

All Schools Ready To Open With 29 New Teachers on Faculty

Twenty-nine new teachers have been hired by the Chelsea school system for the 1967-68 school year. When classes begin on Tuesday, Sept. 5 there will be 13 new teachers at the junior high school, three at North Elementary school, and nine at the elementary school, plus a speech correctionist for the speech correctionist for the system.

Elizabeth Beam will be speech correctionist. She is graduate of Lawton High School. She received her BS degree from Western Michigan University.

At the high school, two new teachers have been added to staff. George Bergman is actually new since he was counselor here from 1958-62. He spent the last five years at Milwaukee and Dearborn and a master's degree from the University of Michigan. Mrs. Gillies received an AB from the University of Michigan and an MA from Miami University, Oxford, O. She has 10 years of teaching experience, the last four in Dayton, Ohio. New English teachers have hired. Edward Hill graduated from Albion College and taught the last three years in Manchester. He will also be an assistant football coach.

Mrs. Margaret Kroeck has an AB from the University of Michigan. Although a first-year teacher, she is not entirely new to the system as she did her practice teaching here last spring.

Mrs. Nancy Miller received a BA from Butler University and has seven years teaching experience in Michigan and Indiana. Her husband is employed by the University of Michigan. William Coelius will also teach speech as well as English. He is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and taught the last two years at Albion Junior High school.

Mrs. Gail McKnight will combine teaching French with English. She is a native of Missouri and graduated from Kalamazoo College. Her husband attends the University of Michigan. Martha Williams will teach both English and journalism. She was granted a BA from Hillsdale College and an MA from the University of Michigan. She is a first-year teacher and a native of Detroit.

Lawrence Lounsway is the new agriculture teacher. He gained BS and MS degrees from Michigan State University. During the past four years he taught in Kalamazoo.

Lauryn Miller, a science teacher, has a BS from Capital University in Columbus, O. He studied under a National Science Foundation grant this past year. He previously taught four and one-half years in Goodrich and Allen Park.

John Rinn is a mathematics teacher with BS and MS degrees from the University of Michigan. He is a first-year teacher who lives in Ann Arbor. His wife teaches at Cherry Hill schools.

Henry Tinkham is an instrumental music teacher. He received a BM degree from Michigan State University and taught at Springport and Deatur for the past four years.

Principal Charles Lane reports that he is still seeking a special education teacher for the mentally retarded but that otherwise his staff is complete. There will be four new teachers at the Junior High school, including one who is moving up from the elementary level.

School Millage Proposal Ok'd in Heavy Vote

School Board Thinking in Terms of Possible 3-Year Periods in Future

The Chelsea School Board gave a resounding vote of approval to a 6.75 millage proposal in an election Monday. The vote in favor of the 1.0 mill increase over last year was 677. There were 20 spoiled ballots and one void ballot. This almost double the turnout of voters for the first millage election which lost, 427-410, on July 17. After the defeat of the first millage proposal, the board of education called immediately for the next election which was the earliest possible time it could be held.

The urgency was caused by the fact that the school system at the loss of more than 20 per cent of its revenues if the millage was not approved.

The board of education held a meeting after the results of the election were announced and decided that the 6.75 millage plus 20 per cent would be available for operating costs. In an action the board approved a reduction of 3.97 and 3.55 mills debt retirement for the high school and new middle school, respectively. A decrease of .8 mill in debt retirement from senior. Street 4.25 mills of the debt approved in the election in effect during the last year increased millage asked by the board was only 2.50. With the .6 mill reduction in the amount for debt retirement, the increased amount the taxpayers have to pay this year over last is only 1.9 mills.

President Robert G. Fosberg speaking for all the members of the board, said he wished to see all those who had voted for the new millage. "We want the people of the Chelsea school district to know that the results of the election will allow Chelsea schools to continue to meet the high standards we set for them and allow our schools to continue to improve."

Trustee Herman Koenn said, "We have a good and growing professional staff and good basic program in our schools. We have no frills or extras."

Board members seemed to have reached a consensus about two years relating to future millage elections. One is that they should not call another election in the middle of the summer. This was thought to be the cause of the low voter turnout for the first election and the second, the new election for a three-year authority for millage.

PAUL S. CLOSSON
Assistant Administrator Is Named

Paul S. Closson has been appointed assistant administrator of the Chelsea Methodist Home. Formerly the assistant executive director of the Presbyterian Village of Detroit, he will assume his duties Sept. 1.

Paul is a graduate of Albion College and attended Boston University School of Theology. He has previously been responsible for the administration of the nursing care facility at Presbyterian Village. Prior to that time he worked as assistant administrator of the Bloomfield Hospital.

Paul's wife, Annabelle, is a registered nurse. The Clossons have two children.

John M. Fall, administrator of the Home, said, "The Home is fortunate to have a man as experienced and talented as Paul Closson guiding its operation. I look forward to the opportunity of working with Paul."

Wendy Gilbert Earns U-M Degree

Wendy Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gilbert of North Lake, received an AB degree from the school of education of the University of Michigan at the end of the summer term. As an undergraduate her major was speech, radio and television. She is currently continuing her studies in this field as a graduate student.

