School Board Briefs

Approval to pay bills in the amount of $17,258 at the regular meeting of the Board of Education Tuesday, Sept. 21.

Discussion with Mr. Scurluck on the schedule of construction of the Junior High School and other buildings of the recently-passed bond issue. It is hoped that the two additions may be under construction by Jan. 1.

Colonel Miller, Civil Defense Director, was present to demonstrate the use of a C.D. receiver. The Board authorized the purchase of the unit for the school at a cost of $108. This amount is matched by federal funds to complete the purchase price.

A letter from the State Police informed the School District that it must paint the ceilings of the Methodist church education unit if we are to use it this year. This is for purposes of reducing fire hazard.

A committee of L. Kusterer, C. Warren, C. Lancaster and D. Alton was appointed to work with the committee of people from St. Mary's school to work out arrangements for sharing auxiliary services. This is in compliance with new federal legislation.

A member, Mr. Solomon, from the Chelsea Federation of Teachers, made a request of the Board to call for a collective bargaining election to let the teachers decide what group would represent them with the Board. The Chelsea Education Association a few minutes later informed the Board that the petition for a collective bargaining election was being mailed by their organization on Sept. 22. Mr. Jackson represented the CEA.

A formal resolution was passed on the procedure for the bonding program.

Representatives from Prescott and Co., bond sales people, were present to offer their services in preparing and distributing the bond.

Bulldogs Down Stockbridge in Season Opener

Highly-Rated Fowlerville Team To Provide Challenge Friday Evening

The Chelsea Bulldogs dealt the Stockbridge Panthers a smashing defeat Friday, Sept. 18, when the local gridders bulldozed over Stockbridge, 28-7.

The Bulldogs victory over Stockbridge followed a streak of nine wins by the Panthers. The last Bulldog defeat for the Panthers occurred in 1955.

One serious injury and numerous minor injuries marred the Bulldog victory.

Senior Alton Taylor, offensive tackle and defensive end, received serious leg injuries in the Friday night game. He underwent surgery on his left leg Saturday morning at St. Joseph Mercy hospital and will be sitting out the season with a full leg cast.

The Bulldogs face another rough contest tomorrow night, Sept. 24, at 7:30 p.m. when they challenge the highly rated Fowlerville grid team. Winners of the Ingham county league for the past three years, the Fowlerville team has been ranked among the top 10 schools in their class for the past two years.

To win, Chelsea gridders will have to move four defensive mainstays weighing 214, 213, 216, and 204 pounds. Other assets on the Fowlerville roster include two offensive tackles weighing 214 and 213 pounds.

In the Stockbridge-Chelsea match, Stockbridge scored early in the first quarter on an off-tackle slant.

The Bulldogs' left side next blocked a punt for a safety and two more points.

In the second quarter Lancaster scored again from eight yards after a 20-yard pass from Bill Harvey to Tom Wojicki carried Chelsea to the Stockbridge 34-yard line. Chelsea's Earl Hughes broke through in the third quarter to block another Stockbridge punt for a safety and two more points.

Later in the same quarter another Harvey-Wojicki pass was good for 30 yards and a touchdown. The extra point was attempted and failed.

Wojicki blasted off the left end behind fine blocking by Mike Kushnall and went for 46 yards and Chelsea's final touchdown.

Lancaster made three runs of 30 or more yards and Wojicki had six runs of 20 yards or more. The Bulldogs picked up more than 400 yards to Stockbridge's 80 yard net gain.

Coach Jack Curl named David McGibney and Larry Wengren as outstanding defensive players and Wojicki, Lancaster, Kushnall and Dan Saljee as offensive standouts.

Challenge of New Leisure Topic for Church Leader

The community steering committee for the visit of Fr. Ray Gibbons, National Director of the National Council for Christian Social Action, has selected many youth leaders in community and hopes that representatives of all interested groups will send delegates to their meetings.

The purpose of the committee is to study and analyze the situation in leisure time activities and in educational pursuits in order to help Dr. Gibbons and to ready to make helpful plans for responsible supporting groups.

In response to last week's article in the Standard, and contacts by members of the committee, it was a promise that some of the needed facts would be brought to the meeting by people who know them.

Letter from Dr. Gibbons says the title for the public meeting at 8 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 4, will be "The Challenge of the New Leisure." He says that it will be a challenge to adults as well as to youth for the Kiwanis club will be the question, "Can Education for Tomorrow?"

He is making arrangements to be about noon Oct. 4 at a Detroit airport where the Rev. Robert Livingston will meet him. He plans to leave from the airport on Tuesday, Oct. 5.

The steering committee is still looking for facts about how good the Chelsea educational and leisure-time programs are for youth in the junior and senior high age group.

The steering committee, convinced that Chelsea has a good program of education and leisure-time activities, is eager for facts about just how good it is.

Probable time of next week's steering committee meeting will be Wednesday, Sept. 28 at 8 p.m. at the First Congregational church basement.

Kiwanis Club Entertains New Teachers

Chelsea Kiwanians held their annual ladies' night program at the Congregational church Monday evening with new members of the Chelsea Public Schools faculty and their husbands and wives as guests.

Robert Daniels, program chairman for the evening, introduced the guest speaker, Leo Smith, a representative of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

Smith, who formerly was a newspaper reporter for 16 years, first in Jackson and then in Detroit, told of many amusing as well as dangerous situations in which he was involved while assigned to report stories of crime and underworld activities.

It was announced that the Sept. 27 meeting of the Kiwanis club will feature a color film to be obtained from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration showing the Gemini flight of James A. McDivitt and Edward White and the latter's walk in space.

Don Turner, Floyd Fowler, Jerry Beaumont and M. J. Anderson mentioned highlights of their attendance at the Kiwanis state convention and Beaumont particularly reported on the Kiwanis work for the Pomey, W. Clement Memorial Foundation, Inc., at the University of Michigan children's division; also the Mary Free Bed Children's hospital at Grand Rapids.

Among announcements made at Monday's meeting was that made by President Don Turner stating that the Chelsea Kiwanians will meet at the U. of M. Hospital cafeteria Monday evening, Oct. 11, and following dinner will go on a guided tour of the children's ward at the hospital. The Chelsea club makes an annual contribution of $300 to the hospital.

Banjo, Guitar Instruction Again Offered

The Chelsea Area Recreation Commission will again sponsor a series of classes for banjo and guitar. The fall series will begin next Tuesday, Sept. 28.

Any member of the community who wishes to participate may pre-register by calling the offices at the high school or the junior high.

Mrs. James LaGoe, a member of the commission, said that 48 have already pre-registered for the lessons.

The commission requests that pre-registrants indicate whether or not they will be able to provide their own instruments and the level of instruction desired.

The cost of the first series of 10 lessons will be $5. An instrument may be rented for an additional $6 fee.

Classes will meet for one hour each Tuesday evening for 10 weeks. Guitarists will be divided into approximately four groups for instruction in groups of about 12.

This year an attempt will be made to group persons by interest rather than age. Tentative groups include rock and roll music, folk songs, and modern folk songs and protest music. An advanced group is also planned.

Classes are tentatively scheduled for 4 p.m., 6:30 p.m., 7:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. in the High School library.

A second series will begin after the Christmas holidays.

The instructor this year will again be James Brignall. Brignall, a well-known folk singer, has made two recordings with a partner under the name of the Campus Singers.

The Argo recordings are "Recorded Live at the Fiddle Pickle" and "Road of Blue."

He and his recording partner, Ted Kistler, formerly owned the Golden Vanity, a coffee house located on E. Washington-St. in Ann Arbor.

