Ex-Employee Nabbed for Embezzlement

Through the excellent co-operation of the Stockbridge, Jackson, Chelsea Police Departments, an wanted for embezzlement arrested Tuesday night, Nov. 28.

Stockbridge Police Chief Charlie Jackson, Detective Edward Jackson and Chelsea Police Chief Meranuck combined their efforts to arrest Vernon Samons, originally of Martin, Ky. He apprehended in a Jackson arrest, where he had been employed just before his arrest, was taken to the County Jail in Ann Arbor.

An arrest warrant had been issued for Samons since Sept. 26 as an employee of Esquid Products, he had taken off with company car and $500 worth television tubes. The car was found in Kentucky, but Samons continued on to Virginia, Arkansas and then back to Michigan.

He was arraigned before Municipal Judge Eldon on embezzlement charges. The case is ongoing.

Council Briefs

At a regular session of the Village Council Tuesday, Nov. 21, Trustee Miller reported that all trees purchased for the 1967 tree planting program have been set out. Several requests for trees were not filled this year but will be taken care of during the 1968 season. It is the intention of the council to proceed with the planting of the Lantwood No. 1 area during 1968 and residents of this area will not be required to submit requests for trees.

A discussion was held regarding the need to update some village ordinances, specifically in regard to traffic control and the littering of village streets. Many complaints have been received about the excessive littering of streets, especially in the downtown and parking lot areas, with candy wrappers, crumpled empty pop bottles (some deliberately broken) and debris of all kinds. Trustee Heydlauff was instructed to investigate and submit recommendations to the council at an early date.

Council Acts To Preserve Justice Court

A resolution supporting the continuation of the service presently performed by the Justice of the Peace courts in Chelsea and near-by communities was passed by the Village Council Tuesday, Nov. 21.

According to information in The Ann Arbor News and discussions at a recent meeting of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors, legislation for the creation of County Courts has been proposed. This legislation would force Chelsea residents to travel to Ann Arbor for all court cases, including misdemeanors and local traffic violations. Currently, minor court cases for Chelsea area residents are heard by Sylvan Township Justice of the Peace Chandler A. Rogers. The subject of lower courts is one of the major issues to come before the state legislature in Lansing.

Because of the hardship which would be imposed on the people of Chelsea by the creation of County Courts and the subsequent elimination of lower court service in Chelsea and several other communities, the Village Council felt the necessity for the resolution in favor of the present lower court system.

Copies of the resolution will be given to all members of the state legislature serving this area, the Washtenaw County Senior Circuit Judge, the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors, the Washtenaw County Bar Association and the Supervisors of Sylvan, Lyndon, Manchester, Sharon, Lima and Dexter townships.

Tannenbaum Tour Slated Dec. 17 by Child Study Club

Chelsea Child Study Club has lifted the veil of mystery surrounding their modern Christmas Trees which have been adorning the downtown area. Heretofore, the posters have directed everyone to "Keep Your Eye on This Tree."

The posters now reveal the club's "Tannenbaum Tour" to be held Sunday, Dec. 17 from 6 to 9 p.m.

This tour will impart the feeling and magic of Christmas as seen in portions of the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Dale A. Bailey, 6100 Stoffer Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Baldwin, 1023 Freer Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown, 2020 Manchester Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Daniels, 665 Washington St.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Dietz, 1201 Freer Rd.; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Meyers, 11497 Hadley Rd.

The "Tannenbaum Tour" will capture the glow of soft candlelight, sparkling Christmas trees and outside illumination, as seen in the evening hours, both from within and outside these lovely homes.

Proceeds from this tour will go to the Chelsea High School Scholarship Fund and also for "Tannenbaums" and other trees for the newly-developing Chelsea School Outdoor Laboratory.

Chairman of the tour is Mrs. George A. Staffan with Mrs. Thomas Donkin, residence signs; Mrs. Charles L. Waller, posters; Mrs. Robert J. Meyers, tickets; and Mrs. Paul G. Schauble, Jr., publicity. Brochure-tickets are available at the Chelsea Drug Store or from any club member.

