Public Urged To Meet With School Board

All interested citizens of the Chelsea School District are invited to attend a public meeting of the Board of Education, Tuesday evening, March 23, at 8 p.m. in the Chelsea Village Council Room.

During the past year the election of the school district has been turned down a bonding request of the Board of Education. This proposal was a minimum request designed to meet immediate space requirements and to satisfy the financial qualifications of the conservative voter.

The principals of the Chelsea schools will be present with the Board of Education to help answer questions as to how critical the space problem is and to give indications on how the problem will have to be met. Such temporary solutions as lengthening the school day, half-day sessions for some students within the high school or early elementary are being considered.

What are your feelings on how to meet the need for more classroom space in our district?

Area Ministers Protest Sunday Shopping Hours

At the Tuesday night meeting of the Village Council, a protest of 10 local ministers against unnecessary Sunday shopping was presented to the Council by the Rev. W. Scott Westerman.

In addition to the protest, there was a commendation for those businesses which observe Sunday by closing their stores on that day. The statement was concluded with a request to the citizens of Chelsea to encourage, by their patronage, those stores which observe Sunday. It is the belief of the ministers that the high spiritual purpose of the day must be preserved for the spiritual health of the community.

The text of the clergymen's statement is as reproduced in a point elsewhere of Council Briefs.

Council Briefs

Chelsea Village Council met in regular session Tuesday evening at the Municipal Building. Invocation by the Rev. Scott Westerman of the Chelsea Methodist Home.

Approval was given for rezoning of property encompassing land comprised of Chelsea Trailer Park, Ashland service station and a vacant lot immediately north of the trailer park.

A discussion was held with the Rev. Scott Westerman representing the following village religious leaders, the Reverends Donald C. Baacke, Harold S. Blotta, James A. Craig, Robert A. J. Livingston, Francis J. Maliszewski, Edwin J. Weiss, John M. Fall, E. S. Steenson, W. Scott Westerman and William A. Johnson.

The Rev. Westerman submitted a proposal as follows to be considered by the Council:

"We the undersigned affirm our belief that Sunday should be kept as free as possible from unnecessary business transactions in keeping with the high spiritual purpose of the day. We protest the attempt in recent months to commercialize the first day of the week and especially the requirement of employees to work on Sunday during the hours of church service, making it necessary for them to either miss church or give up employment. We heartily commend those business men who observe Sunday by closing and by giving their employees a day of rest. We believe that businesses which observe Sunday closings deserve the patronage of our citizens."

Discussion was held on the discriminate and haphazard distribution of handbills within the Village of Chelsea. Many objections have been voiced to members of the Council, and the Village Clerk has been instructed to contact the Chelsea Standard for possible assistance for publicity in attempting to control this problem without the necessity of passing an ordinance to this effect. It was suggested that possibly the Chamber of Commerce could be of assistance in this matter.

Thomas Smith, assessor, submitted the following assessment figures as approved by the Board of Review: personal property, $1,877,000.00; real property, $3,089,250.00; total $4,966,250.00. As compared to 1964 that is an increase of $106,335.

A motion was made to accept the assessment valuation as presented and that millage be set at the same rate as 1964, 13 mills, general fund; one mill, library; three mills, sewage bond issue.

The motion was made to authorize payment of $5,207.55 to the City National Bank of Detroit, interest and principal for general obligation sewage system bonds.

A motion to accept the results of the Chelsea Fire Department election: fire chief, James Gaken; assistant fire chief, George Atkinson. (Continued on page three)

2nd Lenten Service Set at St. Barnabas

The annual Community Lenten service this evening will be held in St. Barnabas Episcopal church on Old US12. The service will feature a departure from the usual form of a worship service in that two ministers will present a "Sermon in Dialog."

The Rev. John Smucker, pastor of St. Barnabas and the Rev. James A. Craig, pastor at First Methodist, will develop the topic of the meaning of the Church's fellowship under the title of "More Coffee and Donuts."

Special music for the service will be provided by the Senior Choir of the First Methodist church, directed by Mrs. Clare Warren. They will sing "Wonderous Love."

The third service will present the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Enrick, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan. He will preach in the First Congregational church on March 25.

As a part of the Lenten season a community choir has been formed which will provide the basis for the fourth of the Lenten Services. The Community Choir is open to all persons who wish to join in their rehearsals at 9 p.m. on Thursdays or immediately after the service of the evening. It is hoped that it will provide an opportunity to those who are unable to regularly take part in a choir. Two more rehearsals will be held, tonight and next Thursday at the Methodist church. Howard Bond is the director.

First Crocus Plants Reported for Spring

Junior High Students Show Originality in Science Fair

The first Science Fair to be attempted by the pupils of Chelsea Junior High school was reported to be a huge success.

Projects submitted by the boys and girls were very well done and were accomplished by the pupils themselves with no help from teachers or the outside.

The Fair was held Saturday at the Junior High gymnasium and it attracted an estimated crowd of between 250 and 300 visitors.

Remarks heard at the Fair were that visitors "were surprised at what the boys and girls were doing as when they went to school nothing like this was being done."

High school teachers thanked the Junior High for being asked to participate in the judging of this Fair.

Spring Forensics Program Attracts 21 CHS Participants

Chelsea's spring Forensics contest was held Wednesday, March 10, at Chelsea High school with 21 pupils participating. There were five categories for the competitive speakers.

Those participating in the humorous readings, with an introduction by Tom Sharrard, were Penny Eisenberger whose selection was from "Onions in the Stew," by Betty McDonald; Terry Ferris, "If Grant Had Been Drinking at Appomattox," by James Thurber; Jane Griffith selected, "Sacraments," from "O, Ye Jigs and Julips," by Virginia Hudson; Tom Power, gave "Insert Flat A" and "Throw Away," by J. S. Perelman; and Janet Rohr gave, "Mrs. McWilliams and the Lightning," by Mark Twain from "The Best American Humorous Short Stories."

Minimum time for humorous reading is five minutes and the maximum is eight and one-half minutes. A participant may select a cutting from any of the works by an approved author. Meaning may be communicated through facial expression, dialect, if it does not interfere with communication, and action that is not extravagant.

Winners in this humorous event were Terry Ferris, first and Jane Griffith, second.