Schedules, Fees Told for Grade Schools

Elementary schools will open Tuesday, Sept. 5. The following is the school schedule for the 1967-68 school year:

8:15 a.m.—Doors open.
 8:30 a.m.—Classes begin.
 11:15 a.m.—Kindergarten children go home.
 11:15 a.m.—1st and 2nd grade town children go home for lunch.
 11:30 a.m.—3rd, 4th, and 5th grade town children go home for lunch.
 12:00 p.m.—Classes start for kindergarten, 1st and 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th.
 3:05 p.m.—Kindergarten, 1st, and 2nd dismissed.
 3:15 p.m.—3rd, 4th, and 5th dismissed.

Parents now to the Chelsea School District are urged to register their children on Friday, Sept. 1, if they have not already done so. Children that are not registered then cannot register until Sept. 5, the opening day of school.

The hot lunch program will start Tuesday, Sept. 5. Price of the lunch including milk will be 35 cents this year. Milk will be available for three cents for one-half pint. Parents are urged to pay for the entire week on Monday mornings or the first school day of the week.

Book fees are $5 per child for all elementary grades. All fees should be in as soon as possible.

Parents should inform their children about safety in going to and from school. There will be a crossing guard at Pierce and Dewey Sts. Please have your children cross Main St. at these crossings. Children riding bicycles should be extremely careful and abide by the traffic rules. Extreme hazards exist at the Mobil, Pure and Ashland gas stations, when children take short cuts.

Ambulance Service Set For County

An ambulance will be stationed in the Chelsea-Dexter area under a contract being negotiated between Washenaw county and the Superior Ambulance Co. of Wyandotte but the specific location has not yet been determined.

According to Jim McLaughlin, Superior Ambulance Co. manager, the company is still analyzing the frequency and location of emergency calls in the area to decide the best possible location. The service will go into effect on Oct. 1. That is the date most county funeral home directors say they will stop operating ambulance services.

Superior was picked over a group of four local firms to provide the service and will receive a subsidy of $70,000 from the county. The plan submitted by Superior calls for five ambulances at specific locations in the county, one other ambulance within the county and three "back-up" ambulances just across the county line in Wayne county. If the ambulance stationed in the Chelsea-Dexter area is away from the area on a call, Superior will immediately put a "back-up" ambulance in the place.

Superior's charge per call is $22 plus $1 a mile. Thus a run of 14 miles to Ann Arbor will cost $58. The company has radio and telephone contact between the Sheriff's Department and all of its ambulances.

Volunteers Staffing Fair Restaurant

A French Cafe at the Little Red Schoolhouse will be open every day during the Chelsea Community Fair from 7 a.m. until everyone is served at the end of the day.

The kitchen and dining room are under the supervision of Mrs. Fred Klunk, Sr., Mrs. Donovan Sweeney, and Mrs. Warren Eisenberger. Men volunteers will be the cooks and waiters every evening. Jaycees have volunteered for Wednesday night, Kiwanis members for Thursday night, teachers for Friday night, and merchants for Saturday night. A complete menu for each day may be found in this issue of The Standard.

Fruits from the Chelsea and other parts of the Fair are needed to pay the $10,000 cost of the new aqua stock barn which shelters cattle, sheep, pigs, chickens, rabbits and other animals. The former six-year old stock barn collapsed under the weight of snow during the winter.

Social Security Checks Will Be Delivered Sept. 2

Social Security checks next month will be delivered on Saturday, Sept. 2, a day earlier than usual, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien announced today.

O'Brien said the Treasury Department and the Social Security Administration made the arrangements with the Post Office Department for the earlier delivery to avoid hardship among the more than 20,000,000 persons on social security rolls.

Because Sept. 3 is a Sunday, delivery of the checks normally would be made on Monday Sept. 4. However, since Monday is the Labor Day holiday, the Saturday delivery will be made.

Kiwanis Club Discusses Plan for Fair Participation

The Chelsea Community Fair was the topic of discussion at the Monday, Aug. 28 Kiwanis Club meeting.

Don Turner told of his progress in installing a new public address system which will provide for much better amplification. The system includes the use of underground cables, new speakers and will have a special amplifier cover that Turner is building.

Floyd P. Fowler reported on the addition of a tent to the dining facilities. He said that the new building and fair improvements would be financed in part from the sale of a steer.

The meeting was adjourned early so that members who had not voted in the school millage election could do so.

Next week the meeting will be held Tuesday evening Sept. 5 with Sheriff Douglas Harvey speaking.

35 Boys Working Hard To Become CHS Varsity Gridders

About 35 boys turned out for the first practice session of the football team on Monday, Aug. 28 for the Chelsea High school football team in what Head Coach Boreis admits will be a rebuilding year.

Boreis suffered through a 2-6 season last year. "The basic idea is to mold these individuals into a team. We've had a few good players in the past, but we've had to start from scratch. Two-day drills were held all week and will continue through next Monday. With the start of school on Tuesday, Sept. 5, practice will be held once a day after school at 3:30 p.m.

An innovation for practice sessions is a recently purchased seven-man sled, weighing 1,100 lbs. and costing $100. The object of the drill is to have seven linemen charge the sled like it was an opposing line and push it as far and as fast as possible. Weight can be added to the sled by having any number of players stand on the opposite side of the sled from where it is being pushed.

There are only 12 lettermen back from last year's team. "Our problem will be lack of depth," Boreis says. "We'll be boys with some experience but not as many as we'd like."

Boreis says his offense this year will be based on a wing-T formation. His goal, he says, is to have his players learn a few plays well instead of a lot of plays mediocre. By the end of this week he hopes to have picked out at least a tentative starting line-up for both offense and defense. According to this plan he'll pick the best 11 offensive players and the best 11 defensive players. Thus some gridders will play both offense and defense while some will be mostly offensive or defensive specialists.

