Bulldogs Pounce on Pinckney, 54-0

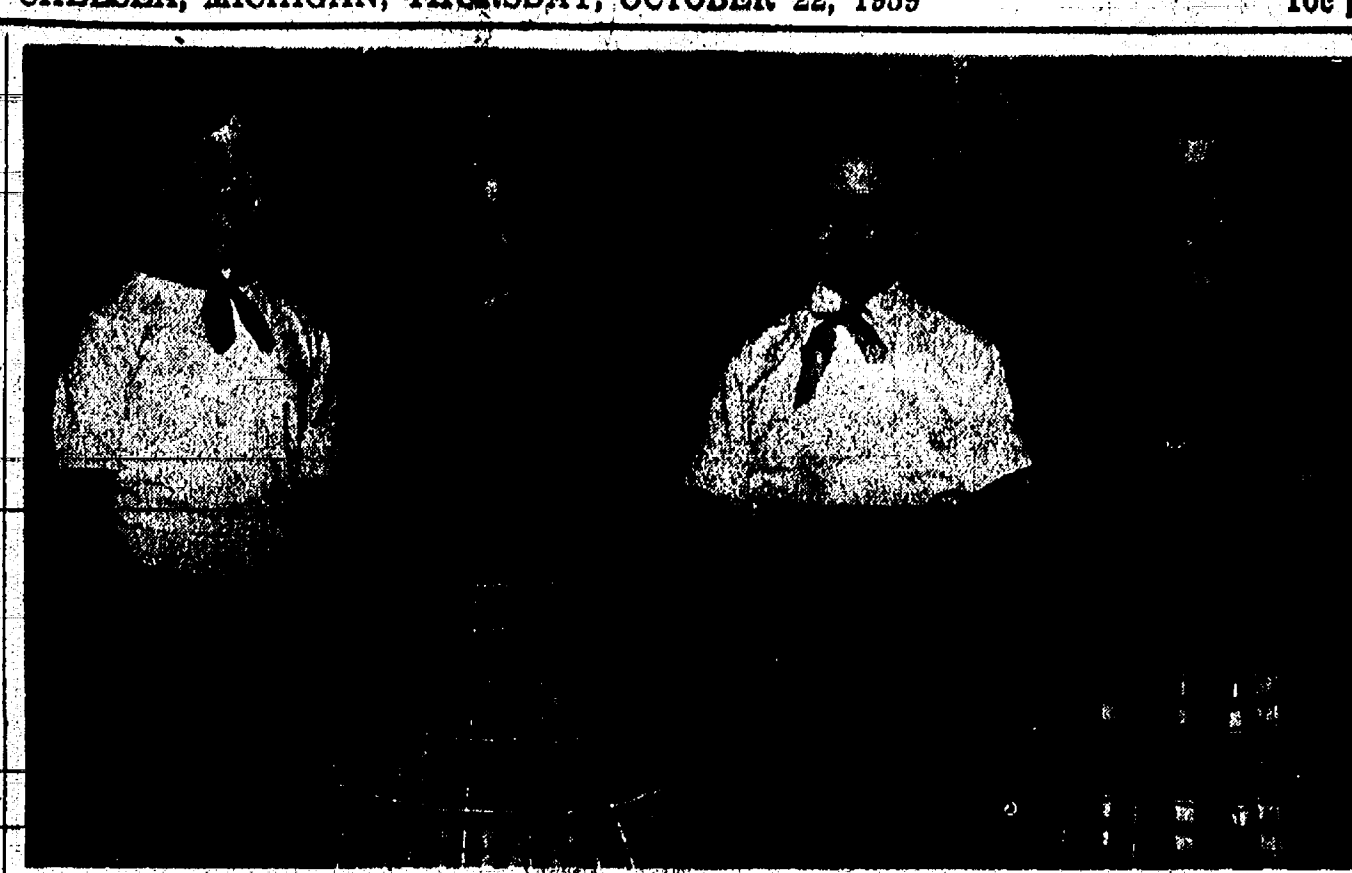

Meet Strong Team From South Lyon Friday Evening Last Friday night, on Chelsea High's new field, the Bulldogs crushed Pinckney, 54-0. Chelsea started rather slowly as they led 7-0 at the end of the first period. Midway in the first quarter the Bulldogs took over on the Pinckney 35 following a fumbled pass from center on fourth down. Eight plays later the Bulldogs scored as Q.B. George Wilson slipped over blocks by Homer Nixon and Dan Mayer from the two-yard line. The big play in the drive was a pass from Wilson to end Charles Cameron good for 11 yards. Dave McLaughlin hit over blocks by Dave Rowe and Gary Dault to nose the extra point. The second T.D. came early in the second period as Wilson again scored from two yards out. The drive covered 44 yards in nine plays. Al Shauer hit over Chuck Koenig's block for the extra point. Still in the second quarter, H.B. Matt Murphy scored on a nine-yard shot off tackle behind blocking by Dick Irwin, Richie Wood and Charley Walker. Q.B. Ed Louhon's pass for the extra point was not good and the score at the half was Chelsea 20, Pinckney 0. In the third period, Chelsea scored midway in the quarter as Sophomore Al Shauer bucked over from the two-yard line. Daltice Ferris hit off-tackle for the extra point. Dave McLaughlin had a 5-yard run in the drive to set up the T.D. Still in the third period Daltice Ferris, running with the reserves as the Bulldogs only had three halfbacks available, scored on a beautifully executed belly play as he took a pitch-out from Ed Louhon and aided by a block from Matt Murphy went 15 yards untouched for the score. Louhon passed to Alton Nixon for the extra point. In the fourth quarter the regulars returned for two plays and on the second play Ferris took a Pinckney punt, started to his left and handed off to McLaughlin who went all the way, 65 yards for a T.D. There were five beautiful blocks thrown as Co-Capt. Roger Hermans block allowed McLaughlin to get rolling and tackle Danny Mayer's block on the 15 cleared out the last man. Ferris

Needlework Guild Ingathering Being Held Today

This afternoon from 2 p.m. until 4:30 p.m., the Chelsea branch of the Needlework Guild is holding its annual ingathering. A tea is being held in connection with the ingathering with Mrs. Elton K. Musbach as chairman in charge. The ingathering tea is taking place at the Congregational church. The new structure is made possible by the contribution received from the proceeds of Chelsea's 125th Anniversary celebration. Van Riper also urged that a steer club be organized in Chelsea, similar to those in operation in other nearby communities to encourage steer raising by farm youth here. Norbert Merkel was named chairman of a committee to look into possibilities for forming such a club. Appointed to serve with Market on the committee were Paul Mann and Roland Spaulding. Representing the Fair Board on the committee are John Brooks, Carl Heller and Everett Van Riper. Others on the committee are Stephen Hayden, FFA advisor; and Paul Frisinger and Richard Haist representing 4-H and FFA groups. Tuesday's meeting was held in the dining room of the Congregational church. Business at the meeting included reports by Anton Nielsen, color-tour chairman, and David Strieter, chairman of the retail merchants committee who told of the progress of plans for holiday promotion projects. Jack Merkel reported on a recent hardware dealers' meeting held in Ypsilanti, stating that at that meeting speakers stressed the importance of the individual in molding public opinion which eventually affects legislation at state and national levels. A guest at Tuesday's meeting was Glenn Clark, formerly of Dexter, who is operating the former Sylvan Theatre under the name of Chelsea Theatre.

