Bulldogs Win Homecoming Contest, 39-12

Stockbridge Will Play Here Friday Evening

Homecoming ceremonies were brought to a successful conclusion Friday night before a large audience with the Bulldogs of Chelsea scoring a 39-12 triumph over the Stockbridge Pirates.

The Bulldogs struck pay-dirt in the first quarter on a three-yard drive by halfback Paul Huber. The initial score was set-up by quarterback Dick McCalla, who intercepted a Pinckney pass on the first 30-yard line. Gary Dresch kicked the PAT and Chelsea led, 6-0.

Pinckney's Pirates retaliated by scoring in the early minutes of the second quarter on a 20-yard drive by halfback Merle McMichael. The conversion attempt was blocked and the score was Chelsea, 12-0.

Chelsea, realizing the importance of keeping their conference record unblemished, made the most of the remaining minutes of the first half.

Fullback Jeff Flintoff scored the second Chelsea TD on an eight-yard scamper through the Pinckney defense midway in the second quarter. The score was Chelsea, 18-0.

The third Chelsea touchdown of the first half came on a 23-yard pass play from halfback Dick Lauson to end Jim Cameron. The conversion attempt by Gary Dresch was good and Chelsea led, 21-0, at the end of the first half.

Chelsea's Bulldogs scored twice in the third period to take a 33-0 lead. The first Chelsea TD of the third quarter came on a 16-yard run from quarterback Curt Farley to end Jim Cameron. The pass play climaxed a 60-yard drive. The second Chelsea TD, of the third quarter, came on a two-yard plunge by halfback Dick Lauson. The conversion attempt was unsuccessful.

The second Pinckney TD came in the fourth quarter. It was scored by speedy halfback Merle McMichael on an 11-yard run. The PAT was wide and Chelsea led, 33-6.

Chelsea's fourth quarter TD came on a 73-yard pass and run play. Curt Farley threw a 35-yard pass to Dick Lauson, who sprinted into the Pirates' 38-yard line into the end zone for the final tally. The conversion attempt was blocked.

Advance Ticket Sale Started for Home Grid Games

Tickets for Chelsea High school football games may be purchased in advance at Foster's Men's Wear, Striet's Men's Wear or Chelsea Drug Store. This saves time the night of the game and reduces congestion at the gate. The practice was started last week for the Homecoming game and proved to be a satisfactory arrangement.

Western Auto Store Opens This Week

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pendley, formerly of Detroit, are announcing plans for a grand opening this week at their Western Auto store—a new Chelsea business located at 100 North Main St.

The store building, one of those formerly occupied by Gelman Instrument Co., has been completely remodeled and the front given a modern appearance with the addition of all-glass and aluminum doors.

Pendley said the store will have complete lines of the Western Auto firm's appliances—refrigerators, washers, dryers, etc.—as well as some furniture, televisions, radios and hunting supplies, in addition to the automobile supplies. He said a varied stock of toys are also an important part of the store's stocks.

The Pendleys are inviting Chelsea area people to visit the store during their grand opening.

They plan to serve coffee and doughnuts and they will have gifts for many women and children.

The Pendleys were formerly in business in Detroit.

They have moved to Chelsea and are living at 322 South St.

Grass Fire Danger Still Increasing

Chelsea firemen continue to be plagued by grass fires and suggest that extreme caution be exercised to prevent such fires.

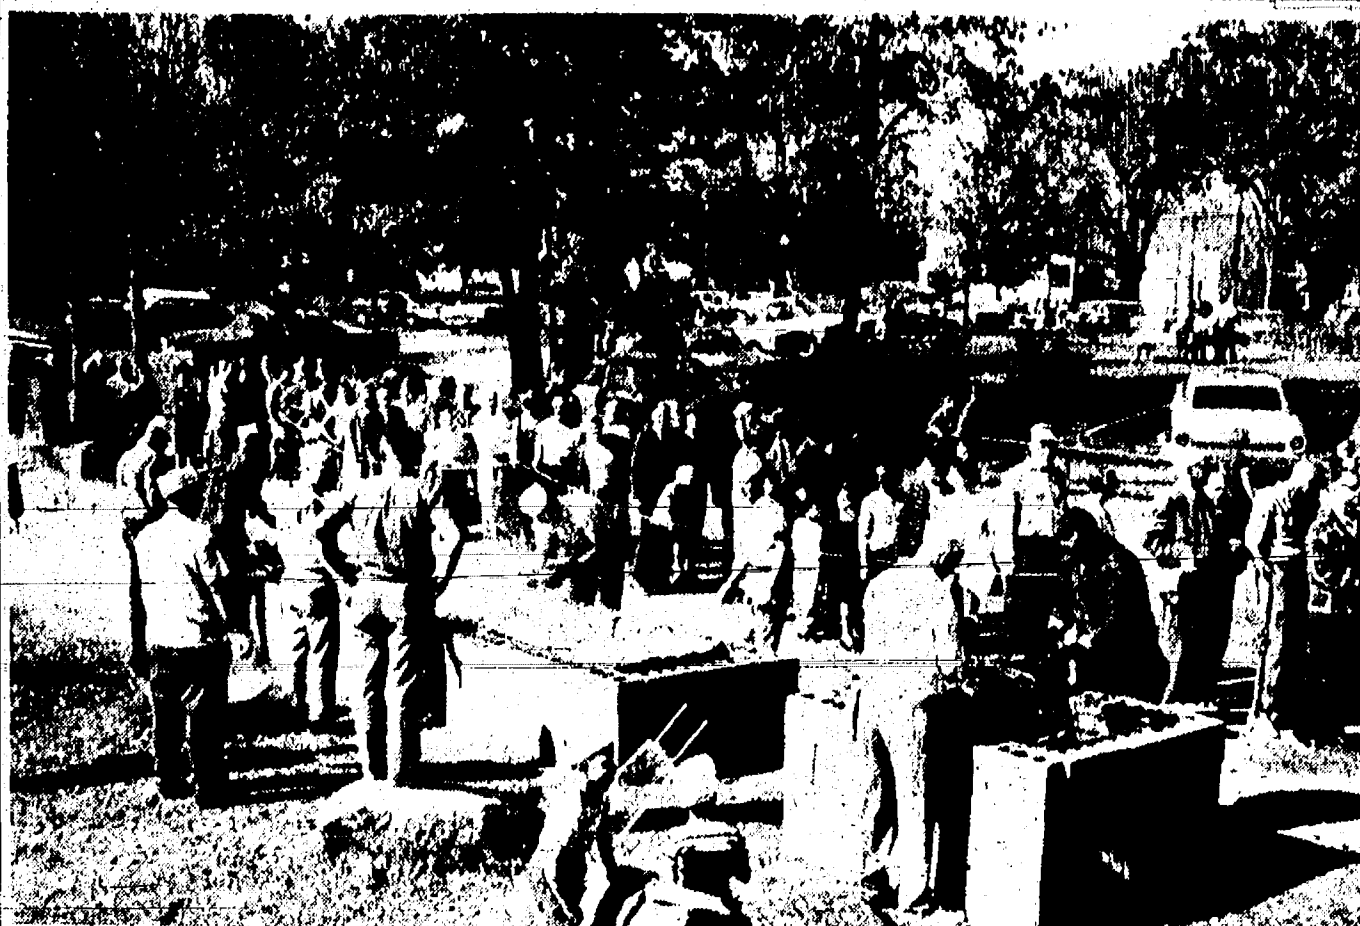

The continued dry weather is contributing to the ordinary danger of fire. Officials have added their warnings about the danger of possible forest fires.

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer said yesterday that the Chelsea area has been fortunate, to date, in keeping fire damage to a minimum; in Jackson county, he said, several, much larger fires have been burning—in some instances Conservation officers and firemen have had to be on duty on a 24-hour basis in order to attempt control of the fires.

Legionnaires Working On 'Early Bird' Dues Membership Campaign

The 10-20-30 club members of Herbert J. McKune Post No. 31, American Legion, are currently busy with "Project 1964 Dues." Their goal is to have 100 percent "Early Bird" paid-up membership for the year. A total of 64 have already received the "Early Bird" stickers on their membership cards.

Members of the club working on the project are Keith Boylan, Carl Mayer, Herman Reed and Striet.

BARBECUE SUCCESS STORY—This is the way Pierce Park looked last Sunday as Chelsea Jaycees held their annual chicken barbecue. With ideal weather, larger crowds than ever were in the area for the color tours promoted by the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce. The up-servicing coffee to patrons. A total of 1480 dinners per photo shows the barbecue pit with its load were served during the afternoon.

First Travel Series Film Will Be Shown Saturday

The third annual season of travelogue entertainment for the Chelsea area, sponsored by the Kiwanis club, opens Saturday, Oct. 19, at the Chelsea High school auditorium. It is the first of six programs scheduled at monthly intervals through March 14. All are scheduled for Saturday evenings and all will begin promptly at 8 p.m.

Called "Travel and Adventure" series, the season's program's will feature a different, prominent narrator at each presentation.

