SCHOOL ELECTORS VOTE MONDAY ON MILLAGE

Track Team Wins Fourth in Central Relays

Dave McLaughlin Outstanding Athlete of Meet

Friday, May 4, a six-man Chelsea High school track squad placed a fourth place finish in the Central Relays at Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

The fourth place finish was the best in any large meet in the history of Chelsea High school.

Leading the Bulldogs in the competition with the finest class B athlete in the state was Dave McLaughlin. Dave, who seems to be going against good competition in a new Central-Relay record of 1:20.4 in the 120-yd. high hurdles as he broke the old record of 1:22.5 set by Bob Sherman of Burton in 1960.

Dave also flashed home first in 150-yd. low hurdles in the evening time of 1:38.8 seconds. This is McLaughlin's best time in the event, and, of course, established a Chelsea school record.

McLaughlin also picked up a place finish in the shot-put with a heave of 48 ft. 3/4 in.

The vaulter, Larry Cattell, finished in second place, 11 ft. 11 in. This accomplishment is even outstanding when one learns that only one vault of the 75 started in event defeated the huge entry in the pole vault. It was necessary to take more than four hours to run the vault events to its conclusion.

The shuttle hurdle relay of Jim Maynard, Larry Cattell, Mike Schrader and Dave McLaughlin placed second place and eight points. The winner of this relay was River Rouge. The Bulldogs' time was 1:01.7 compared to River Rouge's 1:00.2.

Even though he didn't score, Maynard finished sixth in the 150-yd. high hurdles in the time 1:59 seconds. Points are awarded

Kindergarten Round-Up Set May 18

Friday, May 18, (next week) is the date for the "kindergarten roundup" at South Elementary school.

Originally scheduled for tomorrow, the postponement was necessary because there is no school tomorrow.

Rural children who will be entering kindergarten next fall should be brought to the school, accompanied by a parent, Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

