Cheating on Special Deer License Request May Bring Prosecution

Lansing—Deer hunters are warned by the Conservation Department that it doesn't pay to submit more than one application for special season permits. This year's improved checking system will enable department personnel to keep a close tab on all applications. Persons who break the one-application rule will be subject to fines and costs. In some cases, violators may also lose their hunting privileges. Approximately 540 duplications were discovered in permit applications for the 1958 season. Some 271 persons were assessed fines and costs totaling more than $5,000. Action is still pending on 18 cases.

Edited by Students of the Chelsea High School Journalism Club

Co-Editors
Jill Barkley and Tassy Cavadas

Carol Reddeman, a junior at Chelsea High School, was chosen Queen of the Chelsea Fair and presented with her crown and a bouquet of American Beauty roses by last year's fair queen, Elaine Walker, a 1959 graduate. Other nominees were Senior Kathy Gollins, Sophomore Dorothy Brown, Freshmen Loretta Wahl, and 4-H Fane Wenk. Judges had a hard time choosing, as the girls were judged on poise, grace, neatness, personality, beauty, and a number of other items.

In the late spring of 1959 the Journalism Club elected as their 1959-60 editors two juniors, Jill Barkley and Tassy Cavadas. The girls spent two weeks, from June 15 to July 3, at Michigan State University, attending classes planned to help prospective editors of school papers. Both girls were happy to go, and claim they learned much from the course.

Leaders of the Future Homemakers of America Club for 1959-60 will be: President, May Ellen Marshall; vice-president, Judy Welch; secretary, Kathy Gollins; and treasurer, Carol Young. Parliamentarian will be Sheila Borders; historian, Charlotte Harris; song leader, Carol Cameron; reporter, Rita Schramm. Officers met Sept. 9 to discuss the activities of the club for the coming year. A recruitment meeting was planned for Sept. 16.

Hi-Y selected Bud Schramm as their treasurer at the Sept. 9 meeting. President Roger Norman reminded members that dues have been set at $1.50 a year, and must be paid by Jan. 22. A committee of Dick Irwin, Dick Halst, and Dalice Ferris was appointed to find out about food for the players after the games.

"Queen of the Rainbow" was the theme the sophomore class chose for its float. Many hours of hard work went into building the float at the Russell A. McLaughlin residence so as to have the float completed by last Saturday's parade. Dot Brown was selected by her classmates to reign as queen of the rainbow. Her court included Rose Ann Hiltz, Carol Dancer, Nancy McCalla, and Rita Ramp.

A detailed discussion followed concerning a forthcoming taffy sale. Ava MacDougall and Stanley Hand were appointed to construct a poster concerning uses of Latin. Dues remained at 75 cents and are to be paid on or before Sept. 30.

Fertilizer Could Double Alfalfa Crop

A simple soil test and plenty of the right fertilizer could add one-fourth million tons to Michigan's annual alfalfa hay crop. This increase would be worth more than twenty million dollars a year, says James A. Porter, extension soils specialist at Michigan State University.

The state's alfalfa hay fields now yield about 1.8 tons per acre, Porter reports. He feels better fertilization could bring the state average up to almost three tons per acre.

Fertilizer improves hay quality as well as yield and better storage growth builds up the soil for crops to come.

Late summer is a good time to top-dress alfalfa stands on heavy soils, Porter emphasizes. Plant nutrients won't wash away over winter in such fields. Fertilizing implements may not navigate too well in early spring.

Late March or early April is usually a better time to top-dress on light textured soils, Porter points out. But he advises testing the soil now so your hay will have a balanced diet next year.

A grain drill, a fertilizer drill or a bulk spreading truck works fine, Porter believes. He says it's important to spread the fertilizer evenly on the soil surface.

Of course, legumes seldom need any nitrogen fertilizer. They get all they need from the air—and it's free.

★ Congress Gets Ready To Go Home

Congress is trying to get in shape to go home. No one knows when this can take place, but the most commonly mentioned date is Sept. 12. One result of this drive is that legislation is being rushed through at a terrific rate. And much of this legislation is of utmost importance. For example:

1. An attempt to override the President's veto of a $1.2 billion public works bill failed in the House by one vote. The President vetoed the measure primarily because it authorized 87 projects which had not been included in the budget. It is now assumed that a new bill, acceptable to the President, will be put together and passed. This is probable because Members of the Congress want public works spending in their districts, and to get this a new bill must be passed.

