Dexter Defeats Bulldogs in Tourney Play

District Tournament Will Continue Friday with Dexter vs. Willow Run

In the first game of District 18 tournament play the Dexter Bulldogs upset the Chelsea Bulldogs by the score of 82-62 Thursday night at Chelsea.

It was a hard-fought game as Dexter was held to a 12-12 tie at the end of the first quarter before they hung up a 31-21 half lead.

The second half belonged to Dexter as the Bulldogs outscored the Bulldogs 32 to 31.

In the first half the Chelsea Bulldogs had some difficulty shooting but Dexter zone defense kept them from getting into the paint. The Bulldogs scored 10 points in the second quarter. Jack Risner and John Lixey kept the Bulldogs in the game with their scoring.

The second half was marked by a series of mass substitutions. Chelsea started the half with two junior varsity players, Roy Holiday and Lance Burghardt, both sophomores, and continued to substitute freely from there.

Leading the second half resurgence for Chelsea were Lixey, guards Ken Blass and John Freeman, sophomore forward Mike Schmidt, up from the JV squad, and center Jeff Hitchingham.

The Bulldogs displayed a never-say-die attitude, even when Dexter moved into a 20-point lead at one time in the third quarter. Constant hustle was evident as every player gave all he had toward winning the game for Chelsea.

But the Dexter lead was too much to overcome and the Bulldogs finished the season with a dismal 2-17 record.

Boys playing their final game for Chelsea were Jeff Hitchingham, who hit for 7 points, Kim Pirofski, Larry Porath and Wes Stinehelfer.

Returnees for next year are juniors John Lixey who had 11 points, Jack Risner with 14, Larry Gaken, John Freeman, Ken Blass, and Jim Lyerla.

Sophomores returning are Craig Houle, Mike Schmidt, who hit for 7 points, Lance Burghardt, Larry Blackwell and Roy Holiday.

Prospects for next season look promising, varsity coach Terry Pokela says.

Saline Ends Long Season for Bulldogs

After jumping off to a quick 1-1 first quarter lead the Saline Bulldogs ended the Chelsea Bulldogs' season in a game played last night at Saline.

The game ended the regular season for both clubs. As a result of a victory Saline moved into a berth in the Southwestern Conference championship playoffs.

Chelsea, meanwhile, fell to the bottom of the league, by themselves with a 1-1 record.

In the game Friday night Saline's offense and defense clicked. Saline's Bulldogs scored 44 points, Jack Risner and John Lixey.

Frank E. Abdon was honored Sunday at a party celebrating his 80th birthday. He lives with his wife at 447 Railroad St.

Children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the couple gathered at the Abdon home. Two cakes were beautifully decorated for the celebration, one for Mr. Abdon and the other for Robin Wright, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Wright and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Abdon.

Mr. Abdon received many gifts.

McKune Memorial Library will celebrate its 35th anniversary Friday evening, March 3, with an open house given by Chelsea Woman's Club and Friends of the Library. Mrs. George Walworth, who was librarian for 30 years and has also contributed many volunteer hours to the library, and Mrs. Edwin Eaton, right, who has worked to support the library since its founding both through the Woman's Club and as a village library board trustee, discuss plans for the celebration with the present librarian, Mrs. Albert Sannes. The library was founded in 1932 by the Chelsea Woman's Club.

McKune Memorial Library Observing 35th Anniversary

Friday evening March 3 McKune Memorial Library will celebrate its 35th anniversary with an open house for all families of the Chelsea area, from 7-9 p.m. Refreshments will be served and many special events are planned.

Mrs. George Walworth, former librarian, will be in the historical room to explain its contents. There will be an art display of work done in the Chelsea public schools. Former story ladies will serve refreshments to children in the children's room.

Mrs. Albert Sannes, librarian, is planning a special book display.

Chelsea's public library was founded in 1932 by the group then known as Chelsea Child Study Club. In 1948 the club changed its name to Woman's Club of Chelsea.

In January of 1952 the late Winifred Palmer was appointed head of a committee to investigate the possibility of starting a library in Chelsea.

The library began its life in the store owned by the Palmer family. They donated the store, which now houses the William Rademacher law offices on E. Middle St., to the library.

The library was started with 22 donated books and 100 loaned from the state library. The struggling library was entirely staffed by volunteer help. The Chelsea Child Study Club supported the library from its founding in February 1932 until it became tax supported in 1938.