Assistant coaches this year will be Richard Boreis, Phil's brother, and Bob Pursel. Boreis will be the offensive and defensive line coach. Pursel will be the offensive and defensive end and linebacker coach. Ed Hill will be the head junior varsity coach with Tom Morrison as his assistant.

The team will get its first competition against other teams on Friday, Sept. 8. There will be a four-team scrimmage at Chelsea with Michigan Center, Brighton, and Howell. This scrimmage will give each team the chance to try out its offense and defense against three different defenses and three different offenses.

The regular season opens a week later Sept. 15, at home against Stockbridge. The Bulldogs will be hoping to avenge a 0-0 loss last season. The next week, Dundee, a 26-0 winner over Chelsea last year, will provide the opposition for the second home game. Dundee has been champion of the Southwestern Conference all three years of the league's existence. Next come two away games with teams, Carlton-Airport and Milan, which were not on the Chelsea schedule last season. On Oct. 19, Lincoln comes to Chelsea and the home team will try to reverse its 18-7 defeat of last season. The next week Chelsea travels to South Lyon for a game which provided the Bulldogs with their first victory of last season, 20-14. On Oct. 27 Saline travels to Chelsea, hoping to duplicate its 44-0 win over the Bulldogs last season. The final game on Nov. 3 is away at Durand. The game was won, 13-7, by Chelsea last year.

Co-Captains of this year's team are Larry Gaken, a fullback, and Mike Lehmann, a lineman. At offensive halfback, Boreis has two experienced junior lettermen, Mike Scheldt and Craig Houle. Quarterback is a big question mark. Not letting senior John Freeman and sophomore Dave Conklin are two possibilities and the two halfbacks, Scheldt and Houle, may also be tried at the position.

Besides the two co-captains, the other letterman seniors are Brad McElhinney, Ron Morley, and Ray Worden. In addition to the two starting halfbacks, the other junior lettermen are Gary Ellenwood, Mike Gaken, Mike Harvey, Roy Holiday, and Greg Stephens. Help from the junior varsity of last year will come from Chuck Patrick and Jim Boylan, at 6'5", 240 lbs, is the biggest player on the squad. In addition, sophomores that Boreis says have varsity potential include Ken Brillingor, Dave Conklin, Leonard Kozma, Rick Slane, Paul Wenk, Glenn Wilkerson, and Warren Wisner.

Boreis concluded his summary of the team's prospects this season by saying, "We have no one outstanding ballplayer this season. Our chances of winning depend on a real team effort. We have to mold a unit that can work together to win."

Chelsea Woman's Husband Sponsoring Vietnamese Child for Year of School

Seabee Disbursing Clerk Seaman William L. Brewer, son of Mrs. Clarence Brewer of Chelsea, is sponsoring a Vietnamese child through a full-year of schooling in DaNang East, Republic of Vietnam.

Saman Brewer is deployed with the Naval Mobile Construction Battalion Seven to DaNang East. His wife, the former Judy Hollinger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hollinger, 2811 Pecan Rd., Chelsea.

The scholarship program was limited to give underprivileged children the opportunity to get a college education. Members of Battalion volunteered for the program so that at least one child from a needy family would get a chance to go to school.

For Holiday Patrols Slated Extra Police

In preparation for a heavy upsurge in traffic during the last of the three long week-ends of the summer season—Labor Day—State Police are placing special emphasis on patrol coverage during the hours of congested travel.

The holiday patrol will begin at 12 noon Friday, Sept. 1, and end at midnight Monday, Sept. 4. Maximum coverage will be assigned to the periods when there is expected to be the heaviest travel, between 3 p.m. and 9 p.m. Vehicle inspection lanes are suspended and those officers will be on patrol.

Col. Frederick Davis, State Police director, made a plea for safety on the part of all drivers.

"It has been proven that there is a direct correlation between the frequency of traffic accidents and traffic violations," he said. "This means that drivers can reduce the death toll by reducing violations. During the heavy holiday travel, it is of the utmost importance that every driver observe every precaution to drive safely and avoid an accident. Why invite a tragedy by being careless during what is intended to be a happy holiday?"

The State Police death toll for the period will be compiled from 6 a.m. Friday to midnight Monday. Last year during the similar period 39 persons were killed.

Davis also reminded that with the re-opening of schools drivers must be on the alert for school children and on the highway must stop in either direction when a school bus is stopped to take on or let off passengers.

Wrong Side Driver Forces Artell Tucker Off Road in Crash

Artell Tucker, 33, of 328 Wild Goose Lake, Chelsea, was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor after being forced off Dexter Rd., near Morrison Dr., by a car driving on the wrong side of the road.

Three witnesses told sheriff's deputies that a white 1967 Cougar was driving east on Dexter, on the wrong side of the road. The Cougar forced Tucker's vehicle, moving in the opposite direction, off the road and into a tree.

Retired Minister Cited for Help With 'Tapes for Troops'

The Rev. W. Scott Westerman, retired Methodist minister who with his wife, resides in one of the Methodist Home's cottages for the retired, has just received another letter of thanks from the Army's First Logistical Command for his participation in the "Tapes for Troops" program.

The tapes are recordings of radio and television programs—documentary, musical, humorous, etc.—also excerpts from symphonies, football games, University of Michigan Band, famous choirs and many others.

