$650,000 Addition Slated for Proving Grounds Garage

Construction Work Will Begin In Early Spring

Construction is slated to begin in the spring on a $650,000 addition to a main garage and office building at the Chelsea Proving Grounds, Chrysler Corp. announced last week.

The addition will consist of a 300x600-foot building and a 135x70 foot connecting structure. Completion of the addition is scheduled for the fall.

The Chelsea Proving Grounds covers 4,000 acres and is used to test cars and trucks prior to mass production.

B. W. Bogan, Chrysler vice-president and director of engineering, says that the larger area will provide an enlarged base of operations for persons involved with developing fuel systems, brakes, steering and suspension systems, shock absorbers, and exhaust systems.

Bogan also said that new equipment will be installed to correlate proving grounds and laboratory evaluations of car noise and vibration characteristics.

Bond Issue Explained to Kiwanians

School Board president Luther Kusterer was the principal speaker at Monday evening's Kiwanis meeting.

He told the group in detail the reasons he felt it imperative that the proposed bond issue for construction of 10 new classrooms at Chelsea High school should not meet with defeat as it did last year. Program chairman Robert Foster introduced the speaker.

Art Stoll, introduced by George Staffan, was one of the dinner guests present; Dr. James Shadoan and Gene Miller were introduced by Dr. Clare Warren. Key Club member, Jay Livingston, was introduced by the Rev. John Fall while Keri Lofquist was Harold Jones' guest.

The Rev. Livingston announced the memorial service to be held for Ray Schultz at the Congregational church Monday evening.

Council Briefs

Chelsea Village Council met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Council Chambers. The meeting was presided over by President Howard Haselschwardt.

A public hearing was held before the meeting on a rezoning request submitted by Neil Fahrner. The rezoning request was approved.

There was a discussion held with George Knickerbocker, William Blaess and Jess Meininger representing St. Paul's church. Information was desired by the church group as to the possibility of the village sewer, water and electric facilities for the new church site. The committee was assured of village electric facilities, but inasmuch as the area involved is not within village limits no official action could be taken at this time as for the water and sewer.

Discussion was held with Fire Chief James Gaken regarding the rate of insurance coverage for members of the Chelsea Fire Department. No official action was taken at this time.

Motion was made to authorize a 10 cents per hour increase in salary to Floyd Roderick effective Feb. 1, 1965.

Chelsea Fire Loss for '64 Hits $119,176

Chelsea area's fire loss during 1964 totaled $119,176.

According to Chief James Gaken's records, the department made 139 runs. This was only one more call than they answered the previous year.

Of the total loss from fire, dwellings accounted for $50,350 and other buildings $13,500. There was a $50,826 loss on contents of buildings with $25,716 in the dwellings and $25,110 in other buildings.

Miscellaneous losses amounted to $4,450.

In spite of the total calls during the years 1964 and 1963 being almost the same, the fire loss last year was far less than in 1963 when $209,165 worth of Chelsea area property went up in flames.

The big percentage, 92, of last year's calls were to grass fires. Ten dwellings caught fire, seven autos were damaged, a house trailer burned and there was a fire at the pumping station.

Four false alarms were included in the remaining calls, as were seven rescue runs and 17 miscellaneous runs.

Sylvan township was responsible for the greatest number of fires with 44 calls. Lima followed with 31, and Chelsea had 21. Lyndon's share was 18. Eight runs were to Sharon, three to Freedom, six to Dexter township and eight to Waterloo.

The department stayed for two days fighting one of the fires—

Cagers Hit Century Mark

With six men scoring in double figures Tuesday evening, the Bulldogs swarmed over Brighton to the tune of 100-80 in a non-conference game.

This was the fourth successive win for the improving Bulldogs and evened their season record at 6-6.

After getting off to an early lead the Bulldogs kept hitting from the field and were never behind. They connected on 41 field goals in 81 shots for a .506 shooting average. 13 of the 14 men who played added to the team's scoring total with Charles Schmunk getting 16. Jim Cameron and Gary Dresch 13 each, Mike Tarasow 11, and Dave Clark and Gary Houle 10 each.

Brighton's Bruce Evenson netted 45 points for his team's losing cause.

The Little Bulldogs took a 67-56 decision in the preliminary game to make it an all-Chelsea night.

Three awards were presented at the annual "Bosses Night" held Tuesday, Feb. 2 at St. Barnabas church.

"Bosses Night" is held each year by the Chelsea Jaycees as an expression of appreciation for the support and co-operation Jaycees receive from their bosses. Jaycees point out that through the year their employees are co-operative in permitting members time to devote to club activities, and by contributing material and financial support to their projects.

Larry Chapman, last year winner of the Distinguished Service Award, presented this year's DSA award to George Staffan. Staffan, 25, was selected for the honor by a panel of impartial judges on the basis of his record of service to the community.

Staffan, as a Jaycee member, has served as treasurer and member of the board of directors. He has been a director of the Kiwanis club, and also served as director of the 1964 Community Chest. He was Chelsea chairman for the 1964 Michigan Week observance.

Staffan started a new Chrysler dealership for this area last year and last week held a grand opening of his new building. He is married and the father of two daughters, a member of St. Mary's Catholic church, and the Knights of Columbus, in addition to his Kiwanis and Jaycees memership.

Staffan is a 1957 graduate of Chelsea High school. While a student at Eastern Michigan University he was a member of Kappa Phi Alpha social fraternity. He is a graduate of the School of Mortuary Science at Wayne State University.

Trinkle has built and designed a hog barn and a hayrack extension for his truck. He raises corn, wheat, oats, and hay, steers, lambs and dairy cows.

On his farm, Trinkle has built a pond, deepened and widened a creek and a lake is in the planning stage.

While a youth Trinkle was very active in the FFA holding several offices during his five-year membership. He has belonged to the Farm Bureau for nine years, the Michigan Milk Producers Association for six years, and for nine years has been a member of the Lutheran church.

Trinkle and his wife, Shirley, are the parents of two children.

Fred Mills, Chelsea mathematics teacher, was presented the Outstanding Young Educator award by Dan Maroney, Jaycee District V vice-president.

Mills 25, is married, a graduate of Stockbridge High school, and earned his BS degree cum laude from Eastern Michigan University in 1962. Bulldogs Move Into Tie for League Lead

Four Teams Now Have Identical 4-2 Records To Share Conference Lead

Chelsea's Bulldogs moved into a tie for first place last Friday in the Southeastern conference with a stunning 82 to 76 victory over the Dundee Vikings at Dundee. Chelsea is deadlocked with Dexter, South Lyon and Dundee with identical 4-2 records.

