

CHS Basketball Team Ready To Challenge, League Favorites

A pressing man-to-man defense will highlight Bulldog basketball when Chelsea High meets the Jackson St. Hoopsters in a non-conference game Dec. 3 in the Chelsea school gymnasium.

The 1965-66 Chelsea ball club has been whipping itself into shape since Nov. 8.

Five returning varsity players are David Clark, a 6-foot-11-inch senior in the center position; Gary Houle, a 5-foot-10-inch senior guard; Jim Ortberg, a 6-foot-11-inch senior forward; Mike Tarasow, a 6-foot-11-inch senior forward; and Tom Wojcicki, a 6-foot-10-inch senior in the guard position.

Nine of the new squadmen are up from last year's junior varsity squad. They are: David Blaess, a 5-foot-7-inch senior guard; Kim Flintoff, a 5-foot-8-inch junior guard; Bill Harvey, a 6-foot-11-inch junior forward; Jeff Hitchingham, a 6-foot-3-inch junior forward; Tom Kern, a 5-foot-11-inch junior forward; Dan Parsons, a 6-foot-10-inch senior forward; Larry Porath, a 5-foot-10-inch junior forward; Don Sawyer, a 5-foot-8-inch junior forward; and Wes Stineholzer, a 6-foot-2-inch junior center.

Dan Sawyer, a 5-foot-8-inch senior, returns to basketball after a one-year absence. Captains for the cage team will be selected for each game, with an honorary captain selected at the end of the season's play.

Coach Terry Pokela comments, "Due to a lack of height and exceptional shooting ability, this year's team is going to rely for the most part on its defense to win its earlier games, until the offense catches up."

A pressing man-to-man strategy will be the number one defense for the Bulldogs, he added.

"The pre-season practice sessions have indicated that the team will do a fine job in up-setting the strategy of their opponents with this type of defense."

A search continues for guards with good outside shots and ability to pass to the forwards and centers, Pokela said.

The team has one starting letterman at the guard position, Tom Wojcicki, but lacks other returnees for this spot.

Those having a crack at the job besides Wojcicki are Gary Houle, who played a limited amount at the forward spot last year; Kim Flintoff, who saw action at the guard position last year on the JV squad; David Blaess, who suffered a displaced shoulder last year and thus saw very little action; Dan Sawyer, who did not participate in basketball last year, but started at the guard spot; Don Sawyer, who started at the guard position as a JV last year but may also see action at the forward position this year because of his great jumping ability," Pokela said.

The coach added that this year's team is loaded with adequate forwards, starting with Mike Tarasow, a two-year letterman, who also can play the center position. Jim Ortberg will see considerable service at the forward position this year after being ineligible for half of last year's season. Pokela commented, because he has the most consistent outside jump shot of all the forward candidates.

Bill Harvey, a JV last year will see a lot of action primarily because of his ability to rebound and score near the basket under pressure, Pokela said. Dan Parsons, another recruit from the JV's drives well, has a good shooting touch, and will also see considerable service, Pokela continued.

Larry Porath, another ex-JV is a fine rebounder and is developing a good shooting touch, the coach said. Jeff Hitchingham is the biggest boy on the team but will be ineligible until the second semester, when Coach Pokela said he hopes Hitchingham will be of service in the last leg of the league schedule.

Another forward mentioned by Pokela is Tom Kern, a displaced guard from the JV's, who Pokela says has a good shooting eye and fine moves around the basket, but who lacks strength at the moment.

"He should be of great help when the brunt of the season's schedule arrives after Christmas," Pokela added. "With the possibility of Sawyer playing the forward position also, it can be seen that the Bulldogs will have no real great problems in that spot on the floor. All of the forwards have great desire, rebound well, handle the ball well, and shoot with a good percentage. But the Bulldogs will be at their best defensively."

David Clark, a returning starter from last year, is stronger than ever in the center position, Pokela said. "He rebounds well, both offensively and defensively, shoots well, and plays an excellent defense. He breaks up many plays developing in the foul lane. He should be the best post-man in the conference," Pokela concluded.

Backing up Clark will be Wes Stineholzer, a 6-foot-2-inch eager up from the junior varsity team.

"Wes is rapidly developing a fine shot from the pivot position, to go along with his uncanny ability to drive between defenders. He needs a lot of work on rebounding and defense," the coach added.

Mike Tarasow will also play the post or center position. He drives well, and is a terror on the defensive boards. Mike is the most experienced member of the squad, having lettered as a sophomore," Pokela said.

This year's Bulldog basketball team should be a title contender in the Southeastern Conference according to Pokela, if the guard positions can be properly filled and if the team can solve its past defensive problems.

According to Pokela, the team has no exceptional personnel but does have enough quality to make a very balanced team.

Dexter and Dundee will be the teams to beat this year, Pokela indicated. Dexter has a big team and Dundee a fast team. Chelsea should be right up there with them, he added.

Lincoln will probably have an average team that could cause a lot of trouble late in the season, but Saline and South Lyon probably won't be too strong, Pokela said.

Basketball coaches, in addition to Pokela are Fred Mills, junior varsity; Don Bussley, freshman; and Burt Kruse, Junior High.

SANTA CLAUS TO VISIT CHELSEA SATURDAY

Police Nab Suspect in Record Time

Chelsea police moved rapidly Friday night when they discovered a door ajar at Chelsea Hardware, 120 S. Main.

Officer Earl Willis, Jr., was doing a routine check at approximately 11 p.m. when he noticed the back door slightly ajar. He called Tom Bust, proprietor of Chelsea Hardware, to report the door was open.

At first I thought I must have gotten to lock it," Bust said, asked Willis to close it. After talking on the phone, I remembered walking all the way back to the aisle at closing time to be sure the back door was locked."

Officer Willis and Bust checked the door, they noticed that a rear window had been smashed, apparently with a 2x6, and that some of the merchandise had been missing. A box of floor stripping had been pulled in the center aisle. Bust said a pair of insulated boots also been dragged across the store.

Police officers Willis and Clyde Hachem investigated and by 11:30 p.m. had a lead when someone reported seeing a man carrying several rifles walking up the back door.

Police Chief John Palmer and Warden County Sheriff's Office joined Willis for a visit to Sharon township home where man R. Price, a 27-year-old resident from Virginia, who had a record of larceny, was arrested. He had been staying relatives in Sharon township. Officers discovered the missing merchandise under the front seat of his car less than two hours after the crime was first discovered.

