Lower Court Districting Plan Reviewed

Supervisors Pass Resolution Urging Court for Western Portion of County

At the regular meeting of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors Tuesday, Jan. 9, Sylvan Township Supervisor Maurice Hoffman introduced for consideration a resolution concerning the appointment of judges for Washtenaw county. Hoffman's resolution, which would rescind the one passed in November 1967, calls for the establishment of a judicial district in the western portion of Washtenaw county, composed of the 12 western townships, a permanent judge for these townships and a permanent courtroom in that area.

The resolution, which the Board of Supervisors passed in November 1967 and sent to the House of Representatives in Lansing, commended, in effect, that the districting of the five judges allotted to the county be as follows: three assigned to the city of Ann Arbor, one to Ypsilanti and one to Saline.

Unfavorably, this caused concern to government officials in the communities of the western part of the county, particularly in Rochester and Chelsea, which are located, respectively, 26 and 16 miles from the city limits of Ann Arbor.

According to Chelsea Attorney John F. Keusch, the Ann Arbor resolution was proposed and passed because there were no attorneys in the western part of the county who were willing to serve. He added that no attorneys had ever been contacted in regard to the position.

Because the new system will involve pre-trial procedures, which means at least two appearances in court, both police officers and citizens would be required to travel to Ann Arbor if they wished to contest even a minor traffic violation, rather than being permitted to appear in a local Justice Court, as is done under the present system.

These changes in the lower court system of Michigan are being made as a result of the new state constitution, which states that all lower courts as they presently exist will be abolished as of January 1, 1970. In place of the justices of the peace, who now preside, the Constitution requires that individuals who have been trained as attorneys at law be selected. Preparation for this election must be completed before the

New Pastor Begins Duties At Assembly of God Church

The Rev. Stephen Vaudrey began his pastoral duties Sunday, Jan. 7 at the First Assembly of God church at 14900 Old US-12. He had previously been the associate pastor of Fair Haven Assembly of God church, Dearborn Heights, for a year. Originally from Spokane, Wash., the Rev. Vaudrey graduated from Hub City Bible Institute in Aberdeen, S. D., in 1966. The school has since moved to Jamestown, N. D., and is known as Trinity Bible Institute. He and his wife, who was formerly from Milwaukee, S. D., have a six-month-old daughter, Becky.

The Rev. Vaudrey and his family plan to move to Chelsea soon.

Varsity Cagers Take 5th Loss For Season

Two League Games Scheduled at Home This Week-End

The Chelsea Bulldog basketball team suffered its fifth loss of the season, losing to the Saline Hornets last Friday night. The Bulldogs, up against a big Saline team, were defeated by a final score of 59 to 33.

John Lixey and Jack Risner led in the scoring for the Bulldogs, each with a total of seven points. Lance Burghardt followed with six points; Roy Holliday, four points; Mike Schnaidt, three points; Craig Houle, two points; Rob Powers, two points; and Larry Gaken, two points.

The Bulldogs have a busy week-end ahead of them. Tomorrow night they will clash with Dexter at home, and Saturday night Dundee will play the Bulldogs here.

Strike Settled At Chrysler Test Facility

UAW Local 1284 ended its nine-day strike against the Chrysler Proving Grounds when its members ratified a new contract by a vote of 205 to 29. The voting by secret ballot took place at a meeting in the Chelsea High school auditorium Saturday, Jan. 13 at 2 p.m. The union and the management bargaining committee had reached an agreement by 10 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 11, but the strike continued until Saturday when the general union membership vote was taken.

At the beginning of the strike, 26 items were unresolved. The union later withdrew two of these because they would be more correctly handled at the national level. The other 24 issues were then resolved, according to Local 1284 president Jake Donohue. He said that the most important change was made in the area of seniority supplement and promotional agreement. The Proving Grounds now has fewer, but broader, seniority groupings and improved promotional language; the person with the most seniority will now be the first one promoted and the last one laid off in his job grouping, Donohue stated.

Members of the union bargaining committee were Robert Taylor from the staff of Douglas Fraser, who heads up the Chrysler section of the International UAW; Edward Grant, UAW servicing representative from the staff of Joseph McKusker, Region 1A office; and Proving Grounds union employees Jake Donohue, Gregory, Gale DeSmith and Don O'Dell of Chelsea, and Evan Leddy of Manchester. Management bargaining committee included Donald Smith and Henry S. Lyons of the corporate labor relations staff and Sid Hirschfeld, corporate salary administration, all of the Detroit offices; James Glover, personnel engineering staff, Highland Park; B. J. Ludwig, chief engineer.

Community Choir Group Being Formed

The music committee of St. Paul United Church of Christ is in the process of starting a community choir. Committee members, Mrs. Richard Borton, wrote letters to all area churches asking for singing volunteers. All high school students and adults of the community are invited to join. Affiliation with a local church is not necessary to become a member of the choir.

The first rehearsal will be held Sunday, Feb. 4 at 4 p.m. in the sanctuary of St. Paul. Diana L'Roy will direct the choir, and accompaniment will be provided by James Sharpe, organist at St. Paul church.

A concert has been scheduled for Palm Sunday, April 7, with the time to be arranged. If a sufficiently large number of people join the choir, the concert may be given in the Chelsea High school auditorium. The program will consist of sacred Easter music and possibly a cantata.

The idea for a community choir was initiated when a large audience showed up for St. Paul's musicals. The church music committee felt that if so many people expressed interest in the musical program of one church, then they would surely be enthusiastic about a community music venture.