Fluoridation Of Water Given OK

At the Village Council meeting Tuesday evening, it was voted to include fluoridation equipment in Chelsea's water improvement program when construction gets underway next spring. It had been pointed out by Dr. Otto K. Engelke, director of the Washtenaw County Health Department at a previous meeting of the Council that it would be advantageous to include such equipment at the time new water installation is being done in Chelsea since the cost would be only a fraction of what it would amount to if the equipment were added later. Dr. Engelke was also present at Tuesday's meeting as well as representatives of state health agencies, prepared to answer questions regarding water fluoridation as a means of preventing tooth decay. Dr. Engelke was also present at Tuesday's meeting as well as representatives of state health agencies, prepared to answer questions regarding water fluoridation as a means of preventing tooth decay.

From left, they are Janice Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood; Vickie Blacklaw, daughter of the Edward Blacklaws; Patty Guest, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Willard Guest; and Mary Kay Alber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Alber. Leaders of the Merrie Maids club are Mrs. Dan Ewald, Mrs. George Heydlauff and Mrs. Roland Eder.

Farmers To Be Guests of Kiwanis Club

Ellis R. Martin, former school teacher, whose hobby is delving into the history of cemeteries in this area, was the guest speaker at the Kiwanis club meeting Monday evening. His talk Monday centered on the history of the first Catholic church and cemetery in the Chelsea area, located northwest of the village. The church building is no longer there but occasional burials still take place in this cemetery, known as Mt. Calvary. He advocated marking the many historical spots in this vicinity with special plaques. A guest at Monday's meeting was Horace Lickly of Dexter. Announcements made at the meeting included mention of the following coming events: Oct. 20, 6:30 p.m. at the regular meeting place in the Methodist church social center, the annual Farmers' Night, with Anton Nielsen in charge; Oct. 31, the children's Halloween party; W. J. Grossman, chairman; Nov. 2, annual Octogenarian Night when men of the community over 80 years of age will be entertained, H. T. Moore, chairman; and Nov. 9, annual Kiwanis-sponsored pancake supper at the new High school cafeteria. Mrs. George Hart spent several days this week in Ottawa, O., visiting relatives.

Catholic Youth Week Will Be Observed Sunday

In observance of National Catholic Youth Week, Oct. 25-Nov. 1, all Catholic grade school pupils in Chelsea will attend Mass at 8 o'clock Sunday morning at St. Mary's church. High school young people of the Catholic faith are to attend the 10 o'clock Mass. A breakfast will follow the 10 o'clock service. Theme of National Catholic Youth Week this year is the slogan, "Spiritualize Youth—Vitalize Nations." Announcements pertaining to the observance of the annual youth week relate that in every state young Catholic people are demonstrating through their fourfold program—spiritual, cultural, social and physical—the positive contribution youth are making to national life. They are urged on by the theme "Spiritualize Youth—Vitalize Nations." They are aware that one should not presume to interfere with the internal affairs of another nation; but they ask whether a neighbor should stand by and watch his neighbor's house being robbed, his property destroyed, and his children killed. Events such as these have urged that theme, "Spiritualize Youth—Vitalize Nations." If respect for one's neighbor's possessions is taught on a sufficiently spiritual basis, perhaps these dismal events need not be repeated, the young people point out. The week's activities throughout the nation are aimed at stressing the need for such teaching.

Mrs. Gifford Johnson is the public relations person for the Ann Arbor News. Announcements were made as follows: F.T.D. Florists have ballots to vote on official national flower. Calendar Sale starts Nov. 9-23. Mrs. P. E. Sharrard and Mrs. James Windell went to the program institution at Ypsilanti, Sept. 28 and 29. Badge workshop is Nov. 4 and 11. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Sharrard. More leaders are needed to start new Brownie troops and there are also several important jobs to be filled. J. E. Charipar, chief engineer and director of product for the Plymouth De Soto Valiant Division of Chrysler Corporation, made this observation today as economy runs were carried out by 50 auto editors at Chrysler Corporation's Proving Grounds at Chelsea. Driving in a fleet of production Valiants, which will be publicly introduced on Thursday, Oct. 29, auto editors registered a wide range of fuel consumption for a measured mile under the same controlled driving conditions. These economy runs by editors, Charipar said, demonstrate the importance of the driver's role in achieving good fuel economy. "The way a car is driven and cared for is really the deciding factor between average and excellent fuel economy," he said. "The 30-degree inclined Valiant 6-cylinder engine has been designed and tuned to deliver optimum fuel economy," Charipar explained, "but even with these Valiants in perfect mechanical condition, and the editors in competition, they showed that an average driver can lose as much as 30 per cent of his gasoline through poor personal driving habits." Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houk and children were Sunday afternoon callers of Mrs. Mamie Houk and daughter, Mrs. Mamie Kross of Norwell.

