to $8.29 for each of the 1958,222 youngsters in the state between the ages of 5 and 19 who were on the census rolls for the 1957-58 school year.

Michigan Bell, in common with railroads, Pullman, railway express, telegraph, and other telephone companies, pays such a tax earmarked for the primary fund in lieu of certain local taxes.

Pupils in Grades 7-12 Will Have Three Days Off

Examinations in grades 7 through 12 will take place Monday and Tuesday and no students in those grades will be excused unless they are under a doctor's care or there is a death in the immediate family, according to a statement made yesterday by Charles Lane, high school principal.

Principal Lane said there will be no school Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Jan. 28, 29 and 30 in grades 7 through 12. Teachers will be busy those days marking papers and moving to the new high school building in preparation for classes to begin there Monday, Feb. 2.

This schedule applies only to students in grades 7 through 12. Both elementary schools will continue classes on their regular schedules and all buses will make their regular runs.

When schools are to be closed any day because of bad weather the announcement will be made on the radio in a 7 a.m. broadcast on Station WJR. Parents and students should make a practice of listening to the broadcast each morning, Principal Lane said.

High school students in grades 9 through 12 will attend classes in the new Chelsea High school beginning Monday morning, Feb. 2.

On Sunday, Feb. 1, people who live in the Chelsea School District may visit the new high school; however, a general open house is not being held at this time.

Plans for a general open house and formal dedication of the new school are being formulated but the date has not been set as yet.

Mothers' March Set For Thursday

Chelsea area women who had planned to attend the Washtenaw County March of Dimes benefit style show at Ann Arbor, Tuesday evening, cancelled their plans because of the icy road conditions caused by freezing rain following the afternoon snow-fall.

A basketball game, however, between Manchester and Chelsea school faculty members in the old Chelsea High school gymnasium was held as planned with attendance somewhat more than expected.

Described as a "hard-fought" game, those who participated said they had a good time. The score was 49-47 in favor of the Chelsea team.

Other highlights of the 1959 drive for funds for polio and research on the cause and cure of arthritis, birth defects and virus diseases, include the Mothers' March to be held in Chelsea Thursday evening, and the Boy Scouts' peanut sale on Jan. 31.

The name of Mrs. Robert Bertke was added this week to the list of block captains for the Mothers' March, in addition to those previously announced.

The Mothers' March in the rural areas will be carried out by means of daytime calls during the week preceding the Mothers' March date. The proceeds will be turned over to the respective township chairmen for tabulation by Thursday, Jan. 29.

Mrs. Lawton Steger, Chelsea chairman of the March of Dimes campaign, suggested that people of the community send in their dime cards as soon as possible in order to facilitate tabulation of contributions.

Citizens' Group Making Study of Michigan Schools

Carl Chandler spent Saturday in Ann Arbor where he represented Chelsea at the Region 2 Citizens' Conference on Studying Michigan schools. The conference was held under the sponsorship of the University of Michigan in co-operation with the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Michigan Department of Public Instruction.

The conference was held in the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies on the University of Michigan campus beginning with registration at 9 a.m. The general assembly in the Rackham lecture hall took place at 10 a.m. and was followed at 10:30 a.m. and throughout the remainder of the conference by discussion groups.

Subjects specifically designated for discussion included the following: "Education Program," "The Teaching Staff," "Financing Public Education," and "Higher Education."

Chandler, a former high school instructor here, is preparing a report on the conference to be submitted to school officials.

Schools were closed all day yesterday because of slippery roads. Snow, which fell Tuesday evening, turned into freezing rain about 10 p.m.

Jan. 23—Basketball at U. High.
Jan. 25-27—Exams. Only those scheduled for exams should be in the building. Others should arrange to be elsewhere.
Jan. 27—Dexter plays here.
Jan. 28-29—No school for high school students.
Jan. 30—Move to new high school. Play basketball at Milan.

When the high school moves to the new high school, the teaching staff will be increased with the addition of four new teachers. They are: Mrs. Thomas Bender, Mr. John McGill, Mr. Donald Bussler and Miss Hildegarde Riedel.

Mrs. Thomas Bender will take the place of Mrs. Bald. She will teach English and French. Mr. Bender is now attending the University of Michigan. Mrs. Bender was a graduate from Hillsdale College in 1955. She has one daughter and will make her home in Chelsea.

Mr. John McGill will take the place of Mrs. Gieske. He is a graduate from Eastern Michigan College. He will teach physics and math. Mr. McGill is married and will continue to live in Ypsilanti.

Mr. Donald Bussler will teach Junior High math and science. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan. It is interesting to know that he attended high school with Mr. Shroyer, who was formerly the band director at Chelsea. Mr. Bussler is married and has two children.

Miss Hildegarde Riedel is a graduate from Ball State College in 1955. She was formerly taught at Adrian. Miss Riedel will teach junior high English. She will live in Chelsea.

