Travel to Ypsi Friday for Game With Roosevelt

What was described as one of the most thrilling games played by Chelsea fans in some time, the Chelsea High school basketball team became the victors in a score of 83 to 70 points. The game was played against the Onsted team at Onsted.

Scores changed so rapidly during the game that neither side was sure of victory; at the end of the third quarter the score was 56 for Chelsea and 55 for Onsted. In the fourth quarter, however, Chelsea scored a total of 27 points while Onsted was able to score only 15.

But Farley was high point man for Chelsea with 32 points. Gary Schunk was credited with 18 and Gary Schunk 16.

Onsted had a good shooting night, Charles Ostrander scoring 19 points on long jump shots. Onsted scored 19 points for Onsted on jump shots. The Onsted team was strong under the boards, times out-rebounding Chelsea. The starting five for Chelsea included Farley, Jim Hanson, Gary Schunk, Charles Schunk and Jim Hanson. They scored well in the first quarter (21 points) but ran into trouble in the second quarter—especially Schunk with 14 points and Cameron four fouls.

In the second half, Ed Windell had a strong game under the boards, rebounding well and also Farley help in rebounding. Chelsea's performance in the first quarter was responsible for the great thrills—he scored 14 of 18 points in that quarter and led Chelsea in rebounding.

Chelsea player who had an excellent game under the boards is Dennis Stoffer. In addition to the three top scorers, others who scored are Jim Hanson, 5; Jim Cameron, 4; Carl Schunk, 3; Dennis Stoffer, Ed Windell and Dick Lauson, each 2.

At the end of the first quarter the score was 21-11, with Chelsea leading. At the end of the second quarter, 44-40; and at the end of the third quarter, 56-55. While the game shifted at times during the first quarter, Chelsea managed to rebound, over-all lead at the end of each quarter. Chelsea was out 25-20 in the second quarter.

The Chelsea Junior Varsity lost the Onsted JV's, 47-00.

High School Open House Plans Told

Chelsea High School Principal Charles Lane, announcing open house plans for the high school, said "This year the high school will hold a series of four to five programs for the parents and others in the district. These programs will feature specific departments or areas of the school and will all be built around the general theme, "Educational Education."

"Facing the fact that upwards of 60 percent of our graduates do not go on to higher education," Lane continued, "we feel it is very important that people know what is being done, and what is hoped can be done for the majority of our students. Through this series of programs, curriculum will be explored, ideas exchanged, and questions answered by the faculty and administration of our school. It is hoped that people will become familiar with what goes on in the various areas of the school and get better acquainted with our teachers."

The first of these programs will be held Dec. 19 and will feature the physical education program. The scope of the program will be discussed showing that the school teaches activities that may benefit students when they are adults. The program will feature students as they actually participate in the program—girls in modern dance and group games while boys will go through the physical fitness test that was recommended by the late President Kennedy.

Gerald Grohert Now Affiliated with Conlin & Conlin

Gerald J. (Jerry) Grohert, Chelsea attorney, announces his affiliation with the law offices of John W. Conlin, Jr., and Patrick J. Conlin at 4122 Avenue St. Practice on a part-time basis effective immediately.

Alvin Four, who has been confined to his home for several weeks after suffering a heart attack, is reported to be steadily improving; however, he is still somewhat restricted in his physical activity, as to the amount of his activity.

Senior Class Play Being Presented

The Senior Class play at Chelsea High school, originally scheduled for Nov. 22 and 23 and postponed because of the assassination of President John Kennedy, has been re-scheduled to take place Thursday, Dec. 5 (tonight) and Saturday, Dec. 7. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

The play "January Thaw" is a comedy directed by David Knisely, junior high school English teacher, and Pauline Johnson, student director.

Cast in the leading parts of the play are Judy Livingston and Mike Schuler and Sue Schroen and David Rumbach.

The play is being presented in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

Council Briefs

The Chelsea Village Council meeting, Tuesday, Dec. 3, saw all trustees present—Paul Bollinger, Stephen Clark, Larry Chapman, J. V. Burg, II, Howard Hasel-schwardt and Clarence Wood.

Discussion held with Ray Smit and John McKim of Ayres, Lewis, Norris & May, consulting engineers for the village, regarding village water main system and water mains in Lanewood. No official action taken.

The Rev. J. R. Smucker present to ask about the possibility of appointing a Human Relations Commission in Chelsea. President Robert Daniels and members of the Council stated they were of the opinion that a Human Relations Commission would not be necessary as beneficial to the village at the present time.

Discussion with Lloyd Caplan and Al Machule regarding the possibility of annexation to the village of a piece of property known as "Ewalds" on Old US-12, immediately to the south and west of present village limits. Engineers are to ascertain the feasibility of such proposed annexation.

Village Attorney John Keusch was consulted relative to possible action that might be taken against the New York Central Railroad to remedy the cause of grass fires. Keusch was instructed to investigate the possibility of collecting funds to offset the cost of the 30 runs made by the fire department the past summer because of fires caused by the trains.

Discussion regarding proposed agreement with Consumers Power Co. No official action.

Many Bargains Offered only at Specific Hour

Special Prices on Gift Merchandise Will Make Christmas Shopping Easy

Monday night, Dec. 9, is the date for a repeat "Midnight Madness" sale such as the one held July 22 when Chelsea stores were jammed with shoppers and a general carnival air prevailed.

Stores will close at 6 p.m. as usual and will re-open at 7 p.m. for the special sales event, remaining open until 10 p.m.

It is expected crowds will be lined up in front of stores when they re-open; such was the case at the "Midnight Madness" event last summer.

With outstanding specials in Christmas gift items being offered—many for certain hours only during the evening—it is believed thousands of shoppers will turn out to do much of their Christmas buying at this special sale.

To add to the Christmas season effect, carolers will be singing in the downtown area as the sale gets underway at 7 o'clock. The Youth Fellowship group of St. Paul's United Church of Christ will provide the carolers.

Santa Claus will also be in town during the evening; with street decorations in place and store windows trimmed in the Christmas theme, a holiday spirit is expected to prevail during the three-hour sale period.

Monday will be the only extra evening that stores will be open next week. They will be open as usual until 9 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 13, as well as Friday evening this week, Dec. 6.

Washtenaw Historical Group Told of Chelsea's History

"Chelsea Vignettes of Yesterday" was the topic for an interesting program presented by three Chelsea area men at the December meeting of the Washtenaw Historical Society. The meeting, with 45 persons present, was held Tuesday evening in the club room of McKune Memorial Library with Dr. Joseph V. Fisher of Chelsea as host.

Herbert H. Barton of Ann Arbor, the society's president, was in charge of a brief business session preceding the program period. He made mention of the appointment by the Ann Arbor City Council of a commission to co-operate with the county historical group.

Dr. A. A. Palmer, one of the Chelsea men who had been asked to speak at the meeting had been assigned the topic: "The Village Doctor." He told of some of the experiences of his father, Dr. George W. Palmer, who began his 50-year Chelsea practice in 1878. He was still in practice at the time of his death as the result of a traffic accident.

Dr. Palmer said his father, in early years by horse and buggy, rode a "circuit" each day to call on his patients, following a route encircling Chelsea for a distance of approximately 40 miles in all directions. Dr. Palmer also related (Continued on page five)

Grade PTA Meeting Set Wednesday

A meeting of the Elementary PTA is to be held Wednesday, Dec. 11, at 8 p.m. at South school. Announcement of the meeting states that the planned program should prove to be especially interesting since prominent speakers will be present to explain the special education project of Washtenaw county at the local and county level.

Among these are John Mader, the county's director of special education; Wayne Brigman, visiting teacher; Dale Bell, diagnostician for the special education program; and Altha Turman, teacher of the homebound under the special education project.

Also to take part in the discussion is Mrs. Rosemary Irving, Chelsea speech correctionist.

Lively discussion is expected at Wednesday's program if the reaction at the November program is an indication of the planner, in which program's of vital interest to all parents and teachers are received.

PTA officers said the December meeting can be "even better" than the November meeting if each parent will make a special effort to attend.

Enlists in Army

Gary Speer recently enlisted in the U.S. Army, Master Sergeant Mitchell, U.S. Army recruiter in Ann Arbor has announced. Speer, a former member of the U.S. Marine Corps, will not be required to take basic training and therefore will go directly to his duty station. His assignment has not been announced by the Department of the Army at this time.

Prior to enlisting Gary was living at 128 Orchard St., with his wife and child.

Kiwanians Host Children At Annual Christmas Party

Monday evening, in the social center of the Methodist church, members of the Kiwanis club entertained their children and grandchildren at the annual Christmas party planned especially for the youngsters.

Highlight of the evening was the appearance of Santa Claus with gifts for the children.

Announcement was made that the Dec. 9 meeting will be the annual Ladies' Night Christmas party.

It is to be held at Ed Gons's restaurant in Jackson beginning at 7 p.m.

The following week, Dec. 16, a regular meeting is scheduled to be held in the social center of the Methodist church.

Approximately 100 members of the Kiwanis club at the annual Farmers' Night program Monday, Nov. 25, in the Methodist church social center.

Kiwanians and their guests enjoyed a talk by the Honorable Press writer, Jack Van Overbeek, who spoke about the present and a better situation in northern Michigan. He also showed pictures on the topic as well as a tape picture of a suffering lion on the Pacific Ocean off Panama.

Announcement was made that the Kiwanis-sponsored K.Y. club of high school boys moved last chapter as of Nov. 15-A Chapter General program is being planned.

When the chapter was in use, a total of 46 boys were enrolled as members.

Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Sander were weekend guests of the Charles Lancasters the weekend of Nov. 23. They had planned to attend the U. of M.-Ohio football game at Ann Arbor, learning on arrival that it had been postponed because of the death of President John Kennedy.

Friends of Library Plan To Continue Adult Ed. Classes

Approximately 25 people were present Sunday afternoon for the postponed meeting of Chelsea Friends of the Library. The meeting had been scheduled originally for Nov. 24; it was canceled because of the assassination of President John Kennedy on Nov. 22. The meeting was held at McKune Memorial Library.

Among those present Sunday were several from Dexter—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rosel, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Wilner, Mrs. Glen Mast and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Soule.

The Dexter people were interested in learning methods used here to promote the welfare of the library since Dexter is in the process of enlarging its library facilities. They inspected the entire library following the meeting.