Chest Fund Grows Slowly with 9 Days Left To Reach Goal

Local Industry Returns Bring Total Near 30% The red feather "thermometer" on the Chelsea Post Office lawn is filled in to the 30 per cent mark today signifying that Chelsea's Community Chest drive donations to date show that percentage of the $16,667 goal turned in by solicitors. Accounting for the largest share of that percentage is the industrial category, traditionally first to complete its quota. A total of $4,600 has been credited to the industrial category, including some employee contributions but most of it from the companies themselves. Solicitors in the business division had accounted for $100 by yesterday. Residential contributions amounted to $140. No report was available, as yet, from rural solicitors or from the schools. Community Chest officials stated. The campaign continues through Oct. 31, but people of the community are asked to make their contributions as soon as possible to assist volunteers in completing their work. Jerome R. Killham, Jr., 14300 Ridgmont road, Gregory, was assessed fine and costs of $54.80 and had his driver's license suspended for 30 days when he appeared before Soio Township Justice of the Peace G. Davis Sellards on reckless driving charges Friday morning. Killham was assessed additional fine and costs of $14.30 for throwing firecrackers from his moving vehicle in violation of a village ordinance. Non-payment of either assessment called for an alternative of 10 days in jail on each charge. The fine and costs were paid. Chelsea Police Department records state that Police Officer Carl Koch first saw Killham's 1954 model car go through the Main-Middle street intersection at a high rate of speed at 6:50 p.m. Thursday. Officer Koch noticed that the front and rear bumpers of the car were missing. The car had no tail light and no license plate showing. Koch followed the car headed south, flashing his spotlight signal and the red flasher lights on the police car. The speeding car slowed down slightly as it reached the intersection of Old US-12 and a lighted firecracker was thrown from it as it sped up and headed east on Old US-12, with Koch following. Two sheriff's cars were alerted and they drove toward the Chelsea area to aid in the pursuit. Koch had his red light flashing and his siren on during the chase but Killham ignored both. On two different occasions on US-12 Killham's car barely escaped head-on crashes with cars or trucks as he passed traffic in the center lane with other vehicles approaching in the same lane from the opposite direction, according to Koch. Koch continued pursuit while Killham's car turned south on Steinbach road with the headlights (Continued on page seven)

Thieves Net $6,000 Loot at Thomas Plant

The Wm. A. Thomas Co. plant on Fletcher road, just north of Trinkle road in Lima township, was broken into some time Friday night, the thieves getting away with more than $6,000 in negotiable checks. The school containing the checks, all made out to the Thomas company, was taken from an unlocked drawer in the office. On Monday the Sheriff's department was notified that a check protector was also discovered to be missing. The thieves gained entry to the plant by sliding up the top of an office window in which an air conditioning unit had been installed some time ago. Area banks were alerted to be on the lookout for stolen checks. Orthopedic Clinics Set for Children By Health Dept. Orthopedic or bone and joint clinics will be held in Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti on Nov. 3 and 4, respectively, to offer examinations to those children with orthopedic problems who are not currently under medical care for the condition and who have not been examined within the past year, according to Dr. Otto K. Engelke, director, Washtenaw County Health Department. In Ann Arbor, the clinic will be held in St. Joseph's hospital and at the Health Department offices in Ypsilanti. Practicing physicians of the County Medical Society will staff the clinic in both locations. Dr. Engelke stated that attendance at the clinics will be limited to those children who had received notification of their clinic appointments. (Continued on page seven)

Editors See How Driving Habits Affect Gas Mileage

Of the many variables that affect automobile fuel economy, one of the most important and least predictable is the driver himself. J. E. MYSTERY FARM NO. 71—The photo of Mystery Farm No. 71, published without identification in the Oct. 15 issue of The Standard, proved to be the Elmer Haab place at 13081 Waters road. Haab has lived on the farm since he was seven years old.

Two Ponds Provide Easy Identification Of Elmer Haab Farm on Waters Road

Mystery Farm No. 71, originally published in the Oct. 15 issue of The Chelsea Standard was recognized at once early Thursday by Mrs. Walter Haab, a sister-in-law of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haab. The farm is located at 13081 Waters road, one-half mile west of Rogers Corners. Walter Haab also lived on the farm when he was a boy.

Their mother, the former Clara Weinmann Haab, and the two boys went to live on the farm when she was married to Christian Grau, a widower with one daughter, now Mrs. Amanda Beuerle of Ann Arbor.

Elmer Haab bought the farm April 26, 1947, from the estate of his mother.

The farm includes a total of 112 acres. Haab does general farming and raises cows, sheep, pigs and chickens.

The present house and the large barn at the left were built in 1917 following a cyclone which destroyed original buildings. While the house was under construction the Christian Grau family lived in an old stone house which is still on the property, behind the present home but not visible in the photo.

Christian Grau's daughter, Mrs. Beuerle, was critically injured when the house was destroyed by the cyclone.

The Elmer Haab family includes a son, Keith, who is a freshman at Chelsea High School, and active in the Rogers Corners Herdmen 4-H club. He specializes in Brown Swiss cows as his project.

The Haabs also have a daughter, Colleen, who is in the fifth grade at North Elementary school. She is a member of the Wide Awake 4-H club led by Mrs. Walter Wolf-boy.

Youngest member of the Elmer Haab family is their four-year-old son, Luther.

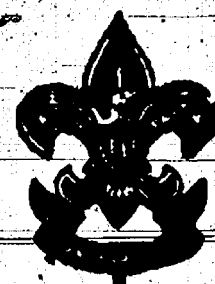

Mrs. Haab is the former Malinda Seitz.

The family is active in the work of the church at Zion Lutheran church, Rogers Corners. Mr. Haab is a member of the church Brotherhood.

Approximately one-quarter of the pond, at the right, is on the neighboring Clarence Buss farm. The buildings at the right and the smaller pond are also on the Buss farm.

In addition to Mrs. Walter Haab, those who identified the farm correctly are Julius Blaess, Mrs. Elmer Haab, Paul Elsie of Manchester, Mrs. Alfred Schneider, Mrs. Walter Beutler, Susan Hines, Thomas Lounsbury, Ron Satterthwaite and Herbert Hinderer.

fresh new beauty

from the only car with

Wide-Track wheels!

A car is a living thing.

And all living things must change.

This is why the creative car builders of Pontiac took the proved principle of Wide-Track Wheel Design and surrounded it with fresh, exhilarating, totally new beauty for 1960.

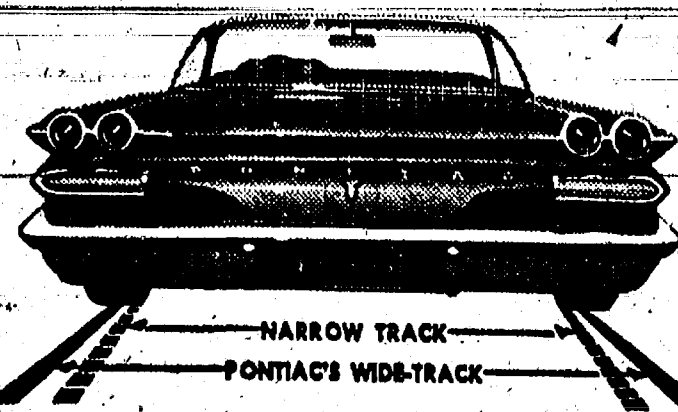

The prow is styled for excitement.

The horizontal bars bear the artistry of the classical.

The perfect profile comes from just-right proportion, unity, rhythm.

The clear, graceful back contributes character where other cars seem only to reflect confusion.