In the declamation division, introduced by Madonna Freysinger, Sue Brown selected as her subject, "Daniel Webster Celebrates the American Heritage," Karol Howard chose, "Don't Blame Me," by Jay Williams; and Carolyn Schwiager selected "Catch A Passion for Living," by Mary Grielle.

Winners in this category were Karol Howard, first, and Sue Brown, second.

The declamation consists of the memorization and the oral interpretation of a speech written and delivered originally by another person. The declaimer should not attempt to impersonate the author but rather should give his own interpretation of the selection. Freedom and naturalness of delivery should be encouraged and a sincere expression of feeling is essential.

Extemporé Speaking was introduced by Tom Power and participants in this field were Pat Guest, Mike Oesterle and David Wood.

Topics for the extemporé speech programs were limited to present-day current events. They dealt with people, social, economic, or political events of state, national or international significance. Each speaker acquainted himself with the contents of current news sources.

For the contest, each director of forensics selects the speech topic for each person. The speakers have one hour in which to prepare their speeches after they have drawn for their topics. No speeches should be prepared prior to the drawing of topics. An outline or notes may be used.

Winners in this contest were David Wood, first and Mike Oesterle, second.

Scott Smith introduced the participants for Interpretive Reading. They were Valerie Burghardt, Jane Faist, Audrey Hayes, Tom (Continued on page eight)

3 Teen-Agers Sentenced for Recent Attacks

Youths Made Wards of Court,
Placed on Indefinite Probation

Community Help Behind 'Oklahoma'

Three Chelsea area teen-agers, 14, 15 and 16 years old, were made wards of the Washtenaw county Probate Court, placed on probation for an indefinite period and told they must make restitution for medical bills they caused in the beating of three children.

Probate Judge John Conlin handed out the sentences. He said the boys were also told they must take psychiatric treatment and cannot attend school until the treatment is complete.

Police Chief John Palmer said the boys were arrested after parents reported their children were beaten in three separate incidents Feb. 12.

Steven Smith, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Smith, was the one boy most severely injured. According to his parents, he suffered an impairment of his vision. He was taken to a Chelsea Clinic for x-rays to determine the extent of chest injuries and has been under a doctor's care since.

Larry Merkel, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Merkel, was attacked and beaten by fists. When he arrived home, he and his father returned to the scene and on the way saw a third boy being beaten. Merkel followed the three boys in the pickup truck.

Randall Seitz, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seitz, was going off to safety patrol duty and when someone tapped him on the shoulder, he turned and they hit him and knocked him down. He was cut around the face and bleeding. He was hit again while he was down.

Mrs. Smith said Steven Smith was repeatedly jumped on by the larger boy and kicked in the head and face, resulting in injuries to his head and nose.

(Editors Note: Names of the offenders are withheld only because Michigan law does not permit the publication of the names of minors involved in any crime except a felony. We have no sympathy for any youth who commits such vicious, senseless acts as these and commend Probate Judge John Conlin for taking a firm hand in the matter.)

Detroit Girl Arrested in Stabbing Case

Janice C. Bowen, 17, of Detroit, was arraigned in Ann Arbor Municipal Court last week on a charge of felonious assault in the stabbing of a Dexter High school basketball player last week.

Chelsea Police said Miss Bowen stabbed Ron Mull in the thigh following the Dexter-Willow Run tournament game played at the Chelsea High school.

She demanded examination at her hearing. She was released on $250 bond and her examination date was set for March 25.

Police said Miss Bowen is a drop-out from Eastern High school in Detroit and attended the game with several Willow Run High school girls. She told officers her cousin plays on the Willow Run team.

St. Paul's Church To Observe Great Hour of Sharing

School Board Briefs

The Chelsea Board of Education met in regular session Tuesday evening with the following actions being taken.

Report by Foster on the approval of the Intermediate School District budget.

Discussion of date for special meeting of the Board to determine the date of an operation millage election and the number of mills to be requested.

Report by Alber on the condition of the Junior High school. It was reported that there appears to be new settling of one corner of the building with cracks widening around windows and doors in the area. In two or three areas the floors are buckling. These new changes caused the Board to request that a consulting engineer be contacted to determine the safety of that portion of the building.

Report by Alber on transportation committee.

Recommendations on teacher tenure status for the 1965-66 school year.

Considerable discussion on classroom shortage and the need for a new Junior High school. Citizens committee meeting set for Tuesday, March 23 at 8 p.m. to discuss and get feeling of more of the electorate as to plan of action they might want the Board to take. GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

One of our most pressing problems is to provide the kind and the quality of health care needed for every person in Michigan. The problem is accentuated in the case of those 65 or older because the incidence of illness is greater and the period of convalescence usually longer. This means a variety of types of care are required, extending from home care and home nursing service to the more extensive and costly form of acute medical and hospital care.

We have established in Michigan the Medical Aid to the Aged (Kerr-Mills) program. This ongoing program of aid to elderly citizens who cannot contend with costly medical care has proven to be one of the best and most comprehensive in the nation. Moreover, it needs further improvement. I am recommending that nursing home coverage under MAA be extended from the existing limit of 30 days to six months, for which $140,000 is included in my proposed budget.

I further proposed a study of the feasibility of providing care in a nursing home, without the quality of health care needed for every person in Michigan. The problem is accentuated in the case of those 65 or older because the incidence of illness is greater and the period of convalescence usually longer. This means a variety of types of care are required, extending from home care and home nursing service to the more extensive and costly form of acute medical and hospital care.

every county, coupled with periodic health appraisals for all persons 65 or over on a cost-free basis for the financially distressed. I have asked my Action Committee on Health Care to explore how such a program can be accomplished with full cooperation of public and private medical services. I hope to have the committee's recommendations during this session.

Meanwhile, I have complied with the request of the State Department of Health for funds to permit establishment of county or district health departments in all counties where they do not now exist. This is essential if we are to have a statewide home nursing program. I have also recommended that the minimum state grant to each county for health services be increased from $5,000 to $7,000.

HOUSING

There is a need in many of our communities for senior citizens housing at a rental level too low to justify private enterprise in building for rental purposes. Approximately 20 percent of Michigan's married couples 65 or older live in this age level. These persons have cash incomes that preclude rentals of more than $17 to $35 a month. Low-cost public rental housing can supply the safe, healthful housing needed.

