School Board Organizes for Coming Year

Howard Flintoft Named To Serve As President

Tuesday evening, Dr. J. V. Fisher, president of the Chelsea Board of Education, announced the election of Howard Flintoft as president for the coming year. Arthur Kuhl and Paul Smith, newly elected board members, whose terms begin July 1, were sworn in by the senior member of the board, Earl Beeman, whose term expires June 30. Beeman served as a board member since the consolidation of the district in 1947.

The school board organized for the 1961-62 school year and Howard W. Flintoft was elected president. Stuart Bonker, secretary, and John Kusterer, treasurer.

Action and discussion at Tuesday's meeting was listed as follows:

The differential tax rates allowed to the district by the joint education board and Probate Judge were discussed. These rates will be certified by the Board for the 1961 tax year.

A request to deviate from the policy of the Board of Education was denied.

A resolution to transfer $62,400 from the South Elementary School Retirement Fund to the General Fund was approved. There is (Continued on page three).

"BROTHERS OF THE BRUSH BAND" members gained wide acclaim during Chelsea's 125th Anniversary celebration two years ago and some of the original band members got together Friday night to entertain the crowds in the downtown area in a pre-view of Chelsea's Op Time Showboat entertainment which opens tonight for a three-night run at Chelsea High School auditorium. At right, LaVerne Hatley, as "Hairless Joe," acted as master of ceremonies, a position formerly held and ably performed by Bill Lubahn who moved recently to Oden. From left, the musicians are Bud Wilson, drum; Ray Steinbach, clarinet; William Hlaess, cornet; Harold Drosch, drum; and James Gaken, bass horn.

Shows Will Be Given Three Evenings at High School Auditorium

Dignitaries Ready Swine Lake Ballet

According to a report of preliminaries for the big Showboat production to be given at Chelsea High school auditorium tonight, Friday and Saturday, the dignity of the Village President's office took a severe jolt Sunday night at the first scheduled rehearsal of the "Swine Lake Ballet."

This ballet is a featured act in the Showboat production in which President Bob Daniels, along with several Village Council members, are to be baskinis in a short version of this famous ballet.

Daniels said that when he undertook his present position in the local government, he had intended to uphold the dignity of the office and to do his best toward helping solve the problems that would arise; however, he hadn't realized that one of the responsibilities of the position would be to appear as a member of the Swine Lake Ballet troupe.

To add quality to the group, such local dignitaries as "Big Daddy" Ringe, Ren Hutzler, Digger Fitzsimmons, Ringer Wellnitz, Clark Eder, "Little Daddy" Lasher, and Six Gun Boyer have been allowed to participate in the activities of the troupe. Great things have been predicted for this group.

And of course, quite appropriately the evil spirits will be represented by Dudley "Peed Bags" Foster.

Advance Coupons May Be Exchanged Through Saturday

Contrary to previous announcements, the advance tickets purchased for Chelsea's Op Time Showboat performances will be exchanged for regular admission tickets through Saturday at Chelsea State Bank and Wallace Wood insurance agency.

All advance sale coupons must be exchanged for admission tickets before being presented at the door.

Previous announcements had set an earlier deadline for exchange of advance coupons tickets.

Tickets Still Available for Any Performance

Here is another up-to-the-minute report on the past week's activities in preparation for Chelsea's Op Time Showboat production today, tomorrow and Saturday. This report and announcement of the production is by the special Chelsea Op Time Showboat reporter who has been submitting stories of the coming event for several weeks.

Last Friday night was another night of up-town activity—square dancing in the parking lot and dancing on Park St., as well.

Lots of people were in town taking advantage of the many bargains offered by the local merchants in their "Showboat Sale" and enjoying the street activities.

The original Chelsea Brothers of the Brush Band turned out minus a few members, and sporting some unconditioned "tootin' lips," but still sweet music to the ears and reminiscent of our good times of two years ago.

LaVerne Hatley, as "Hairless Joe," took over for drum major Bill Lubahn and after practicing all over our downtown area still had plenty of zip left to "trip the light fantastic" with some of the belles who wished to dance to the liting strains of the Brush Band.

Enough for last week, let's get on with tonight!

Tonight is the big night, or rather the first of three big nights, that we have been waiting for.

Circus Comes To Chelsea Next Tuesday

This next Tuesday, June 27 the Carson and Barnes circus will be in Chelsea.

It's always a big day for every youngster and for all those adults who are still young at heart. The big white trucks and vans of the Carson and Barnes circus will arrive Tuesday morning and will move directly to the Community Fairgrounds where the work of setting up the tents and other circus props will get under way.

For all those able to get over to the show grounds Tuesday morning, the setting up of the circus should prove an interesting operation. The Carson and Barnes circus carries its "Big Top" on large truck-mounted spools, spreads it on the ground mechanically, and then raises it into the air with the help of ponderous elephants wearing special work harness. The big show goes into the air with amazing speed and efficiency.

The public is invited to the show grounds Circus morning to watch the unloading of trucks and see elephants pull up the tent.

Registration Deadline Is Next Monday

Monday, June 26, is the final day to register with township clerks for the July 25 primary election.

Official notice of each of the townships is published in this issue of The Standard. These notices give information about the times and places where citizens may register.

There is often some confusion about registration, people living in villages sometimes being under the impression that registration with the village clerk fulfills all registration requirements.

This is not the case, however. Registration with the village clerk is for village elections only.

To vote in the township, county, state and national elections, citizens must be registered with their township clerk.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Britton Graham were the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Graham of Clearfield, Pa. On Saturday they visited the Detroit Zoo and Metropolitan Airport in Detroit.

Summer Recreation Program Will Start Monday Morning

Baseball Leagues Will Form for All Age Groups

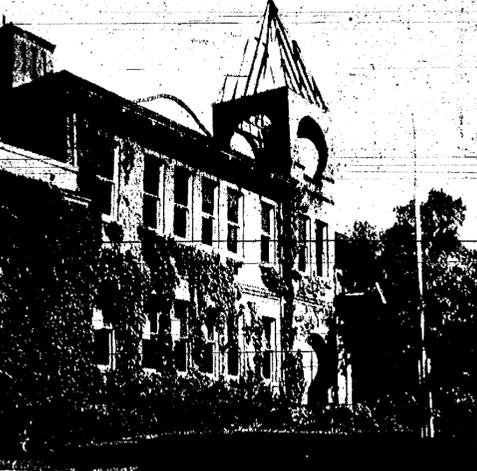

Chelsea's summer recreation program begins next Monday, June 19, at 9:30 a.m. each day, Monday through Friday.

Due to curtailed funds because the Community Chest Fund did not reach its goal, only two playgrounds are being operated this year. There will be no playground at the Junior High school.

Supervisors of the boys' athletic program are to be Director Conklin, Homer Nixon and Kenneth Larson.

Scheduled for the same hours as the morning playground, 9:30-11:30 a.m., the program will include baseball, tennis, volleyball, badminton, track and field.

COMING DOWN—The cupola and bell section of the older portion of Chelsea Junior High school on East St., was in the process of being removed when the above photo was taken Saturday. Because of rotting timbers, the cupola which has been a familiar sight for several generations, was considered a safety hazard. To be removed to a point below where the old school bell is located, the cut-down cupola will be re-roofed to keep out rain and snow.

Three Chelsea Grads Listed By U. of M.

Three Chelsea graduates are listed among the 3,978 who received degrees at commencement exercises at 9:30 p.m. Saturday at the University of Michigan. They are Robert T. Bahner, 116 East Summit St., bachelor of science degree in engineering; Virgil W. Harris, 228 Park St., master of arts; and Lydia Mayer, 308 Washington St., bachelor of science in nursing, with distinction.

Other area graduates include Lvo Iram Dextor, Charles R. Van Arkel, 2865 Baker, bachelor of science in pharmacy; and Dorothy Wilson, 8200 Island Lake Rd., bachelor of arts, with high honors and distinction, and four from Otchester, Willard Baker, 620 West Main St., bachelor of science; Vernon, Peter A. Kessler, 804 East Duncan, and Dorothy J. Scully, 214 Ann Arbor St., each a master of arts degree.

Edward R. Morrow, chief of the United States Information Agency, was the principal speaker.

University President Nathan Hatcher presided over the exercises which were held in the U. of M. Stadium.

This was the University's 177th commencement.

With the degrees granted Saturday added to others awarded at mid-year, the total number of degrees for the June 1961 year amounts to 6,285.