Major Labor Legislation

2. The House and the Senate have agreed on a labor bill. It took 12 days of conference, and at one point it appeared there was no real chance of agreement. The bill is a compromise between the weak Kennedy measure which passed the Senate and the stronger Landrum-Griffin bill which passed the House. The compromise is substantially better than the Kennedy bill, and unquestionably is as good as could be passed by the present Congress. It is the first major labor legislation since the Taft-Hartley Act of 1947. Passage of the bill culminates the greatest period of lobbying in many years. Labor union leaders swarmed over the Congress in an effort to prevent its becoming law and management worked as hard on the other side. The Administration also worked for passage, and President Eisenhower's appeal to the public over radio and television may have been the particular action which made final enactment possible.

3. A bill limiting the right of states to impose income taxes on out of state business, unless such companies maintain an operating office within the state, has been passed and presumably will be signed by the President. This problem arose because of decisions of the United States Supreme Court and, without legislative clarification, it threatened to create increasing difficulties.

4. A housing bill has been passed to replace the first one vetoed by the President. This second bill also has been vetoed by the President and the Senate. Whether a third bill can or will be passed is an open question. Presumably an effort along this line will be made, but success is by no means assured.

Difficulties in Raising Cash

5. Many weeks ago the Administration asked for legislation which would increase the public debt limit, remove the present 4% per cent ceiling on government obligations of more than five years maturity, and authorize the Treasury to adjust upward the rate paid on E and H savings bonds. The debt limit was increased without delay, but the Ways and Means Committee refused to recommend legislation which would meet the other two requests. This decision still holds in so far as the 4% per cent ceiling is concerned, but a bill has been reported out which makes possible lifting the interest on the E and H bonds from the present 3 1/2 per cent to 3% per cent. Such action will be of no appreciable help in managing our public debt—and today the Government simply cannot sell bonds because many of its issues already on the market yield appreciably above 4% per cent. Adjustment of the rate on E and H savings bonds, however, should tend to diminish the rate at which they are redeemed, and thus reduce the cash drain upon the Treasury.

Many other pieces of legislation are being set aside for this session of the Congress. Some of these are desired by the Administration, but most have been sponsored by Members of the Congress and do not have Administration support. Taking the record of this session of the Congress as a whole, it can be said that it has been much better than most of us dared hope for after the November elections.

Why Not Sell Milk as Being the Good-Tasting Drink It Really Is?

While the dairy industry has done an outstanding job in boosting efficiency and quality, it has failed to get out and sell. As a result, the per capita consumption of milk for drinking has dropped 3 per cent in the past ten years.

On the other hand, widely promoted beverages using modern selling and merchandising techniques have enjoyed rapid growth. Between 1940 and 1958 canned and frozen fruit juices grew 325 per cent in per capita consumption. Bottled soft drinks were up 100 per cent and beer 20 per cent. People will eat anything that's good for them, but they'll eat much more of it, and eat it more often, too, if it tastes good.

Tomato juice and then orange juice grew to be businesses approaching the fluid milk business in size, not solely because tomato juice and orange juice are good for you. They taste good, too. Well, so does milk.

We wonder if the continued emphasis on the healthfulness of milk over the years hasn't built up an image of the product which may, in some respects, overshadow the potentially great appeal of milk for goodness' sake.

The president of General Foods Corp. has estimated that a good selling program could boost fluid milk sales by as much as 60 per cent by 1969. Relying on population increase alone for an increase in sales, the gain will be only about 15 per cent.

Seeing the job that General Foods has done with instant coffee and frozen juice concentrate, the estimate should be a well-educated one.

So far, the bulk of dairy advertising has been done by the big dairies. They're pushing cheese and other manufactured items because they are their profit makers.

But manufactured dairy products use low-priced surplus milk. For the farmer to prosper, it must be the drinking milk that is pushed.

It doesn't look as if anyone is going to push it for him. Something more than the present small milk check deduction for advertising is needed if milk is going to hold and increase its share of the market.—Arenac County Independent.

"Dying" To See The Game

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

A critical period is ahead for the fast-growing field of potential candidates for governor in 1960.

And that includes the incumbent. Those closest to Gov. G. Mennen Williams insist he has not made up his mind whether to seek a seventh term.