Christmas Gifts for Needy Gathered By Social Service

Plans for Chelsea's annual distribution of gifts to the needy are well underway. In the hope that each area child will receive gifts at Christmas, families needing assistance in providing gifts for their children are urged to contact Mrs. Louis Ramp at the office of the Chelsea Social Service in the Municipal Building any Tuesday or Thursday afternoon before the distribution on Dec. 21. Phone calls may be made to GR5-4581.

Mrs. Ramp also urges that any one knowing of a family who may be in need report that fact to the office of the Chelsea Social Service and provision will be made. Any family living in the area covered by the Chelsea School District is eligible when need for any reason exists.

Early indications point to a record collection of toys. Most of the renovated toys have been collected by the J.C. Auxiliary under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Updegraff. Repairs have been made by students of Cassidy Lake Technical School, who are adept in replacing missing parts and covering old scratches with paint and varnish to turn out sturdy, beautiful toys as good as new.

In the collection are bicycles, mechanical toys, dolls, toy furniture, and games to make the Sylvan-Town Hall resembles Santa's Workshop on the afternoon of the gift giving.

Supplementing these toys are many new ones supplied by scout troops, clubs and church circles and by the Salvation Army of Ann Arbor.

In addition to toys, each family who calls for gifts will receive a box of staple foods, whose main bulk is provided from the canned goods donated at the last assembly of the Senior and Junior High schools. The canned goods are supplemented with home-made cookies and candies and with small wrapped gifts and decorative items also supplied by various organizations. Each family receiving a box also receives a purchase order for fresh meats or other foods of their choice for the holiday table.

Area Farmers Are Guests of Kiwanis Club

Guest Speaker Discusses Workings of New Workmen's Compensation Law

Kiwanis Farmer's Night was observed Monday evening at the Chelsea High school with a wide representation of Chelsea area farmers present. The speaker, Richard K. Welch, told of the new Workman's Compensation requirements for farm employers. Workman's Compensation is an insurance that protects farm workers from loss of income and costs of medical treatment for work-related injuries. It also offers liability insurance protection to farm employers. While the experience of compensation claims for farm workers is limited, Welch predicted that future experience would probably reduce rates.

The Key Club, high school Kiwanis organization, served the meal under the direction of Ben Bower, Key Club president. The Key Club mothers decorated the attractive tables with old-fashioned hand tools and prepared a delicious dinner.

Chelsea Kiwanis Club will hold its annual Christmas dinner Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. This year the dinner and program will take place at the Chelsea Methodist Home with Kiwanis wives as guests. The Fortunes, a barbershop quartet, will present the program.

Still other winner of county medals were Denise Bycraft, flower; Bonnie Powers, home design; Nancy Kennedy; and Mary Neuhaus, dairy foods. Mary Neuhaus, knitting; Linda Van Riper, leadership; Janet Mast, sheep; and Kenny McCalla and Kevin Wheeler, swine.

A special Friends of 4-H Award was presented to Chelsea Standard editor Walter P. Leonard.

Char Powers gave a talk, illustrated with slides, on her citizenship trip to Washington, D.C. She also showed slides from the county 4-H show.

Betsy Doll, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Doll of 17410 Heim Rd., is recovering at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, following an emergency appendectomy Tuesday, Nov. 28.

Santa Visit Is Promised For Saturday

Saturday, Dec. 2 is the day Chelsea youngsters have been waiting for. Santa Claus will be in town from 1 to 3 p.m. to talk with the children, hear their Christmas requests, and give away free candy to his young visitors.

For those who don't have a chance to see Santa this Saturday, he'll be back again from 1 to 3 p.m. Dec. 9 and 10.

