CHelsea MEDICAL CENTER PLANS ANNOUNCED

The first step in the development of a medical center, to be located in Chelsea, and expected to cost more than $1 million, has been announced by a group of doctors and businessmen who are planning to build a new medical center in Chelsea, Mich.

that bids on the center can be opened in May, that work will be underway by early summer

and the buildings will be ready for occupancy early next year.

All of the local physicians, including the doctors from the present Chelsea Medical Clinic

hope to have offices in the area adjacent to the intensive care unit.

Doctors from all the surrounding communities, including Ann Arbor, will be invited to be on the staff of the center and to bring their own patients.

An intensive extended care

unit differs from a general hospital in that it will not include a delivery room, an operating room nor an emergency room.

The purpose of the facility is to take care of post-operative patients, non-acutely ill convalescing medical cases and rehabilitating patients. Occupational and physical therapy will be provided, and physicians will be available on a 24-hour basis in order to provide medical care in emergencies that may arise.

Concerned Chelsea citizens

first met in October to discuss the shortage of hospital bed facilities in the area and the failure to keep pace with the rapid population expansion. No hospital beds have been added although the population of the area has been doubled in the past seven or eight years.

The citizens placed the problem in the hands of the Chelsea physicians, who decided that a general hospital would duplicate

the intensive facilities available

only a short distance from Chelsea and that the real need was for

an intensive extended care

facility which would free beds in Ann Arbor for intensive acute care.

Doctors throughout the area have been aware of the shortage of hospital beds for convalescing patients, and predict that the bed-shortage will become extremely critical with the advent of Medicare, a federally financed system of paying hospital and medical bills for persons over 65, goes into effect July 1, 1966.

Under the Hospital Insurance

Program of Medicare, the government will pay partial costs

after Jan. 1, 1967 for up to 100 days of care in an intensive care unit after a patient has spent at least three days in a general hospital. The proposed intensive extended care unit will provide the specialized care but not the initial three-day acute hospitalization. Patients will be transferred to the Chelsea center from nearby general hospitals.

Arthur Lindauer, a Chelsea

architect, has been commissioned to obtain a preliminary set of plans for the complex. Artist's sketches of the center are for a modern set of four one-story buildings connected by underground tunnels.

The 37-acre area now being cleared is part of a site of 70 acres. The remaining 33 acres, now wooded, will be reserved for future expansion, possibly including a senior citizen's village.

Herbert Hinz is clearing the property. Only those trees four inches or less in diameter are being removed from the property

in an effort to conserve the natural beauty of the area.

The four-building complex will be built atop high ground without an artificial lake will be created around three sides of the complex to provide proper drainage of the site. The ground will be prepared for seeding and extensive beautification of the grounds

is planned.

When completed, the grounds will provide recreational facilities for the patients and several outdoor patios in a park-like setting.

In addition to the actual site of the hospital, a 420-foot entrance from Main St. will also be landscaped. This entrance could be extended to Old US-12

and thus relieve congestion in the vicinity of the new St. Paul

United Church of Christ and St.

Mary's Catholic churches. A right-of-way near Main and Lincoln streets is included in the peat marsh property.

The site was rezoned Jan. 18

after public hearings were held with residents in the area. The area previously was zoned as residential and agricultural, and

Teacher Will Appear

Supporters of Mrs. Segal have scheduled a public meeting with her for 7:30 p.m. Thursday (tonight) at the Sylvan Township Union. All interested persons are invited to attend, according to James LaGoe, high school English teacher and chairman of the "Committee for Barbara Segal." At that time an explanation of the charges will be presented and questions may be asked of Mrs. Segal, according to LaGoe. Moderator for the evening meeting will be the Rev. John Smucker.

Board Members Firm In Face of Possible Recall Over Dismissal

Reveal Information Concerning 'Unsatisfactory' Evaluation in Teacher's Previous New York Position

Controversy over the rehiring of a first grade teacher and the possible recall of six of the seven Chelsea School Board members spread through the village this week.

Climaxing a week of charges and countercharges was the revelation of a letter from Christopher Warrell, assistant superintendent of the Freeport School System, Freeport, N.Y., where Mrs. Segal (Barbara) Segal taught last year. In the letter, Warrell states that Mrs. Segal had not received a favorable evaluation from her principal at the last school at which she taught, and that she would not be rehired by that school.