The Rev. Westerman has been participating in the program since it was originated more than a year ago. ### TIPS for your TOP from

ODDY and FRAN

Years and years ago, back in dark ages of beauty salons, permanent was something that left you looking like Phyllis Diller or worse. Permalots have made a lot of transitions since then, gradually changing the point they are now where they primarily give an eye-to-manage body to your hair. You need a permanent the new smooth styles just you did for those oldtime curly models. When the wiggeters get back in school, you'll feel a letdown (if only reaction to not having to wash them around everyday). It's a good time to renew yourself with that all-important permanent. Why not give a call?

Social Security Checks

(Continued from page one) deliveries will avoid a two-day wait until Tuesday, Sept. 5. To insure against any erroneous holdover of the checks until Sept. 5, the Treasury is providing envelopes with printed instructions showing that delivery must be made Sept. 2. ### Social Security Payments Offered Disabled Persons

"Seriously disabled workers in the Washtenaw county area do not appear to fully understand how valuable social security may be to them," Robert A. Kehoe, Social Security district manager at Ann Arbor said today.

"No longer does a person have to be permanently disabled, but if his disability is severe and can be expected to last at least a year, he should apply for consideration," Kehoe said.

"Requirements to get social security disability benefits are simple. First, a person must have worked in five years of the period where he paid social security taxes immediately before his disability began. For example, if he became disabled on Jan. 20, 1967, he must have worked one-half of the time from April 1967 to January 1967 where he had paid social security taxes. This does not have to be consecutive or even full-time work. This constitutes the five years of the 10 years before the disability began. Social Security disability benefits are paid beginning with the seventh month after the disability started. In the above example, payments would first be payable for August 1967.

A medical report from the attending physician is asked for to help establish the disability and frequently evidence is necessary. In some instances where there isn't enough medical information to make a decision, the individual will be asked to see a specialist at no cost to him.

There is a special provision for people who are blind. If one is totally blind before age 31, he needs work only one year for every two years after age 21 and before he became blind. (This could be as little as 18 months' work.)

There is no partial disability payment under the Social Security law. The degree of impairment must be considered so disabling that a person is unable to do any substantial work. Each person's training, age and work experience is considered in determining disability. Need is not a factor in determining and/or paying disability.

Receiving social security while one is ill or injured has the added advantage of freezing his earnings record while he is ill. This prevents counting time against one while off work due to illness. Otherwise, when a worker is 62 or 65, the time he was sick would normally be used in figuring the amount of his benefit. This could make a difference in the retirement amount.

In every instance where a person files for social security disability, his name is referred to the nearest vocational rehabilitation office. This gives an opportunity for possible retraining and/or other rehabilitation services.

Additional information is available at the Social Security district office at 220 E. Huron in Ann Arbor. Write for Pamphlet OAS-1-29.

4-H Club Leaders Honored at State Show

East Lansing—More than 3,000 years of volunteer service were saluted by Michigan 4-H members this week. The 4-H clubbers attending the State 4-H Show at Michigan State University honored more than 200 leaders at a special dinner and awards presentation, Aug. 28.

Heading the list were two veterans who had served for 35 years as 4-H leaders. Robert Marlington of Sand Lake, Kent county, and Mrs. Albert Schmieg, Cheesaning, were presented with the "sapphire award" by Gordon Stocking, president of the Michigan 4-H Foundation.

Nine leaders received the 80-year, "ruby award," and 18 were presented with amoral clovers, symbolic of a quarter century of 4-H leadership. The honored leaders are part of a corps of nearly 15,000 who direct 4-H activities in every county of the state. A twenty-year diamond award was given to Mrs. Robert Mast of Dexter.

The 28 extra-base hits recorded in the May 14 Boston-Tiger doubleheader is an American League record.

ON AIR MAIL RATES

The House Post Office committee has approved a two-cent boost in the air mail letter rate. This moves the letter rate to 10 cents per ounce. A final decision was not made at this time, to push air mail rates from six to 10 cents.

One reason people are so to fool is that few of them seek out the truth.

Alfalfa Weevil Threatens State

Alfalfa weevils have been found in 21 Michigan counties through a survey made by Michigan State University entomologists in co-operation with personnel from the Michigan Department of Agriculture...

Melichian State University entomologists estimate that the spread and intensity of the pest will continue to point that insecticidal sprays will be needed in southern Michigan by 1968...

This will mean that raising alfalfa for hay or forage may then cost an additional $3 to $5 an acre a year because of necessary chemical treatment...

Another survey will be made this fall to determine the extent of the population buildup since the early summer survey...

This survey showed weevils in small populations in Berrien, Cass, St. Joseph, Branch, Hillsdale, Lenawee, Monroe, Wayne, Washtenaw, Jackson, Calhoun, Eaton, Ingham, Livingston, Oakland, Macomb, St. Clair, Genesee, Shiawassee, Clinton and Ionia counties...

Washtenaw Residential Starts Decline

The number of new residential units permitted by Washtenaw County during the first six months of 1967 declined markedly compared to the similar period for 1966...

Pictures just released by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission record that Washtenaw County permitted 1,303 units through June 1967 compared to 2,119 for the first six months in 1966...

Although both single and multiple family units decreased, the most significant drop occurred in multiple family units. These went from 1,399 units in 1966 to 668 in 1967...

Ann Arbor continued to account for more than one-half of the residential activity with a gain of 746 new units of which 500 were in multiple-family units...

IN THE OPEN

For eight days in September there will be 1,500 gunners with special permits entitling them to shoot teal. With a permit comes locations of the night means in which teal may be hunted...

