6 Youths Held In Burglary of 2 Area Stores

Charges Pressed After 4 Confess To Break-ins

Six youths, ranging in age from 11 to 24 years, were being held in custody at the Washtenaw county jail following confessions that they were involved in the burglarizing of two stores in this area.

The stores, Baxter's Market and the Waterbury Store were broken into some time Saturday night. At Baxter's almost $50 worth of goods, reportedly stolen from the store, were taken in addition to a quantity of beer and wine, candy bars, flashlights, jack-knives, rifle and shotgun shells and miscellaneous items. At Baxter's Market, a large quantity of cigarettes was taken, also beer and whisky.

Four of the youths, Louis Brown, 18, Jackson, his brother, Jack Brown, 18, Pleasant Lake, Charles Whitaker, 18, and his brother, Earl Whitaker, 17, both of Cavanaugh Lake, confessed to breaking into the stores and are being held on a charge of breaking and entering in the night time. The other two, Paul Whitaker, 21, 228 Park St., Chelsea, and James Bates, 20, 119 Wilkinson St., were charged with possession of stolen property.

"Chelsea Police and the Washtenaw county Sheriff's Department co-operated in cracking the case Tuesday—three days after the burglaries were reported."

The investigation was started when Chelsea police were advised of a conversation overheard in which a youth was inviting another to a party where there "would be a lot of whisky to drink."

Officer Carl Koch, who received the information, relayed the tip to a fellow officer, Earl Willis, and Detective Harold Owings of the Sheriff's Department. Together they picked up some of the offenders and after questioning the youths they admitted the break-ins and implicated others. The confessed burglars from Jackson were picked up in a "stake-out" by police of the Jackson post and Jackson county sheriff's officers.

Confession of the burglaries took place while some of the group were being held in Chelsea, following which they were transferred to the Washtenaw county jail for further questioning. Sheriff's officers were attempting to find out if there were any other break-ins involved than those taking place here.

The group said they broke into the two stores by breaking a window. They gave no explanation for their confessed robberies except that they wanted to "have a party and needed refreshments."

One of the offenders, Louis Brown, was involved in a break-in at a Cavanaugh Lake store four years ago. He is currently on parole from Jackson prison.

Part of the loot has been recovered, according to Sheriff's officers. The biggest quantity was found in Louis Brown's apartment in Jackson where officers found 20 cases of beer and 30 to 40 bottles of whisky. Also, a quantity of other goods, reportedly stolen in the Jackson area, was found in the apartment.

Deadline Date Nearing for Auto License

Wallace Wood, Chelsea branch manager for the Michigan Department of State—reminds motorists that Wednesday, Feb. 28, is the deadline for the purchase of 1962 vehicle license plates.

To correct the thinking of many purchasers of license plates relative to the 36-cent refund due for payments collected with 1961 license fees for proposed re-registered plates, Wood points out that in order to get the refund it is necessary that an application be received at a branch office completed and mailed to Lansing.

After checking in Lansing, the validated card will be returned to the customer who must present it when purchasing 1962 license plates. Wood said the credit can only be given off 1962 license plates and since the deadline date is Feb. 28 the validation cards should be mailed in by Feb. 16.

The re-registered plates never materialized because the legisla-

Don Dickelman Presented God, Country Scout Award

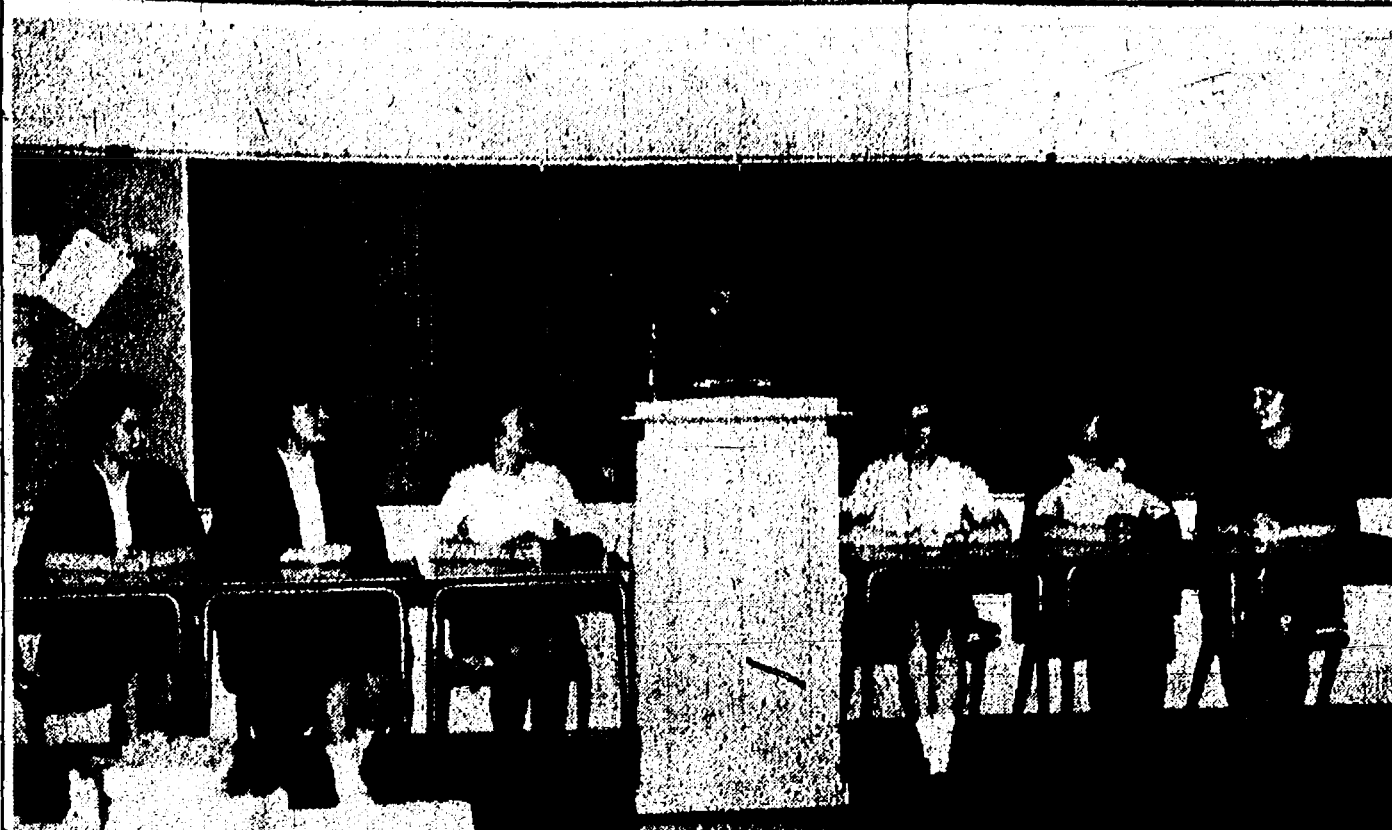

A year of special work for the church was culminated on Boy Scout Sunday, Feb. 11, with presentation to Don Dickelman of the "Pro Deo et Patria" award. Weekly meetings with the pastor, an exploration of his own personal beliefs and a study of the history of the Congregational Church were the remaining requirements for the coveted award.

