

U-M Accreditation Report Commends Chelsea High School

The University of Michigan Bureau of School Services at Ann Arbor has notified Chelsea High School officials that the school is on the "North Central Association list of schools accredited by the University of Michigan." The action was taken by the Executive Committee of the Bureau of School Services after a report had been submitted by a representative who made an inspection visit.

Listed among commendations given the school by the representative who spent a day here are the following:

The fine physical facilities provided by the campus-style school are most impressive and functional.

Teachers appear to be enthusiastic about their work. Some examples of excellent teaching were observed.

Classroom space, equipment and functional usage, facilities for science instruction are particularly outstanding.

Reorganized program now in effect in industrial arts program noted, showing that much time and effort was spent in determining basic purposes and objectives of the department. Physical facilities and equipment very adequate and electronics laboratory particularly outstanding.

Comment on the art curriculum described it as "comprehensive in nature" with meaningful activities provided for one-year students as well as for those with particular interest and talent who elect to take more years of instruction. It was also stated that it "was pleasing to note the number of boys enrolled there."

Other areas listed for commendation include the home economics department, its student enthusiasm and interest, its total enrollment and the fact that many college-bound students participate; the co-ordination for improvement of English and science instruction by means of emphasis on course objectives and preparation of course outlines; the noon hour recreation activities available (students observed were courteous and well-behaved); the "well located, attractive and functional" library; the well-maintained building; and the modern language laboratory.

One outstanding criticism of the Chelsea school is listed as a "violation of policies and criteria for the approval of secondary schools" in accordance with rules of the North Central Association regarding guidance ratio.

The report states, "As noted previously, your total educational program is most impressive in many respects. Unfortunately, guidance cannot be included here since only one counselor is provided for your present enrollment of approximately 520 students; the required guidance ratio for this school year is 1:800. Since he has additional responsibilities as athletic director and sponsor of the Student Council and Nurses' club, it seems realistic to assume that these responsibilities considerably reduce the amount of time he can devote to the guidance function. The two guidance offices, although attractive, are small and not well located in terms of student traffic."

In a listing of "suggestions for improvement," mention was made of teacher turnover and suggestion that "more attention be given to determination of reasons for staff changes in the past."

The suggestions also included increase to a minimum of three years in language instruction; addition of a Dictionary of American Biography to the high school library; and a separate co-ordinator of library services for the elementary and junior high-level to permit the high school librarian to devote all of his time to library duties at that level.

March of Dimes Campaign Opens Throughout County

Mothers' March Will Take Place Tuesday, Jan. 28

Nancy Lueck and Ann Marsh, sister chairmen for the 1964 March of Dimes campaign, have completed distribution of the canisters to all business places in the community. The canisters will be in place to receive contributions until the close of the campaign the end of the month.

Mrs. William Marsh and Mrs. William Adams, co-chairmen of the March of Dimes campaign attend the annual "Kick-off" dinner at the Moose Lodge in Ann Arbor, Wednesday evening and on Jan. 8 p.m., all Washenaw county people who will be working on the Mothers' March later this month will be guests at an evening tea at Inn America, 3250 Washenaw Rd. between Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Leo Bishop is Chelsea chairman of the Mothers' March which is scheduled for Tuesday evening, Jan. 28, in Chelsea.

Rural areas do not have the evening Mothers' March; the soliciting is done at other times since evening "march" does not prove practical for rural areas.

A county project being sponsored for the March of Dimes is a show and luncheon at the town club, Ann Arbor, on Saturday, Jan. 18. Those interested in contact the executive secretary, Jane Nickels, at NO 8-9219.

Others who planned to attend the "kick-off" dinner Tuesday, in addition to Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Adams, are:

Council Briefs

The Rev. John Fall, assistant administrator at the Methodist Home, gave the invocation at the Village Council meeting held Tuesday evening in the Council room of the Municipal building.

Discussion was held with a number of area residents but no official action taken on the matter of possible annexation to the village of the area immediately south of the village on a line extending from Wilkinson St. south to L-4 and east to Old Manchester Rd.

Village Treasurer Wallace Wood submitted a letter requesting that delinquent personal taxes from 1962 in the amount of $85.80 be canceled as uncollectable in order to clear the records. Bankruptcy proceedings were given as the reason for the inability to collect.

Discussion of possible lighting for the Pierce Park skating area led to a motion to install a mercury-type light there.

Discussion regarding problems related to skating areas brought to the attention of the Council by complaints that older boys have been playing hockey in the larger section of the rink near Veterans Memorial Park in violation of rules that hockey playing is restricted to the smaller area at the south of the main pond. Complaints also have been lodged that older boys have been abusing smaller children (throwing snowballs, driving the children from the larger pond, etc.). The Council authorized that signs be placed at the rink designating their use for hockey or regular skating. The restrictions are to be enforced.

The Village Council adjourned to attend the Civil Defense open house for county Civil Defense officials and for township and village officials and went on record "highly commending" Civil Defense Director Elwyn Beach and those who assisted him in setting up in the basement of the Municipal Building the Civil Defense Communications Center and described it as an asset to the village and the entire area in case of natural or man-made disaster.

The Council expressed the hope that all area residents plan to attend the public open house at the Communications Center scheduled for next week Tuesday.

President Daniels appointed Richard Harvey as Michigan Week chairman saying Chelsea is paired with Fort Knox, Ky. He will be attached to an Army Medical Service unit for his overseas duty.

