

Fire Destroys Chelsea Heat Treating Plant

While police held back hundreds of spectators, more than 50 firemen from local and outside departments battled a raging blaze at Chelsea Heat Treating, Inc. for more than an hour before bringing the conflagration under control Saturday night.

According to Elden Heller, president of the firm, the damage was estimated at approximately $120,000.

The fire broke out about 7:30 p.m., starting in one of the automatic heat treating furnaces. Chelsea and Dexter fire departments were aided by companies from Ann Arbor, Milan and Jackson. The outside crews provided the necessary equipment to extinguish the blaze caused by oil.

No fire or police officers were injured during the blaze. Two men, however, were hurled back when they tried to shut off the main gas line after the blaze was nearly under control. Robert May, 52, of Ann Arbor, a Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. employee, and Douglas Dexter, 38, of S. Main St., Chelsea, an employee of Chelsea Heat Treating, were taken to St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor. Their injuries were listed as painful but both men were later reported in good condition.

Extreme heat was the cause given for the malfunction of the system.

EQUIPMENT IN SHAMBLES — While much of the equipment was destroyed at the blaze which hit Chelsea Heat Treating Saturday evening, a fair percentage is salvageable, according to officials of the steel-processing firm. Until repairs are completed and production made possible, existing jobs are being handled through the co-operation of other firms.

AFTER THE BLAZE — This shows an interior view of Chelsea Heating, Inc., taken after the $120,000 fire had swept through the building last Saturday evening. Of the two men who were injured at the scene, Douglas Dexter, an employee of the firm, has recovered and returns home from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital tomorrow.

School Millage Election Slated Next Monday

Instruction Costs, Buses, Junior High Maintenance Increase Budget Total

Money to run the schools for the 1965-66 school year will be set at the annual operational millage election of the Chelsea school district Monday, May 17, from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., in the Junior High school gym.

Combined with the levy from the County Tax Allocation Board, the 2.5 mill levy to be voted on Monday will increase the total by 22 mills over the 1964-65 school year.

Improvements in the school include an expanded curriculum and a more favorable pupil-teacher ratio. The five-and-one-half teachers to be added will include one elementary, two junior high, two high school, and the advancement of a half-time band teacher to full-time status.

Increases in the maintenance budget amounting to $3,000 per year are due almost entirely to the growing costs of using the obsolete Junior High school building.

Three new 60-passenger school buses scheduled for purchase this year will replace the older vehicles now in use which grow continually more costly to maintain. Eight of the Chelsea district's school buses are now nine years old, or older. The Board of Education plans to replace three buses per year until the bus maintenance problem has been minimized, then reduce the bus expenditure sharply.

$21,000 is included in the 1965-66 budget for the three buses. Actual purchases are made, of course, by sealed competitive bids. Total budget increase is $82,795. Instruction costs alone have gone up $643 more than this amount, but the over-all rise is held down because of economies effected in various other parts of the program. Reasons for increasing instruction costs are (1) teacher pay raises, (2) additional teachers and (3) more materials and supplies for the growing numbers of teachers and pupils.

Net result in money to the individual taxpayer will be increases ranging by township, as follows: Waterloo township $2.37 per thousand and dollars of assessed valuation; Grass Lake $2.54; Freedom $2.66; Lyndon $3.04; Lima $3.27; Sylvan $3.47; Dexter $3.75; and Sharon township $4.15.

All Electors May Vote

Unlike bonding elections, the operational millage election to be held Monday, May 17 is open to every registered voter. Voting will be from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., in the Junior High school.

Absentee ballots may be secured from Robert G. Foster, secretary of the Board of Education.

16-Year-Old Shot in Flight After Robbery

The wooded area near the Chelsea exit on I-94 was the scene of a shooting Saturday morning which climaxed a chase of four robbers fleeing from a clothing store near Jackson which they had broken into about 8 a.m.

Involved in the pursuit and apprehension were State Police troopers from Jackson, Ypsilanti and Clinton; the Ann Arbor Police and Sheriff's deputies from Washtenaw county. The escaping youths got as far as the Chelsea exit when their car stalled because of radiator trouble.

Minutes later a Washtenaw county Sheriff's Department patrol car, driven by Deputy Thomas Spiess, intercepted the car and the occupants dispersed into the fields. Other police and deputies—about nine cars in all—converged on the area.

State Police said Police Chief John Palmer and Patrolman Earl Willis, Jr., spotted the youth and ordered him to stop. Two additional orders to halt were disregarded as was a fourth warning—shots fired into the air. Since several of the groups took part in the shooting it is not known whose shot struck the youth.

The injured youth, a 16-year-old boy, from Inkster, is in Foots Hospital in Jackson, where he is treated for a shattered femur. The other three apprehended are Thomas Sims, 18, of River Rouge; Kenneth L. Davenport, 18; of Inkster; and Gary M. A. Burnside, 17, also of Inkster.

Sims and Davenport stood mute Monday in the Jackson Circuit Court to charges of breaking and entering in the daytime. They are at the Jackson County Jail awaiting trial, in lieu of $2,500 bond. Burnside, the fourth youth, has demanded examination on the charges which will be heard May 20 in justice court, Jackson.

SAFETY PATROLLERS from Chelsea, Ann Arbor, Brighton and Romulus got the special honor of meeting the second-ranking member of the U. S. House of Representatives while visiting Washington as Automobile Club of Michigan's guests. House Republican Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford of Grand Rapids, greeted 130 white-belted Michigan youths from 105 cities who visited the capital May 7-9 during Auto Club's annual trip to the AAA National Patrol Rally there. Shown above with Ford in the Capitol are, left to right, Steven Bruneau of Ann Arbor; David Tipword of Brighton; Michael Schnadt, 850 Island Lake, Chelsea, St. Mary's school; and Gary Martin of Romulus. The flag Ford holds flew over the Capitol Thursday.

