Diane Worden In Semi-Final Merit Group

Announcement was made today by Chelsea High School Principal Charles Lane that Diane Worden, one of the school's students, has been named a semifinalist in the 1964-65 Merit Scholarship competition. He explained that she became a semifinalist through her outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test, a test of educational development given last March in more than 17,000 high schools.

Miss Worden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Worden, 118 Lincoln St.

She is one of 14,000 seniors throughout the country who attained semifinalist status. The semifinalist group is composed of the highest scoring students in each state and in United States territories. Each semifinalist now moves a step closer to winning a four-year Merit Scholarship to the college of his choice. Semifinalists must substantiate their qualifying test performance on a second examination, be endorsed by their schools, and fulfill certain routine requirements to become finalists. All Merit Scholars are selected from the finalist group.

"Semifinalists are representative of our country's most intellectually able young people," said John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

"They possess the talents and qualities necessary for leadership in the future. They are resourceful, hard-working, and ambitious.

"In honoring them for their attainments, we should recognize also that others have contributed significantly to their success by encouraging the characteristics which produce high achievement. The semifinalists thus bring honor not only to themselves, but also to their families, their teachers, and their communities."

To increase their opportunities to obtain financial assistance if they need it, the Merit Corp. sends the names of semifinalists to all

CHURCH MODEL PRESENTED: George Knickerbocker, at left, chairman of the building committee of St. Paul's church, and Theodore Faist, president of the Church Council, are shown above with the architect's model of the proposed new church building which the congregation approved at a special meeting last Sunday. The building committee was authorized to proceed with plans to advertise for bids to be acted upon in January. If further approval is voted by the congregation, construction would begin in early spring and completion would be aimed for by Christmas, 1965, St. Paul's centennial year. The model, as seen in the photo, shows the view from the north. The front of the church will face south.

St. Paul's Church Congregation Votes To Seek Bids on Building

At a special meeting Sunday of the congregation of St. Paul's United Church of Christ, approval was voted to proceed with arrangements for procuring bids for the construction of a new church building on property already owned by the congregation and located on Old US-12 a short distance east of the Main St. intersection.

The building committee, headed by George Knickerbocker as chairman, had arranged for an architect's model of the new church to be on display in the church hall for several weeks past in order that members of the congregation might gain an idea of the proposed plan and the eventual appearance of the new building.

Total area of the new church, including worship, educational, social and service areas is 16,700 square feet as compared to the present church's 8,500 square feet.

Seating capacity of the new church is listed as 300, compared to the present church's 175.

Plans for the new church include a narthex and lounge, in addition to the sanctuary; a total of 4,310 square feet of area for social, dining, church school, kitchen and storage space; and 4,800 square feet of classroom area.

Parking space planned immediately adjacent to the church will accommodate 100 cars with entrance to the church easily accessible from any part of the parking area.

Approximate cost of the new church is estimated at $225, a substantial amount is already on hand in a building fund begun more than a year ago.

It is hoped that it will be possible to have bids submitted in January; if matters proceed as anticipated, construction could begin early in the spring with completion set for December, 1965, so Christmas services would be held in the new church.

1965 is the centennial year for St. Paul's church. The congregation was founded that year after the pioneer German missionary, the Rev. Friedrich Schmid, had conducted services in Chelsea area homes for approximately 10 years. The first church was built in 1868 on the site of the present church on E. Summit St. which has served the congregation since 1892.

Many improvements have been made through the years and in 1940 a church hall was constructed at the rear of the church; however, church membership has increased steadily indicating need for the larger facilities with sufficient parking space available.

The Rev. Paul M. Schnake has been pastor of St. Paul's church the past five years; the current president of the Church Council is Theodore Faist.

VICTOR PARKS

Victor Parks Wins U. of M. Scholarship

Victor Parks, who graduated from Chelsea High school in June, was notified this week that he has been granted a scholarship to the University of Michigan by the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority, a state competitive scholarship program signed into law by Governor George Romney on May 22 of this year.

To be eligible for the new state scholarship, applicants must be in the upper half of their graduation class scholastically and must be recommended by their high school. In addition, they must have received a "satisfactory score," as determined by the Authority, on at least one of four competitive examinations as follows: preliminary scholastic aptitude test; National Merit Scholarship qualifying test; scholastic aptitude test; or American College Test.

Under the provisions of the new law, not less than three first-year scholarships shall be awarded to residents of each legislative district in Michigan and the remainder to residents of the state at large.

