Bulldogs Assured of Sharing Washtenaw Conference Honors

Win over Dexter Friday Will Clinch Undisputed First

Last Friday night Chelsea High's Bulldogs turned back a good South Lyon team, 34-20. The Bulldogs beat the South Lyon team at their own game. The Lions brought a vaunted passing game to Chelsea but the Bulldogs contained South Lyon's passing game until late in the game when the outcome of the contest was without doubt.

In the meantime the Bulldogs, with Q.B. George Wilson pitching eight strikes in eight tries, completed 9 out of 12 passes in the first half to take a commanding 28-7 halftime lead.

Coach Al Conklin was especially pleased with his charges as they showed comeback abilities. The Bulldogs defense hadn't been scored on since Milan scored three times in the opener six weeks ago. (U. High scored against the offense on a blocked punt), so when South Lyon scored on a 45-yard blast off-tackle the first time they had the ball, the Bulldogs showed they could come from behind.

They took the next kick-off on their own 44-yard line and five plays later had tied the score at 14-14.

On the first play Wilson, who turned in the finest game of his high school career, hit Dallee Ferris on a pass good for 25 yards. Big Phil McDaniels, back in the starting line-up after a week's absence, then smacked off-tackle for 12 yards. Wilson hit Ferris, again on the same pass pattern, and the speedy R. H. was tackled on the two-yard line. After McDaniels lost a yard, F.B. Dave McLaughlin backed through a hole opened by Gary Davis, Co-Capt. Dave Rowe and Charles Cameron, to score. McDaniels hit the same hole for the extra point.

The next time the Bulldogs got their hands on the ball it took them a little longer to score but they had a little farther to go. Starting on their own four-yard line, the Bulldogs marched 96 yards. The drive took 12 plays and was aided by a 15-yard run by McDaniels who ran like a wild bull, and a 16-yard pass from McDaniels to Ferris. Dallee Ferris scored the T.D. on a three-yard power play off-tackle as Homer Nixon and Dan Mayer opened the hole. Wilson hit Alton Nixon with a pass for the extra point.

In the 2nd period the Blue and Gold moved the ball 97 yards in five plays. The big gainer was a 41-yard pass play from Wilson to Ferris to move the ball to South Lyon's 12. From there Ferris went the rest of the way on the 6th status of liberty play behind crunching blocks by McLaughlin and Guard Chuck Koengeter. McDaniels punched over the middle for the extra point.

Band Will Perform Friday Evening At Dexter Game

Chelsea High School band members as guests of the Dexter High School Band, will put on a "Doodles Show" and do precision drilling at the Chelsea-Dexter game at Dexter, Friday evening. Buses will leave Chelsea at 6:30 p.m.

The Washtenaw County Marching Festival, scheduled to be held here last night, was cancelled because of cold weather and because of illness of the star performer, Jack Kirkendall, U. of M. Marching Band baton twirler.

Good Luck Reported by Bird Hunters

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer, reporting on the small game hunting season which opened Oct. 20, said yesterday that pressure was down to some extent in comparison with the 1958 season. Birds taken have been just as good, or even better, than last year throughout the southern part of Washtenaw county, Boyer said.

Kill success the first few days was slightly better than normal but by this time, pheasants have taken to cover and hunting without a dog to flush them out is meeting with no success.

Hunting violations are running about as usual for the season, according to Boyer. During the past week, he said, two hunters, Jerry E. Shadley of Clinton and Clifford Allen of Monroe, were fined by Justice of the Peace John Norcross at Clinton for carrying loaded guns in their car in Bridgewater township.

Scio Township Justice of the Peace G. Davis Sellards fined Robert Kepler of Ypsilanti, on a similar charge after Boyer apprehended him as he was shooting out of the car window.

John Peresky of Allen Park, was picked up in Manchester township for carrying a loaded gun in his car. He also drew a fine for the offense.

Three deer were reported killed by automobiles during the period from Wednesday until Monday, Boyer said.

The first was at Silver Lake, Wednesday, Oct. 21; the second, a doe hit on US-112 near Saline Saturday by Claude Winder of Ann Arbor; and the third, shortly after midnight Sunday on North Terri road, by Florence Walsh of Huron River Drive, Dexter.

Winder's car, a small German make, was completely demolished and the Walsh car was also extensively damaged.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD INGATHERING—Mrs. H. T. Moore, left, president of the Chelsea Needlework Guild, Mrs. Louis C. Ramp, Chelsea Social Service director, and Mrs. J. V. Burg, I, fourth vice-president of the Needlework Guild, displayed contributions brought to the annual ingathering held at the Congregational church last Thursday afternoon. Items donated were exceptionally nice, Mrs. Moore said, but she pointed out that some of the members have not yet turned in their two articles of clothing or household linen which serve as their "dues" for the year. The donations may be given to the director of the donor's group or be taken to the Social Service quarters in the Municipal building Tuesday or Thursday afternoons, or the items may be left with Miss Grace Ward or Mrs. Gerald Lelick at the Chelsea Electric and Water Department office any day, Monday through Friday. A full report of the ingathering will be made at the annual meeting and election of officers in the board room at McKune Memorial Library at 1:30 p.m., Nov. 16.

Chest Campaign Lags With Only 3 Days Left

Chelsea Community Chest contributions at noon yesterday had reached a total of approximately $8,250, passing the 50 per cent mark.

Only completed category at that time was the industrial companies' figure; however the employees' solicitation has not yet been completed and both the company and employee solicitation is listed as a present total of $6,400.

Business and residential categories, estimated at 60 per cent complete are $1,150 and $650, respectively.

Rural contributions are just beginning to come in with $300 credited to the category at this time.

The campaign to raise a total of $15,667 budgeted for 1960 will continue through Saturday, Oct. 31.

60 License Plates To Go on Sale Monday, Nov. 2

The new 1960 license plates go on sale Nov. 2, since the Nov. 1 falls on Sunday. The color this year is a green on a yellow-gold background, which is just the opposite of the 1959 colors.

Regular plates will be issued for all classes except passenger cars. Car owners will receive a 1 1/2 by 3-inch tab, with the numbers "60" on it, to be bolted on the upper right hand corner of their 1959 license plates, covering the numbers "59". Each set of tabs will be stamped with an individual serial number.

Wallace Wood, Chelsea branch manager of the Secretary of State's office, says that again this year, the prepared registration forms will not be mailed to the car owners. Each must fill out his own. Registration blanks may be obtained at his office at 105 South Main street.

Kids Halloween Party Set for Saturday Night, 'Trick or Treats' Friday

100 Farmers Are Guests of Kiwanis Club

One hundred farmers were guests of Kiwanis club members at the annual Farmers' Night dinner meeting Monday evening. The meeting took place in the social center of the Methodist church.

The entertainment feature was the appearance of Harold Doan and his son, Robert, of Adrian. The elder Doan was state champion target archer for six years and represented the United States at the 1958 international archery tournaments in Brussels.

