

Giant Gift Assortment Awaits Some Lucky Chelsea Shopper

THE DRAWING—Chelsea Police Officer Earl J. Jr. draws the winning name from among hundreds entered in the "Gifts A-Plenty" drawing Friday night. The Chelsea Standard's reporter, Thomas (Ruth) Towe, waits to hear who the winner will be. The registration card drawn by Officer Willis contained the name of Jeanette Hanked.

rd (Mrs. Paul E. Hanked), 745 Flanders, who was shopping at Kusterer's Food Market when her name was announced in each of the 27 participating stores at 7:30 Friday night. Because Mrs. Hanked was in one of the participating stores when the winner was announced, she won the 27 "Gifts A-Plenty" valued at over $200.

Tomorrow night another lucky Chelsea shopper has an opportunity to win over $200 in gifts. The second drawing in the four-week program will be made and the name drawn will be announced in the 27 participating stores at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow night.

It's winner take all in this contest, as Mrs. Paul E. Hanked, 745 Flanders, was last week's winner. (See photos).

If the person whose name is drawn is in any one of the 27 participating stores when his or her name is announced, he or she will collect a gift from each of the 27 participating stores. Only one name is drawn each week, and if the person whose name is drawn is not in one of the 27 stores, no prizes are awarded.

To register, the shopper must be high school age or over. All one needs to do to register is to write out name and address on the registration blank and drop the form in the box provided in each of the 27 stores.

Each Friday (Dec. 3, 10, 17), one name will be drawn. All the participating stores are notified who the person is whose name was drawn. At 7:30 p.m., the announcement is made in each of the stores. If the persons whose name has been drawn is present in any one of the participating stores (not necessarily the one in which the person registered), when the announcement of the winner is made at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, he or she will win the following valuable prizes:

A 14-piece punch bowl set from Merkel's, a $5 basket of groceries from Kusterer's, a $5.95 Van Heusen shirt from Stricker's Men's Wear, a $9.95 patio chair from Chelsea Hardware, 10 gallons of Shell gasoline from Tower Shell Service, an outside rear view mirror from Palmer's Motor Sales, a chrome chafing dish valued at $7.95 from Gambles, a Parker Custom Pardon silver pen and pencil set from Budget-Wise Store, a Toronado model from Daniels Motor Sales.

A pair of wall plaques valued at $12.95 from Meabon's TV, Furniture & Appliance, a $5 gift certificate from Groves, a General Electric slicing knife valued at $19.95 from Frigid Products, a man's self winding waterproof Elgin watch from Whinnis Jewelry Store.

A free lubrication, safety check and oil change from Spaulding Chevrolet, a $5 basket of groceries from Schneidors, a $5 gift certificate from the House of Orient, a pair of U. S. Keds grasshoppers, valued at $5 from the Patty Ann Shoppe, a free motor tune-up, valued at $8.50 from G. A. Sales & Service.

An electric can opener from Western Auto, a Beacon Thermal blanket from Dancer's, a $5 sport shirt from Foster's. (Continued on page eight)

GIFTS A-PLenty: First winner in the Christmas Gifts A-Plenty contest, Mrs. Paul E. Hanked, shown at her home at 745 Flanders, admires the selection of gifts she received. Three more drawings are scheduled for Dec. 3, 10 and 17. To register, any person high school age or over may fill out a registration blank at any of the 27 participating stores and drop it in the registration box in the store. To win, the person whose name is drawn must be in one of the participating stores at 7:30 Friday night, when the winner's name is announced.

THE WINNER: A basket of groceries, presented by Luther Kusterer, is received by Mrs. Paul E. "Bud" Hanked, 745 Flanders, the happy winner of the first "Christmas Gifts A-Plenty" drawing Friday night. Shown with their mother at Kusterer's Food Market are two of the Hanked children, Lou Ann, 7, and Matt, 9. Merchants are now registering persons for tomorrow night's drawing. Shoppers are urged to ask for registration blanks when they are shopping and to be on hand for the 7:30 p.m. drawings as the one lucky winner takes home a big load of valuable gifts.

Harold Baker Wins Scouting's Highest Award

Earns Coveted Silver Beaver Award For Long, Devoted Service to Scouts

Scoutmaster Harold "Bill" Baker of Half Moon Lake, has been awarded the highest honor the Portage Trails Boy Scout Council can bestow upon an adult Scout leader.

Baker is the scoutmaster of Chelsea Troop 476, sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club.

The Portage Trails Council is composed of Washtenaw and Livingston counties.

The award, known as the Silver Beaver Award, was presented at the annual Fellowship and Appreciation Dinner Tuesday evening, Nov. 30, at the Michigan Union, 457 scout and community leaders from the two counties attended the dinner.

The award was presented on behalf of the Council by the Hon. James R. Breakey, Jr., Circuit Court Judge and a past recipient of the coveted Silver Beaver award.

Proposed Adult Education Classes May Be Delayed

Two Wednesday evening adult education classes may be postponed until after the holidays if more registrants do not appear, according to Alan Conklin, director of the Chelsea Area Recreation Commission.

The classes, modern math for parents and adult men's basketball, did not have enough persons registered as of Monday to warrant offering the classes at this time, Conklin said.

Only six persons were registered for the math program, Conklin said, and about 20 are needed before it can be offered. Ten registrants are needed for the adult men's basketball but none had registered as of Monday.

Several other classes are scheduled to begin Saturday, Dec. 4.

A 15-week basketball program for boys in the fourth through eighth grades will meet from 10 to 12 a.m. in the high school gym. Girls in the fourth through eighth grades will meet for 15 Saturdays from 1 to 3 p.m. in the high school gym for a physical education program, while high school boys play basketball between 1 and 3 p.m. in the junior high gym.

Fees for each of the Saturday courses is $1, payable to the instructor during the first meeting on Dec. 9. No advance registration is necessary.

Mrs. Amanda Toney, who makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Alvin Niehaus, is a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. She is in room 713.

The Rev. Livingston gave the invocation at the dinner.

Fruit Cake Sales By Band Boosters Sets New Record

The Chelsea Band Boosters annual fruit cake and candy bar sale is nearing conclusion and to date the net proceeds have reached $2,486, a new record. More than 200 pound fruitcakes were sold this year than all sizes last year.

The drive, under the direction of Mrs. William Blaess, was conducted through the help of band mothers who supervised the sale of cakes and bars by the approximately 300 members of the various bands. Adults who participated are Mrs. Luther Kusterer, sixth grade; Mrs. Peter Sevens, seventh grade; Mrs. Ross Scholten, eighth grade; Bruce Galbraith, Chelsea band director, supervised the sale in the high school.

A second order of fruit cakes will be delivered before Christmas and may be ordered through any of the above named people before Dec. 7.

Money raised will be used to send the High School band to camp next summer, for additional uniforms and for other expenses.

Winter Served for 812

Breakfasting dinner was served to 812 students at the High School North and South Elementary Nov. 24.

The dinner included turkey, mashed potatoes, peas, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie and whipped cream, and milk.

Approximately 550-575 students normally served, according to Dietician, Mrs. Duane Weiss.

Last summer, I had the opportunity to see "The Four Days of Gemini IV," the official NASA documentary film covering the Gemini-Titan mission of Astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White, Jr., including Lieutenant Colonel White's historic walk in space. I felt that this film would be of particular interest to the people of the Second Congressional District, not only because of the historic importance of the events it covers but also because both Astronauts McDivitt and White received their advanced training in aeronautical and astronautical engineering here in Michigan. I therefore arranged to borrow a copy of the film for a short time. However, after the first public showings were so overwhelmingly received, I made arrangements to extend the period of time when it could be made available to the public.