DIMES BOARD FILLED: The 1968 March of Dimes board at Wolverine Tavern was completely filled with dimes 24 hours after it was hung up. Shown with the board are Mrs. Kenneth (Dorlene) Norris, chairman of the 1968 March of Dimes campaign in Chelsea, and Carl Dredge, co-owner of Wolverine Tavern.

New Assistant Administrator Named for Methodist Home

F. RICHARD SCHNEIDER

Police Chief Addresses Kiwanis Club

At the Monday night meeting of Chelsea Kiwanis club, Police Chief George Meranuck, as guest speaker, discussed police problems relating to the village of Chelsea. He described some of the cases likely to be covered in a typical month, and commented that law enforcement is effective only if everyone, including parents of youthful potential offenders, cooperates with the police department.

Chief Meranuck also mentioned the problems of increasing crime in the nation, and asked the Kiwanians present whether or not they thought the crime wave would pass Chelsea by. He advised the community to do everything possible now to prevent an increase in local crime, such as a careful screening by local industries of applicants from outside the community.

It is extremely important to continue to be serviced by a court rather than having to go to Ann Arbor for each court case, according to Chief Meranuck. He also cited the need for another policeman on the village force to give two-man protection to villagers every day of the week.

The Chelsea Methodist Home has announced the appointment of F. Richard Schneider as assistant administrator of the Home. Schneider was born in Chelsea in 1935 to Mrs. Lewis Schneider and the late Mr. Schneider. He and his twin brother Douglas Delano, were the oldest in a family of seven children. They were the first Boy Scouts to receive two religion awards—Pro Deo et Patria and God and Country—as well as Eagle Silver Palms. Schneider's mother and family now live at 219 Railroad St.

In 1953, he entered Michigan State University. Two years later, he decided to "go west" with the National Council of Churches' migrant ministry for one summer. That summer stretched out to three years. Schneider first lived and worked among the migrants in Utah. Next, he was offered a full-time position with the migrant ministry in Oregon. During a visit to Eola Village, a huge housing project for migrants, he met Mrs. Letha Wakeman, the lone missionary there. She urged him to stay on and work with her. Feeling a strong call, he agreed. As he was only seven miles from Linfield College in McMinnville, he was able to finish his undergraduate work at the same time. During his senior year, he worked as the full-time director of Eola Village.

After receiving his AB from Linfield in 1957, Schneider went on active duty with the Army, completing his military training in six months at Fort Ord, Calif. Upon his discharge, he married Ruth Ann Eddy of Waterloo, Ia. They had met a year and one-half before when he visited Watch Academy in Mount Pleasant, Ia. where she had taught for five years.

The Schneiders first made their home in Tallahassee, Fla. With a grant from the National Institute of Mental Health, he studied for his master's in social work at Florida State University, from which he received his MS in 1960. While in Tallahassee, he was assigned to field placements in Birmingham, Ala., where he and his wife lived in a children's institution for a year.

Next, the Schneiders went to the Winnebago Children's Home in Wisconsin. During the five years he served as director of social services, he and his staff developed a remedial school and a foster home program, opened three

Chelsea Bank Re-Elects Board At Annual Meet

Chelsea State Bank re-elected its Board of Directors at the annual meeting held Tuesday. Maintaining their positions on the board are Paul G. Schmitz, Sr., Paul G. Schmitz, Jr., R. A. Palmer, P. W. Merkel, John J. Keusch, Howard S. Holmes, Dudley K. Holmes and Paul E. Mann.

Following the annual meeting, the Board of Directors held its organizational meeting. Re-elected to their posts were Paul G. Schmitz, Sr., chairman of the board; Paul E. Mann, president; and Howard S. Holmes, vice-president. Paul G. Schmitz, Jr., was re-elected cashier and promoted to vice-president, while Richard J. Kern was promoted from assistant cashier to assistant vice-president. Rosemary Hummel was re-elected assistant cashier. Two new assistant cashiers elected at the meeting were Loren E. Keezer and L. Edward Wenk.

Gun Safety Program Set For Youngsters

Chelsea Jaycees are planning to conduct a program on BB gun safety, shooting education, and good marksmanship training for all interested area boys and girls, ages 7 to 14. A preview presentation will be held Wednesday, Jan. 31 at 6:30 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium to further explain the program and to determine the number of youngsters wishing to enroll.

The program will consist of 14 hours of instruction, divided into seven weekly two-hour sessions. Time and place of the sessions will be announced later. Any child interested in taking the course should fill in the blank on page 12 and bring it to Gambles Hardware store or Chelsea Drug store before Jan. 20.

Jaycees pointed out that they will provide all guns. Only the safest type of BB gun will be used in the program. Participants should not bring their own guns. A registration fee of $30 cents per person will be charged to cover the costs of using the equipment.

This program, which will be held in Chelsea for the first time, is part of a national gun safety program for children sponsored by group homes, expanded the professional services staff from one to 11 workers, and brought the agency into the membership of the Child Welfare League. Jaycees in various parts of the country for the past seven years. During this time, more than five million boys and girls have learned how to handle a BB gun more safely and accurately. Each spring, Jaycee clubs sponsoring these programs send one or more teams of four youngsters each to

Peanut Sale Slated To Help March of Dimes

Boy Scouts of Chelsea, including Troops 425, 465 and 476, will conduct a peanut sale in the downtown area tomorrow night and all day Saturday. Anyone donating to the March of Dimes through these Scouts will receive a bag of peanuts. Through similar peanut sales during past March of Dimes campaigns, the Scouts have collected considerable sums of money for the March of Dimes.