CHS Wrestlers Participate in Tourney at Adrian

The annual Southeastern Michigan Wrestling Association's Christmas tournament was held Dec. 27-28 at Adrian with Chelsea High's wrestling team having 20 boys participating in the tournament.

After the second round of matches Chelsea had 16 of the 20 boys left in the race to compete for medals.

Bob Snyder, a junior was Chelsea's only medal winner. He won first place in the heavyweight division by defeating Mortens of Livonia. Franklin Snyder pinned Morten in 14 seconds which was the fastest pin of the meet. Jerry Snyder of Adrian was the second man Bob Snyder defeated.

In the finals Saturday evening Snyder defeated Dale Withby of Whitmore Lake for the first-place gold medal. Withby had not been previously defeated this season and had pinned Bob Snyder in their first match at Whitmore Lake this year.

Coach Dusseau was very pleased with the performance of his squad at the Christmas tourney due to the fact that this is Chelsea High's first year in competitive wrestling.

Spring Plowing!

At the Erwin Trinkle place on Sibley Rd. spring plowing got underway Monday morning, Jan. 6. This appears to be a record for this area.

Frigid Snake Thaws Out in Hunter's Coat

At 1 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 2, George Price of 18668 US-12, West, found a "good sized" garden snake found on top of the snow near the old Ford Mill at Sharon Hall. To prove he wasn't "seeing things" he picked up the snake, put it in a paper bag and stuck it in his pocket.

The snake, which had been rendered inactive because of the cold, became lively after it warmed up and at last reports Price was keeping the snake confined in a plastic bag at his home.

Price said a furrow in the snow indicated the snake, which was almost two feet long, had crawled about 10 feet by the time he found it stretched out because of the cold.

Price was hunting in the area at this time he found the snake.

New Officers Installed By Kiwanis Club

Walter Gompelmeier of Plymouth, lieutenant governor of Division VI of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International, inducted officers of the Kiwanis club of Chelsea at Monday's meeting held in the social center of the Methodist church.

Inducted were Wallace Wood, president; Don Turner, first vice-president; Floyd Fowler, second vice-president; John Dettling, treasurer; Paul F. Niehaus, secretary; Robert Daniels, immediate past president; and members of the board of directors.

Announcement was made that Wood, Turner, Fowler and Edwin Lewis were planning to attend the midwinter Kiwanis meeting to be held Sunday and Monday at Muskegon.

Guests at Monday's meeting included Clarence Pondley, Raymond Schultz, Eldon Heller and two Chelsea Key club members—Carl Loeffler and Jerry Manzell.

Loeffler was introduced by the Rev. R.A.J. Livingston and Manzell by Edwin Greenleaf.

Gentner, who entered military service in October, completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He will be attached to an Army Medical Service unit for his overseas duty.

Citizens Committee Meeting To Study Area School Needs

Open House Planned by CD Center

The Zone VI Civil Defense emergency communications center in the basement of the Chelsea Municipal Building was inspected Tuesday evening by Chelsea village officials and members of the Sylvan Township Board at the invitation of Chelsea and Zone VI Civil Defense Director Elwyn Beach.

Also invited were Washenaw County Civil Defense Director Gerald Miller and the county's Civil Defense radio officer, Robert Jenks.

Vic Sindlinger of Dexter, Dexter Civil Defense director and acting Zone VI director, was invited to be present as an observer at the suggestion of Col. Gerald Miller; however, he had a previous commitment to attend a meeting in Saline and asked Dexter's Chief of Police Robert Taylor and Auxiliary Police Captain Ed. Klinske to represent him.

Installation of equipment in Chelsea's communications center has been done principally by volunteer work on the part of a number of assistants to the chief communications officer, Marion Longworth, as well as Longworth himself. His assistants are Leo Satterthwaite, Bill Attenberndt, Ricki Curry and Dean Guenther.

All construction labor was donated by Longworth and his assistants. Others who helped included C. D. Director Beach and Edwin Diekmann.

The equipment now installed and in operation works in conjunction with stations located in strategic places covering the area in all directions as far as Jackson, Ann Arbor, Grass Lake, Adrian, Brighton and others. It was planned with the intention of emergency use of the center as the seat of county government in the event Ann Arbor's government center should be rendered inoperable.

A large standby generator is available for emergency use should the regular power fail or be rendered useless.

It was announced after Tuesday's open house for Civil Defense and for village and township officials, that a public open house will be held at the Chelsea communications center Tuesday evening of next week—Jan. 14—and all people of the community are invited to attend.

Public Urged To Attend, Offer Ideas for Board's Consideration

At the recent meeting of the Washenaw County 4-H Junior Leader Club officers were elected for the coming year. Elected were president, Jerry Bristle of Chelsea; vice-president, Archie Bradbury of Dexter; secretary, Kay Gordon of Saline; and treasurer, Phil Gordon of Saline.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK—Eight-year-old Danny Hook needed a little help from his grandfather, Fred Hook, as he held up two big fish he had caught Saturday morning off by himself near his home at North Lake. The big pike weighed seven pounds and measured 31 1/2 inches in length while the smaller one was 27 inches long and weighed four pounds. Danny said he used a minnow for bait as he fished through a hole in the ice. The family fishing shanty is located at a spot where the water is approximately six feet deep. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hook, 7975 Sauer Dr., Danny is a third grade pupil at North Elementary school. He has fished "since he was a little boy" and has caught good-sized ones before but never any as large as the two he got Saturday.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Growing Executive Branch Power Is Our Great Threat

The intelligentsia (some political science professors, columnists and the egghead brigade in general) enjoy the pastime of lambasting the legislative arm of this country's government. It is true that criticism is sometimes in order.