The first program of the series, entitled "Over and Under the Caribbean Sea," will be presented by Col. John D. Craig, Hollywood adventure television producer.

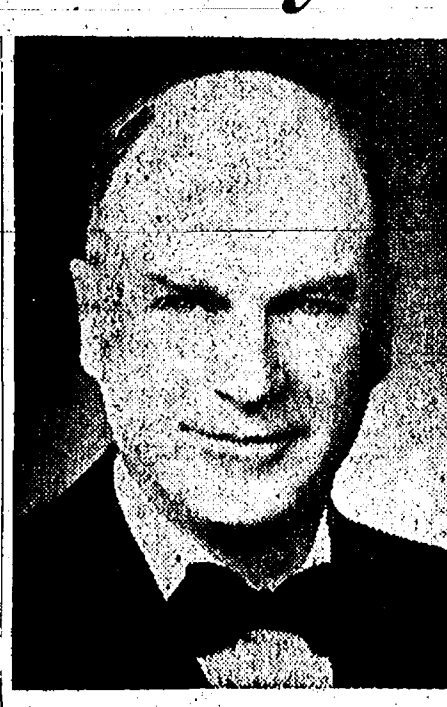

His presentation is called "escorting his audience" on an adventurous exploration of little-known spots in the West Indies.

Off Grand Cayman two native lads show him and his party the wondrous world of undersea corals and caverns at the edge of the Jamaica Deep. Here they find a sunken treasure ship in need of salvaging. In Haiti, they climb to King Christophe's Citadel, bathe in a sacred waterfall and record a Voodoo dance. In the Virgin Islands they make the first films of the Navy's newest two-man sneak submarine in action.

At Bimini they record what happens when scientists take a close look at sharks to find out why they eat people. Watching the Colonel participating in this operation caused Craig's crew to

Council Briefs

At the Oct. 15 meeting of the Chelsea Village Council a resident of the southwest area was present for a discussion of the running at large of dogs and cats. Trustee J. V. Burg, II, was instructed to check with the Police Department on enforcement of the village dog ordinance.

Discussion regarding the necessity of additional street lights; also the necessity for tree trimming to improve present lighting. Trustee Stephen Clark instructed to investigate and report back.

Discussion with Homer Nixon, superintendent of the Light and Water Department regarding evidence that some individuals have either tampered with their water meter or have placed outlets at points ahead of the meter. Motion was made that Superintendent Nixon be authorized to inspect any water system—either residential or business—to determine if an illegal tap into the main line ahead of the meter. Should evidence of a tap-in or tampering with a meter be uncovered a 10-day notice shall be given to correct the situation under penalty of possible prosecution.

Public Schools Closed for MEA Teachers Meeting

Chelsea public school students, along with pupils of Washtenaw, Lenawee, Jackson and Monroe counties will be given a two-day holiday today (Thursday) and Friday while their teachers attend the Michigan Education Association Region 3 conference at various locations throughout the city of Ann Arbor.

More than 4,000 teachers from the four-county area are expected to attend.

Ralph Lupp, scientist and science writer, will address the general session at 9:30 a.m. today in Hill Auditorium. His topic will be "The Space Frontier."

Supervisors Inspecting Roads Today

The Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors, making the annual tour of county roads today, will be in Chelsea at about 2 p.m., enroute from Dexter to inspect the Hadley Rd. blacktop project completed this summer.

Accompanied by Howard G. Minier, Washtenaw County Road Commission superintendent-manager, and other road officials, including Road Commission Chairman Raymond Koch, the supervisors will travel in two buses. Also joining the group for the day is Kenneth Hollander, director of the "Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority," formerly was Washtenaw County Road Commission superintendent-manager.

The group will have lunch at noon at St. James Episcopal church in Dexter, where Dexter Kiwanis has arranged for the meal and have invited Dexter businessmen and other interested people to meet the party.

Starting out at 9:30 a.m. the group will tour the eastern half of the county during the forenoon.

After the luncheon at Dexter the buses will head for Chelsea by way of Chelsea-Dexter Rd. to Fletcher Rd. and south on Fletcher Rd. to Old US-12 to see the blacktop improvement and widening of the roadside accomplished during the past summer from Fletcher Rd. to M-52.

The buses will enter Chelsea from the south and head north for the Hadley Rd. inspection and then start back by way of North Territorial Rd. for a stop at the Hanked Rd. intersection.

Rubbish, Garbage Problems

Chelsea's garbage and rubbish contractor, William Terns, described by village officials as one of the best and most conscientious ever under contract since garbage pick-up was begun here, is nevertheless having trouble carrying out his job—principally because village residents apparently do not understand the terms of his contract and what he is responsible for picking up as "rubbish" and as "garbage."

For instance, under his contract with the village at the rate of $8,800 per year, he is to pick up garbage in cans at the rear of residences and "rubbish" which is set out at the curb. What the contract designates as rubbish, however, and what people put out for him to pick up are often an entirely different matter.

Under the contract, rubbish is described as tin cans, glass and other containers, ashes, small household discards, a reasonable amount of windfall fruits or nuts, possibly a small amount of broken plaster, etc., in no more than two containers, no larger than 25-gallon capacity and weighing no more than 75 pounds each.

He cannot take bricks, yard rakings, garden wastes, cement blocks, stones, building material scrap, shrubs, grass, tree trimmings, metal scrap, etc.

Garbage is described in the contract as all vegetable wastes, rejected food, waste of fruits, vegetables and animal matter resulting from the preparation of food; also, all spoiled and decayed food of a similar nature. To be picked up by the contractor at the rear of residences, garbage must be kept in an entirely separate container (also conforming to the 25-gallon capacity) away from the curb, glass or other matter, designated as rubbish, are put into the same can. The contract requires that the can be treated as a rubbish container which can only be picked up at the curb—not at the rear of the residence.

Terns told village officials he has often stretched a point and picked up items not required for pick-up under his contract but the situation is becoming markedly worse until it has reached a point where it cannot be handled.

Principal reason, outside of the fact that the amount of rubbish to be hauled would be of such quantity that the contract price would need to be much greater than the present $8,800, is the fact

Red Feather Sign Will Show Collection Totals

The big "Red Feather" sign, which goes up this week-end on the Post Office lawn at the corner of South Main and South streets, signals the all-out start of the Chelsea Community Chest solicitation. The red feather—now only an outline—will be filled in with solid red as the campaign progresses.

Thomas McClear and Arden Musbach, co-chairmen for the campaign, plan to submit a report each week indicating the percentage of contributions toward the 100 percent goal of $17,168.

Approximately 60 Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts assisted the Chest campaign committee last Saturday by distributing posters in the downtown area and delivering leaflets about the campaign to every home in Chelsea.

McClear said yesterday that all workers were set to begin solicitation today, Oct. 17—the opening day of the campaign which continues through Nov. 7.

McClear said one of his rural committee members, Mrs. Leon Shutes, has been obliged to ask to be excused because she is not well enough at present to do the soliciting. She has been replaced by Mrs. Dorothy Miller who will be in charge of the northeast rural area.

McClear expressed regret that Mrs. Shutes was unable to assist in this year's solicitation and at the same time expressed appreciation to Mrs. Miller for taking over for her.

McClear said the campaign can be speeded up if everyone will decide beforehand the amount they plan to contribute and have their contribution ready when the solicitor calls.

Episcopal Bishop Confirms Class at St. Barnabas Church

Archib W. Crowley, suffragan bishop of Michigan, officiated Sunday morning at the confirmation of seven young people and two couples at St. Barnabas Episcopal church.

Those confirmed are Carolyn Foster, Constance Taylor, Sue Brown, Gordon Beaumont, George McKeighan, Paul Shippy, James LaFontaine, Mr. and Mrs. William Willard and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Norton.

Donald Daner returned home Saturday from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, where he had been a patient for more than two weeks.

Jaycees Serve 1,480 Persons At Barbecue

Chelsea's eighth annual Jaycees sponsored chicken barbecue is now history—a total of 1,480 chicken dinners were served to patrons of the event at Pierce Park Sunday afternoon.

Jaycees committees in charge of ticket sales estimated that 30 percent of the patrons were Chelsea area people and the remainder were people who came from other communities especially for the barbecue or to take advantage of the beautiful weather for a color tour here.

A list of those who received door prizes at the event showed that all who won prizes were Chelsea area residents.

The first prize, a transistor radio was awarded to Edward Belasel.

The second prize, which was three tickets for the 1964 barbecue event to Chalmers Flint and three people shared third prize—each receiving a gift box of Jiffy Mix. The three are George Tebreh, Mrs. Annette Vail and Charles Belser.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reed returned Monday night from a threeday trip to Cataugaus, N.Y., where they visited relatives.