High School Debaters Learn To Look at All Sides of Issue

One of the lesser known, but equally important activities at Chelsea High school, is debating.

Although probably not as spectacular as football or basketball, debating shares a high priority in the training of students for future citizenship.

Debaters not only have to know everything about current topics of the day, but they must be able to express their thoughts in ways that other persons will know exactly what they are talking about.

They must do research on both sides of an issue so that they will know what their debating opponents will emphasize and be able to defend their side against it.

According to Mrs. Beverly Sharp, debate coach, the ability to look at two sides of an issue intelligently is a valuable asset that will follow a student all the way through life. Thus his life will be richer and his contributions to society, more, because of this.

Each year, in the fall, preparations are made to launch the school debate program for that year. A current topic of the day is assigned as the debate subject for all schools in the state and each school must be prepared to debate both the affirmative and negative sides of the issue.

Thus, in a single debate, each school has both an affirmative and a negative team which meet each other in debate. Each team is composed of two members.

Chelsea High school has met four opponents this season and has won five of its eight debates. Their opponents have been—Stockbridge, Jackson Northwest, Saline and New Boston. Two of the three losses have been while debating on the negative, and one on the affirmative.

The debate subject this year is: "Resolved, that the Federal government should equalize education."

Chelsea's debating team does not have a set pattern of presenting its subject each time. Rather, the team changes its style and technique as each debate is given, building up strong points and shoring up weak points. In such a way the team attempts to improve on its stature after each debate.

After the debating teams have completed their arguments and the rebuttals have been made the decision is left up to the debate judge. One judge is usually assigned this task in regular debates although in tournaments three judges are usually assigned.

Although inter-school debating is assigned to a group of seven students here, classroom debating, involving numbers of students, take place many times during the year. This is required of speech students.

Edwin Greenleaf was also inducted by Anderson as a new member of the Chelsea club.

Harold Jones, program chairman for the meeting, introduced Mrs. E. W. Eaton as the evening's speaker.

Mrs. Eaton, president of the McKune Memorial Library Board, spoke about the history, development and services of Chelsea's public library which this month observes its 30th anniversary.

A report given at the meeting, pertaining to the first program of the Kiwanis-sponsored Travel-Adventure series, stated that a capacity crowd attended and many favorable comments on the program had been received by Kiwanians in charge.

The program was held Thursday at the Chelsea High school auditorium, the first of a series of four monthly presentations.

A guest at Monday's meeting was the Rev. Thomas Toy of Morenci, a former member of the Chelsea club.

Early Copy Needed Next Week Because Of Holiday

Because there will be no mail delivery on Washington's Birthday, Thursday, Feb. 22, The Chelsea Standard will be printed and mailed for Wednesday delivery. All news copy should be in the office by Monday with the exception that Monday evening happenings may be called in early Tuesday morning. Co-operation in helping us meet this earlier deadline will be appreciated.

'Parli-Pro' Team Wins District Meet

The Chelsea High-school parliamentary procedure team, participating Wednesday at Milan High school in district FFA competition, won first place and a gold award. This is the fourth successive year that a Chelsea High school parliamentary procedure team has won first place in the district contests.

The Chelsea team, by winning first place in the district, is now eligible to enter regional competition Feb. 28. The regional contest is to be held at Manchester and competing teams will come from high schools throughout southeastern Michigan.

Five teams competed Wednesday in the district contest at Milan—Saline, Milan, Clinton, Dexter and Chelsea.

The other two schools in the district—South Lyon and Manchester—did not enter the "parli-pro" competition.

Members of the winning Chelsea team are John Miles, president; Thomas Penhalligon, secretary; Richard Haist, Richard Harvey, Al Schauer, Lynn Harvey, David Young and the alternates, Larry Stark and Duane Weiss.

Douglas Spike who attends Manchester High school, placed first in the public speaking contest, repeating his 1961 victory in the same event.

Dexter's Farm Forum team was first-place winner in its category and the Clinton team won first place in the demonstration competition.

Community Survey Finds Chelsea Has 'Weak' Spots

Chelsea Junior Chamber of Commerce members, reporting on the community attitude survey they made in Chelsea Jan. 20-27 said most people had a good word to say about a number of things in the community—utilities, postal services, medical and dental services, law enforcement, fire protection and even about parking in the business district—but listed a need for adequate recreation facilities for children, teen-agers, adults and older people.

Among improvement suggestions were the following: expansion of village limits; local credit information; removal of old buildings; downtown appearance; make schools available for more purposes; rest rooms at parks; overall school program; cultural program; hospital; municipal water softener; development of building sites; community service center; and many others.

Others regretted the fact there was no bakery in Chelsea; some said there appeared to be resistance to progress—too much conservatism; property and rent was too high; there was a lack of tact on the part of some merchants;

Bulldogs Win Over Pinckney

It has been a long time since the local fans (which have dwindled along the way) have been able to boot home a winner, and a victory sure tastes good to the hungry young Bulldogs who have been digging hard for one for the last three weeks.

On the strength of a fine overall performance against Pinckney, the up-and-coming youngsters of Chelsea High school left no doubt in the minds of those present that they were not only the better basketball team, but that they were fine young gentlemen as well.

Late in the game when the going got a bit rough they conducted themselves very well both on and off the floor. Congratulations are due a group of fine young men.

The Bulldogs started fast and continued the pace by leading 16-8 at the end of one period of play, and 39-21 at half-time.

The third period has been a tough period for Chelsea in many games, but not this time as they outscored the Pirates, 18-13, and went into the fourth quarter leading, 54-34.

The fourth quarter saw all the boys getting an opportunity to play, with Chelsea outscoring Pinckney, 13-9, to win going away, 67-43.

The scoring for Chelsea was well distributed with Curt Farley leading the way on a fine 22-point performance despite a sprained hand. Bob Riemenschneider, whose rebounding seems to be coming along, pumped in 14 points. Don Joseph and Jack Howard each collected nine. Gordon Carpenter had six, Roger Lohman five, and Eric Kniesly two. Jim Cameron played a fine floor game, but failed to hit the scoring column, as did John Ashby.