Mrs. Segal teaches first grade at South Elementary school.

The decision by the Chelsea School Board not to offer her a contract renewal sparked a dispute which has resulted in the circulation of petitions asking for the recall of six of the seven school board members for "misfeasance, nonfeasance and malfeasance" in duty.

The six school board members are Luther Kusterer, president; Dr. Clare Warren, Robert Foster, Robert Taylor, Donald Lwin and Donald Albert. Charles Lawenski was not included in the recall action.

In a countermove, petitions have also been circulated throughout the school district supporting the action of the school board and reaffirming confidence in the board members.

Chelsea ministers issued a statement calling for a reasonable approach to the controversy and two Chelsea ministers discussed the controversy from their pulpits last Sunday. The Chelsea Kiwanis Club also discussed the controversy.

New Information Revealed

The complete text of the statement by the six board members facing recall follows:

Local Ministers Urge Calmness in Crisis

The following statement was issued Tuesday morning by four local ministers, following a meeting of the Chelsea Ministers' Association.

The four ministers making the statement are James C. Cox, John Smucker, Robert J. Livingston and Warner A. Gorman.

The Chelsea Ministers' Fellowship, concerned about the present situation in the community and the school district, make the following observations and appeal.

"First, it is true that the Chelsea School Board has faithfully discharged its legal responsibilities."

"Second, the Chelsea School Board is bound to bargain or negotiate only with the Chelsea Education Association or with the representatives involved in the event of a strike."

"Third, the emotional climate of the community is aroused to a point where unfair and unjust accusations are being made; grievances are being played out in the community, that threaten to cause confusion and chaos."

"Therefore, we appeal to the community and its citizens to weigh the facts, must understand the depth of the values being represented, but both sides, must make ment without every possible attempt to preserve a reasonable mind and a clear understanding of the issues.

"Interest in and involvement in issues of community importance is to be commended and encouraged."

(Mr. Smucker's participation is based on his understanding that the school board acted to the best of its knowledge regarding the legal question involved.)

Discussion of the controversy also took place in Chelsea churches last Sunday morning.

The Rev. John Smucker, vicar of St. Barnabas Episcopal church, made the following statement to his congregation during his Sunday morning sermon:

"I must say, that the solution to this situation lies not in standing on the sidelines, but lies in becoming involved, walking in clear-eyed, being open to new understanding, being open to the possibilities of reconciliation, being open to the possibilities of change. Therein lies the possibility for something of value to come out of this tragic situation. And I submit to you that no person truly concerned for the village and its schools can stand on the side. That every person must weigh the facts, must understand the depth of the values being represented, but both sides, must make

4) Did Mrs. Barbara Segal's husband telephone Dr. Welling on the morning of Wednesday, April 27th, and state that Mrs. Segal had decided against submitting her resignation and, further, add the request of Dr. Welling that he continue to withhold the information contained in Mr. Warrell's letter of April 26, 1966 to the Superintendent of the Chelsea Schools?

"It is the unanimous opinion of the six board members that the local movement organized by the supporters of Mrs. Barbara Segal, that Mr. Warrell's letter of April 26, 1966, clearly and substantially establishes the fact that Mrs. Segal's evaluation, judgment and recommendations were not very consistent and that it should have been made clear to her that the decision not to rehire this individual."

'No Comment' Explained

The "no comment" statements issued by the Board of Education at the April 17 meeting in response to questions from citizens attending the meeting, indicate why Mrs. Segal was not rehired. (Continued on page six)

David A. Wood of the Eastland St., Chelsea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Wood, has won a Merit Scholarship from the Michigan State University Alumni Association.

Scholarship. He is the first Chelsea student to be selected for such a high honor since the program was started 11 years ago.

Merit Scholarships provide from $400 to $800 each, depending on the student's need. They cover the four undergraduate years of college and provide a type of educational insurance, since the amount may be adjusted if the student's financial circumstances change while he is in college. The amounts of the individual scholarships are not disclosed.

Dave intends to major in liberal arts at Michigan State University. While a student at Chelsea High school, Dave has served as editor of the school paper for two years and co-editor for one year; has been a member of the National Honor Society, was elected class president in 1964-65, won the District Extensive Speech Championship in 1964, is the Kiwanis Key Club secretary, was awarded the American Legion School Award for 1964-65, the Kiwanis Citizenship Award in both 1963-64 and 1964-65 and was a delegate to 1965 Boys State.