P&K WINNERS—Here are the winners in the four categories of the Punt, Pass & Kick contest staged Saturday at the Chelsea High school athletic field. The contest was staged on a nationwide basis sponsored by the Ford Motor Co. Palmer Motor Sales was the local sponsor and the Chelsea Jaycees accepted responsibility for staging the event. Holding (or wearing) their first, second and third place prizes—warm-up jacket, helmet or football—are front row, from left, Roger Roark, 1st, Douglas McDonald, 2nd, Ronald Sweeney, 3rd, in nine-year-old category, and Donald Conklin, 1st, Jeff Daniels, 2nd, and Ronald Sweeney, 3rd, in the eight-year-old category. Standing, second row, from left, are Roger HHTs, 1st, Gary Miles, 2nd, and Glenn Wilkerson, 3rd, for 11-year-olds, and Larry Gordon, 1st, Dale Robbins, 2nd, and Jeffrey Bust, 3rd, for 10-year-olds. Standing at rear are Bud Ringe, chairman for the Jaycees, and Lyle Christwell, co-chairman for the Jaycees and representing Palmer Motor Sales.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

My recent tour of 24 cities in Michigan to explain my fiscal reform program has convinced me more than ever that the people of Michigan will support tax reform.

In addition, the experience added to my belief that now is the time for tax reform.

During those six days of traveling, I visited cities from Houghton to Wyandotte, and spoke to more than 7,000 Michigan citizens.

The questions and comments from these people—plus the questions and comments in the hundreds of letters I've received from Michigan citizens—indicate to me that the majority of people accept the basic structure of the tax reform program I have placed before the legislature.

From these contacts, a pattern has developed. I would like to answer here the questions most frequently asked about my tax reform proposals:

The doubts and disagreements, generally speaking, have been concerned mainly with various elements of the tax reform program, and not with its basic fundamentals.

Question: Wouldn't school districts, cities, townships and other local units of government now receiving earmarked funds lose out through repeal or reduction of the property, sales and intangible taxes?

Answer: Not at all. One of the key features of the program is to replace this revenue on the local government—including schools—would receive exactly the same amount of money they now get from these taxes.

Question: How can we be sure the income tax level will not get out of hand, rising to the heights of the federal income tax?

Answer: The only certain way to hold taxes down is to hold down spending; if government spends, then taxpayers pay. I would not subject to reasonable ceilings for the personal and business income taxes as a part of an acceptable program. I would have no objection if these reasonable ceilings were written into the Constitution by a vote of the people, so that future legislatures would have to go back to the people if they wanted to raise tax levels above that point.

Question: Why don't you submit your entire program to a vote of the people?

Answer: The people elected me knowing that I would propose fiscal reform, including an income tax as part of fiscal reform. I would not be doing my job if I were now to ask the voters to decide what should be done when I was elected on a platform importantly based on strengthening out Michigan's tax structure. Besides, how could my entire program be submitted on a ballot? It involves much more than just an income tax; if that were the only question, I'd oppose it myself. My program is a complicated but comprehensive one, which includes business tax relief, property tax relief, consumer tax relief, optional taxing authority for local government, and other items. It is my responsibility as governor to propose tax reform; it is now the legislature's responsibility to either pass it or defeat it.

Question: Does your program give more money to schools?

Answer: No. This is a program of tax reform, and not of school financing. I believe improvements must be made in our state school aid formula, to make it more equitable, and I will propose them in January. But I don't believe that tax reform should be confused with school aid improvements. My program does not give more dollars to schools. The 20 percent reduction in school property tax, to be replaced by funds derived from the income taxes, will provide property tax relief for homeowners and business. However, it also will loosen up the squeeze on property as the basis for school support in many areas of the state, and needed improvements in local financing of school support should be easier to make.

Schools also should be helped by the non-property taxing authority granted to cities and counties which could relieve the property tax base for locally approved school support, and also by the permission in the new Constitution to fix the allocation of property taxes among schools, counties and local government.

Question: What about this tax deferral proposal for senior citizens? Is it fair?

Answer: Under my program, property owners over 65 with incomes less than $2,000 annually and a homestead with market value of from $10,000 to $15,000 could apply to have the state pay up to $200 of their property tax assessed each year for school purposes. In return, these taxes would become payable when the property was sold or transferred on the death of the owners. The purpose of this plan is to provide property tax relief to senior citizens who need it and who ask for it. The plan is entirely voluntary. This is deferral of property taxes; some senior citizens have proposed outright exemption of property taxes, where the state would pay the taxes but have no right to collect them back later. Personally, I prefer the deferral approach rather than the exemption approach for two basic reasons: (1) Under deferral, with the state recovering some of the money from which it excused senior citizens, the plan would become self-liquidating and could be extended to all senior citizens in a relatively short time, without regard to income levels or property valuation; Under deferral, the only eventual cost to the general taxpayers would be modest amounts for administration. (2) I believe the aim is to help senior citizens, which deferral does. The principal benefit of exemption is received by the heirs of senior citizens who would inherit the property without tax liability. I think there is a serious question whether taxpayers generally should be asked to pay higher taxes to support tax-free inheritance of property by the heirs of senior citizens.

Programs Working
Two federal programs initiated within the last few years have been very meaningful to Michigan's unemployed workers, according to Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett.

Bartlett has had a part in administering the Area Redevelopment Act and Manpower Development and Training Act provisions in the state. Both are jointly administered by Bartlett's office and the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

The Department of Public Instruction is responsible for setting up and supervising the training phases of the programs. MESC identifies the type of training courses which would be useful, selects trainees from its unemployment rolls, administers subsistence payments, and seeks employment for the trainees on completion of the program courses.

Since August, 1962, Bartlett said Michigan has been involved in 85 projects under MDTA. These have or are currently providing retraining to over 3,000 unemployed workers. Job placement of trainees under this program has been estimated at between 75 and 80 percent, he said.

The number of ARA projects in Michigan since the first was offered in May, 1962, totals 48. Bartlett's records showed about 2,000 persons gained retraining under these projects.

In the current fiscal year alone, 21 new projects have been approved for Michigan under the two programs. These included training for out-of-work, out-of-school youth and adults for employment as police station house clerks, technician assistants, data processors, clerical workers, medical care aides, bricklayers, practical nurses, metal cutters, floral designers, mechanics and welders, forest aides, auto body repairmen and similar occupations.

Program Continuous
The tradition of the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association will be maintained this year.

Association officials note that Mrs. Lenore Romney, wife of the governor, has accepted the title of honorary chairman for the 1963 Christmas Seal campaign.

Mrs. Romney qualified her acceptance, however, by saying that demands on her time would limit the number of personal appearances she could be expected to make.

TIME OUT DECLARED FOR FALL CLEAN-UP

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

More Deaths

Every month this year, with the possible exception of September, has shown an increase in the slaughter on Michigan's highways. State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs reports.

September could be an exception only if delayed reports are low. Childs said. Preliminary reports to the Department at East Lansing indicated 146 persons died in highway traffic accidents during the month but delayed reports usually boost the preliminary figures somewhat.

During the same month of 1962, Childs said 170 persons were killed.

The preliminary report at the end of August showed an apparent drop, but the delayed notations of deaths boosted the figure and posted an increase over the comparable period of 1962.

The six-month increase gave State Police an alarming forecast for the full year total. Childs said. Last year's death toll was 1,571.

The possibility remains strong that Michigan motorists will record the highest roadway death toll since 1,740 persons were killed seven years ago.

Childs said this possibility loomed heavy in view of the fact that the next few months of early darkness and hazardous weather are usually a high-hazard period of the year.

make. This same qualification has been true in the last two years.

The Association attempts each year to designate an honorary chairman a woman of renown in Michigan.

Last year Mrs. Lila Masson, Redford township resident who gained the title of "Mrs. America" for 1962, held the position. The previous year, Michigan's First Lady, Mrs. Alice Swanson accepted.

A similar tradition exists throughout the nation. Ann Landers, syndicated columnist whose advice appears in 33 Michigan daily papers, was named national honorary chairman of the Christmas Seal campaign.

Few Pills on Bills
The greater part of the bill you pay for hospital care goes for payrolls, according to the Michigan Hospital Association.

H. Allan Barth, executive director of the association, said patient care expenditures in Michigan last year totaled more than $510 million as compared to just over $478 million the previous year. More than two-thirds of both expenditure figures went for payrolls, he said.

It may not be new to some people, but Barth noted that the average cost for one day's hospital care in Michigan has more than doubled in the last 10 years. A decade ago, Barth said, the average cost for each day was $19.22.

Now this average is over $40 per day. This sharp increase is a direct reflection of the steadily rising payroll cost, Barth said.

Senator Reserves Monday Mornings For Conferences
Ann Arbor — Senate Majority Leader Stanley G. Thayer, Republican of Ann Arbor has announced that he is reserving every Monday morning this Fall to confer in Ann Arbor with Washtenaw county residents who may wish to express views, or who seek information, on Gov. Romney's fiscal reform program now before the Michigan legislature.

Although Sen. Thayer will spend most of his time in Lansing while the legislature is in session, he will be available Monday mornings to meet with interested and concerned individuals or groups in his office at 3370 Washtenaw Rd. Mail inquiries should be sent to his Lansing office in the State Senate where he will be available the remainder of the week.

"As of today, my mail response to Gov. Romney's original proposal is evenly divided. This response, however, has been extremely light and I am certain is not representative of all of the county," he said.