Carl Waller turned his ankle shortly after entering the game and was forced to spend the remainder of the game on ice.

The Chelsea Junior Varsity disposed of the Pinckney JV's, 61-29, for their third victory of the year. Jim Hanson was high scorer with 23 points.

NOTE—The Jan. 5 game at Pinckney which was iced out and rescheduled for Monday, Feb. 19, has been rescheduled again, this time for Saturday, Feb. 24.

Meeting Postponed Due To Sleet Conditions

The Board of Education met briefly Tuesday evening, and because three members were absent due to sleet conditions on the roads, decided to postpone the regular meeting until Wednesday.

Three Trustees Will Be Named For Council Posts

Candidates for village offices in the March 12 election will be named at separate caucuses of the People's and Independent parties Monday, Feb. 19.

The People's party will caucus at 8 p.m. on the third floor of the Municipal building, and the Independent party will caucus at the same time in the council room of the Municipal building.

Candidates for the following offices will be named: president, clerk, treasurer, three trustees on the village council for two-year terms, assessor and 2 library board trustees for three-year terms.

Terms of Donald Baldwin, Harvey Lixey and Steve Clark expire on the village council. Carry-over trustees are Merle Barr, Dr. L. J. Paul and William Chandler.

Terms of Mrs. Frederick Wagner and Dr. Parker Sharrard expire on the library board. Carry-over members are Mrs. Edwin Eaton, Mrs. Lee Ferguson, Mrs. David Soule and John Thomson.

Present officers of the village also include: president, Robert Daniels; clerk, George Winans; treasurer, Wallace Wood; assessor, Thomas Smith.

Deadline for registration in the March 12 election was 8 p.m. Monday of this week. Village Clerk George Winans said the registration was "light."

There will be no township elections this year since this is an "off" year. Township elections are held every two years while the village election is held annually.

Last year only 120 votes were cast in the village election in which the entire slate of the Independent party was elected. The People's party held a caucus but did not name candidates for offices.

Instead, a three-man party committee was named consisting of Donald Alber, John Dettling and George Heydlaff.

Candidates for offices at a caucus are usually named by a vote. The caucus chairman, who has been named from the previous year, opens the meeting and then calls for the naming of candidates. Candidates are nominated and the nominations are seconded by those present and then the chairman calls for the vote.

Ice Skates Accepted as Way of Transportation

At 10:30 p.m. Tuesday, while pedestrians and automobile drivers were traveling cautiously on icy walks and roads (those who dared to venture out, that is) two young women were noticed traveling at high speed in the roadway on Jefferson St. They were skating! Persons who saw them identified them as Helene Frisch and Eleanor Rowe.

Do You Want To Lose Your Freedom To Speak and To Write?

Unless a nation's people are allowed to think and express their thoughts orally, or by means of the printed word and picture, that nation's people cannot enjoy freedom.

The very first thing a potential tyrant or dictator does when trying "to take over" a nation is to suppress freedom of open expression. You have but review the present status of the Cubans for proof.

Yet a form of the suppression of freedom to express thoughts is being exercised in the United States this very moment. It exists in the ruling of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service that a privately owned business, whether it be a utility whose rates are regulated by government, or a strictly privately owned and directed business, may not spend any of its money in any form of printed utterance that opposes the federal government's socialistic enterprises, and expect to be allowed to charge it as a business expense.

In other words, if a privately owned business wants to spend some of its money, thus to protect its stockholders' investment, it cannot expense any company funds to fight the government's tax-supported competition.

Oh, yes, a private company may spend some of its money, to express its views if the money comes from profits only—but not allowable as a regular expense. An expense, insofar as company protection goes, that is comparable to any form of otherwise acceptable insurance used by individuals or companies.

Take the case of the Timken Roller Bearing Co. of Canton, Ohio, which has filed a suit against the federal government for a million and a half dollars it was forced to pay when Timken's institutional advertising budget for several years was disallowed by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

In its advertising Timken vigorously opposed the drift of this nation's economy toward the application of the Socialistic State, with its ever-increasing centralization of power in Washington, D.C. A number of other U.S. companies have similarly expressed themselves via the printed word.

This courageous expression of the right of freedom of the press by private companies can, and probably would, pose a threat to those in government who favor the economic and political drift toward Socialism and the Welfare State. So, by a mere departmental ruling, without Congressional legislation at all, the IRS has decided to punish those privately owned companies that spend company money in order to insure their very preservation!

Imagine just how far such a ruling might become effective: this very bit of comment is being printed in a privately owned U.S. newspaper. The cost of writing it, of setting it into type, of printing it on a press, of distributing it are ALL DEDUCTED AS A BUSINESS EXPENSE.

This type of comment is, naturally, in sympathy with the right of all business to exercise their presumed Constitutional right to freedom of the press.

Suppose, then, that some day the IRS refused to allow all printed media to include the cost of printing criticism of the federal government's socialistic policies as a business expense—what then would happen to a nation's freedom? (And this ruling, too, could also more easily be applied to radio and television, since both these types of communication depend upon government for licenses to operate.)

I am writing and printing this comment only to point out the dangers always inherent in what people call "The State". Ultimately, if it be left to its own potentially bureaucratic designs, without the controls of an alert and active citizenry to stand guard on the ramparts of freedom, "The State" can, and history shows it many times has, become the overlord, the dictator, the tyrant.

Do you want to preserve freedom of speech and of the press in America? Then I suggest that you clip this comment and, with a few added written thoughts of your own, send it to your U.S. Congressman, your U.S. Senator, and even to the White House!

For never forget that the punitive devices of an antagonistic government are ever and forever a constant menace to any nation's freedom!—Birmingham Eccentric.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellow that runs the country store announced Saturday night he'd appreciate getting his two-bits worth into the conversation for a change. As a general rule he don't take no part with the fellows solving the world problems ever week, but Saturday night he was chomping at the bit about spending all his time keeping store records for them tax agencies.

He claims things is worse now than they was back when the OPA was regulating prices. He recollected that back in 1916 when the OPA removed price ceilings on cowbells, bullhorns, horseshoes and cocktail shakers, he wrote 'em that he didn't have no cocktail shakers. They told him to git some.

He said things has went from there to worse and today he don't know whether the tax folks owns his business or he owns it. All he knows for shore, he claims, is that he waits on a customer now and then when he can find time from tending his tax books.

He allowed as how he was voting again all candidates in the next election and aimed to shoot the first one that tried to leave any cards or literature in his store.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

If parents know the facts about problems of higher education, the state will take the right steps to solve them. The decisions will then be based on sound information.

That was the message of Dr. John A. Hannah, MSU president, to newspapers of the state at the annual convention of the Michigan Press Association.

