Recreation Basketball Organizing

The Saturday recreation basketball program for boys, sponsored by the Chelsea Area Recreation Commission, will begin a 15-week program on Saturday, Dec. 3.
Richard Bareis, Commission director, announced that three groups will be organized; all to meet between 10 and 12 a.m. for 15 consecutive Saturdays.
The groups include one for fourth and fifth grade boys directed by Terry Pokela, head basketball coach for the Chelsea Bulldogs, and another class for sixth, seventh and eighth grade boys who are not playing on a basketball team. The sixth, seventh and eighth grade boys will be directed by Robert Purcell, Junior Varsity coach. Both groups will meet in the Chelsea High school gymnasium.
A third group for high school boys who are not on a basketball team will meet in the Junior High school gymnasium under the direction of Russell Pichlik.
A registration fee of $1 will be payable at the first session on Dec. 3.
Adult education classes will be organized in January, according to Director Bareis. Anyone with suggestions for possible adult classes is asked to call Bareis either at the Junior High school or at his home.
Tentative plans have been made for adult classes in guitar lessons, modern mathematics for parents, possibly including classes in elementary and advanced modern math, knitting classes, sewing classes, and women and men's physical education classes. A children's ballet class may also be organized.

Library Sets Up Memorial Fund Account

At the regular monthly meeting of McKune Memorial Library Board of Trustees Tuesday, Nov. 15, action was taken to establish a Memorial Fund account which will make possible long-range planning for specific projects which cannot be undertaken through regular budget funds. Up to this time the library has had provision for individual memorial books, and there have been larger memorial funds given in the name of a particular individual when the donors had chosen a specific project. With the setting up of a Memorial Fund Account, contributions may be made in any amount at any time.
Other business considered at the meeting included the discussion of possible plans for observing the 35th anniversary of the establishing of Chelsea's library. The anniversary date is Feb. 28.
Miss Jean Legg, State Library consultant in this area, attended the Board meeting and talked on features of the System Library established for Washtenaw county and the benefits that may be expected from association with a system library.
A gift of a special Listening Library record player with stereo attachment was accepted for the library. A small collection of Talking Book albums is available which have not been widely used because the user must have a record player equipped for 16 rpm speed. This gift will make possible greater use of Talking Books and Listening Library albums.
There will be a special Christmas vacation story hour the week between Christmas and New Year's for all children 12 and under to the regular pre-school story hour held each Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.
McKune Memorial Library will be closed Thanksgiving day.

OVER THE TOP! The Chelsea Community Chest went over the top this year and Don Neß, standing on the stepladder, who served as chairman of the industrial division of the drive, paints the red feather to depict the successful campaign. Dr. Gene Miller, who served as co-chairman of the drive, and Ron Eder, campaign chairman, holding the paint can, expressed pleasure with the results of the drive which exceeded the $19,875 goal by approximately seven percent.

Community Chest Campaign Tops $19,875 Goal by 7 1/2 %

"Over the top by 7 1/2 percent," is the final report of the Chelsea Community Chest chairman, Ron Eder, and co-chairman, Dr. Gene Miller, at the Oct. 17 to Nov. 11 drive. The Chest goal of $19,875 was $2,000 higher than last year's. Of those agencies partially funded by the drive last year, the Washtenaw County Red Cross received $3,300. This allocation enabled the chapter to provide First Aid training to 50 residents of Chelsea. One individual, working with the Recreation Council, was sent to National Aquatic School. Three station wagons, manned by the Volunteer Driver Service, distributed blood and transported children to various clinics.
With the onset of the crises in Southeast Asia, the Red Cross stepped up its family emergency service.
To the servicemen themselves, the Red Cross has sent 392 Christmas bags. Included in this total are all those from Washtenaw county. Further service to men in the armed forces includes the Voice from Home program. By contacting their local Red Cross chapter, families may, without charge, get records to be sent to their relatives overseas.
As a service to area adults, swimming classes have been held from 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. at Ann Arbor High school during fall, winter and spring.
The Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross has offices at 2720 Packard Rd., Ann Arbor. The director is W. de St. Aubin.
The Board of Directors of the Chelsea Community Chest includes chairman, Ron Eder, co-chairman, Dr. Gene Miller, manufacturing, Don Neß, business, George Heylauff, residential, Lauryn White, retail, Art Schiller, organizations, Barbara Duesch, schools, Charles Love, professional, Dr. Bruce Stubbs.

