HONOR GRADUATES: Chelsea High school's students who graduated cum laude at commencement exercises Friday, June 11, are shown in the above photo. These students have maintained at least a 3.5 point average for their four years of studies, based on 4.0 for all "A's" and 3.0 for "B's." This means that they received at least half "A's" and half "B's." From left, they are David Frisinger, Carol Hafley, Julie Eisman, Diane Worden, Kathy Sutter, Lucinda Schumm, Linda Wahl, Sandra Osborne and George Gary.

Nine Chelsea High Seniors Graduated With 'Honors'

Students who have consistently maintained an average of 3.5 or better throughout their four years of high school were graduated "with honors" at the commencement exercises at Chelsea High School Friday evening.

There were nine students of the 119 in the senior class who attained the distinction of graduating cum laude. They are listed alphabetically (not in order of their scholarship standing). Five of the nine received scholarships and all nine of the cum laude graduates will be enrolling in colleges and universities in the fall.

First on the list is Julie Eisman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eisman, 11900 Chelsea-Dexter Rd. She received a Teachers Club scholarship and will continue her education at Albion College.

David Frisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Frisinger, 13450 Jerusalem Rd., second on the alphabetical list, was awarded the Eugene Fisher Science Award. He will attend the University of Michigan.

School Board Briefs

It was discussed for some time as to what action the Board should take to help prevent inaccurate and misinterpreted information from reaching the electorate. This was brought to attention by an unsigned letter in a recent issue of The Standard. In an effort to straighten out some of the distortions presented in this letter, the following information is reported:

1. The only reason that the structural engineers were asked to inspect the Junior High School facilities was to determine whether or not the facilities were physically safe to use until a replacement could be constructed in the next 2-3 years.

2. Following are the conclusions of the engineers as recorded: "The need for new and up-to-date facilities is even more critical since nine years have gone by since previous report."

To make the necessary structural repairs, replace flooring, repair stairs, replace roofing, necessary pointing of brick, repaving and improving all toilet and locker areas and other items mentioned in the report that should be taken care of from a fire and safety standpoint, I would estimate to cost at least $60,000 to $100,000. Even this expenditure of money would only meet minimum requirements and not provide a school that could be used for more than an additional 5 years."

Signed, Francis F. Widrig, Structural engineer. "The above items should be taken care of to decrease fire risk and safety hazards and would cost from $20,000 to $30,000. This expenditure of money would only provide minimum electrical standards. It is our recommendation that no attempt be made to bring the school up to modern standards as the electrical cost to do the George Gary, next on the list, will also attend the University of Michigan. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gary, 14001 Riker Rd. Carol Hafley, also on the list of cum laude graduates, is planning to attend Kalamazoo College. She received the scholarship customarily awarded the central treasurer of the school. She served in this capacity. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Veryl Hafley, 173 Old Us-12.

Sandra Osborne, fifth on the alphabetical list, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Osborne, 422 W. Middle St. She is another of the scholarship winners, having received a Michigan High Education Authority scholarship. She will be attending Michigan State University.

Lucinda Schumm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schumm, 17101 Old Us-12 plans to attend Wittenberg University at Springfield, O. She is sixth on the alphabetical list of cum laude graduates.

The remaining three graduates on the list of honor graduates are Kathy Sutter, Linda Wahl and Diane Worden.

Miss Worden, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Worden, 11 Lincoln St., has received a scholarship to attend Michigan State University.

Miss Wahl, who also plans to attend Michigan State University, was awarded two scholarships, an MSU scholarship and one from the Teachers Club. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wahl, 7000 Grass Lake Rd.

Miss Sutter, whose parents are Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Sutter of McKinley St. will attend Northern Michigan University.

Discussion held with Joe Merkel, owner of Sylvan Hotel, who requested permission to permit overnight parking on Main St. for transient hotel guests. Councilman Burg and Police Chief John Priemer were instructed to meet with Merkel regarding the request.

Discussion pertaining to the 1965 street program. The contractor assured the Council, that barring bad weather, the sand and gravel base work will be completed by June 19.

Discussion held regarding recent activities of the Industrial Development Committee. Councilman Larry Chapman stated the IDC members had been in contact with several firms regarding their possible location in this area.

Discussion regarding the possible need for controls regulating construction of swimming pools and Councilman Crouch was instructed to investigate and report back to the Council.

Trustee Frederick Weber reported on the June 3 organizational meeting of the Huron River Watershed Committee. He said business at the meeting included election of temporary officers and passing of by-laws. The next meeting is scheduled for Sept. 17 at which time permanent officers will be elected.