In 1963 they performed in coffee houses throughout the midwest and southwest.

He is a 1963 graduate of Harper and University and is now in his second year of studies at the University of Michigan Law School.

Last year Brignall taught three beginning and one intermediate class. About 40 persons participated in the lessons.

In 1964, Herb David from the Herb David Guitar Studio in Ann Arbor instructed classes. He is a craftsman and an instructor in Ann Arbor.

The guitar program had a big boost when "an interested member of the community" who wanted to encourage this type of creative activity donated 10 guitars to the commission.

The Chelsea Area Recreation Commission receives donations from the Community Chest and the Village Council. Organization and instruction has been offered in knitting, typing, adult men's physical fitness, children's physical fitness, arts and crafts programs, little and midsize league baseball, adult softball league, track and field, swimming, junior league, basketball for seventh grade and older and various senior citizens programs.

The Korner House, operated by senior citizens from Chelsea, is financially assisted by the Chelsea club.

Village Council Kills Tradition of Noon Whistle

The Village Council voted to kill a tradition that some residents believe has become a public nuisance.

The tradition is the 11:30 a.m. fire siren blown each day.

The whistle, according to Village Burg, II, who suggested the daily blowing be stopped, was blown during World War II when many factories and lunch breaks were scheduled for 11:30.

Now, he added, none of the factories let out at 11:30 and the blowing has become a noisy nuisance to persons living near the whistle on the south side of town. He said the whistle is located near the ground in a residential area and is very loud and disturbing to persons living there.

The fire whistle is still scheduled to be blown on Saturdays as a test to make sure that the siren will function properly in cases of fire.

Council Briefs

Invocation by the Rev. Elmer Steenson opened the Village Council meeting Tuesday evening, Sept. 21, in the Municipal Building.

Discussion with a representative of the Girl Scouts referring to the use and maintenance of the third floor of the Municipal Building, used by several organizations for meetings, was held. It was suggested that organization heads get together to establish a cleaning schedule. Trustee J. V. Burg, II, was instructed to co-ordinate the groups.

Motion was made to discontinue the blowing of the 11:30 a.m. whistle except on Saturdays as a test. Motion was passed.

Trustee Burg informed the council that "Caution: Children Playing" signs have been ordered and will be posted in the Sorensen and Lancaster areas.

Motion to authorize payment to Thompson-McCutly in the amount of $535 was recommended by Village Engineer Peter Kurzy for grading of Freer Rd. Motion was passed.

Motion was made to authorize the cleanup of the Chelsea area. (Continued on page five)

Blood Bank Clinic Needs Volunteers

More volunteers are needed for Chelsea's annual blood bank clinic scheduled for Monday, Oct. 11 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Dudley Holmes reported that persons are still needed to work as registrars and that more registered nurses and nurses aides are needed. She added that food for the lunch served to the volunteers is also needed.

Anyone wishing to volunteer or to make appointments for the clinic should call Mrs. Holmes at GR 9-2181.

Factory appointments are being made by Mrs. Robert Wagner.

C. of C. Hears About Proposed Reservoir Effects

Mrs. Virginia Denham, vice chairman of the Mill Creek Research Council, addressed the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Tuesday, Sept. 21, on the effects of the proposed Mill Creek reservoir project on the Chelsea area.

The 12:30 luncheon was in the Congregational church. It was the first fall meeting for the group which will continue to meet on the third Tuesday of each month.

Chamber President Robert Barlow said that the membership drive has been completed and there are now 60 full-fledged members. Thirty-nine members were present at the Tuesday luncheon.

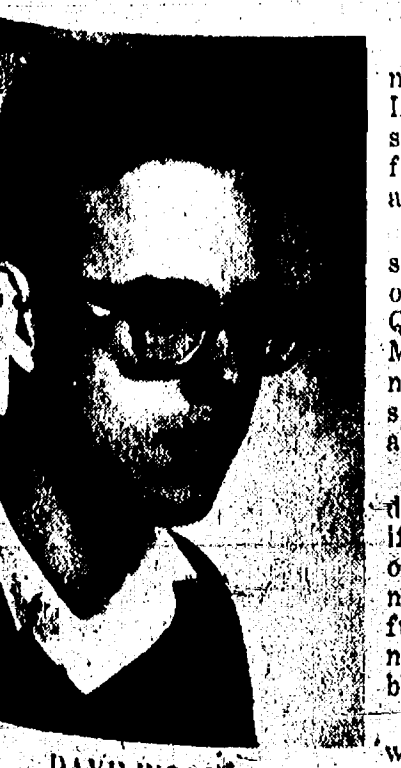

The clinic will be held in the Congregational church basement.

Dave Wood Is Semi-Finalist in Merit Scholarship Contest

Principal Charles Lane announced yesterday, Sept. 22, that Dave Wood, Chelsea High school senior, has been named a semi-finalist in the 1965-66 Merit Scholarship competition.

He is among the highest-scoring students in the state of Michigan on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, administered last March in more than 17,000 schools nationwide. More than 2,000 semi-finalists were appointed across the country.

To become finalists, the students must substantiate their qualifying test performance on a second examination, submit recommendations by their schools, and fulfill routine requirements. All merit scholars for 1966 will then be selected from the finalist group.

"Much of our future leadership will come from these young people," said John M. Stahlaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. "Semifinalists are representative of our country's most intellectually able young people."

In honoring them, we should remember that others have contributed significantly to their success by encouraging the characteristics which produce high achievement, including energy and hard work. The semi-finalists bring honor not only to themselves, but also to their families, their teachers, and their communities."

To increase their opportunities for financial assistance if they need it, NMSC sends the names of semi-finalists to all regionally accredited colleges and universities and to other scholarship-granting agencies and sources of financial aid. Studies show that about half of the semi-finalists in former

Fire Damages Boyer Home Second Time

For the second time in less than a year, fire ravaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Boyer at 915 W. Middle St.

Fire broke out in an upstairs bedroom closet Monday, Sept. 20 about 9:05 p.m. from an undetermined cause, according to Fire Chief James Gaken. No one was home at the time of the fire.

The closet, used for storage, contained many photographs and keepsakes in addition to clothing and several hunting rifles. The fire burned through the wall of the closet into another closet in an adjoining bedroom which contained all of Mr. Boyer's wardrobe. His wardrobe was completely demolished by the blaze.

The fire then raged through the ceilings of the two bedrooms and into the attic. Before being brought under control, the flames had burned through an outer wall and the overhang or eaves of the house.

A third upstairs bedroom belonging to David, the Boyer's three-year-old son, received smoke and fire damage.

The fire did extensive damage to the interior upstairs portion of the house which had just recently been redecorated with new rugs, wallpaper, drapes and blinds. According to Boyer, all the second floor windows must be replaced, the rooms will need replastering, the inside walls, two closets and ceilings of two of the bedrooms must be rebuilt, some of the wooden flooring must be replaced and the furnishings refinished due to heat and smoke damage.

New roofing had been installed on the house within the past six weeks. The fire did not burn through the new roof.

The Boyer's home also was extensively damaged by fire on Nov. 16, 1964, when fire began in the vicinity of the television set in the living room. No one was home at the time of either fire and neighbors who noticed the smoke alerted firemen both times.

