G. W. Atkinson Dies Monday At Fire Hall

Had Served Fire Department as Dedicated Volunteer for 38 Years

George W. Atkinson, who served for 38 years in the Chelsea Fire Department and was known as "Mr. Parade" of Chelsea, died suddenly Monday evening. He was 58.

He had gone to the fire hall at 200 W. Middle St. in response to an urgent request from the Manistowic Fire Department for an extra fire nozzle. After getting the nozzle, he apparently suffered a fatal heart attack. Elwin Beach and Kenneth Bucholz discovered Atkinson lying on the floor when they returned to let him know the nozzle had been delivered. Artificial respiration and the resuscitator were both applied in an unsuccessful attempt to revive him.

Bulldogs Fall Victims To Lincoln

The Chelsea Bulldogs travelled to Ypsilanti, Lincoln Friday night only to suffer their fourth consecutive defeat to make their season's record stand at 4-8 for all games, and 1-3 in the Southeastern conference. The Bulldogs had defeated Lincoln earlier in the Christmas tourney by the score of 88-78.

Tomorrow night the Bulldogs will travel to Saline in their fifth conference encounter.

The first quarter of action was fast and furious with both teams alternating points. The quarter ended with Lincoln leading, 20-10. Eleven of the Bulldogs points came on free throws, as they missed but one in that period. Mike Tarasow scored eight and Tom Wojcicki four points.

The Railsplitters came out in the second quarter with a full-court press defense. For the first time all season the Bulldogs fell apart under the pressure of the press. Long passes were attempted and hastily intercepted by the Lincoln team. Before the Bulldogs could recover their composure the Railsplitters had opened the game widely in their favor. They poured in 22 points to Chelsea's seven and left for the half-time intermission leading, 42-20. Jim Stanford scored six of the Lincoln points, with Steve Shukirt adding eight.

Trailing by 16 points going into the third quarter, it looked like the Bulldogs were out of the contest. But they recovered from the second quarter "blues," sufficiently enough to whittle the Lincoln lead down to four points. Using a half-court zone press the Bulldogs upset the fast-moving Lincoln offense to score some easy baskets. The quarter ended with Lincoln leading only 52-47. Wojcicki hit for nine and Jim Orthing seven in that quarter for Chelsea. David Clark, the Bulldog starting center, spent the quarter on the bench with four fouls.

The six-point lead that Lincoln possessed at the end of the third quarter was quickly widened at the beginning of the fourth quarter as the Bulldog offense once again bogged down. Stanford, the Lincoln forward, went "wild" in that final stanza as he hit for 17 points, most of them on 5-foot jump shots. He ended the evening with a fine 34-point effort. The Railsplitters, controlling the rebound and getting the shots, Lincoln was never to be headed as they built their six-point lead to 14 points and victory by the 19-20 margin into the heavyweight match. Garry Hopkins won a decision for Chelsea and three points to win the match.

Other Chelsea men adding to the victory were Bill Pearson, who pinned his opponent in the 95-pound division; Mike Funderburk, Ray Weiner and Loren Boyer, who each won decisions in the 120, 135, and 145 divisions, respectively; and 165-pounder Paul Lancaster who pinned his opponent.

Winners in Clinton contest were Bill Pearson, Bill Lonsbeyer, Mike Funderburk and Mike Hendricks, who won decisions in the 95, 103, 120, and 127-pound divisions, respectively; and Loren Boyer and Ron Watkins, who pinned their opponents in the 145 and 152 divisions, respectively. Paul Stahl, in-

"SNOWBALL CAMPOUT" of the Iroquois district of the Portage Trails Boy Scout Council got off to a "hot" start Saturday when 94 Boy Scouts and 17 adult leaders braved crisp weather to pitch tents on the snow-covered hills bordering South Lake in the Pinckney Recreation area north of Chelsea. Shown here is Troop 425 under Scoutmaster Ralph Frisch as they prepare dinner over an open fire. Members of the troop attending the campout are, kneeling from left: John Bennett, John Merkel and Bruce Haas; standing, from left: Jim Jurgens, Tim and Chris Marzee and Scoutmaster Frisch.

Boy Scouts Brave Frigid Winter Weather in Campout

The crisp winter solitude of the rolling snow-covered hills bordering South Lake, in the Pinckney Recreation area north of Chelsea, underwent a swift reversal last week-end with the arrival of 94 Boy Scouts and 17 leaders.

Boys were everywhere, busily engaged in pitching tents on frozen bare ground from which they had scraped the snow, spreading straw and ground cloths and arranging their sleeping bags for the night when zero temperatures were predicted.

Fires soon crackled, provisions were stored and the "Snowball Campout" of the Iroquois District of the Portage Trails Boy Scout Council was off to a hot start.

Chelsea was represented at the campout by three troops, 425 under Scoutmaster Ralph Frisch, 476 under Scoutmaster Bill Baker, and the newly formed 465, temporarily under the leadership of Robert Lambert. Scout Executive Bill Windle camped with the troop Friday and Saturday nights.

Dexter Troop 428 joined Chelsea Troop 465 on Friday night, pitching their tents in the dark. All the other troops came to the camp on Saturday. The Dexter troop was accompanied by Harry Bates and Jim Klapperich, and received a top rating from the council camping inspectors.