Varsity Cagers Preparing for Dec. 2 Opener

Sports Fans, Parents Invited to 'Get-Acquainted' Practice Tuesday

Fifty-five boys, from grades 9 through 12, came out on Nov. 8 for basketball tryouts at Chelsea High school. After three days of workout, teams were selected by the respective coaches: Terry Pokela, varsity, Bob Purcell, Junior Varsity, Dick Bareis, freshman and Bert Krass, Junior High. According to Coach Pokela, the 1986-87 edition of the Chelsea Bulldogs Varsity team will look like this:
Kim Flintoft, senior, 5'8", guard. Only returning guard on the varsity last year. A good ballhandler and steady performer. Should shoot well this year.
Tom Kern, senior, 6'4", guard. Played on the varsity squad last year but did not earn a letter. Has very good moves when driving. Is either hot or cold in his shooting. Lacks defensive ability and desire, his only major drawback. Otherwise a good performer.
Jeff Hitchingham, senior, 6'4", center. Saw considerable action on the varsity last year after becoming eligible the second semester. Should improve as season progresses. Shoots and drives well. Will be an interesting player to watch.
Wes Stineheffer, senior, 6'4", center. Saw some varsity action last year. This could be Wes' year. Shoots and moves well. Thin, but compensates for this by unorthodox fakes and drives. Rebounding, on the defensive boards, is his only drawback.
Larry Porath, senior, 5'10", forward. Returning varsity member who saw limited action last year. Plays a good defense and shoots well.
Jack Risner, junior, 5'9", guard, forward. The second in scoring last year. Jack shoots well, drives with strength and rebounds well for a boy his size. Plays good defense.
John Lixey, junior, 5'10", forward. Leading scorer and rebounder from last year's JV team. Strong, shoots well. Will probably be a starter this year in right forward position.
Larry Gaken, junior, 5'10", forward. Second in scoring last year on JV. Good shooting touch and moves well into position. Needs some work on defense and rebounding position and timing.
John Freeman, junior, 5'8", guard. A JV starter last year. Strong, dribbles well, shoots well from the outside. Should see considerable action this year.
Jim Pichlik, junior, 6'4", forward. Saw limited JV action last year but has developed well. Has one of best shots on team; quick enough to shoot with balance even when tightly guarded. Led us in rebounding during Milan scrimmage.
Ken Blaess, junior, 5'8", guard. A JV last year who is rapidly developing into a fine ballhandler and play maker.
Craig Houle, sophomore, 5'11", forward. Saw JV action last year. Scored 20 points during Sailing game. Shoots well, rebounds well, reacts quickly. Should develop well.
Probable starters for the Jackson-St. Mary game will be: John Lixey, forward, Craig Houle, forward, Kim Flintoft, guard, Jack Risner or Tom Kern, guard, and Wes Stineheffer, center.
On Nov. 11 the Bulldogs entertained the Milan Big Reds in a scrimmage at the Chelsea High school gymnasium, scoring 68 points to Milan's 75. The Bulldogs shone in the second half though it is evident that the defense still leaves much to be desired. Their rebounding is not yet up to par and ball handling needs some work.
In the third quarter, behind 33 to 19, the team of Lixey, Risner, Houle, Stineheffer and Hitchingham scored 26 points, pulling to within three points of Milan, 45-48. At the quarter break a new team was put on the court and the Milan lead increased once again.
For the scrimmage, Wes Stineheffer led the Chelsea scorers with 15 points and 9 rebounds. John Lixey scored 12 points and 9 rebounds. Jack Risner scored 12 points, Craig Houle, 6 points and 7 rebounds. Kim Flintoft, 4 points, Jim Lyster, 4 points and 10 rebounds. John Freeman, 4 points, Larry Porath, 3 points, Tom Kern and Ken Blaess, 1 point each. Larry Gaken was held scoreless but gathered in 5 rebounds. Chelsea out-rebounded Milan, 62-54.
The first regular season game will be held Dec. 2 at Jackson St. Mary. The Bulldogs will entertain Dundee in the first conference game; Dec. 9. The third game of the season (non-conference) on Dec. 13 will also find the team at home, hosting Stockbridge. On Dec. 16 the Bulldogs will travel to South Lyon. The Christmas tournament is scheduled for Dec. 27, 28 and 30.
On Nov. 20, the Varsity and Junior Varsity will practice at 7 p.m. The public, especially families of team members, is invited. As well as the game, the evening's plans include the introduction of players, discussion of the program and philosophy of Chelsea basketball and a look at basketball rules in general.
The coaching staff at Chelsea High school this year includes the positions of varsity, junior varsity, freshman and junior high coaches. Varsity coach Terry Pokela, a 1961 graduate of the University of WHERE IS THE 11th PLAYER? This mystery was brought to the Standard office last week by an eager football team, minus one, ready to all opposition. The picture is thought to be of Chelsea High school team of 1912, and is believed to have been taken near the old high school building on Park St. Anyone knowing the identification of any of these players, the team record, or other interesting information, is asked to call The Standard office.