Winter Concert Slated Sunday By CHS Bands

Both Symphonic, Concert Bands Will Appear in Annual Public Event

The High School Bands of Chelsea will present a Winter Concert Sunday, Jan. 21, at 3 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium. Participating will be the 86-piece Symphonic Band, directed by Bruce W. Galbraith, and the 64-piece Concert Band, under the direction of Henry Tinkham.

Featured in the Symphonic Band program will be compositions by Howard Hanson, Kenneth Williams, Charles Carter and Caesar Giovanni. The Symphonic Band will play the Class "C" and "D" Junior High School Band Festival music. Chelsea Junior band members will be in attendance to hear the music they will be preparing for the March Festival.

The Concert Band program will include music by J. P. Kirnberger, Clare Grundman, John J. Morrissey and G. E. Holmes.

Free will offering will be taken at the close of the concert for summer band camp scholarships.

Wrestlers Pin Willow Run By 39-12 Score

Chelsea High's powerhouse wrestling team scored a 39-12 victory over another strong area team last Thursday night. Willow Run had a 5-0 season record over some tough wrestling teams and looked like a state contender itself prior to its encounter with the Chelsea crew.

Jim Wencell (95) started the Chelsea team right with a 4-0 decision victory. It was Wencell's second win in two varsity starts. John McKeighan (103) came out with a 2-2 draw. In the last moments, McKeighan and his opponent had their supporters watching them and the clock as McKeighan almost gave up a reversal but hung on to save the two team points.

Jim Poertner (112) won his match, 7-4, scoring the winning points in the last seconds of the third round to give Chelsea an 8-2 lead in team points.

Bill Kushmaul (112), wrestling his first match, came up against Willow Run's undefeated 120-pound man who has won all his matches by falls. Kushmaul put up a determined fight but fell victim to the other man's experience and lost by a third-round fall.

Mike Hendricks (127) won a 6-4 decision in a quick-moving match. Paul Stahl (133) dealt a 7-3 defeat to a Willow Run wrestler who had not lost a match this year until he met Stahl.

Elaine Eder Is Peace Corps Volunteer Assigned to Uganda

Elaine R. Eder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Eder, Sr. of 754 Taylor St., has recently been named a Peace Corps volunteer after completing 14 weeks of training at Teachers College of Columbia University in New York City. Miss Eder, who received a BA degree from the University of Michigan in 1967, with a major in geography, is one of 27 new volunteers who have been assigned to teach in Uganda secondary schools, working under the Uganda Ministry of Education. The volunteers will teach liberal arts or mathematics and science to students preparing for the School Certificate Examination given to graduating students. Two volunteer lawyers will make a digest of past cases for a legal system based on precedent. The volunteers

Lansing Report . . .
Employees have a lot of money and are living the "life of Riley," the Civil Service Commission says, however, that more than 10,000 of the state's 40,000 employees make less than $100 a week. Half of the state employees make less than $200 a week. For many people, especially the unskilled in the sparsely populated northern part of the state, that may seem like a lot—and many families would think they were doing well on $120 a week. But most of the state employees live in Detroit, Grand Rapids, Flint and Lansing where living costs are considerably higher and they don't go very far. No one will deny that some top administrators of large state agencies are drawing good salaries—some $20,000 a year. But the salary of a man who draws that much is such that he could, in most cases, earn much more in private employment. When the Civil Service Commission orders pay raises though, it is primarily concerned with the 20,000 to 25,000 in the lower income brackets because, right now, we are in a tight labor market.
Ordinarily, the state government employment turnover is about 10 percent a year. The last turnover rate, the Commission reports, is 19 percent a year. As you know, it is a costly process to hire and train new employees and bring them up to a level of efficiency where they are valuable employees. So every lost employee is an added expense to the state. Hence, the commission's interest in raising salaries is an effort to hold down the turnover rate.
In just three instances, then—education, Medicaid and state employees' salaries—you have a good example of why costs of state government continue to rise.

Court Reorganization
In addition, a large lot near the old bank would provide ample parking spaces for people using the courts. However, Hoffman concluded that the most important thing is to insure the establishment of a permanent court building in Chelsea. A new western Washtenaw county, whether or not it would be located in Chelsea.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

Next week there will be three days of school—Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. On Thursday and Friday, Jan. 25 and 26, teachers will be having conferences and marking records.

KINDERGARTEN—
Room 3
Teacher, Mrs. Bower
We have a new grocery store. Snow is fun to play with outside. Our room has two turtles. We have a globe of the world. We have a flag in our room. Everyone is making a Health Book.

FIRST GRADE—
Room 4
Teacher, Mrs. Andrews
Reporters, Linda Hatt and Shelly Hatt
We are learning about dinosaurs! We're making a book about all the different kinds that lived on earth. Our favorite one is Tyrant King. The chicken pox and mumps have been sneaking around our room, so we have been trying to take good care of ourselves. It's good to have everyone back in school again.

Room 8
Teacher, Mrs. Smedegaard
Reporter, E. Langdon
We have a new girl in our class. Her name is Paula Borst. We are glad Paula came. We made snowmen. They are stuffed with newspaper. We learned the poem, "First Snow," and we made pictures of ourselves in the snow. We practiced weaving with paper. We wove paper mats.

Room 5
Teacher, Mrs. Thodeson
Reporter, Pam Gilbee
We are making an alphabet book. We are learning about dinosaurs. Mary Lou Stoll, Scott Bayer, Lisa Henry, Donna Marshall, and Pamela Gilbee have January birthdays.