Breakdown by number of degrees among U-M schools and colleges is: College of Literature, Science and the Arts, 941; The Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies, 208; College of Engineering, 301; School of Business Administration, 287; School of Education, 280; Law School, 192; Medical School, 177; School of Nursing, 89; School of Public Health, 121; School of Dentistry, 107 (82 Doctors of Dental Surgery and 25 Bachelors of Science in Dental Hygiene); School of Music, 65; College of Architecture and Design, 49; Flint College, 72; School of Social Work, 42; School of Natural Resources, 40; and College of Pharmacy, 26.

Elaine Pearson Attending Girls' State at Alternate

Nancy Carter, who was to leave Tuesday to attend Girls' State at Ann Arbor, suffered a sprained ankle and foot late Monday afternoon and was forced to cancel her plans and remain at home.

The mishap occurred as she was concluding final details in her preparations. She had gone to Chelsea High school for some information and turned her ankle as she stepped from the curb.

Alice Eschelbach, who had been named an alternate Girls' State representative by the sponsoring American Legion Auxiliary, No. 31, was unable to go in her place and Elaine Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pearson, was asked by the Auxiliary to represent Chelsea.

A member of the Class of 1962 at Chelsea High school, Miss Pearson is active in the Girls Athletic Association (GAA) and Future Homemakers of America (FHA). She serves as a Sunday school teacher in the primary department of the Methodist church.

Wolverine Girls' State is sponsored by the Department of Michigan American Legion Auxiliary. The session began Tuesday and continues through Thursday, June 29.

Shirley Howard Completes Executive Secretarial Course

Shirley Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Howard of 10681 Rospeck Rd., has completed an executive secretarial course at the State Business University and received her diploma at commencement exercises Friday evening.

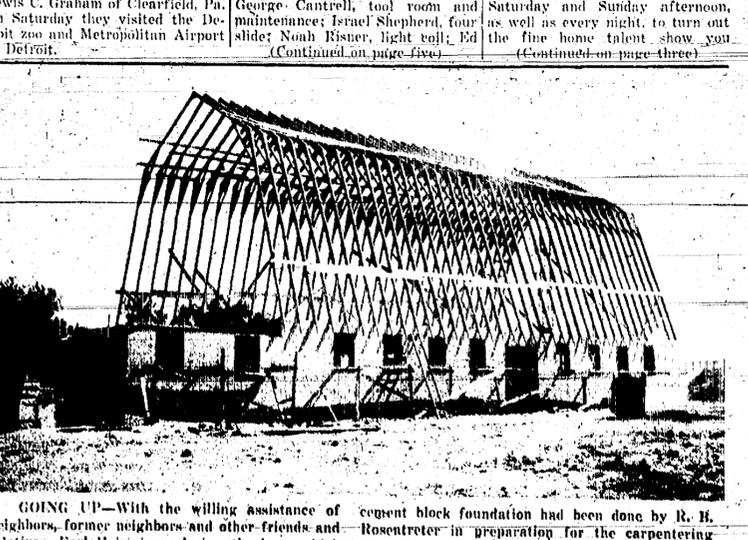

Miss Howard completed her studies at the school in February and was employed for a time at Gelman Instrument Co. She is now employed in the office of Central Fibre Products Co.

She, as well as all other graduates who had completed their courses earlier, returned to participate in the cap and gown commencement exercises Friday evening.

Miss Howard is a 1959 graduate of Chelsea High school.

LITTLE PLAID JUG—Rolly Spaulding, left, treated to a cup of lemonade from the jug peddled by Anton Nielsen during Friday night's entertainment on the downtown streets. Daffrell Larson is standing behind the table, at right, where he is selling tickets to the show. Friday night special entertainment has been the rule here for several weeks to publicize Chelsea's Op Time Showboat at entertainment which opens tonight (Thursday) at Chelsea High School auditorium. Performances are also scheduled for tomorrow night and Saturday night.

GOING UP—With the willing assistance of neighbors, former neighbors and other friends and relatives, Earl Heim is replacing the barn which was destroyed in a disastrous fire at his farm, 17487 Heim Rd., last Nov. 13. Reminiscent of old time "barn raisings," the many volunteers had reached the stage of construction shown in the photo in just one week of spare time effort during the busy summer season. Construction of the cement block foundation had been done by R. H. Rosentreter in preparation for the carpentering "bees" which began Friday, June 9. The new barn is 36 feet wide and 72 feet long. Heim is hoping to complete the barn as soon as possible in order to return his cows which have been housed at the farm of a neighbor, George Blalock, since the fire last fall.

Liquid Diet Foods Becoming More Popular with Many People

The new pre-counted 900-calorie liquid diet foods promise to make us prosperous as well as pretty. Some family purchasing agents buy them not by the can but by the case. They have become a part of everyday life like nylons, frozen food and small cars, so much so that sales may top $200,000,000 this year.

Doctors are wary of the liquid formulas for people with diabetes, heart disease and gall bladder conditions but seem to believe that a limited use of them is safe for others. Surveys indicate that women users of liquid diets outnumber men users three to one; that more women over 40 use them than 21 to 40—although among the men the reverse is true. Out of every 100 users of a liquid diet about 29 use it for three meals a day, 28 for two meals, 43 for one meal (lunch being the favorite).

Purchases seem to be motivated almost as much by convenience as by health or fashion. Executives and secretaries sometimes take a liquid diet to the office. Some families take cans on auto trips to be ready for stretches where there are few restaurants.

The man getting his own breakfast, the working girl in a hurry, the office worker who doesn't want to fight crowds at lunch, the career woman who comes home too tired to prepare dinner—all these buy liquid diets because they're convenient, treat the weight loss as an extra bonus. With all of this, it is not surprising to be told that the sales and profits of the company that pioneered the field have more than doubled in little more than a year.

But still, our sympathies are with the man who said: "Fate cannot harm me—I have dined today."

Michigan Is Recreation!

Over the past few months, readers of The Standard have seen advertisements pointing out Michigan's pre-eminence in fields which are vital to industry.

The current advertisement, sponsored by the Industrial Promotion Committee of the Michigan Press Association and the Michigan Economic Development Department, stresses the role of recreation as it affects industry.

Recreation, of itself, is an important part of Michigan's economic base. Each year it brings to Michigan thousands of visitors and millions of dollars. Among those visitors are industrialists who could well be interested in new locations for their plants. Contacts with such visitors is an integral part of every industrial development program. From such contacts have come prospects which have meant new plants for Michigan.

Recreation is related to industrial development in another way. As the advertisement points out, "where it's fun to live, it's better to work." Michigan has the facilities for pleasant living. This is of interest to industry.

Every Michigan resident can take an active part in our industrial development, encouraging visitors to our State and attracting industry. Clipping the advertisement Michigan Is Recreation and mailing it to a friend outside Michigan can serve a two-fold purpose. Do it today and you will be helping our community.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Where do the kids that crowd our schools go in the summer? A silly question? Maybe, but one that should mean much to any citizen, parent or not, who has stopped to contemplate the tremendous job it is to provide recreation facilities for youngsters. A really great many youngsters flock to the playgrounds, swimming pools and libraries provided by villages, townships, cities, counties and the state of Michigan.

Recreation, like almost every other facet of modern-day life, has become big business. Therefore, it has big problems. Overstrict and complicated child labor laws make it difficult or impossible for boys and girls to get even menial summer jobs. Kids who are old enough to play ball, they want to swim, and do handicraft work. The younger ones want play equipment to climb, slide on, jump over and occasionally fall off of.

Generally, municipal units of government carry the biggest load in the struggle to provide adequate recreation. And generally, they do a good job.

The Recreation Association of Michigan, an affiliate of the Michigan Municipal League, is one of the groups that provides a place where recreation officials can exchange ideas about the complex problems of setting up programs to provide the best possible recreation.

Among the questions which come up each time a city or other unit of government gets ready to set up its recreation program are those concerning budgets, what equipment to buy; how to organize a baseball league; what do kids in various age groups like to do best, and on and on.

Everybody interested in his children should also be interested in his local recreation program. For the rural resident, the outings organized by groups for rural children often use the facilities of a local unit of government, or the state. In the city, the programs help keep the young people busy, exercised and out of trouble.

Not only must the proper facilities be provided, supervision must be adequate, and safety must be stressed.

One of the most complex questions ever to face the Michigan legislature was the huge bill which revised the code of judicial procedure for the state.

Lawmakers in 1961 passed the bill, after failing to get around to it the year before. It was signed into law by Gov. John B. Swainson.

While it won't take effect until 1963, and is almost certain to be changed in more than one respect before it even becomes operative, it could prove to be the most far-reaching step in many a year.