In defeating Dundee the Bulldogs avenged an earlier 82-64 loss here at Chelsea.

The Bulldogs played their best game of the year, displaying fine shooting (36 out of 68 from the floor for a 53 percent average), nearly flawless play and only three passes misthrown), and strong rebounding (beating Dundee on the boards, 41-30).

The first quarter saw the Bulldogs race to a 22-16 lead. Jim Cameron, Charles Schmunk, and Dennis Stoffer led the scoring—Stoffer hitting for seven points, and Cameron and Schmunk, 6 each. Sharp-shooting Bob Kroeger scored 10 for Dundee.

Charles Schmunk led the Chelsea attack with nine points in the second quarter as the Bulldogs maintained a four-point lead at half-time, 37-33. Despite a man-to-man defense on Ron Boldt and Bob Kroeger they managed to score 8 and 6 points, respectively.

In the third quarter the Bulldogs lost their lead and saw Dundee take it by two points at the end of the quarter. Boldt and Kroeger continued to be thorns in the Bulldogs hide as they pumped in 9 and 6 points. Schmunk scored 6 for Chelsea.

Holding their poise the Bulldogs outscored the Vikings, 25-17, in the final quarter to wrap up the game.

Sharpshooting by Jim Cameron, who scored 10 points, continually put pressure on Dundee. Fine rebounding by Stoffer, Schmunk, Windell and Tarasow allowed Dundee to get only one attempt at the Basket when they got the ball. Kroeger continued to score for Dundee as he got eight more points. But his teammates were unable to supply the extra help needed to counteract the Chelsea attack.

The team spirit displayed by the Bulldogs has been very instrumental in putting them into first place. The game of basketball can be played effectively only if there is a group of individuals working as a team. The bulldogs are beginning to display the idea of team play very well. Even those players who do not see much action feel pleased when the team is winning. This attitude is necessary to carry the spirit through-

Dimes Drive Total Nears $2,000 Mark

The March of Dimes total to date shows $1,987.27 collected for the cause of birth defects, according to the campaign chairman, Mrs. Merle Leach.

Mrs. Leach anticipates that late donations will continue to come in, boosting the total even further. She expressed her appreciaion for the excellent co-operation the community gave her in the drive.

Rumors Fly Concerning Water Study

Local farmers have been speculating as to how a rumored waterway or reservoir along the north and south branches of Mill Creek might affect their farms in Lima and Scio townships—and when—or if.

Mill Creek is part of the Huron River Watershed which is currently receiving extensive study.

No one will know the "if" until 1968, according to the Washtenaw County Planning Commission. And even then the only "if" they will be sure of is IF the government will make an extensive study into the plan to build a reservoir.

To help answer some of the questions area farmers have and some of the wild rumors, Lima Township Supervisor Leigh Beach has arranged a meeting of all interested persons at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 16 The gathering will meet at Lima Community Hall.

Representatives from the Washtenaw County Planning Commission and the U. S. Corps of Engineers will be present to explain details and purpose of the preliminary study.

At present the U. S. Corps of Engineers is making a preliminary study that will determine by 1968 whether or not a bonafide study should be made. The preliminary study should determine how the benefits of such a reservoir would relate to its cost, and what functions it might be expected to perform.

The engineers will survey to find what the flood lines would be. Some physical tests have

FFA Chapter Observes 30th Anniversary of Founding

Chelsea chapter of Future Farmers of America celebrated the 30th anniversary of its founding Monday night.

It was Feb. 4, 1935 when the chapter was chartered. Ted Lyon organized it "for those interested in agricultural work." The 1935 school annual said the organization's purpose "is to create better social and cultural conditions."

Wayne Harvey was the first president of the chapter that has shown continual growth throughout the 30 years. N. H. Miles (in 1941) was the first of approximately 25 State Farmers to emerge from the Chelsea group. It is anticipated that five more may be named this year.

Among the many outstanding winning teamst hrough the years, one was the Livestock Team which went to the national finals in Kansas City last year and the Parliamentary Procedure team which took second place in the state contest in 1964. The win was the 15th in succession for Chelsea over all other Washtenaw county schools.

Other officers of the original chapter in addition to Harvey were Robert Gilbert, vice-president; Alton Koengeter, secretary; and Allen Broesamle, treasurer.

In addition, those boys were charter members: Tom Alexander, Vincent Ives, Loren Beutler, Clarence Ottoman, Tom Taylor, Walter Ottoman, George Prinzing, Ralph Clinton and Paul Bristle.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

This is the first of a number of articles in which I would like to discuss the various aspects and problems of traffic safety.

Michigan's traffic accident record during this past year was tragic.

The demanding and foreboding reasons that prompted my Special Message on Traffic Safety last year still haunt us today.

My grave concern over our worsening traffic accident situation prompts me to emphasize this problem to you again this year and to urge immediate and decisive action.

Lives snuffed out in traffic accidents during 1964 are estimated now at 2,125 — the third worst highway death toll in our state's history. Not since 1941, when 2,133 persons lost their lives in Michigan traffic, have we seen such carnage on our highways; and delayed returns may well make last year our second worst year, surpassing even 1941.

These deaths represent the sad "Michigan Massacre" on our highways—yet traffic has taken other deplorable, frightening tolls on our roads. A new high of 145,000 injuries and 285,000 reported accidents are predicted for last year when all counts are completed.

How much of this toll is a "Massacre of Innocents?". Statistics can't tell us precisely how many of those killed or injured suffered and died through no fault or error of their own. Yet we do know that all too many are the innocent victims of someone else's thoughtless or wanton disregard for the welfare and the rights of others on our highways.

Moreover, in addition to untold pain and suffering, these traffic mishaps represent an estimated economic cost of at least $380 million to Michigan and its citizens.—That represents an average loss of well over $1 million a day!

Now, we look back upon a year that represents the second consecutive year in which our record shows drastic increases in all classes of traffic accidents. The facts are these:

Traffic deaths in 1964 increased 13 percent over 1962 . . . and they increased 35 percent over 1961!

Traffic injuries, up 14 percent over 1963 . . . up 34 percent over 1962!

Property damage only accidents, an increase of 9 percent over 1963 . . . and an increase of 22 percent over 1962.

Our economic losses increased 12 percent over 1963 . . . and 33 percent over 1962.

By comparison, motor vehicle registrations in 1964 increased 6 percent over 1963, and 10 percent over 1962. Licensed drivers increased 3 percent over 1963, and 5 percent over 1962. Miles driven were 7 percent over 1963, and 13 percent over 1962.

The significance of these figures is both real and inescapable. The traffic toll in Michigan—as represented by our increases in deaths, injuries, accidents and economic costs—has risen at a pace almost three times faster than has exposure represented by the increases in motor vehicles, licensed drivers and miles driven!

