George Seitz Dies After Long Illness

George M. Seitz, 74, a business man here for many years, died shortly before midnight Monday at Colonial Manor Nursing Home after a long illness. He had been there the past two weeks after being a patient at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mr. Seitz had operated Seitz's Tavern for 34 years and prior to that had operated an ice cream parlor and a bowling alley.

He had served in various village offices, including clerk, assessor and councilman. He was a life-long member of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church. At the time of his death he was a member of the board of directors of Oak Grove Cemetery. He was also a member of the Elks club at Ann Arbor. His home was at 118 East Summit street.

Born April 3, 1885, in Lima township, he was a son of Philip and Rosina Zahn Seitz.

Rod-Gun Club Meets Early for Their 'Deer Life'

Thirty-five members were present for the Chelsea Rod and Gun club Tuesday evening at the Legion Home. The meeting was moved forward a week because of the coming deer hunting season. Principal subject of discussion at the meeting was the deer hunting season and plans of various members who are going north to hunt.

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer, reporting on prospects for the season in this area said that nine deer have been killed by automobiles in this area during the past 10 days. Six of these were bucks, Boyer said.

A state forester's report given at Tuesday's meeting stated that inspection of trees on the club's project grounds north of Chelsea, show the trees to be in good condition.

Other business at the meeting included discussion of the proposed club house being planned by the Rod and Gun club.

The contract documents together with plans and specifications are on file with George Winans, the village clerk, and at the office of the consulting engineers, Finkbeiner, Pettis & Strout, of Toledo, O.

Satellites Win, Of Course, in Exhibition Game

Robert Vanderkelen, Jaycee president, reporting yesterday on results of the exhibition basketball game at the Chelsea High school gymnasium Tuesday evening, said, "The Chelsea boys put up a good fight and showed themselves to be fine basketball players but were unable to beat the world champion team of 'giants' who call themselves the New York Harlem Satellites or 'Sputniks of Basketball'."

The exhibition game was sponsored by the Jaycees and the newly-formed Dads' club with proceeds earmarked for a new scoreboard at the athletic field.

Vanderkelen said anyone who failed to attend the event surely "missed a good show."

Members of the Satellites' team include Rookie Brown, 6 feet 4 inches in height; Jim Dew, known as "Sky Scraper," who is 7 feet tall; Hooks Harvey, 6 feet 6 inches; and a new player, Goose, Jr., of Osceola, Ark., called "the newest clown in basketball."

Chelsea team members included Tom Elsie, John Thomson, Bob Bertke, Bob DeFanti, Bob White, Bill Newman, Louis Birch, Jim Gaken, Don Alber, Al Conklin, Bob Taylor and Truman O'Doherty.

Of the total of 10 children in the school there are three from Milan, one from Saline, nine from Ann Arbor and four from Ypsilanti.

Parents of the 10 children pay $5 per week tuition and additional funds are solicited.

Mrs. Howlett Cited for Teacher Service During American Education Week

Mrs. Florence Bachman Howlett, who taught in Chelsea schools for more than 30 years before her retirement in 1934, is believed by area friends to be a classic example of a dedicated teacher deserving of special recognition during American Education Week which is being observed this week throughout the nation. She is 82 years old.

At present Mrs. Howlett is a patient at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor having broken her hip in a fall at her home.

Friday, Friends who have visited her said she was in excellent spirits following an operation Saturday to set the broken bones. Mrs. Howlett has been blind the past 11 years.

An 1885 graduate of Chelsea High school, Mrs. Howlett attended Eastern Michigan University (then known as Ypsilanti Normal College) on a part-time basis while teaching school. She received her teacher's life certificate from the Ypsilanti school in 1920.

During Pioneer Day ceremonies July 13, in connection with Chelsea's 125th Anniversary celebration, she was honored by Pi Lambda Theta educational sorority, Eastern Michigan President Eugene B. Elliott, Howard Thayer, assistant superintendent of Washtenaw County schools; Chelsea School Superintendent Charles Cameron; the Chelsea Teachers club; and others.

Later she received congratulatory messages from Gov. G. Mennen Williams and from the White House.

The letter from the White House states, "With a keen mind and a generous heart, you have contributed much to the lives of a host of students. It is natural for them in turn to express their deep appreciation to you. On behalf of the President, it is a privilege to extend congratulations and best wishes to you."

Excerpts of the letter signed by Gov. Williams read as follows:

"Because of the many years you spent as a teacher you share in the progress that our state and nation have made over the last several decades. It must be a source of great satisfaction to you to know that you have contributed in great measure to this progress. There are many awards accorded you which cannot be set forth on scrolls or plaques—those are the kind and loving thoughts which the people of Chelsea carry with them. In their hearts they cherish you for what you, as a teacher did for them, their children and possibly even their grandchildren."

Patrons Swamp Kiwanians at Pancake Supper

Arthur Lindauer, general chairman of the Kiwanis club's annual pancake supper, held Monday at the Chelsea High school cafeteria, said the affair was attended by approximately 550 people.

The record attendance took the committees by surprise, Lindauer said, since the highest number attending the event in previous years was 400. Equipment had been set up to efficiently handle from 300 to 400 people and as a result, a number of patrons had to stand in line to wait for their pancakes and sausage.

Lindauer said the committees regretted this but were gratified that the delay was taken so good-naturedly by those who stood in line. He said plans for another year will include recommendations for committees to include additional gridders in order to speed up serving. The high school cafeteria, he said, is an ideal place to hold the annual event.

The Rev. Kinde Authors Article in Church Magazine

"Should we bury the funeral sermon?" is the question discussed by the Rev. S. D. Kinde, pastor of Chelsea's First Methodist church and three other members of a panel writing in the Oct. 29 issue of the Christian Advocate, professional journal for Methodist pastors and church leaders.