It's safe to assume that not more than a handful of legislators ever read the proposal from cover to cover. In its latest form it was 644 pages long.

As backers of the bill said during its course through the law-making process, it had to be taken largely on faith.

The faith was in a committee of the State Bar of Michigan, in numerous lawyers, judges and professors who had a hand in compiling the document, and in the belief that the judicial and law professions will make the best use of the new procedures.

Despite the roughly four years of study that went into making up the revision, the first revision of the code since 1915, there are bound to be loopholes. Hopefully, most members of the bar will be quick to point out the loopholes to the legislature, and slow to use them to the detriment of citizens seeking justice.

A quarter of a century is a whale of a long time to look ahead when trying to plan for something as complex as highway needs. But Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie has handed just that assignment to a committee of seven experts in engineering, planning and administration who combined have a total of 226 years in highway building.

Mackie told the committee to find out what Michigan's highway needs will be in 1980, and then figure out how to meet them.

Technological advances alone, in the automotive industry, in the construction business and in hundreds of related mechanical and electronic fields, can be safely predicted as staggering.

The assignment presents an unequalled challenge for the men to whom it was handed. Even men of vision would have had trouble 25 years ago predicting the vast interstate system as it exists today. The men on Mackie's committee in a sense have the future of Michigan motoring in their hands.

The art of cooking does not end with the preparation of plain food.

WASHINGTON AND 'SMALL BUSINESS'

By C. Wilson Harder

There is no question that recently concluded antitrust case on price conspiracy will be before public for some time.

For one thing, the United States and the Tennessee Valley Authority are in the joint process of suing for $12,000,000 on heavy duty circuit breakers on which there was a price collusion.

In addition, C. W. Harder, the special committee headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver is bringing to public attention the depths of conspiracy that is involved when there is an attempt to violate the antitrust laws.

For some time, the nation's independent businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, have asked stricter enforcement of the antitrust laws.

The viewpoint of the independent businessmen is perhaps best summarized in a speech made recently before the American Bar Association by Lee Loewinger, assistant attorney general in charge of Justice Dept. antitrust division.

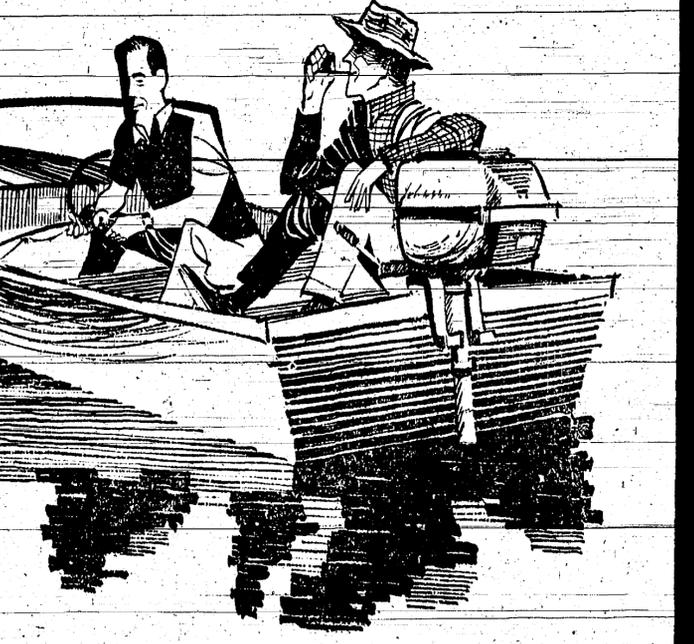

Loewinger said in commenting on some mistaken impressions about antitrust laws that must be laid to rest "The first is the notion that violation of the antitrust laws, whether intentional or not, is merely a normal business risk and really quite respectable."

Then lashing out in no uncertain terms, he said "It shouldn't be necessary to state that those who make no mistake now be clear that a deliberate or conscious violation for the antitrust laws is not a mere personal peccadillo or economic excess, but a serious offense against society which is as immoral as any other act that injures many in order to profit a few. Conspiracy to violate the antitrust laws is economic racketeering which gains no respectability by virtue of fact that it is concealed by stealth rather than force."

He then went on to say "That the necessity for complying with high standards of business conduct is based on the moral principles inherent in our legal codes may sometimes cause concern to businessmen and lawyers is inevitable. This is not a difficulty unique to antitrust laws. The temptation to get rich quickly by dishonest means abounds in private life. Some succumb, but we do not listen sympathetically to the plea that theft or embezzlement should be legalized because it is so difficult to acquire wealth by other means."

Coming at a time when Washington is besieged by agents of those who would like to see the antitrust laws weakened, these are heartening words.

The battle is not won yet. There are powerful, heavily financed forces at work constantly to tear down the nation's antitrust laws, with not a small part of it coming from British and other foreign interests where monopoly is legalized. But continued support of Congress, especially the Senate and House Small Business Committees, and through them, support for the antitrust division of the Justice Department should result in eventual victory for competition, and continuation of U. S. free enterprise system.

MICHIGAN IS RECREATION

You can't beat Michigan as a place for industry because you can't beat Michigan as a place for recreation.

Everybody in Michigan has the out-of-doors close to home. Every community is within six miles of a river or lake and at no spot in Michigan can you be more than 85 miles from one of the Great Lakes. Nineteen million acres of forest land are scattered throughout the state. This state, one of the great centers of industry, is a vast recreation area. Here you can work and have a vacation every day.

Where it's fun to live it's better to work and the day's work is usually better done. In Michigan living is more fun than anywhere.

Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip this ad and mail it to someone in another state with your comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together we can assure a greater future for all of us.

MICHIGAN IS EVERYTHING FOR INDUSTRY

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR: I been sorter down in the dumps here lately about the world situation, but I was reading a article last night that settled my nerves more'n anything I've saw in a long time.

A expert from the Department of Agriculture says the answer to peace in the world hinges on food and not weapons and that in the end the United States can't lose.

He had figgers to show that the food situation is very bad in Russia and China. The farmers ain't producing enough to feed the people and they is even predicting a famine in China come this winter. They can't get no help from Russia on account of the slave labor farms in Russia has been a failure. This fella said 'ole Khrushchev is as mad as a hornet but can't do nothing about it.

The article says a careful survey shows it takes six Russian farmers to grow as much food as one American farmer. In China it takes seven and one-half farmers to do the same job. On the other hand this fella shows that we'll have no problem feeding the 50,000,000 more people predicted for this country in 1975. He gives the figgers to show that it'll take only 10 per cent increase in livestock feeding efficiency but no more pasture land. He says our food surplus today would feed the extra 50,000,000 even if we didn't have no improvements in methods of crop growing.

This fella from the Agriculture Department, who the editor of the magazine calls the "leading expert farm economist" in the business, says the exploding population in increase in China and Russia don't give them two countries but two choices in the very near future. They can get out of the arms race or starve to death. He says the missile race is already beginning to tell on Russia.

Maybe, Mister Editor, after ole Khrushchev gets through pounding his shoes on barn doors around the country, he'll be willing to set down at the Summit and talk sense. One thing is fer shore, he ain't going to bury us, as he said, with his country full of empty stomachs.

Along them same lines, I see where a official Communist paper has announced that great blessings has come to the common man in that country. A pound of processed meat has been reduced in their money from $12.80 a pound to $8.20. According to official figgers, their average wages is $100 a month. They couldn't buy no processed meat afore the cut and they still can't buy none. Same difference, I'd say.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew

Michigan 1st Regiment Left For War 100 Years Ago

By Dr. Fred D. Williams
Civil War Specialist
History Department, MSU

A century ago, on May 13, 1861, Michigan men left their homes and loved ones and went off to war to fight what was destined to become the greatest military experience of the American people. A month earlier Fort Sumter had been surrendered to Confederate forces after a devastating bombardment of about 40 hours. Two days later President Lincoln proclaimed an insurrection and called for 75,000 militiamen to serve for three months. The great object was to crush the insurrection and preserve the Union.

Michigan was asked to furnish one regiment, and on April 10, Governor Austin Blair issued a proclamation calling for men to fill the ranks. The response was swift and complete, and on May 1, the First Michigan Infantry Regiment, commanded by Orlando B. Wilcox, was mustered into the service of the United States. This unit was made up of ten companies—the Detroit Light Guard, the Jackson-Greys, the Coldwater Cadets, the Manchester Union Guard, the Steuben Guard of Ann Arbor, the Michigan Hussars of Detroit, the Burr Oak Guard, the Ypsilanti Light Guard, the Marshall Eight Guard, and the Harde Cadets.

