Bulldogs Win Season's First League Contest

Display Good Offense in Romp Over U. High

The Chelsea Bulldogs opened their season last night by defeating University High, 28-0.

Chelsea received the opening kickoff and moved to the U. High 30-yard line where they were forced to give the ball up on downs. The Cubs were then held on downs and Chelsea took over again. The first quarter ended with the Bulldogs on the U. High 10-yard line and the game still scoreless.

DONALD CHURCHILL

Early in the second period, Dick Holmes went nine yards for the game's first score. The attempt for point after was no good and Chelsea led, 6-0.

After receiving the Chelsea kickoff, U. High failed to kick the ball and was forced to kick. Jack Howard received the punt at mid-field and raced 50 yards to score the second Chelsea touchdown. The attempted conversion was again no good and the Bulldogs were now in front, 12-0.

Needlework Guild Plans Ingathering

During the past week the Chelsea Branch of The Needlework Guild of America (NGA) received a letter of congratulation from the national president, Mrs. J. Alfred Hamme of York, Pa., in recognition of the Chelsea Branch's attaining its 10th year of co-operation and membership. Mrs. Hamme commended the Chelsea Branch for its "interest and loyalty as evidenced by your splendid work."

Chelsea's 1962 ingathering has been set for next Thursday.

A "hand-me-down" instead of a hand-me-down has been winning friends for the Needlework Guild of America for 77 years. The Community service of the Chelsea Branch of the NGA is a unique type of the Needlework Guild of America; Oct. 16, heralds the start of the 10th year for the Chelsea Branch as the members.

all volunteers, ask others to give the neighborly way—give NGA. The gift of two or more new articles (or money to purchase needed items) is the only membership requirement.

Mrs. Thomas L. Masterson, branch president, reports that last year Chelsea members gave 486 articles. This year they hope to collect an even greater number to be given to needy individuals and families through the Chelsea Social Service.

The ingathering and display of the "new garments always" of the Needlework Guild will be held Thursday, Oct. 4, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Congregational church.

Mrs. Masterson said, "this is the time to join 50,000 members in 36 states who each year give more than 1,000,000 articles. Everyone may have a share in giving 'A little bit of love from the NGA' to a needy neighbor."

Mrs. Masterson said yesterday that a revised list shows that the following are the sizes most needed this fall:

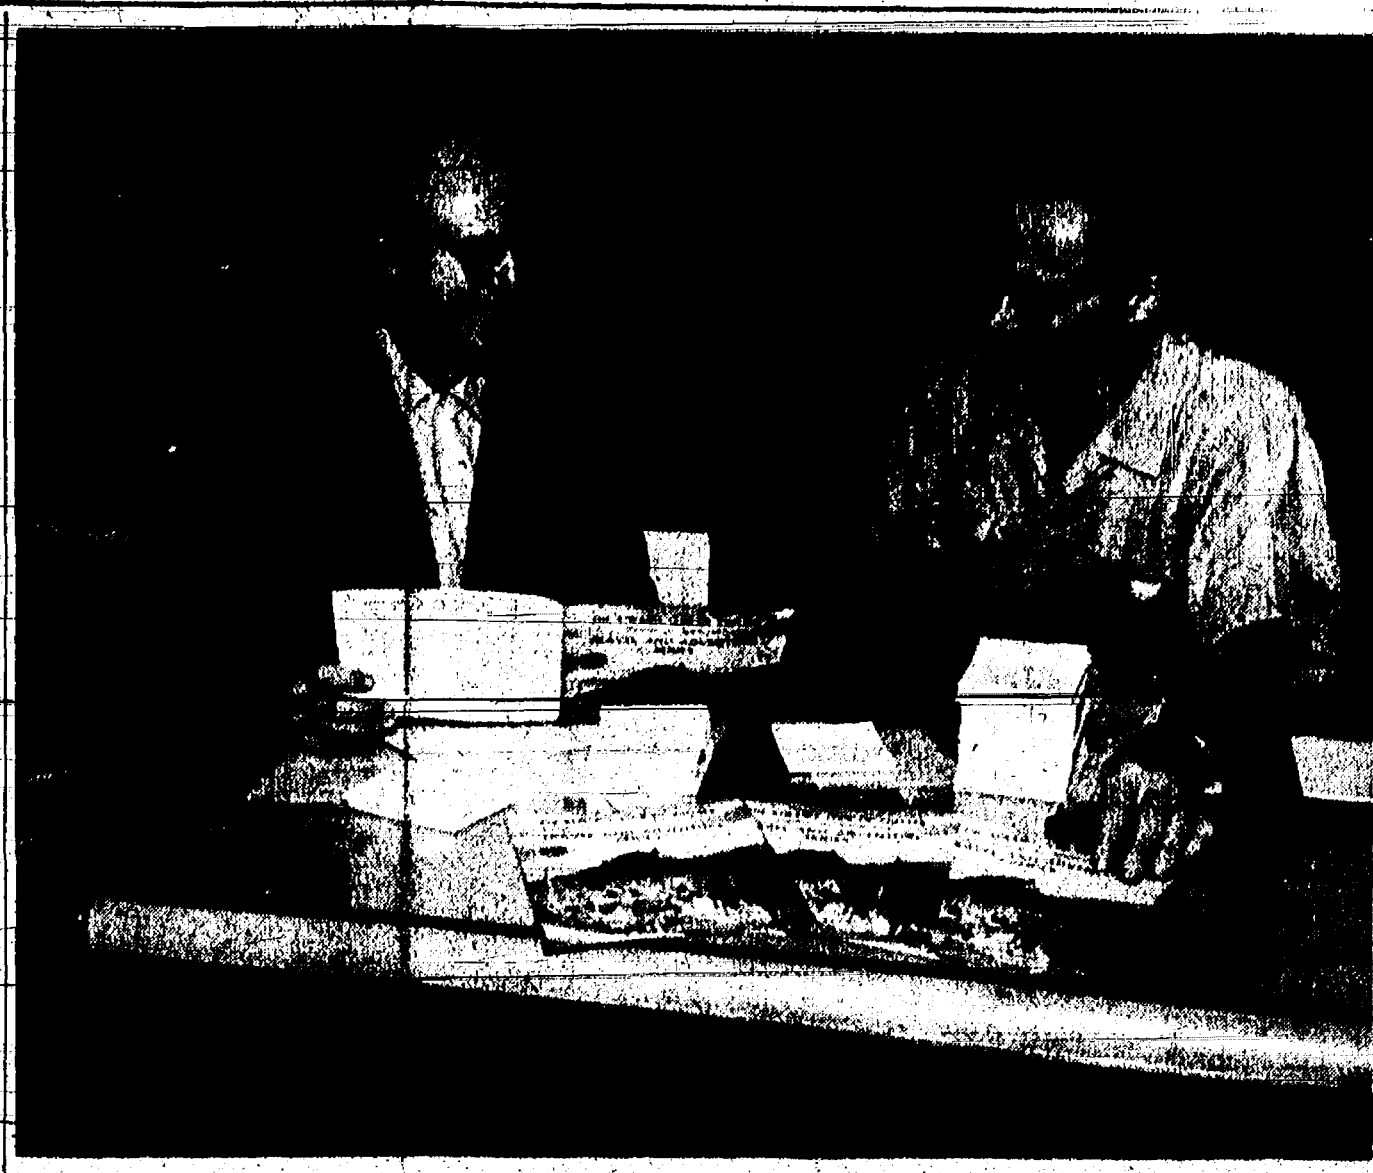

Boys: underwear, shirts, sizes 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 16; "T" shirts (long sleeves) and preferred to other type shirts, sizes, 4, 8, 10; jeans, 4-6-8 (lined if possible); pajamas, all sizes through 18; socks, all sizes up to 8; sweaters, all sizes.

Girls: underwear; panties, 2-4-6; slips, 4-6-12-14; bras, all sizes; jeans, all sizes; dresses, all sizes; pajamas, nightgowns (needed especially) all sizes, 4-6-10-12-16; sweaters, all sizes.

Diapers are another needed item. Also, sheets and pillow cases.

Money donations may be used to purchase shoes, boots and other necessary clothing to meet some special need.

Mrs. Louis Ramp, the Social service director checked supplies on hand and gave this list to the Needlework Guild.