During the course of the program he mentioned that he has killed two bears and 28 deer during his years of archery hunting.

The Doans were introduced by James Liebeck.

H. T. Moore announced that the annual "Octogenarian Night" will be featured at the Nov. 2 meeting.

The coming Halloween party for children, sponsored annually by the Kiwanis club, will be held Saturday evening with W. J. Grossman in charge as general chairman.

Also announced was the annual Kiwanis public pancake supper to be held Nov. 8, beginning at 5 p.m., in the cafeteria at the new Chelsea High school.

Arthur Lindauer is general chairman of the pancake supper.

Parade, Cider, Doughnuts Promise Fun for Everyone

Thieves Grab Liquor, Cigarettes At Legion Home

Approximately 50 bottles of assorted liquor and a quantity of cigarettes were reported stolen Friday from the American Legion Home at Cavanaugh Lake.

Sheriff's deputies who investigated said entry was gained by prying open a wooden door.

The theft occurred after 1:30 a.m. when the place was locked for the night.

Prizes Offered in Four Categories For Costumes

"Tricks or Treats" tomorrow night and the big Kiwanis-sponsored Halloween parade and party Saturday night promise lots of fun for the youngsters of Chelsea this week-end.

In response to many requests a definite time has been set for the traditional "tricks or treats" part of the Halloween celebration and parents are requested to co-operate and impress upon their children the importance of complying.

The fire siren will be sounded at 6:30 p.m. Friday to signal the time for children to begin visiting neighbors and friends. At 8:30 p.m. the siren will be sounded again and all "trick or treat" begging is to stop at that time.

The Standard received a number of calls yesterday requesting that something be said to the effect that begging be confined to the immediate neighborhood of the children or to close friends of the family. Reason for the requests was the fact that the past year or two, carloads of youngsters brought from a distance have constituted a nuisance. The "tricks or treats" project can be lots of fun, one parent pointed out, if it is carried out as suggested.

Saturday's Halloween parade will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Junior High school on East street. Following the parade, cider and doughnuts will be served around a big bonfire on the school playground and then there will be movies and other entertainment in the gymnasium.

Halloween costumes will be judged and first, second and third prizes of $3, $2 and $1, respectively, will be awarded in four categories—neatest, most original, spookiest and most typical of Halloween.

W. J. Grossman is general chairman for the Kiwanis club's Halloween celebration for youngsters of the community.

Others serving on various committees with him are listed as follows:

House Committees and Grounds for serving cider—James Daniels, chairman, John Alber, Donald Baldwin, Louis Burghardt, H. T. Moore, Chas. Cameron, William Collins, Charles Miller.

Cider—F. G. Schable, Sr.

Doughnuts and Cups—Luther Kusterer.

Cider Servers—Robert Daniels, chairman, Charles Lang, Louis Abell, Donald Alber, M. J. Anderson, Loring Bates, Leo Bishop, Lowell Davison, E. W. Eaton, Robert Foster, Harold Jones, Luther Kusterer, Walter Leonard, John Keusch, Arthur Lindauer, Alfred Mayer, M. W. McClure.

The convention will be held at the Knights of Columbus hall beginning Thursday morning and ending Friday afternoon.

The Thursday evening meeting at which Bazata will speak is to begin at 7:30 p.m. and people of the community are invited to hear him.

He will explain about operations at Cassidy Lake and will be prepared to answer questions about prisons and the people in them, in general.

Carcening Auto Smashes into Lake Cottage

A resounding crash, followed by the steady sounding of an automobile horn shortly after 1 a.m. Sunday startled the Wally Impalas who were spending the week-end at their cottage at Cavanaugh Lake.

Investigation revealed that a speeding car had crashed into the end of their neighbor's uncoccupied cottage, smashing the wall and moving kitchen and bathroom plumbing from their foundations. The damaged cottage is the property of the William Dittmars of Wayne.

According to Sheriff's Department records, the driver of the car involved in the spectacular crash was Robert Lee Salyer of Knox, Ind. Passengers in the car were Edward Salyer and Norman Fletcher, both of Knox, Ind.

Salyer told investigating officers that he lost control of his car on a sharp curve in the road. The car was severely damaged but none of occupants suffered serious injury.

Robert Lee Salyer, appearing in Municipal Court, Ann Arbor, Monday, pleaded guilty to a charge of furnishing intoxicants to a minor—Norman Fletcher.

Intoxicants were found in the car after the crash.

Salyer pleaded guilty and was sentenced to jail for five days and ordered to pay $35 fine and $10 costs. If the fine and costs are not paid he is to spend an additional 30 days in jail.

Sylvan Township Tax Rate for 1959 Set at $48.60

The Sylvan township atx rate for 1959 is to be $48.60 per $1,000 valuation. This is an increase of $2.50 per $1,000 over the 1958 rate.

The increase this year is due to the extra voted millage for special education for the physically handicapped; also the extra voted millage for the new County Jail building.

Supervisor Maurice Hoffman pointed out that the Sylvan township tax rate, exclusive of this extra voted millage, was one cent less than last year's.

The $48.60 is divided as follows: total county tax, $13.80; township, 54 cents; and school, $34.26.

The total county rate includes $11.29 for operating; $1.00 for county building debt; and $1.51 for the jail addition.

The school figure of $34.26 is divided as follows: $17.60 for operating; $2.51 for 1958 voted debt; $13.15 for 1956 voted debt; and $1.00 for voted special education.

TROOP 76

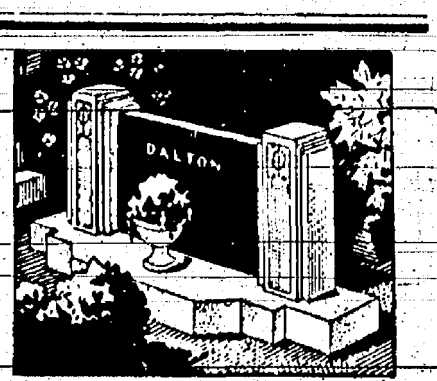

Monday night Troop 76 gave us a Halloween party at North school. Games were played and apples, doughnuts, and cider were served for refreshments.

Last week-end some troop 76 patrol leaders and assistant patrol leaders went on a Green Bar camp-out. Bob Snyder, Gary White and Dennis White worked on their cooking merit badge and worked on their first class camp-out. David Adams paced off his compass hike that Jack Howard, Bob Snyder, Gary and Dennis White made around the camp.

We planned that there will be a November camp-out at Kirolohe. No certain date has been planned yet.

The NATIONAL OUTLOOK

★ Solution of Our Foreign Credit

We are still selling more goods abroad than we are buying. This is known as the visible balance of trade, and it is "favorable".

But, the invisible balance is highly unfavorable. The latter includes all loans, payments for services, interest, payments for military expenditures, foreign aid, investments, and everything except actual commodities. The deficit over-all, including both visible and invisible items, now is running over $4 billion a year.