A total of $500,000 was appropriated by the State Legislature for the 1964-65 college year. The scholarships may be renewed if the first-year scholarship winners have successfully completed their academic work for the preceding college year.

Earlier this year, Parks had accepted the invitation of the U. of M. College of Literature, Science

Fish Study Underway on 2 Area Lakes

James Schneider, in charge of a new research project now underway at Mill and Cassidy Lakes in the Waterloo Area, announced yesterday that in line with previously announced plans, both Mill Lake and Cassidy Lake will be closed to fishing for a period of five years beginning next Thursday, Oct. 1.

The only exception to the rule is that inmates at Cassidy Lake Technical School will be permitted to fish that lake by special permission and will be required to comply with certain regulations as conditions under which the permits will be granted by the Institute of Fisheries which is in charge of the research project for the Michigan Department of Conservation.

"Population Dynamics" is the name given to the research project which will show the number of fish present, their ages, growth rate and mortality figures.

Abundance of fish in relation to available food; food present in the lake; food habits of the fish and other related matters are included in the long-term research project.

Experiments are also being made with various kinds of fishing gear—that already in use; new kinds perfected for scientife use; and some designed to provide new ways to take fish for purposes of research—all aimed at developing better means of obtaining fish for scientific study.

During the past week electric shocker equipment was in use at Mill Lake as part of the experimental work being done.

Schneider emphasized that no poisoning out is contemplated at either Mill Lake or Cassiday Lake. The latter lake was poisoned out several years ago and has been re-stocked with yellow perch; at Mill Lake there are all species of fish native to this area and special studies will be made as to benefits, or otherwise, of the one-specie

Bike Safety Rules Must Be Obeyed

Members of the police committee of the Chelsea Village Council are in the process of drawing up a bicycle ordinance to be presented to the Council for adoption.

With the opening of another school year and the resultant general increase of bieyele traffic, the need for strict enforcement of rcles and regulations regarding their operation and use is deemed advisable by the Council.

An educational program on bicycle safety is planned for all Chelsea schools at an early date. The program will be sponsored by the Michigan State Police, American Automobile Association and the Chelsea Police Department. The program aims at acquainting all children who own and operate bicycles with safety rules and regulations regarding their use.

A few of the safety rules most commonly ignored, either because of lack of knowledge or refusal to conform with the law, and which are being included in the proposed ordinance are listed as follows:

1—When more than two persons in a group are operating bicycles on a roadway, they shall ride single file.

2—No person shall ride upon any bicycle: (A) Other than upon or astride a permanent and regular seat attached thereto. (B) Which is being used to carry more persons at one time than the number for which it is designed and equipped.

3—No person shall ride a bicycle upon a sidewalk within a business district.

4—When riding a bicycle upon a sidewalk where permitted, no person shall fail to yield the right-of-way to any pedestrian.

5—All bicycles when operated on roadways shall be kept to the right and shall be operated as near as practical to the right-hand edge of the highway.

United Church Women Will Host Tea Party

United Church Women of the Chelsea area will entertain church women of the community at a tea to be held Thursday, Oct. 1 at the home of Mrs. R. W. Wagner, 777 Freer Rd.

While the affair is customarily described as a "ministers' wives' tea" and wives of area pastors are particularly invited, the tea is for all area women and all are asked present.

Mrs. Ben Donaldson, who, with her husband, recently visited in Korea, Japan and other Far Eastern countries, will speak at the tea; all interested women are invited to hear her tell of her experience and of conditions as she saw them during her visit.

The tea will be held from 2 until 4 p.m.

Opening Kickoff Returned for Only Score in Game

The Milan-Chelsea Kiwanis club's trophy, in the hands of the Milan High school team the past six years, is back with the Chelsea High school team after a spectacular victory by Chelsea in the first league game of the season Friday night at Chelsea.

Chelsea scored a touchdown in the first 28 seconds of the game and kept Milan from scoring throughout the remaining 47 minutes and 32 seconds of the game. The final score, 6-0.

The Bulldogs' score was made on the opening kick-off — Tom Wojcicki running to the left with the ball and flipped the ball to Jim Cameron on the right who set off on a 90-yard run for the touchdown.

Commenting on the play later, Coach Jack Curl said "good blocking at our 50-yard line and Cameron's sidestepping the last two defensive players" provided the "thrill of a life-time" when he was successful in his 90-yard dash.

Throughout the remainder of the game, outstanding defensive players for Chelsea included Dick McCalla, Gary Dresch, Oren Wireman and Cameron. Wireman and Cameron each recovered two fumbles. Both Wireman and Cameron were also cited as outstanding on "offense play" during the game and Wojciki and Dick Lauhon were included in the commendation.