It is hoped by federal and state conservation authorities that this regiment of wildfowling will be composed largely of hunters able to distinguish in flight a teal-greening or bluewinging from any of the other species commonly frequenting the shooting grounds...

The peculiar habits of the bluewing teal have prompted experimental teal seasons to enable sportsmen in the United States to harvest a fair share of the bluewinging produced in this country...

Numerous bluewing and some greenwing teal in Michigan. Bluewinging are conspicuous in late summer. Early in the fall, they suddenly disappear. Greenwing hang around after freezing weather sets in...

There are reports of big kills of bluewing teal in Mexico, Cuba and other islands of the West Indies. They are not too easy to hit on the wing, but they are disposed to pluck in to decoys without hesitation...

At least that is how they behave before they depart from Michigan. The earnest appeal to teal hunters not to shoot other species is backed up by stiff penalties for making a mistake...

But now is a young gunner to identify ducks on the wing? Pictures and descriptions might be of some help, but the only way to acquire this skill for sure is to devote years to wildfowling in association with old-timers...

Mr. Smits' column is presented through the courtesy of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

MOTORISTS may never get a rat again, if researchers at Case Western Reserve University have their way. CHAIRS AND BOAT'S hardly seem like subjects for research by a university student, but Joseph B. Lambert, of Northwestern University, says they are. Chemistry and physics are colloquial terms for the principal shapes of six-atom molecular rings that are the basic building blocks of most carbohydrates, steroids, terpenes, and alkaloids. Using a magnetic device and a computer, Lambert has developed a general method to analyze the shape of "conformation" of these molecular rings. The purpose of his work, which is supported by the National Science Foundation, is to extend basic knowledge about the make-up of organic molecules...

TODAY'S INVESTOR

BY THOMAS E. O'HARA
Chairman, Board of Trustees
National Association of Investment Clubs

A salesman trying to sell his mutual fund to me claimed that his firm had made more for its investors in 10 years than people who invest on their own have made for themselves. Would you comment please?

I guess mutual fund salesmen are as subject as any of us to letting their enthusiasm confuse their facts. For the first year salesmen were for five different plans. The cost of these would have been $10,000, including reinvested income, grow to $23,008 in 10 years. That sounds fairly good until you remember that a survey conducted by the University of Chicago a few years ago established that the average increase in price for all common stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange averaged nine percent a year since 1926. On this basis, $10,000 invested in common stock back in 1927, with all income reinvested, should be worth about $23,750 today. And that's on the basis of a random stock selection; stocks bought carefully as in a mutual fund would likely show a better gain.

To suggest that the individual investor cannot do that well on his own just doesn't seem to fit the experience. Let's assume you put $10,000 into Ford Motor Co. stock 10 years ago. Even if you had paid the highest price at which the stock sold that year, your shares, with accumulated dividends would be worth $25,800 as this is written. You might point this out to your mutual fund salesman. Also $10,000 invested in his firm's poorest performing plan would be worth only $14,514 now. A lot of individuals should experience no difficulty achieving that kind of record.

It's quite true that there are individual investors who have not done well in the last 10 years. On the other hand, you can find people who have bought stocks such as Xerox. If you had put $10,000 in Xerox 10 years ago, you would be a millionaire today. Any individual who buys good-grade securities and holds them over a period of time is likely to

Traffic Safety Officials Hail New 'Implied Consent' Law

East Lansing—Nov. 2, 1967, is a day long awaited by traffic safety officials in Michigan. On that day, Public Act No. 253 goes into effect. Michigan finally has an "implied consent" law.

The drinking driver is no longer looked upon as just a funny drunk. One study has shown that in 56 percent of all fatal accidents in Michigan, alcohol was involved. Some researchers say the actual percentage could be as high as 65.

The drinking driver is a serious traffic safety problem. "Implied consent, in its simplest form, means that you have been deemed to have given your consent to take a blood alcohol test if you are arrested for driving a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Refusal could result in suspension or revocation of your license. The three most common tests currently being used are analysis of the driver's blood, breath or urine.

Under the present statute, a driver's refusal to take a blood alcohol test could not be used as evidence against him in court. A driver who now refuses a test will face possible suspension or revocation of his license. The findings are admissible and could work either for or against the defendant depending upon the test results.

Under the law, up to 0.05 percent by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood will give rise of a presumption of nonintoxication; an excess of 0.5 but less than 0.10 percent shall not give rise to any presumption that the defendant was, or was not, under the influence but may be considered along with other evidence; 0.10 percent or more will be presumptive of impairment of the defendant's ability to operate a motor vehicle; and 0.15 percent shall be construed as indicative that the defendant was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Because of the objections of many groups against the drawing of blood, the statute specifically states, "Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, a person requested to take this test shall be advised that he has the option to demand that only a breath test shall be given, in which case his refusal to submit to any other test shall not constitute a refusal for the purposes of sections 622d and 622e of the act." These sections dealing with rights of citizens and suspensions and revocations.

Since it is assumed that a high percentage of persons arrested for driving under the influence of liquor will demand the breath test, a serious shortage of equipment and trained operators currently exists in Michigan.

In order to meet this challenge, the Michigan Law Enforcement Officers Training Council, the Michigan Department of Public Health, Department of State Police and Michigan State University

Highway Traffic Safety Center have teamed together to begin a mammoth training program.