All four members of the panel agree that the sermon has a place in the funeral service.

The Rev. Kinde emphasizes a personal quality in funeral sermons. "A pastor who has visited a bereaved family in their home is usually prepared to give a carefully worded eulogy at the funeral," he writes. "As he visits, he makes a mental record of such remarks as, 'Father was always kind and thoughtful' to us children. 'Mary loved her church and found pleasure in singing in the choir. Our son spent much of his time in the fields and woods where he liked being alone with God.' Such quotations may become central ideas for a funeral sermon."

Farmers' Guild President Lashes Out at Union Leaders

All officers of the National Farmers' Guild were re-elected at the convention held here Thursday and Friday.

Re-elected as directors were Otto Fischer of Marquette, Claude Simmons of Livonia, and Frank Minges of Cleves, O.

Directors who remain in office are Perry L. Jensen of Greenville and Sam Bolinger of Rossville, Ind.

Officers are Julian Lemon of Reynolds, Ind., president; Joseph T. Merkel, Sr., of Chelsea, vice-president; and E. G. Reysburn, of Grand Rapids, secretary-treasurer.

Lemon, in giving his customary president's message at the convention, said the title of his talk might be "Things That Turn the Farmers' Hair Gray While They Are Young."

Touching on the subject of the steel strike, he lashed out at union leaders saying that he had "all the respect in the world for the laborers and their unions," but "most certainly no respect for their leaders. He claimed that the rank and file of laborers in the steel industry were satisfied with their wages and working conditions and that "if they live another 50 years, they cannot make up what they have lost in wages."

Lemon advocates a national law forbidding election of any man or woman to hold office for more than one term "from the president down to the lowest town or township office."

Speaking of farm matters he said, "In 1940 we will face more problems. The goods and services we have to purchase will be seven per cent higher. The things we have to sell will be five to ten per cent lower, while the middlemen, manufacturers and laborers are enjoying higher profits and wages... farmers plod along trying to make ends meet, knowing full well that the other fellow's profit, taxes and transportation, plus a few other things have been added to everything he has to purchase, and he also knows that transportation, labor, taxes and profit have been taken from the price he receives for the product he sells."

Trounce Saline Friday Night on Cold, Wet Field

Last Friday night, on a cold, wet and muddy field, Chelsea High gridders closed out a excellent season by notching their seventh consecutive victory as they trounced Saline's Hornets 32-7.

The victory enabled the Bulldogs to finish the season with a perfect 6-0 record in Washtenaw Conference play. They had clinched the conference crown a week earlier with their triumph over Dexter.

Need Miracle To Get Chest Fund to Goal

Contributions tabulated by Community Chest officials Tuesday show that a total of $13,685 or 87 per cent of the campaign goal of $15,687 had been contributed or pledged.

Their corrected figure for the industrial and employee category is $8,550 instead of the $8,740 figure incorrectly listed last week.

Business contributions now stand at $2,500; village residential, $1,255; rural residential, $740; schools, $410; and clubs and organizations, $240.

Some contributions are still to come in.

The only loss for Coach Al Conklin's squad was a 20-12 defeat by Milan back on Sept. 18 in the season opener.

Saline's Hornets, fired up in the hopes of knocking off the conference champs, took the opening kick-off and moved steadily down field to the Bulldog 15-yard line. At that point the Blue and Gold defense dug in and stopped the Hornets.

Chelsea was unable to move the ball and was forced to punt to Saline. This time, the Bulldog defense held and on fourth down the ball sailed over the Saline punter's head on the snap from center and the Bulldogs took over on the Saline 45.

Again Chelsea was unable to move the ball and Saline took over. The Hornets were again stopped and punted into the end zone and Chelsea took over on their own 20.

On the first play the Bulldogs fumbled and recovered for a one-yard loss. It proved to be the only Chelsea fumble of the night—a remarkable feat considering the cold, wet ball. On the next play R.H. Dalfie Ferris, who turned in one of his finest games, took a hand-off and raced 39 yards through Saline's right side to the Saline 12. Q.B. George Wilson, who turned in another smart quarterbacking job, then hit Ferris with a 13-yard pass to move the ball to the 29. On the next play R.H. Ferris tore off tackle behind blocking by Homer Nixon, Dan Mayer, Dave McLaughlin, and Phil McDaniels for 17 more yards to place the ball on the 12. It took P.B. Dave McLaughlin, who turned in his finest game of the season, two plays to score. On the first he smashed up the middle for seven yards as Chuck Koengeter, Roger Herman and Gary Dault opened the hole. On the next play the same three opened the hole and McLaughlin bulled his way into the end zone. Ferris hit over blocks by Mayer and Koengeter to add the extra point.

The next time the Bulldogs had possession they scored on a series of spectacular plays despite two 15-yard penalties. Ferris picked up eight yards to start the drive but a 15-yard illegal use of hands penalty set the Bulldogs back. Ferris picked up 15 on the old Statue of Liberty play and then Phil McDaniels, whose blocking was tremendous Friday night, lofted a perfect pass to Ferris and the speedy halfback raced to Saline's 10-yard line. However, a clipping penalty nullified the fine play. Undismayed, however, the Bulldogs sent McLaughlin off tackle and the hard-running P.B. cut back to pick up good blocks by Dave Rowe and Charles Cam-

She died at Foote hospital, Jackson, where she had been a patient for 10 days.

Even when it is difficult to speak a good word about a person, the funeral sermon should not be omitted. Kinde writes.

Other members of the panel of writers are the Rev. Gilbert L. Ramsey of Pooler, Ga., the Rev. Joseph Thomas of Evanston, Ill., and the Rev. Newton H. Swanson of Sharon, Pa.

