Boy Scouts Survive Frigid Winter Camp

The 150 participants in the Ironquits District, Portage Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, "Frostbite Camporee" winter camp-out couldn't have wished for more ideal camping weather than that which prevailed last week-end as the boys set up their tents and shelters on a hilly wooded lot belonging to Raymond Dotts of Whitmore Lake. Wrestlers Pin Dexter to Keep League Lead

Bulldogs Will Be Hosts to Six-Team Conference Tournament Saturday

Before the largest and noisiest crowd ever to watch a high school wrestling meet in this area, the Chelsea Bulldogs defeated Dexter, 27-14, on the Dreadnaught's mat last Thursday night. In taking eight of the 12 matches, and getting two pins while Dexter got none, Coach Lauren Miller's men swarmed over a tough obstacle on the route to a conference championship and an undefeated dual meet season.

Both teams were "up" for the contest and both Miller and Dexter coach Al Ritt called on reserve strength as they weighed in extra men at several weight classes in a strategy contest that saw line-up changes at several weights.

Chelsea's John McKeighan dropped a weight class to go at 95. Tom Tiro filled the 103 spot. Chelsea lost both matches to a Dexter team that is always strong at the light weights. Mike Hendricks, at 112, downed a weight class from 120, went to the mat with Gary Klapperich, Dexter's two-time conference champion at this weight. Hendricks put Chelsea on the scoreboard with three team points, getting a 3-0 win.

After Chelsea's Bill Lounsbury lost by decision to a surprisingly determined Dexter man, Dexter again had a six-point lead, 9-3.

Paul Stahl got Chelsea rolling again, and beat Dexter boys in big blow by defeating Sam Boulton, a two-time conference champion and a highly-regarded 127-pound wrestler who twice has qualified for the state meet. Stahl showed no respect for this record, getting a take-down early and halting Boulton's attempts to reverse him. At the end of six tough minutes, Stahl had defeated the Dexter champion, 3 to 1.

The 133-pound match saw another line-up change on Dexter's part as Ted Klapperich, a Parma champion at 138, dropped down to meet the Bulldogs' Matt Lancaster. Neither team gained in team points; Lancaster and Klapperich each scored one-point escapes as they worked to a draw. Chelsea's depth paid off at 138 as Wayne Stahl, wrestling his first varsity match, rose to the occasion to get a win over a more experienced Dexter wrestler. Working for the pin all the way, Stahl came out on top of a 10 to 8 score.

Except for a few anxious seconds late in the match, Bulldog co-captain Lauren Boyer (145) wrapped and unwrapped his opponent on his way to a 4 to 0 victory, giving Chelsea the lead in team scoring for the first time, 14-11.

Kerry Kargel added five points to that lead with a third-round pin over Dexter's Ed Lobdell. The win was the 14th in succession for Kargel.

Tim Colvia (165) put the meet out of reach of Dexter, aggressively fighting and rolling his way to a 7 to 2 victory. Colvia's win made it Chelsea 22, Dexter 11 to clinch Chelsea's first win over Dexter in three years.

Dexter found some satisfaction in the 180 match as Craig Blazier, who has been having a fine year at 165 and 180, moved up to 180.

REPORT from LANSING

State Representative

Thomas G. Sharpe

I recently received a letter from a citizen of Brighton who is participating in a project. I believe will be regarded as worthwhile and commendable by the very great majority of people who read this.

Donald Keller, of the Gideon organization, informed me of the considerable difficulties that have been encountered in an effort to distribute New Testaments, free of charge and on a strictly voluntary basis, to students in grades 5 through 12 in the Ann Arbor School District.

The acting superintendent of schools in Ann Arbor has turned down the Gideon request. He insists that a recent U. S. Supreme Court decision regarding governmental "neutrality" in religious matters prevents the schools from mounting any activity that might be regarded as promoting a particular religious viewpoint.

The Gideon representatives have applied to the Ann Arbor Board of Education, which is currently considering the matter in consultation with the very able and respected attorney, Robert H. Honig, who is a personal friend of mine.

I personally cannot understand why a board of education requiring "neutrality" should outlaw an effort to make Testaments available to those students who wish to receive them. To my mind, granting such permission on the same strictly voluntary basis, to all religions.

Non-Confederate school district policy that permitted on at least one occasion last year, other persons to come in and use the high school cafeteria for meetings at which students were encouraged to break the law.

How can school officials that allow this have failed to see a person that might, without undue encouragement, students in becoming more religious?

I wish to point out, though, that the matter has been handled that have apparently escaped public notice.

A high school drive is under way, at the moment, to urge the legislature to provide public financial aid for parochial schools. And I can certainly sympathize with the problems faced by families who must presently pay tax-while and commensurate by the then provide additional funds to give their own children an education that includes religious instruction.