Although the travels of the film around the Second District during the past two months have been less spectacular than the flight of Astronauts McDivitt and White, they have in many ways, seemed as arduous and complex. I would like to take this opportunity to thank my District staff, a group of dedicated volunteers, the many school officials and civic leaders, and the fine newspapers in the Second District, all of whom helped

Sad Targets
 The second of two administrative heads appointed by Gov. George Romney continues under heavy fire from Democratic legislators. The first finally got tired of the badgering and resigned his post.

In the first case, Labor Commissioner Roy W. Johns, the early criticism was mild. One or two legislators commented he must not be doing his job because industrial accidents were on the rise. It wound up as a full-scale investigation of the Labor Department, primarily from the standpoint of Johns' administrative deficiencies and decisions. He had been in the post less than two years when the first barbs were thrown.

Even before Johns came under fire, Democratic lawmakers were talking at least privately about the Republican appointee heading the Insurance Department, Allen Mayerson.

His previous connections with various insurance companies were the sensitive target they chose. Some of these firms did and others did not operate in Michigan.

Major point in the continuing attack against Mayerson is that he continued to do some consulting work after he was appointed to the state post.

Safety Engineers List Few Simple Fire Rescue Tips

Now that the furnace and fireplaces season is here again, the danger of a home fire is always a threat. If you suddenly had a fire, what would you do?

Rescuing victims from a fire can be dangerous, and it should be left to trained firemen if possible.

However, if you should have to rescue people from a fire, Michigan State University safety engineers recommend these precautions:

Take another person with you if possible. Two people can search a building more quickly and thoroughly, and you can help each other if there is trouble.

Search from the top to the bottom of the building. Be sure to look in all parts of every room. Confused and frightened people, especially children, often hide in closets and under beds.

Inside a smoke-filled room, keep close to the walls and feel under and on beds, in chairs, and over couches. Wear a moistened handkerchief over mouth and nose.

Do not think the door is safe, unless you are sure. The other to make sure no one is lying in the center. Take every possible precaution during the rescue operation. It's serious business and may mean a life saved.

Bigger Risks
 Michigan motorists have been doing relatively well this year in cutting down the highway deaths, at least as compared with the record high 1964 fatality count.

With the two-year holiday falling on week-ends, however, the traveling public is expected to be bigger than usual. Families whose breadwinner would have to return to work the day after a mid-week holiday will be more likely to be making week-end trips to spend time with relatives.

Since the temptation is great to travel too far for a holiday and stay a few hours later than usual, necessitating a hurried trip home, the likelihood for careless driving is increased sharply.

Year-end holidays traditionally run high on road accidents, injuries and deaths. Uncertain weather is another of many factors involved.

While the number of motorist fatalities dropped considerably in the first three-quarters of the year, state officials have called for renewed consciousness of traffic safety during the remaining weeks.

As he has every holiday since he took office, Gov. George Romney will again be calling for an "enlightened motorist" on the roads. The periodic "Lights on for Safety" campaign will again be in effect, hoping that each motorist who drives with auto headlights on both day and night will remind another driver to be careful.

Even at the maximum effectiveness of traffic safety measures, the most indispensable element in traffic safety is the moral

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where news ain't the only thing that was leaking out of the Pentagon. The Army Recreation Office, that gets the profits from the 15 eating places in the Pentagon, has come out with some figures that should get us a member in good standing in the Pickpockets Association of America.

They report that in the last 12 months 10,000 trays, 2,000 salt and pepper shakers, and 1,200 sugar bowls has been carried off by Government workers eating at those places. Furthermore, they report workers was carrying off knives, forks and spoons faster than they could get 'em replaced. They was appealing to the 27,000 military and civilian workers that eats there to stop taking everything in the building that wasn't red hot or riveted down.

Personal, Mister Editor, I ain't got much hope that things will get any better in this matter. When folks goes to work in one of them Government agencies in Washington they catch some kind of disease that makes 'em think money grows on trees.

I was reading in the papers yesterday where one of them Washington column writers allowed as how Washington was the headache capital of the world. He give some figures released by the drug industry showing that four Government agencies in Washington bought 272,793,000 aspirins last year.

And the taxpayers was beginning to come down with a headache. For instant, I see where a science feller at St. Louis University has been awarded a $63,000 grant by the National Science Foundation to make a three-year study to find out why birds sing.

Area Scholarship Program Open to Individuals, Groups

The scholarship committee of the Chelsea School District has extended an invitation to all community clubs, organizations, individuals, businesses and industries to participate in the Chelsea High School Scholarship Award Program.

This is the first year such an invitation has been issued to community groups. In prior years, the Chelsea High School Student Council and the Chelsea Teachers Club have given scholarships.

The scholarships are in addition to the awards presented by the Board of Regents and various state universities and colleges. The invitation was issued on Nov. 18, and John C. Walton, one of the committee members, said that $400 has already been received from two clubs and two local businessmen.

The invitation was issued because the committee believed there were community organizations and residents who hadn't been invited to participate in such a program before, or who were interested in doing so, Walton said. "Judging from the favorable response thus far, it looks like we were right," he added.

The list of organizations invited to participate was not very complete, Walton said, and if there are any interested persons who have not been contacted and who would like to participate they may call the High School counselor's office.

The Scholarship Award Program includes recognition awards for excellence in specific subjects as well as scholarships for further training or college studies.

The recognition awards will be given to the students with the highest grade average in specified subjects and the scholarships will be limited to persons seeking further education in either trade schools or colleges.

Recognition awards will consist of $75 cash award for first place, $50 cash awards for second place

Youth Escapes Injury When Car Rolls Over

A one-car accident in Lyndon township late Thanksgiving evening resulted when the driver lost control on a curve while attempting to miss a deer on the road, according to Washtenaw county Sheriff's officers.

The accident occurred on Waterloo Rd., near Lingans Rd., at 10 p.m. Nov. 25.

The driver, Joseph Bartley Scott, 16, was driving a 1965 Falcon owned by his father, Joe C. Scott of 415 North St. Scott was headed east on Waterloo Rd. at approximately 50 miles per hour when he lost control of the car, according to the sheriff's report. The report states that the car rolled over when it went off the left shoulder of the road. According to the report, the accident resulted in dents all over the body of the car, but the driver was not injured.

Kiwanis Club Entertains Area Farmers Monday

described as one of the most significant human interest stories in history, proving that biblical principles "still work" in present day situations, the program at Monday night's Kiwanis club meeting was the color sound film, "God of the Landlord."

Kiwanis President Don Turner, who was in charge of the production, explained that the film was made in 1940 and is now 26 years in the making.

The film shows how Perry Hayden, a "Quaker miller" of Tecumseh, decided to plant one cubic foot of wheat in 1940 and began a project which resulted in the planting of thousands of acres of wheat in Europe in 1946. Hayden was killed by a sermon in his local church on the text: "... of the corn of wheat fall into ground and die, it abideth much fruit." John 12:24.

The original cubic foot of wheat, furnished by C. D. Finkbeiner, a wheat grower at Saline, was planted on a tiny plot of land owned by Henry Ford.

The film shows how the one cubic foot of wheat harvested from the planting in 1941 was cut, the wheat heads snipped by scissors and the wheat stored in a most primitive way. Ten percent of the original harvest was given to church of the next year.

In the end of five years, the wheat having continued each year, a total of 2,668 acres of wheat were needed, 276 farmers of all faiths co-operating. The harvest was a total of 72,150 bushels of wheat worth almost 150,000.

Ripley of "Believe It Or Not" fame, stated that if the project were continued 10 years it would require all the land in the United States and in a few more years would cover the entire earth.