John Thomson, a member of the Chelsea library board was asked to list some of the needs of the library, such as might be set as a project for the Friends of the Library.

Heading his list was the desirability of further landscaping. He said only about a third of the work had been completed and it would cost approximately $300 to finish it.

Second on Thomson's list was a large card file and third, hardwood bookshelves to replace some earlier installations which were made of cheaper wood.

The group also discussed promoting (Continued on page four)

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Be Good to Customers Month

December is being observed around the country as National Appreciation Month. During these 31 great days you, as a customer, will be—or should be—treated like a king (or queen). No snarls from salespeople, no rude, telephone operators, no sass, no indifference.

The entire idea comes from the Customer Advisory Council in Philadelphia. We think it makes sense.

The Council's chairman, Joseph M. Segel, points out that in December, business activity is most frantic of the year. "So it is the month," he says, "when good customer relations practices tend to be most sorely neglected. Yet, at no time of year is it more important to impress customers that their business is truly appreciated."

Indifference is business' chief customer-killer. Businessmen across the country spend millions luring new customers and polishing their "public image," yet fail to create a warm feeling in the hearts of existing customers. Thus, old customers may fade away as fast as new ones are brought in, and there is no net business growth.

An employee courtesy program is worthwhile in every business. Workers need to be impressed with the importance of the customer to their job security. Complaints should be settled quickly and to the satisfaction of the complainant. Regular contact should be maintained with established customers by mail, phone or sales calls.

December, of course, presents the traditional opportunity to send Christmas cards to all active customers and "thank you" gifts to important customers. Many businessmen, particularly manufacturers and wholesalers, have found that Christmas goodwill gifts of modest value are expressions of appreciation that last the year-round.

Better customer relations are the best insurance for an expanding economy. Friendly people buy more, and nothing makes a human being more expansive than the feeling that he is appreciated.

We're all human and we're all customers, even those who may also be business men and women, thus we all have gripes. The Customer Relations Research Foundation, parent of the Advisory Council, is dedicated to finding out what those gripes are. Thus, it would like to know the things you resent most as a customer. Why not write the Foundation at 1730 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

This is one way you can help contribute to a prosperous New Year.

It would be easy enough for the government to cut domestic expenses. Trouble is, most of those expenses can also vote.

It isn't the amount of money that a fellow's father has that counts with most girls, it's the amount of father's cash that son has.

Everybody says that a fool and his money are soon parted, but nobody ever explains how the fool got the cash in the first place.

ANNUAL GUESSING GAME BEGINS AROUND HOME

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

New Fight Starts
Michigan's Highway Department has been the object of criticism in the state legislature periodically during the last several years, at least partly because of its financial independence.

Almost all of the Department's monies come from earmarked gas and weight taxes and federal funds. It relies only slightly on the legislature for money.

The department also is one of the largest of state agencies. This also is a factor in the legislature's criticism.

Under the new Constitution such funds will no longer be specifically earmarked, except to the extent that certain monies are designated for use "for highway purposes." The definition of highway purposes, however, will come from the legislature. State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie and others concerned in the roadbuilding industry have expressed strong concern about this power given the legislature.

Mackie recently made an announcement which is likely to turn the tables on him.

One of the suggestions made in the legislature last year was that state police highway patrols be paid for out of highway funds. Other suggestions included using highway monies for safety and driver education programs.

Mackie disliked these suggestions, but now has announced that between $1 million and $1.5 million will be used annually for a "freeway service patrol."

Under department plans the patrol would assist motorists who become stranded on freeways, thus taking the burden of services off police patrols. These services would include changing tires, providing gasoline and starting stalled cars.

The barrage of criticism expected in the legislature has already started. Rep. Russell H. Strange, R-Clare, termed the announcement as "a classic example of how a governmental agency prohibits the establishment of any new spending programs without expressed legislative approval."

Strange also took a slap at the department's construction of tourist information centers and rest areas as actions outside its jurisdiction.

The Clare Republican's remarks more than likely are just the beginning of many more to come.

Full Tax Load
Michigan citizens would be the last to question whether they pay their fair share of federal taxes, but for anyone who might have any doubts, records clearly indicate they do.

Federal tax collections jumped over the $100 billion mark for the first time last year. This included individual income taxes, which soared to almost $53 billion; corporate taxes, which jumped to $22.3 billion; and excise taxes, which accounted for $15 billion.

In the categories of individual and business levies, a Commerce Clearing House report showed Michigan was third highest among six states which forked over more than half the total federal tax bill.

Michigan citizens and business concerns contributed $8.2 billion into the collections from six states which totaled $57.7 billion. Other states in this group were New York, California, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

"Usually Unusual"
Michigan Week is an annual, but unusual event. It is planned for nearly 11 months and three weeks, finally carried out in the remaining week of the year.

The 1954 observance is set for May 17-23. Its theme will be "Michigan, Great in Resources and Opportunities."

Gov. George Romney is honorary chairman of the annual big week next year. He notes the future for Michigan is good. "Michigan is at the threshold of the brightest era in its history," Romney said recently in announcing the official theme for the 1954 observance.

A.M.A. ON MEDICARE COST

The American Medical Association has claimed that the program for health care of the aged would cost twice the estimated tax take.

Two top officers Edward R. Annis, president, and Norman A. Welch, president-elect in a testimony prepared for the House Ways and Means Committee said the proposal for hospital and nursing home benefits for the aged under Social Security would require an increase of one half of 1 percent, instead of one fourth, in the payroll tax of employers and employees.

U.S. KEEPS VIGIL
Fast, high-flying planes still keep watch over Cuba even though it has been a year since the Cuban missile crisis pulsed to a peak.

The latest intelligence information indicates there has been no Soviet effort to re-introduce offensive missiles or bombers. Swifter jet fighters are poised in Florida, Navy planes watch for large-echelon ships and high-flying U-2s cover the island at least once a week.

Heating bills now popping up everywhere reminds us that summer was not too hot after all.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where the Government has added 4,750 more folks to the payroll.

First off, the Post Office Department had to get 2,972 more workers to handle this new Zip business. I reckon this would come under the head of zipping up the zipper and unzipping the taxpayer. I was reading in the papers where one Washington column writer claims this new system ain't no improvement over the old zone system. He allowed as how we needed the Zip about like his saddle horse needed a pair of bedroom shoes. Personal, Mister Editor, I don't know about such matters. I'm just telling you what the man said.

Then the Department of Agriculture took on 884 more employees. It seems it's going to take a heap more typers, clerks and book keepers to keep track of the wheat crop now that the farmers have took the controls off this item.

And the Treasury Department put on 894 more workers in July when the new budget went into effect. But the piece in the papers announced this was just normal procedure, that the higher the public debt gets, the more workers it takes to handle the figures.

It was also announced the Government research agencies wasn't spending but $14 billion this year. I was reading in another piece in the papers where the 1963 farm crop for the whole nation will come to about $14 billion. It could be that them Congressmen was trying to balance the research program again the farm crop. If so, that's the first time the word "balance" has come up in this session of the Congress.

I was reciting these figures to the fellers at the country store Saturday night and the results was the usual split decision. Clem Webster, that crossed the New Frontier ahead of Kenney, claimed all this was good for the country, kept employment high. Ed Doo-little allowed as how we wasn't getting no place when high employment called for higher prices.

They ain't no compromise between Clem and Ed in politics. I recollect back under Truman when the papers had a little item about operating on a high priced cow to remove a 10-penny nail at one of them Government stock-breeding farms. A lot of this and that went on in the papers about the matter and it was put on the agenda at the country store one Saturday night.

Clem argued the country didn't even have no prize cows till the Democrats took over under Franklin Roosevelt. Furthermore, allowed Clem, a 10-penny nail now, and then might be good for a cow—make her milk rich with iron. But Ed wanted a investigation to see which one of them Democrats was throwing away good Government rails.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew

Eight Washtenaw 4-H Members Awarded Trip to Chicago

Eight Washtenaw county 4-H club members left Thursday morning, Nov. 28, by train for a week-end in Chicago. The trip is sponsored by the Ann Arbor Kiwanis club as part of the 4-H awards program. These young people were selected for the outstanding work they have done in 4-H.

The group included Grace Kuschma and Lynn Harvey of Chelsea; Thalia Johnson and Jackie Steers of Dexter; Cheryl Henes, Elaine Schable and Elaine Dieterle, Saline; and Chuck Avis of Ann Arbor.

The group spent four days in Chicago touring the city, visiting museums, seeing a stage show, and

Commission on Professional, Hospital Activities Receives Research Grant

Dr. Vergil N. Slee, director of the Commission on Professional and Hospital Activities, announced today the receipt of $254,793 three-year research grant from the United States Public Health Service to establish a co-operative project with the City-County Health Department for the further development of a data processing information system for local health activities.

Dr. Otto K. Engelke, director of the Health Department and William H. Kincaid, assistant director of the Commission on Professional and Hospital Activities, are co-investigators.

The Commission and the Health Department have been doing preliminary work with a community health information system for several years. While a part of the intensified effort made possible by the grant will be to develop the data processing aspects of the system, the major objective will be to provide the community with needed health information. The study will utilize the Commission's electronic computer in work with information resulting from health department activities in home nursing care, environmental health, vital statistics, maternal and child health, laboratory services and others.

By the end of the first year, it is expected that the use of the computer system for selected program areas of the community health services will have been successfully demonstrated.

The second and third years should see the refinement of the system and its testing in other local health units. After a period of testing, the final phase would be to make the system, or parts of it, available to other local health units on a voluntary non-profit basis.

Every local community health department has the problem of accumulating information for its own use. In addition, it must present the information in many ways to responsible authorities and to the public.

The accumulation of data is contained in a non-standardized, paper network made up of forms, routine monthly status reports, and other media. These documents characterize the systems in being which are comparatively non-automated.

The informational system, when developed, will offer: (1) a convenient reference on all pertinent aspects of community health services; (2) a professional health service accounting system; (3) a ready source of community health information; (4) work simplification for record keeping activities; (5) data on financing of local health services according to the services rendered; and (6) data on which planning, programming, and budgeting realistically may be based.

ATCHES BABY IN FALL
Albany, Calif. — It was the sick thinking of Bass Gaddie who fell from the ledge of a 26-foot high window. He jumped a 6-foot fence and caught the baby.
Telephone Your Club News To GR 5-3581

Washtenaw Historical Society Meeting...