Meanwhile, Democrats who are potential candidates, especially those on the State Administrative Board, are told to keep their ambitions under wraps.

And Republicans are kept guessing.

In less than a year the campaign will be underway. Although announcements for some can be stalled off until Spring, decisions must be made soon so courses may be charted and trial balloons released.

Republicans are confident '60 is their year. Forces that held back before will be thrown into a pre-primary power struggle between liberals and conservatives in the party. The gap between the two appears to be widening.

Democrats have confidence because, they say, the Republicans controlled Legislature gave them issues voters will remember. But the possibility that Williams may seek another job carries with it the possibility of a free-for-all primary among Democrats.

A landslide victory in 1958 for Secretary of State James M. Harasent him to the head of the line of Democrats waiting for Williams to vacate.

State Supreme Court Justice George Edwards has proved his popularity with voters and has wide respect among party leaders. But he says he is happy on the bench.

State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown would like the job but does not want to go through a primary fight. Attorney General Paul L. Adams, Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson and Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie are other members of Williams "cabinet" mentioned as replacement prospects.

Among Republicans, Paul D. Bagwell has the most apparent backing. His strong showing against Williams in 1958 made him a party hero. Yet many within the party are looking to industry, Washington and the State Senate for candidates for governor.

The GOP liberals see American Motors' President George Romney as a good "name" candidate for the nomination. Some in the other camp look to Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield for leadership.

Some talk is heard among Republicans of Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) and Rep. Robert Griffin (R-Mich.) as candidates for the nomination.

Both have been on the firing line recently. Morris was chief architect of the Republican tax stand in the Legislature.

Griffin was vaulted to prominence in Congress by the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill.

A familiar name in pre-primary speculation about candidates for governor in 1958 has hinted he may announce early next year as a candidate for the U. S. Senate.

Rep. George Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) is viewed as a rebel by GOP regulars.

But his criticism of his party's legislative program has kept him in the public eye, as has his chairmanship of a national committee promoting New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the presidency.

Two leading lawmakers in Lansing are hoping Rep. Clare E. Hoffman (R-Mich.), the 84-year-old Congressman from the Third District, does not seek re-election.

Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) said he would like the job but would not oppose Hoffman in a primary.

House Speaker Don R. Peara (R-Buchanan) would like the job and may not wait.

Another octogenarian serving Michigan voters is Rep. Louis Cramton (R-Lapeer), who will be 84, Dec. 2.

Cramton played an active role in the tax fight. Early in the session he sought a constitutional amendment that would have removed doubts about constitutionality of the proposed graduated personal income tax. He voted against most of the Republican use-sales tax plans.

Cramton, father of fair employment practices legislation, first served the state as law clerk in the State Senate from 1903 to 1907.

He was elected to the Michigan House of Representatives in 1908, went on to become a member of Congress and a circuit judge, and then returned to the Legislature in 1948.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

When that feller Tommy Manville got married the ninth time he was quoted as saying it was a victory for hope over experience. That's the way I feel about old Khrushchev coming to visit us. I'm hoping but I ain't expecting much.

The papers is saying he's bringing about 40 of them Kremlin boys along with him and I don't see how we're going to compete with that two-platoon system. We ain't got more'n four or five in our party that's pulling in the same direction and we can't git but about a half a platoon on the field at the same time.

Personally, I think our State Department should have got Harry to write old Khrushchev a letter afore this visit. Them Russians ain't really had our Sunday punch till they git a letter from Harry. He didn't git much done playing the piano for Joe at Tehran, but when he sets down to take pen in hand he's harder to git around than a woman trying to double park.

All the writers is trying to build up Khrushchev's visit as a mission of peace. I think that's the right attitude and I'm hoping they is right. But I'm always afeared of these affairs. Fer instant, we ain't never lost a war but we ain't never broke even with our allies when it was over. The Russians won more at Yalta, Tehran, and Potsdam than we've won in all the wars we ever fought.

And some of them writers is overdoing it. One reporter from Moscow says he thinks Khrushchev is easing up on his aim to git West Berlin. He'll be telling us next that Liz Taylor is wearing high-neck dresses and keeping her mouth shut.