ON CAPITOL HILL
By Congressman George Mondak

Since adjournment my committee, Government Operations and Judiciary, have been active with the subcommittee on Foreign Operations of the former inquiring into projects financed by the Development Loan Fund and the Export-Import Bank and Judiciary's Anti-Trust Subcommittee looking into ocean freight conferences for possible anti-trust violations.

The first phase of the Foreign Operations inquiry consisted of two weeks, "on-the-spot," in Spain, Turkey and Israel. The anti-trust hearings are being held in New York City.

Of special interest to me overseas was the success or failure of my provision in the Development Loan Fund Act requiring us to foster free enterprise systems and help develop climates attractive to the investment of private capital in areas where we are engaged in foreign lending projects.

For example, I was shocked to learn in Spain we loaned $28 million to Renfe, the government-owned railroad, rather than to a great number of privately-owned companies which had applied for loans. That decision, however, was made by officials here in Washington over the protests of Mutual Security officials and our Embassy in Madrid.

The anti-trust hearings in New York center on the Shipping Act of 1916 which exempts from anti-trust laws combinations of "common carriers by water" who agree on rates charged shippers and other practices limiting free and open competition provided their agreements are filed with and approved by the Federal Maritime Board. Severe penalties—$25,000 for some offenses and $1,000 a day for others—are prescribed for violations of the Act.

Testimony we have taken so far indicates the likelihood that violations by carriers and their conferences have been widespread. In 43 years, however, the Federal Maritime Board and its predecessors have failed to assess even one penalty nor apparently have they ever initiated action to punish any violator.

A Supreme Court decision last year outlawing a practice of charging a lower rate to shippers who agree to send all their cargo by conference carriers than that charged shippers who do not so agree, was suspended by temporary legislation which expires during the next session of Congress, and we are expected to enact permanent legislation in this technical but extremely important field.

Testimony we have taken so far indicates the likelihood that violations by carriers and their conferences have been widespread. In 43 years, however, the Federal Maritime Board and its predecessors have failed to assess even one penalty nor apparently have they ever initiated action to punish any violator.

A Supreme Court decision last year outlawing a practice of charging a lower rate to shippers who agree to send all their cargo by conference carriers than that charged shippers who do not so agree, was suspended by temporary legislation which expires during the next session of Congress, and we are expected to enact permanent legislation in this technical but extremely important field.

To whom it may concern:

The purpose of this letter is to bring to the attention of the readers some little known bits of information about water fluoridation.

1. Sodium silicofluoride, one of the chemicals which may be added to our water, is defined as an insect exterminator and rat poison.

2. Capsule News, a Washington D. C. publication, dated Oct. 31, 1959 says that after 5 years of fluoridation Philadelphia has had to replace 60 per cent of its water mains.

3. Massachusetts legislature passed a bill requiring a referendum by the voters before any water supply system can be fluoridated after Sept. 1, 1958, according to Nati Fluoridation News, May 1959.

4. The same newspaper says New Hampshire has a similar law and the Texas Medical Society refused to endorse fluoridation.

5. There are 32 organizations presently resisting the fluoridation movement, one of which is the Prevention Magazine.

I have no quarrel with the village council except to say that they were not allowed to hear a fair presentation of the facts before they made their decision to fluoridate Chelsea water. It is not too late for them to reverse this decision. We have only to let them know how we, the citizens, who will have to drink the water, feel.

Professor Urges Minimum Use of Parliamentary Rules

Gordon Thomas, associate professor of speech at Michigan State University, speaking at the Washtenaw Area Council Parent Teacher Organization meeting at Manchester Friday evening, posed the questions, "What is the importance of parliamentary procedure?" and "How do you get people to talk when there is a motion on the floor?"

Thomas, who is the state PTA parliamentary, answered these questions and others during his talk. He advocated relaxed use of parliamentary rules in informal meetings, saying that no more parliamentary procedure than necessary should be used. His principal advice was "Keep meeting simple and uncomplicated but under control of the chairman at all times."

Jaycees Auxiliary Completes Plans for Regional Meeting

Jaycees Auxiliary members met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Gene Shoemaker with Mrs. Merle Leach as co-hostess.

Final preparations for the Jaycees Auxiliary Fall Regional meeting were discussed. The Chelsea Auxiliary will be hostess group for Auxiliaries from Adrian, Blissfield, Clinton and Morenci at a dinner meeting at the Congregational church Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Marguerite Falk of Milan, Jaycees Auxiliary state president, and Mrs. Betty Derr of Ann Arbor, district vice-president, will be featured guests and speakers.

Plans were also discussed Monday for the December Jaycees Auxiliary meeting which is to be a combined business and social event. All Jaycees' wives are being invited to meet the Auxiliary members and other Jaycees' wives. Guests are to be notified as to details.

Mrs. Gene Shoemaker, Mrs. Elton Guenther and Mrs. Robert Vanderkelen were appointed as a committee to review the Auxiliary's constitution and policies and suggest revisions.

Mrs. Merle Leach was appointed to fill a vacancy on the board of directors.

Tentative arrangements were made for the January meeting at which the district vice-president, Mrs. Betty Derr of Ann Arbor, will be the guest speaker.

LIMANERS

Mrs. Fred Kennedy and Mrs. Nina Wahl entertained the Limaners Thursday at the home of Mrs. Kennedy. There were 17 members and four guests present, one of the latter, Mrs. Earl Whitney, joining the group as a new member.

Following a pot-luck dinner at noon a business meeting was held, and plans were made for several of the members to meet at the home of Mrs. Irwin Lounsbury and tie a quilt which is to be given to some one in need of it.

The quilt was pieced at meetings of the group as a community service project.