But of late this criticism has taken on an ominous tone. So frightened or alarmed are many (especially the eastern, New York school of leadership) that the end of our form of government is being hinted at.

It is being said, by some brilliant and famous men, that unless certain changes are made in our legislative system, it may fail, that another system of government may be needed or necessary.

These are alarming words. They are surprising in view of the fact that the present system has brought us more security and greater material wealth than any other major nation in the world.

In a few months a civil rights bill and a tax-cut bill will probably have been enacted and perhaps the future will not look so dark, nor our democratic system so unpromising to these prophets of doom.

Also, the truth is that it is the executive branch, and not the Congress, which has gained in power at the expense of its counterpart, the legislative branch, in recent years. Congress can no longer control the gigantic operations and expenditures of the executive branch today the way they should.

Congress cannot "provide for the national defense" as intended in the Constitution. Because government agencies have been smart enough to get their operations on an advance basis to a large extent, Congress often cannot even shut off current operational funds. Usually there will be enough money (until Congress meets again) in the "pipeline," or the President will provide some special or emergency funds.

Congress can no longer require top members of the executive branch to answer questions, even in official committee sessions. The doctrine of executive privilege is now claimed to enable these officials to withhold answers they do not wish to give.

But Congress is the closest branch of government to the people, therefore, the safest and most democratically representative of the three branches. Every member must be elected, and may be turned out of office. The collective viewpoint of these 535 men and women is closer to the will of the people than the views of the professors, columnists, and do-gooders, and we think that is probably why the United States' system has proven effective for almost 200 years—a unique record of achievement among governments. Congress is doing the bidding of the people, which is so necessary if those governed are to maintain their faith in the system.

That Congress, and its procedures, have weaknesses and faults, no one would deny, but they do not now threaten the future of our nation as much as growing executive branch bureaucracy and power.

Poverty Does Exist in U. S.

We're all accustomed to thinking of America in terms of being a nation with the world's highest living standard.

Only on such special occasions as Thanksgiving and Christmas, when in a temporary twinge of charity, do we tend to look around for the chance to help an unfortunate one; does the idea come home to most of us that privation does actually exist all around us.

So it must come as something of a shock to most of us to learn that some 36 million persons in this country—roughly one out of every five in the population—lack adequate food, shelter and medical care.

But such is the finding of a recently published report in The Saturday Evening Post, based on five months of special research on the subject of poverty in the United States.

Most of the nation's poor, the researchers found, are victims of a social upheaval which they could neither forecast nor control—with mechanized farming forcing millions off the soil into the cities to face equally stringent urban misery.

It is a sobering thought, especially with the realization that the trend to replace man with machine will never be reversed.

Diamonds are hunk of coal that improved under pressure.

Tax Facts

Like most of the country, Michigan had a good economic year during fiscal 1967-68.

Total sales tax collections, a good measure of personal spending, jumped from $427.2 million the previous year to $456.6 million.

Combined state and local taxes collected in the state, and federal taxes collected from Michigan set an all-time record of $10.3 billion during the fiscal year, said Revenue Commissioner Clarence Lock.

County by county the sales tax collections generally increased during the year.

Lock was quick to note that per capita collections in each county do not necessarily reflect the level of prosperity within the county. This is particularly true in counties where resort areas, tourist trade and shopping centers near county lines are involved.

Roscommon county, for example, has a small permanent population but also has lake resort areas and a huge transient tourist trade. As a result, Roscommon county had the highest per capita sales tax collections. The state average was $57.98; Roscommon's per capita figure was $83.10.

Fifteen counties were above the state average, eight of them in the tourist center category. The other 10 which increased sharply are metropolitan centers.

The Upper Peninsula is at the bottom of the per capita collection list again this year with all 15 counties below the state average. Missaukee county, just west of Roscommon in northern lower Michigan, recorded the lowest figure at $27.10 per capita.

Clean Plates

Long lines of waiting will soon be forming at the various Secretary of State branch offices throughout the state.

While only new tabs will be issued this year, it takes as long to purchase them as it does in years when entirely new license plates are sold to register vehicles.

The March 1 deadline seems far away now, but too many motorists will let the time slip by until late in February, when the rush begins.

Misunderstanding about the possibility for replacing bent, faded or rusted license plates has arisen in the last few years. Until a few years ago, Michigan issued new plates annually and this was no problem.

The Secretary of State's office notes that a special service is now available for motorists whose license plates have become unreadable.

"All of our branch offices have been instructed to issue a complete new set of passenger plates for a $1 fee," said assistant secretary Frank Sierawski. "To get this service the car owner must surrender both faded or rusted license plates at the time new ones are issued. In cases where passenger plates have been mutilated, lost or stolen so both old plates cannot be turned in, a fee of $2 will be charged."

Obscene Calls
 Many single women, and others too, report difficulties with phone calls from perverted people who make rude and obscene remarks. While it is difficult to trace these calls and arrest the offender, such arrests are made.

In the meantime, police have come up with a suggestion for the person who is bothered by such calls. Keep a police whistle, one with a loud, shrill tone, near the telephone. When an offensive call is received, take a deep breath and blow as hard as possible into the mouthpiece. Police say that the resulting experience for the caller is so unpleasant that he'll likely not call that number again.