Junior Varsity Defeated By Railsplitters

The Junior Varsity dropped a 57-49 decision to the Lincoln JV's last Friday night. A series of errors kept the Little Bulldogs from pulling ahead as they trailed 15 to 7 in the first quarter, 32-23 at half-time and 47-35 at the end of the third period.

Larry Gaken led the Bulldogs' scoring with 13 points, while Craig Houle added 10, Jack Risner 9, John Freeman, 7, Mike Schnaidt 4, Ken Blass 3, and Gary Larson 3. The Bulldogs out-rebounded the Railsplitters, 43-34. Gaken led the assault on the boards with 10, Houle collected 9, Risner 6, Freeman 5, Schnaidt 4, Dunn Clark 2, and Mike Lehman 1.

Science Fair Slated Friday

The public is invited to view science exhibits made by Junior High school students tomorrow evening, Jan. 21, in the Junior High gymnasium. The exhibit will be open between 8 and 10 p.m.

Students from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades have been working on special projects illustrating some aspect of science for the past several weeks. Between 60 and 70 entries will be on exhibit Friday evening.

Exhibits will be judged by a team of teachers and businessmen.

Jaycee Week Is Observed Across Nation

Chelsea Jaycees are observing national Jaycee Week. Art Stoll, local president, has asked members of the Chelsea organization to seek ways to better serve the community throughout 1966.

Stoll cited some of the achievements of the past year. George A. Staffan was honored with the 1965 Distinguished Service Award. Erwin Trinkle was awarded the Outstanding Young Farmer, the Outstanding Young Educator was awarded to Fred Mills, at the annual Dances' Night banquet.

Bank Re-Elects Officers, Directors At Annual Meet

Members of the board of directors of the Chelsea State Bank were re-elected at the annual meeting Tuesday. The same officers were also re-elected to lead the institution for the coming year.

Bank officers re-elected are P.G. Schablie, Sr., chairman of the board; Paul Mann, president; Howard Holmes, vice-president; Paul Schablie, Jr., cashier; and Richard J. Kern, assistant cashier. Miss Rosemary Hummel was also elected an assistant cashier.

Car Damaged

Michael Carlson of 10950 W. Old US-12 reported that all the glass was broken and top caved in on his 1957 Plymouth when he ran out of gas near Stockbridge on M-52 and left the car to get fuel. The incident occurred shortly after midnight on Jan. 9.

Community College Classes To Start in Fall

President Ponitz Expresses Hopes In Tuesday Address Before C. of C.

Approximately 51 members and guests heard Dr. David H. Ponitz, president of the Washtenaw County Community College, address the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday noon.

Dr. and Mrs. Ponitz were introduced by Chamber President Robert Barlow.

Dr. Ponitz spoke about the increasing developments in technology and the spiraling costs of a college education. He said that the community college is important because it is a community facility which has an identity separate from that of the area high schools and four-year colleges. He emphasized that a community college should be based on the needs of the community and that "our emphasis will be on good counseling and good teaching."

Dr. Ponitz termed the site selected as the best site commensurate with the approximately 200,000 people in the county in terms of total distance and travel time.

Although no fees have been established for the Washtenaw Community College, Ponitz estimated that in-district students will probably pay about $100 a semester in fees. He added that he hoped that no student would be denied an opportunity to study at the community college because he lacked the necessary finances, and mentioned scholarships and work grants as possible ways of helping these students overcome financial difficulties.

David Rowe Will Head Fair Board

Officers were elected at the Jan. 11 annual meeting of the Chelsea Community Fair Board. The meeting was at the McKune Memorial Library.

Elected to head the group for the next year was David Rowe, president; Floyd Fowler, first vice-president; and E. G. Van Riper, second vice-president and fair coordinator. The past president is William K. Blass. H. T. Moore was elected treasurer and Edward Keizer was elected secretary of the group.

New directors elected for three-year terms, 1966-68, are: Ruben Lesser, Jr., Loren Kumpeter, Erwin Young, and Harold Trinkle of Dexter.

Cagers of the Week

Regarding the selection of the site for the college, Dr. Ponitz said the site selected between Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti was agreed upon by three sets of architects who thoroughly studied three proposed sites.

Dates selected for the 1966 fair are, Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, 2 and 3.

ALL-STAR MUSICIANS: Representing Chelsea at the fifth annual All-Star Band event, scheduled for Feb. 19-20 right here in Chelsea, will be, from left: Marianne Edwards, bassoonist; Klynon Gorton, clarinetist; Carolyn Wilkerson, flutist; and standing, from left: John Collins, baritone; and David Blass, trombonist. Two-hundred and eighteen select instrumentalists from 65 Michigan schools will be in Chelsea Saturday, Jan. 22, for auditions. District festival ratings determine how many students will represent each school. The entire High school will be utilized while various band directors hear individual students try out for approximate seating positions. The students will arrive between 8 and 9 a.m.; auditions are scheduled from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Mrs. Charles Baise is making arrangements for coffee and rolls to be served to the students and directors.