Michigan State, the nation's oldest land grant university, offers nearly 200 different undergraduate programs and provides special opportunities for superior students through its distinctive Honors College. (Continued on page five)

Kiwanians See Historical Paintings

Chelsea Kiwanians traveled backward in time at the Monday evening meeting as they watched dramatic color slides depicting the history of Michigan in paintings.

The slides, part of the Michigan Bell commissioned series "A History of Michigan Paintings," were narrated by Keith Glasspool, a representative of Michigan Bell, who was introduced by Kiwanian Jack Wellnitz, an employee of Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

The slides showed paintings by artist Robert Thom of Birmingham, who captured the life and spirit of other days from the era of glaciers and mastodons, through the time of the Indians, explorers, wars and industrial change.

Glasspool announced that the original paintings of this series will be on exhibit at the Dearborn Youth Center, until May 9 and that from May 16 to June 10 they will be displayed at the Detroit Historical Museum in honor of Michigan Week. This is located at Woodward and Kirby in Detroit.

The speaker also said that reproductions of these paintings in sizes suitable for framing could be purchased in sets of four, each at $1 through the Michigan Historical Society at 220 North Grand Ave., Lansing.

Dave Orloski, a member of the Key Club, was introduced by William Collins. Paul G. Schabert, Jr., introduced Postmaster Richard Schaub as a guest. William Rademacher introduced Julius Blass as a member of the Kiwanis Club.

George Staffan, chairman of the bowling squad which will compete in the Kiwanis State Bowling Tournament in Cadillac on Saturday and Sunday reported that all the bowlers are in good physical condition and hope to bring back several trophies.

Carl Barnett, Rodney Hutchinson, John Max and Lou Kress of the Ypsilanti Kiwanis Club were guests at an inter-club visitation and also presented a vocal number in male quartette style.

President Fowler announced that he, Don Turner, Ralph Guenther and Paul E. Niehaus would attend the United States-Canada Good Will Week Celebration at the

The club's newest member, Julius Blass, will furnish the program for the next Monday evening meeting.

Merit Scholarship

A student who earns a record of A minus or better in his freshman studies is invited to join the MSU Honors College, and thereafter all requirements for graduation (except the total number of academic credits) are waived. Each Honors College scholar follows a personal curriculum arranged in consultation with a faculty advisor.

Approximately 500 Merit Scholars now attend Michigan State. Names of some 2,250 Merit Scholarship winners nationwide were announced today by John M. Stalaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corp. More than 1,600 of the 1965 awards were provided by sponsoring corporations, foundations, colleges, unions, professional associations, trusts, other organizations and individuals. 500 of the 1966 Merit Scholars were chosen by state committees for each state to be proportional to its population of graduating high school seniors. 925 awards are underwritten by funds from Ford Foundation grants; and the remaining 125 National Merit Scholars were selected from among finalists who overcame unusual handicaps, have exceptional financial need, show creative ability, or entered college as early-admissions students before completing high school graduation requirements.

In addition, about 100 students were named Honorary Merit Scholars in recognition of their outstanding achievement in the 1965-66 competition, although they will receive no financial assistance from the Merit Program.

All National Merit Scholars were chosen by a committee of skilled evaluators drawn largely from the college admissions fields. The committee considered each finalist's high school grades, accomplishments outside the classroom, extracurricular activities, and school recommendations in addition to scores on two nation-wide examinations.

Personal Notes

1st Lt. Dale Hedding and his wife and two small daughters, now Maryland and for the past seven years residents of Ann Arbor, will be honored guests at an open house at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Lulu Bon Rice, 610 E. Ann St., Ann Arbor from 2:30 to 4:00 Saturday afternoon (April 30). Lt. Hedding received his doctor's degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Michigan. His parents Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Hedding of Pittsburgh, Pa., will be present.

4-H - YOUTH DAIRY FOODS PROGRAM

MICHIGAN'S DAIRY INDUSTRY was studied by Nancy Koeniger, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Koeniger, and Mrs. Sue Taylor, Extension 4-H Agent, at the annual Dairy Foods Program at Michigan State University April 17-19. The program was designed to teach young women the nutritive value of dairy products and to create an appreciation for the dairy industry and its economic importance to Michigan. The primary aim of the program is to give 4-H girls a greater knowledge of the dairy industry and train them to serve as resource persons in their home counties.