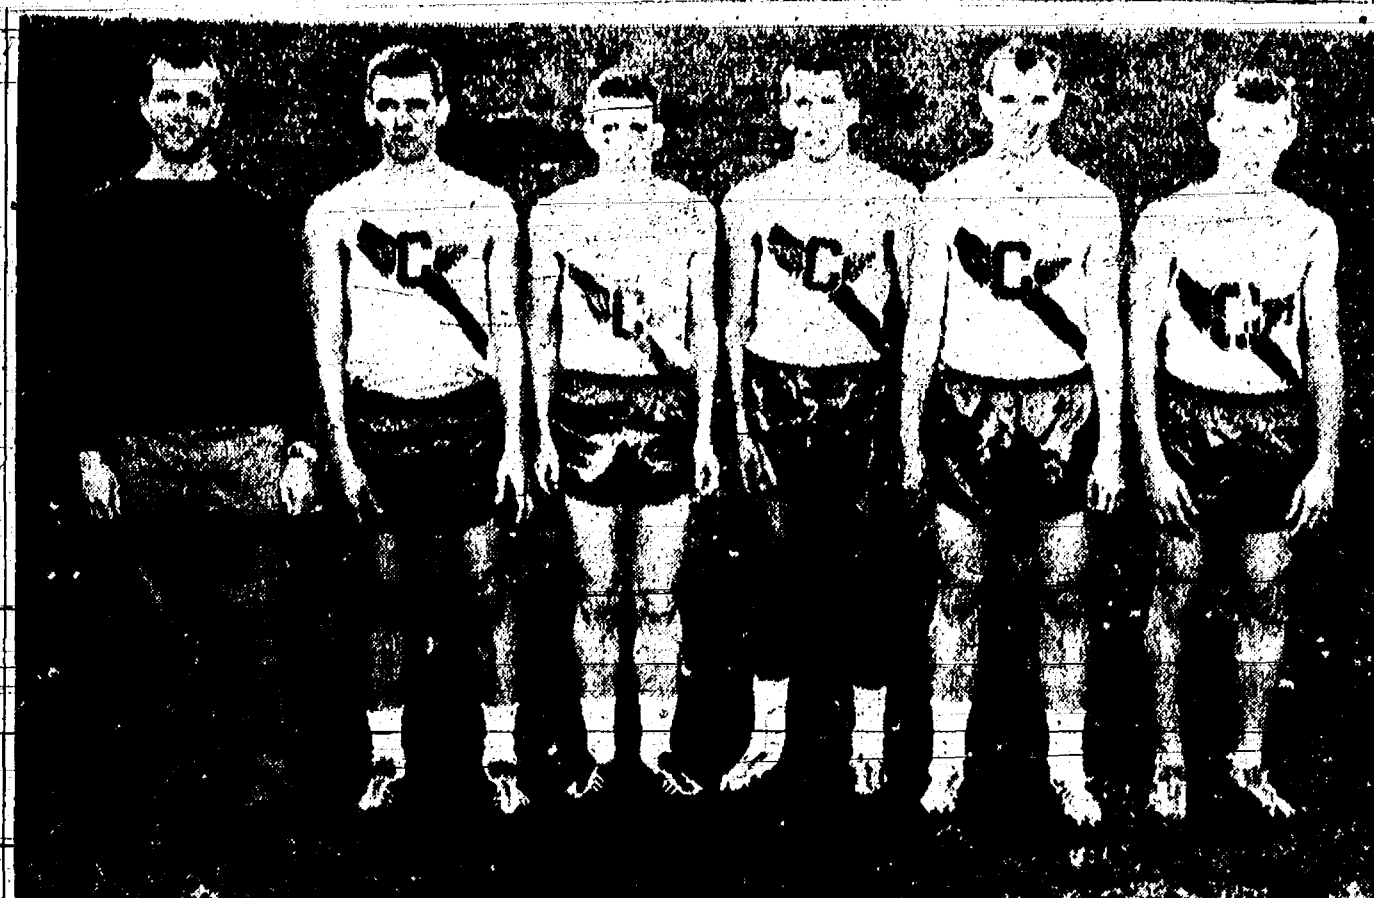

Prospective kindergartners in town and their parents are scheduled to come to the school for the afternoon session beginning at 1 p.m.

Present kindergartners will not attend school that day.

Mrs. Evelyn Hägg, the school secretary, will be prepared to help parents with health forms and enrollment of children. Parents should be prepared with data as to exact location of residence so that routes for school bus drivers may be arranged.

The kindergarten teachers—Mrs. Lucille Kelly, Mrs. Bernice Packard, Mrs. Joyce Cammell and Mrs. Helen Hunter—will be present to show the youngsters what they will be doing when they go to school next fall; they will also talk with the parents while the children are cared for otherwise.

Wayne Brigham, visiting teacher of the Washtenaw county special education department; Rosemary Irving, speech correctionist for the school district; and Mrs. Ellen Abbe, public health nurse with the Washtenaw county Health Department, all will spend the day at the school to explain to parents the functions and duties of their respective positions as related to kindergartners.

Leon Chapman Injured in Power Mower Accident

Leon Chapman is at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, with more than an even chance of saving two fingers of his right hand which were severed by a power lawnmower and replaced in an operation performed immediately after the accident by Dr. Charles Krause.

The index finger and the middle finger were severed at the second joint, the index finger completely off and the middle finger dangling. Immediately after the mishap, Chapman rushed to the doctor's office next door.

According to reports of the accident Chapman was mowing a rotary type power lawnmower for delivery to a customer when a piece of metal "dropped" it was while attempting to catch the metal before it struck the blades that his fingers were severed.

Chapman also suffered a deep laceration on the inside of his thumb. It is expected Chapman will have to remain at the hospital for several weeks and there is a possibility further surgery will be required.

Total Tax Levy Will Still Be Less Than This Year

Monday, May 14, Chelsea School District electors are to vote on the Chelsea School Board's request for approval of a two-mill operational levy. The election will be held in the Junior High school gymnasium from 1 p.m. until 8 p.m.

In the past four weeks, the School Board has explained fully the need for the two-mill levy and at the same time has shown by tables and figures published in The Standard that there will be an actual decrease, ($14,357 for instance, in Sylvan township) for school taxes in 1962-63 in spite of the two-mill levy request.

The School Board was unanimous in its decision to request approval of the two-mill operational levy.

In announcing the need for the two-mill levy the Board of Education stated that "the approval of the two mills for operation will prevent the district operating a deficit budget. The total millage next year, including the two voted mills, will be two mills less than were levied this year. The tax decrease next year will be the same as the tax increase this year, including the two voted mills for next year."

"The tax levy for 1961-62 was 11.5 mills for operation; 1.0 mill for North Elementary debt retirement fund; 4.5 mills for High school debt retirement fund; the total being 17 mills.

"The levy for 1962-63 is 10.5 mills for operation and 4.5 mills for the High school debt retirement fund; but there is no levy for North Elementary school, the total being 15 mills."

In an effort to fully inform the people of the district, board members have accepted invitations to club meetings to answer questions on all phases of the proposal and give facts and figures on the school budget of $661,727 for 1962-63, as compared to $668,246 for 1961-62.

Official notice of the school election appears on page 10 of this issue of The Standard, giving full information as to persons eligible to vote and time and place of the election.

Mrs. Floyd Rowe is spending today with her sister, Miss Sarah Benter at her home at Francisco.