FIRST DEER REPORTED to The Chelsea Standard Saturday was by Edward Risner of 5993 Clear Lake Rd., who called The Standard office shortly after 8 a.m. on the opening day of the 1986 deer season for this area. He downed his seventh point buck at 7:36 a.m. in a field near his home. The buck weighed 146 pounds. Also cutting in Saturday morning to report deer kills were Robert Robbins of 405 Grant, who reported shooting a nine-point buck at 7:05 a.m. inside the Chrysler Proving Grounds enclosure, and Thomas Ball of 221 Railroad St., who downed an eight-point buck at 7:10 a.m. on opening day. Ball's 175-pound buck was killed about a mile west of Chelsea just off Cavanaugh Lake Rd. Robbins' buck weighed 175 pounds when dressed out. All three hunters reported being out for less than an hour before finding and slaying their deer. Admiring his father's deer (above) is Henry Risner.

Thanksgiving...

This special day of Thanksgiving is a time when we slow down and give thanks for the many blessings we are more or less aware of all year long but for which we seldom take the time to be truly thankful. High among the many things I have to be thankful for is the friendship, loyalty and co-operation that exists among the 16 of us working together here at Spaulding.

This is the spirit of camaraderie that makes a rather business enjoyable and it is in appreciation of this that I make the following

Stanley Hands Attend Parents' Day Program

At Morningside College

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hand of North Lake have returned home after attending the annual Parents' Day Convocation program on Nov. 11 at Morningside College in Sioux City, Ia. Their son, John is a junior at the school.

Dr. Herbert Stroup, dean of Morningside College, gave an interesting address on the relationship of the generations.

The first presentation of George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man" was presented at the Kline-New Theater on the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Hand attended the play and also had an opportunity to attend the morningside College University of North Dakota football game.

The trip was completed with a sightseeing flight over southern Iowa with John and his roommate, Dennis Johnson, as the pilot.

Mr. and Mrs. Hand won second prize for parents who traveled the furthest distance to attend the Parents' Day activities.

ing as an aide for the program. The Chelsea program is two-fold, according to Rich Fennessy, who is the program director. The program's first purpose is to distribute information on available services. The second purpose is to provide contraceptive supplies, including all medically approved birth control methods. The Planned Parenthood organization makes these supplies available free to low-income women but a fee is determined by a sliding scale based on income and number of dependents, is charged for those who can afford to pay.

All patients receiving contraceptive devices also receive a pelvic examination and a pap smear test for cancer. The examinations given since the OEO grant was received in July have detected several serious ailments. Those patients have been referred to their family doctors for treatment.

The voluntary program is available to all women over 21 as well as many other women. Anyone interested in obtaining more information should call the Ann Arbor Planned Parenthood office.

Free services are available for families who have approximately $80 per week in take home pay for a family of four, with an additional $10 per week for each additional dependent.

The celebration of our Thanksgiving Day should be one of gratitude and humility of spirit. As Americans we are blessed. A happy Thanksgiving to you!