"I am hopeful our county residents will express their opinions, whether by mail or in persons, to assist me in assessing the attitudes of the people on this important issue."

"Tax proposals adopted this Fall will set the pattern for the economic future of our state. I cannot emphasize too strongly the need for individual concern and participation," Sen. Thayer said.

MIRACLE WORKERS
HUNTSVILLE, Utah — The Orville Peterson family moved into their new home that took 15 volunteers only 5 hours to build.

What appeared to be a miracle resulted in ordinary construction men putting together prefabricated sections to build the Peterson home.

Earlier the Peterson home had been shattered by an explosion that seriously injured 2 young sons. Money and construction materials were contributed by neighbors.

NEWS for truck owners who need a new one now

Things Chevrolet has developed since the last time you bought to give you more for your money:

Double-wall construction. This feature of Chevrolet cabs and the Fleetside pickup body has two advantages. Insulation and sound-deadening material is sandwiched between the two layers of steel in the cab to give you more comfort; in the body, the lower inner wall acts as a buffer against load damage, preserving the outer appearance of the truck.

Suspension to fit the truck. Conventional half- and three-quarter-ton models have independent front suspension with variable rate coils in the rear. Variable rate coils do not "bottom out" as readily.

Mediums and heavies have I-beam suspension with variable-rate leafsprings. It automatically stiffens as the load increases—and vice versa. It means a smoother, flatter ride regardless of load, a better handling truck.

The right engine. Chevrolet never has been in better position to give you the type and size you need for maximum efficiency. Today there are many different capacities of gasoline and diesel

Chevrolet truck engines—fours, sixes, V8's.

Stronger frames. Every conventional 1964 Chevrolet truck has a ladder-type frame. This type is more resilient, better able to give with the load and terrain. Its simple design also makes it easier to mount special bodies on the truck. Its riveted side rails are stronger.

Greater model selection. This time you're going to find it a simple matter to pick the exact type of Chevrolet truck for the kind of work you do. In delivery trucks, for instance, in addition to regular panels and pickups, we have eleven different sizes of ready-made walk-in vans, some with full-width rear doors.

Quality and value. Chevrolets today are a lot more truck than your money bought the last time, and yet the price tag is just about the same as 5 or 6 years ago. Call your Chevrolet dealer for information or for a demonstration.

This connection, Trustee Clarence Wood reported that a concerted effort is being made by the Chamber of Commerce to collect delinquent payments of merchants on the Municipal parking lot obligations.

Discussion of parking space available brought out that there is possibility of an improved area for parking at the new fire station lot in the near future and it was the feeling of the Council that parking will be available there soon.

Reports given at the meeting included one by Trustee Howard Haselwardt on area planning and one by Trustee Larry Chapman on Industrial Development.

The 1963 budget was analyzed to date and appears to be working out as planned.

Village Council meetings are held the first and third Tuesday's of the month in the Village Council room in the Municipal Building, beginning at 8 p.m. Citizens are welcome to attend.

Marine Band Concert Stated Oct. 23 at Ypsi

The U. S. Marine Band, currently on its three-month midwest tour will give a concert Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 8 p.m., in Pease Auditorium at Ypsilanti.

Of special interest to Chelsea area people is the fact that a Chelsea man is a member of the famous band group—Byron Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pearson. Pearson was recently promoted to the rank of staff sergeant.

Pearson was active in the Chelsea High school band and later in the University of Michigan marching band. He is an accomplished trumpet player.

Tickets for the Ypsilanti concert are available at the University Music House, 340 Maynard St., Ann Arbor.

The band will appear at Rochester on Tuesday, Oct. 22, and will leave for a concert at Ludington following the Ypsilanti concert.

The band left Washington, D.C., Sept. 1 and will complete its tour the end of November.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. James Yoxall and daughters, Laura and Linda, of Detroit, and Mrs. Bertilla Forner were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boylan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wheeler enjoyed a color tour in the northern part of the state over the week-end. They left here Saturday morning and stopped enroute at West Branch for a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Nixon. They were overnight guests of their niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rosely at Ravenna and on Sunday visited Hardy Dam, Grayling, and other points of interest before returning home.

Miss Marguerite Elson of Detroit, spent Sunday here with her aunt, Miss Lillie Wacknutt and both were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elba Gage.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. McClure have returned from a week's visit with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Hopkins and children, at Vernon, Conn.

Mrs. Elma Webster and her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Pease, both of Scotts, and the latter's grandson, Ronnie Jacobs of Battle Creek were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Eisenmann. Mrs. Webster remained until Monday while Mrs. Pease and her grandson went to Cleveland returning here to pick her up Monday. Sunday evening callers at the Eisenmann home to visit with Mrs. Webster and the Eisenmanns, were Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Eisenmann of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Feldkamp of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hanselmann and family of Saline, Mrs. Hilda Pierce and Mrs. Margaret Weinberg. Sunday afternoon visitors were William Luick, Mrs. Annetta Yail and Mrs. Amanda Mayer.

The National Safety Council reports that such driver problems as drowsiness, inattention, intoxications, etc., were factors in nearly two out of five fatal accidents on turnpikes in 1962. Speed was a factor in one quarter of the fatal accidents.

Community Chest Benefitting Agencies Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic

This is the ninth in a series of articles explaining about the various benefiting agencies included in the Chelsea Community Chest today's article is on the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic.

The Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic at 2940 Ellsworth Rd., Ypsilanti, has a staff of professional persons trained to help children with their problems.

Children coming to the clinic have a variety of problems. Some have fears and worries that keep them from school, some have learning problems in spite of average or above-average intelligence. Others have physical disorders with no organic cause; some steal, fight with other children, are unmanageable at home and in school.

Each child is studied physically, mentally, emotionally, and socially, and a program worked out to help the child's individual problem.

As an illustration, the case history of one young boy was cited as follows:

Jimmy was a "mean kid"—all his playmates said so. He was seven, and always in a fight with someone.

His teacher found him defiant, not interested, a behavior problem. His grades were poor. Jimmy himself didn't understand what made him do the things that just kept getting him into more trouble. Jimmy was one of the 709 youngsters from 3 to 17 years old who were helped last year by the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic. After several visits, Jimmy began to find the Clinic a friendly place where he could bring out, in one way or another, some of the things that had been bothering him. He acted out some of his feelings through play; he "got even" by assaulting the punching bag.

After sessions with a member of the clinic staff, Jimmy lost his old fight. He learned to live with himself and others. Through frequent visits to the clinic with Jimmy, his parents, too, came to understand the problem. They talked over his progress and worked out ways of helping him.

Jimmy isn't really his name, but he is a seven-year-old living in this area. Somehow, though, he isn't the same mean kid. He even confided, "I got lots of friends." His case is just one of many.

Washtenaw, Lenawee and Monroe counties are serviced by the clinic, with representation on the Board of Directors from each area served. These are people interested in the guidance work with children.

Requests for service may be made directly by either phoning or writing the Clinic, 2940 Ellsworth Rd., Ypsilanti, phone RU 2-5875.

IN THE OPEN
By Lee Smits

It was 85 years ago this spring that the last great nesting of passenger pigeons made Potoskey the headquarters of a carnival of slaughter that is sickening to read about at this late date. A violin teacher from the East Saginaw Game and Fish Protection Club, Henry A. Roney, described how laws intended to give the breeding pigeons a chance were utterly ignored while boats and trains loaded with barrels of dead birds pulled out of Potoskey day and night for weeks. Millions of dead birds, tens of thousands of live birds, were marketed.

The live birds were used for trap shooting. In a seven-day shoot on Coney Island, 20 thousand and pigeons were killed.

The slaughter at Potoskey gave rise to the first serious attempt in Michigan to conserve wildlife by legislation. Prof. Roney, as he was called, urged laws to prevent market-shooters from coming into Michigan from other states, operating for three months a year, shipping out game.

Protective legislation came too late, as far as the passenger-pigeon was concerned. Seven years after the big Potoskey nesting—actually it was some 15 miles from town, near Oden and Crooked Lake—passenger pigeons were scarce. Another five years and they were extremely rare and by the turn of the century they were gone. The last pigeon, Martha, died of old age in the Cincinnati zoo in 1914.

It is doubtful that even the most stringent laws could have saved the passenger pigeon: not with "progress" plowing along at its twentieth-century rate. The pigeons required large tracts of timber for their nesting, and vast amounts of food such as beech nuts, wild berries and acorns. Devastation of their habitat loomed the pigeon even as ruthless butchery erased the last great flocks.

Law enforcement and regulated harvests are not important to Russia's wildlife management program. Writing in Michigan Outdoor-Of-Doors, official publication of the MUCC, Laurence F. Moti of the Wisconsin Conservation Department, tells of what he learned on a conducted tour of Russian back country.

Possession of firearms is restricted to Russians who are members of police units or the armed forces.

Moti, in his extensive travels, saw two dogs and one cat. The guides explained that pet animals serve no useful purpose, and waste food.