GIRL SCOUT BIRTHDAY ROSE BUSHES

Girl Scouts of Troop 196 and 77, Brownies of Troop 88 and the former Marine Ship 71 group of Girl Scouts were represented in the group who planted Girl Scout Birthday roses last Thursday. The rose-planting had been scheduled for last year in the Girl Scouts 50th Anniversary Heritage Program; the rose bushes did not arrive, however, and so the planting was delayed until this year. The yellow roses, developed especially for the Girl Scout anniversary by the Jackson & Perkins Nursery, have been given the name "Girl Scout Rose." Four of the bushes were planted at Chelsea High school—two by Troop 77, Mrs. Wilber Worden leader; one by Troop 196, Mrs. Jack Fitzsimmons and Mrs. Donald Knoll, leaders; and one by Sue Eisenbeiser for the former Marine Ship 71 group, which she graduated last year. Sue also planted one of the bushes at Veterans Memorial Park as a representative of her former group, and Brownies of Troop 88 whose leaders are Mrs. Carl Elkins, Mrs. Warren Eisenbeiser and Sue Eisenbeiser, also planted a rose at the park. The rose planting was a Girl Scout project throughout the nation for the purpose of providing vast numbers of golden blossoms for 1962, the golden anniversary year of Girl Scouting.

FROM THE GOVERNOR'S CHAIR

By John B. Swanson

During the past few months I have reported to you on developments in the legislative process of the well-being of the people of Michigan.

Because the problem of putting our state on a sound financial basis through fiscal reform is so important, I want to report to you today where we stand now and where we go from here.

As you know, when this session of the legislature opened, I presented a tax reform program that I felt would take us in the direction that people of Michigan wished to travel. It was a program with two basic points: correcting the unfairness in certain areas of business taxation, and a fair distribution of the tax burden on our citizens by reducing the price of food by 4 percent through lifting the sales tax on groceries.

Responsible legislators from both political parties worked together to seek agreement on the fundamental fact that Michigan needed tax reform—and, finally, a victory was won when a tax measure passed the state Senate.

It was not everything I wanted. It was not everything others wanted. But it was a first step forward, a step in the right direction.

But the victory was short lived. Within hours the invisible government which has for so long exercised its sinister influence over the majority of the state legislature, set to work. Minor points suddenly became major principles. Objections were voiced where none had been voiced before.

Despite the fact that my tax program and the bipartisan substitute ideas had been reached after consultation with every segment of the community.

Now in Lansing, I have seen lobbying as intense as I have ever seen. Lobbying as desperate as the lobbying witnessed during that period following Senate approval of the fiscal reform measure.

Somewhere, someone or some group hit the public button. Somewhere it was decided that the people who call the tone in Michigan.

I have, therefore, asked the attorney general of Michigan to launch immediately a full-scale investigation of the lobbying against fiscal reform that took place in Lansing.

I am not making any pre-determination of the facts, nor am I casting any suspicion on the honesty, integrity or dedication of a single member of the Senate—of either party—those who remained firm or those who switched their votes.

What I am concerned about is the kind of lobbying activities that take place, the source of the funds that support these activities, and the motives that inspire those who engage in these activities.

There is no room in our state for an invisible government. If we are to have a private government of non-elected officials—responsible only to a group of secret operators—we must at least see their faces so that they may be engaged in legitimate political combat.

Michigan has a bright future. I shall not permit the promise of that future to be squandered.

There are 400 research projects being conducted by the Medical School at the University of Michigan.

DELEGATES FAVOR WARM WEATHER—The first touch of warm weather of the spring was welcomed by Constitutional Convention delegates who have just completed their seventh month of the rewriting of Michigan's constitution. Taking to the open air to discuss a Convention problem are Lewis Hubbs (R-Gladwin), Nick Rajkovich (R-Traverse City) and James Sterrett (R-Detroit).

Michigan offers industry the greatest pool of labor skills and management know-how to be found anywhere.

Governments, like churches, exist for people. Those who turn the management around find out their mistake in time.

GRAND OPENING—Gimmey's Standard Service station on South Main St. next to Pierce is having a grand opening this week-end—Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Featuring the most up-to-date equipment, the modern style building presents an attractive appearance. Treats for children, door prizes and refreshments are planned as part of the special event.

Personal Notes

Saturday guests at the home of Mrs. Floyd Rowe were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Benter of Waterloo. Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Barber of Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. McClure returned Sunday from a visit with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Protege Hopkins, and Mrs. Vernon Cohn. They left Chelsea on Friday, April 27.

Electronic TV Watchdog Guiding Freeway Motorists

Lansing—An experiment in the control of freeway traffic by television began on Detroit's John C. Lodge Freeway on May 7.

State and local officials hope the system will bring a smoother, steadier flow of traffic on the six-lane freeway which is one of the world's busiest highways.

The system covers 3.2 miles of the Lodge Freeway between the Ford and Davidson interchanges. In this area, 14 television cameras mounted on overpasses scan the freeway, while 21 sets of recently installed overhead lane and speed control signals will control the flow of traffic and warn motorists of dangers ahead.