EXTRA PROJECTS

As the school year progresses, underclassmen at CHS have found themselves doing more and more homework. Many unique class projects have taken much of their spare time.

Freshmen English classes are preparing themselves for a play review which is due by the end of the first semester. Sophomores taking biology have taken up birdwatching. Juniors have two English teachers, Mr. LaGoe, the regular teacher, and Mrs. Jack Weinmann, student teacher from the University of Michigan. Class projects on top of homework assignments have made students at CHS very studious recently.

The image of CHS students—teen-agers spending spare time birdwatching—is only partly accurate. Most of them are doing these things, but not because regular studies are being ignored or getting easier. Students are spending as much time with regular studies as ever before, and, pleasingly to parents, most of them are taking class projects out of spare leisure time instead of time for regular studies.

ENGLISH CLASSES

The senior English classes are all involved in special projects at this time in addition to their regular six weeks' requirements such as journals and book reviews.

Mrs. Stock's senior English classes have been reading these Shakespearean plays: first hour, Macbeth; third hour, Tempest; and seventh hour, Merchant of Venice. Discussion of these plays is implemented by complete recordings of the plays by professional actors, by movies of the Globe Theater, and by movies dealing with the understanding of drama.

Mrs. Stock's sixth hour class has been reading novels with themes dealing with universal problems; currently they are reading Hurray for Me by S. J. Wilson.

Miss Brown's senior English classes are involved in writing a 10-page essay about a short story author. The students each chose an author, and, upon Miss Brown's approval, they began writing their critical analysis. Since each student was required to read at least 15 short stories written by his chosen author, Miss Brown expects the results to be quite complete and effective.

Mr. LaGoe's seventh hour senior English class is currently studying Shakespeare's Macbeth, implemented by a complete recording of the play by professional actors. Besides daily discussions, the students write paraphrases and essays to aid them in their understanding of the play.

When in doubt about a controversial subject, keep quiet.

They arrived in Cedarville in time for a reception on Sunday Nov. 13, honoring Shoberg on his 90th birthday given by the Bethel Lutheran church in Cedarville. Shoberg was 90 on Nov. 4. Also attending the open house were two of Mrs. Steinbach's brothers, Tigner of Pickford and Conrad of Cedarville.

Martin also brought back a 160-pound seven-point buck which he shot on Marquette Island.

Mrs. Bertha Horning and sister, Clara Eschelbach from Pleasant Lake, spent Sunday with their brother, Rudolph Eschelbach, and Mrs. Gladys Sharp.

Classes Slated In Foreman Development

An adult education class in foreman development will begin Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 8 p.m. at Chelsea High school. The class will meet in room 117.

The 12-week course is being offered through the vocational education department of the Chelsea-Dexter-Manchester tri-school program and is open to anyone in the area who is interested, according to Ted Blake, director of the tri-school program. This includes persons who are presently foremen or prospective foremen. There are no course requirements. The fee is $40 for the course plus a small amount to cover the cost of the room.

DeWayne Peihl, a doctoral candidate in management at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, will teach the course.

The course will be divided into three parts, including the functions of management, human relations and management-labor relations. The functions of management will include a look at the manager's job, including the need for policies and procedures, planning and organizing and the need for developing and controlling. This portion of the course will also include organization and the delegation of authority and responsibility, maintaining a chain of command, and the need for flexibility in the chain of command.

Human relations, the topic of the second portion of the course, will include communications with the boss, with the employees, how to give favorable orders, the need for co-operation, planning and control, motivating people to work and effective supervision.

Management - Labor Relations, the third section of the class will discuss dealing with unions, discipline, gripes and grievances, and morale.

Several of the large area factories have indicated that they will be sending employees to the class. Enrollment is not limited, however, and Blake emphasized that anyone interested in the class may enroll.

U-M Study Puts Much of Drop-Out Blame on Schools

Ann Arbor — American high schools could eliminate a large part of the drop-out problem by altering their approach to students, their record-keeping, and their curricula, states a comprehensive report prepared by the University of Michigan School of Social Work.