With the widest track of any car, Pontiac's width is on the road—where it gives you better stability. Wide-Track widens the stance, not the car.

PONTIAC
THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Its effect upon your attitude toward driving and owning cars can be quite radical.

For you cannot possess this automobile and be anything less than lighthearted. You cannot control it and be anything less than sportive about driving. You cannot be seen in it and be anything less than buoyantly proud.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A NEW CAR—AND NO NEW CAR LIKE A PONTIAC

CHELSEA

From NICK PRAKKE, Manager

With the opening of the small game season we are making our annual plea to all hunters. "Please don't disable our cables."

Ironically, a shotgun-damaged cable could affect the lives of two classes of people in which the hunter should be most interested—his own and those of farmers who often are hunters' hosts.

Each year there are nearly as many hunter injuries as there are cable damage reports. Last year they numbered 216 in Michigan.

In most cases a telephone comes into use when a hunter's friends quickly look for help, whether it be to call a doctor, ambulance, hospital or family.

You might say it's possible for a hunter's life to hang by a telephone line which won't work if it's shot full of holes... and farmers are not at all happy if they can't get a phone call through because of damaged cable facilities.

THE TIME Evening

THE PLACE: A bedroom

SOUND: A telephone ringing from a distance.

"George! George, wake up! The telephone is ringing... George!" Still half asleep, the husband struggles out of bed and dashes to answer the telephone before it stops ringing...

Has this ever happened in your home? If it has, then you already know the best reason for installing a convenient, colorful bedroom extension. It will cost about a quarter a week, but it's worth lots more than that in pleasure and security. For more information about bedroom extensions, call the Business Office.

FIRE! FIRE! Volunteers everywhere drop what they're doing and rush to the scene of the emergency. Before long, the community whose volunteers arrive fastest will probably be equipped with one of Michigan Bell's Alerting and Dispatching Systems. These systems were developed by telephone company engineers at the request of volunteer fire departments all over the country. Because they use regular telephone exchange equipment to warn volunteers, these Alerting Systems are both faster and more accurate than old-fashioned sirens or fire whistles. All in all, they are a great improvement in public safety for small towns.

At the half-time show of the Chelsea Pinckney game the band, a combination of Junior and Seniors High Bands, did a precision drill to the tune of "Over the Waves." Head Majorette Lynn Slesser and Majorette Lynne Fahrner put on a fire-baton twirling exhibition.

Eddie Brown and Paul Frisinger (and brother and both parents) attended the Engineering and Architecture Career Conference held at Ann Arbor High school Tuesday, Oct. 6.

Similar conferences will take place in the future, about one a month. Mr. George Berman, our guidance counselor, attended the above meeting and asks that all interested students and their parents attend some of the forthcoming programs. They are open to people in all of Washtenaw county and will be announced to our students well in advance.

Athletic Board members agreed to buy the megaphones for our varsity cheerleading squad, which will paint the phones to help keep down the cost. Phil McDaniels and Ed Laurion were appointed the secure firemen and policemen to park cars and patrol fences at the Pinckney game. Athletic Board will be unable to furnish shoes for any sport this year.

Art I classes have been working outdoors, doing rough sketches of houses, trees, etc. From these they made ink, water paint, and colored chalk drawings. Before this they did color charts with water-color. They are now working with sandstone, making modern designs and ash trays.

Art II class is mastering (?) lettering in the medium of black ink. They will continue until the end of October, when they start Christmas projects.

A class in Russian language under the leadership of Mr. Donald Bussler meets in Mr. Alfred Smith's room Wednesday nights at 7:30. In its second meeting the class learned simple Russian phrases and reviewed the Russian alphabet. It is interesting to note that Mr. Alfred Smith, Mr. John McGill, Mr. George Marshall, and Mr. George Bergman are members of the class. However, high school members outnumber the faculty.

Bad weather canceled the last business meeting of the Girls' Athletic Association. The next one was Oct. 19. Some of the activities for the fun night afterwards were basketball, volleyball, Indian dodge ball, and others. Students are urged to pay their dues as they are not considered members until they do.

Junior High cheerleaders were chosen Oct. 14 after three weeks practice. Those honored were Kris Kayser, Audrey Hays, Pam Kushmaul, Cheryl Werner, Sharon Eichen, Ellen Eckhard. Substitutes chosen were Susie Hatt, Susie Geiske. They will all be working learning the new cheers immediately. Congratulations, girls!

In World History the Sophomore class is reading a chapter concerning Rome. They are also working on maps to correspond with their reading. Sophomore English students have been kept busy studying vocabulary, giving oral talks, and writing descriptive themes. Geometry students are reviewing the work given to them the first six weeks. Although Mr. McGill said that no six-week test would be given this marking period, notebooks were due October 14.

Members of the Junior Class met for the distribution of Christmas card samples. Mr. Hayden, student advisor, gave instructions on the selling of these cards. It is now up to the members of the class to take orders so the cards can be delivered as soon as possible.

No one can say the seniors aren't busy. They earned several more dollars to help them along on their senior trip by working at the senior stand at the Chelsea-Pinckney game. Paul Frisinger was chairman.

All seniors have now had their picture taken and are eagerly awaiting the proofs. Last Saturday was the last day they could be taken.

Seniors David Rowe and Roger Herman, co-captains of the football team, were interviewed over the radio on Oct. 14. They talked about the Chelsea-Pinckney game held at the local field last Friday.

Junior High Library club has elected as officers Cheryl Werner, president; Grace Kushmaul, vice-president; Francis Shepard, secretary; and Kris Kayser, program director. Many people have put their names in the library books, and there are some beautiful illustrations scribbled on characters in some books. The librarians would appreciate having the illustrations left to the publishers.

The Junior High football team played a game with Saline, Wednesday, Oct. 7, losing by a score of 13-0. The game with Jackson St. Mary's has been canceled. The team will play West Side from Ypsilanti instead.

Junior High Camera club elected as officers Richard Houston, president; Nancy Johnson, vice-president; Bob Snyder, secretary; Bob Shackleton, reporter. The treasurer will be appointed later, and meetings will be held twice a month.

The noon choir has been busy practicing for an assembly with the Laramie choir and for a Christmas concert. They have also been working on plans for a semi-formal mid-December dance.

Every man sets himself a certain goal in life—the hard part is to live up to it.

COULDN'T WAIT?
Dalton, Ga.—A prisoner would be a free man today if he'd had a bit more patience.

Emmitt Scott, a 25-year-old trusty, drove away from the Whitefield county public works camp September 11, carrying 27 dinners for his fellow prisoners. When he didn't return, Warden Goble alerted northeast Georgia law officers. Scott surrendered a few days later.