Room 2
Teacher, Mrs. Thornton
Reporter, Gwen Patrick
We made a winter mural. It shows us sliding down hill, skating and even ice fishing. We sprayed snow on it. We are making a dinosaur scene. We used paper mache to make a volcano and the land. Tom Barrels and Thea Pickles brought their dinosaurs. In numbers, we are learning about money and telling time. We had a surprise from the library. We got some books that we can read. They are fun to read by ourselves.

SECOND GRADE—
Room 10
Teacher, Mrs. Tallman
Reporter, Nancy Stenson
Our TV science teacher has been telling us about energy. He has shown us many different forms of energy. We have been learning about energy in our science class, too. We talked about light. We learned how a light bulb works. We made an electrical circuit and turned the light bulb on and off. At home some of us tried an experiment showing chemical energy. We mixed baking soda and vinegar. It changed fast. It bubbled and foamed. It pushed the cover off the jar. It spilled and splashed. We really saw chemical energy working.

Room 18
Teacher, Mrs. Fulk
Reporter, Diana Roy
In English class we have been studying about proverbs. We learned that a proverb is a saying of ancient origin that has been passed down from generation to generation. We learned that the key to understanding a proverb is to look for its hidden meaning. Some of the proverbs the children brought to share with the class are:
An apple a day keeps the doctor away.
Haste makes waste.
A soft answer turneth away wrath.
Give him an inch and he'll take a mile.
Waste not, want not.
Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise.
People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones.
A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.

FOURTH GRADE—
Room 17
Teacher, Mrs. Chuluck
Reporter, Pamela Siebert
In music class we are learning how to square dance. We have learned two dances now. Our class has elected three new librarians. They are: William Shoemaker, Paul Marshall, and Bill Rademacher. We have a social studies bulletin board about Desert Life. Our whole class had a happy Christmas!

Room 20
Teacher, Mrs. Moore
Reporter, Patricia Welshans
Penny Kizer and Greg Guntner brought in some fool's gold. January birthdays are: Gary Wright, Janice Frisch, Jeff Schantz, Robby Winans, and Barbara Thompson. Eric Prinzling and Jamie Boyer are making a winter scene on the back board. In social studies we are talking about the differences between early days and today. In science we performed an experiment and found that warm water rises when put in cold water, and that the Gulf Stream is a warm current that moves on the top of the sea.

Room 22
Teacher, Miss Weber
Reporter, John Storey
Our class is making a mural on desert life on the desert in Arizona and the Sahara. It shows how they live in the deserts. In music we looked at some different instruments like the guitar and others. Susan Palmer brought a ukelele for music. Last Friday we square danced also.

FIFTH GRADE—
Room 19
Teacher, Mrs. Lange
Reporter, Lori Schiller
In social studies we have been studying the Revolutionary War. On July 4, 1776 the Declaration of Independence was read. We also learned that Thomas Jefferson was the author of it. There were many important men in the war that risked their lives, so we could win the battle against the British. Next we will study when the Nation got a Constitution. In science we are studying the cell and the three parts of it. We have learned that the very center of the cell is called the nucleus; the part around that is called the cytoplasm, and the outside is the cell membrane. We also have learned that a fluid in our body turns starch into sugar, so it can diffuse through the membrane.

Social Security Checks in March Will Be Fatter

The increase in Social Security checks of at least 13 percent will be received in early March. Robert A. Kehoe of the Ann Arbor Social Security office explained that this is automatic and the same receiving Social Security will not have to do anything to receive this raise.

The minimum monthly benefit for a worker at age 65 will be raised from $44 to $55. The maximum benefit will also increase to $300 for a single worker.

The amount of taxable earnings for Social Security will be raised from $4,800 in 1968, which will result in even higher pensions in future years.

These persons over age 72 will receive their $35 check raised to $45 automatically without having to contact the Ann Arbor office, according to Kehoe.

For further information, call the Social Security office at 689-8541.

Lauren Boyer (145) won by a second-period pin after dominating his man for four minutes of wrestling.

Kerry Kargel (154) lost a first-round takedown to fall two points behind, but made an aggressive comeback to pin his man in the second round.

Tim Colvia (165), wrestling his first varsity match this year, won by a pin in the third period. The five team points made it Chelsea 34, Willow Run 10 and put the meet out of reach of the Flyers.