No Parking Lights
 Driving along Michigan roads at dusk will give you a good indication of how many people change their habits to keep up with state law.

The 1962 legislature passed a law prohibiting the use of parking lights. The law specifies that when it is dark enough to turn on lights, they must be the regular driving lights.

State Safety Commission Executive Secretary Gerald S. Shipman said statistics indicated there was good reasoning behind the new requirement.

The dim and often obscure bulbs provided for parking lights do nothing for the motorist's own visual alertness and provide uncertain warning for other motorists and pedestrians alike, Shipman said.

"The parking light is usually located closer to the dust and mud of the highway and the least likely to receive attention either from Chelsea's new fire truck proved its worth at its first try-out at the Clarence Trinkle farm fire Sunday evening when the hog barn and a corn crib were destroyed. Without the new equipment, firemen said, it is doubtful the fire could have been confined to the two structures—that all the farm buildings might have burned.

The remaining 422 acres of the Pierce farm south of Chelsea which had been owned by members of the Pierce family continuously since it was taken up from the government by homesteading 117 years ago, changed hands during the past month. Part of it was sold to Alvin Pommerehne and another part to Earl Whitney.

The driver or serviceman, the safety spokesman said. "The parking light also is deliberately made low-powered to conserve battery energy."

This modest gleam, seen through layers of road grime in the twilight frequently deceives the passing motorist or crossing pedestrian as to its distance and its percentage of making good on the next move," said Shipman.

The great highway performer

'64 Jet-smooth Luxury Chevrolet

What does it take to make a car a great highway performer?

If the car happens to be a '64 Chevrolet, one thing only. A highway.

You'll find everything else already neatly packaged for you—on the car exactly as you pick it off the showroom floor.

There's a choice of seven engines—all the way up to a twin-carb high-compression 425-hp V8—and four transmissions, including a finely honed 4-speed stick shift.

And underlaid it all—a ramp-skimming Jet-smooth ride that helps keep the performance great even when the highways aren't so great.

What about special performance equipment? Professional driving skills? Forget them.

Nobody has to doctor or coax or soup-up these Chevrolets to get the best out of them.

And that's really the test of a great highway performer: Just about anyone can get a kick out of driving one, just about anywhere, just as it comes out of the showroom.

Next time you're out your dealer's way, allow a few extra minutes to sample one of these highway performers on your own. A few are really all you'll need. That's enough time to do a lot of driving in a Chevrolet.

SPENCER'S 'MOUNTAINOUS' BROOD

The night-shirled Spencer family is beaming evidence of why the Warner Bros. glowing romantic drama, "Spencer's Mountain" was selected Father's Day Picture of the Year by the National Father's Day Committee. Grouped around their screen parents (Henry Fonda and Maureen O'Hara) are Veronica Cartwright, Susan Young, baby Michele Daves, Miss O'Hara, Rocky Young, Michael Young, Fonda, Gary Young, Kim Karath, Ricky Young, and co-star James MacArthur. Five of the nine children are named Young and they are brothers and sisters for whom life became slightly complicated when producer-director Delmer Daves signed their mother to play the wife of one of Fonda's screen brothers. Mrs. Young then became her children's aunt. Donald Crisp and Wally Cox are also starred in "Spencer's Mountain" which tenderly details the troubles and triumphs of the Spencer clan. Filmed against the spectacular scenic backdrop of the towering peaks of Grand Teton National Park, the motion picture is based on the best-selling novel by Earl Hamner, Jr.

About Your Social Security

More than 780,000 men, women and children in Michigan were receiving social security benefit payments at the end of 1963. These payments amounted to about $57 million a month, according to Robert A. Kehoe, district manager for the Social Security Administration office in Ann Arbor. "This represents an increase in the number of beneficiaries of about 4 percent over the same month last year," he said.