CHS Band Appears on National TV

The 126-member Chelsea High school marching band, directed by Bruce Galbraith and Henry Cinkham, was featured during pregame activities at the Thanksgiving day Detroit Lions-Los Angeles Rams game in Detroit. For this spectacular conclusion to its fall marching schedule, the band presented a solo five-minute show before the game. Numbers included in the presentation were a fast entry, "Bye Bye Blues," a march routine to "Everytime I'm in the Arms of My Baby," a dance coordinated with music from "Can-Can" and the "Star Spangled Banner."

Helping the band in the formation of a giant, red-and-white-striped shield made of cloth banners, with "USA" spelled across the top were 14 eighth grade band members. The shield, formed for the playing of the national anthem, was seen by millions of viewers watching the game on CBS-TV stations.

The band re-appeared for the half-time show, joining three other high school bands from Michigan. The combined bands spelled out "Rams" and "Lions" as they played.

A discussion was held regarding the excessive and unnecessary parking of cars on village streets which interferes with snow removal and street sweeping. It was a council decision to enforce the present village ordinance No. 10A, adopted in January 1961, which prohibits the night parking of vehicles within the village limits. Effective Dec. 15 all permits for parking of any vehicle on the village streets from 2 a.m. to 6 a.m. will be rescinded and the police department has been instructed to ticket any vehicle which is parked in violation of the ordinance. Landlords and home owners must arrange for the off-street parking of all vehicles involved with any particular piece of property.

A resolution which was approved will be submitted to all members of the state legislature who serve this area, the Washtenaw County Senior Circuit Judge, the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors, the Washtenaw County Bar Association and the Superintendents of Schools, Lincoln, Manchester, Sharon, Lima and Dexter townships. Whereas, based on information contained in The Ann Arbor News and a recent meeting of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors it appears that the lower court judges of Chelsea and Lincoln, Washtenaw County, will be served by judges residents of Chelsea.

Campaign Leaders Will Be Honored

Community Chest campaign leaders from all over the state will celebrate their 1967 campaign achievements at a luncheon sponsored by the Michigan United Fund at the Kellogg Center on the Michigan State University Campus in East Lansing, Monday, Dec. 4.

Invited to attend from Dexter is Mrs. C. Bruce Waggoner, Dexter United Community Chest chairman.

Campaign chairmen from local United Fund Community Chests, Red Feather and Torch Drives in Michigan, along with other selected guests will be honored with award plaques. The awards will be presented by Dr. Harry A. Towsey, Michigan United Fund president, assisted by "Miss Michigan 1967," Toni Jo Abbenante, a 19-year-old junior at Western Michigan University.

Heading the program will be Judd Arnett, Detroit newspaper columnist, who will speak on "These Changing Times."

Entertainment will be provided by "Fat Bob" Taylor, "The Singing Plumber," a metropolitan opera audition winner and one of the most talented and gifted new persons on the Michigan scene.

Those attending will be the guests of Burroughs Corp. and National Steel Corp. The theme of the meeting is "Volunteers Making Tomorrow Better Today."

Funds Drive Underway To Help JA

The Chelsea Junior Achievement companies and similar JA programs throughout southeastern Michigan stand to benefit from the 1968 Junior Achievement Fund Raising Campaign. A goal of $410,000 has been set for the campaign, the largest fund-raising effort in JA history, according to Joseph F. Kerigan, Chrysler vice-president and general chairman of the campaign. Aiding in the fund-raising will be 500 volunteer solicitors.

Contributions to the drive will provide capital to finance the 1968 Junior Achievement program for more than 8,000 southeastern Michigan students participating in 419 miniature corporations. Although the three Chelsea JA companies are using rooms and equipment at Chelsea High school "rent-free" this year, they may need funds next year for rent or for additional machinery as their products become complex. Junior Achievement uses it funds to install necessary manufacturing equipment in schools; these schools are permitted to share the use of the machinery with their JA companies. Equipment installed in meeting places outside of school systems is owned and operated only by JA. Funds also help the various JA companies pay for the use of their meeting rooms, when rent is charged.