All Plans Set To Welcome Visiting Mayor

Exchange Mayor from Sturgis Will Be Welcomed at Pierce Park

Chelsea's observance of the 12th annual Michigan Week, May 18-22 will be highlighted by the annual exchange of mayors and correlated with the dedication of Sugar Loaf Lake Campgrounds Monday.

Municipal responsibilities will be exchanged by Village President Howard Haselschwardt and Mayor Ross Lower of Sturgis. While President and Mrs. Haselschwardt, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Burz, II, are feted in Sturgis, Mayor and Mrs. Lower and Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Kitson will be honored guests at a program which will kickoff with a reception in Pierce Park at 9:15 a.m.

The traditional presentation of the key to the Village will follow a parade from the park to the Municipal Building. Among the participants will be village officials, civic and community leaders, and the Michigan Week committee. Music will be provided by the Chelsea High school band.

The dedication of Sugar Loaf Lake Campgrounds will take place at 11 a.m. Luncheon at Schumm's Restaurant for the official party will be followed by a tour of the Chrysler Proving Grounds, the Village and the Chelsea-Milling Co. plant.

The day's festivities will conclude with a social hour at the William Weber, Sr. home, 221 Congdon St., at 4:30 p.m., and dinner will be at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club at 6:15 p.m. in the Congregational church.

Livelihood Day, which is Wednesday, will focus attention on Chelsea business and industry through industrial and other displays in the downtown area.

Education Day, Thursday, will be emphasized through posters made by Chelsea High School students, a model of the school and a Michigan flag on a background listing the banner's various symbols and legends. The four winning posters were the work of Deborah Gorton, Jane Farrell, Lee Spaulding and Kathy Taylor, all sophomores. Assembly in CHS in the afternoon will feature the presentation of Michigan flags by the Juniors to Chelsea Junior High school, and North and South Elementary schools.

The new home of the Chelsea Senior Citizens at the corner of Main and Middle will provide the setting for the events planned for Friday, designated as Heritage Day. In addition to the showing of historical movies, there will be a display of historical artifacts and information on centennial farms in the area.

The Senior Citizens Open House will continue on Saturday as well as the dedication of their new building, which has been set for 2 p.m. The CHS Band will provide the music.

Saturday is Youth Day. The participation of various youth groups in Chelsea, through posters, displays and similar programs, bring to a close the events planned for Michigan Week this year.

BOARD OF EDUCATION STATEMENT: Schools Need Your Help

Your School Board is composed of seven men interested in the education of the children of this district.

Twice during this past year the public has voted down a bond proposal presented by the board. Both times 90-1,000 citizens voted. This is but a fraction of the eligible voters (1/4-1/2). Those who oppose educational progress, for any of many reasons given, will always see to it that they vote "NO." The board feels, however, that the biggest reason for the defeat of school issues is the apathy of the school supporters. These are the people who must be stirred to realize that their vote is needed.

These seven members of the board were elected by the public. They spend many hours studying the problems involved with running an educational institution. After careful thought, and searching, decisions are made. The facts from these decisions are made public in the newspaper, but only those people interested in attending these open meetings, will fully understand the thinking behind these decisions.

We, the Board, are always distressed at the apathy shown by the public especially when we seek their support on millage election. The board has unanimously voted to request 2 1/2 mills operational for the school year 1965-66. To maintain and improve our teaching staff, administration, and facilities, costs continually rise. The 2 1/2 mills request is a net increase of 1.22 mills over last year. Last year the County allocation to schools was 6.12 mills. The operation of the school called for 12.5 mills therefore 3.5 mills was voted. This year the allocation from the county will be 11.22. The budget calls for 13.77 mills. Hence we must request 2 1/2 mills. This is a net increase, once again, of 1.22 mills over the total operational cost last year. Based on an assessment of $2,500, the average taxpayer would pay less than $1 a month more than last year.

All persons in the district who are properly registered in their township may vote. You do not have to be a property owner.

We of the board sincerely feel that it is your duty to give these issues your support with a "Yes" vote on Monday.

Chelsea Board of Education.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Last week I returned with 50 Michigan businessmen from a market study tour of seven European countries. The purpose of this trip was in line with the theme of Michigan Week, "Dynamic World Progress," and I will report on the tour in my Michigan Week column, May 16-22.

Here at home we still have that major problem of maintaining our state's reputation while at the same time continuing to meet the needs of the people.

Last Friday I met with the members of the legislature who have been designated to study and discuss the financial problems and future of Michigan. As you may know, I submitted various alternative proposals designed to avoid a financial crisis and provide sufficient income for the state to keep pace with our expanding population and essential state services necessary to meet these needs.

THE SWIFT AND THE SLOW

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Dirty People
 Social change is a major cause for the estimated $750,000,000 bill Michigan tax-payers meet each year for picking up litter, according to a national study.

The Institute for Motivational Research recently confirmed previous indications that thoughtlessness and carelessness were the chief reasons people-strew litter in public places.

Apparently the complex social trends of our modern world have tended to sever the individual's relationship to his community and thus reduce his sense of social responsibility and civic pride, the study says.

Simply stated, the Institute reported that the litterer who wouldn't think of dropping his cigarette pack on his living room floor could be expected to discard it unnoticed in a public building.