I wonder, however, if those who seek public aid for parochial schools have really considered the consequences of such aid?

The present public funds are spent for this purpose, there will almost certainly be instituted, in the future, a suit protesting religious instruction in publicly supported schools.

The U. S. Supreme Court's past decisions would indicate to me that if public funds are granted to parochial schools, this will be the beginning of the end for religious instruction as it exists in such schools today.

Manchester Reports Several Hepatitis Cases

The Washtenaw County Health Department has noted an increase in the number of cases of infectious hepatitis in the Manchester area, according to Doctor K. Engelke, county health officer.

Six cases have been reported this month which brings the total number of cases reported for southwest in Washtenaw county since Dec. 1 to 21. Cases have been reported this past fall in Monroe and Lenawee Counties as well.

Doctor Engelke reported that county health department nurses and sanitarians have visited homes, stores, and schools in the Manchester area and have instructed parents and school personnel about control measures. A letter was sent this week to parents of school children in the Manchester area from the health department with recommendations to families regarding the practice of "room sanitation" in homes with special emphasis on proper personal hygiene practices. Careful hand washing after the use of the toilet and after using the family laundry is recommended. Contaminated human excrement is usually responsible for transmission of the disease. "Carriers" are common in the "Carriers" of infectious hepatitis are often difficult to trace," said Doctor Engelke. "Most cases result from household contamination of food and drink by infected family members," he added.

Proper sewage disposal is important. The health department is conducting its surveillance of the situation.

Proper medical care is important in the treatment and prevention of this disease.

Tax Refunds

You need not file a state income tax form if the amount you owe is less than $5,000. This provision is not mentioned in either the tax form or in the instruction booklet. Forms were compiled so quickly after the new tax law was passed that the provision was omitted.

Green said he is "quite pleased" with the number of returns filed in January but warns taxpayers who will claim refunds that last-minute filing may delay receiving a refund check. Refunds are processed in the order they are received.

Contrary to rumors, the state will refund overpayment this year. Green feels the rumor was started because of provisions which do not allow certain deductions for 1967 tax purposes. On 1968 returns there will be allowances made for payment of city income tax, property taxes, and renter credits.

First refund check was released Feb. 2 to a taxpayer in Walled Lake. Green estimates that some million refund checks will be issued for the 1967 taxable period, October through December. This number may reach two and one-half million in subsequent years, he said.

The tax is yielding far more revenue than anticipated, Green noted. But deductions allowed in 1968 and thereafter will probably bring revenue more in line with original estimates. He said a major problem facing the department is to anticipate how large a tax deduction will take from current yield.

Important Issues

Largest state budget in Michigan history was listed foremost for legislative consideration by Lt. Gov. William Milliken when he recently "boiled down" Governor Romney's State of the State message.

Like Ed promised, he came up with more data on the Spare Parts Department at the session Saturday night.

First off, Ed said the new Spare Parts Department was going to run into what the world's government consumer experts call "designed life of the product."

He said he had saw where the President's assistant for Consumer Affairs said that make and sell products had ought to tell the consumer what he could expect in service life. Right now, he said, a feller might get a new set of teeth that would be good for five years "normal use," but he said normal use ain't the same for a feller that likes popcorn and peanuts like a feller that don't eat nothing harder than cornbread soaked in butter milk.

The storekeeper, that keeps up with the times on Wall Street level, butted in to say we already got a outfit called the Consumer Federation of America that was looking into these problems. He went on to say Ed's new Spare Parts Department would have its hands full with imports. For instance, he reported he had saw in this magazine where you can order wigs made out of "100 percent pure Italian human hair."

He said he couldn't figure out what was special about Italian hair, but if they change more for it all the women will want Italian hair. He was of the opinion the worst part would be to keep the market stable in this new Government department. For instance, if Sweden has a special on lungs and England has more livers than we need, we would have to buy up all them parts for two reasons. First, we wouldn't want them to sell to the Communists,

Romney's State of the State message

The $1.3 billion budget was one of nine "key areas" outlined by Milliken as deserving "attention and action" this year. Milliken ranked the other eight areas in the following order of priority.

Court reorganization. The new Michigan Constitution requires that by next January Justices of the Peace be phased out of existence and replaced by another system of local courts.

Crime control. As an aftermath to last summer's riots and as a result of mounting crime rates, improved crime control will be a center of attention in the months ahead. A series of recommendations have been made to insure further protection of lives and property against lawlessness and violence. They range from anti-riot measures to improved weapons in the battle against organized crime, and they require action now.

Housing. "One of the great challenges before our state," says Milliken, "is that of providing greater opportunities for adequate, decent housing for low income citizens. Above all this means full legal support for the equal opportunity of all citizens to buy or rent property without regard to color, race, or national origin."

But it also means a fully operative State Housing Authority, better housing code enforcement, and a strengthening of tenants' rights.