Records Show Farm Machinery Costs Are High

It takes between $5,000 and $16,000 to own and maintain the machinery to operate a dairy farm with 200 tillable acres.

That's the variation in machinery investment found in records of 206 southern Michigan dairy farmers. Investments range all the way from $20 up to more than $130 per tillable acre on dairy farms with records in the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service program. This figure includes expenses for small tools, repairs, truck and auto upkeep, gas, oil and depreciation.

"Farmers should try to stay within the range of $40 to $80 per tillable acre for machinery investment," according to L. H. Brown, MSU agricultural economist. "This gives a farm a good balance between available land and machinery."

He points out that roughly one-third of the farmers keeping records have under $40 per tillable acre invested in machinery.

FFA Chapter Launches War on Rats

The Chelsea chapter, Future Farmers of America, is joining forces with FFA chapters in other parts of the country in a "war to the death" against rats, in farm communities. It was announced yesterday by Gary Jackson, Chelsea High school FFA chapter leader.

The campaign is part of a nationwide program, from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30, to curb the mounting economic losses and reduce the incidence of disease caused by rats. It is estimated that every rat on a farm is responsible for $10 to $20 in ruined food and damaged property. Rats carry diseases that endanger the health of humans and livestock, Jackson said.

Spearheading the rat control program will be a large proportion of the country's 384,000 FFA members.

To carry out the rat-eradication campaign, FFA chapters are being asked to alert farm communities to the seriousness of the problem. Next step is to organize the actual campaign and to enlist active community support. Local storekeepers will be urged to make available window and interior space for the display of posters and other promotional displays that focus attention on the rat control program.

"Experience has shown that the success of a rat control program depends on the fullest co-operation of the entire community," Jackson said.

All informational and promotional materials are being supplied by the D-Con company, a subsidiary of Sterling Drug, Inc. The company is sending the materials to FFA chapters participating in the campaign including a brochure on rat control procedures prepared by James Hamilton, past president of the National Vocational Agricultural Teachers' Association. The brochure has been endorsed by R.C.S. Suttill, chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Education, New York State Education Department.

D-Con, in addition, is offering to pay FFA chapters 50 cents for each box-top of D-Con Ready Mixed or Pellets it receives during the three-month campaign. Primary purpose of these funds is to help the chapters finance the attendance of FFA members at the organization's national convention this year in Kansas City.

Supervisors' Tour...

Their final stop in this area will be at the Toma Rd. site of the U. of M. radio telescope on Peach Mountain.

The tour is scheduled to be completed by 3:30 p.m.

Supr. E. A. Wolter Is Fatally Stricken Thursday Afternoon

Had Served Two Terms as Board Chairman

Scioto township supervisor, E. A. (Al) Wolter, 64, died last Thursday at an Ann Arbor hospital after being suddenly stricken at his home on Dexter Rd.

Mr. Wolter, who was supervisor for nine years, having filled the unexpired term of former supervisor Albert Trinkle and been re-elected four times thereafter, was active in countless other public capacities as well.

E. A. (AL) WOLTER

He was well known for his interest and activity on the Dexter Library Board of which he was a chairman.

Lee R. Hout, executive director of the Washtenaw County branch of the Children's Aid Society spoke of Mr. Wolter as a "tremendous board member and a wonderful person." He was a member of its Board of Directors until last April when he resigned "because he wasn't feeling too well," Hout said. He had been president of the Board in 1958 and 1959 and a member of the state board of trustees of the Society until last spring. He also served locally for six years on the board.

He was chairman of the Board of Supervisors in 1960, (having been vice-chairman the previous year) and again in 1961.

He was an active member of the National Association of Counties, the Detroit Metropolitan Planning Commission, the Supervisors Inter-County Committee and the Huron River Watershed Inter-governmental Committee. He was chairman of the supervisors' planning committee and had recently been elected to the Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission.

Supr. Erwin Frederick, chairman of the board, today said Wolter's death "means a great loss to the supervisors and the county. The services he rendered to the county were invaluable and he was highly respected by everyone who knew him."

Guy C. Lacom, Jr., Ann Arbor city administrator, commented, "Al Wolter's death comes as a shock to all of us. His wonderful personal qualities—unfailing good humor, reasonableness, optimism, his friendliness—all served to enrich local government relationships. As county and township supervisor, leader in many county governmental activities, active member of the Huron River Watershed committee, he contributed most constructively to the forward looking government in the greater Ann Arbor community. Everyone liked him and enjoyed working with him. This is a real loss to all of us."

Mr. Wolter was born May 26, 1899, in Manitowoc, Wis., the son of John and Anna Sieker Wolter. He was graduated from Sheboygan, Wis., High school, and after service in World War I, he returned to Stout Teachers College in Menominee, Wis., where he received a bachelor's degree in 1930. He taught in high schools for 20 years, including 10 years at Ann Arbor High school as teacher of printing from 1932 to 1942. He was awarded a master's degree in industrial education from the University of Michigan in 1934.

From 1942 to 1947 he was an engineer with local firms, including the Micrometrical Manufacturing Co., after which he operated a farm at his Dexter Rd. address.

He was a member and elder of the Session of the First Presbyterian church of Ann Arbor.

Mr. Wolter married Helene M. Dubbink of Holland on Aug. 6, 1924, and she survives. Also surviving are two brothers, John R. of Augusta, Wis., and Hugo W. of Farmingdale, N.Y.

Memorial services were held at 2 p.m. Monday at the First Presbyterian church with the Rev. Ernest T. Campbell officiating. The body has been cremated. Memorial contributions may be made to the library of the church. Arrangements were made by the Muehligh Chapel.

AGRICULTURE Action

by M.L. Wolf

★ Deep in the Heart of Taxes...

How can farmers be enthusiastic about tax reform programs that first allow deferment of taxes for Senior Citizens, and then attaches a "lien" to their property? Especially since many farmers are older people and the average age in agriculture is higher than most other industries.

When asked this question, those who support tax reform proposals now before the legislature are quick to point out that there is a far more respect and dignity to be found in a program that permits older people with little income to live tax "free" on their property, rather than the present alternative of trundling them off to a tax-supported "old folks home" after a forced foreclosure sale, because of non-payment of taxes.

Under current proposals, Senior Citizens over 65 could "elect" to stop paying property taxes under certain conditions. Involved are homesteads with a market-value of less than $10,000 and a yearly family income of $2,000 or less. About 62,000 Michigan families would be eligible immediately.

The catch... the hue and cry, comes in the forced repayment at time of death of these taxes out of funds of the estate after its sale. This repayment would also be necessary prior to death if the owners wish to sell.

About the only people who dislike the idea "are those among the heirs who have their eyes on the full value of the estate, clear and unencumbered," one farm leader bluntly puts it. Actually, the program as offered, differs only slightly from current procedures used under the Old Age Assistance Law. This law now gives those eligible a monthly minimum income to be repaid after death from any property holdings the pensioner might have had.

Unfortunately, all taxes are painful — but the alternatives (no roads, no schools, no pensions, or incomes) are much more so.

Only C. Northcote Parkinson, British humorist, has a foolproof method to avoid taxes. "It is quite simple. A person must arrange his affairs so as to have capital but no income while alive and income but no capital when he dies." He adds, "I leave it to you to work out the details..."

First Film in Travel Series

declare, "This is where John earns the 'Danger is my Business' title!" Near Dry Tortugas they meet four ex-Marines who are sitting on top of seven million dollars. This wealth is under 65 feet of water with a serious shark problem. How Craig and his crew assisted them in solving it is as exciting as it is fantastic. Throughout it all they listen with sonar gear to the strange sounds in the sea. What they hear proves that the deep blue sea is not entirely a "silent world."

Like all of Col. Craig's programs, this presentation is quite different from the average travelogue. This is a program full of interesting people; strange sea creatures; youthful enterprise; refreshing optimism, and features man's eternal effort to comprehend the many mysteries in unexplored depths. There is much fast action, natural history, science, spectacular beauty, really exciting adventure and a thought to carry home.

"Over and Under the Caribbean Sea" is described as a happy holiday, a scientific quest, an unusual travel tour and a sportsman's dream all rolled into one... and presented with the spontaneous humor and enthusiasm that won Col. Craig his eminent position on the American platform and on four currently running television programs.

All proceeds from the series are designated to be used for community projects of the Chelsea Kiwanis club including support of Boy Scouts, interlocking scholarship, Boys' State sponsor, Kids' Halloweek party, Farmers' Night, Teachers' Night and Octogenarian Night dinner meetings, the student citizenship program and emergency aid.

Season tickets have been sold by Kiwanians during the past few weeks.

CHELSEA Telephone Lines

By NICK PRAKKEN, Manager

ALL OF US at Bell Telephone are constantly seeking ways to keep our costs down. For example, Western Electric, our manufacturing and supply unit, has found a way of using a new, less costly plastic to produce six sets of telephone parts for the former cost of five. Such reductions in costs help us offset the rise in other costs. This never-ending search for savings is an important reason your telephone remains one of the biggest bargains in your home today.

IT'S TIME TO PHONE GRANDMA!