In 1938 the library moved to the upstairs front room in the Chelsea State Bank building. The library budget in these early days was approximately $200 per year, in contrast to the 1967 budget of $9,000.

In 1938 the village council was petitioned to make the library a tax-supported institution. In March a proposal for a one-half mill levy for the library passed by one vote. Since 1938 the library has been fully tax supported, but members of the founding club have continued to volunteer services and the club has given annual gifts to the library.

In 1958 Mrs. E. J. McKune died, leaving her home, known as the McKune House, to the village to be used for a public library with the name McKune Memorial Library. $16,000 was raised to make necessary alterations and on June 29, 1959 the library books and furniture were moved to the McKune House by the Jaycees.

Since that time a room, gift of the W. R. Daniels family, has been added to the building for adult fiction.

The library is now financed by a one-half mill tax on village property by a small amount from the state, $1,300 from penal fines and by gifts from townships using the library services.

McKune Memorial Library is administered by an elected board of six trustees and is helped by a Friends of the Library organization.

Professional Helpers Engaged by Village Planning Commission

Acting Police Chief May Be OK'd Tuesday

Village President Don Baldwin said this week that he has made a decision on appointment of an acting police chief, although the appointment is subject to approval by the village council.

Council is expected to approve Baldwin's appointment, March 7. "We have someone we have talked to him and he is going to accept the job," Baldwin said.

John Palmer, who has been Chelsea's police chief for eight and a half years, will leave the department March 15 to take a position as director of Civil Defense for Washtenaw county. He said last week that he still plans to live in Chelsea, although his new office will be in Ann Arbor.

Baldwin also said that out of 14 applications for patrolman screened Saturday, four "very good" ones have been selected and are now being processed by the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department. The four will then be interviewed, probably this week-end, he said.

"We plan now to hire three of these men," Baldwin said, "and that will give us a four-man police department, which we consider full strength." The men should be hired within the next two or three weeks, he added.

Baldwin said that because of the controversy surrounding the resignation of Patrolman Clyde Myers and Chief Palmer the council had asked Michigan Municipal League for a survey of police salaries in towns in the state with a population between 3,000 and 7,000. Chelsea's salary scale was the third highest in the state according to the survey, Baldwin said.

Three-Year Work Program Aimed At Preparation of Master Plan

The Chelsea Village Planning Commission has selected a professional planning consultant and approved a proposed work program for the first year of the contract and tentative second and third year work programs.

The selected firm, Parkins, Rogers & Associates, Inc., of Detroit, submitted a cost estimate for the first year of $6,800. This will cover preparation of a base map, a determination of "community objectives, policies and standards," a community attitude survey, a review of published reports and studies, a field survey and a five-part land use study.

A major aim over the three-year period will be the preparation of a master plan, or a comprehensive development plan for the village. The program for the third year also includes a comprehensive revision of the village zoning ordinance.

The planning commission met during January with several planning firms from the area. Two of the consultants were asked to return to the commission in February with detailed plans and cost estimates for work to be done during the first year of a contract and tentative plans and cost estimates for second and third year programs.

Geor Associates was the other planning firm asked to submit a detailed first year program and cost estimates.

In addition to conducting proposed studies and preparing necessary materials, the professional consultant will advise the planning commission on specific zoning questions and other immediate planning decisions.

In presenting the proposal for the first year's work to the planning commission, Brandon M. Rogers, executive vice-president of Parkins, Rogers & Associates stated:

"We envision our first year's work as the most crucial in the entire planning program. Goals and objectives will be determined, working procedures established, sub-committees formed of members of the commission, field surveys conducted, and a sound public relations program for planning created so as to enlist citizen cooperation and understanding. The exact nature of this work, time schedule, completion of reports, and length of number of meetings are likely to vary depending upon the involvement of the commission, the number of meetings requested by civic, PTA or service clubs, and the demands for rezoning, subdivision plat approval or building permits generated by the village's planning program."

Rogers, who holds a Master of City Planning (MCP) degree from Harvard Graduate School of Design, will be the manager of the firm in charge of planning for Chelsea. He will be assisted by John K. Anderson, senior planner and director of the planning division of the firm.

The first-year studies are aimed at a thorough examination of the factors and trends which will influence growth in the Chelsea community, Rogers said.