However, at the beginning of 1964 only 22 communities in Michigan had public housing especially designed for occupancy by the elderly. The experience of this relative handful of communities has been good. The quality of the projects has been excellent, and in no way have they interfered with buildings constructed for rental to persons of higher incomes.

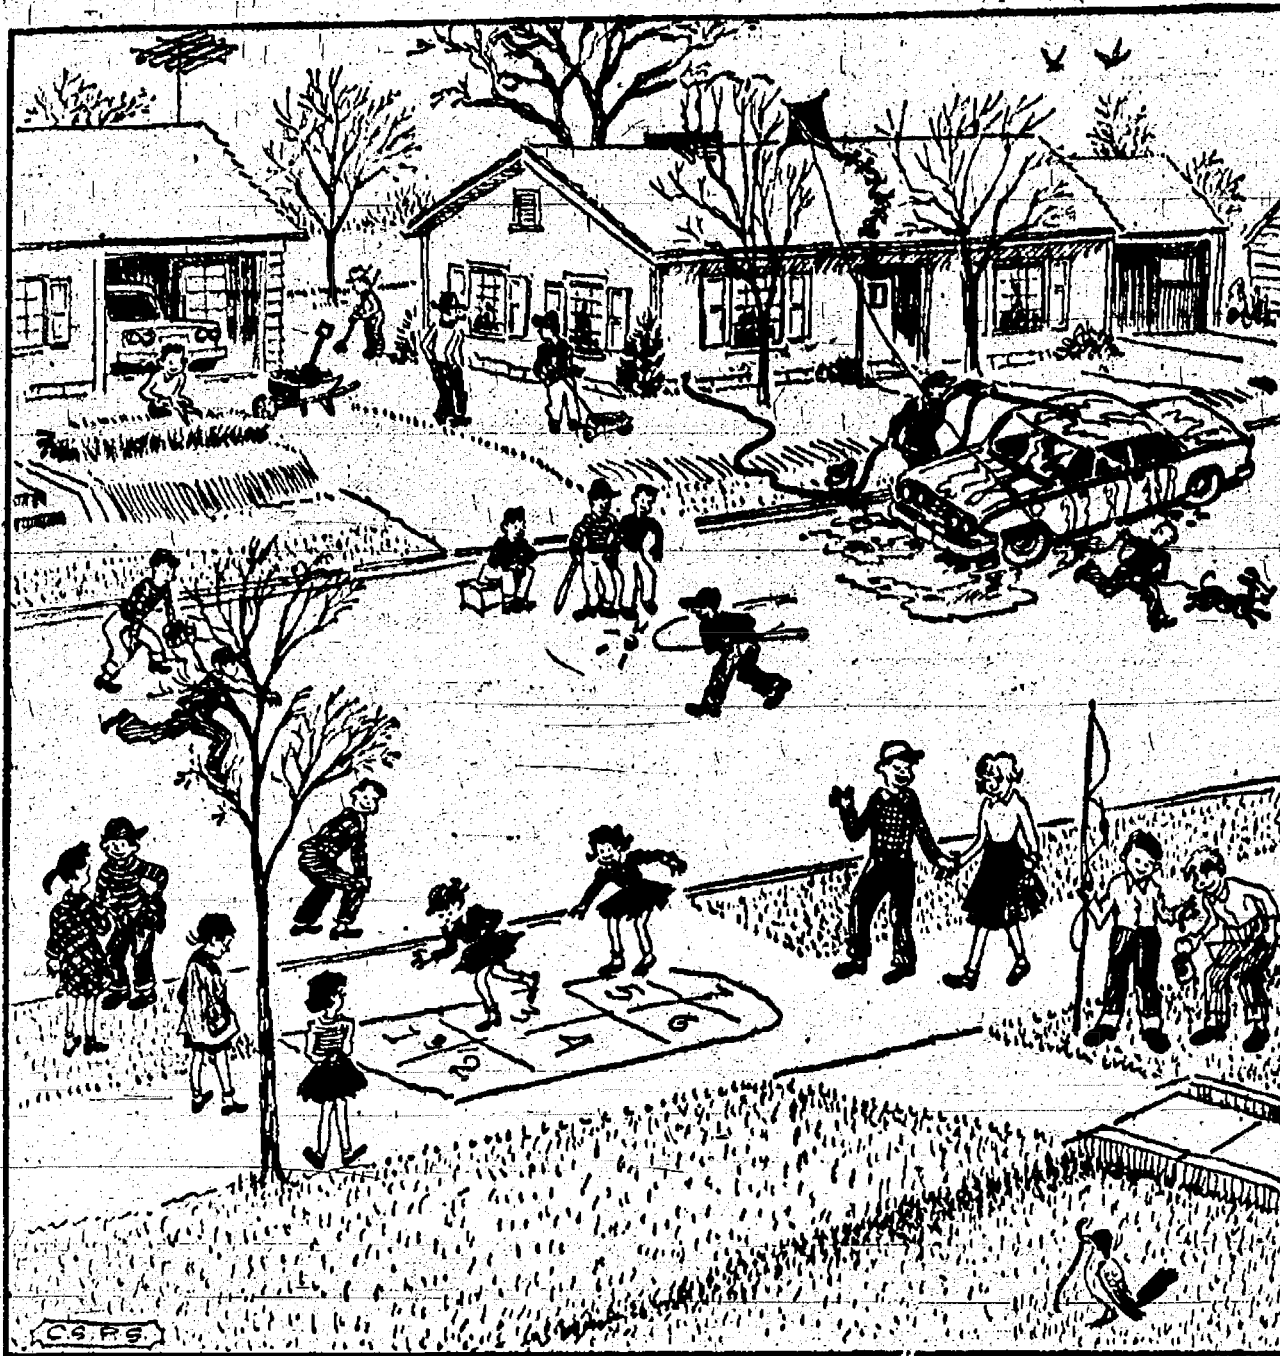

The slow growth of such public housing for senior citizens has been attributed to our laws, which permit housing commissions only in cities, incorporated villages and townships of over 15,000 persons, in counties over 400,000. There appears to be no reason for this arbitrary limitation. In addition, initiative in this field may well be taken by a county or combination of governmental units. Recent Federal legislation in the housing field also makes possible cooperative efforts between public and private sources for housing for senior citizens.