"This is the first large-scale application of television and traffic control signals for the direction of traffic on urban freeways," State Highway Commissioner John C. Mucke said.

"The closed-circuit television network tells us what is happening on the freeway while the control signals will permit us to close lanes and reduce speeds temporarily in response to traffic conditions."

Mucke said the overhead lane signals use green arrows and red X's to tell motorists which lanes are open for normal traffic and which are closed by congestion or traffic mishaps.

The illuminated speed signs tell drivers the most efficient speed to travel under existing traffic conditions.

The closed-circuit television system has been in operation for more than a year during which time traffic engineers have been studying driver behavior to determine how freeway designs affect traffic-carrying capacity.

Contract Awarded for Printing Highway Map

Lansing—Rand McNally & Co. of Skokie, Ill., was low bidder on a contract to print 600,000 copies of the 1962 Official State Highway Map, the State Highway Department reports.

The Rand McNally bid was $38,340, about 40 cents per thousand and less than the Highway Department paid for its 1961 maps.

The Highway Department said the 1962 map is expected to be off the presses and ready for distribution in May.

State Police Assist Many Stranded Freeway Motorists

Nearly 13,000 State Police assistants to motorists were recorded on expressway patrols last year in Michigan, according to a special department analysis just completed. This was a 26 percent increase compared with 1960.

The assistants were more than a fifth, or 21.8 percent, of the total of 59,570 made during 1961 by troopers on all roads.

Data on the assistants to motorists on the expressways revealed that the necessary service was performed or provided by the patrol in 10,294 instances, or in eight out of 10 cases. In the other 2,626, the patrol provided communications for obtaining service.

The assistance cases were as follows: For the vehicle, 3,636 motor trouble, 3,094 tire failure, 1,590 out of fuel, 833 other vehicle failure, and 380 stuck or mined. For directions, 3,084 for destination, 237 vehicle services, 213 food and lodging, and 180 miscellaneous.

The limited access features of the superhighways make it difficult for motorists to get help when in need.

The marriage of Lynne M. Fahrner of 17381 Boyce Rd., Gregory, and Dennis R. Clark of Pinckney, took place at a Nuptial High Mass at St. Mary's Catholic church at Pinckney at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

The Rev. Fr. George P. Horkan, pastor of the church, officiated; the Mass was sung by the Eighth Grade choir.

The bride was given in marriage by a family friend, George Taxton of Gregory.

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white nylon lace over tulle, with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in pointed outline at the wrists. The fully-gathered skirt was attached to the fitted bodice in pointed outline at both front and back. Her ball-length veil was attached to a tiara of pearls and sequins and her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations.

The bridesmaids, Dorothy Doyle of Pinckney, was maid of honor and Nancy Brooks of Gregory and Karen Crawford of Fowlerville, were bridesmaids.

All were gowned alike in lilac color, styled with a high-necked lace bodice finished with wrist length sleeves and a semi-full skirt of chiffon over tulle. They wore matching hats.

The list continues with the following secretaries of the nine categories of interest as follows: Mrs. Ben Donaldson, Christian social relations; Mrs. Calvin Summers, promotion; Mrs. Edwin Gaunt, missionary education and service; Mrs. Arthur Schmunk, student work; Mrs. Louis Allen, youth work; Mrs. John Potts, children's work; Mrs. David Soule, spiritual life; Mrs. George Atkinson, literature and publications; Mrs. Dale Smith, supply work.

Mrs. Fannie Chambers presented the devotional service which opened the program period in charge of the Afternoon-Philathea Circle; the program topic was "Rich Toward God."

Mrs. Ada Wiebe, in a talk given during the program period, placed emphasis on the meaning of each of the words of the topic, explaining that the word "rich" not only means possession of money but includes time, talents, material possessions and opportunity. Mrs. Wiebe said none of these is an end in itself; each is valuable only in the way it is used.

"Toward," she explained, means in the direction of, or getting nearer to, while "God" is the destination.

Proper use of all possessions—time, talents, material wealth, etc.

is the way to draw nearer to God.

May 18 Deadline Set for Federal Crop Insurance

USDA Federal Crop Insurance officials have now set the closing date of May 18 for accepting applications under its 1962 insurance program offered on corn and soybeans.

Harold E. Willis of Battle Creek District Director for FCIC says that this action is in keeping with a long-established practice of not accepting additional liability when planting becomes general in the county.

Farmers already signed up have indicated active interest in the program because it meets their need to insure their "working capital" against the hazards of nature. Since it is "all-risk," it does not replace or conflict with any regular liability insurance being offered and is not available through private sources.

Farming is riskier than it used to be because a higher portion of an operator's capital goes into his crop. Federal Crop Insurance is designed to insure loss of capital costs of production—not against profits.

Most common crop losses experienced by farmers in this area are loss of yield or quality resulting from too much or too little rainfall.

