Gridders Open Season Friday On Home Field

East, Inexperienced Team Hopes To End 9-Year String for Stockbridge

Many Attend Camp Crile Smorgasbord

Chelsea Bulldogs face a opener Friday night, Sept. 17, when they meet the Stockbridge grididers at a 7:30 p.m. contest on the Chelsea field. Jack Curn will battle to break the nine-year record of Stockbridge wins over Chelsea Friday night.

Bulldogs scrimmaged Michigan Center last Friday night, Sept. 10, and Curn reports the team did good and scored often.

"But," he added, "This is a re- grading year for Michigan Center because their lack of experience made them look especially good."

Our homefield blocking was good for this early in the game but our trap blocking and our blocking will have to improve greatly if we are to beat on our schedule," he added.

He listed the Bulldog's greatest plus as inexperience, but said his team can have a good team once it becomes experienced.

No changes are planned in the team for the Stockbridge game, however. Senior John Fullerton, suffering from a shoulder separation, Junior Larry Porath, who has been starting at center, with the junior Earl Hughes, may move into one of the guard spots in that position.

The Bulldogs' offensive line was led by John Fullerton, senior; Joe senior; David McGibney, senior; Earl Hughes, junior, and mentioned that Gary Hopkins also turned in a very satisfactory performance.

fixed Reactions Meet Ministers in School Vote Issue

Local ministers reported reactions from congregations regarding the support given to the school bond issue voted on Aug. 13.

Through general thanks and congratulations were extended to ministers for their support, members of the various congregations reportedly did not approve of this type of activity by ministers.

One minister reported that a local man had about paying to vote was actually taken away by at least one man in audience.

The various reactions were discussed at the Chelsea Ministership meeting on Tuesday evening, Sept. 14, at the St. James Episcopal church.

Rev. John Smucker, president of the Fellowship and vicar of St. Barnabas, presided at the meeting.

Other needs were discussed and Rev. Robert Livingston of the Church of Christ reported a national leader of his church, Ray Gibbons, will be here on Oct. 1. A steering committee will be formed to help him.

Watershed Council Meet Postponed

The second Huron River Watershed Council meeting scheduled for tonight, Sept. 16, has been postponed until Thursday, Sept. 24.

The public meeting will be in the Ann Arbor City Council chamber.

The Watershed Council was organized on June 3 by the State Water Resources Commission.

Delegates to the Council represent cities and villages, townships, and counties.

Chosen's delegate is Fred O'Brien, and William Chandler is the alternate. Dexter village is represented by Arthur Klumpp with Alfred Detting, Jr., as alternate.

Lima Township Board has selected Mrs. Harry Denham as a delegate and Robert Heller, alternate. These delegates have not yet been accepted by the Council.

Representatives by Supervisor Leight Beach, who also represents eight other townships.

Membership eligibility depends on whether a governmental unit uses the river for water supply or sewage disposal or in the case of counties and townships, whether the county or township has 15 percent or more of its area in the watershed.

The term watershed refers to the drainage area of the stream.

Sen. Gilbert E. Bursley, R-18th district, hopes to clarify the interpretation of this eligibility provision with an amendment which he plans to introduce this winter in the state legislature.

Representatives from other neighboring townships, include James Tryand, who has been selected to represent Scio Township, and his alternate, Robert Holliday; Leon Shutes and Robert Kaechele, alternate, who will be the Dexter township representatives. Mrs. Donna Baldus, delegate, and Mrs. May Mast, alternate, from Webster township, and Leigh Beach, who is county delegate for the townships of Lyndon, Northfield, Salem, Sylva, Lima, Sharon, Freehold, Lodi and Pittsfield. These nine Huron River basin townships.

Kiwanis Club Travel Series Back Again

The Rev. James Craig presented the club's International Affairs committee program at the weekly meeting held Monday evening in the Congregational church dining room. He showed a McGraw-Hill Publishing Co. film entitled "Black and White" illustrating the many problems currently facing the Union of South Africa.

The Rev. John Fall, in charge of the Kiwanis-sponsored Travel and Adventure series of programs to be held this fall and winter, announced a new-type of contest for this, the fifth season. Kiwanians are divided into teams and the team selling the most tickets will be served a steak dinner while the individual Kiwanian who sells the most tickets will be given a special prize.