The day after Scott was brought back to the works camp, the warden received word from Atlanta that Scott's parole had been approved. The parole was promptly canceled.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Mrs. Davis Ignores the "ADvice"

Last week, the Clarion advertised a homemaking course given by the Woman's Club. "Seemed a fine idea to me," Red Davis told me later, "so I showed the ad to my wife. Told her she'd learn how to do new things—more efficiently, too. But all she did was look at me and smile." Red continued. "You men," she said, "always thinking of more work for women. Learn new things? Why, I haven't even got the time to do all the old ones!"

From where I sit, a lot of us do leap into the new at the expense of the old. Take the idea of tolerance, for instance. It's been around for centuries... but it's something we can never bypass. Tolerance demands daily respect for the other fellow's preference—and that includes beverages. Tolerance doesn't mean that you have to like a glass of beer for Saturday night supper—just as I don't have to choose buttermilk. Just respect the next man's choice.

TV TODAY AND TOMORROW

By Rolf Hardester, Feature Editor TV Guide Magazine

WALT DISNEY will do a two-part feature, "Colorado River Quest," for his ABC show, with John Beal and Brian Keith starred. In a plan that presages a new source for TV specials, the producers of "La Plume de Ma Tante," a Broadway hit, hope to tape the show while it's still on the stage, then hold the tape for telecasting after completion of the Broadway run.

FOUR OF THE oldest active comedians in the business—George Burns, Jack Benny, Eddie Cantor and George Jessel—will appear together on "The George Burns Show" (formerly titled "A Night at the Palace") set for Nov. 17. The new Mr. and Mrs. North series, with production now scheduled for late December, is being planned as an hour-long entry. Only thing missing—stars for the title roles... The Andrew Sisters are planning a series to star themselves as a trio of female bill collectors, with no singing to be included. Title: The Collectors. Danny Thomas and daughter Margaret co-star in an upcoming Zane Grey Theater episode. Joan Crawford also set for an episode of the same series, to be titled "Rebel Range." Jerry Lewis, already set for two, may do a third Ford special in the spring. Property would be Mac Benoit's original musical, "The Man Who Loved Children."

EVE ARDEN and Tony Martin will be the guest stars on the "Meet Cyd Charisse" Ford special set for late December. "They Tried to Rule the World," the story of Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin, is being put together as one of eight 30-minute documentary special by producer David Wopner... The Dec. 27 non-Dinah Chevy Show will be a musical, "Around the World with Nellie Bly," with Janet Blair in the title role... Chuck (Rifelman) Connors will be a guest star on the Dec. 3 Revlon special out of CBS. New situation-comedy series based on Cleveland Amory's "The Proper Bostonians" being planned by General Artists Corp., the talent agency. NBC, trying to pull Riverboat out of its early-season doldrums, is scrapping the straight anthology idea. Stars Darrin McGavin and Burt Reynolds will henceforth alternate as the central character each week, a la the Mavericks.

Orthopedic Clinic

The clinics are planned to serve the Washtenaw county area, and will include children from birth to 21 years of age. "Parents of children who recently developed handicaps or who have recently moved to Washtenaw county can secure appointments by calling the Health Department," he said. The clinics are conducted every three years to maintain a current evaluation of those children who are, for one reason or another, not seen regularly by a family doctor. The examinations include x-rays, when necessary, it was said. There is no charge for examinations given at the clinics. The expenses are borne by the Michigan Crippled Children Commission. Volunteer help is furnished by the board of directors of the Easter Seal Society.

By 1970, U. S. colleges and universities should graduate 50 per cent more law students than they now do.

ECONOMY AIM SET

Senate Republicans, acting to make it an issue for 1960, have settled on a fight for balancing of the budget as their key aim at the next session of Congress.

In a memorandum the Senate Republican Policy Committee cited seven Democratic-sponsored proposals, that, it said, would mean ultimate outlays of nearly $5,000,000,000. These proposals will figure prominently in a new battle of the budget beginning in January, it added.

NEWS & HOLLYWOOD

Sterling Hayden is living and working happily in Tahiti with his children and making a film there with Nancy and Mickey Rutgers.

Nancy Olson is mighty quiet about her romance, but a little digging revealed that she's Ernest John Hughes, chief foreign correspondent for Time.

Bobby Darin gave his manager, Steve Blauner, an unusual birthday gift, an added 10 per cent more of his earnings. Bobby signed at Paramount for a picture, and his first will get him $35,000. His records, "Mack the Knife," has sold over 2,000,000.

Norman Krasna's wife, four children, and their dogs already are living in their new home in Switzerland. He has to remain here until they get Marilyn Monroe started in "The Billionaire."

NORTH BY NORTHWEST

That prominent manufacturer of suspense, Alfred Hitchcock, is up to some of his old tricks in this film.

Suspense, sex, scenery, laughs and some pretty bright dialogue have been blended in a calculating way and with a sharp eye to maximum box office appeal.

Cary Grant plays a dapper Madison Avenue advertising man who becomes the victim of mistaken identity and a murderous pursuit all across the country.

The killers are ingenious in their methods and the plot moves along at a fast pace.

Aiding and abetting Grant (who proves once again that he really knows his way around in this kind of picture) is Eva Marie Saint, who is seen in a role somewhat different from her usual vehicles. James Mason is an international man of mystery, and Jessie Royce Landis, in the part of Grant's mother, appears briefly, but makes every minute count.

Hitchcock fans will love this one!

What Is A Truck?

A truck is a lot of things . . . food for your table, clothes for your back, heat for your home. A truck is medicine for a sick child, gasoline for an automobile carrying a traveling salesman, merchandise for the store on the corner . . . A truck is something you simply could not do without—housewife, manufacturer, farmer, retailer, teen-ager, or whoever you may be. Because everything you eat, wear, or use depends on trucks to get to you . . . So, next time you see a truck on the road, remember—it's there because it's got a very important job to do—for you.

Free Enterprise Proves Its Superiority To Communism in West Germany

It is generally admitted, by all fair-minded persons, that living conditions in Russia have improved in recent years, judging from all reports we hear and read. That is to say the average Russian is better off today than he was under the Czars.

Communists use this fact, and the progress they have made in other fields, to shout that Communism is the inevitable "system" under which all the world will one day live. This, we firmly believe, does not follow.

Even admitting that the Communists in Russia have provided the people with a better life than they enjoyed under the Czars, one look at the living standard in Russia today shows that it is far below the living standard in most free-enterprise countries and far below that in our own United States.

One must remember that the Communists started with the people having almost nothing. Therefore, almost anything would have been better than what they had. We believe this is why the Russians are apparently content with their form of government.