Personally, I'll be mighty happy if we just hold our own on this visit. Them Russians is the best double-talkers the world has ever saw. Hitler twisted history but them Russians invented it. I recall once when they claimed they was growing corn on the cob in bunches. Why they didn't claim it was already buttered, I'll never know. Then they fixed up a 14-volume history proving they won World War II all by themselves. I went along with that, hoping they'd rest on their laurels fer 50 years. When they come up with a two-headed cabbage I didn't say a word, and when they claimed a feller Moshalsky built the first airplane in 1885 and kept it in the air 26 minutes, I didn't argue. They Northwood is located in Alma, in the remodeled former home of Ammi W. Wright, a wealthy lumberman who built the house in 1859 of materials imported from Europe. Many of the original art pieces and decorations remain in the school to give an atmosphere of history and tradition.

WHAT'S THE STORY ON THE NEW FORD FALCON?

Come in and we'll tell you all we know!

HOW BIG WILL THE ALL-NEW FORD FALCON BE? HOW MANY PEOPLE WILL IT CARRY? HOW ABOUT POWER?

To start with, in the all-new, New-Size Ford—the Ford Falcon—you save, but never "do without!" You get modern, fine-car styling . . . six-people-big room and comfort . . . a car that's born and bred for the American road! And you get it from Dearborn, Michigan, automotive capital of the world.

LET'S TALK ABOUT STYLING FIRST!

You're going to be amazed by the Falcon's beauty. It has a low, sleek, European flair in new, beautifully proportioned style. It has safe, "wide open" visibility all-around. Interior styling is fresh and new, with smart looking, durable upholstery. In a nutshell, the Falcon is Ford's way of proving that a true economy car doesn't need to look, ride or feel like one.

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE ALL-NEW FALCON'S SIX-PASSENGER SIZE!

Available in both 2- and 4-door models, both models will have full-width seats accommodating six. There's room for all their luggage, too, with 265% more luggage space than the two most popular foreign cars. Pretty amazing, isn't it? The main reason is the way the Falcon is built.

SO LET'S TALK ABOUT THAT!

The Falcon uses the latest type of single-unit construction (like the fabulous Ford Thunderbird). This adds extra inches everywhere inside—and it makes the car one solid, silent, integrated structure.

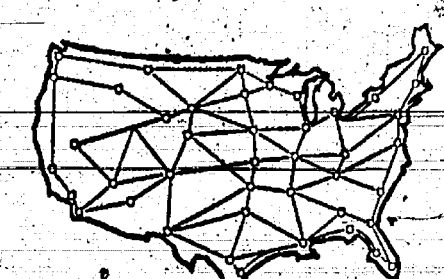

Along with its all-new size . . . there are lots of other things, like extra-big brakes and light-finger steering, that make the Falcon a delight to drive. And the Falcon is so maneuverable, it makes driving in city traffic a cinch!

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE FALCON'S PERFORMANCE!

The all-new engine is up front, where exhaustive crash tests, skid tests and handling tests prove it should be, for safety and stability. It has six cylinders . . . is of the world's most modern design . . . yet it's built on full-proven principles. It will deliver up to 30 miles per gallon on regular gas, only needs oil changes every 4,000 miles. The engine is also water-cooled, which permits use of a water-type heater that's safer and never robs you of gas mileage! Unlike many cars of its size, the Falcon's available with automatic drive, too.

AND NOW WE'VE SIMPLY GOT TO TELL YOU ABOUT THE FALCON'S FABULOUS EXPERIENCE RUN!

It tops off a rugged 3-year, 3,000,000-mile test program. A fleet of Falcons is now traveling over every numbered U. S. highway in the country. It's from the drivers' logs on this run that we got the "30-miles-to-a-gallon" mileage figure. Some of the Falcons are driving around-the-clock—and new records are rolling in every day.

BUT THE FALCON'S ECONOMY IS MEASURED IN MANY MORE WAYS THAN GAS AND OIL SAVINGS!

Take the price. Though we can't give you the figure just yet, we can tell you this: the low, low price of the Falcon will help prove to you that it's the savingest car, right from the start! What's more, the main body understructure is heavily zinc-coated to protect it against corrosion through the years. Front fenders are bolted on for easier, more economical servicing. Insurance will probably cost you less. And Falcon service will be available everywhere, using standard American tools.

We've just been able to scratch the surface of the Falcon news here. Come in. Bring all your questions. But make it soon. We have many orders already.