A bake sale will be held Feb. 14, the PTA decided at its most recent meeting. They also planned to go to Manchester on Feb. 2 to participate in their fun night. A joint swimming party, to be held sometime in March at Ann Arbor High, is also being planned with GAA.

French II students are planning a play which will be given at the French club. The committee consists of Carol Cameron, Charlotte Harris and John Mesham. The student director is Sue Eisenbier. The play was originally written in French, but the students have translated it and will present it in English.

Plans for the Roman banquet to be held in April were discussed at the last meeting of the Latin club, held Jan. 14. Although the actual date has not been passed, it will be held on a Wednesday.

Three committees were appointed. The president, Eddie Leuben, is automatically on all of them. The committees are: menu—Lynn Lippert, Kay Runciman, David Lixey, Pat O'Neill; decorations—Daniel Mayer (chairman), Susan Grossman (secretary), Kathryn Kinde, Stanley

Hand, Gerald Schiller, Diane Holmes. These are the major members, and they will do the planning. Kathy Salsburg, Scott Chaplin, Carol Hulseburg, and Linda Koenigster were chosen to help this committee in the final steps of preparation for the banquet. The third committee will plan the entertainment. Serving on that committee are David Salob, Gary Barger, Ava McDougall, Nancy Carter, and Jerry Abdon.

The last student council meeting dealt mainly on the various ideas of the investment of the student body money, which has reached $809.03. The first idea was a printing press which all organizations of the school could use if they help pay the expense of $2,000.00. Polly Willis, Jane McLaughlin, and David Rowe will look into this. Another idea was a camera to take pictures in the new school for the new members and their parents. Roger Herman will find more details on this and report back at the next meeting.

The sophomores requested to have their Sophomore Freshmen dance changed from Feb. 13 to March 7, which was accepted.

The junior high will soon set up a Junior High Student Council, when the high school students move to the new school. Possibly a small amount of money will be given the junior council so as to keep them on their feet.

The FTA club was pleased to hear Miss Fox speak to them on the extra curricular obligations of a teacher. She discussed the meetings of different nature: civic, religious, and professional—that one should join. She also encouraged a question period. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed her talk.

The club presented a play for an assembled group of teachers at Ann Arbor on Jan. 17. The play, "At St. Peter's Gate," was a story of five teachers trying their best to get admitted to heaven.

They also saw a movie "What Greater Gift" which told the story of a young girl who wanted to become a teacher, but whose father objected. The story told how and why the father changed his mind as he became aware of the importance and dedication of the teaching profession.

The Journalism club's dinner which took place last 20 had a main course of baked beans. It was very well attended by all members.

This club stages a dinner every six weeks for the enjoyment of its members.

The basketballs have started swishing, and missing in the girls' physical education classes this past week. The girls started practicing first the fundamentals of passing the ball, and then advanced to shooting several types of shots. Recently the girls have faced game situations, while different girls took turns refereeing the games.

The Chelsea Junior High band has been quite busy lately preparing for the next concert and for the soon-coming contests to be held in Redford at Thurston High school. Each person must play in an ensemble and a solo. The band has been playing a new march, samba, and an overture. The sixth grade half of our band comes up on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The seniors were quite happy to work their refreshment stand and coat-check room in the new school for the basketball game there last Tuesday, Jan. 13. Sales and profits showed a definite gain over those at the previous games—due probably to the enlarged crowd curious to see the new gymnasium.

Several senior mothers have also met (Jan. 13) and plans are underway to help the class sponsor the Cattleman's dinner.

The student body is reminded to make plans to attend the Mardi Gras dance to be held in the new school, Saturday, Feb. 1. To date the committee has come up with no definite plans.

The seventh grade is finishing paying their dues of 50 cents to Carol Mayer, class treasurer. They are beginning to plan for the eighth grade a return dance, which is going to be some time in April. They are also preparing for semester exams which they have never before experienced. They are all awaiting the day when the high school moves out.

Cottontail In Hunting Spotlight

Lansing—Now that pheasant and deer seasons are relegated to "hot-stove league" discussion, the cottontail rabbit, Michigan's leading game animal, comes into the spotlight of hunter interest.

Although rabbit season opened Oct. 21, its popularity has remained secondary to other current game attractions. This is probably because early hunting is generally considered by many to be less than ideal. Sharp, nippy air seems an important ingredient for proper hunting conditions, but from now until the season ends on March 1, the cottontail will be a popular target.

The cottontail's popularity stems from a variety of factors. Compared to other game, he must outwit the hunter for a longer duration; his range covers a greater area; he is more readily accessible and therefore, vulnerable, to becoming a tasty dish, and his pursuit causes less drain on the hunter's pocketbook.

Despite these hunting inducements, coupled with a kill total of 1,585,000 in 1957, the rabbit population continues high.

This may be explained by briefly examining the animal's reproductive propensity to reproduce.

Between the months of March and September, the average female bears three to four litters. With an average of five rabbits in each litter, this totals 15 to 20 newborn bunnies per mother rabbit, annually.

Contour farming, newer crop rotation methods, mechanical harvesters, reduced spring burning and elimination of wood lot grazing give rabbits more habitat for raising bigger and better families.