Another new ruling this year provides that extra punches on any ticket other than for the actual purchaser, will not be effective or permitted until 10 minutes before 8 p.m. on the night of any of the programs.

Raymond Steinbach distributed tickets to all members and the members were divided into five teams to work under the following captains—William J. Collins, James Daniels, Floyd Fowler, Dr. P. E. Sharrard and William Rich.

The first program of the 1965-66 series is set for Oct. 16. Entitled "Way of Britain" the narrator will be Thayer Soule.

An announcement was made Monday that five Chelsea Kiwanians are planning to attend the Kiwanis state convention at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Detroit, Sept. 19-21.

The five are Don Turner, Floyd Fowler and Paul G. Schuhie, who are president and first and second vice-president respectively of the Chelsea club; M. J. Anderson, a past president of the Kiwanis Michigan District; and Jerry DeBeaumont.

Next week's Kiwanis club meeting, Monday, Sept. 20, will be the annual ladies' night welcoming new members of the Chelsea schools' faculty and their husbands and wives.

The meeting will be held at the Congregational church and will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Youth Problems Will Be Studied By Church Groups

To Help in Study

Dr. Ray Gibbons, director of the Council for Christian Social Action of the United Church of Christ, will be in Chelsea Monday, Oct. 4, to talk to interested people about the two major problems youth face today: education and the use of their leisure time.

Dr. Gibbons will be in Chelsea as the guest of the First Congregational church. Deacons of that church will share him with the community when he discusses youth's problems.

Other co-operating churches have agreed to furnish some personnel for the steering committee.

For the occasion, First Methodist,

St. Paul's United Church of Christ, St. Barnabas Episcopal, Chelsea Baptist and the Assembly of God Churches will help plan Dr. Gibbons' day in town. One meeting will be tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. at the Congregational church.

The crowd gathered at Lima Community Hall at a meeting sponsored by the Mill Creek Research Council.

The meeting was part of the Council's continuing efforts to learn more about all aspects of the proposed Mill Creek Reservoir project.

Rep. Sharpe reviewed procedures for establishing a river management district as delineated in the new act.

In response to a question asking who would make the final decision as to whether or not a particular project would be undertaken, Rep. Sharpe said that the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors would have to give permission to build the series of dams needed for the Mill Creek reservoir.

He also noted that if condemnation proceedings are used to acquire land for the project, a Washtenaw county Circuit Court jury, selected from county citizens, could make the final determination on the necessity of this project.

In addition to the current study of the Huron River Basin, Rep. Sharpe noted that studies are also being made of the Kalamazoo and Grand Rivers. The Huron River basin is considered the pilot project under the new act.

Sen. Bursley discussed an amendment to the act which he proposes to introduce in the state legislature. His amendment would give representation to areas directly involved in a watershed project on both the watershed council and the river management board.

Both legislators urged further efforts to inform others on all aspects of the project through the use of meetings, informative materials, and especially tours.

Mrs. Harry Denham, vice-president of the Mill Creek Research

Council, presided during the meeting and introduced the guest speakers.

She noted that the Research Council had been active this past summer in the legislative, political and technical study of the proposed project.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Paul Hud-us Sunday dinner guests William Yocom, Mrs. Edna Garthe of Ann Arbor, Miss Elmera Strate, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nott and family, of Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Paul.

RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS on his postal staff since September, 1954, with the retiring installation as Chelsea postmaster is Richard E. Schuhie, third from right. He was installed Friday, Sept. 10, in a 5 p.m. ceremony at Chelsea High school auditorium. The retiring postmaster, Carl P. E. Sharrard, second from left, served almost 16 years as Vivian, and the Rev. G. T. Nevin, pastor of North Chelsea postmaster. Schuhie has served as assistant Lake and Salem Grove Methodist churches.

7 a.m. breakfast and to evaluate the session. How the churches can help youth with their problems will also be discussed.

A list of available leisure time activities, a list of the problems and an analysis of the types of youth and the approaches needed were studied at the first steering committee meeting.

The committee needs help in knowing the facts. Do youth have enough to do? Do they have problems growing out of the use of the leisure time? Is driving a serious problem with some? Driving?

Sex? Malicious destruction of property? Fighting? Resisting authority at home? Town? Stealing? Does it make any difference how they wear their hair? Pants?