The first floor of the house had been redecorated following the 1964 blaze which burned through ASTRONAUT EDWARD H. WHITE, II, floats in space in a scene from "The Four Days of Gemini IV," a NASA film of the historic space feat performed during the third orbit of the Gemini-Titan 4 flight. The film is being made available to Chelsea audiences by U. S. Congressman Weston E. Vivian, who is on the House Science and Astronautics Committee. (See article for times and places of showings.) White is secured to the Gemini 4 spacecraft by a 25-ft. umbilical line and a 24-ft. tether line, both wrapped together with gold tape to form one cord. He remained outside the spacecraft for 21 minutes. He is wearing an emergency oxygen supply chest pack and is holding a Hand-Held Self-Maneuvering Unit which he used to move about in the weightless environment.

★ Senior Citizens - 1965 Legislative Review

Nearly revealed by this year's measures, were granted to provide legislative action, were the long-expected passage in this state of the state's 1965 session included bills to:

—Grant to some 100,000 senior citizens an average of $80 in local property tax relief by exempting the first $2,500 of equalized value of property tax revenue at not more than $10,000 ($20,000 cash value) of owned and occupied by a person 65 or older who has resided in Michigan at least 7 years and whose gross income does not exceed $5,000 per year. (The cost to the state is approximately $1.5 million.)

—Outlaw discrimination in hiring if such discrimination is based solely on age.

—Reduce the fishing license fee for Michigan residents 65 or older from $2 to 50 cents—at an estimated cost to the state of $110,000 per year.

—Amend the law to permit persons over 70 years of age to vote by absentee ballot.

—Continue the State Commission on Aging which was established under the 1959 law which created it to study all existing laws which affect the aged.

—Require insurance companies to provide life, accident, health, and fire insurance policies to persons 65 or older, provided he has a valid driver's license.

—Create, under the auspices of the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, an Institute of Gerontology for the scientific study of the aged.

—Reduce the present five-year residency requirement for old-age assistance to one year.

—Add comprehensive dental care benefits to Michigan's medical assistance to the aged program.

With the estimated annual cost of $200,000 to be split between the state and federal governments.

—Abolish the fee provisions under which the state formerly could recover funds extended for old-age assistance and medical aid to the aged from the estates of deceased recipients at an estimated annual cost to the state of $750,000.

—Liberalize the eligibility requirements for old age assistance by making the provisions which require a senior citizen ineligible to receive aid if he owned a mortgage or had a contract in excess of $5,000, through the aid of a homestead or farmstead, raising the allowable property ownership to $750 for a single person and $1,000 for a couple, including the $100,000 homestead ceiling, and excluding $1,000 each summer of value of insurance in determining need.

—Make possible the use of private property for public housing projects for special groups of the aged.

—Increase the maximum monthly benefit for recipients in medical care facilities receiving old-age assistance from $30 to $110, in line with the increased allowances granted for those in nursing or convalescent homes last year.

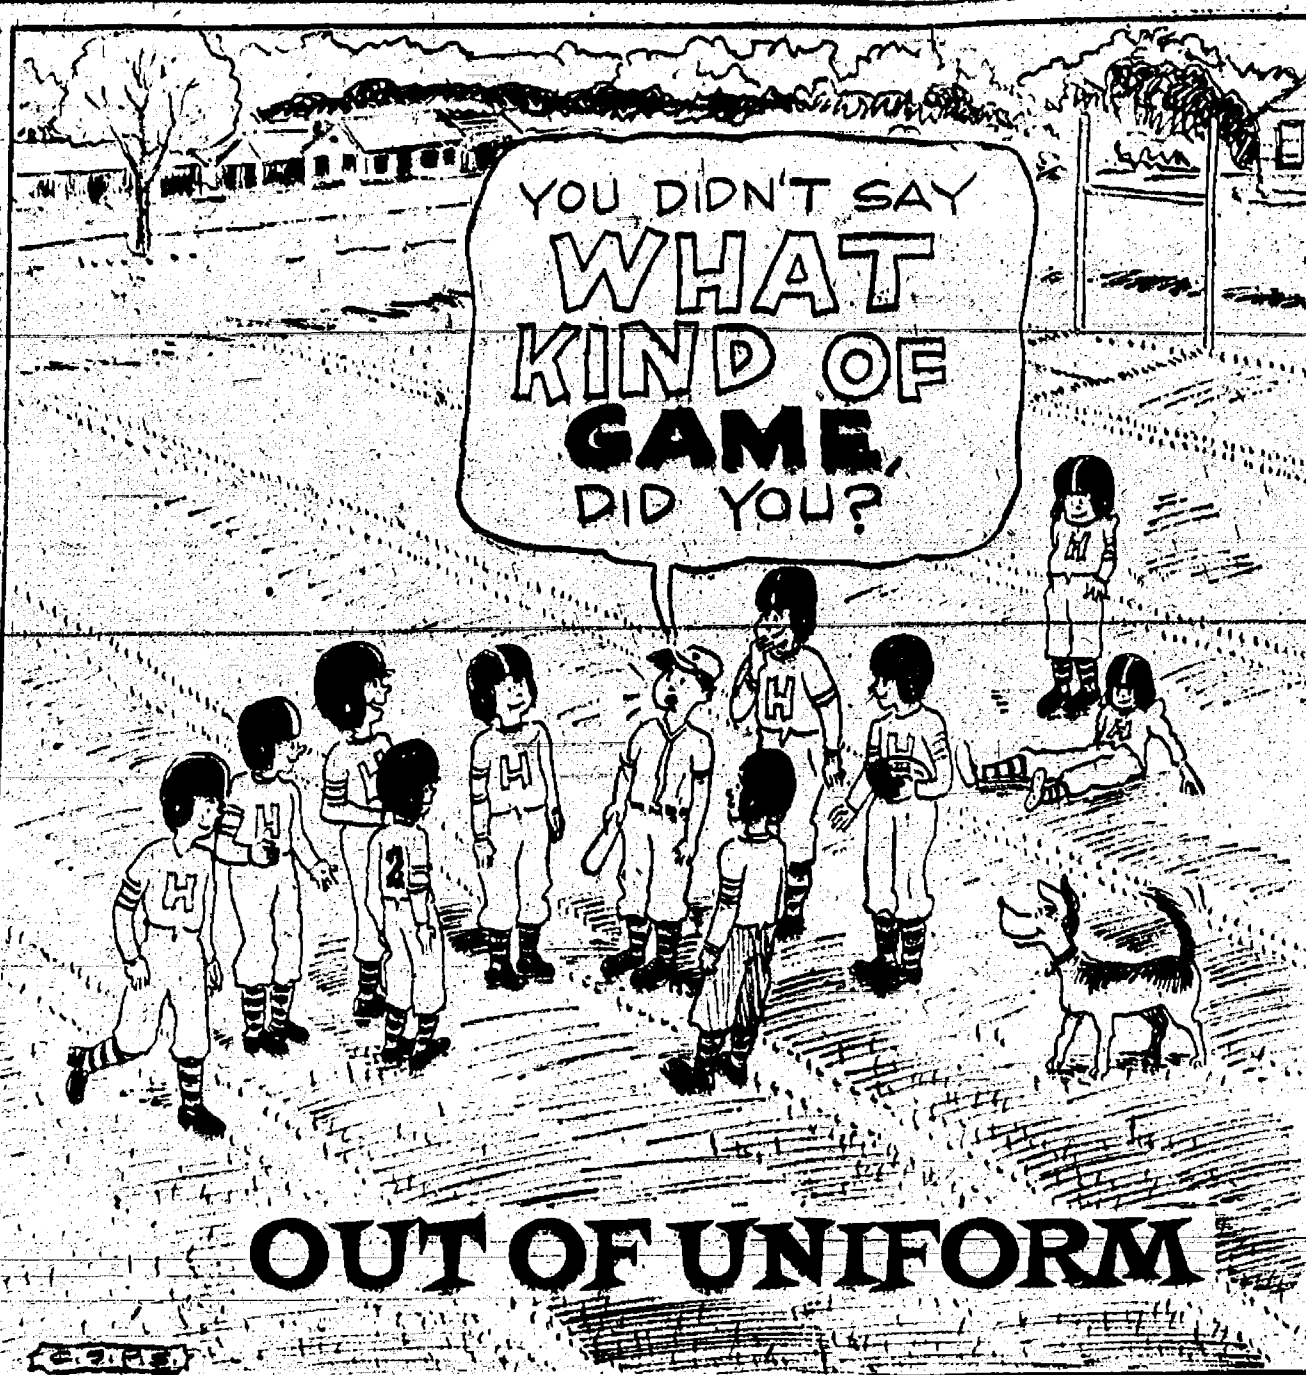

—Eliminate low-income or non-income producing real property in determining the eligibility for old-age assistance.