Committee for B. Segal...

ed both its spirit and intent; job protection from callous and arbitrary dismissal. The board has been guilty of the erroneous thinking that if an action is not actually illegal, it is automatically just and lawful.

"Ironically enough they have already broken the statutes of their own policies concerning the correct procedures regarding probationary and tenure teachers. Not even the minimum protections and supervisory aids which board policies guarantee to all employees of the Chelsea school system were made available to Mrs. Segal."

"The existing board policy governing periods of probation and tenure procedures provides for the supervisory aid of a tenure coach, a person appointed to counsel the probationary teacher. Mrs. Segal's tenure coach, Mrs. Douglas Lange, was never even informed by Mr. Sylvester Wojcicki, elementary principal, that there was any question of weakness in Mrs. Segal's teaching, or any possibility of her subsequent dismissal."

"The policy also provides for a Tenure Committee of Retirees, legally constituted body authorized to assess cases involving a teacher who will acknowledge their responsibility to the community in a democratic fashion and who will provide a fair hearing for Mrs. Segal. By law a board member who is recalled may not run in the subsequent election."

THE LETTERBOX

Dear Editor:

The Chelsea Vo-Agriculture Advisory Council has been approached by groups representing both sides of the controversy regarding the failure of the Chelsea School Board to rehire a teacher. The support of the Vo-Ag Advisory Council has been sought by both groups.

In a session held at the Lima Township Hall Monday night, the Council decided to take no position in the controversy at this time.

The Vo-Ag Advisory Council was established almost two years ago by the Chelsea School Board to assist the Board in the development of a quality Vo-Ag program, to advise the instructor in developing an Agriculture curriculum which would meet the needs of the community, to advise in the establishment of an adult Vo-Ag program, and to develop community support for such programs.

During the first year of its existence, the Advisory Council was able to work closely with the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities. When about five months ago the School Board decided to discontinue the Vo-Ag program in Chelsea without discussing the situation with the Council, this group became quite alarmed. Through the efforts of the Vo-Ag Advisory Council, a temporary Vo-Ag program was re-instituted to finish out the school year.

It has since become the firm ambition of the Vo-Ag Advisory Council to get a sound, updated full four-year program established in the Chelsea school which will not only meet the needs of production agriculture, but also those of agribusinesses in the community. Respectfully submitted, Chelsea Vo-Ag Advisory Council, R. Kuschmann, secretary.

What Joy Does A Puppy Hold?

Today, we gave a teeny ball of bow-legged, waggy-tailed, fluff to a little fellow who came knocking at our door. He had to come twice. First, toted on the back of his older brother's bike, he excitedly stated one of a little boy's innermost desires, "May I please have a puppy to take home?"

No momma or poppa on the scene, so we had to turn him away empty-handed. "Have your mom or dad drop by, or call us," we said. Oh, those eyes! Great tears of disappointment clouded his vision, but certainly didn't hamper his determination.

Less than 10 short minutes later, he returned. "Here's a note!" "My son says you have puppies to give away. He would like to have a male one."

Puppies everywhere—underfoot, he unhesitatingly bent over, and with love and already a pride of ownership, said, "I want this one!" It was just a little cur dog—Heinz 67 variety—no papers, no family tree or pedigree. But it was a puppy. Somehow, boys and puppies just seem to belong together.

"Now," my husband stated, "you'll take good care of him? We live close by; I can keep an eye on him, you know."

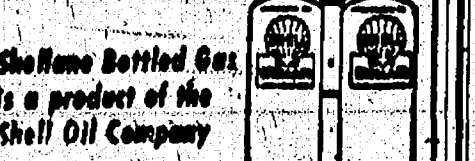

"Oh, sure!" came the positive reply. I'll even bring him back to show you when he's bigger." With that, off he went—lickety-split down the road as fast as his little legs would carry him. We watched as he ran towards home. He stopped only once—to get the pup down for just a minute to see if it would follow him. Follow him it did, and it only took a moment for four little feet to get all tangled up and trip over two—only slightly larger ones. Into the boy's arms once more, both disappeared into the lengthening shadows of dusk.