The difficulties under which, in the early years, his father cared for his patients. Instances of operations performed on kitchen tables, delivering babies with only "ann-tou" assistance and many other of his father's experiences held the attention of his audience as he told about them.

Dr. Palmer also told some of his own experiences. He served in World War I and World War II, returning to his practice here each time after completing his military service. He concluded his talk with the statement that he hoped he could remain in practice "another 30 years," indicating that he had enjoyed the challenge of his chosen profession.

During his talk Dr. Palmer mentioned some of the physicians practicing in Chelsea during his early years as a doctor. Some of those mentioned were Dr. A. A. Gude, Dr. J. T. Wood, Dr. H. W. Schmidt and Dr. S. G. Bush.

Paul G. Schaible, Sr., chairman of the board of Chelsea State Bank, and Ellis Martin, a retired school teacher, were the others who spoke at the meeting. Schaible's topic was "The Rural School Teacher." His connection with banking circles in Chelsea for the past 50 years or more is well known; however, the fact that he was a rural school teacher for several years is not such general knowledge.

He told about his first teaching position—in his own school district in Sharon township where the family home was located. He taught there one year, receiving a salary of $178 for the nine-month term.

His next position was at the Jesuit school where he taught 52 pupils in grades one to eight. In those days, Schaible said, the rural school teacher built the fires in the heating stoves and performed all other maintenance duties in addition to teaching. He said he walked the four miles from the family home at the corner of Manchester and Waldo Rd. to the Jesuit school each morning and night.

When the opportunity came to him to become affiliated with the banking business, he was replaced in his teaching position by Schuyler Foster, well known in the Chelsea area as a schoolteacher and later as rural mail carrier for many years.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kugel left Tuesday to return to their home in Bethesda, Md., after spending a week with relatives here. They were houseguests of their son, Dr. J. V. Fisher, and family and were present for a family Thanksgiving gathering there. On Sunday they were dinner guests of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. C. Eugene Fisher and daughters, Linda and Christine. Also present were Robert Walters of Ann Arbor, and Dr. and Mrs. Fisher and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laban and son, Richard, spent Thanksgiving with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Miller and children, in Dearborn. On Sunday the Labans and their sons, Richard and Francis, went to Dearborn for the christening of the Millers' infant son, Daniel Joseph, whose godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sparks of Schiller Park, Ill., where the Millers lived until recently.

Mrs. Jerry Spicer and her own four children and two others of Lake Orion spent Friday here with her grandmother, Mrs. Adam Alber. She brought a Thanksgiving dinner which she and her family and Mrs. Alber enjoyed together. Saturday evening callers of Mrs. Alber were Mrs. Velma Dorr and Mrs. Irwin Klump.

Thanksgiving day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Boyer and son were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Sanders of Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Boyer and son, Eldon, of Grand Lodge, Mrs. Mabel Woolley of Manchester, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Veary and Mrs. Annabelle Woolley of Chelsea.

Airman Second Class Daniel Ellenwood will leave tomorrow for Francis E. Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyo., after spending two weeks here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ellenwood.

Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wheeler were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hough and family of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elder and Mr. and Mrs. George Ellenwood and family including their son, Airman Second Class Daniel Ellenwood of Francis E. Warren Air Force Base, Wyoming. Afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Wheeler and son, Leon, who had been dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Trinkle.

Ellis Martin, a graduate of the University of Michigan, taught school in Dearborn for 26 years. He came to the Chelsea area 11 years ago, following his retirement and became particularly interested in delving into the early history of St. Mary's Catholic church and its forerunner, the old St. Mary's church and Mt. Calvary cemetery north of Chelsea.

He said the land for the site of the first church and cemetery was donated by an early pioneer settler, Darius Pierce, a non-Catholic. He also told of Monsignor James Savage's wish to be buried at the exact spot formerly the location of the altar of that first church where he celebrated his first Mass following his ordination as a priest in 1860. A member of a pioneer family in the area, he later became the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James Savage of Most Holy Trinity church in Detroit, often referred to as the old Corktown church.

Other items of interest mentioned by Martin included the statement that the late Mrs. J. E. McKune who donated her home to become McKune Memorial Library, had in her possession for many years, the original candlesticks used on the old church's altar.

Martin also quoted an epitaph found on a marker on the grave of Owen McIntire, born in 1771, who died in 1878 at the age of 101 and was buried in the church cemetery.

Comments heard at the close of the program indicated that it was much enjoyed.

THANK YOU

Many thanks to all my friends, relatives and neighbors for the nice cards, pretty flowers, delicious fruit and lovely gifts and for telephone calls; also, special thanks to the Rev. Paul Schmale for his calls and prayers, Robekahs, Women's Relief Corps, Helping Hand Sewing Circle and all of the circles of St. Paul's church for remembering me while I was in the hospital and since my return home. These thoughtful kindnesses will never be forgotten.
Addie Fitzmaier.

THANK YOU

A big thanks to all my neighbors, friends and relatives for picking my chin, all the food brought in and the many cards while I was in the hospital. All was greatly appreciated.
Jack Bradbury.

THANK YOU

I wish by this means to express my thanks to all who so thoughtfully remembered me during my stay in the hospital. The cards, calls and flowers I received were very much appreciated, as well as the visit of the Rev. Robert Livingston.
Sincerely,
—Rose Chase.

CARD OF THANKS

To those who expressed their sympathy in so many thoughtful ways following the death of our mother and grandmother, we extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation. These kindnesses of our friends and neighbors will always be remembered. Special thanks to the Rev. James Craig for his comforting words.
Family of Mrs. George Bernath.

THANK YOU

I would personally like to thank all the people of Chelsea for making our paper drive last Saturday a big success. We will have another paper drive in early April or May so please save your papers. Thank you.

Just A Minute...

By Rev. James A. Craig

Surveying Main Street, Santa Clauses look down from utility poles. The time for our Christmas shopping is here. A pace, already too quick, gets quicker. Over it all our Santas wink and watch. Their patience is endless. Ours is not. Neither was that of some watchers long years ago. Then a whole nation stood on tiptoe to see what had not yet happened.

Some of them made their peace with the Roman Empire. Some got along as well as they could, saying little, trying not to think about it, others boiled over, while still others boiled over. Some still hoped.

These heard the voice: "I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people."

Santa watches from the utility pole. He watches some make their peace with a world full of hate and fear. He watches some try not to think about it, hoping it will go away. He watches some simmer, others boil over, fighting hate with more hate. He watches some still hope.

Now, as then, it is they who shall hear the voice and know the great joy which will come to all the people.

"Come, Thou long expected Jesus,
Born to set a people free,
From our fears and sins release us,
Let us find our rest in thee."

QUICK CURE
Falmouth, England — Bobby Blackford, 9, thrilled with the adventures of the sea, had decided that when he grew up he would become a sailor.
He has changed his mind now since he was rescued from a rowboat that had drifted out to sea. That experience on the water, all along, convinced the youngster to look for another career.

Indecision is costly but hasty action sometimes costs more.

SANTA CLAUS made his first appearance in Chelsea Saturday afternoon and listened carefully as each child told him what he would like for Christmas. He spent most of the afternoon here, making his headquarters on roped-off section of South St. between Chelsea State Bank and the Post Office. He had a treat for each child. It was at first believed he would not find time to make another pre-Christmas visit but has now decided to be here Monday evening, Dec. 9, when Chelsea merchants stage their "Midnight Madness" sales. There is a possibility, too, that he will be able to come back again on one or two Saturdays.

DEATHS

Claude H. Isham
Music Teacher, Organist
Dies at U-M Hospital

Claude H. Isham, 61, of 611 Flanders St., died early Friday at University Hospital, Ann Arbor, where he had been a patient since Nov. 12.

He was employed by the University of Michigan and had served as organist at the Methodist church the past 13 years. He had also been a music teacher for many years—at times on a part-time basis. He was a member of the Methodist church and the Chelsea Rod and Gun club.

Born Jan. 9, 1902, in Livingston county, near Pinckney, he was the son of Henry and Lulu Hudson Isham. He graduated from Pinckney High school before the family moved to Chelsea. In 1927 he graduated from the Detroit Conservatory of Music.

In El Cajon, Calif., on July 24, 1953, he married Valdeine Teasdale, who survives him.

Surviving, in addition to his widow, are one daughter, Mrs. David (Marilyn) Hess of Gettysburg, Pa.; two stepchildren, James Teasdale and Mrs. Robert (Beverly) Steinke, both of Ann Arbor; and four grandchildren. A sister, Maude, preceded him in death in 1924.

The body laid in state at the Methodist church from noon until 2 p.m. preceding the funeral service held at the church Monday, with the Rev. James Craig and the Rev. S. D. Kinde officiating. Burial followed at Oak Grove cemetery.

Arrangements were in charge of the Staffan Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Beach and children, Eric and Betsy, of Gettysburg, Pa., spent from Wednesday until Monday as guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Beach.

Harry A. O'Neil
Heart Attack Proves Fatal
For Grass Lake Area Man

Harry A. O'Neil, 12821 Curtis Rd., Grass Lake, died Sunday of a heart attack. He was 57 years old.

He is survived by his widow, the former Olga Niehaus, formerly of Rogers Corners, and his mother, Mrs. Clara Icheldinger Ross, now of Ann Arbor.

Mr. O'Neil was a member of St. John's United Church of Christ at Rogers Corners.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. yesterday (Wednesday) at the Stormont Funeral Home at Grass Lake and burial took place at Mt. Hope cemetery in Freedom township.

FFA Members
Visit Outstanding
Dairy, Beef Farms

The November meeting of the FFA was a field trip to the Mahogany Farms near Williamston in the forenoon, and in the afternoon they went to Greenmeadow Farms at Elsie.

Mahogany Farms are well known for show beef. They have taken numerous prizes. "It is a modern farm," reporter Jim Schiller said, "a 'push button' type."

At Greenmeadow they milk approximately 1,000 cows in an 18-hour day (3 shifts) they milk 750 cows at one place. The farm covers 2,200 acres, and is also well-known for its show cattle.

More than 40 Chelsea members went on the trip.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Rose Chase returned home Saturday from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, and is to go back for surgery in 10 days.

Mrs. Joseph Wright spent the holiday week-end, Wednesday until Saturday, at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Hawley and children, at Jackson.