From the War Department came orders to proceed to Washington, and on May 13 the First Michigan left the state. Before its departure appropriate ceremonies were held on the Campus Martius in Detroit. A large crowd gathered to hear patriotic speeches, to see the regiment presented with a handsome silken flag, and to bid them Godspeed.

considerable attention on its journey, the regiment reached Washington. A correspondent of the New York Post described the arrival:

"The Michigan Rifle-Regiment came into town about 10 o'clock last night, marching from the depot up the avenue to Eleventh St. They were preceded by a splendid band of music, which soon aroused our citizens, and long before they had reached the quarters assigned to them hundreds of people were out to give them welcome. The enthusiasm of the crowd was irrepressible, for this was the first western regiment which had arrived at the Capitol."

On May 16, after attracting considerable attention on its journey, the regiment reached Washington. A correspondent of the New York Post described the arrival:

McDowell's offensive met with a disastrous defeat in the First Battle of Bull Run (July 21), a battle in which the First Michigan was heavily engaged. Reaching the front at the height of the struggle, the regiment went into action near the now famous Henry House, where the most savage fighting of the battle took place. In this conflict the Michigan men were commanded by Major Alonzo F. Bidwell and served in a brigade headed by Wilcox. According to Bidwell's report, the regiment lost 6 killed, 37 wounded, and 70 missing. Most of the missing were taken prisoners, and Wilcox himself was wounded and captured. The men of the First Michigan fought well, as did most of the 89,000 Michigan soldiers who followed them into the Union army.

When the term of service of the regiment expired, the men were returned to the state and mustered out. Most of the officers and men joined the reorganized First Michigan, a three-year regiment, and of will see tonight, tomorrow night and Saturday night. There will be 31 more of your friends working backstage with costumes, scenery, lighting, sound system, make-up, properties, emergency needs and other work and just plain standing by for any emergency that could (and always does) come up.

Then, too, there are the countless hours spent in good morning meetings as well as evening meetings in the organization and carrying out of all the phases of this production.

Why do they work so hard and give up so much of their time? Partly because they enjoy it and partly because of having their "arms twisted" in the name of Chelsea's greatest asset—community spirit.

This is the same reason you should buy a handful of tickets and take the family to the showboat. You will enjoy it and your community spirit will receive a boost.

As you know, the profits from your show will be divided among the following worthy recipients according to the tally of the votes you cast by marking the reverse side of your tickets before you hand them in at the door—McKune Library Repair and Maintenance Fund; Pierce Park Expansion Fund; Label Fox Memorial Publication Fund; and Chelsea Firemen and Auxiliary Police Special Equipment Fund.

Vote for only one. Tickets are on sale at the door.

See you all at the show. Please come!

no debt on the South Elementary school.

The school calendar for the 1961-62 school year was adopted as recommended.

The procedure for approving bills was discussed. It was agreed to follow the procedure of previous years whereby the bills are examined by two board members previous to the meeting. These two board members recommend the bills to be paid.

President Plinto announced a special meeting of the Board for July 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the board room to discuss the financing of the school district, debt retirements funds, and the revision of the 1961-62 budget.

A copy of a petition received by the Board of Education to transfer property from the district to the Dexter School District was read. The petition was tabled.

The possibility of the Chelsea School District becoming a registration district was discussed. This matter was tabled.

Harold Dresch was appointed superintendent of buildings and grounds for all the schools in the district.

W. J. Grossman, supervisor of the maintenance and operation of the buses, was awarded a contract for the 1961-62 school year.

Building needs of the district were discussed briefly. The buildings and grounds committee will consider these needs at a future meeting.

Regular meetings of the board of education will be held the third Tuesday of each month. These meetings are open to the public.

of national state and local government through actual practice. It gives them a state of their own, a session governing themselves through democratic procedures. Officials of towns, county and state are elected. In this way the girls have an opportunity to understand just how the government in their state operates.

A total of 360 girls are expected to attend Girls' State this year, the 21st consecutive year it has been held at Ann Arbor. They will live at Mary Markley Hall.

Two girls will be selected from the 360 to attend Girls' Nation at Washington, D. C., later this summer.

THANK YOU
We wish in this small way to express our appreciation and thanks to the American Legion boys who assisted my brother, Herman Reed, in the military service in our time of sorrow. We shall always remember your kindness.
Mrs. Buelah Hamilton and family.

THANK YOU
I would like to thank Ray and all the kids on bus No. 12, my classmates at St. Mary's School, my relatives and friends for being so nice to me while I was ill.
Jimmy Juergens.

THANK YOU
Grateful thanks to my friends and relatives who so thoughtfully remembered me in many ways while I was a patient at the hospital and since my return home. Thanks also to the Manchester School Board, Administration and teachers, especially Dorothy Alban who was so very kind. I deeply appreciate everything that has been done for me at this time.
Mrs. Mildred Breitenwischer.

Inverness Club Names
Ladies Day Winners
Inverness Country Club had three golf winners from last week's Ladies Day events.

Miss Tish Preuss won the long-stroke drive and Mrs. Julius Eder won the fifth hole event. Mrs. Jack McLeod won the low-putt for the day's nine-hole play.

Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Donald Hackney and Mrs. Thomas Del Prete.

Personals

Mrs. D. S. Bull and three children, Cathy, Anita and Dean, and Mrs. Pearl Rockwell, all of Lulu were overnight guests Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bull's mother, Mrs. Edna Faulkner. On Thursday, Cathy Bull left for Clifton Home Va., where she entered nursing training at the C. & O. Hospital. She attended Ferris Institute, Big Rapids the past year following her graduation in June, 1965 from Luther High school. Her mother is the former Gladys Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prinzing returned home after two air trips which took them across the entire country from the west coast to the east coast. They spent the weeks at Chatsworth, near Los Angeles, Calif., as guests of Mr. Prinzing's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hassen, and they were at home briefly before flying to Lancaster, Mass., to attend the wedding of another son, John Hassenegh.

Freeway Lowered at Underpass To Meet U.S. Defense Standard

Normal four-lane traffic operations on Interstate 94 Freeway between Jackson and Ann Arbor have been resumed.

Only two lanes of the divided highway have been in use since the NYC railroad tracks were I-94 at the overpass about the miles west of Chelsea near Jackson-Washtenaw county line allow construction crews to lower the freeway more than two feet.

The roadway was lowered to comply with a Defense Department standard for 16-foot clearance on all Interstate Highway System bridges.

About 10 bridges on I-94 have been altered to comply with the 16-foot clearance but the most critical project was the first time Michigan that the roadway was lowered. In the other cases, the bridge was raised.

OPENING DAY CATCH—Byron Pearson, fishing on Cavanaugh Lake Saturday evening, caught the 21-inch, 4 1/2 pound large mouth bass he is displaying in the above photo. Probably not the largest fish caught in the area. (Conservation Officer Hoyer said someone caught a 5-pound one at Four Mile Lake) nevertheless it was a fine fish and one of the few big ones caught that day. Hoyer said bass were biting "like mad" prior to the opening of the season, when fishermen had to throw them back, but as soon as the season opened they became scarce. Next year's earlier opening date is expected to remedy the situation, giving fishermen a better chance to land some "big ones."

Council Briefs

At the June 20 Village Council meeting, Col. Gerald Miller, Washtenaw County Civil Defense Director, requested approval for his proposal to install a radiation monitoring station in Chelsea. He explained that the monitoring equipment would be installed by the Civil Defense organization if the village agreed to take on the responsibility of its maintenance and operation. Approval was given by the Council. Men from the Fire Department are expected to handle details of maintenance and operation.

C. of C. Plans Sidewalk Sale In August

Chelsea Chamber of Commerce held its final meeting of the current season Tuesday evening in the Congregational church dining room. The next regular meeting is scheduled for Sept. 19. New members of the group are Karl Dredge and Donald Siegmund, owners of Wolverine Tavern. Guests at Tuesday's meeting included James Egbert, who is directing Chelsea's Ol' Time Showboat production; Kenneth Roepcke of General Mills; and Frederick Week. Fred Anderson, chairman of the retail merchants committee, reported on the Showboat sales of the past week-end, stating the project was a complete success and was "enthusiastically accepted by the merchants and the public." The committee is already working on plans for the annual Sidewalk Days sale to be held some time near the middle of August. Exact date will be announced soon. Roland Spaulding, who was program chairman for the evening, promptly cleared the dining room so last-minute rehearsals for Chelsea's Ol' Time Showboat could get underway.