Early estimates indicate that 188 breathalyzers, a proven breath type instrument for measuring blood alcohol content, will be needed, along with 750 trained police operators. Also, 20 state police instructor-inspectors will be trained to assist in the instruction program and perform periodic instrument checks in the field.

The first class of 20 men began their training at Kellogg Center's Continuing Education facilities on the Michigan State University campus on Monday, Aug. 28.

By careful initial selection of personnel to be trained, it is planned to have, by Nov. 2, at least one operator and one instrument available at all times in every section of the state. It is expected that the majority of police agencies will have developed this capacity by June 30, 1968.

A little child was in the garden with his mother, when a bee stung his mother on the palm of her hand. The child huddled close to the mother and cried, for fear the bee would sting him, too. "Don't worry," said the mother, "the sting of the bee is in the palm of my hand. He cannot sting you also."

And so Jesus has suffered the sting of death for us. (Hebrews 9:1 Corinthians 15:3.)

There is therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus (Romans 8:1).

Are you getting the whole story on dryer costs?

Maybe you've heard an electric dryer costs more, per load, to operate than a gas dryer. But, compare original dryer cost. Model for model, you pay $20 to $40 less for an electric dryer.

And you get Free Installation on newly purchased electric dryers, except venting, on Edison lines up to and including four-family flats. And No Charge Repair Service. No charge on electric parts or labor. You can't get free protection on a gas dryer; if you have to replace the motor on one, it can wipe out whatever small per-load savings you may have accumulated.

So when you hear about the pennies per load you might save with a gas dryer, think about the dollars you save over the life of an electric dryer.

OUTDOORS WITH GORDIE

by GORDON CHARLES

What's the daily limit on Michigan this year? Nine? Eleven? Or 17? Which part of the 17 hunting season are you talking about, all you were talking about, all those figures can be correct, whole thing is wrapped up in selective or "species" shooting.

Under the 1967 duck hunting Michigan hunters are restricted to a basic four-ducks day. Of these four, no more than one wood duck or mallard.

However, that most hunters tend to pass up mergansers, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service allows five of these to be taken daily, in addition to the four "eating type" species; the USFWS means merganser and red merganser. In any one day, you can take one hooded merganser in the daily bag since ducks are scarce.

So, that's how we can take legal ducks per day, what about 11?

Beginning Nov. 1 and continuing for the last 17 days of the season, three areas of Michigan are open to the taking of extra scaup or bluebills.

These include all of the Michigan waters of Lake Erie, the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair; Saginaw Bay south of a line from Sand Point to Point Au Gres; and Muskegon Lake west of Causeway Drive.

All of this makes a good deal for those sportsmen who take their duck hunting seriously but are not content with the regular four-per-day limit. It won't make a lot of difference to the guy who normally goes out just on opening day to bang away at a few birds, then forgets ducks till the next year.

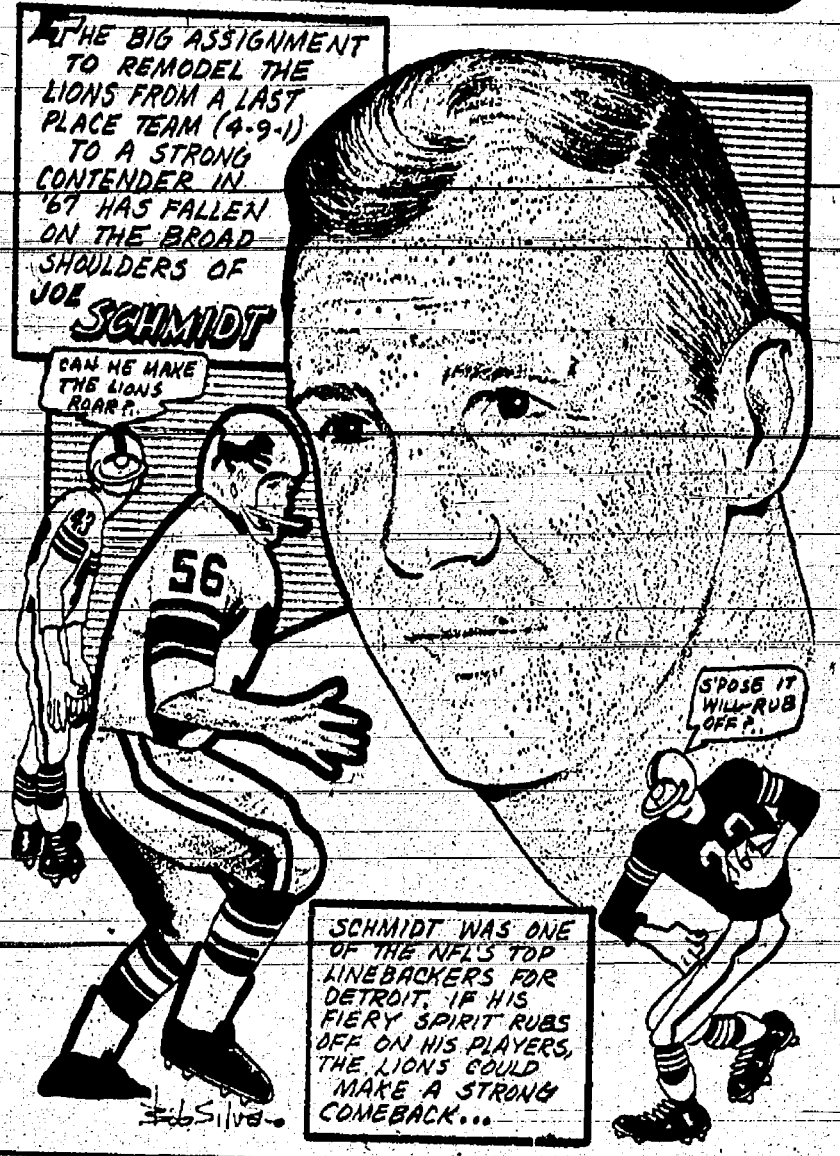

There is no doubt that species hunting is the coming trend in the years ahead. The special "total-only" season is another good example. This 9-day season opens Sept. 15 for about 8,000 holders of special permits but hunting is limited to eight special areas around the state.