Plans for a Christmas project were also discussed and the president, Mrs. John Metzger, appointed Mrs. Carl Schlosser and Mrs. Harry Prudden as a committee to investigate and plan the project.

The Limaners' annual Christmas party will be held Thursday, Dec. 3, at the home of Mrs. M. W. McClure.

Jacqueline Betts, Charles Lindstrom Speak Vows at Willis Methodist Church

Mrs. Charles L. Lindstrom

Jacqueline Betts, daughter of Mrs. David Hoffman of Marts road, Ypsilanti township and Wesley M. Betts of Hayes road, became the bride of Charles L. Lindstrom in a ceremony performed Saturday evening in the Willis Methodist church. The Rev. Tony Stoneburner officiated.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Lindstrom of McKean road, Ypsilanti township.

For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina-length gown which featured nylon tulle. It was fashioned with a bouffant skirt trimmed with alencon lace panels and a high neckline. Her fingertip-length veil fell from a crown trimmed with seed pearls.

Miss Cynthia L. Day of Willis was maid of honor and Miss De-Elle J. Ballard was bridesmaid.

Martin Elliott of Belleville was best man and Roger Lindstrom served as bridegroom's man. Dale Elliott of Belleville and Larry Hoffman served as ushers.

Miss Debbie Johnson was flower girl.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Among those who assisted at the reception was Mrs. Theodore Betts of Birmingham, sister-in-law of the bride, who poured punch.

The couple left later for a week's wedding trip in the South.

Both are graduates of Lincoln Consolidated High school. The bride attended Highland Park Junior College and is now employed at Eberbach & Son Co., Ann Arbor.

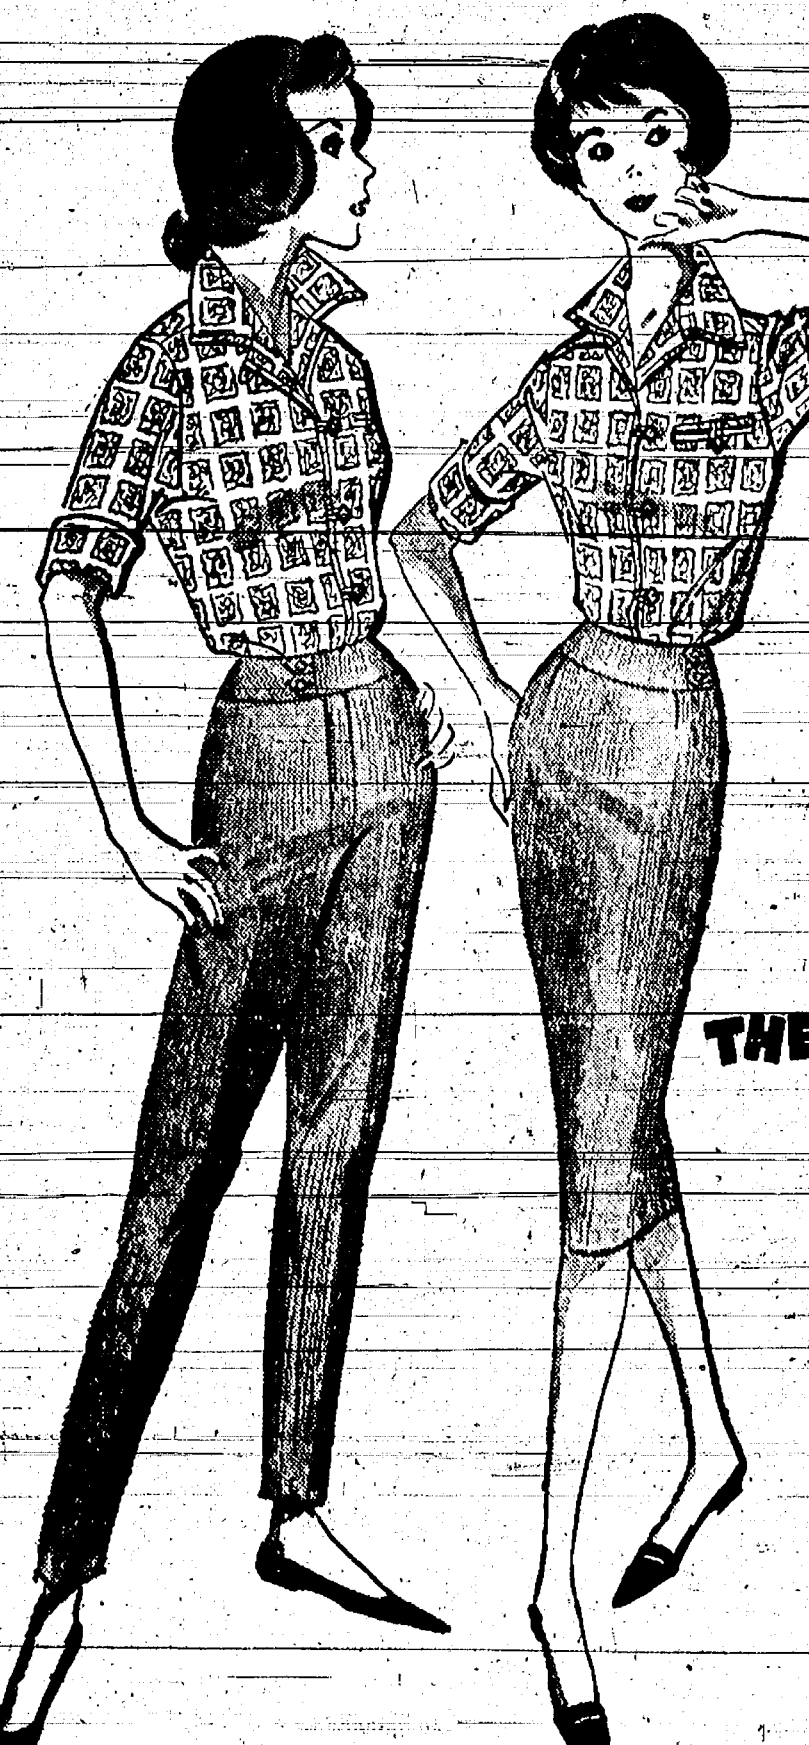

The bridegroom attended Michigan State University. He is employed by A. R. Congdon & Sons, in Ypsilanti.