Much of the cost of pickup is on the highways. State Highway Department officials estimate it costs an average of 32 cents to pick up a single litter item.

Cleanup campaigns in communities across the state properly center the burden of responsibility on each individual. Yearly state-wide clean-up costs would indicate a need for these special campaigns to last 12 months rather than just a few days or a week.

Little relief has been gained to date from Michigan's anti-litter law, touted as one of the best of its kind in the nation, although a stepped up enforcement program is under way.

As Gov. George Romney said in a proclamation for Michigan's special cleanup week this year, "It is absolutely essential for every citizen, regardless of where one lives or how busy one is, to exercise a relentless concern and personal responsibility to keep trash of any kind off our public and private thoroughfares and lands."

There is one year-round private state-wide effort being conducted to rid Michigan of litter problems: Working in co-operation with the State Chamber of Commerce, Keep Michigan Beautiful, Inc., has its goal "to make Michigan the best groomed state in the nation."

To achieve this worthy goal, the organization is soliciting and must have the support of all government agencies, industries and individuals.

Keen Competition
 Talk about a unified budget request for higher education seemed just so much malarkey when spokesmen for the various institutions went before the legislative appropriations committees this year.

Previously hope was voiced by some spokesmen that a single budget request could be planned for next year. When this year's hearings went down to the wire it was the same old story, however.

The story, so familiar because of its annual re-telling, goes on: "Upon a time in years back, and today, and tomorrow and next year, we have been, are and always will be the wealthiest."

Each institution has its reasons why it should get the lion's share of the higher education budget pie.

Spokesmen for one institution say it needs more money because of its extensive graduate program. Others heed a big share of the funds because of the growing area demand for education facilities.

Still a third provides some special field of training which demands special consideration, and another demands attention simply because its administrators feel they are not getting their fair share.

At the continuing rate of rivalry between the several state-supported colleges, it would appear there is little hope of any future agreement on a unified budget request for higher education.

College officials are not alone in presenting the "I like me best and you should too" attitude to the legislature, however.

Every agency administrator in state government brings in a similar plea when the budget hearings are held annually. This year, legislators will hear this twice, but the colleges will be left out of the second round.

Once the budget is settled upon hearings are anticipated on the government reorganization proposals. In these the fighting is likely to become even more bitter since administrative survival will be at stake.

In budget hearings, agency heads know they will get some portion of their request. Government reorganization will result in the absorption of some agencies and possible abolition of others.

Record Counts
 Proof of effective service likely will become a key tool in arguing for self-preservation in the organization shuffle. It also looms largely as a big vs. little fight. Each agency head will want to

Items Taken from the Files of The Chelsea Standard

4 Years Ago...

Thursday, May 11, 1961—
 A copy of The Chelsea Standard, dated Dec. 22, 1960, was "planted" in a time capsule along I-94 as part of the State Highway Commission's observance of "Michigan Week." Included with a collection of representative materials which would prove of interest to future historians, that particular copy of The Standard carried a story of the ribbon-cutting ceremony near the Parker Rd. overpass when I-94 was officially opened to the public.

Saline High school's new lighted track made a favorable impression on the Chelsea track team. They trounced Manchester, 66-43, taking first in 10 of the 13 events. The CHS baseball team continued along their winning streak. They defeated Manchester, 7-0, after turning back Pinckney, 5-3.

The Dorr Whitaker farm at 16771 Old US-12 West, was designated a "centennial farm" by the Michigan Historical Commission. The commission's program of awarding recognition to farms owned by the same family for 100 years or more, was started in 1948. Located in the western part of Sylvan township near the Jackson county line, the Whitaker farm has been in possession of the family since 1831, when Edmund E. Conklin and his wife, the former Sophronia Hickox, of an old Connecticut family, bought it from the government. That was five years before Michigan achieved statehood.

24 Years Ago...

Thursday, May 8, 1941—
 An ordinance for licensing and regulating the maintenance and use of housecars and trailers within the village limits was adopted by the village council.

This measure was brought about because of the numerous complaints registered because of the lack of restrictions. The practice of parking house cars on congested areas caused unsanitary conditions which aggravated residents in certain areas.

"Channels for Service" was the name of a playlet presented the Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's church at their May 2 meeting. A Mother's Day talk was given by the Rev. P. H. Grabowski. Flowers were presented to the three oldest mothers, Mrs. Albert Widmayer, Mrs. Louise Eppler and Mrs. George Gage, and the two youngest, Mrs. Walter Mohrlock and Mrs. Alvin Vail.

34 Years Ago...

Thursday, May 7, 1931—
 A heated campaign which resulted in the largest attendance at a school election in Chelsea's history, some 700 voters cast their ballots at a special election called to replace Howard Holmes, John Kalmbach and Fred Broesamle, who had resigned. The voters replaced them with J. F. Fletcher, David Mohrlock and M. J. Dunkel.

After the election a meeting of the new board was held which included the above three and George W. Walworth and L. P. Vogel.

John P. Keusch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keusch, was among the 343 U-M students with outstanding records and honors at the convocation services held in Hill Auditorium. Another student from Chelsea, Donald Katz, was also honored for outstanding achievement in Engineering and Architecture Engineering.

More than 200 members attended the annual Pythian Sisters convention of District No. 8, held Thursday, in the Chelsea public school auditorium. Among those on the program was Evelyn Smith of Chelsea temple.