Thus, the population is able to maintain a numerical advantage over Michigan's rabbit hunting force of some 390,000.

Farm Editors

Honor Pioneer Corn Breeder

Perry G. Holden, one of the first scientists to work on hybrid corn breeding, and an 1890 graduate of Michigan State University, has received a national award for his pioneer achievements.

He was presented a distinguished service award by the American Agricultural Editors' Association at its annual meeting in Chicago, Dec. 3. Holden, 93, now lives in Mason, Mich.

The pioneer corn breeder was reared on a farm in Benzie county. After graduating from Michigan State, he went to the University of Illinois where he conducted his experimental work in corn breeding. He found that crossing inbred lines produced a very vigorous corn. This type of information was used as the basis for continued work with inbreeding and cross-breeding which eventually led to the development of hybrid corn.

Holden also founded the first agronomy department in the United States at the University of Illinois and served as head of the nation's first agricultural extension department at Iowa State College.

Holden retired in 1932 after serving as director of agricultural extension for the International Harvester Co. for 20 years.

One pair of houseflies, with all conditions ideal, could produce enough offspring in six months to cover the United States 4 1/2 feet deep, it has been estimated.

Begin To Prepare Now for Biggest Community Birthday Party Ever!

There is a real humdinger of a birthday party coming up in Chelsea and everyone is invited! Whose party? Why Chelsea, of course—born 125 years ago this year.

What better excuse could we have for throwing a real fun-filled party and at the same time pausing to take stock of ourselves, count our community blessings and give thanks for those who over a part of the 125 years have made this possible today.

With an inkling of this thought in mind, a discussion started innocently enough one night several months ago after a Chamber of Commerce meeting. This discussion resulted in two meetings being held to set up a plan for our community birthday party.

We all know that most birthday parties are held to honor one person and take on a standard plan of action... but a birthday party for an entire community, wow!

Village limits, township boundaries, so many yards or miles, just what do they mean? Not a thing! Our community extends not only to all who live in and around our physical boundaries, but to wherever the thought of Chelsea causes someone to remember and perhaps feel just a little lonesome.

This truly has to be everyone's birthday party—with emphasis on the everyone, including you! And if the ground-work we've already seen continues to develop, we will all have a very busy summer, ending in the biggest birthday party you've ever seen.

TVA Purchasing Policy Invites Disaster If Allowed To Continue

TVA, our tax-fed, electric power octopus, has just bought three new 54,000 kilowatt hydroelectric generators at a cost of $2,637,135 U. S. tax dollars—dollars which were bundled up and shipped to a foreign manufacturer in Baden, Switzerland.

Three American firms who bid on the generator purchase were left out in the cold simply because they pay their workers too well to be able to compete with overseas producers for the business of their own government.

If, however, the TVA directors had elected to follow the spirit of the "Buy American" act—rather than the destructive interpretations imposed by executive order and the council on foreign economic policy—the generator contract would have gone to the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co., of Milwaukee, Wis., the lowest U. S. bidder.

That Allis-Chalmers and Milwaukee needed this business is apparent from the fact that the firm had laid off some 2,300 employees, who might have been restored to the payrolls in the final weeks before Christmas. That these workers felt entitled to consideration is understandable since, in the 25 years of TVA operation, they and their fellow citizens of Wisconsin had contributed nearly $26 million of their tax money to this federal impediment to free enterprise.

Both the company and the unions representing these unemployed workers spoke up promptly (even though unsuccessfully) in their behalf! "We thought," said Allis-Chalmers, "that the people of Milwaukee and the citizens of the U. S. should be aware of what was happening. We felt they had a right to know how their tax money was being used abroad and by so doing, taking work away from our American wage-earners... It is quite evident that no American firm can compete in the heavy electrical equipment market with foreign bidders whose labor costs are one-third those in the U. S."

Union leaders demanded that the TVA directors be fired for being "calloused and indifferent to the plight of unemployed Milwaukee workers," and protested TVA's failure to give Congress time to investigate before awarding the contract.

But nobody heard—any more than they heard the ranting of John L. Lewis against TVA in 1954, when he charged that body with abusing its economic power in purchasing millions of tons of coal "at starvation prices" and in utter disregard of "safety standards and health conditions."

It is high time that the people, whose authority ranks even that of TVA, demand reversal of a federal policy that can only destroy one American industry after another—and ultimately, the economic system that is the tap root of national strength and independence.

An opportunist is a person who, finding himself in hot water, decides he needs a bath anyway.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Traffic safety in Michigan is approaching the point of maximum efficiency.

For three consecutive years, the deaths in auto accidents have been reduced more than 10 per cent.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs, who reports only part of the credit for his highly trained force, says the situation is like becoming an expert at golf.

"You get your score down into the 70's and it's tougher and tougher to take off even one more stroke," he said.

Michigan is now in second place to Pennsylvania in the number of deaths for each 100,000 travel miles, a giant step from the records of three years ago and before.