The Fred Andersons of Pittsburgh, Pa., were here for a holiday visit with Mr. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Anderson. Mrs. Fred Anderson and the children, Mark and Kristen, came by plane early in the week and her husband joined them Wednesday night. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Niehaus were Thanksgiving guests of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Niehaus and children, at Adrian.

Miss Marguerite Eisen of Detroit came to Chelsea early Thursday to pick up her aunt, Miss Lillie Wackenhut and take her to Dexter where they were dinner guests of Mrs. Hannah Schoen.

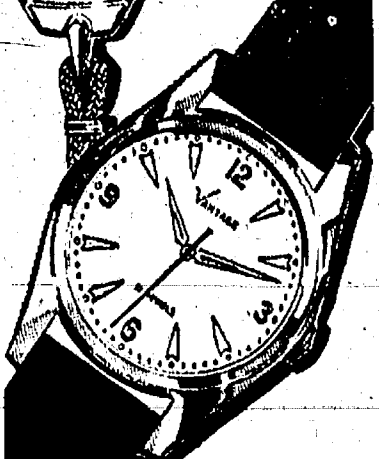

Miss Agnes Eisen of Athens, O., who is a daughter of the late Rev. Theo Eisen, was a houseguest of Mrs. Schoen and on Friday she and Mrs. Schoen were in Chelsea to visit Miss Wackenhut.

Wild Goose Gives Men Wild Chase

A large Canadian goose, spotted here Wednesday by Elwin Barth as it was apparently grounded near his home on Washington St., is now the object of a search by park personnel at Silver Lake headquarters of the Pinckney Recreation Area.

Fastened to one of the 15-pound bird's feet when Barth noticed it was a steel muskrat trap with a length of chain dangling from it. The trap and chain were still on the goose's foot when it was spotted Tuesday at Silver Lake by Sam Andres who lives nearby and has made it a practice to feed the waterfowl there.

Both Barth and Andres tried to get close enough to the goose to remove the trap; however, each time they approached the goose managed to take off and fly for some distance before the weight of the trap and chain forced it to the ground again.

When Barth first noticed the big goose it was in the yard at his home, 835 Washington St., and that of the M. W. McClures, next door. As Barth attempted to get near to it, the goose flew as high as the telephone wires and became entangled in the wire; however, its frantic flapping resulted in disentangling the chain and the bird fell into the driveway. Barth again approached it but it took off toward the peat marsh south of Washington St. and Barth lost track of it.

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer was notified and he tried to locate the goose; he thought it might be one of those that often light on Pierce Lake.

Nothing more was seen of the goose however, until the report from Silver Lake was received Tuesday.

Boyer said yesterday that feels certain the park personnel will be successful in capturing the goose and removing the trap chain.

Thanksgiving guests of Mr. Mrs. Elba Gage were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Labo and children, of Flint.

The NATIONAL OUTLOOK

By GEORGE HAGEDORN

National Reassessment . . .

The tragedy which struck the nation on Nov. 22 will of course have its effects on the course of events. So will the wave of public shock and horror—and that such a thing can happen in our country—which followed it. We may expect an interval of hesitation and confusion on the part of the public. But this will be temporary, for the general mood does not seem to be one of deep seated doubt or fear for the future. And there is no reason that it should be. President Johnson is a man of great ability, long experience and high principle. The country's problems have not been turned over to an amateur or a chameleon. The American dollar is unfortunately in a position which makes it vulnerable to any shock to confidence abroad. But it seems to have survived the initial impact of the news without difficulty. In the long run, the demonstration that we can effect a smooth transition of leadership under these circumstances should gain new respect among other nations, for our country and its institutions. This column, being devoted to economic commentary, at times differed with the late President Kennedy's stand on national issues. We thought, for example, that he was too tolerant of a loose fiscal policy and of the rising trend in federal spending. Yet we never doubted the sincerity of his desire to get the country moving forward. We always believed in his ultimate receptivity toward a soundly conceived program for economic growth. We admired his uncompromising stand against the economic nonsense of a shorter work week as a cure for unemployment. We applauded his clearly sincere determination to resist devaluation of the dollar. Although the assassination appears to have been the act of an individual maniac, the shock of such an event can lead to a re-examination of the national conscience. Perhaps out of this will come an atmosphere in which differences on national issues can be resolved calmly in the light of reason and the facts, rather than on the basis of prejudice or misinformation. Those of us who believe firmly in the rightness of our stand on economic issues will welcome such a climate for discussion. We have enough confidence in our views to believe that they will stand up better than their rivals under rational analysis. When the appeal is to emotion rather than to reason—as is so often the case—all sorts of economic fallacies stand a chance of being accepted. More than one-third of Michigan's Lower Peninsula and the entire Upper Peninsula average over 60 inches of snow each year. This combined with Michigan's location—within 600 miles of over one-third of the nation's population—has increased the use of Michigan winter sport centers 20-fold in the last 20 years, according to Michigan State University tourist and resort researchers. Michigan's deer herd, averaging annually more than 600,000 animals, is one of the largest east of the Rocky Mountains.

Opened to traffic in December of 1959, the $11 million Portage Lake bridge, linking Houghton and Hancock in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, is the world's heaviest vertical lift bridge. Its center span, which is raised 100 feet to allow big ships to pass, weighs 4.5 million pounds.

How Big Is Michigan's State Budget?

How big is Michigan's budget? How much does the state collect in taxes?

With everybody talking about taxes and the cost of government one would think most citizens would have all the data on hand before they started to discuss or to complain about the fiscal facts of life.

"Not so," says Auditor General Billie S. Farnum. "As I travel around the state talking about state government to university students, service clubs, and civic organizations, I find that less than five percent of my audiences know how much the state collects—or how much it spends each year."

Local Units Get Share
Without such basic facts fixed in everybody's mind much of the current discussion about the cost of government and its relationship to economy and efficiency is wasted," Farnum contends. One misconception held by many people is that all of the money collected by state tax collecting agencies stays with state government and is used for paying salaries and other headquarters' costs. This is not the case, Farnum's report shows that more than 56 percent of the money which flows into Lansing flows out again to local units of government.

"For example," Farnum said, "in the 1963 fiscal year the $78,835,857 was returned to Michigan's 83 counties in grants for highway purposes, $40,544,155 for city and village highways, and $360,704,270 in various appropriations to school districts. When the state gives back for the use of local schools one-third of a billion dollars it has collected from many different sources, you know that a relatively small amount remains in Lansing to pay for the other important governmental functions which must be handled on the state level."

Audit All Agencies
As Auditor General, Farnum and his staff audit all state agencies, commissions, and boards as well as Michigan's 83 county governments.

Total state revenue from all sources during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1963, was $1,380,167,857. This is an increase of $151,821,012 over that collected the preceding year. Of this one and one-third billion dollars, more than 70 million came from auto and truck weight taxes, nearly half a billion from sales taxes, and more than $150,000,000 from gasoline taxes.

"It is easy to see how a prosperous auto industry year or two plus the new taxes the legislature authorized can bring a spurt in tax collections," Farnum pointed out. "What is equally true is that a poor sales and production year can make this temporary prosperity do a sharp nose-dive. This is the reason we must have tax reform before a dip in our current economic prosperity causes us a lot of trouble and we are again forced to legislate hurriedly to meet crisis after crisis."

Free Booklet Available
Sales taxes last year showed a $28,420,134 increase over the previous 12 months, and taxes on increase of $10,966,942, while 1963 auto license taxes jumped $2,656,124 above the same weight taxes collected in 1962.

"Last year, the state spent $1,306,334,911 for education, public health, highways, conservation, and a thousand other services," Farnum said. "The difference between the sums spent for these prescribed purposes and the $1,380,167,857 the state collected, has been used to wipe out some of the deficit of less prosperous years."

A new compilation of "Your State Finances" which tells how tax dollars are collected, and expended will be published early in December. Requests for gratis copies may be made now by writing to the Auditor General, the Capitol, Lansing.

Bulletin May Be Helpful in Choosing New Kitchen Range

Mrs. Alice Epple, Washtenaw county Extension-home economist, says, "Home and the range, the one you cook on that is, constitute long term investments."

She advises women contemplating the purchase of a new range to write her and order a new bulletin now available entitled "Choosing and Using Your Household Range," No. E-393. The booklet is free. Mrs. Epple points out.

The new bulletin was prepared by Georgianne Baker, home management specialist with the Co-operative Extension Service at Michigan State University and helps prospective buyers select a range in relation to their home and family.

"Take time to do some looking around before you buy," Miss Baker advises. She says "Probably no other large appliance offers so many choices of size, style, accessories and price."

She discusses such recent style trends as separate built-ins and free-standing movable models. She compares gas and electric ranges and offers tips on safety.

In requesting the booklet, letters should be addressed to Mrs. Epple at Room 116, Washtenaw County Building, Ann Arbor.

Shop Early... Mail Early!

All Distant Holiday Mail Should Be Sent By Dec. 10

Postmaster Carl Mayer said today, "Early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts is the biggest single factor in getting all of the mail delivered before Christmas." The entire Christmas mailing period is a big battle against time. Even though Christmas is three weeks away by the calendar, it's Christmas every day at the Post Office from now on.

The Postmaster advises, "Don't take chances on mailing poorly wrapped packages. Use sturdy corrugated mailing cartons, plenty of heavy wrapping paper and strong cord. Cartons containing several gift packages should be well stuffed with tissue or old newspapers to cushion the contents."

He said further, "If you have articles of unusual size or bulk, better check with the Post Office before attempting to mail them. The limits of size and weight of packages vary, depending on where you mail your packages from."

Other suggestions are: Always send your Christmas cards by first class mail, using the new five-cent Christmas Tree stamps, and be sure your return name and address, including your ZIP Code number, is on each Christmas card envelope.

Before you mail your Christmas cards, secure five labels from the Post Office which read, "All for Local Delivery" and "All for Out of Town Delivery," so that you can sort your cards into two bundles, with the addresses all facing one way, thus expediting delivery.

Send all Christmas mail going long distances before Dec. 10. Follow up promptly with cards and gifts for local delivery. "Mail Early and Often" for a merrier Christmas," Postmaster Mayer concluded.

MICE EAT MARIJUANA

Los Angeles, Calif. — County clerks found that mice had eaten their fill of narcotics stored as evidence when they made a routine check in the storeroom. So hyped-up were the mice that they turned on the men and growled.