The Way the Ball Bounces

With Tom Johnston

A new football season has arrived, and a new column in this paper too. I hope that you'll be with us each week for "The Way the Ball Bounces." We'll take a look at what's going on in the world of sports, with emphasis on the local sports scene, predictions of area football games, and our views on the players to watch each week throughout the fall of '59.

New on the sports scene this fall is the Washtenaw Conference. Formed last year when the size and travel time to some schools made competition in the Huron League and the League of the Lakes difficult for many schools, the Washtenaw Conference was formed with a nucleus from both the League of the Lakes and the Huron League. Chelsea, Saline, Manchester, University High, Dexter, Ypsilanti, Roosevelt and Pinckney are members of the new league which should make for some fine competition and added interest in the area because of the proximity of the schools to each other.

The season will open on Friday night and you can look for Chelsea and University High to be the league's two favorites in our book. The Cubs, under new coach Jack Stovall, will have a strong veteran backfield and some big boys on the line. Pete Andrews, a speedy halfback and Jeff Fischer, a smooth-passing quarterback, will be the boys to watch for the Cubs. Add to these two 6-3 End Bill Pratkan and the Cubs will be a team to beat this fall.

At Chelsea, Coach Al Conklin will build his club around veteran quarterback George Wilson, and co-captains Roger Herman and Dave Rowe who will make the Bulldogs tough up front. Chelsea is the largest community in the new league which may or may not give them some advantage material wise. Conklin feels that he should have good depth in the line as a result of the fine and unbeaten junior varsity squad of the past few years.

Looking over the rest of the league, at Saline new head coach Mike Rotunno and his assistant, another former Michigan footballer, Clem Courina, will have a lot of work to make the Hornets into a contender. The Hornets will be paced by speedy co-captain Bill Taylor at halfback, and in the line the other co-captain Neil Tracy will be a bulwark. Joe Chantais and Roy Wiebush will be two of the league's best up front. Saline will be hurt by lack of depth as only 19 boys reported out for the team, and Rotunno will have to build not only a new team, but will have to build a winning tradition at a school which has had its share of football problems during the past few years. Saline will win some ball games, but how many and how often remains to be seen.

Over at Manchester, Bill Baker is having his problems. Jerry Creech, the number one Dutchman quarterback, received a broken nose in practice last week and will be out for at least another two weeks. With the quarterback slot the key position this could cause the Dutchmen some real trouble before the season is too far along. Among the returning letter winners, are Tackle Terry Huber, Ron Mann, big Bud England and Bud Higgins. With help from his sophomores, Baker and his assistant, Ron McNally, could have another hard hitting Manchester eleven.

Don McIntyre at Dexter, may have the surprise ball team of the league this fall. McIntyre's Dreadnaughts, who had a 4-4 record last fall, have 8 of 11 starters back and a total of 15 letterwinners. Alton Savary, a fine guard and a member of the WIOA "Top 22" football team last fall, will lead the Dreadnaughts. On the basis of returning letterwinners alone, the Dexter Dreadnaughts will be a tough ball club this fall. Pinckney and Ypsilanti Roosevelt, both under veteran coaches in Wes Reader and Art Walker, are of unknown quantity and quality at this writing, and probably will remain so until after the teams have seen action.

There you have the rundown of who to watch in the race for the title of the new Washtenaw Conference. Friday night most of the clubs will swing into action and will give you a couple of the winners right now.

Chelsea's Bulldogs will have a rough opener with Milan's Big Reds. Despite the loss of All-Staters Dick Schenck and Joe O'Donnell, the Big Reds will be a good ball club this year, and have one of the area's best quarterbacks in Von Thompson. If Chelsea wins the first one and beats the Big Reds, look out, because they'll be really tough, this fall. They don't bet any money on it. Milan by 6 points.

Saline will get off to a winning start against Onondaga this week. If the Hornets win by more than two touchdowns they may have a better season than anticipated. If they lose, it will be a long season for the Hornets.

University High will win at Fling Utah, and you'll have to pick the other winners this week. We'll see you next week when we review the games and the players and comment on how "The Ball Bounces."

The Rev. Brueckner Presented Gift on Ordination Anniversary

During the Sunday morning service at Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners, the Rev. M. W. Brueckner, pastor of the church for 28 years before his retirement three years ago, was presented with a silver plate in recognition of the 60th anniversary of his ordination.

The presentation was made by Arthur Kuhl, president of the congregation, on behalf of the membership of the church.