Accordingly, I recommended that Public Act 18 of 1953 be amended to permit formation of housing commissions by cities, incorporated villages, townships and counties, singly or in combination, without limitation as to size of population.

Many of our senior citizens, forced to drop out of school at an early age, now find time to resume their studies and to earn high school diplomas or even college degrees. Education is a lifelong process and we should give every encouragement to those who wish to carry it forward in their later years.

However, it is not now possible for them to return to high school without payment of special fees or tuition. I recommended that (Continued on page seven)

Tobacco Costs

Both official and public concern over cigarette health hazards has died down considerably since the 1964 U. S. Surgeon General's report. Some lamented and some were relieved by the change.

The adjustment in official concern involved somewhat of a paradox.

On the one hand the Governor appointed a special group to study the health report. This unit recommended the State Health Department "explore, promote and develop programs for the reduction and the ultimate elimination of cigarette smoking."

Sitting opposite, or perhaps adjacent, were much of state government and the local school districts. They depend in large part on cigarette tax revenues for operating costs.

The study group's recommendations and several made subsequently by the Health Department have not been implemented in any way. The legislature has sidestepped any action in this area.

Cigarette sales are big business in Michigan. Preliminary figures indicated 1964 was the third consecutive year in which more than a billion packages were sold in the state.

In terms of money to operate government units, the sales meant more than $20 million for local public schools and more than $48 million for the state. This was in 1963.

Last year the revenue was expected to have increased despite a sharp drop in income during the month immediately following release of the Surgeon General's report.

The tax on cigarettes is now seven cents per package. With two cents of this going into the school aid fund, legislators would be hard pressed to find a replacement for this income if a strong anti-smoking campaign was effective in Michigan.

Younger Voters

Leaders of both political parties have one constitutional change in common on their lists of legislative goals.

This is the lowering of the voting age to 18. If approved by the legislature this year it presumably would be on the ballot at the 1968 general election.

In the past, Democratic governors and a scattering of legislators have supported such a proposal. It was also considered during the Constitutional Convention but lacked sufficient support.

Strong support for the idea has now been voiced by Gov. George Romney and Democratic legislative leaders.

"Our young people arrive at a peak of public interest at that age," contends Romney. "I am unqualifiedly for the 18-year-olds and above having the right to vote."

Democratic Senate and House leaders Raymond Dzendzel and Joseph Kowalski, both of Detroit, agree. They included it, along with revision of voter registration laws, as one of three major goals in the elections area.

Teen-agers in the Central Michigan area formed a campaign group last year urging the legislature to put the voting question on the ballot.

The movement spread to a few other areas through school groups but failed to gain much attention in the quarters where it would count.

Legislative approval of a vote on the question would undoubtedly bring forth formation of a

As surely as spring arrives in mid-March, so does Michigan Week follow closely behind in May.

The 12th annual brag week has occupied many individuals and committees since the 1964 event ended last May 23.

The format this year will be much the same as in the past. As each of the previous ones, it, too, will be aimed at bigger and better achievements in promoting the state at home and afar.

Each day of Michigan Week, to be observed May 16-22 this year, has a special designation.

"Spiritual Foundations Day" officially starts the observance in church services and other public gatherings across the state.

The mayors' exchange, paired already, is the big feature of "Our Government Day," always set on Monday.

The remainder of the week is set aside daily to turn the spot-

Thursday, March 16, 1961—Chelsea High School Senior Band came home from the District Festival last Saturday with the highest possible rating. All three judges of concert performance and the sight-reading adjudicator awarded the group a first division rating. Comments from the judges included many bouquets such as: fine spirit and deportment; excellent lightness of style; you sense the dramatic quality of this music very well; you show fine imagination, concept and style. Congratulations. The band is now eligible for the State Festival, which will be held in Ann Arbor, April 22.

For the first time in 10 years the Chelsea Bulldogs emerged District Tournament champions last Saturday night by defeating the "ever dangerous" Dexter Dreadnaughts, 63-48. Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Seems like a heap of folks out our way was sick with colds and the Flu these days. I reckon this is the time of year for it, with everybody wore-down after a hard winter. Ed Doolittle, for instance, has been in bed two days with a bad cold. I went by to see how he was getting along and his old lady said he had a "virus" but Ed told me confidential it wasn't nothing but a old fashioned cold, said his old lady was just putting on airs with that "virus" stuff. As a general rule, country folks has to be pretty sick when they take to their bed. They afford it.

On account of Ed ain't felt like reading the papers, I brung him up to date on the state of the nation. When I got through with my report Ed said his cold was a heap worse.

Actual, Mister Editor, things ain't been too good in the papers all week. Even here at home matters got off to a bad start Sunday. Our preacher told the congregation they wasn't no money in heaven and they wasn't none in hell and he was wondering what them folks that was trying to save up so much of it aimed to do with it. Up to now I ain't been able to figure out the answer. Maybe it ain't got none.

And then I see where the Mayor of some town in Florida has issued a official proclamation asking the parents to teach the Ten Commandments to their youngsters. This will be a mighty good chance for the parents to leave 'em, too. And while we're discussing religious items in the news, I think I have come up with the answer with what's wrong with General DeGaulle. This piece in the papers says they was completing a survey made in Paris and it showed they had one fortune teller for ever 120 citizens, a doctor for ever 514, and a preacher for ever 5,240 people. It looks like the General has been listening to too many fortune tellers and not enough preachers.

A couple items was in the papers from behind the Iron Curtain that was mighty interesting. A Washington column writer reported they had raised all the retail prices double in Shekopolavakum (if I ain't got it spelt right, Mister Editor, just sneeze, "to aid the workman"). I reckon they figger harder work fer less money should speed up the end of their worldly troubles. That's the true Red philosophy.

And this piece said a Russian newspaper was claiming all American kids was hungry. That's about the only true statement I have ever saw from a newspaper in Russia.

All in all, Mister Editor, the news was mostly bad this week.

Yours truly,

Uncle Lew.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

The Senate this past week "advised and consented" to the appointment of some 65 persons named by Governor Romney to various boards and commissions. In other words they were approved although the appointments of Chuck Daveys to the State Athletic Board and of Arde Ferguson to the Highway Commission ran into considerable opposition from Democratic senators. Under the new Constitution the Senate must approve or reject a gubernatorial appointment within 60 days. Failure to act makes approval automatic.