Dr. Hannah, also a Con-Con delegate, commended newspapers on the outstanding job they are doing in relaying news of the convention to the public.

He invited editors to apply the same detailed coverage to the needs of college education so that the people of Michigan will be aware of the knotty situation.

Most people do not realize, the educator pointed out, that right now, when colleges are jammed with students and refusing many applicants, the number of high school students has been on the downslide. The baby boom that started at World War II's end won't hit the college level until 1964. Then the wave of students will really swamp colleges.

Dr. Hannah urged newspapers to concern themselves with this problem; to stimulate interest about it in their communities. Facilities simply do not exist to care for the youngsters who will be coming alone, he warned. If they are to come into being, the wheels will have to start to turn very soon, he stated.

Problems of financing college education are among the most difficult facing legislators and there is a good deal of soul searching about how they should be solved.

Rep. Lester J. Allen, rural Ithaca Republican, has proposed a "compulsory contribution" upon alumni of state supported institutions. He would require each student to sign a note before he graduated for $1,200, payable over a 12-year period.

"Tuition must be kept low if the principle of state-supported institutions is to be maintained," Allen said. "Now, too few alumni contribute to the continuing support of their alma mater."

Disregarding the philosophical soundness of this idea, a tremendous factor against it involves the fact that students under 21 cannot legally make such commitments. This would automatically eliminate young people who wanted an education but whose parents would not or could not take on such obligation.

Mobile Units of the State Police and State Highway Department will soon bear a new emblem depicting the ability of the personnel driving the vehicles.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs reports the American Red Cross has started issuing decals to be placed on the 428 state police squad cars and 200 highway department trucks.

The "Emergency First Aid" decals to be attached to the left rear of the vehicles indicates the personnel in the units are fully qualified to offer expert help in emergencies.

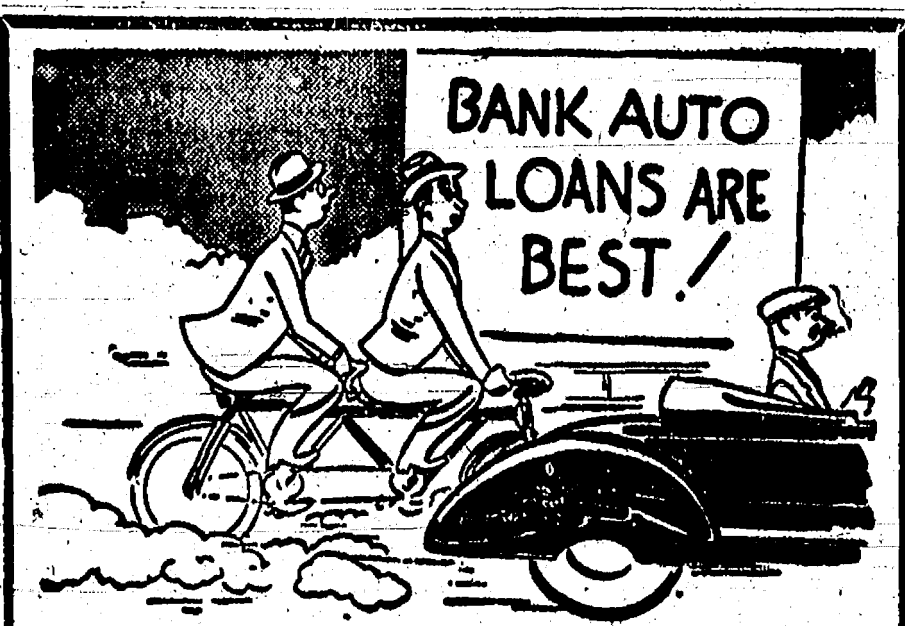

Evan Thompson, Lansing representative for the Red Cross, said Michigan was the first state to get the special designating emblems for two agencies.

"The Michigan State Police is the only state police or highway patrol unit in the United States whose members are 100 percent trained in first aid," he said. "The highway department is the first state unit of its kind, also, to qualify mobile units for this rating."

Secretary of State branch offices in several sections of the state are again offering special "community service" on license plate sales.

Before the March 1 deadline for the purchase of 1962 plates, some 171 communities will have been given the "doorstep" service which was initiated in 1958.

The itinerant sales project carries a staff of a branch office to towns and villages which do not

'Gypsy' Team Fast-Talking Entrance Into Area Homes

her to put her hand on a bible. Then the stranger began to pray and Mrs. Joseph says she was put into a hypnotic trance while the other woman began to gather household articles which she said she was going to take to a laundromat and have washed.

These articles consisted of two blankets, one quilt, six sheets and pillow cases and a toaster. Once the articles left the house she never saw them again.

She described the one woman as being dark-complected, short and with black hair combed straight back. The other, she said, was of medium height and didn't appear to be as dark-complected as the other. Both, she said, appeared to be either Indians or gypsies and they came in a red, pick-up truck.

Another incident occurred in Manchester township recently when a woman reported to the Sheriff's Department the theft of household goods valued at $110 after two women appeared at her doorway - selling manufactured flowers. When she declined to make a purchase the women entered her house and began picking up household goods and placing them in a basket, she said.

The Sheriff's Department said it does not have too many calls of this nature in the winter but advised householders to watch closely any strangers who attempt to enter their house. Also, if suspicious strangers appear at the doorway it would be a good idea to note the year and model of their car and the car license. These should be reported immediately to the Sheriff's Department.

The last time gypsies appeared in this area, according to officers was last spring when a large band of them gathered at Bruin Lake to mourn the death of their "king."

It was not known whether the two strange women who appeared in this area were so-called "gypsies" or panhandlers. Many times, the Sheriff's Department said, various types of "gyp-artists" are lumped into the general category of "gypsies."

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reed and son, James, attended the wedding of Karen Laffin of Grass Lake, and Wendell Crites of Albion, Saturday morning at St. John's Catholic church at Albion. They also attended the wedding reception held at the Armory there Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. John Fischer Honored Sunday on 90th Birthday

Open House for relatives and friends, held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kelly in Livonia, was an observance of the 90th birthday of Mrs. John Fischer, grandmother of Mrs. Kelly and a resident of the Four Mile Lake area for the past 79 years.

The former Hattie Spiegelberg, she moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Spiegelberg, from North Amherst, O., to the present Dale Lindemann farm home when she was 11 years old. Since her marriage, March 7, 1901, the family home was at 3101 North Lima Center Rd. until her smaller home was built next door 20 years ago. For the past year, however, she has been staying in the bigger house which is now the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fischer.

In addition to the son, Mrs. Fischer's family includes a daughter, six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

The daughter, the former Mabel Fischer, could not be present for the birthday celebration. Her husband, W. H. Ketz, professor of physical education at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., is now traveling throughout the United States visiting all smaller colleges for a survey of physical education facilities which is to be included in a report to President Kennedy.