The report is based on a three-year study of Ann Arbor High School and four other southeastern Michigan schools, one in a large metropolitan area, one in a suburban area, one in a rural town and one in a small industrial city.

The study was sponsored by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and the President's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency. The research program was conducted by Dr. Robert D. Vinter, associate dean of the School of Social Work; Dr. Rosemary Sarri, associate professor of social work, and a team composed of 12 U-M faculty members and graduate students and nine school social workers attached to the districts studied.

"The most basic need is for better record-keeping and better record utilization," says Vinter. "The other problems are intimately related with the quality and use of pupil and school records."

"An adequate information system," the Vinter-Sarri report states, "would entail the full exploitation and use of basic information already being collected. At the same time it is recorded for file entry, this information would be routinely processed for monitoring and evaluation purposes. Simple analysis procedures would allow simultaneous feedback of appropriate types of information to teaching personnel, to school administrators, and to policy-makers."

Present school records, Vinter says, are centered on the individual pupil file, with little or no correlation to discover patterns within the school system itself.

"Feedback," he says, "would allow school personnel to note patterns otherwise unknown, to identify school practices and pupil characteristics contributing to academic achievement or failure, and to locate issues which deserve further study."

"The cost of improving the present system in these directions is estimated to be minimal, since its main features are already in use," the report says. "The elements of an expanded processing and feedback or reporting plan must be devised. This calls for readily available technical assistance, inexpensive mechanized procedures, and modest secretarial effort."

Another main problem that hinders partially on record-keeping is the maintenance of multiple curricular "tracks" in secondary schools, Vinter says.

Breaking the tracks down into college preparatory and general categories, the Vinter-Sarri report finds many inequalities in student placement and treatment between the two curricula.

"Records that reflect mainly unfavorable information about the pupil, with little or no compulsory recording of favorable data, tend to encourage the placement of students in the lower track because of other than objective criteria."

Vinter said. "Because the record system is 'loaded' to favor pupils of middle-class background possessing social skills, the general curriculum tends to get more pupils from working-class families, regardless of their I.Q. levels, reading ability, and motivations."

"Once in the general curriculum," he continued, "the student is further discriminated against because different grading standards are used between the curricula. His opportunity to get better grades, independent of his academic performance, is diminished."

"A substantial portion of the drop-out and malperformance problem could be eliminated," Vinter says, "by upgrading the general curriculum to increase its status in the eyes of students and teachers and its absolute value, and by equalizing the opportunity to receive higher grades between the two curricula. There also should be far greater mobility between the curricula. At present a student is 'locked in' by the ninth grade and his chances of changing from the general to the college-preparatory curriculum are slight, no matter how good his grades and performance. There is even less mobility from the college-preparatory to the general curriculum, no matter how bad a student's grades or performance."

The Vinter-Sarri study also indicated a need for revision of present high school rewards and sanction systems to provide greater "positive reinforcement" for students who improve their grades and performance.

"The existing system tends to give the student negative reinforcement," said Dr. Sarri. "Poor performance is faithfully punished while there is far less reward for good performance."

As part of the three-year study groups of students who had been identified by teachers and school officials as "malperformers" were placed in special groups that received positive reinforcements for small improvements in study and social skills and classroom performance. The special treatment groups showed significant improvement over similar groups of malperforming students who did not receive the group sessions.

"Students are well aware of the vagaries of the system," said Vinter, "and they react accordingly, often with hopelessness. The system tends now to be loaded against the student who makes a mistake. I feel that the emphasis should be in the opposite direction."

Copies of the Vinter-Sarri report have been given to the Ann Arbor Board of Education and to officials of the other four schools studied. The results and recommendations also are being made available to educators nationally.

"This situation is not peculiar to Ann Arbor or to the other districts we studied," Vinter said. "These schools were chosen precisely because they are exemplary of the national norm, rather than exceptions to the rule."

Complete Records Will Help Speed Wool Applications

Producers were reminded today of the importance of supporting their applications for payment under the wool program with full and accurate information and sales records.

Earl Doletsky, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said that specific information is needed in filling out the application forms. While all applications are reviewed before they are approved for payment, they can be handled more quickly if they contain complete necessary information and are supported by the necessary sales documents.