PTO Hears Address on Average Pupil

The Parent Teachers Organization met last Thursday evening at 8 p.m. at the High School cafeteria.

Dr. Scott Westerman spoke on the average C student. Dr. Westerman commented that motivation affected aptitude and that it is hard to classify students.

The four dominant motives for education are religious, political, utilitarian and mass, according to Dr. Westerman, and some say that the prime motive today is full employment; others, to realize democratic ideals.

One of the rights of the average student is to be challenged to do his very best and the right to fail, Dr. Westerman added.

FIRST DEER reported was shot by Andy and his son, Dennis. Andy shot his buck, which dressed out at 185 pounds, within 400 yards of his home on Waters Rd. Both antlers were broken, one flush with the head and the other about five inches above.

Deer hunting license sales totaled 719 at the end of the first day of the 1965 deer season. Sales are expected to continue throughout the season, which opened in the lower peninsula on Saturday, Nov. 20 and will continue until Dec. 5.

In 1964, 600 licenses had been sold when the season opened. Conservation Officer P. J. Donley Boyer reported that about 30 deer were shot during the first two days of the deer hunting season. He said hunting prospects were good throughout the area although there was a concentration of hunters in the Waterloo area.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

It's good to be back in Michigan again and to resume my weekly visits with you.

I was privileged to spend nearly three weeks in the Far East with nine other Governors at the invitation of the Japanese government and our own State Department. This trip was made at no expense to you and gave you Governor an opportunity to view first-hand the growing economy of Japan and the peoples of the Far East.

The few days I spent in the Republic of Vietnam gave me the opportunity to visit personally with several hundred of the thousands of Michigan men who are risking their lives there in the cause of world freedom.

My major conclusion is that what we are doing is morally right and necessary.

Many men and women are living from the "bottom" in the right to live according to the dictates of their own choice. This is also true of people and nations. Life without this divinely endowed rights is worse than death as millions now living under tyranny and terror know.

In essence, the war in South Vietnam, results from the effort on the part of North Vietnam and its foreign allies to impose tyranny through terror on the people of South Vietnam who as citizens of an independent nation want to freely determine their own destiny.

They do not want to be a Communist nation. They want only to be free.

Our intervention has saved South Vietnam from defeat and tyranny which, if permitted, could lead to the collapse of Southeast Asia and stimulate other like wars of liberation through terror directed by the international Communist conspiracy.

Our commitment of ground troops has also changed the nature of the conflict. It means the North cannot win and it has given courage and greater effectiveness to the South.

Now I don't know whether we are going to win or lose. I know some of our policies are wrong, such as giving foreign aid to countries whose ships are delivering supplies to North Vietnam.

But I also know it's not simple situation to be solved by simple, conventional solutions. It is a complex, a military, political, psychological and total struggle as could be imagined.

Of this I am certain. If tyranny can be imposed by terror on South Vietnam, directed and controlled from abroad, it can and will be imposed throughout the world, including the United States.

War is horrible. We all yearn for peace, as most people do.

But peace cannot come through the victory of tyranny imposed through terror. I am therefore convinced we must help the people of South Vietnam if they, the rest of Southeast Asia and eventually the peoples of the earth are to avoid this fate.

Hitchhikers Prohibited On Freeways

College students and others who travel by truck on Michigan freeways and limited access highways are reminded by the State Police that hitchhiking on these high speed roads is prohibited by law.

"Thumbing rides" by college students and other persons, going to and from home has been most prevalent on week-ends and holiday periods.

In addition to the unlawfulness of the practice, State Police point out that there is an element of potential danger for those hitchhiking as well as for those drivers who give them rides. Hitchhikers are sometimes assaulted by motorists who are sometimes assaulted by those thumbing rides.

Apart from the personal safety factor, hitchhiking adds to the enforcement problems of police patrols in having to remove violators from the highways. Such violations can result in arrests. Michigan law, which prohibited hitchhiking on freeways, was changed last year to include the ban on limited access highways. The change also applies to bicycling and other non-motorized traffic.

One out of every six new single-family dwellings will be mobile this year, experts say. That's a big jump of the home market. Increased popularity is held due to improvements, reasonable price and, of course, mobility. It's easy to carry your family to the site of your new job in a portable house.

Self-control is a virtue that individuals recommend to their friends.

THANKSGIVING

Once again, we pause to remember beautiful blessings... to realize how fortunate we are, in the friendship of our neighbors... to appreciate anew that this is indeed an occasion for a most joyous Thanksgiving!

Closer Checks

Evaluating job performance of state civil service employees will take a step toward efficiency if proposed changes are adopted.

Agencies involved, employee organizations and other interested parties have submitted suggestions to change the long-standing method of appraising work performance.

Previously, periodic ratings of all employees were required by the Civil Service Commission. Many complaints that this annual rating system is unwieldy, costly and of little value, prompted the proposed changes.

Satisfactory work by an employee would be noted by a simple list from each agency under the recommended revision. Only in cases where a conditional or unsatisfactory service rating was indicated would a personnel officer of a department be required to fill out a full report.

Present rating policies would remain in effect for rating a probationary employee. The probationary period is usually six months or one year. A full report, but geared to a new yardstick of efficiency, would be required in these cases.

Why the question over whether a state employee is performing?

A study in 1963 of 20,000 annual ratings required showed 99.3 percent indicated satisfactory work. Over 70 percent of the reports did not contain sufficiently detailed comments on performance by supervisors to be of any value in trying to improve the work.

More than once the commission has been asked to abandon the rating system entirely, but this has been rejected.

Commission staff members feel this new system will provide more meaningful evaluations.

The new probationary rating forms have been piloted in two state departments. The staff believes it will provide better ratings because it will be more detailed in nature and based on a job factor analysis established at the time of hiring.

Keep Trying

Legislative observers often hear a recurring refrain when regulatory measures are proposed. It goes: "Why bother? Even if we write the law we don't have the manpower to enforce it."

Sometimes this has proven true after enactment. Other times it is surprising to note what can be done with minimal manpower.

The latter is aptly demonstrated by Michigan's local jail situation. A federal jail inspector said recently that collectively Michigan's jails are among the best in the nation.

Less than 20 years ago, however, Michigan's jails included many prime nominees for a "before and after" picture of detention facilities.