Wojciki averaged 44 yards on punting.

Milan was kept in its own territory most of the time in spite of the fact the Big Reds had a first and 10 on Chelsea's 6-, 10-, 15- and 18-yard lines.

Chelsea was inside of Milan's 20-yard line twice but couldn't score again.

Coach Curl said Chelsea's victory was the more outstanding because of the fact that Milan's team members are "really big — and fast." He said Milan team members average 220 pounds with a quarterback weighing 230 pounds and a right halfback weighing 190 pounds.

Chelsea's blocking for Cameron's 90-yard run upfield was "magnificent," according to Coach Curl.

Curl said outstanding defense players on the Milan team Friday included Gary London and Ken Stonebraker.

The Kiwanis trophy, back in Chelsea for the first time in six years, was purchased jointly by the Chelsea and Milan Kiwanis clubs for presentation to the winner of the Milan-Chelsea football games each year.

The Chelsea school band performed for the game, remaining throughout the evening and marching off the field when the game was over.

Tomorrow night Chelsea plays Lincoln at Ypsilanti.

Tonight (Thursday) the JV's have their first game of the season when the Ypsilanti St. John's team comes to Chelsea for a 7 p.m. game.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

★ Federal-State Relations Improving . . .

Federal-state relations is a topic that can always provoke lively discussion. Governors debate it, political science professors spend long hours lecturing on it and citizens have a legitimate concern over the trends occuring within this field.

Are the states growing weaker at the expense of the federal government? Should we re-examine the whole federal concept? In his book, "The Future of Federalism," Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York attempts to answer these and related questions.

In the area of federal assistance programs, we are making progress in improving state policy. Now I'm no "States-Rights"er. States have no rights; only people have rights. States have responsibilities. State governments should be judged by the same standards against which all governments should be judged: their capacity to help people.

Too many politicians in both parties are for States' rights because they want to keep things from happening . . . because the doctrine of States' rights is the surest way to maintain the status quo. They are afraid of change; they want to make states into roadblocks in the way of progress.

It is absurd to preach states' responsibility if the states are citadels of inaction and irresponsibility.

Generally, I am opposed to establishing vast new federal programs when the problems can be handled as well or better by states, local governments, communities, voluntary groups or individuals. But once a new federal program is on the books, I will work and co-operate to see that Michigan gets full benefit. I hate to see dollars drift down to Washington, but once they're gone, I'll strive to get as many back as possible.

Using this approach, we have qualified Michigan for ADC-U funds. We have stepped up Michigan participation in Kerr-Mills and other human welfare programs and saved millions of dollars for local government and Michigan taxpayers.

Michigan is ready for the federal college construction money. We have increased vocational training and retraining and other matching programs. We are going all out on the anti-poverty program. These examples are characteristic of the progress we've been making in the vitally important area of helping people, the prime responsibility of the state.

DREAMS OF GLORY AND FAME

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Overcome Problems

Variety from the norm often tends to instill new alertness in workers and such seems to have been the case in Michigan's Sept. 1 primary election.

State elections officials in Lansing received fewer complaints about precinct workers' errors than in any election in recent memory.

This was despite, or perhaps because of, the many changes in districts, several new precinct alignments, and the record number of people entered in primary contests.

Local elections officers were credited with doing a tremendous job by Secretary of State James M. Hare, whose department handles the polling problems.

Hare termed the job which faced local people as one of the toughest and most complicated in Michigan's history."

One member of the state elections office staff said it appeared more local workers were on their toes because they faced new problems. Working with the same districts year after year, some workers apparently were in a routine which lent itself to error but the changes broke this routine.

Still another, more crucial test faces local election workers Nov. 3 when the new districts will again be used, more people will be voting and in many cases the ballot will be extremely long.

Many people voting in machine districts will face a double-machine ballot or a paper ballot in addition to the machine.

Along with the Presidential, gubernatorial, U. S. Senatorial, Congressional and State Legislative races, voters will decide on three members of the new State Court of Appeals, a referendum question and in many cases local officers and proposals.

Scholarship Awards

Nearly 1,300 Michigan high school graduates were selected to be the first winners under the state college scholarship program, splitting $500,000 in funds.

More than five times this number applied for the state funds. Some 3,000 of them could have qualified for scholarships if more money were available, said Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett.

The law enacted by the legislature creating the program specified winners should be chosen on the basis of academic ability and financial need.

Distriction was further limited by a requirement that three scholarships go to each of the State Senate and House Districts. The remainder were awarded among applicants from the state at large.