Discussion held relative to village employees' pay scale. Motion approved to grant 10 cents per hour increase to Joseph Brannam and Charles Hafner and 20 cents per hour to Floyd Roderick to equalize the Village pay scale. In order to bring the village wage scale to a point in line with other comparable municipalities the following pay increases were recommended and given Council approval — 7 percent increase to Superintendent Homer Nixon and to the assistant superintendent, Harold Bable of the Chelsea Electric and Water Dept.; Parker Brown, Public Works superintendent and Police Chief John Palmer; and a 5 percent increase to all other village employees, effective June 15. School Board Acts To Share Some Facilities

Will Offer Sharing Arrangement in Special Fields With Parochial School

Registration Of Bikes Set For Saturday

The new Fire Hall on W. Middle St. will be the headquarters for the annual registration of bicycles with the Chelsea Police Department this Saturday and next, June 19 and 20, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Rules and regulations governing the use of bicycles in Chelsea are stated in Ordinance No. 65, which was passed in October, 1964. Of particular importance is Section 10, which specifies that "No bicycle shall be operated within the period from sunset to sunrise without having a properly lighted headlight attached to the front... nor without having a red light or a reflector attached to the rear." The fee for the year of registration is 50 cents.

Fair Board Tells of Many New Features

William Blass, Chelsea Community Fair Board president is announcing a board meeting to be held at the fairgrounds on Tuesday, June 29, at 8 p.m. He emphasizes that all committee chairmen should be present in order to discuss needs for the fair project. Blass said, "Plans are being formulated to make this fair another interesting and enjoyable one. The Gooding Amusement Co. has agreed to bring a large and interesting mid-way attraction. Work has been completed by the Village crew on the sanitary sewer line which now eliminates the use of a drain field. Various plans for improvement of the gate traffic are being considered and other projects also are in the planning stage."

Officers of the Fair Board this year are William Blass, president; Everett Van Riper, vice-president; Gary Jackson, secretary; and H. T. Moore, treasurer. Members of the board of directors re-elected to a new three-year term are Harold Grosz, representing the Dexter area, and Anton Nielsen, Carl Heller and John Brooks, for the Chelsea area.

Donald E. Wilson Earns Navy Promotion

Bremervorden, Germany — Communications Technician Third Class Donald E. Wilson, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elgin F. Wilson of Route 2, Gregory, Mich., was advanced to his present rate May 16, while serving with the U. S. Naval Security Group Activity at Bremervorden, Germany. His promotion was based on time in service and rate, military appearance, performance, of duties and passing the Navy-wide test for promotion.

First official step toward a "shared time and services" program with the St. Mary's school was taken by the 1964-65 Chelsea Board of Education Monday night, as one of its final acts before swearing in two newly-elected members.

Under the "sharing" arrangement, certain facilities such as those for art, music, home economics and shop classes would be made available for use by the parochial school. A program which is gaining ground in numerous school districts, Superintendent Charles Cameron stated that the Chelsea School District will receive "50% pupil of state aid" for each six parochial pupils (per class period) to share in the new service, which is designed essentially to make available to the parochial pupils services now existing in the public school, at a minimum cost.

The Board also turned down a second request to add an elementary school-art teacher, pointing out that it is too late in the planning of the curriculum and that money is not available.

Acting on a recommendation from Board Member Don Albor's study, the Board decided to buy bleacher seats with money returned to the district because of a lawsuit—the money was originally earmarked for bleachers. Paul Mann and Arthur Kuhl in the building and site fund until the outcome and needs of the bonding election are known, but the Board voted 5-2 to buy the bleachers. Election date for the three-point building program vote was officially set for Monday, Sept. 13. Progress reports from the Building Program committees will be received by the Board at a meeting next Wednesday, June 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the High School cafeteria.

Becky Howes Is Winner in Monthly Magazine Contest

Becky—Howes, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howes, was thrilled Tuesday afternoon to receive a telephone call from Gloria Stavers, editor-in-chief of "16" magazine, telling her she was one of 10 prizewinners in the magazine's monthly "Dreamsville" contest. Contestants are required to write to the magazine expressing a wish; if their letter is chosen as one of the winning entries, their wish is granted.

Becky's wish was for a stuffed animal for her room and a personal letter from the movie star, Annette Funicello. When Miss Stavers contacted Becky Tuesday she told her she would be receiving a stuffed animal which Miss Funicello will personally select and will also receive the personal letter she wished for. About two hours later, Becky received a telephone call from a Bay City radio station asking her to identify a recording being played. The connection was poor and she could barely hear; however, she was told she would receive a consolation prize, a recording of her choice.