Summer Story Hour For Children Planned By McKune Library

McKune Memorial Library has announced its annual summer story hour for children to be held each Wednesday from 3 p.m. until 4 p.m., with Mrs. Wilbur Hinderer as "story lady." The first story hour was held Wednesday, June 21 with succeeding ones scheduled for July 5, 12 and 19. The library is not sponsoring a special children's reading program this summer; however, children are encouraged to take advantage of the many books available at the library for various age groups.

GELMAN EXHIBIT—Products manufactured by the Gelman Instrument Company, 106 North Main St., were displayed by Richard Salonen, production manager, and Robert Young, chief engineer, at the Air Pollution Control Association Convention in New York City, June 12-16. The Gelman Co. was a major exhibitor of air sampling and weather instruments at the convention which was attended by representatives from all over the world who have an interest in the control of air pollution within municipalities and industrial facilities. Charles Gelman began the manufacture of specialized equipment for the purpose in 1957 and in 1959 the Gelman Instrument Co. was incorporated. The products manufactured here have been universally accepted in every major free country in the world.

Methodist Appointments Made Sunday

The Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Church held at Adrian College June 14-18 closed Sunday afternoon with the Service of Ordination of Deacons and Elders. Thirty-eight young men were made Deacons and were assigned to churches where they must perform three years of satisfactory service before becoming elders. Fifteen men were ordained as elders, the highest ministerial order in the Methodist church. One of the men, Sherman Taft Richards, is a brother of Marshall Richards, who formerly taught school in Chelsea. Bishop Marshall R. Reed of the Detroit Area, read the list of appointments of pastors for churches in the Detroit Conference, including the appointment of the Rev. S. D. Kinde of the Chelsea Methodist church. This is the ninth consecutive year of the Rev. Kinde's appointment to the Chelsea church and may become the longest pastorate in the church's history. The Rev. Fred D. Mumby had served eight and one-half years in the Chelsea church when he left here in 1942. Prior to coming to Chelsea the Rev. Kinde had served eight years at Snginaw and eight years at Iron Mountain. The Rev. Edwin J. Weiss was also formally re-appointed to his office of administrator of the Chelsea Methodist Home. Among other area appointments is that of the Rev. John Laird who succeeds the Rev. Harry Pyscher as pastor of Salem Grove and North Lake Methodist churches. The Rev. Pyscher has accepted a position as a teacher in the Grass Lake schools. The Rev. A. Theodore Halsted was re-appointed as pastor of the Dexter Methodist church. Also re-appointed were the Rev. Frank Cowick of Stockbridge; the Rev. Jesse Epps, of Manchester; and the Rev. David Church of Grass Lake.

MUSICAL INTERLUDE—At Friday night's pre-showboat entertainment in the downtown area, Anna Green of Ann Arbor played the electric organ accompaniment for some fine banjo playing by John W. Haie and clarinet playing by Ray Stebbach (standing). This was only a sample of the music which will be part of the big Ol' Time Showboat spectacular, the community wide entertainment project which begins a three-night run tonight (Thursday) at Chelsea High School auditorium.

Chelsea Milling Operations Taken in Color-Sound Film

By the end of the year, Co-Operative Extension groups throughout the country as well as educational television services, will be featuring a 15-minute color-sound film of Chelsea Milling Co. showing the plant and its automated processing of "Jiffy" products. Moving pictures for the feature were taken at the plant here Monday for the Michigan State University Department of Agricultural Engineering and the Co-Operative Extension Service. The agricultural engineering department is interested in Chelsea Milling Co.'s processing of ready-mix foods from the standpoint of "electricity at work." The intricate automated procedure will be shown in detail in the sound film. Interest of the Co-Operative Extension Service centers chiefly on one of its principal services—providing marketing information for consumers. Chelsea Milling Co. has become known throughout the world for the Jiffy Mix products processed at its plant here—Jiffy biscuit mix, pie crust, corn muffins, two flavors of brownies, four flavors of cakes and three flavors of frosting. NINE YEARS SUMMARIZED:

Retiring President Fisher Lists Accomplishments of School Board

Dr. J. V. Fisher, who served as president of the Chelsea School District Board of Education, the past nine years, 1952-61, was asked by The Standard to enumerate a few of the events and accomplishments of the Chelsea District during that time.

In accepting the request, Dr. Fisher said, "It has been a privilege to have served the people of this School District for the past nine years. Since this has been a time of rapid expansion a report to the electors is timely. This resume, however, does not constitute an official school board report."

The highlights of the years 1952-1961, are listed by Dr. Fisher as follows:

1. Completion of consolidation of our schools and the doubling of the school enrollment.
2. A building program which has included the construction of the South Elementary School, North Elementary School with its addition, and a new Senior High School.
3. The utilization of our community's talent acting through advisory groups to furnish the school board assistance in areas of construction, finance, policy making, curriculum, etc.
4. The formulation of a code of policies that defines the duties and responsibilities of each member of the school system. This document, subject to annual review, provides continuity of program in conformity to established lines, assists in the orientation of new members, guides board deliberations and decisions, and best of all, precludes arbitrary and capricious action.
5. The adoption of a statement of basic philosophy of our educational aim. This statement reads "The aim of the Chelsea School system is to encourage the child to grow intellectually, to his fullest potential, to the end that the child will use the intellect in a wise and useful manner."
6. Acceptance of a teacher's salary schedule which permits annual increments of pay and also allows some latitude in the matter of merit or incentive increases to attract and retain superior teachers.
7. A steady growth of a group of professional teachers to whom teaching is a career of dedicated service. This area of growth is a credit to our administrative staff whose task it is to recommend teachers for employment.
8. Mandatory enlargement of the membership of the school board from five to seven, which has permitted delegation of duties and deliberations to committees within the board. At the present time five committees are active: (a) Finance (b) Curriculum (c) Publicity (d) Buildings and Grounds (e) Future Planning.
9. Periodic review of the entire curriculum by the school board working with one of its citizen advisory groups. A revision of the high school curriculum was initiated before moving into the new high school, which allowed strengthening of the course of study to better enable our students to be prepared for any field of endeavor after graduation.
10. Proper recognition of and reward for achievement of academic excellence among our students. This has been done by means of singling out the seniors with a 3.5 average or better, honors assemblies, publication of the honor roll, etc.
11. Defeat in 1960 by the electors of a request of the board for operational millage. The people's mandate resulted in certain measures being adopted: delay of purchase of additional badly needed buses, reduction in the custodial staff, and in not hiring additional teachers considered necessary to enlarge our course of studies and to prevent overloading our classrooms. Despite these measures and the watchdogging of expenditures and careful scrutiny of the budget by the administration, board members, and in particular its Finance Committee, the present fiscal year will end with an estimated deficit of $8,000. This shortage added to the deficit of $18,000 for the previous fiscal year makes it a total deficit of $26,000. It means that means be found to overcome this deficit and to permit growth and expansion in certain areas.

"The accomplishments, herein listed, should be a matter of pride to our entire school community," Dr. Fisher said.

"That they are a matter of record is a tribute to a generous electorate, an alert and competent administrative staff and faculty and an harmonious representative school board. It is my firm belief and faith that the people will continue to furnish adequate and intelligent support for our children's education," he concluded.

Dr. Fisher and Earl Beeman, a member of the Chelsea School Board since consolidation of the district in 1947, did not seek reelection after completion of their current terms in office this year. New board members, elected Monday, June 12 are Paul E. Mann and Arthur Kuhl. Remaining in office on the seven-man board are Luther Kusterer, Clarence Vogel, Robert Foster, S. R. Booker and Howard Flintoft.

BLOWS TOP IN SEWER
 Philadelphia—A temporary postman found the Christmas mail rush too much for him.
 He continued to receive complaints from people that he was delivering mail to the wrong addresses and he was upset. He later told a United States commissioner at a hearing that he threw 60 pieces of mail down a sewer.
 The mail was recovered and after being dried out was delivered. The confused mailman was held on $500 bail.

HOW'S Your P.D.Q.?

WERE THE BEST—Last year, 605 fewer people died in Michigan auto accidents than the average in the six other most populous states. BUT WERE IN A SLUMP—Another 215 would be alive, if we had stayed as good last year as we were the year before.

PROTECTIVE DRIVING PAYS!

Our Driving Record Good But Dropping into Slump

We who drive in Michigan saved 605 lives last year. But we could have saved another 215, if we only had done as well as we did just two years ago.

That's one way of describing the challenge we currently face as motorists.

Another way of stating it is that each of us is saving $91 a year on auto insurance. But we're threatening to throw away part of that saving.

These are the contrasting effects of having, at the same time, one of the best accident records in the nation, and the worst in Michigan history.