These sharp increases are a continuation of upward trends that began to show themselves in certain areas of our traffic record four years ago. The signs were there four years ago, yet we failed to heed them and we have failed to turn the trend downward.

Michigan is careening along a dangerous road. We are in danger of becoming one of the unsafest of the larger states of our nation!

We must find new ways to reverse these disastrous trends—to stem the tide before our traffic toll surges even higher.

All of this is in spite of modest gains in increased enforcement and driver improvement and in spite of an aggressive superhighway building program that is a national pacesetter.

It's obvious that our past efforts have not been enough!

We have failed to keep pace with increased numbers of cars and drivers on our streets and highways. During 1964, 4,400,000 licensed drivers in 3,800,000 registered vehicles drove a record 48 billion miles.

The Other Foot

Dialogue remained the same, but the participants traded scripts in the early days of the 1965 legislative session.

When committee assignments were announced, this session it was the Republican members who claimed they were the victims of unequal representation.

In past sessions, year after year, the Democrats complained they never got representation on committees proportionate to their strength in the Legislature. These were the years Republicans held majority control.

Tables turned this year and House Minority Leader Robert Waldron was given the role of chief complainer about committee assignments.

Waldron apparently didn't feel he should issue a blanket complaint. He concentrated instead on the important committees, the same ones which Democrats had attempted to gain members in recent sessions when the partisan House division was nearly equal.

Democrats this year increased the Ways and Means Committee, most powerful in the House to 16 members. This is three above previous sessions, but the minority party still was given only four seats.

This important committee dispute was the only major complaint Waldron voiced, although in past sessions Democrats said they were also short-changed in two other areas.

Democrats long and loudly lamented that ruling Republicans refused to accept their recommendations for committee assignment of their own party members. Waldron said he was pleased his recommendations for GOP member placements were accepted this year.

The other traditional complaint, proportionate division of committees, found Waldron straddling the fence. He said Democrats "came close to the Republican-Democratic ratio of the total House membership" but "fell short of fair" on the more important working units.

Growing Problem

Mental health must be allowed to remain an independent unit of state government, according to an advisory council serving in this area.

Being the largest government agency already, the council said, "Any further combining of the Department with other departments would interfere with its ability to deliver quality service, rather than strengthen it."

Goals of the department's new director, Robert A. Kimmich, are set high for the next few years. He says it could be possible to eliminate the waiting list of committed patients within two years and sharply decrease the waiting list of retarded persons.

These possibilities, of course, would be contingent upon full financial support from the Legislature for the department's budget requests and retention of a separate mental health unit.

If the sheer facts of size do not convince legislators this department should remain untouched, the advisory council has served notice it will further back up its argument.

"All of the more populous states, with the exception of Pennsylvania and Ohio, administer their mental health programs through separate departments of mental health or mental hygiene," council officials said, as part of their supporting argument.

School Need

Professional educators, looking to Lansing for a major boost in funds this year, point first to a continuing percentage drop in state aid during the past 15 years.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett says that since 1950-51, the state's share in aid for all purposes dropped from 52 to 41 percent.

In operational costs alone, the head of the Michigan Association of School Administrators notes that state aid was 58 per cent until five years ago and is now down to about 46 percent.

Rising costs and the population explosion are heavily burdening local school districts. On this point educators fully agree.

The rash of school millage proposal defeats recently and currently curtailed educational programs "makes it both obvious and imperative" that local school costs are excessive and must be relieved at the state level, according to Bartlett.

An estimated 2 million students are now attending public schools in Michigan and enrollments are increasing by about 55,000 annually so educators see no effective relief except from state government.

The individual who does you a kindness is entitled to a kindness from you, some day, some way.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

If President Johnson aims to balance the budget he'll have to git busy and turn off more lights and tell Secretary McNamara to close down a few more shipyards. The signs was pointing definite in that direction.

First off, I see by the papers where the $33,000 the Navy spent for studying flying submarines was paying off. They was working on a model now they claim might do the trick, shoot up out of the water, drop a bomb, and scoot back under the ocean. Whether it works or not, you can figger on a few million for this project. And it ain't but one step from there to studying battleships that can operate under water like submarines. That'll take a few more millions.

But the big news in the papers last week was where the Commissioner of the District of Columbia was planning to rebuild about half the city of Washington. He has called in a feller named R. J. Neutra that is a expert on planning and building cities and the news he got from him was all bad. He says our nation's capital looks like slums compared to the capitals of other big countries. He claims Washington looks so "poverty-stricken it was sapping the life" out of Guvernment workers. Federal employees, he says, will just git "more and more irritated until they finally go nuts!" The Commissioner agreed with him 100 percent and they was now working on plans to submit to the Congress to "rebuild Washington to the point where it will catch up with other world capitals."

I brung this item up at the country store Saturday night and some of the fellers was pro and some was con in the matter. Ed Doolittle was of the opinion the sap in a heap of them Guvernment workers was already down to the danger point. Farthermore, he allowed, we can't stand no more nuts in the nation's capital. He figgered we had ought to git started on this rebuilding job right away, afore we started the crusade agin poverty and winning the war in Vietnam.

Clem Webster was in favor of rebuilding but he was disagreed with Ed over the timing, claimed they ain't no hurry as long as them Guvernment agencies has got spending projects on the planning board. He allowed as how a Federal agency with a $50 million project going was as happy as burial folks with a $3,000 funeral and wasn't in no danger of the sap running down.

Zeke Grubb went along with Clem, said the situation in Washington would hold up as long as the spending projects was holding out. He claimed it was always bad strategy to git in front of a goat, behind a mule, or crossways with a Federal agency working on a spending project.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Chelsea vicinity registered temperatures as low as 10 or 13 below.

Middle St. Jerome E. Johnson, manager for the company, said the building is expected to be completed about March 1. Dial service is scheduled to start here early next summer.

Oscar D. Schneider, life-long resident of this community and associated with Chelsea's business interests for 27 years died suddenly early Wednesday morning of a heart attack at his home, 610 S. Main St.

From the 24 Years Ago column Thursday, Feb. 1, 1917: The chief social event of the winter in Grass Lake was the patriotic banquet held Thursday evening in honor of Dr. Faye Palmer, who has returned from the Mexican border as a first lieutenant of the 31st Michigan Regiment.

Thursday, Jan. 29, 1931—

Burglars entered the department store of Vogel and Wurster early this morning and took merchandise valued at $800. to $1,000. Entrance to the building was gained by forcing the lock on a rear door. The proprietors were unable to give an exact estimate of the amount of all goods stolen, but all of the silk dress and kimona stock was gone from the second floor. The only clues were a glove and a crow bar.