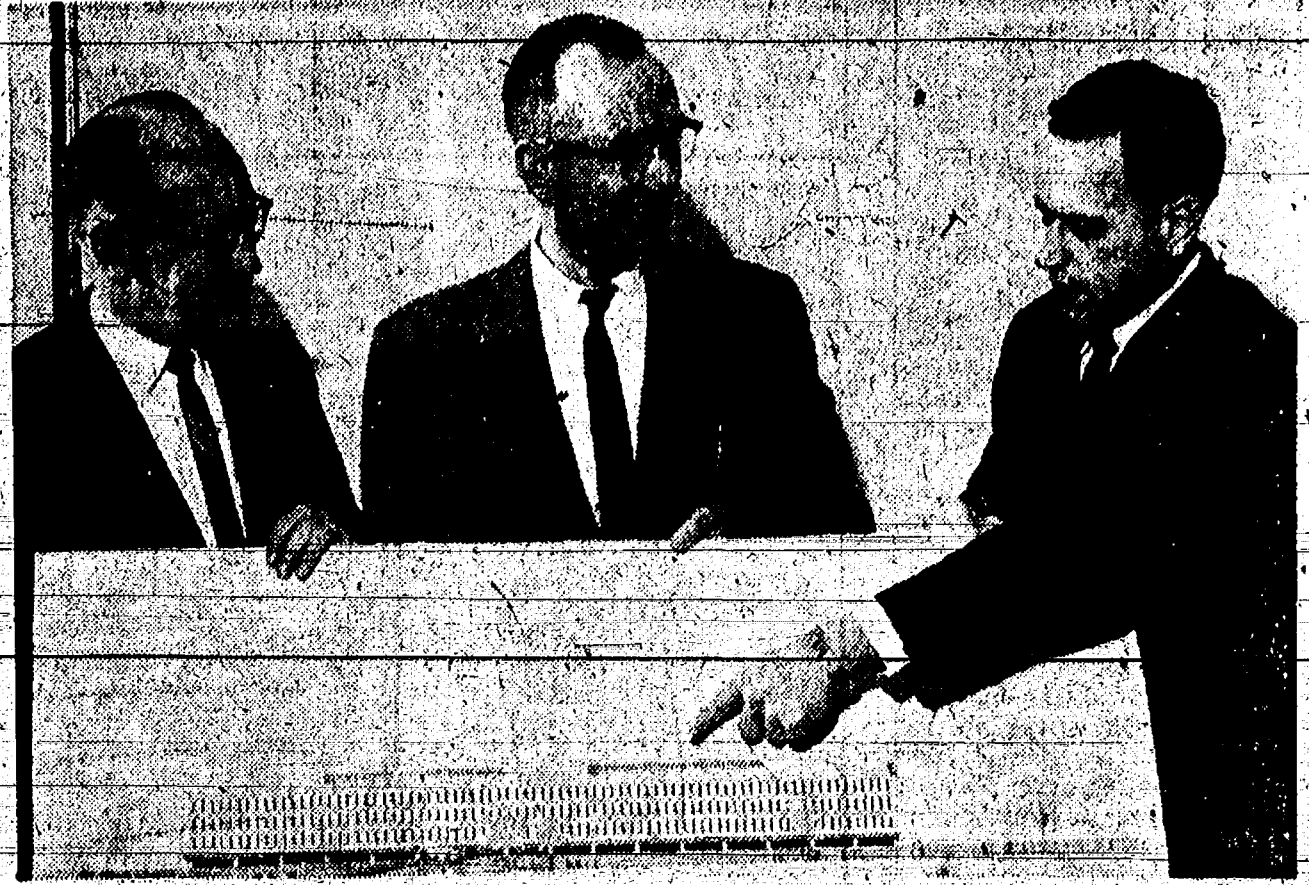

The social security program was 28 years old last Aug. 14. In reviewing the growth of the program, Kehoe noted that at the close of 1940, the first year in which monthly payments were made, only 200,000 people in the nation were receiving payments. In December 1963, more than 19 million were on the social security benefit rolls. Benefit payments in calendar year 1963 totalled $15 billion.

Many changes have been made in the program since its rather modest beginning. At first, only workers in commerce and industry were covered. Now, more than 9 out of 10 working Americans are covered by the program. Nine out of every 10 children and their mothers can count on monthly benefits if the family breadwinner dies. Nearly 90 percent of the people reaching 65 in 1963 were eligible for benefits.

The basic idea of the social security law is a simple one, Kehoe said. During working years employees, their employers, and self-employed people pay social security taxes which go into special funds. When earnings stop because the worker has retired, or died, or is disabled, payments are made from the funds to replace part of the earnings the family has lost.

"Many people have a very hazy idea of just what to expect from social security at death, disability or retirement," said Kehoe, "and that's why we encourage folks to come see us and get first-hand information on this program that means so much to so many."

The Ann Arbor Social Security Office is located at 1355 N. Main St.

HIGHWAY BUILDING PLANS READIED

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie (center), Deputy Highway Commissioner Frederick E. Tripp (left) and Thomas J. Sedgewick of Sedgewick, Sellers and Associates, Flint architects, discuss a sketch of the State Highway Department's new $5.8 million Lansing Headquarters Building. Mackie said he hopes construction can start next summer on the four-story building which he says will pay for itself in 15 years through saving in rent. The Highway Department now pays for office space.

MSU Farmers' Week Offers Many Educational Programs

"Michigan Agriculture Grows With Michigan" is the theme for the 49th annual Farmers' Week at Michigan State University, scheduled for Feb. 3-7 at East Lansing.

Numerous educational sessions will provide the state's farmers with the latest information on efficient production throughout the special mid-winter week. Special exhibits will also help show some of the latest methods adapted for our "space-age" agricultural society.

Monday sessions will be of particular interest for dairymen. State dairy breed associations will hold annual meetings and special awards will be presented at the evening all-breeds dairy banquet. Jim Hays, retired dairy extension specialist, will present his widely known talk entitled "Bovine Architecture."

Beekkeepers, maple syrup producers, goat raisers and professional dairy farmers will also hold special meetings.

Four poultry producers using different management methods will discuss various cost cutting opportunities. Scientists will also take a peek at the laying hen of the future.

Dairy experts will approach successful herd improvement by analyzing the common practices among 78 Michigan dairymen. Both good and bad ideas, common to a large number of these owners, will be outlined.

Crops men will hear the latest reports on corn, small grains, beans and soybeans during a morning session. During the afternoon, many people will elect to take in the joint departmental program on forage crops.

Economists will analyze the current farm labor situation to help farmers better understand some of the unique problems.

Animal waste disposal—a never-ending problem on most farms—will be the order of the day in the agricultural engineering building.

THURSDAY SESSIONS

Centennial farm owners will hear four Michigan legislators report on the new constitution at a morning session. Governor George Romney is scheduled to speak to the group at their noon luncheon.

