Boy Scout Awards Presented Monday

at Court of Honor

Plans Told for Annual Canoe Trip Into Canada

Boy Scout Troop 25 held a Court of Honor Monday evening in the room of the Congregational church, moving indoors for gathering because of the rain. Approximately 200 persons attended.

Special guests included Fred Welling, District IV Scout executive, Richard Smith, District IV chairman, and Don Alexander, neighborhood commissioner.

Members of the Order of the Arrow participated in a candle-lighting ceremony as Scoutmaster Fred Welling told the significance of the ceremony as it was being held.

Order of the Arrow is a national camping society and the six members of Troop 25 who took part in the ceremony are now in the local chapter. They are Dickelman, Jim Schneider, Parks, Tom and Mike Scholten, and Tom Penhallegon.

Awards earned since Jan. 1 were presented to those who had earned them.

The Rev. Philip Rusten, Troop chairman, presented class badges to the following: Lesley Leggett, Ronald Ernie, John Potts, Tom Gardner, and Russell Maurer, David Gilbert Trevino, Danny Ralph Frisch and Lynn Paxson.

Scoutmaster Foye made the presentation of first class badges, 11 Scouts receiving them being: Bolch, Ronald and Eugene Ray, Gary Larson, Kim Clark, Hopkins, Gail Shears, Eric Carson, Soule, Ronald Sims, Mike Worden, Mike Grob, Schmale, Norwood Bush, and Teddy Pickelsimer and Scott.

Unit badges, presented by Assistant Scoutmaster Fred Worden, to Jim Schneider, Tom Scholten, Tom Penhallegon, Mike Scholten, Gary Hopkins and Eric Carson.

If the close of the ceremony, Penhallegon led the troop in Scout benediction and refreshments followed.

Announcement was made of the annual canoe trip to Peshu Lake Canada, Aug. 3-11.

Those eligible for the trip, it was necessary for the Scout to complete requirements for advancement of at least one rank in the last Court of Honor.

Scoutmaster Foye said he was pleased with the boys' for their past efforts to complete the requirements.

Twenty-six Scouts will be one up, designated as the ones to go on the canoe trip.

Others will be in the Flying (or traveling) Patrol.

The latter, with Joe Roe as leader and Kenneth Runcie and Dick Penhallegon as assistants, will leave from the base camp and travel by canoe, pitch camp at a different location each night.

Stephen Clark Family Hurt In Auto Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Clark and their son and daughter, Bruce, 9, and Bonita, 15, were injured late Sunday afternoon when their car was involved in a head-on collision with a car driven by a Detroit girl identified as Judy Gruel.

The Clarks were taken to the office of a physician here.

Clark suffered broken ribs and a lacerated left arm; Mrs. Clark had arm and shoulder injuries with a possibility some bones are fractured; and the two children sustained multiple bruises.

The accident occurred on Stoffer Rd., near Island Lake Rd.

According to reports of the accident, Clark told deputies he veered his car to the shoulder of the road in an effort to miss the oncoming Detroit car but was unable to avoid the collision.

Both cars were severely damaged; Clark's station wagon was believed to be a total loss.

FLAGS OF EACH of the 50 states of the Union, together with the American flag, appear in the above group assembled Sunday for the dedication of the new American flag at Clear Lake Camp, a private camp for boys and girls. The flags are from the "flag shrine" arranged by the Rev. and Mrs. Karl Keefer of Mt. Hope Methodist church.

Direct Dialing Phone Service Starts Aug. 20

Direct Distance Dialing telephone service will be introduced in Chelsea next month.

Nicholas J. Prackken, manager here for Michigan Bell, said the service is scheduled to begin at 8 a.m. Aug. 20.

Direct Distance Dialing will permit customers to dial most of their own station calls to about 50 million telephones in the United States and Canada without the assistance of an operator. A call from here to a point in California, for example, will go through about as fast as getting a local telephone. The only operator voice a customer will hear when he dials a long distance call will be one asking him for the number of the telephone from which he is calling.

"That is done for billing purposes," Prackken explained, "but after the short time, it takes to record the calling number, the operator releases the call dialed by the customer, and it speeds on its way to the distant telephone."

Person-to-person, collect, credit card, and coin telephone calls will continue to be handled by an operator, Prackken said.

As explained in an instructional booklet to be distributed to all customers here, the three-digit area code becomes important to users dialing calls outside of their home area. Long distance calls made within the home area will not require an area code but it will be necessary to dial the "access" code "1" to alert the switching equipment that something other than a local call is being made. As at present, calls to extended area points will continue to be made by simply dialing the telephone number.

CAMP GIVEN NEW FLAG — The Rev. and Mrs. Karl Keefer, second and third from left, officiated Sunday noon at the presentation and dedication of a large American flag at Clear Lake Camp, a private camp for boys and girls, six to 18 years of age. Directors are Weenie and Wendell Bliken of Ypsilanti, next to Mrs. Keefer in the photo. The newly-dedicated American flag is held by one of the campers; others in the photo are camp counselors.

Door-to-Door Peddlers Must Have License

Vandalism Reported in Many Places

Vandalism, particularly in two sections of the village, has reached a point where it is costing village taxpayers increasing sums of money and it is to their advantage to do whatever they can to assist in the apprehension of the vandals.

New street lights on Old US-12 have been the target of vandals the past two weeks; two globes were knocked out either with rocks, slingshots or 22 rifles and last week-end another was smashed.

This necessitated the purchase of three new globes at a cost of $20 each.

A fine of $50 is provided if the vandal is apprehended.

At the opposite end of the village, at Veterans Memorial Park, the vandalism consists of prying up the lid that covers the water pipes leading to the fountain and deliberately destroying the pipes.

Anyone who has any information about this type of destructive activity should report it to the police.

If cars involved are parked where the license may be observed, the number should be given to the police for checking out.