Those from Chelsea who attended the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Betts and Mrs. Fred Layher. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Betts of Birmingham.

Mrs. Lynn Kern is a patient at Colonial Manor Nursing Home, having been taken there Saturday.

Following the business session members participated in a series of demonstrations showing hobbies of people in other countries as well as in this country.

The next meeting on Nov. 24 will be held at the home of Mrs. Ray Lutovsky. This is a change from the original schedule which listed the meeting place as the home of Mrs. Donald Hankerd.

Final Clinics for Polio Vaccinations Set for Nov. 7-14

Two final clinics for giving 2nd and 3rd polio vaccinations will be held Nov. 7 and 14 at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, and at the Washtenaw County Health Department in Ypsilanti. It was announced by Dr. Otto K. Engelke, Washtenaw County Health Department director.

The clinics, which are held every Saturday from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m., were begun in May to help protect children in certain areas of the county which had been declared to be "soft spots" areas or areas where the level of protection was below the satisfactory level," Dr. Engelke said.

The local medical society, the National Foundation, the Hospital and the Health Department all cooperated in the program during the summer," said Dr. Engelke. The clinics were set up to offer children 1st, 2nd and 3rd injections, but first injections were suspended a month ago, to allow for the recommended one month interval between 1st and 2nd injections before closing the clinics for the winter months.

Plans presently call for a re-opening of the clinics in the early spring if the conditions at that time seem to indicate a need for the service," Dr. Engelke said.

Bulldogs Win...

erion to move the ball to Saline's 24. On the first play Q.B. Wilson and McLaughlin faked a belly play beautifully and as half of Saline's team attempted to tackle McLaughlin, Wilson pulled the ball out and pitched to Ferris who waited over behind a wall of blockers. McDanielis was stopped short on the extra point attempt and Chelsea led at half time, 13-0.

Following the half time ceremonies in which fathers of varsity players were honored, the Bulldogs quickly iced the game.

Saline kicked off to Ferris and the Senior halfback took the ball on the 20 near the far side line out to the middle, shook off one would-be tackler, and aided by several good blocks, raced the full 80 yards to the T.D. It was the Bulldog's longest scoring play of the year.

Still in the third period, with a complete Senior team in action, the Bulldogs moved 73 yards in four plays to score. Wilson passed to big Tink Cameron for a 15-yard pick up, and another pass was incomplete. Ferris then broke away, as Cameron, Wilson Morley and Matt Murphy opened the hole and Phil McDanielis cleared out the linebacker for a 30-yard gain, to place the ball on Saline's 28. Wilson then completely fooled the Hornets as he faked to Ferris and rolled out to his right with the ball on his hip and raced all the way to score. Matt Murphy cracked over to score the extra point.

The final Chelsea T.D. was scored by a team composed entirely of Juniors and Sophomores and the underclassmen showed promise for next year. This group had a make-shift backfield as Q.B. Ed Lauson was forced to miss the game due to an ankle injury. However, Dave McLaughlin took over the Q.B. spot and directed a backfield of Al Schauer, Jim Maynard and Pete Flintoft in for the T.D. McLaughlin started the drive as he rolled out around his own right end, and aided by Alton Nixon and Danny Ellenwood's blocking, rambled for 35 yards. After Pete Flintoft picked up five on a dive play, Jim Maynard found a big hole opened by Jerry Ringe. Charley Waller and Mike Marsh moved for 10 yards to put the ball on the 10. On the next play Maynard swept his own right-end behind excellent blocking by Flintoft and Al Schauer to score the T.D. Co-Capt. Roger Herman, who normally plays center, tried the extra point but was stopped on a fumble.

Saline scored late in the game on a well-executed pass from Q.B. John Thoss to End Jerry McDonald, good for eight yards. H.B. Charles Robinson scored the extra point.

Defensively, except for Saline's opening drive, the Bulldogs were again especially sharp Friday night. End Gary Dault turned in his usual hard-hitting game, as did End Homer Nixon and Rich Wood. Chuck Koenigster turned in his best defensive effort of the year as he was credited with eight tackles. David Rowe turned in several hard-hitting tackles especially on kick-off. Linebackers Jerry Ringe and Roger Herman turned in standout defensive games. McLaughlin, Maynard Murphy and Ferris did exceptional jobs in the Bulldog secondary.

The fathers who were honored Friday night certainly must have been proud of the young men who performed an exceptionally well in the final game of 1959.

Nearly Half Million Hunters Head for Woods in Deer Hunt

Sunday, Nov. 15, is the target date for more than 400,000 hunters expected to open Michigan's regular and special firearm deer seasons.

An estimated 400,000 hunters will take to the woods during the Nov. 15-30 seasons and the Dec. 1-6 special season in an area of Allogan county.

Liberalized special season measures, together with archery take and buck kill, are designed to raise the whitetail harvest to 116,000, a 14 per cent hike over last year's figure of 101,760.

An increase has been made in special hunting permits and areas covered under "any deer" shooting in an effort to ward off heavy deer losses this winter. In many areas, the herd left its major feeding range badly over-browsed last winter. Much of this will not recover sufficiently to carry the present herd, estimated at more than 700,000 animals, through the 1959-60 winter.