Final awards averaged $400, although the legislature placed an $800 maximum on each scholarship, Bartlett said. The grants cover tuition and academic fees, but not dormitory charges or other fees at Michigan colleges and universities.

Application replies from the 1,292 winners indicated most planned to attend four-year institutions. About 100 indicated they intended to study at junior or community colleges, Bartlett said.

With legislative approval to double the appropriation next year, each of the 1964 winners who maintain at least a C" average could have their grant renewed and another $500,000 would be available for 1965 high school graduates.

Supporters of the scholarship plan in the legislature this year tried to get an original appropriation of $2 million for the program.

Bartlett implied there would be attempts next year to get more than the $1 million for the program.

Some 3,500 of our applicants this year were fully qualified by test score and demonstrated real financial need," he said. If these youngsters can find no other means of help and are denied the higher education of which they are fully capable and want, we are wasting valuable human resources."

Light Up

Continuation of the year-old Lights On for Safety" campaign in Michigan appears a certainty.

During the Fourth of July holiday, State Safety Commission members reported that 40 percent of the cars on major trunklines spot checked had lights on during the day.

This was greater than the Memorial Day participation, they said. Over Labor Day the number of daytime drivers with their lights on again increased, to nearly 50 percent.

This is an excellent showing but to be really successful we ought to have every one of the many thousands of cars on the road co-operating in the program," said Safety Commission Executive Secretary Gerald Shipman.

The idea behind the lights-on campaign, said Gov. George Romney, is "to focus attention on all drivers that they must stay mentally alert and drive safely" as thousands of cars pack the highways on holiday week-ends.

Before the Labor Day holiday began Michigan's traffic death toll was 18 percent higher than the 1963 rate, which was the sixth highest record in history.

We're either going to learn how to use automobiles properly and sensibly or they are going to become a worse lethal weapon than some make them already," said Romney.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Us one-gallus boys at the country store Saturday night was mighty disturbed over some figgers put out by Congressman Ed Foreman of Texas. He had one of them high voltage Guvernment computing machines git the facts on who was paying what to run this country.

Ed Doolittle brung the figgers with him and all of them was bad. Fer instant, they showed that if the Internal Revenue boys took ever cent of income made by all the millionaires in the United States in 1963, it would've run the Guvernment 39 hours. If they took all the profits of folks making $25,000 a year or more it would keep the Guvernment 3 days. And if they took all personal income over $10,000 the Guvernment would eat it up in 18 days.

The figgers showed that 80 per cent of the national budget was paid by the folks that had income tax rates at the rock bottom figger of 20 percent. In short, Mister Editor, all that money they been wasting in Washington, like paying $500 fer window curtains and such items, was being paid by the little man, us one-gallus boys.

Up till Ed announced these figgers, all the fellers was thinking it was the rich folks that was paying most of the freight. Now that we know it was us paying the bill, the fellers passed a resolution asking the President to turn off all the lights in the White House after 6 p.m. and to start hanging bed sheets in them windows fer curtains. On account of the little man paying the bills, he ain't been speaking his piece loud enough in these matters.

Clem Webster allowed as how the great trouble in Washington was that our elected representatives give a right-turn signal when they was talking fer publication and then made a left turn when they voted. Fer instant, he said our Congressmen was announcing all over the nation that Federal employees just had to git a raise so's they could make both ends meet. What happened, Clem ask. He had a clipping from the papers giving the results. The bill raised the pay of office workers 4.3 per cent, 5.6 per cent fer post office employees, and 33 per cent fer Congressmen.

Zeke Grubb brung up that item about the Texas Livestock organization taking a $2,500 gold-plated saddle to President Johnson. He was a 100 percent in favor of it, claimed it was the first thing in this generation to enter or leave Washington with no tax money in it.

But it could be, Mister Editor, the fellers at the store complains too much. Fer instant, Bug Hookum had a bumper crop of apples this year but he was fussing Saturday night on account of they wasn't no rotten ones fer the hogs.

Yours truly,

and the Arts to participate in a new residential program, instituted two years ago as the "Pilot Project." The program was developed to offer a limited group of selected incoming freshman students a unique educational experience.

Approximately 150 freshmen, both men and women live together in three residential units (two for men and the third for women) and share, as much as practicable the same class sections. Thus, the plan provides that the group becomes a unit designed to stimulate the exchange and discussion of ideas, factual information and readings, in addition to providing a ready forum for the working out of common problems faced in the shared classroom experiences.

Instructors of these sections are invited to informally share in this program — they have open invitations to have lunches and dinners with the participating students — thus reducing the distance between the student and instructor.