Mrs. Ketz is accompanying him on the tour.

Mrs. Fischer's birthday was Saturday, Feb. 10, and members of the Lima Center Extension club, of which she has been a member for many years, gave her a card shower. Many other friends also remembered her with cards and greetings.

Mrs. Fischer is a member of the Evangelical United Brethren church at Ann Arbor.

Michigan Methodists Launch $3 Million Fund Campaign

A $3,000,000 capital funds campaign to provide financial assistance for urgent church extension and pressing higher education needs will be conducted by the Methodist churches of Michigan, Feb. 25-March 18, it has been announced by Bishop Marshall R. Reed, resident bishop of the Michigan Area.

Two million dollars of the overall goal, according to Bishop Reed, will be used to help finance building programs for 60 Michigan communities requiring new churches and 132 present congregations in need of enlarged facilities.

Albion and Adrian Colleges will receive equal $400,000 shares of the $1,000,000 in funds earmarked for higher education. By agreement with the churches, earnings on the gifts will be used for scholarship purposes to help meet the increasing need for student financial assistance. The remaining $200,000 will be dedicated to the building program of Garrett Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill.

On Feb. 18, ministers of both the Detroit and Michigan conferences will participate in a statewide exchange of pulpits with sermons devoted to the importance of the Methodist colleges and Church Extension Crusade. March 18, closing date for the campaign, will be designated as "Victory Sunday" for all congregations in the Michigan Area.

The Rev. Jesse Epps of Manchester will be guest speaker at the 10:00 a.m. worship service Sunday in the First Methodist church here. The Rev. S. D. Kinde will speak in Manchester.

The Chelsea Methodist church has voted to accept its share of the campaign and will include the asking in their yearly budget rather than in a special asking. They plan to follow the program by using printed materials for distribution to the congregation as a means of information.

Wood said his office hours for the period Feb. 16-27, will be 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., including Saturdays.

Wednesday, Feb. 28, the office will remain open until 8 p.m. for the convenience of the public, Wood said.

On Feb. 18 Wood will take a supply of plates to Dexter where they will be on sale at the Alfred Gross Ford Service from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m.

Sale of plates at Dexter, Wood pointed out, is part of the "community service" program instituted by Secretary of State James M. Hare for the convenience of residents of areas that do not have a permanent "Secretary of State branch office."

The Feb. 17 service will be the fourth and final one at Dexter this year, according to Wood, Chelsea-branch manager.

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

January 16, 1962
Council Room
Regular Session.
This meeting was called to order by Pres. Daniels at 8:00 p.m. Trustees present: Baldwin, Barr, Chandler, Clark, Lixey and Paul. Invocation by Mr. Harold Bilotta of the Assembly of God Church. The minutes of the Regular Session of January 2, 1962 were read and approved.

A discussion was held with Mr. Robert Wilgong of Finkbeiner, Pettis and Strout regarding the survey of possible sanitary sewer construction for the Freer Road area. Three proposals ranging from $20,000.00 to $57,000.00 were submitted for discussion. No official action was taken.

RESOLUTION DIRECTING PETITION TO WASHTENAW COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS TO ALTER THE BOUNDARIES OF THE VILLAGE OF CHELSEA, MICH.

WHEREAS, the property owners in the area hereinafter described have petitioned the council of the Village of Chelsea to alter the boundaries of said Village to include said premises;

WHEREAS, said area is immediately adjacent to the present Village north boundary and extends easterly from the center line of Highway M-92 as recently located, said area being well adaptable to both present and future economic development of the affected area;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED AND IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, that a petition be addressed to the Board of Supervisors for the County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, requesting that the northern boundary of the Village of Chelsea be altered to include the premises described and that said petition should be executed by and in behalf of the Village of Chelsea by its president and clerk, and in accordance with the provision of Section 5.1470 Michigan Statutes

At this time President Daniels stepped down and the following motion was submitted:

Motion by Chandler, supported by Clark that Pres. Pro-Tem Harvey Lixey assume direction of the annexation discussion. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried. Motion by Barr, supported by Clark that the foregoing annexation resolution be adopted. Roll call: Yeas Barr, Chandler, Clark, and Paul. Nays Baldwin. Motion carried. A petition was filed by the Chelsea School District requesting the extension of the northern Village boundaries from its present line to include the site and lands of the said school district for its North Elementary School.

Motion by Baldwin supported by Chandler, that the petition for the annexation of the North Elementary School property be tabled for further study. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Clark, supported by Paul, to increase the travel allowance now allowed the Sewage Treatment Operator from $150.00 to $200.00 per year for the daily maintenance of the two lift stations. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Clark, supported by Barr, to authorize the expenditure of $12.00 for the chemistry course to be attended by Sewage Treatment Operator, Melvin Leach. This amount to be paid from the Sewage Service Fund of the Chelsea Electric and Water Department. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Councilman Baldwin informed the Council of a special meeting of the Council of the Civil Defense Department heads. This special meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, February 14, at 7:30 in the Council Room.

Mr. Baldwin notified the Council that he wished to be put on record, that had he been present at the last Council meeting, he would have opposed the request for annexation of the property to the South of the Village.

It was mentioned that there seems to be some misunderstanding regarding the annexation request for the property to the South of the Village limits. To clarify one point it was suggested that mention be made regarding the possible construction of sewer lines to service this area. Any sewer lines that may be constructed will be the responsibility of the land owners involved and money for this construction would be put into escrow by the aforementioned owners before construction could begin. Any construction of sewer lines however, would be under the supervision of the Village Engineers, Finkbeiner, Pettis, and Strout.

The Red Cross class is scheduled to be held at the North Elementary School, each Thursday in February and the first Thursday in March at 7:00 p.m.

Motion by Clark, supported by Baldwin, to authorize and direct the Clerk to issue checks in payment of bills as submitted. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

General Fund $5,526.22
Sewage Treatment Fund 116.22

Motion by Chandler, supported by Paul to adjourn the meeting. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned.
Approved: Feb. 6, 1962.

Robert L. Daniels, President.
George L. Winans, Clerk.

Con-Voces Approval for Marking of State Funds

Michigan's Constitutional Convention has given preliminary approval to a proposal for continued "earmarking" of state funds for highway construction and other purposes.

Highway Commissioner George M. Maki, however, has an amendment tacked onto the proposal which would allow the use of millions of dollars of state funds for other purposes. The amendment would leave it to the state legislature to define the purposes.

Maki said the amendment would eventually allow "earmarked" road funds to be used for highway patrol and driver education classes. The "earmarking" provision originally adopted by the voters in 1958, that all money imposed "directly or indirectly upon gasoline and like fuels or used to propel motor vehicles" be used for highways.