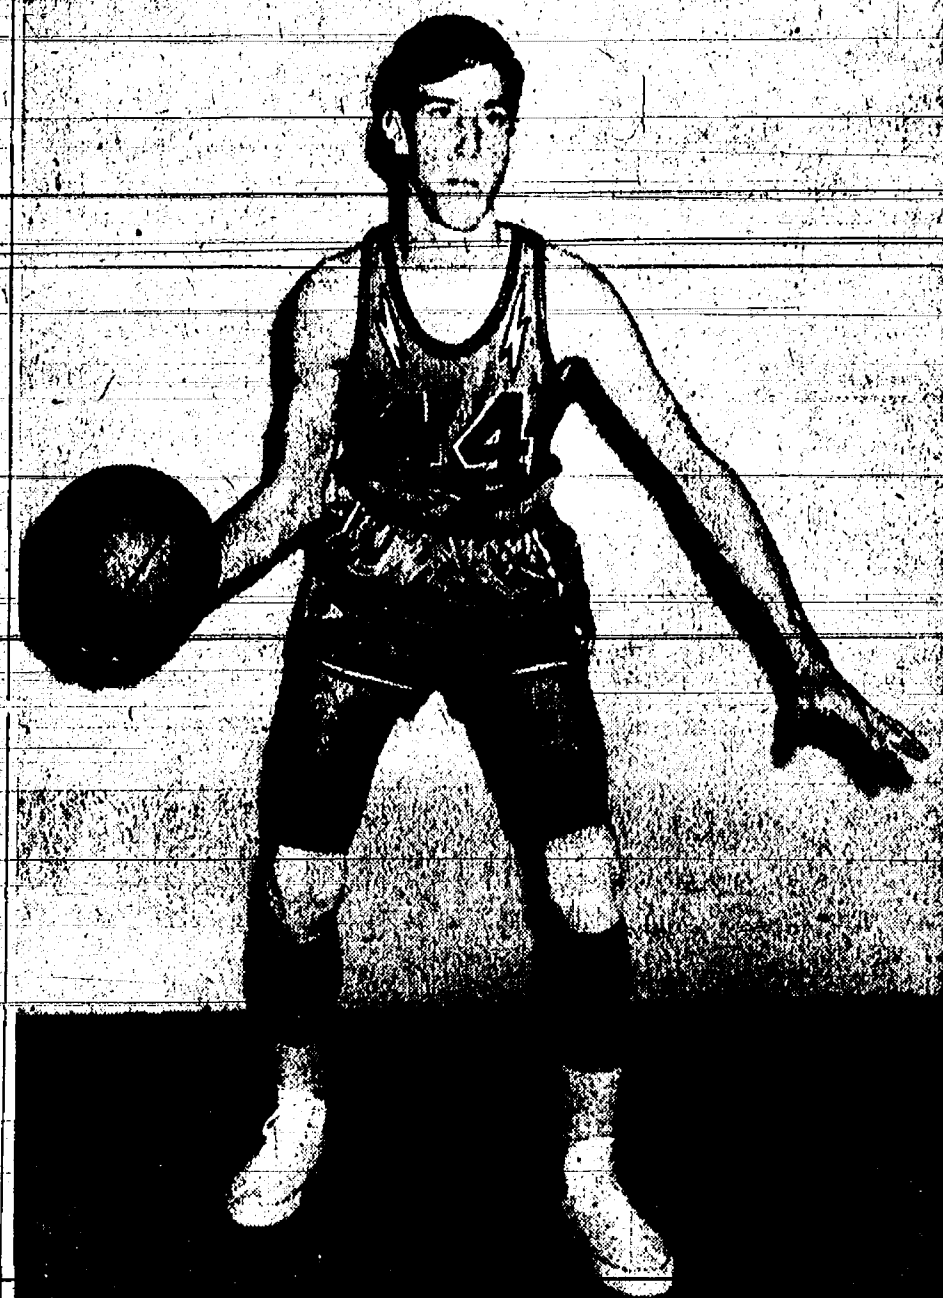

Mike Caken's 180-pound match brought two undefeated wrestlers to the mat and, after six minutes, both were still undefeated as the match ended in a 5-5 draw.

Tim Boylan (Hwt) lost an early takedown but quickly turned his man in the second round, forcing his shoulders to the mat to end the meet with a five-point pin for Chelsea.

Tuesday night's unscheduled wrestling meet with Northwest Jackson was cancelled because of the weather. Tonight's match with Milan has also been cancelled since Milan's team recently disbanded for lack of a permanent coach.

LANCE BURGHARDT, No. 44, a starter on the varsity basketball team, has been playing basketball for Chelsea High school since his freshman year. The 6'4" junior was on the freshman team and the JV, for which he earned a letter, before joining the varsity squad as a center. His sports record also includes three years of high jump on the track team, where he lettered as a sophomore. Rounding out his list of high school activities are Varsity club, Ski club, membership in the Student Council as a sophomore, Key club and Chess club. After school, Lance enjoys hunting and all types of winter sports. He is a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ. Future plans include college, where he hopes to major in engineering, architecture, or a related technical science. Lance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burghardt of 214 E. Middle St.

Arlene Howe Aids WHO with Project in South America

Arlene Howe returned Jan. 1 from two months in Lima, Peru and Santiago, Chile. Mrs. Howe is the administrative advisor for a project conducted by the Pan American Division of the World Health Organization. The project aims to establish intensive and chronic-care units in university teaching hospitals which can be demonstration units for other hospitals in the world. Units will be established in Brazil, Venezuela, Colombia, and Guatemala, as well as Peru and Chile.

Mrs. Howe has had national and international recognition for instituting methods of management in hospitals which permit maximum utilization of the technical skills of physicians and nurses. The whole of Chile, a country of eight million people, had 140 professional nurses who graduated last year, fewer than those who graduated in Ann Arbor alone in one year.

The Kellogg Foundation is contributing financial assistance, while the University of Michigan Medical Center is contributing technical assistance.

Six-Cent Stamp Cited as Still One of World's Best Bargains

"It's still one of the best bargains in the world."

That's what Postmaster Schauls said today about the six-cent stamp, and he recounted some interesting facts and figures from postal history to back up his claim.

Even though the five-cent letter rate has suffered the same fate as the nickel cigar, first-class postage is cheaper today than it was in many bygone eras when a few pennies meant much more than they do today, Postmaster Schauls said.

In 1810, for instance, a single sheet letter cost six cents for delivery up to 30 miles. More sheets and more miles cost more money. A letter going 400 miles cost 25 cents per sheet.

In those days the recipient had to pay the postage, not the sender. If the letter was actually delivered to the recipient, rather than picked up at the Post Office, there was an extra charge that was kept by the carrier. It wasn't until 1855 that the sender was required to pay in advance for mail, Postmaster Schauls said.