We're good drivers. The records prove it. And we can be proud of it.

But we're in a slump. This record isn't so pleasant. And we need to do something about it.

Here's the story:

As the seventh state in population, we're primarily compared with the six largest—New York, California, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, and Texas—because of our similar accident exposures.

National accident statisticians make the comparison on a yardstick of deaths per 100 million miles of auto travel. By this standard, we were tied last year for fourth best among the seven.

On the basis of actual deaths, Michigan accidents took 605 fewer lives than the average of these six other states. The range was from 36 fewer than Pennsylvania to 2,409 fewer than California.

Similar comparison of accidents and injuries, which are a better indicator of the total accident problem than deaths, isn't practical, because of variations among the states in reporting methods.

But auto insurance cost is a practical measure of the total accident picture. Although it is influenced more in some states than others by such factors as unusual laws and claims attitudes, and there are some uninsured accidents, insurance cost basically reflects the number and severity of accidents and injuries, as well as deaths.

By this yardstick, our record is outstanding. We pay $91 a year less for our auto insurance than the average in the six other most populous states. The range is from $7 less than in Texas to $215 less than in New York.

And we pay $42 a year less than the average in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

These are comparatives of the same coverages by the same companies in the major city of each of the states. The cost varies for other communities of each state, but the differences are relative.

By comparison with the national average, we save $126,000,000 a year—the price of 46,700 new cars.

By comparison with the average of the six other large states, we save $278,000,000 a year—enough to buy 18,200 houses.

Much of this saving in lives, suffering, and dollars over the accident toll of our sister states is the fruit of three years of consistent accident improvement, in 1956-57-58.

In that period, we cut our annual toll by 635 deaths, 4,500 injuries, and 19,000 accidents.

As these reductions became reflected in insurance loss-accounting during the past two years, they helped to offset the steadily increasing cost-per-accident, which has existed in recent years. The result has been a stabilizing of Michigan auto insurance cost since late 1958.

In the past two years, however, our annual-accident toll has increased by 215 deaths, 33,000 injuries, and 32,000 accidents. Much of the injury increase reflects a change in reporting method.

These increases are reflected in

'60 Deer Kill Report Shows Big Decrease

Lansing — Michigan's firearm hunters and archers harvested an estimated 76,790 deer during last fall's regular and special seasons, final results of the Conservation Department's post card poll indicate.

As expected, last season's kill figure is far below the 1959 kill of 117,200 deer and represents the first drop in hunter take since 1954. Although the kill failed to hold up with the previous two seasons, it tops estimates for each of the seasons from 1954 through 1956 and closely approaches the 1957 figure.

Archery and firearm license sales were down as compared with the year before. Archery sales fell from 40,690 in 1959 to 36,420, while firearm licenses totaled 401,380, a drop of 7,000.

Buck kill slipped from 68,210 in 1959 to 47,000, largely due to the season's poor hunting weather and a marked drop in yearlings which generally make up a large percentage of each fall's harvest.

Hunters in the northern lower peninsula brought home 29,040 while those in the upper peninsula to 14,950. Another 3,070 bucks were killed in the southern lower peninsula.

"Any deer" permittees also experienced a drop in their shooting success. They took an estimated 28,370 antlerless deer and sub-legal bucks, a decline of about 40 percent from the season before.

Antlerless take totaled 18,040 in the northern lower peninsula and 9,420 in the upper peninsula. A special December 1-6 season in Allegan county yielded another 310 deer.

Archers fared about the same as other hunters, shooting 1,230 deer for their lowest take in recent years. Following is a breakdown of their kill: upper peninsula, 250; northern lower peninsula, 915; and southern lower peninsula, 405.

An estimated 130 whitetails were harvested under the camp deer system, 50 below the 1959 figure.

A nearly $23,000,000 increase in auto insurance losses in Michigan during the past two years. And this loss increase now is becoming involved in auto insurance rate consideration.

Our slump in protective driving practices is whittling away at some very important benefits, in both lives and dollars.

New Way Proposed To Get Dairy Herd Replacements

Many Michigan dairymen have shown an interest in having their herd replacements raised on contract by farmers who specialize in heifer raising.

Several dairymen in Michigan are now doing this, says Don Murray, dairy extension specialist at Michigan State University.

Most specialized milk producers have excellent quality, high-producing cows, says Murray. However, many producers do not wish to raise their own heifers because they can more profitably use the space and labor for milking cows.

By having someone else raise these heifers, the farmer is able to use his own heifers as herd replacements.

Many farmers lack the needed capital or time necessary to milk cows. By raising heifers as herd replacements for other farmers, they can make profitable use of buildings, land and their own labor. Heifer raising is a good economic outlet for young and grain which otherwise would have to be sold.

Many different types of heifer raising contracts are in use, says Murray. Contracts used by owners and growers should be written to fit the specific needs of each party.

Methods of payment for growing the replacements are numerous. Some farmers use an option-to-purchase contract which gives them the first option to buy back the heifers which they sold to the grower. Other contracts base the charge on a monthly payment. Still another type of contract pays the grower for each pound of gain. The price paid per pound of gain is paid according to the current selling price of beef.

One southern Michigan dairymen has his heifers raised by a farmer in Oscoda county, Murray says.

Cost of raising heifers on this contract is determined by a specific charge each month for the heifer. During the first four months, the grower is paid $12 a month for each calf. From the fifth to the twelfth months, a charge of $8 is paid monthly. At the twelfth month, the grower receives $6 each month until the heifer is returned to the owner at freshening time.

Heifer growers agree to use recommended practices in raising heifers. In some cases, the exact feeding recommendations are written into the contract.

The grower is responsible for seeing that the heifers are vaccinated, bred and blood tested at the proper times.

Additional information on contract raising of heifers is available from the county agent.

Wood chemicals are used in rayon, other synthetic fabrics, tires and about 5,000 other common articles, says Michigan State University foresters.

Washington, D.C., Leads World in Phones per Capita

Telephone users in Michigan cannot get through to Basutoland, India, Swaziland, Christmas Island or a few other remote spots. But they can reach more than 130 million other telephones around the world which represent more than 97 per cent of all the phones on earth.

The 1956 edition of "The World's Telephones," released by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, reports that in 1955 the number of phones in the world rose to 133.6 million, a gain of almost 9 million over the previous year. More than half of them are in the United States.

All figures in the report, an annual statistical study undertaken at AT&T, are as of the end of 1955, as it takes a year to compile the statistics. At that time, the United States had 70,821,000 phones. Today, there are more than 74 million.

American cities, such as Washington, Atlantic City, and Las Vegas, which consist predominantly of an adult population—such as government workers and conventioners—have the greatest number of telephones for each 100 persons.

Washington has 83 telephones for every 100 men, women, and children living there. This ranks the nation's capital as the first in the world in the number of telephones per capita. Atlantic City has 68.8 phones, and Las Vegas has 66.0 per 100 population.

Contrasted with this are the communities with growing families and many children. Statistics indicate, in Michigan for example, it's the suburban communities around Detroit whose younger and smaller inhabitants set the figure at 39.6 telephones for each 100 population.

In this same respect, the U. S. led the international field with 39.6 telephones per 100 persons. Brazil, with 1.48 telephones per 100 reported the smallest number per capita among the major countries. Russia was second from the bottom with 1.9 phones per 100. For the eighth successive year, Canadian out-talked the rest of the world—averaging 580 conversations per person. Next was followed by the U. S. with 499, and Sweden with 387.

Since 1950, the report shows the number of telephones in the world has almost doubled. The number of phones in the United States increased 74 per cent that period, while in Asia, the number more than tripled. In Europe and South America, the number doubled. No growth figures were available from Russia.

REGISTRATION NOTICE FOR PRIMARY ELECTION Tuesday, July 25, 1961

To the Qualified Electors of the TOWNSHIP OF SYLVAN (PRECINCT NO. 1 and 2) COUNTY OF WASHTENAW, STATE OF MICHIGAN

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law," I, the undersigned Clerk, will, upon any day, except Sunday and a legal holiday, the day of any regular or special election or primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said Township, City or Village not already registered who may APPLY TO ME PERSONALLY for such registration.

Notice is hereby given that I will be at the following places any day until Monday, June 26, 1961: CHELSEA STATE BANK and on Monday, June 26, 1961 - Last Day

The Thirtieth day preceding said Election As provided by Section 498, Act No. 116, Public Acts of 1954.

From 9 o'clock a.m. until 3 o'clock p.m. on each said day for the purpose of REVIEWING the REGISTRATION and REGISTERING the purpose of the qualified electors in said TOWNSHIP, CITY or VILLAGE as SHALL PROPERLY apply therefor.