John Roberts, Dexter centanarian and the oldest resident of Washtenaw county, died Friday evening at his home in that village, after an illness of 10 days. Mr. Roberts had attained the remarkable age of 101 years.

Chief Cleansky, chief of the Iroquois tribes of Indians on reservations in the United States and Canada, addressed the local Kiwanis club at their Monday evening meeting. He gave a very interesting account of conditions on the reservations and the hardships to which the American Indian is subjected as a result of suppression by government agencies. There was a display of moccasins and other articles made by the Indians.

Coming as a surprise to the entire community, an announcement was made Tuesday of this week that the Rev. F. I. Walker of the Chelsea Methodist church would be transferred at once, to Flat Rock, a suburb of Detroit, and that the Rev. Harry Felton of Flat Rock would come to Chelsea. The Rev. Walker has served the local church successfully for three and one-half years.

With a standing of 94.6 percent for four years of high school work, Miss Frances Kantlehner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kantlehner, will be valedictorian of the senior class at graduation exercises in June, according to an announcement made public by Superintendent E. L. Clark this morning.

PTA Endorses Bond Issue for School Addition

A need for an addition to the Chelsea High school was the subject for discussion when the high school PTA met Wednesday, Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

The meeting was well attended and several members of the Board of Education gave their views on the subject of an addition, to be placed before the school district voters on Feb. 24.

The PTA unanimously gave their backing to the proposal which will add 10 classrooms to the high school.

Those attending thoroughly enjoyed a group of fifth grade students, who did square dances, under the direction of North School teacher Robert Benedict.

The Chelsea Jaycees meet the first Tuesday evening of each month at Stiver's Restaurant.

Memorial Service Held For Raymond J. Schultz

By the Rev. Robert Livingston

"We who are gathered here tonight are come to honor the memory of Raymond J. Schultz who lived among us here in Chelsea for about five years."

At the Memorial Service Monday evening at the First Congregational church the Rev. Livingston said, "I've never had a funeral service before where there were no mourners in the sense of immediate family or relatives, so this service will be unusual. I believe I'll tell you some thoughts about him that I've been jotting down over the days since he died.

"Here was a stranger in our midst, whom we knew, yet no one knew. Having no close relatives around he was a prime target for gossip with no person positive enough to put down the false rumors. Yet the amazing thing is that despite the fact that he felt picked on was that he was such a public-spirited person.

"When you consider his difficulties Ray Schultz should have been soured on life and become a recluse, but he didn't. He was wonderfully willing to serve the public interests of his adopted community—Chelsea.

"He suffered physically with his hands and feet. Standing on a ladder painting got to be torture to his feet. Handling a brush or his buffing or scrubbing machine with his sore hands and fingers was sometimes impossible.

"Besides this he had circulatory trouble that he was told was to be treated with small amounts of alcohol. But since he had been a member for 28 years of Alcoholics Anonymous he couldn't consider that medication. He told me that in his "drinking days" he had never been able to take one drink; never able to stop short of getting insensibly drunk. But with the help of AA he quit completely and never went back—not one drink. So here he had to suffer with his troubles and I wonder how could he think about others when he was in such pain?

"He was afraid of the physical deterioration he could see, but he was also afraid of the way people were talking about him and he couldn't show them where they were wrong. It is amazing with this type of oppressive feelings he let himself get involved in so many people's lives.

"When I came to Chelsea about two years ago he had all the work he could handle and besides was involved in several AA meetings a week and helping with the boys AA group at Cassidy Lake, and refinishing the floors of the Co-operative Nursery.

"Bowling was always fun for Ray and despite the pain that often came to his fingers and feet he very much enjoyed the weekly league games and wanted everyone in on the fun too.

"Within a few months after I was inducted in the Chelsea Kiwanis club, Ray came in also. He was quiet at the meetings, but enjoyed the fellowship here also. He helped on committee work and was willing to take any job or responsibility. In fact, this is the major thing that can be said about him . . . Ray Schultz was willing to serve his community. When the club met in the Methodist church he asked if he couldn't refinish their basement floor for the cost of materials. He did and when the club moved to this church he came to me and asked if he couldn't scrub, seal and re-wax our tile floors in the room where the club meets. After Christmas this year he scrubbed the social room rugs and for all of this he billed the church only for the actual supplies used . . . and he "forget" to bill us for the one small painting job we asked him to do.

"Whenever he did something he asked me not to tell anyone . . . was almost angry when I thanked him in our church paper "Open Door" for what he did for the P. F. group.

When the church youth group decided to put on a spaghetti supper for a get-acquainted meeting this year we couldn't think of anyone willing to cook for such a small group for profit or so large a group for the fun of it. Then I remembered that Ray had told me he had cooked for some 15 years for the Army Reserves in Ohio on their summer encampments. He said "sure" he'd be glad to do it. He asked the kids to pick up some ice cream and milk and then he bought and prepared all the rest. It was a delicious meal. When they went to pay him he refused to take any pay . . . even refusing to take reimbursement for the food. The young people asked him why. He said that God had done so much for him in helping him lick drinking that he owed Him his whole life since . . . and this was one of the few ways he could do something for God's church. He told them to use it for some good cause, maybe inviting some kids to eat who wouldn't be able to afford it. A few weeks ago the P.F. group sent the money to feed hungry and cure the sick through our mission programs.

"When the Boy Scouts' honor camping organization, the Order of the Arrow needed a cook at last minute for their winter Banquet at Camp Newkirk. I immediately thought of Ray. Sure They told him how much they could pay for serving over 200 men and boys. After the tasty banquet was served I told the men in charge that he'd probably leave as soon as it was served and his job was done . . . in case they wanted to say anything to him. They caught him and the boys cheered his cooking as well as his wise estimate of the quantity to cook for hungry boys. Afterwards the men came to me saying that he refused to take any pay . . . for his many hours of shopping, his preparation of the food and several trips on at least two different days. They asked me what to do for him and I explained that I thought that more than anything else he wanted to be useful and of service . . . and that a letter thanking him would be appreciated.

"He told me once of losing a bunch of such fan letters one time and how their loss really hit him. The scouts decided to recommend that the Order of the Arrow give him a plaque engraved in appreciation.