He explained that as soon as a contract with the planning commission was approved, base mapping and research studies could begin immediately, and field work would begin in April, Mr. Rogers said.

Denny Tallant Observes 92nd Birthday with 'Business as Usual'

"I really don't know what a boss I've always been my own boss. That might have something to do with it."

Denny Tallant was explaining how to be 92 and enjoy every minute of it.

"I'm really a shoe man," Denny said. "For 20 years I've been selling Knapp shoes in this area, and I still have a lot of customers. I'm not like the old days, though. Denny, who was born in Canfield, Ohio, to be exact, used to be a "commercial traveling" shoe salesman, the retail sale. Every year he and the other commercial travelers would make two trips west to the coast, traveling by train and horse and buggy. Major stops were at places like Calgary, Edmonton, Regina, Winnipeg, Vancouver and Victoria. He lived in London, Ont., then. "I'd be gone for three months at a time, taking orders in all the western towns. We traveled mostly by train and trains weren't the same then as they are now. Old wooden coaches, mostly, and when the wind came down from the mountains, you could feel it. "When we got to a town I'd take my trunk of samples and stay in the best hotel. The dealers would come up and choose what they wanted for next season."

Towns not on the railroad were reached by horse and buggy. In those days the broad Canadian prairie was pretty wild, Denny says, and they would always see a lot of coyotes and bears.

He was in the middle of two bad train wrecks and escaped both without a scratch. After one of the accidents, in Alberta, it was three days before another train could get through to pick up the passengers.

General Beach Earns Sesquicentennial Award From Alma Mater U-M

General Dwight D. Beach, commander in chief of the U.S. 8th Army, is one of the 84 persons cited as distinguished alumni of the University of Michigan who will receive the Sesquicentennial Award in ceremonies during the alumni celebration this week.

Recipients of the award, a medalion and certificate, will be honored at a dinner Friday, March 3, in the Michigan League Ballroom. Presentations of the award will be made by University President Harlan Hatcher.

The Sesquicentennial Award, in celebration of the University's 150th anniversary, is presented to alumni and others whose lives have exemplified the Sesquicentennial theme of "Knowledge, Wisdom and the Courage to Serve."

Beach is a Chelsea native and has made frequent visits here in recent years.

Easter Seal Sale Now Underway

The annual sale of Easter Seals for the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults will be sponsored locally by Kiwanis Club of Chelsea, with Paul F. Niehus as chairman for the sale.

Beta Sigma Phi sorority has assisted by stuffing envelopes and more than 2,000 of these have already been mailed.

The Washtenaw county chapter of the society as no paid executives of any kind and the only way of raising money is through this mailing of Easter Seals once a year, Niehus said.

The Easter Seal society provides wheelchairs, hospital beds, crutches, braces and other appliances for crippled children and adults, and also offers camps and other recreational and social activities.

The society provides occupational therapy to the homebound and, in cooperation with other agencies, provides vocational counseling leading to employment. Transportation to clinics, schools and hospitals is furnished.

The society serves crippled children and adults regardless of race, creed, cause of crippling or ability to pay.

Three Persons Injured Monday on Icy Roads

Three persons were injured Monday in accidents near Chelsea on icy roads.

Washtenaw county sheriff's deputies reported that Judy L. Bollinger, 19, of 2811 Peckins Rd., was injured when her car skidded out of control and into the path of a car driven by Paul G. Fouts, 39, of Jackson, on M-24 near I-94. Both drivers said that they would seek private medical attention for minor injuries.

In another accident Monday on I-94, Tracy Cadwallader, 16, of Jackson, was taken to Chelsea Medical Clinic after she was injured when the car in which she was a passenger went out of control, crashing through a guard rail and rolling down an embankment. Driver of the car was Cheryl P. Brandyberry, 17, also of Jackson.

Pfc. Terry Tison Home On Visit Before Leaving for Vietnam

Pfc. Terry Tison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tison, 50 Cavanaugh Lake, has finished paratrooper training at Ft. Benning, Ga., and is now home spending a week with his parents.

He will report March 7 to San Francisco for duty in Vietnam.

STATE CHAMPS: This hot-shooting, fast-moving Chelsea Jaycees team captured the 1967 state Jaycees basketball tournament trophy last Saturday at Clawson. They claim there isn't a sore muscle in the crowd, but the team played five games Saturday to clinch the championship. Of course, they had a chance to get in condition Feb. 18 when they took the District 26 tournament trophy on the court.