W. G. Kolb, proprietor of Kolb's restaurant, announced the opening of his new electrically refrigerated soda fountain on May 9. Chelsea residents heard a grand concert by the Jackson Police band which was scheduled at the Chelsea High school auditorium on May 14.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 Ed Doolittle reported to the folks at the country store Saturday night that he ain't heard nothing yet from Washington about our request for the Government to make a study on which side of the hog produces the best eating meat. But Ed was optimistic, said he had saw in his latest pamphlet from the Department of Agriculture where they was appropriating $20,000 for a study on the breeding of tree shrews and $70,000 for a study on the population habits of the Australian ant.

He figured our study on hams couldn't be far behind on the agenda.

Zeke Grubb said he didn't know what tree shrew was and couldn't pass no judgement on this item but he was high in favor of that $70,000 on ants. He allowed us how, if they was anything this country needed right now, it was to know all about the population habits of the Australian ant.

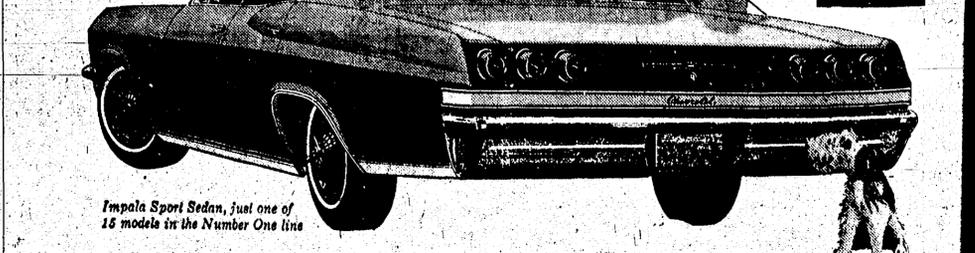

Glen Webster was disagreed with Zeke, said he didn't have nothing agin them Australian ants perviding they stayed in Australia, but we had studies here at home that ought to get top priority. Per instant, he claimed he recollected two year ago when some feller ask the Department of Agriculture to appropriate $100,000 to make a study on why a chicken crosses the road and they ain't done nothing about it yet. He was of the opinion a study on this matter would be a big help to the poultry industry. About half his chickens, he reported gets killed every year crossing the road. Furthermore, he complained, if they don't slow traffic down in front of his place, the other half was going to get killed coming back home.

Bug Hookum announced he was agin this whole "study" business, from Australian ants to Plymouth Rock chickens and from horned toads to de-horned bulls. He said people had gone crazy over this subject. Per instant, he reported, he had saw where some companies that makes office chairs had got together and was spending $20,000 fer "seat engineers" to make a study to find out what was the best setting position fer folks working in offices. According to them "seat engineers" said Bug, the way they was setting now was mighty hard on the spine and was liable to torment 'em in their old age.

Josh Clodhopper was agreed with Bug, said spine ailments wasn't invented till after folks quit setting on tree stumps and homemade stools and took to using fancy chairs and seat cushions. He allowed us how he ain't never knowed a creek-bank fisherman to have back trouble.

Personal, Mister Editor, I ain't never been a feller to stand in the way of progress. I just set on the porch, rock with the grain, and listen.
 Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

REPORT from LANSING

State Representative

Thomas G. Sharpe

Returning from its 10-day recess, the legislature is confronted with a mountain of unfinished business. A break-neck speed will have to replace the snail-like pace of the first four months if this legislative session is not to go down as one of the least productive in Michigan's history.

With only a week to go before the May 14 reporting-out deadline on most bills, well over 75 percent of them are still bottled up in committees.

Majority party leaders are preparing their committee chairmen for action on those measures which embody the 1964 Democratic platform, to make sure none get drowned in this last-minute flood of legislation expected to come pouring out of committees between now and Friday.

As to other important proposals they are leaving those to the discretion of the committee chairmen and it appears many pieces of worthy legislation will get lost in this last-minute shuffle. Concern over these forgotten measures transcends party lines, because many of them have bipartisan sponsorship. Lack of action on such issues as traffic safety, education, conservation, mental health, public health, welfare and the lateness of serious budget considerations—are very disturbing.

Highway safety, originally a top priority item this year, now has been relegated to a low place on the legislative totem pole. Despite the state's ever-increasing traffic fatalities, only minor proposals in this area have reached the floor, and even these are being watered down before final passage. Although bills were passed to crack down on teenage drivers by bringing those 17 and younger under the point system, another bill, originally designed to strengthen the point system for traffic violations, was amended so much that the final version actually liberalizes the system by reducing the point charge against speeders.

While the Democratic spending spree continues unabated, little hope is now held for overall fiscal reform this year. If anything at all is done in this area, it will probably come in the form of stop-gap tax measures—enacted merely to raise whatever additional funds are needed to keep the state from going into the red.

Probably the major piece of legislation signed into law this week was the senior citizens property tax relief measure, estimated to cost between $13.5 and $15.5 million. It grants tax exemption on the first $2,500 of state equalized valuation provided the cash value of the home does not exceed $20,000. To qualify the senior citizen must be over 65, a resident of Michigan for at least seven years, and not have income in excess of $5,000.

In passing the bill, Democrats ignored a request by the governor that they wait until his blue ribbon committee on senior citizen homestead tax exemption had made its report. This report, which came out the same day the bill was finally approved by the Senate-House conference committee, recommended a senior citizen tax exemption program that cost just about the same—but it included an exemption for renters. Here, again, haste resulted in a mediocre piece of legislation instead of one that provided relief for all needy citizens over 65.

 about half of the equipment is salvageable. While repairs are being made, customer needs and services will be handled through the co-operation of other firms. The 15-year-old building, at 11850 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., was formerly occupied by the American Drop Forge Co., and since 1959 by Chelsea Heat Treating. The firm employs approximately 17 men.