Then in 1950 the legislature adopted a law giving the Department of Corrections a strong hand in governing the operation of local jails. Since then 51 new county jails have been built in Michigan to help give this favorable impression to the federal inspector.

Even in 1960 some lawmakers highly wondered about what good the proposal would do if it could not be enforced. It has been enforced, and by essentially one man.

Yes, Michigan has one official jail inspector. He spends most of his time throughout the year traveling the 83 counties checking compliance with the law.

With 15 years gone by the inspector's job is now becoming easier as more modern facilities are in use.

This single area of state government activity might provide a good object lesson of what a little manpower can do to make major improvements.

Star Teacher

Education in Michigan will be headed by one of the state's highest paid administrators under the government reorganization established by the 1963 Constitution. The new State Board of Education is nearing a decision on a man to fill the $30,000 a year appointive post of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

As the non-voting chairman of the State Board, the new administrator will be the top leader of Michigan's public school system.

He will also be the board's spokesman in dealing with the various independent state colleges and universities.

Responsibility falling on the superintendent will involve every aspect of Michigan's official concern with education.

In addition to membership in the State Administrative Board, Municipal Finance Commission and a half-dozen other units, he will have budgetary responsibilities of great magnitude.

One of his chief functions will be to prepare the annual budget for education, from kindergarten through some university and adult education programs, and to defend it to the Governor's advisers and the legislative committees.

The new 30,000 salary designated for the superintendent still to be found is the same as that received by Michigan's Governor.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR

Another Thanksgiving season has rolled around and the fellers at the country store Saturday night was giving thanks for their blessings during the year.

Ed Doolittle, that claims Abe Lincoln would be standing along side Saint Peter to greet him when he gets to the Pearly Gates, reportedly he was thankful for a heap of things.

First off, allowed Ed, Lyndon has about got the pockets of poverty patched up and can now help Lady Bird with the making America beautiful program. Another thing, said Ed, he could remember Thanksgiving seasons when he was worrying about dying broke and now he ain't got nothing to worry about except dying in debt. This, according to Ed, was a big improvement and he was thankful.

Clem Webster, of the Great Society claimed we had come a long way from the Franklin Roosevelt days when all we had to fear was fear itself. In the prosperous times we got now, said Clem, all we got to worry about is worry itself. This, too, claimed Clem, was particular thankful for it at this season of the year.

Bug Hookum was of the opinion America had ought to be extra thankful on these odd years on account of it was a off year for them Congressmen to run for office and we would be spared of being "saved" by them at the polls.

Actual, Mister Editor, the fellers were mostly kidding each other and on account of I been knowing most of them for 50 years, I feel pretty shore that all of them was thankful unto the Lord for their blessings.

The feller that runs the store sorter made what you would call the keynote address of the session. His old lady is a school teacher and he gets a lot of book information us plow-and-sow boys don't get. Per instant, he said his old lady was telling about the Pilgrims at Plymouth that founded the Thanksgiving holiday.

For the first three years after they landed, he reported, the Pilgrims was running one of these commune systems like the Russians and Red China was running now. Everything was owned in common and everybody was supposed to do his share of all the work and everybody was to share alike and they was starving to death.

The storekeeper said the Governor of the Colony was a feller named Bradford and after three year he give up the idea, was of the opinion this wasn't God's way, and over after that the Colony prospered, was happy, and give thanks unto the Lord.

All the fellers, Mister Editor, allowed us how it was a great pity them hungry Russians and Chinese didn't study the story of the Pilgrims instead of following the gospel according to that feller Karl Marx.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Area Housing Boom Sets New Records

A spectacular increase of 20.9 percent in 1965 over 1964 authorizations for new dwelling units in Washtenaw, Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties has been reported by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

Periods compared were the first three quarters of 1965 and 1964. Since figures for 1965 are incomplete, the final increase will be even higher, the Commission reported.

A total of 26,707 units were permitted for construction through September 1965 as compared to 22,001 for the first nine months of 1964. When all reports are in, another 500 to 1,000 units are expected to boost the 1965 total. In Washtenaw county, 818 more new dwelling units were authorized during the first nine months of 1965 (2,407 in 1964, 3,285 in 1965) for an increase of 33.1 percent, according to Commission figures. Only Oakland county showed a greater increase in the four-county area. Oakland went from 6,531 authorizations in 1964 to 9,000 in 1965, an increase of 38.5 percent.

The Washtenaw increase of 3,285 includes 919 single family units, 72 two-family units and 2,294 multi-family units. There were 35 demolitions in the county during the same period.

In 1964, Washtenaw's increase of 2,407 included 714 single family units, 130 two-family units and 1,623 multi-family units. Sixty-eight demolitions were reported.

The Commission predicts total activity for 1965 will exceed the 1964 total of 29,000 units. The housing market in the four-county Detroit region began to boom in 1961, and has continued ever since, after declining for seven straight years.

As in 1962, 1963 and 1964, the gain is largely attributed to the continuation of the multiple housing boom.

In the first nine months of 1965, 11,101 multi-family units were permitted. During the entire year of 1964, only 10,040 such units were registered. The 1964 figure set a new record on the Commission books.

The Planning Commission said that all indications are that multiple housing will continue to play a vital role in the Detroit area housing market for several years to come.

County ASCS Office Has Funds for Liming

Producers wanting to lime this fall should be sure to come into the county ASCS office to make application before starting the practice, as there is still money available, according to the office.

The soil test must be made by the Soil Testing Laboratory, Michigan State University at East Lansing or at a county extension office which has a soil testing laboratory. Lime must be applied as recommended by the soil test.

Thanksgiving Day Proclamation

Here is the text of President Johnson's proclamation designating Nov. 25 as "a day of national thanksgiving."

For all the blessings that have been bestowed upon our nation during the past 12 months, it is a small thing to give thanks to almighty God.

When the Pilgrims first observed Thanksgiving nearly 350 years ago, life was harsh and unrelenting. Cold and sickness had diminished their ranks. Their shelter was crude. Their future was uncertain. Yet when their harvest was abundant, they considered themselves blessed—and their hearts were filled with gratitude.

Today we have much more than an abundant harvest. Our nation is rich and strong and united in the cause of liberty and justice. Our physical comforts are unmatched anywhere in the world. Our medicine has conquered ancient diseases.

In the past year we have added greatly to our national heritage. We have guaranteed the right to vote to all our citizens. We have pledged dignity to our elderly—even in sickness. We have added new dimensions to the education of our youth. We have broadened the horizons of opportunity for our poor. And all the while, we have enjoyed the greatest prosperity in history.