David Logan, coordinating advisor of the Chelsea JA companies, has stated that Chrysler Proving Grounds, long sponsor of this year's campaign, plans to bring in other local industries as additional sponsors next year if the Chelsea JA program continues to be enthusiastically supported by the students.

The Chelsea companies meet each Thursday for 30 weeks between September and April, inclusive.

Tigers Draw Home Opener For Spring

Detroit—After three straight years of opening the American League season on the road, the Tigers have drawn a home opener for 1968—against Boston, launching defense of its league championship.

Appearance of the hard-hitting Red Sox for the traditional Tiger Stadium opener on Tuesday, April 9, was disclosed Saturday in the home schedule announced by Jim Campbell, executive vice-president and general manager.

The schedule also disclosed that the Tigers will play their 81 home games on 78 dates—one more than in 1967—with 42 at night—two below 1967 and three below the peak of 45 in 1966.

The customary three two-nighters are included among the night dates. In addition, there will be five Sunday doubleheaders but the only holiday date on the schedule will be a single afternoon game July 4 against the California Angels.

Campbell said he considers the home schedule "one of the best the Tigers have had recently."

"We have very attractive dates for the teams most popular with the fans," he pointed out.

In addition to opening the season here, the Red Sox are down for three straight night games: June 18-20 and a week-end series Aug. 2-4. The New York Yankees, still a strong draw at Tiger Stadium, are booked for six night games and one week-end. The Chicago White Sox, No. 1 in crowd appeal in 1967 are scheduled for two week-ends.

Because of the decrease in the number of night games, fans will find 29 afternoons of action on the schedule—four Thursdays in addition to Opening Day, 13 Sundays and 11 Saturdays.

Monday continues as the lightest day of the week, with four night games scheduled. On other days or nights of the week, the Tigers will be in action from 10 to 13 times each.

By month, the schedule also is well-balanced. Following the usual night April docket of eight games, the Tigers will have 10 night games in May, 11 in June, 12 in July, 13 in August, 14 in September and 15 in October.

Campbell also announced that two-nighters will begin at 5:30 p.m., 30 minutes earlier than before. Night games will be at 8 p.m., Saturday afternoons at 2:15 p.m. and all other afternoons, including doubleheaders, at 1:30 p.m.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

GOD'S WORD

Many times, by teaching and example, Jesus brought forth to his disciples and followers the importance of finding faith and strength in the words of God. In this modern world we live in, amid the luxuries things we have adapted to the role of everyday conveniences, some of us must still search for happiness. Neither wealth nor achievement can insulate us against some of life's common anxieties. One cannot buy a guarantee of health. The right to live to be a hundred is something that is not for sale. We cannot buy the tomorrow we want. What that day brings depends upon many things—our own individual efforts, the events that take place around us, the people with whom we come in contact. But, one thing is sure, our life will be fuller, will be more enriched, if we have the strength and the faith that may be found in the words of God. It is written, "man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God." In God's words, and in the principles of Christianity, there is strength and purpose for every man.

Ways To Prevent Poultry Cannibalism

Within flocks of chickens exist a pecking order where more dominant birds in the flock will peck at the so-called outcasts. If pecking becomes so intense as to draw blood, cannibalism will result.

Michigan State University poultry scientists say cannibalism results from mismanagement practices or faulty breeding, improper nutrition, over-crowding, and over-heating. Cannibalism can be reduced, scientist say, by considering factors which will improve the general welfare and comfort of chicks.

They suggest properly balanced diets, increased feeder space, continuous fresh water supply and elimination of internal and external parasites.