Public employment. Events of the past two years clearly demonstrated the ineffectiveness of existing laws in dealing with the organized efforts of public employees, says Milliken.

Whether the fruit lies with employers or employees, we cannot condone the interruption of vital public services. The only answer is a basic revision of our Public Employment Act to provide a satisfactory framework for the future.

The next thing, Ed allowed, the Government will have to pay people for not willing their parts to the bank. And right then, he perked, the head of the Spare Parts Department will have to ask Congress to raise the national debt to keep up payments to all the people that has agreed to keep their parts off the market.

The feller, even Clem Webster of the Great Society, was agreed that the pattern of Government-run business in the last 40 years showed Ed had a good idea of what he was doing.

Editor, it was agreed by all the fellers on a resolution to award a contract to General Motors to run the Spare Parts Department operation and turn all the profits from the franchise back into the Welfare and Poverty Program.

Yours truly,

factory, workable means of resolving these contract disputes.

Natural Resources. The lieutenant governor believes that a bonding program is a necessity if the state is to clean up lakes and rivers before more serious harm is done. A $485 million bond program is proposed. When combined with $1.3 billion of federal money, a sufficient fund should be available.

Insurance pooling and veteran tax relief. Because citizens and businesses in certain areas, those where riots have or might take place, find it nearly impossible to buy insurance to protect their property, the governor's message asks that insurance companies set up a pool which can spread the risk without undue problems for only a few companies. A revision of veteran tax relief laws is also urged. The changes would recognize the degree of disability of the veteran and provide the greatest help for those who have the greatest need.

Education. Increased state support is proposed for all levels of education from kindergarten to graduate school. Since there is special need among disadvantaged children in central city areas, special assistance has been proposed to them.

For the second time this session, the Chelsea Bulldogs defeated Ann Arbor University High Cubs by a score of 74-40. This was the Bulldogs' 13th victory in 14 starts and the ninth victory against one defeat in Huron League play.

Need Volunteer

Dogs for State Police Teams

The Michigan State Police are again in need of German shepherd dogs for the department's canine tracking program.

Potential donors are requested to contact any State Police post for more information.

The male German shepherds must be of pure strain and, if possible, registered. The dogs must be from one to two years old, large, big-boned, and at least 24 inches tall at the shoulders. Ears must stand up and the dog should have no noticeable scars or odd or unusual markings.

Donated dogs that are accepted will be trained with trooper handlers for use as replacement teams or for assignment to several new locations not yet determined.

A 14-week school for training handlers and dogs is tentatively scheduled to start the latter part of March. The training will be under the supervision of Sgt. Richard H. Abbott, East Lansing, who has been associated with this State Police program since it began in 1960.

Tracking teams currently are assigned to East Lansing, Ionia, Flat Rock, Pontiac, Bay City, Flint, Jackson, Battle Creek, Paw Paw, Mt. Pleasant, Grand Haven, Cheboygan, Houghton Lake and Marquette.

Every generation of old people worries about the youngsters and thinks that boys and girls have no sense.

Chelsea Agricultural Schools of Chelsea during the past week for use in their Driver Education Course offered at the school. The new dual-control-equipped automobile is the sixth one loaned so far by Spaulding Chevrolet Sales & Service at no cost to the school for use in its driver training program.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Foster entertained at a family get-together Sunday in observance of the first birthday of their triplets, Pat, Stevie, and Molly. The babies are one year old today.

Temperatures of 60 degrees and above on Sunday and Monday and thundery showers Monday night tapering to a steady rain Tuesday morning gave all the indications of an early spring. Several people reported hearing robins singing Sunday morning and Mrs. Guy Murphy reported seeing one on her front lawn Sunday afternoon. Monday afternoon Dan Emmons said he saw one in his orchard.

Members of Chelsea's newest troop, the Rod & Gun Club, scored 465, were an excellent team in their skills that they had a short supply of tents home and slept in the shelter they built in the woods.

According to District Training Chairman Jack Brigham and District Commissioner Bob Lambert, both of Dexter, "The entire event was a real success; with the boys turning in a performance that the entire district is proud of. District Chairman Rolly Spaulding of Chelsea, speaking of several telephone calls he had received from parents concerned about the severe cold and biting wind, commented, 'The boys were well trained and prepared, patrol leaders were experienced, the 21 adult leaders were ever-present in the background to lend a helping hand, and if the parents of the 11-year-old tenderfeet could have seen their sons in action, they wouldn't have believed it. Some of the boys might have arrived as kids but they returned home as Boy Scouts and proud of it.'

Regular "breathing" is just as essential to healthy plant roots as it is to healthy people. Porous walls of red clay pots supply roots with oxygen from all sides. Non-porous containers do not have this necessary quality.