NEW CAMP SITE — Construction of the buildings at Sugar Loaf Lake Campground, the state's newest recreation area near Chelsea, is nearing completion for the dedication on May 17. Taking part in the celebration, which is part of the events planned for Michigan Week, will be Ross Lower, Chelsea's visiting Exchange Mayor from Sturgis, and Warren Shapton, Region III manager of the Michigan Department of Conservation. Headquarters at the $130,000 campground will be ready for the public on May 24.

Sugar Loaf Lake Camp Site To Be Dedicated Monday

The new Sugar Loaf Lake Campground in the Waterloo Recreation Area near Chelsea will be dedicated at 11 a.m. on Monday, May 17 as part of Michigan Week. The campground is located on Sugar Loaf Lake off Loveland Rd. in the Waterloo State Recreation Area and is financed by the sale of park motor vehicle permits. It is the most modern of all the State park and recreation area campgrounds. Construction of the campsites began in the Spring of 1964. The location was in rugged terrain and thousands of yards of soil were removed but many trees were spared. A water and sewage system has been installed and all electrical wiring placed underground. All that shows above ground is the electrical box at each of the 157 campsites. The campground also includes toilet, laundry and shower facilities and special septic tank disposal units. A boat launching area and a small natural beach are other attractions in the area. The headquarters building for the campground is under construction and will be ready for the public opening on May 24.

Young Man In A Hurry May Spoil Things

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I her. I look at her as much as possible. She will look at me, but if she sees me looking at her, she'll go out with a very beautiful girl in my school. I asked this girl to dance with me a few times, but she refused. I love her very much. I would like to date her should I wait until she gets to love me?"

 OUR REPLY: It isn't wise to tell a girl that you love her when you really do not know one another. And, you cannot just wish for something to happen and expect it to happen.

The girl is certain to know that you like her. This does not guarantee that she will like you as well as you like her. She may, even object to the fact that you look at her so much.

Make another start. If you have never been formally introduced to the girl, arrange it through a mutual friend. Get to know her and give her the opportunity to know you. You might spoil your chances of getting to know her at all if you continue to be such a young man in a hurry.

If you have a message problem you want to discuss, please write to me, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, C/O MICHIGAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

IN THE OPEN

By Lee Smits
Opening day of trout season. Drizzly rain. A soaking wet kid had waded a beaver pond and was crawling, climbing, through cut-over cedar, looking for a creek. He could hear it, he could smell it and presently he saw it, a patch of water two feet across at the bottom of an opening in a jumble of rotting cedar tops.

The kid's rod was a four-foot section of tag alder. A clump of worms dangled at the end of a short line.
Cautiously the kid worked the bait down in the hole. There was a savage tug, the alder tick bent double, a trout flew out and landed 10 feet away.

The kid's heart pounded as he clutched the flopping 10-inch-er, snapped its spine and gutted it on the spot. It was his biggest fish of the day, rounding out the 25-trout limit.
Stamped forever on his brain cells was the beauty of the fish, with the resplendent markings of a trout in a shaded stream with dark bottom. The mystery of the cedar jungle, the day's triumph—this was "quality fishing" never to be surpassed in the kid's long lifetime.

Oldest Chevrolet Known to Exist

The oldest Chevrolet known to be in existence—a 1912 touring model—is destined for an honored place in the city that produced it. One of the first Chevrolets made in Flint, the car was purchased by the Industrial Mutual Association for donation to the Alfred P. Sloan Panoram of Transportation in the city's College and Cultural Center. Seated in the car (l. to r.) are Allen J. Dillon, IMA president; Dr. Roger Van Bolt, Sloan museum director; William Crick, IMA managing director; and Gregory Fauth, a Flint insurance man and antique-car buff who located the car.

1912 Chevrolet Returned to Flint

Flint — Still distinguished-looking and showing few signs of age, the oldest, known Chevrolet in existence has been returned to its birthplace here to assume a place in automotive history.
The car, a 1912 six-cylinder touring model, was presented by the Industrial Mutual Association of Flint to the Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., Panorama of Transportation in the Flint College and Cultural Center.
Allen J. Dillon, general superintendent of production at Chevrolet-Flint V-8 Engine Plant and the newly-elected president of the Industrial Mutual Association, made the presentation to Dr. Roger Van Bolt, director of the Sloan transportation museum.
The IMA purchased the car several months ago from Carl J. Aldenhoven of Fort Worth, Tex. Aldenhoven, owner of the Southwest Chevrolet Co. of Fort Worth, had been using the vehicle for new model introductions, parades and displays.
Flint insurance man G. Gregory Fauth, an antique car buff, located the ancient model after hearing rumors about it.
Fauth did exhaustive research on the car's origin and found it was built about June 1912, in a four-story building in Flint. Serial numbers—body No. 328 and engine No. 328—make it an early model of the 2,900 Chevrolets built in 1912.
Castings and stampings on the car bear the nameplate "Chevrolet-Flint" and attest the car is indeed one of the first built by the new auto firm under pioneer W. C. Durant and his engineer and designer, Louis Chevrolet.
When Fauth verified the value of his find, he suggested to William Crick, managing director of the IMA, that the civic organization buy the car and give it to the Sloan museum. Crick and IMA leaders, many of them General Motors officials, approved the plan and the car was shipped to Flint.
One of the problems faced in restoring the car to its manufactured condition is obtaining parts for the electrical starting and lighting system. This system is part of the car's original equipment, making Chevrolet among the first to offer electric lights and starting.
Other restoration problems are a new top and side curtains and the proper blue, grey and black paint job for the now all-black vehicle.