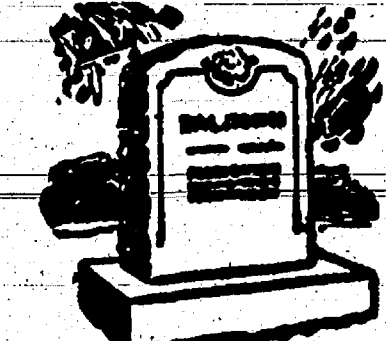

Mechanical methods may be used to reduce pecking and cannibalism. Michigan State University scientists suggest the following: vision shield or glasses, which prevent side vision but allow front vision for feeding; debanking by removing upper beak or removing portion of both upper and lower beak; pick guard attached to beak without interfering with feeding; commercial anti-pick preparations.

2. What was his position?

First Implied Consent Reports Now Being Received By State Offices

Lansing—Reports of refusal to take sobriety tests under the state's new implied consent law have started coming into the Michigan Department of State for action. The first two cases were apprehended on the afternoon of Nov. 8, a day after the law went into effect, said Secretary of State James M. Hare. In cases where the driver refuses to take a sobriety test, he has 14 days to ask for a hearing from the time the arresting officer files in writing with the Department of State a sworn affidavit that he had reason to believe the driver was under the influence of alcohol. If he does not request a hearing within the appropriate time, explained Hare, the law says: "The Secretary of State shall suspend or revoke the person's operator or chauffeur's license or permit to drive for not less than 90 days nor more than two years. If the person is a resident (of Michigan) without a license or permit to drive, such a license or permit will be denied for the same period."

Requested hearings shall be held within 10 days under the same review procedures as set up in Section 322 of the Michigan Vehicle Code (License Appeal Board), Hare noted.

This hearing, notes Hare, is restricted by law to determine only the following:
1. Whether the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person was operating "while under the influence" or "while impaired";
2. Whether the person was placed under arrest for either of these offenses;
3. Whether he reasonably refused to submit to the test upon request; and
4. Whether he was advised of his rights under the act.

After this hearing, Hare said, his Department may suspend, revoke, or deny a license or permit to drive for between 90 days to two years.

URBAN PROGRAM FUNDS
George H. Mahon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee has predicted Congress will approve funds for both of the Johnson administration's key urban programs. The Texas Democrat said recent pledges by insurance companies would stimulate House interest in the program.

Washington Report by Congressman

MARVIN L. ESCH

Congress last week took the first step toward the urgent housing needs of the low income families. The Senate Housing and Community Affairs Subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources, unanimously reported on containing many families in a plan which I joined in early Spring.

The Housing Bill for the next decade, which makes the goal of one hundred thousand urban lower income families in the next three years, for millions of people, will establish a National Housing Foundation. It will encourage and assist participation and financing of the housing program. It is estimated that private funds will be generated for every dollar invested in government. Through the use of community organization for housing and home improvement, counseling, and assistance, and, in some cases, small interest loans, the bill will make the housing market more available for families who have been left out of the ownership market because of large downpayment requirements, uncertain income and credit ratings.

low income, employment. It is an added incentive for this family to work to maintain the family unit and to contribute to the community life.

The importance of home ownership to a sense of participation and responsibility in community life has been thoroughly demonstrated. Studies of last summer's tragic riots show that violence decreased in areas of high home ownership. Police figures also indicate that petty crime and health code violations are significantly lower in areas where home ownership is high. Senator Percy, originator of the Home Ownership Foundation concept, recently put it well when he said: "Ownership, particularly ownership of a home, means that people have a stake in their community. It gives them some emotional roots. They can begin to feel that their community is really theirs, and that they have some say in shaping its future."

I am delighted that the Senate Committee has at last taken action on our proposal and I am hopeful that the bill will receive the approval of the full Senate before the Congress adjourns in December. There is widespread and enthusiastic support for this bill here in the House and early action is expected next year.

National ASCS Wool Marketing Year Ends Dec. 31

Growers were reminded today that the 1967 marketing year under the wool and mohair program ends Dec. 31.