Jaycees Win State Title In Basketball Tournament

The state Jaycees basketball trophy came home last Saturday with the team from Chelsea after they won five games in one day. The tournament was played at Clawson.

Chelsea started the day at 10:30 a.m. when the local Jaycees team clashed with Otisville. A strong defense and balanced scoring attack by the Chelsea team was too much for Otisville. The final score was 65-55.

The second game played immediately after the first, was against Melvindale, and that team gave the Chelsea Jaycees their toughest battle of the day. Chelsea managed a 69-54 victory to turn away Melvindale's chance for the trophy.

After a lunch break the Chelsea team met Clawson, the host team, and defeated them, 68-50.

At the beginning of the semi-finals Jackson defeated Grandville, 70-52, for a chance at the championship. Chelsea's tough free throw shooting helped defeat Jackson, 73-47. The Jaycees from Chelsea sank 28 of 36 attempts from the free throw line. After the semi-finals, Chelsea was set to challenge Jackson for the championship.

The first quarter of the championship game was close, with Chelsea leading, 14 to 12. By half-time Chelsea led, 38-28. The second half belonged to Chelsea, and the final score in the championship game was Chelsea 80, Jackson 40.

Chelsea Jaycees racked up a point total for the day of 344, in contrast to their opponents' 235.

Twenty-four Jaycees teams from all parts of the state were entered in the tournament.

Understanding your HEALTH

Have you ever wondered why you see the word "iodized" on so many containers of table salt? Well, it's all about a condition known as "iodine deficiency."

Simple iodine is a serious enlargement of the thyroid gland, located in the front of the neck. The cause of the disease is a deficiency of iodine in the diet. Prevention is equally simple—adding iodine in small amounts to table salt.

Before iodized salt came on the market this goiter condition was so common in our state that it was referred to as "Michigan disease." Unfortunately, the soil and water of Michigan are naturally deficient in iodine content, so people just don't get enough iodine from their normal diet. Because of this deficiency, simple goiter was a serious problem here back in the 1920's.

The state health department and the state medical society joined forces in 1924 and got salt manufacturers to add a little iodine to their product—thus creating iodized salt. Then, after much public education to use the new salt, the incidence of goiter fell drastically in Michigan.

However, the battle is still not over, because recent studies

Bill Written To Prohibit Glue Sniffing

Area residents will be interested to know that a bill (HB 2008) written by Reps. Suski, et al., has been referred for consideration to the Legislative Committee on Public Safety.

The bill forbids the purchase by minors of model glue which gives off toxic vapors, except when said minor has in possession the written permission of his parent or guardian.

It further outlaws "sniffing," such glue to minors, and provides that violation of the (proposed) act is a misdemeanor.

Dexter Police recently discovered glue sniffing going on within the village limits.

Another bill (SB 61) introduced by Senators Rozyczki and Fleming was referred to the Legislative Committee on Highways on Feb. 2.

The bill is written to amend sections 621 and 622 of the Michigan Vehicle Code which were written in 1966. They are part of Act 771 which requires that an accident report contain an officer's opinion as to certain matters, and that the report be used for statistical purposes only, which meant that newspapers and other news media would be unable to obtain the "normal" amount of information usually reported.

This amendment releases the restriction on the report in general by specifying only that the opinion on the report shall be used for statistical purposes only, thus releasing the basic information pertaining to the accident.

Panel members gave forthright examples of frustration in their everyday lives and of how they would have reacted before coming into the Recovery program. In contrast to how they would react now, it was a most stimulating and interesting discussion.

Mrs. Walter Beuery reported that there is a film available from the Whitmore Lake Training School and that an interesting tour can be arranged.

A discussion concerning the District party was held. Points raised were whether the group preferred the noon or evening gathering and the extra preparation each group will be asked to complete because three of the seven extension groups have dropped out.

The group will do some paper work to make the Chelsea area school children eligible for flouride treatments with the Dexter children, as the Chelsea schools will not offer the program.

The next meeting will be at the new home of Mrs. Ronald Satterthwaite on March 23.

The lesson, "Italian Foods and Traditions," was presented by Mrs. Earl Horning and Mrs. Walter Beuery. A menu was planned for the next meeting. The group enjoyed playing the game "Snook."