ALL AROUND ATHLETE: Senior Tom Wojcicki, top Bulldog scorer with a 13-point average per game, has proven to be a versatile athlete. For two years he has been listed on the All-Conference football team for his outstanding work as a football halfback. Last year he was selected for the All-Conference basketball second team. He came to Chelsea High last year and has been on the varsity football and basketball teams both years, participated in track last year in broadjumping, pole vaulting, hurdles and dashes. For the past four summers he has participated in independent league baseball; Tom transferred to Chelsea High from Whittemore-Preseott High school in Whittemore, where he played varsity football his sophomore year and varsity basketball and track both his freshman and sophomore years. He was selected "Outstanding Student Athlete" at Whittemore-Preseott during his sophomore year. Tom has maintained a high scholastic standing and was selected as a member of the National Honor Society during his junior year. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wojcicki, Tom has indicated that he may follow his father's footsteps by pursuing a college degree in education and possibly coaching. His father is the principal of the Chelsea Elementary schools. Tom is a member of the Russian club and the Congregational church. He was a member of the Student Council during his freshman and sophomore years.

BULLDOG CENTER Mike Tarasow, senior, is participating in his third year on the varsity basketball team. Playing in the center position, Tarasow has racked up an enviable 13.5 points per game average, which makes him the second highest scorer on the Chelsea cage team. Mike has also been an outstanding football end, having played on the varsity team for the past four years. He received an honorable mention on the All-Conference League for his accomplishments during the 1965 season. An all-around athlete, Mike has also been on the Chelsea track team since his freshman year, participating mainly in the half-mile and 440 runs. Academically strong, Tarasow was selected for the National Honor Society during his junior year. He is a member of the First Methodist church of Chelsea and was active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship during his freshman and sophomore years. He has been a member of the Varsity Club for the past four years; played the baritone in the High school band his freshman year; and is a member of the cast of "Brigadoon" which will be performed in Chelsea this spring. Active in the Boy Scouts for many years, Tarasow has also been a paper boy for several newspapers, once handling three routes simultaneously. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tarasow, of 509 S. East, Mike is college bound. He is interested in studying liberal arts and sciences and possibly law.

Teachers Choose Bargaining Agent Chelsea School

Chelsea teachers voted for the Chelsea Education Association to represent them in collective bargaining for contracts with the board of education.

The results of the vote were: Chelsea Education Association, 41; Chelsea Teachers' Association, 12.

Approximately 85 teachers in Chelsea are involved in the two organizations. The election will not result in the merger of the two groups, but only in the selection of one official bargaining agent to represent both groups.

The Federation of Teachers, an AFL-CIO affiliate, includes only classroom teachers. No administrative personnel are members.

The Chelsea Education Association includes both administrators and teachers among its members. Bargaining on the new contracts will probably begin this week.

Elwin Hulse Honored for School Work

A former Chelsea resident was recently honored at the January meeting of the Roscommon Chamber of Commerce.

Elwin L. Hulse, superintendent of the Gresham-Higgins schools, was presented with a citation award at the meeting. A Chelsea High school graduate, Hulse is the brother of Mrs. Howard Walz of 141 W. Middle, Chelsea.

The award, presented by Judge Howard Gaylor, was in the form of a plaque engraved with the following inscription:

"In a nation striving to aid all mankind to secure freedom in their battle against poverty, oppression, and discrimination, our youth becomes our most cherished possession, since they must make the ideal a reality."

"We honor a man who has dedicated himself for 15 years to the training of your most precious possession—OUR YOUTH."

"We pay tribute for his labors with our children of whom we can be proud because of his inspired guidance and sincere devotion. Elwin L. Hulse, from Roscommon Chamber of Commerce."

Council Briefs

Invocation for the Jan. 18 Village Council meeting was given by the Rev. Elmer S. Steenson of the Chelsea Baptist church.

A public hearing was held regarding rezoning of property in the put marsh area. A discussion with a number of citizens of the village followed regarding the rezoning. Motion was made to rezone parcels, two and three as presented from agricultural to transitional residential office districts. Parcel one will remain a residential one zone.

A motion was made to amend the village zoning ordinance to allow by special use permit the following: hospitals, extended care facilities and professional pharmacies.

Request was entered by Edward Orlovski, 570 Chandler, for a variance to construct an addition to his home to within 21 feet of his west property line. Motion passed.

Discussion was held with Ed Akin, representing the Jaycees, who informed the Council that the Jaycees desire to improve the Pierce Park area and wish to work with the Council in this regard. President Haselschwardt informed Akin that he would be contacted within the very near future.

Discussion was held with Edwin Oram regarding the proposed 17-unit apartment building at the trailer park site. Oram entered a request for a variance in village zoning ordinance code to alter the requirements of 2,500 square feet required for multiple family dwellings to 1,730 square feet per family dwelling. Motion passed.

Discussion was held regarding the ice skating rink at Pierce Park. Superintendent of Public Works Parker Brown informed the Council that all attempts to date to make an artificial rink had failed. Further investigation was authorized.

Discussion was held regarding the newly installed traffic lights. Several complaints have been received that the lights are difficult for pedestrians to see. Police Chief John Palmer was instructed to immediately contact the traffic safety division of the State Highway Department to investigate the possibility of remedial action.

Discussion was held with Warren Eisenbeiser regarding the village land fill site. No official action.

Motion was made that the firm Ierman, Johnson & Hoffman be employed to audit the books of the village and the Chelsea Electric and Water Department. Motion approved.

Discussion was held regarding the forming of a planning commission for the village of Chelsea with Village Attorney John Keusen. He will present detailed information at the next council meeting.