Bicycle for Fun and Health! A Famous Doctor, Paul Dudley White, M. D. Says:

OUR SOUL is in our brain—a fact to which our clergy and psychiatrists should pay more attention. Our brain is nourished by our heart and our active muscles. Bicycles are an answer for both brain and body. If more of us rode them, we would have a sharp reduction in the use of tranquilizers and sleeping pills.

As a physician, I have recommended cycling to many patients as a way of keeping fit, provided their condition is suitable and provided they can cycle safely. And I advise cycling for healthy people to help keep them healthy.

In the first place, it is an aid to good muscle tone, much needed by the American people to day. It aids the circulation, and thereby the heart and its work, by keeping the blood moving.

It aids the lungs through good tone of the diaphragm and makes it easier to bring oxygen into the body and pump out carbon dioxide.

It aids the nerves by improving sleep and maintaining equanimity and sanity.

It aids our digestion and it may even protect against peptic ulcers provided we don't try to establish a new speed record every day.

It aids our weight control if, at the same time, we keep the caloric and fat content of our diet where they belong.

It probably aids our longevity (like any other healthful exercise) in reducing the amount of high blood pressure, coronary thrombosis, and diabetes which have engulfed us, although the certainty of this must be further determined by research.

And there are other benefits:

The bicycle costs little to own and operate. It can stand hard use. It requires no fuel. It can traverse all types of roads; if a road is blocked, the rider can walk and remount at the next clearing. Accidents are rare. And it saves acres of parking space, too.

Most important, I feel, is that the bicycle permits us to become acquainted again with the beauties of nature and with people. Though we get places fastest by airplane, it is a common experience that we see the least en route. But the bicycle, of all methods of transportation, gives us a chance to enjoy the countryside through which we ride and to meet its citizens.

I speak from personal experience. As a boy, I had a bicycle and used it in play and in going to school and doing errands. In those days, 50 or more years ago, there were few automobiles on the streets and cycling was relatively safe. As a freshman going to college, I used to ride my bicycle to Cambridge from where I lived in Roxbury and back again, a distance of five miles each way, and this was easy and practical. In later years, I took many bicycle trips with my wife in Europe, where they had developed much better facilities. This was especially true in Holland where we spent a week cycling around the country on paths both broad and narrow reserved entirely for cyclists.

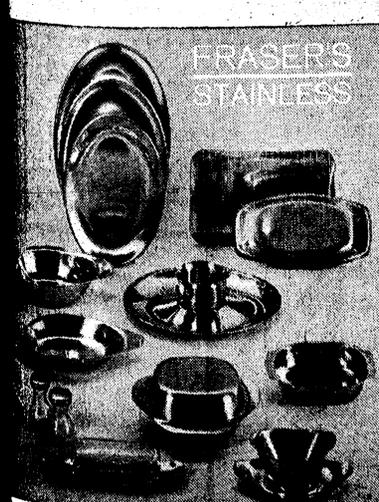

Finally, in our personal experience, our family continues to ride bicycles, although more in the country where we have a small place at Harvard, Massachusetts, 35 miles outside Boston. During recent summers, my son and I have cycled around Martha's Vineyard. We put our bicycles on the train leaving Boston for Woods Hole, transport them across a short bit of water by boat to Vineyard Haven, and after a good night's sleep, we start off and cycle via Tisbury, Squibnocket, and Gay Head to Edgartown, where we spend the second night. One day's ride covers about 35 miles. It is easy and pleasant and because we are not accustomed to cycling very much, it leaves us pleasantly tired at the end of the day.

If cycling can be fully restored to the daily life of all Americans, it can become a vital step toward rebuilding health and vigor in all of us for the important days ahead.

Let us bequeath our children more than the gadgets that surround us. The bicycle alone will not do this, but it can become a symbol of the red-blooded vigor, personal independence, and healthy mind in a healthy body that are so much needed in our beloved country today.

Tornado Victim Answers

Curiosity and friendly concern promoted Mrs. C. C. Ordway, 785 Dancer Rd., to write to the people whose address was printed on some of the stationery left in the wake of the recent tornado. In response, the woman from Elkhart, Ind., wrote that their house was destroyed—with only the walls left partially standing—ancient maps and a 100-year-old shrub were completely uprooted but the several family bibles and more important books were curiously unharmed. Neither was the family—they weren't home at the time.

Just A Minute...

By the Rev. James A. Craig

The crisis in American families is seen in increasing divorce rates and a growing number of marriage counselors. For the most part these are only numbers. Even so we can't ignore the lists that appear too regularly in the newspapers.

Divorce rates increase in numbers that only become alarming when our friends or members of our families are among them.

Heads shake in amazement and confusion at why this should be so. The mystery may not be as deep as we sometimes think. Even so, no one will argue that it is shallow.

For one thing, our perspective is too often distorted. We tend to think about ourselves too much. There is no wrong here except that we should think as much about others.

Some words in the Bible remind us of this way of life. Jesus spoke of us loving and praying for enemies. How much more should this apply to those with whom we live.

St. Paul reminds us of a couple of things that will help the family. First, "no one is to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but should prefer others." We would rather that others prefer us.

Second, we are to "be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ." We would rather others be subject to us.

It may not be easy. Nobody said it should be.

But the marriage vows at least insist that we try.