The new program has been described as a "community within the campus area."

Now on display: the most beautiful Chrysler ever built.

This is Chrysler '65. The big one that delivers. Luxury that reflects your good taste, for one thing. A fast answer to your demands, for another.

Look at it. Clean-lined. Big. Beautiful. Eighteen feet of comfort. Two tons of security. Called Chrysler.

It's easier to get into and out of. There's lots of headroom, and legroom and hiproom.

Get in and drive it. The first thing you'll notice is best described as "scorch." Model 1965 is a very quick automobile.

And there's an improvement in ride you can really feel.

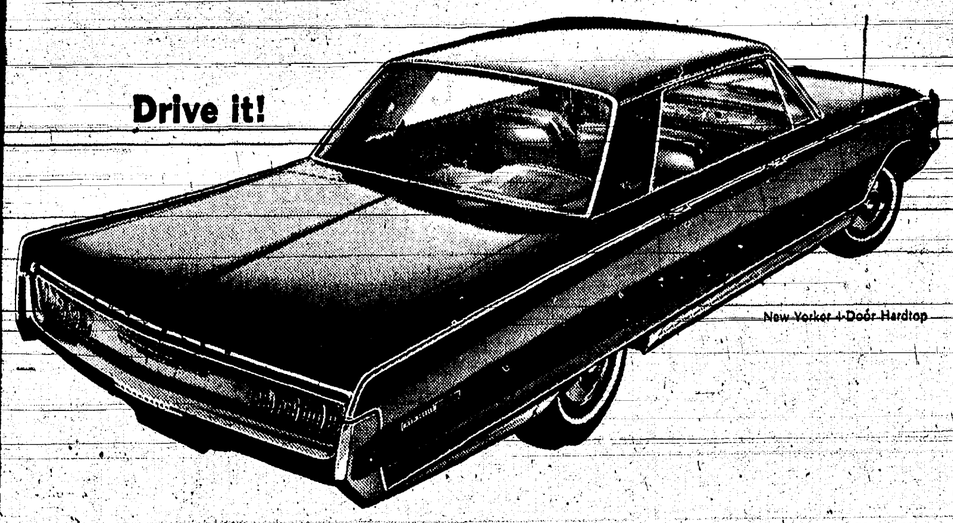

One more point. A Chrysler isn't all that expensive. Seven Newport models are actually priced just a few dollars a month more than some of the most popular smaller cars.

Visit your Chrysler dealer and see them all: economical Newport; sports-bred 300; and the luxurious New Yorker. Move up to Chrysler. Model 1965. The man who sells them will make it easy.

APPEAL!
Fred Klink has joined the sales force at Spaulding Chevrolet. He is an eager young fellow very enthused about the beautiful Chevrolet line for '65. He will be a real hard to make sales and is asking any of you folks, who realize that he's pricing them too high or allowing too much for your trade-in, not to mention, it is time—just buy the car and say no more. We all had to learn some time. I don't want his confidence shaken.

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

ELECTION AND ELSE

IF YOU were to ask me if I would vote Democratic in the coming national election, I would imitate a certain Englishman who was asked if he would vote for a certain candidate and he replied "I will." Whereupon there was great applause from the candidate's followers. But the speaker continued, "Not." Whereupon there was great applause from the other side. But the speaker was not yet done. "tell you," he concluded. He thus won applause from both sides and told them nothing.

So if you were to ask me if I would vote Democratic in the coming national election, I would reply, I will not tell you. And now, that I have exercised the right of privacy in my voting, I would call your attention to a mote important matter for your decision.

It is the answer to a question asked a long time ago — Jesus asked, "What think ye of Christ?" Regardless of the circumstances under which the question was asked, here is a query that stands alone — "What think ye of Christ?" Unlike our usual elections, the answer to this question does not decide the issue for the person whose name is up, but it decides the eternal destiny of the man who votes.

Who Knows Answers . . .

1. Vaso Balboa.
2. President Woodrow Wilson.
3. On July 1, 1963 throughout the U. S. by the Post Office Department.
4. On Aug. 28, 1850, in Titusville, Pa.
5. A heavy form of hydrogen.
6. A sealed agreement between two or more parties.
7. Four silver stars.
8. In World War I.
9. $105,925,395,000.
10. Walt Whitman.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

TROOP 425

At the meeting of Boy Scout Troop 425 Monday, Sept. 21, elections were held for senior patrol leader and assistant S.P.L. Mike Grob retained his post as S.P.L., while Brian Policht was voted assistant. At the meeting following it was decided that each boy should only hold one post. This was done so more boys could have the training and so each job could be done well.