Appearing in the film were such outstanding personalities as Henry Ford, Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, Dr. Walter Reuther, Lutheran Hour preacher, and many others.

The film program was especially appropriate for Monday's program since it was the annual Kiwanis Farmers' Night with area farmers as guests. The dinner meeting was held at the Chelsea High school cafeteria with 150 members and guests present.

Guests present from Ann Arbor included: Mrs. Lutz, Tom Richards, Walter Henne and Harold Coolman. They were introduced by Louis Burghardt.

President Don Turner introduced George Prinzing as a guest.

It was announced that Monday, Dec. 6, at 6:45 p.m., Kiwanians and their ladies will meet at the Frontier Beef Buffet on E. Stadium Blvd., Ann Arbor, for the annual Christmas Ladies' Night meeting. There will be a round-table meeting at the Chelsea Restaurant for Kiwanians unable to attend the Ladies' Night Christmas party at Ann Arbor.

Also announced was the annual Kiwanis "Kidless Party" scheduled for Monday evening, Dec. 13, at 6:15 p.m. at the Congregational church. Kiwanian children will be guests and Santa Claus will appear with candy or a gift for each child.

FIRST CASE IN 2 YEARS

Frankfort, Ky. — Kentucky recently reported its first case of polio in two years. The victim, now fully recovered, was Patsy Armstrong, age three. She is one of eight children in the family, none of whom had been vaccinated.

SANTA CLAUS came to Chelsea last Saturday afternoon aboard a Chelsea fire truck since there was no snow on the ground at the time. Hundreds of youngsters were on hand to greet the jolly old fellow—and some were more interested in the photographer—at least temporarily.

County Hospital Auxiliary Making Christmas Plans

With Christmas in the offing, the Washtenaw county Hospital Auxiliary is busy making Christmas plans.

Each year the Auxiliary provides gifts for patients at the hospital and for those who have graduated to foster homes.

Persons who wish to share the spirit of Christmas by helping others less fortunate are invited to participate by sending money to the Auxiliary—treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Shetterly, 630 Miller, Ann Arbor—for the purchase of the one large gift given to each patient or by sending appropriate gifts to the Auxiliary for distribution.

Suggested as appropriate gifts are, for men, cotton socks (white preferably), pajamas, after-shave lotion, pre-shave lotion, slipper-socks, and combs. Women's gifts suggested by the Auxiliary include white ankle socks, cotton hose, dusting powder, combs, slipper-socks, loose nighties and button down front dresses. Small packages of stationery, four envelopes and four sheets of paper, are also appropriate gifts.

Any of the gifts not used for Christmas will go on the cart for future distribution.

Persons donating gifts are asked to mark the gifts "man" or "woman" if the gifts are wrapped in Christmas paper.

The Auxiliary also needs discarded nylon hose in quantity and scraps of cotton material and corduroy for use in the Sheltered Workshop. These things are used to make stuffed toys and scraps of material need not be very large. These items are needed immediately according to spokesmen for the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Walter Bulbick and Mrs. Grant Lasky, both of Milan, have resigned as trustees. They have been active workers for the Hospital for many years.

At the regular meeting of the Auxiliary on Nov. 17, the boxes of favors and table decorations for Thanksgiving were shown. The favors were made by the Graft O'Hara Auxiliary, Ann Arbor.

Pair Enter Store Last Night, Escape With $250 in Cash

Two men, described as in "their late teens or early 20's" staged a hold-up of McLeod's Pharmacy in Dexter at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday (last night) and made their get-away with approximately $250 in cash in spite of road blocks which quickly sealed off the town.

A witness saw the two men walk down the street toward the village parking lot behind the stores, but at that time knew nothing of the hold-up.

Later questioning of area residents brought forth the information that Mrs. Harold Hunawill of 8140 Forest, adjacent to the parking area, heard dogs barking but she also knew of nothing being wrong at the time.

The road block was lifted at 9:30 p.m. without having had any success in nabbing the suspects.

According to Dexter Police Officer Robert Wisely, Pat McLeod said the two men walked into the drug store and asked for something. McLeod said later he couldn't even remember what they did ask for but he remembered telling them where they could get it.

At this point one of the hold-up men, carrying a small-calibre revolver, said "All right, if you don't have that I'll take your money" and ordered McLeod to give him all the cash he had. They took no checks or anything else in the store, Pat reported later.

McLeod told The Dexter Leader reporter, "I don't argue with a gun" and did as he was told. He and a customer, Artie Simms, were ordered to lie on the floor for a full two minutes after the two men left the store.

Within minutes after McLeod notified Dexter police and the Washtenaw county Sheriff's Department, Sheriff Douglas Harvey, four detectives and six uniformed sheriff's deputies were on the scene.

McLeod said the two men were strangers and he had never seen them before. He said, too, it was probably fortunate no one happened to come into the store during the few minutes the hold-up men were there.

Older residents were heard to comment that to their knowledge, this was the first time an armed robbery of a downtown business place has ever taken place in Dexter.

Rev. and Mrs. William A. Johnson

Retired Pastor, Wife Honored Sunday on 50th Anniversary

Approximately 175 friends of the Rev. and Mrs. William A. Johnson braved snowy weather to travel to Plymouth Sunday, Nov. 28, for the observance of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The open house was at the home of their son, William A. Johnson Jr., from 5 to 8 p.m.

Attending, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. William A. Johnson, Jr., was a grandson, William, III, another son of the honoree and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson, and their daughter, Sandra, from Los Angeles, Calif., for the festivities. Two daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. William Burko of Morenci, and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard E. Bird of Milan, and Mr. and Mrs. Bird of Milan, Mrs. Peter Spike of Ames, Ia., Janet, Carol Sue and Dennis Bird, of Milan, also attended the celebration. Three grandsons, Roger, Thomas and Paul Johnson, who are students in Los Angeles, were unable to attend the festivities.

The former Ruth Estella Wells and the Rev. Johnson were married in Caro on Nov. 25, 1915, also a Thanksgiving day.

For the 50th anniversary of her marriage, Mrs. Johnson selected a two-piece gold brocade dress and also wore a yellow-ochre corsage, a gift from her bridegroom.

A four-tiered cake, topped with a golden "50" and bells trimmed in gold, was baked and decorated by the Johnson's granddaughter, Mrs. Peter Spike of Ames, Ia.

Bouquets of yellow and gold mums carried out the golden wedding theme.

Chelsea residents attending the open house included the Rev. and Mrs. James Craig, pastor of the First Methodist church, and the Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Weiss, superintendent of the Methodist Home.

The Johnsons were honored by residents of the Methodist Home on Saturday, Nov. 27, when they were presented with many remembrances and gifts.

The Rev. Johnson, a member of the Detroit Conference of the Methodist Church, entered the ministry in 1928. Previous to his retirement in 1964, he had served churches in Auburn, Dexter, Newburg, Manchester, Milan, Northville, Morenci and Whitmore Lake. The Rev. Johnson was the minister of the Methodist church in Dexter from 1924 to 1927, during which time the present church building on Central and Fourth Sts. was built. The Johnsons came to the Methodist Home in June, 1964, and he has served as chaplain at the Home since that time.

Before entering the ministry, the Rev. Johnson owned a grocery store in Caro and worked in a bank in Bay City. He also worked on the construction of the Ford plant at Dearborn.

Co-op Nursery Has Openings For 3-Year-Olds

Some three and four-year-old children go to school before they go to kindergarten. These children attend Chelsea Co-operative Nursery school at 11000 Chelsea-Dexter Rd. This Center has been operating for seven years and is licensed yearly by the Michigan State Bureau of Social Welfare. The building is a memorial to Mrs. Florence Howlett, who taught for many years in the Chelsea schools.