MMPA Members Hit Hard At Attempt To Mislead Public

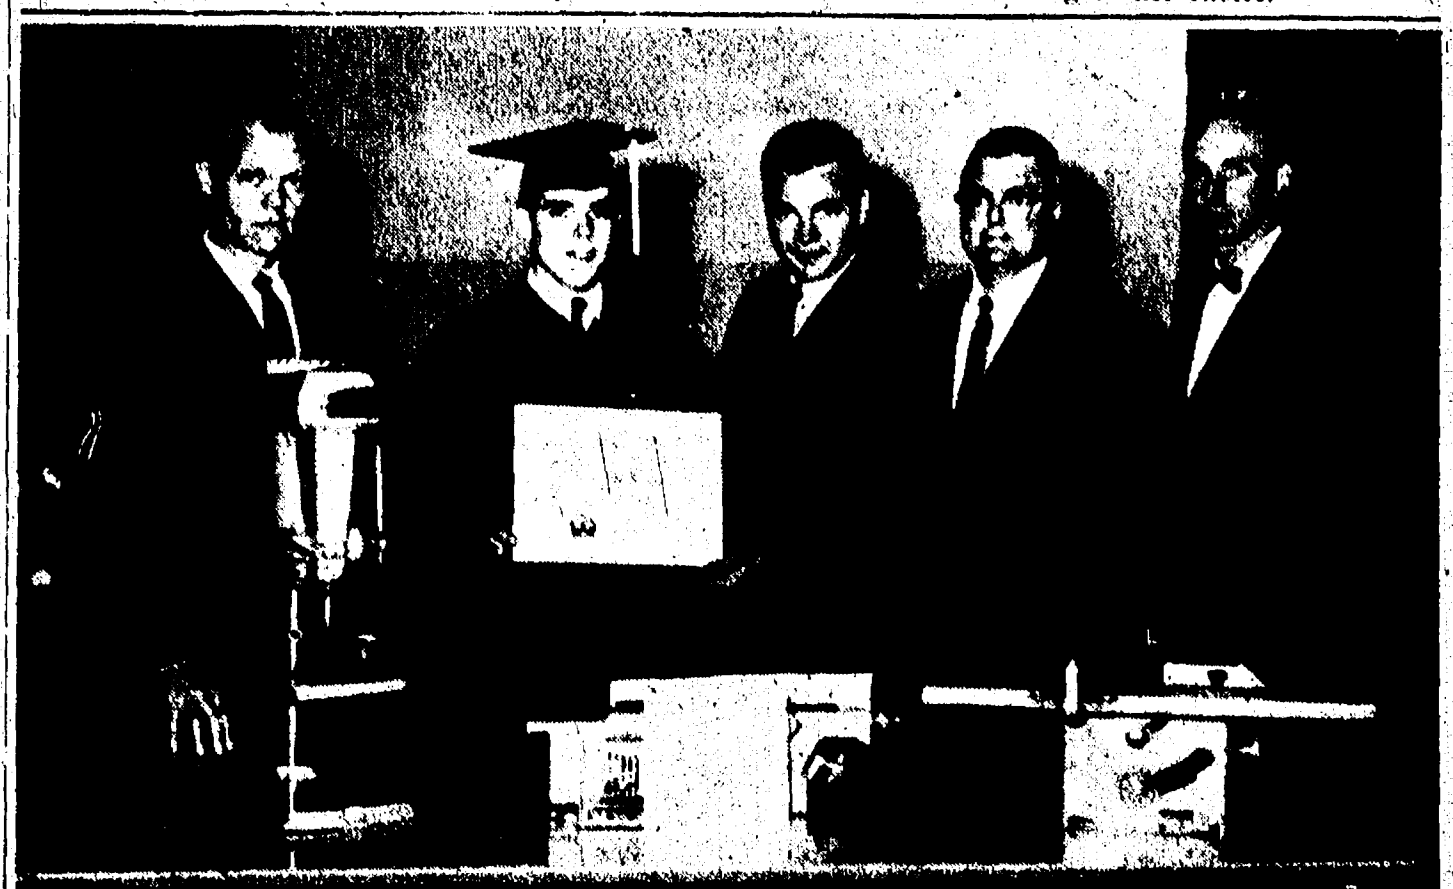

When State Senator Gilbert Bursley visited Chelsea Saturday morning, Herman Koenn, president of the Ann Arbor Local of the Michigan Milk Producers Association (MMPA) and other members of the Local, took advantage of the opportunity to express their opinions personally to the Senator about House Bill 2165, which would require the MMPA to register its members with the state legislature. Koenn said he and the other MMPA members were particularly interested in classifying the bill as a "misleading statement" made by the state legislature.

and provides for price posting processes. If the bill (which the MMPA is supporting) is passed, enforcement of its provisions would be the responsibility of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, Koenn explained.