The same teal season sees special hunts for rails and jacksnipe in the teal hunting areas. Sept. 15 also opens a "woodcock only" season in the northern two-thirds of Michigan, during which hunters are being treated to pass-up shooting at ruffed grouse.

Hunting opportunities could be dwindling rapidly for most of us if it was not for the innovation of species hunting. We can take advantage of it and enjoy some fine outdoor recreation as we can sit back and mourn the passing of "the good old days."

Which will you choose?

Michigan's '67 Waterfowl Hunting Season Dates Set

Lansing—Michigan's 1967 duck season was set this week for Oct. 9-Nov. 17, five days shorter than a year ago, and goose shooting regulations, matching last fall's format were jointly approved by the State Conservation Commission.

This fall's 40-day duck season and other waterfowl rules were adopted in a special telephone poll of Commissioners from federal hunting guidelines offered by the U. S. Bureau of Sport-Fisheries and Wildlife.

As established, Michigan's duck season will carry bag limits of four birds per day and eight in possession, same as last year, but there will be reduced kill quotas on wood ducks and canvasbacks which are in short supply.

Daily limits on these two species permit hunters to take one of each. Only one canvasback and two wood ducks are allowed in possession. Last fall, the state's waterfowlers could take two wood ducks and two canvasbacks each day and have four of each in their possession.

Mallards, No. 1 on this state's bag list for ducks, remain under limits of two and four. However, their fall flights are not expected to measure up to the good levels of the 1966's.

The Commission again chose Oct. 1 as the goose starter in the Upper and northern Lower Peninsulas. Also in line with last year, goose hunting will begin concurrently with the duck season in the southern Lower Peninsula and end Nov. 30 state-wide.

Bag limits on geese follow those of 1966 at five per day and in possession—Canada geese may again total two of the five.

Last fall's sunrise-to-sunset shooting hours on waterfowl hold true except on Oct. 1, 9, and 20. On Oct. 1, starting time for the goose opener in northern Michigan will be 11 a.m., E.D.T. Throughout the state, the same morning hour will be the magic moment for opening fire Oct. 9 on all migratory birds but woodcock, which may be taken earlier.

Waterfowl action will also be delayed in the Lower Peninsula until 11 a.m., E.D.T., on Oct. 20.

southern Michigan's small game opener.

Bonus shooting patterned exactly after last fall will be offered for duck hunters on American, red-breasted, and hooded mergansers. As an extra to basic ducks limits, the quota on these birds will be five per day and 10 in possession.

As in 1966, hunters may include only one hooded merganser in the daily bag. Possession limit on this species is two.

In a follow-up of another special introduced last fall, Lower Peninsula hunters will get an added crack at scaup under bonus bag limits of two and four featured November 1-17 in a few areas below the Straits.

The 17-day season on scaup will be open in these areas: 1) Michigan waters of Lake Erie, the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair; 2) Saginaw Bay south of a line from Sand Point to Point Au Gres; 3) Muskegon Lake west of Causeway Drive.