Mrs. Raymond Scialler, better known as "Miss Jane," is the teacher. She has been with the Nursery school since its beginning. "Miss Jane" holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Michigan University and has taught in the Manchester and Chelsea schools.

The nursery school is open on Tuesdays and Thursdays, in the morning from 9 until 11 for the three-year-old children, and the afternoon from 12:45 to 2:45 p.m. for the four-year-old children.

A typical day's activities include free play time in which the children have the opportunity to choose different types of projects for free time, there is a free food, juice and cracker time. Birthdays are a special occasion at Nursery school. Children who celebrated birthdays last year are Marie Bussler, Katie Leud, Billy Schultz, and Stark, Chuck Van Sickle, and four-year-old group.

At present there are vacancies in the three-year-old and four-year-old classes. Those who would like to have their child in Nursery school call Mrs. Donald Bussler at area 475-8830 or Mrs. Broumfiere at Dexter 420-0000.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets. Profitable bench seats. More rich, genuine walnut paneling. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen. We even had our engineers take our test cars apart piece by piece to come up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs smoother, quieter, more enjoyable to drive. Really, though—we don't care which feature gets you inside a new Pontiac, as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Club and Social Activities

NORTH LAKE EXTENSION STUDY GROUP
North Lake Extension Study Group met at the home of Mrs. Robert Kaercher for a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Albert Ruhlig was co-hostess.

The 13 members and one guest answered roll call with local current events. Mrs. Grover Colby presented the lesson on "Traffic Safety."

Several members attended open house on "Holiday Traditions." The Christmas meeting will be held Dec. 16 at the home of Mrs. Clarence Ottomari with Mrs. Grover Colby as co-hostess. Members are asked to bring a home-made gift not exceeding 50 cents in value and a half dozen Christmas cookies.

MARION SIMON CIRCLE
The Marion Simon Circle of the First Methodist church met at the educational unit Nov. 17. Mrs. Winifred Coffron was the hostess. Breakfast was served to 12 members.

Mrs. Rae Lilly had charge of the meeting in Mrs. Lloyd Merrill's absence. Mrs. Bertha Riemenschneider had devotions. Mrs. Edna Adams had the program, the title of which was "How Can We Give Thanks?"

The meeting was closed with a prayer.

AG ENTREPRENEURS
Agricultural Entrepreneurs Farm Bureau group met Nov. 18 at Lima Community Hall, with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sias as host and hostess.

LaVerne Coy called the meeting to order. The Christmas program, a pot-luck supper at 7 p.m. with Santa for the children afterward, was planned. It will also be at Lima Community Hall.

Neil Baughn, principal of the Wylie School in Dexter, spoke on school drop-outs. He gave a number of reasons why children drop out. Lack of reading skills was one of the big reasons. He said that by the fifth grade, there are indications if a child is going to drop out of school.

The meeting was adjourned and cards were played. Refreshments of cake, Jollo-O and sandwiches were served.

YOUNG HOMEMAKERS
The regular meeting of the Young Homemakers Extension Study Group was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Bauer Nov. 18. Eleven members were present. The Women's Creed was recited. The December meeting is to be a family Christmas supper at the home of Mrs. Walter Beuerle. Gifts will be exchanged and Santa will visit the children.

The group worked on curtains for Camp Crile and hope to work on them again in January.

MODERN MOTHERS
Modern Mothers Child Study Club met Tuesday evening Nov. 23 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Clarence Wood, with Mrs. Gary Jackson as co-hostess.

The evening speaker was Judge John W. Conlin from the juvenile division of the District Court in Ann Arbor. The basis for Judge Conlin's talk was eight points which are primary causes for juvenile delinquency. Among the eight points were the absence of parental discipline, lack of religious values, inability to show affection and inability to read. Judge Conlin spoke of a project entitled Project 74 which by that year hopes to have a framework established that will anticipate problems and cope with them before they arise.

After the evening's speaker, the club concluded plans for a Christmas party to be held Dec. 14 at 7 p.m. at the Methodist church and also welcomed a new member, Mrs. Fred Mills, to the club.

Jane Scott, Kenneth Callison Speak Vows at St. Mary's Church

Miss Jane Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott, 415 North St., became the bride of Kenneth Callison of 142 N. Staebler Rd., Ann Arbor, Saturday, Nov. 6, in 10 a.m. services in Chelsea.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Callison of 1721 Fairfield, Livonia.

The services took place in St. Mary's Catholic church, with the Rev. Fr. Francis Maliszewski officiating.

Organist for the ceremony was Miss Kathy Dove, whose brother, Kenneth, was the soloist.

The bride wore a floor-length white satin gown with lace inserts and a seamed pearl bodice. The bride wore a shoulder-length veil attached to a pearl crown and carried a bouquet of cascading white roses.

Miss Barbara Lixey, 720 S. Main St., the maid of honor, wore a floor-length gown of turquoise with ruffles at the neck and sleeves and a matching short veil. She carried red and pink roses.

Miss Drinda West, 321 W. Middle St., was attired in an identical gown and carried red roses.

Mrs. Scott selected a midnight blue dress suit with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Callison wore a peach-colored dress with brown accessories.

For his best man, the bridegroom chose Louis Sabatini of Livonia. Harrison Grigsby, also of Livonia, acted as the ring bearer.

Sixty-five persons attended the reception at the Chelsea Rod & Gun Clubhouse following the marriage ceremony. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Arnold Staudacher of Jackson, was in charge of the bridal table. The bride's cousin, Margie Staudacher, served punch.

For traveling, the bride selected a white wool dress with a lace bodice and blue accessories. The newly-married couple are at home at 142 N. Staebler Rd., Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Callison is a 1965 graduate of Chelsea High school, and is employed by Ann Arbor Construction Co. Her husband graduated from Bentley High school in Livonia in 1963, and is employed by Chelsea Products.

Linda Packard, Richard Foster Repeat Vows at Methodist Church

The First Methodist church of Chelsea was the scene of the late noon ceremony which united Linda Packard and Richard Foster in marriage Saturday, Nov. 27. The Rev. James A. Goff officiated at the 4 p.m. wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Packard, 127 Madison St. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Foster, Wallace in Detroit. Nearly 100 members of the families attended the wedding.

Organist for the ceremony was Miss Grace Warren. Miss Grace Warren sang "I Love You Because."

The bride wore a floor-length gown of ivory brocade with fingertip sleeves. Applique adorned a slightly flared neckline and a bow tied the back of the gown. The bride wore a shoulder-length veil attached to a pearl crown decorated with lace and pearls accented with a drop. The bride carried a cascading ivory rosebud Stephanotis arranged around her head.

As matron of honor for the bride, she wore a floor-length gown styled with an A-line and matching headpiece. The gown was colored fawn, and she carried a bouquet of cascading white roses.

The bride's bridesmaid, Mrs. Judy Patrick of Crooked Creek, wore a white gown with a black and white floral pattern. Her hair and style were the same as that of the matron of honor.

The bride's flower girl, Beth Sue Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, wore a long orange gown with a white collar and white cap. The matron of honor, Miss Packard, selected a royal blue gown for the bride.

Packard, Sr., and a nephew of the bride.

For his best man, the bridegroom chose Roy Basil Greenleaf, the brother-in-law of the bride. Gary Packard, Sr., and Neil D. Packard, brothers of the bride, and Joe DeSarna, cousin of the bridegroom from Detroit, served as ushers.