Currently appearing in a number of the state's newspapers, Koenn stated, are eye-catching advertisements showing a baby crying and bearing the caption "If you go on over high priced milk." Koenn claims the information in the advertisement is misleading in that it compares current Michigan prices of half-gallon quantity prices of milk with similar quantity prices in Florida, Georgia, Virginia and Louisiana. These states, Koenn says, are "deficit milk production states," which is the reason for higher prices. Koenn asks, "why doesn't the advertiser use for comparison, the prices in the neighboring midwest states of Wisconsin and Minnesota where the same kind of law that Michigan farmers are seeking is already in effect?"

In the advertisements of those who are trying to defeat House Bill 2165, Koenn pointed out, the present Michigan milk prices for half-gallon cartons is given as 37 cents compared to 37 cents in Florida, 53 cents in Georgia and Louisiana, and 55 cents in Virginia. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture May 1965 issue of "Fluid Milk and Cream Report," Koenn said, it is shown (Continued on page five)

IN THE OPEN

By Lee Smits

An inside view of Conservation Department operations was a re-fresher course for an old-timer who vividly recalls the transition from the political spoils system to a pioneering non-partisan commission form of administration, who has seen the department expand into a multi-million-dollar annual business. Yet, remembering that it was during the old regime under Director John Baird, a rural politician of great shrewdness, that P.S. Lovejoy was brought into the department and encouraged to launch basic research that eventually caused Michigan's department to be regarded as a model for the nation.

A regional meeting was held at the Cusino Wildlife Experiment Station at Shingleton to make ready for deer checking, draft beaver and other trapping recommendations and discuss the latest die-off of waterfowl on Lake Michigan. Bill Laycock, game manager for Region I, the Upper Peninsula, presided. Every minute of the time was devoted to business at hand, with none of the confabulation that usually goes on at conferences, committee meetings and similar gatherings.

By far the most dramatic matter under discussion was the die-off of loons on Lake Michigan. Conservative estimates, based on counts of dead loons along the beaches on the north shore, indicate that 5,000-10,000 loons have perished. Loons are inclined to migrate in pairs, or in family groups of three or four, and the destruction of 5,000 loons raises the question: How many are there left of all the loons using the Great Lakes flyway?

Lloyd Schenauer, district game biologist stationed at Newberry, had detailed reports, obtained by walking the beaches after spotting from a plane had revealed areas where dead loons had accumulated. There was a heavy die-off of loons last year, also a heavy die-off of gulls, at various places along Lake Michigan.

Dr. Dale Fay, the department's game pathologist, said that tests had shown that a type of botulism poisoning was responsible for the die-offs. Audubon Society observers had at first blamed pesticides draining into the lake from orchards. However, the latest die-off is a considerable distance from any extensive orchards.

Dr. Fay was called on to give Region I field men detailed instructions in the aging of deer by tooth development. The field men, who will man checking stations during the deer season, have taken the instructions before. They know what to look for, but they all paid close attention to Dr. Fay's talk, illustrated with color slides of deer jaw-bones.

It would be easy information to forget; the precise stages indicated by the replacement of infant teeth, and then progressive wear on pre-molars, molars and incisors as a deer matures.

The system has been tested for some years, with jaw-bones from deer of known ages, including deer that had been trapped and tagged as fawns. A deer's age within a range of six months can be determined pretty accurately by the teeth.

Counting, weighing and aging deer at check stations is a basic requirement of deer management, and most hunters are eager to cooperate.

The lesson concluded with every-one examining an assortment of jaw-bones spread out on a big table.

Cemetery Association Re-Elects Officers

Mrs. William Reno has been re-elected vice-president of the Freedom-Emanuel Evangelical Cemetery Association for another term in that office and was also named a trustee of the association for a five-year term. The election took place at the annual cemetery association meeting, customarily the last Sunday in May.

Other officers, already serving in office are Mrs. Harold Buss, president; and Earl Hueli, secretary-treasurer.

Serving as trustees in addition to the officers are Mrs. William Watson of Dearborn and Lawrence Smith of Ann Arbor.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Francis Hafner and her son Ronald, of Tucson, Ariz., spent four days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hafner of South St. Thursday afternoon and evening they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grammatico in Ann Arbor. Friday evening they attended graduation exercises at Chelsea High school and open house for Diane Grammatico and Saturday, they left for Lansing where Ronald will enter Lansing Community College in the fall.

Elton Musbach attended the open house for Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hinders' 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, at their home on Harrison St. and another open house for his sister, Mrs. Bessie Musbach Mitchell of Munith. Mrs. Mitchell, who was chosen teacher of the year, retired at the end of the school year after 34 years of teaching, the last 20 years in the Stockbridge and Grass Lake school systems. Illness prevented Mrs. Musbach from accompanying her husband.

REPORT from LANSING

As this session draws toward a close, the proverbial "capitol observers" are searching with some difficulty for a label to put on the achievements of this legislature. What makes it difficult is that Michigan has never before experienced a legislative body quite like this one.