"One experience last summer shows how difficult it was to embitter him on people. A "gentleman of the road" (a tramp) came to the parsonage and wanted a meal. We gave him a sandwich and a cup of coffee on the porch and asked him where he was going. He told us and mentioned that he used to be a painter. I asked him if he'd like me to call a local painter who had been trying to get my son to help him the day before. He said he had sore feet but he'd try and I called Ray. Ray, said "sure send him down to the hotel" and he'd come over after bowling and pay for his room . . . even if he couldn't help much because of his sore feet. When I checked the next day Ray had paid his bill for the hotel room, given him some money for breakfast, given him a set of coveralls . . . and then never saw him again. I blamed myself for misjudging him and tried to tell Ray I was sorry and would share the expenses with him. Ray wouldn't hear of it. Said he had been down on his luck many a time when he'd needed a friend and made me promise that if anyone ever needed a meal or room or someone to talk to, to always call him.

"Just before his heart attack, he was still working but he didn't want to quit. He visited his kids with nice gifts at Christmas time, "because he could afford it." He had been telling me almost apologetically for a year how much he appreciated the fellowship of a Tuesday Breakfast discussion group at the Methodist church. And finally a few weeks ago he called me from the hospital to tell me to bring down an application, he wanted to join the church this coming Sunday.

"Here was a man, a man with weaknesses that merely showed his strengths. A man with weaknesses who accomplished much more than many men with power and position and abilities far beyond his. Here was a man who should have been bitter, ingrown . . . but who instead was often willing to serve, and be used to help his fellow man."

ROBIN HOOD IN JAIL

Evansville, Ind. — Evansville police dispatcher thought he had received a call from a prankster when the party said, "My name is Robin Hood. Are you looking for me?" He told the caller no, but he thought the Sheriff of Nottingham was looking for him. Later that day, Robin E. Hood, 23, Davenport, Iowa, surrendered at headquarters saying he was wanted for car theft.

OIL IN HIS YARD

Los Angeles — Rodion Slipyj noticed a pool of oil under his backporch and an investigation revealed the oil was coming from an underground pool. A city ordinance prohibits drilling for oil, so Slipyj built a seepage tank 10 feet deep and 20 feet square. Once a week 2,000 gallons of good quality crude oil is removed. The company that has a contract to buy the oil sends a royalty check for $125 every week.

Nine Recruits Start Sheriff's Training Course

New Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey's four-week training program began this week at the County Jail for nine recruits to the Sheriff's Department.

The comprehensive program will be conducted by such instructors as command officers from the Sheriff's Department, Michigan State Police and Ann Arbor Police Department, representatives of the county prosecutor's staff, the two Circuit Court judges and the city's Municipal Court judge, Sheriff Harvey said.

The recruits will receive instruction on accident investigation, laws of arrest, criminal investigation, court procedure, pistol shooting, self-defense, and handling of juvenile offenders.

The sheriff said the nine recruits have passed written qualification tests and have had their personal backgrounds investigated. Part of the background investigation included interviews of the wives of the candidates to make certain that they were in agreement with their husbands entering police work, Sheriff Harvey said.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By Repr. Thomas G. Sharpe

The 73rd Session of the Michigan Legislature is now off the ground, amid wide and vocal speculation as to the prospects for a productive and harmonious year. While bipartisanship prevailed during the two-day organizational meeting, many of my friends who profess to be capitol veterans were cautiously optimistic about the continuation of this honeymoon atmosphere.

Such reluctance may well have some foundation, as this is a year of great change. Of the 148 legislators who took the oath of office, 73 are freshmen. Although a Republican administration remains, the legislature is heavily dominated by Democrats for the first time since 1933. The party line-up in the House is 71 Democrats and 37 Republicans — in the Senate, 23 Democrats and 14 Republicans.

Although the Republicans will be in the minority, we will be a positive force for the Governor's programs. I believe it will be our responsibility to lead in the building of bipartisan support for furthering the tremendous progress developed over the past two years.

Highlight of the second day was Governor Romney's State of the State message. The Republican reaction to his message was one of enthusiasm and high praise. Our caucus chairman and Dean of the House, Republican Arnell Engstrom of Traverse City, summed up the minority response by saying In my 24 years of legislative experience I have yet to hear a governor present such an accurate assessment of the challenges we face as did Governor Romney."

RUSSIA AND A-BAN TREATY

The Soviet Union may have violated the limited nuclear test ban treaty as a result of an underground explosion recently in central Asia. The Atomic Energy Commission said the blast has produced some fallout in the northern Pacific over Japan. A full explanation has been requested from the Soviet Union.

been made in recent weeks. However, this preliminary study will only decide the feasibility of constructing such a reservoir which "would serve several purposes." How extensive it might be and when construction might start would not be known until after the preliminary study determines whether further investigation should be made at all.

That further investigation would reveal more definite answers to some pertinent questions.

FIRST GRADE, Mrs. Kelly—

Mrs. Kelly's first grade has been studying about Michigan. We can point out where we live places we've been and important places in our state. We have many nice maps and pictures that the children brought for us to enjoy.

SECOND GRADE, Mrs. Hanna—

The children in Mrs. Hanna's second grade are learning about winter. They have found leaf buds on tree branches and have brought them to school. Pine trees lose their "leaves" only a few at a time, and are green all year round. Winter brings changes. Some animals hibernate while others store food in the autumn for later use. Many birds migrate, such as robins and bluebirds. The children are making a booklet about winter.

FIRST GRADE, Mrs. Gower—

Our first grade has just begun a unit called "Musical Instruments and Their Sounds." We have listened to the "Carnival of Animals" by Saint-Saens and drawn pictures of the animals we heard. Next we will learn to associate the sounds with the instrument which produces them.

THIRD GRADE, Mrs. Fulks—

We have been studying about "How We Get Foods." Each one of us planted a string bean seed. We are eagerly waiting to see the first sprout, roots and blossom.

Debra Clark's grandmother sent us a lemon tree from Florida. It has nine buds on it. Do you suppose we will have nine lemons?

In English we have learned how to write letters correctly. Each one of us wrote a letter to our grandparents. When we receive the answers to our letters we brought them to school and read them to the class. Joyce Armstrong's grandmother lives in England and it cost 15 cents to mail her letter air mail.

ON DISARMAMENT AGENCY

President Johnson asked Congress to extend the life of the U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency for four years to "assure the continuing leadership of the United States in the purposeful pursuit of peace". He also requested $55 million for the agency's expenses during this period.

Horse to Tractor Era Will Be Contrasted at Farmers' Week

Farmers using the latest scientific farm equipment are in for some fun as well as education during the 50th anniversary of Farmers' Week, Feb. 1-5 on the Michigan State University campus.

The week-long Golden Anniversary agricultural engineering exhibit in the MSU Intramural Building will have 150 pieces of both old and new farm machinery. Visitors will be able to compare everything from Henry Ford's earliest model tractor to new four-wheel drive models. They can also view a 1915 hay baler which was used for baling sugar cane residue, waste paper and wood shavings. This can be compared with a 1965 model self-propelled hay baler.