End of Road In Sight This Fall for US-16

Lansing — One of Michigan's best-known highway route numbers — US-16 — will be removed from the Detroit-to-Muskegon highway by the end of the year, the State Highway Department reports.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said the route markers will be taken down late this fall when the final section of the new Detroit-Muskegon Freeway is opened to traffic.

At that time, US-16 will no longer exist in Michigan.

The Detroit-Muskegon Freeway is known as Interstate 96 between Detroit and Grand Rapids and Interstate 196 from Grand Rapids to Muskegon.

The final gap of the 180-mile freeway—between Brighton and Lansing—is scheduled to be opened to traffic by late November.

Highways between Detroit and Lake Michigan via Lansing and Grand Rapids have had the number in "16" ever since the State Highway Department began numbering routes in 1920.

From 1920 to 1926, the route number was known as State Trunk Line 16 and extended from Detroit to Grand Haven. The US route numbering system went into effect in 1926 and it was one of the few Michigan highways that kept its original number.

The western terminus of US-16 in Michigan was shifted from Grand Haven to Muskegon in the early 1930's.

US-16 stretches from Detroit to World, Wyo., a distance of 1,413 miles.

State Minimum Tillage Day Will Be Held Thursday Near Britton

The state Minimum Tillage Field Day is being held on Mueller Brothers farm in Lenawee county on May 10. The field day site is 2 miles east and 2 miles south of Britton. (Postponed from May 3 because of rain.)

During the day, a complete 40 acres of land will be plowed, fitted, and planted to corn, with fertilizer, herbicides, and insecticides also applied.

Demonstrations will feature all levels of minimum tillage practices, from conventional to plowing and planting as a single operation. Approximately 60 units will be experimental machines not yet available, to farmer-built units to do a specific job.

School Board Explains No For Millage to Kiwanians

Kiwanians had as their guests at Monday's dinner meeting the seven members of the Chelsea School Board—Howard Flintoft, S. R. Booker, Clarence Vogel, Arthur Kuhl, Paul Mann, Luther Kisterer and Robert Foster.

The latter three are members of the club and Foster was program chairman for the evening.

Foster introduced Booker who explained the circumstances which led the School Board to reach a decision to request a two-mill operational levy at an election scheduled for next Monday.

Booker said the Board had made a thorough study of the school program to determine where reductions were possible, coming to a decision to make reductions only on non-instructional budget items. Maintenance of an adequate educational program was the Board's utmost concern, Booker said.

A question and answer period followed during which it was explained, among other things, that actually, school taxes will be less than last year for each taxpayer.

In spite of the two-mill levy requested.

An out-of-town Kiwanian at Monday's meeting, held at social center of the Methodist church, was Dr. J. B. Jackson.

Floyd Fowler, Kiwanian sale chairman, announced details of the work schedule Mothers' Day flower sale held at Hilltop Plumbing Friday and Saturday.

Anton Nielsen announced for-club meeting and ladies at South Lyon, Monday, in celebration of the South club's 25th anniversary; several Chelsea couples will attend.

Mrs. David Bertke and Heather, of Idaho Falls, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Roy Bertke while Lieutenant (J.G.) Bertke is in a special training course at the Westinghouse Corp. at Burgh, Pa. Lieutenant Bertke join them here next week.

Good Relief Hurling Helps Chelsea Win Over Roosevelt

After Roosevelt had taken a lead with one out in the second, Ray Holmes came on in the third and blank the Roughriders with two runs in the bottom of the first and two more in the second.

The Bulldogs went to work again in the third and went out in the fourth when Chelsea led 4-1. The score remained 5-1 at the seventh when Chelsea led 5-1.

Chelsea batsmen hit safely at Dud Holmes, Don Joseph and Gary Dresch leading the way with two hits each. Roger Lehman, Don Brooks, Jack Crawford and Don Atkinson all had one hit. Don Atkinson's hit was a long triple between the outfielders.

Shawnee, Kans. — Seeking work to add to the family income, Mrs. Pauline Williamson began digging graves. When asked how she liked her work, she said, "Fine, but it gets pretty lonely at times. I wish someone would come and talk to me."

Mr. Williamson is a construction foreman and does not wholly approve of her unusual occupation. However, her sons find that it makes a good topic for conversation.

May Crowning Is Observed at St. Mary's Church

St. Mary's Catholic church observed May Crowning on the first of May. The procession was led by the crossbearer, Jeffrey Hitchingham, and two candlebearers, John Hafner and Lee Harvey. The eighth grade boys represented the Cross of the Living Rosary and the children from the fourth grade to the seventh, representing the heads, followed next in procession.

The May Queen, Mary Kay Alber and her court, the eighth grade girls, with Bonita Clark as crown-bearer and the McKernan twins as pages preceded the Rev. Father Francis Maliszewski and Robert Dove, an altar-boy.