For instance, program payments are made on short wool sales by the applicant during the marketing year, provided the wool on which he is applying for payment was shorn for sheep or lambs when the applicant has owned for at least 30 days. There is need to supply the sales document in support of the application for payment, and the producer should maintain records verifying the 30-day ownership in case such verification is needed. The applicant also reports whether any of the wool on which payment is claimed is the first shearing from lambs that he purchased unshorn.

Payments apply only to wool produced and sold by the applicant; therefore, payments should not be claimed on wool purchased by the applicant.

Payments are also made under the program on unshorn lambs which the applicant has owned at least 30 days. A full report supported by records on these purchases of unshorn lambs is necessary since the lamb payments are prorated among the producers who have owned the lambs for the necessary length of time. Payments on unshorn lambs owned for less than 30 days should not be claimed.

The chairman reminds producers that applications for the 1966 marketing (calendar) year payments under the National Wool Act may be filed with the ASAC county office anytime but at least by the end of January, 1967.

Payments on sales during the 1966 marketing year are completed in Washington county and amounted to $75,341.54.

Council Room

Regular Session.

This meeting was called to order by Pres. Baldwin at 8:00 p.m. Invocation by the Rev. Warner Siebert of the St. Paul United Church of Christ. Trustees present: Bollinger, Chapman, Groch, Schinble, and Weber. Trustees absent: Storey. The Minutes of the Regular Session of October 28, 1966 were read and approved.

A public hearing was held regarding the council decision to vacate, discontinue and abandon a strip of land along the northern edge of Monroe Street, approximately 3 1/2 feet in width and 350 feet long extending west from Hayes Street.

Mr. Edmund Picklesimer voiced an objection to the proposed vacation of the strip of land. Mr. Picklesimer feels that 3 1/2 feet removed from the present 17 1/2 feet will be a detriment to the access of property owned by him, which is located to the west of the ASEC Plant. Mr. Picklesimer was assured that the remaining roadway will be maintained and will be serviceable at all times.

RESOLUTION FOR VACATION OF STREET

WHEREAS, the Chelsea Village Council at a regular meeting held Oct. 4, 1966, adopted a resolution vacating, discontinuing, and abandoning the area hereinafter described, as a public street; and

WHEREAS, by said resolution the said village council appointed November 1, 1966 at 8:00 o'clock p.m. at the Chelsea Village Council rooms, Chelsea, Michigan, as the time and place where it would meet and hear objections there to; and

WHEREAS, the said resolution was published in the Chelsea Standard once prior to November 1, 1966, as the statute in such case provides, and that no written objections to the said proposed action were filed with the village clerk;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, that the following portion of Monroe Street be vacated, discontinued and abandoned as a public street of public highway:

Commencing at the intersection of the centerline of Michigan Central Railroad right-of-way with the centerline of Hayes Street in the northwest quarter of Section Twelve (12), Town Two (2) South, Range Three (3) East, Village of Chelsea, Washtenaw County, Michigan; thence north 19° 00' west 68.00 feet along the centerline of Hayes Street; FOR A PLACE OF BEGINNING; thence south 70° 51' 30" west 345.00 feet parallel with the centerline of said railroad; thence south 3.50 feet; thence north 70° 51' 30" west 345.00 feet; thence south 19° 00' east 3.50 feet along the centerline of Hayes Street to the place of beginning, being a part of the northwest quarter of said Section 12, subject to the right of the public over the easterly 24.75 feet thereof, as occupied by Hayes Street.

The said area being only a portion of Monroe Street and being adjacent to lands presently owned by ASEC, Inc., and since said lands vacated will revert to said abutting owner, the costs of these proceedings and the cost of moving any utility structures will be paid by ASEC.

Motion by Chapman, supported by Schinble, to adopt the above Resolution for Vacation of Street as read. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

A discussion was held with Mr. Ted Newcomb of 704 S. Main Street regarding a problem with his driveway. Trustee Bollinger was instructed to assist Mr. Newcomb in this regard.

Police Chief John Palmer reported that the proposed island at Old US-12 and M-52 should be constructed in the near future. Plans have been submitted to the County for their approval and concurrence.