A careful look around the world, however, will disprove the notion, and the propaganda, that the Communist system has made more progress for people who live under its system than any other system in the world. While it can admittedly be proven that the Russians have made faster progress than we of the United States, the leading free-enterprise country, in some selected fields, the key test of Communism has been the examples of both West Germany and Japan.

We sometimes forget this, in refuting Communist propaganda, but it is a fact that Germany and Japan, both reduced to rubble in losing the war, have made startling and highly impressive recoveries as free-enterprise countries.

Perhaps West Germany is the best example, or the best-known example, although Japan's recovery has likewise been remarkable.

One of the great heroes of Germany in the post-war era, was Ludwig Erhard who advocated the free-market policy in Germany, and his policies worked a miracle for that country. The socialists denounced Erhard's policies, and even the results for a few years, and claimed that Germany's new wealth and prosperity was built on sand and could not last any length of time.

However, the working people accepted the fruits and benefits and blessings from this system, and it is so popular today that the socialists in Germany are abandoning their Marxist slogans, such as socialization and Marxism, and are adopting new slogans such as "free enterprise," "free competition," "free consumers' choice," and "equal access to education."

This, of course, is bad news for the Russians, and may perhaps be our greatest victory. But it shows conclusively, that the free enterprise system can do more for people than any other system in the world.

Headed For Record In '59?

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

In Michigan nearly everybody talks about the state's economic climate. And many are doing something about it.

Among the latest to announce they will work for a more favorable economic climate are 39 business and civic leaders who will meet in December to formally organize a Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

Articles of incorporation for the state chamber were filed with the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission early in October. Diversified forces are being mustered to promote Michigan economic development.

The Republican-controlled Legislature has created special committees to study the state economy. Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams has appointed 200 Industrial Ambassadors, a special Committee On Michigan's Economic Future and a commission to set policies for the Department of Economic Development.

A non-partisan Citizens for Michigan movement has been started by American Motors President George Romney.

And both political parties are preparing for a 1960 repeat of the arguments about economic climate sounded during the 1958 campaigns.

No conflict should be presented by these efforts and those of a state chamber, according to incorporators of the Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber hopes to provide a central organization to coordinate all activities geared to advance the general prosperity of Michigan.

Behind the new organization is the belief that businessmen should take a more active interest in government.

Founders of the state chamber are Robert P. Briggs, executive vice president of Consumers Power Co.; Thomas R. Reid, civic and governmental affairs manager for Ford Motor Co.; and Arthur H. Sarvis, United Finance Corp., Flint.

Eleven of the steering committee members are from the Detroit area. They are S. D. DenUyl, William Day, E. O. George, W. B. Hurley, K. G. Taylor, George Russell, E. H. Rydholm, Harvey J. Campbell, Richard L. Chapman, Walker L. Clesler and Reid.

Out-state members are Briggs, Sarvis, Vincent Pochtman, Traverse City; Edward J. Frey, Grand Rapids; W. T. Gillespie, Midland; Edgar L. Harden, Marquette; Max P. Heavenrich, Saginaw; Creighton D. Holden, St. Clair; Paul C. Johnson, Muskegon; Kermit Krum, Battle Creek; William D. McIntyre, Monroe; Stephen St. Niabet, Fremont; Walter Patenge, Lansing; Travis W. Pearce, Jackson; Donald J. Cordell, Port Huron; A. O. Boyd, Lansing; J. T. Hay, Muskegon; R. H. Albert, Saginaw; John A. Chapman, Benton Harbor; W. F. Doyle, Lansing, and William Palmer, Lansing.

Michigan's newspapers, representing the strongest combined force promoting the state's economic development, joined forces for celebration of National Newspaper Week, which ended Oct. 21.

A compilation of figures based on the 1959 Michigan Newspaper Directory and Ratebook, published by the Michigan Press Association, shows total circulation of Michigan Newspapers in 1958 was 3,191,523—highest on record.

Michigan's 56 daily newspapers had a total circulation of 2,390,613 and the 302 weeklies had a circulation of 809,910.

Considerable fanfare about alleged abuse of patients was in the air last January when Governor Williams appointed the Mental Health Inquiry Board. It was asked to determine whether patients were receiving humane care and treatment and to review administrative practices.

Existing policies promote humane care, according to the board's report. Infrequent cases of abuse were reported to have received prompt disciplinary action. Changes are expected, however, in operation of the Mental Health Department as a result of the investigation.

A uniform system of reporting cases of abuse and mistreatment probably will be worked out by the department.

The department also is expected to establish better communications with relatives of patients. Hospital officials have been too tight-lipped, the board said. In some cases, relatives learned of accidents and injuries from policemen and newspapers.

A shower of dollars has preceded this season's snowfall. Forty-three of the state's 83 counties will receive snow removal funds this winter compared to only 22 last year.

State Finding Ways To Economize

Lansing—Lots of people talk about economy in government from time to time. Here in Michigan we are working continually for economy in state government. This effort for economy is not something that was inaugurated because of Michigan's cash crisis. It has been going on for a long time. But, during this time of financial difficulties, it may receive greater attention.

When an austerity program was ordered by Governor Williams a year ago, one of the provisions was that vacancies in state employment would not be filled unless the positions were absolutely necessary for operation of the department.

During the last week, I received a report from the Civil Service Commission showing that state employment dropped by 560 in the period from July 1, 1958 to June 30, 1959. That is a decrease of 1.7 per cent.

Some departments showed an increase in employees, but the overall number was down.

It was gratifying to me to note that this decrease in the number of state employees was accomplished without hardship on employees or their families. It was achieved not by firing people, but by the process of not filling positions which became vacant whenever that could be done.

There are other examples of economy. It was most interesting to learn of a project started by the Department of Administration which will mean a net saving of some $70,000 in providing clothing for patients in our mental hospitals. The Department took advantage of availability of some 60,000 yards of Air Force blue, all-wool material. This had been declared surplus and was available through the State-Federal Surplus Property Section at 10c a yard. Its use is limited to education and health.

Some of it will be provided secondary schools for use in home economics departments for the making of drapes and other articles designed for school use.

Some of it will be used for clothing the mental hospital patients. Through co-operation of the Corrections Department, the prison industries will make the material into clothing for men, women and children. This will bring a great saving in clothing costs.

Michigan is the only state which has put the surplus material to this use, but others are expected to follow. The Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare is so impressed by the Michigan project that it plans to show other states what is being done here. A showing of the clothing was made recently for mental health officials of 12 midwestern states. Samples are to be sent to the Federal Department so that they can be shown to officials from the other states.