At the wedding reception in the church social center following the ceremony, Mrs. Gary Packard, the bride's sister-in-law, served the wedding cake, which was made by an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Lawrence Boyer. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Jack Simpson, sister of the bride. The bride's cousin, Mrs. Greenleaf, served the punch, and Mrs. Charles Conti of Detroit, an aunt of the bridegroom, was in charge of the bridegroom's table.

Mrs. Larry Cullum attended the guest book and Miss Nadine Packard and Mrs. Richard Kaercher were in charge of the gift table.

Assisting at the reception at the church and at a 7 p.m. buffet reception at the Rod & Gun Club were Mrs. Fred Kink, Sr., Mrs. Juanita DeFont, Mrs. Calvin Clark and Mrs. John Weber. Approximately 100 guests attended the buffet.

The newly-married couple will make their home at 409 1/2 East St. after Dec. 5, following a week-long wedding trip to Niagara Falls and points east. For traveling, Mrs. Foster selected a two-piece winter white wool dress with black accessories and the orchid from the bridal bouquet.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Chelsea High school. The bridegroom graduated from North Eastern in Detroit and served three years with the United States Navy at Point Mux, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Foster are both employed at Applied Dynamics, Inc. in Dexter.

The First Navy aircraft carrier to be equipped with the capabilities of launching and landing aircraft simultaneously was the USS Antietam, in 1952.

DEATHS

Kenneth G. Carty

Fatal Heart Attack Suffered After Minor Traffic Accident

Kenneth G. (Pete) Carty, Sr., 60, of 15711 Waterloo Rd., Waterloo Village, died unexpectedly Nov. 26. He suffered a heart attack in his car following a minor traffic accident on Pearl St. in Jackson.

He was born March 24, 1905 in Coleman, the son of James and Anna Haley Carty. He spent his entire life in Coleman and Waterloo.

He and Mildred Virginia Beeman were married Jan. 23, 1938 in Waterloo. She survives.

Mr. Carty was a member of the Waterloo Village church. He was employed by Consumers Power Co. in Jackson for over 40 years, where he was a serviceman in the meter department.

Survivors in addition to his widow include a daughter, Mildred Kay Carty of Phoenix, Ariz.; a son, Ken, Jr., at home; and a brother, Charles of Chelsea.

Funeral services were Monday at the Caskey Funeral Home in Stockbridge, with the Rev. Wilbur Silvernail and the Rev. Harold Mann officiating. Burial was at Mt. Hope cemetery in Waterloo.

Sgt. Paul D. Werner and son, Cadet Henry W. Werner.

Sgt. Paul Werner Retires From Active Army Career

Sergeant First Class Paul D. Werner, son of Mrs. Henry Werner, 521 S. Main St. and the late Mr. Werner has retired after more than 20 years of service with the U. S. Army Medical Service. At the same time, expressing the desire to follow in his father's footsteps, his son entered the first grade at Linton Hall Military School at Bristow, Va., as Cadet Henry W. Werner, six years old.

Sergeant Werner's retirement became official in ceremonies held at Fort Belvoir, Va., in October; however, announcement of his retirement did not reach here until this week. He plans to farm the Mobile Locksmithing Service Co. at Alexandria, Va., where he and his family make their home at 42 Donovan Place.

In addition to the son who has entered military school this year, Sergeant and Mrs. Werner have another son, Guy.

Sergeant Werner entered the army in February, 1943, and served with the 88th Infantry Division in Africa and Italy. He was discharged with disability in 1945 after being awarded the Bronze Star for valor, the French Croix de Guerre, the Purple Heart and various campaign and theatre-of-war ribbons.

Approximately two years later, in January, 1948, he waived his disability rights and re-entered military service to make the Army his career. He served successively at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.; Fort Bragg, N.C.; Camp LeRoy Johnston, La.; Rodriguez General Hospital, Puerto Rico; Fort Clayton, Panama Canal Zone; Percy Jones Army Hospital, Battle Creek, Wash.; Reed Army Hospital, Washington, D.C.; Camp A. P. Hill, Bowling Green, Va.; 196th Medical Station Hospital, Paris, France; and at the time of his retirement at DeWitt Army Hospital, Washington, D.C.

Sergeant Werner attended various service schools during his military career and was an honor graduate of a one-year advance medical specialist course at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

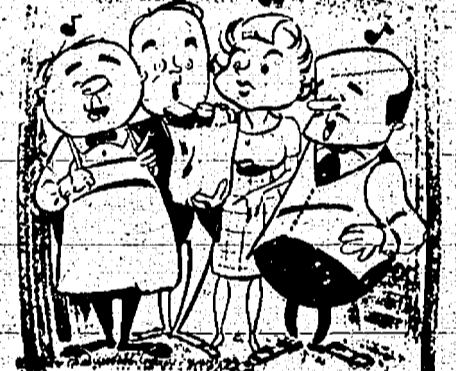

He was active in the Army's marksmanship program participating in both military and civilian rifle and pistol matches. He was a shooting member of the U. S. Army Pistol team at the Franco-American Service matches conducted at Versailles, France in 1960.

At Fort Belvoir, before his retirement, Sergeant Werner and his six-year-old son, known as Hanky, received considerable publicity because the boy "wanted to join the Army" before his dad retired "so they could serve together." The problem was solved when the six-year-old cadet entered the military school and "served" one whole month at the same time as his dad," before Sergeant Werner's retirement became effective.

Community Calendar Info Needed Now

Jan. 1 will be the deadline for organizations to fill out the community calendar questionnaire and mail it to The Chelsea Standard.

To date, only 17 organizations have responded. All community organizations are requested to fill out the questionnaire.

Responses are being solicited from social groups; study clubs; school parents and student organizations; civic clubs; extension study groups; cub, brownie, boy and girl scouts; community recreation groups; 4-H clubs; ladies and men's church groups; other church organizations, choirs, church councils, deacons or deaconesses; veterans organizations and auxiliaries; historic groups; lodges and fraternal organizations; special interest clubs; farm bureaus and other farm organizations; senior citizens groups; Red Cross, blood clinic or hospital auxiliary groups; labor unions; league bowling groups and other organized sporting groups; and any other organization involving area residents.

Respondents are asked to indicate approximately how many persons will be involved in various activities and what age group will be participating.

All regularly scheduled meetings, special events such as money raising activities, and district or regional meetings which might involve numerous Chelsea area residents should be listed on the form.

After all groups have filled out the form, mimeographed listings will be mailed to each co-operating organization. The calendar should help all organizations to plan future programs with a minimum of conflicting dates.

The secretary or president's name of each group should be indicated so mimeographed copies of all events scheduled may be mailed to each co-operating organization.

Mrs. Duane Layher returned Monday from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, where she had been a patient for the past week, receiving treatment for pneumonia.

Mrs. Josephine Alber, 289 Elmhurst, Ypsilanti, a former Chelsea resident, spent Wednesday at home and Thanksgiving Day at home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Ko-

Mrs. I. P. Vogel, with her daughter, Erma Graber of Detroit is spending this week in Grand Rapids at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Vogel and daughters.

Community Calendar Questionnaire

All organizations in the Chelsea area are being asked to co-operate in a plan to formulate a "community calendar." Such a calendar would prove a convenience in planning future projects so that conflicting meetings or events would not be set for the same dates.

Every community club, church group and organization is asked to fill out the form below and mail it at once to The Chelsea Standard, 300 N. Main St.

A mimeographed copy of all the events scheduled will be mailed to each group responding. It is hoped that this will help each group to organize its own program to better advantage.

Elssasser, Sands Win All-State Grid Honors

Two Dexter gridgers received honorable mention in the 1965 Michigan Class "B" All-State Football selections announced by the Associated Press Wednesday, Nov. 24.