$7.5 Billion Invisible Balance
Most important in the invisible balance is military spending of some $3 billion a year, foreign aid of around $2½ billion a year, and private investment of about $2 billion a year.

Up to the present most of the deficit has been taken by the foreign creditors in the form of increased balances held in this country. Last year, it is true, they pulled out $2.3 billion of gold, but this year the volume of gold exports has been at a much lower rate. One can not be sure, however, how long the foreign creditors will be willing to continue to accumulate American balances, and since they already have over $15 billion in cash or its equivalent, obviously they could cause us quite serious trouble should they lose confidence in our financial policies or in the soundness of the dollar.

Is there any real danger of such a development? There is no immediate danger, but there is no time for complacency. We must materially reduce the international deficit and, in time, bring our international balance of payments into at least approximate equilibrium.

To accomplish this, certain steps are necessary:

1. We must work unceasingly to get foreign nations to move closer toward removing all restrictions on the export of funds. That is, we must convince foreign governments of the necessity of permitting American companies operating in their countries to transfer earnings back here. Many nations already have gone far in this direction, but there still is much room for improvement.

2. We must overhaul our farm surplus disposal program and eliminate it as a contributing factor to our international deficit. This will mean a new domestic farm program.

3. We must sharply reduce the amount we are spending on military and foreign aid abroad. This will take time and will be difficult. The Administration is generally believed to hold that this cannot be done. But Secretary of the Treasury Anderson in his address before the Annual Board Meeting of the World Bank and International Monetary fund a few weeks ago intimated that such a reduction might become necessary. More recently President Eisenhower in his address at Abilene hinted at the same thing. Both of these comments were extremely guarded, but they indicate the Administration may be willing to consider some modification in the present program.

4. We must continue to encourage private foreign investment. To the extent this takes place, and granting earnings can be brought back home, this will relieve the potential pressure upon the dollar.

Do we have time to carry out these programs? The answer to that is, of course, we have the time—if we buckle down and go to work.

Bears are near-sighted because of their long-time habit of feeding with noses to the ground. Their keen senses of hearing and smell make up for this deficiency.

Special Education Services Now Available in County

Julius Haab, Superintendent of Schools, Washtenaw county, announced today that the Special Education Division has completed initial planning of their operation and has begun making service available to the school districts of the county.

The Special Education Division was made possible by the voters of the county when they approved a ½ mill levy for the support of a county special education program.

John B. Mader, special education consultant from Macomb county was named by the County Board of Education to direct the new program. Mader took over on Aug. 1. Since that time three additional persons have been added to the special education staff. Miss Alpha Turman was employed as teacher of the homebound, Glenn Ohlsen assumed the post of county psychologist, and William Eary has been employed as a visiting teacher.

According to Haab the major responsibility of the special education division is to encourage the expansion of special education facilities and services within the county and to provide services to those school districts who because of size or location are unable to offer services of their own.

Mader reports that school districts will be encouraged to jointly sponsor rooms and services for children possessing handicaps that demand special educational consideration. In this manner, he states, we may work toward total programming for these children which will provide for all children, kindergarten through grade 12.

In describing county services at this time, Mader stated that each of the superintendents and their principals had been contacted regarding the manner in which referrals for services of county personnel may be secured. It should be noted that all referrals must come from the office of the superintendent of schools in that district in which the child needing special services resides. Referrals are being accepted for psychological evaluation of suspected mentally retarded children, homebound services for children who may not attend school due to physical disability, and visiting teacher services for children whose school behavior indicates that emotional factors may interfere with their educational progress.

Many citizens are concerned about which school districts are to receive county services. According to Mader all districts are eligible for service based upon their needs

Farm Census Questionnaires Being Mailed

Questionnaires for the 1959 Census of Agriculture are now in the mail and will be in the hands of local farmers within a few days. It was announced today by Field Director John E. Tharaldson of the Census Bureau's regional office at Detroit.

The farm census questionnaires are being mailed from Chicago, Ill., with the distribution time so that the report forms will reach farmers about a week ahead of the date when census takers will be in the field canvassing. The advance mailing is for the purpose of giving farm operators time to consult their records before filling in the answers required by the questionnaires and getting them ready for the census takers to pick up. This procedure is designed to insure greater accuracy of reporting and to save time both for the farmer and the census taker when the latter calls at the farm.

The 1959 Census of Agriculture questionnaire is designed to provide information on the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock production and inventories, etc.

Mrs. J. V. Fisher Is Speaker on Television Show

Mrs. J. V. Fisher, state chairman of reading and library service for the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, appeared as speaker on a 15-minute television program on Station WSMB, East Lansing, at 10 a.m. Monday. The program is a weekly feature on Channel 10, sponsored by the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Because Nov. 1-7 is Book Week with the theme being "Go Exploring in Books," Mrs. Fisher stressed the importance of making available, particularly to children, the good reading which school and public libraries are able to supply.

She said "Books are the symbol of our culture. It is out of respect to this heritage that we do have books and parents should be increasingly conscious of the fact that each child should be exercised to surround children with good books. This is most important for their welfare and happiness throughout their lives, since good reading habits formed in childhood carry over into adulthood."

Mrs. Fisher spoke also of exhibits of books being placed in schools, churches, bookstores, libraries and other public places showing the many fine books now available for all ages; however, she expressed special interest in the exhibits of children's reading material.

Such an exhibit will be on display next week in Mrs. Fisher's home church, the First Methodist church here. The exhibit will be on display in the foyer of the new educational unit and will feature many new religious books which parents and children may examine.

In her television talk Mrs. Fisher mentioned that this is the 41st observance of Book Week and it is now being observed not only nationally but internationally.

Mrs. Fisher was introduced and interviewed, during her television appearance, by Mickey Newbill, an instructor at Michigan State University, who has emceed the program since its recent inception.

CUB SCOUT NEWS

Cub Scout Pack No. 125 held its regular monthly meeting at the South Elementary school Thursday, Oct. 22, at 7 p.m.

The Pack ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Rusten's Den No. 9 at the opening of the meeting.

Bobcat pins and silver and gold arrow awards were made by W. J. Grossman, Cubmaster, and presentations were made by one of the parents of the boys receiving the awards.

There were skits by Mrs. Orlovski's Den No. 1, and Mrs. Worden's Den No. 6 on the theme of the month.

Displays by Mrs. Soule's Den No. 3, and Mrs. Rusten's Den No. 9 were on tables at the entrances for all to see.

The next Pack meeting is scheduled for Nov. 10, because of the Thanksgiving holiday which falls in the fourth week of the month.

There will be a committee meeting as usual on the first Tuesday of the month. All committeemen and Den mothers should make this a "must" meeting.

Because of the increasing number of boys signing up for Cub Scouts, all mothers who plan to be helpers, as well as mothers who would take a den, should be at the meeting to help plan for the coming year's activities.