Another economy measure, made possible through utilization of surplus material came to my attention during the week. A pilot project has been conducted at the Ypsilanti State Hospital where admitting costs of patients have been drastically reduced. By using dressing machines which another state department disposed of as surplus because certain operations have been eliminated, the admitting costs have been reduced at Ypsilanti from $7.52 for each patient to 29c. Formerly it required four hours and 20 minutes to fill out the 43 forms required on admission. Now, one plate is made and the 43 forms are filled in 12 minutes.

During July 123 patients were admitted. The new system brought a saving of $582.06 in that month. A second pilot study, using the same equipment, is to be undertaken at the Ypsilanti Hospital in June. Preparing inventory forms in the past has required 55 man-days. Plates have now been cut for the thousands of items included in the inventory. They can be run off in 12 hours.

The success of the pilot projects has been such that other state hospitals will make use of similar surplus material as soon as funds are available to recondition the equipment. When full use, the machines are expected to mean a net saving of more than $55,000 a year.

Use of these new processes would mean that records which are behind could be made current and that present office staffs would not have to be enlarged to keep up with an increasing amount of work.

Brucker May Seek Senate Post

Don't be surprised if State Senator Carlton H. Morris, of Kalamazoo, yields to mounting pressure and agrees to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor in 1960.

There is a good possibility, too, that former Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker, now Secretary of the Army, will be back from Washington next year to run against U. S. Senator Patrick V. McNamara, the Democratic incumbent.

Both names were mentioned time and again last week when Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield met for three days in Detroit with GOP leaders from throughout the state.

In their search for a candidate for Governor, the strategists discussed both Morris and Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller, of Grand Rapids. Mueller, 65, will be more active in Michigan politics in 1960 than at any time in his eventful career. But there has been no indication from him that he might consent to run for elective office.

Perhaps supporters of Prof. Paul D. Bagwell, the unsuccessful nominee against Gov. Williams in 1958, kept away from the discussions in the belief they might not have been welcome. In any event, the dozens of leaders who visited Summerfield were pessimistic over the possibility that Bagwell would be stronger next time than he was a year ago.

Summerfield, who led the party to successive victories when he was the state's Republican National Committeeman, did not go to Detroit especially to discuss politics. He was there in connection with an exhibit of new machinery to speed the mail.

He opened an office near the exhibit in the National Bank Building. The procession of Republican politicians started at once, and continued for three busy days.

The Postmaster General made clear that he will not run for U. S. Senator or for Governor. Former GOP boss Frank D. McKay, one of Summerfield's first visitors, suggested in his Grand Rapids weekly newspaper several weeks ago that the Postmaster General should become the candidate for Governor.

"I have no intention of running for elective office or of again becoming an official of the Republican party in Michigan," Summerfield said with emphasis when newspaper reporters surrounded him.

And to old friends he said just as plainly that he will run for cover if they try to make him the boss of the Michigan campaign in 1960.

Because Summerfield is bitterly critical of the leadership of State Chairman Lawrence Lindemr and National Committeeman John Martin, there is some skepticism over his statement that he does not want to return to power in Michigan.

He sincerely believes that Lindemr, Martin and former State Chairman John Feikens engendered the factionalism that produced the most disastrous defeats in the history of the party in this state.

Summerfield said he will help to turn Michigan back from the socialistic program sponsored by Gov. Williams and Walter Reuther. But he insisted that personal leadership is out of the question. Summerfield was elected Republican.

Beatrice Meyer, Becomes Bride Of Lewis Hatt

Beatrice Carroll Meyer and Lewis H. Hatt, both of Ann Arbor, were united in marriage at a ceremony performed in the Methodist church here at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon with the Rev. S. D. Kinde officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer of Stockbridge, and Mrs. Margaret Hatt of Ann Arbor, and Harley Hatt of Chelsea.

The bride's wedding gown was of Chantilly lace and tulle over white satin. The lace fashioned the long-sleeved bodice with scalloped outline on the princess-style waistline where it was attached to the fully gathered ballerina-length tulle skirt. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place with a flower-shaped circlet. She carried a bouquet of white mums and ivy.

Nina Hatt, a sister of the bridegroom, wore for her role as maid of honor, a gown of blue tulle and white lace. Her bouquet was an arrangement of yellow mums.

Susan Hatt, another sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Her gown was rose-beige colored tulle with flowers like those of the maid of honor. The attendants wore head clips to which were fastened satin ribbon bows matching the color of their gowns.

Frederick John Schneider of Ann Arbor, assisted the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Earl Kuhl, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Wendell Moeckel of Stockbridge, and Fred Schneider of Ann Arbor. Organist for the ceremony was Mrs. James Greenwood. She played the traditional wedding music and also the accompaniment for the soloist, Mrs. Grace Collins of Stockbridge who sang "Because" and "Through the Years."

A reception was held in the church social center immediately following the ceremony. Those who assisted included Mrs. Kenneth Moeckel and Mrs. Willard Morgan of Stockbridge, Mrs. Earl Kuhl and Mrs. Leon Chapman.

After returning from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and New York City, the couple will live at 713 Kuehler street, Ann Arbor. The bride is employed at the Ideal Radio and Television shop in Ann Arbor and the bridegroom is employed in construction work.

Jaycees Auxiliary Will Host Fall Regional Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Jaycees Auxiliary was in the form of a progressive dinner which began at the home of Mrs. Charles Popovich, Jr., with miniature pizzas and assorted hors d'oeuvres.

The second course was Waldorf salad served at the home of Mrs. Elton Gauthier, followed by spaghetti at the home of Mrs. Jack Wellnitz, and coffee and cake at the home of Mrs. P. G. Schabitz, Jr. All courses remained a secret until they were served.

Following the dessert a business session was conducted at the Schabitz home with the Jaycee Auxiliary president, Mrs. Robert Vanderkelen, in charge.

Mrs. Robert Jacobs and Mrs. Gene Shoemaker gave reports on the booths at the Community Fair and the Oct. 11 Jaycees barbecue, respectively.

Plans were announced for the fall regional Jaycees Auxiliary dinner meeting which is to be held at the Congregational church here with the Chelsea Auxiliary as hostess group. The affair is scheduled for Nov. 17 with Auxiliary groups from Adrian, Blissfield, Carleton, Clinton, and Morenci participating.

Because of the regional dinner the regular November meeting of the Chelsea group will be held Monday, Nov. 9, at the home of Mrs. Gene Shoemaker.

The Auxiliary voted to sponsor a local Girl Scout troop and Mrs. George Ellegood was designated to be representative in charge.