TRAVEL SERIES TICKET TIME—Here are Wallace Wood, (left) and James Daniels sorting tickets in bundles Monday afternoon in preparation for distribution to Kiwanians at Monday evening's meeting. All Kiwanians are selling the tickets for the second annual travelogue series sponsored by the club—the first program of the series of six is scheduled for Oct. 20. The club limits tickets to the seating capacity of Chelsea High school auditorium where the programs will be held. A total of 250 season tickets still were available this week. Wood and Daniels are ticket chairmen for the travelogue project.

Kiwanis Club Acts as Host To Teachers

A total of 128 members and guests were present Monday evening for the Kiwanis meeting honoring new teachers in Chelsea schools. New teachers as well as members of the Board of Education, with their wives or husbands, were guests of the club at the dinner meeting held in the social center of the Methodist church. It was also a ladies' night and club members' wives attended.

Out-of-town Kiwanis guests included Division VI Lieutenant Governor J. D. Clark of Belleville and the 1963 lieutenant-governor-elect, Jack Thompson, of Ann Arbor Western Kiwanis club.

Entertainment was provided by Russ Kleiweitz, a member of the Belleville club who is described as "the Jimmy Durante" of the Kiwanis Michigan District.

Formerly chief pianist for 50 years at Grinnell's music store in Detroit, his repertoire includes a wide variation of arrangements of old familiar tunes interspersed with comedy in the style of Jimmy Durante.

Homecoming Plans Include Big Pep Rally

A huge pep rally next Thursday, Oct. 4, will precede the annual homecoming football game which is scheduled to be played here with Ypsilanti-Roseville Friday.

The pep rally will begin at 7:30 p.m. around a big bonfire on the high school parking lot.

All interested people of the community are invited to attend the pep rally, highlights of which will be short talks by some of the former football greats here.

Invited to appear at the rally are representatives of CHS football teams of 1932, 1942 and 1952.

Also taking part will be the 1962 football team co-captains Jack Howard and Tom Eisenboiser, the coaches—the CHS Band, cheerleaders, and most certainly all members of the football team.

Nancy Huelberg, general chairman of the homecoming for the sponsoring senior class, and Sandra Sharvard, captain in charge of the pep rally, predict this will be one of the "peppiest" pep rallies and homecomings of recent years and invite all people of the community to take part in the fun.

Traditional naming of a homecoming queen is scheduled for Friday night; candidates being Diane Edwards and Paula Romine, seniors; Nancy Reilly and Pam Kishmaul, juniors; Audrey Hayes and Linda Erickson, sophomores; and Judy Erickson and Marianne Edwards, freshmen.

The football captains are expected to officiate at the crowning of the "queen" Friday night.

The homecoming dance will follow Friday's game.

Police Kill Dog After It Bites Child

Chelsea Police Chief John Palmer shot and killed an 85-pound German Shepherd dog yesterday as the dog leaped to attack him. The incident occurred at 8:15 a.m. near the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Scott, 237 Railroad St.

Mrs. Scott had called police after her four-year-old son, Jeffrey, who had been attacked by the dog and bitten on the arm. The little boy was in his own yard; he had just stepped from the porch when the dog charged at him.

Chief Palmer said the big black and yellow dog had no tag or identification as to its owner. An examination of the dog to determine if it was suffering from rabies is being made by the Michigan State Department of Health.

After yesterday's experience with the attacking dog, Chief Palmer said that any dog who attacks anyone inside the village limits where he has jurisdiction, will be shot and killed on sight and their owners, if identified, will be prosecuted.

Community Chest Goal Set at $15,400

Goal for the Community Chest campaign this year is $15,400, just $100 over that of last year; however, the goal fell short last year by approximately 10 percent and campaign committees suggest that if contributors are willing to increase their last year's donation by that percentage, it will be possible to raise the full amount this year.

The increase would not be a hardship for individual donors, the committee points out; if those who gave $1.00 last year would increase that to $1.10; those whose contribution was $5.00 would add 50 cents; those who contributed $10 last year increase it by 10 percent to $11 and so on, the goal could be reached.

The campaign opens Oct. 15 this year with a coffee hour for all workers. It has not yet been decided where this coffee hour will take place.

Workers' materials will be distributed at that time and the three-week campaign will be officially opened.

Benefitting agencies this year are Chelsea Recreation Council; Chelsea Social Service; American Red Cross; Girl Scouts; Boy Scouts; United Fund; Salvation Army; Chelsea Band Instrument Fund; UAW-CIO Children's Christmas party; Chelsea Friends of the Library; and Huron Valley Child Guidance.

It is hoped to reach a decision at the Oct. 17 meeting as to whether the group should organize itself as a Parent-Teacher Association (PTA), a Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) or other.

Hostesses who will serve refreshments at the Oct. 17 meeting are Mrs. Calvin Clark and Mrs. Wilber Worden.

Open House Set Oct. 5 at Meth. Home

Next Friday, Oct. 5, is the date for the 15th annual Chelsea Home Friends open house at the Methodist Home, a special feature this year being a conducted tour of the new addition to the facility which is now nearing completion.

The open house is sponsored by the Chelsea Home Friends' Board in connection with their harvest tea.

Chelsea Home Friends of the Detroit Conference is an organization formed for the purpose of "promoting interest in the welfare and care of members in the Chelsea Methodist Home."

Chelsea Home Friends provide the "extras" for the Home family—birthday gifts, Thanksgiving fruit plates, Christmas gifts, Mother's Day "embrasures," Fathers' Day remembrances, candy for all special holidays and the cake and ice cream for the monthly birthday parties.

Mrs. Ronald Geyman of Berkley, who is Chelsea Home Friends president, is in charge of the open house arrangements; Mrs. Paul Keener, of Detroit, social chairman of the organization, is in charge of the tea to be held in the Home dining room from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m.; and Mrs. Nello Ring of Southfield, Home Friends vice-president, is to be in charge of a program scheduled for 2 p.m.

"Among those expected to participate in the program are the Rev. J. Douglas Parker, D.D., who is president of the Methodist Home Board of Trustees, and Mrs. James Crippen who is chairman of the Home's Board of Managers. Both will extend greetings and welcome guests to the open house."

The Rev. E. J. Weiss, superintendent of the Home, also will address the guests and members of the Home family.

Conducted tours of the present Home facilities as well as the new addition, will take place throughout the afternoon. It is expected that one apartment in the new section will be temporarily furnished for the occasion so visitors may see how the living areas will (Continued on page seven)

Annual Fall Color Tours Start Monday

Kiwanians Start Travel Ticket Sales

James Daniels and Wallace Wood, ticket chairmen for the second annual travelogue series sponsored by the Kiwanis club, said yesterday that 400 of the 650 season tickets available for the 1962-63 series have already been sold. The remaining 250 tickets were distributed Monday evening to Kiwanians who are now disposing of them to area residents who wish to attend the programs.

A large number of season tickets for the 1962-63 series were reserved last spring at the final program of the 1961-62 travelogue series, the first sponsored here by Kiwanians.

The popularity of the entertainment last year prompted Kiwanians to sponsor the series as an annual event.

The first program this season is scheduled for Oct. 20, when Robert Davis will narrate his pictures on Belgium, described as "a panorama tour in color of the treasure paths of one of the most densely populated countries of Europe."

The programs are given in the Chelsea High school auditorium. Succeeding programs are as follows:

"The Soul of Mexico" by Romaine Wilhelmsen, Saturday, Nov. 17; "New York — Empire State" by Benton S. Clark, Saturday, Dec. 8; "Away To The South Seas" by "Polynea-Garden of Eden" by Bathie Stuart, Saturday, Jan. 19; "The Yukon and The Klondike" by Don Coffey, Saturday, Feb. 2; and "Colorado Today" by "Yesterday" Stan Midgely, Monday, April 1.

Miss Stuart and Cooper return here for their second appearance. Both were included in the first series last year.

All of the speakers for the 1962-63 have gained a reputation for presenting excellent entertainment and are booked for repeat performances on important courses and travelogues throughout the country.

Direction Signs Will Mark Two Tour Routes

It's "Fall Color Tour" time in the Chelsea area and Chamber of Commerce committees headed by Anton Nielsen and J. V. Burg, II, are busy preparing for the annual event.

The Chamber of Commerce has been sponsoring color tours here since 1955.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce (Jaycees) co-operates by staging a chicken barbecue on a grand scale at Pierce Memorial Park the second week of the month. Date for this year's barbecue is Sunday, Oct. 14.