Frosh Cagers Win Four in Succession

The Chelsea freshman basketball team has chalked up four wins in succession to bring its season record to eight wins and three losses. Chelsea's only losses have been to Milan once and Stockbridge twice. Since then, the team has rebounded for four victories.

On Feb. 1, Chelsea defeated South Lyon, 57-40, in one of the strongest offensive showings of the year. Chelsea jumped into an early lead and stayed ahead by 10 points throughout most of the game. The offense was balanced with scoring as follows: Howard Treado, 19 points; Bob Salver, 13 points; Jim Hercules, eight points; George Cameron, six points; Jack McClen, six points; and Larry Gorton, five points. Coach Richard Bareis indicated that the team enjoyed tremendous rebounding, which led to the easy victory.

The Chelsea frosh defeated a taller Saline team Feb. 8 by a score of 49-37. Chelsea was able to hold a solid lead for most of the first three quarters. Early in the fourth quarter, with Chelsea holding only a four-point lead, Tom Harmon scored seven out of ten free throws. Chelsea's scoring was well distributed, as shown by the following team members and the points they earned: Bob Salver, 12; Howard Treado, seven; Tom Harmon, seven; Jim Hercules, five; and Larry Gorton, four. Coach Bareis said that, once again, strong rebounding and an aggressive and hard-working defense enabled Chelsea to handle the taller Saline team.

On Feb. 12, the Chelsea frosh won their game with Manchester by a score of 50-39. Chelsea started fast and led 14 to 5 at the end of the first quarter, but Manchester caught up late in the third quarter. Chelsea then broke the game open by scoring 22 points in the final quarter. A balanced scoring attack was evidenced again as Howard Treado scored 12 points; Larry Gorton, seven; Jim Hercules, eight; Bob Salver, eight; and Jack McClen, nine. Coach Bareis also pointed out the fine work of Tom Harmon, who came off the bench and played well, making three important free throws. Defense was again outstanding as Chelsea was able to hold Manchester to only 12 baskets.

Chelsea defeated a smaller Dexter team Feb. 15 by a score of 43 to 34. The local frosh stepped out to a 12 to 7 lead at the end of the first quarter, followed by a 28 to 15 lead at halftime. After obtaining a comfortable lead in the early minutes of the third quarter, Coach Bareis then substituted freely, with all but three members of the team getting in the scoring column. Bob Salver led the scoring with 10 points, followed by Tom Harmon with seven; George Cameron with six; Howard Treado with six; and Larry Gorton with five.

Tomorrow night the Chelsea frosh will travel to Dundee for their final game of the season.

JA Funds Drive Near Completion

A drive for Junior Achievement funds which began Feb. 6 is nearing completion. According to David Logan of Chrysler Corp. Proving Grounds, the drive will close Monday, Feb. 26.

Logan, co-chairman of the Chelsea Ann Arbor area portion of the JA fund-raising drive, has been assisted by George Staffan and Jack Merkel in soliciting funds in the Chelsea area.

One trouble with the world is the great number of people who seek to live without working.

Cities, Counties Share $35.2 Million From 4th Quarter Motor Vehicle Fund

Lansing—The State Highway Commission is distributing fourth quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections to Michigan counties, cities and villages.

Henrik E. Stafseth, State Highway Director, said net Highway Fund receipts during October, November and December, 1967, totaled $66,436,598, an increase of $1,720,204 compared to the same period of 1966.

Washtenaw county's share is $416,588 while Chelsea will receive $7,806 and Dexter's share will be $1,446.

The Highway Fund is made up of all state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes, and license plate fees. After deduction of collection costs and the Waterways Commission's share, the Highway Commission gets 47 percent, counties 35 percent, and the state's 523 cities and villages 18 percent.

Under this formula, the Highway Commission will receive $31,225,201, counties $23,252,809, and cities and villages $11,758,588. The amount paid to counties includes $752,076 in snow removal funds distributed on the basis of recorded snowfall in each county last year.

RECORD PHILODENDRON
It took three men to carry the giant philodendron that has decorated a Hackensack, N. J., barber shop for more than two years. When the barber shop changed quarters, the philodendron in its large clay pot had grown to a length of 86 feet.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

George Washington—Feb. 22, 1732-Dec. 14, 1799... A truly great man... A man of character, integrity, honor and truth... Truth, and nothing but the truth was his creed throughout his lifetime... without truth, there could be no honor. Without honor, there could be no character.

Vicious, untrue rumors vilified Washington throughout his political career... He shrugged them off but on one occasion at least, he counter-attacked his accusers and defied any man on earth to prove him unworthy of public trust. In characteristically human resentment, he expressed a preference to be in his grave than be President... But the truth came out as it always does.