—Create a special committee to study state tax relief for elderly, blind and disabled persons covered by social security. Although the homestead tax exemption bill, introduced by the House of Representatives this year did contain a provision for direct grants to recipients, the section was eliminated by the Senate after a ruling from the Attorney General that the state could stand to lose more than $1 million in federal funds now given senior citizens under the GAN act.

Highway accidents continue to kill Americans as if it didn't matter.

Improvement
 Great strides in community health care have been made in the past few years. The state is now a leader in the field of community health care.

Another Oldtimer
 Evolving from rather modest beginnings, Wayne State University has come to be one of the "Big Three" in state institutions of higher learning. It will mark its 100th year in 1968.

University officials describe its history thusly: "The simple unpretentious beginnings of medical education in Detroit 100 years ago did not forecast either the size or prestige of the medical center here or the extent of Wayne's commitment to a program of teaching, research and service within that center. During the first 50 years only two other colleges emerged to stand beside medicine."

"The second 50 years have seen half a score of colleges, divisions and schools come into being. This expansion in program... in synthesis the history of Wayne, is the measure both of the growth of organized knowledge in these decades, and of the efforts made to provide the education which today is so important to students and so vital to the community."

Back in 1868, a college of medicine and a college of education were in operation. Later years saw the addition of colleges of liberal arts, pharmacy, engineering and a graduate school under jurisdiction of the Detroit Board of Education.

Death Threats
 The approach of winter brings many hazards to the unwary. Not the least of these are the icy highways and thinly-iced waterways.

Another, more consistently deadly danger, however, does its worst damage in the winter months and requires real vigilance to detect before it is too late.

This is the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning, ascribed by the experts as the "silent killer."

Warnings are issued widely each year at the start of winter against this cold-weather hazard but still the headlines annually relate many needless deaths from this cause.

"Everyone must realize that this deadly enemy lurks in wait in many places," says State Health Director Dr. Albert E. Houltz.

"It awaits unsuspecting victims in homes, garages, cars, schools, factories, motels, houses trailers and even fishing shanties."

Carbon monoxide is present wherever there is combustion in a closed space, such as refrigerators, furnaces and auto engines. To protect against this colorless, odorless, poisonous substance adequate ventilation is required and annual checks of gas furnaces and appliances is recommended.

In planning your life it might be a good idea to confine your dreams to the things that you can accomplish without the help of your friends.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR
 I see by the papers where the U. S. Census Bureau was estimating 38,000,000 people, representing 17,000,000 families, would move from where they were living to some other place in 1965. The place said most of them was moving from one state to another, but about 25 per cent of them was just moving from one location to another in the same town or community. It went on to say about half the population of the United States was living in a different place in 1960, either in another state, another town, or around the corners.

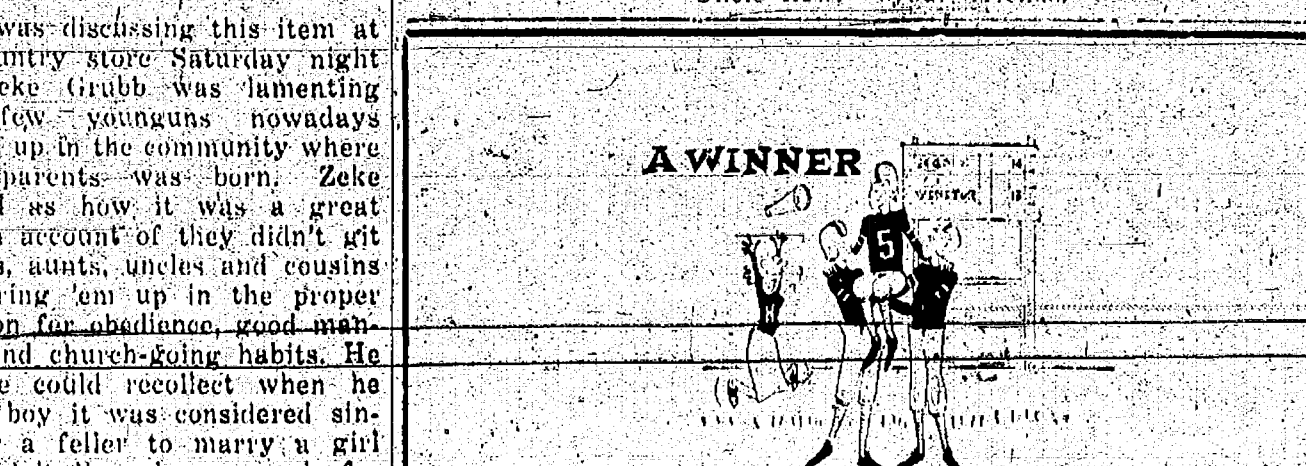

We were discussing this item at the country store Saturday night and Zeke Grubb was lamenting that few youngsters nowadays crowd up in the community where their parents was born.

Zeke allowed as how it was a great pity on account of they didn't get parents, aunts, uncles and cousins help bring 'em up in the proper tradition for abidance, good manners, and church-going habits. He said he could recollect when he was a boy it was considered sinful for a feller to marry a girl that didn't live close enough for him to see the smoke coming out the chimney of her Pa's house.

Clem Webster was commenting that the grass was getting greener and greener over yonder as the years went by. Furthermore, said Clem, a young man couldn't use the chimney yardstick no more on account of a heap of the new-fangled houses didn't have chimneys and them that did was cooking and heating with electricity, gas or fuel oil and didn't make no smoke you could see as far as a chicken could smell.

All the fellows, Mister Editor, was a little sad about them moving figgers from the U. S. Census Bureau.

And Josh Clodhopper reported, speaking of figgers, he had saw where the textile industry announced 40 million pairs of slacks was being sold to women this year. Josh was of the opinion, based on what he had saw, that 30,000,000 of them was two sizes too small, including the pair his old lady bought. For reasons of personal safety around the house I reckon, they was no comment from the fellers on this item.

It's fun to win, whatever the game. For the individual who has a special part in any victory, there is added personal satisfaction.

You, too, can be a winner. When you have some special needs for home or office, your "best bet" is to look first to the local business community.

There are many reasons. Local merchants are in business to serve you. They succeed because they know how to make customers happy, and how to keep them that way.

When you trade locally, it doesn't take as long to get the item or the service that you need, usually at a price lower than you would pay elsewhere.

And, there's an added thought. You contribute to the local economy when you trade and shop in the local community.

