Plans Complete for Gala Welcome with Anniversary Band

This year's Christmas season in Chelsea will officially begin Saturday, Nov. 28, when Santa Claus will arrive here for his first visit.

In keeping with Chelsea's 125th Anniversary year, he plans to come in from the North riding in an old-fashioned horse and buggy.

All children of the community are invited to be uptown to meet him when he arrives at 10:30 a.m.

The 125th Anniversary Brothers of the Brush Band will be uptown to await Santa Claus' arrival and escort him through the business section. The band will march and play while awaiting Santa Claus' arrival.

It is planned to have Santa Claus make a pre-Christmas visit to Chelsea each Saturday morning until Christmas. It is believed he might also be here one or two Friday evenings during the pre-holiday season.

Santa Claus' special mailbox will be in its customary place in front of the Chelsea Post Office Friday. No postage is required for letters to Santa Claus, if they are deposited in this special red-painted box. The letters will be picked up by Santa Claus each Saturday and he promises to answer every letter he receives.

Another special feature of the Christmas season will be a residential outside lighting contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. First, second and third prizes will be awarded.

In addition to the regular Friday night store hours, business places will remain open Saturday evenings, Dec. 12, and 19 and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Dec. 21, 22 and 23.

The custom of past years will be followed for closing at 6 p.m.

Tree-Lighting Ceremony Set Friday Night

Friday night, at 7:30 p.m. Chelsea Jaycees will conduct an official tree-lighting ceremony at the Municipal Christmas tree erected on the Post Office lawn.

The ceremony will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will include a Christmas sing.

Everyone is invited to participate, Robert Vanderkelen, Jaycees president, announced yesterday.

Alan Booth and Jack Wellnitz, co-chairman, have announced that the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce "Bosses' Night" will be held at Schumm's restaurant Tuesday night.

This annual affair gives Jaycees the opportunity to entertain their employers at a dinner meeting and program.

Guy VanderJac, of an Ann Arbor radio station will be the guest speaker.

Dexter, Chelsea School Chorus Schedule Exchange Assemblies

The Dexter High school chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Jill Christian, consists of 70 voices. The first exchange assembly of the year will be Dec. 2 and will be with Chelsea. Chelsea, in turn, comes to Dexter on Dec. 3.

This select chorus will sing the following listed numbers: "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Early One Morning," selections from "The King and I," "Marches of Peace," and "Many a New Day."

Fireproofing Formula For Holiday Decorations

For spraying evergreens, cotton or material beneath Christmas trees, on window sills, etc., to provide fireproofing, the following formula works very well:

7 oz. Borax
2 oz. Boric Acid
2 qts. Water

Mix well till dry ingredients are thoroughly dissolved. Spray (a hand sprayer works fine) or dip and dry material to be fireproofed.

Chelsea, Dexter Steer Clubs Organize, Ready To Operate

Under sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club of Dexter, a "Dexter Steer Club" has been organized. A Chelsea Steer club has also been organized, with the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce as sponsoring organization.

Approximately 25 young people have already indicated they will participate in Chelsea and a number of them have purchased the steer they will enter in the club.

All steers to be included in the clubs must be purchased on or before Dec. 15 and all steers must be inspected and "tattooed" by a local veterinarian for insurance purposes before Jan. 1.

All farm youth of the Dexter School District may join the Dexter Steer club, while the Chelsea club will be comprised of Chelsea School District youth.

Rules require that members be less than 21 years old on Jan. 1, the year of the sale of the steers. Membership may also be open to others who meet the approval of the Steer Club committee of their respective communities.

Each youth will have a sponsor or advisor from the sponsoring organization, the name of the sponsor to be drawn by lot.

If financing is desired for the purchase of a steer in the club project, bank loans may be secured at a nominal rate of interest.

Sale of the steers of the steers club of Dexter and Chelsea will replace the former fat stock sale at the Chelsea Community Fair.

There is an agreement with the Chelsea Steer Club that the Dexter steers and the Chelsea steers will be judged together with only one Grand Champion.

All steers in the steer club shall be sold at the Steer Club sale and only those steers may be sold at the Steer Club sale.

Chelsea and Dexter Steer Club steers will be sold in the order of placing in the different classes (Hereford-Angus-Shorthorn).

Each member is limited to one steer to be shown and sold as part of the steer club.

It will be possible to show other steers at the fair in the open class, but no other steers will be sold. Steers may be displayed at the fair in any group or display as long as it is approved by the Fair Board.

Steer clubs in communities where they have been functioning for some time, have proved to be a means of creating additional interest of farm youth in raising fine beef stock as well as providing a means of promoting good business relations between farm youth and businessmen of the community.

Officers of the clubs in Dexter and Chelsea are to be elected at their regular meetings.

The sponsoring organizations will also name their respective committees as soon as possible in order that the project may proceed on schedule.

Chest Campaign Extended in Attempt To Reach 1960 Goal

In a renewed attempt to reach the 1960 goal of $15,667.00, the Board of Directors of the Chelsea Community Chest last week voted to extend the fund-raising campaign closing date to Dec. 16.

The Board received a campaign report at its Nov. 18 meeting which placed the total subscription as of then at $14,164.00, or a little less than 10 per cent from the top. It was felt that possibly all Chelsea-area residents may not have been given the opportunity to pledge their support due to the short solicitation period.

Several of the Chelsea Community Chest member agencies depend entirely or almost entirely upon this support for their operating funds. This includes the Chelsea Social Service, the Chelsea Recreational Council and others.

For this reason, particularly, the Board considered it important to raise the last $1,500, if possible. Otherwise, it would be necessary for such agencies to curtail their 1960 activities to the extent that the Chest failed to reach the full budget goal.

Last week's giving by category stood as follows: Industry and employees, $8,830; business, $2,525; village residential, $1,386; rural residential, $750; schools, $409; clubs, $255.

Driver Fined on Drinking Charge After Auto Crash

Mrs. Robert Schroon of 3854 Waltrous road suffered an injured jaw and lacerations inside the left cheek in an automobile accident on Sager road Saturday afternoon. She also suffered a sprain of the right leg and various bruises. She was taken to St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor.

Also taken to the hospital was Lester Rudd of Stockbridge, a passenger in a car driven by Edsel Allen of Stockbridge, which collided head-on with Mrs. Schroon's east-bound car. Rudd suffered lacerations about the face. Allen was not hurt.

According to sheriff's deputies' reports, the accident occurred at 3:00 p.m. on Sager road between Klingler and Waltrous roads. Allen appeared in Municipal Court, Ann Arbor, Monday morning on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and was assessed a fine of $50 and $15 costs. He was also ordered to spend five days in jail. If the fine and costs are not paid he is to spend an additional 30 days in jail.

Troopers Entertain Kiwanis Club

Troopers Douglas Vogel and Richard Hilderle, of the Clinton State Police Post, were guest speakers at the Kiwanis club meeting Monday evening in the social center of the Methodist church.

Vogel, a former Chelsea resident, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vogel.

Vogel reviewed the history of the Michigan State Police since the organization in its present form during the first World War. Necessary legislation was passed in 1919, Vogel related, to continue the Troop after the war ceased.

He explained that there are eight State Police districts in Michigan administered under Commissioner Joseph Childs and that funds received from fines are turned over to the State Library.

Trooper Hilderle's talk concerned skindiving activities of the State Police. He demonstrated the equipment which is in use.

The speakers were introduced by Donald Baldwin, program chairman for the evening.

Announcement was made that seven Chelsea Kiwanians would attend a Sixth Division training (Continued on page 12)

Methodist Home Couple Injured in Kentucky Crash

Word has been received here that the Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Hichens, residents at the Methodist Home, were seriously injured in an automobile accident last Thursday while enroute to Florida. Both are confined to St. Joseph Infirmary at Louisville, Ky.