Motion by Schinble, supported by Chapman, to authorize payment of $8.50 in delinquent taxes, which are listed as uncollectible by the Washtenaw County Treasurer. Payment will be made to the County Treasurer and will in turn be paid back to the Village. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Members of the Village Planning Commission attended the council meeting. A report was given by the Commission President, Dr. Joseph Fisher regarding a special meeting held with the Michigan Dept. of Commerce members from the State. Preliminary application has been made for 701 funds; and the Commission is proceeding with plans to interview planning consultants for possible assistance in the overall planning of the Chelsea area.

The village council was contacted by the Community Chest requesting permission for payroll deductions for Village employees. Approval was given to the Clerk and the Chelsea Elc. & Water Dept. to make such deductions as may be authorized by any individual village employee.

Motion by Chapman, supported by Bollinger, to authorize and direct the clerk to issue checks in payment of bills as submitted. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

4-H Knitting Leaders Will Attend Workshop

Nov. 30 is the date for a 4-H Knitting Workshop to be held in Ann Arbor.

Clothing and Knitting leaders from Lenawee, Monroe, Washtenaw and Wayne counties will attend. The workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Ruth Rohm of Renat Woolen Mills; she will be assisted by yarn dealers in the area.

The workshop begins at 10 a.m. and continues until 4 p.m. and members are asked to bring sack lunches. The Arborland Community Room is the site.

Techniques of knitting as well as information on project planning, selection of materials and washing and blocking of garments will be discussed.

The County 4-H office in Ann Arbor may be contacted for further information, or call 663-7511 Ext. 227.

One reason that Americans won't go Communist is that when they hear the shout "Workers Arise" they think it's time for the coffee break.

Guests attended from Lima, Pinckney, Algonquin, Columbus, O., Ann Arbor, Lansing, Munith, Grass Lake, Chelsea and Stockbridge.

The couple will be home to friends at 10195 Parks Rd., Grass Lake.

Club and Social Activities

VFW AUXILIARY
Mrs. William Bishop of Allen Park, state president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign War, will make her official visit to the Sixth District on Nov. 27, in Lansing.

Mrs. Bishop became a member of the Daughters of the VFW 20 years ago, and has been a member of the Ladies Auxiliary since 1946. She is currently the deputy city clerk of Allen Park and is the mother of two children. Mrs. Bishop has selected Americanism, Patriotism and Loyalty as her motto and is asking auxiliaries throughout the state to stress Americanism during her term of office.

Those attending from Chelsea Auxiliary 4076 will be Mrs. Kenneth Platt, president; Mrs. Wayne Harvey, Mrs. Fred Klink Sr., Mrs. Mac Packard, Mrs. Vera Heim, and Mrs. Ray Franklin.

VIVIAN OTTO CIRCLE
The Vivian Otto Circle of the First Methodist church went to the home of Mrs. Leigh Palmer for their Nov. 16 meeting, with Mrs. Loren Turner assisting.

Mrs. Arthur Schmunk, chairman of the group, opened the meeting with an appropriate poem for the season and detailed the program for the coming month. Many projects were discussed.

Mrs. Ben Donaldson gave a brief report of her trip to the United Nations church center, in the interest of the seminar of the women's division of the Methodist church.

A Thanksgiving program followed, posing many interesting thoughts. The meeting closed with timely devotions by Elaine Miller.

A handclasp prayer followed. The Dec. 14 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Alan Conklin.

Sugar beets build up heat and loose sugar while piled up waiting for processing. Michigan State University scientists are working on a method to cool the beets to about 35-40 degrees, and save Michigan growers and processors one million dollars yearly.

TIPS for your TOP from

TODDY and FRAN

Once upon a time there was a newspaper woman whose editor called to send her on an important assignment. "I can't," she said to herself. "My hair is a mess; I'd be so embarrassed." But she added, "I must. I've no valid excuse not to go." Loosely she jumped in her car, backed madly out of the driveway and into a tree. She went back inside, called a sweeper and smiled. "At least I don't have to go out looking like this." You may not subconsciously back into a tree to avoid going out with your hair below par—but are you sure it can't happen here? Is it worth the risk? Make a standing appointment with us and always be prepared.