One way to avoid bedtime quantities is to serve each child a child's portion of food. New foods should be served to children in even smaller quantities. Don't give up if a child refuses a new food the first time it is offered. Wait a few days, then try again.

Brownies...

TROOP 247
Mothers of the Brownies in Troop 247 were entertained at a special party held Feb. 15 at the Congregational church.

The flag ceremony was performed by Kristy DelPrete, Kathy Cobb, Janet Tanner, Dora Alexander, Karen Roskowski and Alice Juergens. Mrs. Richard Kern, a new Troop Committee member, was presented her pin by her daughter, Karen.

The Brownies pantomimed their own play about Day Camp. After the program the mothers were served coffee and cookies, which were baked by the girls.

We are now working on our part in the father-daughter program scheduled for March.

We collected materials suitable for making doll clothes and sent them to a bed-ridden heart patient whose only hobby is sewing doll clothes.

Officers for the month of February were president, Beth Clark; secretary, Alice Juergens; treasurer, Dora Alexander and scribe, Lois Koch.

Fashion Notes

Grape-purple is a popular color this season. It comes in many different fabrics and styles. A jacket of solid color with a checked skirt is smart.

But stripes and weird markings decorate many spring garments. These range from hostess pajamas to evening chiffons. This seems to be the African influence.

Square-toed sport shoes are being shown and bid fair to be popular for spring and summer.

Cottage Cheese Is Good Weight Reduction Diet Food

Digesters, what food is low in calories yet high in food value? Cottage cheese is low enough in calories that you can use it on your weight-reduction diet, suggests Ms. Helen Fairman, Extension home economist for Washtenaw, Monroe and Lenawee counties. An average serving of one-half cup of creamed cottage cheese gives you 120 calories.

But it also adds nearly as much protein as a serving of fish, poultry, or lean meat (3 oz., cooked), of three eggs, or three slices of cheddar cheese (3 oz.). When you compare equal weights of cheddar cheese and cottage cheese, you will find three times as many calories are in cheddar cheese as in cottage cheese. A half-cup cottage cheese also supplies as much calcium as one-third cup milk.

One-half cup of this inexpensive food meets one-fourth of a woman's daily protein need.

It's versatile, Mrs. Fairman emphasizes. Use cottage cheese for topping pancakes or with fruit as dessert for dinner. Try it with spices and seasonings such as caraway, chopped chives, ginger, or paprika. Use it with fruit or vegetables in salads, or with meat, fish, eggs or other dairy products.

Keep in mind that cottage cheese is perishable! Keep it covered and refrigerated, and use it while it's still fresh.

This is a nutritious, easily digested food for all ages.

Just A Minute...
By the Rev. James A. Craig
C. S. Lewis in "Mere Christianity" includes a chapter on "Hope." Now hope is one of the three things that just won't rot away. It is, with faith and love, one of the three pillars of the Christian's life according to Saint Paul.

Christian hope has pretty much been confined to the world that is believed to be beyond this one. The Unseen World.

For many it has become the world where all the things will come true that have failed to happen in this world. It is the time for God to make right all that has gone wrong.

That isn't the way in which the Bible looks at it. For the authors of the New Testament the hope of the Christian has nothing to do with his getting what he wants. It does have something to do with his getting what he deserves. The two aren't necessarily the same.

The hope of which the Christian reads, sings, and for which he prays, is one in which he might come to know the potential for which man was made. It is a world that does away with the petty jealousies, the foolish parochialism, the selfish conceit, the suspicion that have made life in this world too often a hell.

It is the hope of the Christian that this world will find its way to a new life also. That the causes for which men are willing to kill, one another will find their proper place and the hatreds we so carefully foster will be done away with.

About all of this C. S. Lewis offers the thought that: "It is since Christians have largely ceased to think of the other world that they have become so ineffective in this."

The test of character comes when one person holds a preponderance of advantages over others in the way he treats them.

Truckers Map Now Available

Lansing — The 1967 Michigan Truck Operators' Map is off the press, the State Highway Commission reports.

The map provides information for truckers on loads, bridge clearances, truck lengths and speed limits.

This year, the map shows that 7,987 miles of Michigan's 9,207-mile system of freeways and other state highways are designated as All-Season Routes. These highways can carry normal legal truck loads throughout the year.

Prior to 1958, an arbitrary 25 percent reduction in load limits was imposed on all state highways during Spring months. A 1957 study, however, showed that all highways built since 1940 were capable of carrying full legal loads throughout the year.