According to the Rev. E. J. Weiss, superintendent of the Methodist Home, details of the accident were not yet known here; however, a hospital spokesman said the Chelsea couple would require extended hospitalization.

The Rev. and Mrs. Hichens had left here the previous Sunday and visited with Michigan friends before starting for the south. Two other persons, unidentified except that they were from the Thumb area, were riding in the Hichens car and were also hospitalized.

Historical Book on Ann Arbor Newspapers Written by Louis Doll

Dr. Louis W. Doll who lived in Chelsea until 1922 when he was 11 years old, is the author of a book entitled "A History of the Newspapers of Ann Arbor, 1829-1920," which was published this summer by the Wayne State University Press.

Originally scheduled for publication March 3, Dr. Doll dedicated the work to his aunt, Mrs. Margaret Hindelang, also a former Chelsea resident. Now residing in Mishawaka, Ind., she was born in Chelsea, March 1, 1889. She is the former Margaret Doll. The dedication of the book had been intended as a birthday gift on her 70th birthday but because of the delay in publication it was Aug. 19 before the author was able to make the presentation to her. She has a number of relatives living in the Chelsea area.

Dr. Doll is a graduate of the University of Michigan and served as librarian and archivist of the Historical Division of the Federal Reserve Bank from 1946 to 1950. He was awarded an honorary doctorate from Nihon University in Tokyo in 1955.

He is president of the Bay County Historical Society and a trustee of the Michigan Historical Society.

A description of Dr. Doll's book follows:

"American Midwestern newspapers experienced an amazing growth in the period from 1800 to 1825. Beginning as small weekly sheets, individually owned and operated, which brought month-old news to the frontier settlements, they grew through the period of technological changes and political upheavals, newspaper wars and consolidations, to become the streamlined, mechanical, consolidated press of today, rushing the news to the newsstands almost before it happens."

The coin came up "tails" and Mrs. Crane, Lansing mother of four children, was declared first-place winner. She will receive an expense-paid one-week vacation for two on Mackinac Island. Miss Barton, also of Lansing, will receive a $100 savings bond. The winning slogan submitted by both women, to be used in next year's Highway Observance, is "Better Roads Build a Better Michigan." Annual Chest X-Ray Advised for All Men over 45 Lansing—Men over 45 have two good reasons for taking an annual chest x-ray, according to the Michigan Department of Health. The best known reason is to detect any possible signs of tuberculosis. The second vital reason is to detect any possible signs of lung cancer. Both of these diseases have high incidence among men over the age of 45, Dr. John A. Cowan, director of the division of tuberculosis and adult health warned. "Often, both of these diseases can be cured if found soon enough," he explained. "The chest x-ray, such as offered by health department mobile units periodically throughout Michigan, is the most efficient method of finding lung cancer and tuberculosis early enough so that they can be successfully treated." The number of deaths from lung cancer in Michigan has been increasing steadily, Dr. Cowan said. In 1960, 805 persons—702 men and 103 women—died from cancer of the respiratory system. In 1958, the number had soared to 1,461 deaths—1,275 men and 186 women. The increase in deaths began at age 40 and climbed steeply to ages 65-69, a group which recorded 256 deaths of men and 28 deaths of women in 1958. "The tragedy of these deaths is that many could have been prevented if everyone over the age of 45 had an annual chest x-ray," Dr. Cowan said. "Lung cancer often develops slower than most other cancers, giving greater opportunity to discover it in the treatable stage. When men over 45 have annual chest x-rays, they are increasing their chances for a long-life manifold."

Junior and senior members of Future Teachers met Nov. 19 to decide what they would like to do as a cadet teacher. Mr. Schmunk will talk to the students on the teaching program, and the cadet training will start in a few weeks.
 At a Girls Athletic Association meeting held during activity period Nov. 19, members decided to hold a fun night the first Monday of every month. A business meeting will be held the third activity period of the month also. A project to help a needy family for Christmas was adopted.

 Mrs. Wanetta Finch explained the point system to the group.

Journalism club held its monthly fourth-Monday-of-the-month dinner at Miss Fox's home. Other journalism club soon, as well they plan a joint dinner with an as a dance when a free date can be found.

Junior high students were very impressed with the Satellite-All Star game with the pep band, and the majorities. They also enjoyed seeing their teachers, Mr. O'Doherty and Mr. Conklin, play. Junior High football team won its second game with Saline by a score of 24-6. Touchdowns were made by Dick Lauhon in the first and second quarters, Paul Huber in the second quarter, and Gordon Carpenter in the fourth quarter. The cheerleaders performed for the first time in this game on the new athletic field.

Junior high library club has met four times. They have discussed the problem of overdue books, and would like to try eliminating fines on overdue books; but charging for lost, destroyed, or damaged books.

Junior High Student Council, under the leadership of president Warren Forath, have discussed band students' passing through the gym during noon hour, as well as the Student Council Christmas Dance, and the possibility and desirability of having a queen.

Linda Wahl was appointed secretary in the place of Joanne Craddock who moved away. Someone suggested that the movie "A Christmas Carol" be ordered, and Cheryl Lehman was appointed to investigate cost and availability. They discussed the desirability of paper or cloth tags for use in the coat check, and appointed a committee to investigate. Student Council representatives are to read Council minutes and explain them to their own home rooms. Outside doors are not to be used when going outside from the old building, not even by band students. The Council decided to reject some party plans submitted, because the party was too close to some others.

Their first pep meeting was a revelation to some Junior High students. Cheerleaders led various cheers; the coaches, Mr. McGill and Mr. Bussler talked briefly, more cheers were led and taught by the cheerleaders, and the school song was sung.

Junior High Band has been making rapid progress. They plan to have tryouts each six weeks, and challenges every week. People now holding first chairs are Gordon Beaman, cornet; Cheryl Lehman, flute; Susan Schroen, clarinet; Linda Blaess, horn; Richard Lauhon, trombone; Tom Sharrard, drums; and Rose Ann Zahn, baritone. Six people have switched instruments: Daryl Carr and David Frisinger are now trying bass, Dennis and Gary White are on trombone, Diane Worden moved to horn, and Dennis Skoffer to baritone. The band also has a new member, Stephen Green, on drums. They are playing two new pieces, Tom Dooley and Yankee Clipper

March. They also practiced eight reading every week. The band went to Jackson to listen to the Navy Band several weeks ago; they marched for one football game and the Halloween parade, and they plan to play in the Band Follies.

The Astronomy club viewed sun spots on Nov. 10 from the old teachers' room through Mr. Hoffmeyer's telescope. They saw four such spots. At the next meeting they plan to study some moon maps and star charts. Another part of the science club under Mr. Hoffmeyer's direction is the groups which plans to start raising such small animals as chipmunks, guinea pigs, rabbits and hamsters as soon as possible. The group has had only a few members but hopes to recruit more.

History club had a pizza party after school in the home ec room. Each pair of partners made a pizza, having brought whatever they wanted on their pizza. The 25¢ each paid for the mix purchased by the group. While the Pizzas were baking, the group danced in the gym, then after eating attended the South Lyon game. They had lots of fun and are planning to have more activities.

Eighth graders are studying the metric system in math; are making oral reports in English, and astronomy in science, and the Revolutionary War in history.

The FHA, sponsored by Miss Valk, is now planning a fashion show for Dec. 1. They also sponsored the Drive for the Ypsilanti State Hospital. They are also planning a dance for all the High.

November 4, 1959
The Legislative Committee
Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors

County Building
Ann Arbor, Michigan
Gentlemen:

You have requested an opinion from this office as to whether the petition filed with the Washtenaw County Clerk for annexation to the City of Ann Arbor of certain property located in Pittsfield Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, conforms in all respects to the home rule statute dealing with annexation.