SUNDAY'S SERMON
GRATITUDE
If you find yourself faced with a momentary disappointment, count your blessings. Think of all the things you have to be happy about. Recount, if you can, the many times that fortune has smiled upon you and things have gone your way. Do this, and you will find some reason to be thankful. You will realize that you have seldom—or never—offered a prayer of thanks and appreciation. Be grateful for your many blessings. Count them, think about them, and you will not have so much time to brood over a few little things that turn out wrong. Do not expect too much of God. Do not look for miracles for instant solutions to problems. Remember only that God does not forsake you and no matter how difficult things may seem to be, they will only become worse if you forsake God.

Michigan State University clothing specialists say clothing researchers are working on a one-step process of making fabric by spraying fibers. If this process is perfected, it will eliminate spinning and weaving of fabrics. Clothing is also being genuinely "washed" through a durable press process.

Police Urge Extra Care on Holiday Trip

Chief of Police John Palmer today predicted heavy traffic on highways during the Thanksgiving week-end and pledged the full co-operation of the Chelsea police department in keeping traffic flowing smoothly and in protecting responsible drivers from those whose careless ways of driving cause accidents involving others.

"All drivers must accept their share of the responsibility," he continued, "and that responsibility starts long before the motorist slides behind the wheel of his car."

The chief offered these planning tips for Thanksgiving trips: A pre-winter check-up and mechanic's inspection for your car is a must. Winter driving demands the most from your vehicle—and brings out the worst if the car is not in top condition.

Think, too, about the emergency equipment that should go into the trunk as well as the family belongings—a dependable jack and lug wrench; sharp sand or metal traction mats; a shovel; booster cables; a tow chain; a good set of reinforced tire chains; and emergency lighting equipment (lantern, warning reflectors and/or flares).

And keep your eye on the weather. It's the most unpredictable thing about this time of year. Chief Palmer reminded Thanksgiving travelers: "Cancel your trip if the weather threatens," the chief advised. "You may not wind up a hero with the family, but you will end up safe and comfortable at home."

LOW TOWEL
To make it easy for young children to dry their hands on towels, snap the towels over low rods in the bathroom. Attach gripper-type snaps to each end of the towel, then the towel won't slide off the rod.

AFRICAN VIOLETS
For success with African violets give them some morning sun during winter. Water them by setting your violets in porous clay pots in a deep pan or tray and fill this with water each day until the surface of the pot feels moist to the touch. The capillary action of the clay pot automatically draws water from below.

Just A Minute . . .
By the Rev. James A. Craig
It's a uniquely American holiday. Thanksgiving. Other nations sometimes have something similar but it has come to belong really to us. Some people will go to church. Others will watch parades of football games. That's the way it is anymore. Not that that's bad in a way it's a mark of how well we stand in the world and how little we seem to worry about the things the pilgrims didn't have. If there is any problem at all with being that well off it's that the quality of life brought by Thanksgiving is in serious danger. You know what I mean? When Jesus told his hearers not to worry about what they ate or drank it was because there often wasn't enough. We give it no thought because there is plenty. As a result appreciation for the very abundance is lost in ritual table prayers and Friday indigestion. There's cause enough for Thanksgiving today. Food is just one of them. The chance to share that food is another. We can do it through denominational agencies of the Church or through inter-denominational agencies like Church World Service. We can do it through non-denominational agencies like CARE. There's lots of opportunity for you to share one reason for your Thanksgiving. And in doing it find once more the quality of spirit that enriches the day.

Before you buy the "gas line," ask yourself this.

Which is more modern—oil heat or gas?

The answer may surprise you. Oil and gas are equally modern. Their equipment looks alike and performs alike. Their efficiency is rated equal by the Public Housing Administration. There's only one difference. You save the cost of converting to gas.

If you want to modernize, you'll save with oil. New Standard Oil Hot Line Heating Service has AMOCO® Sta-Warm equipment that matches any made-gas or electric. And you don't have to pay for a "gas line." Call Hot Line for the facts.

Now more than ever—

You expect more from Standard and you get it!

Don't buy the "gas line" until you call Hot Line.