The All-Season highway designation established in 1958 has resulted in considerable savings for Michigan's transportation industry because trucks are able to travel fully loaded throughout the year on all primary state highway routes as well as most secondary highways.

The Truck Operators' Map is available at all Highway Department Weigh Stations, Highway Department District Offices and at the Chief Weighmaster's Office in Lansing.

When you get in a hurry, that is a good time to be sure that you do not move too fast.

Motor Vehicle Accident Fund Pays 740 Claims During Its First Year

Lansing — A total of 740 claims amounting to nearly $310,000 were paid out of the state's Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund during its first year of operation, Secretary of State James M. Hare disclosed today.

In addition, Hare said, 1,287 claims had been closed for varying reasons which did not involve payments out of the fund, bringing to 2,000 the number of claims closed which were handled by fund officials.

Hare reported a "healthy reserve" which totaled $2,175,000 at the end of the year, covering all unpaid claims which are now on file.

Of the more than $300,000 already paid out, more than two-thirds was for property damage settlements, with nearly $90,000 going for bodily injury claims.

SUNDAY'S SERMON
THE ANGLES
In these modern times, many of us are overly suspicious. If we observe someone performing a good deed, if someone we have known for a long time suddenly appears friendlier than before, we're apt to say, "I wonder what his angle is."

We even have a few angles of our own. We build false friendships with individuals we feel can help us in business, or in social circles. We aren't as nice as we should be to good friends and acquaintances because we feel they can do nothing for us.

We should examine our thoughts and our actions, each of us, with a view toward eliminating all unnecessary angles. Angles are not nearly so important as we believe them to be. In truth, we can make more friends, keep our old ones, and probably achieve greater heights of success in all endeavors if the attitude of Christian charity is made our daily approach to living.

BIBLE VERSE TO STUDY
"And this is the condemnation that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil."
1. Where is this verse recorded?
2. Who spoke these words?
3. Unto whom?
4. Is the discourse found elsewhere in the Bible?

ASHLAND OIL & REFINING COMPANY

OUTDOORS with CORDIE

by RORROR CHARLES

Remember your first car and all the good times you had with it on those hunting and fishing trips, picnics and other family outings?

Ever wonder what happened to it after you traded it in for a sleek new model? We have to mention it, but chances are it ended up in a junkyard like the ones which line many of our highways. The thought of that sort of gets you right here, doesn't it?

Well, last year for a time it looked like help was on the way. During that session of Congress, Sen. Paul Douglas of Illinois introduced a bill calling for "proper burial" of old cars. An admitted secondary purpose was to clean up those old highway junkyard eyesores.

The Douglas bill got lost in the shuffle and last November, as you probably know by now, Senator Douglas died, too, when he was defeated in re-election by new Sen. Charles Percy.

Actually, we hope somebody else will now take up his junk car bill and carry it through to completion. Here's what it would do:

Each new car, when purchased, would carry with it funds for its ultimate disposal. With 30 to 40 million junk cars circulating out countryside from coast to coast, it is getting to be a problem sometimes to even find places to pile them up.

The eight kind of bill would amend the Solid Waste Disposal Act of 1955 and set up a program to dispose of the accumulation of junk automobiles.

It would authorize the President to develop a program for the purchase, storage and resale of scrap from old and wrecked autos. It would also encourage development of improved scrap processing techniques and assist states and localities in creating practical programs for disposal of junk cars.

It was Douglas who was largely responsible for retaining permanently a minimum federal excise tax of one percent on the sale of new automobiles. His idea was that the cost of junk auto disposal should be borne by those who buy cars. Funds would be appropriated annually to finance the "decent burial" program, within the amount collected by the one percent permanent federal excise tax.

We can't help but believe that somewhere out there, in the vastness of wherever it is that new television programs go, that "My Mother the Car" must be wiping a bit of moisture from her headlights as she hopes someone will see a bill like this through to completion. There's even something beautiful in junk isn't there?

Notary Commissions Set All-Time Record

Lansing — The Michigan Department of State processed a record total of 23,575 notary public appointments during 1966, topping last year's totals by 1,455 commissions.

According to Secretary of State James M. Hare, there are nearly 90,000 notaries public throughout the state. Appointments, made by the governor, are for four-year terms.