Records show that 179 fewer persons died in traffic in 1958 than the year before. The accomplishment is one of those rare non-political areas of government where it is possible to find Republicans and Democrats congratulating each other.

Childs claims that laws passed by the Republican-controlled legislature and approved by the Democratic Gov. Williams have played a large part in the program.

These include the speed limits of 65 miles an hour during the day and 55 miles an hour during the night, improved driver-training education in the schools.

In addition, stiffer requirements for drivers have been imposed and enforced.

Thousands of drivers found to be incompetent, habitually negligent, or those with unsatisfactory driving records are taken off the road through suspension or revocation of their licenses.

Officials from Williams, Secretary of State James M. Hare, chairman of the state safety commission, down to the least deputy sheriff in the state, are ready with praise for each other.

The top-level strategy group worked hard, but all acknowledged the co-operation of the law enforcement agencies, the press, radio and television, the schools, the churches and others.

The problem of trying to reduce traffic deaths another 10 per cent for the fourth straight year is a matter of mathematics.

Each year, the 10 per cent is computed on a smaller base. But as Hare said, the 1958 record must level out to a bare 100 deaths a month if the goal is to be reached. That figure was topped seven times in 1958, with 183 killed in November.

From a mathematical standpoint, it is impossible to continue reducing the figure 10 per cent forever.

"If we did," we would, of course wind up at zero," said one safety expert.

Obstacles arose at the first safety congress of 1959. Law enforcement agencies, the accidents and deaths are occurring on rural county roads where police patrols are at a necessary minimum.

They agreed it is not the fault of county sheriffs whose manpower is at a minimum, or the State Police, whose main duty is patrolling the state highways.

Children brought up another point. County roads that once were gravel surfaced and slow now have been hard surfaced and have become fast—smooth—with no change in the grade on curves.

Drivers who were held at 45 to 50 by conditions before now can travel 60 and 65 with an often misleading feeling of security.

During 1959 safety leaders in Michigan will embark on a series of campaigns to improve the already enviable record of the state on the highways.

There will be a sterner crack-down on drinking drivers, a greater emphasis on enforcement on rural county roads and another push to take incompetent drivers off the road.

These programs have been in effect for years in Michigan and have been credited with much of the improvement.

Another factor is the growing number of miles of safer two-lane divided superhighways that are being constructed under Michigan's $1,250,000,000 five-year plan.

But, everyone in and out of government agrees that the focus of safety on the highways is unchanged and unchanged, that the man most responsible is still the driver.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Up at the country store Saturday night Ed Doolittle was giving us a piece of his mind on what he thought about them Congressmen messing in the dental profession.

Back during the war Ed got himself a set of store teeth from a mail order house. Ed says the uppers has got broke up over the years on account of him eating so much store bought meat, so he orders himself some new uppers.

He got a note from the mail order house saying it was now a'gin the law to send store teeth through the mail. It seems a Congressman from Georgia ordered a complete set from some company and they sent him two uppers and a lower. When he tried to get his straightened out, the mail order house had done gone out of business. So this Congressman gets a law passed that you can't send store teeth through the mail no more.

Ed was mighty upset about it, allowed as how if he had them two upper teeth back he wouldn't even mess with store bought teeth in the first place.

Under our system of Government ever jackass has got a right to express his opinion on things that's going on in the country. I'd like to express mine about this English fellow that's making this lecture tour over here. He says the time ain't far off when nobody but the good farmers will be allowed to use the land. He says they've had that system in England since 1839. If England is going to swap us them kind of ideas for the money we're sending over there, she can keep her ideas and we'll keep our money.

According to his plan, only the farmer and rancher that worked the hardest, got up the earliest and stayed up the latest would be allowed to use the land. That could have terrible implications, Mister Editor. What if it applied to other lines? What would happen if only the lawyer that worked all the time was allowed to practice? Or think what would happen to the politicians if only them public servants that stayed on the job all the time was allowed to hold office. We'd have to hold elections every day, wouldn't we?

And we'd be in a constant replacement program on everything from politicians to newspaper editors.

The next time you write your column, Mister Editor, you tell him they ought to be a little more careful who they let in this country from England. A plan like this fellow advocates would ruin fella's like me whose rheumatism gets worse about planting time ever spring and lasts till harvest time is over. In America a fellow gets to put up with his wife's kinfolks, but he ain't got to put up with visiting Englishmen.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

* Muffle That Oratory

I don't keep up on automotive matters very closely, and I just learned a little while ago that mufflers aren't what they used to be. I supposed that the purpose of a muffler was to get the exhaust gases away from the motor as quickly and quietly as possible, and with the least possible resistance. In other words, I thought the best muffler would be the one that let the exhaust slide through without slowing it down.

But Charlie Stoddard was telling me that the proper muffler for today's higher compression engines may have considerable back-pressure engineered into it. The engine seems to run smoother or if the exhaust gases don't get away too easily.