They sought advice on how to prevent the rodents from destroying valuable evidence, and, after several remedies they decided to call the county exterminator. Poison was applied and the problem was solved.

Wool Payment Program Ends Dec. 31 for This Year

All details of marketing either wool or lamb will have to be completed not later than Dec. 31 in order to receive payments for the 1963 marketing year. Max M. Kalmbach, chairman of the Washtenaw Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, pointed out today. Marketings completed after Dec. 31, will be eligible for payments for the 1964 marketing year.

As announced by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in October 1962, the 1963 marketing year under the wool payment program has been shortened to the nine-month period from April 1 through Dec. 31, 1963, in order to shift the wool marketing year to a calendar-year basis.

Therefore, if any part of a sale of lambs or wool is not settled by Dec. 31, the sale will not be considered as one taking place in the 1963 marketing year. This means that all the information needed to complete the sales documents and show the net sales proceeds for wool has to be determined and available by Dec. 31 in order to be eligible for wool program payments for the current (1963) marketing year.

Under program regulations, wool is not marketed until title has passed to the buyer, the wool has been delivered to the buyer either physically or through documents which transfer control to the buyer, and all the information (price per pound, weight, yield, etc.) needed to determine the buyer's total purchase price is available.

Payments for the 1963 marketing year will likely begin in April of next year, after the program payment rates are determined, based on the average prices received by producers for shorn wool sold in the nine-month period from April through December of 1963. Payments for the 1964 marketing year on marketings taking place or completed after Dec. 31, 1963, will be made in the spring of 1965. Wool producers may file applications for payment for the 1963 marketing year with the Washtenaw ASCS county office until Jan. 31, 1964.

Slight Changes Listed for 1964 Feed Grain Program

Participation in the feed grain program will be necessary again in 1964 in order to be eligible for price support on 1964-crop corn, grain sorghum, and barley. Max M. Kalmbach, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, reminds farmers. Minimum acreage diversion under the program will be 20 percent of a farm's total feed grain base (for the three grains). Producer sign-up will start Feb. 10, 1964.

The chairman explained that the program for the three grains will be similar to the 1963 program except for these slight modifications:

(1) The top limit on diversion is increased from 40 to 50 percent or 25 acres, whichever is greater.

(2) The feed grain base of any producer who planted up to 30 acres of wheat for home use under the feed grain exemption during any one of the years 1959, 1960, and 1961 will be increased to the extent the three-year average of such wheat acreage exceeded 15 acres.

(3) While the total price supports for the three grains in 1964 are unchanged from 1963 levels, a slightly larger proportion of the supports will be available as loans of purchases, with corresponding decreases in price-support payments.

(4) Payments to any producer are limited to not more than 20 percent of the fair market value of any acreage involved; and

(5) The maximum payment rate will apply to all the average diverted where the total diversion on the farm is 40 percent or more of the base.

Support prices for grains included in the 1964 feed grain program were announced July 18, 1963, as follows: corn (per bu.), $1.10 loan, 15-cent price-support payment, $1.35 total support; grain sorghum (per cwt.), $1.77 loan, 23-cent payment, $2.00 total support; barley (per bu.), 84-cent loan, 12-cent payment, 96-cent support.

THE LONG STRETCH

Ability to make the "long stretch" is helpful to a giraffe who likes to read the newspaper ads.

The average housewife has a "stretch" problem, too, where the family budget is concerned. Unlike the giraffe, however, she can't afford to stick her neck out. She has to be careful. She has to shop, and buy wisely, for this is the only way she can get the most for her money every time.

Wise homemakers have learned that it usually pays to look first to local stores, whatever the need. There are many reasons. It is easier, quicker to shop within the community. Almost invariably, items cost no more, usually less than "out of town."

Additionally, it is much easier to get service and guaranteed satisfaction. The local merchant is interested in you, as an individual—because he wants your business tomorrow as well as today.

St. Mary's School Association Plans Christmas Party for Dec. 20

The December meeting of St. Mary's School Association was attended by Sister Ann Seraphim and Sister Jean Barbara and by 31 parents. The parent attendance banner was awarded to room two which is also grade two.

Principal topic of discussion at the meeting was the Christmas party for St. Mary's school children to be held Friday, Dec. 20, at 2 p.m. at the school. Arrangements have been made to have Santa Claus distribute boxes of candy to the children. He will be assisted by seventh and eighth grade girls.

It was decided to serve individual cups of ice cream and children will be given an opportunity to purchase bake sale items provided by seventh and eighth graders under the leadership of Sister Jean Barbara. Proceeds of the bake sale will go to the church building fund.

Announcement was made that the Association has purchased a set of 10 science books for the school's library and, in response to a request from Sister Ann Seraphim for assistance in preparing the books for use, a committee of three was named—Mrs. William Windle, Mrs. Alex Roskowski and Mrs. Philip McGibney.

Hil Pennington, vice-president of the Association, extended thanks to those who helped serve coffee at last month's report card night and parents' night at the school.

Other reports included one by Mrs. Keith Boylan regarding a so-called card party committee appointed last month to investigate the possibility of sponsoring a general card party. Mrs. Boylan said the committee had no definite suggestions to offer at this time but would prepare a full report to be given at the January meeting for a possible February general card party. Mrs. Vincent Stahl was appointed chairman of the card party group.

Ben Donaldson Recovering from Crash Injuries

Ben R. Donaldson of Cavanaugh Lake, has been released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, where he was a patient for eight days as the result of a traffic accident on Nov. 20. He was treated at the hospital for a broken left arm, broken nose, head and face lacerations and numerous contusions.

The accident occurred as he was returning from Detroit where he had attended a meeting of the Book Club of Detroit. The car he was driving skidded off the road, crashed through the guard rail and rolled down the embankment west of the Wagner Rd. overpass. The car is considered a total loss.

Donaldson, who retired after 40 years with the Ford Motor Co., has for the past three years represented the Saturday Review magazine, with his office in the Ford Auditorium, 20 East Jefferson, Detroit.

Donaldson plans to keep busy at home while waiting for the broken bones of his arm to heal; he is cataloging his Bible collection, considered one of the largest and most complete private collections in the United States.

treasurer, read a letter advising the group that because of curtailed government appropriations, schools may not receive the full share of the customary payment for the school milk program. Definite information on this point awaits final reports at the end of the government's fiscal year.

Donald Alber, Hal Pennington and the Association president, Jack Merkel are on a committee to study the possibility of instituting a project to provide improved lighting in the second floor rooms of the school.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Philip McGibney and Mrs. Alex Roskowski.

Appointed as the refreshment committee for the January meeting were Mrs. Clarence Ottoman and Mrs. Joseph Ottoman.

'64 Pontiac

Here's why you'll like it.

Here's why you'll tell other people you like it.

Wide-Track, for instance. Wide-Track is what does away with tilting your way around turns. Pontiac's smoother, quieter ride is another thing you might point out. A big 389-cubic-inch Trophy V-8 is standard in each and every Pontiac. You get to choose from 34 engine/transmission teams to harness all that power. (Happy choosing!)

Now then—on to more of the things that make the '64 Pontiac so thoroughly likeable. Frankly, we couldn't think of anything radical to do with this car. Oh, we made the styling even more stylish, as you can plainly see. We lavished even more care on the interiors. We even improved the light bulbs. But as for more vital things, why change? Improve, refine, sharpen—yes. Change—no. And you can tell that to your friends.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Representing the people of Michigan at the funeral of President Kennedy was a profound and unforgettable experience.

What happened on Nov. 22 and on the following days disclosed the best of America—and the worst of America.

The events in Washington constituted a moving spiritual and patriotic experience. I question whether ever before in history there has been a comparable experience in terms of the joint grief of an entire nation and to a considerable extent the entire world.

Certainly, Mrs. Kennedy and the family and the world leaders did things to inspire all of us. Outstanding, of course, was Mrs. Kennedy's courage and devotion, and even the remarkable conduct of Caroline and John.

In addition, I think the people who were in Washington at the time of the funeral evidenced a depth of sympathy and grief that is remarkable. I had my daughter and son with me and we couldn't get within a mile of the Capitol. There were 30 blocks of people waiting to go into the Rotunda at the time it was necessary to move the casket to the services.

I think another aspect of the experience has been the degree of self-examination that is going on. We have experienced a tremendous tragedy, but we will experience an even greater tragedy if this grief and self-examination fails to produce an improvement in our attitude as a nation.

Let's hope that it will end the support or indifference towards those few fanatics of the extremes—that are stimulating hate and violence.

Let us also hope that out of this unforgettable experience will come a deeper realization on the part of all of us that we are Americans first and foremost, and partisans only as a subordinate part of the fulfillment of our citizenship.

I hope, too, that in the future we will have greater honor for the President and the office of the presidency.

President Kennedy. Such bearing of false witness is part of the conduct that has played a part in what we have just experienced.

I think we all realize that this most recent series of tragic events followed others of a reprehensible character during the summer and spring.

We have had bombings of churches—we have had killings that preceded these events. Let us hope that out of this will come a renewed dedication to practicing more fully our inspired and eternal American principles.

During my stay in Washington, I talked with President Johnson. I told him that in Michigan we were ready to respond to any request he might make in helping him discharge his tremendous responsibilities.

I also indicated that I felt certain that I spoke for all the people of Michigan in expressing gratitude that one of his experience and capacity was available to step into the heavy role of leadership at this critical time.

Eight 4-H Members Enjoy Trip to Chicago

Eight Washtenaw county 4-H members left Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28, by train for a week-end in Chicago. The trip was sponsored by the Ann Arbor Kiwanis Club as part of the 4-H awards program. These young people were selected for the outstanding work they have done in 4-H.

The group includes Grace Kuschmaul and Lynn Harvey of Chelsea; Thalia Johnson and Jackie Steers of Dexter; Cheryl Henes, Elaine Dietele and Elaine Schaefer, Saline; and Chuck Avis of Ann Arbor.

The group spent four days in Chicago, touring the city, visiting museums, seeing a stage show, and attending the International Livestock Exposition and Horse Show. They returned to Ann Arbor Sunday night, Dec. 1. Norman A. Brown, Washtenaw county extension agent, 4-H, and Mrs. Brown accompanied the group.

Genetic research into Christmas trees are being conducted by Michigan State University scientists in hopes that they can produce trees with desired height, shape and color by crossing seed from different areas of the world.