Motion was made to pay bills and the meeting was adjourned.

OFF FOR FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. John Warren, accompanied by his parents who live at Capac, left Sunday for a three-week visit in Florida.

March of Dimes Film Set Monday At Jaycee Hall

A March of Dimes film, "The Life of a Child," will be shown Monday evening Jan. 24, at the Chelsea Jaycee Hall at 8 p.m. The film, part of the local March of Dimes campaign, will be presented by Dwight Reynolds, principal of Saline High school.

The public is invited to attend the showing, according to Mrs. Silas Hopkins, Jaycee president and chairman of the local 1966 March of Dimes.

A special invitation is also extended to all block captains and to mothers participating in the Mothers' March on Feb. 1, she added.

The local campaign will also receive a boost from three local Boy Scout troops, Troops 425, 465 and 470. The three troops, under the leadership of Ralph Frisch, Bob Lambert and Bill Baker, respectively, will sell peanuts Friday, Jan. 28 and Saturday, Jan. 29, with all proceeds going for the March of Dimes.

The 1966 March of Dimes campaign is focusing on birth defects rather than infantile paralysis, which it was originally started to combat. Crippling birth defects afflict one out of 16 infants born in this country each year, according to spokesmen for the National Foundation, and may cost the family of a crippled child or the state more than half a million dollars.

POOR BEVERLY HILLS—Beverly Hills, Calif.—Movie stars and millionaires of this wealthy city declined with a "thank you anyway" an offer of $82,875 in poverty funds. School superintendent Kenneth L. Peters said they could find only eight of the 5,000 children enrolled who could possibly be classed as "needy."

Human progress is often impeded by the anxiety of human beings to get credit for themselves.

WATERLOO

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Lesser were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Walz.

Lt. Jerry Platt who spent the past month on convalescent leave here with his relatives, has returned to the U. S. Naval Hospital at Bethesda, Md.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Rothman the past week included the Rev. Elmer Steenson of Chelsea on Tuesday and Emil Faust of near Leslie on Thursday.

Mrs. Eva Barber spent Sunday at the home of her son and family, the Wendell Barbers in Stockbridge.

conference, Chelsea still has an outside chance of capturing the title. Last year South Lyon won with a 7-3 record and this year looks like the team at the top will have a record quite similar to that.

The lack-a-daisical attitude carried by some of the boys on the team is hurting the team effort at the present, according to coach Terry Pokela. The will to WIN is not present as it should be in a good team, Pokela added, and we have no team leader or "killer guy" to keep the team together when they are on a losing streak. We have only five individuals playing. The problem now is to find the five boys who will do the job of winning as a team.

Thomas Harris Injured in Head-on Crash on I-94

Thomas Harris, 27, of Chelsea, received severe head injuries and a severe concussion Saturday at 1:30 p.m. when he was involved in the westbound lane when his pickup truck collided head-on with the westbound car in which Ronald Moore, 31, and Mabel E. Moore, 35, of Detroit, were riding.

All three were taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor for treatment.

Officers said Harris told them he did not know how he had gotten into the wrong lane of traffic.

Gallon Milk Now Legal in Michigan

Gallon-milk sales are now available to Michigan shoppers. The sales, banned by law for almost 50 years, were made legal when the state supreme court set aside the prohibition last week.

The Grocers Dairy Co. of Grand Rapids had begun legal action in the Michigan Supreme Court in Sept. 1963, when they had put gallon containers of milk on sale to precipitate a court test.

According to the Grocers' Spotlight, a newspaper of the Michigan food market, the Grocers Dairy Co. was stopped by a court order. However, they maintained a stock of gallon containers in anticipation of winning the case.

Late last week the gallon containers of milk went on sale in several Michigan communities.

The Chelsea and Dexter school faculties will skirmish Saturday night at 7 p.m. on the Chelsea basketball court.

A donkey ball game will follow the faculties with the Chelsea varsity club challenging the Junior Chamber of Commerce to a game of basketball played from the backs of trained donkeys. The donkey ball game will begin at 8:30 p.m.

As this section of The Standard was going to press we discovered a mix-up in identification on the photo of Boy Scout, Troop 476 already printed on page 11. These fellows were bundled up so tightly they were hard to identify with only the eyes and nose protruding from the heavy coats and hoods. To Troop 176, he patient, we'll run your picture next week with the correct identification. Your photographer hasn't yet gotten the faces from his eyes after that frigid experience.

Wilbert Trinkle is a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. He entered the hospital Friday and members of his family are hopeful he will be well enough to return home this week-end.

Mrs. Richard Dussan of 112 Watt Rd., Gregory, is a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. She entered the hospital on Jan. 12 and will be there for approximately three weeks. She is in room 3601.

George Atkinson

will be long remembered by the citizens of the Chelsea area.

Born July 10, 1907, in Chelsea, he was the son of William and Jeanie Pattern Atkinson. He was married to Ruth McClure on June 11, 1931; they lived at 333 Madison St., Chelsea, she survives.

He had been employed by Sears Roebuck of Ann Arbor for many years as a warehouse manager. He was a life-time member of the First Methodist church of Chelsea.

Survivors, in addition to the widow, include a son, Donald, a student at Michigan State University in East Lansing; a daughter, Mrs. John (Nancy) Prigden of Kokomo, Ind.; three grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Max (Mildred) Friedrich of Detroit.