Children entered the church singing "Tis the Month of Our Mother" accompanied by the organist and Mrs. John Dettling and former graduates of St. Mary's. As the queen and her court entered the church the hymn, "Bring Flowers of the Rarest" was begun. As the children sang "O Mary, We Crown Thee with Blossoms Today," Mary Kay Alber placed the wreath of white China aster blossoms on the head of Our Blessed Lady.

The Rosary was said by the children representing it. As each completed his part he lit the candle of the one next in line while the children were located on the outer edge of each row surrounding the entire congregation.

Father Maliszewski delivered appropriate sermon in honor of Our Blessed Lady and this followed by Benediction.

After the singing of "On Day, O Beautiful Mother" the Mass was begun with the "Immaculate Mary" and all bowed out in the same order they entered concluding the impressive annual event.

Tuberculin Reactor Rate Is Found Low in 9th Graders

The Washtenaw County Health Department reports that the tabulation of the results of the county Tuberculin and Histoplasmin testing program conducted in the fifth grades of all county schools indicates that among ninth graders the tuberculin reactor rate is desirably low. Fourteen children with positive tuberculin tests were found among 1,805 ninth graders tested throughout the county.

A positive tuberculin test does not mean that active disease is present. It does mean, however, that somewhere along the line tuberculosis has been encountered by the reactor. Further studies such as chest x-rays, etc., are indicated. The Health Department will co-operate with the family and other physicians in securing the proper follow-up on each child or adult with a positive tuberculin test.

In all the schools the school adult personnel were encouraged to participate in the program. In all, 346 adults received tuberculin and among these, 83 were found to have positive tuberculin tests.

Exclusive of the Milan area, in which a higher histoplasmin reactor rate is to be expected, about 13 percent of the ninth graders tested were found to have positive histoplasmin tests. This percentage is consistent with that of previous years.

In Milan, among 130 ninth graders tested, 72 were found to have positive histoplasmin tests. This histoplasmin reactor rate of 55 percent compares favorably with the testing done at this grade level in previous years.

In Ann Arbor, among 619 children tested, four children with positive tuberculin tests were found.

The results for Ypsilanti and the out-county results are as follows:

	No. Tested	No. Positive
Chelsea	120	1
Dexter	64	1
Ypsilanti	552	8
Milan	130	72
Lincoln School	90	1
Whitmore Lake	53	0
Saline	109	0

The testing was done by a team from the Southeastern Michigan Tuberculosis Detection Project in conjunction with the Washtenaw County Tuberculosis Association and the Washtenaw County Health Department in co-operation with the county schools.

Hepatitis Cases Continue Decline

Lansing—The number of hepatitis cases reported in Michigan, on the decline for the past ten weeks, fell below the number recorded a year ago for the first time last week, according to figures released today by the Michigan Department of Health.

There were 78 cases of the liver disease reported to the Health Department for the week ending April 27, compared to a record high of 190 for the same week in 1961.

So far this year, 1,631 cases have been reported. At this time a year ago, the total stood at 1,654 on the way to a record high of 4,607.

Earlier this year, health officials predicted that the disease would follow its normal, cyclical pattern and fall below last year's number of cases. Following an upward climb to a peak of 143 cases reported for the week ending Feb. 17, the number of cases has declined as expected.

Michigan has a larger variety of commercial tree species than any other state, and Michigan's forest product industries contribute over $650 million annually to the over-all economy of the state.

No state can show a better record of business success—large business and small business alike—than Michigan.

Private industry in the Detroit area alone spent a minimum of $275,000,000 for applied research and development in 1961.

HOW REAL IS THE NEED?

Medical assistance for the aged is a subject government planners have been debating for some time. A political football with confusing statistics to prove their point of a need for complete Federal government intervention into the field of private medical care.

They have created a false sense of emergency. For what? To spend your money needlessly? To centralize control of the practice of medicine in the Federal government? To socialize medicine?

Is there a real need for the King-Anderson bill now before the Congress to implement a Medicare program?

Let's look at the record. There is in existence a plan for medical care for those 65 years and older, the cost of which is shared by the Federal government (50%), the state government (40%) and a county government (10%). It is called the Mills plan and is formally known as Medical Assistance to the Aged.

Before it went into effect, government planners said 60,000 persons in Michigan would apply for assistance under the plan. Actually only 15,467 applied, approximately 25% of the total of 60,000 people in the 65 years and over age group in Michigan.

Here in Washtenaw County, only 774, or 6.5% of the 65 years and older population of 11,829 persons availed themselves of medical treatment under the existing Medical Assistance for the Aged. Of the 774, there were 198, or 1.7% hospitalization cases and 576 out-patient cases.

The facts certainly don't reflect a real need today for further government intervention into the field of private medical care at the expense of you, the taxpayer.