This assistance from townspeople in attempting to apprehend the persons responsible for the costly vandalism could be classed as a community service since apprehension of the guilty persons would eliminate the needless expense of repairing and replacing the property destroyed in this way.

Vandalism also still continues in the public rest rooms in the Municipal building. Walls and ceilings are defaced in various ways including obscene writings.

Council Asks Residents To Report Violators

Persistent efforts of the Chelsea Police Department and village officials to regulate different types of peddling in the village have brought about a situation in which the Village Council is requesting the help of residents; the aim is to protect residents from the nuisance of illegitimate or high pressure type door-to-door salespeople.

Many legitimate agencies are spending the $35 necessary to obtain a license from the village clerk to sell from door-to-door. The license is issued only after a check is made of the company involved; it cannot be denied to any legitimate company.

For example, village officials pointed out, should a company selling encyclopedias feel that it would be advantageous for them to solicit in the village they may apply for and be issued a license to do business within the village limits.

The license is issued by the village clerk only if the company has not been "blackballed" by the Better Business Bureau of Detroit, Ann Arbor or the home town of the firm. This is not to say, however, that the tactics used by any particular firm are necessarily desirable and this is where the village residents can help to regulate the door-to-door sales.

"Should you be approached by a peddler or salesman," village officials state, "ask for his identification as well as his permit from the village clerk—not the permit alone."

The officials go on to say, "Should a salesman become too persistent or be offensive in any way, the police should be notified at once and we can then take action to revoke the license on these grounds."

It has been brought to the attention of the Village Council that one company has been canvassing the town on Sundays. Under present laws, the village is not able to restrict or prohibit this solicitation; however, residents who do not wish to be bothered in this way on Sunday, are advised to "resist firmly" any such attempted selling by salesmen.

A letter is being sent to the firm involved stating the Village Council's objection to this Sunday soliciting.

Mrs. Joseph Wright is a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, located in room 4005.

14 Buildings Meet Shelter Qualifications

Of 14 buildings in Washtenaw county which meet the qualifications for community fallout shelters under the National Shelter Program, only one is in the Chelsea-Dexter area. It is the Blaes Elevator at Four Mile Lake.

Nine of the installations which qualified as community shelters are in Ypsilanti: Eastern Michigan University (six buildings); Peninsula Paper Co., the Huron Hotel, Ypsilanti High School, Detroit Edison Co., National Bank of Ypsilanti, Ypsilanti Savings Bank, Ypsilanti Brewing Co. and Super-Station, 6000 First St.

In addition to Blaes Elevator, the other buildings which qualified are the Ann Arbor sewerage treatment plant, Mercywood Sanitarium, General Motors Transmission plant and Ypsilanti State Hospital. Some installations have more than one shelter area available.

Each shelter will have a manager appointed by the local government of the area. The manager will control supplies, monitor radiation inside and outside the shelter, and regulate the activities of persons inside, Miller said.

Because the number of persons that can be accommodated in public shelters is far short of the county's population of 172,000, Washtenaw County Civil Defense Director Gerald G. Miller said that those in an area where no public shelter is located will have to build family shelters.

Director Miller said that the 14 buildings approved in the final revised report of inspecting engineers would accommodate 6,347 persons in the event of nuclear attack.

Approximately 45 buildings which were listed in an initial survey in June would have accommodated 10,275 persons.

According to the revised final report of the survey, many of the originally listed buildings were disqualified in the review of the survey because they could not accommodate 50 people. This requirement must be met to qualify for free supplies from the federal government.

Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trinkle were the latter's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Martinez of California. Mrs. Martinez is the former Hilda Grob.

New Members Elected To Serve On 4-H Council

Washtenaw county 4-H club members elected five leaders and six members to serve on the 4-H Council at the 4-H Council convention on July 17.

These newly-elected members will be representing all of the 4-H clubs in their districts on the County 4-H Council. The 4-H Council acts as an advisory board, making suggestions and recommendations on the developing of the county 4-H club program. The outstanding leadership that is exhibited by the 4-H Council members is a major factor in the soundness of the 4-H club program.

4-H leaders elected for a three-year term are Mrs. Charles Curtis, Chelsea; Robert Reiff, Ann Arbor; Leonard Burmeister, Ann Arbor; Wayne Spike, Ypsilanti; William Lutz, Saline.

4-H members elected for a one-year term are Archie Bradbury and Carol Mast, Dexter; Martha Lutchka, South Lyon; Lorna Moore, Willis; Jean Schable, Ann Arbor; and Douglas Spike, Manchester.

These newly elected 4-H Council members will officially take over their duties at the Sept. 10 4-H Council meeting.

Parking Lot Must Not Be Used as Thoroughway

Using the Municipal Parking lot as a thoroughfare is prohibited by the Village and signs to that effect are being posted there.

Some drivers have been using the lot as a "short-cut" from one street to another and the practice has become a nuisance.

Mrs. Bolton Bush of Clear Lake Rd. returned to her home this past week after being a patient at Mercy Hospital, Jackson. Mrs. Bush is a cousin of Mrs. Louis Rapp.

Mrs. JOHN B. SWAINSON (left) wife of Michigan's governor, visited the Methodist Home for a short time Tuesday, July 17, before leaving for Dexter on her swing around the county. She was honored at coffee hours at Manchester, Chelsea, Whitmore Lake and Dexter and at luncheon and dinner in Ann Arbor. Her hostess at a coffee hour here in the club room of McKune Memorial Library was Mrs. Wallace Wood, at right in the photo. Seated is Mrs. Clara Dinius who happened to be the oldest resident in the Home lounge to meet Mrs. Swainson. Formerly of Jackson, Mrs. Dinius has been a resident of the Home the past year. She is 95 years old. Mrs. Swainson's official hostesses on her tour of the county were Mrs. Albert Markwardt of Ann Arbor and Mrs. T. T. Cobb of Ypsilanti. July 17 had been designated "Mrs. John B. Swainson Day in Washtenaw County." The day was concluded with an evening meet at Erickson school in Ypsilanti township where Mrs. Swainson greeted county residents.