GOD'S MINUTE

My father, a minister, had in his library, a little book entitled: "God's Minute." What a pity that this book is now out of publication, because it is a veritable store house of spiritual devotions, any one of which may be read in one minute. Moreover, like the Bible itself, the truths, the teachings set forth in "God's Minute" are eternal, as pertinent to the problems of our modern, hurried existence as they were when written decades ago.

"Daily Light on the Daily Path" by Billy Graham contains Bible Readings for each morning and each evening of the 365 days in the year. Each may be read in one minute or less.

A great church publishing house, each year, puts out a little booklet of daily devotional readings for the Lenten season. Each may be read in one minute.

God's minute! Surely we can devote one minute out of our busy work-a-day life to prayer and meditation. So little time to give to One who gave Himself for us.

Today "the world is so much with us" Someone has written: "We are living, we are dwelling In a grand and awful time; 'Tis an age to ages telling, To be living is sublime."

The years, months, days, hours, and minutes are racing by. Not one moment can be relived. Can we not give a shining minute to our Creator?

People who sit up late at night rarely ever get up early in the mornings.

Farm Bureau Opposes Proposed Processing Tax

The present version of the Administration's farm bill puts both farmers and consumers over a barrel, local farmer Don Ruhlig, of Michigan Farm Bureau Board, said today.

"Proposals in this bill, now before Congress, would raise the price of wheat and rice products to the consumer. It masquerades under the banner of shifting more toward an emphasis on the market system, which, in fact, it does not. Actually, it would be very destructive to the market system," Ruhlig said.

"The new proposal would use a processing tax to raise prices to our consumers. It would use government surpluses to fix ceilings on the market prices received by farmers. It would make farmers dependent on government payments, and would permit the Secretary of Agriculture to determine support prices, payment rates, and the percentage of the crop that is to be eligible for payments.

"Consumers are being asked to pay $300 million in higher bread and rice prices in order to continue a program of regimentation that makes farmers subject to the whims of the Secretary of Agriculture," Ruhlig said.

"Consumers should not be misled into thinking that this is a new approach to the farm problem. There is need for action to help farmers get better prices in the market place, but it is quite another thing to ask consumers to pay higher food prices to continue a program aimed at keeping producers dependent on government handouts," Ruhlig said.

Reduction Sought in Federal Excise Taxes

Federal Excise Taxes are a subject of much discussion in Washington these days, for President Johnson is expected to send a message to Congress within a week requesting cuts in these taxes totaling $1.7 billion. It is my hope—and the goal toward which I am working—that reductions in the tax on telephone service, automobiles, and air-conditioners be included in the legislation that emerges from the Ways and Means Committee and is passed by the Congress.

Some might still doubt the wisdom of cutting Federal Taxes at a time when the Federal Government is running a deficit, but our recent experience with limited income tax cuts should put such doubts to rest: the longest peacetime economic expansion in the history of the nation continued; unemployment rates have fallen sharply, and most important—the added spending power generated almost as much new tax revenue as was lost.

Last week, I introduced legislation to eliminate one small, but unfair and locally troublesome excise tax. This is the tax on room air-conditioners. These appliances are currently taxed at 10 percent, which is twice the rate on other home heating, cooling and refrigerating appliances. Reducing the tax on room air-conditioners to 5 percent would reduce federal revenues by about $15 million, out of a total of over $14 billion currently collected in excise taxes.

Against this insignificant tax loss are the interests of over 4,000 employees, and their families, of Tecumseh Products. This company, with headquarters in Tecumseh, and research facilities in Ann Arbor, is the world's largest manufacturer of air-conditioning compressors; its employees live throughout the Second Congressional District.

Reducing the excise tax on "room" air-conditioners from 10 to 5 percent could improve the world market position of American manufacturers, lower domestic prices, and create greater employment opportunities within the industry. Without doubt, Tecumseh Products and its employees will benefit from the abolition of the discriminatory taxation of "room" air-conditioners.

Early in February I submitted legislation to abolish the 10 percent Excise Tax on automobiles and automobile parts and accessories, which brings in about $2 billion annually. While my bill, H.R. 4819, calls for repeal of the tax, a reduction in the rate would be a very big victory for the people of Michigan. The automobile manufacturers have stated publicly on a number of occasions that they will pass any tax savings directly to consumers by reducing auto prices. Such a price reduction will boost the sales of our Michigan-made automobiles, as auto sales climb, so do auto jobs and the demands for goods and services throughout the state.

Finally, I am strongly supporting the effort to end or reduce the wartime "luxury" tax on telephone service. This tax was imposed during the Second World War, at a time when the government was attempting to reduce consumer expenditures. Now, of course, with approximately five percent of the labor force still unemployed, the reverse is true: we are attempting to stimulate the economy. Moreover, telephone service is one of the most unlikely candidates for "luxury" taxation that I can think of. I am very hopeful that the House Ways and Means Committee will report legislation to reduce or end these three taxes and that it will be passed by the Congress. It seems to me that both equity and the need for a strong, growing economy in Michigan and the nation demand it.

Baha'i Community Day To Be Observed at Mary Wolter Home

Mrs. Eulalia Barrow Bobo, the sister of former heavyweight champion, Joe Louis, was a dinner guest of Mrs. Mary Wolter Sunday. Mrs. Bobo, who is from Beverly Hills, spoke Saturday night at the Ann Arbor Community Center on "New Religion of God." In Michigan, after a day's fishing beer's the one... for good taste, good fun

Wherever you fish for sport—on the ocean, by the booming surf, or on some quiet country pond, it's great at the end of the day to head for a rewarding glass of beer. While you're talking over the ones that got away, or pan-frying the ones that didn't, you enjoy the hearty taste and cool refreshment only a glass of beer can give you so well. Yes, whatever your sport—bowling or strolling, golfing or gardening—a frosty glass of beer makes a naturally great accompaniment.