But our real blessings lie not in our bounty. They lie in those steadfast principles that the early Pilgrims fought for all generations to come: the belief in the essential dignity of man, the restless search for a better world for all, and the courage—as shown by our sons in Vietnam today—to defend the cause of freedom wherever it is threatened.

These are the eternal blessings of America. They are the blessings which make us grateful even when the future is uncertain. They are the blessings which give us the strength to complete the unfinished tasks that remain before us.

For these blessings should we thank God most of all. Now, therefore, I, Lyndon B. Johnson, President of the United States, of America, in consonance with the joint resolution of the Congress, approved Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 862 (U.S.C. 87B), designating the fourth Thursday of November in each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, Nov. 25, 1965 as a day of national thanksgiving.

On that day, let us gather in our homes and in our places of worship to thank God for his generosity. Let us make ourselves worthy of that generosity by pledging to Him our everlasting devotion. And let us pray to Him that the forces of violence and indifference and intolerance may soon vanish from the face of the earth so that peace and understanding and love may reign supreme.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 10th day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-five and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninth.

REPORT from LANSING

State Representative

Thomas G. Sharpe

★ 1965 Legislative Summary — Education

Last week's column dealt primarily with the estimated $524 million in state aid to local school districts which represents over half the total 1965-66 cost of elementary and secondary education in Michigan and the largest single item in this year's record-high state budget.

Colleges and Universities
Today we shall discuss state aid to higher education. According to the State Department of Public Instruction, Michigan presently has 76 colleges and universities. This includes 48 privately-operated institutions, 18 junior and community colleges, and 10 state-supported colleges and universities. In addition, there are four branches of these state universities—MSU's Oakland University branch at Rochester, U of M's two branches at Flint and Dearborn, and Michigan Tech's branch at Sault Ste. Marie. Soon another state school will be added under this year's legislative authorization for establishing a new Saginaw Bay State College.

State Funds Appropriated for Higher Education
Higher education took approximately $216 million of the second largest chunk of the overall state budget. This included some $177 million for general operations plus approximately $39 million (over 60 percent) of the state's $63.5 million capital outlay program. Of the $177 million general operating appropriation for institutions of higher learning, $165.5 million will go to the state-supported, degree-granting colleges and universities (up to 26 percent or $34.4 million over 1964-65) and $11.5 million will go to community colleges (up 51 percent or $34.4 million over 1964-65) and $11.5 million will go to community colleges (up 51 percent or $3.9 million over 1964-65).

Increased enrollments and faculty salary raised account for most of the $34.4 million increase. One section of the education bill specifically provided $4.9 million for faculty salary improvements in the 10 institutions, ranging from $80,000 for Grand Valley State College to $12 million for Wayne State University. However, once appropriations are made, the governing boards of the institutions may allocate funds as they see fit. Substantially higher enrollments and a $14 increase in the state's per pupil grant (from $234 to $275) were responsible for the $3.9 million hike in this year's community college operating fund appropriations. The actual per pupil cost is estimated at about $600 a year, with local support and tuition payments making up the difference.

Capital Outlay—The $39 million capital outlay appropriation for higher education includes some $33 million for the continuation or starting of new construction and for the remodeling existing facilities; a $4 million grant to community college districts for new construction and remodeling; and the major portion of the $2.8 million authorization for preliminary plans and studies on a variety of building projects. Unfortunately, it is very difficult to make a realistic appraisal of individual capital outlay projects since there is little authoritative information available to indicate the ultimate costs of staffing, operating, and maintaining these new facilities.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

County Wool Growers Reminded Marketing Year Ends Dec. 31

Wool growers are reminded that the 1965 wool marketing year ends Dec. 31, 1965, according to information received from the Washtenaw County ASCS committee.

All shorn wool and unshorn locks and fleeces from Jan. 1, 1965 through Dec. 31 are eligible for payment. The County committee reminds wool growers to make sure to check sales slips for accuracy before filing an application for payment. Any unshorn lambs purchased must also be declared.

I think certain facts are worthy of note. Educational spending pressures continue to mount, as do enrollments in both 4-year and community colleges. College costs are rising three times as fast as the cost of living. Michigan attracts far more non-resident students in state-supported institutions than it sends to other states. The overall tendency toward liberal government spending—never more evident than in this year's Democratic-dominated state and national lawmakers—has thrown our educational system into a nearly incredible cost race, with little regard on the part of its proponents of the needs of other government-supported functions. And yet, secrecy continues to enshroud university finances, as opposed to the close legislative scrutiny applied to the expenditure of state funds by every other department, agency or public official. Legislative resentment over this secrecy is bound to increase as Michigan's surplus disappears and lawmakers are forced to propose new, and higher, taxes to meet these ever-spiraling requests for money from the state treasury. I am sure no one—at least, not I—would question the need for adequate educational opportunities for all. BUT—there are many bottlenecks in our educational system. A recent report by the 56-member Blue Ribbon Committee on Higher Education commented on the responsibility of institutions of higher learning to cooperate fully in the interest of coordinated planning and action to avoid unnecessary and costly duplication of programs and to make maximum use of every educational dollar spent.

(Next week we shall discuss some of the 1965 laws affecting education.)

Pre-Measurement Service Offered By ASCS Office

Washtenaw County again has measurement services available to producers, according to the ASCS County Committee.

Producers may request a pre-measurement of all cropland on their farm to establish official field acreages. The cost of this service is $5 per farm plus 10 cents an acre. Producers may also request an early measurement of their planted wheat acreage. This will help to determine how to sign up in the 1966 wheat program. The cost, according to the county committee, is $5 per farm.

The committee also wants to remind all producers that when compliance is checked under the Certification Plan there is no opportunity for adjustment. Producers will automatically lose all program benefits, according to the county office.

Farm Bureau Head Blasts 'Socialized' Federal Program

American Farm Bureau president Charles B. Shuman told an audience of some 2,000 farmers at Lansing Wednesday night that the place to start changing "the climate of agriculture" is on the county level.

"Go home," Shuman said, "decide whether you are for marketing agriculture or socialized agriculture—make up your mind because you can't be on both sides—discover your problems and then do something about them." The president told them he "makes no apologies for calling it socialized agriculture because government controlled agriculture is socialized."