The name of no person but an ACTUAL RESIDENT of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registration book.

Elector Unable to Make Personal Application, Procedure SEC. 504. Any elector who is unable to make personal application for registration because of physical disability or absence from the Township, City or Village in which his legal residence is located, may be registered prior to the close of registration before any election or primary election by securing from the Clerk of the Township, City or Village in which is located his legal residence, duplicate registration cards and executing in duplicate the registration affidavit before a notary public or other officer legally authorized to administer oaths and returning such registration cards to the Clerk of the Township, City or Village before the close of office hours on the last day of registration prior to any election or primary election.

Unregistered Persons Not Entitled to Vote SEC. 491. The inspectors of election of any election or primary election in this State, or in any District, County, Township, City or Village thereof, shall not receive the vote of any person whose name is not registered in the registration book of the Township, Ward or Precinct in which he offers to vote. (As provided under Act 116, P. A. 1954.)

Transfer of Registration, Application, Time SEC. 506. Any registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending to the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved thereto, and the address from which he was last registered, or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk shall strike through the last address, ward and precinct number and record the new address, ward and precinct number on the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Such transfers shall not be made within the (30) days next preceding any election or primary election, (unless such 30th day shall fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday in which event registration shall be accepted during the next full working day), provided that no such transfer shall permit any person to vote in any Township, City or Village in which he has not resided (30) days next preceding any election or primary election.

Transfer of Registration on Election Day SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village shall have the right to make application to have his registration transferred on any election or primary election day by executing a request over his or her signature for such transfer and presenting the same to the election board in the precinct in which he is registered. Upon receiving such request the inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and if the signatures correspond then the inspector shall certify such fact upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

STOP AND GO Frequent, short rest periods before you get tired can make your housework easier. These brief stops are better than one long rest period after you become tired. Home economists suggest you stretch out on a couch, in a lounge chair with a footstool, or on some firm surface so that all parts of your body can relax completely.

SOUTH SYLVAN EXTENSION

Mrs. Raymond Liebeck was named chairman of South Sylvan Extension club at the June meeting held Thursday at the home of Miss Martha Bristle. Other officers elected are Miss Bristle, vice-chairman; Mrs. E. G. Van Riper, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. William Reule, community chairman; Mrs. William Pritchard, project leader; and Mrs. Joseph Merkel, recreation leader. In celebration of the approaching 50th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Leo Merkel, a member of the club, she was surprised with a recognition of the event and was presented with a dish inscribed "South Sylvan Extension Club," in gold and fired in a ceramics kiln by Mrs. Joseph Merkel. Also in honor of Mrs. Merkel, an anniversary cake, appropriately decorated, was served at the noon pot-luck dinner. Club members will meet Aug. 10 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Liebeck to work on the club's exhibit for the Chelsea Community Fair. The next regular club meeting will be held in September.

Alban-Bollinger Vows Spoken at St. Paul's Church

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Alban announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary, to Duane Bollinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bollinger. The wedding took place June 14 at St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church with the Rev. Paul M. Schnake officiating in the presence of the immediate families, including the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Martha Weisman, and the bridegroom's grandfather, Fred Bollinger. Following the ceremony, the couple left on a trip to the Upper Peninsula.

Look for Quality When Shopping for Men's Wash-Pants

Men's washable cotton pants should survive a trip through the laundry without sad affects. Bernette Kahabka, clothing specialist at Michigan State University, says the shopper can use some buying guides to insure good washability. It is quite possible to find different makes of pants which are cut from the same fabric, but which are priced differently. Miss Kahabka says construction details often account for price variation, and some construction features are worth the extra money. Fabrics labeled "Sanforized" will not shrink out of fit. This label should appear on the pants fabric. It should also appear on the pocket lining and waistband lining, since these are cut from different fabrics, and shrinkage could ruin the fit. A "Sanforized-plus" label indicates a good wash-and-wear performance. Top quality pants have no raw seam edges. Seams are pressed flat to eliminate bulk and make alterations easier. There is ample seam allowance at the seat back to allow for let-out, even if this is not needed at the time of purchase. Reinforcing tape is used to line the crotch seam where it meets the inseam. Less expensive pants may have a V-shaped insert at the crotch. This allows the manufacturer to cut fabric to better advantage, but this type of construction may not wear so well. Pocket linings of sturdy cotton twill should be deep and roomy and double-stitched for added strength. Pocket linings should not be visible when the pants are worn. Interlining is used inside the

Toppings for Lamps

Shades for your living room lamps can be opaque or translucent. When walls are light in color, it is usually best to select translucent shades which allow a light to pass through. Home economists note that opaque shades, which allow no light to shine through, may fit best into rooms with dark colored walls. This eliminates the uncomfortable contrast between a bright shade and a dark background.

Women's Guild Retreat Project Planned for Aug. 9

The Women's Guild of St. Paul's church held a meeting in the church hall Wednesday evening June 14, with 80 members present. Miss Amanda Koch was devoted service leader using the theme, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" Mrs. Oscar Lindauer served as piano accompanist for hymns that were sung by the assembly. Mrs. Otto Lucht and Mrs. George Erke had prepared the evening's program; however, Mrs. Erke was unable to attend because of illness. Mrs. Lucht presented the material on the topic, "National Missions." The program material traced the progress of missionary work of the present United Church of Christ from the time of the landing of the Pilgrims in 1620. It was pointed out that the United Church of Christ is a merger of four church bodies—Congregational, Christian, Reformed and Evangelical—and that each had strong missionary backgrounds. Wherever the early American Christians settled they placed the church at the heart of community life and this, in turn, led to the opening of schools, colleges, theological schools, hospitals and orphan homes. Many of these have become community institutions. Mrs. Lucht concluded by saying, "The future is represented by a horizon line, far out in front of us, always beckoning, while behind us we can see mistakes and failures; however, we need not fear because of these mistakes and failures but rather, we need to move forward to meet the needs of our day with the courage of yesterday's pioneers." The Rev. Paul M. Schnake contributed to the program on missions by relating, at the request of the program committee, some of his experiences in organizing a mission church at Caseyville, Ill. Ushers for Wednesday's meeting were Mrs. Ernest Guenther and Mrs. Paul M. Schnake. During the business session it was announced that a Women's Guild Retreat will be held Aug. 9 at the Blind Lake cottage of Mrs. Adam Eppler. In preparation for the retreat project a committee consisting of Guild officers, the program committee, Mrs. Wilbert Grieb and Mrs. Lorenz Wenk, planned a meeting this week to make all arrangements. A report by Mrs. Emma Seitz, Christian Service chairman, stated that 85 pounds of used clothing had been sent to St. Louis, Mo.; also, 45 special packets as recommended by the National Guild. St. Paul's Women's Guild members, in a letter received from Dr. Reginald Heiferich, executive secretary of Church World Service, were commended "for their generous contribution which had made it possible to send materials and equipment to Dr. Albert Schweitzer for his work in Africa." Also announced at Wednesday's meeting was a birthday party planned for June 17 at the Mission Hospital by the Guild's Mission Circle. Hostesses who served refreshments at the close of the meeting included Mrs. M. L. Dietle, Mrs. Roland Egeler and Mrs. Herman Elsele.

Methodist Home Party Honors June Birthdays

Thirteen residents of the Methodist Home were honored Tuesday at the June birthday party at the Methodist Home. Included was Mrs. Charlotte Tamlyn who is 99 years old and is believed to be one of the oldest living twins in the state. She has a brother living at Howell. Mrs. Ella Decker, formerly of Howell, is 90 years old this month; Arthur Middleton, formerly of Pontiac, 93; and Mrs. Katherine Plunkett who came here from Ypsilanti, 95. Miss Alma Eves, another resident whose birthday occurred during the month, died on her 91st birthday on June 15. In addition to those in their 90's, the honored residents who observed June birthdays Tuesday are Miss Bernice Hughes, Miss Ethel Jardine, Mrs. Alma Vail, Mrs. Alice Vahue, Miss Frances Fraser, Mrs. Lydia Curtis, Miss Ethel Banks, Miss Margaret Powrie and Mrs. Mary Husband. A profusion of roses decorated the birthday table. Gifts provided by the Chelsea Home Friends of the Detroit Methodist Conference included dusting powder for those confined in the hospital section; stationery for the ladies; and after-shave talcum for Mr. Middleton.