Approximately 100,000 special permits were issued this week for "any deer" hunting in 39 crop-damage and food-shortage areas which cover 18,457 square miles. Last year, 13,970 square miles fell under special seasons while 55,265 hunters were issued permits.

Permits allow 25,000 antlerless deer in 1959; they are expected to harvest 45,850 this year. Conservation Department game men look for a slight rise in deer take but a drop from 75,000 to about 68,000 in buck kill.

As in the past, Department biologists will be busy during and right after the seasons, compiling information which will help shape deer management programs. Successful hunters are urged to stop at one of the Department's various roadside biological checking stations to have their deer aged and studied for sex, weight and antler data. These stations will be located at Standish, Sanford, Mt. Pleasant, Morely, White Cloud and the Straits of Mackinac. Information gained at these check points gives game men an insight to the general physical condition of deer, particularly those in trouble areas of the range.

Traffic surveys will be conducted to measure deer kill and other observations will be made at locker plants, Department headquarters and hunting camps.

Hunters Reminded That Camping Is Permitted On Most State Lands

Lansing—Hunters are reminded that camping is permitted on nearly all state lands during Michigan's deer and bear season.

Camping information and camp registration cards are available at district and regional headquarters offices of the Conservation Department and from the state's 4,200 license dealers. No fee is charged but hunters must post these cards at their camp sites. This helps officers locate hunters when home emergencies develop and also reduces litter problems.

Basic camping facilities are available in more than 100 state forest campgrounds, some 60 national forest campgrounds, 40 state parks and numerous county parks. No charge is made in state and national forests. At state parks, the daily camping fee is $1.00 while the daily charge for electricity is 25 cents.

Hunters who will not be camping are urged to register at the mentioned Department offices.

Venison Storage Controlled by State Regulations

Legal storage of venison to be brought back from the woods by some of Michigan's 400,000 deer hunters is of concern to nimrods and locker plant operators alike in the opinion of Chief J. L. Littlefield of the Michigan Department of Agriculture's food and standards division.

Storage of unskinned deer in a locker plant in the same room with other meat or other food products is prohibited by state locker plant regulations. Deer with hides or skins on must be stored in a separate room.

The regulation provides that "the storage of hides and skins is prohibited unless separate storage rooms with no open passages leading into the locker room, chill room, aging room, or sharp freezing room are provided."

Deer placed in other than locker plants such as grocery stores, meat markets and similar establishments must be stored so there will be no violation of state regulations that require that all food shall be protected from contamination by dust, vermin, animals or persons.

Of interest to store owners is the fact that state standards for hamburger do not provide for the use of venison. State Department of Agriculture inspectors are continually on the alert during hunting season and thereafter to make sure deer meat does not reach trade channels for human consumption.

Committee Named To Arrange Scout Trip to Jamboree

Dr. Floyd Peyton, president of the Portage Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, announced the appointment of a local Jamboree committee to arrange for a contingent of 80 persons to the National Golden Jamboree at Colorado Springs, next summer. Chairman of the committee is W. N. MacDonald of Bendix Aviation Corp. MacDonald headed the Council's first Eagle Recognition Day program last April. Other members of his committee are: Mel Wirth and Ken Walker of Howell, Mervin S. Smith, Howard Fellers, Leigh Anderson, and David R. Welch of Ann Arbor.

Jamboree fee has been set at $149.00 per Scout or Explorer. This fee includes transportation, meals, tours and all other expenses except uniforms and personal equipment. Scouts or Explorers may register now at the Boy Scout office in Ann Arbor by paying a $25.00 registration fee. Boys must be at least 12 years old by Jan. 1, 1960 and have the approval of their unit leader.

50,000 Scouts and Explorers are expected at the Jamboree which will be held July 22-28 at the Colorado Springs site. Scouts will camp by patrols and troops in the world's largest tent city.

Scouts from the Portage Trails Council will be leaving here July 19 and return July 31. The extra days at Colorado Springs will be spent on tours. Tentative plans call for a tour of the Air Force Academy, Garden of the Gods, Colorado Springs Ghost Town, Van Briggie Art Pottery, Manitou Cliff Dwellings, Royal Gorge and Buckskin Joe's.

NEWS & HOLLYWOOD

Jennifer Jones has her hair dressed every evening at home even if she's not entertaining or going to a party.

Jerry Wald and David Selznick wowing each other—object: partnership.

Stanley Kramer says he's negotiating with Gregory Peck for still another picture, "My Glorious Brother," with an Israeli theme. It's to be made in Israel.

Kay Kendall's death was a great blow. Yul Brynner says he'd never known anyone with as much courage. She was in great pain while making her last picture with him, but was determined to finish it, and did.

Today's film review:
FIVE GATES TO HELL
"Five Gates To Hell" is a somewhat gory picture, packed with brutality unlimited.

It is set in wartime Indo-China where a local warlord's barbaric gang mows down a Red Cross hospital field unit and carries off two doctors, seven nurses and a nun to a jungle stronghold.

Once arrived at the fortress, the doctors are expected to save the life of the dying warlord.

The captive doctors and nurses plot a desperate escape plan, and the audience is kept on the edge of the seat as they bring it to fruition.

Neville Brand is strikingly vicious as the chief villain, who very briefly reveals a streak of humanity. Dolores Michaels, Patricia Owens and Nobu McCarthy are among the ladies involved.

A gripping film, but definitely not for the squeamish.