We left the window with a smile in our hearts, and a general all-around warmish glow. Today we made a little boy happy. All it took was a kind word, a bit of a puppy.

What joy does a puppy hold? Just ask any child that owns one. signed, A. Shortt Storie.

Colorful prints are usually a feature of the spring season and now they are being shown in garments fashioned of many different textures. There are flower prints in voiles and organzas. Abstract prints seem to be favored for linens or silks.

4-H Clubs

ROGERS CORNERS HERDSMEN

The regular meeting of Rogers Corners Herdsmen 4-H livestock club was called to order by President Bob Kuschmann at Lima Community Hall, Wednesday, April 20.

A request from the Chelsea Recreation Committee had been received regarding usage of the present Junior High for recreational purposes. Following a discussion of the matter, the group selected representatives to attend the May School Board meeting as requested.

The following committee was named to organize the club's community and county service projects: Chair Powers, chairman; Rod Powers, Bob Kuschmann, Loren Heller, Susan Gray, Colleen Haab and Howard McCall.

The meeting was adjourned. Refreshments and recreation followed.

MOTHER RESCUES SON

Lafayette, Ga. — When Richard Lee fell into an abandoned well, his mother was the only one small enough to be lowered into the well. Mrs. Thornton, with a rope around her waist, was lowered 25 feet where she found her 8-year-old son in the icy water. Both suffered only minor injuries.

Peace Corps Placement Test Slated May 14

Area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps Placement Test at 9 a.m. on Saturday, May 14 in Civil Service Room, U.S. Post Office Downtown Station, 220 N. Main St., Ann Arbor.

The Peace Corps uses the Placement Test to determine how an applicant may best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language not education achievement. (If test scores indicated a limited language learning ability, for example, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking country.)

The Placement Test requires no preparation and is noncompetitive—no applicant can neither pass nor fail.

The application form, not the Placement Test, is the most important factor in the selection of Volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before taking the test.

Applications may be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C.

The Placement Test takes about an hour and a half. An optional achievement test for applicants who have studied French or Spanish requires another hour.

Included in the plantings were multi-trunk roses, which will eventually form a hedge next to the cemetery, honeysuckle, Siberian crab, Washington crab, autumn olive and hybrid crabapple.

Errors Mar CHS Baseball Performances

Chelsea's baseball team opened its conference schedule on April 27 defeating South Lyon by the score of 4-0.

South Lyon threatened only once and that was in the fourth inning when they sent six men to bat on one error and three walks. Despite the three walks, by pitcher Dan Parsons, Chelsea survived the inning by having Jones striking out for the second of three times.

Chelsea scored three of its four runs in the third inning when Danny Allen and Chip Winans singled. Neil Packard walked, and then Tom Wojciecki singled home both Allen and Winans with Packard taking third. Packard then scored on a sacrifice fly by Bill Harvey.

Bill Harvey ended the scoring in the sixth inning when he came home on a wild pitch by Donald Byrd.

Due to spring vacation Chelsea did not play again until April 19 when it met Dexter at home, standing at 4 p.m.

Questions & Answers

What is the purpose of baking clams, or oysters and the like in a bed of rock salt?

Most importantly, the salt provides concentrated even heat, which permits quick cooking, a most necessary consideration in preventing toughness in clams and oysters. It also keeps the shells level, ensuring that the juices and sauces will not spill.

DENTAL CLINIC—Washtenaw County Dental Clinic services are now located at Mack school in Ann Arbor. An open house will be held on May 15 from 4 to 5 p.m. Delroy Hickbottom, center, is shown receiving the services of volunteer dentist.

Dr. William E. Brown, while Mrs. Ray O. Gross, chairman of the clinic, watches. Eighty-four county dentists volunteered their time to serve the needy children who have been screened for the clinic by school nurses.

Dental Clinic Helps Children From Anywhere in County

The Washtenaw District Dental Society and its Women's Auxiliary started the Children's Dental Health Clinic at Perry school in Ann Arbor for children from needy families in Washtenaw county in October, 1952. Space for the clinic was provided by the Ann Arbor Board of Education. Perry school was purchased by the University of Michigan in June, 1955, but the clinic continued its operation there until March 1, 1966, when the Ann Arbor Board of Education again found space for its operation at Mack school. The clinic was renamed the Washtenaw Children's Dental Clinic at that time. Elementary school children kindergarten through grade six, are screened by the public school nurses, county nurses, and city nurses to determine who is in need of treatment. Fees ranging from 50 cents to $2.00 are charged for the various services rendered in order to replenish supplies. If families cannot afford even these minimum fees, help is secured for them from local service agencies or the fees are forgiven. No child is denied help because of inability to pay.