The original petition filed July 20, 1959 contained an affidavit by the registered surveyor stating that the territory to be annexed included one hundred and seventy (170) acres more or less of land, of which twenty-two (22) acres more or less was dedicated roads, and fifty-nine (59) acres more or less was platted land, and ninety-three (93) acres more or less was non-platted land. However, on September 30, 1959, an amended affidavit was filed by the said registered surveyor stating that the territory to be annexed included one hundred and ten (110) acres of land more or less of which twenty (20) acres was dedicated roads and fifty-nine (59) acres more or less was platted land and thirty-one (31) acres more or less was non-platted land. Soon after this amended affidavit was filed, the Legislative Committee requested that Alton Simms, County Tax Description Engineer, check the description of this property and report to them as to the number of acres included in the territory to be annexed.

Mr. Simms reported that the amended affidavit contained a seven (7) acre error. The statute provides that a sworn statement shall accompany the petition giving the total area of land proposed to be annexed, excluding streets.

The statute provides that a petition covering the same territory, or part thereof, shall not be considered by the Board of Supervisors often than once in every two years, unless such petition shall have been signed by a number of tax payers assessed for real property taxes within the area proposed to be annexed whose names appear on the latest assessment rolls therein under the requirements of the general property tax equal to thirty-five per cent (35%) of the total number of names which appear on the assessment rolls. A petition was filed in 1958 requesting annexation of certain property which included the property described in the present petition. This petition was brought before the Board of Supervisors. A public hearing was held and the Legislative Committee decided that the petition did not conform to the act, and the question was not submitted to the electors.

The statute states that if before the filing of a petition for annexation, the Board of Supervisors, by a majority thereof, shall find that the petition or the act, or contains incorrect statements, no further proceedings pursuant to said petition shall be had. It is our opinion that the petition filed on July 20, 1959 requesting annexation of certain property located in Pittsfield Township to the City of Ann Arbor does not conform to the act and contains incorrect statements, and therefore, no further proceedings pursuant to said petition should be had. Respectfully submitted,

Booker T. Williams
Assistant Prosecuting Attorney
Washtenaw County, Michigan

final action is taken by the Board of Supervisors, it shall appear to said board, or a majority thereof, that said petition or the signing thereof does not conform to the act, or contains incorrect statements, no further proceedings pursuant to said petition shall be had. It is our opinion that the petition filed on July 20, 1959 requesting annexation of certain property located in Pittsfield Township to the City of Ann Arbor does not conform to the act and contains incorrect statements, and therefore, no further proceedings pursuant to said petition should be had. Respectfully submitted,

Booker T. Williams
Assistant Prosecuting Attorney
Washtenaw County, Michigan

A report of the Legislative Committee meeting of October 27, 1959, was read.

Meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. Present: Chairman Wolter, Pealy, Rae, Prosecuting Attorney Ager, the County Administrator and Leonard.

The Committee met at the above time in Room 1 of the County Building to conduct a public hearing on a petition for annexation of a portion of Pittsfield Township to the City of Ann Arbor.

Meeting was attended by an estimated seventy-five citizens and observers.

Chairman Wolter opened the meeting by explaining the purpose of the public hearing, and particularly the decision-making role of the Board of Supervisors in eventually approving or disapproving the petition for placement of the annexation question on the ballot. Mr. Ager then briefly explained the legal objections which had been raised in his office as to the sufficiency of the petition.

Attorney Erwin A. Salisbury, representing a group of persons supporting the petition, spoke in rebuttal of Mr. Ager's arguments. There ensued a lengthy discussion by several persons in the group attending the hearing, primarily regarding the merits of annexing the area to the City of Ann Arbor in order to make sewer service available to the area. It was generally agreed by those who expressed themselves at the hearing that there was no misunderstanding on the part of the people solicited to sign the petition as to the land area involved.

Chairman Wolter reiterated at the close of the meeting the position of the committee and the Board of Supervisors in approving or disapproving the petition, emphasizing the ministerial nature of the Board's decision-making power. The committee then took under advisement the question of recommending approval or disapproval of the petition.

Meeting was adjourned.

E. A. Wolter, Chairman
Robert W. Harrington,
Vice-Chairman (concurring)
John Rae — Robert Pealy
Sylvester Leonard

Sup. Wolter supported by Sup. Leonard moved that the report be accepted. Carried.

A report of the Legislative Committee meeting on November 4, 1959 was read.

Meeting was called to order at 10:00 a.m. Present: Chairman Wolter, Harrington, Leonard, Pealy, Rae, Board Chairman Parr, Prosecuting Attorney Ager, and the County Administrator.

The committee met to formulate a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors on a petition for annexation of a portion of Pittsfield Township to the City of Ann Arbor. This petition had been reviewed at a public hearing on October 27th and statements made by various citizens and Attorney Erwin A. Salisbury taken under advisement. The committee reviewed an opinion from Prosecutor Ager in which he indicated that because of several defects, involving apparent inaccuracies in the indicated acreage to be annexed as shown on the petition and the question of whether or not the same area had been considered by the Board of Supervisors for annexation within the last two years were the basis for indicating petition's insufficiency. The Prosecutor stated, however, that his opinion was based on what he felt to be the preponderance of evidence and that arguments could be presented to support either position as to the sufficiency or insufficiency of the petition.

The following resolution was then submitted by Rae, supported by Harrington, for adoption by the committee:

This committee has carefully considered the petition requesting that the question of annexation of certain land situated in Pittsfield Township, County of Washtenaw, to the City of Ann Arbor be submitted to the qualified voters for determination. This committee has further considered all objections raised as to the sufficiency of the petition and finds substantial compliance with the pertinent statutory requirements. Any discrepancies, if they do exist, do not impinge on the mandatory statutory requirements and may be treated as surplusage.

Furthermore, there has been no showing to this committee that the alleged discrepancies misled or misinformed the signers of the petition nor that the area proposed to be annexed is not identified with certainty. Specifically:

(1) This committee finds no record in the official minutes of the Board of Supervisors that a prior petition covering this area was considered within the immediate past two years by the Board of Supervisors. (2) No showing was made to this committee that the area, exclusive of streets, has not been measured with professional accuracy. Any other measurement of total area is not required by statute.

This committee therefore recommends to the Board of Supervisors that the question of annexing the lands referred to in this petition be placed on the ballot for vote by the electors in the areas affected, and that the 15th day of February 1960 be the date of said election; and that the proper legal resolution be prepared by the Prosecuting Attorney. Resolution was carried.

Meeting was adjourned.

Our Thanksgiving Wish . .

May we have peace, but with honor and with liberty, may we never seek war; yet, may we never surrender the American way of life; may we never give up the right as Americans to think, talk, and worship, each according to his own way; yet may we be always united, a nation indivisible, in the common defense; may we enjoy the richness of our land, yet be willing to endure the hardships of free men determined to keep a democratic country.

Read Labels Before Buying Fruit Juices

Michigan manufacturers of food and drink in most instances are producing the safest, cleanest and most informatively labeled items available to the public today in the opinion of J. L. Littlefield, chief of the Michigan Department of Agriculture's foods and standards division.

Labels furnish the consumer information needed for intelligent purchasing, but if the purchaser does not take shopping time to read the labels, the benefits are lost to him. This is especially so of non-alcoholic beverages available in food outlets. There is a big difference in these, Littlefield says.

Michigan standards for non-alcoholic beverages provide that products labeled "orangeade," "lemonade" or "grapeade" should consist mainly of fruit juice, sugar and water with a characterizing amount of actual juice of the fruit named on the label.

Fruit juice is the undiluted juice extracted from the fruit but it may be sweetened with sugar if so declared. Fruit juice drinks are entirely another thing. Fruit juice drinks are not actually fruit juices but are watered-down versions of fruit juice.