The action, taken in committee, was to be re-affirmed at a later vote. But there was indication delegates would change their mind.

Music Festival...

Eastern plays host this year to the largest festival ever sponsored by District 12, with 1,000 events to be judged by 88 music adjudicators, beginning at 8 a.m. Saturday morning and continuing throughout the day until 5:45 p.m. The increased size of the 1962 festival has necessitated the assigning of four events to the Ypsilanti High school, with Allan Townsend, band director of the high school, supervising. In addition to Ypsilanti High, events will be held in Alexander Music Hall, Pease Auditorium, McKenny Hall, Welch Hall, Strohn Hall, Roosevelt High school and in the Rackham school.

Winners of first division ratings on the high school level will be eligible to enter the state Solo and Ensemble Instrumental Festival in Grand Rapids, March 31. The administration of the Festival, which is open to the public, is under the guidance of Robert Biederwolf, band director at Lincoln High school, who is president of District 12; Paul Richmond, band director at Willow Run High school, who is general chairman of the entire festival; and Dr. Maurice W. Riley, of the Eastern Michigan faculty, who is host chairman in charge of local facilities and arrangements.

DELEGATES to the Constitutional Convention hear from their constituents back home — and on a regular basis — as evidenced by the mail received by these three delegates. Mrs. Katherine Cushman (D-Deerborn) is amused by the address on one of her letters and shows it to Garry E.

Brown, left, (R-Schoolcraft) and Rockwell T. Gust, Jr. (R-Grosse Pointe Farms). The volume of mail delegates receive daily indicates there is great interest among many citizens as to the content of Michigan's new Constitution.

Ready access to a person's blood type can often mean the difference between the life or death of an accident victim. Secretary of State James M. Hare points out.

Although there is no state law requiring it, Michigan driver's licenses have a line on the back where a motorist's blood type may be recorded.

"During recent weeks, several doctors have suggested that licensed drivers should attempt to determine their blood type and record it on their driver's license," Hare said.

Red Cross officials told Hare they tell every blood donor what type of blood he has but they do not have facilities to provide this service for non-donors. Most private physicians, however, can provide a patient with this information.

"I have never held county office, but have been troubled with nervousness and handshaking, so feel I am well qualified. I was operated on 2 months ago for appendicitis, so feel I am cut out for the duties required. I have had 14 teeth pulled to see if it would help me in the votes. I have gained 40 pounds and hundreds of votes and am feeling like a new man."

"While it has been impossible for me to see all the voters personally, I will say that this has been a Godsend to me and I will appreciate your vote and 2 bottles of your magic tonic."

Ed Doolittle said the storekeeper made him recollect the country editor that ran the paper over in his county when Ed was a boy. According to Ed, the paper came out occasional and sometimes often. It came out only when the editor got tired up about something.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Former Governor Brucker Blasts U.S. Foreign Policy

Former Republican Governor Wilbur M. Brucker hit hard at what he called "naive, amateurish" handling of foreign policy by the present administration in a Lincoln Day address Monday evening in University of Michigan Union, Ann Arbor.

Speaking at the annual Washington county Republican-Lincoln Day banquet Brucker tossed bricks at the Kennedy administration for its handling of situations in Cuba, Berlin and Laos. He took President Kennedy to task for allowing East Berliners to seal off East and West Berlin, with the present controversial wall of concrete and barbed wire stating, "The confidence of everyone in the Free World was shaken" when the wall went up.

Turning to Cuba he said it was time to "brush the dust off the Monroe Doctrine" and take a second look at our handling of this situation.

Particularly, the former governor asked for a reappraisal of foreign aid spending to Latin American nations, who are not entirely friendly with our feeling to Cuba and Premier Fidel Castro. He listed these nations and the amount of foreign aid given to them as: Chile, $512 million; Argentina, $537 million; Mexico, $630 million; Brazil, $1 billion 700 million.

He added that any foreign aid money going to South America should be tied in with assurances that the "little fellow" should get his share and that the money would not be used as a "happy hunting ground" for Russian Communists.

His last shot on foreign policy was parried at administration handling of the Laos situation in Indo-China where the United

Health Official Says No Rabies Clinics This Year

"Numerous inquiries concerning annual rabies vaccination clinics are still being received by the health department," says Dr. Otto K. Engelke, Washtenaw county health officer.

"As has been stated in previous releases by Dr. George Bowler, public health veterinarian, there will not be vaccination clinics this year due to the fact that the vaccine used during the 1961 clinics is good for two years."

"At the time the dogs were vaccinated last year, the dog owner was given a vaccination certificate stating that his dog was protected for two years," said Dr. Engelke. "These vaccination certificates are now being recognized by township and village treasurers as proof that the dogs are vaccinated for the purpose of licensing."

Dr. Engelke reminded people owning dogs that March 1 is the deadline for purchasing licenses without paying a penalty for late licensure.

"Before March 1 licenses may be purchased from township and village treasurers; after March 1 they can be purchased only from the county treasurer," he concluded.

The new "Seal of Quality" law passed by the 1961 legislature can help producers identify quality products to the consumer, Joe E. Wells of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, said at the MSU Farmers' Week-Commodity groups may use the seal on any products grown, packaged and processed in Michigan.

ASC Committee Schedules Meeting On 1962 Programs

Mrs. Carolyn Stump, office manager, announces that the Washtenaw county ASC committee is scheduling an educational meeting on the 1962 Feed Grain program and the Agricultural Conservation program which will be held in room 1 of the Washtenaw county building at 8 p.m. Feb. 14.

Conservation practices are needed for carrying out soil, water, and woodland conservation on our Washtenaw county farms, it is stated.

Sign-up periods, allocation, and how the Federal government can help share the cost of these practices will be explained. All interested persons are urged to attend.

The traffic division listed one fatal accident with one person killed; 46 personal injury accidents in which 64 persons were injured; and 113 property damage accidents.

Total number of accidents is listed at 160 and total traffic violation summonses at 135.

The Driver's License Division issued a total of 1,313 licenses which included 38 duplicates, 932 operator renewals, 227 chauffeur renewals and 121 originals. Fees collected amounted to $3,471.25.

Juvenile Court Sights Need For Additional Foster Homes

Somewhere, at the time you are reading this, a child in Washtenaw county sits lonely and forlorn, looking for a home.

He is one of countless numbers of children who have been uprooted from their families by emergency. He needs a foster home, but there aren't enough of these homes to go around and he must wait until an understanding family takes him under their wing while the problems of his own family are being unwound.

Such is the problem now facing child-placing agencies in Washtenaw county—never enough homes to go around, especially for the older group of children, 12 to 19 years of age.