A favorite label often given to sessions by editorialists is "do-nothing." This certainly is not descriptive of what we have been experiencing in the last few months. A more accurate account would be "busy up and do something, no matter what or how."

Reflecting on the major bills, I find that each one was handled with such an attitude. This was the case with Senior Citizens' Tax Relief, Workmen's Compensation, important tax and appropriation measures, and many others.

Majority party leaders suddenly decide it's time to do something. Hastily a bill is drafted and the Speaker sends one of his many

Diagonal Weave Fabrics Can Make Interesting Designs

Interesting design can be created with fabrics having diagonal weaves. Michigan State University textile and clothing specialists suggest that diagonals are most effective in designs that:

1. Have set in sleeves — raglan or kimono sleeves create difficulty, and cannot be used unless accompanied by a special cutting chart.

2. Have slim skirts — gored or flared skirts will generally have bias seam edges which will force the diagonal to run in different directions.

3. Have a simple classic line — clothes which have many pattern pieces or intricate seaming details will create a multitude of problems in order to keep the diagonal lines going in one direction.

The primary rule to remember when selecting a pattern for your diagonal fabrics is to avoid bias cut seams or bias bands which will show on the right side.

Mrs. B. Donaldson Attends Women's Peace League Sessions

Mrs. Ben Donaldson, met in executive session with other board members of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, June 10 and 11, at the Jane Addams House in Philadelphia, Pa.

Plans were made for celebrating the League's 50th anniversary at The Hague where the organization was founded in 1915.

Board members passed resolutions expressing WILPF's concern over the new use of U. S. troops in Vietnam in an offensive way when requested by the South Vietnamese Government.

The League believes that the U. S. should increase its efforts to achieve a cease-fire and negotiations so that all foreign troops will be withdrawn from that war-torn country.

Mrs. Donaldson and other board members expressed their very deep concern over the armed clashes in many parts of the world which they believe could, at any moment, explode into global war.

As a step in the direction away from global war they sent a resolution to President Johnson suggesting the U. S. propose to the United Nations a ban on shipment of arms across national borders to be verified when necessary by the U. N.

That's right... YOU ARE SEEING MORE PLYMOUTHS

One reason is the 5-year/50,000-mile warranty on the parts that keep you going.

 Here's how Plymouth's 5-year/50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty protects you: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1965 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine, block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential and rear wheel bearings. Required maintenance: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

Just A Minute...

By the Rev. James A. Craig

There is a tragedy in seeing people with hope and vigor and dreams stiffen in the mold of conformity. It is so easy to become like T. S. Eliot's "hollow men."
We come and go and no one knows the difference. We take what we need and give nothing much in return.

Even so, we are the zealous guardians of the twin ideals of freedom and democracy. This, we feel, is of greatest importance. We expend considerable energy holding on to them that we are more concerned with our grip than with what we hold.

We urge others to accept these ideals. And the only means we offer them is to cling to our legs.
We are such careful guardians that we want others to come only by the way we came.

We should remember in our own journey we took many paths before we found one that led us along to our hoped-for goal.

It took us the freedom to experiment to discover what would be workable for us.

This freedom to experiment we ought, at least, to offer others with the hope that they will discover the worth of the ideals we offer.

If we do only what others, with whom we disagree, have done, what is that? How much more should we do than either communist or Nazi to help people and nations find the joy of a free society?

Having been given much, let us freely give.

'65 Feed Grain Compliance To Be By Certification

No farm visits will be made to check compliance on the 1965 Feed Grain program. Compliance on the 1965 Feed Grain program will be done by certification in Washtenaw county the same as for the wheat diversion program. Producers who have signed up in the 1965 Feed Grain program must go to the county ASCS office to certify their acreages. The deadline date for corn certification is July 12. Producers who have failed to report their corn acreage by this date will be considered out of compliance and their contracts will automatically be canceled.

To give better service, the ASCS office has scheduled three townships a day to come to the county office to certify on the following schedule:

Lyndon, Dexter and Augusta
townships, June 21;

Webster, Northfield and Ann Arbor townships, June 22;

Salem, Sylvan and Lima townships, June 23;

Scio, Superior and Sharon townships, June 24;

Freedom, Lodi and Pittsfield
townships, June 25;

Ypsilanti, York and Manchester
townships, June 26;

Bridgewater and Saline townships, June 28.

Certification may be completed at anytime before July 12 ASCS office hours are from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

"THE GREATEST SIN"

You may have felt the beginning of World War II was the greatest sin and that Hitler was the greatest sinner. But that is not true. Some have felt that the release of the atomic bomb on unaware Japanese victims was the greatest sin. But that cannot be true.