MANY FOLKS who don't see their out-of-town relatives or close friends very often have developed the pleasant habit of visiting them every week at the same time—by telephone. Knowing that the person they want to talk with will be there at that time, they call station-to-station instead of person-to-person. "Station" calls cost less than "person" calls. And they go through faster, because in most cases you can dial them yourself. Why not phone tonight?

INFORMED CITIZENS give added strength to this nation of ours. During National Newspaper Week, October 13-19, we pay tribute to the part played by our newspapers in keeping us well informed. And it's a week when we at Michigan Bell are especially proud of the part telephone facilities play in helping the newspapers gather the news and get it to you—fast and accurately.

Speakers were Mrs. John Brewster and Mrs. Thomas Thompson who demonstrated the making and styling of millinery. Among the 25 samples they showed was a copy of the hat worn by Mrs. Kennedy at President Kennedy's inauguration.

At the Oct. 1 meeting held at the home of Ruth Beugels, the group made plans for the annual rushing party to be held Oct. 20 at the home of Theresa Hanker.

JERUSALEM FARM BUREAU

Jerusalem Farm Bureau, with 10 families present, met Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Horst. Arthur Kuhl presided at the business session.

Reports were given by David Pastor, minister, who spoke of tax-savings under the governor's proposed plan; Mrs. Walter Wolf, gang, package reporter, who told about proposed resolutions which were scheduled for presentation at last night's annual county Farm Bureau meeting at the Farm Council Building; and Mrs. Jess Miller, who reported on the Farm Bureau Women's Committee meeting she attended.

Mrs. Miller said the speaker at the Farm Bureau Women's meeting, Mrs. Gordon Larson, spoke of the great need for volunteers to do hospital social work at Ypsilanti State Hospital. Mrs. Larson is a member of the hospital's volunteer community relations committee.

During her talk at the Farm Bureau Women's meeting, Mrs. Larson also gave a list of items needed by patients at the hospital. A motion was made, supported and approved at Thursday's Jerusalem Farm Bureau meeting that Farm Bureau state delegates be instructed to support the thoughts expressed by their local group when acting at the state meeting.

The next meeting of the Jerusalem group is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Vickers.

LAFAYETTE GRANGE

Lafayette Grange members held their election of officers for the year when they held the October meeting Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grossman at Manchester.

Those elected are Harvey Fischer, master; Erwin Pidd, overseer; Mrs. Myrtle Price, lecturer; Arthur Sias, steward; Jack Bradbury, assistant steward; Mrs. Jack Bradbury, chaplain.

The list continues with Mrs. Emma Seitz, secretary-treasurer; Walter Beutler, gatekeeper; Mrs. Walter Beutler, Ceres; Mrs. Harvey Fischer, Pomona; Mrs. Charles Curtis, Flora; Mrs. Erwin Pidd, lady assistant steward; and Albert Pielemeier, executive committee.

JAYCEE AUXILIARY

Chelsea's Jaycee Auxiliary held the October meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Meyers.

Business at the meeting included a report of the fall district meeting held Sept. 23 in Clinton. The report was given by Mrs. George Ellenwood who said she and Mrs. Gene Shoemaker, Mrs. Elton Guenther and Mrs. Daniel Maroney attended.

Mrs. Maroney reported on the Jaycee Auxiliary fall board meeting held the past week-end at Mt. Clemens. She said that at this meeting the charter of a River Rouge Auxiliary was approved making that group the 100th local one to join the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary.

Mrs. Marney and Mrs. Donald Bush were appointed at Tuesday's meeting to work with their husbands on a joint Chelsea Jaycee and Auxiliary social committee.

Before Tuesday's business session a short Halloween project took place, members arriving in costumes they had accumulated by bringing specific items of old clothing to meetings during the past year. Mrs. George Ellenwood was awarded a prize for her costume. A brief hayride was included in the pre-meeting activities.

At the conclusion of the business session members played Halloween games and Mrs. Meyers and Mrs. Shoemaker served appropriate refreshments—cider and doughnuts.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 19, while a special meeting to discuss the new proposed constitution is set for Monday, Oct. 21, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bush.

PILGRIM FELLOWSHIP

The first meeting of the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational church for the fall and winter season was held at 7 o'clock Sunday evening at the church. Approximately 20 young people were present.

The meeting opened with a devotional service presented by Cheryl Lehmann.

The Rev. Robert A. L. Livingston gave an outline of the purpose of the Pilgrim Fellowship and plans were made for a retreat to be held Sunday, Oct. 20, beginning after the morning church service and including two meal periods.

Beverly Windell presided at the business session and appointed four of the members to assist her.

ENGAGEMENT

Announcement is made of the engagement of Jacquelyn Marie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Taylor of 1719 Old US-12 to Steve L. Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Ellis of Negaunee.

TROOP 247—Troop 247 took a hike to Pierce Park on Tuesday, Oct. 8. Betsy and Jane Belser brought refreshments. We told about hikes and picnics we had been on this fall. Mrs. Belser brought weeds, leaves and nuts as an example of the things to look for on our hickory-nutting hike. We also told what we had done this last week to help other people.

Three Senior Girl Scouts, Lee Spaulding, Sandy Severn, and Janet Hafner, showed us how to blaze a trail.

Last week we voted Betsy Belser scribe and Lynette Villemure, in charge of dues and attendance. Betsy, Belser, scribe.

Interstate highways are life-savers, literally. Indiana has found that their new multi-lane interstate highways are the very thing safer than the roads they've replaced. In a similar comparative study, Missouri found that there were 40-percent fewer accidents and 60-percent fewer deaths on their interstate roads.

Area Churches Plan To Observe Laymen's Sunday

Several area churches will observe Laymen's Sunday on Oct. 20 with men and women of the congregation taking over to conduct various parts of the services.

At the Methodist church, Ed. E. Lewis will open the service with the call to worship and opening prayer and Arthur Stoll will lead the congregation in the affirmation of faith and reading the Scripture.

Wallace Wood is to give the morning prayer and Robert Daniels will present an interpretation of Laymen's Sunday. He will also preside during the offertory and will give the final benediction.

The message will be delivered by Mrs. Raymond Schuler. The entire service is based on the theme "... Your Neighbor As Yourself."

At St. Paul's church Jess Meisinger and Paul Seitz will serve as liturgists and a men's choir will sing at both the 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. services.

Tentative plans call for the sermon to be delivered by one of the "sons" of the congregation, Richard Schneider, director of social services at the Winnebago Children's Home at Neillsville, Wis.

At the Congregational church plans were not yet complete for the observance of Laymen's Sunday; however, the Rev. Robert A. J. Livingston, pastor of the church, said men of the congregation will be assigned to lead in reading the Scripture and prayers.

E. W. Eaton left Tuesday for Peoria, Ill., where he is attending the 33rd annual Synod of the Midwestern District of the Protestant Episcopal Church. He is a Michigan diocesan delegate to the annual session.

Employment Developments — Plus and Minus

With the release of the unemployment figures for September, new trends are revealed that are indicative of the reasons for failure to achieve a better rate of economic progress in recent years. The overall rate of unemployment, at 5.6 percent, remains approximately where it was a year ago. Despite the widely-heralded economic improvement in 1963 we seem to have made no progress in bringing this figure down. It remains substantially above the 4 percent level which prevailed in late 1956 and early 1957.

But this discouraging picture is the result of a balancing of divergent trends as between different groups of working people. There has been a fairly steady improvement over the past two years in the jobless rate for married men, which is now down to 2.9 percent. This is only a few tenths of a percentage above the 1957 low, when the overall unemployment rate was 4 percent—the objective so often cited as our current goal.

The favorable trend for married men has been offset by a rising rate of unemployment for adult women and teenagers. For both these groups the jobless rate is much higher than in 1957.

From one point of view there is some satisfaction to be gained from this analysis. The personal hardship resulting from unemployment is more acute for heads of families than for women or teenagers who are less likely to be primary breadwinners.

But in a free society everyone—male or female, married or single, teenaged or mature—has the right to decide for himself whether he wants employment. If there are economic impediments to his ability to find a job when he wants one this is certainly grounds for concern.

In part, the problem of the women and the teenagers results from the increasing numbers of them in the job market. But the most serious barrier an unemployed person can meet is a discrepancy between the value a prospective employer can expect to gain from his services, and the cost (all things considered) of hiring him. The divergent trends in unemployment as between married men and others can be partially understood in those terms.

In recent years there has been a shift in union strategy from their historic demand simply for "more" to an increasing emphasis on job security. As a result there has been a slowing-down in the rate of wage increases resulting from union contracts. At the same time, however, there has been an increase in what may be called the "overhead cost" of putting a person on a job—partly because of higher training cost and partly because of obligations imposed by union contracts or by law.

The effect is to make employers that much more hesitant in hiring new people—especially women and teenagers whose attachment to a particular job may prove casual. The American economy has, to a degree, been sacrificing the ideal of maximum job opportunity in favor of increasing job security.