Before coming to the Chelsea church, the Rev. Brueckner had served as pastor of churches in Toledo and Alpena.

During a brief talk he expressed his appreciation for the gift and reminisced about his experiences as a student at Wartburg Seminary in Iowa.

The Rev. C. J. Renner is the present pastor of Zion Lutheran church.

Couple Sails for Singapore To Prepare For Missionary Work

The Rev. and Mrs. Loren McRae and their four-week-old daughter, Marilyn, left from Windsor Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday in Toronto enroute to Montreal where they boarded the S. S. Arkadia. They are enroute to Singapore for five months of special training before taking up their duties as missionaries for the China Inland Mission.

They plan to spend two weeks in London before continuing their trip to Singapore.

Mrs. McRae is the former Laddona Altstaetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Altstaetter.

The Rev. McRae's mother, Mrs. Beatrice McRae, lives in Stockbridge.

The McRaes spent some time with relatives here and in Stockbridge and Detroit before leaving for Singapore. They expect to remain in China five years.

Reject Petition for Cleaning Out Palmer-Baldwin Drain

The petition submitted some time ago for cleanout of the Palmer and Baldwin Drain was rejected after Washtenaw County Drain Commissioner John Flook and the Washtenaw County Board of Auditors concurred in the opinion that the cost of the work, approximately $7,000, was not justified by the limited amount of benefit which might be expected from "cleanout" only, as was petitioned. Rejection of the petition means no assessment will be levied for the proposal at this time. Apportionments for the various townships and villages were to have been made at the meeting Tuesday, Sept. 15, in the Drain Commission office if contracts for the work had been awarded at that time. History of the Palmer-Baldwin Drain dates back prior to 1917. The same culvert which proved a trouble spot at that time—under the New York Central Railroad tracks at Freer road—is the principal point of contention at the present time. Drain Commissioner Flook pointed out that unless this culvert is lowered in order to provide sufficient depth to insure adequate drainage, the cleanout of the 10,005 feet of open ditch and 3,235 feet of 18-inch tile included in the drain would be useless. In a letter to Drain Commissioner Flook, signed by J. Martin Rempp, chairman, and Herbert G. Loeffler, for the Washtenaw County Board of Auditors, Flook was assured that the board concurred in his recommendation that the expenditure of the $7,000 required for the work of cleanout as petitioned, was not justified. The letter further stated that should petitioners want better drainage they should re-petition to "deepen as well as clean out." This would permit Commissioner Flook to lower the culvert. Flook took the matter to the Board of Auditors in line with his policy of consulting them on all matters pertaining to the awarding of contracts. He gave them the entire history of the drain and explained the reasons for his belief that unless the culvert in

Blood Donor Clinic Yields 146 Pints

Mrs. Dudley Holmes, Chelsea Community Blood Bank chairman, declared the blood donor clinic held here Thursday was "the best since the project was started here in 1952. Mrs. Holmes said thanks were especially due to the industries of the community for permitting employees to keep appointments to give blood during working hours. Because of the unprecedented number of donors for a one-day clinic, processing took somewhat longer than usual and as a result workers were away from their jobs longer than expected.

The clinic yielded 146 pints of blood, all of which are designated for use in this community. A total of 176 people had registered but 30 were rejected because of colds or other disqualifying reasons. Only three pints of blood remained from last fall's clinic. Comparing the response to Thursday's blood donor clinic with that of the seven previous years since the Blood Bank was established, Mrs. Holmes quoted figures showing that in 1952 and 1953 when the clinic was held two days each time, there were 237 and 253 registrants, 47 and 68 rejects, and yields of 191 and 185 pints, respectively.

Since the one-day clinics were established in 1954 the figures quoted by Mrs. Holmes are as follows, with the year, number of registrations, number of rejects and yield, in that order: 1954—187, 86, 121 pints; 1955—159, 46, 113 pints; 1956—189, 53, 111 pints; 1957—149, 37, 112 pints; 1958—140, 59, 81 pints; and 1959—176, 30, 146 pints.

Registrars who worked at the clinic Thursday are Mrs. Elmer Lindow; Mrs. Ellsworth Smith; Mrs. Henry Therman and Mrs. Deane Rogers.