Common belief has been that murder is the greatest single. Then comes the sins of adultery, fornication, drunkenness, robbery, and blasphemy. These are grave sins... yet there is one sin even greater... one sin that will condemn a soul to Hell for all eternity!

Do you know that this greatest sin is one of the most common in the world today? Can you believe that many of our friends are committing this very sin and are not aware of it?
Perhaps even you have never before realized the significance of this sin. What is it?

Let us turn to the Bible, and with the Word of God as our guide, let us see what God judges to be the greatest sin. In John 16:8, 9 we read the words of the Lord Jesus Christ: "And when He (the Holy Spirit) is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment; of sin, because they believe not on Me."

Here God is telling men and women that THE GREATEST SIN IS THE SIN OF NOT BELIEVING ON CHRIST. God can forgive all sins, but if men and women go on rejecting or neglecting Christ, this sin will condemn them to a lost eternity forever and ever.

What have you done with Christ? If you have believed on Him you have eternal life. "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life..." (1 John 5:13). If you have not believed on Christ, in the sight of God you are committing the greatest sin.

Do not make the sad mistake that many make here. They have believed about Christ all their lives. They mistake religion, culture and morality for salvation—but salvation comes only through believing on Christ as personal Saviour.

God sent His Son into the world. At Calvary's cross God judged Him and put Him to death for your sins and my sins. In Isaiah 53:5 we read: "He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastise-ment of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed." God took all the sins of the world—all the black sins, the vile sins, the sins of every degree and of every kind—and judged His Son for them.

Is it any wonder then if you do not believe on Christ, God has nothing to offer you? God gave the best He had—His own Son—to die in your place and to be judged for your sins. If you reject Him or even go on neglecting Him, you are guilty of the sin for which there is no forgiveness. In John 3:36 we read: "He that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

"How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?" (Hebrews 2:3) "What shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?" (1 Peter 4:17).

Congressman Wes VIVIAN Reports from WASHINGTON

A United States Congressman has a number of duties. Among them are the responsibility to be informed on legislation coming to a vote on the floor of the U.S. House of Representatives and to vote on it when the roll is called; to attend the meetings of his committee and conscientiously expand his knowledge on the matters under committee jurisdiction; and to represent the interests of his district in the Congress in particular, and the Federal Government in general.

I try to keep abreast of the opinions of the citizens in the Second District by spending almost every weekend in Michigan and meeting with people during office hours and informal gatherings. In addition, my correspondence with people in the district provides very good information on how my constituents feel about various issues.

The Dodd "Gun Control Bill"
The Dodd bill, which the Senator from Connecticut has introduced in the Senate, and has also been introduced in the House, has generated a great deal of mail from constituents, almost all of it in opposition. What is noteworthy about the letters I have received in opposition to the Dodd Bill is that almost all of them have been based on misinformation.

Senate Hearings have been completed on the Dodd Bill, and are pending in the House. I will take no position on the measure until the House. However, because of the misinformation that has apparently been circulated about Senator Dodd's bill, I will discuss in my column this week what the measure, if enacted, would and would not do.

Interstate Transport of Weapons
At a first reading of the Dodd Bill, S. 1592, it becomes apparent that it was drafted with an obvious intent to generally exclude sportsmen from its jurisdiction, with an obvious exception: the bill will prohibit the purchase of all firearms by mail by individuals. This will be restrictive for those sportsmen now in the habit of dealing with mail order firearms retailers, and I can appreciate why persons wish to purchase guns in this manner would object. But what has dismayed me is that many of the objections I have received about the bill have been based on provisions that are not in the bill.

For example, many have written me and explained that it would be damaging to the economy of Michigan if sportsmen weren't allowed to transport their rifles and shotguns across state lines into Michigan during hunting season. The Bill expressly states that nothing in the bill shall be construed to prohibit the transport or shipment of personal weapons (including hand guns, if it is legal in the states involved) across state lines; sportsmen would be able to carry or ship their rifles or shotguns into other states.

Another erroneous statement apparently circulated about the Dodd bill is that a sportsman would have to be a resident of the state in which he purchases a rifle or shotgun over the counter from a dealer; this is not true. The bill expressly exempts shotguns and rifles from the provision requiring that purchasers be a resident of the state. This means that, if the bill should pass, out-of-state hunters will still be able to purchase rifles and shotguns in Michigan and citizens of Monroe county, for instance, can travel into Ohio to buy a rifle or shotgun if they wish.

Shipment for Repairs Allowed
Some have stated that if the bill passed they would not be allowed to ship their weapons out of state for repairs; this is simply not true. The Dodd Bill states that interstate shipment of guns for repairs is not prohibited.