Army Reserve Unit Looking For Missile Men

Ann Arbor—An Army Reserve unit is going modern and is looking for missile men.

The 406th Ordnance Battalion is being given added responsibilities to include missile and radio communications personnel under a general reorganization and reassignment of the military, the commander of the 406th, Major Edward P. Fox, announced today.

Major Fox is "in the market" for Reservists to fill five newly created positions. These positions are for an officer whose specialty is missiles, two non-commissioned officers, one of whom should have knowledge of the Corporal missile and the other should understand the Nike missile, and two specialists with radio operation training or interest. Major Fox also disclosed that vacancies exist in the battalion for three warrant officers and eight enlisted men of various technical capabilities.

Reservists who wish to apply may contact Major Fox or the Army Reserve Center, 524 S. Main St., Ann Arbor.

The Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment of the battalion is based in Ann Arbor and trains every Wednesday evening at the reserve center and two weeks every summer at an Army post on a paid basis.

Heretofore the battalion has had as its mission the care of Army vehicles and conventional weapons, but now its capacity is being increased in accordance with the new Army Pentomic organization to include the new missiles. As a further step forward, radio equipment is being assigned to the 406th to improve communications within this expanding ordnance battalion.

Lyra Chorus To Sing Here With Choir

The vocal music department of the Chelsea Public Schools is again presenting the Lyra Male Chorus of Ann Arbor, in a public concert in the new High School auditorium, Monday evening, Nov. 9, beginning at 8 p.m.

The Chorus is comprised of men from Ann Arbor and surrounding communities. Director of the group is Frank Mueller who also heads the Ann Arbor Gilbert and Sullivan Society. Among the members are two local teachers, Richard Rogers and David Sanborn, and a recent Chelsea graduate Byron Pearson, now a music student at the University of Michigan.

As has been the custom in past years, the Chelsea High School Chorus will also appear on the program. Tickets, for adults only, may be purchased from any junior or senior high school choir member. All school children will be admitted free of charge.

Proceeds from this concert will be split by the two choruses to pay for scholarships next summer. The Lyra Chorus sends two Ann Arbor area students to Interlochen National Music Camp each summer, while the Chelsea Chorus sends two of its members to Interlochen on half-scholarship.

It is hoped that this year the group may financially help sponsor one of the members in the Ann Arbor Council of Churches Michigan Chortale which will travel to Europe for two and a half months next summer.

Although the Chelsea Chorus has appeared on stage in the new auditorium last year, this will mark the first time any outside vocal group has sung there. Anyone interested in beautiful choral music, hi-fi, or stereophonic sound will be thrilled to hear and experience the marvelous acoustics built into the school auditorium.

The program is open to the public and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Mrs. Amanda Eschelbach, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Eschelbach and family of Grass Lake, Mrs. Floyd Shenefield of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Luick and son, Mr. and Mrs. David Luick, and Hilda Gross were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Luick. Mrs. Shenefield has been spending the past ten days at the Luick home.

Improvements Underway at Scout Camp

Grant Jones, Milan, Portage Trails Council camping and Activities chairman, is proud to announce some major improvements underway at Bay View Lake scout camp. A. D. Mayer, Chelsea, and his camp improvements sub-committee, with the approval of the Council Executive Board are proceeding on the addition of a 24x32 ft. addition to the dining room. The seating capacity will be increased to 150 persons. This room will be heated and can be closed off for winter meetings.

Also, the project includes an addition to the storage room on the dining hall, placing the walk-in refrigerator inside, floor and ceiling throughout, and a new service drive. The contractor is Robert A. Lillie Construction Co. of Ann Arbor.

This improvement comes after due consideration by the planning committee headed by George Moorhead, Jr., of Ypsilanti. The increased dining facilities will allow the Portage Trails Council to take care of eight troops a week or approximately 150 campers, where the Council has been limited to five troops per week or approximately 100 campers. For the past several seasons the camp has been filled to capacity almost every week.

To take care of the increased campers for 1960 the camp committee also proposes to improve the present sixth camp site and construct two new camp sites. This will mean the construction of new roads, the purchase of 21 new two-man tents, 30 additional cots and the addition of wash stand and toilet facilities. These items will be completed as capital donations are made by clubs or individuals.

NEWS

Stanley Kramer is trying to persuade Tony Perkins to join Spencer Tracy and Paul Muni in "Inherit the Wind."

Carol Channing's ten-year-old son, Chan, wise beyond his years, told his mother there was one program he'd like to be on. She said, "through my connections I might be able to grant your wish. Which one?" His reply: "This Is Your Life."

Today's picture review:
"MAN WHO UNDERSTOOD WOMEN"

"The Man Who Understood Women" is about a man who didn't understand women at all. He really could hardly have been more dense. He is a genius of a movie producer-director-writer-actor, and as the story opens he is in a hospital with critical injuries. His sad story is told by means of flashbacks. Meeting and marrying a promising young actress, he was determined to turn her into the brightest star in the movie firmament. So obsessed is he with this idea, he deserts his bride on their wedding night in order to make a business deal advancing her career. . . . none of which appeals to the bride at all.

Things continue in this vein for some time, until she gives up all hope of straightening him out and slopes with a handsome Frenchman on the Riviera.

Right around this time the rejected husband begins to see the light, but whether he sees it in time or not, we will not reveal. Suffice it to say that he winds up a wiser if badly bruised man.

Henry Fonda turns in a capable performance in the title role, ably assisted by Leslie Caron's piquant charm. Cesare Danova is a suave handsome as the Other Man.

MYSTERY FARM NO. 72, located on US-12, as the "Sherm" Pierce place. Members of the east of Chelsea, has been the home of the Ralph Pierce family owned the farm for approximately 47 years. to many area residents it is still familiarly known

Ralph Fitzgeralds Now Live on Former Pierce Farm of 70 Acres

Mystery Farm No. 72 has been the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fitzgerald the past three years. Located at 12010 US-12, east of Chelsea, the farm is passed by hundreds of Chelsea motorists daily.

Their family includes a daughter and two sons—three who are senior students at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor. Donald, now married and living in Ann Arbor; and William who is in military service and is stationed at Fort Austin, Mich.

Fitzgerald is employed in the personnel office of Ford Motor Co. and Mrs. Fitzgerald is with Jacobson's store in Ann Arbor.

The Fitzgeralds do not work the 70-acre farm themselves and have no livestock. They bought the farm from Mrs. Elmer Pierce. She and her husband, the late Elmer Pierce, had purchased the farm in March, 1946.

Elmer Pierce was one of the sons of Sherman and Effie Weinberg Pierce who became owners of the farm in 1909. Other members of the family are Nathan Pierce of near Grass Lake, and Mrs. Emanuel Eisemann, the former Laura Pierce.

She and her sons, Harold and Roy Hanselmann, went to live on the farm after her first husband's death, and she and Mr. Eisemann lived there a number of years following their marriage. They now live at 320 East Street.