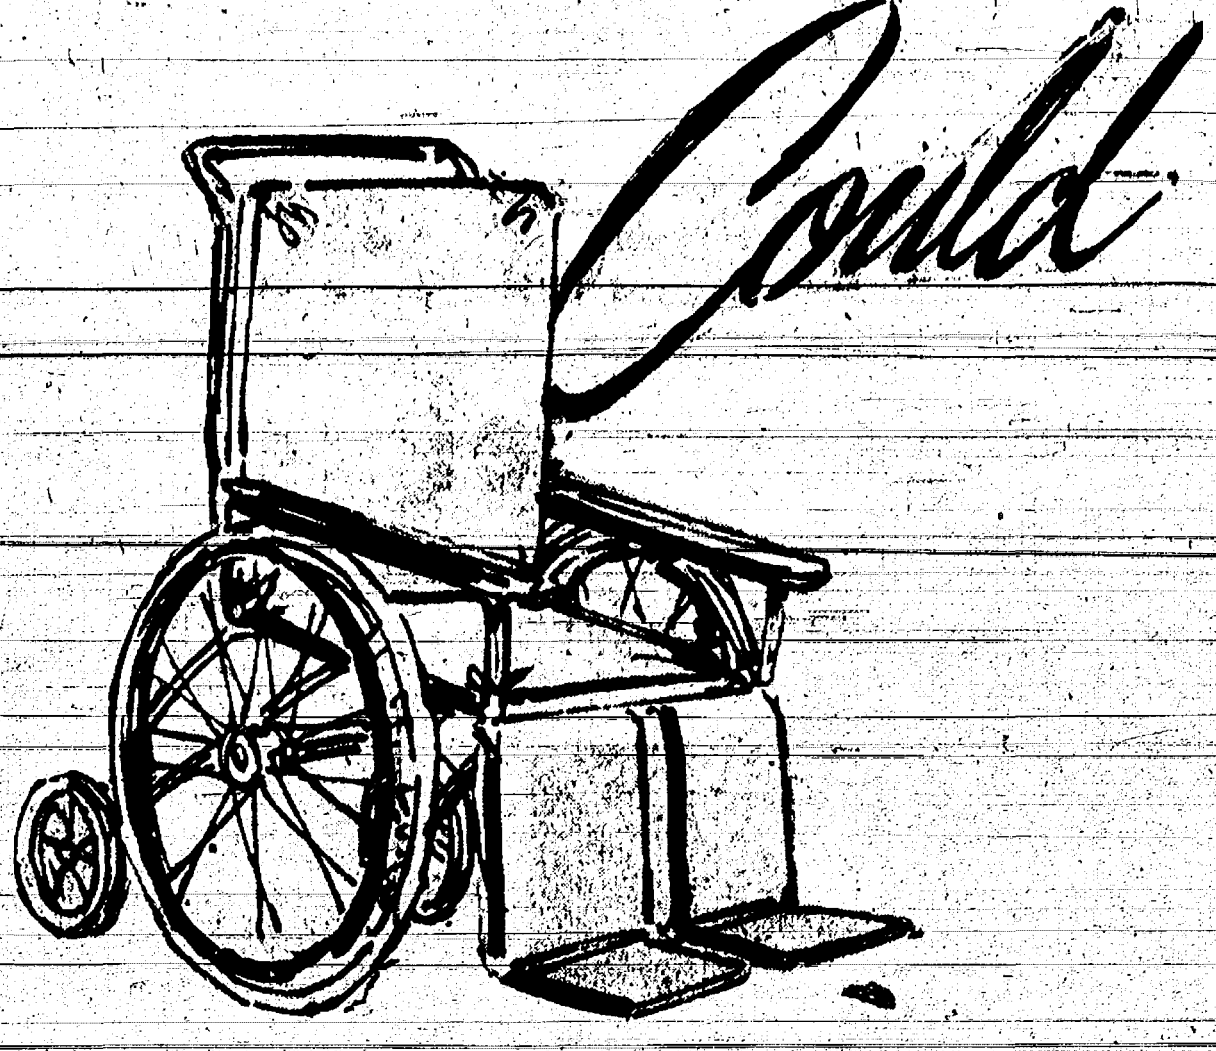

As a new safety measure, hunters sneak shooting on the Great Lakes will only have to have their outboard motors tilted out of the water, provided, as before, the forward motion of their boats is stopped. The Commission-approved change liberalizes the old regulation, considered hazardous for these big waters, which required sneak shooters to remove motors from the transoms of their boats.

Rounding out the 1967 waterfowl season's lineup of targets are coots, rails, gallinules, and jacksnipe. All four species will come under the gun during the duck season but snipe shooting will close early on Nov. 3.

These birds will be covered by last fall's bag limits which by day and in possession are 10 and 20 on coots; 15 and 30 on rails and gallinules; and 8 and 16 on jacksnipe.

WHO PAYS YOUR INCOME WHEN YOU'RE DISABLED BY SICKNESS OR ACCIDENT? IT COULD BE THE MOST IMPORTANT PROBLEM YOU'LL EVER FACE!

Let's face it, a sickness or accident could disable you for a prolonged number of years . . . denying you your ability to produce income, sacrificing your life-time savings . . . leaving you open to many every day bills; food, mortgage payments, car payment, utility bills, clothing, life insurance premiums, and all the necessities regular income allows you to have.

FINALLY, the Continental Casualty Company is making (Policy Form PL-60027A Series)* available to you, to everyone, the same kind of income protection plan that big business and industry rely upon for key personnel. Choose from $100 to $1200 per month - no physical examination required. This plan is guaranteed renewable until you reach age 65.

*The policy has these few exceptions: suicide, pregnancy, war or military service, and Air Travel other than as a passenger for transportation and only in an aircraft certified as airworthy by the country of its registry.

THE THIRTEEN POINT PLAN FOR YOUR COMPLETE PROTECTION:

1. Coverage 24 hours on or off the job.
2. Plan covers sickness originating more than 30 days after its effective date. No waiting period for accident.
3. This plan pays you in or out of the hospital.
4. This plan is guaranteed renewable until you reach age sixty five.
5. House confinement is not required at any time.
6. No restrictive rider can be added once the policy has been in effect.
7. Pays disability from accidents for life from the first day.
8. Pays disability from sickness to age 65 after the 7th day.
9. Premium is waived after three months disability.
10. You choose your own physician, surgeon, or osteopath.
11. Pays 50% of disability benefits for partial disability for 6 months.
12. This plan is not pro-rated or reduced because of any other compensation or insurance.
13. No physical examination required.

Chelsea volunteers are needed for the ALSAC March to be held in Washtenaw county on Sunday, Sept. 17.

Persons interested in volunteering should call Chelsea chairman Sherry Navin at 475-8825. The volunteers are needed to go house to house soliciting money. Funds collected will go to St. Jude's Hospital in Memphis, Tenn. where medical research is being done on lukemia and other diseases. Danny Thomas is national chairman of the fund raising drive.

Assistant chairman Donna Blackwell points out that arm bands and stickers on jackets will be worn by the volunteers as identification during the March. The climax to the collection of funds on Sept. 17 will come at a dance in Ann Arbor at 5 p.m. where the Rationals and other groups will appear.