Shuman told the group that 35 years ago Farm Bureau asked for "a little" control that would be "temporary." "That's where we made two mistakes," he said, "there is no such thing as a 'little bit of control'—it's like pregnancy—and government control is never 'temporary'."

"We made a mistake—and this reflects the opinion of the majority of real farmers," he emphasized. "Let's change . . . let's don't keep the climate fogged up with government control. After 35 years it's quite evident that the means are not working. The one-third of agriculture that is subjected to control is where all the trouble is."

After the unbroken record of failure under control, Farm Bureau has to have a positive program, the speaker said. We need legislation that will "end control in government as rapidly as possible. We would prevent the dropping of surplus on the market to push prices down as has been done." He pointed out that some farmers are forced to take the little checks from the government because prices go down. The second step of the Farm Bureau positive program is "to aggressively control monopoly, and the third 'to build markets.'"

I commend Michigan Farm Bureau for its progress in building markets," Shuman said. "Building markets is the answer rather than trying to control production. We must also increase agricultural research and education . . . have sound fiscal management of the country . . . check inflation." I suggest we are in the beginning of a surge of inflation," Shuman said.

"What stands in our way of a positive program?" Shuman asked, and answered, "Number one, the four-year extension of the farm bill." He felt relieved, however, that President Johnson appeared reluctant to sign the bill—as though there might be hope for a change in it. "I don't think the administration can live with it for four years. It will cost 5 to 6 billion of the farm bill they took 5 billion per year."

The bill simply copies failure of the farm bill they took 5 billion—doves out—and yet, his year we had the best feed grain production in the United States there ever has been." Controlling production simply does not solve anything, he indicated.

Shuman also noted that the new commission the president formed to study the farm situation consisted of "one-third in favor of marketing system, one-third in favor of socialistic agriculture and one-third don't know the difference." Among the labor representatives, professors, heads of food processing corporations and farm co-ops and bankers on the commission, there are three farmers, but no representatives of any farm organization, according to Shuman. "Imagine the labor unions over letting a commission settle their problems without the AFL-CIO being represented!"

Sure, some farmers like the "feed grain checks that only take signing a name" with no work involved. But, Shuman went on, "every farmer who thinks, knows the program (federal control) hasn't accomplished a thing."

"Why does the government perpetuate its mistakes?" Shuman asked. In addition to the thousands would be the farm program every 17 working farm farmers are smart enough to respond to the market."

"The bureaucrats don't pay their mistakes. The innocent pay."

It was the farmers who have lost their business of apples, pears and strawberries, and the Secretary of Agriculture made mistake of barring bananas coming from Mexico to the farmers are smart enough to pay the price and less produce. The mistakes—in Washington suffer.

"We in Farm Bureau find out the problems and go to work with the most likely to solve them. We own county organizations and you, neighbors, can do something about them. You can that farm property taxes are high, costs too great, farm difficult, these are things you a county level should see to."

Under the expanded Farm Bureau program, Shuman challenged farmers to "find your own help from the State or National level of Farm Bureau."

Kiwanians Hear Talk on Drug Misuse

Charles M. Lancaster introduced Jack M. Wiltsie of Ypsilanti, professional service representative of Smith, Kline & French Laboratories, at the Monday evening Kiwanis meeting in the Congregational church.

Wiltsie spoke on drug abuse and misuse of certain drugs, which causes many hidden sicknesses especially in the field of amphetamines and barbiturates. He spoke of some of the cautions and safety measures to prevent misuse, such as keeping all drugs out of the reach of children, never exchanging drugs or pills with friends and relatives, never buying pills without a doctor's advice and a prescription.

A law just passed by Congress should have the effect of a more thorough check of sale and distribution of the potent drugs that are now available.

James Daniels introduced Robert Shears as a guest.

President Don E. Turner, Past President James P. Liebeck, President-elect Floyd P. Fowler, First Second Vice-President Clare M. Warren and Secretary Paul F. Niehaus were to attend an officers training conference of Division VI, Michigan District Kiwanis International, at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor on the afternoon and evening of Nov. 28. The session will be under the direction of Lt. Governor-elect of the sixth division, William Davis of Ann Arbor's Eastern Kiwanis Club.

The annual Kiwanis farmers night will be Monday evening, Nov. 29, at 7 p.m., in the Chelsea High school cafeteria with members of Kiwanis Key Club members serving the meal and members of the Key Club acting as waiters. The program for the evening is to be "God Is My Landlord," the story of Perry Hayden. Hayden was inspired by a sermon to plant a cubic inch of wheat and to let the amount grown each year to the church. This grew in six years' time to 2,666 acres which produced 72,160 bushels of wheat. This film is in color and took seven years to produce. Henry Paul Eddie, Kitchener, and many others appear and speak in the movie.

The annual Kiwanis Christmas Party Ladies' Night will be Monday, Dec. 6 at 6:45 p.m. at the Greater Reef Buffet, 2533 Stadium Blvd., Ann Arbor.

Monday evening, Dec. 13, the annual Kiwanis Children's Christmas Party will be held at the Congregational church.

All organizations in the Chelsea area are being asked to co-operate in a plan to formulate a "community calendar." Such a calendar would prove a convenience in planning future projects so that conflicting meetings or events would not be set for the same dates.

A mimeographed copy of all the events scheduled will be mailed to each group responding. It is hoped that this will help each group to organize its own program to better advantage.

Senior Citizen Health Care Will Start July 1, Next Year

Health care for the aged similar to that proposed 20 years ago by President Harry S. Truman, became law when President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the Medicare bill July 31.

President Johnson completed signing of the bill into law at ceremonies at the Truman Library in Independence, Mo., with President Truman sitting beside him.

President Johnson made the trip to Independence as a gesture of respect and recognition for the further president because of his 60th birthday.

The new Medicare program is a national health care program similar but broader medical insurance plan than the present Medicare.

It has been stressed that the new Medicare program will have effect until July 1, 1966, and persons who now have health insurance should not make any change until after that time.

Medicare includes hospitalization insurance for the over-65 persons including room and board and certain other benefits, while in a hospital for up to 90 days. The patient, however, will be required to pay the first $100 of the bill, and $100 a day for every day after the 90th. This hospitalization service, moreover, will not cover doctor's fees.

Also included in Medicare is a voluntary supplementary insurance program which those over 65 may join at a cost of $3 per month. According to present information, this will cover doctor's fees such as surgery and consultation. It would also cover home and office calls by the doctor, as well as other benefits such as payment for X-rays and ambulance service. Under this plan, the patient will pay the first $50 and then 20 percent of the remaining cost.