Halfback Dick Elssasser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Elssasser, and tackle Ken Sands, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sands, received recognition for their outstanding performances while playing for the Dreadnaughts this season.

One other player from the Southeastern Conference, Hamby Eckel of Dundee, was mentioned in the choices. He was placed on the first team as center.

All three boys were picked previously for the All-Southeastern Conference first team.

McCORMACK ON 89th

House Speaker John McCormack said he hopes the Republicans stick to their announced plan to make an issue in the 1966 congressional record of the 1965 Congress elections. The Speaker said the Democrats "are perfectly willing to take responsibility for what Congress has done."

Wrestlers Will Open Season

Bulldog wrestlers will challenge the Fowlerville grapplers Tuesday evening (Dec. 7) in the first match of the season.

The second meet of the season will be with Whitmore Lake on Dec. 9. The Thursday evening contest will be the first league encounter for the Bulldogs this year.

Both bouts will be in the High school gymnasium at 7 p.m.

Coach Richard Dusseau said the team began practice Nov. 15. During the first week the grapplers were mainly concerned with conditioning and takedowns from the standing position, Dusseau said. He added that wrestlers must be in top condition because wrestling for six minutes uses more energy than two football players would use during an entire game.

During the third week of practice, Dusseau said the wrestling process would begin in earnest. He is limiting participants to 30 this year.

Dusseau graduated from Adrian College in 1961, where he played halfback on the varsity team until a hip injury sidelined him during his senior year. He also wrestled in the 157-pound class.

Bulldog grapplers enter their third year as a varsity sport at Chelsea High school with only four returning lettermen. Because of eight senior-lettermen graduated, Dusseau said this will have to be a "rebuilding" year.

The four returning grapplers who earned letters last year are sophomore Mike Hendricks, junior Mike Funderburgh, sophomore Loren Boyer and junior Tom Bowling. Bowling injured his knee in practice and will probably be out for a couple of weeks, Coach Dusseau said.

Most of the team members this year are juniors and sophomores. Senior Ray Weiner is the only senior. He played wrestling last year.

The Chelsea grapplers will participate in 15 dual matches and one invitational tournament. The tournament will be Dec. 18 at Fenton. Other teams in the league are "tough," according to Dusseau.

Varsity wrestlers will wrestle in 12 different weight classes: 95 pounds or less, 105 pounds, 112 pounds, 120 pounds, 127 pounds, 133 pounds, 138 pounds, 145 pounds, 154 pounds, 165 pounds, 180 pounds and unlimited heavyweights.

Varsity wrestling differs from professional wrestling in many ways, according to Dusseau. One of the most important differences is that varsity bouts are won by points instead of by pinning the opponent.

No punishing holds and no holds which can injure or be potentially dangerous are permitted in varsity wrestling.

In interscholastic wrestling a match is six minutes, divided into three two-minute periods. The contestants start the first period from the standing position. In the second period, the wrestlers begin from the referee's position. One has the advantage or top position and the other has the disadvantage or bottom position. During the third period, the wrestlers again begin in referee's position.

A fall at any time terminates the match. A fall is awarded when a contestant's shoulders are held in contact with the mat for a minimum of one second.

In scoring, a fall counts five points for the team total, a decision counts three points and a draw is worth two points. If there is no fall, the contestant scoring the greater number of match points is the winner.

"Match points" are scored in the following manner: A take down, valued at two points, is awarded for taking an opponent down to the mat and gaining control.

A reversal, worth two points, is awarded when a wrestler in the under position reverses the situation and gains the top position.

An "escape" counted for one point is awarded when a wrestler in the under position escapes to a neutral position.

A predicament, given two points, is awarded when a contestant puts his opponent in jeopardy of being pinned, but not as close as a near fall. A near fall gives three points to the contestant who nearly pins his opponent.

The schedule for the 1965-66 season follows: Dec. 7—Fowlerville (home) 7 p.m. Dec. 9—Whitmore Lake (home) 7 p.m. Dec. 14—Leslie (away) following freshman basketball game at 6:45 p.m. Dec. 16—Dexter (away) 5:30 p.m. Dec. 18—Fenton Invitational (away) 1 p.m.

There's more to Chrysler's popularity than meets the eye. Like under the hood.

Every Chrysler is a big V-8. Starting with the husky 383 cubic incher that runs on regular gas. Or any of three others — up to the 440 TNT engine.

Of course, the way every Chrysler is built has a lot to do with its popularity, too. And think of all the protection you get.

As for looks, come in and give Chrysler a long, hard look. The move up to Chrysler is beautiful.

4-H Youth Win Key Club Awards

Seven Washtenaw 4-H club members are being presented Michigan Key Club awards during the local club achievement programs. The awards in this program are framed honor certificates and a gold key. The key for girls will be mounted on an attractive gold necklace and the key for boys on a gold tie clasp.

Key awards are being presented to Jane Kingston, Ypsilanti, age 16; Bob Knapp, Ypsilanti, age 17; Judy Thompson, Belleville, age 17; Janet Kemmer, Manchester, age 16; Bethel Kemmer, Manchester, age 17; Kay Gordon, Saline, age 17; William Wenk, Chelsea, age 17.

This awards program recognizes 4-H club members who have provided significant leadership in their clubs and counties. The award is aimed to further development of outstanding citizens through project growth and a broad program of 4-H activities.

Winners were selected on the basis of a point system; points were earned in recognition of project work, judging and demonstration events, holding office, and participating in many other 4-H activities.

Free Phone Calls To Servicemen Offered By CWA Local 4011

Over 1,000 free phone calls to servicemen overseas, including some to the hottest spots of Vietnam, will be made this year under the ninth annual "Hi Mom" program sponsored by the Communication Workers of America.

This year Ann Arbor Local 4011 will be financing six calls in cooperation with the USO for residents of the Washtenaw county area.

Operation 'Gift Lift' Promises Christmas for Servicemen in Vietnam

Operation "gift lift" is underway and all Chelsea and Dexter residents are asked to co-operate. The operation, officially known as Operation Michigan Christmas in Vietnam, Gov. George Romney announced his sponsorship of the operation, which is destined to present a package of "all Michigan products" for each of the state's residents serving in the armed forces in Vietnam.

The names and addresses of all state residents serving in Vietnam should be sent to: Christmas in Vietnam, c/o George Romney, State Capital, Lansing, Mich.