24 Years Ago...
 Thursday, Sept. 18, 1941—
 E. M. Elsemann, who recently purchased the Bert Gray residence on East St., brought to the Standard office a copy of "The True Tocsin" that he found in some old papers. This interesting paper was published in Jackson on Thursday, Aug. 27, 1846. Part of the editorial column is quoted below: "Congress has adjourned and the members are at home, or on their way with their eight dollars a day, the value set by themselves on their own services! Not a working man lying at the end of the year will be able to say he is one cent better off for their having gone to Washington and legislated and pocketed eight dollars a day and mileage, penknives, books and other eccentrics."

Preparations are underway for the Chelsea Community Fair which will be held Oct. 3-4.

Eight 1941 graduates of Chelsea High school are entering colleges within the next two weeks. They are Betty Fletcher, Helen Miller, Carolyn Kalmbach, Lois Palmer, Grace Riemenschneider, Margaret Harper, Ruth Yettah and Eunice Schweinfurth.

Olivet College President Notes Changing World in Opening Address
 "What Kind of World?" was the question raised by President Gordon Rietmiller at the opening convocation of Olivet College Wednesday, Sept. 13. His address was delivered to some 700 students, faculty, and townspeople Mackay Gymnasium.

In his remarks, Dr. Rietmiller made note of the great changes which surround the opening of a school year. He viewed the opening of the school year as an adventure which is shared by faculty, administration and Board of Trustees as well as the students.

"Change is the order of the day," said the President. "Life as we know it today is a thing of the past tomorrow—life as we know it tomorrow is out of date next-day." He further stated that we are more than aware of this new kind of world—a world in which we are all active participants.

President Rietmiller, in a series of questions to the assembly regarding this changing world, he indicated that direct solutions to these problems are vital to the welfare of the ever-unfolding drama.

Asked "What kind of world is it?" he replied "It is a world in which we are all active participants. What kind of world was it? It was a world in which we were all passive participants. I raise only the question. The answer will be yours."

Just A Minute . . .

By the Rev. James A. Craig

One of the principal items on the agenda of the closing session of the Second Vatican Council is the matter of religious liberty. That it was postponed from the last session and bitterly debated now is a puzzle to many of us. The issue has the support of most of the American representatives to the Council. It is an issue about which most of us have no prejudices. Religious liberty has been a keynote of this country almost since its founding. Church people are inclined to let people worship in what ever way they wish, or not worship at all if that is their wish. Consequently, we will have friends and acquaintances in all sorts of religious persuasions. This is generally carried too far. Ask anyone you know and they will likely tell you that a person's religion is their own business. We have no right to interfere or influence. It also means that a person's irreligion is their own business. One of the reasons for which the Church was established was to destroy this idea. The church has a command to "preach the gospel to all people." Their religion and their irreligion is the business of the church and church members. The issue at stake in Rome is the attitude and outlook of the Roman Catholic Church concerning other Christians. The issue at stake at home is whether or not the people called Christians really are.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

CAN DO

The next time you face a task that seems difficult, perhaps impossible, try a little self-confidence. Square your shoulders and say, "I can do it." Maybe you will fail and maybe you will succeed. In any event, you will feel much better about the whole thing because you know that you have given it a real "try". It is the "can do" attitude that gets things done. It is said that a one-time director of the U.S. Patent Office expressed the opinion that the office would probably not be open for long as there was nothing left to be invented. How wrong he was! At the time, there were no such thing as a Colt revolver, a telephone, an airplane, an automobile, and you can make your own list into the thousands of items you see and use every day. Next time success seems not to be yours, have a little faith—be sure that you have run the full course before you quit the game. Work for the best, stand straight, and don't be too proud to send out a little prayer for help.

Add a quarter cup of vinegar to the last rinse water when washing socks. It removes the last bit of soap, helps to remove lint, and makes socks softer.

Plans Started for Annual UNICEF Halloween Activity

Chelsea Area United Church Women (UCW) have begun making plans for the annual children's Halloween "Trick or Treat" program which is sponsored on a national scale by the national organization of which the Chelsea group is a part.

In material prepared by the U.S. Committee for UNICEF, various questions are fully answered explaining the continuing need for the fund to help needy children of the world and their mothers. UNICEF has become the name of the program by using the first letters of the full name—United Nations' International Children's Emergency Fund (now more commonly called UN Children's Fund). It is explained that through the Trick or Treat program boys and girls in the United States express their concern for needy children in other countries; they know that the pennies they collect on Halloween will save lives. Statements attributed to present and former presidents of the United States endorsing the program, include one made by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1955; and others made by the late President John F. Kennedy in 1963, former President Harry S. Truman, also in 1963, the late

Band Day Is Saturday at U-M Stadium

Chelsea band members will travel to Ann Arbor Saturday, Sept. 25, to participate in the 17th annual Band Day at the University of Michigan stadium. Marching bands from 175 high schools will make the gathering the world's largest mass band in the world's largest college football stadium. The bands will perform during the half-time of the Michigan-California opening home game.

The Chelsea band, one of the largest in a number of years, has 110 instrumentalists, according to Director Bruce Galbraith. They will leave Chelsea at 7:30 a.m. in two school buses. Another bus loaded with instruments will also make the journey.

Twelve adults from the Band Boosters will travel with the group as chaperons. The band will return to Chelsea Saturday evening.

The only rehearsal with all 175 bands will be in the stadium at 8:15 a.m. The bands have been rehearsing individually.

The massed band will be under the direction of Dr. William D. Revell, professor of music and director of the University of Michigan bands. He will be assisted by George Cavender, an associate professor of music and assistant director of University bands.

Four of the seven selections scheduled for performance are "America, The Beautiful," "O! My America," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "El Capitan" by John Philip Sousa. Following the game four or five bands have been chosen to present special shows individually.

Chelsea residents unable to attend the game will be able to see a delayed broadcast of the game and half-time performance on Channel 50 (UHF) Saturday evening at 11 p.m., according to Galbraith. The program will be repeated the next afternoon on the same channel.

Fingerprints leave smudges and germs — on doorknobs, doorframes and telephones. Sponge muddy places with a pine oil cleaner solution. Not only will the "evidence," but most of the germs will disappear, too.

At least 97 percent of past semi-finalists have become finalists. Each finalist receives a certificate of merit in recognition of his outstanding performance in the program. Finalists are eligible for the scholarships sponsored by NMSC and more than 280 corporations, foundations, colleges, unions, trusts, professional associations, other organizations and individuals.

Names of the merit scholars chosen from among the finalists will be announced about April 27, 1966. The exact number will depend on the extent of sponsor support. In 1965, more than 2,000 Merit Scholarships were awarded.

High school grades, creative accomplishments, leadership qualities, extra-curricular activities and school citizenship of the students are evaluated along with test scores in electing merit scholars. Winners of sponsored awards also meet sponsor criteria.

Red Cross Asks Chest for More Funds

The principal order of business at the last meeting of the Chelsea Community Chest was a hearing of a request for additional funds for the Red Cross.

A very convincing and informative case was presented by W. de St. Aubin, executive director of the American Red Cross and Georgia D. Cohen, chairman of the finance committee of the Washtenaw chapter.

Paul Mann, who accompanied them to the meeting, supported their position. Mann is the Chelsea representative on the Washtenaw Red Cross board of directors.

St. Aubin explained that a series of national disasters since July 1 has consumed the entire $10-million national disaster budget for the fiscal year that began in July.

Hurricane Betsy alone cost the American Red Cross $5-million in disaster relief operations.

In addition, Red Cross activities have tripled in Viet Nam in recent months and services to other military units have increased throughout the world.

The Washtenaw Chapter of the Red Cross supports the National Red Cross with funds from Chelsea and the other communities in the county. Based on the number of people served, it was explained that Chelsea's operation should be closer to $5,000 than the $3,000 allocated.