Those who assisted as nurses aides are Mrs. Ray Franklin, Mrs. Harold Brooks, Mrs. Gudfrey Fox, Mrs. Duane Rowe and Mrs. Ted Palmer, while volunteer registered nurses included Mrs. George Palmer, Mrs. Jack Merkel, Mrs. Maxwell Sweet and Mrs. Gertrude Young.

Official Records Listed For Area Holsteins

Brattleboro, Vt.—The Holstein-Friesian Association of America, Brattleboro, Vt., has announced that the following registered Holstein cows in this area have completed official records that bring their lifetime production totals to more than 100,000 lbs. of milk.
Green Acres Ormsby Gladys, 2874123 (GP), 100,058 lbs. of milk and 8,380 lbs. of butterfat in 2,322 days on official test. Owned by Lowell Spike, Milan, formerly of Chelsea.

Dama Ormsby Barbara 2942858, 114,414 lbs. of milk and 4,318 lbs. of butterfat in 2,452 days on official test. Owned by Glenn Hanson, Gregory.
Ypsil Pride Ionia Vests 2885829 (GP), 111,519 lbs. of milk and 4,149 lbs. of butterfat in 2,634 days on official test. Owned by Ellery Rouser, Grass Lake.
This volume of production, representing approximately five times the lifetime total of the average dairy cow, may be attributed to the registered Holstein's unparalleled longevity coupled with recent advances in breeding, feeding, and management.

Medical Care Begins With You

In time of sickness you want—and demand—the best of care. But do you know that much of this care must come from yourself?

Too many people consider that a doctor's advice is something to be taken or ignored—depending on how they feel at the moment. These people do not receive the fullest benefit from their physician's attention.

Care begins when you conserve your strength and follow your doctor's orders. Keep him accurately informed about your condition; take your medicines according to directions; and follow his instructions carefully. By so doing, you become a good patient, one who gets the greatest possible benefit from the care he receives.

Bring your doctor's prescriptions to our Pharmacy to be filled by our highly-skilled personnel.

Auditor General Szymanski Addresses Democrats Here

The Washtenaw County Democratic Committee met in Chelsea Tuesday evening for a regular meeting and to make plans for the coming "Dollars for Democrats" campaign, scheduled for Sept. 25-Oct. 4. The announced goal is 1,100 contributors in the county.

Auditor General Frank S. Szymanski, as guest speaker said "The biggest victory Democrats claim is that Republicans finally recognized that new revenues are needed." The statement was made in connection with an explanation of "present problems of the State of Michigan." At the head of the list, he said, is the cash crisis in the state.

Szymanski also discussed what he called the second problem—a long term tax program. He charged that since the constitution places the responsibility for raising money and appropriating funds directly on the legislature, all tax programs today are the product of the Republican majorities in the legislature.

Continuing on the subject of the cash crisis in the state, Szymanski charged that the situation could have been avoided "if legislators had been willing to do their constitutional duty." He urged that "Democrats let the people know who is responsible for the situation . . . the State Senate, in particular, is controlled tightly by the Republican majority."

Szymanski said one example of the "short sightedness" of legislators was the forced stoppage of work on projects already begun. He charged that because of this interruption, the Boys' Vocational School project will cost an additional $60,000.

Szymanski concluded his talk by stating that the State Administrative Board, at the 9 a.m. daily meetings to discuss problems, finds all members united in trying to do the best that is possible in the present situation.

Business at Tuesday's meeting included election of Mrs. Ruth Eckert of Superior township as recording secretary of the Washtenaw County Democratic Committee to replace Miss Carol Ludington who resigned.

Jet Plane Crash

children, Monte III, 15, John 12, and Andy 9 years old.

First Lt. John Pipow, 26, of Adrian, flying the third jet in this group on a training flight in this area, was ordered by Lt. Col. Davis to remain in the vicinity while he returned to Selfridge Field to report what had happened.

Later reports of the incident stated that Lt. Col. Davis didn't know his jet carried missiles and rockets because the craft he was flying was one to which he had changed just before taking off. Ground crews had noticed something wrong with his own plane.

In a statement to newsmen later, Davis assumed the blame for the accident because, in a hurried pre-flight check, he had failed to notice that his craft was carrying missiles and rockets.

At 88,000 feet where the plane was blasted, the temperature was estimated to be approximately 40 degrees below zero and Davis said he feared that the parachuting Pruden would freeze to death before he reached the ground where he was wearing summer uniform.