Ed Akin, chairman of the Jaycees chicken barbecue, said plans have been completed for serving 1,200 dinners.

On the committee with him are Arthur Stoll, Ron Eider, George Staffan and Lloyd Schneider.

Chelsea residents who patronize the chicken barbecue, as well as out-of-town visitors, may eat their dinners at the park if they wish; however, take-out service is available and the method of serving has been worked out to a degree which assures fast service and no long waiting.

Dates for the color tour are Oct. 1-13. Tour maps are available at Chamber of Commerce headquarters maintained throughout the month at Chelsea Drug Store, corner Main and Middle Sts.

Chamber of Commerce committees also post signs throughout the tour area designating not only route directions but convenient picnic areas and special tour highlights.

Two separate tours are marked — No. 1 taking approximately one hour to cover and No. 2 approximately one and one-half hours of driving.

Both routes begin at the corner of Main and Middle Sts., going north out of Chelsea on M-92, Workman and Stoffer Rds. to North Territorial Rd.

The routes divide here, No. 1 following North Territorial Rd. east to Town Hall Rd.; then Silver Hill Rd., Patterson Lake Rd., Hanked Rd., and North Lake Rd. back to the North Territorial beginning point. The tour may be concluded here by heading back to Chelsea.

If desired, motorists may continue west on Territorial Rd. to take Color Tour No. 11 into the Waterloo Area and make their way back to Chelsea by way of Cayumough Lake Rd., re-entering Chelsea from the west on West Middle St.

Signs will be posted throughout the color tour area Sunday, Sept. 30.

12 Webelos Become New Boy Scouts

Highlight of the Cub Scout Pack meeting Thursday evening at the Junior High school was a ceremony during which Webelos became Boy Scouts. Seven of the 12 boys eligible for the promotion were not present for the occasion.

Those who were present are Gary Ellenwood, Don Hafner, Ray Trevino, Jack Wilson and Sam Hoover.

Those eligible but not present Thursday are James Poertner, Homer Allen, Ben Bower, Craig McFarley, Mike Reilly, Richard Balfing and Tim Orbring.

Because Cubmaster W. J. Grossman was unavoidably detained, Scoutmaster Robert Foye of Troop 25 acted for him during the ceremony.

Assistant Scoutmaster Fred Worden of Troop 25 and Scoutmaster Alvin Reinhardt of Troop 16 assisted.

Don VI, of which Mrs. Vernon Parks and Mrs. Curtis Farley are den mothers, put on an impressive flag ceremony with the assistance of Vernon Parks.

Four new den mothers were introduced — Mrs. Robert Foye, Mrs. Henry Buss, Mrs. Huey Hardy and Mrs. Ernest Push.

It was announced that Cub Scout Committee meetings will now take place in Room 14 at the school.

The October Pack meeting is to be a parents' night. Mrs. Vernon Parks and Mrs. Curtis Farley are in charge.

UNICEF Halloween Planned To Replace 'Tricks or Treats'

Men and women representatives from the public schools, churches, study clubs and other interested groups met at McKune Memorial Library Monday evening to formulate plans for the promotion of a UNICEF Halloween program in Chelsea this year; plans had originated at a meeting of the Chelsea Council of United Church Women at the Congregational church Sept. 14 when it was voted to introduce this program in Chelsea.

The meeting of the representative group Monday evening was an outgrowth of a preliminary meeting of a nucleus of interested people who decided that this being a project which involves the entire community, it should be planned and carried out by the groups involved.

In the UNICEF Halloween program all children who CHOOSE to do so "beg" for coins instead of treats on the night of "tricks or treats." The total amount received is sent to UNICEF headquarters to be used for health and welfare purposes benefitting underprivileged children in all countries of the world.

It was the unanimous decision of the committee that this should NOT be an additional Halloween project of solicitation but that it should be a substitute for the "tricks or treats" to the degree that parents and children choose to participate; each family and child should be privileged to make his own choice in the matter.

For proper safety and care for the children who choose to participate in the UNICEF project, neighborhood parents, high schoolers and leaders of church school classes, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Brownies, Cub Scouts or other children's groups are invited to volunteer as sponsors of small groups of children to accompany them on the night of the program and be responsible to the central committee.

It was suggested at Monday's meeting that these volunteers report their willingness to participate to the representative who explained the UNICEF plan to the (Continued on page five)

The junior-senior group parents and teachers will meet again Oct. 17; at that time a report is to be given by a committee appointed to review the constitution and by-laws of the present elementary PTA group. Members of the study committee are Nell Colley, Alfred Smith, Homer Ashley and Ross Scholtens.

St. Paul's Plans Mission Festival Next Sunday

St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church has scheduled its annual Mission Festival for Sunday, Sept. 30.

In keeping with the custom of inviting persons "prominent in missionary work as guest speakers at these services, Miss Muriel Heild, synod chairman of Christian World Ministries of the United Church of Christ, has accepted an invitation to tell of her experiences.

Miss Heild, a Detroit nurse and lay worker, is active in church school work as well as the church in many lands. During her vacations she has personally financed her trips to visit most of the mission stations of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The synodical committee of which she is chairman is charged with the task of obtaining and disseminating information to the people of the synod and to procure missionaries to visit the churches and tell their stories first hand.

The Rev. Paul M. Schnake, pastor of St. Paul's church, is a member of this committee.

Identical services at 8:15 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. are planned in order to give all members and friends of the church an opportunity to hear Miss Heild.

Sunday school classes will meet at the regular hour, 9:30 a.m.

Judy Wiseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wiseman, has been accepted as a member of the apprentice group of the Ann Arbor Civic Hall, following try-outs by a large group of candidates.

Monroe Doctrine Should Be Invoked Against Russian Tampering in Cuba

The recent announcement by Moscow that she is materially aiding Cuba, and threats from Moscow, that an attack on Cuba would bring rocket retaliation on the United States from Russia, seem to make a shambles of the Monroe Doctrine.

Certainly the boasts of Nikita Khrushchev that Russian rockets are ready to help reply to any U. S. action against Cuba, and his statement that the Monroe Doctrine is "dead" are both signs that Russia has her hands in the affairs of Mrs. Mary Conway Kohler, commenting on youths not going to college:

"In our culture, to do nothing is to be nothing and to be unemployed for a long time is to become unemployable," to American hemisphere.

No one in his right senses can doubt that Russia does not seek to control events in Cuba. Eventually the Russians will control Cuba, if that is not already the case, and when that day comes a foreign power will have flouted the Monroe Doctrine's vital principle.

That principle was stated first by President James Monroe in 1823 and has been in effect for 139 years. In essence, President Monroe told European powers to let Latin America alone. He announced that the United States would look upon any attempt to gain colonies in the hemisphere as dangerous and a threat to peace.

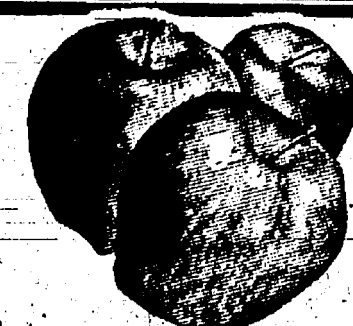

Yet, both Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy have not invoked the Doctrine in the case of Cuba. We have said we are relying on joint action of all the American republics but in the last meeting of the Organization of American States, Secretary of State Dean Rusk utterly failed to win any significant action against Cuba.

During President Eisenhower's term of office, an under-cover effort was initiated for the invasion of Cuba. Under President Kennedy this plan was bungled. Since then, our faces have been red most of the time.

All of which goes to show that as soon as it was established that the Communists were in control in Cuba, and in league with Moscow, our best policy would have been to immediately invoke the Monroe Doctrine and to have taken action. But we hesitated, as usual, ignoring the vital Monroe Doctrine, and the situation gets worse month by month while we do practically nothing.

FRIDAY THOUGHTS COME CREEPING

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

A heavy turnover in the State Legislature next year nearly precludes prediction of the men who will hold the leadership posts in at least one chamber.

In the House of Representatives, a battle is quickly shaping up over the member who will fill the Speaker's chair vacated when Don Pears, Buchanan Republican, stepped out. Pears made an unsuccessful bid for the OP nomination in the 4th Congressional District.