Services will be at 2 p.m. today (Thursday, Jan. 20) at the Burghardt Funeral Home with the Rev. James Craig officiating. Masonic graveside services will be conducted by Olive Lodge 156 F&AM with burial in Oak Grove cemetery.

A George W. Atkinson Memorial Fund is being established to which contributions may be made. Memorial cards are available at any time at the Burghardt Funeral Home.

Band Boosters Report Sale of 1,106 Fruit Cakes

The Chelsea Band Boosters had a regular meeting Jan. 12 in the band room at the High school. The meeting opened with an oboe solo by Crystal Impola and a saxophone quartet composed of Marilyn Miller, Laurie Reddeman, Tina Lindauer and Dave Larson.

Mrs. William Blaess reported 1,106 fruit cakes and 5,216 candy bars sold.

Fortcoming events were discussed and planned. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

The Rev. C. J. Renner a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor is improving and has been able to take a few steps around the room. He hopes to be able to resume his duties as pastor at Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners before long. The Rev. Renner suffered a stroke and has been a patient at the hospital for the past two weeks.

DEATHS

Mrs. Gertrude Exelby—Frank Bishop

Dies Suddenly Monday At Methodist Home

Mrs. Gertrude Exelby, 84, a resident of the Chelsea Methodist Home, died suddenly at the Home Monday morning, Jan. 17. She had entered the Home on April 10, 1963.

Born April 29, 1881, in Lenawee county, she was a daughter of Isaac and Arletta Plues Filbeam. She married Everett Exelby on Dec. 20, 1900. He died Feb. 11, 1900.

Surviving are two sons—Joseph and Carl, both of Ypsilanti, one grandchild, and two sisters: Mrs. William (Lavina) Pupard of Monroe and Mrs. Royal (Sylvia) McElroy of Birtton.

Mrs. Exelby had been a member of the First Methodist church of Ann Arbor for 23 years before moving to Chelsea.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, at 10:30 a.m. at the Methodist Home Chapel with the Rev. John Fall and the Rev. R. A. Mithinson officiating. Further services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Niblack Funeral Home in Britton. Burial followed in Ridgeway cemetery, Ridgeway. Local arrangements were made by the Burghardt Funeral Home.

Had Been Resident of Chelsea Area Past 21 Years

Frank Bishop, 66, 20180 W. Old US-12, died Jan. 14 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Born Aug. 11, 1897, at Johnstown, Pa., he was the son of George and Mary Bishop.

He married Mrs. Minnie Halsal on Oct. 25, 1928. For the past 17 years he had been employed at the University of Michigan. For the last 21 years they have lived here in Chelsea.

He was a member of the First Methodist church of Chelsea.

Survivors, in addition to the widow, include one step-son, Raymond Halsal of Howell; one step-daughter, Mrs. Myles Pontney of Ann Arbor; six grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. A brother from Florida also survives.

Funeral services were Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Staffin Funeral Home, with the Rev. James Craig officiating. Burial followed in Oak Hill cemetery, Fontaine.

Mrs. Charles Cross

Native of Germany Dies Jan. 12 at Nursing Home

Mrs. Kathryn S. Cross, 92, died Jan. 12 at the Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Chelsea after a long illness. She had lived at the nursing home since May 31, 1963.

Born May 12, 1873, in Wurtemberg, Germany, she was a daughter of Fred and Mary Ann Roth-Sager. She came to the Chelsea area with her family in 1884 and later married Charles Cross, who died in 1947.

Mrs. Cross lived in Pittsfield Village for a long time prior to her illness.

One brother, Gottlieb Sager of Chelsea, and several nieces and nephews survive.

Funeral services were Saturday at the Burghardt Funeral Home with the Rev. Warner Sieben officiating. Burial followed in Oak Grove cemetery.

HOSPITALIZED

Frank Reed has been a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital since Saturday. He will undergo surgery at 10 a.m. Friday morning. He is in room 606.

BIRTHS

A son, Edward Thomas, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Merkel, 124 W. Summit, Jan. 19 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Merkel of 320 S. Main, Chelsea, and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Collins of 555 Chandler, Chelsea.

A daughter, Jane Elizabeth, Jan. 17 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood, 646 Flanders St. The grandparents are Mrs. Clarence Fleming and Mrs. Charles Wood, both of Chelsea.

A son, Darin March, Jan. 13 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, to Mr. and Mrs. John N. Miles. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Miles of 20735 Scio Church Rd., Chelsea, and Mr. and Mrs. James Wicks of Battle Creek. Mr. and Mrs. John Miles and son will be moving to 215 Woodland Ave., Jackson, this week. John is employed by Spartan Electronics in Jackson.

Friday Vacation—Slated So Teachers May Catch Up with Students

Chelsea school students will enjoy a vacation on Friday, Jan. 21, but the teachers will keep right on working.

The first semester of the 1965-66 school term officially ends on that date, and teachers will be occupied with correcting exams, figuring semester grades and marking the permanent files.

The High school will observe a special exam schedule beginning Jan. 25 and continuing through Jan. 27. The Junior High school will observe a similar schedule on Jan. 26-27.

Just A Minute...