The Elmer Pierces bought two acres of land from the original farm following their marriage and built their home there and their two children, Joan and Donald, followed the family pattern and built their homes on the farm also. Mrs. Elmer Pierce, now Lima township treasurer, and her son, daughter and their families still live on the place. They are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pierce and their year-old daughter, Kathryn Diane, and Mrs. Edward Kipfmiller, now widowed, and her children, Sheryl, Jill and Edward Dennis.

Sherman Pierce who owned the farm from 1909 until his death, Sept. 9, 1934, was a member of the pioneer Hiram Pierce family of five daughters and six sons whose homestead farm was located on Old US-12 just south of Chelsea. Part of that farm is now Pierce Memorial Park.

Original owners of the farm, according to listings on the abstract, were Olive, Linval and Phoebe Ward who, in 1848, transferred ownership to Alonzo B. Ward.

In 1847, Uriah Betts bought the place, and beginning in 1855, Freer family members who owned the place included Gabriel, 1855; 1867; George S. Freer, March to December, 1867; and Ira Freer, December 1867 until 1878 when the Steinbach family came into possession.

Henry Steinbach owned it from 1873 until 1882 when ownership passed to Jacob Steinbach from whom Sherman Pierce bought it in 1909.

Those who recognized the farm at once and called The Standard office are Julius Blass, David Pascoe, Mrs. Walter Beutler, Norman Dible, Charles Curtis, Mrs. Bernard Herrst, the Ralph Fitzgeralds, Mrs. E. M. Eisemann and Mrs. Hilda Pierce.

Chelsea came through with one of their best efforts of the season Friday night when they topped South Lyon in a high-scoring ball game considering the weather, 34 to 20. Bulldogs fans must have felt that they were in for a long evening when the Lions Harold Choate took off on his 40-yard scoring jaunt the first time. South Lyon had the ball. But the Bulldogs came back on a fine drive that covered some 60 yards with Dangerous Dave McLaughlin going over from the two. That score broke the ice and the Bulldogs started to move. Phil McDaniels scored next, capping a 96-yard march and the rout or near rout was on. Dal Ferris scored next, then a Wilson pass to Homer Nixon who lateraled to McDaniels accounted for the Bulldogs' fourth score. Ferris went 44 yards for another score and the Bulldogs had wrapped up a coveted win over South Lyon.

Several injuries have been plaguing Conklin's crew, but Al hopes to have everyone ready, willing and able for the big one Friday night with Dexter's Dreadnaughts.

At Dexter the up-and-down Dreadnaught ball club dropped a 19 to 13 decision in the last moments of the game on a fired up Pinckney club. Pinckney cashed in on a Bob Williams' pass to Bob Rutter who went over for the winning score. Dexter fans received a big shock when Earl Navarro went 88 yards at the start of the second half with the kick-off for a score. Like Chelsea, and possibly even more so, the Dexter club is injury ridden. The game between the two communities has always been a traditional battle, and with both clubs in the same conference this fall for the first time, the fans can expect both teams to be fired up. However, Chelsea must be given the favorite's nod by 13 this Friday night.

In other league notes, Manchester lost Gary Hamilton, their fine halfback for the season with some torn muscles in his leg. He is co-captain of the Dutchmen along with Terry Huber.

Art Walker at Ypsilanti Roosevelt is having his problems. The Roughriders have been mauled by everybody this fall, and there are only 19 boys still out for the team.

At Ann Arbor, Michigan has begun preparations for the big homecoming battle with Wisconsin Saturday afternoon. Talking with Bump after the win over Minnesota, I had the feeling that even though he was slated that the Wolverines had won the game, that he was not elated over the entire maize and blue performance. There can be little doubt the Minnesota win will give Michigan a big psychological boost for the rest of the season. But only a dreamer would believe that Michigan could top the powerful Badgers. Jack Fouts, who scouted Wisconsin for the Michigan staff, was most impressed by the Badgers' powerful line.

I'm now taking votes for the WOIA "Top 22" football team which will be announced over the station and in this paper. I'd like to have your vote and reasons for the boy or boys whom you feel have been outstanding on the grid. Send this fall. Drop a card or letter to Tom Johnston, P.O. Box 5, Ann Arbor, or to this newspaper.

Hail the Modern American Farmer, The World's Most Efficient Producer

When you think of productivity—as many do in these days of labor disputes and the inflation spiral—consider the farmer. We can remember when it was popular to think of him as inefficient, but picturesque. As of now, the American farmer is probably the most efficient producer in the world.

Statistics on farm labor are a bit sketchy compared with the elaborate data available on industry, but they are none the less impressive. In 1940, for example, the labor of one farm worker supplied 11 other citizens with food and fiber, while today, a single worker meets the more elaborate needs of 24 fellow Americans. Today—with 30 per cent less farm employment and 43 million more population than in 1940—the farmer is supplying more nourishment and more raw material per capita than ever before.

The change in farmers is not, of course, that they're bigger or stronger. It's just that they are smarter. As an indication, there were 1,000 tractors (straw-burners, mostly) on US farms in 1910—and 4,700,000 in 1958! Since 1940, tractors have multiplied three times, grain combines five times and corn pickers seven times.

The farm equipment has gotten bigger and stronger—especially the self-propelled combine and the all-purpose type tractors such as Ford and Ferguson, both coming onto the scene about 1939 and widely regarded as the most important advances of the century in farming tools. And still progress is reported. The race for higher and higher productivity goes on. The latest contribution is a giant five-plow tractor that will do more and deeper plowing in a day than a barnful of horses could formerly do in a week.

As admirers of the onward-and-upward wherever it may be encountered, we hail the consistent, ever-accelerating advance in agriculture. We never cease being thrilled at the sight of a 10- or 12-year-old boy sitting proudly on his father's tractor and doing five times the work we were able to do when first we were given permission to handle a four-horse team in the fields.

Nothing Can Replace the Home Town Newspaper as Advertising Medium

Reports indicate that for the nation as a whole 1958 holiday sales ran three to four per cent better than in the preceding year.

But this experience was not universal. New York City sales of department and specialty stores lagged in the pre-Christmas weeks. The reason was the strike which shut down all the newspapers of the metropolis.

Merchants tried to make up for this loss of advertising media by issuing handbills and intensifying radio and TV commercials. That all helped—but it couldn't take up the slack in replacing the newspaper. According to a spokesman for a leading store, when people lack the suggestions made in newspaper advertising, "They're slower to make choices. If you have a special gift item on hand, you've got to tell people about it or they don't know it's there."

In any community, big or small, the local newspaper is still the best advertising voice the merchant has.

Peace Bird Season: Still Open

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Michigan lawmakers usually have at least a half year to rest up between sessions.

Not so this year. They won't even have to bother to clean out their desks. The marathon 1959 session, longest on record, has taken the legislature to within earshot of the January opening of the 1960 session.