Export-Import Statistics Clearly Show Need for Maintaining U.S. Tariffs

The cold light of fact now begins to pierce the muck that has long surrounded the argument of whether or not this country has priced itself out of world markets.

An exhaustive study of import-export statistics, just released by the Ohio State Chamber of Commerce, reveals the frightening fact that we export relatively more raw materials and less finished manufactures today than we did 10 years ago. The exact reverse is true of what we buy in foreign markets.

As an example of the disturbing details unearthed by the Chamber, our exports of scrap steel and pig iron for making steel are more than 25 times greater than in 1951. Our exports of steel mill products (sheet, plate, beams, etc.) are down three percent. On the import side of the ledger, we are buying 63 percent less scrap and pig iron—and a whopping 84 percent more of finished steel mill products!

This same trend is apparent in live animals versus animal products, grains versus grain products, minerals versus mineral products. Wherever value is added to a product by labor, the foreigners are going ahead in the race for world trade and we are falling behind.

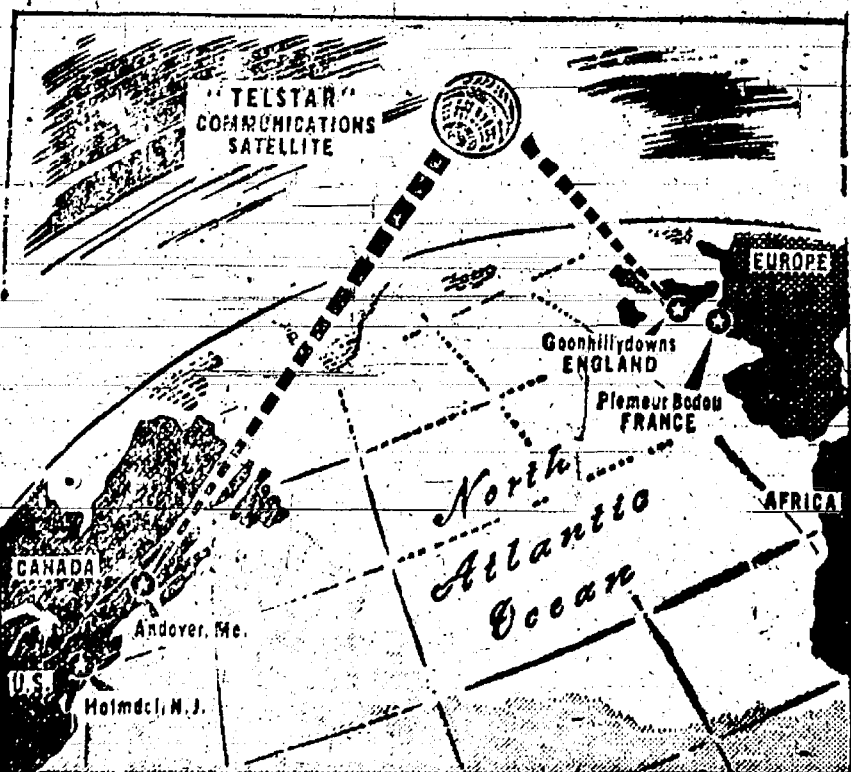

The trend lines, carefully and painfully traced by the Ohio Chamber's study, clearly picture the great United States buying and selling abroad as if it were one of the underdeveloped countries we hear so much about. We do fine in oilseeds—but not as well as the foreigners in metals manufacturers!

We are deluding ourselves if we think we have an advantage in labor productivity which offsets our higher wages. The hard-boiled figures of the past decade make it crystal clear that it just plain isn't so.

If the Administration forces Congress to give the President the power to eliminate what remains of our tariffs, we may be flooded by foreign products at an even faster rate than at present and our unemployment rolls may surpass those of the great depression.

The bright youngsters of the Administration say that they will "retrain" workers displaced by foreign imports. That will be a good idea if these workers are retrained in laundry work. It still takes too long to send our shirts to Japan for a washing, and the laundry industry is relatively safe from foreign competition.

Then, perhaps, these young masterminds will tell us how a nation wherein everybody takes in each other's wash can make a living.

NOON RUSH ON THE "THRUWAY"

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. Whyte, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Litterbugs are a costly segment of Michigan's society, according to State Highway Department maintenance officials.

Department records showed it cost nearly $1,000 a day to keep state highways relatively litter-free last year.

The litter problem and a proposal to ban throwaway beer bottles prompted the Governor's appointment earlier this year of a committee to study the problems and recommend ways to keep Michigan beautiful.

A "public persuasion campaign" is now being waged by the committee, which named itself the Kuen Michigan-Beautiful Committee, in an attempt to arouse an awareness of the effects of litter-strewn highways, beaches and parks.

John Murray, Highway Department information officer, was named head of the publicity subcommittee of the group.

"The various subcommittees are working on their respective audiences throughout the state," Murray said. Committee chairman Joseph A. Childs, State Police Commissioner, has set a meeting this fall to make recommendations to the Governor.

"We have no spectacular plans," Murray said. "We are just doing what we can with limited and willing hands to make known the value of keeping parks, roads and lakes as clean as possible."

One likely recommendation to be made is that some form of year-round financing, either governmental or private, be sought to keep one person employed "as a prodder, a nudger, to communities to keep an anti-litter program going," Murray predicts.

"Unless somebody pays constant attention to this problem, things get away from us all except when a major spurt occurs," he said. The "audiences" being approached by subcommittees include industry, chambers of commerce, radio and television, and newspapers.

A major portion of the campaign, for example, is aimed at Michigan motorists. Attempts are being made to have gas filling stations distribute litter-bags and keep receptacles handy for motorists.