There is no question that some aged people need medical assistance, but the facts prove that almost all persons in Michigan, and the United States today receive necessary medical assistance whether they are able to afford it or not.

Co-Op Nursery Offers Child Much To Aid Development

Behind the mild blue polka-dot dog at the Chelsea Co-Operative Nursery, "Miss Jane" spends much time in planning and preparing for her small friends. Questions as to how she can make this nursery day more meaningful for each child whom she welcomes are always in her mind. Some of her thoughts as to what the nursery experience can mean for a pre-school child are presented here.

From the day he is born, a child is part of an important group—his family. It is not necessary for him to do anything special to be accepted and valued by the members of this group for he belongs to them; and consequently, he is loved by them all—his mother, his father, and his brothers and sisters.

However, living in the social world of today is not that easy. Somewhere in a child's life the need arises for him to demonstrate his worth to a group of his contemporaries, so that he may be accepted by them. He must then measure himself against others who are like him; he must find his strengths and his weaknesses; he must learn to meet both acceptance and rejection by others. These experiences with his own age group help him to develop an awareness of himself and of social reality which family experiences alone cannot provide. Both family and outside group experiences are necessary for complete social development.

It is a rare neighborhood which can provide 10, 15, or 20 children all of the same or nearly the same age. This characteristic does exist, however, in a nursery school situation. Not only are there a number of children approximately the same age present, but the environment is child-centered. Almost without exception everything in the nursery school is there for a child to enjoy—to be looked at, to be wondered about, or to be played with for it is through these activities that he learns about the world.

Too often parents mistakenly believe that the only advantages derived from attendance at nursery school are the skills acquired such as coloring and painting—many of which may be learned at home. Actually, skills are a very small part of what a good nursery school provides for the pre-school child. It provides opportunities to enjoy

Child Molesting Complaints Always Increase in Summer

Since child molestation complaints increase at this time of the year, parents should strongly warn their children against accepting lures of strangers to go for walks or rides, says Sgt. Raymond McConnell, commanding officer of the Jackson post of the Michigan State Police.

This cautionary advice, given new and occasionally repeated, might prevent some child from suffering an experience which could blight his or her life and even result in injury or death, he emphasizes.

Records of previous years show that child molesting complaints begin to increase in the spring, reach a peak during the summer months, and taper off when schools resume.

"Warn your children to have nothing to do with strangers. That's the safest rule for them to follow," Sgt. McConnell advises. "Urge them to tell you right away if any stranger approaches and tries to lure them with candy or other things to go for walks or rides."

In 1961 there were 593 sex offense complaints, which include child molesting, that were investigated by the State Police. This was 12, or two percent, more than in the previous year.

Highest incidence of these complaints was in August with 84. July was next highest with 69, May third with 57, September fourth with 54 and June fifth with 53. No month had less than 32.

Fear of embarrassing publicity makes some parents reluctant to report molesting incidents to the police. This is unfortunate because it increases the difficulty in coping with these situations.

Names of children molested and their parents, however, are not used by the press, radio and television except when necessary in cases of severe emergency, such as abduction or murder. If all incidents were reported, police would have a better chance of apprehending the offenders and curtailing such offenses, Sgt. McConnell says. Lack of such reporting may encourage the molester to strike again.

Children should be assured that policemen are friends who want to help and protect them. They should be encouraged to notify police of any strangers loitering around playgrounds, schools, public rest rooms or in the neighborhood.

Following are suggested rules for children:

1. Don't talk to strangers or accept any offer of money, candy or gifts to go for a walk or ride with them.

2. Report to your parents, police or teacher any suspicious stranger who tries to join you or your group.

3. Stay with playmates when outdoors. Don't play or walk alone in alleys, deserted buildings or other secluded areas.

4. Don't go alone to the movies, fairs or carnivals. Try to have at least one companion wherever you go.

5. Keep a safe distance from the road so that a stranger in a passing car cannot easily reach out and seize you.

6. Don't loiter in public rest rooms. These are danger spots.

7. These rules are for your protection. Don't let anyone persuade you to disobey them. If you have question or problem, tell your parents.

The following are ways that children can help in checking child molestation practices:

1. Write down or memorize descriptive details of any stranger who tries to bother you. Note such things as height, weight, age, color of skin, eyes and hair, and unusual features such as a mustache, eyeglasses, tattoos, jewelry or physical defects.

2. If the stranger has a car, remember its color and try to get the license number and letters. Write this down or if necessary, use a stick or stone to mark it on the sidewalk or dirt.

3. Your suspicions may help protect you and your friends from harm. Any stranger investigated by police should not be offended if he has a proper explanation for his actions.

4. Lake Superior is the largest fresh water lake in the world. It is 31,820 square miles in area and the greatest recorded depth is 1,333 feet.