At least two other Republicans have loudly voiced interest in replacing Pears on the rostrum. These are Rep. Robert E. Waldron of Grosse Pointe and current Majority Leader Allison Green of Kingston.

All House members vote in the Speaker election although the majority party caucus usually determines who its "favorite son" will be.

If the present 58-54 division of the House is maintained after the November election, Democratic votes on the Speaker will be very important.

Waldron, who chaired the Labor Committee, was less than popular among Democratic members. His committee recommended the many unemployment compensations law changes strongly opposed by Democrats and buried bills introduced by the minority party.

Green, as floor leader, was less than liked by the Democrats but could well emerge as the most favorable of the three likely candidates for Speaker.

A dark-horse candidate among the Republicans might well also be brought out of any lengthy caucus as the party favorite.

Barring a GOP sweep of the election, Democrats maintain hope of gaining control of the House, which has been nearly evenly divided during the last four years.

In 1959 when a 55-55 split occurred Minority Leader Joseph J. Kowalski of Detroit and his assistant, Albert R. Horrigan of Flint, were the nominees for the Speaker and Speaker Pro-Tem.

All indications are that the same two would be the Democratic choices for the top leadership again.

In the Senate, of course, the presiding officer will be the Lieutenant Governor elected in November.

The President Pro-Tem, however, is elected from the majority party ranks. Sen. Perry W. Greene, Grand Rapids Republican holds this spot until his retirement at the end of the current session.

A likely shakeup in the GOP ranks of the upper chamber presents a strong possibility that the so-called "moderates" will be in the majority.

Because of the traditional strong majority held by Republicans the party caucus nominee will be elected. Sen. John W. Fitzgerald of Grand Ledge or former Majority Leader Frank D. Beadle of St. Clair appear likely nominees for the post.

An old trail believed to have been carved out by herds of buffalo in migration across Michigan's Lower Peninsula formed the basis for one of the state's main east-west traffic arteries.

The present US-12 highway from Detroit through Coldwater and Niles and to the southwest corner of the state is probably the oldest travel route in Michigan. Until recently it was known as US-112.

Lewis Cass, Michigan's governor during territorial days, became the first American to cover the distance from Chicago to Detroit on the trail which later became the highway.

Cass led a party of explorers into northern Minnesota in 1820. On their eastward return many returned to Detroit via the Great Lakes.

Cass went south to visit Chicago. An overland horseback trip brought Cass back to Detroit on the southern Michigan route once traveled by buffalos and Indians.

Just four years after his trip, Cass had the route surveyed and put on the map. It has been there ever since.

Dry, cleaning machines if improperly operating or used can be deadly weapons, according to State Health Commissioner Albert E. Heustis.

"We have had several incidents reported, and similar reports have been made across the nation, of children being overcome by fumes from the dry cleaning solvent," Heustis said.

Heavy articles particularly have a tendency to retain the odor of the dry cleaning fluid used in the machines, especially if the machine is not working properly.

Heustis said machines with defects, which tend to complete the cycle before clothes are completely dry, should be reported to the operators of the establishments.

If no one is available to give assistance, caution should be used in handling the articles he said.

"Articles that are still damp or retain the odor of the solvent should be hung outside to dry, and under no circumstances should they be placed in a closed auto or small room."

Motorists driving on freeways should follow other vehicles at a distance of at least one car length for every 10 mph of speed. This distance should be increased when weather conditions are unfavorable.

The Michigan State Highway Department spent an average of $350 per mile during 1961 to clean up litter on Michigan's 9,200 miles of state highway.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

U-M Prof Says Big City Life Isn't Perfect

Ann Arbor—The old adage that "life is richer and more exciting in the big city" just isn't true, says Thomas Parsons, instructor in education at the University of Michigan.

"The skills necessary to make such roles as fire protection, mail construction, water and sewage service, mass communications, commerce, building and legal organization—to name a few—are scarce in a tiny population."

"This means each resident is needed by his neighbors and must usually develop many productive roles to maintain the very life of the community," says Parsons.

"The rural barber or storekeeper, therefore, is far more likely than his city counterpart to have also learned and practiced—as a carpenter, road repairman, law enforcer, officer, farmer, well driller, preacher, jurist or justice, house painter, musician or entertainer or scoutmaster."

"What's more," says Parsons, "the rural man—and his sons who grow up helping dad in his many competencies—can hardly escape the sense of security they get from knowing that their economic contributions are needed by their fellow citizens and are therefore affectionately appreciated."

Arab States Provide Aid to Refugees

To counteract a popular misconception that Arab states have provided little or no aid to refugees from Palestine quartered among their populations, the most recent news letter of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency points out that such aid amounted to $55,000,000 through 1961.

In addition to cash donations, UNRWA stated, direct relief equivalent to $38,000,000 has been made available by the host governments—Jordan, Lebanon, Syria and the United Arab Republic—in the form of housing, education, food, medicines and transport. Saudi Arabia has also participated, to the extent of $1,842,668 since 1948, when the problem arose.

Contributions made through the United Nations from all sources has amounted to $452,856,000, the agency said. Of the whole, the United States has been responsible for 70 percent.

All Drivers Are Menace

Says London Professor

London, England—John Cohen, professor of psychology at Manchester University, says all drivers are a menace the moment they get behind the wheel of their cars. In a story in the Manchester Guardian, Professor Cohen said speed and acceleration are status symbols, and a vehicle becomes a symbol of the driver's ego, which the driver can demonstrate his manhood and virility. Even sober drivers are a menace, he said, because of their judgment impairment with alcohol, he said. "A driver should not only be alert to the possibility of accidents, but to the possibility of injury should an accident occur," Professor Cohen said. "The safety margin which a driver should leave himself should be such that it would rule out any misadventure. Safety belts and seat cushions should not be regarded as good luck charms." Asked what he would consider to be a safe level of alcohol in the blood when driving, Professor Cohen said the smaller the amount the better he would like it.

Let's see; wasn't it about ten thousand years ago that the wise men predicted the end of civilization was at hand?

Area New England Women Plan Oct. 4 Membership Tea

The Ann Arbor Colony of New England Women will hold a membership tea at the home of Mrs. Arthur W. Smith, 1008 Oakland Ave., Ann Arbor, on Oct. 4 from 2:30 to 4:30.

The object of the National Society of New England Women is to bring together in social relations women of New England ancestry to engage in patriotic, civic and philanthropic work, thus to perpetuate the ideals and examples of their forefathers.

To be eligible for active membership a woman must be over 18 years of age and have one or more ancestors who were born in any one of the six original New England states prior to the adoption of the constitution of the United States in 1789. She must be able to prove her line of descent from said ancestor or ancestors.

Monthly meetings of the Ann Arbor Colony of New England Women are the first Thursday of each month, October through June, at 1 p.m., with a salad luncheon preceding the meeting and program.

Anyone who thinks she might be eligible is invited to attend and should notify one of the following: Mrs. R. E. Spokes, NO 2-0479; Mrs. Vernon H. Cook, NO 2-0131; Mrs. John Kagay, NO 2-4052.

Congregational church and a discussion of arrangements for a tea at the ingathering, were the principal items of business at the Sept. 25 meeting of the Helping Hand Sewing Circle at the home of Mrs. Watson Hart.

The group is responsible for the tea at the church Thursday. At Tuesday's ingathering the 16 women in the group contributed to their share for the Needlework Guild ingathering, seven infants' outfit flannel jackets, one blouse, one child's dress, two child's gowns, four bibs, two receiving blankets, two quilts, five large sheet blankets and $5 in cash.

The next meeting will include a pot-luck dinner and will take place at the home of Mrs. Winifred Coffron Oct. 30.

On the agenda for that meeting will be election of officers and a general discussion of plans for the group's 1962-63 activities.

Agricultural Entrepreneurs Farm Bureau held its Sept. 20 meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Coy.

The meeting was called to order by the vice-chairman, Charles Trinkle, with the pledge to the flag and Farm Bureau creed. Minutes were read and approved. Ten families answered roll call.

A letter was read from J. Delbert Wells, co-ordinator of community groups, and an appreciation card from the J. W. Pidd family.

Edwin Coy, package reporter, read about salesmen trying to sell farmers their products, which aren't what they should be.

Raymond Schaller led the discussion "Raising Not Income."

Each was played and refreshments of Jell-O, cake and sandwiches were served.

The next meeting is with the Erwin Pidds on Oct. 18.