Persons who have reached the age of 65 will be able to enroll in the supplementary program at $3 per month, during an enrollment period from Sept. 1 to Oct. 31, 1965. Following this, an individual reaching 65 after Jan. 1, 1966, will have a seven-month period beginning three months before his 65th birthday, during which he may enroll. Details on this and other aspects of the program will be available from all local Social Security offices.

Residents of Washtenaw county are served by the Ann Arbor Social Security office at 1355 N. Main St.

Medicare is included in the Social Security program. Increased Social Security benefits are also provided for retroactive to Jan. 1, 1965.

The increased Social Security benefits and, for the most part, the Medicare program, both will be financed by increased payroll taxes.

When the Social Security program started in 1937, the Social Security tax for workers was one percent on the first $3,000 earned. By 1965, it had risen to 3 1/2 percent on the first $4,800. Effective Jan. 1, 1966, it will be 4 1/2 percent on the first $4,800 a year. And the tax is scheduled to go up step by step, six more times before, in 1987, it reaches 6 1/2 percent for the first $6,000 of wages taxes. By that year the Medicare tax will account for 0.8 percent and Social Security taxes for 4.5 percent of the 5.3 percent total a worker must pay. In such case the amount is paid by the employer.

"Home health services" are also provided for in the Medicare program.

To qualify for "home health services" under the basic Social Security Medicare plan, the patient first must be hospitalized at least three days.

He then may go to a nursing home or his own home. Within 14 days after the patient returns to his home, a "plan" outlining the services he is to get must be "established" by a physician.

The doctor must certify such services are required because the patient is confined to his home. He also must certify the patient needs "skilled nursing care on an intermittent basis," or needs physical or speech therapy, for a convalescence which was being treated in the hospital or nursing home. The other home benefits then would be available, too, if needed.

The patient must remain under the care of a physician. And from time to time as specified by government regulations, the doctor must review the treatment plan to gear it to the patient's progress.

A patient may receive up to 100 "visits" after he returns home.

The benefits end one year after the patient's discharge from a hospital or nursing home. However, if a patient is rehospitalized after being home 60 days, it will be regarded as a new "spell of illness" and he then will be eligible for 100 more visits upon returning home.

Legislators and others opposed to the Medicare bill based their opposition on fears that Social Security deductions will climb steadily under the burden of financing the health care program. Others, including many of those in the medical profession, see Medicare as a step toward socialized medicine. It has been pointed out that there is some justification for these fears; however, the great majority evidently concur in the statement attributed to Truman at the signing of the bill July 31 in which he said the new law "will provide dignity, not charity, for those who have moved to the sidelines."

The 135-page bill is so complicated that few people will understand all its provisions without the help of professional personnel in the various Social Security offices. The Social Security office at Ann Arbor is the official place for Washtenaw county residents to contact for information.

Those eligible for Medicare and already receiving monthly Social Security checks will automatically receive a form on which they may sign up for the supplemental insurance.

Other persons just 65 may register for Medicare when Social Security offices start enrolling people for supplemental insurance, beginning Sept. 1.

Auto Mechanic Position Open at Ann Arbor P.O.

There is an immediate opening for an automotive mechanic in the Ann Arbor Post Office. Postmaster Donald G. Bachman, Sr., announced today. Interested persons are invited to make application for the position. A register of persons eligible for this type of position will be established from the applications received. Those persons on the register other than the one to fill the immediate vacancy, will be considered for future vacancies that will occur over the next two or three year period. This register may also be used to fill vacancies in other Federal Agencies in Washtenaw county.

Applications are available and will be accepted until further notice. These positions offer a starting pay of $5,345 a year, or $240 an hour, automatic increases, night pay differentials, liberal vacation and sick leave plans, low cost insurance benefits, and generous retirement plan.

Application will be accepted from persons regardless of their residence. However, in filling vacancies, eligible residents in Washtenaw county, or who are bona fide patrons of Post Offices in that county, will be certified ahead of eligibles residing elsewhere. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for equal employment opportunities, in rating or order, without regard to race, creed, color, sex, or national origin.

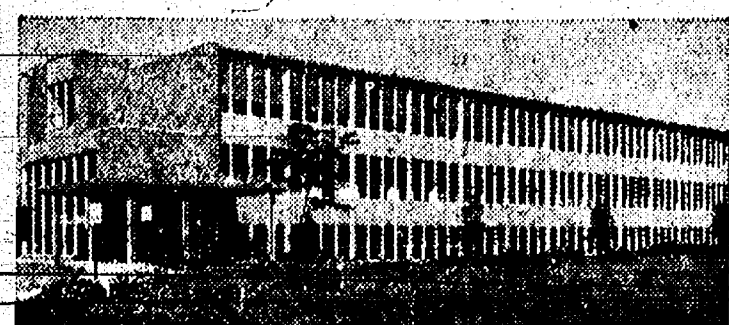

There will be no written test. Applicants will be rated on their skills and ability to repair, maintain, and overhaul automotive equipment.

Complete information and application forms may be obtained from the Ann Arbor Post Office, or from the office of the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Room 702 in the Lafayette Building, Detroit, Mich. 48226.

THE GOLDEN YEARS

PUT THIS IN A COMPUTER AND SEE WHAT YOU'LL GET

It's about time for somebody to knock down the notion that only highly educated young people are now fit to run the world.

Ralph W. Smathers, a recently retired executive, thinks he can do it.

"A lot of inane conversation," he says, "is leading the country to believe that the technological developments of recent years have left people in their 50's and 60's hopelessly behind."

Some business spokesmen, and even a U.S. cabinet officer, have implied that the older people have such meager and such outmoded education they had just about as well get on out of the way and let the college kids take over.

"Well, that's pretty cute when you consider that most of the whiz-kids are taking their orders from oldsters who never looked inside a computer — and don't have to."

Mr. Smathers says a good many young intellectuals think the technological revolution is new, and that they "discovered it." While as a matter of fact the man who is now age 65 has been traveling with it all his life.

"Take the delivery man with his horse and dray. Think what a crisis he faced when the gasoline truck came along. But he adapted to the contraption and survived. Just as the blacksmith adapted to the car, and the buggy salesman to the used car lot."

"And nobody went around claiming these 'victims' of technological progress were outdated and should be cast aside."