Next Monday night, Troop 425 will have a Court of Honor on the top floor of the Municipal Building. Everyone is invited to come. During the evening, "Show'm How" Night will be held with each patrol putting on exhibits.

Paul Schnake, scribe.

Monday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Eisemann were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hanselmann and family of Saline. Julius Schiller of Ann Arbor called at the Eisemann home on Tuesday.

regionally accredited colleges and universities and to other scholarship-granting agencies and financial aid sources. Studies show that about 50 percent of the semifinalists obtain financial aid from sources other than the Merit Program.

In past years, about 98 percent of the semifinalists have become finalists. All finalists receive a Certificate of Merit in recognition of their outstanding performance in the program. As finalists, the students will be eligible for scholarship awards sponsored by NMSC and about 230 business corporations, foundations, colleges, unions, trusts, professional associations, and individuals.

In this last phase of the competition, the high school grades, creative accomplishments, leadership qualities, extracurricular activities, and school citizenship of the students will be evaluated along with their scores on the tests.

About April 28, 1965, the names of the Merit Scholars will be announced, the exact number depending on the extent of sponsor support of the Merit Program. In 1964 NMCS and sponsors together awarded about 1,625 Merit Scholarships.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award to cover the undergraduate college years. The recipient's stipend is tailored to his need.

Awards may reach a maximum of $6,000 for the four years of college. For students who already possess financial resources which will enable them to attend the college of their choice, the awards are $400 for the four years. Stipends now average about $800 a year, or $3,200 for the four college years.

A Merit Scholarship is also a form of "educational insurance" for the student who receives it, because the amount of the stipend will be increased at any time if there is a significant change in college cost or in his family's financial situation.

Finalists designate the college they wish to attend and the course of study they plan to pursue. The colleges chosen by the Merit Scholars in most instances also receive supplementary grants.

NMSC and sponsors have thus far contributed almost $21 million in direct financial assistance to Merit Scholars and their colleges. This amount is exclusive of obligations to the 5,000 Merit Scholars now in college.

The Merit Program was established in 1955 with grants from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corp. of New York. In 1962 the Ford Foundation announced an additional grant to continue the program through 1970.

About 9,100 Merit Scholars have been appointed to date. In addition, thousands of other outstanding participants have been helped in obtaining aid from other sources, and colleges have been assisted in their efforts to locate the intellectually able.

Personal Notes

Robert Freysinger, with his daughter, Mrs. Eber Squiers (Anna) of Dearborn, left by plane Saturday night for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Berta Bugl, in Munich, Germany. With another daughter, Mrs. Karl Luckhardt (Constance) of Chelsea, he had spent three weeks in Germany and Austria last spring in an attempt to locate relatives he had not seen since coming to the United States as a young man and had not heard from since World War I. He and Mrs. Luckhardt were unsuccessful in their search until the day they were scheduled to return home when they finally located Mrs. Bugl, the only surviving member of his family. They were able to spend only an hour together before Mr. Freysinger and Mrs. Luckhardt boarded the plane to return to the United States. Realizing her father's disappointment Mrs. Squiers promised him she would take him back for a visit and the present trip was planned. Because of fog Saturday night, grounding planes at Metropolitan Airport, they were taken by bus to Windsor to board the plane for the overseas trip.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Prochnow returned Wednesday from a two-week vacation trip during which they visited the Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec City, the White Mountains in New Hampshire and Boston, Muss. At Berrien, Conn., they visited friends and enroute home they stopped at the World's Fair.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schultz were Mrs. Schultz's mother and sister-in-law, Mrs. Anthony Budres, Sr., and Mrs. Anthony Budres, Jr.; also the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Birgilaitis, all of Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rowe and the latter's mother, Mrs. Ethel Gall, of Hudson, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rowe. Also guests there the same day were the Floyd Rowes' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bury and children of North Lake. Barbara Bury remained to spend this week.

Mrs. Edith Snelbecker and Mrs. Ruth Delzell of Toledo, O., are spending this week here as guests of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haselswerdt.

Washtenaw county voters will have a chance to meet the Republican legislators and candidates—who are to form a GOP team representing this area—at a GOP Legislative Rally on Thursday, Oct. 1.

The rally is set for 8 p.m. in the Recreation Room and West Cafeteria of Ann Arbor High school.