He well deserves the eulogy expressed by Henry Lee: "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." Lincoln so idolized Washington that he once said, "To add brightness of the sun or glory to the name of Washington is alike name, and in its naked, deathless splendor leave it shining on." impossible. Let none attempt it. In solemn awe pronounce the Lincoln was right—Washington's immortality shines on every page of our national history... BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 E. Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Frigid Weather Greets Jaycee Fishing Derby

Some 150 fishermen, brought along with them their own bait and tackle, gathered at the Jaycee fishing derby at the Cavanaugh Lake despite the frigid weather. The contest was won by a 34-inch northern pike which weighed 11 pounds, 6 ounces, was taken from South Lake, also in Lyndon township.

First prize for the largest northern pike taken on hook and line went to Terry Roskowski of 7109 Lake Shore Dr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Roskowski, for a 26-inch, two-pound, 14-ounce fish.

His 34-inch northern pike which weighed 11 pounds, 6 ounces, was taken from South Lake, also in Lyndon township.

Chelsea Jaycee Jim Krichbaum was chairman of the Ice Fishing Derby.

Later in the evening, the Jaycees held a Winter Carnival Dance at the contest headquarters. It was attended by approximately 100 people. Luke Schable's orchestra played both round and square dance music.

Older Adult Fellowship Hears About Foundation

The Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Kolin of the Congregational church were guests at the Feb. 17 meeting of the Older Adult Fellowship group of the Methodist church. The Rev. Kolin was the guest speaker and Mrs. Kolin played the piano for a musical Valentine game during which each of the 31 members and guests present received a Valentine.

Saturday's meeting was held in the social center of the Methodist church and was opened with prayer by the Rev. Robert Worgess, pastor of the church.

Dinner was served at tables attractively decorated to carry out the February theme of Lincoln's birthday and Valentine day. Misses Jennie and Florence Ives and Mrs. Bertha Kato-Riemenschneider, who were on the table committee, used replicas of log cabins, red paper hearts and candles in carrying out their color scheme.

Cards were signed for the five members of the group whose birthdays occur during the month. They are the Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, the Rev. William Johnson, Mrs. Louise Hubbard and Mrs. Mabel Foster. A birthday cake served in their honor had been baked and decorated by Mrs. Winifred Coffin.

Mrs. Lyman Adams opened the program period with a devotional service.

The Rev. Kolin, in his talk, explained about the new Spaulding Foundation formed here recently for the purpose of finding homes for children not adoptable through present agencies.

It was announced that the older adult group of St. Paul United Church of Christ will be invited to be guests at the next meeting of the Methodist group scheduled for March 16.

GAS TURBINE POWER IN ACTION: Development of jet propulsion and gas turbines from the first jet engine invented by Hero more than 2,200 years ago (twirling over flame at left) to the power for cars of tomorrow is demonstrated during General Motors' exciting "Previews of Progress." This 40-minute, admission-free, science stage show will be presented Monday, Feb. 26 at Chelsea High and Junior High schools. Using non-technical examples to explain the wonders of science and engineering, the show will be seen by more than three million American students and adults this year.

GM Science Show Slated Here Monday

Chelsea students will look into the future when General Motors' "Previews of Progress" science show appears at Chelsea High school and Chelsea Junior High school Monday, Feb. 26 at 10:45 a.m. and 2 p.m., respectively.

The non-commercial show, according to General Motors President Edward N. Cole, "seeks to inspire more student interest in science and engineering careers" to provide the trained talent America needs to keep pace with the promise of the future.

"Previews" demonstrations depict work being done today in America's research laboratories and point out the contributions of research to modern living. A two-man team narrates the live show in non-technical language.

More than 30 million American students and adults have seen "Previews" since 1946. Millions more have seen the world-famous GM show in Canada and 25 foreign countries, including special presentations made overseas at the request of the U. S. Department of Commerce. Featured in the current show are several energy conversion demonstrations—gas turbine engines, fuel cells and solar cells. Fuel cells convert chemical energy into electrical power and solar cells change sunlight into usable energy.

Another sequence, based on information obtained over the years in GM automotive safety engineering tests, emphasizes the importance of wearing seat belts when driving or riding in an automobile.

In all, students will see nine research-in-action demonstrations. "Previews" has received wide acclaim from educators and civic organizations for its efforts in encouraging more student interest in technical career opportunities.

Chelsea's heavyweight, Jim Ian, went on the mat to pin man and did just that in second round to make the score 27-14.

Chelsea traveled to Adrian night for the last dual meet of the season.

Saturday the Bulldogs are host for the Southeastern Conference Tournament as all six teams assemble here to determine team and individual champions. Chelsea leads the conference now, followed by second-place Dexter, then South Union and Saline for third, with Dundee and Ionia trailing.

Preliminary rounds in the and evening affair will start 2 p.m. The consolation finals begin at 7 p.m., with the championships at 8 o'clock.