It was pointed out that by their federal charter and by the laws of incorporation, the Red Cross is committed to the fulfillment of its established obligations to all areas regardless of the results of local campaigns.

It was also stressed that the local Red Cross chapter has successfully adhered, since 1950, to a policy of no additional fund raising campaigns and hopes to be able to continue without them.

Although the $3,000 allocated to the Red Cross for the past two years has been accepted gratefully, it was noted that the Red Cross has actually been allocated larger amounts in earlier years by the Chelsea Community Chest.

On these grounds, the request was submitted for a review of this year's allocation.

A rather broad review of the many areas of Red Cross activities was made and it was emphasized that the Red Cross never charges for any of its services.

St. Aubin explained that this policy is sometimes doubted due to small charges encountered by servicemen at Red Cross recreation centers during World War II. He further supplied a letter dated May 20, 1942, to the Red Cross from Henry L. Stimpson, then Secretary of War, requesting that a nominal charge be made for these services supplied by the Red Cross to "conform to local practices," particularly in overseas areas.

No action was taken at this meeting in order to give each board member a full opportunity to consider the possibility of increasing the Red Cross allocation and the implications of a higher campaign goal. A decision will be reached at the next meeting scheduled for Oct. 20.

payment to Thompson-McCully as recommended by the village engineer for the 1965 street paving program.

Trustee Paul G. Schaible, Jr., informed the council that because of the poor weather conditions during the past month or so Village Engineer Kurzy believes it would perhaps be advisable to hold off on the sealcoat program for Freer Rd. until next spring. No official action was taken on this recommendation.

Motion was made to accept the bid of Earl Schultz for new curb, sidewalk and gutter construction on the east side of Grant St. from Lincoln to W. Summit; curb and gutter, $2 per linear foot, sidewalk, 40 cents per square foot.

Motion to authorize final payment to Rod Mills for storm sewer construction on Freer Rd. in the amount of $845.44, as approved by Village Engineer Kurzy, was made and carried.

A letter was submitted to the council by the Chamber of Commerce requesting action on an ordinance which will control any "going out of business" sale within the Village. President Howard Haselchwerdt appointed Trustee Schaible to investigate such ordinances. The clerk was instructed to contact the Michigan Municipal League for sample ordinances.

A discussion was held regarding an investigation for an adequate skating rink to be located in Pierce Park. Trustee Larry Chapman was instructed to investigate and report back to the Council.

A meeting of the Industrial Development Committee is scheduled for Tuesday evening, Sept. 28.

Motion was made and carried to pay the bills.

Fall Barbecue Preparations Underway

Chelsea Jaycees announced this week that plans are going forward for their 10th annual chicken barbecue at Pierce Park, scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 10. The chicken barbecues were originally instituted as a community service in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce sponsored fall color tours.

General chairman of this year's event is Daniel Maroney. His committee promises the barbecue "will be bigger and better than ever."

They also assure "fast, efficient serving" of the boxed chicken dinners which may be eaten at the park or taken out for eating elsewhere.

Many of the color tourists who come to this vicinity take their boxed dinners to some of the picnic areas along the color tour routes, all of which are plainly marked.

Many area residents get dinners for their entire family at the chicken barbecue.

The long barbecue pits are customarily set up the day before in readiness for the charcoal fires early Sunday.

prospective to the best buyers of these bonds. Upon the recommendation of the citizens finance committee and others, it was decided to procure the services of this company at a cost of 0.1 percent. It was pointed out that the cost should be more than made up with the better interest rate which could be obtained.

It was approved to request the Village to annex the North Elementary school site.

It was re-approved to allow Mr. Robert Benedict, fifth grade teacher, to apply for a teacher exchange with England again this year. Last year the same was approved, but at the last minute the man with whom Mr. Benedict was to exchange had a change and could not come here.

After discussion the superintendent's salary was raised to $14,000 and hospital insurance will be paid. The board passed this unanimously and made it effective Oct. 1.

There was discussion about improving the lights for the high school parking area. There have been many complaints about the inadequate lighting there.

Joseph J. Czapl

Prominent Area Orchardist Dies Suddenly Tuesday

Joseph J. Czapl, 72, prominent orchardist in the Chelsea area the past 37 years, died of a heart attack while building young trees at his farm, 1817 Hank Rd., late Tuesday afternoon.

A former music teacher in Flint, Detroit and Grass Lake, he bought the Hank Rd. farm in 1928, improving the property and planting it with hundreds of fruit trees and berry bushes and plants.

He customarily won many prizes on his exhibits of fruits at the Chelsea Community Fair.

Born at Lublin, Poland, May 16, 1893, he was a son of Stanley and Mary Tupa Czapl and earned a college degree in music in Poland before coming to the United States.

On Jan. 10, 1917, in Flint, he was married to Viola Schaffer and they lived in Flint and Detroit before moving to the present home.

He served for some time after moving to this area as director of the choir at the Grass Lake Methodist church.

The Rev. Fr. Umberto Mellare of St. Louis School for Boys, which Mr. Czapl often remembered with gifts of fruit from his orchards, and Sisters at the school, together with other friends, recited the Rosary Wednesday evening at the Staffan Funeral Home at Grass Lake where friends may call until the funeral this afternoon (Thursday).

Services will be held at 2 p.m. at the Grass Lake Methodist church with the Rev. Archie Donigan officiating. Burial is to take place at East Cemetery, Grass Lake.

Surviving Mr. Czapl, in addition to his widow, are a son, Stanley, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Douglas Mullen (Arlene) of Northville; four grandchildren; and a brother and sister in Poland.

Another son, Lt. Eugene Czapl, lost his life in a plane crash at Scott Field, Ill. Dec. 17, 1946, where he had been assigned on enlistment in the Air Force after overseas service.

In 1954 he retired from the Federal Screw Works. He was a member of St. Mary's church, the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society.

Surviving, in addition to the widow, are one son, Donald, of Ponton; three daughters, all of Chelsea: Mrs. Paul (Bernadine) Koch, Mrs. Alfred (Muriel) Juergens and Miss Genevieve Wheeler, who lived with her parents at 511 Congdon.

One daughter, Alice, died in 1932.

One brother, Thomas Wheeler of Ann Arbor, and one sister, Sister M. Roseta of the Dominican convent in Adrian, are other survivors. Six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews also survive.

Mass will be sung today at 10 a.m. at St. Mary's Catholic church with the Rev. Father Francis Maliszewski officiating. Burial will follow at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

STYLE TIPS for Men Only

A STRIPED TIE ON A STRIPED SHIRT?

Yes! It is perfectly acceptable. There is nothing wrong with a striped tie on a striped shirt—provided the RIGHT stripes. A wide-striped tie and a narrow-striped shirt or vice versa.

Don't be afraid to use color and mix them in shirt tie combinations—

Over-all patterns and so paisleys will go with striped shirts. However, don't induce a third and different pattern. Two patterns plenty and three is smothering it!

The new facility, which will be known as Goodwill Industries of Washtenaw county, the facility will operate with a manager under the supervision of the parent operation in Detroit.

Goodwill maintenance crews will immediately begin work on the building to prepare it for a retail store which will occupy about one-quarter of the 1000 square-foot building. The balance of the building will be used as a collection center for materials picked up by Goodwill trucks in Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and other Washtenaw county areas. Sorting crews will pick out items which can be moved into the retail store for sale after minor repair work. Items requiring extensive repair or refinishing will be taken to the main plant for the time being. The hope is that in a short time the store will be able to establish a com-

Space Film of Gemini 4 Slated Monday in Chelsea

U. S. Congressman Weston E. Vivian has announced that the NASA sound and color film of the flight of Gemini 4 and Astronaut Edward White's walk in space will be shown in Chelsea on Monday, Sept. 27.