I think an audience ought to provide a little resistance to a public speaker. The speech doesn't do much good if the orator's words pass in one ear and out the other without meeting any friction as they pass through the head.

If he is saying something that everybody agrees with already, he isn't accomplishing much. And if he is presenting a new idea, it's a wise audience that will do some evaluating before they accept it. A certain amount of back-pressure in the form of healthy skepticism will tend to keep a speaker from making wild statements that he can't prove.

Active listening by the audience will actually make a speaker do a better job. An experienced public speaker can sense whether people are paying attention, and even whether they are agreeing with him or not. If he feels that his idea has not been accepted yet, he will repeat it in other words, will give an illustration to drive it home, will try to express it more clearly.

If I unquestioningly believe every salesman's spiel, every clergyman's sermon, every politician's speech, every gossip's tale, every pauper's plea, I lose my independence of judgment and surrender my integrity. The man who falls for everything doesn't stand for anything.

They say the type of person who is a good salesman is very susceptible to the patter of another salesman. A columnist is too ready to believe anything he reads in a column. So I have to watch myself to keep from being taken in by whatever book or magazine I happen to be reading at the moment. Are you troubled that way too?

VICE PRESIDENT NIXON'S VIEWS

Vice President Nixon has cut himself in on the process of assembling President Eisenhower's state-of-the-Union message with the obvious intention of accenting modern republicanism.

Nixon has taken steps to make certain the Cabinet members who send their recommendations to the President know the Vice President's views.

Congress Acting

To Abolish Penalty

On Short-Paid Mail

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announced today that he has ordered indefinite suspension of the five-cent charge on "short paid" mail (mail with insufficient postage).

The extension of the deferment has been ordered as a result of Congressional action designed to abolish the extra charge permanently by legislation.

Public Law 85-371, effective July 1, 1958, provided that a short paid charge in addition to the lawful postage should be collected from the addressee on delivery of mail not fully prepaid by the sender to cover the costs incurred. The five-cent charge was adopted to cover the costs.

However, under authority contained in the law, the Post Office Department, on Aug. 1, suspended the five-cent charge pending further study. This suspension had been scheduled to terminate Feb. 1, but will now be continued for an indefinite period, until a final Congressional decision on the matter is forthcoming, Summerfield explained.

The five-cent short paid charge should not be confused with regular "postage due charge" for unpaid mail or mail bearing insufficient postage, Summerfield pointed out.

Postage due charges are not involved in the present deferment. For example, an ordinary first-class letter with a three-cent stamp instead of the required four-cent stamp is still subject to a penny postage due charge.

Dr. Hans Kurath (right), internationally-known linguist of the University of Michigan, talks with Dr. Frank Baxter between scenes of "The Alphabet Conspiracy," the Bell System Science Series program about language that will be telecast over the NBC-TV network at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 26. Dr. Kurath appears on the program to explain the work of the dialect geographers.

Science of Linguistics TV Show Features U-M Language Expert

The story of language, how and why people talk as they do, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 26 over the NBC-TV network when the Bell System telecasts its sixth program of the Bell Science Series, "The Alphabet Conspiracy."

This newest program features Dr. Frank Baxter and is devoted to the science of linguistics. The film presents a fantasy in which Hans Conrad, Cheryl Callaway, and Dolores Starr plot to kill all the letters in the alphabet and thus destroy all words. Conspirators are Judy, a school girl who's tired of grammar lessons; the Mad Hatter, who's against language on general principles; and the Jabberwock, who speaks a language all his own.

But they're foiled by Dr. Baxter as the scientist who shows them many facts about language they had never considered.

One is that language is based on sounds rather than alphabets, and that man has been talking for 70 times as many centuries as he has been writing. Another is that a machine that actually talks was invented as early as 1740 and that there is a modern machine that produces rather than reproduces speech. A third is that the home areas of people can be located with surprising accuracy by their speech.

Both animation and scientific motion pictures are used to illustrate this story of language. Among the latter are motion pictures of the vocal cords in action and of the unique whistling language of the Canary Islands.

Appearing in the film will be Dr. Hans Kurath, internationally-known linguist of the University of Michigan, who for the past 25 years has directed research on a colossal work titled "Linguistic Atlas of the United States."

"The Alphabet Conspiracy" was produced by Warner Brothers, with Robert Sinclair as director, and Owen Crump as producer.

New Pushbutton Business Phone Is Introduced

A streamlined pushbutton business telephone, the "Call Director," was introduced this week by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. At the touch of a button, it provides inter-office communication, transferring of calls, signaling, conference calling between extensions, and the "adding on" of other extensions to incoming calls.

In looks and features, the "Call Director" is unlike any previous telephone. It incorporates in a single unit many features that formerly required several separate pieces of equipment.

The new instrument is a low, compact button-studded unit with the hand receiver cradled at its side. It was developed for businessmen, and for secretaries or clerks who answer calls for a number of people.

Clear plastic pushbuttons light up to indicate incoming calls. Lines in use, and lines on which calls are being held. The slanted operating panel permits easy reading of numbers and ready use of the buttons.