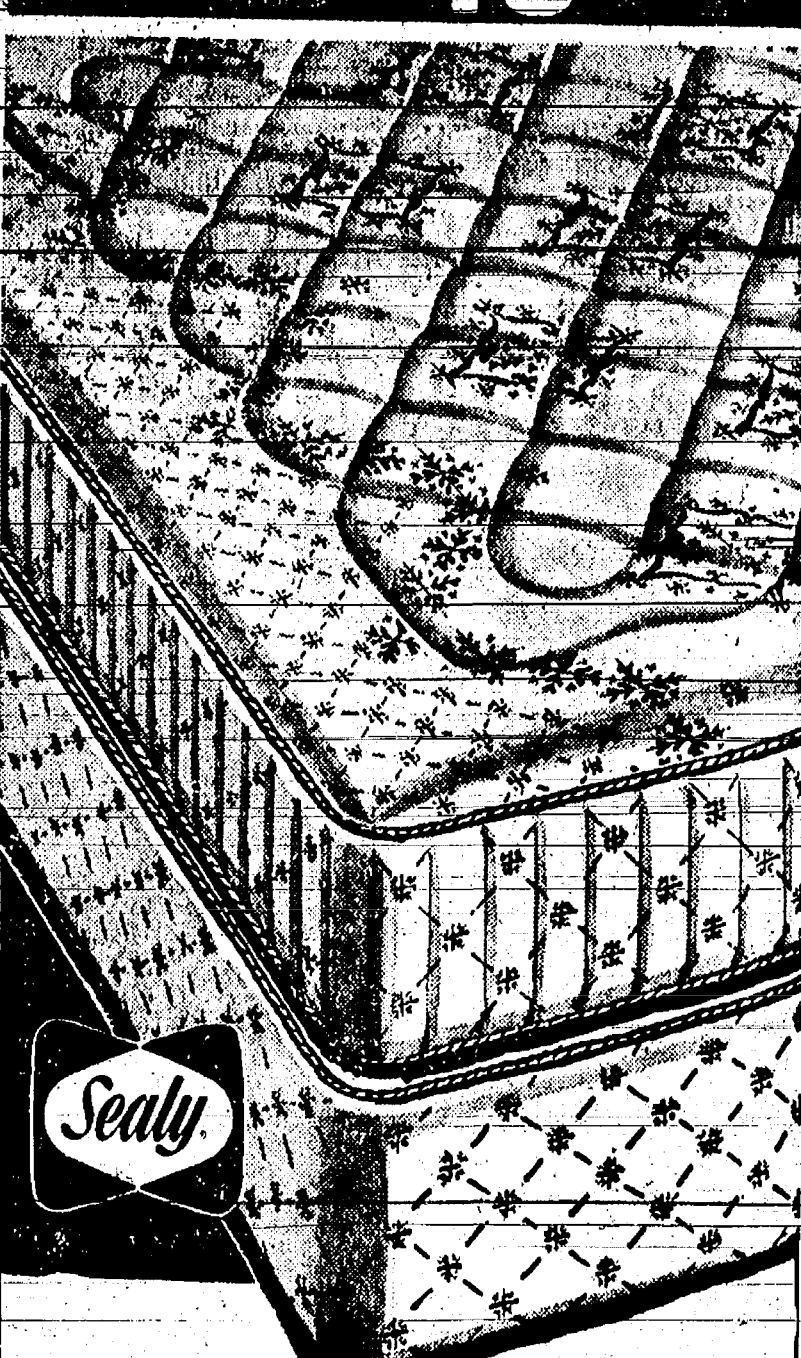

As wrestlers are eliminated early rounds, they will set stage for the championship matches, which this year, should several rematches of the Chelsea-Dexter dual meet. While other teams have excellent chances for champions in some weight classes, the strength of the league is mainly with Chelsea and Dexter.

For Chelsea, the tournament will be the last home appearance of several seniors who have led the tough center of the Chelsea squad. Co-Captains M. Hendricks and Lauren Boyer are closing out four years of varsity competition. Mark Laneau and Paul Stahl have been varsity regulars for three years. Worden, a conference champion last year and plagued with injuries this season, Bill Lounsbury and John McKeighan are seniors on the squad that is closing out its most successful season in the five years wrestling has been a Bulldog varsity sport.

AGRICULTURE In Action

by M. L. Wolf

Pitchforks - Beards

Not all college students are inferior hippies—and not all farmers are bearded, worn-down types. In fact, very few farmers or students are anything at all as stereotyped by those who write about them, or draw cartoons depicting them.

Thousands of farmers taking part in the recent Farmers'
Week event at Michigan State University looked pretty much like anybody else, except that they were somewhat older than the general run of students. Many were happily returning to their campus for a kind of annual professional business reunion.

Some, of course, have farm backgrounds—after all, Michigan State University remains one of the nation's great agricultural colleges, world renowned for farm research. But as is true of our total population, the vast majority are anything but agricultural oriented, and to many students a farm remains among life's great mysteries.