Sounds of '60 already are being heard in the legislative chambers. A busy docket is assured.

Aftermath of the 1959 cash crisis and buildup for the 1960 fall elections will in themselves provide enough kindling to keep political fires going in the Capitol during the winter.

State finances again will be the number one issue.

Investigations during the closing months of this year will provide ammunition for the opening shots of next year's legislative session.

One of the most battle-scarred issues, the state's "economic climate," has been attacked by a committee headed by Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo).

Morris will take his five-man committee to several cities before reporting to the legislature with recommendations for bringing more jobs into Michigan.

The Morris committee won't have to look hard for suggestions. The Republican State Central Committee, Gov. G. Mennen Williams' Committee on Economic Future (COMEF), and George Romney's Citizens for Michigan all have studies underway. The Michigan State Chamber of Commerce, which will be organized in December, is sure to have a few words of advice on behalf of businessmen.

Williams already has announced he will propose a state Economic Growth Act, patterned after the Federal Full-Employment Act of 1946.

The most-investigated agency in the legislative interim will be the Highway Department. Sen. John H. Stahl (R-Belding) got senate authorization to look into Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie's administrative practices.

State controls over trading stamp companies may be proposed by a study committee headed by Rep. Allison Green (R-Kingsford).

Other reports will be due from committees studying everything from agriculture to zoning.

Natural resources administered by the Conservation Department will be in the object of attention in the 1960 Legislature.

Conservation officials say it will

From my front porch . . .

"I watch the world go by."

The happy wedding of two vital influences in all our lives, occurring of all places—in a drive-in movie, caught our amazed and gratified eyes during summer motoring in Michigan.

The movie was advertising an evening double feature of a Western and a Rock 'n' Roll. But is also notified passersby, on a large though decorative signboard, that both Sunday morning religious services and 7 p.m. Vespers were held there, "Everybody Welcome."

This unexpected union of the sacred and the secular was new to us. We liked the idea very much, and hoped it might spread to drive-ins all over the land.

After all, the wide-enclosed space of the open-air theater is there waiting, utilized by the movies only after dark. Since both the church and the flickers are here to stay, their sharing quarters under the summer heavens seems somehow fitting.

Speaking of the sacred and the secular mingling in this day of cinematic screens and electronic marvels: there was a startling occurrence recently in a Midwestern rural church. Its pinched-budget but progressive practice has been to have pre-sermon hymns rendered over an amplifying record player.

Seems that somebody (maybe a mischievous or forgetful teenager?) mixed up the stack of records. Anyway, in the midst of the sequence of solemn selections, the congregation was shocked when the loudspeakers suddenly blared forth with "Mule Train." It could happen, of course; but it shouldn't—and probably never will again!

Summerfield Seeks To Restore Unity

Republican ringmasters have renewed the old, bitter feud that butchered the party in so many elections.

So venomous is the fight for control, even the Lansing Observer column is being killed by the faction that was willing to surrender last spring to Gov. Williams by passing an income tax.

Will Muller, the political writer for the Detroit News, cited last week's column as proof that Postmaster General Summerfield plots to make State Senator Carlton H. Morris, of Kalamazoo, the nominee for Governor next year instead of Paul D. Bagwell.

The story was carried by the Associated Press and reprinted in many outstate dailies.

The column last week did not say that Senator Morris will be the Postmaster General's candidate. In justice to both the Senator and Summerfield, I make this verbatim report of my conversation.

Summerfield—I don't believe Bagwell will be a stronger candidate for Governor in 1960 than he was in 1959, and I am concerned because State Chairman Lindemeyer will not bring unity to the party.

Q—Who might run against Bagwell?

A—I don't know. I've been asked about the possibility of persuading Fritz Mueller, the Secretary of Commerce, to run. He could win in November. There is talk, too, about Senator Morris because of his fine job in defeating an income tax. I certainly do not have a candidate.

Q—You have been mentioned yourself.

A—I will not run for Governor or for United States Senator. I will not take any office within the party. I do not seek to control it. If I can help restore unity, and keep the party from missing the golden opportunity it will have in 1960, I want to serve.

To get this unexciting inside story, I waited more than an hour with a dozen politicians and newspapermen outside Summerfield's temporary office in the National Bank Building in Detroit.

WHO KNOWS?

1. Where is Jakarta?
2. Belgrade is the capital of what country?
3. What city is the birthplace of Woodrow Wilson?
4. Why do some villages in Southern Russia have German names?
5. What is the deepest place in the ocean?
6. Greenland is the largest island; which is the next in area?
7. What is the greatest rail center in the U.S.?
8. What is grog?
9. What was the former name of the Hawaiian Islands?
10. What is dry ice?

(Answers on page six)

When the Postmaster General offered me a glass of ginger ale, I made sure it was free from ground glass. For Summerfield has been no closer to me than he has been to Paul Weber, Gov. Williams press secretary.

I was not hired by anyone to write this weekly column. Not once has a politician or businessman suggested a slant it should take. It was born out of loneliness for the profession I had left after 33 years as a political writer for the Detroit Times and the Detroit Free Press.

And it was born, too, out of frustration. My sincere desire has been to report the trend and objectives of a labor government that is ruining Michigan far more quickly than most citizens realize.

If I can help impress upon the voters the fact that 30,000 jobs have been moved from Michigan to Ohio in the last six years, maybe the people will take decisive action.

When I quit the Detroit Times in March, the first offer of a job came from Gov. Williams. He offered me a glass of ginger ale, I made sure it was free from ground glass. For Summerfield has been no closer to me than he has been to Paul Weber, Gov. Williams press secretary.

Instead, I opened a public relations business in Detroit. The World Airways, which I still own, and attorneys, not directly associated with the Michigan Republican Senators, got the story across to the people. The Senators, standing adamant against an income tax, were at that time being ridiculed everywhere.

My job was to help make the side of the battle clear to the people.

Writing this column was my own idea, and I undertook it with out strings of any kind, hoping that editors of weekly newspapers might find it of sufficient interest, and sometimes of sufficient importance, to give it space.

For I am a reporter, not a politician.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The boys up at the country store

Saturday night was paying their respects to the medical profession.

We got one feller that sets in on our sessions pretty regular that ain't agin fresh air, shade trees, pure spring water and wedded motherhood. Everthing else he's agin, and he was giving doctors a hard time Saturday night.

He allowed, fer instants, that you can't hardly git a doctor to come out in the country no more and when you go to town to see one you have to set and wait so long there ain't no chanse of git-ting the disease in its early stages.

He said his wife went to see the doctor about a cold in the head and afore he got to her it had developed into double pneumonia.

Another feller said we wouldn't have no country doctors in another 20 year, just specialists. He claims a country doctor treats what you've got, and on the other hand, in the case of the specialist, you've got what he treats.

I ain't knocking doctors, Mister Editor, but I did read not long ago where a New York surgeon was asked by the court what he operated on a certain patient fer, and the doctor said he operated on him fer what he had—appendicitis and $300.