More than 250 photographs will graphically illustrate old farm machines and equipment. Other exhibits will include:

—a modern poultry house along with a pre World War I chicken coop.

—a modern milk house and pantry used for processing milk 50 years ago.

—a reconstruction of a silo originally built in 1919 with a modern 30-foot diameter mechanized silo.

—grandma's kitchen equipped with a hand pump, cistern and cream separator. Comparisons can be made with a modern electric kitchen.

Tuesday will be "agricultural engineering" day in recognition of the importance of mechanization and engineering in today's modern agriculture.

Key speakers from agricultural engineering, dairy and industry along with successful farmers will discuss the concerns of the dairy farmer in relation to his buildings and management know-how during a morning session.

The Tuesday afternoon session will highlight poultry housing, equipment and ventilation. Rounding out the Tuesday program will be the annual evening agricultural engineering banquet.

Wednesday's program is designed to bring farmers up-to-date on tractors, imported farm machinery and research. Farm account records show that over 23 per cent of an operator's total annual expenditures are related to the purchase and operation of tractors and machinery.

Irrigation problems and swine layouts will be highlighted during the Thursday program.

All programs will be held in the MSU Agricultural Engineering building.

WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE "YES" On School Bond Issue

(FIRST IN A SERIES)

As an organization of civic-minded young men we feel duty bound to tell you about a serious problem facing the Chelsea community. Since 1958 the number of children attending our schools has increased over 21%. Already we are facing a problem of overcrowded classrooms, lack of facilities, and money to operate them.

Chelsea is an advancing community with industry increasing and new and better business practices being developed. Naturally we want our children to receive an education preparing them for the type of life and community in which they are going to live and raise their families. "Yes," we have to think about the future when dealing with a problem of this nature, because overcrowded classroom conditions are not alleviated by time, they only get worse.

On February 24th you will be given an opportunity to vote on a bond issue for the purpose of erecting, furnishing and equipping an additional high school building. For the children's sake and for the welfare of the community, we sincerely hope you will vote "YES" for this important proposal.

A lively discussion ensued with the group finding SOTCS to be a fascinating and hugely eminent problem.

BEEF BRISKE

Beef Brisket or boiling beef, as it is sometimes called, is an economical cut of meat. Flat, wedge-shaped and usually boneless, beef brisket varies in thickness from 2 inches at one end to about 5 at the other. High-quality brisket has a generous layer of fat between strips of lean. Long, low simmering until the meat is fork tender is recommended for this beef cut.

Methodist Home News Briefs

Members and staff of the Chelsea Methodist Home are most grateful for the many kindnesses given them during the recent holiday season. On three Sunday afternoons in December, choirs came to sing in the chapel. We always welcome each year the fine Choir from St. Matthew's church in Ypsilanti who came Dec. 13. On Dec. 20, the Clarkston Choir gave splendid Christmas music, and on Dec. 27, Allen Park Trinity sang a Christmas Cantata to an appreciative audience.

The Chelsea High school choir gave their Christmas program to us in the afternoon of Dec. 16th, which they sang that evening for the public. This choir is always welcome here and is a splendid group under good leadership. The kindergarten children from the Chelsea schools sang carols in the Lounge Dec. 17. They enjoyed seeing our trees and the farm buildings surrounding the trees.

The Mariam Circle from Ann Arbor First Church, came the stormy eveing of Dec. 10. Their Christmas party here is an annual event. This year, as they developed the Natiwity Scene, the members were delighted to see "The Mary" walk in carrying a real, live baby about three months old. "The Babe" should be the center of all thoughts and this little child seemed pleased to see some 100 admirers. The young mother told us afterwards: "I hope you don't mind, but this baby is a girl." We did not mind and adored this Babe.

The Home was honored in having as preacher on Sunday morning, Jan. 3, our District Supt. Dr. Joseph T. Edwards. Mrs. Edwards gave us a "flannelgraph" talk on the song: "Silent Night" on the evening of Dec. 29 which pleased a large audience. This method of illustration is most interesting and Mrs. Edwards has high skill in this medium of expression.

The Kiwanis Club brought to Chelsea on Jan. 14, Dave Rubinoff, himself, for an evening concert. Rubinoff is most generous with his time and talent, playing his priceless Stradivarius in the local schools and in our chapel for the members. For his accompaniment, Rubinoff carries electronic equipment which has recorded under ideal conditions the music of his repertoire. He is very friendly and informal with his audience, but when he plays, Dave Rubinoff is a master of the violin. This was an afternoon long to be remembered here. Many thanks to the Kiwanis club for making this possible.

Many thanks also to the groups who sent us gifts, interesting table decor and such delicious cookies. The cookies dressed up our suppers for several weeks.

Miss Ruth Jenkins, reporter.

Book Drive Launched for Southerners

The Chelsea Hi-Y club is having a book collection drive in connection with the Council of Federated Organizations. This organization, along with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and the National Council of Churches, is launching a "Peace Corps - type operation in the south in which teachers, students, nurses, legal advisors, and the like are staffing a many-sided program.

This program covers three main areas: (1) Freedom Schools in which Negroes will be given a basic education which will enable them to pass literacy tests so that they may be eligible to vote. (2) Community centers which will feature vocational training programs. (3) Voter registration drives designed to encourage the Negro to utilize democratic means for protecting his rights and meeting his needs.

Purpose of this drive is to collect books from any age level and on any subject (ie. text books novels, children's books) for use in the Freedom Schools.

Hi-Y members will be going from door to door collecting books on Saturday, Feb. 13. To insure the success of this drive, it is hoped that local residents will have their books ready for collections so that there will be no delay in collecting them.

Okay, so you hate Mondays

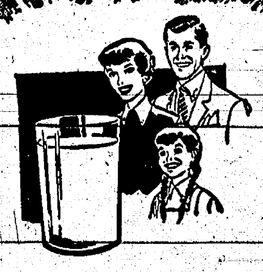

Well really, who could blame you? It's the beginning of another week of those daily chores it takes to be a good wife and mother. Mondays are also blue washdays. And what's fun about that? Toting a heavy load of wash out to the clothesline is enough to discourage a weight lifter. Then, too, the weather controls your washday schedule.

Why let it? Look at the brighter side. With a new automatic Gas dryer you just set the dial and forget it. AND, a Gas dryer will dry five loads of wash for the cost it takes to dry just one load with the other kind of dryer. So, forget about the weather. Find out for yourself how quickly you'll begin looking forward to Mondays.

Go on . . . get happy. See the latest Gas dryers now on display at dealer or Gas Company showrooms. You'll be glad you did. In fact, you'll wish you had yesterday. Easy terms arranged.