Available in 18- and 30-button models in four colors—light gray, moss green, ivory and beige—the "Call Director" was tested extensively in a six-month trial among businessmen in New York City.

Michigan Bell engineers say the instrument's special design makes possible faster installation and rearrangement of service to suit a customer's needs.

Farmers' Week at Michigan State University is one of the outstanding agricultural events in the nation. Dates this year are Feb. 2-6 on the campus at East Lansing.

Four Young People Chosen To Take Part In International Youth Exchange Program

Four Michigan youths have been selected to take part in the International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) program this coming year, announced Russell G. Mawby, State 4-H Club leader at Michigan State University. They are: Carol Jean Nelson, 20, West Branch; Arnold Girbach, 21, Ann Arbor; Donald Wiseman, 21, Marine City; and Dennis K. Sellers, 21, Petoskey.

Tentative plans call for Miss Nelson and Girbach to leave in early summer for Denmark and Portugal, respectively. In the fall, Wiseman and Sellers will go to Australia and Colombia.

The IFYE program is set up to improve international understanding through a "people to people" exchange plan. The Michigan youths will live and work with farm families in their host countries during the period of their visit.

Miss Nelson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson and is currently a home economics journalism student at Michigan State University. She has been a 4-H Club member for nine years and was active in Future Homemakers of America in high school. Among her 4-H Club awards was a trip to the Canadian National Exhibition as one of the top 4-H Club members in the state.

Girbach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Girbach. He will soon graduate from Michigan State University with a major in agricultural economics. Arnold is a nine year 4-H member. He has been chosen one of the top members in the state and placed second in a state-wide 4-H public speaking contest.

Wiseman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wiseman, is a senior in agricultural economics at Michigan State University. In his nine years of 4-H Club work, he has had interests in dairying, soil and wildlife conservation and junior leadership. In 1958, he coached the St. Clair county 4-H dairy judging team.

Sellers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sellers and is currently a student in agricultural education at Michigan State University. He has been active in church affairs and held a state office in the Future Farmers of America. As a 4-H club member, he won awards in saddle horse work.

All four IFYE delegates live on farms which will help them fit into farm homes in their host countries. The overseas visits are for six-month periods.

Upon their return, the delegates expect to spend a large portion of their time speaking to groups, telling about their experiences.

Support for the IFYE program is supplied by local groups and state and national 4-H Club foundations.

Adult Doe Trapped For Second Time After Eight-Year Period

Lansing—After an eight-year interlude, Number 4178, an adult doe, reappeared in the lineup of trapping operations at the Cusino Wildlife Experiment Station.

The deer was first recorded on the station's trapping register in 1951. At that time, it weighed 133 pounds.

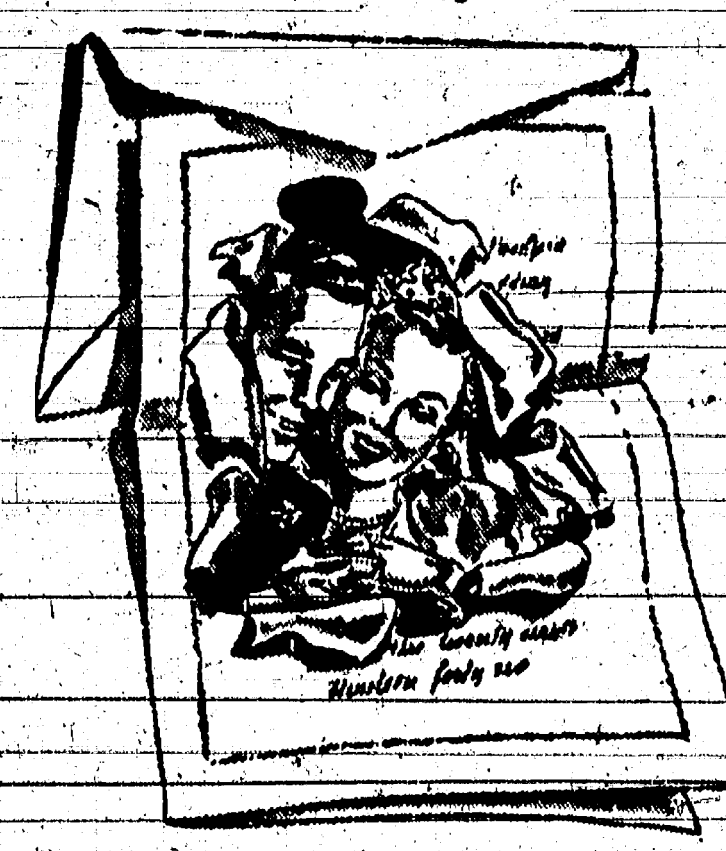

After being tagged, the doe was released and its whereabouts was unknown until several weeks ago when it was again trapped, six miles from the original site of capture.

Visibly none the worse for wear, it weighed 152.

Men and women who have attended Farmers' Week for 30 years or more will be honored at special program during the event on the Michigan State University campus, Feb. 2-6.