According to Hare, this is the eighth straight year that 20,000 notary commissions were issued and the sixth year in succession that records were set.

ON VIETNAM LOSSES

Senator Richard Russell, chairman of the Armed Services Committee has charged that there has been "great derelictions" in the guarding of U. S. airfields and ammunition dumps in Vietnam.

To hear some people tell it, all the world's problems fade into nothing when matched with their brains.

Snowmobile Association Is Formed

The American Snowmobile Association has been formed as a non-profit corporation by a group of snowmobile enthusiasts. National headquarters have been established in Minneapolis, Minn. It is anticipated that regional offices will be established in Michigan in the near future.

General or primary purpose of the Association is to act as an organized voice of the industry, the manufacturer, the local dealer and the owner-user. Eugene H. Case, well-known snowmobile sportsman of Forest Lake, Minn., heads the organization as president.

Because of the tremendous growth of the industry, and the number of everyday users, this should be welcome news, along awaited and regarded by many as being much overdue.

The snowmobile has proven itself over and over again as a general utility vehicle, in many cases a vehicle of mercy in helping aid and comfort to snow-bound shut-ins needing medical attention. In isolated areas it has sometimes been the only means of transportation, in or out of town, snowed out, except by snowshoes or dog team. For winter recreation, it has no equal, and for the out-of-door individual it provides a rugged and healthful and invigorating sport.

Participating members are given attractive decals for their own snowmobiles, an identification membership card, and the monthly Newsletter publication. Membership is open to everyone. Full information may be obtained by writing to the Association, P.O. Box 4403, Minneapolis, Minn. 55421.

Propose Higher Gas Tax To Pay 'Big Mac' Debt

Escambia — A member of the State Highway Commission said here he would support a proposal to earmark one-quarter of a cent of the state gasoline tax for retirement of the Mackinac Bridge bonds.

State Highway Commissioner Wallace D. (Mike) Nunn of East Tawas said he also would support efforts to increase the gas tax by another one-fourth of a cent and to use the additional funds for construction of scenic highways.

Nunn, speaking at the annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Road Builders Association, said he would support the two proposals "only if the additional tax on gasoline is over and above the one-cent increase the Michigan Good Roads Federation is seeking."

He also made it clear that he was speaking only for himself "and not on behalf of my colleagues on the State Highway Commission."

Nunn said the passenger car toll on the Mackinac Bridge could be reduced from $3.75 to about $2.40 if the State Highway Commission is successful in its efforts to refinance "Big Mac" with general obligation bonds.

"But as far as I'm concerned a $2.40 toll isn't low enough," he said, "earmarking of a quarter of a cent of the gasoline tax would enable us to reduce the toll to 50 cents or even eliminate it completely if we wanted to."

An ignorant individual seeks only the facts that bolster his own prejudices.

WINTER FISH-GETTERS: With the ice fishing season underway, followers of this winter sport are talking about "mouses," "corn borers," "crane fly larvae" and other strange creatures. Here are some of those popular conservation pieces for baiting fish in the winter. "Mouses," upper left, are one of the most valuable baits while minnows, top center, remain as standby fish-getters. Mayfly wigglers, bottom center, are an excellent winter bait.

They are found in quiet lagoon areas along streams, and can be dug by fishermen for winter use. Wax worms, lower right, are also very popular as bait. As a sidelight to this menu of winter fish baits, Conservation Department cartoonist Oz Warbach has sketched two important reminders to ice fishermen: 1) Don't forget to properly print your name and address on your fish shanty; and 2) Keep litter off the ice.—Mich. Dept. of Conservation.

YOUR INCOME TAX

Editor's Note: This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the Detroit District Office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. Do I add the 6 percent tax surcharge mentioned by the President in his State of the Union address to what I owe on this year's return?

A. No, the surcharge must be approved by Congress before it becomes law.

Q. I started work on my '66 tax return and find the new withholding rates have left me greatly overpaid. Is there anything I can do to reduce my withholding?

A. Yes. When the graduated withholding rates were adopted by Congress last year, provision was made to allow additional withholding allowances to taxpayers with large itemized deductions. These allowances take into account the size of the taxpayer's income and deductions, as reported on 1966 tax returns as well as income and deductions expected for 1967. Procedures for claiming these allowances are outlined on Schedule A (Form W-4) available at local IRS offices. This schedule and a corrected W-4 must be filed with the taxpayer's employer who will make necessary withholding adjustments. These allowances cannot be claimed until you file your 1966 return.