Army Enlistees May Have Leave Through Holidays

It was announced today that personnel enlisting in the Regular Army or the Women's Army Corps through the U.S. Army Recruiting Service during the period extending from Dec. 11-30 may be granted leave upon request, not to exceed 15 days, in order to be with their families for Christmas.

Immediately after enlistment, personnel who desire to do so will be placed on leave. Personnel who avail themselves of this leave will be directed to return to the U.S. Army Recruiting Main Station, Detroit, upon completion of leave for shipment to the appropriate reception station.

Anyone desiring further information on the Army's liberal leave policy during the holiday season is urged to contact the Army Recruiting Station at 223 E. Ann St., Ann Arbor, or call 665-7357.

More than half of Michigan's land area is forested, according to a Michigan State University researcher.

4-H Members Enter Detroit Junior Livestock Show

Prospective grand champions hogs, lambs and steers along with some 400 proud 4-H club owners will be in the spotlight during the Detroit Junior Livestock Show being held Dec. 9-12.

More than 20 4-H'ers from Washtenaw county have entered animals in the market lamb, hog and steer classes, reports 4-H agent Norman Brown. Still more 4-H youths will participate in carcass evaluation classes during the week.

Entries from Washtenaw county include the following: Beef: Barry Bexler, Willis; Don Dibble, Elaine Steeb, Nancy Dibble, Ralph Dibble, Ann Arbor; Ed Gall, Wes Gall, Bev, Gall; Fred Gall, Saline.

Sheep: James Burmeister, Ann Arbor; Cheryl Grad, Jerry Bristle, James Bristle, Chelsea; Marlene Girbach, Saline.

Swine: Howard McCalla, Ken McCalla, Richard McCalla, Chelsea; Judy McCalla, Ann Arbor; Gene Girbach, Gary Girbach, Saline; Donald Finkbeiner, Clinton.

Many of these youths are following in the footsteps of brothers, sisters, fathers and mothers who exhibited at one of the 33 annual shows held prior to this year. The Detroit Junior Livestock Society and the Michigan Co-operative Extension Service have jointly sponsored the show since it started back in 1930.

The show is designed to further the education of 4-H youngsters in learning how to efficiently produce the type of beef, lamb and pork being demanded by consumers in our "space-age" society.

Carcass entries will arrive on the afternoon of Dec. 9 and will be judged that same evening. These animals will be slaughtered immediately by several Detroit meat packing firms. Carcass evaluation sessions for 4-H youngsters will be held in the meat coolers of these firms on Dec. 11.

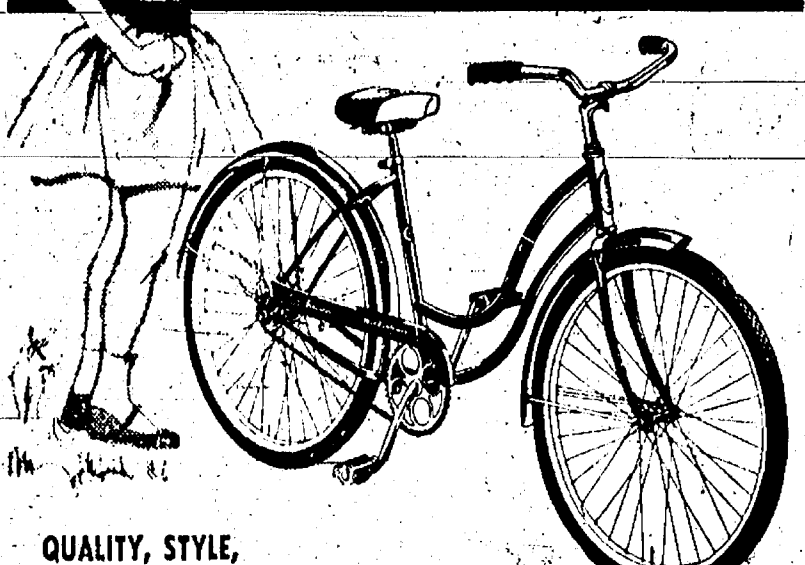

Other livestock exhibitors will arrive with their animals on Dec. 10. Judging will follow the next day and the annual sale of prize lamb, pork and beef on Dec. 12 will complete this year's show.

4-H Tractor Leaders To Meet at Milan

A special meeting for people interested in the 4-H tractor program will be held Thursday, Dec. 5, 7:30 p.m. in room 17 of the Milan High school. The meeting will be conducted by Robert White, Michigan State University agricultural engineer. 4-H leaders and other interested people from several counties will be in attendance. Anyone desiring further information should contact Norman Brown, Washtenaw county 4-H agent in the County Building, Ann Arbor.

★ Boxing Must Go . . .

By Pete Fritchie
Washington, D.C.—The most recent death in the ring has brought the termination of boxing just a little nearer. This one was a tragic killing—the body which was weighed after the fight weighed almost fifty pounds less than that of the opponent.

Moreover, the opponent had been a more experienced fighter and the deceased had been relatively inexperienced. From every standpoint it was a tragedy.

It is appropriate after this "contest" to refute the argument so many athletes are offering—in behalf of continuing boxing. The usual argument in favor of a continuation includes the truism that people are killed in other sports too.

The difference in boxing and these other, genuine sports, was best pointed out recently in a sports column by Arthur Daley of the New York Times. It is not that other sports do not sometimes produce a death (not so many relative to the participants, however) which set them apart.

In the other sports death is accidental. The object is not to beat an opponent's brains out. In boxing death can never be accidental for the purpose of the sport.

Boy Scouts

TROOP 25—This week-end, seven boys of Troop 25 will be going on a camping trip to the Rod & Gun Club grounds. They are Gary Larson, Jim Juergens, Ralph Frisch, Jerry Picklesimer, Ron Erskine, Barthy Scott and Jack Wood. Their leader will be Ralph Frisch.

The troop's candy and paper drives were quite successful. The candy drive brought in about $150; however, results of the paper drive are not yet known. Price of the paper is $7 per ton and the truck was very full so the troop should receive quite a substantial amount for it.

The Scouts extend cordial thanks for help and support of everyone.

BULL DOG SPORTLIGHT

Everybody knows that today's basketball games featuring high scores and super stars have changed a great deal through A-BLAST DETONATED.

The Atomic Energy Commission has announced detonation of two nuclear devices at its underground test site in Nevada.

One of the blasts related to weapons development, the AEC said, and the other to peaceful uses of the atom. Both were described as low yield, meaning they had an explosive force less than that of 20,000 tons of T.N.T.

the years. But, just how much have they changed?

A close look at some CHS scores of 1930 may make it quite clear—CHS—18, Roosevelt 4; CHS 10, Chelsea St. Mary 5; and CHS 17, Clinton 7.

However, the score that proves our point the best was the 1930 victory of CHS girls over Chelsea St. Mary's girls team, 2-0.

Intelligence tells us that things change and wisdom indicates that the change is often for the better.

Agr. Entrepreneurs Plan Christmas Party for Dec. 21

Agricultural Entrepreneurs Farm Bureau Group members were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schairer at the Nov. 21 meeting which was held at Lima Center Community Hall. Eleven families responded to roll call.

Guest speaker at the meeting was Mr. Graves, field representative for the Social Security office who clarified many points related to Social Security benefits.

Appointed to act on a citizens advisory committee were Lloyd Boyce and Mrs. Harold Stas.

Mrs. Lloyd Boyce reported a Farm Bureau Woman's Committee meeting she attended, saying that in the afternoon, those present for the meeting visited the Boys Training School at Whitmore Lake.

The next meeting of the Agricultural Entrepreneurs group will be the annual Christmas party at Lima Center Community Hall Saturday, Dec. 21, beginning with a pot-luck supper at 7 p.m. Ham will be furnished for the meal.

Members are to bring a 50-cent gift to exchange and should also bring a gift for children who accompany them; the child's name should be added.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served.

District 'Make It Yourself with Wool' Contest Set Dec. 7

Michigan's District II of the "Make It Yourself with Wool" contest will be held under the direction of Mrs. Donald Whelan, district director, Saturday, Dec. 7, at Tipton Grange Hall, Tipton, at 1 p.m.

The state contest with the top junior and senior from the 11 districts will be competing for the honor to represent Michigan at the national finals in Albuquerque, N.M., and try for the many awards at the state and national contest. Mrs. Lawrence S. Boettner, state director, invites everyone to attend the state contest Dec. 14, at the Union Building room 31, Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Counties in District II are Hillsdale, Jackson, Lenawee, Monroe, and Washtenaw.

CAMBODIA NEUTRAL
A veteran diplomat has given assurances to the State Department that Cambodia's Chief of State, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, has no intention of rushing into the arms of the Communists.

Cambodia has not turned its back on the West in asking for termination of American military and economic aid, Ambassador Mong Kimmy said.

ENGAGED—The engagement of Linda Ann Fisher, daughter of Mrs. C. Eugene Fisher and the late Mr. Fisher, to Robert Stephen Walters is being announced by her mother. Mr. Walters is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Walters of White Plains, N.Y. He received a bachelor's degree in political science at the University of Michigan in June and is currently doing postgraduate work at the University for a master's degree. The bride-elect is a senior in the University of Michigan School of Nursing. The couple has not set a wedding date.

Chelsea Couple's Granddaughter Weds in Jackson

A wedding of interest to Chelsea friends of the bride's parents took place Saturday at Jackson when marriage vows were exchanged at the Calvary Methodist church by Diana L. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williams, 4311 Donnelly Rd., and James Randal Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie N. Dean of Kalamazoo.

The bride is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams of 117 W. Summit St.

The Rev. Clark H. Phillips performed the ceremony for which the bride wore a princess gown of peau de soie styled with a scalloped neckline appliqued with lace. The floor-length skirt which ended in a chapel train was adorned with matching lace and iridescent florettes.

A self rose trimmed with crystals secured her English illusion veil and she carried a cascade bouquet consisting of a white orchid and pompons.

Janet Morris was the maid of honor and serving as the bridesmaids were Nancy Cooney and Mrs. Donald Guy. The duties of the best man were performed by Gerald Graves of Midland.

Seating the guests were William Warner, Douglas Bockstanz, Newell and Duane Dean, brothers of the bridegroom, and James Williams of Ann Arbor, the bride's brother.