"If the shopper," said Littlefield, "will take time to read labels, he will know whether he is buying a fruit ade, a fruit juice, a diluted juice, a diluted blend of juices, or a flavored water product. The same applies to concentrates whether they be frozen or liquid."

Three Bulldogs Make All-Area Team

Three boys from the Chelsea Bulldogs, and one from Dexter made the WIOA All-Area football team. Roger Hermant, Dal Ferris and Dave McLaughlin all represented Chelsea, while Elton Savery was a repeater from last year's team for Dexter.

Everyone felt that all of the boys deserved the selection. The picks by the way were made as coaches nominated players at a WIOA coaches meeting last week, then we talked with area coaches on an individual basis as to what they thought of the boy nominated for the team. These opinions were then matched with what we saw this fall, and the decisions made.

McLaughlin as a sophomore was felt to be deserving because of his tremendous drive up the middle, he should be an All-State candidate in another year. Ferris was one of the best runners we watched this fall, and led his team in touchdowns, while co-captain Roger Hermant was one of the area's best line men. Savery earned plaudits from every coach we talked with. A terrific competitor, he made 56 per cent of his team's tackles this fall.

The boys who made the team will be the guests of the station for a dinner on Wednesday night, Dec. 9 at the Washtenaw Country Club in Ann Arbor. Coaches from the area high schools and members of State college staffs will also be present.

I hope that everyone is enjoying the Thanksgiving break. And I hope that you all have a happy holiday. One thing for sure, Bump Elliott will enjoy his Thanksgiving this year. Bump has gained plaudits from coaches around the Big Ten conference for the fine coaching job he did in bringing Michigan's Wolverines to their 3 and 4 conference record.

You know, a lot of people seemed to feel that the win over Ohio State was a big upset, but I'll take the win over Illinois as the biggest Wolverine victory this fall. When Michigan went to Illinois, they hadn't won a game the squad last season and Kraszewski was active in junior varsity basketball during the first part of the season before playing city league ball. At forwards Skala has been working veteran letterman Rod Treats, Pontiac senior, and center-forward Tom McKenzie, Ypsilanti junior. While McKenzie is at the forward post, big 6-6, 220 Dick Montre is playing the center post. Montre is in much better condition than was the case last season and it is expected that he will be able to hold his own on the backboards. When Montre vacates the position, McKenzie will be ready to move in to handle the position with which he is most familiar.

Among the newer standouts are Duane Lamman, Mayville freshman, and Jim Seeny, Jefferson City, Missouri freshman. Both are working from guard positions and are relatively small standing at about 5-8. Both are fast, however, and may be able to help the squad somewhat this season.

Working into shape somewhat more slowly than expected has been Frank Manley, Flint senior. Manley, captain of the squad, this season, was injured in an automobile accident in mid-October. Since that time he has been bothered by rib, arm and leg injuries although now both the ribs and arm seem nearly healed. He still is having difficulty with the foot injury and it is not expected that he will be ready to go until sometime following the opening week of play.

Michigan's basketball team will play a 22-game regular schedule and participate in the Los Angeles Tournament during the 1959-60 season. This includes 14 Big Ten contests and eight with non-conference teams.

Coach Bill Ferigo's athletes will open against Pittsburgh away, Dec. 2, and play four other contests before a Christmas holiday jaunt to play in the Los Angeles Tournament, Dec. 28-29-30 where they will open tourney competition against UCLA.

Opening Big Ten play will be against Michigan State at East Lansing, Jan. 9 with Indians opening home season Big Ten play on Jan. 11.

One of the greatest football legends of Tom Harmon, former Michigan All-American halfback and now a nationally known sportscaaster, is the fact that he never had the opportunity of playing in the Rose Bowl. Michigan's famous "Old 98" appeared on the scene during 1938-39-40, before the pact between the Big Ten and the Pacific Coast came into being.

FALL FISHING—While fall is considered by many as the season for hunting, it also offers many opportunities for fishermen. Displaying its scenic array of forest colors, fall provides cooler and more comfortable temperatures which generally sharpen the appetites of fish after pesky mosquitoes and black flies are gone. Lake fishing is often better in the fall than at any other time. Some of the finest perch fishing is available along the shores of the Great Lakes. Rainbow trout remain fair catch through Nov. 30 in a score of lakes and streams designated by the Conservation Department.

SIR LAURENCE OLIVIER kept his promise, made to director Bob Mulligan when they taped "The Moon and Sixpence," to use Mulligan on future American TV projects. Mulligan has formed his own company to star Olivier in Dostoyevsky's "The Idiot" as a special next spring. Ed Rogers will script the adaptation. Serge Gainsbourg has announced plans for 16 new series. Last film for the first, "The Brothers January," has already been completed. Ida Lupino to direct an upcoming episode of "77 Sunset Strip," titled "Jukebox Capers." Roger Smith gets a chance to demonstrate his vocal talents in the episode, as he impersonates a rock 'n' roll artist. Esther Williams will go to Rome next summer to cover the Olympic swimming events for CBS. "Crime, Inc." the postponed Standard Want Ads get results!

Ford special, will feature J. Edgar Hoover in his TV dramatic debut, playing himself.

ARLENE DAHL may be hostess and occasional star of "Cherchez le Femme," new series to dramatize the lives of top beauties through the ages, such as the Biblical Ruth, Mata Hari and Eva Peron. Long-time Los Angeles Dodgers shortstop and coach Pee-wee Reese will replace Buddy Blatner as Dizzy Dean's sidekick on the CBS Game of the Week telecasts. He's signed a two-year contract. There's a chance that Wyatt Earp may move from ABC to NBC next season, to be replaced on ABC by a new Lou Edelman Western series, "Album of a Gunfighter."

Deer Kill Throughout State About Same as Last Year

Lansing—Early reports from the Conservation Department's district field offices indicate deer kill was generally the same as last year during the opening days of Michigan's regular and special firearm deer seasons.

Hunters harvested approximately 98,600 whitetails during the Nov. 15-30 seasons in 1958.

While snow aided tracking throughout much of the state's deer country, in some areas of the Upper Peninsula it hampered hunting activity. Snow depths of 28 inches were reported in some parts of the Escanaba district.

In some sectors of the upper and northern lower peninsulas, extremely cold weather cut down the hunters' time in the woods. Nevertheless, gun pressure appeared equal to last year or even somewhat greater with an estimated 400,000-plus hunters afield.

Hunters above the Straits recorded light to normal kill. By Tuesday morning, Nov. 17, south-bound cars had brought 312 deer and 3 bears across the Mackinac Bridge. The Department's Upper Peninsula districts reported slightly more hunters in the far east end and about normal numbers in the central area and parts of the west end.

Reports from the Department's various roadside biological checking stations indicated a good crop of available young bucks in the northern lower peninsula. Almost 76 per cent of bucks aged at these stations on opening day were one and one-half year-olds. Hunter pressure was par with that of last year except in the Mio district which experienced an increase.

Deer kill was reported normal in two of the three southern lower peninsula districts. Hunters scored better-than-average success in the Jackson district.

Statewide, some 401 arrests were made for hunting violations as compared with about 300 for the same period in 1958. Recovered illegal deer kill totaled 120. Six elk were recovered in the northern lower peninsula.

Farmers Eligible for Social Security Disability Coverage

Farm-City Week, a nationwide observance calling attention to the common goals and common needs of rural and city people, by coincidence also marks the beginning of social security disability protection for farmers. It has already been earned by most city workers, Anna M. Ruman district manager of the Ann Arbor social security office said this week.

Beginning Oct. 1, 1959, Miss Ruman pointed out, the farmer who has a severe, long-term disability—and cannot do any substantial activity—may qualify for monthly social security benefits for himself and his dependents, if he is 50 years of age or older. If he is under 50, he may qualify to have his social security record frozen to protect his own and his family's future benefit rights.