"The filling station is the one place every motorist has to stop no matter where or how he drives," Murray said.

"A major solution would be accomplished if the motorist had some place to get rid of accumulating litter when he drives, and the gas station now appears to be the logical place."

For the first time in 50 years Michigan will elect a Congressman-at-Large whose constituency will be the entire state.

Few people of voting age today voted for the last Congressman-at-Large elected in 1912, but it's a safe bet that a majority of the electorate going to the polls of Nov. 6, 1952, will miss the "bar gain" of electing two Congressmen of their choice at one election.

By voting for two Congressmen, the voters will have the chance of voting for one representing their Congressional district, and the other to represent them as part of the entire state of Michigan.

There might be some confusion among the voters in thinking that their present Congressman has opposition. But efforts are being made in the campaign camps to be sure that the public will be aware of the situation.

It is expected that the newspapers will take a major role, as they have in previous elections, in bringing this new office to full public attention.

There was an attempt in Federal court by two Henry Ford Community college professors to make all Congressmen run at large.

Alvin Bentley, Owosso, one of the Congressmen-at-Large candidates, was put in a paradoxical position of opposing the court maneuver, saying that it would put asunder an orderly procedure to redistrict the state. Bentley, a Republican, was, in effect, opposing Congressmen-at-Large because, as he said, "it would deprive the people of representation by district as provided in the Constitution of the United States."

This is the second campaign for Bentley on a state-wide basis. He lost his first try in 1950 by less than a two percent margin against Senator McNamara.

This year he opposes Neil Staebler, Democratic national committee member who has been active in party politics since 1950. Staebler lost his only try for public office back in 1937 in a local race in Ann Arbor.

CON-CON REPORT

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is No. 8 in a series about the proposed new Michigan Constitution. Additional articles will appear in subsequent weeks.

A state board of education, increased from the present four to a membership of eight—is given leadership and supervision of all except higher education in Article VIII of the proposed new Michigan Constitution.

The enlarged board is also to serve as the general co-ordinating and planning agency for all public education, including higher education. It is to advise the legislature as to the financial requirements of all state educational functions.

The eight members of the board are to be elected on a partisan basis for eight-year overlapping terms. The governor is to be a non-voting ex officio member of the board to help bring about a stronger link between the executive office and the state's educational system.

Under the terms of the proposed Article, the superintendent of public instruction will be no longer chosen at state-wide partisan elections. He will be appointed by the state board of education and will be the principal executive officer of the state department of education.

All state-supported institutions of higher learning in Michigan gain the constitutional status they have sought in the proposed new document. The legislature is required to support them and they, in turn, must account annually for income and expenditures. Their formal board sessions will be open to the public.

The governing boards of the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and Wayne State University are to consist of eight members each, elected on a partisan basis for eight-year terms. They are to have supervision and control of their respective universities, including selection of their presidents.

The other state colleges and universities, present and future, are to have individual boards of control appointed by the governor with the approval of the state senate. The boards will have eight members each serving eight-year terms with the same supervision and control of their institutions as specified for the three major universities.

The Article also specifies that junior and community colleges are to be supported by the state. A new eight-member state board for public community and junior colleges, appointed by the state board of education, will serve in an advisory capacity for these institutions.

The convention decided that in the field of caring for and supporting the handicapped, present constitutional language is too restrictive and in some cases outmoded. References to the "deaf, dumb, blind, feeble-minded and insane" are replaced by language recognizing the areas of the mentally, physically or other seriously handicapped. State support is broadened to include programs and services as well as institutional treatment.

The Education Article also calls for a system of libraries open to all Michigan residents. Public libraries continue to be earmarked for library support, including county law libraries which now share in such collections by legislative enactment.

Section 1 of the Article re-states the familiar language which originated in the Northwest Ordinance of 1787 and was set forth in the 1908 Constitution: "Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools shall forever be encouraged," and the means of education shall forever be encouraged."

FARM BILL DEFEATED

President Kennedy's farm bill was defeated and it was a shocking blow to the Administration. The White House immediately issued a statement saying the defeat "will cost the taxpayers of the United States at least an additional $1,000,000,000 next year and return the country to the ruinous deficit farm programs with accompanying growth in our already staggering $9,000,000,000 surplus."

Every effort should be made to tell the world that the U. S. seeks peace because it is becoming plain that, despite this, we intend to fight if attacked.

Farm Safety Week Set July 22-28

One death every 47 minutes. A disabling injury every 83 seconds. That's what happens every day on the nation's farms.
 All of Michigan's rural families should give special attention to safety during National Farm Safety Week July 22-28. The theme this year is, "Family Safety—At Work and Play."
 President Kennedy has set aside these dates for the 10th annual safety week. The week places emphasis on the year-around farm accident prevention program sponsored by the National Safety Council and the USDA. Most of the leading farm organizations, also add their endorsement to the special event.

Farmers and rural people need to be alerted to the many hazards they face every day. "We must continually stress the importance of safety at work, at play and in the home," says Dr. N. P. Ralston, director of the Michigan State University Co-operative Extension Service, a key agency in safety education.
 Ralston points out that the youth of the state need to be made more aware of the alarming rate of fatal farm accidents which occur on roads and highways each year.

Safety specialists point out that 4-H, FFA and other youth safety programs are really paying off. Michigan men between the ages of 20 and 24 have only half as many fatal tractor accidents as men between the ages of 35 and 39.
 But there still is room for improvement. Three out of four people who lost their lives on the nation's highways in 1961 died on rural roads. More than 2,600 farm people lost their lives in their own home last year.