The Senate referred back to the Liquor Committee the controversial Sunday liquor proposal. I expect, however, a later attempt will be made to report out an amended bill. Similar legislation is also in the House of Representatives.

The Senate now has about 250 bills before it—almost all still in committee.

The House last week killed those Romney budget bills which had been introduced there thus matching Senate action of the previous week. New budget bills have as yet to be introduced in either body.

The House also completed its hearings on Representative Dan West, decided not to seat him and thereby created another legislative vacancy. Thus in the April 5th election there are one Senate and two House seats to be filled. This could bring the Democratic majority in the House to within 1 vote of the two-thirds necessary to override a veto.

There are about 400 bills now in the House of Representatives.

The Senate Appropriations Committee has been conducting hearings on the budget requests of the Mental Health Department. Directors and superintendents of the various state institutions for the mentally disturbed and retarded have each been coming in to explain their operations and justify their budget requests. The total mental health appropriation will be well over $100,000,000 this year. Although our state program doesn't do as much as in California or New York we are making a great deal of progress and are providing service of some sort for all who need it. What used to be a long "waiting list" for admission to our state hospitals has been almost entirely eliminated.

Michigan's 1964 traffic record shows a continued rise in deaths and injuries. Deaths in 1964 were up 13 percent over 1963 and 35 percent over 1962. I find there is strong public support to measures designed to curb this trend.

About 30 proposals are currently before the Legislature which are designed by their authors to reduce our accident toll. Some of these bills will be difficult to work out mechanically and only a selected few will eventually be enacted into law. However they cover many areas where constructive action is possible. Under consideration are bills calling for periodic motor vehicle inspection, compulsory liability insurance, "implied consent" legislation, bringing 16 and 17 year old drivers under the point system, increasing the number of state police, establishing a uniform state administered driver licensing system, requiring rear seat belts, and legalizing the use of studded tires.

I confidently predict that 1965 will see substantial progress in the area of traffic safety measures.

Methodist Home Resident Observes 98th Birthday

Mrs. Clara Dinius celebrated her 98th birthday, Sunday, at the Methodist Home in Chelsea. She was born March 14, 1867, in Sullivan county, Indiana and was married to Wesley Dinius on her 21st birthday, in 1888. To them were born three daughters, two of whom are still living and were present with other relatives to help her celebrate. Mrs. Vera D. Avins came from Ft. Wayne, Ind. Mrs. Marie D. Poole came from Brethren, Mich. Others came from Jackson and Columbia City, Ind.

Mrs. Dinius has seven grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren and one little great-grandchild. Some 20 members of her family gathered at the Home, Sunday, with the traditional cake and gifts. One granddaughter with two great-grandchildren and the little fifth generation child live in California and were unable to attend the party.

Mrs. Dinius entered the Home about three years ago. While she has had more than her share of accidents, her recovery has been very remarkable. She was able to recognize all the little relatives Sunday, and daily greets all the members of the Home, who pass by, with her sly little grin. Her church membership is maintained in the Calvary Methodist church in Jackson, where she was once an active member.

unique Lenten experience. The meal will be very simple, using foods similar to the kind these people exist on. An offering will be taken that will be sent to One Great Hour of Sharing.

As part of the short service of dedication, a motion picture film called "Profiles of Promise" will be shown. This will portray vividly Church World Service in action in three completely different situations in Chile, Ghana and Calcutta. It will enable those who see it to know better the meaning of Church World Service ministries of service, and how the funds contributed through One Great Hour of Sharing are used.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Laylor and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Betts and Mrs. Fred Laylor on Sunday.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Earl Willis entered St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Friday, for an operation. She is in room 6047.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

Kindergarten—Mrs. Hine

While still busy writing our alphabet books, we have found time to make a circus for our room. Some children drew, colored, and cut out circus cages while others drew and cut out a tiger, lion, elephant, giraffe and a seal to put in them.

Crayoned and painted clown faces decorate the windows, and circus posters are decorating the walls. With storybooks and records about the circus, our kindergarten room doesn't mind the "March Lion."

The program was presented as follows: "America the Beautiful," Jacquie Frisch; Baton twirlers, Margery Parsons, Darlene Robbins; pantomime, Denise Petesch; "Bicycle Built for Two," Marie Houle; cartoonist, Jon Schenk; "Out of My Dreams," Patty Knickerbocker; singers, Lori Schiller, Pam Blackwell, Cindy Hall; tap dancer, Vickie Prater; Miss Miller's singing group; jazz dancers, Amy Dettling, Karen Johnson; "O What a Beautiful Morning," Beatha Treudo, singers, Susan Rogers, Gwen Rogers, Lee Ann Rogers. 4-H Girls Prepare Garments For County Dress Revue

Sheryl Ennet along with Bev Windell of Chelsea and Susan Walker of Manchester will narrate at the 4-H Dress Revue program at 8 p.m. March 23, 24 and 25 at Ann Arbor High school. The first night is the junior revue, the second, young miss, and on March 25, the Senior Miss.

Ron Mast will be among the 11 escorts for the senior girls. 4-H girls taking the knitting or clothing project are now spending many hours in front of the mirror practicing modeling for the competitive modeling 4-H program. Themes for this year's Dress Revue are: Junior Miss class "Reflections in the Mirror," Young Miss "The Mirror and You" and Young Miss "Through the Looking Glass."

This is the first year that Washtenaw county Dress Revues have involved knitted garments. There will be many hand-knitted sweaters and co-ordinated outfits being modeled in this year's style revue. The Junior Miss Dress Revue, Tuesday, March 23, will involve 150 girls between the ages of 12-14 years. Some models will be wearing knitted sweaters but the majority of the garments will be cotton outfits of jumpers, skirts and blouses, dresses or sports clothes.

The Wednesday night program features 270 models 10-12 years old. These girls will be showing the cotton skirts, simple jumpers, and or aprons constructed in their clothing project. Following the dress revue program, the 4-H members taking the recreation project will provide talent entertainment.

Climaxing the week of Spring Achievement events will be Thursday night Dress Revue and Awards Program. Girls between the ages of 14 and 18 years will be modeling suits, dress-coat outfits, tailored dresses, formal. Most of the Senior girls have constructed their garments with woolen fabrics.

The NATIONAL OUTLOOK

By GEORGE HAGEDORN

★ One More Step . . . Which Way?