Economists will have tips for keeping farming dynamic and highly competitive at their morning session. Telford and the use of electronic computers in modern agriculture are slated during the afternoon. The annual farm management banquet will recognize top farmers throughout the state for efficiency and feature a talk by the chairman of the agricultural committee of the American Bankers Association.

Larger and more powerful machines are gaining popularity among farmers today. Agricultural engineers plan to bring farmers up-to-date on recent developments of diesels and four-wheel drive tractors together with a "sneak preview" of some new ideas now being investigated. Hay wafers, safety tips for slow-moving vehicles and narrow row harvesting equipment will also be reported by scientists.

Michigan's newest weed, the Giant Fox Tail, will highlight a chemical weed-control session. This pesky weed can reduce corn yields by as much as 30 percent with little effort.

FRIDAY SESSIONS

Muck farmers will discuss celery, carrots, head lettuce, mint, sod and field crop production on organic soils during their morning session. Community development, rabbits and the annual broad ewe sheep will round out the activities scheduled for Friday.

Special programs of interest to homemakers and youth will also be held during the week. Exhibits will be on display in many buildings and at Spartan Stadium throughout the week. Detailed programs listing times, names and places are available from county extension offices.

NO War in '64 Is Prediction

The two-letter word "no" makes all the difference in the world at times, particularly when the proofreader misses the omission in Roger Babson's forecast for 1964 as published last week. The paragraph should read as follows:

48. WAR. There will be no World War in 1964, and even the "cold-war" pressures should gradually soften and prove less costly. However, an watching carefully how President Johnson and Premier Khrushchev get on together.

With the "nd" left out, the meaning was entirely different and several calls were received asking about the prediction.

TUESDAY SESSIONS

The agricultural economics department program will highlight manpower, food and markets affecting Michigan agriculture. They will take a close look at changing markets both in the U.S. and abroad, manpower in the 1970's and state legislation geared to improving the marketing picture. Valuable experiences and ideas will also be presented for getting started in farming today.

A new idea in dairy housing, free-stalls, is gaining popularity among farmers throughout the state and will be discussed at a Tuesday session. Cleaner cows, better materials, handling and efficient use of power are several of the scheduled sub-topics.

Tuesday will also be sugar beet day as growers gather to hear about weed control, the sugar situation through the eyes of a congressman and new varieties. Horticulturists will discuss growing top quality fruit and nuts during the day.

The new egg law and Michigan's Seal of Quality as it relates to the consumer will highlight the poultry session. A producer, marketing agency representative and consumer marketing agent will discuss how all phases of the industry could be affected.

WEDNESDAY SESSIONS

Synthetic plant growing mixes, growth regulators, controlled atmosphere, infra-red heating and plastic greenhouses will interest vegetable and bedding plant growers during the day.

Federal Crop Insurance Corp. Policy Is Improved

Three major improvements in the 1964 crop policy offered by the Federal Crop Insurance Corp. were announced recently by Earl Wilson, state director. The bushel guarantee has been increased, the premium rate has not been increased and loss adjustment methods have been simplified, Wilson stated. These changes will result in more protection for each premium dollar and provide faster claim service to policyholders.

In Washtenaw county, the bushel guarantee for corn has been increased by an average of 22 percent; yet, the premium rate remains the same as last year. This increase in guarantee results in the highest protection ever offered under an All-Risk Crop Insurance Policy. Soybeans and wheat are also insured crops in Washtenaw county.

Federal Crop Insurance is an agency of the United States Department of Agriculture. Protection is provided against all causes of loss, such as drought, excessive rain, flood, frost, insect infestation, plant disease, hail, wind, wildlife, fire, lightning, snow, and all other unavoidable causes. In its 1962 annual report to congress, the corporation shows indemnities resulting from over 100 different causes of loss.

The policy operates on the basis of a bushel guarantee determined by the past yield records for the county for each crop. The farmer may choose from three price-per-bushel figures the amount of indemnity he will be paid for each bushel when a loss occurs. FCIC is required to operate on a sound financial basis. Farmers, therefore, pay for the protection according to the risks and productivity of their farm.

In a nutshell, here is how it works. It guarantees a specific number of good-quality bushels of grain on the acres protected. In addition, the policy has a provision of adjustment when poor quality or low moisture grain is involved. Indemnities are determined by multiplying the number of bushels the farmer is short of his guaranteed by the price-per-bushel he selected. The policy is available to both landowners and renters, and each may insure his interest in the crops independently of the other.

Harold Willis, district director for this area, stated that increasing interest is being shown in the new program for 1964. Those desiring additional information may contact the Federal Crop Insurance District Office at 118 N. Winter St., Adrian.

Beissel Chosen For European Good-Will Trip

G. Foster Beissel of the Concord Lumber & Coal Co. at Concord, a former Chelsea resident, has been selected the 1964 Michigan Lumber Dealers Goodwill People-To-People delegate. He will be visiting Denmark, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Germany and the Soviet Union.

He and other delegates will leave New York by jet plane on Monday, May 11, and will return May 31. The delegates' wives will accompany them on the trip.

The mission has been authorized as an official people-to-people activity, according to announcements made this week. Objectives are to learn more about the American occupational counterparts abroad while helping them to learn more about American and Americans and to further the national cultural exchange program on an individual grassroots basis. It is believed this program will contribute to increased understanding and goodwill.