The flower girls and ring bearer were Julia Dean and Debbie Zentz of Goshen, Ind., nieces of the bridegroom, and David Dean, his nephew.

The newlyweds greeted guests at the reception in Win Schuler's Country Inn before departing on an eastern wedding trip. They will reside at Marshall.

Prenuptial parties were given by Mrs. Duane Dean, Mrs. Newell Dean, Mrs. Ronald Zentz of Goshen, Mrs. Leslie Dean, Mrs. William Navarre and the bride's co-workers at Schuler's Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald F. Fairbrother

Sandra D. Fischer, Ronald Fairbrother Wed Recently in Milwaukee Church

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Frederick Fairbrother are now at home at 122A East Norwich St., Milwaukee, Wis., following a wedding trip which took them to points in Illinois, Michigan and Niagara Falls, N.Y.

They were married Saturday, Nov. 2, at a candlelight ceremony which took place at the Bay View Baptist church in Milwaukee, Wis.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Armin C. Fischer of 601 East Bolivar Ave., Milwaukee, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Fairbrother of Waterloo. The bride is the former Sandra Dorothy Fischer.

The couple's attendants were Mrs. Melvin Yurgil, matron of honor; Jack Bub, best man; Nancy and Carol Fairbrother, Mary Jane Boldt and Barbara Horngren, bridesmaids; and Carl Soerens.

County Hospital Auxiliary Busy with Christmas Plans

Washtenaw County Hospital Auxiliary members are deep in plans for providing holiday cheer for the patients at the hospital.

In announcing Christmas preparations, the Auxiliary states, "Christmas is upon us. Every year various organizations remember that this can be a joyful season for lonely people and every year these same organizations come to the hospital to decorate trees, to sing carols, to entertain and to bring gifts. It is a lovely thing you do and everyone is looking forward to the surprises which you bring every Christmas season. Please don't stop."

It was pointed out that any individual or group wishing to contribute gifts may check with Mrs. Mildred Perry, program coordinator for the hospital. She may be reached at the hospital by calling NO 2-6566.

Mrs. Frank Carson, Auxiliary Board chairman of the birthday parties and recreation for patients at the hospital, announces that the patients' Christmas party is to be held at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 18. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

The annual Sheltered Work Shop project at the hospital is busy preparing for the sale of items made in the hospital by patients. The annual sale will be held Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Kroger Store at Westgate, Ann Arbor. Such items as pillows, waste baskets, desk accessories, sets of wooden animals and many other articles will be on sale.

In a report of the November meeting of the Washtenaw County Hospital Auxiliary, Mrs. Perry said the Sheltered Work Shop uses certain magazines in making some of their items. Old copies of McCall's, Ladies' Home Journal, Good Housekeeping and Better Home & Gardens are the ones which can be used. Others do not fit in with the projects.

Anyone wishing to contribute copies of any of the four publications may bring them to the entrance at the back of the hospital.

Announcing a new dinnerware...
so earthy, so different, it looks hand-crafted

Now you can see for the first time Franciscan's three exciting new dinnerware patterns that look straight from the potter's wheel. Rich, warm colors... a marvelous matte finish... bring an early-California-pottery charm to your buffet and table. But unlike hand-thrown ceramics, this superb earthenware will not fade or craze... goes safely into your oven and dishwasher... and costs a fraction of what you'd expect for such custom-made looks.

the tulip in cool aquamarine and avocado tones; SIERRA SAND — beautifully simple bands of sienna, ochre and burnt orange, 'round a creamy center; FRUIT in tones of burnt orange, ochre and willow green.

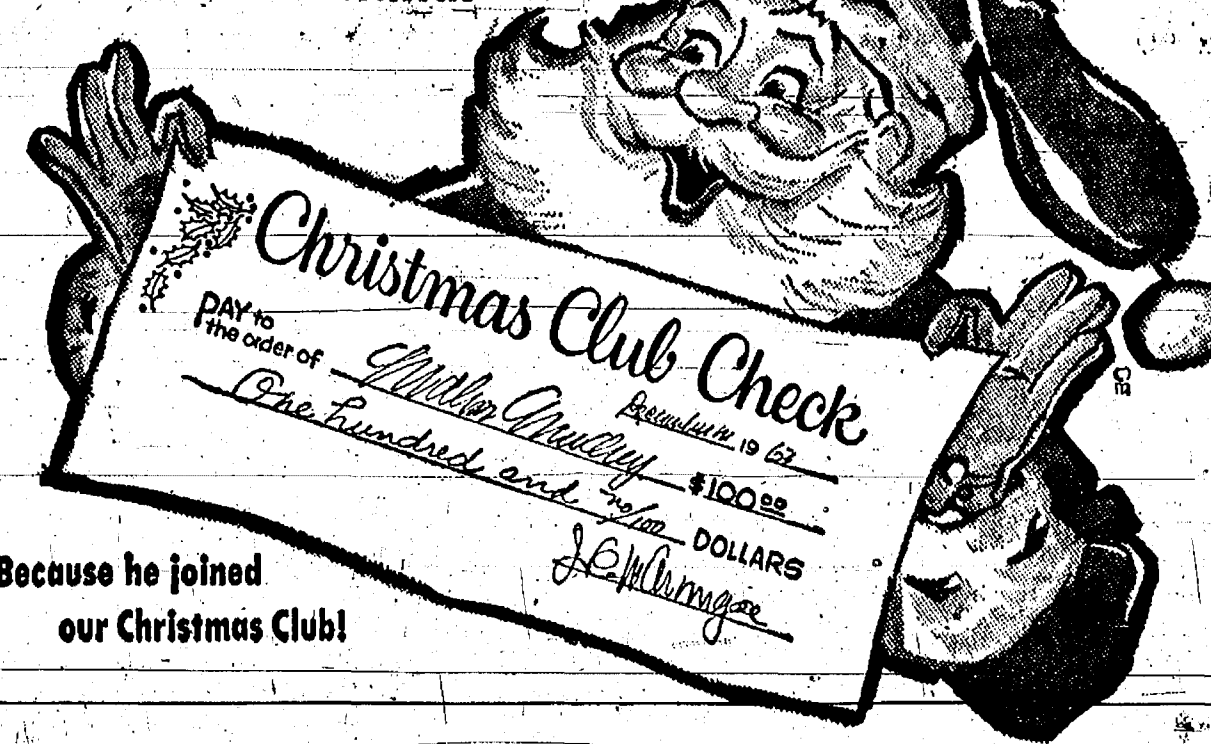

Each pattern boasts 23 beautifully-shaped accessory pieces. Mix-or-matchable! 16-piece starter sets of Tulip Time and Fruit, an incredibly small $19.95 and 45-piece services at $64.95. Sierra Sand even less — 16-piece starter set, $17.95; 45-piece set, $59.95! See it for the first time in our handsome display... but be warned, you'll fall in love!

BAXTER CIRCLE
Baxter Circle of the Methodist church entertained members and guests at a Christmas luncheon held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Kishmaul. The luncheon was a devotional service with a program of songs and readings. Mrs. John Potts, chairman, and Mrs. Robert Kishmaul, secretary, were in charge of the luncheon. The program was given in the form of a play with Mrs. Potts as the author and Mrs. Kishmaul as the director. The program was a success and the luncheon was a most enjoyable one. The next regular meeting of Baxter Circle will be held with Marion Shaw Circle for a pot-luck luncheon Dec. 18 at the Methodist church.

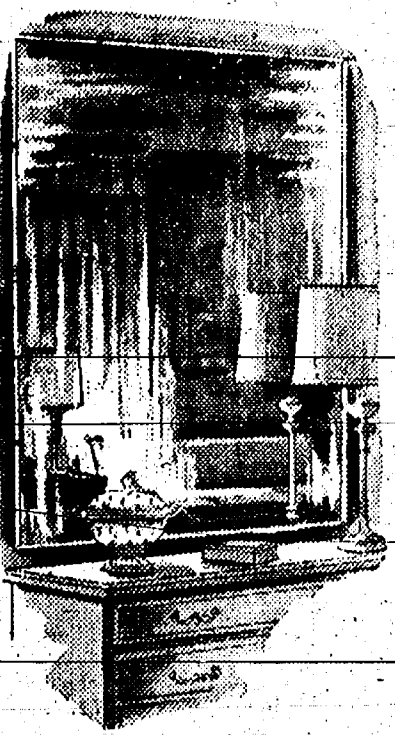

SUBURBAN MOTHERS
Suburban Mothers Child Study Club is planning to hold its Christmas party Thursday evening, Dec. 12, at the home of Mrs. Warren Eisenbeiser. Hostesses for the affair will be Mrs. Eisenbeiser, Mrs. Warren Walton, Mrs. Ruth Cattel, and Mrs. Ross Batzdorfer. A requirement for the exchange of gifts planned as a feature of the party is that the gifts must not be gift wrapped—they must be brought to the party in paper sacks. The November meeting, held at McKune Memorial Library Nov. 14, featured Municipal Judge Francis O'Brien of Ann Arbor as guest speaker. Subject of his talk centered on the alcoholics' referral program and the problem of teenage drinking. Hostesses for that meeting were Mrs. Basil Reiley and Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons. Never waste time in argument with a fool unless you want to make a fool of yourself.

MODERN MOTHERS
Modern Mothers Child Study Club at the meeting held Tuesday evening Nov. 26, at the home of Mrs. Merle Leach. A program on the subject of cooking and year around entertaining presented by Mrs. Roger Cook of the home service department of Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., Ann Arbor. Mrs. Cook showed slides to illustrate her talk. Assisting hostess for Tuesday's meeting was Mrs. Paul Kaimbach and there were 14 members and one guest present. There were also three former members of the club present. Mrs. William Chandler is to be the hostess for the next club meeting Tuesday, Dec. 10, at 8:30 p.m.

CHILD STUDY CLUB
Chelsea Child Study club members had a special panel program at their Nov. 26 meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bust with Mrs. Warren Daniels as guest moderator. Topic of the panel discussion was "Is Business Enough?" Included as panelists were Mrs. Thomas Bust, Mrs. Eldon Gorton, Mrs. Clara Warren and Mrs. Charles Lane. Assisting hostesses at the meeting were Mrs. Paul Schable, Jr., and Mrs. Robert White. An exchange of home-made gifts will be a feature of the Dec. 10 meeting which is to be the club's Christmas party. It will take place at the home of Mrs. Donald Baldwin.