How unfortunate this is may be seen in the attitude of a few toward the visiting farmers themselves. Some (naturally enough) resented the extra crowding of an already crowded campus. A student publication poked some not-so-gentle humor at the whole affair and featured a frontispiece based on the classic Grant Wood painting of the stern-faced farm people, with the farmer holding a pitchfork, wrong-end up. Other illustrations showed the farmer again, with hoe or pitchfork becked-out in a disreputable, ill-fitting overalls, and believe it or not—a shaggy beard.

Amid the hub-bub, came the announcement that next year Farmers' Week will be held between terms in mid-March—at the time of the University's spring recess.

In a way, this practical suggestion is unfortunate—for the new dates side-step any real student-farmer involvement, and remove one of the few chances a co-ed from New York, or of a political science major from Boston, has to meet real live, educated farmers without straw hat, pitchforks or beards.

Highway Hazards-

Getting the Axe

Lansing—Work will start soon to remove some 1,300 trees that represent a hazard to traffic on US-10, M-50 and M-10 in Jackson, Hillsdale and Washtenaw counties.

The work is part of a continuing State Highway Commission safety program to eliminate roadside hazards.

Safety experts estimate that about 30 fatal automobile accidents in Michigan last year might have resulted in only minor damage to cars except for the presence of trees near the roadway.

Careless typewriting, or type-setting adds many new, and sometimes luscious words to the language.

One of the most frequently quoted statements of Christ is his invitation: "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

The rest which Christ offers in these words is, of course, not the immediate freedom from all the cares and trials of life.

Ours is a difficult world, and on the way through it we meet many trying and painful experiences. It is not a rest from trial which Christ offers but a rest in trial.

It is the rest and peace which come from knowing that sins are forgiven. It is that deeper rest and peace which come from knowing that we are God's children, forgiven because of the life and death of Christ.

The person who has found pardon through faith in Christ has found a peace and rest which are truly wonderful. There is nothing that can harm that person. Sickness, trouble—none of these can disturb that rest which comes from the conviction, "I am at peace with God."

Many people are living lives of futility and frustration. Some are on the verge of despair. All are in need of the assurance of the Gospel Message... that God loves every man, woman and child.

Peace, rest, quiet, confidence—these are to be found in Christ's invitation "Come unto Me... and I will give you rest."

Worship with us during Lent and on each Lord's Day.

JV Cagers Lose Close S. Lyon Game

The Chelsea Junior Varsity basketball team lost to South Lyon last Friday evening by a final score of 57 to 53.

Chelsea's loss was caused by too many fouls in the second and final quarters of the game. Nevertheless, the JV's played a very good game.

Action got underway with Chelsea opening the scoring on a foul shot. Then the Little Lions got hot for a few seconds and dumped in a couple of fast field goals to take the lead. Chelsea kept the score close, however, and Jim Wojcicki soon brought up a 6-0 tie. South Lyon broke the tie, but the Bulldogs kept hot on their heels and the game remained very close for the next few minutes. In the closing minutes of the first quarter, South Lyon poured on a little more speed, picking up a substantial lead over Chelsea. They held the lead at the end of the first quarter with a 20 to 13 score.

The Bulldogs wasted no time in narrowing up South Lyon's lead as they picked up several quick points in the early minutes of the second quarter. But the Lions stayed ahead to hold a seven-point lead at half-time with a 34-27 score.

The third quarter saw the little Bulldogs playing well-defensively, but the Little Lions maintained their lead. In the final quarter, the Bulldogs offense went into action and started narrowing up South Lyon's lead. But fouls really hurt Chelsea in the final quarter, for the Lions picked up five points on four shots — enough to win the game.

Percentage-wise, the Lions shot a little better than Chelsea, averaging from 36 to 38 percent, while Chelsea shot between 25 and 30 percent. Leading in the scoring for Chelsea was David Conklin, who picked up a total of 19 points. Jim Wojcicki followed with eight points. Other individual scores were as follows: Leonard Kozina, six points; Dan Wenk, four points; John Taylor, four points; Art Farley, three points; Floyd Boyce, three points; Ned Blacklaw, three points; Mike Bassett, two points; and Karsten Kargel, one point.

The JV's will meet the Saline JV's Friday night at home.

Maple Grove Cemetery Association Elects At Annual Meeting

Maple Grove Cemetery Association held its annual meeting Friday, Feb. 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Heydlauff. The following officers were elected: Alfred West, president; Carlton Haffey, treasurer; and Mrs. Willis Heydlauff, secretary.

Albert Norton, Jr., was elected to fill Carlton Haffey's unexpired term as trustee for 1968-69. Rachel Welch, Floyd Bailey and George Kitchell were elected trustees for 1968-70.