The meeting closed with a guessing contest won by Mrs. Charles Popovich, Jr. Called "the birthday apron" the project had been carried on as a fund raising affair during the year, each member sewing a patch on the apron covering her donation of money on her birthday. The apron, itself, was the prize after the money had been counted and added to the Auxiliary treasury. Mrs. Popovich's guess was within three cents of the total amount of money which had been contributed.

Mrs. Fred Benson and daughter Carol of Medina, N. Y., and Mrs. James Linderman and daughter, Nancy, of Okemos, are spending this week here as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hinderer. ★ Bulldogs Ready for Tough South Lyon Team

The Bulldogs of Chelsea High School's Washtenaw Conference loop leaders have been brutal the past two weeks. Coach Al Conklin's crew, paced by the hard-running backs and the hard-charging linemen, ran up another plus 50 point score against a hapless Pinckney eleven last Friday night.

This week, however, the young men with the blue and gold uniforms will be taking on a tough non-conference foe when they tangle with South Lyon High school. The Lions have won more than they've lost and the only team in fact that I know of having defeated the South Lyon club is Monroe Catholic Central which is currently ranked the number one football team in class "B" in the state.

Dal Ferris, Dave McLaughlin and the fellows will find it much harder going this week against South Lyon than they did against either Ypsilanti Roosevelt or Pinckney. The touchdowns may not come as easily this week. I think that coach Conklin feels that this is or may be the last big barrier to the Bulldogs winning the rest of their games this fall, so they are bound to be ready come Friday night.

Dexter's Dreadnaughts, after a surprisingly slow start, have started to pick up steam and should keep rolling when they meet long-time foe Pinckney Friday night. Coach Don McIntyre's club, staffed with returning letter winners had been expected to be one of the conference's strongest clubs, but lost early games they had been, or might have been expected to at least battle to the wire.

However, the club now appears to have "jelled." The games this week might be a good one, for though I'm inclined to favor the Dreadnaughts, Pinckney will be "up" for the game and could provide the fans of the two communities with an interesting evening of sport.

Among the Washtenaw Conference games this week-end, the best battle appears to be shaping up between two clubs which both are still in the conference picture. U. High's Cubs travel to Manchester to meet the Dutchmen. The battling Manchester club rates against a Cub club which hasn't shown much since their loss to Chelsea. In the league's other games the hapless Hornets of Saline, who have lost two close ones with only moments to play in a two-week period, should have an easy time with a woeful Ypsilanti Roosevelt eleven.

Elsewhere in sports we note that Chelsea's basketball mentor Bob Taylor will host an invitational basketball tourney at the

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where the high level politicians is getting in gear for the 1960 elections. The Republicans is bragging about prosperity and the Democrats is predicting a panic. All I know for shore is that if we ever have another panic in this country, it'll be televised.

And I see where a big insurance company has come out with a list showing how car drivers stand. Workers for wholesale firms get first place for being good and careful drivers, farmers and ranchers rank fourth, teachers sixth, and high school students is at the bottom of the list, in 72nd place, the worst drivers on the road. That adds up, Mister Editor. If Johnny can learn to read without learning to spell, I reckon he figures he can drive without looking where he's going.

But I ain't blaming the schools for all this juvenile delinquency. It got a head start the day the woodshed was replaced by the garage. There's a old saying that he that giveth to a pig when it grunts and to a child when it hollers will end up having a fat pig and a unruly child. Too many parents use the giveth plan.

I brung up the topic at the country store Saturday night but all the fellers was busy talking about fishing and said juvenile delinquency would have to wait. I ain't critising 'em none fer it. Fishing does a feller a heap of good and most of the time it don't do the fish no harm.

I heard a Civil Defense feller talking on the radio the other night and I'm writing my Congressman about his speech. He said in case a city is bombed city folks should pack up and go stay with their kinfolks in the country. It has took us country folks 20 year to git our city kin out of the habit of swarming down on us ever Sunday and eating us out of house and home. We got it done by leaving home on Sunday, putting up "Smallpox" signs all over the place, and blocking the road with rocks and tree limbs. And now this Defense feller comes along and undoes 20 year of hard work. It's important to git this feller off the air, and fast!

Our preacher talked Sunday on "family relations." He said a husband ought never start a argument with his wife when she's tired. I shore ain't starting one with mine when she's rested.

Yours truly,

high school over the Christmas holidays. Area teams are expected to compete, and it should prove to be a good event. I like the idea of a Christmas holidays tourney as it gives local sports fans who aren't going to the Rose Bowl a chance to see some sports over the generally slow holiday season.

Michigan's footballers travel to Minneapolis to take on the "Giants of the Northland," the University of Minnesota Golden Gophers this week. The Wolverines who looked good in spots against the mighty Northwestern Wildcats still leave much to be desired as a football team. The quarterbacking situation won't get any better, or the backs any faster. Michigan will again be the underdog Saturday against a team with great defensive strength. I frankly can't see another win for Michigan this fall. It's a sad situation. But that's the way it is.

MATT MURPHY almost made it across the goal line in the third quarter to score for the Chelsea Bulldogs but with only one foot to go he was downed by Pinckney Pirates. Inches short of a T.D. Murphy's light jersey was all that could be seen of him as the dark-garbed Pinckney player brought him to the ground. Chelsea's Richie Wood is at the right front of the photo and Dave McLaughlin is at the extreme right. Facing the camera behind Wood is Chelsea's Ted Wilson. Chelsea Bulldogs won the game 34-0, and are still unchallenged in first place in the Washtenaw County Conference.

scampered over with the extra point. The second team then scored twice more in the last period. Ferris scored on a 34-yard reverse play as Alton Nixon and Jerry Ringe opened a big hole. The extra point attempt was not good.

The final touchdown came late in the game. Jim Maynard, who turned in a stand-out defensive game, intercepted a pass on Pinckney's 36. Eight plays later Maynard swept to his right and passed back to End Alton Nixon who was standing all by himself in the end zone. Lathon carried over on a Q.B. keeper play for the extra point.

Defensively the Bulldogs continued to sparkle as they got their third straight shut-out. Murphy, with two interceptions, Maynard with one and Mike Marsh with one, turned in fine games, as did linebackers Jerry Ringe and Roger Herman. Wilson Morley, playing in his first game following injuries, was impressive on defense. However, it is difficult to single out individuals as all 23 members of Al Conklin's squad blocked and tackled well.

This week the Bulldogs host a tough South Lyon team. The Lions have lost two, one to Willow Run, 14-13, and one to Monroe Catholic Central, 20-0. The Monroe team is rated one of the state's top Class B teams. Game time is 7:30 p.m. Friday's win leaves the Bulldogs still leading the Washtenaw Conference race with four straight victories.