JV Cagers Split Pair Of Decisions

The Junior Varsity defeated the Jackson High school sophomores, 43-37, Wednesday evening, Jan. 20 at Jackson. Again it was a good second half which saved the game for the Little Bulldogs. Trailing, 24 to 14, at half-time the Bulldogs scored 29 points while holding Jackson to 13 in the second half.

High scorer for the Bulldogs was Dan Parsons with 13; John Lixey added 11, Don Salyer 5, Kim Flintoft 4, Jim Henry 4, Bill Harvey 2, Tom Kern 2, Larry Porath 1, and Jeff Hitchingham 1.

Bill Harvey led all rebounders with 10, Dan Parsons collected 8, Don Salyer 7, John Lixey 5, Jim Henry 4, Larry Porath 4, Kim Flintoft 3, Jeff Hitchingham 3, Dave Blaess 3 and Rick Salyer 2.

A cold third quarter spelled defeat for the Junior Varsity against Saline Friday night, Jan. 22. Trying to overcome an 11-point deficit, the Little Bulldogs could muster only 7 points in the third period. The final score was 58 to 53.

Dan Parsons and Bill Harvey again led all scorers with 14 each. Dan Salyer pushed in 8, Kim Flintoft 6, John Lixey 8, Rick Salyer 2, Dave Baless 2, Jim Henry 2, and Wes Stinchelfer 2.

Wrestling Team Gets Revenge for Loss to Dexter

Chelsea wrestling squad won one and lost one in recent meets. Tuesday night, Jan. 19 they dropped a close one at Monroe Catholic Central, 23-21. The lead see-sawed back and forth, but Chelsea was not able to hold onto the 21-20 lead they had going into the last match.

Chelsea winners were: Bill Lounsbury (95) 13-6 dec.; Mike Funderburgh (112) fall, Mike Hendricks (120) 4-1 dec.; Neil Colvia (165) fall; Dick McCalla (180) fall.

School Board Gains Support From PTA

Wednesday night Jan. 27, School Board president Luther Kusterer and secretary Robert Foster presented a portion of the program at the meeting of the Chelsea PTA. After explanation of the Feb. 24 bond proposal, members of the organization unanimously passed a resolution to support the proposal. They expressed the desire to have this on public record along with other area clubs and organizations in the Chelsea JCC promotion material.

Several questions were asked. Probably one of the most important one was why do we need an addition at the "New High School" when the more "visible" need is at the Junior High School?

President Kusterer answered that this was a unanimous decision of the seven member board for these reasons:

(1) The Board of Education recognizes the need for a new Junior High school facility and for the need of four additional elementary rooms. There is a committee now considering possible future sites for the Junior High.

(2) The Senior High school has all rooms full every hour of the day except the home economics room and a portion of the shop which have an open period.

(3) The visual aids room is being used full time for classes. This is a room with no windows and especially designed for visual aids purposes.

(4) The Junior High school will send approximately 70-80 more students into the high school next year and the following year. This means that existing classes will become over-crowded for optimum teaching conditions.

(5) The science and commercial classes need to be expanded to meet the demands of job requirements in today's labor force.

(6) A special education room (paid for by the county) is needed since they now hold their class in the faculty dining area. This room is un-equipped.

On Feb. 24, the electorate will vote on a bond proposal for three mills for three years to build the 10-room, $240,000 addition to the senior high school.

Fire Hazards Exist Everywhere Around the Home

Almost anything around a farm or home, including a television antenna, could be a fire hazard says Don Hinderer, president of the Chelsea Chapter of Future Farmers of America.

An antenna vibrates badly on windly days. If it is anchored to the chimney, this vibration can crack the mortar and make an opening for sparks from the chimney to enter the attic space. It is best to anchor an antenna somewhere else.

Fire prevention is the best way to keep fire damage low, but it is wise to have a good fire extinguisher close at hand. A Michigan State University safety engineer recommends a dry chemical pressurized powder fire extinguisher for homes, trucks, and tractors. A 2½- to 5-pound size with "Underwriters Laboratories Inspected" stamped on the name plate is adequate.

Sometimes we dismiss a fire loss as some sort of bad luck which was unavoidable. How unavoidable is a carelessly discarded cigarette, over loaded or defective wiring, or poorly maintained heating and cooking equipment? Studies show that these simple causes are responsible for a great number of fires. Now is the time to clean up on fire hazards say FFA members.

William Chandler Named To Again Head Congregational Trustees

At their regular meeting Monday night the Trustees of First Congregational Church United Church of Christ selected William Chandler to again head their group for 1965. Appointed to be clerk for the year replacing Mrs. Robert Wagner was Mrs. Lauryne White.

The Music committee at their meeting last week selected Mrs. Paul Mann again to head their group and chose Miss Grace Penhallegan again as secretary.

There is no official connection between the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, but the two organizations co-operate in many instances.

Congregational Youth Take Part in Sunday Service

Tom Sharrard, president of the Pilgrim Fellowship of the First Congregational church (UCC) organized the youth to participate last Sunday in the Youth Week service. Charlene Powers had the call to worship and the benediction, Brian Dyson had the Invocation and Lord's Prayer, Laurie Reddeman and Sharon Bollinger took the two parts of the Scripture reading, Lheryl Peffers, Tom Wojcicki, and Arlys Wiseman took the three parts of the pastoral prayer, David Frisinger dedicated the offering, and Tom Sharrard gave the announcements and the Report on Brothers Around the World. The ushers and collectors were Barry Visel, Vickie Blacklaw, Cindy Blacklaw, Ralph Johnson, with other participating in the worship.

The Rev. Livingston, minister of the church, gave the sermon in place of the team that found exam week too busy a time to prepare in. He presented as many of the youth's ideas as he could from the several discussions of the topic, "Is God Dead?" He pointed out that God is dead in outgrown ideas of the deity which like a snakeskin is too small to contain the more mature concepts. Then he went on to show that the main point the youth's considered was that there are many parts of our lives where we do not let God have any influence. We have pushed him out of the laboratory, the class, our social life, etc.

PLANT SUCCESS

To get best results from plant food and fertilizers, apply them an hour or so after you water your plants. Liquid fertilizers will have a better chance to work more slowly and effectively if soil is moist. Then your next watering, to be done only when topsoil feels dry to the thumb, can leach out harmful excess salts through the clay pots' porous walls.

Just A Minute . . .

By the Rev. James A. Craig

Cities have always been criticized for being ugly. It's hard to remember when one has heard a city praised for its beauty. I guess we ought not to be surprized at that.

Cities are functional. They are a place to live and work. Your house or yard you may call attractive. No one much cares whether the city does or not.