April 1960 will be the first month for which disabled farmers can get payments for himself and his family. For many farmers who have been covered by social security only since the beginning of 1955, Oct. 1 is the earliest date on which they can meet the work requirements in the social security disability provisions.

To be eligible for payments or to have his social security record frozen, a disabled worker must have worked at least 5 out of the 10 years before his disability began. For farmers, who first became covered by social security on Jan. 1, 1955, October is the earliest time they can meet the work requirement for disability protection.

Miss Ruman said that disabled workers, and disabled farmers, in particular should get in touch with their social security offices now to get more information about these disability provisions. The social security district office in Ann Arbor is located at 114 South Fourth Avenue. Write or telephone to ask for Booklet 29, "If You Become Disabled."

From NICK PRAKKE, Manager

Our new service center building at 550 S. Maple Road in Ann Arbor is now in use. It is located next to the Westland-Furniture-Store.

To celebrate we will have open house at this building on Thursday, December 3 from 7 to 10 p.m.

We plan to demonstrate our latest telephone and motor equipment. A driver's reaction test will be featured, together with movies for the children. Refreshments will be served.

You are cordially invited to drop in and bring your family and friends. Plenty of parking space at rear of the building.

HOW CAN SHUT-IN boys and girls keep up with their school work? One successful solution has been Michigan Bell Telephone Company's School-to-Home telephone installations. Even though a child is in bed, he can still take part in the lessons of his own class. He can ask questions and recite as if he were in school. Two-way speaker units make this possible. Here is an invention that ends a worry for many a parent and removes a handicap from scores of children who are confined to their homes for long periods.

"OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE WOOD, To grandfather's house we'll go..." How long has it been since you recited that poem in school? It's called "Thanksgiving Day," and it was written in the last century by Lydia M. Child. Things certainly have changed since then: today instead of a sleigh ride, you can often get to grandfather's house in a few minutes by car. But if he does live too far away to visit, and you'd like to remember him on Thanksgiving Day, there's no better way to do it than with a leisurely Long Distance call.

ORDERS TO KILL

Here is a British-made thriller that really lives up to the designation of thriller.

The plot concerns an American bomber pilot, who is assigned the hazardous secret task of parachuting into Nazi-occupied France and posing as a Frenchman in order to kill an underground espionage contact who is believed to have betrayed American agents to the enemy.

When the time arrives for the airman to fulfill his task—after a period of rigid and necessarily cruel training—he hesitates because he has good reason to doubt the guilt of the intended victim. The story is a gripping and suspenseful one.

Paul-Massie performs well in the leading role; Lillian Gish is briefly seen as the hero's devoted upper-class mother; and Eddie Albert turns in an expert performance as the sympathetic officer in charge of his training.

The most outstanding member of the cast, however, is Irene Worth, who has a few scenes of real impact as a Paris dressmaker who is helping the resistance movement.

U. S., Europe Trade Trees At Christmas

Ann Arbor—A Christmas tree—like the grass—is always greener in the other fellow's yard.

The Scotch-pine is becoming a favorite Christmas tree in northern U. S. because of its lush, long-needed beauty and lasting qualities.

As its name implies, this tree is not native of North America, but to be imported originally from Scotland and elsewhere in Europe.

John G. Robinson Gregory (Ph.D.), associate professor of resource economics at the University of Michigan.

The favorite Christmas trees in Scotland, on the other hand, is the Sitka spruce. You guessed it—this is a native North American tree, growing extensively along the northern Pacific coast, for which seed had to be exported to Europe from British Columbia and the U. S.

Until recent years, Professor Gregory adds, almost all of England's few Christmas trees were imported from France. Post-war rise in British incomes coincided with the availability of aromatic evergreens from Britain's large plantations. As home production increased, imports declined—and "just about wrecked the French Christmas tree industry."

Balsam fir, the biggest U. S. seller, is similar to the tree first seen in America in Germany. Reputedly introduced here by Hessian troops during the Revolutionary War, the Christmas tree tradition spread through northern Europe during the 19th century.

Martin Luther, inspired by moonlight on a snow-draped evergreen, is credited with first lighting a tree with candles.

"Some Michigan trees move to market early in November, but the bulk of them begin to move the latter part of the month, reaching a peak during the first half of December. Many are imported from Canada.

The trees come from three main sources: (1) contractors who secure cutting rights and harvest wild trees on private, state or federal lands; (2) pulpwood harvesting operations which yield tree tops usable as Christmas trees; and (3) commercial growers, who plant nursery stock on private acreage, prune, shape and tend the trees over the six to 10 years of growth required. The latter group supplies high quality trees, though a relatively small proportion of the total supply—as yet, Professor Gregory explains.

"What is the best Christmas tree to buy?"

"The Scotch pine earns its growing popularity," according to Frank Murray, forest manager in the U-M School of Natural Resources. "It grows fast, maturing in six to eight years, it is attractive, holds its needles, is easiest to grow in the nursery and easiest to transplant."

The buyer should try to get a fresh-cut tree and then keep it in water to preserve the "almost fireproof" quality of a fresh evergreen, Murray adds. Such care also helps keep the needles on the tree.

DR. WILLIAM A. HUDSON

A world-renowned chest surgeon who is also an enthusiastic but absentee Osark farmer, Dr. William Andrew Hudson, was unanimously elected as Michigan's 102nd Grand High Priest at the 111th Annual Royal Arch Convocation held in Saginaw, Oct. 17. He is the 12th Detroit to hold this office.

The new Grand High Priest was born at Jasper, Ark., Feb. 23, 1891, and is the son of an Osark Mountain farmer.

Dr. Hudson exhibited an early interest in medicine and, following his high school days, he entered Washington University at St. Louis where, in 1918, he earned his Bachelor of Science degree; Doctor of Medicine, in 1920; and, following a two-year course in Pathology and Bacteriology, acquired the degree of Master of Science.

He served internships at Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, Canada, and at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit.

Influences at work in Montreal may be said to be directly attributable to the molding of Dr. Hudson's professional aim in life. For it was in Montreal that he met Dr. Edward Archibald, the reputed Father of Thoracic Surgery, and he inspired in Dr. Hudson the desire to make chest work a specialized field.

Dr. Hudson finally succeeded in setting up a world-wide machinery to improve on the methods already in vogue among chest surgeons. He was founded and an organizer of the American College of Chest Physicians and, in 1954, became its president. Founder, also, of nearly a dozen national and international thoracic and bronchial-esophageal societies. Dr. Hudson has made it possible for almost global research efforts in these fields.

The son of a farmer, he soon decided that it was necessary to keep in contact with the good earth. This he does by actively maintaining a 3,400-acre experimental and research farm in the Ozarks, native haunts of his youth.

He was made a Master-Mason in Klanset Lodge No. 489 January 17, 1934, and became Worshipful Master in 1943. On March 19, 1935, he was exalted in Sojourners Chapter No. 164, R. A. M., and became Excellent High Priest in 1943. He became a member of Monroe Council No. R & S. M., June 3, 1940; a member of Detroit Commandery No. 1, K. T., April 19, 1956, having been Knighted April 19, 1955.

He is also presently Sovereign Master of Thistle & Rose Council No. 27, Allied Masonic Degrees; a member of the Royal Order of Scotland; a founder of Detroit York Rite College No. 1 and, for outstanding service to York-Rite, was invested with the York Rite Purple Cross June 6, 1951.

Also active in Scottish Rite he became a member of Detroit Consistory on November 13, 1936, for services rendered, was crowned a 33rd Degree Mason, September 26, 1956. He belongs, also, to Moslem Temple Shrine.

Detroit has been the home of the Hudsons since 1923 when Dr. Hudson arrived there with his wife, the former Benta V. Whiteaker, following their marriage on June 17, 1920, at St. Louis, Mo. They have two sons, William Andrew, Jr., and John Wallace, both of whom are now active Masons.