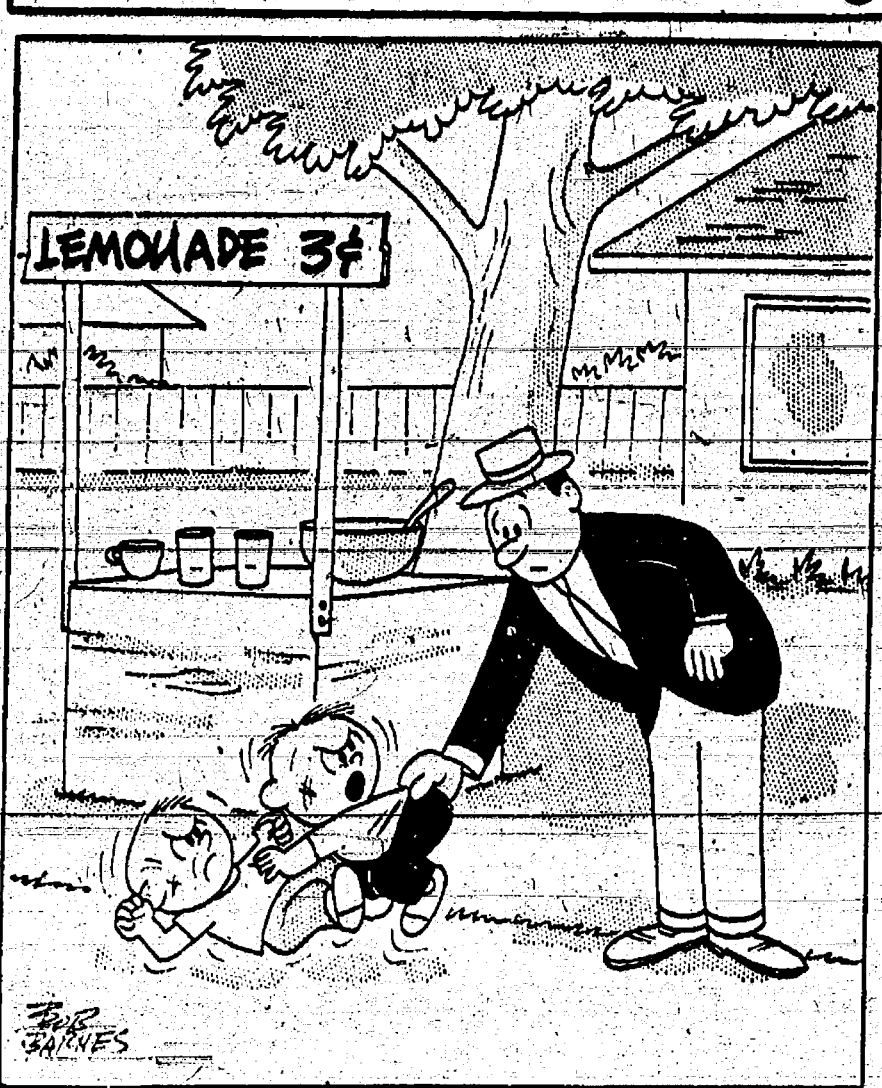

Names and addresses should be received in Lansing by tomorrow, Dec. 3.

The Ann Arbor News is also compiling a list of Washtenaw county servicemen in Vietnam and will relay names submitted to the governor's committee. Personnel knowing of military personnel in Vietnam may call The News at NO 3-3361.

The Defense Department is prohibited from furnishing names and addresses of personnel serving in the U. S. armed forces, and does not maintain records relating to the area of the country from which the servicemen come.

Because of this, the appeal has been made directly to the citizens of the state to provide the necessary information.

Laff Of The Week

"He's been using my lemon for three days and won't give me my royalty!"

Huron Watershed Council To Meet Thursday Evening

The Huron River Watershed Council will meet tonight (Dec. 2) at 8 p.m. in the Council chambers of the Ann Arbor City Hall.

Included on the agenda will be a discussion of the proposed amendment to Sec. 1, Art 3 of the by-laws of the Council. The proposed amendment reads:

"In addition to those governmental units listed as eligible any county, city, village or township partly or wholly within the Huron River Basin, may be a member of the Huron River Watershed Council, appoint one representative and one alternate and have one vote."

A similarly worded amendment to Act 253 P.A. 1964 will also be discussed.

The Council will hear a report on the recreational potential of the Mill Creek Reservoir project, the "world premier" of "The Cares About the Huron River?" a movie by Spencer Havick, will also be shown.

Reports by the nominating committee regarding the executive committee, a report on a new office location and a report regarding the executive secretary will also be presented.

Roll call and the minutes of the last meeting will also be read.

Top County 4-H Youth Win Achievement Medal Award

Annually the 4-H Council selects 4-H member recipients for County Award Medals. These medals are available to the top four 4-H club members in each of the 4-H project areas. All recipients submitted 4-H record reports and these records were reviewed in making the selections.

Medals are awarded to members 12 to 14 years of age. The medal signifies excellence in the project area and is designed to motivate the member to continued excellence in project work.

Local 4-H clubs in Washtenaw county are currently holding Club Achievement programs. These county medals and other awards are being presented during these programs.

Since azaleas are now available as house plants virtually everywhere, it's important to them against the harmful of overwatering by keeping in porous clay pots, which out excess water.

School Bus Drivers Attend Safety Course

School bus drivers from Chelsea and Dexter attended a class last evening (Dec. 1) at the Chelsea High school cafeteria.

The three-hour class was sponsored by the Department of Public Instruction in Lansing, and was under the direction of Eastern Michigan University.

Personnel from the Michigan State Police participated in the class, which emphasized safety in the handling of buses and students.

The class was one of three held for Washtenaw county school bus drivers. Monday evening a class was held at Ann Arbor High school and Tuesday evening another session was held at Milan High school. Approximately 15 drivers attended the class from Chelsea and about the same number from Dexter attended the course.

Boredom in Future?

Hartford, Conn. — Dr. Donald Lindsley, a University of California psychologist, recently related that life in the future may be so full of machines and computers that people will be bored and will languish unhappily in a leisure they don't want or know how to use. Another psychologist, Dr. Ross MacFarland, suggested that studies and surveys be made to see how men think, so that their future energies may be made creative and productive.

Begins 41st Year of Financial Service To a Growing Washtenaw County

Ours is a truly distinctive area and must be regarded as one of the finest places anywhere in which to live, work and raise a family. That's a fairly sweeping statement, but we are slightly prejudiced on the subject of this Washtenaw County Vicinity. And today we have a special reason to make this pronouncement. Just forty years ago, December 1, 1925, we received our Charter to perform trust services. So, this is our institutional birthday, and we think it is a particularly significant one.

Why? Well, for several reasons. First of all, 40 years in business is getting along towards half a century. Second, we like to think we have done a good job in fulfilling the various financial needs and management responsibilities which have been assigned to us under the terms of hundreds of individual accounts.

But of most importance to us is the satisfaction of working with so many wonderful people in connection with the administration of these accounts. Of course, working with people is the very essence of our business. People who own investments; people with estates to plan; people with financial problems to solve; others who require home mortgage loans; parents with children whose college education must be planned; people whose retirement years must be made comfortable; widows who need help to plan for their future.

Most of these individuals are typical folks... your neighbors, your friends, the people you work with, members of your church, your parent-teachers group, your bridge club... yes, perhaps you and your family.

We've grown up with today's bustling, developing Washtenaw County. These first forty years have been wonderful ones. And, what of the future? Naturally we expect to continue to contribute to the business and civic interests of our area in years hence. In doing so, we pledge the full resources of our trained, experienced staff to meet whatever challenges may be offered.

Let this anniversary message, then, be an open invitation to you to get mutually acquainted, to learn something about our services, to visit informally with us about how these services might meet your needs. One of our Trust Officers is as near as your telephone (the number is 663-4231). Or, just stop by our offices anytime.

And please remember: You're always welcome at the Ann Arbor Trust Company.

Just A Minute...

By the Rev. James A. Craig

In the Christian Church the season is Advent. The only way you can tell outside the Church is that Christmas decorations mushroom on streets and in store windows. Advent is marked by the passing of weeks, four of them, before Christmas day. It marks the anticipation of the Church, the fellowship of God's people, for the coming of the Prince of Peace.

Peace. That word so much in the headlines and on people's minds. That Shangri-La of eternal contentment. That idea, that hope, hidden behind the smoke of war. Oh, we'll have peace. As soon as we finish this war. Then the next one. Peace is something to talk about, to hope for, to leave in the hands of someone else, to surrender to policymakers and military strategists.

We may mark off the shopping days, and we may cross off the weeks, but the whole thing is an exercise in futility if we are not willing to accept our chance to work for peace.

How? By critical examination of a nation's policy. By searching the depth of our own thoughts about war and its usefulness. By looking to the history of a world, estimating what it is that war brought and at what cost.