Weighmasters Set To Check All Trucks

More than 1,200 authorized weighmasters in all parts of the state are making plans to help the Michigan Department of State establish the correct weight of Michigan's commercial vehicles in anticipation of the 1963 license year.

The reweighing will involve all classifications of commercial vehicles, pickups, and trailers weighing more than 450 pounds. It does not affect mobile homes or municipally franchised busses.

In announcing the program, Secretary of State James M. Hare reminded all individual truck and fleet owners that commercial vehicles must be reweighed this year in order to be eligible for 1963 plates. The new half-year and full-year 1963 commercial licenses go on sale Thursday, Nov. 1.

Avoid Costly Delays

"We want to help commercial operators avoid costly delays," Hare said. "For this reason we are permitting and encouraging vehicle owners to begin weighing their units this month and next."

This will, in the end, save them time and money and should result in a more orderly flow of early registrations as the plate year gets under way in November and December.

Hare gave a number of reasons for the across-the-board reweighing program. Unlike most passenger cars, many trucks do "change weight" from year to year and for that reason the original weight at the time it is first purchased and registered cannot be relied upon as accurate.

Trucks Rebuilt

For example, after several years' use, a wooden floor on a truck may have to be replaced. Because of the type of materials hauled, the owner may decide to put in a metal floor which will hold longer. It will often weigh more and will thus require a somewhat higher weight tax.

Auto haulaways, due to the changing size and shape of passenger cars from year to year, must frequently be widened or lengthened or otherwise adjusted to take care of the latest models. These changes tend to increase the taxable weight.

The Department of State enforcement staff continually checks truck weights, and Hare believes that most fleet owners are already in good shape. Nevertheless, accuracy of the board reweighing is necessary every few years to be sure that all commercial vehicle owners are paying their fair share of the weight tax.

During the next eight weeks, as state enforcement officers continue to make their routine terminal checks, they will give fleet owners, whose vehicles are being reweighed, signed documents attesting to the weights established at that time. These the owner can use as proof when he pays for his 1963 license fees.

Hare said his Department is offering special services to fleet owners to help such large operators expedite their weighing operation. Where they may have many identical units only a few units will have to be weighed and that weight will be considered the norm for all vehicles of the same class.

"We believe that this early announcement of the reweighing will alert commercial vehicle owners to their responsibility in this matter and that this program will assure all who pay weight taxes that every licensed truck, trailer, pickup, private bus, and other commercial vehicle owner is paying his fair and lawful share of the weight tax," Hare said.

Approved Scales
There are about 1,200 authorized weighmasters in Michigan and no truck owner need go very far to get an accurate record showing the true weight of his vehicle.

Authorized weighmasters are located in all 88 counties of Michigan. The Department of Agriculture periodically checks and approves their scales, which are used usually used for weighing feed or scrap metals but which are also suitable for weighing vehicles. Michigan State Highway Department weighing units are not suitable for or available for this purpose.

The UNICEF plan is carried on in many communities throughout the country, providing "dress-up" fun for children and giving them an opportunity for doing something for others.

It is believed by those who broached the subject at the United Church Women's meeting that many area residents will welcome this change in Halloween "tricks or treats."

DON'T SHOUT

Nice, France—Marcel Grunt, 70, was knocked down by a sports car driven by a pretty brunette. She kept right on going and Grunt shouted some complimentary remarks about lady drivers.

It proved more than the lady could take. She backed her car back, got out, took her high-heeled shoe and slugged him over the head.

Grunt was treated for serious head injuries.

Grunt would probably be better off if it was not in the hands of those who recommended themselves so highly.

ROBBING THE PIGGIES—Edwyn Miller, "mechanical litter"—a sow milking machine. First animal husbandry researcher, adjusts Sadie's

UNIQUE RESEARCH PROJECT:

MSU Scientists Develop Machine To Replace Piglets

Sadie, the sow, probably won't mind where her litter went. While it's true that "every little bit hurts," Sadie's seven little piglets aren't getting all the feedings they should. About three times a day, the little pigs find that Mom's milk is being taken by a mechanical "litter."

It seems that a pair of Michigan State University animal husbandry researchers have built a milking machine for Sadie to help them collect her colostrum (mother pig's milk). The scientists—Edwyn Miller and Dick Daniels—want to analyze the milk because they know it contains essential antibodies that baby pigs can get from no other source.

Miller has already produced a synthetic diet for little pigs. If he can get large quantities of colostrum milk, it will be easier to compare the acceptability and nutritional value of his synthetic diet with the sow's milk.

The researchers hope that some day they will be able to separate the whey from the colostrum milk, make the antibodies, and then use the antibodies to produce pigs which will be free of certain diseases. There's a good possibility that these antibodies might also be used to prevent diseases in humans, Miller says.

Sadie's new "litter" has 12 teat cups and usually gets about a quart of milk at each milking. The scientists separate the little pigs from their mother about three hours before milking to increase the amount of milk in her udder. The piglets would ordinarily nurse about every hour and a half.

A hormone called oxytocin is injected just under Sadie's skin to stimulate her milk flow. Miller says the milk would be secreted faster if the hormone were injected intravenously, but the sow's milk production would be slightly less.

When Sadie "lets down" milk it flows in waves of 20 to 50 seconds with one to three minutes between them. There are usually about 10 waves in a milking, but the range may be anywhere from 8 to 15 waves.

After each milking, Miller and Daniels weigh the amount of milk secreted from each teat. Sadie usually averages about four ounces of milk from each of her eight functional teats.

The researchers say that a mother pig reaches the peak of her lactation during the second or third week after farrowing. As her production declines, the piglets are usually supplemented with a creep ration of dry feed to give them the nutrition they need.

Out-of-town callers of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Eisenmann this week included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eisenmann and family of Saline, who were here Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. William Eisenmann of Ann Arbor, Sunday afternoon; and Walter Riemschneider of Cavanaugh Lake on Monday.

CON-CON REPORT

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is No. 15 in a series about the proposed new Michigan Constitution. Additional articles will appear in subsequent weeks.

Directors of the influential Michigan Education Association (MEA) voice of 70,000 school teachers and employees, are the latest state-wide group to endorse Michigan's proposed new constitution.

The MEA action came within a week of similar approval by directors of the Michigan Municipal League who recommended to their members support for the new document. The League is scheduled to act on its directors' endorsement at their annual meeting Sept. 19-21.

The MEA and the Municipal League join organizations like the Michigan League of Women Voters, Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers in support of the new constitution.

Principal opposition to the proposed document has come from the State AFL-CIO, the state unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the Michigan Justices of the Peace Association.

At their recent state convention, Michigan Republicans endorsed the new constitution and Democrats approved resolutions opposing adoption.

E. Dale Kennedy, MEA executive secretary, said that his board's motion of approval was adopted without a dissenting vote.

"All the power of the MEA will be focused toward urging the electorate to accept the new constitution in a favorable vote at next April's election," Kennedy said.

"The vast machinery of this professional association of more than 70,000 members will be used to inform not only educators but the general public concerning the value of this basic document."

Kennedy said: "The education article unequivocally is the best in the nation. It will provide the framework to assure each Michigan student a superior education."

One part of the article enlarges the elective State Board of Education and makes the state superintendent of public instruction, now an elective officer, an appointee of the board. Kennedy said educators long have recommended this arrangement.

MEA directors also praised a feature which would continue elective control of the three largest state universities, with appointive boards for other state institutions of higher education. Also approved was a provision for an advisory board for junior and community colleges in the state.

The board was also favorable to provisions in the article on Finance and Taxation which earmark half the 4-cent sales tax for school districts and higher education.

"This article reflects principles of sound fiscal responsibility," Kennedy said. "It is a major improvement over the old article which limited to a greater extent local and state financial participation in education. Kennedy said MEA directors individually did not like all provisions in the proposed constitution but looked at it generally as a major improvement.

"We vigorously urge its adoption and pledge every effort this end," the board declared.

BOY LOSES THUMB

Detroit — A 14-year-old boy lost his right thumb and suffered cuts and bruises when his homemade rocket-launching device blew up.

Donald Messier and two other boys were trying to fire a toy rocket from a launcher made of pipe. Officers said the pipe was stuffed with match heads and exploded when Messier tried to light it.