LYNDON FARM BUREAU
Lyndon Farm Bureau members, with 21 members and two guests present held their Christmas party Saturday evening in the family room of the newly-remodeled home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schoonover. Instead of exchanging Christmas gifts at the party, members are sending Christmas cards to patients at Ypsilanti State Hospital. The evening's discussion on the topic, "Should the Majority Rule?" was led by Mrs. Max Kaimbach. Lyndon Farm Bureau members unanimously favored an affirmative answer to the question. The next meeting is to be held Saturday, Jan. 4 at Lyndon Town Hall with a pot-luck supper scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Family Dinner Sunday Will Honor J. Bruestles' 60th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Bruestle of 112 S. Macomb St., Manchester, will be honored at a family dinner Sunday in observance of their 60th wedding anniversary. They have lived in Manchester since June, 1952; prior to that their home for many years was on Sharon Hollow Rd. in Sharon township. Mrs. Bruestle is the former Emma Klumpp, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Klumpp. She and Mr. Bruestle were married Dec. 9, 1903, at the parsonage of St. John's United Church of Christ, at Francisco by the Rev. Jacob Graber. For a time after their marriage they lived in Chelsea while Mr. Bruestle worked at the old Glazier Stove Works. Mrs. Bruestle was 80 years old on Sept. 15; her husband was 87 years old on Oct. 15. He was born in Bridgeport township and both he and Mrs. Bruestle have always lived in this vicinity. They are members of Emanuel United Church of Christ at Manchester and their pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Kieher, have been invited to attend Sunday's dinner. The couple's two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bruestle of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bruestle of Ann Arbor, and their twin daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Haist (Ethel) and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Slane (Edith), will be present Sunday. The Bruestles' family, in addition to those who will attend the dinner Sunday, are eight grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

GOLDWATER'S SUPPORTERS
Senator Goldwater said he will not call off supporters' efforts to enter Presidential nomination delegates in the April 28 Pennsylvania primary. Goldwater hasn't made any announcement of his intention of seeking the party's 1964 Presidential nomination and said he could not control his supporters.

Engagement Told At Thanksgiving Day Family Gathering
At a family Thanksgiving gathering at the home of Mrs. Anna Reichert, announcement was made of the engagement of her daughter, Irene Reichert Hayden of New York City to Neil Aycock, also of New York City. The couple did not announce a date for their wedding. Among those present for Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parson and two sons, formerly of California, who are moving to Michigan. Mrs. Parson is the daughter of the Walter Reicherts of California. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. William Rensch and daughter, Julie, of Detroit; Dr. and Mrs. Paul Reichert and son, Jimmy, of Tipton, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crouch (Betty Reichert) and two daughters of Tipton, Ind.; Dr. and Mrs. James Tate (Sally Reichert) of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Scheve of Ann Arbor; and Mrs. Irene Hayden and Ned Aycock of New York City. The Paul Reicherts, Mrs. Hayden and Mr. Aycock remained for the week-end, with Mrs. Anna Reichert, attended a reunion of first cousins of the Koengreter family held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gray at Ann Arbor.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

Herbert J. McKune Unit No. 31, American Legion Auxiliary, entertained as their guests at the December meeting Tuesday evening, the members of the Junior Legion Auxiliary. A pot-luck supper was served and an exchange of Christmas gifts was held.

During the business session the Auxiliary voted to remember for Christmas a veteran's family who have met with misfortune. It was also decided to continue sponsorship of the Girl Scout troop led by Mrs. Carmel Slocum and Mrs. Melvin Leach, and to sponsor a girl at Girls' state in June.

Hostesses for Tuesday's meeting, held at the K. of G. Hall, were Mrs. Lynn Kern, Mrs. Paul Manover, Mrs. Leon Fox and Mrs. Howard Walz. It was announced that four Auxiliary members will assist at the Gift Shop sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary to be held this week-end at the VA Hospital at Ann Arbor. Mrs. Paul Manover and Mrs. Leon Fox will be on duty on Saturday and Mrs. Hazel Spaulding and Mrs. Gladys Klumpp will work at the shop on Monday.

GIRL SCOUTS
Troop 47 met Tuesday, Nov. 26 at the Municipal building. They made final plans for Hilltop; decided what they would give their mothers for a Christmas present and planned to work on part of it Friday at Hilltop. They also decided to give their sponsor a Girl Scout calendar and put one in their meeting place, as well.

After refreshments, served by Patty Eisele, they had a game called "I'm going on a cookout." They were reminded to bring their 50 cents "grub money" and notebook lunch as well as the things on their personal list Friday—they planned to meet at the Municipal bldg. at 10 a.m. The leaders, Mrs. C. Slocum and Mrs. Melvin Leach, were asked to attend a neighborhood meeting in Ann Arbor last Thursday and help Brownie leaders there who are just starting second-graders.

They were asked to tell their experiences. Mrs. Nancy Krohn is the neighborhood chairman and the Chelsea leaders were recommended by Mrs. Jerry Stafford. Joan Slane, scribe.

TROOP 47
Tuesday, Dec. 3, Girl Scouts of Troop 47 chose a new scribe—Mary Lu McClean. Then while others were playing games two people made their gifts for their mothers for Christmas. As soon as these two were finished two others went up to do theirs. Then the girls picked names for a Christmas party; the limit on price of gifts is 30 cents. Dec. 17 is the date of the party.

The girls are planning to bring decorations to decorate the Municipal building. The girl who brought refreshments Tuesday was Mary Lu McClean. Mary Lu McClean, scribe.

FULL 'CONCUSSION'
Denver, Colo. — Testifying in a damage suit over an auto accident, a 12-year-old boy said he had received a concussion. The judge asked the boy if he knew what a concussion was. "It's when you tell what you know, like you say to the priest you sinned," was the boy's reply.

Civil Defense

Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service (RACES) — is a temporary radio communication service carried on by licensed amateur radio stations while operating on specifically designated segments of the regularly allocated amateur frequency bands under the direction of authorized local, regional, or federal civil defense officials. Chelton has such a station and it has been in operation for more than two years.

The station was set up for communications or signals essential to the conduct of civil defense activities of duly authorized civil defense organizations, including communications directly concerning safety of life, preservation of property, maintenance of law and order, alleviation of human suffering and need and dissemination of warnings of enemy attack to the civilian population in case of actual impending armed attack or in any disaster or other incident endangering the public welfare.

Portage Trails Recognition Night Slated Dec. 10

Next Tuesday, Dec. 10, is the date for the annual Scouters' recognition dinner of Portage Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America. The dinner, which begins at 7:30 p.m., will be held at the cafeteria of the Bendix Systems plant located at 3300 Plymouth Rd., Ann Arbor, just west of the US-23 exchange. There is ample parking space.

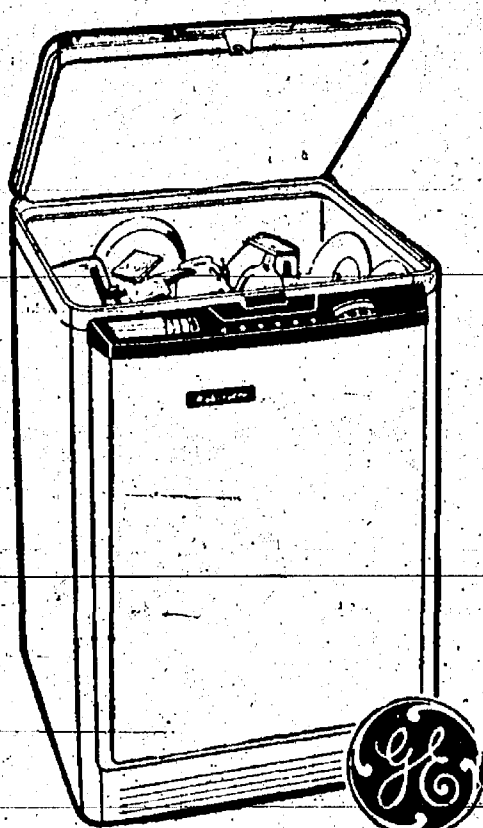

Unit committees often take this opportunity to show their appreciation to their Scout leader by inviting him and his wife or sweetheart as their guest. The wives, sweethearts, den mothers and husbands of all Scouters will enjoy this once-a-year Council fellowship occasion.

This is described as the "big Scout event of the year." Announcements of the event state that a fine program has been arranged including awards, recognitions, music, good food, and general good-fellowship climaxed by the Silver Beaver Awards for distinguished service to boyhood.

The human race owes much of its progress to the good-lives of obscure men and women, like the ordinary folk of our home town.

W. Wightman Will Head Michigan Week Committee

Activity of business groups and the promotion of business for the state in connection with the 1964 Michigan Week will be directed by Walter Wightman, president of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

Appointment of Wightman, Allegan county farmer, as chairman of the Business and Products Board of Michigan Week is announced by Dan Gerber, president of the Greater Michigan Foundation. The 11th annual Michigan

Week will be May 17-23. Serving under Wightman will be committees representing retailers, manufacturers, restaurants, hotels, the construction industry, agriculture, and other segments of the state's economy; also committees in charge of tourist promotion, industrial promotion and promoting Michigan products.

Walter Wightman is one of Michigan's outstanding business leaders, not only here but nationally," Gerber said. "Agriculture in Michigan is big business. The consumer value of Michigan's farm products last year was more than two billion dollars."

The Business and Products Board is one of six Michigan Week activity boards under direction of General Chairman Dale I. Sellers, vice-president of the Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit.

Clarence Prentice, manager of the Michigan Farm Bureau, will be executive secretary of the Business and Products Board.

Wightman has just been elected this week to his sixth term as Farm Bureau president. He attended Albion College and Michigan State University and has been a full-time farmer ever since. With his son, Albert, he operates the family's 500-acre farm near Fennville in southwestern Michigan which is devoted mainly to fruit and cattle production. He has been a director of the Michigan Farm Bureau since 1948 and the American Farm Bureau Federation since 1954. He is on the board of governors of the Great Michigan Foundation. He is a member of the Michigan Farm Bureau church of Ganges, a community on highway US-31 almost halfway between Lake Michigan and Lake Erie. Wightman has a son and daughter and eight grandchildren.

As chairman of the Michigan Week Business and Products Board, Wightman succeeds Wesley Baker of the S. S. Kresge Co.