Duck Hunting Season This Year Opens at Sunrise

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer said yesterday that duck hunters apparently are happy to learn that the season begins at sunrise the first day this year—in former years the first day's hunting for ducks was set for noon. The season opens Oct. 8 and continues through No. 16 in Region III which comprises the entire southern part of the state.

In Washtenaw county the hour of sunrise is set for 6:34 a.m. with sunset designated as 6:11 p.m.

Boyer reported that fishing violations continue to be handled in justice and municipal courts in the county.

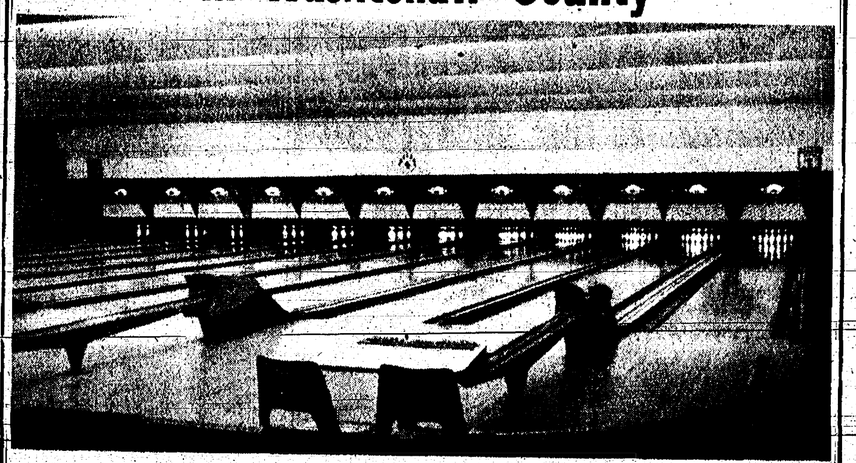

On Saturday, Sept. 19, Joseph Misukaitis, 45, of Wayne, contacted Sylvan Township Justice of the Peace Chandler Rogers relative to a charge of fishing without a license on Portage Lake Sept. 6. He pleaded guilty to the charge preferred by Conservation Officer Boyer and was assessed $18 in fine and costs.

Robert Bogdan, 26, of Ann Arbor, appeared Thursday on a similar charge before Muncipal Judge Francis O'Brien in Ann Arbor and paid $13 fine and costs after pleading guilty. He was also charged with fishing without a license Sept. 6 on Portage Lake.

Today is '65 Pontiac Day.
1965: The year of the Quick Wide-Tracks

What do we mean by "quick"? Just this: A new-all-over Pontiac Pontiac offering a new Turbo Hydra-Matic —the silkiest, swiftest-shifting automatic transmission you ever touched a toe to; eager new Trophy V-8 power; new steering agility; a surer-footed Wide-Track ride. And a new Pontiac Tempest that's become even more of a Pontiac with new style, new length and Pontiac-quick reflexes to match. You never knew cars could be so beautiful, and so keenly alert to your touch. This is your year to drive a Wide-Track—quick!

'65 Pontiac Pontiac How does the success car outdo itself for 1965? Beautifully, just beautifully. But this Pontiac has no intention of getting by on looks alone, though it could. So there's new quickness, Pontiac style. A new nimbleness. New fuel savings. A smooth, easy new ride. Drive a '65 Pontiac and see how one success leads to another.

'65 Pontiac Tempest Tempest's even more of a Pontiac now, and what more could a car be than that! The '65 Tempest looks like a Pontiac, as you can see. Rides like a Pontiac on Wide-Track. Goes like a Pontiac, too: a 140-hp six is standard. Or you can get a quick V-8, up to 285 hp. You'll wonder how we can keep the price so low on so much car.

What the nation needs is more officeholders who will vote as they think and let the voters vote as they think.

Just A Minute . . .

By the Rev. James A. Craig

"Walk on the left, Facing traffic." The signs offered good advice. Walking on the left, approaching cars could be seen and accidents avoided.

Like most good advice this went largely disregarded.

The other night a man was walking on the right, on the pavement. Wearing a dark suit, he was practically invisible.

Cars missed only by swerving sharply.

He must have felt it was up to the drivers to look out for him. The fact that he violated a basic rule didn't enter his mind.

Rules were made to be broken, somebody has claimed. We act as if we believe it.

Somehow we figure on doing what we want without much regard for the rules. We seem to think we can go our way walking on the wrong side of the road.

It's up to God to look out for us.

Trouble when it comes hits us by surprise since we didn't know it was coming. Our back was toward it. The fault must be God's since he didn't give us a warning.

All the warning we really needed was given on the sign. A simple basic rule offering good advice—"Walk on the left, facing traffic." Then there's less chance of your getting caught by surprise.