Others object to the bill because they have been told that it would subject sportsmen who hand load ammunition to the tax on ammunition manufacturers. This is not true, for the bill defines a manufacturer as one engaged in the manufacture of firearms or ammunition for "sale or distribution."

I believe that this definition in the bill could be construed so as to make sporting clubs, which hand-load ammunition for members, subject to the tax of $500. I believe it should be amended to expressly exempt such clubs.

The bill prohibits the importation of firearms by individuals, but expressly exempts antique or non-serviceable firearms and sporting pieces. For example, this provision would allow antique gun collectors to continue to import, and would allow shotgun fanciers to purchase engraved shotguns in Europe.

Many have written me that the Dodd Bill would run counter to our Constitutionally guaranteed right to own, bear, and use guns. From my reading of the bill I can't agree. The bill doesn't require that guns be registered (although it would require dealers to record to whom they sold); and it doesn't restrict the use of weapons. It restricts the purchase of sporting arms only in the case of mail order purchases, sales to persons with criminal records, and persons under 18 years of age.

I can appreciate why some persons would object to the Dodd Bill as it is currently written. What has concerned me is that the letters I have received from my friends in the Second Congressional District have been based largely on misinformation about the bill. I hope that sportsmen in the District will continue to be interested in this bill and that they will communicate their interest to me. But I hope this column will add to the factual discussion of the merits of the bill, and that it will end some of the misinformation and rumors surrounding it.

THE VOTE BILL
The Senate passed the voting rights bill by a 77-10 roll-call vote. The major hurdle was cleared when the Senate voted to stop debate on the bill. The Senate had debated 26 days on the President's to-priority measure.

SOVIETS & VIETNAM
Secretary of State Dean Rusk has disclosed a further Soviet missile involvement in the Vietnam war. He said there may be a second surface-to-air missile site in the area of Hanoi, the North Vietnam capital.

Price Support Rates Set For '65 Wheat

The price-support loan and purchase rate for 1965-crop wheat in Washtenaw county will be $1.24 per bushel, Earl Doletzky, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced. Information on price-support rates for wheat stored in terminals, as well as schedules of premiums and discounts is available at the ASCS county office.

As in the past, terminal price-support rates are derived by adding rail freight and handling charges necessary to get the wheat from the producing area to the terminal markets. The county loan rates are then computed on the basis of the tributary terminal market loan rate, minus rail freight rates. County and terminal loan rates are subject to further adjustment for premium and discounts in determining individual producer loans, depending on the grade and quality of the producer's wheat collateral.

The chairman explained that this support will be available to all growers who stay within their farm's 1966 wheat allotments and carry out other provisions of the 1965 wheat program. By signing up and participating in the program, they qualify for price-support loans and purchases and for marketing certificates. Diversion payments will also be available to such participants if they reduce their wheat acreage at least 10 percent below the farm allotment and devote the acreage to conserving uses.

(Special provisions apply in cases where wheat is substituted for feed grains, or visa versa.) The marketing certificates are worth 75 cents a bushel for the domestic portion of the farm's wheat crop—based on 45 percent of the normal production of the wheat acreage—and 30 cents a bushel on the export portion—based on 35 percent of the normal production from the wheat acreage.

Doletzky pointed out that three general changes are made in the price-support rate schedules for 1965-crop wheat. They deal with terminal rate adjustments, discontinuance of the sedimentation value tests, and a readjustment of schedules.

'New Wheat Farm' Applications Due By July 1 Deadline

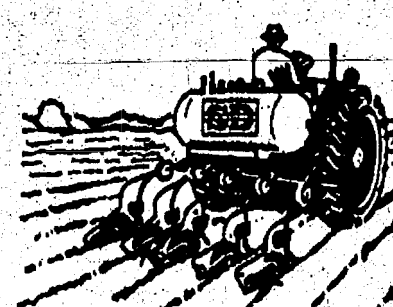

Farmers who wish to be considered for a "new wheat farm" allotment for 1966 on a farm which does not now have a wheat allotment should get in touch with the ASCS county office right away. Earl Doletzky, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today. Such farmers have until July 1 to file applications for such an allotment.

A "new farm" is a farm on which there is no wheat acreage history, including acreage considered as wheat under the Conservation Reserve Program or wheat diversion programs.

In addition, Doletzky stated, the producers must not already have a wheat allotment on any other farm they operate.

The chairman emphasized that formal application for a "new farm" application must be made in writing on a form provided for that purpose, and the application must be filed at the ASCS county office by the July 1 deadline.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

House of Representatives action last Friday night called for a $8,250,000 cut in the Senate approved appropriation for the University of Michigan. This action would not only be devastating to the country's outstanding state university but would also be catastrophic to Washtenaw county's economy. Almost $5,000,000 of this suggested cut would normally be disbursed in payrolls and this in turn is of vital importance to every merchant, farmer, service station, barber, bank, shopping center and professional person in the area. Almost one third of the University's personnel live in Ypsilanti, Chelsea, Saline, Dexter, Manchester, Whitmore Lake, Milford and the township areas outside Ann Arbor.