By the Rev. James A. Craig

The general public has discovered that "Winter has finally come." It isn't that they weren't aware of it before but that it took cold days, stubborn cars, snow shovels, and snow, to really convince them.

Holding out for the final, convincing evidence is typical of us. We want to be convinced beyond any possibility of doubt. Perhaps we think that what we know is true will be changed to what we hope will be true.

It's not only winter. It's politics, and economics and religion. Religion is the one area where he holds the controls that decide what he shall or shall not believe. We discover that the final convincing evidence is ours to produce.

We decide on the basis of what we want to believe. Hope becomes reality and dreams a fact. For the Christian that can't be. For the Christian the final convincing evidence that the season of "good news" has come is Jesus Christ.

Now that won't warm the winter days but it will encourage you in meeting the chilling facts of life.

The Federal Aviation Agency has extended drinking restrictions on helicopter pilots. Effective December 31, helicopter pilots will not be allowed to serve drinks to persons who appear to be intoxicated.

ON ZIP CODES

According to Postmaster General Laurence F. O'Brien, hundreds of cities having more than one ZIP code number will switch to a single number Jan. 15. The change will effect only about 3 percent of the population.

THE COUNTRY PULPIT:

Why Are You Not A Christian?

Have you ever stopped to think that each day of your life is one day nearer Eternity, and that you have no assurance of life from one day until the next? Should you be swept into Eternity as you are now, do you know that you would be saved? There is no chance to be saved beyond death, and as death finds you so will the judgment.

You may think you are good enough as you are, but if Jesus has not saved you, then you are lost. It makes no difference how good you may think you are, because God says all are sinners through the fall of Adam, and need a Saviour. "For as in Adam all die," 1 Cor. 15:22; "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned," Rom. 5:12.

It may be that you are expecting to accept Christ as your Saviour, but now you are. That is all Satan wants you to do, just keep putting off salvation from day to day, until you are swept into Eternity, lost forever in a hell that burneth with fire and brimstone.

But there is a way whereby you may escape if you will come now. That is through Christ who shed His Blood upon Calvary's Cross for the remission of your sins, and that you might have everlasting life if you will come as a lost sinner, confess your sins and accept Christ as your own personal Saviour by faith. "The Blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin," 1 John 1:7. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life," John 3:36.

"WHAT shall I then do with Jesus which is called Christ?" Matt. 27:22. "He that is not with me is against me," said Jesus. WILL YOU REFUSE TO THINK ON THESE THINGS AND SEAL YOUR OWN DOOM?

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

January 4, 1966, signal controller at the intersection of M-52 (Main Street and Middle Street).

Regular Session

This meeting was called to order by Pres. Haselchwardt at 8:00 p.m. Invocation by the Rev. Father Francis Mallazewski of the St. Marys Catholic church.

Trustees present: Bollinger, Burg, Chapman, Crouch, Schable, Weber. The Minutes of the Regular Session of December 21, 1965 were read and approved.

A discussion was held with Mr. Clarence Vogel and Mrs. LeRoy Satterthwaite regarding a storm drainage problem. Storm water from the village is causing a flooding condition on the north side of Sibley Road. Supt. of Public Works, Parker Brown, was instructed to investigate the problem.

A discussion was held with Mr. Edwin Oram and Mr. Al. Clare regarding a proposed 17-unit apartment dwelling, and renovation of the present trailer park site located on North Main Street.

A request was entered by Mr. Oram to allow a variance in the Village Zoning Code to change the requirements of 2,500 square feet required per multiple family dwelling to 1,750 square feet per family dwelling. Trustee Weber was instructed to contact the zoning consultant, Mr. Ray Eastman on this matter. No official action was taken at this time.

A discussion was held regarding the village landfill site with no official action at this time.

A discussion was held with Mr. Elwyn Beach regarding civil defense. Mr. Beach submitted a resume of the Zone 4 Civil Defense accomplishments for 1965.

A discussion was held regarding a new power contract with Consumers Power Company. Motion by Crouch, supported by Weber, to enter into a new contract with Consumers Power Company, for the purchase of electrical energy. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Burg, supported by Schable, that the plan for Laneview No. 2 as presented by the Chelsea Lumber Company, as pro- prietors, be approved under the Michigan Plan. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

A discussion was held regarding the future sanitary sewer facilities necessary for the expansion of the village. No official action was taken at this time.

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED and it is hereby resolved that the Village of Chelsea enter into an agreement with the Michigan State Highway Department to install a fire preemption circuit in the new from the surface.

The Village of Chelsea will participate in the cost of the preemption circuit to the extent of 100 percent of the total cost in the amount of $369.00.

Motion by Burg, supported by Bollinger, to authorize the Michigan State Highway Department to install an emergency fire preemption circuit in the new signal controller at the intersection of M-52 and West Middle and M-52 and South Street. Cost estimate for signal installation of $369.00. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Crouch, supported by Burg, to authorize the transfer of $10,000.00 from the Chelsea Elec. & Water Dept. to the General Fund. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Weber, supported by Chapman, to authorize the clerk to issue checks in payment of bills submitted. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried. General Fund, $5,342.41.

Motion by Bollinger, supported by Burg, to adjourn the meeting. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned. Approved Jan. 18, 1966. Howard Haselchwardt, Pres. George Winans, Clerk.