Road Maps Aid Pilots

Lansing—Operators of airport control towers depend on highway maps to guide pilots to a safe landing, the Michigan Department of Aeronautics reports.
The Department's official publication, "Michigan Aviation," said: "Surprisingly enough, tower operators at airports across the nation, including those at Capital City Airport, have to rely a great deal on the road map when it comes to finding points some pilots are reporting when coming in for a landing."
Control tower operators use highway maps in order to learn the names of the many small communities that pilots know and like to use for position reporting, the story said.
"Needless to say, a tower operator hates to admit he doesn't know the community the pilot is over when he calls, so a thorough study of the terrain is necessary."
Control tower personnel at Lansing's Capital City Airport used their highway map so much they wore it out and had to get a new one from the Highway Dept.

Many Hunters Caught in Violations

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer reported the following violations handled during the past week, together with disposition of the cases.
Appearing before Judge Francis O'Brien in Municipal Court, Ann Arbor, on Oct. 9, two Ann Arbor men were assessed fine and costs of $17.30 each when they pleaded guilty to charges of shooting migratory fowl after sunset on Oct. 6 on Winewanna Floodings. The two were Pierre H. St. Amour and James S. Hale.
Stevie Donnie Dykes, 17, of Tip-top, apprehended on Mill Rd. in Manchester township on Oct. 7 by Clinton State Police Trooper Behrens and turned over to Conservation Officer Boyer on a charge of hunting without a license, was ordered by Manchester Justice of the Peace Stanton-Roesch to pay $30 fine and $7.30 costs.
Justice Roesch then suspended $25 of the fine if the youth does no hunting until Oct. 25 when he is to be permitted to purchase a license, and provided further that he works and earns the money to pay the remaining five dollars of the fine and the $7.30 costs by Nov. 15.
Other violations, listed as follows, were handled before Dexter Township Justice of the Peace David Dolg.
Richard K. Hill of Murieth, using gun of illegal type for migratory waterfowl on Winewanna Oct. 5; $18 fine and costs Oct. 10. pleaded guilty and was assessed E. J. Parsons of Belleville, and his brother, Eddie Parsons of Tecumseh, hunting migratory waterfowl before sunrise on Winewanna, $18 fine and costs each.
Robert Push of Chelsea, using illegal type gun for migratory waterfowl hunting on a Lima township pond Oct. 10; $18 fine and costs on Oct. 14.
Robert B. Peebles of Jackson and Don E. Halliwell of Somerset, hunting migratory fowl before sunrise Oct. 6 on Winewanna. They pleaded not guilty on Oct. 14 and trial was set for Oct. 28.

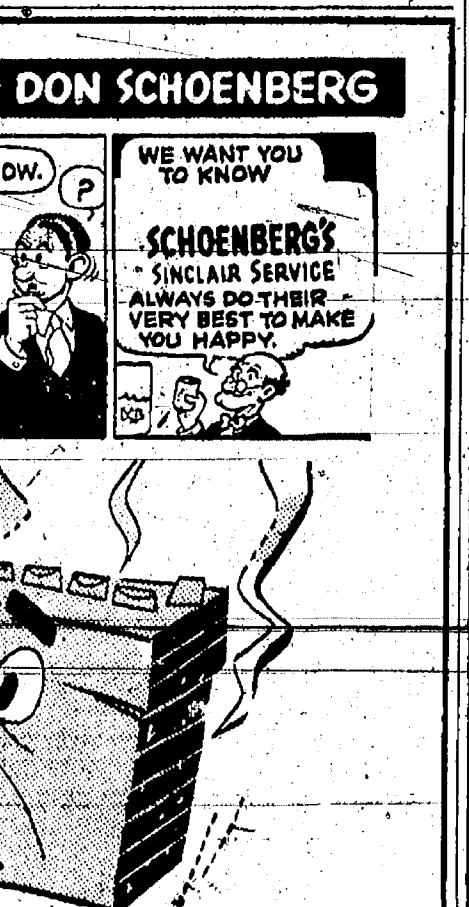

Washtenaw 4-H Member Wins State Horse Award

Nichole Shotka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shotka of 6250 Campbell Rd., Ann Arbor, has been named the State Winner of the 4-H award given by the Michigan Quarter Horse Association. "Nickie" is in her seventh year of 4-H club work, and has received numerous awards for outstanding work in the 4-H horse project. She is a member of the Brand-X 4-H Horse club of Saline. Her 4-H projects, in addition to the horse project, have included clothing, foods, leathercraft, and junior leadership. Her mother is the leader of the Brand-X 4-H club.
and was the last scoring of the entire game.
Offensive standouts were Dave Clark and Bill Harvey while outstanding defense players were listed as David Blaess, Larry Porath and Mike Skodak.
Concord team members were exceptionally big and fast and it was much to Chelsea's credit to win the game.

Bankers Association Scholarship Awarded to 4 Washtenaw Students

Four Washtenaw county students were awarded Washtenaw County Bankers Association scholarships to Michigan State University Short Courses. John Moore, 10045 Buntun Rd., Willis; William Rogers, 10350 Saline-Milan Rd., Saline; Roger Lench, 10235 Sharon Hollow Rd., Manchester; and Richard Lau, 2540 Carlton Dr., Ann Arbor were recipients of the scholarships.
All four will enroll in Michigan State University's Agricultural Short Course beginning Thursday, Oct. 17.
The scholarship program for short course students is carried out state-wide in co-operation with the Michigan Bankers Association and local County Bankers Associations.
Henry Ford once was involved in a classic case of "how do you get the boat out of the basement." When he built his first car in 1896, he found that he'd built the car wider than the door to his workshop. To get it out, he had to knock a hole in the workshop wall.
The boys played football today. They are planning a trip to Jackson fire station today (Friday).

THE LETTERBOX

★ The Kids Didn't Clap for This One!

The Dramatics Club and others at Chelsea High put on a two plays Tuesday. The Junior High saw them in the morning and the High School in the afternoon, and the night before they put them on for the parents of those in the cast. Profits from the 15 cent admission went to the Freshmen and Sophomore treasuries. The "Ladies of the Mop" was delightful in verse as the ladies dreamed of "what might have been" during their performance on the stage as they were moping. But the best play of the two, the one that will long be remembered with horror was the first one, "The Lottery."

Probably few of the Junior High youngsters, 7th and 8th graders, read the warning in the printed program, and probably fewer understood the warning. The "strange and shocking ending" is built up to by the amateur players in a realistic manner. The playbill predicts, "The atmosphere of a pleasant village gathering to draw in a lottery must slowly change to an atmosphere of dread, and then suddenly to a mood of terror."

How can anyone know what this means until the play reveals it or until someone spoils it by telling you. Significantly, the youngsters in the audience were almost silent after the curtains drew closed. The one or two sounds of clapping were almost snuffed out by the shock and horror of the group. There will probably never be a curtain call for this play because people ought to be busy trying to figure out "Why?" You have to hand it to the Junior Highs. . . they didn't clap "because you're supposed to clap after a play." Some adults did feel like it, and perhaps theirs were the few hands moving.

What did it mean? Was it a Much-too-harsh attack on customs and habits and traditions in the adult world? Is this a play that adults will never be able to understand? Is it a sermon "For Children Only?" Are adults to blame for out-of-date, and out-of-meaning customs in every town and village and family? Are we endangering our children's lives and the very existence of our civilization, but not stopping to decide what customs are important and which are actually harmful.

The Lottery is so harsh that many will not bother to ask calmly, "What is the author trying to say to us?" . . . and thus the work and the chance to see ourselves from a youth point-of-view will be missed again.

The Senior high's didn't applaud. Did the adults? Did the high school crowd?

Short Course Scholarships Awarded

Ann Arbor Western Kiwanis Club presented two $100 scholarships to two Washtenaw county young men. Malcolm Reinhardt of Gregory and Dale Weidmayer of rural Ann Arbor were the recipients of the scholarships to the Michigan State University Agricultural Short Course. Both Reinhardt and Weidmayer will use the awards to help finance their second year in the Michigan State University program.

Presentations were made at the Oct. 8 meeting of the Ann Arbor Western Kiwanis club at Weber's Restaurant. William Koch, a member of the club's agriculture and conservation committee presented the awards.

Both young men have achieved above average records in their first year at Michigan State University.

Dale Weidmayer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Weidmayer of 10044 Pleasant Lake Rd. He is a 1962 graduate of Manchester High school where he was active in the Future Farmers of America. He served in the offices of reporter and president of his local Future Farmers of America Chapter. At Michigan State University he has also been active in many extra-curricular activities. He plans to continue farming after completing the program at Michigan State University.

Malcolm Reinhardt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Reinhardt of 10001 Joslin Lake Rd., Gregory. He is a 1962 graduate of Chelsea High school. He also was a member of the Future Farmers of America and held the offices of sentinel and district secretary. He is also planning to continue farming after completion of the Michigan State University Short Course.

Tourists now spend about $850 million annually in Michigan. However, this figure could be increased substantially, believes a Michigan State University tourist and resort specialist. Aggressive planning, management and promotion could attract larger number of tourists from heavily-populated southern-Michigan and northern Illinois, Indiana and Ohio areas—states which do not have Michigan's attractions.