Michigan's Big Tourist Industry Sells Much Food

Tourists spend a lot of money to eat.

In fact, research shows that 28 cents of every vacationing dollar spent in Michigan goes into food, according to Robert McIntosh, Michigan State University tourist and resort specialist.

For example, tourists bought 38 million dollars worth of food in the upper peninsula in 1957. That's about 28 per cent of all they spend while on vacation there. So U-P tourist income for the year totalled 140 million dollars—one fifth of the state total.

Michigan grossed 650 million dollars from the tourist business in 1958, according to the Michigan Tourist Council. McIntosh says the state's farmers sold about 740 million dollars worth of produce in that year.

Why the tourist boom? The MSU specialist says:

1. More than 40 million people live within one day's drive of Michigan vacation lands.
2. More than 41 per cent of the state's area is under water. Forest-recreational land makes up another 28 per cent. Few states come close to these recreational resources.

"The state's first tourists visited Mackinac Island in the late 1700's," McIntosh points out. "In the 1800's mineral springs and resorts in northern Michigan became a top attraction."

Auto-assembly lines brought millions of tourists in the 1920's. Farmers on main roads provided tent platforms for campers. The early "motor keepers" sold milk and farm produce as a sideline.

State parks have also grown rapidly since 1919. More than 17 million people visited Michigan's 65 parks so far in 1959.

"Winter sports really gained the public's fancy within the last decade or two," McIntosh remarks. "As late as 1949, Michigan had only 10 ski centers. The state now has 75."

STROMTIUM CONTENT OFF

The stromtium-90 content of the nation's major water course during the second quarter of 1959 was far below what is regarded as permissible, the Public Health Service has reported.

Currently a stromtium-90 level of eighty micromicrocuries a liter is considered permissible for lifetime exposure.

The service said that weekly water samples from seventeen major rivers and four sampling stations on the Great Lakes had been analyzed.

The stromtium-90 content of the nation's major water course during the second quarter of 1959 was far below what is regarded as permissible, the Public Health Service has reported.

Currently a stromtium-90 level of eighty micromicrocuries a liter is considered permissible for lifetime exposure.

The service said that weekly water samples from seventeen major rivers and four sampling stations on the Great Lakes had been analyzed.

DR. WILLIAM A. HUDSON

A world-renowned chest surgeon who is also an enthusiastic but absentee Osark farmer, Dr. William Andrew Hudson, was unanimously elected as Michigan's 102nd Grand High Priest at the 111th Annual Royal Arch Convocation held in Saginaw, Oct. 17. He is the 12th Detroit to hold this office.

The new Grand High Priest was born at Jasper, Ark., Feb. 23, 1891, and is the son of an Osark Mountain farmer.

Dr. Hudson exhibited an early interest in medicine and, following his high school days, he entered Washington University at St. Louis where, in 1918, he earned his Bachelor of Science degree; Doctor of Medicine, in 1920; and, following a two-year course in Pathology and Bacteriology, acquired the degree of Master of Science.

He served internships at Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, Canada, and at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit.

Influences at work in Montreal may be said to be directly attributable to the molding of Dr. Hudson's professional aim in life. For it was in Montreal that he met Dr. Edward Archibald, the reputed Father of Thoracic Surgery, and he inspired in Dr. Hudson the desire to make chest work a specialized field.

Dr. Hudson finally succeeded in setting up a world-wide machinery to improve on the methods already in vogue among chest surgeons. He was founded and an organizer of the American College of Chest Physicians and, in 1954, became its president. Founder, also, of nearly a dozen national and international thoracic and bronchial-esophageal societies. Dr. Hudson has made it possible for almost global research efforts in these fields.

The son of a farmer, he soon decided that it was necessary to keep in contact with the good earth. This he does by actively maintaining a 3,400-acre experimental and research farm in the Ozarks, native haunts of his youth.

He was made a Master-Mason in Klanset Lodge No. 489 January 17, 1934, and became Worshipful Master in 1943. On March 19, 1935, he was exalted in Sojourners Chapter No. 164, R. A. M., and became Excellent High Priest in 1943. He became a member of Monroe Council No. R & S. M., June 3, 1940; a member of Detroit Commandery No. 1, K. T., April 19, 1956, having been Knighted April 19, 1955.

He is also presently Sovereign Master of Thistle & Rose Council No. 27, Allied Masonic Degrees; a member of the Royal Order of Scotland; a founder of Detroit York Rite College No. 1 and, for outstanding service to York-Rite, was invested with the York Rite Purple Cross June 6, 1951.

Also active in Scottish Rite he became a member of Detroit Consistory on November 13, 1936, for services rendered, was crowned a 33rd Degree Mason, September 26, 1956. He belongs, also, to Moslem Temple Shrine.

Detroit has been the home of the Hudsons since 1923 when Dr. Hudson arrived there with his wife, the former Benta V. Whiteaker, following their marriage on June 17, 1920, at St. Louis, Mo. They have two sons, William Andrew, Jr., and John Wallace, both of whom are now active Masons.

Michigan's Big Tourist Industry Sells Much Food

Tourists spend a lot of money to eat.

In fact, research shows that 28 cents of every vacationing dollar spent in Michigan goes into food, according to Robert McIntosh, Michigan State University tourist and resort specialist.

For example, tourists bought 38 million dollars worth of food in the upper peninsula in 1957. That's about 28 per cent of all they spend while on vacation there. So U-P tourist income for the year totalled 140 million dollars—one fifth of the state total.

Michigan grossed 650 million dollars from the tourist business in 1958, according to the Michigan Tourist Council. McIntosh says the state's farmers sold about 740 million dollars worth of produce in that year.

Why the tourist boom? The MSU specialist says:

1. More than 40 million people live within one day's drive of Michigan vacation lands.
2. More than 41 per cent of the state's area is under water. Forest-recreational land makes up another 28 per cent. Few states come close to these recreational resources.

"The state's first tourists visited Mackinac Island in the late 1700's," McIntosh points out. "In the 1800's mineral springs and resorts in northern Michigan became a top attraction."

Auto-assembly lines brought millions of tourists in the 1920's. Farmers on main roads provided tent platforms for campers. The early "motor keepers" sold milk and farm produce as a sideline.

State parks have also grown rapidly since 1919. More than 17 million people visited Michigan's 65 parks so far in 1959.

"Winter sports really gained the public's fancy within the last decade or two," McIntosh remarks. "As late as 1949, Michigan had only 10 ski centers. The state now has 75."

Thanksgiving Means Many Things But Mostly It Is Time for Humble Thanks

This year Thanksgiving, a national religious festival, is 96 years old. It began in 1863 and credit for beginning the observance is usually given to Mrs. Sarah J. Hale.

Less than one month separates Thanksgiving this year from Christmas, putting these two national religious observances only 28 days apart. However, Thanksgiving, unlike Christmas, is not so highly commercialized.

Thanksgiving was originally regarded with almost the same reverence as was shown for Sunday. It was customary for families to attend religious services and afterwards to gather around the table and a bounteous dinner, including turkey and pumpkin pie.

In some instances churches were decorated with farm products in order that the members of the congregation might see some of the fruits of the harvest for which they should be thankful.

The first Thanksgiving proclamation issued by any president came in 1789 when George Washington ordered a day of Thanksgiving for the adoption of the Constitution. President Madison also set a day to give thanks for the peace during 1815, but it was not until the time of Abraham Lincoln, in 1863, that we had a national Thanksgiving proclamation, setting apart the last Thursday in November as the day to be observed.

Our Thanksgiving Day in the United States, then, is relatively young, but it has taken hold more firmly than any other Thanksgiving Day in any other country, and has spread to many parts of the world.