Because not enough families in Washtenaw county know of this need, children who ordinarily could or should be living with boarding parents are either remaining in hospitals, detention homes or are sent to institutions, away from this area.

Some children require care only during a brief emergency, some for several months, and others for longer periods. Still others remain in foster homes until they become self-supporting.

A volunteer group, the Inter-Agency Foster Home Committee, is working on the problem, trying to equalize the proportion of children needing foster homes and those that are able to give them a home.

This group is composed of eight members who meet periodically to discuss their problems. The members are: Miss Janet Robinson, social worker, Ypsilanti State Hospital; Mrs. Ruth Byers, social worker, State Department of Social Welfare; Mrs. Janet Burton, social worker, Catholic Social Services; Mrs. Edna McFarlin, visiting teacher, Willow Run district; Mrs. Berenice Glass, social worker, Michigan Children's Aid Society; Mrs. Mary Wickert, social worker; Mrs. Saranne Rohuis, social worker; and Miss Wilma Wheeler, social worker, Juvenile Court.

Each of these workers, working within their respective agencies, have referrals of children who, through a family financial emergency, sickness, etc., have need of a foster home. It is the job of the Inter-Agency Foster Home committee, then, to see if a home can be found for them.

Foster home parents are compensated for their efforts in boarding children, not well, as this is not a "profit-making venture," but in general all of the foster children's expenses, including clothing and medical, are taken care of.

How long the foster child will remain in the home will depend upon the circumstance. The attitude of the agency is that the situation is a temporary one and somehow the child will be reunited with his family again once the emergency passes. In some cases, however, where the family's problems cannot be resolved, the child may stay in the home until he is self-supporting.

A child is not taken into a foster home until assurances have been reached that he will fit into the home life and become a part of the family.

That is the reason that a thorough study is made of any home where a foster child is to be placed. A social worker will visit the home and go over in detailed fashion what is expected of the foster parents and what they should be prepared for. All of the preferences of the foster parents, in regard to age, sex, etc., are carefully listed and then a foster child who comes up to these requirements is referred to the home.

Many foster children are placed in homes where there are already children. In this case the agency happily reports that in nearly all instances the foster children get along well with the regular children of the family.

However, where foster children are to be placed in a home where there are already children, a thorough study is made of the family life to make sure that the "new" children will fit into the home pattern.

Once a placement is made the situation does not end there. The social workers are always available for professional advice and the foster parents are invited to bring their problems to the agency for solution.

Sometimes, not very often, a foster child does not "fit in" to a foster home. In that case the parents are not under obligation to continue the care of the child. However, before a decision of such magnitude is reached, the parents are advised to talk their problems over very carefully with the agency.

How do you apply to come under the foster home program? Your first start will be to write to the Foster Home Inter-Agency Committee of Washtenaw county, Post Office Box 157, Ann Arbor. From that point on a representative of the committee will get in touch with you to talk over your wishes. The rest will be up to you.

Mrs. Daniels is library and literature chairman of the Washtenaw County Denary of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women. Her talk stressed the responsibility of Christian women, in particular, for discouraging their own children from buying literature — magazines, comics, books, etc. — of questionable decency.

Mrs. Daniels also said that the entire community has a definite responsibility in this respect since it has been pointed out by law enforcement agencies that a majority of the young people who become involved with the law because of misdemeanors and actual crimes are readers of this type of literature.

Following Mrs. Daniels' talk, refreshments were served by a committee of which Mrs. Henry LaRose was chairman.

The March 7 meeting will be held at the school hall following the Ash Wednesday service at St. Mary's Catholic church.

THE LETTERBOX

Lemon Grove, California
Feb. 6, 1962

The Chelsea Standard
Chelsea, Mich.

An open letter to the Editor of The Chelsea Standard and to all my Chelsea friends.

This poem appeared in the San Diego Evening Tribune, Jan. 20, 1962, and it expresses my sentiments so succinctly.

DON'T CHOOSE PAGO PAGO, JUST COME TO SAN DIEGO

Editor: We moved here from Baltimore, Md., last July. Here's a verse I wrote about San Diego: When I came to the great Southwest, I noted no mosquito pest. I noted many a tree of green? (This is the crape-jet I've seen.) I thought the coast was broad and wide, With no steep hills and their divide. I thought the people burned their papers (Instead of all these garbage capers.) I thought in summer 'twould be hot (The things I thought, I find are not.) I thought I'd need no woolen sweaters, I never thought I'd so love letters. I'd no idea 'twould be so nice. Aside from absent snow and ice, I'm quite impressed with—Ti Juana—(I think I'll go again manana.) Balboa Park, with trees prolific And its menagerie, terrific. (From Florida a difference greater—We have no swamp or alligator.) On Soledad—to be specific—A dreamy view of the Pacific. The Navy guys on Broadway tarry; To eye the dolls—perhaps they'll marry? It's really neat, this springtime ever, So, all your roots back there just sever. And please don't move to Pago Pago. Just come on down to San Diego.

BOYS PHYSICAL EDUCATION
Mr. Taylor's Boys physical education classes have just finished a unit in tumbling skills. At this time the classes are having bowling along with Mrs. Bach's girls physical education classes. The first week of the six-week period was spent on basic fundamentals, including how to score and ball selection, along with manner of approach. The boys practiced this in the balcony on mats the second and third weeks. The last two weeks of the six-week period was spent at the bowling alley. After this unit in bowling the boys will proceed with units on basketball and wrestling.

SPEECH AND ENGLISH TEACHER

Mrs. Sharp, who teaches Speech and English at Chelsea High came to us from St. Joseph, Mich., where she taught the same subjects. She has been an appreciated and helpful addition to the high school. Last year she directed the Junior Play "Good Night Ladies." She was also on the staff of "62" advisors and is now a senior class advisor. Right now Mrs. Sharp is measuring the senior girls for their graduation gowns.

When asked what she thought of the administration, faculty and student body, she said they were very co-operative and easy to work with. She enjoys speech because students make such quick progress. She also stated "It's rewarding when another teacher notices and mentions the improvement in his student since his student has taken speech."

SENIOR CLASS

The seniors have been getting measured for graduation robes. The boys measured by Mr. Smith and the girls measured by Mrs. Sharp. Some of the seniors have been preparing for graduation, and often, in other ways. The senior members of Annual staff have made up little sayings to go with the pictures. The seniors baby pictures have also been collected for the annual. At this time many seniors are filling out applications to college and universities. Many have already taken entrance exams and have been accepted. Some of the seniors are and have been taking tests towards scholarships. Those students that are not going on to higher schooling have been applying for jobs in town. But all seniors are looking forward to the trip to New York, and graduation activities.