Smoked Whitefish By Dornbos Co. May Be Poisonous

Washtenaw County Health Department warns people to destroy or return to the store any vacuum packed smoked fish—marketed by H. D. Dornbos and Sons, Grand Haven.

This warning came after food poisoning killed a man and his daughter in Knoxville, Tenn. Type E botulism, one of the most deadly forms of food poisoning, was suspected in all the cases.

Samples of the smoked fish are being analyzed by the Federal Food and Drug Laboratory in Detroit. The state is also testing it in Lansing.

Dr. Otto K. Engelke, director of the Washtenaw County Health Department says, "People who have bought this vacuum packed whitefish should destroy it. It is not necessary to send samples on phone the Health Department."

The Federal Food and Drug Administration and the Michigan Department of Agriculture already are testing it.

The Food and Drug Administration and the Michigan Department of Agriculture have ordered wholesale and retail stores to remove and destroy vacuum packed smoked fish by the Dornbos Co.

Health Department sanitarians today are checking with stores and distributors to be sure that this smoked whitefish (or whitefish chubs) is taken off the market.

Trees from Conservation Dept. Offered Only for Reforestation Purposes

Lansing — Young trees now on hand by the Conservation Department are not available for lawn plantings, Michigan landowners are reminded.

During recent weeks, the Department has received a growing number of requests for these trees to help in landscaping yards. The department points out that its supply of trees is offered to private property owners only for reforestation plantings, erosion control, and farm windbreaks.

About 10 million seedlings and saplings are available at approximate production costs of such uses.

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Oct. 1, 1963, meetings at the Oct. 15th, 1963 Council Room.

Regular Session.

This meeting was called to order by Pres. Daniels at 8:00 p.m. Trustees present: Bollinger, Burg, Chapman, Clark, Haselschwardt, and Wood. The minutes of the Regular Session of Sept. 17, 1963 were read and approved.

A request was entered by Mr. Albert J. Samples of 525 Arthur Street requesting a variance to build a garage to within 3 feet of his south property line. A letter stating the objection to the proposed variance was submitted by Mr. Albert W. Rosentreter.

Motion by Haselschwardt, supported by Clark, to approve the variance as requested. Roll call: Yes all. Motion carried.

A discussion was held regarding the proposed purchase of the Consumers Power Company equipment and material located in the recently annexed area to the south of the village. No official action was taken at this time.

A discussion was held regarding the water main construction in Lanewood. No official action was taken at this time.

A discussion was held with Mr. Elwyn Beach, Zone 6, Civil Defense Director. No official action was taken at this time.

A discussion was held regarding the possible construction of a 28 space parking lot immediately behind and to the north of the McKune Memorial Library on property owned by George L. Staffan. Trustee Wood was instructed to contact Village Attorney, John Keusch for legal advice on this matter, and to report any recommendations.

CLARIFICATION of GARBAGE and RUBBISH PICK-UP REGULATIONS

The contract with the Village defines rubbish as tin cans, ashes, glass containers (or any reasonable substitute for tin or glass).

All other refuse such as wood, products, steel bars, cement blocks, plaster, bricks, etc. does not qualify under the terms of the contract. These must be disposed of by residents themselves.

Garbage is defined in the contract as all vegetable waste and rejected food wastes (fruit, vegetable and animal matter) resulting from the preparation of food, also all spoiled or decayed food of a similar nature.

Garbage alone is picked up at rear of residences; however, if rubbish and garbage are in the same container, the container must be put at the curb for pickup.

Amount of pick-up must not exceed two 25-gallon containers each weighing no more than 75 pounds.

Limitations of size and weight apply for garbage pick-up behind homes or rubbish at curb.

Residents, themselves, are responsible for getting the rubbish not covered by the contract to the village landfill on Werlner Rd., three miles north of Chelsea.

The landfill is open Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, 1 p.m. - 5 p.m., and Saturdays, all day - 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Car Headlights Give Added Safety Through Early Evening Hours

Lansing — Turn on your car headlights about a half hour after sunset and use them up to a half hour before sunrise and at any other time when natural light is not sufficient, the Michigan State Highway Department advises.

During autumn, when sunset comes earlier and earlier, it is particularly important that motorists pay closer attention to lighting their vehicles at the proper time.

"Old Ironsides" was launched, October 21, 1797. An electrical incandescent lamp was invented by Thomas Edison, October 21, 1879.
Sam Houston of Virginia was elected first president of the Republic of Texas, October 22, 1836.
The British broke the Axis line at El Alamein, October 23, 1942.
Benjamin Franklin advocated crop insurance, October 24, 1788. A nationwide 40-hour wage law became effective, October 24, 1938.

One driving expert has advised that you should always choose a tollway, freeway, expressway or other interstate road, if you have a choice of routes for night driving. His reasons? The advantages of adequate illumination, reflective signing, one-way traffic and lack of crossroads make them far safer than other roads, and night death rates are lower because of these advantages.

A new Michigan law requires that all farm equipment, self-propelled or otherwise, be equipped with reflectors or reflective material if the equipment is ever taken onto public roads and highways. In many states, farm equipment is completely unequipped with any warning device that motorists can see, at dusk or after dark.

4-H Hillbilly Kitchen Band Signed To Entertain at Farm Bureau Meet

Members of Blue Ribbon 4-H club are meeting Saturdays at Lima Center Community Hall for practice sessions of their "Mitch Miller Hillbilly Band" in preparation for appearing at the Oct. 16 annual dinner of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau. The club, led by Mrs. William Van Riper and Mrs. Glen Wiseman, won recognition at the Washtenaw county 4-H Fun Festival at Saline in July as one of two groups in the "large" category chosen, along with two groups designated as "small" groups, to compete in the district festival at Ann Arbor. At that event, the Blue Ribbon Florists club placed fourth.

The club closed its summer work at a meeting Sept. 11 at the home of Rose Curtis. At that meeting it was voted to take flowers from members' gardens to each patient at Colonial Manor Nursing Home on Sunday, Sept. 15; because of the appreciation expressed by the patients, the club members are considering repeating the project annually.

Flowers were also taken to Vermont cemetery, corner Jerusalem Rd. and M-52, and placed on graves of people known to club members.

Reports at the final meeting mentioned that all members of the club had taken flowers for altar decorations at their individual churches during the summer.

Members of the hillbilly band fun project—all members of Blue Ribbon Florists club—are Becky Van Riper, Judy Bollinger, Evelyn Rothfuss, Gail Kuhl, Norene Lampe, Lynda Koch, Linda Van Riper, Arlys Wiseman, Judy Wiseman, Rose Curtis and Laurie Reddeman.

Miss Reddeman serves as pianist for the "band."

The hillbilly band number was one of the acts chosen at the 4-H Fun Festival at Saline, July 31 to compete in the district festival at Ann Arbor High school, Aug. 12. The group—all members of Blue Ribbon 4-H club—won fourth place at the district event.

6,000 Acres Treated for Jap Beetle

Soil treatment of approximately 6,000 acres of land in Ypsilanti and Ypsilanti township for Japanese beetle larvae began last week Thursday, according to Donald R. Johnson, county extension director. The area being treated is bordered by Clark Rd. on the north, Huron River on the west, Ford Lake on the south, and Rawsonville Rd. on the east.

The treatment consists of two pounds of actual dieldrin per acre, granular form, applied by machine spreaders, where applicable and hand spreading where the machinery cannot be used. The soil treatment for the larvae will have a residual effect of three to five years.

All residents in the treatment area were notified individually in writing of the treatment and precautionary measures as to covering bird baths, fish pools, pet feeding dishes, children's sand boxes, etc. Local police departments were notified of the treatment of the area.

The program is under the direction of the plant pest control division of the United States Department of Agriculture and the plant industry division of the State Department of Agriculture. Federal, State, and possibly local units of government, county, city and township are sharing in the cost of treatment.

Treatment of the area was approved by local units of government. Had the treatment not been made, the entire treatment area, plus numerous isolated small colonies of infestation, would have been placed under Federal quarantine.

Placing the area under quarantine would have virtually stopped all movement of untreated materials out of the area, which might provide a means of spreading the insect to other areas.

Residents in the area of infestation and surrounding areas have been most co-operative in reporting insect finds, and informing neighbors of the situation.

RUSSIAN WOMAN DOOMED

MOSCOW — The Village Life, a newspaper, reported that a woman bookkeeper on a Ukrainian collective farm has been sentenced to be shot for embezzling state funds.

The report said Miss Yulya Kutasevich, head bookkeeper and other officials of the farm embezzled about $55,000 over a period of several years.

The other embezzlers received long prison terms.

FIFTH SET OF TWINS
SYDNEY, Australia — John Struthers, 46, who earns $42.50 a week as a factory machine greaser, said: "I knew that I was the father of twins again when I saw the two cots in the hospital. No one knew she was having twins until they arrived. I'm very happy."

The boy and girl, each weighing five pounds, brought the Struthers brood to fourteen, five sets of twins and four single births.