WE HAVE A LARGE INVESTMENT IN CHELSEA

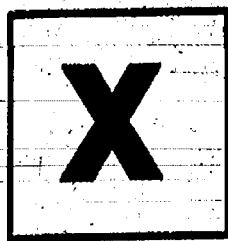

AND WANT TO SEE CONTINUED COMMUNITY PROGRESS

We know that one of the surest signs of progress in any community is the condition of its school system and the educational advantages offered its young people.

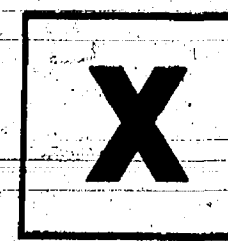

Consequently, we are wholeheartedly in support of the request by the Chelsea Board of Education for 2 mills additional operating revenue to avoid deficit operations and the continuance of Chelsea school operations on the high level they have always maintained.

We know these 7 Board of Education members and know that their unanimous decision to ask for additional millage for the 1962-63 school year was not a whim. We know they spent many hours of study in arriving at this decision and hence are satisfied to accept their unanimous opinion that the request is necessary and we will gladly pay our share of the cost and urge others to also lend their support by voting "Yes" at the special election Monday, May 14. And don't forget, even with the approval of the additional 2 mills for next year's operations, you and we will still be paying less than we did last year. Sounds like a good investment to us.

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

The Senior Class meeting of April 27 was called to order by the president, Don Atkinson. The class has $520.86 in the treasury and $261.91 in the trip club. The class decided that it would use the left over funds from their Freshman and Sophomore class dues to go for caps and gowns and whatever remained would go toward a Mabel Fox Memorial plaque.

The next item discussed was the wire left over from the summer dances. It was decided that it would be sold to the highest bidder.

May 18 was set as Senior Skip Day. A party was planned for the 17th with a 1/3 maximum of the whole portion of the trip club money to go for this party. Another third of the trip club money was to go towards the purchase of a plaque in memorial of Mabel Fox from the Class of '62, and all remaining given to a Eugene Fisher Memorial. The other third of the trip club money would go towards a party after the Prom.

The last item discussed was the pocket diplomas. The meeting was then adjourned.

STOCKBRIDGE BAND ASSEMBLY

May 3, the Stockbridge High school band put on a return assembly during third hour. Mr. Keith Sexton, their band leader, played "Copacabana," "Collegium," "Wheel of Fortune," and the Chelsea School Song, among others. Mr. Lindsay conducted one number for the band. The assembly was very enjoyable.

ist. NHS, National Honor Society, is a nation-wide organization in which the members must have a 3.00 minimum over-all average in school. The club is for Juniors and Seniors. Mr. Bergman, the counselor, has worked for two years to get the NHS for Chelsea.

At the assembly, Airport High school was represented with its Principal, Harvey Winkles, and two members of their NHS club. These students presented the criteria of NHS to the Chelsea student body. Mr. Wesley Cowell is the chairman of the Chelsea Chapter of NHS. The members are:

Seniors—Don Atkinson, Nancy Carter, Mary Ann Hanson, Linda Koenigler, Ava MacDougall, Jim Maynard, Donna Snyder, and Joanne Wojcikowski. Juniors—Margaret and Margaret Bauer, Diane Edwards, Tom Eisenbeiser, Nancy Fairbrother, Wendy Gilbert, Nancy Huelberg, Dorothy Martin, Judy Miller, Jean Anne Pajot, Sandra Shaward, Katherine Wengen, Barbara Wenk, and Kathy White. The oath was then taken by these students and Mr. Lane offered his congratulations to these students.

Mr. Howard Flintoff, president of the Board of Education, also congratulated the students. After this the band played "The Overture to the Pearl Fishers." The guest speaker was Dr. Gorton Reithmiller who is president of Olivet College. Supt. Charles Cameron thanked the parents of the NHS members and the student body for naming the society after him. The band ended the program by playing the school song.

HONORS ASSEMBLY

On April 27 students, faculty, and honored guests met in the auditorium. The purpose for the meeting was to honor all students who maintained a "B" average or better for the semester. And for all those who received a "B" average for the first six weeks of this semester.

The Rev. Philip Rusten and Mr. Howard Flintoff were guest speakers at the assembly. Supt. Charles Cameron and Principal Charles Lane also spoke at the assembly.

The Chelsea high band showed what wonderful talents they have at the assembly.

Following the assembly pictures were taken of the honored students. Congratulations—honor students!

ADVANCED ALGEBRA

Mr. Cowell's Advanced Algebra classes are studying permutations, combinations, and probability. Permutations are an arrangement of a collection of objects in a definite order. Combinations are a collection of objects irrespective of their order. Probability is the ratio of the number of favorable possibilities to the total number of possible cases. (favorable and unfavorable.)

The class, though enjoying its study, is looking forward to June 8.

SOCIOLOGY

Mr. Prinzing's Sociology class has been studying rural, suburban and city areas.