Q. I just turned 65. Will my boss stop withholding Social Security taxes from my pay if I go on working?

A. The law requires the employer to withhold Social Security taxes on the first $6,000 in wages paid each employee during the year. The age of the employee does not change this requirement.

Q. I support my daughter who was recently divorced. Can I claim her baby as a dependent?

A. You probably can if you provide more than half the baby's support. Check the dependency requirements listed on page 4 of the 1964 instruction booklet.

Q. There is one deduction I forgot to claim when I filed my 1966 return. Can I include it when I file this year?

A. No, you cannot. An amended return or claim Form 843 must be filed for 1966 to claim the deduction.

Q. Too much was withheld for Social Security tax as I held several jobs last year. Can I get this refunded or credited to any income tax I might owe?

A. Yes, you can. A special line has been added to Form 1040 where you can list excess Social Security tax withheld. This is Line 19 on Page 1 of the 1040. If you had two or more employers, use it to list amounts in excess of $277.20 withheld for Social Security taxes.

Q. I understand that the first $100 in dividends is not taxable. Does that mean I don't have to list that on my return?

A. All dividends received should be reported on your return. Page 2 of Form 1040 has a line where you may take the exclusion you refer to. Note that this is $100 for dividends of qualifying domestic corporations. On joint returns where both husband and wife receive dividends, each may exclude up to $100 of such dividends.

Q. I moved and didn't get my 1966 tax package. What should I do?

A. Copies of forms and instructions are available at any local IRS office as well as at many banks and post offices.

Q. How should I make out my check for the balance of tax I owe?

A. Checks should be made out to the Internal Revenue Service. Never send cash through the mails. Use a check or money order.

Q. Do you need to have records of your medical bills, contributions and other items when you take the minimum standard deduction?

A. No, you don't. The minimum standard deduction, like the 10 percent standard deduction, makes it unnecessary for taxpayers to itemize or substantiate deductions.

Q. How can you tell a "fly-by-night" tax return specialist from one who is reliable and honest?

A. Here are a few things to look for:

1. Avoid the man who "guarantees" you a refund.
2. Be on guard if he suggests that the refund be sent to his address.
3. Never sign a blank tax form.
4. Don't sign a form that has been prepared in pencil; the figures could be easily changed.
5. Ask the advisor to sign the return he has prepared. Remember that when you ask someone to help you prepare a return, you are still legally responsible for every item on the return.
6. How do you figure out how much to report as interest when you cash in U. S. savings bonds?

Cholera-Free Status May Open New Pork Outlets

Broader exports for Michigan pork products may be a possibility sometime this spring following federal recognition that the state is "hog cholera free."

The last outbreak of this contagious and costly disease of swine in the state was in October of 1955. A state can qualify as hog cholera free if no cases of the disease have been reported for a year and all vaccines except killed virus vaccines have been prohibited for a similar length of time. Michigan meets both requirements.

Dr. J. F. Quinn, state veterinarian in the Michigan Department of Agriculture, and Dr. C. L. Hendee, federal veterinarian in charge of the state, say apparently there is no more infection.

Since January of 1966 Michigan has been in the final phase of a four-phase co-operative state-federal hog cholera eradication campaign. Drs. Quinn and Hendee point out that swine producers must remain vigilant for the disease until it has been eradicated in the entire nation. The target date for this is 1972.

"If a swine producer has sick pigs, he should contact his veterinarian at once," they warn.

Several possible foreign markets for ham and other pork products are open only to states that are hog cholera free. Michigan is one of the largest pork producers among the 22 states that reported no outbreaks of the disease in 1966.

In 1964, the most recent year for which figures are available, Michigan produced 261 million pounds of pork worth about $42 million to producers. The counties of Cass, Clinton, Hillsdale and Branch account for about 22 percent of the state's entire production.

Well-balanced meals for general health are adequate for dental health. A guide to good eating is a presentation of the four food groups—dairy foods, meat and eggs, vegetables and fruits, bread and cereals. These foods form the foundation for an adequate diet.

A Report as to the difference between what you paid for the bonds, the issue price, and what you received when you turned them in. Same cash basis taxpayers elect to report the interest earned each year on their bonds rather than all at once when they redeem the bonds. Either way of reporting this interest income is acceptable.