On Feb. 8 about 20 students in the senior class met during the afternoon to discuss with the company they should take the trip from. This trip club committee met fourth through seventh hour in the Board room in the office trying to get the best offer.

The senior stand at the basketball games have been prosperous under the direction of Al Schauer and Bud Schramm. There're only a few games left for the seniors to make money on, but if they are as good as the others, the seniors will do just fine. The senior stand at the games has been one of the seniors best money-making projects. It has contributed greatly towards the trip club fund. The seniors would like to express their appreciation towards the directors for all the stand projects. You've done a good job.

HOME EC I.

Girls in Home Ec. I have been studying Child Care. It was very interesting and worth studying, the girls say.

They learned how to make baby sitting more interesting, and fun for both children and sitter.

How to give a party for a youngster was on the list of studies.

Also how to feed, bathe, and general care of the children.

At the present the girls are talking about grooming. This month sometime the girls are supposed to start sewing.

Girls in Home Ec. II have been studying sewing. They have been making different things for themselves such as skirts, and dresses. They'll probably be sewing until the end of February.

Before studying sewing the girls were working on budgets. This is very good training for the girls, because they'll be able to budget their money more wisely. While they're in school as well as after graduation and marriage.

Also they may have to have money in college for clothes or other necessities. Learning to budget their money will help them out considerably.

FRENCH I

Mrs. Eckstrom's French I classes are studying the second and third conjugations. They are learning the endings for the second and third conjugations and examples of each. They are also studying the conjugation of irregular verbs. Vocabulary is being learned and the classes are now able to make-up sentences using the new vocabulary. After learning new vocabulary and conjugations, the students answer questions in French and do the exercises in the book.

Questions form, such as who, what, when and where and why have also been studied. The classes are also translating lectures and compositions and acting out skits that are written in French. Various times during class all speaking that is done is done in French. This enables the students to learn to speak fluently. The language laboratory is also used during class time.

OFFICE PRACTICE

Mr. Morrison's Office Practice classes are working on office machines practice sets. This trains them to greet the business world after graduation. Since there aren't enough machines for everyone to have one every day they have been assigned numbers. When they aren't working on a machine they are either typing or working over in the office.

WORLD HISTORY

Mr. Prinzing's two World History classes have started the second semester by being introduced to such people as Napoleon and Charlemagne who were important in the history of France.

Mr. Prinzing showed the class pictures of the huge and beautiful Palace of Versailles and other important things he saw while he was in the army in France.

The classes are presently talking about France's important part in World Wars I and II.

ENGLISH AND LATIN TEACHER

Mr. Alfred Smith, one of the faculty members of Chelsea High, came from Ohio five years ago. He did not teach in any other school before he came to the Chelsea Schools. He enjoys Chelsea very much.

Mr. Smith is the teacher of Latin I and II and also English IV.

There is never a dull moment for this man. He sponsors the Latin club and is one of the advisors for the Senior class.

As he was interviewed Mr. Smith started to tell what he thought of CHS and the students. It was very pleasing to hear what he had to say. He stated that the whole faculty, members and student body were pleasant to work with, and also the students have more manners and show more respect for their teachers than any other school around.

Speaking for all of the students of CHS, Mr. Smith is well liked by all and is always ready to help someone out when they are in need.

SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHER

Mr. Bedford came from Millard, Mich., and taught school at Stockbridge for two years. Since he has moved here to Chelsea, he is so very pleased with the students and the school board because all the people of Chelsea are so friendly and very nice.

Along with teaching Government, American History and Sociology he finds time for sports. Last summer he was able to work for the Air Lines. He really enjoyed it because he likes planes and enjoys flying them. Also concerning sports, Mr. Bedford is a coach for 7th and 8th grade boys at Chelsea Junior High.

Mr. Bedford has made many friends since he has moved to Chelsea. He is liked by all and I hope his stay will be a great one.

SOLID GEOMETRY

Mr. Cowell's class second hour is a 1/2 semester subject. Since a new semester has started the students are just getting their books and really haven't begun to get into the chapters consisting of Solid Geometry. So this is just a little about Chapter One and what they have been doing.

Chapter I is all about the "Depth-Perception" concerning solid objects on a plain piece of paper. The students have also been studying "Propositions" concerning plain Geometry, (just reviewing mostly).

Extra Trains Routed Through Chelsea After Wreck in Indiana

From 2 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday, a record number of trains passed through Chelsea giving Robert Davine, station agent a real "work-out" and older residents a nostalgic reminder of former days when 27 trains in 13 hours was not unheard of.

The reason for the extra traffic was a train wreck at Lionior, Ind., with resultant rerouting of New York Central trains via Toledo, Detroit, Jackson and thence back to the original route at Elkhart, Ind.

A complication arose here because of a broken rail near Hayes St. and brief derailment of a freight engine. The freight engine was quickly pulled back on the track but the broken rail was not completely repaired until 7 a.m., five hours after the break occurred.

One train was routed past the broken rail on the eastbound track but all other trains were held up and behind schedule for as much as two and three hours before the rail repair was completed.

Feb. 13, 1 to 3 p.m., Ann Arbor, County Building, Room 117A; Feb. 14, 1 to 3 p.m., Rows Corners; Feb. 14, 7:30 to 9 p.m., Ann Arbor, County Building, Room 2.

ON RESERVISTS' RIGHTS

A nation-wide campaign by the Defense Department is underway in behalf of reservists to protect them against job discrimination and price and rent cheating.

The prompt action is to ward off any sudden spiral of prices which occurred during the last War and the Korean War. The Pentagon has been in touch with the Labor Department, other agencies to determine protection can be developed.

1962 CHEVROLET JOBMMASTER TRUCKS

built better...work longer!

When Chevrolet builds a truck, it builds a quality truck. This policy makes sense. Chevrolet trucks work a long time...cost less than many other makes to operate and maintain over the years...consistently bring a higher trade-in price...and, as a result, are bought by more people.

We invite you to come in and examine this quality closely and to take a 1962 demonstrator out for a good long test drive. Note the cab comfort, the good visibility, the smooth ride, the solid feel of its quality. Compare Chevrolet truck features with those of other makes. Then decide which are your wisest investment. We're sure it will be Chevrolet's.

Note how this Chevrolet cab roof is made of two sheets of metal, instead of one, with a layer of foam in between as insulation against cold, heat and noise.
Chevrolet truck tailgate is sturdier because it has double-wall construction and strong steel chains in tough rubber casing to support it.
Quality Independent front suspension fights road shock more effectively than other types—provides more protection for the truck, load and driver.
The standard 235-cu.-in. 6-cylinder Chevrolet truck engine has worked more miles than any other. There are nine more engines to choose from.

See your Chevrolet dealer for trucks that keep running and running!