Shirts? Skirts? Blouses and sweat-suits? Makeup? Make any difference how they dance?

The committee needs help knowing if there are any problems at school. Are the youth learning how to study? Are reluctant students learning? Are advanced students given opportunity to use full potential? Do some of them resist authority of teachers? Are rebels well-handled? Do we have a dropout problem here? Are teachers well-equipped? Stable? Good influences? Willing to counsel outside of class time? Well-paid?

Happy with environment? Is the curriculum good? Need it be broadened? Is there too much emphasis on science? Sports? Band? Eng-

THE LANSING REPORT

FROM Senator GIL BURSLEY

Foreign trade—predicts that we must grow and export from Michigan—constitutes one of the most growing cornerstone in Michigan exports.

In recognition of this all-important fact of our economy the State Senate created a new Committee on International Commerce. I have been entrusted with the chairmanship of this committee. In those columns I will be indicating in coming weeks some of the things we can do to promote our export business.

The climate in Michigan is ripe for international promotion. Our Michigan Week theme this year has been "Michigan Dynamic in World Progress."

The St. Lawrence Seaway is bringing ships and cargos from all corners of the globe in increasing quantities.

Michigan has pending in Washington application for a Foreign Trade Zone at Bay City.

Some of the specifics we will be investigating are Michigan trade missions of 12 to 15 businessmen, placed at financial aid under joint governmental sponsorship. These are overtaking trips where millions of dollars of business are written. Some other states are aggressively in this field.

Mobile trade fairs where private operators can come in and guide the Department of Commerce are being effective in Western Europe.

There are permanent U. S. trade fairs in London, Stockholm, Frankfurt, Milan and Tokyo. There are between show intervals when the physical facilities of these centers are available to U. S. business men.

There are real possibilities of getting foreign manufacturers to located plants in Michigan. There are products we import that could be made here with Michigan labor. This would have a corrective effect on the presently adverse international balance of payments under which the U. S. has been losing gold.

New York City invests in overseas display advertising that brings product inquiries and orders. We are informing ourselves fully on this to make the soundest recommendation. New York also has a branch office of their state Department of Commerce in Washington, D. C. If Michigan is ready for such a step but we must evaluate all the facts.

Montreal will be having a World Fair in 1967 called Expo '67. Some cities will have promotional pavilions and exhibits there. We will examine the worth of such a step fully.

Foreign trade seminars for Michigan business can be very helpful to the smaller enterprise that can afford the luxury of an export department. Cooperation from many agencies is being obtained in this area and we will have specific recommendations on the subject.

The constructive steps that can be taken at state level to boost Michigan's international commerce are legion and I am sure we will be able to demonstrate results of benefits to all our citizens.

Postal Department Increases Prices On Envelopes

To halt an annual $3.3 million loss in the postal envelope sales service, the Post Office Department today announced an immediate increase in the price of printed and plain stamped envelopes.

Under the law, stamped envelopes must be sold at not less than cost. The increase became effective Saturday, Sept. 11.

Excluding postage, the price of plain envelopes sold in box lots of 500 will be increased about 10 percent. For less-than-box lot sales the price will be raised one cent per envelope to two cents above postage.

The cost of printing return addresses on envelopes is being increased as follows: For orders of 1,000 or more, from $2.50 to $4.00 per 1,000.

Over-the-counter sales of small quantities of envelopes account for a substantial amount of the loss being eliminated by the envelope price increases.

During Fiscal Year 1964, the Post Office Department sold about two billion stamped envelopes.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Save Trouble

Many motorists will have to make two trips this winter to get their new license plates because of a new state law and man's tendency to forget details.

Previously only the vehicle title was required to purchase plates but many motorists forget even when it is time to re-register cars and trucks.

This year, starting Nov. 1, all vehicle owners will be required to show proof of liability insurance coverage or pay an extra $2.50 when registering their cars.

A premium of $1 annually will be exacted on all motorists, but $25 will be charged any motorist not able to prove he carries liability insurance. These are part of the provisions of Michigan's new motor vehicle accident claims act.

When fully effective next Jan. 1, the law will allow motorists involved in an accident with a negligent uninsured driver to make claim to collect damages over $50 from the new fund.