Farm accidents and fires cost rural families about one-seventh of their total net incomes each year. Lightning—the number one cause of fire losses on Michigan farms—has destroyed buildings valued at more than $3 million during the past five years. More than 400 persons are killed and another 1,000 injured by lightning each year in the United States.
 The farm safety picture is improving—thanks to the efforts of education. Fatal farm mishaps declined one-fourth since 1955, while farm production has continued to climb during the same period. The number of fatalities per 1,000 farm workers dropped 15 percent during that time.

Farm Safety Week is a good time for all rural families to take added safety precautions and make new resolutions for the coming year.

Bargain Day Shoppers See 4-H Club Displays

4-H club leaders, members and families worked with the Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce July 26, 27, and 28 to show the Bargain Days Shoppers the many experiences available through 4-H club work.

During the Ann Arbor Summer Bargain Days, 4-H clubs from throughout the county displayed their project work on Main St., in Ann Arbor between Huron and Washington streets.

About 80 different project areas were displayed in 40 booths. Displays included flower and vegetable gardening, clothing, foods, conservation, handicrafts, automotive and small animals.

The Chamber of Commerce had asked 4-H clubs to display their work in an effort to add to the Bargain Days something of interest to all homemakers.

At intervals during each day, 4-H members demonstrated some of the work they do in their clubs. There were also talent acts given by 4-H members preparing for the county Share-the-Fun Festival to be held Aug. 1.

Exhibits and displays on Main St., during the Ann Arbor Summer Bargain Days were only a sample of the projects to be exhibited at the County 4-H show Aug. 7-10.

★ Newspapers Help

Farmers no longer are easy marks for those who prey on the public with confidence schemes and gyp practices. The time is long gone when anyone seeking a soft mark looks to the country. Farmers these days are sophisticated, knowledgeable people who read the same books, watch the same movies on late TV, as their non-farm neighbors and they frequently have more basic knowledge packed away under their hats than their counterparts in other professions. They have to, in order to survive.

When time allows, today's modern farmer is an avid reader. He subscribes to and receives all the advantages of a "home town" paper such as this one. Through it, he learns; just as do subscribers "in town" what bargains are real, and about the firms that offer them.

Most importantly, he becomes acquainted through years of business dealings, with people he can trust. He knows they will be in business next month and next year. He knows that he is important to them as a customer; one that buys more gasoline and petroleum products than representatives of any other industry; a customer that uses six and a half million tons of steel each year, nearly enough for a full year's production of automobiles out of Detroit.

Appliance dealers love farmers. As the user of 22 billion kilowatt hours of electrical power each year, today's mechanized farmer is replacing man-power with motor-power, on the farm, in the barn and in the farm home.

Farmers these days watch the grocery ads in their local papers. They grow only small quantities of their own vegetables and fruits. Michigan farmers rank fifth among all in the nation in their purchase of food for their families.

Through the pages of his local paper, today's rural American learns about fly-by-night roofing salesmen, about furnace gyp artists or itinerant lightning-rod salesmen that periodically descend on an area. Descriptions of their operations trigger his native perception, making him all the more determined to have dealings only with people he knows and trusts.

Small wonder the arrival of his local newspaper is an event of no small importance to most farmers.

Basic CD Course Again Offered At County Building

The County Civil Defense office is again presenting its one-week basic Civil Defense course for county employees and the public, Monday, July 30, through Friday, Aug. 3.

The course is given twice daily—from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and again from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Room 6 in the County building basement.

Subjects discussed at the sessions include the threat of attack, citizen and official responsibilities, Civil Defense organization, the effects of nuclear weapons, protection from nuclear weapons and the national shelter program. Civil Defense in natural disasters and practical control center operations are described, and national, state and county policy given by means of discussion, motion pictures, slides and charts.

COUNTRY'S MOOD UNEASY
 Opposing party leaders agreed that the present mood of the country is one of uneasiness and uncertainty. They disagree on the cause and cure.

Senate Democratic leader Mansfield (Mont.), said Congress must act quickly on President Kennedy's legislative program to "dispel some of the uncertainty."

However, Senate Republican leader Dirksen (Ill.) said "it isn't what Congress is not doing, but what it might do that is causing uneasiness in the country."

DEATHS

Miss Sadie Mitchell

Former Crowell Resident

Dies in Methodist Home

Miss Sadie Mitchell, who had resided at the Methodist Home since March 3, 1961, died there Saturday morning at the age of 72.

She formerly taught school for many years and had taught at Crowell before her retirement, entering the Home from that community. She had been a member of the Crowell Methodist church for more than 50 years.

Miss Mitchell was born at Fremont, July 28, 1889, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell. Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. William C. Brown and Mrs. Lulu Tool, both of Port Huron.

Funeral services were held at 8:45 a.m. Monday at the Methodist Home Chapel, with the Rev. Edwin J. Weiss, superintendent, the Rev. George Stanford, Home chaplain, and the Rev. William Schmitts of Crowell officiating.

Burial took place in Davisville cemetery, Crowell, following services at the Crowell Methodist church.

Arrangements were in charge of the Staffan Funeral Home.

Mrs. Wesley Ellenwood was called to Pikeville, Ky., the past week-end because of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Leonard Adkins. Mrs. Adkins is a former Chelsea resident. She and her husband moved to Pikeville about a year ago. Her mother, Mrs. Gracie Case, who had spent the past week at the Adkins home, returned to Chelsea with Mrs. Ellenwood.

The famous Kahn test for syphilis was developed in the Michigan Department of Health laboratories.

Former Pinckney Athlete Loses Hand in Accident

James DeWolf, 18, a former Pinckney high school athlete, has lost his right hand and part of his arm as the result of an accident Saturday.

He caught his hand in a meat grinder at a Hamburg market where he had a summer job.

He was taken to St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, where the hand and part of the arm were amputated.

DeWolf, a 1962 graduate of Pinckney high school, was a line-man on the football team and had won an athletic scholarship to attend Ferris Institute in the fall.

He had worked part-time at the market for the past two years.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeWolf. The family now lives at Hamburg.