TEEN-AGE ROMANTICS
 Teen-agers in Ohio had objected to seat belts because their use put an "unromantic distance" between the driver and his date. Now they've solved the problem by installing a passenger belt toward the center. They say it's much cozier that way.

 ward Shipley, secretary; and Charles Lancaster, treasurer. The group decided regular meetings of their organization should be held the third Wednesday of alternate months, beginning in October.
 The program at the Oct. 17 meeting will be presented by Principal Alan Conklin of the Junior High school and Charles Lane, principal of Chelsea High school. They will give a resume of extracurricular activities of the two schools.
 James Hoffmeyer, who was elected vice-president of the combined PTA last spring, presided at the meeting of all parents and teachers present Wednesday evening for a discussion of the future of the organization. It had been impossible to find someone to accept the office of president of the combined group.
 Hoffmeyer's suggestion that the group divide into two PTA's—elementary and high school—was voted upon and was approved unanimously.
 Parents and teachers of students in grades 7-12 then left to hold a separate meeting with results as stated above.
 To complete the state of officers, Mrs. Robert Koch was elected president.
 Hoffmeyer continues as vice-president; Mrs. Andy Blackwell is secretary and Mrs. Charles Lancaster, treasurer.
 The executive committee of the elementary group will decide the time and place of the next meeting.
 Hoffmeyer, as presiding officer at the elementary group meeting, had asked for volunteers for the various committees and the following were named:
 Publicity—Mrs. George McKelghan, chairman; Mrs. Rosemary Irving and Mrs. Dudley Foster.
 Program—Mrs. Frances Baldrighi, chairman; Mrs. Judith Mulholland, Miss Charlene Chisholm, Miss Mary Weber, Mrs. Nell Rooke and Mrs. Mary Lou Bower.
 Refreshments and hosting—Mrs. A. Eresten, chairman; Mrs. Vern Parks, assistant chairman; Mrs. Clarence Nutt, Mrs. Earl Heim, Mrs. Wesley McClain, Mrs. Doris Knott and Mrs. Jennie Robbins.

DREAM COMES TRUE
 Butte, Mont. —A 104-year-old woman, Mrs. Barbara Lesage, preysed for Astronaut John Glenn's successful journey through space last February, and expressed a wish to see the capsule.
 Mrs. Lesage realized her dream when she reached from her wheelchair and touched the Friendship 7 space craft on exhibit at the Seattle World Fair.
 She said: "This is wonderful! It is more than I expected in every way."

WILL HISTORIC CHURCH BE SAVED? Donations are pouring in from all over Michigan in the current campaign to raise $100,000 by Oct. 1 to save and restore the 129-year-old St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Tecumseh as an historic shrine. It is the state's oldest church in continuous use, but now faces doom. It must make way for a new St. Peter's presently under construction. The community's weekly newspaper, The Tecumseh Herald, started the drive. Gifts of $1 are sought from 100,000 interested Michigan citizens. These can be sent to The Herald.

FROM THE GOVERNOR'S CHAIR

By John B. Swainson

I am happy to report this week that Michigan has taken the lead in developing a positive state program to combat juvenile delinquency and youth crime through the Governor's Interagency Committee which handles these vital problems.
 The state committee which I appointed last May has made an application to the president's committee for financial support of the Michigan program.
 Federal funds for this type of program were made available under the Juvenile Delinquency Control Act of 1961 and I am proud to say that once again Michigan has become the first state to come up with an active program to take advantage of this.
 Several cities throughout the nation have already started programs of this sort. Detroit, among them, but we are the first to undertake state-wide effort.
 The Michigan project proposes that state and local units of government become partners in combatting delinquency. We propose to utilize existing state and local services with the Governor's Interagency Committee acting as the coordinating body.
 It seems very important to me that all agencies dealing with this problem throughout the state be operating on a unified basis to rehabilitate youthful offenders.
 My committee has met this past week with representatives of the President's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Crime, the National Council on appear when construction is completed.

 The president read the minutes of a planning board meeting held in Ann Arbor and Julie Elsemann and Diane Worden volunteered to serve as delegates.

 Chelsea Home residents also will get their first look at the inside of the new building; contractors have requested for safety reasons that no one but their employees go into the building while it is under construction. Special safety arrangements have been made to permit the tours tomorrow and Home residents will be taken through the building in the morning to avoid being jostled during the rush of the afternoon program.
 As is customary at the annual harvest teas, members of the Home family will have a display of their handiwork on sale in the lounge. Proceeds of the sale of these articles go to the Home residents who made them and offer them for sale.

How Valuable Is Local Newspaper Advertising To Local Business People?

Here's What the American Bankers Magazine Has To Say:

"No business man or woman in any town should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half, or even a quarter page advertisement in each issue of the paper, but your name and address should be mentioned, if you do not use more than several inches of space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town... it's the best possible town advertiser. The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town."

No Prohibition Party On Michigan Ballot

For the first time in 20 years the familiar vignette of the Prohibition Party, which so closely resembled the Michigan Coat of Arms, will not be on the Michigan ballot.

According to Secretary of State James M. Haro, the Prohibition Party first ran a ticket in 1870 and again in 1872 and '74. Then it disappeared from the ballot until 1880 to be on Michigan paper ballots for more than half a century, through wet and dry periods of the State's history. After polling 2,031 votes in 1932 the party vignette was not among the 10 parties on the 1934 ballot.

In 1942 the Prohibition Party again became active politically, Haro said. "They ran candidates for State offices through the last General Election in 1960.

AGRICULTURE In Action

by M. L. Woel

MICHIGAN FARM SYSTEM

Farm Policy

Harvest

Harvest time and the weeks immediately following is the traditional time for farmers to gather in co-operative or farm organization annual meeting. Traditionally too, the Governor kicks off the season by recognizing October as "Co-operative Month" with Governor Swainson recently carrying out this formality begun some years ago by former Governor Williams.

What are some prime policy issues to be decided by farmers who are members of one or more of the approximately 300 Michigan farmer co-operatives, or of one of the general farm organizations of the state? If recent reports are any indication, farmers list these major concerns:

Farm income, taxes, government farm policies and programs, labor monopoly, farm marketing power, legislative apportionment, Japanese beetle infestation, animal disease control, and issues tied to roads, schools and rural health. Frequently farmers display the same vigor in pursuing their interests in these areas as they do in working together on any other major project of community concern.

A day spent with the farm members of the Calhoun county Farm Bureau Resolutions committee is a case in point. The committee of farm men and women made appointments with major agricultural agencies in the county and then devoted a full day of their time prior to any formal resolutions-writing session. They visited such offices as that of the County Superintendent of Schools, Board of Education, Department of Equalization, and sat in on a meeting of the county Board of Supervisors.

Other farm policy committees could do well to copy the Calhoun program of study and friendly interest. Committee members asked questions of genuine concern. They offered help.

Contrast this with the farmer protests we sometimes hear about, the all-too-frequent negative gripe and grumble sessions that accomplish little and do much to darken the image of agriculture.

School Board Briefs

At the Sept. 18 meeting of the Chelsea School District Board of Education signing of contracts was completed for all teaching positions in the schools. In addition to those previously announced, one new third grade teacher was signed for South Elementary school. She is Mrs. Jeanette Ennis, a January, 1961, graduate of Eastern Michigan University. She fills the position which became vacant when Mrs. Doris Lohmann was transferred to the Junior High school as science and home economics teacher. Mrs. Lehmann also teaches one home economics class at Chelsea High school.

Total disbursements for the month authorized in the amount of $15,999.61.

Discussion pertaining to possible affiliation with the Michigan Association of School Boards was concluded with a negative vote.

School administration given authorization for hiring a part-time secretary at the high school as an assistant to Mrs. Irene Claire.

Board members, by a vote of 6-1, re-affirmed existing policy regarding school bus runs.

Announcement that a condensed audit report of the 1961-62 school year is to be published in the Chelsea Standard before Nov. 1.

Board cast unanimous vote to allot $800 for transportation costs to Ypsilanti for students of the Chelsea School District in special education class (Type B).

Plans discussed for a permanent Citizens Committee which is to be appointed soon.

The future planning committee of the School Board has arranged for the entire board membership to tour the Chelsea school facilities during school sessions Tuesday, Oct. 2, noting that all rooms are now occupied; three sixth grade sections are attending classes at the Junior High school; the high school special education classes are meeting in the dining room and the faculty room; high school academic classes are meeting in the art and home economics rooms, etc.