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

Bitter Cotton Candy

A mid-winter trip through the Mississippi delta country reveals why Michigan farmers have cause to become much more thoughtful about the effects of government farm programs.

Although it is general knowledge that cotton farmers face heavier restrictions as the acreage-control programs develop, until now the full implications of the 1965 farm program have not been obvious.

The "new" farm program is incredibly complex. One southern county Agricultural Agent reports that there are 28 alternatives facing the cotton grower within the plan.

For the first time, the farm program legalized the sale of cotton allotments and has reportedly brought about much alleviation in buying and selling activity on the part of oil mills and cotton gins as they attempt to control production necessary to keep their plants running.

Prices for allotments in many cases are almost as great as the market price of the land itself, running from $50 to $75 per acre on land normally selling at the $100 per-acre mark. Further, much of the acreage held by small farmers is being bid in by nearby larger farmers, subverting the announced aim of the program described as "designed to keep cotton in the hands of the family-sized farmer."

The smaller farmers are sorely tempted to sell, not only because of the sudden increased allotment and land value, but because they have had such acreage cuts that there is scant income ability remaining.

One grower reports that only about half of last year's cotton acreage in his county will be planted; the balance left idle to allow the grower to qualify for the government supports and payments.

Fortunately, for the southern farmers, cotton is interchangeable with soybeans and Michigan farmers can brace themselves for an expected southern increase in this cash crop. In the words of one Mississippi delta farmer, "Remember, I can raise a winter crop of small grain and a crop of soybeans in the same year on the same land—and I can get a yield of soy that is fully as high per acre as you can get in the north."

Forests are big business. Michigan State University foresters estimate that timber-based activities in the U. S. account for one job in every 20 and $1 in every $20 of our gross national product.

Q. A friend and I have been advising each other on stock market and real estate investments for the past 20 years with quite successful results. She has a portfolio in which she has $117,375 of her own money invested. It has a paper value of $135,000. I have a portfolio valued at $44,108. We would like to go into partnership. I would put up additional cash to make my investment equal to hers. Legally and for tax purposes, can we form this partnership totaling each of our stock assets at what the stock actually cost us ($181,483, or must it be done at market value—about $235,000—the day the partnership papers are signed? In addition, there are so many advisory services advertised. Can you recommend the top five or so?

A. These types of legal and tax questions are a little bit out of my field. I believe it would be best if you would consult an attorney in setting up your partnership.

For an account the size of yours you might be better off using the services of a professional investment advisor. Many good ones are located near your city and I am sure your bank or broker could suggest a good one for you.

Concerning advisory services, Standard & Poor's, Moody's and Value Line are among the larger services and would be convenient for you to contact personally from your city.

Q. I have never invested in the stock market, but feel now that I am in a position to do so. I have savings of about $6,500 and an income big enough to make regular investments. How do I go about getting into this and particularly how do I pick a stockbroker?

A. It sounds like you are in an excellent position to set up a good investment program. It's too bad you didn't become involved in an investment club a few years ago in preparation for such a step as you are taking.

As far as that goes, you still could join a club even though you plan eventually to invest considerably more than the $10 to $20 a month your club might set as the limit for each member. This would be one of the best ways for you to get a basic understanding of the market without the risk of getting hurt through unfortunate investments before you have learned the ropes.

In picking a stockbroker, talk to your friends and business associates and find out which men they have had personal experience with and how they recommend them. The classified telephone directory will give you a list of the firms in your town.

I would say it is most important to pick a firm that has good informational material and a good research department.

THE CHELSEA STANDARD, CHELSEA, MICHIGAN

BY THOMAS E. O'HARA
Chairman, Board of Trustees
National Association of Investment Clubs

Q. A friend and I have been advising each other on stock market and real estate investments for the past 20 years with quite successful results. She has a portfolio in which she has $117,375 of her own money invested. It has a paper value of $135,000. I have a portfolio valued at $44,108. We would like to go into partnership. I would put up additional cash to make my investment equal to hers. Legally and for tax purposes, can we form this partnership totaling each of our stock assets at what the stock actually cost us ($181,483, or must it be done at market value—about $235,000—the day the partnership papers are signed? In addition, there are so many advisory services advertised. Can you recommend the top five or so?

A. These types of legal and tax questions are a little bit out of my field. I believe it would be best if you would consult an attorney in setting up your partnership.

For an account the size of yours you might be better off using the services of a professional investment advisor. Many good ones are located near your city and I am sure your bank or broker could suggest a good one for you.

Concerning advisory services, Standard & Poor's, Moody's and Value Line are among the larger services and would be convenient for you to contact personally from your city.

Q. I have never invested in the stock market, but feel now that I am in a position to do so. I have savings of about $6,500 and an income big enough to make regular investments. How do I go about getting into this and particularly how do I pick a stockbroker?

A. It sounds like you are in an excellent position to set up a good investment program. It's too bad you didn't become involved in an investment club a few years ago in preparation for such a step as you are taking.

As far as that goes, you still could join a club even though you plan eventually to invest considerably more than the $10 to $20 a month your club might set as the limit for each member. This would be one of the best ways for you to get a basic understanding of the market without the risk of getting hurt through unfortunate investments before you have learned the ropes.