Four Pay Fines In Area Courts for Fishing Violations

Two men appeared Saturday before Sylvan Township Justice of the Peace Chandler Rogers and two others appeared Friday before Municipal Judge Francis O'Brien at Ann Arbor on charges of fishing without a license. Each paid fine and costs of $12.30.

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer listed the names of the men, their residences and ages and date and place of offense as follows:

Wilson Stewart of Detroit, 21, July 15 on Portage Lake.

Sam Paigenbaum of Detroit, 38, July 15 on Portage Lake.

Clarence Seever of Taylor, 33, July 15 on Portage Lake.

Robert Dent of Ann Arbor, June 30 on North Lake.

Seever and Dent appeared in Municipal Court, Ann Arbor.

Stay Away From Mother Bear, Cubs

Ann Arbor—Mama bears and their cubs are getting chased out of the long winter sleep and the whole family is plenty hungry, says Prof. Warren Chase, chairman of the University of Michigan Department of Wildlife Management.

"They won't have an easy time either because food is scarce this time of year. Fortunately, they make use of all kinds of food, including animal remains from the deer hunting season, highway kills, and even of any kind," says Chase. "The greater number of dead deer due to starvation will no doubt help them some in getting started this spring."

"The mother bear dens up in late November or early December and gives birth in January in alternate years, to one or two (rarely three) cubs. These usually weigh from nine to 12 ounces each. The mother bear will stay with her cubs until they are weaned in August. The cubs may, and often do, stay with her when she is in hibernation the following winter."

"Bears once roamed all over Michigan. Now they are found only in those parts of Michigan where we have forests. They keep to rough terrain and poor soil regions away from human population. From past experience, the bear has learned not to trust people and is one of the first seasons Mama Bear cuffs into her seasonal cubs."

"So, if you're wise, you won't approach the cubs even to get a harmless photo for your album. Mama Bruin, in spite of a usually mild and slow temperament, won't tolerate meddling with her young."

"As the years go by, bears are getting more scarce in Michigan and we will have to watch to see that they are not brought down to near extinction," Chase says. "The fact that Michigan has made the bear a game animal instead of a pest means that we are approaching the conservation of this animal from a realistic standpoint."

The 1962-63 appropriations for the operation of the Michigan Department of Mental Health facilities, clinics, research and training programs are approximately $10,000,000 less than the amount of money requested by the department to provide services and facilities for the state's mentally ill and retarded.

Next week's Kiwanis club dinner meeting, scheduled to be held at the customary location at the Methodist church, will have Secretary of State James Hare as guest speaker.

Kiwanis Club Hears Report on International Meet

M. J. Anderson, reporting at Monday's Kiwanis club meeting on his attendance at the Kiwanis International convention at Denver last month, played a tape recording of highlights of the convention, including excerpts of some of the speeches by prominent officials.

Guests at the meeting, held in the social center of the Methodist church, included Kiwanian Sylvester Leonard of Willis, District IV Boy Scout Executive Fred Sundling and Conservation Officer Donley Boyer.

Sundling spoke briefly, expressing thanks to the Kiwanis club for its financial support of Boy Scouting.

Following the meeting a short board meeting was held to caucus for a nominee for lieutenant-governor for the Aug. 7 division Kiwanis election at Pinckney.

Also discussed were plans for changing the Oct. 22 meeting date to Oct. 23 when the entire Chelsea club and wives of members will join the Dexter Kiwanis club for its 25th anniversary. The Chelsea club sponsored the organization of the Dexter club 25 years ago.

McKaig Sentenced on Breaking, Entering Charge

Robert A. McKaig of Chelsea, appearing for sentence on a charge of breaking and entering, was sentenced to five months in the County Jail, ordered to pay $510 fine and costs, and $192.50 restitution to the Wolverine Tavern.

The secret of deliciously browned pan-broiled fish is dry heat; in other words, use very little fat in the pan. Some fish, notably whitefish and trout, are fatter than others; when cooking them, pour fat from the pan as it accumulates.

Farm Management Tour Will Be Held - Rain or Shine

Rain or shine, the State Farm Management Tour will be held on the Simmons Bros. and Lake Bros. farms, two miles east of North Branch in Lapeer county on Wednesday, Aug. 1.

Mechanized livestock feeding, featuring beef and swine at the Simmons farm and dairy cattle at the Lake farm, will show how Michigan family farms are making efficient use of increasing corn yields.

Parking facilities for 2,000 people have been arranged by Robert Lincoln, Lapeer County Extension Director, and his committee of local farmers.

Tractors, with wagons attached, will be waiting at the parking lot to take those who arrive before 10 a.m. to the Simmons Bros. swine operation. Here Jack and Bill Simmons have remodeled two old barns into farrowing and finishing facilities to handle 600 to 700 market hogs annually.

From the swine farm, wagons will return the visitors to the Simmons beef feedlot which has been expanded to handle 400-425 steers. Fence-line bunk feeding will be demonstrated at this stop.

After hearing from Jack and Bill Simmons, visitors will walk a quarter mile down highway M-90 to the Glenn Lake farmyard for lunch and a noon program. Lunch will be served by Home Economics Extension groups and 4-H clubs in Lapeer county.

The noon session will be held on the Glenn Lake farm with Paul C. Johnson, editor of Prairie Farmer, Chicago, Ill., speaking on "Looking Ahead at Farming—an Editor's Viewpoint."

The after-lunch schedule calls for viewing the Lakes' heifer-raising unit, which is highly mechanized. All herd replacements come from their own heifers. They now raise their bull calves as steers for beef.

Demonstration plots showing use of fertilizer and weed killers on corn at different plant population will be viewed enroute to the Lake milking operation. Here 100 Holsteins are mechanically fed silage in dry-lot and milked in an 8-stall side-opening parlor. Pipelines carry the milk to a 600-gallon bulk tank.