Gelman Firm Develops New Multi-Use Product

Gelman Instrument Co. now located in Scio township, announced this week that the firm has developed a new material, a vinyl-nylon product, which has the effect of "breathing" while at the same time being water-repellent.

Called "Acropor" it is lightweight and contains "millions of pores less than 1/50,000th of an inch in diameter." A woven-nylon backing makes the material very strong, the announcement states.

The material is already in use as a high-strength filter material, but Gelman scientists are finding new uses for it such as hospital bed and crib sheets, auto seat covers, hammocks and folding chairs. All of these, because of the "breathing" element, add to the comfort of their use by eliminating the perspiration caused by the "non-breathable" materials from which such products are conventionally made.

The announcement of the new material states that sheets made of "breathable" Acropor should also reduce labor, laundering, and supply costs in hospitals by ending the need for both a mattress cover and sheet for each bed.

Buick '65 Buick

We changed the Buick a lot this year. And you may never be the same again yourself.

We doubt you'll want to be the same. Not once you set eyes on our new Buicks.
On the Buick Special and the Skylark. The LeSabre, Electra 225, Riviera.
And on the sleek, modified fastback of the wild, wilder, Wildcat in the picture.
True, there's a new high-style touch. But that's hardly all. Engineering still has the emphasis. It's a Buick tradition. So are the extras Buick spends a little extra on. Like finned brake drums that do a little better.
And smoother drivelines. A tuned suspension to smooth ribcage roads.
Now add Buick's Super Turbine transmissions—and you have an idea of what Buick owners have always liked about Buick. We think you'll feel the same.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick

Wheat Program Signup Details Being Modified

Winter wheat growers who sign up this fall to participate in the 1965 wheat program will be able to change their diversion or overplanting intentions any time before the close of the feed grain signup next spring, Max M. Kalmbach, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today.

This is being done so that winter wheat growers will have the same opportunity as spring wheat and feed grain growers in selecting a cropping pattern based on feed grain program and other information available at signup time next spring.

The chairman pointed out that the major purpose of prompt signup is to qualify a producer for the wheat program's price-support loans and for diversion and certificate payments — the signup is the first step for participating in the 1965 wheat program.

For 1965, the diversion programs offer participating growers the privilege of substituting wheat for feed grains or feed grains for wheat while still qualifying for certain benefits of the two programs. Growers of winter wheat who wish to take part in the 1965 Wheat Program need to file program applications by the Oct. 2 signup deadline.

AGRICULTURE in ACTION

by M. L. Woell

★ Search Is On for Outstanding Farmer

The search for Michigan's Outstanding Young Farmer is off to a fast start according to officials of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the event.

With typical enthusiasm, Michigan "Jaycees" are busily promoting the search for the state's best young farmers, who in keeping with rules must be between the ages of 21 and 35.

This year the Lansing Chapter of the Jaycees were successful in their bid to host the big state event, scheduled for the Capital city in March.

Meanwhile, Michigan Junior Chamber leaders are determined that the coming contest will be filled with a long list of eligible candidates from all parts of the state.

Program planning is the big thing right now with some Chapters confident of 15 to 20 top candidates in their local event. "We are amazed at the number of qualified candidates," reports one project chairman.

Who makes the nominations? Anyone may, but most rural activity seems to center around County Farm Bureau offices where those who have a candidate in mind may report. Prospect-names are passed along to local Jaycee Chapters for official action.

To the delight of the sponsors, it is not uncommon for the wives of young farmers to nominate their husbands. Such acts of faith are considered one of the best endorsements by the Jaycees.

Following nomination, there are forms to fill, a two-hour interview with each candidate and a complete check of farming practices. Farm records are gone over as are civic and business activities. About 45 of the 100 points on the score-card are devoted to what is loosely termed "service to humanity" —meaning participation in church, farm organization activity, community betterment and social affairs.

Three judges single out the "most outstanding" candidate from each local Chapter area and these in turn are eligible for the state contest in March.

The board of education passed a resolution, 6-1, to support the proposal on the November ballot which would fix school allocations from the county along with the other political entities as follows: 11.22, schools; 5.50, county; 1.16, townships; .12 Intermediate School District, for a total of 18.00 mills.

This is in line with the new State Constitution which permits counties to levy a total of 18 instead of 15 mills based on voter approval.

Approval given to pay bills amounting to $23,157.00.

The board again wants the groups of the district to be aware that all members are available for special group meetings for explanation of the January 1965, votes on the proposed bond issue.