If this sum is not restored forced program cuts at the University will deny educational opportunity to hundreds of students. And for thousands of others the threat of drastic tuition increases will be a question of utmost importance.

I will never agree to the suggested cut in the University's appropriation and will do everything in my power to see that it is restored.

Actually the higher education appropriation as recommended by the Senate was essentially fair to both Eastern Michigan University and the University of Michigan.

We will have several controversial bills before us in the Senate this week. Final action on all of them must be taken by June 22. After that the legislature allows three days for conference committees to work out differences between House and Senate versions of bills.

The Sunday liquor bill finally came out of committee last Friday. I have been publicly committed to vote against this measure.

We also have under consideration suggested birth control legislation; a bill outlawing below cost sales of milk; a proposed air pollution commission and a recommendation for a four year Saginaw Bay State College. Many of these bills have already been amended drastically since their original introduction and may still undergo change—if indeed they even pass.

The Senate killed several proposed new taxes last week including a 5 percent business income tax, a real estate transfer tax, and a beer tax reduction. We expect a session of the Legislature in October to consider the total tax picture. There is no point to piecemeal changes at this stage.

I made a motion in the Senate Appropriation Committee to strike out the $5,000 legislative pay raise voted by the House. This motion was approved by the committee and I think the issue is dead for this session.

At Chelsea last Saturday morning I had the opportunity to meet some 40 area residents in the third of a series of Senate Citizen Sessions.

I found a very strong concern over the Mill Creek Reservoir proposal. Questions were raised as to its need; the effects on landowners in the areas possibly to be flooded; and representation on the new Huron River Watershed Council. These are questions which I will look fully into and I plan to meet with concerned citizens later in the summer.

Other questions raised by Chelsea residents involved tax assessment practices, milk pricing legislation, enforcement of traffic safety measures and possible future taxes.

I am hoping to meet with area residents in Manchester on Saturday, June 26 in the next of these Senator-Citizen programs.

Capt. Davids Will Head State Police

Capt. Fred Davids, commander of the second district, Detroit, of the State Police has been appointed commissioner by Governor Romney, succeeding Commissioner Joseph A. Childs, who announced his intention earlier in the year to retire at this time.

Davids joined the State Police as a trooper in 1937 and worked up through the ranks both in the investigative services and uniform division.

He was promoted to captain in 1955 and after an assignment at East Lansing headquarters was transferred to command the second district. His career has embraced a wide range of activities in the department, both as a field officer and as an administrator.

He was born Feb. 5, 1914, at Hope in Midland county, where he graduated from high school.

He becomes the eighth commander of the department.

Childs, who entered the department in 1934, also worked up through the ranks to become commissioner, and had experience in the field as well as at headquarters before his appointment.

He was born Aug. 28, 1909, at Battle Creek, and because of an amendment to the State Police law which set a maximum age of

THE LETTERBOX

To the Editor:

"In my opinion any thought to try to repair and remodel existing school to bring it up to modern day standards is unthinkable," read the exact wording in the conclusion of the structural report by Holford, Wildrig, O'Neill and Levin Associates, consulting engineers who evaluated the Junior high school as reported in a recent issue of The Chelsea Standard. "Costs would be prohibitive."

"To make the necessary structural repairs, replace flooring, repair stairs, replace roofing, necessary pointing of brick, repaving and improving all toilet and locker areas and other items mentioned in the report that should be taken care of from a fire and safety standpoint, I would estimate to cost at least $60,000 to $80,000," the conclusion stated, adding that "Even this expenditure of money would only meet minimum requirements and not provide a school that could be used for more than an additional five years."

Now, the only reason for reiterating these points (they are made over again, with additional costs, in other sections of the engineers' report) is the gross misunderstanding of the meaning of the report shown by the "Letter to the Editor" by the anonymous "A Standard Reader" in last week's newspaper.

Also, "A Standard Reader" refers erroneously to the estimated total cost of three buildings ($1,500,000) as the cost of one building, assumes that he (or she) knows the exact financing method to be used, and he again assumes incorrectly that a forward-looking community should not replace its deteriorating structures until they are condemned.

If "A Standard Reader" will go back and look at his old Standard, he will not find any statement that the building is structurally unsound—yet his letter uses a half column of space protesting the structural soundness of the existing Junior high.

Suitability as a junior high school is the main thing being questioned. Let's not dodge the issue. And let's keep in mind that the report was made by honest professional engineers with honest motives.

Sincerely yours,
Ed Lewis