CHAT 'N' SEAU

Twenty members and one guest were present Tuesday evening for a planned pot-luck supper of the Chat 'n' Seau at the home of Mrs. D. A. Riker. Her assisting hostess was Mrs. Walter Pleiemer. At the business meeting officers were officially elected as follows: Mrs. Lucille Olson, president; Mrs. M. W. McCure, vice-president; and Mrs. Walter Pleiemer, secretary-treasurer. Following the business session, a social hour was enjoyed.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS

Woman's Relief Corps, No. 210, with 17 members present, held a regular meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Addie Fitzpatrick. Mrs. Thomas Moore, the vice-president, presided at the business session. Members contributed a large number of items for the Old Fellows Facility at Grand Rapids and it was announced contributions will be made again at the July meeting. Birthdays were observed on Monday's meeting; those honored being Mrs. Mildred Hopper, Mrs. Howard Walz and Mrs. Moore. The next meeting is scheduled for July 17 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Dawn. At that meeting, birthdays will be observed.

BEACON LIGHT EXTENSION

As a climax to the year's activities, 11 members of Beacon Light Extension club attended a performance of "Auntie Mame" at Clark Lake summer playhouse Friday evening. The club will resume fall activities in September with Mrs. Kenneth Matthews as hostess for the first meeting.

SHOWER

Doris Green, whose marriage to Robert Mann of Ann Arbor will take place Saturday, was guest of honor at a personal shower given Monday of last week by Mrs. John Laraway and Mrs. Donald Bauer at the home of Mrs. Bauer. There were 17 guests present from Ann Arbor, Chelsea and Whitmore Lake. Games were the evening's entertainment and prizes of potted plants were awarded to Mrs. Louise Mann of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Sarah Fordan of Whitmore Lake, Mrs. Mary Parsons and Mrs. Rita Parsons. Mrs. Phyllis Kennedy of Ann Arbor, received a door prize. A miniature bride and bridegroom centered the gift table, while lemon lilies and white daisies were used for the centerpiece on the refreshment table.

FREEBIE HOMEMAKERS

Freebie Homemakers Extension club closed the club year with a family picnic held Sunday at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. W. Menzel. A pot-luck dinner served at 12:30 p.m. with 28 in attendance. Mrs. Charles Kruger, program chairman, was in charge of games at contests which provided the afternoon's entertainment. The further meetings of the club will be held until September when the Bertha Breitenwischer of Ann Arbor, will be the hostess.

No Passing Signs To Be Tested on Left Side of Road

Lansing—Having trouble spotting "No Passing" zones on state highways?

The Michigan State Highway Department will conduct an experiment in northern Michigan this summer with a new method designed to make them more obvious to motorists.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said the Highway Department's Traffic Division will test the effectiveness of "No Passing" signs placed on the left side of the road.

The study will take place on US-27 in the Vandriell-Guyard area in Otsego county, where a number of "No Passing" signs already have been installed on the left side of the highway.

"No Passing" signs are presently posted on the right side of all state highways at the beginning of each "No Passing" zone. The zones also are marked by a yellow strip of paint that runs the entire length of the zone in the center of the highway.

Highway engineers believe it may be easier for motorists to spot signs on the left side of the road because a driver normally keeps his eyes trained in that direction to watch oncoming traffic.

NO BUTTONHOLES

Machine-made buttonholes are sometimes best for sheer fabrics and for fabrics which fray easily. Home economists suggest you choose a pattern with no buttonholes when working on a fabric which ravel a great deal.

Charlevoix Area Marked By Glaciers

(One in a series on Michigan locales)

Charlevoix—The countryside as one approaches Charlevoix looks as if it had been distributed by a giant's teaspoon.

Tourists moving north on US-31 beyond Torch Lake pass through the drumlin country, a favorite area of University of Michigan geologist Donald F. Eschman (PhD).

Drumlins, Professor Eschman explains, are elongate or oval hills of glacial drift shaped like the bowl of an inverted spoon. Laid down in rows parallel to the line of ancient ice movement, drumlins may be a mile or more long, 50 to 100 feet high, perhaps 200 to 400 feet wide.

The Lake Michigan drive toward Charlevoix crosses many of the hills before dropping onto old lake plains and across a couple of beaches into the city.

Good bass and perch fishing are synonymous with Charlevoix. It is blessed with resort advantages of both Lake Michigan and Lake Charlevoix, third largest inland lake in the state. Within easy reach are connecting waterways ideal for canoe trips. A boat line connects the city with Beaver Island.

The drive from Charlevoix to Petoskey is marked by wave-cut and wave-built terraces, with moraine debris and drumlins lying south of the highway. Between Bayshore and Petoskey are limestone quarries. Within the latter city is a roadside park where fossil hunters may explore "one of the good fossiliferous areas of the state," Eschman says. The lake beach area here contains many Petoskey stones—corals smoothed and rounded by lake waters.

Located on Little Traverse Bay, Petoskey has been a resort and health center for nearly a century. One of the state's most beautiful drives circles Walkton Lake. The busy community has year-around tourist lure—excellent winter sports facilities supplement fine fishing and hunting sites. Not far off are Burt and Mullet Lakes, two huge bodies of water which are actually low spots cut off from retreating Great Lakes waters by accumulated beach sands and dunes.

Farm Management Tour Will Be in Gratiot County

Ithaca—Gratiot county in central Michigan will host the 1961 State Farm Management Tour on Aug. 2. More than 2,000 are expected at the event, sponsored by the Co-Operative Extension Service.

Everett Elwood, farm management specialist at Michigan State University is director of the annual tour of successful farms in the state to demonstrate sound farm management.

The tour will visit three top Gratiot county farms. This is the 13th year for the tour which was in Jackson county last year.

The morning tour stop is to be the Clair McLean and Son farm near St. Louis. The father-son team operates about 400 acres and feeds out 600 cattle each year. McLean is rated as one of the state's most successful beef feeders.

The noon program and second stop is to be the W. M. Van Page and Son farm south of Breckenridge. A beef barbecue, served by county service organizations and a special speaking program are planned. Van Page and son, John, operate a cash crop farm of 340 acres, feed out some cattle and maintain a beef herd.

The final tour visit is to be the Basil McKenzie farm across the road from the noon stop. McKenzie's principal operation is the production of certified seed corn, barley and field beans. It is entirely a cash-crop unit with 284 acres owned and 165 rented.

MSU specialists have arranged crop demonstration plots on each of the farms. These include variety trials, fertilizer rates and applications and weed control trials.

Elwood is working closely with local committees headed by John Baker, Gratiot county extension director, to make the 1961 tour a major event for Gratiot county, one of the state's foremost agricultural areas. All farms on the tour are easily reached from main highways and lie just a few miles east of US-27.

CORONADO "ROYAL DELUXE"

See our refrigerator-freezer combinations. Stop in. See what your old refrigerator is worth on a trade-in.

$199.95

$5 DOWN

Here's why you can buy the CORONADO ROYAL DELUXE at such a low, low price!

- It's the biggest freezer purchase in history! We ordered 35 trainloads of a single model!
- Manufactured by world's largest freezer producer, who made huge mass-quantity savings.
- We eliminate warehousing costs because freezers are shipped direct from factory to your town.

2.50 Per Week—Payable Monthly

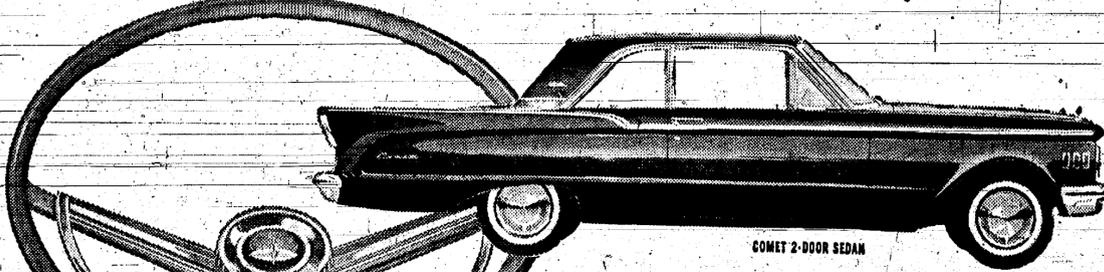

TRADE—Pay Even Less Than Advertised Price!

It's the greatest freezer value of all time! Compare other nationally advertised brands—you could pay up to $120 more, and still not get all our Royal Deluxe features. To make possible this value, we ordered 35 TRAINLOADS (not carloads, but trainloads) OF ONE MODEL—and we're eliminating about 50% of our normal expense in shipping direct from factory to your town in carload lots. See the Royal Deluxe at Gambles today.