It is one of our most-enjoyed holidays, a colorful observance and an inspiration. To many Americans it signifies the approaching end of the year, the completion of most of the harvesting, the hunting seasons, and the end of the football season.

Census Bureau Clarifies Question of 'When Is a Farm Not a Farm?'

The American "farm" is not what it used to be. Census Bureau enumerators, now compiling the 17th Census of Agriculture throughout the country and the nation are this time operating under new rules that are expected to reduce the total number of U. S. properties classified as farms by as much as half a million—in addition to the anticipated shrinkage of 100,000 due to merging small farms into large ones. The new figure is expected to be close to four million, with an accompanying reduction of about four million in farm population.

The new Census rules for determining what is a farm are intended to comb out thousands and thousands of rural and even suburban homes from the "farm" classification and thus arrive at more reliable statistics on the agricultural scene. Heretofore, the Bureau considered as a "farm" any property of three acres or more producing no less than $150 worth of garden produce, poultry, eggs or other bounty of the soil per year. If actual sales amounted to $150 or more, the area might be even less than three acres. Under this yardstick, countless country homes of city workers who tilled gardens and tended henhouses for their own nourishment or pleasure, have been classified as "farms."

Now, there must be ten acres or more of land yielding at least $500 a year in farm product sales, or, on a property of less than ten acres, actual annual sales must exceed $250.

The significance of this change, with its drastic reduction in the census figures, is still, of course, a matter of speculation. But it would seem certain to reduce proportionally the always-magnified influence of the "farm vote" and the resistance of politicians to any reduction in the countless avenues of federal farm spending—including curtailment or elimination of price supports and guarantees, acreage and marketing controls.

Certainly any reform that brings our national statistics closer in line with the facts of life is all to the good. But it is important, too, that when these figures are published, people understand what they mean and do not rush to any heedless conclusions about the swift decline of the American farmer. Actually, we think this new realism will help the genuine dirt farmer more than anyone else and strengthen the hands of those farsighted farm leaders who realize the degrading influence of federal handouts and controls and their depressing effect on the entire economy.

Calling farms by their right names may be a small thing, but it's an encouraging sign.

Another Runaway Well Spewing Gas

Lansing—For the second time in two weeks, a well has gone out of control in the Jonesville area of Hillsdale county.

The latest runaway, Northrup No. 1 well, began spewing natural gas late Saturday afternoon, Nov. 14, when a blow-out preventer yielded to pressure in the gas cap portion of the Tranton formation.

On Nov. 17, it started spewing from the well increasing the hazard caused earlier by gas which is still escaping. Workers are trying to control the well by pumping mud and water down its casing.

The well is located about two miles southeast of Mann No. 1 well which was capped earlier this month after belching oil and salt water for nearly six days.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Michigan's dollar pinch has curtailed functions of many state agencies. But the Highway Department is a major exception. The very thing that has been the curse of the state cash crisis has been the blessing of road building: earmarking of funds.

A constant flow of tax money has been available for highway construction.

Gasoline taxes and weight tax money from the sale of license plates have poured into construction coffers.

The same constitutional earmarking provisions that have hampered administrators in rationing of funds have helped create a reservoir of money for the Highway Department.

Earmarked funds alone are not enough.

A half-billion dollars from the federal government, either on hand or promised, has helped along Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie's five-year building program.

More millions come from bond programs—backed up by money anticipated from future gas and weight taxes.

Michigan's success in carrying out its ambitious road program is bringing some jealous glances from neighboring states; states that hoop and holler over the "flight" of Michigan industry to their cities.

Newsman from Indiana and Ohio were along when the Highway Department and the state's road building industry took reporters on a flying tour of Michigan highways.

The South Bend (Ind.) Tribune, is raving about Michigan roads, noted Michigan will have opened to traffic more than 350 miles of superhighway by Jan. 1.

Indiana, the paper reported, completed only 6.6 miles of interstate highway by Aug. 31.

All is not rosy for the Highway Department, despite its accelerated building program.

An accelerated pay program for right-of-way appraisers drew the fire of an investigating committee headed by Sen. John H. Stahlin (R-Belding), who said the department has been luring workers with promises of pay raises every payday until they reach top salary brackets.

The department said the accelerated pay plan, approved by the Civil Service Commission, was necessary to get qualified personnel.

Biggest worry facing the Highway Department is the 700-million-dollar cutback in the federal highway program. It has meant a 28-million-dollar cut in federal funds for Michigan this fiscal year.

But Mackie hopes to fill the gap with bonding programs; build now, pay later. It's the obvious but not easy way to keep the Michigan plans on schedule.

Scouting Council Plans for Two Major Activities

Plans for two important events in the Portage Trails Council are being completed at the present time. The first event is the celebration of the 50th anniversary of Scouting which will be held during the week of Feb. 7-13 next year. Robert DeVee of Milan, chairman of the activities committee of the Portage Trails Council is heading up the special activities in connection with the 50th anniversary celebration.

The other major event that is being planned is the fifth National Jamboree to be held next summer at Colorado Springs, Colo. Leaders have been selected to escort the Scouts to Colorado Springs, and while many Scouts have already made applications to attend the Jamboree, applications are still available for those who would like to attend.

Portage Trails Council has been given a quota of 74 boys who will be able to attend the Jamboree. Planning for the Jamboree is being handled by six committees under the direction of William MacDonald of Bendix Aviation, Ann Arbor.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 The ladies at our church held their annual social Friday night and my old lady reports it was a humdinger. I pity the pore souls that wasn't able to attend. A bunch of wimmen at a church social can tarnish a absentee's reputation faster'n a hungry hog can eat a ear of corn.

They've been holding these socials onct a year since way back in 1940. Of course the wimmen out here ain't what they were in 1940. Some of 'em are two or three years older. But them added years has made 'em much better talkers, according to the rumors I git, and at these socials they hardly stop to git a breath of fresh air—one of the few things most of 'em ain't agin. They can't be telling the truth more'n half the time because as much as they talk there just ain't that much truth.

My old lady said they voted unanimous to write to the Federal Communications Commission and demand a special television channel for housewives on Saturday afternoon. They claim right now, for instance, they can't git nothing but football. It seems to me this is a mighty bad attitude for church wimmen to take, being agin such character-building enterprises.

My old lady went to the affair wearing a hat, so I reckon all of 'em did likewise. It must have been a sight in this world. The one my old lady had on when she left—well, just between me and you, Mister Editor, I've saw better looking lids on a pressure cooker.

I see by the papers where a delegation of Indians is pestering like again to take that scalping picture out the walls in Congress. If I was I'd solve the problem by having the picture touched up so the Indian would look like a feller from the Revenue Department and the victim like a taxpayer. This would make it so popular they'd have to move it over to the National Museum of Art.

The papers was quoting Congressman Collier of New York as saying the other day that "if our government is to remain solvent, it must raise taxes, spend less, or do both." The thing that puzzles me about this quotation is how a feller that knows that much about arithmetic ever got elected to Congress. If we can elect a few more in 1960 that submit to know how to add and subtract, it might go down in our history as the year Congress discovered the barrel had a bottom to it.

Another interesting item from Washington this week was the one about a group of government clerks starting a social organization and calling it the "Coffee And Confusion Club." They might run out of coffee onct in a while, but they'll always have enough confusion to operate 100 per cent.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

New Cars Ride In Style

The shiny new '60 cars you've seen appearing in show rooms all over Michigan—know how they got there? 85% of the new automobiles the country over travel by motor, carrier from factory to dealer—and this applies pretty well to Michigan. That's only part of the story of how much the automobile industry depends on trucks. The basic materials, the parts and accessories—everything that goes into the manufacture of automobiles—travels most if not all the way from source to destination by truck. . . . So, you see, cars just couldn't be turned out in today's volume—or get to their destination as quickly—if it weren't for the direct, dock-to-door service truck transport provides.