Some of the fellers brung up the rumor that the U. S. Weather Bureau was going to git out a booklet next year that would give the weather forecast for a whole year. It was voted unanimous that if ain't going to sell unless they put in a few jokes and cooking recipes.

Folks has got used to having a little of everthing in their almanacs, and they ain't going to change their reading habits fer the U. S. Weather Bureau. The jokes and recipes is the main thing; and the weather forecast is secondary, especially if it's coming out of Washington. Fer instants, they're saying official that we're in for a cold winter but I ain't cutting no extra fire wood till I have time to git my Grier's Almanac down and see fer shore what kind of winter we'll have.

Them weather-bureau folks don't do none too good just figuring if out from day to day, and I ain't got much faith in 'em on an annual basis. But Ed Doolittle says he'll order one if they put in a few jokes fer him and some cake recipes fer his old lady, and that if they git cramped for space they can just leave out the weather business.

Yours truly,

Uncle Lew.

MODERN MOTHERS

Thirteen members were present for the Modern Mothers Child Study club meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Lindauer. Roll call was a "boot exchange."

Mrs. Ralph Oesterle and Mrs. Jack Musser, who represented the club at the Child Study club's state convention at Lansing, gave reports of the convention at Tuesday's meeting. They pointed out that the principal theme of speakers was on the subject of guiding children. Club members participated in a discussion of the subject following the reports of the two delegates.

Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Linda and Mrs. David Stricker.

It was announced that Dr. Michael Papo will be the guest speaker at the Nov. 10 meeting which is to be held at the home of Mrs. William Chandler.

CHELSEA-SUBURBANETTES

"Your Dress and Accessories" was the subject of the lesson given by Mrs. Earl Kuhl at the Chelsea Suburbanettes Extension club's Oct. 21 meeting. Mrs. Kuhl explained just what the basic dress is and how important the right accessories are in creating a well-costumed look.

By the use of paper cut-outs in the different necklines, each member was able to see which ones look best on her.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Frank Sweeney, chairman, several ideas were discussed for things members could make. After a vote was taken, painting large piggy banks and making dolls and stuffed animals, were selected.

Members are asked to bring any old nylon or material scraps they may have to the next meeting. Club meeting dates were set for the last Wednesday of the month.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Sweeney, and co-hostess, Mrs. Donald Bauer. The next meeting will be held Nov. 18 at the home of Mrs. Duane Layher, 139 Owen court.

THE GREATEST MODERN MOVEMENT
Toward Improved Health
More than one-third of our nation's people voluntarily and freely pay for medical or hospital care in advance through cooperative insurance plans. This is probably the greatest voluntary movement toward improved health and welfare in the history of the world. Every phase of this activity is laudable. The cooperation of industry and its employees, and the foresight of breadwinners to invest money in their families' health in advance of actual need, are evidence of progress. Active participation of the medical profession is evidence of its stature. The desire for improved health, and the newly found personal pride and dignity of the individual are universal; and you may depend upon us, as upon your physician, in the achievement of these objectives for your family.

Home-Made Goodies Tops Servicemen's List for Christmas

"Be it ever so humble, there's no cooking like home cooking." That's the word from American servicemen when queried about their "druthers" on Christmas presents from home this year, according to information released by Arthur Gallagher, Chairman of the Home Service Committee of the Washtenaw County Red Cross.

Cookies, fruit cake, and other home-made edibles topped the most wanted list by a wide margin. The list was put together from a poll of servicemen taken by American Red Cross field directors stationed with military units around the world. After discounting the usual requests for one-way tickets home, the poll showed home-made goodies, money, subscriptions to hometown newspapers, and family photos were the Christmas presents most likely to succeed with men in uniform.

But, there was a big qualification as far as food was concerned. The men pleaded that it be packaged for mailing correctly. Food should be packaged in a coffee tin or some similar container sealed tightly and placed in a heavy corrugated pasteboard box. Cookies should be individually wrapped.

Money should be sent in the form of a money order. Personal checks are almost impossible to cash overseas.

The women personnel polled were in step with the men on all gift suggestions except one—they advised expensive lingerie to their list. Definitely not wanted by most servicemen were civilian clothing, toilet articles, jewelry, wallets, and cameras. All of these can be purchased from post or base exchanges or ship stores at below civilian prices.

The Post Office Department recommends that Christmas parcels should be mailed between Nov. 1 and Nov. 20 for delivery by surface mail to servicemen overseas and by Dec. 10 for airmail delivery. The Post Office also says that the farther away a man is stationed, the earlier his parcels should be mailed to insure that they reach him for Christmas.

Exhibition Basketball Game Set with Harlem Satellites

Ted Raspberry's amazing New York Harlem Satellites "The Sputniks of Basketball" will play at Chelsea High school gym, starting at 8:30 p.m. on Nov. 10.

One of the standouts on the fabulous Satellites is a movie star and comedian, Rocky Brown. Brown was known as Billy Town and in the Columbia picture, "The Harlem Globetrotter Story," where he starred with Dorothy Dandridge. Brown is 6'4", weighs 180 lbs., and possesses one of the best set-shots in basketball today. He is a 10-year veteran of the Globetrotters and he is truly a master of the game. With his funny jokes he keeps the fans cracking their sides throughout the show.

A treat within itself is to see the "SKY SCRAPER" big T. Jim Dew; one of the tallest men in the game. With his large hands he handles the ball like it is a peanut. Dew plays center for the Satellites and keeps the situation well in hand with the skill and experience he picked up while with the Detroit Pistons. He thrills the fans nightly with his dunking. Dew averages better than 20 points a game.

The Satellites have added to their roster, the wonder-boy, Goose Jr., the newest clown in basketball. Goose hails from Ocala, Ark. In his first season with them he is being called the funniest man in the game. He rocks and rolls and hooks them in from the pivot left and right.

The top hat and tails often worn by Hooks Harvey, always delight the fans as he joins the show. Harvey is 6'6" and has one of the best hook shots in the game. He spent a short time with the St. Louis Hawks.

The most exciting act is the Satellites magic circle. The Satellites is the only team in the world today that performs this circle in total darkness with only the hands, feet, and the glowing ball made visible by "the lights." The Satellites also hold some of basketball's astounding records, playing 7 games in 3 days scoring 800 points. Everyone on the squad is a comedian; taking part in the show.

The Satellites' appearance here is being co-sponsored by the Jaycees and the Dad's Club, with proceeds earmarked to help provide a scoreboard for the high school athletic field.

Refreshments will be served.

PTA Adopts Budget, Plans Future Meets

Chelsea Parent Teacher Organization Wednesday (Oct. 21) spent the evening on business matters, cancelling the program.