An insurance policy itself, special identification card issued by the insurance company bearing pertinent information, or a letter from the company specifying liability coverage will each meet the proof requirement of the law, said Secretary of State James M. Hare.

An attempt to minimize the return trips by forgetful motorists will be made by Hare's office. He hopes to have posters in most gas stations by Nov. 1 outlining the requirements of the new law and serve as reminders.

In addition to providing the so-called uninsured-motorist fund, the new law is designed to encourage drivers to carry insurance.

"The new fund is no substitute for insurance," Hare emphasizes. "If a claim is made against the fund as the result of an accident by an uninsured motorist's negligence, he will still be required to lose his previous meaning."

"The driver is still subject to provisions of the financial responsibility laws of Michigan and could lose his privilege to drive," said Hare.

Too Common

Educators and onlookers both here and abroad have commented for at least a decade that the American college degree is rapidly losing its previous meaning.

A bachelor's degree used to be a mark of distinction—but times have changed and the change is continuing at an ever-increasing pace. It seems to involve a chicken-and-the-egg question: Did industry and business demand further educational background or did educators push the need for graduate work?

Regardless of the answer, it appears Michigan is now approaching the point where some individuals are ready to make a reality of the decade-old comments.

A legislative study is now being made under the leadership of Sen. Joseph Mack, D-Ironwood, on whether Michigan should extend its public education program to 14 years instead of stopping at the 12th year when a student receives his high school diploma.

Mack, for one, is convinced that the pioneering work in this area being done in California should be followed here. That state is providing two free years of college for resident students.

A kindergarten-through-14 program would relieve enrollment problems at major Michigan colleges and be a boon for development of more community colleges, says Mack.

Since Mack heads the legislative study and favored the idea from the start, it is pretty sure thing that proposal of some kind will be put before the legislature in the next year or two. Like the K-12 program, however, it is just likely that several years debate will follow before any action is taken on such a bold step in the field of education.

Mister Editor, on that honest note:

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Let's face it, whatever you buy today will at some time in the future require some kind of maintenance or re-

Ramps Home Again After Four-Month Vacation in Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Ramp have returned to their home in Waterloo after an extended four-month vacation.

The Ramps took one-month to drive to San Francisco via a southern route. Enroute, they visited Las Vegas, San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco. They boarded the steamship Lurline in San Francisco for a week-long voyage to Honolulu.

Incidentally, the return trip by jet airliner took four-and-one-half hours.

Their host during their nearly two-month stay in the Hawaiian Islands was their cousin, Tom Moffatt, who is one of Hawaii's top disc jockies.

Moffatt attended the Waterloo school for one year before moving to Detroit.

After six weeks in Honolulu, on the island of Oahu, the Ramps spent one-and-one-half weeks visiting the outer islands of Maui, Maui and Hawaii.

They described the Islands as "delightful" and said they have a strong urge to return. The climate was "perfect—always even with warm days and cool nights," Mrs. Ramp said.

On their return trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ramp explored Lake Tahoe, Calif., Portland, Ore., the Olympic Peninsula in Washington, Victoria and Vancouver in British Columbia, Canada, Banff and Lake Louise in Alberta, Canada.

They crossed Canada on Trans-Canadian Highway 1 to Elk Lake, Ontario. Mrs. Ramp said they recommend the Canadian highway for safety and scenery.

They stayed two weeks at their cabin in Elk Lake before returning home.

Personal Notes

William Yocom, Freelandville, Ind., has been visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Paul and family for the past week.

WSCS Honors Past Presidents At Luncheon

At the 25th-anniversary luncheon and program of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, held Wednesday at the Chelsea Methodist church, approximately 200 guests were present as the Rev. Fr. Francis Maliszewski officiated at the ceremony.

Those who responded are Mrs.
Edwin Gaunt, Mrs. Walter Harr-er, Mrs. Warren Daniels, Mrs. Lyman Walker, Mrs. Russell Baldwin, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. Lorin Mates, Mrs. Clare Warren and Mrs. James Hoffmeyer, the current president.

Others who have served as president during the 25 years are the late Mrs. Theodore Baumhiller (the first president), and Mrs. J. V.
Fisher, Mrs. P. J. Olin and Mrs.
Lawton Steger.