Uniform rates regardless of distance and free city delivery were written into the postal law books in 1863. When distance was dropped as a factor in computing rates, so was the practice of charging per sheet. The basic unit for letter postage became a half ounce in 1863. The basic unit of one ounce that still prevails today went into effect in 1865.

Turning to more recent history, Postmaster Schauls pointed out that the 100 percent increase from 3 to 6 cents in first-class postal rates since 1932 compares very favorably with general increases in prices and wages.

General consumer prices have gone up about 200 percent since 1932 and the average hourly earnings of manufacturing workers have risen by about 550 percent, Postmaster Schauls noted.

"Back in 1947 the letter rate was still three cents and everyone agreed that it was a really good deal. Since then the family income has gone up about 175 percent while the cost of mailing a letter has increased 100 percent. If letter postage was worth three cents in the 1940s, in terms of today's dollar it's worth more than six cents," said the Postmaster.

Postmaster Schauls estimated that the increase in postal charges that went into effect Jan. 7 will add only $2.25 a year to the $16-the average household spent on postal services under the old rates.

"Despite the great distances many letters must travel in the United States, our postal rates are lower than in most other major countries, particularly when based on ability to pay," Postmaster Schauls declared. He said the average American worker earns the price of a six-cent stamp in 1.3 minutes. It takes the average British worker 2.5 minutes to earn letter postage, the West German worker 3.7 minutes and the French worker 5.6 minutes.

Postmaster Schauls said the higher postal rates mean that a greater share of the cost of running the Postal Service will be borne by the users of the mails rather than the taxpayer.

"The best of running the Postal Service must be paid," he explained. "What isn't paid by mail users in postage is paid from general tax revenues. The approximately $800 million in additional revenue the new rates will bring in will shift that much of the burden of paying for the Postal Service from the taxpayer to the mail users.

"Certainly, it's only fair that the people who use the Postal Service pay the lion's share of its operating costs."

Postmaster Schauls delved into history for one more comment on the new postal rates:

"Actually," he said, "with the six-cent stamp we are returning to the postal rate charged when New York was called New Amsterdam and was a Dutch colony. Then the postage rate there was three shivers of wampum—the equivalent of about 6 cents."

Postmaster Schauls said that there is now an ample supply of six-cent and six-cent postage stamps on hand at the Chelsea post-office.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Everyone likes to get pleasant letters from mother, dad, brother, sister, son, daughter, former neighbors or old time friends. Since this is so, why do so many of us "hate" to write a letter? A pleasant, sincere letter, written in simple words—even if scribbled—can mean a lot to the person who receives it. One does not have to write in Solomon's style: "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in a picture of silver." Fancy, superior or pretentious words are not needed in a letter to family or friends. One does not have to be a master of words. Instead, small, simple words can and should be your servant. Everyday language will do—any day.

Do you "owe" someone a letter? Why not get it off today? Or—why not write a letter—you have been wanting to write—regardless of who "owes" a letter. Writing a letter can make life more interesting, more inspiring for you AND the other person... and incidentally, thanks to those of you who have taken the time to write to us, either pro or con, about the thoughts you read here. Such letters are always welcome—and helpful.

AGRICULTURE In Action

by M. L. Woolf

Imported Pork

Michigan housewives like pork— isn't it odd that the average pork roast, chop, slice of ham or piece of bacon is "imported" into the state from elsewhere?

And isn't it peculiar that we are a great corn state, turning out tons of this ideal hog food, and shipping nearly half of it to other states where it is largely fed to feed out hogs there?

Michigan swine producers recognize what is happening, and are analyzing reasons why such trends started and—hopefully, how they can be stopped. They have begun to show that state pork production is growing much faster than is Michigan's hog industry, and predict that by 1980, 50,000 more feeder pigs will need to be imported each year just to keep up with the demand.

Yet Michigan is one of only eight states now declared free of hog cholera, a condition feared for by the rest of the United States within the next five years. Meanwhile, for the first time since such records have been kept, Iowa—the nation's most important hog state with 25 percent of the total production—is only entering the "stamping out stage"—eliminating cholera outbreaks and involved in strong programs of eradication.

Nearby Illinois, which accounts for about 15 percent of the total pork production, and is a neighboring state, has fought the disease for more than a century and is only recently experiencing an occasional month without reporting a serious outbreak.

Considerable credit for Michigan's cholera-free record must go to the Michigan Department of Agriculture, and to co-operating swine producers themselves, who now want to move more firmly into the pork business. Sound first steps involve increased production of a high quality pork product and the promotion work to make sure that the consumer knows all about it.

"One of our big jobs is to gain communication with the consumer," says Wm. Byrum, swine specialist with the Market Development Division of the Michigan Farm Bureau. He sees an expanding Michigan pork market, based on lean, quality, meat-type hogs, offering the farmer more profit, and economical, juicy, tender cuts of pork to the Michigan consumer.

Blaze Destroys Barn Sunday on Island Lake Rd.

On Sunday, Jan. 14, 1968, Island Lake Rd. destroyed the barn and tractor, hay and grain stored in the burning building. Thirteen Chelsea firemen in three trucks were summoned to the site of the fire Sunday, Jan. 14 at 9:21 a.m. The firemen managed to remove all livestock, a truck, a wagon and two other tractors from the barn before they were damaged. Several firemen from Dexter also fought the blaze. Cause of the fire has not been determined.

CUB SCOUT NEWS

DEN 1, PACK 415—

Den 1, Pack 415 met Thursday, Jan. 4 at the home of Joe Branham. While the den mother is in the hospital, Mrs. Branham and Mrs. Stoll are taking her place. The Cub Scouts made bird feeders and talked about the birds that would visit the feeders. The boys will identify the birds they see and tell about them at the next meeting.