Some sociologists who have looked into the matter say it has to do with pride. People, generally, aren't proud of their city. It may be they have no reason to be.

Yet in another way what our community is a sign of what we are. We may think of our village as nice appearing. It's been said, you know.

On the other hand it has also been said that it's hard to get acquainted with people, even those who live near you. I guess we're like the city in some respects. We think of ourselves as atoms, complete in ourselves.

We mix with others for a while to earn a living or find some amusement but we keep it cool.

It's too bad really. There are a lot of interesting people around with whom to get acquainted. It will cost a little.

It means time, interest and a willingness to let other people know you.

A long time ago, Jesus laid down the terms of friendship. It meant that to get a lot you gave a lot.

It can change a hermitage into a community. It can turn the stranger to a friend. It can open doors to new and interesting places.

Wise people know how to save time by not being in a hurry.

STATE OF MICHIGAN,
In the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw

In the Matter of the Complaint of BILLIE S. FARNUM, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.

No. 1072

On reading and filing the complaint of the Auditor General of the State of Michigan praying for a judgment in favor of the State of Michigan, against each parcel of land therein described, for the amounts therein specified, claimed to be due for taxes, interest and charges on each such parcel of land, and that such lands be sold for the amounts so claimed by the State of Michigan.

It is ordered that said complaint will be brought on for hearing and judgment at the March term of this Court, to be held at Ann Arbor in the County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, on the 1st day of March A.D. 1965, at the opening of the Court on that day, and that all persons interested in such lands or any part thereof, desiring to contest the lien claimed thereon by the State of Michigan, for such taxes, interest and charges, or any part thereof, shall appear in said Court, and file with the clerk thereof their objections thereto on or before the first day of the term of this Court above mentioned, and that in default thereof the same will be taken as confessed and a judgment will be taken and entered as prayed for in said complaint. And it is further ordered that in pursuance of said judgment, the lands described in said complaint for which a judgment of sale shall be made, will be sold for the several taxes, interest and charges thereon as determined by such judgment, on the first Tuesday in May thereafter, beginning at 10 o'clock a.m. on said day, or on the day or days subsequent thereto as may be necessary to complete the sale of said lands and of each and every parcel thereof, at the office of the County Treasurer, or at such convenient place as shall be selected by him at the county seat of the county of Washtenaw, State of Michigan; and that the sale then and there made will be a public sale, and each parcel described in the judgment shall be separately exposed for sale for the total taxes, interest and charges, and the sale shall be made to the person paying the full amount charged against such parcel, and accepting a conveyance of the smallest undivided fee simple interest therein; or, if no person will pay the taxes and charges and take a conveyance of less than the entire thereof, then the whole parcel shall be offered and sold. If any parcel of land cannot be sold for taxes, interest and charges, such parcel shall be passed over for the time being, and shall, on the succeeding day, or before the close of the sale, be reoffered, and if on such second offer, or during such sale, the same cannot be sold for the amount aforesaid, the County Treasurer shall bid off the same in the name of the State.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHTENAW

In the Matter of the Complaint of BILLIE S. FARNUM, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.

To the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw.

BILLIE S. FARNUM, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, respectfully shows unto the Court:

1. That he is the Auditor General of the State of Michigan and makes and files this complaint under, by virtue of and pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 206 of the Public Acts of 1893, as amended, and Act No. 126 of the Public Acts of 1938, as amended.

2. That Schedule A annexed hereto is the tax record required by the act first above mentioned and contains the description of all lands in the aforesaid county upon which taxes, which were assessed for the years mentioned therein, have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent, the description of all lands in said county heretofore bid off in the name of the State and thus held and upon which taxes which were assessed subsequent to the tax for which such lands were sold by the State have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent, and the description of all lands in said county which are delinquent for any installment of taxes under the provisions of the act last above mentioned;

3. That extended separately in said schedule against each description of said lands therein contained are (a) the total amount of delinquent taxes upon said description for the non-payment of which the same may lawfully be sold at the next annual tax sale, (b) interest computed thereon as provided by law to the first day of May next ensuing, (c) a collection fee of four per cent and (d) $1.50 for expenses, all in accordance with the provisions of the act first above mentioned;

4. That all of the aforesaid taxes, interest and charges are valid, delinquent and unpaid, and have remained delinquent and unpaid for sufficient time to authorize and require, as provided by the foregoing acts, the sale of the aforesaid parcels of land against which they were assessed and are extended in said schedule at the next annual tax sale for the non-payment thereof, and that the said taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses so extended in said schedule against each parcel of land therein described constitute a valid lien upon each of the said several parcels of land described in said schedule as therein and against which extended in favor of the people of the State of Michigan, the payment of which lien this court may enforce as a preferred or first claim upon such lands by the sale thereof.

Wherefore your plaintiff prays:

a. That within the time provided by law this court may determine and adjudge that the aforesaid taxes, interest, collection fee and charges are valid and constitute a valid lien upon each of the said several parcels of land described in said schedule as therein extended;

b. That within the time provided by law this court make a final judgment in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land therein contained;

c. That said judgment provide that in default of the payment so ordered of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands in said schedule the said several parcels of land, or such interest therein as may be necessary to satisfy the amount adjudged against the same, shall severally be sold as the law provides;

d. That your plaintiff may have such other and further relief in the premises as to this court may seem just and equitable.

And your plaintiff will ever pray, etc.

BILLIE S. FARNUM, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State.

LBJ DEFENSE PROGRAM

President Johnson's $49,000,000,000 defense program was given a generally warm reception by Congress. The huge program cost $300,000,000 less than the Pentagon had estimated. The President attributed this to completion of many needed changes in the military force structure and cost reduction programs.

Fuel Truck Skids On Ice, Rams House At Cavanaugh Lake

Some damage was done to a Cavanaugh Lake home as the result of a fuel truck sliding into one side last Wednesday morning. The wall was pushed about 16 inches off the foundation, and Mrs. Floyd R. Gillett, 229 Cavanaugh Lake, says that temporary repairs have been made to the damaged utility room and kitchen, and as soon as weather permits, permanent repairs will be made. This will include extensive electrical work, some plumbing and exterior wall repairs.

Mrs. Gillett was standing in her kitchen when she saw a truck approaching the house on a utility road. Observing the truck beginning to skid, Mrs. Gillett ran into another room.

Neither George Knickerbocker driver of the truck, nor Mrs. Gillett were injured.

Mrs. Gillett expressed great thankfulness that the accident was no worse than it was. "I saw the truck coming and wasn't really shaky until it was all over" she said.

At the time of the mishap all roads were covered with a heavy coating of ice which made travel nearly impossible.