Tuesday's meeting was held in the board room at Chelsea High school.

Michigan Dairy Farmers Receive Price Increase

Michigan dairy farmers got a welcome boost in prices last month following a seasonal increase in Class I prices and higher Class I sales.

Southern Michigan base prices ranged from $4.10 to $4.28 for milk shipped in August, up to 15 to 22 cents from the previous month. Muskegon and Holland-Zeeland shippers had prices 10 to 17 cents higher than July while those in upstate markets benefited from seasonally high drinking milk sales, got a 24-cent increase in their blend price. Upper Peninsula blend prices ranged from 15 to 26 cents higher than a month ago, according to figures compiled by Michigan Milk Producers Association. These prices include negotiated premiums and are as much as 54 cents higher than Federal Order prices.

All lower Michigan markets showed an increase in production as farmers entered the fall base-setting period. Southern Michigan production was up about four percent from July and at 288 million pounds, was 8 percent higher than August of a year ago. Class I sales rose 5 percent from July and were 3 percent above August 1961.

Upstate and Upper Peninsula markets showed minor decreases in production.

Conducts Quarterly Conferences at Area Methodist Churches

The Rev. S. D. Kinde of the Methodist church has conducted first quarterly conferences of three area churches the past week for Dr. Edwin Stricker of Ann Arbor, who is superintendent for the Ann Arbor District of the Methodist Church.

Wednesday, Sept. 19, the Rev. Kinde conducted a conference at the Napoleon Methodist church; Sunday evening he was at the North Lake Methodist church for conferences of that church and the Salem Grove Methodist church.

Tuesday night of this week he was at Grass Lake for the quarterly conference of the Methodist church again acting for the district superintendent.

Last night, the Rev. Verlin Main of the First Methodist church, Ann Arbor, conducted the first quarterly conference at the Chelsea Methodist church.

Stockbridge Residents Are Michigan's Outstanding Young Dairy Couple

A young Stockbridge dairy farmer and his wife, who consider themselves "just everyday farmers" have been named "Michigan's Outstanding Young Dairy Couple" for 1962.

Stanley and Marilyn Fay won the title this month over 11 district winners and five finalists in a contest sponsored by Michigan Milk Producers Association to recognize and encourage agricultural and community leadership. Runners-up in the state-wide contest were Floyd and Dorothy Johnston of Appleton in Sanilac county.

Judging for the contest is based on each couple's farm and community leadership activities, personality, and dairy program. With special emphasis on the progress they have made. Judges this year were Donald Murray, dairy specialist from Michigan State University, Edwin St. John, consultant on agricultural education for the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, and Frederick Olson, Greenville, Michigan dairy farmer and MMPA Director.

"This young couple has a sound working farm," the judges said. "The progress they've made shows they're working together. They've had some help but most of the progress they've made is the result of their own efforts."

The story of the Fay's progress is a classic one of a boy who builds a single calf into a thriving dairy farm. Given a calf by his grandmother when he was five, Stanley has never wavered from his desire to be a good farmer. By the time he was a sophomore in high school, he was renting an 80-acre farm to raise beef and swine as a project for Future Farmers of America (FFA) to go along with the dairy herd he was building as a 4-H project. Married a year after they finished high school, Stanley and Chicago-born Marilyn were on their own on a rented farm in 1955. In 1958 they bought a farm near Stanley's father's place, later going into partnership with the elder Fay.

Today, 26-year-old Stanley is a full partner in a 360-acre farm with 60 head of high producing Holsteins. He and his father Ted have increased "gross income" per tillable acre by 40 percent in three years, and have boosted income per cow from $407 to $514 per year in the same period.

"We've concentrated on efficiency and on getting more from each cow rather than on bigness," Stanley says. "We think 30 cows per man is enough to make a decent living if you have reasonable management ability."

Judges felt Stanley Fay had more than reasonable management ability, and were impressed with his businesslike approach to farming. They also liked the young couple's attitude toward farming.

"Money isn't our only goal," Stanley and Marilyn point out. "Earning has its disappointments and tough times (the young couple's barn burned this Spring) but for us it's got a lot of satisfaction and rewards too. It's the way of life we like."

The couple have three children. An award for being chosen Michigan's Outstanding Young Milk Producers Federation.

STANLEY AND MARILYN FAY of Stockbridge have been named Michigan's Outstanding Young Dairy Couple for 1962. With them are Corinne, 4, Kathy, 8, and Dale, 5. The contest is sponsored by Michigan Milk Producers Association to encourage the development of farm leadership.

Daniel Ellenwood Now at Wyoming Air Force Base

Maybe the Russians will get the idea, at last, that the United States will fight.

Dairy Couple, they will get an expense-paid trip to Cincinnati, O., Nov. 11 to 15, where they will represent Michigan in the Young Co-operators group during the annual convention of the National Milk Producers Federation.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that

IN MICHIGAN, hearing of the gallant fighting of the 1st, 4th, 5th and 7th Michigan regiments against the Confederacy, folks all over the state toasted their troops' bravery with foaming steins of beer.

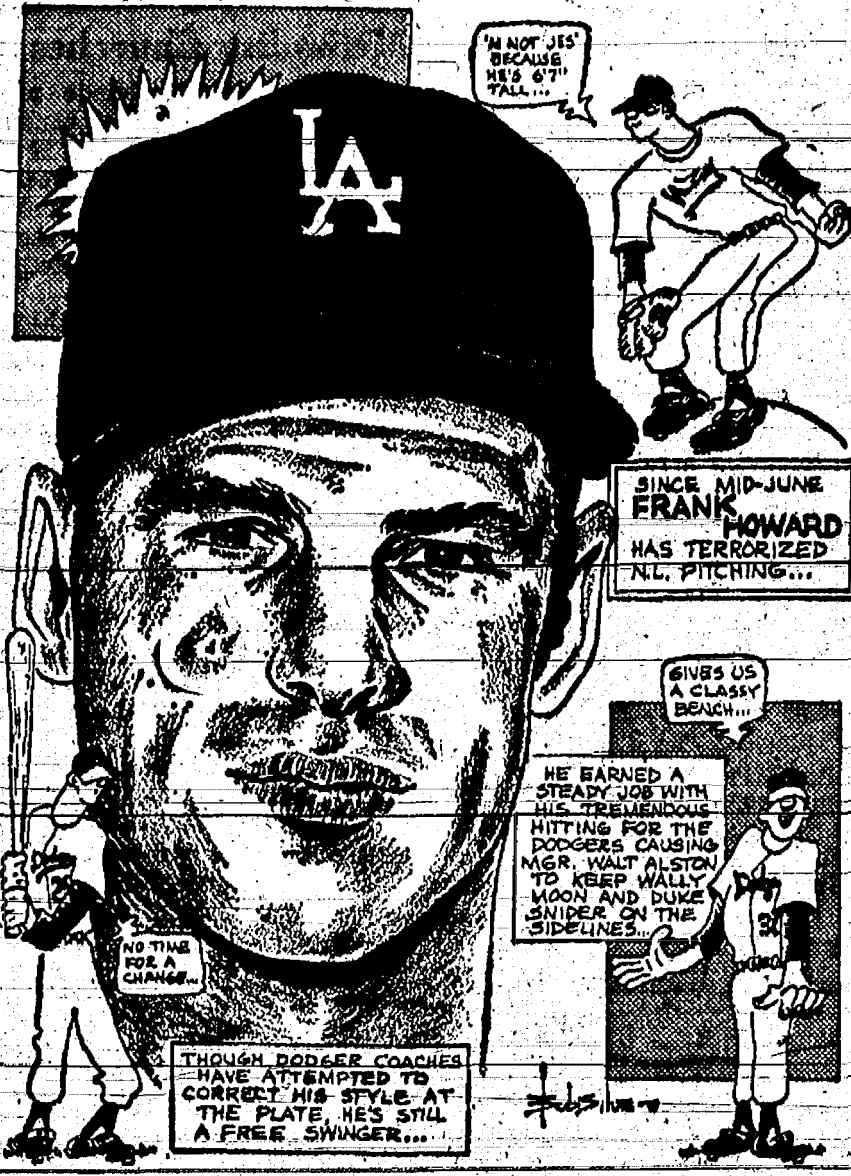

For then as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation. But beer means more than enjoyment to our state. The Brewing Industry pays more than 16 million dollars in taxes to Michigan each year, money that helps support our parks, hospitals and schools.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Opening of Fall Hunting Seasons Near

Lansing—Oct. 1 sets off Michigan's first major invasion of hunters afield for 1962 with the biggest flurry of action slated to center in northern Michigan, the Conservation Department reports.