Mr. Smathers believes the changes a person now 65-years-old has lived through in his or her lifetime are about as profound as those taking place now. "They didn't have all the electronic tubes and flashing lights, and were not so complex," he says, "but they were dramatic. And we learned to conquer them."

"The person now in the 60's has gone from the horse and wagon to the train, to the automobile, to buses, to flying machines, to super-highways, and to jets. What transition!"

"That same person has gone from oil lamps to electricity, from gramophones to television, from ice boxes to freezers, from pasteboards fans to air conditioning, from crepe de Chine to nylon, from stove wood to gas."

"And do you remember the bookkeeper with his green eyeshade, his bottle of ink, and fine Spencerian hand? Reflect on the drama that typewriters and office machines brought to him. And what about the hand-set printer when the linotype came along?"

"Don't tell me any nonsense about people who have conquered all these things not being able to conquer a computer."

A fallacy in the yak-yak about anybody past age 45 now being outdated, according to Mr. Smathers, is the idea that a modern man has to understand the technological changes. Some people do, in order to build and operate them. But everybody else just uses them. "Probably fewer than one percent of all people understand a modern eight-cylinder auto, or the workings of an electric light. But does it matter? We know where to buy them and get them repaired . . . and we know how to use them . . ."

Explorer Scout, Volunteer Activity Told at Assembly

On Tuesday, Nov. 16, all students, grades 9 through 12, attended a double assembly put on by the Red Cross and the Explorer Scouts.

Mr. Herndon, who is in charge of the VolunTEENS Organization of the Red Cross, showed slides of girls and boys working at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, Veterans Hospital, also in Ann Arbor, and Ypsi State Hospital in Ypsilanti. These slides provided students with the opportunity of seeing the various types of work that the VolunTEENS are expected to do. After the slides were shown, questions from the audience were answered and information was left in the office for any interested members.

Mr. Wendell was the representative of the Explorer Scouts. He showed a movie which showed many different activities the Explorer Scouts are involved in. These activities ranged from taking care of church grounds, to parties to canoeing, to horseback riding. At the conclusion of the film, Ralph Raiford was introduced as the head of the Explorer Scouts in this area and pamphlets were passed out to all interested boys.

Red Cross Finds Servicemen Prefer Home-Made Articles

What does the American serviceman in Viet-Nam, Newfoundland, or in the world want for Christmas?

The American Red Cross believes the parents and families of men scattered all over the globe would like to know. And believing the men would be a little more frank in expressing preferences to a friend than to their own families, Red Cross decided to find out. The organization asked its Field Directors stationed with American troops in overseas areas, many of them isolated, to put the question directly to the man.

Home-made things, things that represent the family, the old school and the town they lived in. These things topped every list: home-made cookies and candies, which should be packed in sealed metal containers, hand-made sweaters, pictures of the family, recorded messages by familiar voices [this can be done easily and free of charge at the Red Cross Center—call 662-5546 for information about sending Smiles Across the Miles], the local newspaper, the school periodical, a picture calendar from a local merchant, all ranked high.

Two factors, the Red Cross explained, are responsible for the men's preference. First, the home-made items carry with them an element of personal interest and demonstrate the love and care of the relatives who took the time and effort to prepare them. The men want to feel close to their own—to know that they are remembered and missed.

Secondly, the Red Cross asks families to remember that except on small isolated bases, a serviceman usually can purchase all his needs at the base exchange, often for less than his relatives would pay here.

Other times in which interest was evident were self-seal envelopes for tropical areas, where gummed envelopes are impractical, personal toilet articles, including razor blades in Viet-Nam. If you are in doubt, send a razor too, the Red Cross suggests. Small metal mirrors, towels and wash cloths, ballpoint pens and even black shoe polish were well up on the list.

Packages going to APO points overseas by surface mail should be dispatched immediately and parcels going by air should be sent between Dec. 1 and Dec. 10 (recordings made by families at Red Cross Center travel like an airmail letter). Gifts for Far East, Southeast Asia, and other areas should be mailed as early as possible.

A PRAYER for Thanksgiving

Our Thanksgiving Wish . . .

May we have peace, but with honor and with liberty may we never seek war; yet may we never surrender the American way of life; may we never give up the right as Americans to think, talk, and worship each according to his own way; yet may we be always united, a nation indivisible; in the common defense, may we enjoy the richness of our land; yet be willing to endure the hardships of free men determined to keep a democratic country.

THE COUNTRY PULPIT:
You Are A Marked Man
 In the Massachusetts Bay Colony during the early 1700's, condemned and women literally became "marked men." For a designated number of years they were recruited by law to wear scarlet letters. A large letter made from scarlet cloth revealing the sin they had committed. A stood for adultery, B for blasphemy, D for drunkenness, F for forgery, I for incest, R for rape, and T for treason.
 That law was later repealed as being too inhuman for our socety. And some people today mistakenly believe that because the law was repealed and the letters burned that the crimes they had also been removed.
 Tragically, however, sin has not decreased — only public condemnation. Though those letters have long since disappeared, they still reach into every home, family and life.
 Yes, the letters are gone, but in God's sight we wear them yet!
 What a scarlet letter were to appear on your sleeve, what would it be?
 "Impossible!" you say.
 Don't be too sure. The word of God tells us that before all the things that very thing shall happen: "For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known."
 (2 Cor. 5:10). What a terrible moment that will be when you stand before God and men to have all of the past revealed!
 But I have good news for you. There is One who has died to save you from the guilt and penalty of your sins. Listen to these words: "The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:23). Because of His death for you, Jesus Christ, because at Calvary His pre-blood flowed from wounded hands, feet and side, you may rid yourself forever from the scarlet letter.
 Think of it, Christ, the very Son of God, took all the shame and penalty of your sin upon Himself. "Who His own self bare our sins in His own body on the tree" (1 Peter 2:24).
 Today as He looks upon you, what does He see — a life branded with the guilt of sin or a heart cleansed by faith in Him? If you never before looked to Him for forgiveness, for cleansing, for assurance of eternal life, why not look to Him and trust Him now. Why should you continue to wear a letter of shame?
 The choice is yours — the crimson blood or the scarlet letter.
 Be it known unto you therefore . . . that through this Man reached unto you the forgiveness of sins; and by Him all that we are justified from all things, from which we could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts 13:38,39).
 —Pastor Elmer S. Steenson.

Just A Minute...