As this is written, the bill removing the requirement for a 25 percent gold cover against the deposit liabilities of the Federal Reserve Banks has just been passed by both houses of Congress and has gone to the President for signature.

Considering the basic character of the issues, the speed with which this legislation moved and the absence of any serious opposition may seem surprising. Apparently, the prevailing conclusion is that past developments have made such a move inevitable and there is no use arguing over bygone history.

Next Step Coming

Assuredly, however, this is a time to look back over the road which has led us to this point and inquire where we may be headed. We are taking one more step in severing the tie between gold and our monetary system. Are we prepared, if and when it should be necessary, to take the next step—removing the 25 percent cover requirement against federal reserve notes, the chief element in our circulating paper money?

The present action gives the Federal Reserve System greater leeway in expanding the supply of money and credit. What, as a long-run proposition, will the monetary authorities do with this new degree of freedom?

Michigan Bell Co. Payroll in County Hits New High

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. this week reported that it paid wages of $3,383,118 to 543 employees who worked in Washtenaw county during 1964, according to Nicholas J. Pracklen, manager here for the firm.

He said the company's entire wage bill of $153,498,448, which went to 22,000 employees throughout the state, set an all-time record.

In addition to Michigan Bell's payroll, the Western Electric Co., manufacturing and supply arm of the Bell System, paid $31 million to its 1,475 employees who worked in Michigan—most at AT&T's Long Lines department paid $3.4 million to its 540 employees in the state.

The men and women of Michigan Bell, the state's fourth largest, non-governmental employer, and of the other two Bell System units who live in more than 400 Michigan communities received total wages of nearly $108 million.

Areas in which Michigan Bell's 1964 payroll topped the $5 million mark include Detroit, Flint, Grand Rapids, Lansing, Saginaw and Southfield.

Areas which passed the $1 million mark are Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Bay City, Benton Harbor, Clawson, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Livonia, Marquette, Mt. Clemens, Plymouth, Pontiac, Port Huron, Roseville, Royal Oak, Traverse City, Warren, Wayne and Wyandotte.

The United States Coast Guard made the first naval capture in the War of 1812, made the first naval capture of World War II, put the first boat ashore during the invasion of Sicily, captured the first "Nazis" shore station in World War II, and suffered the greatest losses in proportion to its numbers of all U. S. military services in World War I.

The United States Marine Corps Band made its first public appearance at the Tun Tavern in Philadelphia on July 4, 1800.

Band Boosters
To Help Finance
Summer Camp

Chelsea High School Band Boosters club is completing plans to send the Senior High School Band to summer camp for one week's intensive training in preparation for the fall marching season.

The Clear Lake Camp near Oxford has been reserved for the week of Aug. 22-28. This camp, which is owned by the Fort Street Presbyterian church of Detroit, is well suited to this type of activity.

There are ample accommodations plus waterfront and other recreational activities. Chelsea Band parents will act as counselors and the musical instruction will be in charge of the Chelsea Band directors.

Summer band camps have grown increasingly popular in the past several years and the need is felt for this type of activity in order to field the band in top condition for the early autumn appearances.

Cost to the student will be $10.75 for the six days with the remainder of the expense being absorbed by the Band Boosters.

All members of the next year's marching band will be eligible to go and by cutting the cost to this minimum amount it is hoped that all will attend.

Participants drew from five different selections 15 minutes before the program. The reader was judged on how well he had mastered the meaning of his selection, his responsiveness to situations, mood or emotion, and the imaginative insight with which he portrays both character and situation.

The Original Oratory group was introduced by Mike Oesterle and Jennifer Bolton spoke on "War Criminals at Large." Marilann Watson returned home Sunday morning, March 7, from Royalton, Ky., where they were called due to the illness of Mrs. Fletcher's sister.

Township Officers Still Don't Know When Term Starts

The Michigan Senate is presently considering a bill, sponsored by State Representative Russell H. Strange (R-Mt. Pleasant) and co-sponsored by Representative Sharpe (R-Howell), specifying the time for township officials to qualify and take office.

Approved in the House of Representatives by a vote of 81-1, this bill provides that all township officers elected in November of 1984, except justices of the peace, shall take office on April 10, 1985. Justices of the peace will take office for the last time in Michigan history on July 4, 1985.

Rep. Sharpe explained that Michigan's new constitution provides that the office of justice of the peace shall be abolished on Jan. 1, 1989—or earlier by action of the legislature.

"Formerly, such township officers as supervisor, clerk, treasurer, and trustee took office within 10 days after their election, on the first Monday in April of odd-numbered years," commented Sharpe. "Under our new constitution, the election of township officials has been changed to November of even-numbered years, with the provision that the terms of office of those presently serving shall not be shortened. Consequently, it is necessary that the legislature spell out when township officials elected last November will take office, and April 10 appears to be the earliest and most practical date," concluded Sharpe.

What's the Price of A Fine Dinner?
Of course the price varies considerably, depending on what you order and where you are dining. When you go out for a fine meal, served in pleasant, modern surroundings, you naturally expect to pay more for the pleasure such a meal affords.
Likewise in bowling . . . fine facilities in a modern, pleasant atmosphere adds so much extra pleasure to your recreation that a few cents extra over the lowest price available anywhere is a negligible factor . . . offset many times over by the extra feeling of a luxurious, pleasant period of enjoying your favorite sport.

MORE INSURANCE
A survey of the nation's older widows indicates that life insurance is an increasingly important factor in a woman's standard of living after her husband's death. A sampling of widows aged 55 and older by an independent research organization showed that 80 percent of the husbands who died in 1960 or later were covered by life insurance, compared to only 68 percent prior to 1960.

Just A Minute...
By the Rev. James A. Craig
A minute isn't much time as time goes. Yet, in a basketball game, it can seem an eternity. It depends on how important the minute is to you.
In a trial the testimony of a witness depended on her being able to accurately estimate the length of a minute. The defendant's attorney had to discredit the witness in order to protect his client.
The witness was an elderly woman. Asked to tell the court when a minute was up, she waited what seemed an unbearable long time before she lifted her head and said, "now."
She had missed by only a second.
Her secret, she said, was simple. Long years ago she had learned to recite the Lord's Prayer. She had since learned, in minutes snatched for meditation, that she could say the prayer three times in one minute.
A minute isn't much time, as time goes. But when each minute has a value beyond itself, then that's what St. Paul calls redeeming the time.
You and I might say that it's making good use of time.
Either way one purpose of Lent is to help us make good use of time.
Prayer: Lord, let us learn to make good use of Thy time. Amen.