Delegates will see and inspect, in person, typical lumber and building operations to compare methods and products and learn of conditions existing in Europe and Communist-dominated areas.

The American delegates will be guests of people who have occupations and business interests in Europe comparable to their own in the United States.

Beissel is the son of Mrs. Edward Beissel (Cora) and the late Mr. Beissel.

Mrs. Sarah Bahnmiller, who was a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital several weeks, is now at home. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Augusta Harris of Dearborn, is spending time with her.

Coach Terry Pokela Is Not Married as Previously Reported

Basketball Coach Terry Pokela is not married!

When information about new teachers at Chelsea was given the Standard last fall it was inadvertently listed that the new coach was "married and had one child." The notation actually belonged to the information about another new teacher.

Coach Pokela never mentioned the erroneous information to the Standard until last week! So we hasten to make the correction.

Failure of Heating Plant Extends Vacation For Some Grades

Approximately 21 children at North Elementary school had an extra day of vacation. They were taken home Monday morning, soon after their arrival, because of failure of the heating system in part of the building.

The pupils sent home were in two second grade, two third grade and three fifth grade classes.

Other rooms at the school were not affected. Adjustments on the heating system were completed in time so classes in the seven rooms could be resumed Tuesday morning.

Another big game for Chelsea is coming up Friday, Jan. 10 in the U. High tussle at Chelsea. U. High is undefeated in four games so far.

"Travelling with Charley in Search of America." John Steinbeck discovered an America with which he had lost touch. He wrote with vigor about super-highways.
His conclusion was that if a person wished to discover America
he had to travel the side roads.
Most of us can agree. But most of us will travel the super-highways.
We get some satisfaction in telling of how little time it takes us to cross the continent.

Enslaved to the super-roads and speed, we usually travel the familiar routes. There are several ways to get to Ann Arbor or Jackson from Chelsea. Most people use

Final Date Approaching for Grain Price Support Loans

Farmers expecting to apply for price support loans on their 1963 crops wheat, oats, barley, rye, dry edible beans, soybeans, flaxseed or grain sorghums should do so by
Jan. 15, according to Mrs. Carolyn Stump, office manager of the Washtenaw ASC County Committee.

Final date for approval of loans and purchase agreements is Jan.
31, however, in the case of farm-stored loans, a minimum of two weeks is required for inspection of storage structures and the obtaining of a sample of the grain to be forwarded to a grain grading laboratory before the loan documents can be completed.

If the storage structure and the grain are found to be acceptable,

the producer will be given an opportunity to complete the loan.
The loan and chattel mortgage must be signed and on file in the county
ASCs office by Jan. 31.

Price support may be obtained by the producers of the above commodities through purchase agreements by applying to the county
ASCs office on or before Jan. 31.

Purchase agreements differ from loans in that the producer receives no funds unless or until he delivers the commodity to the Commodity Credit Corporation after the maturity date for the loan program.

These maturity dates vary, depending on the crop, from one to four months after the final availability date of Jan. 31.

Eggs, Broiler Prices May Dip in New Year

Poultry and egg prospects for early 1964 aren't brighter for the farmer, but look good for the consumer.

Increased supplies of both broilers and eggs seem likely, according to a survey made by a national committee of which Dr. Henry Larzelere, Michigan State University extension specialist in agricultural economics, is a member.

In Washtenaw county the plantings took place at Half Moon Lake, Pickering Lake, and Little and Big Portage lakes.

All four lakes are open for taking brown and rainbow trout through the ice during January and February.

Plantings totaled some 137,000 fish in the "keeper" class and about 103,000 sub-legal trout, including 19,000 spake fingerlings which went into Imp and Beatons lakes, Gogebic county.

This fall's releases will bring immediate action for hook and line fishermen in the southern Lower Peninsula where all but a handful of planted waters are open to taking rainbow and brown trout through the ice during the Dec. 1-Feb. 29 period.

Approximately 91,000 fish were set free in this part of the state, most of them rainbow trout.

Upper Peninsula lakes received 67,000 brooks, browns and rainbows. Tilden and Squaw lakes of Marquette each were stocked with 400 adult lake trout, averaging 2.5 pounds and 18-22 inches long.

The fish were surplus to brood stock needs at the Department's Marquette hatchery.

More than 100,000 trout were planted in lakes of the northern Lower Peninsula.

Dexter Area Man Faces Drunk Driving Charge

A 24-year-old Dexter area man was charged with drunk driving over the week-end after he demolished his 1963 model car in a police chase in Lyndon township.

Roger L. Davis was booked by Chelso Patrolmen Frank Reed and Eugene Hagaman after the accident.

The officers said they started chasing Davis' speeding car northwest on M-52 near Waterloo Rd. They said Davis lost control of the car while traveling in excess of 100 miles per hour. The car veered off the road and rolled over along an embankment for 150 feet, the officers said.

Teen-Agers Urged To Quit Smoking

"Resolved—if I am not smoking now, I won't start; if I am smoking now, I'll quit."

This was the New Year's Resolution proposed primarily for teenagers—but not omitting anybody older, particularly fathers and mothers — by Dr. Park W. Willis, president-elect of the Michigan Heart Association and a cardiologist at the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor.

"And mean it when you resolve not to start," said Dr. Willis.

"The price you pay in good health is just not worth it. At least twice as many cigarette smokers as non-smokers die of heart attack, a disease which is the leading cause of death in America today. And far more cigarette smokers get lung cancer or difficult, chronic lung diseases."