On several occasions, there will be opportunities for integrated area residents to view the 30-minute documentary film, which was shown at a recent meeting of the Dexter American Legion. A public showing of "The Four Days of Gemini 4" has been scheduled for Monday, Sept. 27, at 8:15 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

School officials have made arrangements for the film to be seen by various groups of students and faculty members at Chelsea schools during the day.

Detroit Edison Meter Readers Get New Uniforms

Detroit Edison Co. is dressing its meter readers throughout southeastern Michigan in bright and snappy green uniforms with Eisenhower type jackets and trim neckties.

Thomas J. Peterson, manager of customer services, said the company decided on the uniforms for its meter readers to make them more readily identifiable to Edison's more than 1,300,000 customers. Heretofore the men who record the use of electric power have dressed in their own work clothes.

Fall and winter uniforms are a green shirt, jacket and trousers. The outfit includes a dark green tie and a green ski-cap. The jacket has a removable lining which will be worn as the weather indicates.

An attractive symbol in red and gold with a white background and the name "Edison" on it appears on the front of the shirt, jacket and cap.

Distribution of the uniforms to the 140 meter readers in the Edison system began this week. Gage R. Cooper, manager of the company's Ann Arbor Division, said that all the readers will be uniformly dressed by the end of the month.

Vocational Education Classes Organized at Saline High

Classes in vocational education will soon be underway at Saline High school.

The classes in basic electronics, basic shop math, mechanical drafting and electrical drafting are designed to train interested persons, including women, for positions as electrical or mechanical draftsmen and technicians. This is the first year these classes have been offered in Saline.

Organized by Edward Gray, 9501 Platt Rd., Milan, the classes are sponsored in co-operation with the Saline Board of Education.

Gray, who is a production controller for Bendix Systems, became interested in training persons for those fields when he was the chief electrical draftsman for Applied Dynamics. He said he sought experienced draftsmen but very few were ever available.

Although placement is not guaranteed, Gray said he will try to place students after training. A 12-week semester in advanced courses is planned to begin in January. Students should be ready for placement after completing the advanced classes, Gray stated.

Three companies have already promised interviews for top pupils and at least 10 other industries in this vicinity need draftsmen and technicians, according to Gray. No placement fees will be charged.

Wages for good electrical or mechanical draftsmen range from $125-$140 a week, Gray added. A good technician makes between $115 and $130 a week. He commented that this line of work also provides good opportunities for women.

The work involves completion of drawings begun by designers, making detailed drawings or drawing sketches from an engineer's sketches.

He's included free when you buy a Gas dryer.

He's a Michigan Consolidated service man. And he'll connect any Gas dryer free in the areas we serve. But that'll probably be the last time you see him. Because in a survey of more than 300 families who owned their Gas dryers an average of five years, a great majority never needed a service call. And total maintenance costs averaged out to less than 20 cents per year per dryer.

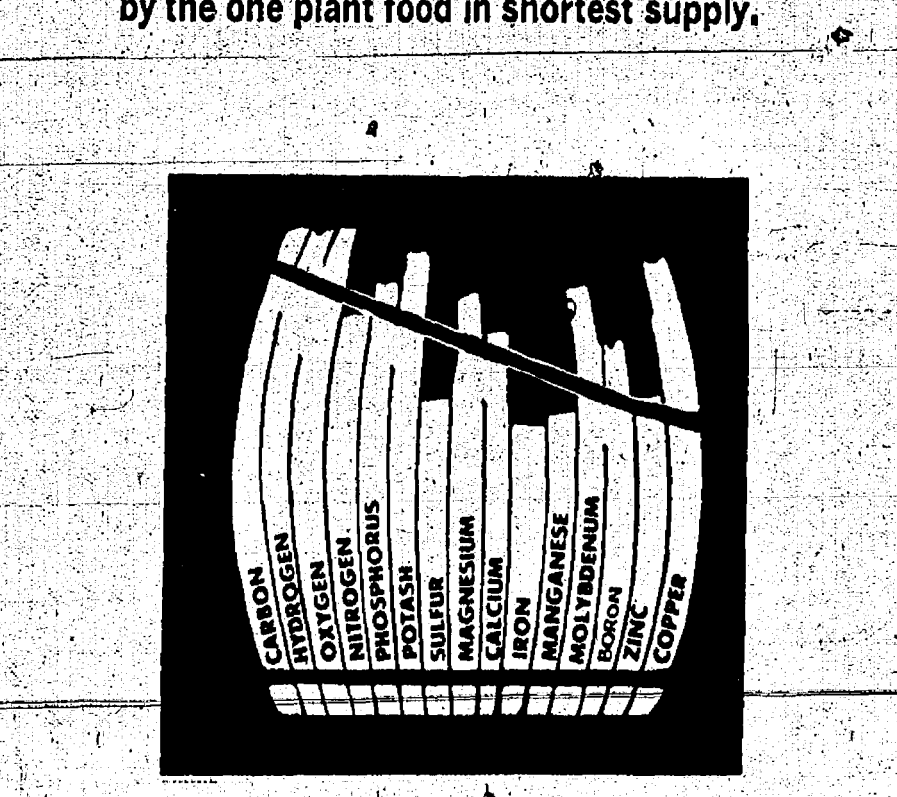

A Gas dryer will dry more than five loads for the cost of doing one in an electric dryer. In fact, you save enough over an electric dryer for your Gas dryer to pay for itself in seven years. And most Gas dryers last for more than ten years.

During Gas Dryer Dividend Days, prices are reduced. So now's the time to see the latest Gas dryer models at your dealer or Michigan Consolidated Gas Company showrooms.

You can't fill a barrel beyond its shortest stave. Likewise, you can't reap from your farm a yield greater than can be produced by the one plant food in shortest supply.

The 16 staves in this barrel represent 16 essential elements scientists know are necessary for plant growth. A deficiency of any one plant food will limit yields long before the deficiency is severe enough to be observed in your field. Could a deficiency of any one of the 16 plant foods be limiting your yields?

Give your crops all the plant food they need for abundant growth. Use PELLEFORM with TREL. Clean, green pellets of uniform size have maximum water solubility. TREL, Smith-Douglass' exclusive formula of trace elements, is added.

There's a grade of PELLEFORM with TREL for every crop and soil.

Linda Schiller, Douglas Craft Exchange Vows

Linda Kay Schiller became the bride of Douglas Craft at a home ceremony Saturday evening with the Rev. Carl Mullins of Fitchburg officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Alvin Schiller and the late Mr. Schiller and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Craft of Fitchburg.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William, wore a long-sleeved gown of white rosepointe lace with a sequin and pearl trimmed sweetheart neckline extending to a V-outline at the back. Large roses fashioned of matching lace formed a bustle-effect at the back of the floor-length skirt. Her elbow-length veil was held in place with a pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of white pompon mums and stephanotis.

Wanda Schiller, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Wearing a gown of yellow organza over tulle her bouquet was like that of the bride except that it was finished with a yellow ribbon bow.

The bride's mother wore a blue print dress and Mrs. Craft wore plain blue. Each had a pink carnation corsage.

Delmar Marshall of Fitchburg assisted the bridegroom as best man.

Following the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, attended by the immediate families of the couple, a reception was held at the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club. The new Mr. and Mrs. Craft are making their home at Cedar Lake.