4-H Clubs Preparing for Spring Show
4-H club members in Washtenaw county are involved in the busiest season of the year.
March 23-25 is the County Spring Achievement program at Ann Arbor High school and all winter projects are being completed for this event.
Winter 4-H projects involve 144 adult club leaders, 219 boys and 586 girls. On exhibit at the Spring Achievement program will be 421 clothing exhibits, 185 knitting exhibits, 45 foods exhibits, 63 conservation exhibits, 123 wood-working exhibits, 182 leathercraft exhibits, 29 gardening exhibits, 27 electrical exhibits and many other 4-H projects involving a smaller number of members.
Projects now being completed by the 4-Hers will be evaluated by 4-H leaders serving as judges. In the evaluation session, the 4-Hers are given the opportunity to discuss the project with the judges. This evaluation technique, commonly called "individual evaluation" allows the member to explain what has been learned, and what problems were encountered. The 4-Hers receive direct benefit by hearing the judges' comments.
All 4-H projects will be given an "A," "B," or "C" rating and exhibit ribbon.

4-H Club Members From Area Will Attend Horticulture Workshop
The workshop at Camp Kett March 19-20 on horticulture is planned primarily for older youth and county 4-H members. Judy Thompson, Willis, Arlys Wiseman and Linda Van Riper of Chelsea, will be attending.
The horticulture workshop will cover the entire youth program, including the various projects available, activities, contests, National Jr. Vegetable Program, etc. Miss Thompson was on the state vegetable judging team in 1964.

Winter 4-H projects involve 144 adult club leaders, 219 boys and 586 girls. On exhibit at the Spring Achievement program will be 421 clothing exhibits, 185 knitting exhibits, 45 foods exhibits, 63 conservation exhibits, 123 wood-working exhibits, 182 leathercraft exhibits, 29 gardening exhibits, 27 electrical exhibits and many other 4-H projects involving a smaller number of members.
Projects now being completed by the 4-Hers will be evaluated by 4-H leaders serving as judges. In the evaluation session, the 4-Hers are given the opportunity to discuss the project with the judges. This evaluation technique, commonly called "individual evaluation" allows the member to explain what has been learned, and what problems were encountered. The 4-Hers receive direct benefit by hearing the judges' comments.
All 4-H projects will be given an "A," "B," or "C" rating and exhibit ribbon.

The seven dollar misunderstanding
The misunderstanding has to do with Chrysler names are the only thing big about them. Every car compared below is a 2-door hardtop. They all have V-8 engines, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, radio and heater. There is only one meaningful difference: Chrysler is the only big one. So why not see your Chrysler dealer today? Move up to Chrysler... it's easy!

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA AUDIT REPORT December 31, 1964

February 26, 1965

To the Honorable, the Village Council
Village of Chelsea, Michigan

We have examined the statement of financial condition of the Village of Chelsea as of December 31, 1964, and the related statement of receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Operations are reported on the modified accrual basis.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of the Village of Chelsea at December 31, 1964, and the receipts and disbursements for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Iceman, Johnson & Hoffman

COMMENTS

Statement of Financial Condition (Exhibit A)
Unpaid property taxes at December 31, 1964, amounted to $1,531, representing $910 due for 1964 and $621 due from prior years. The amount of the 1965 special assessments levy was $1,517, of this amount $910 is outstanding at December 31, 1964.

The amount of the 1964 tax levy for the Chelsea Public Library was $4,810. This amount was paid to the Library Board from initial tax collections.

The increase in the Capital Fund consisted of the purchase of a new fire truck for $9,850, addition costs for the fire station building amounting to $1,848 and parking lot improvements amounting to $4,821. Automotive equipment purchases amounted to $8,032 and a Le Roi tractor with accessories was traded showing a net increase in automotive equipment of $2,432.

Parking Meter bonds in the amount of $3,000 were retired during the year. On December 31, 1964, there were $25,000 of these bonds outstanding. A bond and interest reserve of $4,000 as required under the State law authorizing revenue bonds and under the governing ordinance has been established.

Sewage Disposal general obligation bonds in the amount of $5,000 were retired during the year. In order to repay this bond issue, the Village of Chelsea has levied a tax of 3 mills. Taxes unpaid at December 31, 1964, amounted to $342. Of this amount, $132 represents unpaid 1964 taxes and $210 represents prior levies.

A separate Fire Department Fund was authorized to begin operations this year with an initial deposit of $1,000. The Public Works Equipment Fund received $9,480 transferred from the General Fund. Of this amount $4,880 was used to purchase a new tractor and attachments.

Congressman Wes VIVIAN

Reports from WASHINGTON

In its first session, the 89th Congress is moving at a pace rarely matched in history. News analysts have speculated that it may produce more trend-setting legislation early in the session than any Congress since the "100 days" of President Roosevelt's first term, in 1933.

Probably the most important decision made thus far in the Congress, is the passage of the "21-day rule." This rule will allow the Speaker of the House to bring a bill out of the Rules Committee after that Committee has had 21 days to consider it. It will mean that the Rules Committee will no longer be able to frustrate the will of a majority in the House, by refusing to send a bill to the Floor for a vote.

The passage of the 21-day rule is illustrative of the attitude of many of the new members in the House. They are serious about their legislative duties and impatient with the roadblocks which have prevented action in the past.

Major bills now before House Committees include: medical insurance for senior citizens, water pollution abatement, and aid to elementary, secondary and higher education. These bills are moving through Committee, and should come to the Floor of the House shortly.

One of the most important pieces of legislation passed to date, is the $1.1 billion aid to Appalachia Bill. Appalachia is an 11-state region extending from Pennsylvania to Alabama. Sixteen million people live in the 165,000 square mile area.

The Appalachia bill provides funds for constructing highways so the area may be opened to industrial and recreational development. It also makes funds available for hospitals, timber development, vocational education and soil conservation. I disagreed somewhat with the heavy emphasis in the bill on highway construction. It was my idea that the bill would be better balanced if more of the funds had been earmarked for education and recreation programs. However, my ideas did not prevail. I finally voted for the bill, because I believe it is in the best interests of the entire nation to help these millions of families.