Dr. Larry L. Boger, chairman of the MSU Department of Agricultural Economics will summarize the tour.

A late-scheduled finale will be a demonstration of airplane seeding of rye in corn on the Lake farm. An Inlay City firm will stage the demonstration.

L. H. (Hi) Brown, Everett M. Elwood and Leonard Kyle, MSU agricultural economists, along with the Lapeer county-extension staff, are in charge of the program. Other MSU and county-extension staff members have co-operated in developing the program for the 14th annual state tour.

THE LETTERBOX

July 20, 1962
Messrs. Good, Hunter and O'Donerty, and the other excellent teachers leaving Chelsea to teach elsewhere.

My appreciation to you for loaning Chelsea your time and talents, thus helping raise the quality standard of our teachers. I am especially grateful to those who had my daughter in their classes.

You may be sure these are many others as disappointed as I that you are leaving. Some may even do as I have and let the School Board know of their feelings.

I would like to apologize for Chelsea not following through on the improvements which must have attracted you here. You may have assumed a citizenry who would vote for and erect three excellent schools would also vote for school board members who would help to get and keep excellent teachers.

Money, I found, was only one of the many reasons for this exodus of approximately one third of Chelsea's teaching staff.

Let's hope we recognize, appreciate and keep any teachers we have, or will get, who even approach the high standards set by many of you who are leaving.

Again, I thank you.
Mrs. J. R. Killham.

Kindergarten Song Sounds Offensive To ACLU Director

San Francisco—The American Civil Liberties Union here is seeking a client to challenge in court the song that public school kindergartens and first grade pupils sing before their milk and crackers.

The song is: "We thank Thee, God, for the food we eat; for family and friends we meet; for books we read and songs we sing; we thank Thee, God, for everything."

Ernest Besig, executive director of the ACLU in northern California, said the song is a "subterfuge" to get mention of God into public schools.

"We are prepared to challenge it in court if we can get a client who wants to," he said.

Besig's comment came in the wake of the U. S. Supreme Court ruling that it was unconstitutional for the New York State Board of Regents to write a prayer for voluntary recitation by public school pupils.

MSU Hikes Student Fee Schedule

East Lansing—Fee increases of $15 per term for Michigan students and $40 per term for non-residents were approved by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees as it adopted the MSU budget for 1962-63.

The Board indicated a reluctance to impose the higher fees but pointed out there was no alternative.

The fee schedule, to go into effect with the fall term, is one of the highest in the nation for a public institution. The increases will bring the annual resident fee to $324 and the non-resident fee to $370.

The University plans no increase in dormitory or married housing rates. With higher than normal occupancy, it was pointed out, it is expected that the cost of wage increases and other higher costs in University housing can be absorbed.

The 1962-63 student fee income is expected to amount to $9,000,808 as compared to $6,066,300 for 1961-62, reports Philip J. May, vice-president for business and finance.

Michigan State expects enrollment to increase from 24,204 to 26,000, and MSU-Oakland expects its enrollment to increase from 1,069 to 1,400.

Cyclists Pedal From Wayne on Camping Trip

Sam Grissom of Wayne and Jeff Johnson of Inkster, passed through Dexter and Chelsea Monday on a bicycle trip which began at Cavanaugh Lake county park at 2:30 p.m.

Grissom is a junior at Wayne Memorial High school and Johnson is a senior at Cherry Hill High school at Inkster.

They decided on the bicycle trip as a "different" vacation trip; they carried camping equipment and extra clothing tied to the handlebars and at the back of their bicycles.

In Dexter they stopped to buy groceries for their lunch and rested for about half an hour.

They said this was the first time they had ever traveled more than five miles by bicycle—both drive cars—and stopped every hour to walk beside their bikes for awhile and to sit down and rest a few minutes.

They planned to camp Monday night at Cavanaugh Lake, go on Tuesday to Portage Lake in Jackson county, camping there overnight, and then start the return trip.

They expected to spend Wednesday night back at Cavanaugh Lake and make the remainder of the trip to Wayne Thursday.

Four Represent Women's Guild at E & R Conference

Mrs. Louis Burghardt, Mrs. David Strieter, Mrs. Lowell Davison and Mrs. Henry Karner were in Tiffin, O. from Tuesday until Saturday attending a summer conference at Heidelberg College sponsored by the Women's Guild of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, now a part of the United Church of Christ.

The four Chelsea women represented the Women's Guild of St. Paul's church here.

Principal speaker at the summer conference was the Rev. Carl E. Berges, pastor of St. Paul's United Church of Christ at Rochester, N. Y.

For the first time, the summer conferences this year (there are five in the summer series) were open to both men and women.

The United Church of Christ, which is a union of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches, is combining the work of the lay men and women in the denomination under the United Church Council for Lay Life and Work and for this reason both men and women were invited to the summer conferences.

Classes were held on topics ranging from mission work in Asia to Christian personal relations, church leaders of both the Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed church groups being leaders of the classes.

Among special speakers were Dr. William C. Nelson of Akron, O., president of the Board for World Ministries of the United Church of Christ and Dr. Donald C. Dearborn, dean of Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C., who was one of the delegates last year from the United Church of Christ to the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches at New Delhi.

Mrs. Henry Karner of the Chelsea delegation, was one of the group discussion leaders throughout the conference.

Janet Marie Gatzka, Quentin Smith Repeat Wedding Vows in Ann Arbor

Zion Lutheran church at Ann Arbor was the setting for the wedding ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Saturday uniting Janet Marie Gatzka of Ann Arbor and Quentin Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Smith of 238 Harrison St.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Gatzka of 162 East Hoover, Ann Arbor. The Rev. Ralph B. Piper officiated at the service in the presence of approximately 400 guests. James Craven of Ann Arbor was the soloist.