The Way the Ball Bounces

With Tom Johnston

Herman, Ferris Considered on 'All-State'

It's all over, including the shouting. The 1959 football season which saw the Chelsea Bulldogs win the Washtenaw Conference title by going undefeated in conference play and marking up a winning streak of seven straight football victories which began after the loss to Milan in the season's opener. The Big Reds, by the way, closed their season with an identical mark of 7 and 1. Wouldn't it have been fun to see the two teams, Milan and Chelsea that is, meet this week. Congratulations to the coaches and the squads. We watched half of the season finale against Saline last Friday night, and were impressed by the hard running of the Bulldogs backs, in particular, Dal Ferris looked very good. Up front, the big Bulldog line contained the Hornet attack quite well and we liked the play of Roger Herman among others.

Basketball practice gets underway at all of the area schools this week. As I mentioned in this column the last time, I see the conference race shaping up as a terrific one. Basketball has always been a sport of surprises, and from what we know of some of the teams in the area this year, the Washtenaw Conference race should be a close one. Right now I'd say that Saline and University High would share the favorite's honors, with Chelsea, followed by Dexter, as near rivals. Saline will have the tallest quintet in the league. University High will have size and speed, and a fine jump shot.

Ken will provide the Cubs with a 6-4 center to make them tough on the boards. Bob Taylor's Bulldogs are of an unknown quantity or quality at this writing, but it is a safe assumption that they'll be right in the race.

Look for bigger basketball crowds this year. All of the schools have fine gyms, and the new interest in the conference should "pack 'em in." I'll be broadcasting the high school game of the week this year, it will again be a rebroadcast at 10 a.m. each Saturday morning.

On the collegiate scene, every one is elated by Michigan's win over Illinois last Saturday. The Maize and Blue had been underdogs going into the game, but came through with one of the year's best performances in topping the Illini. Center Gerald Smith who intercepted three passes to become the hero of the afternoon, is one of those fellows with little physical equipment to play football, but with great desire. And as I'm sure you've heard many times, desire is the most important part of any contest. This week Bump will take the boys down to Bloomington, Indiana, to face a strong Hoosier football team. I'll go along with the Wolverines on this one, and just Ohio State on the following Saturday. This would give Michigan a 5-4 record for the season, which would of course be the coaching job of the year.

All-State selection time is coming up again, and Chelsea has two boys who will get some consideration. Dal Ferris and Roger Herman. Dave McLaughlin and some of the others can look to the future for their honors. It's rare when a sophomore, or even a junior gains any of the honor teams. We'll be picking our all-area "Top 22" football team in the next couple of weeks, and if you don't think that's a tough pick, you're mistaken. Chelsea has at least four boys up for consideration. Dexter's Elton Savary may make it two years in a row. Manchester has Bud England and Terry Huber outstanding. U. High has Fisher and Pete Andrews along with Dave Griffin. Clinton's Bob Jurraic appears to be one of the state's best. Saline was a fine back in Bill Taylor. Yes, in all it will be a big job to pick from the area this fall.

I was glad to see the Lions let Terry Barr play on offense. Terry is a swell guy, and a fine offensive threat as both a runner and a pass receiver. When a fellow goes to the pros, unless he's a quarterback or an end, he usually ends up playing defense. I'm sure that you'll see Terry continue to aid the Lions as he did with some great play against Pittsburgh on Sunday. Speaking of that game. How about Bobby Layne? That guy has more spirit and desire than anyone in the pro loop. He's still terrific at 33.

What a hassle there will be if Wisconsin and Northwestern tie for the Big Ten title. Northwestern hasn't gone to the Rose Bowl since 1949. Wisconsin beat the Wildcats.

That's it for this week. Beginning next week we'll take a look at the individual basketballers in the area as well as the outlook for the basketball favorites this winter. And we'll tell you all about the big Chelsea Christmas Basketball Tourney scheduled for the holidays.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Sizing-up" the Situation
When a lady in our town's looking for a new dress ... her first target is Sandy Phillip's Shop. The other day I finally asked Sandy how come he's been so successful.
"Well," Sandy said, "I've always treated my customers with courtesy. And my secret ingredient—which isn't really a secret—is flattery."
"Whenever a new shipment of dresses comes in, I cut off the size markers in every dress—and make them a size smaller. Size 16 becomes size 14 and so on. Course, all the ladies know I change the number—but they like it. Helps them pretend their figures are a little better than they really are."

From where I sit, we all like to think the best of ourselves—often "shrink" the truth to do it. Reminds me of people who claim they're not prejudiced then turn around and argue against a neighbor's choice of a glass of beer. Even a little intolerance is too much in a person or in a town—and that's exactly the size of it.

Carl T. Bond, staff consultant to the newly-formed Citizens for Michigan organization, was guest speaker at the Nov. 10 meeting of the Woman's Club of Chelsea. The meeting was held in the club room at McKune Memorial Library.

The speaker, who is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fielemeyer, is on leave from the University of Michigan where he served as research and development administrator at Willow Run Laboratory. ## Traffic Safety Sabbath Set Throughout State

Traffic Safety Sabbath which is to be observed Sunday, Nov. 15 in various ways in churches throughout the state, is sponsored by a state-wide inter-faith committee of Catholic, Protestant and Jewish members in co-operation with the Michigan State Safety Commission, Michigan Citizens Highway Safety Action Committee and the National Safety Council.

It has been pointed out that highway safety is essentially a matter of good morals. It must be achieved by a moral awakening.

The Rev. Fr. Robert E. Kavanaugh, lecturer on ethics at Michigan State University, explains the problem of highway safety in this way:

"Fears born of tragic accidents are passing. Statistics are cold and impersonal.

"Shock is temporary. And knowledge of highway rules does not of itself produce virtue in the drivers."

For this reason, he says, the education of drivers must include a "new dimension," that of self-discipline and self-control.