Rand Dolezky, chairman, Washington County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, explains that this means that payments for the current 1967 year will depend on completing all details of marketing either wool, mohair, or lambs, by that date. Marketings completed after Dec. 31, 1967 will become marketings in the 1968 marketing year, and thus not eligible for payments until early 1969.

The chairman urges producers to make sure that all details for the 1967 sales are completed by the end of the year. This includes passing title to the buyer, delivering the wool or mohair to the buyer either physically or through documents (such as warehouse receipts or bills of lading) transferring control to the buyer, and having available all the information needed to determine the buyers' total purchase price.

Applications for the 1967 marketing year payments under the National Wool Act may be filed with the ASCS county office at any time and the chairman advises that this be done as soon as possible. Incentive payments under the wool program are based on the average national price for marketings during the entire year, and this may be determined more exactly if reports on marketings are complete. ASCS, therefore, is urging that all 1967 year applications be filed before Jan. 31, 1968.

Payments for the 1967 marketing year will begin in April of 1968.

The two Cub Scouts left the den when they became Webelos at the monthly pack meeting.

Voices from Home Records Made at Red Cross Center

Do you have a son, grandson, husband, brother or sister in military service or know of someone who has? Your Red Cross extends an invitation to send a wonderful surprise to the serviceman far away overseas or hospitalized in the U.S. who cannot be with his loved ones at Christmas.

Voices from Home is the label on each 15-minute plastic disc which travels like an airmail letter. Families or individuals record in private, much like talking on the telephone—just chatting about whatever they please. Children or adults may sing, read or recite poems. A helpful hint— jot down reminders of what you want to say or do ahead of time and bring along.

A volunteer or staff member will assist you prior to recording. The record is furnished by Red Cross and sent without charge. A Christmas gift money could not buy and only families can give. Hawks, Foxes Indicate Too Many Mice

Searing hawks and fox tracks in the snow, if present in unusual numbers, are a pretty good indicator to orchardists and tree farmers that trees are endangered by an overabundance of mice, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Each year field mice take a heavy toll of valuable orchard trees, Christmas trees and other plantings. Bark is a mainstay of the mouse diet. The tiny rodents live in ground cover under the snow, and often completely girdle trunks and roots of trees that represent several years' investment to a farmer.

Mice are the main food of hawks, owls and foxes. When the local mouse crop is high, these predators tend to concentrate where the living is good. Although predators take a heavy toll of mice, orchardists and tree farmers often find that mouse control is necessary.

To assist Michigan farmers in rodent and bird control problems, the Michigan Department of Agriculture helps finance the work of a federal biologist from the U. S. Department of Interior's Division of Wildlife Services.

Information on farm mouse control is available through the cooperative federal and state program at the offices of the Michigan Department of Agriculture in the Lewis Cass Building, Lansing.

Steel Industry Cited for Inefficient Operation

East Lansing—The federal government should not protect the "inefficient" U. S. steel industry from foreign steel imports, contend a Michigan State University economist and his colleague from the University of Rhode Island.

In testimony before the Senate Finance Committee, Prof. Walter Adams of MSU and Prof. Joel B. Dirlam of Rhode Island said that foreign competition is just what American steel producers need to upgrade their performance.

If the world had no fanatics, eccentrics and partisans, life might be rather dull and tiresome.

J. Tighe Earns Manager of Year Title in AAA Ball

Detroit—Jack Tighe, who directed the Toledo Mud Hens to an international league playoff championship and was designated "manager of the year" in the Class AAA circuit, has been named to manage the club again in 1968.

His appointment was announced in Toledo Wednesday by Charles Senger, general manager of the Mud Hens.

Tighe, former manager and coach of the Tigers, was credited with a superb managerial performance in guiding the Mud Hens to their Governor's Cup victory last September. His team, which contributed nine players to the Tigers during the course of the season, was a pre-season choice for last place in the International League and occupied that spot as late as July 25.

But a drive after that date in which the Mud Hens posted 32 victories in their last 40 games carried the team to third place in the final standings and a berth in the playoffs.