The Association would like to have people who do not have perpetual care on their lots to put it on, if at all possible. More information on perpetual care is available from Mrs. Willis Heydlauff.

GREEK VISITOR: Gerry Theocatos (seated, center) of Athens, Greece, visited Chelsea High school Friday, Feb. 16 to thank the Chelsea Hi-Y for its gift of money to the Athens YMCA library last year. Theocatos, director of the Athens YMCA, is staying in Detroit while he is in the United States. He is shown talking to Tri-Hi-Y members, representing the Hi-Y, which has been inactive this year. From left are Char Powers, Linda Farmakis, Principal Charles Lane, Theocatos, John Williams and Mrs. Gibb. Ann Arbor YMCA representatives who accompanied Theocatos to Chelsea, Angie Cavados and Marilyn Hinderer.

Bulldogs Lose To South Lyon In 67-64 Game

A valiant, final quarter effort came a little too late for the Chelsea Bulldogs last Friday evening, and South Lyon emerged with a 67 to 64 victory over Chelsea in an intensely close and exciting game. It was, perhaps, one of Chelsea's finest games of the season, despite the fact that the Bulldogs lost, according to Coach Terry Pokela. The Bulldogs, losing on a foul, came from behind twice in the second-half to take the lead from South Lyon.

South Lyon got things started in the early minutes of the first quarter, opening the scoring on a field goal. Jack Risner returned, dumping in a field goal for Chelsea, to bring up a 2-2 tie. Rob Powers put in another field goal to give Chelsea the lead, but South Lyon wasted no time in tying the score again. Again, Rob Powers broke the tie for Chelsea, and the Bulldogs held a small lead over the Lions for the next few minutes. With 30 seconds left in the quarter, South Lyon brought up a 9-9 tie. Larry Gaken put in a field goal to give Chelsea the lead and, at the end of the first quarter, the Bulldogs held a two-point advantage over South Lyon with an 11 to 9 score.

Chelsea held its two-point lead over South Lyon during the first portion of the second quarter but, midway in the quarter, the Lions tied the game, 13-13. Again, Chelsea broke the tie, this time on a field goal, dumped in by Lance Burghardt. The game remained very close for the next few minutes. Then, in the last minute of the half, the Bulldogs went into action and picked up a good lead over South Lyon, with John Lixey and John Freeman leading in the scoring. The Bulldogs were ahead at halftime with a 31 to 24 score. South Lyon started catching up in the early minutes of the third quarter, and the Lions soon held a small lead over Chelsea. Poulos were especially costly to the Bulldogs in this quarter, but they fired on to trail by only three points at the end of the third quarter, with a 49 to 46 score.

South Lyon managed to hold on to its lead throughout the first portion of the final quarter but, midway in the quarter, the Bulldogs brought up a 59-59 tie. Rob Powers picked up a one-point lead for Chelsea on a foul shot, but the Lions returned to regain the lead on foul shots. The Lions held the lead throughout the remainder of the game, despite a last-second attempt by the Bulldogs to tie up the score and go for overtime.

The leading scorers for Chelsea were John Lixey, with 10 points, John Freeman and Larry Gaken, followed with 10 points each. Rob Powers contributed nine points and Jack Risner put in eight points. Other individual scores were as follows: Mike Schindt, four points; Doug Weatherwax, three points; Roy Holliday, three points; Lance Burghardt, two points; and Gary Ellenwood, two points.

Friday night, the Bulldogs will clash with Saline in a home conference game.

TOOTHLESS TIP

Tooth fallout is a major adult problem. Most often the cause is severe gum irritation from accumulated food particles between teeth which the toothbrush can't reach. Gums break down, loosen hold on teeth, with resulting fallout. Daily use of gentle interdental stimulators dislodges particles, keeps gums strong.

Hot water costs less with Gas.

Today you need more hot water than ever before. And you can have it. All the hot water you want. Oceans of it. Hot as you like it. For just pennies a day with Gas.

Only Gas gives you so much hot water for so little. Saves dollars over electricity. In fact, a Gas water heater turns out more hot water in one day than an electric one twice its size.

So, if you've been running short of hot water at your house, check into the new instruction Gas water heaters at your plumber's or your plumbing and heating dealer's. Or, if you wish, call us. You can have all the hot water you want for less than you'd imagine.

Gas makes the big difference... costs less too!

Foothold™! CONTOUR INSOLE

Most comfortable part of your uniform! Sturdy, dressy Wolverine Action Shoes are comfortable as they look. Exclusive inside story is this Foothold Contour Insole action.

Here's how it works: 1) the contoured heel cradles back of the foot firmly; 2) arch is naturally contoured; 3) ball of insole keeps your entire foot in correct position; and 4) the flat forepart lets your toes move naturally. Come in and try on the service Oxford. You'll forget you're wearing — this new Wolverine Action Shoe!