EXPENSIVE DEER

Houghton, Mich. — Forestry students at Michigan Technological University made a study to show what the average hunter spent during the recent deer season. Food, equipment and miscellaneous items totaled about $210. If the hunter bagged a deer—it would have cost him about $20 a pound.

Some Special Postal Fees To Be Hiked

Proposed increases in money orders, insurance, registry, certified mail and COD notes to be effective March 6 were announced today by the Post Office Department.

The cost of operating these five special services now exceeds revenues by $80 million annually. The proposed fee increases would narrow the cost-revenue gap by $36 million, based on business handled in fiscal year 1965.

The new fees are the first changes since 1961.

The proposed fee changes appeared in the Jan. 11 Federal Register and can be put into effect under existing administrative authority without legislation needed.

The increases include the following items:

Money Order fees: Domestic and international money order fees would be increased by 6 cents.

Insurance fees: The minimum fee bracket would be increased from $10 to $15 and the minimum fee would be 20 cents instead of 10 cents. Most other fees would be increased 10 cents. The maximum fee, now 40 cents, would be increased to 60 cents for values above $150 to $200.

Registry fees: The present 60-cent and 75-cent fees would be combined into a single fee at 75 cents for value up to $100. Registry fees for articles valued in excess of $100 would remain unchanged.

COD fees: The present 40-cent and 50-cent fee brackets would be combined into one fee bracket at 60 cents for amounts up to $10. There will be no change in the fees covering items valued above $10.

Certified Mail: The fee would be increased 10 cents from the present 20 cents per item to 30 cents.

Losses incurred in the operation of special services are paid from funds drawn from the Federal Treasury. The proposed fee increases would shift a substantial portion of the special service borne by the public to the users of these services.

The effort to make money often prevents the making of a man.

Masonic Banquet Held Saturday at St. Paul's Church

The annual banquet of Olive Lodge 156 F&AM was attended by 129 persons, Saturday evening at the St. Paul's church.

The Women's Guild of St. Paul's church prepared and served the dinner—attended by guests from Ann Arbor, Detroit and Adrian.

George W. Atkinson, chaplain of the chapter, performed his last official duties for the Lodge when he asked the invocation and gave the benediction for the banquet. (See obituary.)

Worshipful Master Marvin E. Salyer welcomed the members and guests to the banquet. Mrs. Wesley Ellenwood, matron of OES 108, extended greetings to the group.

Al Lipphart, past patron of Golden Rule 151 F&AM, was the toastmaster. Greetings were also extended to the group from RAM 140 by Raymond Canine and Salyer introduced the officers of Olive Lodge.

Dr. Donald E. Bodley, Grand Scribe of the Grand Chapter of RAM of Michigan and vicar of Christ Episcopal church in Adrian, addressed the group.

Entertainment was provided by Marvin Moffitt, a high school student from Parma, who presented two one-man band numbers.

William Barber from Gregory provided dinner music on a portable organ.

Press Association To Meet

East Lansing — A Michigan Supreme Court justice, a newspaper editor, a university president and an FBI official will speak at Michigan State University Friday and Saturday, Jan. 28-29.

The four speakers will headline the 18th annual meeting of the Michigan Press Association at MSU's Kellogg Center for Continuing Education.

Chief Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh opens the meeting Friday noon with a talk on how newspapers can help to achieve better public understanding of Supreme Court decisions. Vermont Royster, editor of the Wall Street Journal, follows Friday evening with a discussion of changes in the newspaper industry.

Dr. William R. Keast, president of Wayne State University, speaks Saturday noon on the importance of school news to the newspapers, the schools and the communities. Cartha D. DeLoach, assistant director of the FBI, rounds out the program Saturday evening with a discussion of problems of law enforcement with people, police and the press.

Chelsea School District Cafeteria Menu

Monday, Jan. 24 — Chili and crackers, banana and apple salad, chocolate fudge pudding, milk.

Tuesday, Jan. 25 — Sloppy joes on buns, buttered corn, dish of fruit, milk.

Wednesday, Jan. 26 — Fish sticks, mashed potatoes, vegetables, pudding, bread-and-butter, milk.

Thursday, Jan. 27 — Hot dogs on buns, french fries, carrot sticks, cherry dessert, milk.

Friday, Jan. 28 — No school.

Joining the four men are Mrs. Richard Bruce, a handwriting expert, and Robert S. Rosenfeld, a management counsel.

Other highlights include equipment displays, a discussion of trade problems, results of MPA's weekly newspaper contest and the 25th All-Michigan Dinner.

More than 100 daily and weekly newspaper editors and their wives are expected for the two-day event.

Boys' Training School Truancy Declining

Thomas G. Sharpe (R-Howell) reports today that the truancy at the Whitmore Lake Boys Training School is gradually declining. During the month of October there were a total of 18 boys truant; November 11 boys and December 10.

This report includes all escape attempts, of which many were apprehended within minutes after the truancy.

Sharpe said that one of the contributing factors to the decline of the number of escapees is due to improved communication procedures of staff and law enforcement. "We also believe that much credit should be given to the volunteer workers that spend many hours with the boys at the camp," he added.

HOME SURGERY FAILS

Dallas, Tex. — When a physician father checked on his ill son, he found his heart had stopped. Dr. Smith summoned members of the family, opened the boy's chest with a razor and massaged the heart until an ambulance came. Heart specialist worked seven hours, but failed to save the youth.