In Appalachia, per-capita income is 35 percent below that of the rest of the nation, and in some counties it is far lower. To bring this figure a bit closer to home: one out of every three families subsist on an annual income of $3,000 or less. This means that this region makes much less of a contribution to the national economy than most of the rest of the nation. Thus, at present, it is a drag on our growing prosperity. The Appalachia program will help correct this regional economic imbalance.

A second significant bill already passed in the House is H.R. 2 which will put stricter controls on the manufacture and distribution of barbiturates and "pep pills."

The increased use of these drugs contributes to juvenile delinquency, crime, and highway accidents. Of the nine billion manufactured each year, half are being sold through illicit channels. This has been due to a large extent by lack of controls over those dealing in these drugs. The

THE ASPIRIN
Aspirin is the most widely-used medicine in the world. It was isolated in the laboratory in 1883 by an Alsatian chemist, Charles Frederic von Gerhardt. But its medicinal antecedents date back to the days of Hippocrates, "the father of medicine," when an extract from willow bark (which contains salicylates) was prescribed for the relief of the pain of childbirth.

If you have gas heat, let 'the Joneses' keep up with you.

(You've got the best there is.)

You're entitled to feel smug as well as comfortable if you heat with Gas. That's why, where Gas is available, practically everyone gets it. Want the facts? In the areas we serve, some 700,000 families heat with Gas. (That's hundreds of thousands more than those who heat with electricity.)

It probably never occurred to you that anyone who had the opportunity would heat with anything but Gas. That's understandable. But there are other heating systems. Some are dirty. Some are expensive. Gas is neither, as you know.

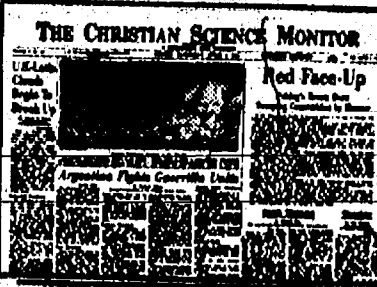

Gas heat is filtered heat, free of dust and pollen. It's "fresh air" heat. It's circulated uniformly through your home. You're free of that stuffy "vacuum bottle" feeling. Smoke and odors slip away. So does stale, germ laden air. And Gas is healthfully humid, not bone-dry.

So much for creature comforts. Gas is easier on your budget, too. Costs up to 1/4 less than you'd pay for electric heat. And you have even comfort throughout your home—even in your basement. Besides, Gas comes to you in underground pipes. You can't run out of it. No power failure cuts it off. It's there. And mighty comforting. Maintenance? You can practically forget it. The silent blue flame of a Gas burner just can't wear out.

Pity about "the Joneses." Isn't it? But they can have Gas heat, too. It takes only about four hours to convert most heating systems.

Get with it, "Joneses": Live modern... for less... with Gas.

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Regular Session

March 2, 1965, Council Room
This meeting was called to order by Pres. Haselschwardt at 8:00 p.m. Invocation by the Rev. James Craig of the Chelsea Methodist church. Trustees present: Bollinger, Burg, Chapman, Crouch, Weber, and Wood.
The minutes of the Regular Session of February 11, 1965 were read and approved.
A discussion was held with Mr. N. J. Pratkanis and Mr. Leroy Gray representing the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, regarding the necessity for placing an underground conduit for additional telephone facilities. The route in question would run from the present office location on West Middle St. to the north side of South Street, east to the east side of Main Street for a distance of 239 feet. The route then continues south on Main Street from the north east corner of Main and Park Streets, to a location which is 153 feet south of Summit Street.

It is proposed that this conduit will be placed under existing sidewalks and the intersections involved.

Motion by Burg, supported by Wood, to grant permission to the Michigan Bell Telephone Company to proceed with this proposed construction as per specifications submitted. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

A request was entered by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Chapman, 629 S.

Main Street for a variance to construct a small utility building to within two feet of their south property line.

A letter stating no objection to the proposed construction was submitted by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Walworth, the property owners immediately adjacent to the property in question.
Motion by Crouch, supported by Weber, to approve the variances as requested by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Chapman. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

A request was entered by Mr. Leon Meabon for a variance to place a standing sign to within 58 feet of his east property line. Said sign will be 70 aggregate square feet or less in size and will be of the non-blinking or flashing type.

Motion by Burg, supported by Wood, to grant the variance as requested by Mr. Meabon. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

A discussion was held regarding the need for adequate insurance coverage for the fire department personnel.

At a meeting held with the Fire Department, Township Supervisors, and some members of the Council, it was agreed by all that increased coverage for fire department personnel was an essential part of the necessary cost of the operation of the fire department, and should be shared by the Village and the Townships involved.

Motion by Weber, supported by Bollinger, to authorize the purchase of an adequate insurance policy for the Fire Department.

To grade the road, lower road bed where necessary, approximately 6 feet in some areas, grade open ditches on both sides, provide 10 culverts under driveway, provide gravel base and double seal, the approximate cost would be $5,000.00. Band Boosters Will Help Outfit 130 for Fall Band

President William Storey presided over the regular monthly meeting of the Band Boosters club held Wednesday, March 10, in the band room at the high school.
Uniform committee chairman, Mrs. Herman Ashley, reported that enough hats, plumes, belts and camp emblems have been ordered to completely outfit approximately 130 high school band members, the enrollment expected for the 1965-1966 school year. These accessories will be paid for with part of the profit realized from the fruit cake and candy sales held in the fall. After all candy and cakes were paid for, the total profit for the band from these sales is $1,768.25.

Ross Scholtens reported the need for two more parent counselors for band camp which is to be held the last week in August. Application forms are being composed, insurance decided upon, recreation planned and many other small, but important, details clarified so that a happy, productive stay at camp will be realized.

Band Director Galbraith wished to remind parents of band students that music stands are still available for home use at a price of $3.90 each. The date of the State Festival was announced as April 10, with the location for our band participation probably to be Grand Rapids.

Alan Conklin, Mrs. Parker Sharrard, Mrs. Edwin Sutter, and Mrs. Charles Lancaster were appointed as the nominating committee for a slate of officers to be presented to the membership for election in May.

The Band Booster Club has chosen to sponsor a basketball.

Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.