Joe Pasternak has bought a star for Syd Charisse which he will be making this summer. It is the first movie purchase of a star, "Alma," which is being put on in Rome and will be televised scores the European continent.

Regarding that rumor that Audie Murphy and his wife had split up... They had a slight spat which lasted two days. Then Audie came home, bundled up the family and went to their ranch for the holidays where they had a wonderful time.

Cornel Wilde and his wife Jean Wallace will co-star in "Caves of Fear" for Columbia.

June Blair, who broke up with Linda Crosby, is back with old heart throbs, Dick Sargent, who is a pal of Gary's.

Admirers of Alfred Hitchcock, who does a great deal of writing on all his picture scripts, will be glad to know he will take sole credit for "Perfect Day for Murder," which he will make with his own organization.

Hitch is very secretive about details of his story, beyond saying it is an all-out suspense and mystery deal.

Today's picture review:

IN LOVE AND WAR

This war drama has all the stars: Robert Wagner, Diana Wynne, Jeffrey Hunter, Hope Lange and Bradford Dillman all turn in outstanding performances that will hold the audience in their seats from start to finish. When the Marines land on Japanese-held islands in the Pacific there are three very different kinds of American heroes among them. One is Sergeant Jeffrey Hunter, who comes from a family of Greek fishermen and can take anything life has to offer. Back home he loved Hope Lange, and willingly married her to give a name to his expected baby. Another is scholarly Bradford Dillman, whose father is very rich and enraged at Brad's insistence on being where the fighting is. Dillman's girl, socialite Diana Wynne, although usually depicted as breathlessly beautiful, and turns in a fine bit of acting.

as usual. And then there is cowardly, frightened Robert Wagner, descendant of a poor Irish family.

What war does to these buddies makes for a very absorbing film.

AUNTIE MAME, starring the marvelous Rosalind Russell, is a sophisticated comedy that should have any broad-minded person a few good laughs. AUNTIE MAME is not another MOON IS BLUE but if you enjoyed THE MOON IS BLUE, you will enjoy AUNTIE MAME.

Rosalind Russell has her best comedy role yet in our book. Forrest Tucker and Coral Browne do fine co-starring jobs. In fact, the entire cast comes through with flying colors.

The picture is presented by Warner Bros. and directed by Morton DaCosta.

Principal theme was the possibilities for educational and religious work in Alaska where problems include inter-racial relationships, difference of language, etc.

Entrepreneurs Farm Bureau Discusses Taxes

Agricultural Entrepreneurs Farm Bureau members, with Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Pidd as hosts, met Thursday evening at Lima Center Community Hall. There were 18 families present.

Raymond Schreier, minute man for the group, reported on the happenings in the House of Representatives and the Senate and distributed booklets entitled, "New Policies for 1959."

A committee was appointed to check details of the issue of extended area phone service.

Also appointed were three members designated to write to congressmen this month: Mrs. Walter Lutz, Mrs. Lloyd Boyce and Raymond Schreier.

The evening's discussion, led by Charles Powers, was on the subject of property taxes.

The group went on record with a statement of members' opinion that local taxes should be based on other resources than real estate and personal property.

They illustrated the point by stating that a person living in town may have a home assessed at $3,000 but have earning power of a much greater amount, while a farm owner may be assessed $15,000 while his earning power is much less than that of the town property owner. A more equitable division of taxation, the group stated, would be a head tax.

Local government could add to their revenues by other means to ease the property tax load, according to the group's recorded opinion, mentioning particularly income tax, sales tax, reduced exemption and elimination of coffee breaks.

The group also gave a decisive "no" to whether taxation should be handled directly by the state and distributed in the form of state aid grants. The reason for opposition to the state level tax was that too much money would be lost.

The next meeting of the group will be held Feb. 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schreier.

Lloyd Boyce was designated to invite E. Haggard of Dexter, to speak at the Feb. 19 meeting on the subject of his trip east in connection with the Farm Bureau convention.

Other business at Thursday's meeting was approval of a proposal that the Agricultural Entrepreneurs furnish a new table for the Farm Bureau office building.

Lamps, Furniture Affect Reading, Working Pleasure

It's not just the lamp in your living room that adds to your reading or working pleasure, says Miss Mary Taepke, residential lighting specialist with the Detroit Edison Co.

She adds that tables, chairs and desks are important, too. They encourage good—or bad—posture, as you read, write or sew. Furniture should be "size suited" to your family.

Miss Taepke will be on the campus of Michigan State University on Feb. 6, to appear on a program of "Lighting Your Home." It's a part of Farmers' Week, and anyone interested is invited to attend. The meeting will be held in Agricultural Engineering building, room 116, at 10 a.m.

Joining Miss Taepke will be lighting specialists from Westinghouse Corp. and from Consumers Power Co.

Farmers' Week programs for women are scheduled on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. All women, both farm and city, are invited.