Bus superintendent Waldemar Grossman reported that the 18 bus drivers in the Chelsea School District have taken a bus training program, which includes advanced first aid, safety, and child psychology. He reported that in spite of the 80 children transported daily, no accidents have occurred. He then introduced the bus drivers—Lulu Sweeney, Arthur Barth, George Bretschneider, Richard Rogers, Dorothy Keizer, Mabel Keizer, Don Beeman, Edward Laler, Roy Kalmbach, Victor Kohsman, Elmer Lindow, Don Keizer, Rev. David Wood, Basil Ledford, Wilbert Koch, Clifford Heydlauff, Robert Bauer, the Rev. Dale Ferris.

The PTA treasurer, David Soule, reported a balance of $891.09 on hand, and submitted a budget, which the executive committee had set up. This included registration, mileage, meals and housing for some seven leadership training programs in various parts of the state, small appropriations for each working committee, refreshment allowance, to a total of $585. The budget was adopted.

Various announcements of importance were made. Parents should listen to early morning announcements over WOIA, WJR, and WPAG for bad-weather information on school closings. Girl Scouts are being sponsored by PTA. Leadership is needed for a Brownie Troop. The November PTA meeting will be an important one, with leaders in the special education program speaking. J. Mader, Director of Special Education for Washtenaw county, and Miss Alpha Turman, homebound teacher, W. Eary, visiting teacher, and Dr. Glenn Olson, psychologist, are expected to present short statements and answer questions. The Nov. 6 Council meeting at Manchester is an open meeting, with the speaker being Dr. Gordon Thomas, State PTA Representative. A Founders' Day Dinner was voted down for the February meeting, but a Founders' Day observance was requested of the program committee.

David Soule made a plea for use of the PTA magazines. Herman Ashley urged all men interested in being good fathers, or in teaching, to join the "Dads' Club" to lend heart and hand to community service with children.

Scholarship Study Group Reports Findings to Board

A scholarship committee, formed during the 1958-1959 school year at the request of Dr. J. V. Fisher, president of the Chelsea School District Board of Education, has submitted a report of the group's findings and suggestions to the Board of Education for study.

Principal purpose of the committee was to establish how to stimulate, encourage and properly recognize academic excellence among our students.

In a summary of the committee's conclusions and suggestions, prepared by George Bergman, school counselor, it was stressed that ways must be found for making scholarship and academic achievement popularly desirable and acceptable.

Study of the question should also seek to discover ways to provide "proper environment and atmosphere in which scholastic excellence may flourish and to properly recognize and justly reward scholastic proficiency and achievement."

The committee report suggests a number of ways in which academic achievement can be made "desirable and acceptable."

Among these are improvement of school-home-community communications and giving publicity to academic achievers; granting special privileges to high achievers (such as excusing outstanding scholars from final examinations); instituting intensified counseling, possibly adding a woman counselor to assist in the work; establishment of community scholarship funds for deserving students; instituting organization of club groups or extra-class activities open only to qualified, talented students; and making it possible for talented students to complete high school curriculum in less than the prescribed time.

Other recommendations of the scholarship committee included awarding a uniform type of school letter for outstanding performance in any school activity; establishing a local chapter of the National Honors Society; and initiating an annual "honors banquet" for students with 3.5 or better average.

The committee report was concluded with the suggestion that three types of diplomas be awarded: one—signifying mere attendance; the second, general performance; and the third, cumulative performance.

Members of the special scholarship committee included Dudley K. Holmes, School Board representative; William Rademacher, chairman; Mrs. Bernice Smyser, secretary; J. C. Brier, Mrs. Frances Runciman, Mrs. Margaret Jones, George Frisinger, the Rev. S. D. Kinde, George Bergman, Charles Lancaster, Mrs. Jean Killham, Mrs. Emma Osterle and two ex-officio members, Dr. J. V. Fisher, president of the school board, and Charles S. Cameron, school superintendent.

Open House Set Nov. 10 at VA Hospital

To most people the Veterans Administration hospital at 2215 Fuller road, Ann Arbor, is a huge and beautiful building. They know veterans are treated there but for the most part the building seems like any other hospital—one of mystery and associated with the unhappiness of pain and illness.

"Our hospital is far more than that," declared Dr. Paul M. Ireland, manager, today, and he offered to prove it to residents of the area on Nov. 10 between the hours of 1 and 4 p.m. when the hospital holds open house.

The Ann Arbor hospital, like its 170 counterparts elsewhere in the United States, is a Veterans Day thought of Sumner G. Whittier, Administrator of Veterans Affairs, who has ordered that every VA hospital and regional office in the country be opened to the public Nov. 10, the day before the national holiday.

"The Administrator believes that veterans, their friends and their families should have an opportunity of seeing how the VA treats the disabled man, providing far more than just medical treatment," explained Dr. Ireland.

Volunteer guides will be on hand from 1 to 4 p.m. on the afternoon of Nov. 10, to escort visitors through the hospital.

Bulldogs Could . . .

Co-Capt. Roger Herman, who played a tremendous defensive game, set up the last T.D. in the first half as he intercepted a South Lyon pass on South Lyon 47 with 56 seconds left in the half. McLaughlin hit and Homer Nixon with a pass good for 18 yards then Q.B. Wilson hit H.B. Matt Murphy for another 14. McLaughlin picked up four on a drive in the left flat and Homer Nixon in the left flat and Homer Nixon off to McDaniels who went in standing up. McLaughlin bucked over on the extra point and Chelsea led at the half, 28-7.

In the third period the Bulldogs started right where they left off. Starting on their 39, Dallas Ferreira broke away behind excellent downfield blocking for a 59-yard scamper. Three plays later, after a penalty had set the Bulldogs back, Wilson hit End Charles Cameron with a pass for a first down on the South Lyon 12. McDaniels running very hard, hit down to the three and on the next play, over for the score. The Bulldogs fumbled on the extra point attempt to make the score 24-7.

Late in the third period as both coaches were using the second eleven, South Lyon scored on a pass which badly fooled the Chelsea secondary.

In the fourth period South Lyon scored again, following a blocked Chelsea punt, on a pass from Dave Wren to Dave Obrenovitch.

South Lyon threatened to score again late in the game but pass interceptions by Ed Laughton and Al Schauer turned them back.

Line-coach Truman O'Doherty's forwards turned in a fine game as the downfield blocking was sharp and the pass protection was practically perfect. In 15 passing attempts, of which 11 were completed, the Chelsea passers were never knocked down.

Defensively, linebackers Jerry Ringe and Roger Herman, End Gary Dault and Tackles Dave Row and Dan Ellenwood, and Guard Chuck Koenigster-turned in hard-hitting games, as did Jim Maynard and Dave McLaughlin.

Although South Lyon was a league opponent, the Bulldogs clinched at least a share of the Washtenaw Conference titles as Manchester upset U. High, 12-0.

By winning one of its remaining two games, with Dexter tomorrow or Saline on Nov. 6, the Bulldogs can claim the title outright.

Tomorrow night's game with traditional rival Dexter, at Dexter, begins at 7:30 p.m.