The bride's gown, fashioned of white silk organza, was styled with a modified bell-shaped skirt which extended into a train. Lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls and crystals trimmed the neckline of the short-sleeved fitted bodice. Matching lace framed a large rose, made of folds of silk organza, to which the bride's bouffant butterfly veil was attached. Her bouquet was an arrangement of pink tea roses, feathered carnations and baby breath encircling a white orchid.

Judy Kurtz of Ann Arbor, for her role as maid of honor, wore a cotton blue silk organza sheath dress with matching cummerbund, overskirt and jacket. Her hat was a large-silk organza rose and veil matching her gown. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Bridesmaids, costumed exactly like the maid of honor, were Raymon Smith, sister of the bridegroom; Patricia Ziegler of Ypsilanti, and Donna Bileti of Ann Arbor. Kathleen Wolanski, a cousin of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid, wearing for her role a dress of white eyelet with a blue-embroidered flower design and a blue satin bow at the back. Her bouquet matched those of the maid of honor and bridesmaids.

Teresa and Sandra Kopinski, in white eyelet with blue satin bows, were flower girls, each carrying a flower basket. The ringbearer was Kevin Smith, brother of the bridegroom. The satin pillow on which he carried the rings was made by Mrs. Alice Roedel, a friend of the bridegroom's family.

Roy G. Revels of Monroe, served as best man; Ryan Smith, another brother of the bridegroom, was a junior usher; Gerald Williams of Ann Arbor, a cousin of the bride, and James Marshall and James Collins were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gatzka wore a pink silk linen sheath styled with a scoop neckline and tunic skirt trimmed with lace at the hemline of the skirt and tunic.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of dusty rose silk organza with lace and coral appliques on the bodice and on the bell-shaped skirt. Her hat was of matching silk organza.

Following a two-week trip to Colorado, the couple will be at home at 1293 Hawthorne St., Ypsilanti. When they left the bride was wearing a brown and white seersucker suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

IMPORTANT RADIATOR CARE

No car should be without radiator lubricant for the water pump. It is as important as rust inhibitor to retard corrosion. Still, you would be surprised at the number of drivers we meet at FOOR MOBIL SERVICE who know nothing about this cooling system service. Even radiator sealants are very valuable in stopping leaks through tiny holes and thin cracks in the cooling system. Sometimes, one inexpensive can of sealant will save a terrific bill for radiator repair. Of course, a large leak would require specific radiator repair. To be sure about your car's cooling system, make that short trip to 520 South Main St., regularly. Checking the radiator on every car that comes in is one of our routine services that customers appreciate.

Senatorial Primary Killed By Reapportionment Order

The Washtenaw county clerk's office has announced that State Elections Director Robert Montgomery had ruled Thursday, July 19, that names of all candidates for State Senate will be covered with blank stickers at the polling places on paper and absentee ballots for the Aug. 7 primary election.

The section bearing candidates for State Senate on Washtenaw county voting machines will be blocked off and locked so that it will be impossible to vote that part of the machines.

The stickers must be used because paper and absentee ballots had already been printed before the Senatorial primary was cancelled by Supreme Court ruling handed down Wednesday, July 18. In its long-awaited decision on the suit brought by Michigan AFL-CIO President August Scholle, the high court produced six different written opinions.

The court directed lawmakers to reapportion the Senate by Aug. 30 or nominate 32 state senators from the state on an at-large basis, at a special primary Sept. 11 if they fail to enact "valid legislation."

The State Senate now is composed of 23 Republicans and 10 Democrats. The July 18 Supreme Court ruling called off the Aug. 7 primary election of the State Senate and ordered legislative reapportionment of the Senate.

The vote went on a straight party line basis with four justices usually identified with the Democratic Party voting for the decision and three allied with the Republican Party voting against it. Scholle had started the suit two years ago to declare the Senate districts illegal as set by a 1962 amendment to the State Constitution freezing the 34 state Senate districts.

Prior to that, the Constitution provide for 32 Senate districts equally divided according to population.

Supreme Court justices who voted for the redistricting order are Justices Thomas M. Kavanagh, Eugene F. Black, Otis M. Smith and Theodore Souris.

The three dissenters are Justices Harry Kelly and John R. Detmers and Chief Justice Leland W. Carr.

Public Assistance Programs Receive Federal Funds

Public assistance programs in Michigan have received Federal grants totalling $14,138,002 for the three months beginning July 1, it was announced today by Melville H. Hosh, regional director for the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, in Chicago.

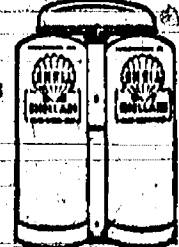

The money represents the Federal share of estimated expenditures for the first quarter of the 1963 fiscal year in the Federal-State programs of old-age assistance, medical assistance for the aged, aid to dependent children, aid to the blind, and aid to the permanently and totally disabled. Payments for Michigan include $7,777,599 for old-age assistance recipients; $5,368,821 for children, and adults responsible for their care under aid to dependent children; $214,945 for recipients of aid to the blind, and $777,627 for persons receiving aid to the disabled. The payment for the aid to dependent children covers only the first two months of the quarter. In addition, an estimate of $1,662,600 for medical assistance for the aged is being processed for payment.

Federal grants to all states for this quarter total $591,758,883. By program, this money is divided in this way: $305,914,404 for old-age assistance, $107,082,593 for aid to dependent children, $569,600 for aid to the disabled, $27,605,888 for medical assistance for the aged, and $10,496,800 for aid to the blind.

The medical assistance for the aged program is in operation in 27 States. A 28th state, Vermont, is expected to begin a program soon. Public assistance programs are administered individually by the states through state plans which meet the purposes and requirements of the Social Security Act, under which the programs were established. The Federal payments, made through the Bureau of Family Services, are based upon a formula related to each state's per capita income. The Federal share of the state expenditure ranges from 41 to 78 percent.