The clinic has operated up to 14 half-days per month for eight months of the school year. Members of the Washtenaw District Dental Society donate one or two half-days of their time per year to staff the clinic. Last year 84 dentists donated time. One dental assistant is the only paid personnel, paid by funds received from money-raising projects of the Women's Dental Auxiliary. Additionally, members of the Washtenaw District Dental Hygienists Association donate one or two half-days each month to perform prophylaxes.

The dental society and auxiliary matched the Ann Arbor school board's $1,000 allocation to achieve the move from Perry to Mack. Approximately 452 appointments and 130 different children have been seen yearly. At the end of each year there continues to be a waiting list. An open house will be held May 15 at the clinic for those who would like to view the facilities.

CWO Warren, who specialized in electronics, will be one of the officers serving on the new submarine. He is the husband of the former Donna Mac Foster who made her home here with the U.S. Navy's newest nuclear-powered submarine. The commissioning will take place at 2 p.m. on the deck of the USS George C. Marshall at the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co. at Newport News, Va.

Following the purchase of Alaska by the U. S. from Russia in 1867, the first government vessel into the territory was the Revenue Marine (forerunner of the Coast Guard) cutter Lincoln.

PARAKEET DIED A HERO

Whitwick, England — When Mrs. Betty Lowe's pet parakeet dropped dead in its cage, she ran outside in search of a reason for her pet's death. Mrs. Lowe discovered gas leaking from a broken main and alerted her neighbors. The bird may have saved the lives of 20 persons.

It's easy to find an excuse for delaying hard work.

Watershed Council Elects New Officers

Election of officers was the main order of business at the Huron River Watershed Council meeting April 21.

Raymond H. Saari, Ypsilanti township treasurer, will head the council for the coming year. He is of Ann Arbor City Administration.

Hans Haugard of Livingston county was elected vice-chairman and George Frisinger, the Washington County representative, was named secretary-treasurer.

Lima and Lodi townships were named as the next meeting members. Hebert Dittus will represent Lodi township and Mrs. Harry Denham represents Lima.

The possibility of further or extended river water quality and quantity surveys was discussed. A report on this matter will be presented at the next meeting.

Norman Billings, assistant executive secretary of the State Water Resources Commission, discussed recent events related to water resources at the state and national level. Important legislative changes have been considered in Michigan, which strengthen anti-pollution laws making Michigan's laws on anti-pollution the best in the United States. Also important is a well-drillers licensing law which requires drillers to submit records of drilling to the state. These records can be used to learn more about ground water levels. Other legislation which needs support includes funding for a state geological survey and topographic mapping program.

Needed in the near future will be legislation concerning water rights and conflicting interests in water use.

Billings also discussed a new Federal Water Pollution Law, using the River-Bush concept and said that President Lyndon Johnson is interested in water pollution control, encompassing entire river systems. The Huron River Watershed Council, the pilot project of Michigan's Water Resources Law, is established in accordance with President Johnson's theory. Others established in Michigan include the Grand River Watershed Council organized April 20, 1966. Some interest has been shown in establishing watershed councils on the River Raisin and Au Sable. Billings also believes that an important function of river management organizations is in educating and shaping public attitudes to keep public interests in obtainable objectives; things that really need to be done.

Business Opportunities Conference Arranged for District Manufacturers

U. S. Representative Wes Vivian announced this week that he has arranged a 1967 Business Opportunities Conference in Washington for manufacturers in the Second Congressional District who desire to become acquainted with, or better acquainted with, the procedures and current opportunities for business with Federal agencies.

The planned conference is believed to be the first such ever held for Second District businessmen. It will be held on Monday, May 16, in the Science and Astronautics Committee Suite, Rayburn House Office Building.

Top purchasing officials from the General Services Administration, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the Department of Defense, and representatives of the Small Business Administration, will present information on the programs of their respective agencies.