Also introduced at the meeting was Mrs. Lefoy I. Lord, now a resident of the Methodist Home. She was one of the Detroit Conference officers the first year of the society's organization in 1940.

Mrs. Gaunt served as fourth and seventh president of the Chelsea WSGS, the only one to serve two separate terms in the office.

Mrs. Raymond Schaefer, program chairman for the anniversary meeting, introduced the past presidents and also introduced Mrs.
Lord and the afternoon's guest speaker, Mrs. Bruce Love of Howell.

Topic of Mrs. Love's talk, as well as the theme for the entire anniversary program, was "Heritage and Horizons."

A resume of events pertaining to the organization of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the Chelsea church, made mention of the former Ladies Aid Society which was the nucleus of the WSGS. It was pointed out that Mrs. Irvin Weiss was the Ladies Aid president when the new society was formed and the charter was signed. The pastor at that time was the Rev. Frederick D.
Mumby.

The opening devotional service at Wednesday's program was presented by Mrs. John Fall and the afternoon's activities were concluded with a service of recommitment.

The 12:30 p.m. luncheon was served by the Vivian Otto Circle and featured an anniversary cake decorated in the society's colors of blue and gold.

Put your family's favorite bever-kitchen helper. Cook with milk and taste the difference for yourself. Cooked foods are more flavorful than ever before. Use milk when you bake... in pudtables. Milk makes them all taste just scrumptious... adds extra nutrition, too.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Each political party owes it to promptly and effectively. The people to state clearly what it believes in and where it stands on vital issues. Unfortunately, party campaign platforms too often are adopted with very little thought by the party as a whole, and are ignored both by the parties and the voters in the frenzy of an election campaign.

To remedy this defect, the Michigan Republican Party this spring appointed four large, broad-based Task Forces. Their job was to re-state Republican principles and chart Republican directions. Last weekend after months of discussion and effort, the Task Forces presented their reports.

I was delighted with the results. One of the reports, the Statement of Republican Principles, is short enough to include in this column. I believe it will be of interest not only to Republicans but to all citizens who believe that sound action in the public interest can be based only on sound principles. "WE BELIEVE:

"THAT every individual has dignity and worth. Each deserves the freedom and has the responsibility to develop his capacity and character; to build a better life for himself and his family and to make a greater contribution to the common good."

"THAT government exists to enlarge the freedom and encourage the development of each individual. Government must offer the least possible hindrance to each person, and the greatest possible protection to his rights; so that he may fulfill his highest capabilities."

"THAT government—national, state and local—must act positively when the individual citizen or voluntary institutions cannot; if such action increases the citizen's capabilities and welfare. To do less robs man of his opportunity to do more robs him of his heritage."

"THAT strengthened local and state governments must foresee changing needs and meet them in their lives a broader understanding and insight in the total picture of living as a successful citizen and community member."

AN OLD GERMAN CUSTOM carried out by builders of two homes north of Chelsea has attracted considerable attention. As shown in the photo, a small tree is nailed into the roof boards as soon as the carpenters put up the final rafters and then all the workers drop their tools for a party provided by the owner of the new home. This home is being built for the Richard Cobbs on M-52, approximately 100 yards north of Waterloo Rd. The Thomas Kiobuchars, whose new home is going up a few yards west of the Cobbs place, had a similar tree on the peak of the roof until Monday of this week when sheathing and roofing work began. John Bevier of Ypsilanti is the contractor on both construction jobs and it was his employee who carry out the custom of "wetting the bush" by tacking up a tree as a signal for the owner to "wet the whistle" of workmen.

DOGS TO GUARD ZOO

New York—The Bronx Zoo director, William G. Conway, has announced armed guards will use police dogs to protect the zoo and its animals. In the past, two months, 209 vandals were caught in the zoo at night.

As for "getting rid of them," my answer is no. The company whose bonds you hold is a strong concern and your money would appear to be in no danger. You should not consider selling an investment simply because the price is down. If you have a place to put the money where it will be equally safe and give you a greater return than you are now getting that would be a better reason for selling.

ON 'CHUTE' JUMPING

Bathford, England—While watching a TV program about free-fall parachute jumping, Nicholas Barham strapped on his brother's school satchel and jumped from a 16-foot window. The four-year-old was not seriously hurt, but plans no more jumps.