Buick Open In $100,000 Prize Field

Grand Blanc — Michigan's only major golf tournament of the year, the eighth annual Buick Open, entered the $100,000-prize class with the announcement by Buick Motor Division that the total purse has been increased more than 50 percent.

The Open will be played at Warwick Hills Golf & Country Club only five weeks from now, Thursday through Sunday, June 3-6.

Gerald H. Rideout, general chairman for the tournament and Buick director of public relations, said the $100,000 includes television rights. The Open will be televised Saturday and Sunday, June 5 and 6.

"We have increased the purse so that the Buick Open will continue to attract top players and provide Michigan with a major sports event," Rideout explained.

He pointed out that when the Open started in Michigan eight years ago it carried a purse of $52,000, at the time among the biggest on the PGA tour. This year, 13 of the 20 PGA tournaments have purses of $100,000 or more.

Last year, the Buick increased the prize money to $66,000, including a purse of $55,000 and $11,000 for television rights divided among the participating pros. That with the use of a car for the champion for five years and use of a car for each of 10 runners-up for one year ranked the Open in the near-$100,000 class.

The champion's purse this year is $18,000, plus use of a current-model Buick for five years and another $1,000 for instructional sequences in the annual color-and-sound motion picture for free showing the year around. That could be calculated to bring the total value to an estimated $25,000 or more, just as all fringe benefits for the pros might make the Buick Open now a $125,000, even a $135,000 tournament.

Second prize this year is $10,000 and there is a car as a prize for any hole-in-one, no matter how many. To date three pros have won cars with Buick Open holes-in-one—Butch Baird, Jerry Barber and George Bayer.

The 1965 Buick Open national telecast will be live and in color on Sports Network, upwards from 160 stations for a total of 2 1/2 hours, 4 to 5 p.m. EST, Saturday, June 5 and 4 to 5:30 p.m. EST, Sunday, June 6.

More than 300 delegates and hundreds of other state employees will participate in the three-day meeting which will shape MSEA policies and actions during the coming year, according to A. M. "Biff" Elliott, association president.

The annual election of officers and ceremonies honoring 40-year career state employees will highlight the annual affair.

The State Police recommend that children be with friends in any outdoor activity. A youngster alone, especially in isolated places, can too easily become the victim of a child molester.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

Third Grade, Mrs. Fulke—
In Social Studies we have been studying a unit on transportation. We collected pictures showing ways to travel. We made a very interesting and colorful chart. It was interesting to learn that people in other countries travel by different means than we do. In Peru people use llamas; in the Arctic regions, reindeer; in the jungle, elephants, in Mexico, the burro, and in Alaska, the dog sled.

On April 13, the third grades took a train ride. We boarded the train at Ann Arbor and rode to Jackson. We were busy watching for places we recognized. We found the reclining seats very comfortable, but found it hard to walk when the train was moving. The conductor told us that we were traveling at a speed of 80 mph.

First Grade, Mrs. Benford—
On Thursday our class walked to the McKune Library. For most of us it was our first visit. At the library we all got library cards. During the summer we are planning to use these cards, often to practice our reading so we will be all ready for second grade in the fall.

We are now doing a dairy unit. On Friday we made butter in class. Several of the children brought crackers and we had a nice treat using our "home-made" butter. Soon we will visit a dairy. One of our classmates, Doug Beaumont, had his tonsils out last week. We hope he will be back in school soon.

Kindergarten Mrs. Hinele—
We are pleased to say our alphabet books are finished. With notebook rings to hold them together and covers of cardboard and paper, the children can use the books over the summer to review for first grade.

We spent last week drawing pictures of our families. In the process we learned how to draw the human figure—remembering the head, neck, shoulders, etc. To complete our study we dressed a flat wooden stick in materials to resemble a person.

Our Weekly Readers have been discussing flowers—parts and how they grow, so we have decided to visit the Chelsea Greenhouse. Here we saw all we had talked about, plus being given a plant of our own to care for at home.

Now we are studying the farm. A trip to the Trinkle farm is planned as a climax to this unit. We'll tell you more about that later.

We wished our Mothers a Happy Mothers' Day with our hand print in pastel plaster of paris. They turned out very well plus giving us something to remember our kindergarten age.

The afternoon class is pleased to welcome Brenda Salyer from Jackson.

Mrs. Hanna, Second Grade—
Spring has arrived in our room. Spring flowers are blooming and we made some pictures of them. We are studying about birds and animals in science. We made bird feeders from milk cartons.

We have a new boy in our room. Howard Salyer from Jackson. Now we have 15 boys and 15 girls in our room.

Mrs. McKerrow, Kindergarten—
We in kindergarten have been learning about pets and the sea since we last reported to you. During our pet unit we have had various art activities and discussions on the care of pets. As a culminating activity we had a Pet Show.

Our study of the sea proved to be very interesting. Many of the children had good collections of shells which they brought to class and shared with us.

May will be a busy month for us. We have two field trips planned (we will report to you later about them). Don't forget Kindergarten Round-Up on May 14.

Fifth Grade—
The safety patrol boys and service girls attended the Detroit Tiger baseball game on Saturday, May 1. The Tigers defeated Boston, 9-8. A good time was had by all of us.