WALTER D. STROEBEL

Saginaw Man Named To Head Masonic Lodge

As Michigan Royal Arch Masonry celebrates the 140th anniversary of the establishment of the first Michigan chapter, Walter D. Strobel of Saginaw was named the 101st Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons in Michigan.

Walter D. Strobel was born on a farm just outside the village of St. Charles in Saginaw county, July 6, 1908.

His schooling was obtained in the public schools of Saginaw and, in 1924, he graduated from Arthur Hill High School with the Julius W. Ippel cup, awarded for outstanding activity in citizenship and scholarship.

Strobel received further educational enlightenment from the local business college and completed a course in accounting.

Strobel entered the business world and he was named secretary of the general retail merchandise business—which was then being operated by his father and his five uncles. He remained until October, 1954, when the corporation was dissolved and he is now associated with Edward Meyer and Son.

Most Excellent Companion Strobel has enjoyed a distinguished Masonic career. Saginaw Valley Lodge No. 154, F&AM made him a Master Mason, December 8, 1927, and he served as Worshipful Master for the year 1935. He became a Royal Arch Mason, Jan. 28, 1938, in Joppa Chapter No. 63, RAM and held a two-year term as Excellent High Priest. He was greeted by Saginaw Council No. 20, R&SM, March 31, 1941, and served as Thrice Illustrious Master in 1949. St. Bernard Commandery No. 18, K. T. Knighted him Oct. 29, 1937, and on April 8, 1947 he was elected Eminent Commander. During the week ending Oct. 31, 1945, he received the various grades of the Scottish Rite, Freemasonry, ending with the 32nd degree. At present, he is serving as Deputy Master of Bay City Lodge of Perfection and as Orator of Bay City Consistory and for services rendered to the Craft was coroneted a 32nd Degree Mason-Sept. 28, 1956, at Cincinnati, O.

He is also a member of Marlin Grotto, Elf Khurafen Shrine, and of the Caravan Shrine Club.

On Oct. 20, 1951, he was elected Grand Master of the Second Veil. Each year he has progressed through the line and on Oct. 18, 1955, he was unanimously proclaimed as Michigan's 101st Grand High Priest.

Religion has also played a large part in Companion Strobel's life. Born of Lutheran-Catholic parents who were married by a Methodist, it was probably apropos that he should become a Baptist. However, when his special lady came along she happened to be an Episcopalian and so he finally adopted that religion. He has served as Vestryman and Treasurer of St. John's church and has held a license as a Lay Reader since 1941.

Postal Employees

average better than the Regional Fleet, based on number of accidents, cost and casualties due to vehicle collisions.

Prior to 1954, the Post Office Department possessed one of the worst traffic safety records in government. The Department's present intensive program, which includes safe driving instruction, driver examination and licensing, rules for safe operation, awards and other incentives for safe driving is paying off year after year.

This program has now paid off in 1958 with the lowest accident rate and casualty rate in history for postal vehicles in our Chicago Region. Justus commented, "When one considers that postal vehicles must operate in peak traffic at peak hours of traffic activity in communities in every center of population in Illinois and Michigan, the importance of a vigorous safety effort by the Post Office Department is easily understood."

In a letter to Postmaster Mayer, Justus stated "It is interesting to note that your office (Chelsea) has been recognized most often for the Regional Operations Director's Award." Justus concluded by requesting that Postmaster Mayer "extend my wholehearted congratulations to your employees for improving their vehicle accident record during 1958."

GOOD REASON?

Lawrence, Mass.—District Court Judge William E. Daly recently heard testimony about a poker game and then dropped a charge against James Hester of assault and battery on his wife.

Hester testified he was holding three aces and his wife would not let him a dollar to buy the hand. "What did the other fellow have?" asked the judge.

"Only two pairs," replied Hester. Mrs. Hester testified her husband knocked her against a chair when she refused to give him the dollar.

Conservation Department Reviews Porcupine Mountains Mining Issue

Lansing—The Conservation Commission unanimously declared its opposition to mining in the Porcupine Mountains during its formal meeting in Lansing, Jan. 9.

The issue was settled several days before the meeting when the Bear Creek Mining Company withdrew its application.

It was pointed out that the Commission had delayed its decision to allow fullest possible discussion of the issue.

Review of the issue was felt warranted by the Commission in light of the principle involved, its implications and the wide public interest which had been aroused.

The Commission substantiated its stand by reaffirming the state park policy of 1954. The crux of the policy, as related to the lease proposal, is embodied in article six which reads as follows:

"These resources shall not be exploited at the expense of recreational values, although efficient management may dictate the sale, exchange, or lease of parts of them. Public values within the boundaries of established parks shall not be impaired or vacated by leases, sale, or exchange."

Pointing to the nation-wide advertising the area has received in recent months, Commissioner Robert F. Bravits recommended to the Commission that it capitalize on this coverage by aiding development of year-round tourist trade in the Porcupine Mountains area.

This formative plan, endorsed by the Commission, calls for possible leasing of land in the northeast sector of the park—outside the dedicated area—to private industry for expansion of resort trade and recreation facilities.