The season is Advent. Maybe this year we can tell it by more than decorations on the street and candles in the Church. Maybe this year we can tell it by a new determination for peace in people.

Evangelist Oscar Van Impe

Evangelist Plans Series of Meetings At Baptist Church

Evangelist Oscar Van Impe will begin a series of revival meetings at the Chelsea Baptist church, 337 Wilkinson St., this coming Sunday, Dec. 5.

The meetings will continue through Sunday, Dec. 12, with services each evening at 7 p.m.

All members of the community are invited and nursery care will be provided.

The Rev. Van Impe was born in western Belgium. Shortly after his marriage he came to America, the land of promise - where, he was told, money grew on trees.

The Rev. Van Impe says that he never found the money tree but instead found the tree of life.

While living in Belgium he started playing the chromatic type accordion, which has buttons instead of piano-type keys. He uses this accordion as part of his presentations.

For several years, the Rev. Van Impe has preached in the United States and Canada and has made two missionary trips to his native Belgium.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

TAKE A TURN

It's interesting to watch children at play, whatever the game or the contest. If it's baseball, each wants his turn as the pitcher. If it's football, each has to have a try at quarterback.

Adult life is no more of a game than we make it, but many of us seem to lose interest in taking our turn. When there is a job that needs doing in the community, we hesitate to step forward. If there is a call for help from a church group, or from some school organization, we sit on the sidelines, confident that someone else will step forward and carry the ball.

Take a turn. You don't have to quarterback. You don't have to be the leader. But you have something that is needed. Your help, your support, your good will, even a good word from you will sometimes guarantee success of a worthwhile effort or program.

Take a turn. Lend a hand. The rewards are many and self satisfaction is not the least of all.

Today's Tip for Safer Winter Driving

To move safely and smoothly on snow-packed or icy streets, try to keep up enough momentum to carry you up hills without spinning your car wheels, suggest Police Chief John Palmer and the International Association of Chiefs of Police, but don't hit the crest of a hill at a speed which could cause trouble on the downgrade. Sometimes it may be necessary to stop on an upgrade. That's when good tires and tire chains can help to compensate for lost momentum and to get the car rolling again.

Army Offers OCS Bars to Qualified College Graduates

Guaranteed assignment to an Officer Candidate School is the Army's enlistment incentive offered to college graduates with no prior military experience, according to the Army recruiter for this area, Sgt. Patrick A. Brizzi, at 223 E. Ann St., Ann Arbor.

The offer comes as part of the current expansion program to meet an increased requirement for junior officers. The OCS training program upped its annual total of candidates from 3,400 to 11,700 beginning the first of October and boosted the number of school facilities to nine.

College seniors and men already graduated from accredited colleges may apply for active duty with assignment to Officer Candidate School if they are U. S. citizens and at least 18½ but not over 27 years old.

The special OCS option goes into effect upon the successful completion of Basic Combat and Advanced Individual Training. Applicants may indicate a preference for one of the three combat arms or the technical and specialist services.

Successful candidates will be commissioned second lieutenants and go on to respective branch officer courses. They will serve an obligated tour of at least two years after commissioning; men who do not successfully complete the program will serve the remainder of their obligated tour in enlisted status.

Outstanding soldiers in the upper 10% of the OCS class may be designated Dististinguished Military Graduates and may apply for a Regular Army commission.

U-M Expects 2,500 Enrollment Increase

Ann Arbor—The University of Michigan expects an increase of more than 2,500 students for the fall term of 1966. The all-time high enrollment of 34,453 students this fall includes 21,000 men and 12,853 women. Seventy-five percent of 25,942 students are Michigan residents.

FOREIGN-AID FUNDS

Congress appropriated more than $3.2 billion for the foreign aid program for fiscal year 1966, which began July 1. The appropriation was $389 million less than the Administration had asked for.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP 144—Brownie Troop 144 met at the Congregational church Nov. 29 for an investiture and membership star ceremonies. For refreshments, brownie cupcakes and punch were served. The meeting was closed with taps.

SOUTH SCHOOL

First Grade, Mrs. Benford—Mrs. Benford's first graders celebrated Thanksgiving on Wednesday by having a feast in our room. We all brought our lunches and ate lunch in our room. Some of us were pilgrims, some were Indians. Most of us made our costumes in school. Kim Dresch wore an Indian costume and wig that she had at home. Kelly Alder we decided, was the chief, as he wore a beautiful long head-dress.

After we ate, several of the Indian boys did a war-dance. We would like to thank Miss Bono, the nurse, and Mrs. Hinefor for joining us.

First Grade, Mrs. Segal

On Nov. 24, Mrs. Segal's first grade spent the entire morning cutting and chopping all the ingredients for home-made chicken vegetable soup and tossed salad. All the children brought vegetables, noodles and spices from home. Two electric pots sent the "yummy" aroma through the halls of the South school.

Sandwiches were brought from home. A good Thanksgiving dinner was had by all.

Extra Hours Slated for Holiday Mail

Postmaster Richard Schaubles has announced that the Post Office will be open until 5 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 11, and Dec. 18, for the convenience of patrons. The window service adjustment which went into effect on May 4, 1964, will be suspended for Saturdays, Dec. 4, 11, and 18, and money order service will be resumed on these days.

Postmaster Schaubles also states no window service will be provided on Christmas Day, Dec. 25, and no deliveries shall be made, except special delivery mail, gift parcels and parcels containing perishable matter. There will be no rural delivery on this day. New Year's Day, Jan. 1, no window service will be provided.

The postmaster also advises that the non-delivery of parcel post on one day each week shall be suspended during the entire month of December.

Patrons also are advised to separate their Christmas cards in bundles for out-of-town and local delivery and use the special labels provided by the Post Office to mark each bundle. The stamped envelopes should all face the same way in the bundle.

The postmaster wishes to inform patrons that the letter-box which was previously situated at the corner of E. Middle St. and East St. has been moved to the corner of McKinley St. and E. Middle St. The box was moved Nov. 22 to facilitate the handling of the mail.

Research Council Will Hear Creal Discuss Proposal

Cecil O. Creal, a member of the Washtenaw County Planning Committee will discuss the various opportunities for local re-evaluation and decision concerning the Mill Creek Reservoir proposal at a Mill Creek Research Council meeting Tuesday, Dec. 7.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the Lima Community Hall. All interested persons are urged to attend this important meeting, a spokesman for the Research Council said.

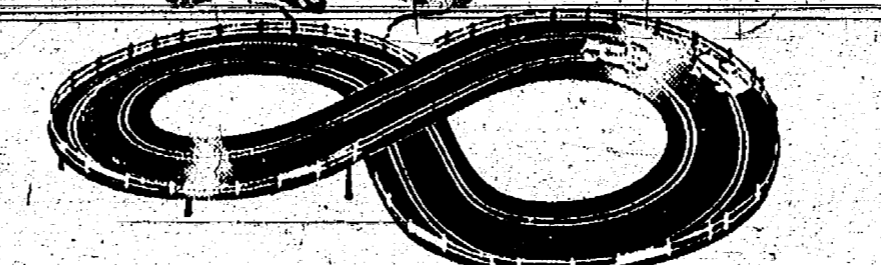

Creal is a former mayor of Ann Arbor and currently is a community affairs commentator for radio station WOLA. A report on the seven tours of the Mill Creek area this past summer and fall will be given and a review of the agricultural report, summarizing the agricultural and business activities of the farms in the impoundment area, will be presented.

Plans also include a discussion of the possible financial needs of the organization and the procedures to be followed in handling needed funds.

A summary of many of the other activities of the past few months related to the proposed impoundment plans will also be heard.