Prior to his election to Congress in 1964, Vivian, the only scientist-engineer with advanced training and research experience ever to serve in the U. S. Congress, was a founder, and, for four years, vice-president of Conduction Corp., of Ann Arbor, an electronics research, development, and manufacturing concern.

"Both from past personal experience with government contract problems, from both sides of the table, and from current experience on the Science and Astronautics Committee of the House of Representatives, I know how difficult it can be for a businessman to be at the right place at the right time, with the right information to submit a winning bid. Some Second District businessmen have done an outstanding job and there by brought increased payoffs and purchasing power to our residents. But all need up-to-date information to compete effectively."

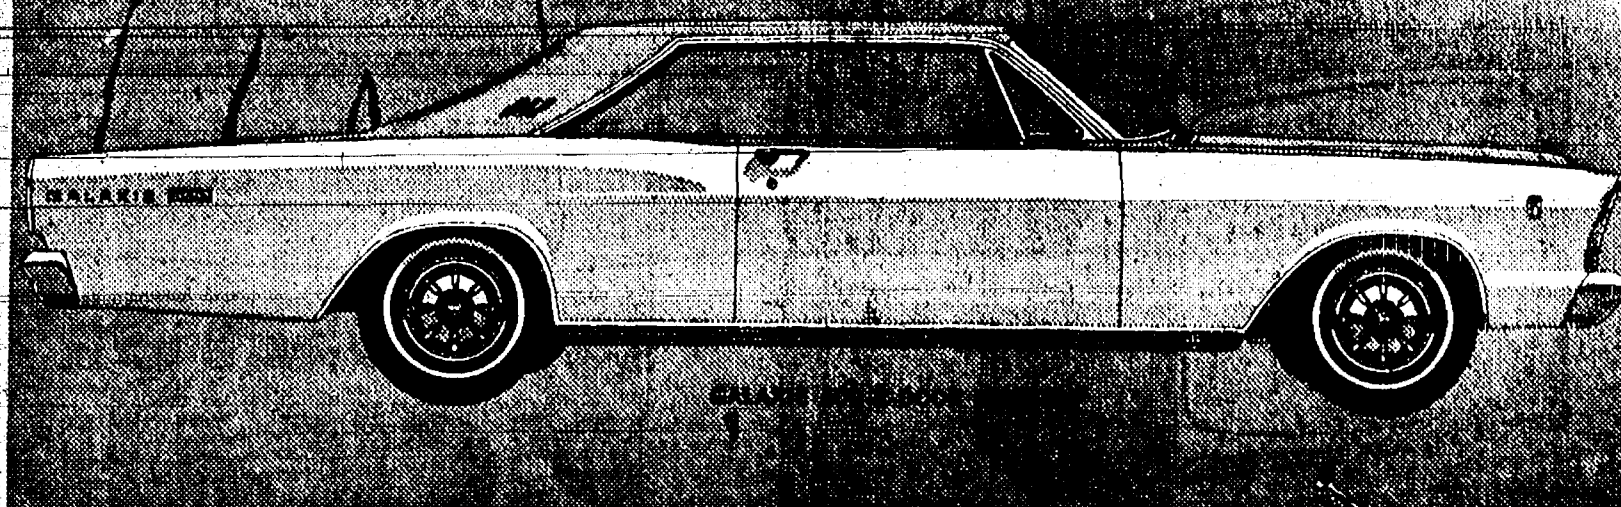

Vivian has sent out invitations to over 500 businessmen and firms from throughout the District (Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe, and Washtenaw counties, plus the Second District portion of Wayne county). The conferences are being invited to attend a morning session starting at 9 a.m., and an afternoon lasting until 5 p.m. A well-known Federal official is expected to speak at the luncheon for the Conference.

"While I have attempted to contact all businesses which I would expect to have an interest in Federal markets," Vivian said, "I welcome any additional interested individuals who inadvertently may have been missed. They should write to me, at the House of Representatives, in Washington, to obtain an invitation."

"Our region of Southeastern Michigan currently is experiencing economic prosperity. But slow seasons no doubt will develop from time to time. If we can provide the same quality and relevance of information to our Second District businessmen, next month, that we were able to provide local public officials last October, at our Second District Community Development Conference, the effort will have been worthwhile. Local community activity stimulated by that conference already is becoming increasingly apparent throughout the District. I hope that the Business Opportunities Conference can produce similar activity and results for our vital business community." Representative Vivian concluded.