In the post-season series, the Mud Hens eliminated first-place Richmond by winning three games after losing the first two, then topped fourth-place Columbus with another come-from-behind attack of four straight victories after losing the first game.

In the voting for the league's manager of the year, Tighe received 16 of 29 votes to beat out Earl Weaver of Rochester, and Lum Harris of Richmond. Harris has since become manager of the Atlanta Braves and Weaver a coach of the Baltimore Orioles.

VOLUNTEER LAY COUNSELING: Student-inmates of the Cassidy Lake Technical School enjoy a typical Tuesday evening program of discussions and idea exchanges with members of the Chelsea business and professional community who have volunteered their services.

Volunteer Counseling Program Initiated at Cassidy Lake School

Tuesday night programs at Cassidy Lake Technical school featuring speakers from the Chelsea community were initiated at the beginning of October and have been well received by the men at Cassidy Lake.

The programs are part of "volunteer counseling" service which involves men from the community offering to participate in group activities with the inmates.

Jerry McDougall, acting superintendent at Cassidy Lake Technical school, spoke to the Chelsea Kiwanis club about the voluntary counseling programs. Since then, several Kiwanians have been guest speakers at the institution, including Wallace Wood, William Freeman, Lu Muck, and the Rev. John Fall.

Through the speakers and other volunteers at each program, the men at Cassidy Lake will hope to become rehabilitated for life in the community after their release.

Topics discussed have included personal adjustment, job habits, employment skills and the relationship of a man to the community. One result of these meetings has been a blood donor drive planned by the Cassidy Lake men.

Future plans for the Tuesday night programs include an explanation of Civil Defense by John Palmer, and talks by speakers from various industries in the Chelsea area.

Zip Coding May Speed Up Holiday Mail

Holiday mailers will spend less time at parcel post windows mailing Christmas gifts if they have the proper ZIP Code in the mailing address.

Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien today reminded mailers that since January of this year, postage for a package is determined by the ZIP Code number. If the Code is not in the address, the window clerk must look it up. This, obviously slows movement in the parcel post line.

O'Brien noted that this Christmas, a record volume of mail is expected and "anything that can be done to expedite the processing will ease the burden on postal employees, speed service and help make a visit to the post office a more pleasant experience."

Most parcel post is sorted and routed by ZIP Code. Presently about three-fourths of all packages come into the post office with the ZIP Codes already in the address. Since Jan. 15, when Public Law 89-593 became effective, the key to determining the postage rate on a parcel is the "sectional center," the main post office serving a large area. As many as 100 post offices may route their mail through the sectional center which is a transportation and marketing hub. The first three numbers of the five-digit ZIP Code represent this major post office.

"There is still time to fill out and return the recently distributed ZIP Code Locator Cards to obtain needed codes before holiday mailing," O'Brien said.

The cards were sent to households during September and October to make the codes readily available. Persons wishing to find a number fill in the zipless address and their return address on the card and mail it free of charge. The post office supplies the proper code and returns the form.

Postmaster Richard Schaules lists the suggested mailing dates for holiday gift parcels:

Gifts of five pounds or less destined to U. S. servicemen abroad, and overseas air mail to civilians in remote areas off of main air routes—Dec. 1.

Gifts to distant states sent by surface mail—Dec. 4.

Overseas air mail on heavily traveled routes—Dec. 10.

Air Mail to the Armed Forces overseas—Dec. 11.

Domestic air mail—Dec. 13.

Postmaster Schaules also urges the citizens of Chelsea to be sure to use the correct address on their letters and packages going overseas to servicemen to avoid serious delays in delivery.

Postmaster Schaules reports that millions of letters and packages going overseas have been delayed because they were insufficiently addressed. He said that one of the biggest problems has been the failure of persons to include the very important five-digit APO or FPO number in the military address. Mail not containing this number is incorrectly addressed.