Fashion Notes

Dresses for school girls are quite attractive this season. Plain weaves and cottons are brightened by white collars and cuffs. Some of the collars resemble those on men's shirts and are buttoned. The collars may be of the Peter Pan type and may be plain or edged with lace.

Another collar for youngsters reminds one of a navy collar. It is worn on a blouse with a white shirt and a white skirt.

Time was when the wearing of a wig was a deep dark secret but today many people—particularly those who have many social demands or those whose work calls for public appearances at a moment's notice—find the possession of a wig a great convenience.

With the increased demand for wigs, the workmanship and production itself has shown great improvement and today it is hard to tell whether a wig is real or artificial hairdo.

Bows are everywhere for little girls on collars, hair or as ties.

Lindemann, chairman, Mrs. Byron Soule, vice-chairman, Mrs. Reuben Lindemann, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Alvin Lesser, recreation chairman, Mrs. Robert Kaercher, community chairman, Mrs. Norwin Lesser and Mrs. David Longworth, leaders.

The Fall Rally and Officers Training will be held Sept. 22 at the American Legion hall in Ann Arbor. The officers will go into Ann Arbor for the first lesson on Sept. 30.

The next meeting will be held on Oct. 20, at the home of Mrs. Ezra Lesser at 12:30 p.m.

Census Bureau Report Shows Big Industry Increase

Michigan's industries reported a 1963 value-added-by-manufacture of $18 billion, more than 55 percent higher than the value-added for 1958, according to a preliminary report of the 1963 Census of Manufactures just issued by the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census.

"Value-added..." approximates the value of products shipped less the cost of materials used to manufacture the products.

Transportation equipment topped the list of the state's industries with a value-added of $5.1 billion, a jump of 84 percent over the value-added for 1958, last previous year of the Census.

In second place was machinery (except electrical) with a value-added for 1963 of $1.76 billion, more than 47 percent higher than the 1958 level. Primary metal industries climbed 67 percent during the period to a 1963 total of $1.14 billion, while fabricated metal products increased 51 percent to $1.02 billion.

The Detroit Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area, consisting of Macomb, Oakland and Wayne counties, had a 1963 value-added of $6.6 billion, more than 50 percent of the state's total and 53 percent higher than its own figure for 1958.

The Flint SMSA was second with a 1963 value-added of $1.14 billion, a gain of more than 95 percent over its 1958 figure, and Grand Rapids climbed 42 percent during the same period to a 1963 value-added of $781 million.

Michigan industries employed 961,450 persons in 1963 as compared with 880,428 in 1958. The 1963 payroll amounted to $7 billion, a gain of more than 34 percent over 1958.

The report, "Michigan" MC63 (P)S-23, is for sale by the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233 and U. S. Department of Commerce field offices. The price is 10 cents.

A former Chelsea resident, Mrs. Nancy Sue McCalla, Brewer, has been selected to appear in the 1965 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America."

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCalla, 12875 Old US-12. Mrs. Brewer and her husband, Dennis, now reside at 2310 Mudford, Ann Arbor.

While in Chelsea, she was active in the Rogers Corners Herdmen 4-H club, both as a member and later as a leader and in the 4-H Service Club, of which she was secretary. She also taught Sunday School at the Methodist church.

The book is an annual biographical compilation of approximately 6,000 outstanding young women between the ages of 21 and 36. Selections are made by the Board of Advisory Editors.

The agenda at the annual meeting will include reports from the county redistricting committee and the board of directors of the new Community College. New officers will be elected and a reading of the minutes and financial report complete the schedule.

Chelsea Board of Education members and Superintendent of Schools Charles Cameron, have been invited to attend.

CHOOSE THE PROPER WAX

Choose the proper wax for your floor. Solvent-type waxes give a soft lustre to a wood floor, but because of the mepha in them, cause asphalt and rubber tile to become gummy. Use a self-polishing wax on asphalt and vinyl floors. Do not use a liquid polishing wax on asphalt or rubber, do not wax marble or ceramic tile.

TODAY'S INVESTOR

BY THOMAS E. O'HARA
Chairman, Board of Trustees
National Association of Investment Clubs

Q. I've heard a lot of talk lately about "stock charting."
What is it? How does it work?
Can it help me in my own investing?

A. Stock charting covers a wide variety of items. But the most widely-used procedure probably involves plotting the volume of sales and price change over a period of time. The various kinds of charting are frequently referred to as the "technical" approach to stock market study.

The complications arise when you start interpreting what those charts foreshadow.

For instance, all chart keepers are certainly going to be able to ascertain that the common stock of Company A was being traded at the rate of 100 shares a day a year ago at a price of $32 and that it is now being traded at the rate of 500 shares a day at a price of $35. But they are likely to come up with a wide variety of answers as to exactly what these changes mean.

The reason for this is simply that charting, or any other procedure of keeping track of the stock market, offers no sure-fire formula for forecasting a stock's behavior.

Besides price and volume, a chartist must bear in mind—just as any investor must—that the stock market, or auction, price of a given stock is determined by two basic things.

The No. 1 and long term determiner is likely to be the stock's fundamental worth. This gets right down to how much the company involved can earn, how much it pays in dividends and whether its earnings capacity is likely to stay steady, decline or increase.

Because stocks are sold in a free auction market, the second factor governing the market price of a given stock is the number of would-be buyers as compared to the number of sellers at any particular moment. If there are more people interested in buying than in selling, the price is likely to go up.

By the same token, the price of a stock may be expected to go down if there are fewer buyers.
At any specific moment the factor which may be producing a preponderance of buyers or sellers is difficult to determine. Puffs in specific stocks, just plain rumors, publicity given a particular stock,
as well as the economic prosperity of the nation as a whole may be producing buyers. A disappointing earnings report, news of strong new competition, a war or panic scare may temporarily produce more sellers.

As to how charting can help you, there are professionals who make a living charting stocks for subscribers. To know how effective they have been, check their record for sometime back. Many brokerage firms and investment counselors have good technical men on their staffs and can make their information available if you want it to help you determine whether to invest in a particular stock.

Q. What is meant by "contrary opinion" or the stock market?

A. Followers of the "contrary opinion" school of market forecasting subscribe to the "it ain't necessarily so" theory with regard to stock prices.

In other words, if the consensus holds that stocks in general are on the rise and will continue to present a golden, rosy picture, a devotee of "contrary opinion" will set out to prove to himself, at least, that there are pitfalls in this view. The "contrary opinion" enthusiast might, for instance, point out that the nation's foreign balance of payments spell trouble for the U. S. investor. He might insist that the price-earnings ratio of a given stock or class of stocks has already discounted any probable future growth; he might argue that the nation's tax structure is "unfriendly" in the long run for safe investing. On the other hand, when the public turns pessimistic with respect to the market, the "contrary opinion" school starts pushing its rose-colored speculative.

A person who decides to think contrarily on stocks will approach everything he reads or is told about the market with a highly skeptical attitude. He will say, "I doubt the truth of this." Then he will set out to study all sides of the question in an effort to determine just where the truth does lie.

Though in many respects the opposite of stock charting, "contrary opinion" is another tool for the accumulation of all possible information so that investment decisions may be made with the most possible understanding.

Have you a question about investing? Mr. O'Hara, editor of the monthly magazine, "Better Investing," and one of the nation's recognized authorities, will be glad to answer it. Write to:

PICNIC TIP

Choose picnic foods that are safe to transport in hot weather.
That means leaving out the salad dressings and custards and bringing along lots of fresh fruits and vegetables instead.

HONEY IDEA

Honey may crystallize if kept at refrigerator temperatures or lower. This is a natural process and no cause for worry. Put the jar in a pan of warm water and the crystals will disappear.