On Thursday, Jan. 11, Den 1, Pack 415 again met at the home of Joe Branham, who showed several slides he had taken of birds and other animals. The Cub Scouts tried to identify the birds and animals pictured and then talked about their bird feeders and pinewood derby.

Timmy Frank brought treats for the den.

David Stoll, scribe.

DEN 5, PACK 415—

Den 5, Pack 415 met Wednesday, Jan. 10 at the home of den mother, Mrs. Cecil Clouse at Waterloo.

Tim Bassett led the Cub Scouts in the flag salute. Several of the boys brought their walkie-talkies. The Cub Scouts made a card compass. Doug Schrottenboer furnished refreshments.

The meeting closed with the living circle.

Dennis Bauer, scribe.

DEN 3, PACK 455—

Den 3, Pack 455 met Wednesday, Jan. 10 at the home of den mother, Mrs. Vernon Otto, with Mrs. Richard Kern assisting. All six members were present.

The meeting was opened with a Cub song. Since this month's theme is "Communications," the boys are busy at home with their dads, making rockets for the "Rocket Derby," which they will enjoy at the January Pack meeting. Space pictures were made to add to the atmosphere of this meeting.

The meeting was closed with treats furnished by Mike Schantz.

People who are ailing all the time sometimes have too little to occupy their minds.

LIFELINES:

Taking The Medicine

There are many people who claim to believe the Bible and what it says about the Lord Jesus but still lack assurance of salvation. This is because they have never by a definite act of faith personally trusted Christ as Saviour.

Suppose you are taken seriously ill. A doctor is called, and after a thorough examination he says that you have contracted a fatal disease; but he also tells you that just recently medical science has discovered a sure cure. Now you can believe that you have called in the best doctor in the city, acknowledge that he knows his business, agree that he has prescribed the correct remedy and still it may do no good! Just lie there and believe it all, but refuse to take the medicine, and you'll surely die! You don't have to express your disbelief by taking the medicine and throwing it on the floor. Just neglect to take it, and your fatal disease will do the rest. Thus it is with salvation. Many folks say they believe the Bible and the story of Jesus, and that He died on the cross of Calvary for man's sins, but they have never reached out the "hand of faith" and actually taken the remedy. They have never personally received God's "prescription" for their sins—the Lord Jesus Christ—and trusted him fully for their salvation. If this is your condition, why not say right now, "Lord Jesus, I admit I'm a sinner. I do believe that You died for me and shed Your blood for my sins—I therefore now trust and receive You as my Saviour and my only hope of Heaven." To such the Bible then gives the wonderful assurance that "whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13)

Betty Bohenna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bohenna of 230 Pierce St., exchanged marriage vows with Alton Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Howard of 320 Pierce St., at a 4 p.m. candlelight service Saturday, Jan. 6 at the Chelsea Baptist church. The Rev. Elmer Steenson officiated at the double-ring ceremony, for which Mrs. Steenson played the organ.

The bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace, styled with a high neckline, long pointed sleeves, and an Empire bodice. Her skirt featured a cage back-attached peacock train. A satin bow held her elbow-length silk illusion veil, and she carried white roses. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Beverly Bohenna was her sister's maid of honor. Her floor-length, cranberry-velvet gown was styled with an empire waist and long sleeves. She wore a matching headpiece and a cameo necklace.

The bride's mother was attired in a light blue dress with silver and blue accessories and a corsage of white carnations tipped in blue.

The costume worn by the bridegroom's mother included a pink lace dress with white and pink accessories and a corsage of white carnations tipped in pink.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Marian Bohenna of Sault Ste. Marie, wore a royal blue dress and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception for 150 was held in the social center of the church immediately following the ceremony. Miss Marcela Roe of Sault Ste. Marie, cousin of the bride, cut the bridal cake, and Mrs. Robin Wright of Dexter served the bridegroom's cake. Miss Deborah Gorton of Chelsea poured the punch, and Mrs. Clifford Salyer of Chelsea, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jack Brown of Lansing, cousin of the bride, poured the coffee and tea. Miss Nancy Meabon of Chelsea had charge of the guest book.

The bride chose a green heath-er coat suit with black accessories and a white corsage from her bridal bouquet for her going-away outfit. The couple departed for a trip to Phoenix, Ariz., after the reception.

Out-of-town guests came from Ohio, Indiana, Detroit, Sault Ste. Marie, Ann Arbor, Manchester and Whitmore Lake.

A rehearsal dinner was given for the couple by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Howard in the social center of the Chelsea Baptist church.

Showers for the bride before her marriage included a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Clifford Salyer, cousin of the bridegroom, in Chelsea; a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Jack Brown, cousin of the bride, in Lansing; and a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Langford Collins in Sault Ste. Marie.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Ernest Klapp of Ann Arbor, president of Ann Arbor Church Women United, spoke on "Change," the need for each woman to be open to ecumenical changes and the needs of others.

Highlights of the 1967 activities of Church Women United were the World Day of Prayer in February at St. Paul United Church of Christ, co-chairmen, Mrs. Thomas Smith and Mrs. Robert Taylor; May Fellowship Day at Salem Grove Methodist church, co-chairmen, Mrs. Robert Daniels and Mrs. James Hoffmeyer; Mission Institute and International Luncheon in October at First Methodist church, chairman, Mrs. Thomas Smith and speaker, Mrs. Harold Steele; Trick or Treat program for UNICEF, Mrs. James Shadon, chairman, for which the total turned in was $217.65; November World Community Day at Congregational church, Mrs. Charles Meservant and Mrs. Sydney Schenk, co-chairmen, from which the collection went to train wives of African ministers and during which 12 baby layettes, four packages of fabrics, shirts, and $147 in gift certificates for clothing to men in Vietnam were collected; and the addition of the women of Zion Lutheran church to the membership of Church Women United.