Father Kavanaugh, who is also a student advisor and pastor of St. John's Student Center, East Lansing, was speaking in connection with the "Unwanted Driver" program sponsored by the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police. The program, built around posters depicting various types of unsafe drivers who violate traffic laws is designed to appeal to the conscience of the individual driver.

"All the driving education possible is not enough to quell the unruly urges, which instruction and education have failed to eradicate in other areas of life," said Father Kavanaugh.

"The problem is not only that people do not know the rules of the road. The problem is that they have not disciplined themselves to do what their conscience tells them is right."

The seven basic urges recognized by moral theologians—commonly called the seven capital sins—are the "driving broncos" which must be controlled if highways are to be made safe, said Father Kavanaugh.

"These are pride, selfishness, lust, anger, gluttony, envy and sloth," he explained.

"The seven capital sins are human urges which of their nature are good. But only in moderation, and they must be channeled into useful application."

"When allowed to dominate a man's life they are responsible for all the moral failures in human existence."

Father Kavanaugh gives a few examples:

"The belligerent teen-ager, thinking primarily of himself, does not leave his rebellion at home."

"The enviously nagging wife prompts revolt in her husband on the highway."

"The boastful athlete 'shows off' on the highway."

"The proud man thinks his presence on the highway."

Conservation Dept. Wants Report on Area Deer Kills

Hunters killing buck deer in Jackson or Washtenaw counties or elsewhere in southern Michigan are urged to phone the Conservation Department's district office in Jackson.

The local hunter can telephone his report collect to Jackson office at STate 4-3188. A game biologist will go to the hunters residence or frozen food locker, determine the age of the deer by the amount of wear on the teeth, and measure its antlers and record the weight. Even if only the head remains he can still obtain the necessary information.

"We need to examine 500 southern Michigan buck deer this fall," states Ralph E. Bailey, District Game Supervisor. This is the continuation of a study to secure information vital to the management of the southern Michigan deer herd. With the high productivity of two fawns from each doe, the herd should be increasing at a faster rate. First of all we need to know how many bucks are being shot and how many bucks of each age class are being removed by the hunter. This will be followed around the year by a careful tally of all other causes of mortality including dogs, cars, fences, farm machinery, etc."

A man's strength and ability is never known until tried.

tage and influence make him an exception to traffic laws."

"Selfishness at home and in business is thoughtless speed and taking careless chances when driving."

Father Kavanaugh concluded: "Religion must work hand in hand with parents to supplement the moral education which is the basic responsibility parents must teach their children."

"As partners in moral education, the parents and the Church must strive to teach self-discipline and self-control in all aspects of life. Without such controls there can be no solution to the human weaknesses so obvious when men are at rest and thinking, but so often neglected when they are in motion on the roads and unthinking."

"Let me watch your driving habits when you think you are not being observed by a policeman and I will cite your real moral and spiritual integrity and maturity."

The Rev. Stanley G. Buck, D.D.,

Drink Kills 318 Drivers, Pedestrians

The Michigan Department of State now has evidence which shows that 42 per cent or more of Michigan's fatality accidents studied during a six-month period were accidents in which alcohol was involved.

During a period from April 1 through Sept. 30, 1959, 750 fatal accidents in which 850 persons were killed were investigated.

According to James M. Hare, Chairman of the State Safety Commission, of the 750 accidents, 318 involved alcohol, 396 did not involve intoxicants, and in the case of 36 there was no evidence one way or the other.

The study showed that 146 of the accidents involved a vehicle and a pedestrian, 278 involved involved only one car as in the case of run-off-the-road fatalities, and 326 of the accidents involved two or more cars.

"On this Traffic Safety Sabbath, therefore, we ask you to consider seriously your obligations and responsibilities on the highways. Each of us should be eager to join with other conscientious citizens of Michigan to bring about a greater degree of safety on the highways."

"The Hoover Charity Fund, representing the Ball and Bearing Divisions of Hoover Ball and Bearing Co. and employees, including members of the Hoover Unit of Local 88, UAW, this week poured more than $5,000 in treasures of charity into the hands of the community."

Largest donation event to Ann Arbor where more than $5,000 worth of Hoover employees' gifts, next largest is Ypsilanti, home of 100 Hoover employees.

of the Methodist Peace Temple at Benton Harbor, speaking of Traffic Safety Sabbath, suggested that drivers "let their religion show while driving."

He said church people can make the streets and highways safer because good driving depends not only on skill but upon attitude. The implementation of Christian thinking, behavior and conduct, he says, are summed up in the Golden Rule. "Whatever you would that men should do unto you, do ye even so to them."

Rabbi Morris Adler, vice-president of the Jewish Community Council of Metropolitan Detroit, states that traffic safety is a moral duty.

Rabbi Adler said, "Ethical training and experience are not enough in driving a car. Needed also are a sense of responsibility and consideration, and maturity of judgment. The driver who is deficient in these latter traits becomes a menace. Because these qualities are related to the preservation of human life and to the inner spirit of man, religion is profoundly and intimately involved in the program of Traffic Safety."

The Most Rev. Joseph H. Albers, Bishop of Lansing, in a pastoral letter, mentioned that it is estimated that deaths from highway accidents will exceed 1,800 in Michigan this year.

The Fifth Commandment is: "Thou shalt not kill." It commands us to respect our own lives and the lives of others and forbids us to do anything that would endanger our own well-being or that of others. We must remember that it is a matter of conscience at all times. Therefore, we should regularly examine our conscience and ask ourselves: "Did I endanger my neighbor's life or my own by careless driving?"

"On this Traffic Safety Sabbath, therefore, we ask you to consider seriously your obligations and responsibilities on the highways. Each of us should be eager to join with other conscientious citizens of Michigan to bring about a greater degree of safety on the highways."