Parents Run Risks No Matter How They Treat Children

Ann Arbor—Parents can try to create either a democratic home or an authoritarian home—but they run some risk either way, according to Elton McNeil (Ph.D.), associate professor of psychology at the University of Michigan.

McNeil specializes in clinical work with children and teaches courses in child psychology.

"On a broad basis, democracy in the home is characterized by a general permissiveness, explanations of the reasons for family rules and regulations, and the avoidance of arbitrary decisions on the part of the parent," says McNeil.

Control or authoritarian homes emphasize clear-cut restriction and regulation of the child's behavior without consulting him, absolute obedience and few explanations of the reasons why rules are necessary.

"Although a great many positive personality traits develop in the child in a democratic home atmosphere, these children ranked high in aggressiveness, competitiveness, and cruelty to others."

"A controlled, authoritarian home, on the other hand, tends to produce quiet, well-behaved socially unaggressive children."

"However, achieving this kind of conformity in children may be at the expense of the child's curiosity, constructiveness, originality and eventual social status as a leader," he warns.

"Child rearing is indeed a 'package deal' in which parents purchase what they can afford, and in a sense, get what they pay for."

McNeil believes the home atmosphere is usually not a planned design, but is more apt to be the result of such forces as the parents' personalities, religion and social status.

McNeil points out, "Middle class families are stricter about their children's behavior than are lower class families."

"Lower class children are much less likely to be punished for open expression of hostility since in some neighborhoods it is a requisite of life. In other words, the definition of a 'good' child and a 'good' parent varies with the social class of the parent."

Information to be used in compiling national figures on employment and unemployment will be collected locally during the week of Nov. 16 in the Current Population Survey, it was announced today by Director John E. Tharaldson of the U. S. Census Bureau's Regional Office in Detroit.

The information collected from local families will be combined with that collected in 329 other areas of the country to provide the national estimates. Approximately 35,000 households are included each month in the Current Population Survey. These households are selected at random under the Census Bureau's scientific sampling program to provide a representative cross-section of all classes of the population, and all types of areas in the country—large cities, small towns, rural areas; and so forth.

Facts on employment and unemployment collected locally are forwarded to Census Bureau headquarters in Washington to be processed by the Bureau's electronic computer, known as Univac, to provide the national estimates. The national report covering the information collected during the week of Nov. 16 will be issued in Washington early in December.

Current Population Survey information will be collected from a number of local families by duly accredited interviewers.

Newspaper History

In addition, they not only influenced public opinion but reflected changes in social customs and traditions, as well.

The newspapers of Ann Arbor have had an important share in all this, as Dr. Louis W. Doll so amply demonstrates. He makes far wider use of the extant newspapers than has any previous writer on the subject. In bringing to life the men and events that made Ann Arbor newspapers what they are, Dr. Doll depicts the growth of both the American press and the American Midwest.

Of special interest here is reference to Frank P. Glazier, described as "a Chelsea businessman, founder of the Ann Arbor News in 1905, who took over his father's small iron foundry (in Chelsea) and in about a decade built it up into one of the largest and most prosperous stove companies in the United States. At its height it was worth a million and a quarter dollars and did an annual business of half a million."

The chapters pertaining to this period (1905-1907) relate the rivalry between two Ann Arbor dailies, the News and the Times. Dr. Doll continues with a description of the various mergers and changes in Ann Arbor newspaper history until 1920, where his story ends.

As the previously mentioned description of Dr. Doll's book so aptly points out, the historical facts contained in the story make fascinating reading for anyone interested in the happenings of the country during the "century of progress" prior to 1920.

Special Education Plan Explained At PTA Meeting

Explanation of the Washtenaw County Special Education Program featured the November meeting of the PTA in the high school auditorium last Wednesday evening.

After a very short business meeting presided over by Vice-President Mrs. Beatty, Counselor George Bergman introduced the panel of speakers.

Director John Mader discussed the reimbursable factors of the program from county and state angle, explaining that the state has supported such programs for a decade, but that Washtenaw has just recently taken advantage of the opportunity.

The program served the mentally handicapped, both the educable and the trainable, and even has a tutorial program for those who need it; services the blind and sight-saving, the deaf and the hard-of-hearing, and the various degrees of orthopedically handicapped; and helps the temporarily and permanently home-bound.

Dr. Mader pointed out how it was an advantage to the child, to the family, and to the community to have these programs, which produce self-supporting citizens from what might become community burdens.

Martin Gersh, psychological diagnostician, described his work and its value, as well as results as determined in Altoona, Pa., where 82 per cent of the mentally retarded cases treated have been entirely self supporting, and where 75 per cent of them were described as above-average workers by their employers. He claimed this was due to a more "bread and butter" practical approach.

Miss Alpha Turman, home-bound teacher, described her work; and Mader discussed the work of the visiting teacher.

Wool Growers Urged To Keep Lamb Records

Wool growers who marketed lambs this fall should keep adequate records of their sales so that they will be able to make proper applications for payment next spring under the wool incentive program, Washtenaw County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee Chairman, Max M. Kalmbach urged today.

Sales record for lambs sold must include the name of the buyer, his signature, and the number of live-weight lambs sold, plus the description "unshorn." Lamb payments are made only on lambs that have never been shorn, to encourage the customary practice of selling lambs with the wool on.

"I cannot urge too strongly," Kalmbach said, "that growers get these fall sales records together now and either keep them in a safe place at home or file them at the county ASC office. The final date to apply for payments on 1959-60 marketings is next April 30, but an application may be submitted any time between now and then."

The chairman warned again that lamb feeders particularly should keep accurate records of the length of time they have owned a specific lot of lambs. Lamb payments are made only to producers who have owned lambs 30 days or more, and one amount of payment is based on weight gain of the lambs during the seller's ownership.

Former Chelsea Resident's Spouse Sets Dive Record

Recent publicity about a deep sea diving record of more than 8 1/2 miles off Guam Island, brought to light the fact that one of two U. S. Navy men connected with the event is the husband of a former Chelsea resident. He is Lieutenant Lawrence Shumaker, a 1954 Annapolis graduate who later graduated from the submarine school at New London, Conn.

Mrs. Shumaker is the former lone Elizabeth Beck who attended grammar school here. She is the daughter of Mrs. Edna M. Beck of Waterloo. The Shumakers and their two children make their home at San Diego, Calif.

The U. S. Navy Electronics Laboratory reported the record-breaking dive of 16,000 feet, stating that Dr. Andrew B. Rechinizer and Jacques Piccard achieved that depth Saturday, Nov. 14, in the bathyscaphe "Trieste." They made the dive in the Pacific Mariana trench, which is some 87,000 feet deep.

The bathyscaphe, engaged in a series of exploratory dives for scientific purposes, was built in 1952 by Piccard and his father, Professor Auguste Piccard of Switzerland. The professor gained fame in 1931 for a stratospheric balloon ascent.

Men connected with the bathyscaphe's record-breaking dive are expected to appear on a televised interview on the Sunday afternoon "Conquest" program seen in this area at 5 p.m. on Channel 2. Present indications are that the program will be broadcast Sunday, Nov. 29.

Automation, Population Explosion Create New Problems, Says Prof.

East Lansing—Automation, the revolution in agriculture and the population explosion—all occurring at once—may create "unprecedented difficulties by accelerating the rate of change beyond anything in our past experience," says Dr. Charles C. Killingsworth.

Professor of economics and Labor and Industrial Relations at Michigan State University, Killingsworth advanced these views in a paper presented at a symposium on "Automation and the Economy."

"We would betray the greatest traditions of our society if we tried to stop or slow the advance of automation," he declares, "but we will endanger those traditions if we do not start now to fashion the weapons to combat structural unemployment."

An area redevelopment bill under consideration in Congress may prove inadequate, but "represents at least a beginning," he says, if he had been.