SAN FERNANDO CATHEDRAL, a lovely Spanish mission in Texas, is one of the numerous attractions of the Old South and desert Southwest which visitors will see in the Saturday night Kiwanis Club-sponsored travelogue, "Desert to Dixie."

Kiwanis Travel Film Shows Scenes of Southwestern States

Chelsea Kiwanis Club will present the third program of its "Travel and Adventure Series" Saturday evening, Jan. 20, in the Chelsea High school auditorium at 8 p.m. Robert Brouwer will present his travel film entitled "Desert to Dixie."

Brouwer is a resident of Grand Rapids, where he has been in the electrical contracting business for several years.

Many years ago he embarked on the hobby of photography and his first slides were enjoyed by friends and neighbors. Many of his slides won national contests and received acclaim from all who saw them. The encouragement of friends and experts prompted him to produce a finished slide program.

The first program he produced used one screen and one projector. Later, he used two screens and two projectors. Now, he has developed a revolutionary and unique presentation in which he uses three 8' or 10' screens and four projectors. He also incorporates hi-fidelity stereo sound effects recorded on-the-spot. He carries his own equipment which takes a considerable amount of time to set up in each auditorium. His program has sometimes been referred to as a "movie-slide presentation." He has presented this unusual program in some of the largest auditoriums in the country.

Recently, travel officials of the country of Holland commissioned him to produce a similar travelogue on the Netherlands, underwriting all his expenses—an unprecedented arrangement in the travelogue field. Some have remarked, "On a par with Cinemascope" and "Everyone in America should see this."

Council Briefs

At a regular meeting of the Village Council Tuesday evening a hearing regarding a variance to construct signs as requested by the Chelsea Medical Clinic was tabled and continued to the Feb. 5 meeting. Several area residents spoke in opposition to the sign variance.

A hearing was held regarding a request for a variance as submitted by the Consumers Power Co. for a zoning variation to allow for additions to the Wilkinson St. substation. Residents of the area were present to voice their objections to the proposed construction. A motion made to grant the variance to Consumers Power Co. was not approved.

A motion was made and approved to remove any signs from Lincoln and Garfield Sts. pertaining to day and hour alternate parking and that no parking will be permitted on the north side of Lincoln St. from Main St. to Grant St. The street will be posted.

A discussion was held regarding the traffic congestion on Washington St. during the school hours. A motion was made and approved to amend the present parking restriction on Washington St. from Madison St. to Freer Rd. as follows: No parking on the south side of Washington St. at any time and no parking on the north side of Washington St. during the hours of 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

A discussion was held with Marvin Schiller regarding the school road and sidewalk as constructed by the school district. Schiller contends that the sidewalk is sloping toward his property and will tend to flood his area during times of heavy rain. Pres. Pro-Tem Weber advised Schiller that the Village Engineer will look into the matter.

A motion was made and approved to advertise for bids for a new type truck for use by the Light and Water Department as per village specifications.

A motion was made and approved to confirm the permanent appointment of George Meranuck as Chief of Police for the Village of Chelsea.

A motion was made and approved to authorize change order No. 1 for the Freer Rd. sanitary sewer. The sewer, four feet west of the east right-of-way, to avoid an existing gas line which did not conform to a print as submitted by the gas company. The change order requires a contract addition of $2500.

A motion was made and approved to enter into landfill agreements with the townships of Sylvan and Dexter.

The Superintendent of Public Works informed trustee Weber that the plowing of the village streets after the last two snowfalls was accomplished in less ATTEND FARM CONFERENCE: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koehn were among the 30 young farm couples who attended a three-day conference in Lansing, Jan. 5 as guests of the Michigan Farm Bureau and its affiliated service companies.

Young Farm Couples Attend State Farm Bureau Conference

Young farm couples attending a three-day conference in Lansing have been described by farm officials working with them as "hard-headed, hard-working dreamers, with their feet firmly planted in Michigan, but with their eyes on the world."

The 30 young farm couples, including Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koehn of 2200 Hayes Rd., Chelsea, were guests of the Michigan Farm Bureau and affiliated service companies in a first-of-its-kind project aimed at two-way communications between youthful farm leaders and the organizations which serve them.

During the three days, participants were exposed to a variety of farm-service programs ranging from labor recruitment to farm record keeping. They reviewed cooperative marketing-bargaining programs, insurance-protection, and co-operative purchasing of fuels, feeds and other farm supplies.

Part of one day was spent in a bus tour to Leonard Refinery in Alma as guests of Farmers Petroleum Cooperative, and to a new farm supply center at Saginaw, operated by Farm Bureau Services, Inc. At Brighton, the group watched a modern egg-packing plant, where computerized machinery cleaned, graded and sorted eggs on a high-speed assembly line-basis.

In answering the question "what does the future hold for agriculture?" most of the young farmers agreed that the future has never been brighter for an industry which will grow more important, and more profitable, for those who remain in it and meet the challenges of competition.

A motion was made and approved to pay bills.

FRESH MEAT
Take time to check wrappers when buying frozen poultry. Be sure the wrapping isn't torn. When the wrapping is torn, frozen food is exposed to air and carries out, developing off flavors.