At 6 a.m. on that day, upland small game and bear become legal firearm targets in the upper and northern lower peninsulas while the archery season opens on deer and bear throughout most of the state.

Waterfowl hunters will join the state's hunting ranks at noon, Oct. 12. Pheasant hunters in the lower peninsula will answer their opening call to arms Oct. 20. All hunters in this part of the state must hold their fire until 10 a.m. on Oct. 20.

Hunters poised for the Oct. 1 opener are reminded of changes from last season in their shooting regulations.

Hunting for sharp-tailed grouse and prairie chickens will be closed in Baraga, Gogebic, Houghton, Keweenaw, and Ontonagon counties. The restriction will again be in effect on Drummond Island where sharp-tailed are also in short supply.

The early firearm bear season has been cut one week—Oct. 1 through Oct. 7—in the northern lower peninsula. Aim of the shorter season is to give these big game animals the degree of protection they need to maintain their low numbers in the region.

Archers as well as gun-toting sportsmen are reminded that Keweenaw county is off limits to all bear hunting except during the regular firearm deer season in November.

In Cheboygan, Clare, and Isabella counties, black squirrels will be legal game for the first time in a number of years.

All other regulations remain unchanged for firearm and archery seasons which start Oct. 1. Prospects are particularly bright for ruffed grouse and woodcock hunters in northern Michigan.

Color Tours, Auto Show Top Fall Calendar

Lansing—Autumn color tours, canoe racing and the national automobile show highlight Michigan's calendar of coming events for the last three months of the year, according to the state tourist council.

The October—November—December calendar, just released by the council, lists 30 special events of interest to vacation travelers.

Fall color tours usually get underway in the Upper Peninsula of the state about Oct. 1, with vivid hues sweeping southward through the lower peninsula forestland later in the month. Many communities, including Chelsea, have mapped tours—available from chambers of commerce—to direct travelers to local areas where autumn color is at its best.

Michigan's biggest canoe competition, the annual AuSable Valley race from Grayling to Oscoda, is slated for Oct. 5-7 this year. The event formerly took place on the Labor Day week-end.

In Detroit, hundreds of thousands of residents and visitors will attend the 44th National Automobile Show at Cobo Hall, Oct. 20-28. Features of the show include introduction of all 1963 model cars, engineering exhibits, automobiles of the future, and a Broadway-type musical review.

NATIONAL DEATH RATE UP

JAMES M. Hare, chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission, reports that national highway death rates for the first half of the year were up five percent compared to a decrease in Michigan of a minus nine percent.

changed for firearm and archery seasons which start Oct. 1. Prospects are particularly bright for ruffed grouse and woodcock hunters in northern Michigan.

SPEEDERS SWEEP STREETS
Santa Monica, Calif. — Having cracked down on speeding violations, Judge W. Blair Gibbons says speeders will become street-sweepers.

Four young men were recently sentenced to street-cleaning duties following their arrest for speeding. The judge let them perform their cleaning on the following week-end so they wouldn't lose time from work.

TOO MUCH TAXES
London — A $20,000-a-year stockbroker is looking for a $42-a-week job. Simon Lapp and his wife are tired of high taxes and are ready to do hard domestic work.

This year, he says, he will only make 2,000 pounds ($4,500) because of the capital gains tax and that does not leave enough to cover his expenses.

Concrete gives taxpayers riding quality that lasts...
the National Road Test confirms it

Out of the recent $27 million National Road Test comes significant new information on pavement performance.

Sponsored by the American Association of State Highway Officials, this road test was the most scientific ever conducted.

Side by side on 5 loops near Ottawa, Illinois, concrete and asphalt test sections carried the same truck traffic for two years. After the impact of more than 1,100,000 loads, the surviving concrete still averaged "very good," while most of the surviving asphalt averaged "fair." Here is further evidence that concrete can give taxpayers long-range riding comfort and lower upkeep costs for their new streets, roads and highways.

Gray-for-Representative Campaign Chairmen Named for Township

The organizational meeting of the Gray for Representative works was held at the home of Barry Jacobson, 323 Spring St., Saline on Sept. 12.

At this meeting, Charles F. Gray, Ypsilanti Democrat campaigning for the office of Representative from the 2nd District, announced the organizational campaign chairmen for Lyndon, Sylvan, Lima, Sharon, and Manchester townships.

Donald Houde of Chelsea was named chairman for Sylvan township, John McGill for Lyndon Township, George Cantrell for Lima, Robert Cole for Sharon, and Russell Smith for Manchester.

Gray also spoke of his recent visit to the state's mental institution at Coldwater, and the need for increased mental hospital facilities.

"There are in Michigan 1,700 mentally retarded, and 900 committed by Probate courts and who are on the institutional waiting lists," Gray said. "We need increased mental hospital facilities for these increasing number of patients."

Any registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending to the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved thereto, and the address from which he was last registered; or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk shall strike through the last address, ward and precinct number and record the new address, ward and precinct number on the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Such transfers shall not be made within the (30) days next preceding any election or primary election, (unless such 30th day shall fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday in which event registration shall be accepted during the next full working day), provided that no such transfer shall permit any person to vote in any Township, City or Village in which he had not resided (30) days next preceding any election or primary election.

Transfer of Registration on Election Day

SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct or to make application to have his registration transferred on any election or primary election day by executing a request over his or her signature for such transfer and presenting the same to the election board in the precinct in which he is registered. Upon receiving such request the inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and if the signatures correspond then the inspector shall certify such fact upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

Corn Crop 1962 Support Price Set

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has recently announced 1962-crop corn county minimum price support rates.

These rates are based on the 1962 minimum national average support price of $1.20 per bushel. This is the same as the 1961 support price.

The method followed in determining county support rates is the same as in previous years. Support rates in the major producing areas, which include Michigan, are unchanged from those for the 1961 crop.

These minimum rates will not be reduced but may be increased if the final 1962-crop corn support price determined on the basis of data on Oct. 1 is higher than the minimum price announced in March.

The price support program for corn will be carried out as in the past through farm and warehouse-stored loans and purchase agreements. These will be available from harvest time through May 31, 1963. Loans will mature on July 31, 1963.

Corn producers who participate in the 1962 Feed-Grain Program will be eligible for price support on their 1962 production.

Corn producers who participate in the 1962 Feed-Grain Program will be eligible for price support on their 1962 production.

Under legislation authorizing the 1962 Feed-Grain Program, there will be a quantitative limitation on the 1962 production of corn that may be put under support from eligible farms. The eligible quantity will be based on the farm's established per acre yield, based on the 1959-60 average, times the 1962 corn acreage as determined by the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee.

Producers of corn who do not participate in the 1962 Feed-Grain Program will not be eligible for support on 1962 corn production.

Further, to be eligible for support, corn must have been produced in 1962. It must grade No. 3 or better except that corn graded No. 4 because of test weight only also will be eligible. Corn must meet certain moisture requirements. The corn also must be in adequate storage.

County rates in Michigan range from $1.21 to $1.24 per bushel. For Washtenaw county the 1962 rate is $1.23 per bushel.

The schedule of premiums and discounts is unchanged from that for the 1961 crop. Moisture content discounts at settlement time will continue to be determined by ASCS Commodity Offices on the basis of market prices.

EDC Studying Plan To Promote Michigan Industry

Harry Miller, representing the Detroit Free Press, was in Chelsea Tuesday evening to attend a meeting of the Economic Development Committee in the Municipal Building to present a plan being carried out in all communities of the state to "sell Michigan."

The plan, as outlined by the Detroit man, includes preparation of a book to be printed for distribution in January, 1963, called "Michigan Impact."

Publication costs will be covered by advertisements of business and industry and or each of the communities featured in the book—the feature of the sponsored advertising project.

Other states, notably Ohio, have already carried out the project.

The books are distributed copies of the newspaper which notes the project. Extra copies sent to every Chamber of Commerce throughout the state.

Merle Bays, Jr., the committee chairman, said yesterday that arrangements are being made for the EDC to send representatives of the business and industrial firms to discuss the possibility of participation in the project.