"One of the better ways to stop or avoid starting is to keep in mind all the disagreeable things," Dr. Willis added. "List the stained teeth and fingers, bad breath and odors, and holes burned in clothing and rugs. Consider the money gone, the loss of your good wind and flavors of food and a tyranny that can take you out in the snow at 2 a.m. because you are out of cigarettes."

Dr. Willis, who cited a recent decision of the Board of Directors of the American Heart Association to discourage smoking, urged parents to quit as an example to their children. "Twice as many students smoke when both parents smoke," he said. "Strongly expressed parental disapproval of smoking will also help."

Justice of the Peace David Deig yesterday morning ordered William D. Sherwin, Sr., 26, of Hazel Park, to pay $50 fine and costs on a charge of attempting to kill Canadian geese during the closed season.

Sherwin was apprehended Sunday in Dexter township by Conservation Officer Donley Boyer.

Trout Plantings Made in Several Washtenaw Lakes

More than 240,000 legal and smaller-sized trout were released in 130 of Michigan's inland lakes by the Conservation Department this fall to provide more sport for fishermen.

In Washtenaw county the plantings took place at Half Moon Lake, Pickering Lake, and Little and Big Portage lakes.

All four lakes are open for taking brown and rainbow trout through the ice during January and February.

Plantings totaled some 137,000 fish in the "keeper" class and about 103,000 sub-legal trout, including 19,000 spake fingerlings which went into Imp and Beatons lakes, Gogebic county.

Club and Social Activities

LIMANERS
Limaners, with 10 members present, met Thursday for a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Carl Schlosser. Her assisting was Mrs. Walter Heutler. During an afternoon business session, reports were given on the Christmas projects which included remembering an "adopted" child at Ypsilanti State Hospital. The February meeting is to be held Thursday Feb. 12, at the home of Mrs. M. W. McChesney. She will be assisted by Mrs. Alfred Lindner as co-hostess.

LEGION AUXILIARY
Twenty-five members and two guests were present Tuesday evening for the January meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary. The meeting took place at the home of Mrs. William Birch.

Guests at the meeting were the District II American Legion Auxiliary president and secretary, Mrs. Orville Finkbeiner of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Ralph Uphaus of Saline, respectively. Business at the meeting included voting to order 1,500 poppies for the annual Memorial Poppy sale in May. It was also decided to hold a social meeting and party Monday, Feb. 9, the tentative location being the Knights of Columbus Hall. Reports given at the meeting related to Christmas activities showed that three Gold Star Mothers and one Gold Star sister were remembered and that a cash contribution was made to Chelsea Social Service for a basket for a needy family. No Quality Difference Found in Steer or Heifer Meat of Same Grade

There is no difference in the eating qualities of steer beef and heifer beef if they are the same grade. This is the finding of a Michigan State University taste panel conducted by the food science department.

Consumers are being misled by some claims of people selling beef carcasses and wholesale cuts in some cities, contends "Lyman" Brattler, meats authority at MSU.

He points out that they "bite" on claims that meat is from a certain well-known breed of beef cattle, "yet there is no way to prove it is, or is not, once the meat is in the home cuts."

His advice is to "know your seller" which is a good recommendation for any buyer of any commodity about which they know very little.

One way to build up other people's opinions of you is to spend a considerable amount of time paying them compliments.

Add More Protein

Looking for ways to add protein to family meals? Home economists at Michigan State University make these suggestions: slice frankfurters into soup; add grated cheese to hot green beans; try peanuts in cabbage slaw; add chopped luncheon meat to potato salad or hard cooked egg to tossed salad.

A free meal—if a good one—is still a great attraction for pollinators, loafers, flies and a number of other insects.

'59 Newspaper Clipping Reported Warning to Presidential Candidates

Mention brought up at a family Christmas gathering about President John Kennedy's assassination and about prophecies made at various times that presidents elected or taking office in years ending in zero were destined to die in office, prompted Mrs. Arthur Wahl of Manchester, formerly of Chelsea, to look among newspaper clippings she had saved since she remembered having read such an item several years ago.

Mrs. Wahl found the item, printed in early 1900 or late 1909 and sent it to The Standard.

It reads as follows:

Rep. Joe M. Kilgore (D-Texas) has an ominous warning for 1900 candidates.

Kilgore said every man elected to the presidency since 1840 in a year ending in zero died in office.

Here's the record: 1840; William Henry Harrison; 1880; Abraham Lincoln; 1880; James A. Garfield; 1900; William McKinley; 1920; Warren G. Harding; 1940; Franklin D. Roosevelt; 1960.

NATION'S LONGEST FREEWAY—A dream of motorists for decades became a reality Nov. 1, when a 22-mile segment of I-75 was opened in the Upper Peninsula. This permits driving from the Ohio border, 380 miles north to Sault Ste. Marie on the nation's longest freeway without encountering a stoplight or crossroad. This cuts pre-freeway driving time by three hours on this route. The Ohio-Soo route (shown above shaded), longest freeway in the nation, is actually a combination of four freeways: U.S. 23, U.S. 27, U.S. 10 and I-75. The segment of I-75 to be opened in the Upper Peninsula Nov. 1 extends from eight miles north of St. Ignace northward to Rudyard. Passing through 16 Michigan counties, the route also by-passes such major cities as Ann Arbor, Flint, Saginaw, Bay City and Midland.