By the Rev. James A. Craig

Thanksgiving. A uniquely American holiday. We count our blessings while hoping we won't over-eat. We count them thanking God we are not like other nations. That here we live free and equal, not hampered by the customs that inhibit other peoples.

Before we go too far making too many claims, think about one thing. Think about Race. America's most important social problem. Or so some say.

It's important to the few who try to do something about it. It's important to those whose minds and hearts are being challenged to change.

The rest pay scant attention, pathetically confused when we lence murders and hatred bloodcuses.

But not here. In Alabama, yes.
 In Los Angeles, yes. In Mississippi,
 yes. In Harlem, yes. But not here.
 Here we are "safe."

Safe? When we share a common fear; a common prejudice, more subtle but just as strong?
 Safe? When in quieter voices and with better behavior we say the same things and think the same things as those who "sue guns, and clubs, and cattle prods?"

Thanksgiving. We might remember that the first Thanksgiving was an inter-racial meal, shared without thought of race, color, creed, or national origin. For that we can give thanks.

And we can give thanks that in Jesus Christ all of the false barriers dividing mankind were wiped out. And we can give thanks that it is our opportunity to celebrate it before the whole world.

It is doubtful that the 13 original colonies could have been united without magazines. Periodicals since the 17th century are the oldest, continuous means of major communication in the United States.

Magazines not only reflect the times, they contribute to its shape.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

BEING HELPFUL

How often have you passed up the opportunity to do something for your fellow man? Have you refused to take part in some community effort? Have you looked the other way when a friend or a neighbor was obviously in need?

Maybe you're like the few who never take the time to do anything at all without first asking, "What's in it for me? And, maybe you're like the do-nothings who criticize the "doers" and suggest they participate in numerous activities merely for the "publicity" involved.

Each man seeks his own reward. If you tell yourself you don't care about anyone or about anything, your heart and your conscience will eventually betray you. Someday you'll hear a cry for help, and you'll respond, without searching for a reason or anticipating a reward. When you do, you'll know there isn't any possible way to help others without helping yourself at the same time.

MIX-EM

You can mix traditional and contemporary furniture styles as long as you stay consistent with the general feeling of formality or informality you have chosen.

stockroom and a storage garage. Architects Colvin, Robinson, Wright & Associates designed the new headquarters. E. E. Kurtz Construction Co. of Ann Arbor were the general contractors for the headquarters. The commission maintains 1,600 miles of roads and streets in the county.

Evening Grosbeck Arrival Heralds Coming Winter

Although winter won't officially arrive until the winter solstice about Dec. 22, Chelsea residents received a portent of things to come during the past week. A sharp cold spell and howling winds kept residents aware of long wintry months ahead.

Mrs. Ray R. Steward, 12005 Scio Church Rd., reported one of the pleasant aspects of winter.

She reported spotting an evening grosbeck. Evening grosbecks are a species of bird with large, stout, conical bills. They breed in the high mountains from Canada to Arizona and winter in adjacent lowlands. Area residents know the birds as winter visitors frequently seen at feeding stations and herald their arrival as a sign of approaching winter. Residents discouraged by the prospect of winter ahead can take comfort from the words of the poet, Percy Bysshe Shelley, who said: "If winter comes, can spring be far behind?"

County ASCS Office Needs Social Security Number of Farmers

Producers receiving payment from the Washtenaw ASC county committee are asked to return the form for reporting social security numbers mailed to all participating farmers on Nov. 12. Since the ASCS county office is required to obtain the social security numbers from farmers, they are requested to complete the form and return it to the ASCS county office as soon as possible.

Joint Achievement Program Set for Area 4-H Clubs

Next Tuesday, Nov. 30, seven Chelsea area 4-H clubs will hold a joint achievement program at the Chelsea High school cafeteria. The program will begin at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Lori Wise, Washtenaw county 4-H extension agent, will be present to award county medals to those who have earned them.

Junior leaders of all participating clubs will take part in presenting certificates, pins and yearly reports which are given to all members.

In charge of co-ordinating arrangements for the achievement program are Mrs. H. C. Powers and Mrs. Edwin Lantis. Clubs which are participating in next Tuesday's event are Rogers Corners Herdsmen, Wide Awake, Blue Ribbon Florists, Busy Blue-bellies, Merry Maids, Sylvan Junior Ranchers and Parkers Corners Craftsmen.

All families and friends of the club members are invited to attend.

Who remembers the man who said that nobody but fools would ever fly?

County Farmers Will Be Affected By New Federal Farm Bill

The farm bill recently signed by President Johnson includes those provisions which will affect the farmers in Washtenaw county, according to the ASCS County office: the Cropland Adjustment Program, the extension of the wool program for four years, and the extension of the wheat and feed programs for four years.

The cropland adjustment program incorporates many features that will directly benefit urban as well as rural areas. Specific incentives are provided to encourage farmers to share their land facilities with town and city people. Objectives include preservation of open space and natural beauty and prevention of air and water pollution. CAP agreements may be made through 1969 and each will be for five to 10 years. For 1968 the farmer must agree to divert the entire acreage of at least one designated surplus crop (wheat or feed grains).

The wheat and feed grain sign-up will be conducted after the first of the year. Full details of the programs will be released as soon as they are received by the county ASCS office.

Washtenaw Cancer Society Workers Turn Out 25,000 Dressings Per Year

Mrs. Henry Karner, 110 Cavanaugh Lake, speaking for the Washtenaw Unit of the American Cancer Society, explained that volunteer workers meet at the Unit headquarters, 215 N. Ashley St., Ann Arbor, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Monday through Friday, 52 weeks a year, to make cancer dressings. She said these volunteer workers cut, package and distribute, free of charge, approximately 25,000 dressings per year.

Mrs. Karner also said that equipment, such as beds, wheel chairs and other sick room equipment items are loaned to any cancer patient, regardless of income bracket, providing a doctor or visiting nurse verifies the diagnosis.

In cases where cancer patients' illness becomes too great a financial burden to their family, the Washtenaw Unit assists by paying certain expenses up to $25 per month per patient.

Mrs. Karner mentioned the various services provided by the Washtenaw Unit, ASC, when she announced that she has Christmas cards for sale or to order, proceeds being designated for the benefit of the Cancer Society. She said anyone interested may contact her.

Americans spent a whopping $779 million dollars to buy summer magazines in 1964. The money spent half its magazine money on general interest, about fifth on news, and another fifth on women's magazines.
